

Campus Master 1391

Chapter 1391

On the road outside the town, Ji Feng and the others moved steadily forward, their faces grim with a stern aura.

Not far from them was the head of the beast, the stout man.

Seeing Ji Feng and the others step by step, the stout strong man subconsciously backed up slowly, his face even more grave and a touch pale.

Both shoulders had been pierced by bullets, and it was already quite good that he was able to hold back from screaming out, but that pain was still in his body after all, and his face naturally couldn't look any better.

"Humph!"

Seeing this, Lu Gang couldn't help but snort coldly, a look of mockery in his eyes, "Outlaw, if you're not afraid of death, why do you still want to retreat?"

The stout, strong man's face was gloomy and his eyes were hostile as he clenched his teeth without uttering a word, only backing away slowly.

At the same time, his eyes were flickering slightly, as if he was looking for something.

"You don't need to look for anything, nor do you need to look any further, all your men are now lying on the ground and ....." Lu Gang smiled heatedly, "You will soon be going down to accompany them, outlaw!"

The stout, strong man, however, did not react to Lu Gang's words, he was only slowly backing away.

Ka ka ka!

Ji Feng directly pulled the bolt of the gun, holding the rifle in one hand, and advanced in stride.

"Ka ka ka~!" Lu Gang similarly pulled the bolt of his rifle and laughed fiercely, "Son of a bitch, still want to fight back again? Or hold us hostage again? You've lost both your hands, can you hold a gun? Let's see what you're going to threaten with this time!"

The burly man snapped at him with a look of resentment in his eyes, "It was you who deserved to die today!"

Lu Gang snorted, "Why does it have to be us who deserve to die? I think you're the one who deserved to die! Aren't the lives of these peasants lives? You can kill them whenever you like? Bastard, how dare you say such things to me!"

"How can there be a war where people don't die?" The burly man laughed coldly, and his eyes grew more and more spiteful: "If you hadn't taken my men out step by step, it would have been you who died now! All these mud-legged people, all of them would die too!"

"Holy shit!"

Lu Gang was instantly furious, he casually brought his gun up, aimed it at one of the burly man's arms and pulled the trigger violently.

Ta-da-da-da .....

The bullet was all fired in one breath.

And the burly man's arm was hit with blood and flesh, the whole arm was almost completely smashed!

"Ah...!" He could no longer hold back and let out a miserable scream.

"Son of a bitch, you so-called desperado knows pain too? Don't scream if you have the guts!" Lu Gang cursed angrily, his eyes rising with murderous intent, thinking about what this beast had done, Lu Gang wanted to shoot him right now!

"What's your name? Who sent you here?" Ji Feng arrived in front of the burly man and stared at him for a long time before suddenly opening his mouth and asking indifferently.

Ji Feng's tone was calm, sounding without the slightest bit of fire, as if he was talking to a no more ordinary stranger, just that kind of simple enquiry.

However, the stout man's miserable scream came to an abrupt end.

It was because he heard an ice-cold murderous intent from Ji Feng's words, causing the sweat hairs on his body to stand up instantly.

"Huff~~huff~~"

The extreme pain of having one arm smashed caused the stout strong man to pant violently, his face pale, beads of sweat continuously dripping down on his forehead, and that stout body, even more violently, trembled.

"Pop!"

Ji Feng grabbed the stout man's battered arm and casually shook it, "Answer me!"

"Ah...!"

A hysterical scream once again came out of the stout man's mouth, his eyes were staring outwards with dead eyes, as if they were a pair of dead fish eyes, his mouth was open wide, and his vocal cords rose high in his neck, showing how hysterical he was roaring.

The pain Ji Feng had brought him with this grab was absolutely heartbreaking!

"If you don't answer, you probably won't be able to keep your other arm either!" Ji Feng said with a calm expression, his hand gradually exerting force, bringing inhuman torture to that stout man, but it was as if he was only doing something that was no more than insignificant.

"Oooh~~~Hooo~~~"

The burly man was trembling in pain, and a strange low roar came out of his mouth, he was really suffering to the extreme.

“Say!”

Ji Feng’s tone was still very flat.

“Yes, if you have the guts, you can kill me!” The burly man couldn’t even speak properly, the intense pain made his whole body tremble non-stop, and it even looked like if Ji Feng hadn’t grabbed his arm, he would have fallen to the ground!

Ji Feng smiled and nodded: “Fine! Since you’ve asked for it how you want, then I’ll do as you wish!”

Saying that, he smiled slightly and turned his head again, “Old Yi, give me a dagger!”

Yi Xingchen immediately pulled out a dagger from his military boots, the sharp edge still reflected an eerie cold light that gave people goosebumps just by looking at it.

Ji Feng took the dagger and looked at the burly man and asked, “How do you want to die? One slash to death, or death by a thousand cuts?”

“Kill him by a thousand cuts!” Lu Gang roared, “This son of a bitch deserves to be killed like this!”

“Whatever!”

The burly man was still trying to be a tough guy, gritting his teeth with a stiff neck.

Poof!

As soon as his words left his mouth, Ji Feng casually stabbed over with a knife.

In the next moment, the incomparably sharp dagger, at once, pierced through the other elbow of that stout man!

“..... ah-!”

The burly man’s eyes instantly stared dead in the face and roared in agony.

Ji Feng was expressionless, only to see his wrist begin to turn, holding the dagger in the crook of that burly man’s arm, stirring it up, blood flowing, while that pain was something that made one’s scalp explode just thinking about it!

Shout!

As if Ji Feng didn’t hear that strong man’s miserable scream, with a flick of his wrist, the dagger directly cut the large tendon in the bend of the other man’s arm.

“Ah .....”

The sturdy man’s body almost spasmed in pain, and his body kept writhing, and one foot tried to kick over as if on condition, but it was blocked by Ji Feng’s gently raised leg.

“Do you want to continue?” Ji Feng asked.

The strong man was trembling with pain and couldn’t even answer Ji Feng.

An icy murderous look flashed in Ji Feng’s eyes as he gripped his dagger and suddenly moved.

swish swish swish .....

Ji Feng stood in front of that strong man, his body didn't even move, but that one hand was flying up and down, even Lu Gang and Yi Xingchen, who were a meter or two away next to him, couldn't see his movements, they could only see his two hands moving, there was a shadow .....

Shout!

Another soft sound, Ji Feng suddenly stopped his hands, he jerked back a step and stood still, staring coldly at the sturdy man.

Yi Xingchen and Lu Gang both didn't quite understand because they hadn't seen Ji Feng's movements clearly before, they just knew that Ji Feng must have stabbed many times into this stout man's body, but what kind of effect he had ultimately achieved was not quite clear.

"Poof!" A sound.

A gap suddenly opened up in the burly man's shoulder, and the bright red flesh mixed with blood turned outwards, vaguely revealing the white bones inside.

Poof! Poof!

Two more soft sounds, his other shoulder, as well as at his collarbone, also similarly the skin and flesh turned over, blood slowly flowed down, still able to see some bones ..... are deep bone visible wounds, moreover, this strong man's tendons were obviously also picked off!

Next to Lu Gang and Yi Xingchen, can not help but the corners of the eyes jumped twice!

Yet, this was not the end of it.

With all these wounds cracked, the body of that sturdy strong man was like a firecracker had been set alight, only to hear a series of sounds ringing out.

Poof!

Poof, poof, poof!

Wounds kept appearing on that burly man's body, flesh and skin splitting, large tendons being cut, wounds so deep that you could clearly see the gnarled white bones .....

Shoulders, collarbones, chest, lumbar vertebrae, hip bones, knees .....

But all the important joints on this sturdy man's body, all of them had wounds split open, each wound, so ghastly that his whole body seemed to be lynched!

Looking at the stout man's face, apart from being pale, there was not the slightest wound, everything was as if he was a normal person.

The next moment, however, he felt his body go limp and his whole body began to fall down, and a scene that made people's bodies tingle and their skulls explode appeared!

Because the large tendons had been cut and so many wounds were in critical areas, the muscles on his body alone could no longer support that strong man's heavy body, so his flesh began to be gradually torn from those gaping wounds, and his body sank inch by inch.

The knees were misplaced, tearing the muscles from his calves alive, white bone pushing against the outside!

The muscles of the hipbone were torn by the weight of the upper body, exposing the ghastly white waistbone!

The flesh near the collarbone and on the chest was torn by the weight of the head, exposing the ghastly white bones .....

This sturdy, strong man was, to my surprise, dismembered alive!

Barf!

As if he had become a puddle of mush, he fell limply to the ground, his eyes staring dead, his eyes filled with disbelief and a strong sense of shock, as if he had been extremely frightened!

However, his chest was still rising and falling slightly, proving that he was not dead yet.

Ji Feng stepped on his face and moved his toes to set his face straight. Now he couldn't move anything else except his mouth, his eyelids and eyes, so even with his trachea being pressed, he couldn't move.

But now Ji Feng wasn't going to let him die yet, so he had to set his head straight.

And then, with a calm face, Ji Feng squatted down and stared at the burly man, saying indifferently, "This move, is called living dismemberment, you should be honored because this is the first time I use this tactic against someone else, so you pulled out the top!"

That sturdy strong man at this time, except for breathing, the whole person seems to have lost any consciousness, and it is not known whether it is painful, or he is scared silly .....

Chapter 1392

The bloody scene had stunned both Lu Gang and Yi Xing Chen!

They were not people who had never seen blood before, especially Yi Xingchen, who was once the leader of a mercenary group and had participated in almost countless battles, so they were used to seeing dead people.

However, this scene in front of them made their hearts jerk!

Ji Feng had actually dismembered this sturdy man with just a dagger!

That cold-hearted method was harsh and vicious!

What shocked them even more was Ji Feng's terrifying dismemberment skills.

They had only seen Ji Feng standing still before, just flipping one hand up and down, and it was over in just a few seconds.

However, within these few seconds, a big living person was actually dismembered!

Collarbone, waist bone, knee .....

All of them were the most important joint parts, the big tendons were picked off and the muscles were cut through a small gash.

Yet it was this small cut that became the starting point for the muscles to be torn apart!

At this time, the weight of the body instead became the most fatal flaw, the heavier the body, the faster it was dismembered, because its own weight alone was enough to tear the muscles from the body!

Ji Feng just cut a few slashes on that sturdy man's body .....

This is the same as, is Ji Feng gave the opponent a starting point for dismemberment at the place where the opponent should bear the most weight, and then, he let the opponent watch his own weight, dismembering himself .....

The two of them could not help but subconsciously glance at each other, and then, they immediately averted their eyes and looked at the stout strong man who was as limp as a puddle of mud on the ground, and both of them could not help but have some chills rising in their hearts, this kind of tactic was really unheard of and too severe!

However, seeing this beastly leader being treated in such a way, Lu Gang and the two of them felt quite relieved in their hearts.

"Painful!" In his shock, Lu Gang could not help but wave his fist violently, his face full of excitement, his heart soothed to the core despite the wound on his shoulder being stretched.

Damn it!

This brute of a leader had killed without batting an eye before, and he had killed those unarmed peasants who were scared to death, he didn't treat other people's lives as lives, now it was really too cheap to shoot him with one shot.

It was too much of a relief for Ji Feng to do that!

Lu Gang smiled grimly and stared at the burly man, unable to resist cursing, "Holy shit, I'll see how you're going to be an outlaw now!

However, Yi Xingchen noticed something else – after the burly man had been dismembered, he was as limp as a puddle of mud on the ground, yet, only a very small amount of blood actually flowed from his wounds!

Could this guy be a reformed human?

Yi Xing Chen stared at the burly man for a long time, his flesh was outwardly turned, the flesh was bright red and the bones were morbidly white, all this meant that he was a normal person, or at least there were no signs of a reformed person!

"I could have gotten the answers I wanted to know directly from you, but I'm not willing to let you turn into a fool so comfortably!" Ji Feng squatted on the ground and stared at that stout man, at this moment, the latter's eyes were filled with extreme fear, looking at Ji Feng as if he had seen a demon from hell, his lips were trembling and oozing, enough to see how scared he was!

"Even if I dismember you, I'm still not relieved!" Ji Feng's face was calm and the tone of his voice was also very calm, but the stout man could feel the cold killing spirit in his words!

"What's wrong with those farmers? Are they pigs or dogs in your eyes? Are they something you can kill whenever you want?!" Ji Feng asked indifferently.

"....."

The stout strong man's eyes were filled with horror, his lips trembled, but he couldn't say a word.

"So, when I dismembered you, I only cut your big tendons, and didn't cut your veins along with them!"

Ji Feng said indifferently, "So you won't be able to die in a short time, well, with your physical strength, you should still be able to last for a few hours or even a day or two, it's not impossible! So take your time and enjoy the rest of your life, what follows will be a very pleasant experience ..... enjoy it!"

Ji Feng smiled faintly and stood up.

"Beg ..... beg ....., " the burly man's lips twitched and he said something in a vague manner.

Ji Feng asked, "Beg for what? Let me save you? Or do you think I was a little too quick to strike just now and didn't feel what it was like to let me do it all over again?!"

One more time?!

The corners of the stout man's mouth twitched subconsciously as he said with difficulty, "Please ..... beg you ..... to give me a pain!"

"Want pain?" Ji Feng harrumphed, "Isn't it painful enough now? Originally, according to my idea, it was intended to cut you to death by a thousand cuts, didn't you yourself say that you weren't afraid? Now it's just dismemberment, what are you afraid of?"

Originally, according to Ji Feng's intention, he was going to cut this beast to death by a thousand cuts, or even worse, make him taste what it means to suffer!

When it came to killing, Ji Feng was definitely not a weak person, but the training he received was all about killing with one move, and there were rarely any painful methods of torturing people, unless it was with bio-currents!

So, all Ji Feng could do was use some of the things he had learnt and try his best to inflict maximum damage!

Obviously, now he had done it!

When it came to understanding the human body, Ji Feng was absolutely skilful, originally, he had learned these only for self-healing and for killing his enemies, but now, it was being used as a form of torture on this sturdy man!

Just because this beast had done these brutal things, he deserved to be killed by a thousand cuts, and Ji Feng felt that treating him like this now was cheap!

Still want pain?

..... is simply delusional!

The first thing you can do is to get a good idea of what you want. Now you want me to give you a hard time, dream on!"

"You ..... you ....." The stout strong man's lips trembled even more, and his chest rose and fell violently.

"By the way!"

Ji Feng suddenly remembered something, he casually took out a plastic bottle from his pocket, poured out a pill from it, and first waved it in front of the stout man's eyes so that he could see it clearly. And then, Ji Feng put that pill on the ground by the other man's head.

"See clearly, right?" Ji Feng asked, pointing at the pill and saying, "This is a life-saving medicine, if you take it, you should be able to last until someone else comes to save you! But, only if you can take it."

He smiled faintly, "So ..... try to turn your head, if you can, you will live!"

And then, he placed a pistol on the other side of the burly man's head and said, "On one side is a life-saving medicine, on the other is a gun for suicide, if you want to live, if you want to be in pain, you can choose for yourself!"

"Please ....."

The stout, strong man said with difficulty, "Please kill me!"

"You haven't even answered my question, why should I kill you?" Ji Feng asked.

"Back to ..... answer .....", the stout strong man said in a panic.

"Really answer?!" Ji Feng asked.

"..... really!" The stout strong man's eyes revealed a strong sense of sadness and resentment, and more than that, he was still terrified, believing that if he could act, he would have casually grabbed the pistol by his head and either finished off Ji Feng with a single shot or simply killed himself, anyway, he would never have suffered such humiliation!

But unfortunately, right now, he couldn't move a muscle, he was at Ji Feng's mercy!

So, he could only bow his head!

"Well then, let me ask you, your name, origin, purpose ..... you should understand what I want to know, tell me all about it!" Ji Feng said indifferently.

"..... I, I ....."

The burly man didn't dare to hesitate and spoke up with difficulty.

.....

Meanwhile, in a villa in Yuezhou, Qian Bin was anxiously waiting for the results.

Just half an hour ago, he received a phone call, and the person he sent out said that he had intercepted the other party's group and would soon be able to do away with Ma Bu Zhou!

From that moment on, Qian Bin was caught up in an anxious wait, he both wanted the news and didn't want it ..... His complicated feelings could not be explained in a simple sentence or two.

I can't believe they're going after their own uncle .....

Although not the kind of maternal uncle that is particularly close, but, after all, Ma Bu Zhou is his own uncle, nephew to uncle, that will be struck by heaven!

What's more, Qian Bin has realized that both Ma Bu Zhou and himself are actually tools in the hands of others, and that's the saddest thing of all!

So for a few moments, some extremely decisive thoughts even flashed through Qian Bin's mind.

"The most important thing is that you have to be able to use your own personal information to get rid of the problem.

But he also knows that now that he is in the boat, he can't get out, because he is not alone, he has his father and his family above him .....

Gritting his teeth, Qian Bin still took out his phone and found the number sent by Wu Shao ..... In fact, those people who blocked Ma Bu Zhou were not sent there by Qian Bin, but by people arranged by Wu Shao, only that Wu Shao had given all the people to Qian Bin to command, while he himself had skipped out!

"Beep ....."

The phone went through, but no one had picked up yet.

Qian Bin frowned, was the operation still not over?

"Hello ....." Suddenly, a low voice came through and Qian Bin's heart snapped tight.

"It's me, Qian Bin. How's the situation?" Qianbin asked in a low voice.

"The situation is very bad, all your men are almost dead!" The voice on the phone caused Qian Bin's eyes to snapped open, the voice...

Chapter 1393

"Who are you?!"

Qian Bin's breathing almost stopped as he asked with a sullen face and a low voice.

The voice coming from this phone was definitely not the one arranged by Young Wu, but someone else. Moreover, listening to the other party's tone of voice, it seemed that the person arranged by Young Wu had already been ..... killed by them!

Qian Bin's heart was instantly shocked!

When Wu Shao called him earlier, he said that the gunmen who intercepted that horse were all elites and there were so many of them that even if there were seven or eight of them, the other party could only be captured!

Of course, Qian Bin also knew that both he and Wu had given deadly orders to those people not to harm the life of that person, otherwise, this southern Guangdong would be turned upside down!

But Ma Bu Zhou would definitely not be saved, there was no doubt about it, no one could be safe and sound with so many guns pointed at them!

However, Qian Bin now received a call from a stranger, and it was obvious that this stranger was the same group of people they were after.

“Who the hell are you!” Qian Bin asked in a deep voice, “Do you know what you’re talking about, killing is against the law, what have you done to my friend?”

Although he already knew what was going on in his heart, but the official words should still be said, at least, definitely not to leave any handle on the other side, who knows if the other side had the phone recording on at this time?

“Murder against the law? Ha .....

The person on the other end of the phone burst into laughter: “Qian Bin, you also know that killing is against the law? You still have the face to say that?”

“Who the hell are you?!” Qian Bin felt very uneasy in his heart, as he was vaguely aware that the person who was talking at the other end of the phone should be the one he was most scornful of .....

“Ji Feng!”

A resounding voice came from the other end of the phone, “I’m a student of Jiangzhou United University, Ji Feng!”

Sure enough!

Qian Bin’s face instantly changed, and the hand holding the phone couldn’t help but shake: “Ji, Ji Feng? I, we don’t seem to know each other, do we?”

Ji Feng actually dared to talk to him directly over the phone and admit that he was Ji Feng, which made Qian Bin surprised. You know, they could find Ji Feng’s location by locating him on the phone whenever they wanted to!

So to say that Ji Feng did this surprised Qian Bin and made his heart very uneasy.

Was he being reckless, or was he emboldened?

“Yes, I don’t know him, but I think we’ll get to know each other soon!” Ji Feng’s faint voice came over.

“What do you mean by that?” Qian Bin asked.

“What do you mean .....

this I can all understand, but ....." Ji Feng's voice became low, which vaguely carried a wave of anger: "But, the people you sent here actually dared to kill those unarmed civilians with impunity, and use this to blackmail me, just by this, I will not let you go!"

"You, what are you saying?!" Qian Bin was instantly shocked beyond belief, "There were ordinary civilians killed? How is this possible?! I am ....." Ji Feng, are you mistaken?"

"Do you want me to send you the photos of these people who were killed at the scene?!" Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

"....." Qian Bin fell silent.

At this moment, he suddenly understood why Ji Feng dared to answer his phone call, and even dared to directly and recklessly report his name and blatantly say such threatening words over the phone.

Ji Feng was enraged!

Killing civilians, it must be this matter that has enraged Ji Feng, from Ji Feng's voice you could hear that Ji Feng was obviously forcing down the anger in his heart right now, otherwise, he definitely wouldn't have recklessly said over the phone that the people he had sent, were all killed!

"Wait for it!" A final resounding word from Ji Feng came over the phone, and then, it was hung up!

Qian Bin held the phone with a pang of frustration, his brows furrowed.

Ji Feng was furious!

And, he had blatantly threatened himself over the phone, enough to show his determination!

"Son of a bitch!" Qian Bin suddenly became furious and kicked the coffee table in front of him away as he roared, "A bunch of bastards!"

His chest rose and fell violently as he picked up the phone and dialed Young Wu.

"Xiao Bin ....."

"Shao Wu, how can that gang lay their hands on civilians?" As soon as he picked up the phone, Qian Bin asked angrily, "Just for the sake of a Ma Bu Zhou, they can unscrupulously lay hands on civilians?"

"What are you talking about!" Young Wu's voice on the other end of the phone sank, "Xiao Bin, I think you've had too much to drink, haven't you?!"

"Young Wu, you don't need to hide it from me either!" Qian Bin eased his breathing and shook his head, "I just got off the phone with Ji Feng, the gang you sent, not only did they fail to catch Ma Bu Zhou, but they were all exterminated by Ji Feng ....."

"What?!"

Wu Shao also couldn't help but be shocked: "Those people were exterminated? What about Ma Bu Zhou?"

"Young Wu, why don't you ask those civilians first?" Qian Bin asked.

“Qian Bin!”

Young Wu’s voice was incomparably low as he let out a low bellow, “Watch your words a little, don’t forget what you’re standing for when you speak! In order to achieve your goal, there is no excuse for using some drastic means when doing things! What’s more, do you understand the exact situation on the ground? How do you know that those civilians must have been killed by the people I sent there? Couldn’t it be that Ji Feng killed them and then he deliberately planted evidence to frame them?!”

“.....” Qian Bin was silent.

Ji Feng killed it?

Qian Bin couldn’t help but secretly shake his head and sneer in his heart, he hadn’t lost his judgment yet!

What’s more, what Wu Shao said just now was enough to explain the problem – in order to achieve his goal, it was unjustifiable to use some drastic means when doing things!

For someone who could say such words, what would the people he sent to do?

“Xiao Bin, you should always be clear about your position, if you let Ma Bu Zhou fall into Ji Feng’s hands, you should know better than me what the consequences would be!” Hearing Qian Bin’s silence, Wu Shao’s voice also lowered, “Either, is to do everything possible to silence Ma Bu Zhou, of course there may be some accidents in the middle of this, and there can be people who will be unnecessarily hurt because of this, but this is all hopeless!”

“Either that, or a large number of us will go down with Ma Bu Zhou’s opening!” Wu Shao said, “Which is more important in between, can’t you still tell the difference?”

“..... I can tell the difference clearly!” Qian Bin said.

“It’s best to be able to distinguish clearly, well, let’s leave this topic for now, I will deal with it.” Wu Shao said, “Other than that, what else did you talk about?”

“Who?” Qian Bin was stunned.

“You spoke with Ji Feng, what else did you talk about!” Shao Wu asked.

“Also talked about ..... him telling me to wait!” Qian Bin said. Thinking of Ji Feng’s murderous words before hanging up the phone, Qian Bin’s heart sank, he had a hunch that Ji Feng seemed to be about to make a big move!

“Let you wait?”

Wu Shao was a bit puzzled, and he couldn’t help but ask, “Is he coming for you? Or is he going to do something with this matter?”

“That I don’t know, because I don’t know him at all!” Qian Bin said.

“..... Alright then, for now, keep a close eye on this matter! If necessary, you can strike hard, understand what I mean?”

“You mean, you can take out Ji Feng if necessary?” Qian Bin asked.

“Qian Bin, you’re talking too much!” Wu Shao said in a deep voice at once.

Qian Bin immediately said, “I understand.”

“Well! Remember, since things have come to this point, if you don’t want your head to fall, then you have to shut Ma Bu Zhou up! Any problems you encounter in the process must be solved and any difficulties must be overcome!” When Young Wu finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

Listening to the burst of busy sounds coming from the phone, Qian Bin was silent for a moment before he sighed.

“Young Wu is scared!”

Qian Bin couldn’t help but shake his head, he could hear that after Wu Shao learned about this matter, fear had also arisen in his heart.

Even .....

are starting to show some signs of a dog jumping to the wall!

“And what will Ji Feng do?” Qian Bin couldn’t help but sigh lightly, “Does he really dare to come to Yuezhou to look for me? For him, this Yuezhou is a dragon’s den, and when he comes, he won’t be able to leave easily ..... unless he leaves Ma Bu Zhou!”

.....

Pop!

Hanging up the phone, Ji Feng took off the memory card of the phone, and then put the phone back into the pocket of the burly man: “The phone is good, there is also a phone recording function .....”

“I, I’ve said it all ..... give me a pain!” That stout strong man was however drenched in sweat and his forehead was full of cold sweat, because every second he had to suffer the pain of being dismembered, that would be absolutely inhuman torture for anyone!

Ji Feng shook his head, “Since you’ve said it all, it’s of no use to me, so why should I give you a pain?”

Looking at the stout man’s wide-eyed eyes, he smiled coldly, “Slowly stay here and wait to die! You will gradually feel the approach of death, I believe you have never experienced this feeling before, but until then, this is what you bring to these peasants ..... to hell is to make amends to them!”

“Well .....” the stout strong man still wanted to say something, but Ji Feng tore a piece of cloth off him and stuffed it in his mouth, he could only make a whimpering sound, but he couldn’t say a word.

Standing up, Ji Feng said, “Old Yi, Lu Gang, we’re not leaving!”

“What?” Both of them were slightly stunned and didn’t understand what Ji Feng said for a while.

“There must still be quite a few people in the town under the control of the bandits, we have to get those people out first!” Ji Feng said in a deep voice, “Then, we’ll kill back to Yuezhou!”

“Kill back?!”

Chapter 1394

“That’s right! Kill it back!” Ji Feng nodded his head.

“Then ..... we’re not going?” Lu Gang asked hesitantly.

“Not going!”

Ji Feng nodded and said in a deep voice, “I believe that in the Delta Strip ahead, there must also be a backhand set up by the other side, instead of barging all the way through, it would be better to just kill back!”

The delta belt actually also partly belonged to Southern Guangdong, which could also be said to be the other side’s territory. Come to think of it, even a small Lake Gang was able to develop its power to a few nearby cities, not to mention Qian Bin and the people behind him, who had the power of the officials, it wasn’t a difficult thing for them to try to surround themselves and others in the delta belt!

One phone call would be enough to set everything up!

If they wanted to leave, there would be a lot of fighting, maybe even a vicious battle, and maybe someone on their side would die!

However, this was not the most important thing, what really made Ji Feng make his decision was the ruthlessness of this sturdy man towards the residents of the town. From this, it could be seen that Qian Bin and the people behind him didn’t care about the death of these ordinary people, it didn’t matter if they died or not, as long as they could catch the people they wanted!

The reason why they were able to kill all the gunmen this time was because the other side must have received an order not to lay a hand on them, however, once they really threatened the other side’s safety, it was still unknown what the consequences would be then!

And, if you barge ahead, maybe the other party will once again strike at ordinary people!

Ji Feng did not dare to guarantee that he would still be able to save the people, not to mention that several residents of the town had already died this time, and originally these people did not deserve to die.

If he didn’t pass through this town, then they could live a peaceful life as usual, perhaps a little poorer, but at least not too catastrophic, but everything was different now, because his arrival had caused these people to suffer a disaster that shouldn’t be theirs to bear!

Kill them back!

Ji Feng made up his mind that these gunmen were inhuman, but even if he killed them all, there would be others to follow.

In that case, let’s go straight to the other side’s lair!

Let the other side also have a taste of what it was like to be attacked and killed.

Yi Xingchen and Lu Gang looked at each other and both nodded, since Ji Feng had already decided, then they just needed to carry it out as well.

“What about Ma Bu Zhou?” Yi Xingchen asked, “Now he’s not badly injured, and we don’t have any first aid equipment with us, so if we delay too long, I’m afraid .....”

“Interrogate! Find a place and interrogate him immediately!” Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

“It can only be this too!” Yi Xingchen nodded his head.

“However, before that, there is one more thing that must be done!” A cold light flashed in Ji Feng’s eyes, and a murderous spirit rose up, “We have to save all the other residents in the town, all of them!”

“Yes!”

Yi Xingchen and Lu Gang answered loudly at the same time.

“However, Little Chief, those people are being held in an abandoned factory up ahead, but we are not familiar with the terrain there, so if we rashly go there, it will probably cause the other side to be alerted, and then if those beasts jump to the wall in a hurry, it will be troublesome!” Lu Gang said.

According to the stout man’s explanation, the remaining residents of the town were being watched by a dozen gunmen, all of them were being held in an abandoned factory about three or four kilometres away from the town, this was a back way that the stout man had left for himself, if all the gunmen in the town were killed, he still had a large number of hostages in his hands, when the time came, he could still coerce Ji Feng to hand over Ma Bu Zhou.

“Get someone to lead the way!” Yi Xingchen said, “These local residents must be familiar with the place, and I believe they are willing to save their loved ones!”

Ji Feng nodded, looking at those frightened peasants, he couldn’t help but sigh lightly in his heart, rather blaming himself.

If he hadn’t led the people down this path, maybe they would all be in dreamland by now!

“Everyone .....” Ji Feng took a deep breath to calm himself down, “None of you need to be afraid, we are not bad people, we are now planning to go to the abandoned factory ahead to save your neighbours and relatives, but we are not familiar with the road and We need to find someone to lead the way, I wonder if you can offer your help?”

No one responded to him, all the peasants were too frightened to speak.

Those gunmen before were so ferocious, killing people when they said they would, but it scared them all, and to them, Ji Feng and the others were also strangers, and they were also holding guns and shooting people as well .....

How could they not be afraid?

Ji Feng couldn’t help but secretly sigh lightly, these people were really frightened, they were originally just honest little folk before, where had they seen such scenes?

He said loudly, “Everyone, I know it’s because of our arrival .....”

“Everyone, listen to me!”

Before Ji Feng could finish his words, Yi Xingchen suddenly spoke up and interrupted him, "The other side has guns, it's normal for you guys to be scared, but think about how the rest of the people will be treated if you don't get them out! You've all seen how cruel those animals are, they don't treat people like human beings! In that abandoned factory, there could be your parents, your children, your wives, your friends, could you stand by and watch your loved ones being treated badly? Can you?!"

Ji Feng was interrupted, but he did not move, because he suddenly realised what Yi Xingchen was trying to do.

Hearing Yi Xingchen ask these peasants loudly, he also nodded and said, "That's right, be a man, lead the way if you have the guts, and come with us to finish off those sons of bitches!"

"Good!"

A man suddenly stood up from the ground, a man around forty years old, he gritted his teeth, "I'll lead the way for you, but make sure you promise to finish off all those brutes!"

"If we can't finish them off, then we will die too, besides, if we don't go to save your loved ones, do you think those gunmen will let them go?" Yi Xingchen asked in a deep voice, "Now that our aims are the same, we will definitely try our best, but the final outcome, no one can guarantee!"

The man gritted his teeth and nodded his head, "Good! I know where in that factory is, you guys come with me!"

"Uhhh ....." The animal leader was lying on the ground, unable to move a muscle, but his eyes were looking at the direction of Ji Feng and the others, showing a pleading look, and he didn't know what he was begging for.

"Take your time and enjoy the few remaining days of your life!" Ji Feng said coldly.

Soon, White Spider and Liu Xin and Liu Zejun also came over, Liu Zejun stayed behind and took cover in a big tree to deal with any sudden situation that might happen, while White Spider and Liu Xin followed Ji Feng and the others and headed to that abandoned factory near the town to rescue people!

"Son of a bitch ....."!

It was fine if that stout strong man didn't scream, when he screamed, he immediately let the town resident who was in charge of leading the way see it, his eyes instantly swished red, only to see him roar in anger, running over with a few steps, and kicked madly towards the strong man's body.

"Bastard! Bastard! I'll let you kill someone! I'll kill you ....." The resident kicked frantically, cursing angrily under his breath.

"Kill him!"

"Kill that beast!"

By this time, all the other residents got up and rushed over, surrounding the burly man and beating him up.

"Well ....."

The burly man couldn't even scream from the beating, he could only make some weird sound, his eyes rolled up, but his body was like a puddle of mud, he didn't even have any reflexes .....

Finally, those people are tired of fighting, but a man picked up a gun from the ground, towards the man and pulled the trigger.

But the gun was on safety and could not be fired.

"Do you know how to shoot, sir? Please teach it to me, I want to kill that beast!" The middle-aged man from before turned his head and asked loudly.

"It doesn't make much difference whether you fire or not, he has already been killed by you!" Ji Feng said.

Those residents immediately looked down, only to see that the stout strong man's eyes were dead staring, his eyes protruding outwards, his mouth was open wide, the cloth he was stuffed with had been dislodged at some point, and blood was flowing down from the corner of his mouth .....

Dead and unconscious!

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head, it was really too cheap to let this beast die like this, but to be able to let out the hate in the hearts of these residents, this beast didn't die in vain!

"Everyone, it's time for us to go and save the people, please ask that gentleman to take us there!" Yi Xingchen said to the middle-aged man from before.

"Go!"

That middle-aged man, seeing that the head of the beast had been killed by himself and the others, was greatly relieved, and the fear in his heart had disappeared quite a lot, so his courage rose, and he could not help but nod heavily.

.....

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of the terrain outside the abandoned factory.

The company's business is a company in the town, but it was closed down because of poor management, but for every thing inside, the middle-aged man still remembered clearly, usually many children in the town also like to go there to play, the town's people are very familiar with the place.

Ji Feng was immediately delighted and asked the middle-aged man to help him draw a diagram of the inside of the factory. Although the diagram was very simple, the location of the things placed inside as well as the structure of the factory and so on were all clearly stated.

"Have you remembered everything?" Ji Feng asked.

At this time, they were not even a kilometre away from the abandoned factory.

"Remembered!" Liu Xin and the others nodded their heads at the same time.

"Good then, prepare to attack!" Ji Feng said in a deep voice: "Remember, if you can solve it with a dagger, try not to use a gun, save your bullets ....., and set off to finish off all those beasts!"

Ji Feng fiercely waved his hand, and a group of people swooped towards the abandoned factory in a murderous manner!

Chapter 1395

Poof!

After a slight thud, a dark figure fell limply to the ground, his body twitching a few times and then he didn't move.

Pfft!

Two more muffled sounds and the two figures fell down again!

.....

When the bright moon was overhead, none of those gunmen who were responsible for guarding the hostages in the abandoned factory were left, all of them were taken out!

Those rescued peasants were all in a state of shock and anger, some women and children were so frightened that they cried out, the men were also in a state of shock and had to brace themselves to comfort their wives and children, it was a sight to behold after a robbery!

Looking at this scene, Ji Feng took out his mobile phone and dialed his younger uncle Ji Zhenping's number.

"Little Feng?!"

Ji Zhenping's voice was a little surprised: "Why are you calling so late at night? Is there something wrong?"

"Little Uncle, I'm in Nan Yue ....."

"You're in Nan Yue?"

Ji Zhenping's voice was suddenly much higher: "Little Feng, what are you doing in Nan Yue?"

"Killing people!"

Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

"....." Ji Zhenping choked for a long time before he said in dismay, "Brat, have you been taking gun pills? What the hell is going on, say something serious!"

He dared to think that Ji Feng was joking about what he said.

"Little Uncle, what I said is true!" Ji Feng wasn't joking with him, he said very seriously, "Originally, I only came to arrest people, but now, I have to kill people! Little Uncle, now I need your help ....."

"You, are you telling the truth?" Ji Zhenping's voice got a little more cautious, "Kid, you wouldn't be calling this late at night to specifically joke with me about this, would you?"

"Am I that boring?" Ji Feng asked.

“What the hell is going on?”

Ji Zhenping instantly had a jolt, his voice gruff, what Ji Feng said was actually true, this brat had actually run off to Southern Guangdong and killed someone!

Ji Zhenping realised the seriousness of the problem at the first moment, he had to know that Southern Guangdong was the territory of the Wu family, if it wasn't for the fact that the economy there was the number one in the country and extremely important, the other families simply wouldn't allow the Wu family to take complete control, probably the Wu family would be running Southern Guangdong as their own back garden now!

Even now, apart from the most developed area of the Delta, which the Wu family did not control, most of Southern Guangdong was run by the Wu family!

But now that Ji Feng had actually gone to Southern Guangdong to kill people, how could the Wu family's people miss such a good opportunity?

“Kid, hurry up and talk to me carefully, tell me all the details of what happened!” Ji Zhenping said in a deep voice.

“Let's talk about it later, it's too late to say so much now, Little Uncle, do you have any competent connections in the military side of Southern Guangdong?” Ji Feng asked.

“Yes!”

Ji Zhenping immediately said, “But, brat, you want the assistance of the military?”

“Mm! I'm going to do something, and without the assistance of the military, I might not be able to do it!” Ji Feng said, “Little Uncle, you first find a way to transfer a platoon over for me, just come to me at my current location, I'll contact you later!”

“Kid, transferring people is no problem, but you .....”

“Let's do this first, we'll talk about it later!” Ji Feng said, then hung up the phone, and then, he quickly ordered, “Old Yi, you guys are responsible for assisting these farmers to settle down, those who should be sent to the hospital hurry up and arrange for them to go to the hospital, you guys organize .....”

“Yes!”

Yi Xingchen and the others answered.

White Spider, on the other hand, followed Ji Feng not far away, when there was no battle, her duty was to protect Ji Feng's safety.

Ji Feng arranged for Yi Xingchen and the others, and then took a few steps towards the side, looked at the situation of these peasants, frowned slightly, and couldn't help but grit his teeth.

“Phew~~!”

Ji Feng human inadequate long out a breath, no matter what, now light angry also useless, so he still back a few steps, pick up the phone ready to call the second uncle.

“Ding .....”

However, just then, his phone suddenly rang, and the caller ID was from his home in Yanjing!

Ji Feng then immediately dawned on him, it must have been because he hadn't made it too clear, so it had caused Young Uncle to call home out of worry.

He immediately picked up the phone, “Hello .....”

“Little Feng, what's going on?” The voice of his father, Ji Zhenhua, came over the phone, calm with concern.

Ji Feng couldn't help but smile bitterly, in fact, what he feared the most was to receive a call from his family when he was on the move, because that kind of concern from family members was the easiest way to sap one's will, it could be just a word from a family member that could bring tears to the wanderer's eyes, not to mention the fact that he was now preparing to fight with someone!

However, Ji Feng was still in a good frame of mind, he just laughed heatedly, “Dad, this is a bit of a long story, to put it simply, I came to Nan Yue to arrest someone, but someone is obstructing it, and the tactics have been unscrupulous!”

He quickly gave a rough account of what had happened.

Of course, he was only talking about the main points, such as Fang Ming's initiative to approach his sister Li Yantong, he only said that someone was trying to hit on his sister, I believe that these things had already been communicated by Second Uncle to his father, and now that time was tight, there was naturally no need for Ji Feng to dwell on it.

When Ji Feng simply finished the matter, it was only a matter of a few words, while Ji Zhenhua, at the other end of the phone, had a lowered voice.

“Some people have made a scene that is already very unlike anything else!” Talking to his son, Ji Zhenhua didn't hide his emotions, he said in a deep voice: “I know what you said, your young uncle's side has already transferred people over to you, you should be careful!”

Ji Feng then smiled, it would be much better if his father intervened in this matter.

He immediately nodded his head and said, “Dad, I know!”

“Well! Let's do what you think first, and we'll talk about it when we get back!” After Ji Zhenhua finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

Ji Feng's face then turned gloomy as he coldly snorted, “Is the life of a mudblood not a life?”

At this time, under the moonlight, the sky was instead a little brighter, so the place could be seen vaguely without lights, which made it much easier for Yi Xingchen and the others to organise themselves.

Fortunately, none of the people locked up in the factory had suffered too serious injuries, a few were broken bones and a few superficial injuries that could be treated at the town's health centre.

Perhaps it was because most of the town's residents were locked up here, and the large number of people made those gunmen not dare to mess around, so none of these residents were hurt too badly. It was said that a few girls were manhandled in the middle, but because the town was angry, it made those gunmen a lot more honest.

This made Ji Feng breathe a sigh of relief, hooray!

If anyone else got hurt because of this incident, then Ji Feng didn't know how long he would have to feel guilty!

Soon, everyone in the town was settled, except for those who had lost their loved ones, who were still in grief, which made Ji Feng not know what to say.

Ji Feng could only bring in the person in charge of the town, as well as several representatives of the residents, who were also called over.

"Everyone, although this was not my intention, but bringing you all these disasters, after all, also has my factor in it, I am definitely not going to shirk my responsibility!" Looking at the grief-stricken expressions of these residents, Ji Feng sighed lightly in his heart, "But nothing can be done to undo this now, after all, people have already died, so all of you should be grateful for your grief!"

Everyone didn't say anything, the person was dead, it was useless to say anything.

"I know it's useless to say anything, and there's no other good way, I can only slightly express my feelings!" Ji Feng glanced at White Spider, who immediately handed over a leather wallet.

"There's ten million dollars in this card, it's considered some compensation for all of you, how exactly to distribute it, you guys discuss it, because we can't delay here for too long!" Ji Feng looked at the head of the town, and the few people who had lost their loved ones, "You guys discuss it, and when you have done so, we will leave!"

In fact, it was the best time to leave now, I was sure that people were already rushing this way now, and if they continued to stay here, they would most likely be besieged by people here.

However, taking out so much money all at once, no one could guarantee that there would be people who would be up to no good, so Ji Feng could only wait until they had discussed the distribution plan and divided the money for them before leaving.

"Let's see, the families who lost their loved ones, share half together and the others half, this should be better!" Ji Feng said.

The head of the small town naturally agreed readily, even when the police came, they could only treat this case as a criminal case, as for civil compensation, there really wasn't much.

Now Ji Feng took out 10 million yuan, which was really quite a lot.

What's more, the money itself is from Ji Feng, and the principle of distribution he proposed is naturally accepted by everyone. Moreover,..... Ji Feng admitted that this disaster was brought about by him, but his good attitude was so good that everyone could accept it, and besides, many people also saw with their own eyes that it was the gunmen who really killed people.

Ji Feng, however, was the one who saved them!

Seeing that everyone agreed to this distribution method, Ji Feng immediately asked White Spider to take out a portable computer and start transferring money for them.

Of course, he wouldn't transfer it to everyone, but all to the accounts of a few representatives, while Liu Zejun next to him used his mobile phone to film the whole process to ensure that nothing was lost.

And after giving these residents compensation, Ji Feng's heart felt a lot better.

Ji Feng was not a soft-hearted person, nor was he an abusive person, but he would not shirk his responsibility if it was his!

When the dust had settled, the time had already reached 4am, and in a while, it would be the darkest time of the day, the head of the town invited them to stay overnight, but Ji Feng refused.

Now was the best time to hide their tracks, waiting until after dawn would make it much harder to hide again!

"Zizi~~!"

Ji Feng and the others had just come out of the town chief's home when his intercom suddenly rang and Liu Xin's voice came over the headset, "Little Chief, in the southeast direction, there are vehicles approaching quickly ..... three vehicles, a convoy!"

Ji Feng immediately frowned, "Something's going on! Prepare for battle!"

Chapter 1396

"Look! There are three vehicles in total, the two in front seem to be military jeeps, and one at the back ..... Judging from the lights as well as the width, it should be a truck!" Liu Xin said.

When Ji Feng and the others arrived at the other end of the town, they could see from afar that there were three vehicles speeding along the road in front of them, and based on the lights and several other characteristics, plus the lights of the vehicles behind them, they could vaguely see that these three vehicles should be military vehicles!

At least, military type vehicles!

Only, the last vehicle could not be seen because of the illumination of the lights.

"It should be the people supporting us arriving!" Ji Feng said, "But we can't rush out yet, we have to confirm it afterwards!"

Yi Xingchen and the others all nodded, indeed, now that they were on the other side's turf, everything had to be done carefully, unexpected situations could arise at any time, they had to be in full spirit, absolutely no half-heartedness!

"On guard!" Yi Xingchen waved his hand, and Liu Zejun and the others immediately disappeared into the darkness, quickly ambushing at vantage points, ready to be on guard at all times!

At this time, Ji Feng had already set his mobile phone to vibrate, and all the other people's communication devices were turned off, leaving only the walkie-talkies for contacting each other, and they were still using headsets .....

The two of them stayed under a big tree, quietly staring at the three cars.

The three cars were fast approaching, and not long after, Ji Feng could already see the three cars clearly.

As Liu Xin had said, the front two were military jeeps and the back one was a military truck, the kind of troop carrier that could usually be seen in military camps.

What was noticeable was that there was a soldier standing on each side of the door of that military truck.

The pedals under the doors were wide enough for a man to stand on, and the two soldiers stood firmly on them.

In their hands were both carrying standard rifles and they looked alert.

Ji Feng couldn't help but nod slightly as he watched, from this little detail he could tell that they were alert and obviously well trained, not slacking off just because it was in the dark wilderness, this was an elite army!

As for the situation inside the two jeeps in front, Ji Feng still couldn't see too clearly, because the distance was still a bit far, and the light was shining directly from the front, it was very blinding, even if he activated the bio-current on his eyes, he still couldn't see too clearly!

Soon all three vehicles came to a halt.

The two warriors in the back of the truck also jumped down and took charge of the back, they didn't say a word during the whole process, and their movements were extremely skilled, they were definitely well trained!

Buzz~~!

Ji Feng's mobile phone suddenly vibrated and he looked up, but saw that in the first jeep, there seemed to be some light and he could vaguely see that a person was on the phone.

He then had a guess in his heart, and then he took out his mobile phone and whispered, "Everyone, step up your vigilance, don't relax!"

And then, he picked up the phone, "Hello, who is it?"

"It's Major Ji, right? I'm Zhu Huaiqian from the South Guangdong Military Region's Engineer Brigade, I've been ordered to come and support Young Ji!" A male voice came over the phone.

"Where are you guys now?" Ji Feng asked.

"Please confirm your identity first, young Ji!" Instead of answering, the man named Zhu Huaiqian asked, "May I ask Ji Shao, how many troops did you ask us to mobilize?"

"A platoon!" Ji Feng said.

“Who gave the order?” That Zhu Huaiqian asked again.

“.....” This time, Ji Feng’s eyebrows were slightly furrowed, God knows where Little Uncle’s connections over here actually reached, who gave the order to send troops?

“Ji Zhenping!”

Ji Feng hesitated for a moment, then said, “I only know it’s Ji Zhenping, but I don’t know exactly who ordered you!”

“Identity confirmed!” Who knew that Zhu Huaiqian was the one who approved of Ji Feng’s answer, and he said, “Young Ji, we are less than a kilometre away from the location you said, to the south, may I ask if we should enter the town, or if Young Ji will send someone to meet us?”

“How many of you have come?” Ji Feng, however, began to verify the other party.

“A platoon and three cars!”

“What vehicles?”

“Two military jeeps and one troop carrier .....”

“What did it say in the order given to you?” Ji Feng suddenly asked.

“Use the fastest speed to rush to the designated location, cooperate with Ji Shao and the local area, and crack down on the lawbreakers!” Zhu Huaiqian blurted out.

Ji Feng then smiled, “You guys keep driving forward, just stop in front of the town! I’ll be waiting for you guys here!”

.....

A few minutes later, Ji Feng met Zhu Huaiqian, a young officer about thirty years old or less, tall and erect, handsome and looking spirited.

“Hello, Platoon Leader Zhu!” Ji Feng extended his hand.

Swish!

Zhu Huaiqian first saluted before reaching out to shake Ji Feng’s hand, “Young Ji, Zhu Huaiqian of the engineering platoon under the engineering brigade, has been ordered to come here to support Young Ji, please give your orders!”

Behind Zhu Huaiqian, followed by a whole platoon of soldiers, they carried a full set of combat equipment, sapper picks, sapper shovels, guns, grenades ....., All the soldiers were standing neatly, their military appearance was neat and their fighting spirit was high!

“Bravo! Bravo!”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but nod, little uncle is really reliable, only such a short period of time, he sent himself such an elite engineer platoon, this time, see who can stop it!

Originally, Ji Feng thought that little uncle could not say anything over here, plus the situation is urgent, Ji Feng has not called for help, to know that, if little uncle really has no relationship over here, once he called, at that time, he will have to face the siege of Qian Bin and the people behind him, or even ..... chase and kill!

This time, however, Ji Feng was enraged by the other party's unscrupulous and fierce methods, so he spelled out the consequences of being chased and intercepted and called his little uncle.

But he didn't expect that the answer given to him by Little Uncle was so empowering!

A platoon of elite sapper fighters!

Don't ever think that just because it's an engineer platoon, it's not a good fighter, those who think so must be people who don't know much about the army. In fact, if we talk about the combat ability of a single soldier, excluding some special units such as special forces, just in terms of the regular field army, scouts and engineers, the combat ability of a single soldier is definitely among the top!

And now, what Little Uncle had sent to support himself was a platoon of sappers!

With their combat ability, plus their official status, they could almost walk across the border in Southern Guangdong!

Unless the other side mobilised the army too!

However, armies are not that easy to mobilise .....

"Platoon Leader Zhu!"

Ji Feng withdrew his thoughts.

"Present!"

Zhu Huaqian immediately answered loudly, "Please give orders, young Ji!"

Ji Feng was not polite with him and immediately nodded and said, "Platoon Leader Zhu, bring your men and follow me to Yuezhou, we need to arrest a few people!"

"Yes!"

Zhu Huaqian replied loudly.

The order he had received was to support Ji Feng, and to obey Ji Feng's command in the process, he would not pay attention to whether the command was right or wrong.

Ji Feng looked back at Yi Xingchen, and both of them brought a touch of killing in their eyes.

"Let's go!" Ji Feng bellowed!

"Damn it! Finally we can do it openly and honestly!" Yi Xingchen couldn't help but let out a long breath.

This whole journey had been all about escaping, and even in the end, in this town, they had been given a stomach full of breath by the brutal methods of those brutes, but they were left helpless because the other side was just too powerful, and with just a few of them, they could only try to hide.

But now it was different.

The other party's cruelty had enraged Ji Feng!

In a fit of rage, Ji Feng directly mobilised his army, and next, it was time for them to counter-attack!

In front of the regular army, no matter what gunmen or gangs, all of them were jumping clowns, unbeatable!

The most crucial thing is that they have more men, and they are all elites, which makes them much stronger, and the next step will be to break through, nothing can stop them!

Sitting back in the commercial vehicle, the four cars began to speed towards Yuezhou.

The one who was the most excited was none other than Jian Chang Teng.

He had seen with his own eyes the enormous energy of Ji Feng, and in a fit of rage, he had directly called in the army, and was now raging towards Yuezhou to kill them. This feeling of prowess made his blood boil, and his face turned red, and he couldn't help but wave his fists a little.

Looking again at Ma Bu Zhou, who had been hit with bullet holes all over his body, Jane could not help but sneer, these people's heads were really kicked by a donkey, actually thinking of going against Ji Feng!

The two sides were not even in the same weight class, yet they still wanted to go against Ji Feng.

Seeing the strength that Ji Feng had displayed, Jane was even more committed to the cause and had no second thoughts.

When he thought that he would soon be able to take over from this beast Ma Bu Zhou, he became even more excited and could hardly sit still, wishing he could hold a gun and fight alongside Ji Feng.

But he suppressed this impulse, because he knew what his strengths were, using his brain.

Only by playing to his strengths would he be able to make Ji Feng take himself seriously!

Just then, a few strong lights suddenly shone in front of him, only to see that a few cars were coming at high speed from the opposite side, the roar of their engines were clearly audible.

Soon, both sides passed by the wrong car.

"Stop them!" Ji Feng suddenly shouted into his headset.

Buzz~~!

The military truck at the end turned its head violently and crossed the road, blocking the road to death.

Squeak—!

Those vehicles were forced to brake sharply.

But Ji Feng had already given the order, "The other side has weapons, take them down immediately, if there is any resistance, kill them on the spot!"

Chapter 1397

Ji Feng's order was given very suddenly, almost as if he had given it when everyone was still on standby, rushing to Yuezhou City with all their might!

He was pleased that both Zhu Huaqian and Yi Xingchen reacted very quickly and swiftly, and as soon as he gave the order, the military personnel carrier at the end of the road blocked the road!

In the front, Liu Zejun, who was in charge of driving, also suddenly applied a sharp brake.

Squeak...!

The sharp sound from the tyres rubbing violently against the ground came from the commercial vehicle, which also crossed the road, blocking the back roads of all those vehicles.

It was impossible to move forward or backward, and the road was lined with wasteland, making it very difficult for vehicles to navigate through it, especially for cars, which might as well walk on their own two legs if they entered the wasteland.

The other vehicles, so to speak, were completely blocked in the middle!

However, there were still two military jeeps in the middle, and the men inside were holding their guns and eyeing the cars!

“Stomp!”

Yi Xingchen and the others had jumped out of the car, holding their guns and pointing at the cars.

Surrounded in the middle were a total of four cars, three of which were sedans and a gold cup van, on this road section of about a hundred meters, surrounded by four cars from Ji Feng's side!

“Everyone in the car, immediately put your hands on your head and get out!” Zhu Huaqian took out a loudspeaker from the jeep and put it to his mouth and shouted, “Get out of the car immediately! Otherwise, they will be killed!”

The people in the four cars did not move at all, as if they were scared silly and did not react at all.

“Watch out for the van at the back, prepare for a strong attack, once you do, take the people in the front three cars first!” Ji Feng commanded.

“Boss, what's going on?” Yi Xingchen asked in a low voice.

“I saw someone with a gun in one of the middle sedans!” Ji Feng pointed to a sedan in the middle of the other side and said in a deep voice, “I suspect that these people were sent by the other side to snipe us!”

“Because of the phone call you made?” Yi Xingchen asked.

“That's right!”

Ji Feng nodded his head.

The reason why he had suddenly given the order to stop these cars was because when the cars crossed paths, he glanced at them and inadvertently saw a man on the back seat of the middle car pulling the bolt of his gun and loading the bullets!

He then immediately realised that these people must all be gunmen, that it was because he had called for help earlier that the other side had sent gunmen to attack and kill!

“No comment, finish them off!” Ji Feng waved his hand.

“Get off immediately!” Yi Xingchen shouted violently at once, while pulling the bolt of his gun and clicking it twice.

He waved his hand and gestured with Zhu Huaiqian, and the two teams gradually leaned up, their blackened guns pointing at the other party’s four cars.

“Ka~~!”

Ji Feng also picked up a rifle and loaded the bullets into it to prevent the other side from suddenly firing.

Now that the sky was in the darkest period of time before dawn, Yi Xingchen and the others could not see the situation inside the other party’s cars, but he could.

As expected!

Only to see that in the last car, the driver in the driver’s seat took out his pistol and aimed it at one of the fighters outside.

“Looking for death!”

Ji Feng snorted coldly and directly pulled the trigger.

Bang!

The driver was instantly pierced through the shoulder by a shot, and immediately screamed miserably as the gun in his hand fell into the car at once.

The others were stunned and confused!

“Get out of the car!”

Yi Xingchen shouted coldly, “If you don’t get out of the car, I’ll blitz you all out!”

When no one got out of the car, Yi Xingchen flung his hand and fired a shot.

Boom!

The window of the car in the middle was pierced by a bullet!

“Get out of the car!”

Yi Xing Chen shouted.

At the same time, he waved his hand, and Liu Zejun and the others immediately understood and immediately dived in the darkness, silently crossing over the other car and going around to the other side.

And at this time, Zhu Huaqian had also split into two teams, one of which also went around the front silently, surrounding all four of those cars, guns aimed at the doors of those cars, ready to shoot their targets!

Ta-da-da .....

Ji Feng once again pulled the trigger, and the gun instantly shot out tongues of fire.

Boom!

The car in the middle was hit with a thousand holes, except that the parts that were shot were all in the engine compartment of the car, as well as in the trunk.

Before he could be 100% sure that the other party was the pursuers sent by Qian Bin and the others, Ji Feng still restrained himself and did not shoot to kill at will. Those gunmen could kill at will, but not him!

This is the difference between a human and a beast!

“Da da da da .....” Ji Feng kept firing, the fierce sound of gunshots made people’s hearts tremble and their legs go weak.

Ka!

All the bullets in one shot were finished.

Ji Feng changed the magazine while shouting, “Get down immediately, or else shoot to kill!”

Bang!

White Spider suddenly pulled the trigger and fired a shot.

“Barf!” Only to see that in the car at the end, a man was covering his wrist and twitching, blood flowing out from his fingers ..... his wrist had been shot through!

You can imagine that earlier this person must have been holding a gun, ready to shoot outside, before he was shot through the wrist by the white spider!

Ji Feng immediately jerked back and glanced at the white spider.

The white spider could see through too?

Ji Feng couldn’t help but be a little stunned, the car was covered in film, even with the light from the headlights, but it wasn’t that easy to see inside and hit the other person accurately, but the white spider had shot the man through the wrist so accurately!

There was only one possibility: the white spider could see clearly inside the other man’s car!

When he saw Ji Feng looking at him, the white spider couldn’t help but be stunned: “Young Ji?”

Ji Feng immediately waved his hand and said, "Concentrate on these people first, we'll talk later if there's anything to say!"

"Yes!" White Spider said with a straight face.

"Strong attack!"

Seeing that instead of coming down and surrendering as requested, the other party was going to resist, Zhu Huaiqian immediately waved his hand and shouted in a low voice after his men had set up.

"Try to capture the other side, and if you encounter resistance, you can shoot to kill!" Zhu Huaiqian added the order.

Ji Feng and the others could shoot at will, but they were the ones who had to follow the discipline and rules.

"Don't shoot, we surrender!" Suddenly, the car at the front of the line, the door was opened and a man came down with his hands up.

"Pop ....." followed by several guns thrown out of the car and four more men got out of the car.

With the first one leading the way, the psychological defences of the others were immediately loosened, and the men in several other cars got down and stood in the middle of the road with their hands in the air.

"Tackle them up!" Zhu Huaiqian waved his hand.

"All of them crouch on the ground with their heads in their hands, hurry up!" A squad of warriors immediately pounced on them, pulling the belts directly from those men, tying them up backhanded and gathering them together.

"Mr. Ji! Which one is Mr. Ji, please?!" Suddenly, one of the men in the group being escorted to crouch on the ground shouted, "I want to see Mr. Ji!"

"Shut up!"

A soldier bellowed, "Be honest!"

"Mr. Ji, our boss said you must be here, he wants to speak to you, Mr. Ji, you wouldn't be afraid to answer, would you?" The man shouted.

"Fuck you!" Liu Zejun came up with a big step and kicked the man to the ground, "Don't use this provocative tactic, your boss is nothing, sooner or later I'll get rid of him too! Stay here honestly, if you dare to shout again, I'll kill you!"

"Hmph!"

The man sneered, got up from the ground and said with a stiff neck, "Do you think we are really defenseless? If the boss hadn't given the order for us to surrender, we would have dragged a few of you on our backs even if we had to die in battle!"

Clack~~!

Liu Zejun raised his gun against the man's head, "In that case, then you fight one for me to see!"

"What kind of skill is it to talk about this with a gun now, if you have the guts to fight with me alone!"
The man laughed coldly, with a look of disdain, but not half afraid.

"Good boy!" Liu Zejun's gloomy face could not help but reveal a cold smile, "Fine, fight alone!"

With that, Liu Zejun directly pinned his gun to his waist and waved his hand towards the man, "Come on! If you don't knock Kee down within ten seconds, I'll be considered a loser!"

"Arrogant!"

The man sneered, and turned around violently and smashed his foot over.

Peng!

Liu Zejun but instantly met it, his whole person was going forward **** out, but his body seemed to fall backwards at once, landing on one leg, the other leg was from the bottom up, kicking viciously over, hitting the opponent whose leg smashed!

In a flash, that man was kicked in the small of his back by Liu Zejun and flew straight backwards.

"Thud!" With a sound, the man fell to the ground and couldn't help but let out a muffled cry.

"Well!"

He gritted his teeth and stood up, but his face was unsightly. He had always been very confident in his own skills, but he did not expect that he would not even be able to make a single move in front of Liu Zejun.

Now that he thought about it, just now Liu Zejun said that he would be solved within ten seconds, that was already a very conservative statement!

"Night and day!" Liu Zejun glanced at him and gave a cold laugh.

Ji Feng couldn't help but secretly nod his head as he watched from the side, the strength of Liu Zejun and the others seemed to have improved a lot more, with his eyesight he could naturally see that this person who fought with Liu Zejun was actually quite good, but the gap was still too obvious compared to Liu Zejun.

At this time, Zhu Huaiqian, who was not far away, could not help but look at Liu Zejun with a different expression.

And his demeanor was obviously a lot more cautious.

The change in Zhu Huaiqian's expression fell into Ji Feng's eyes, and he could not help but smile slightly, this effect was exactly what he wanted!

And then, he took a big step towards the man who had spoken earlier.

"Who are you the boss? What do you want to say to me?" Ji Feng arrived in front of that person and asked indifferently.

Chapter 1398

“Who’s your boss? What do you want to talk to me about?” Ji Feng came in front of the man and asked indifferently.

After being cleaned up, the man’s proud attitude had been curbed quite a bit, and he wasn’t as arrogant anymore. His most proud fighting kung fu had been defeated by Liu Zejun in one move, so he couldn’t be arrogant anymore!

So when he heard Ji Feng’s question, this man couldn’t help but straighten his face and said, “You’ll know after you speak to my boss!”

“Joke!”

Ji Feng sneered, “Something that hides its head is also worthy of talking to me? If you want to talk to me, just give your name honestly and talk in a dignified manner!”

He waved his hand, “Tie up all these people and take them away!”

“Mr. Ji, you’ll regret what you’re doing!” When the man saw that Ji Feng actually didn’t even want to talk about it and wasn’t even interested in knowing who his boss was, he shouted in shock, “I hope you think about it!”

Boom!

Liu Zejun kicked the man out: “Who’s threatening?!”

Ji Feng coldly swept that man and then looked at the other gunmen crouching on the ground with their heads in their hands, he waved his hand, “Knock them all out and throw them into the car, take them with you to Yuezhou!”

“Yes!”

Zhu Huaqian immediately shouted in response.

Immediately, those soldiers pounced on them like tigers and wolves, slamming the butt of a gun into the back of each one, directly knocking those gunmen unconscious, and then throwing them all onto the van, tying them up one by one with a belt.

Seeing those warriors thundering and tying up people, Ji Feng could not help but smile slightly.

Ever since Liu Zejun had defeated that gunman with a single kick, Zhu Huaqian was obviously much cleaner in carrying out his orders, which was the result Ji Feng wanted!

For these soldiers, Ji Feng more or less understood, but it was normal for anyone with real skills to be a bit arrogant, especially since Zhu Huaqian and the others didn’t know what the mission they were about to carry out was, which would inevitably make them feel apprehensive in their hearts, which was also normal!

That kick from Liu Zejun was proof of his strong combat power, and indirectly, the combat power of Yi Xingchen and the others!

In Zhu Huaiqian's mind, a notion would arise – Ji Feng had more than one person around him who could be of use!

In this way, when Zhu Huaiqian carried out Ji Feng's orders, there would be no more compromises and he would carry them out cleanly!

It was with this in mind that Ji Feng acquiesced to Liu Zejun's one-on-one battle with that gunman!

It turned out that he was right!

Then, I believe that after arriving in Yuezhou, even if Ji Feng wanted to take them straight into the municipal party committee compound, Zhu Huaiqian would not hesitate to carry it out!

Because he had no more worries in his heart!

“Get in the car!”

Ji Feng waved his hand.

As for the sedans, there was one that could be used, after all, Ji Feng and the others were all crammed into the same business car, that was a bit crowded.

“What about those corpses?” Zhu Huaiqian couldn't help but ask.

Outside the town, they had already seen a large number of corpses and couldn't help but be shocked by them. It was obvious that this place had also experienced some vicious battles before, and when they looked at Ji Feng and the others, there was only one Lu Gang who had suffered some minor injuries, so their combat strength was obvious!

Zhu Huaiqian could clearly realise the fighting strength of Yi Xingchen and the others, and those corpses had given them a great shock!

“The police have been called!” Ji Feng said, “I believe that even if we don't call the police, it's not our turn to worry about it, there will definitely be people who are more anxious than us and don't want to let this matter get bigger ..... Platoon Leader Zhu, there might be a big conflict next, I still hope you can fully cooperate!”

“Everything at the command of young Ji!” Zhu Huaiqian immediately said.

“Good!”

Ji Feng nodded his head, also turned around and got into the car and sped off in the direction of Yuezhou!

.....

Buzz~~!

The vehicle sped down the road, the low roar of the engine carried far away, a car light looked so blinding in the dark night .....

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what to do.

Now there is no doubt that Qian Bin and Ma Bu Zhou definitely have extremely close practice, and, from the account of those gunmen there is enough reason to catch Qian Bin!

However, if they went to Yuezhou to catch Qian Bin, Qian Hongda would definitely not sit idly by. Everyone knew that once Qian Bin was caught this time, it would not be so easy to come back.

The resistance that will be faced when going to Yuezhou to catch him is imaginable.

There was even ..... the possibility of a fierce battle!

But Ji Feng is determined, even if there is an army waiting in front of him, he will definitely not back down, even if it is just for those farmers who were killed for no reason, Ji Feng will have to arrest Qian Bin, as for what to do after arrest, that is a matter for later.

And the people behind Qian Bin, don't even think about getting away!

Even if, as a result, it caused a game between the big factions, Ji Feng would not hesitate to do so!

“Ding .....”

Suddenly, Ji Feng's mobile phone rang, he took it out and found that it was an unfamiliar number calling, and the location of the number displayed, was in Northern Shaanxi.

Ji Feng immediately frowned as he realised what was going on.

His pupils contracted slightly, Ji Feng still picked up the phone, “Hello, this is Ji Feng!”

A man's low laugh came from the other end of the phone at once: “Little Ji, I'm Wu Zhiyong ah, please forgive me for intruding .....”

This 'Xiao Ji' in the other party's words caused Ji Feng's eyebrows to immediately wrinkle up. However, immediately afterwards, Ji Feng's eyebrows suddenly raised, this call was really from Wu Zhiyong, which matched his guess just now!

“So it's Young Master Wu!”

Ji Feng took the phone away slightly and turned on the phone recording before he said, “I wonder what instruction Young Master Wu has to give me by calling me suddenly?”

“Oh ..... instructing can not dare to be, I think, few people dare to instruct in front of little Ji Gongzi, I naturally can not offer even more!” Wu Zhiyong's voice smiled gently, however, Ji Feng seemed to see the coldness and malice behind that smile of Wu Zhiyong.

It was said that Wu Zhiyong was a person who liked to play dirty tricks behind the scenes, back then He Hongwei had suffered a loss at his hands, although Ji Feng had not fought with him directly, he could feel the sinister nature of this guy from the many things he did.

Therefore, when talking to Wu Zhiyong now, Ji Feng had to guard his hand.

“Little Ji, let's not talk in the dark, you have also taken the initiative in this matter, if you have any demands, just put them forward, as for the matter, let's stop here, what do you think?” Wu Zhiyong said with a smile.

Swish!

A cold light flashed instantly in Ji Feng's eyes, "Young Master Wu, I don't quite understand what you said, those gunmen were sent by you? Or do you mean that you have close ties with gangs like the Lake Gang in Southern Guangdong?"

"Hehe ....."

Wu Zhiyong couldn't help but laugh, "Xiao Ji, you and I are both understanding people, so there's no need to play with such tactics, right?"

"I don't really like playing tricks either, but it also depends on with what kind of people!" Ji Feng laughed, not the least bit embarrassed or embarrassed after being torn apart, he just laughed lightly, "Dealing with Young Master Wu, I'm afraid I won't even survive the night without playing tricks!"

"....."

Wu Zhiyong didn't expect Ji Feng to speak so directly, for a moment he didn't know what to say back.

"Little Ji, make a request." Seeing how direct Ji Feng was, Wu Zhiyong also stopped beating around the bush with him and said directly.

"I have nothing to ask for, I will do it my way, that's all!" Ji Feng said.

"Little Ji, won't you think about it anymore?" Wu Zhiyong said in a deep voice, "It's not good for everyone if it causes a more violent conflict, right? It's better for a person to be careful when going out, otherwise there might be trouble!"

"Humph!"

Ji Feng sneered, "Wu Zhiyong, I'm not afraid to tell you, I'm on my way to Yuezhou, if you're capable, feel free to create danger for me, I'll take it all!"

I'll take it all!

After saying that, Ji Feng directly hung up the phone.

He couldn't help but snicker, "Now you know you're in a hurry? It's too late!"

However, from this, Ji Feng also confirmed his previous guess that the person behind Qian Bin was really Wu Zhiyong. Then needless to say, the idea of sending people to investigate the identity of Li Yantong's mother and daughter, in order to snipe at his father Ji Zhenhua, must have come from Wu Zhiyong, or the Wu family!

"Now you want to make peace? Dream on!" Ji Feng's eyes glowed coldly. If he hadn't happened to notice it himself, I'm afraid that Fang Ming's plan to approach his sister Li Yantong would have succeeded, and the consequences of that .....

Of course, if it is said that this is only a fight between two families, there is no one right or wrong, Ji Feng does not deny, both sides are for their own interests, but also to defeat each other, to achieve their own purposes, this in itself there is nothing wrong, people live in the world, in itself is so.

But there was one thing that Ji Feng could not tolerate, the group of gunmen that Wu Zhiyong had sent there, they actually did it to civilians, cruel and unscrupulous, to the point of being outrageous!

And what those gangs did was also absolutely inextricably linked to this attitude of Wu Zhiyong!

It is normal for gangs to exist; there is white and then there is black, and then there is grey.

However, there are some people who do things that have crossed the bottom line of what normal people can tolerate, outrageously, and this is especially intolerable to Ji Feng!

With all this, Ji Feng could not even stop there!

However, I think now Wu Zhiyong is not too good, he knows he will go to Yuezhou again, I'm afraid he will be anxious and fidgety ..... just to see what he can do!

"Zejun, speed up immediately, we have to get to Yuezhou with the fastest speed!" Ji Feng said.

"Yes!"

The darkest period of time before dawn, a line of convoys whistled by .....

Chapter 1399

"Sh, what?"

Qian Bin received a phone call and then was stunned, "Ji Feng has brought people to Yuezhou again?"

"That's right! According to the satellite surveillance, they are coming to Yuezhou!" Young Wu's voice came over the phone, "Xiao Bin, you need to hide for now!"

"Hide?!"

Qian Bin couldn't help but smile bitterly, "Where can I hide? Since Ji Feng dared to bring people to Guangdong again, people have already made sufficient preparations! Besides, although China is huge, if Ji Feng really wants to catch me, where can there be room for me?"

The young Wu on the other end of the phone couldn't help but be silent for a while, indeed, once Ji Feng got angry, there was really no place to hide in the whole of China!

"There's no way, without taking out Ma Bu Zhou, Ji Feng holds the absolute initiative, either he can hide or he can only wait to be cleaned up!" Wu Shao said in a deep voice: "Go abroad! Go to Rice, or go to the boundary tent, I have some connections in both countries, you definitely won't be at a disadvantage when you get there!"

Qian Bin was silent, now that things had come to this point, this was the only way to go!

He said helplessly, "Thank you for your concern, I have to think about it, let's wait until I've thought about it!"

"..... It's fine, think about it, with me around, the sky won't fall!" Wu Shao said.

After closing the line, Qian Bin could not help but smile bitterly: "Fighting and fighting, when people make a real move, you immediately wimp out, not even the slightest ability to resist ..... Thanks to the fact that you are also the son of a big family of the world!"

Suddenly, the phone rang.

Qian Bin saw the number calling and couldn't help but blush slightly: "Dad ....."

"Xiao Bin, what the hell are you up to? So much commotion last night, and now you've actually alerted the top!" Qian Bin's father Qian Hongda's voice came over, "Just now I received a call from the province, saying that a force was sent from above to crack down on special criminals, and that we should cooperate fully ..... Xiao Bin, you should understand what this means, what is this all about?"

Qian Bin couldn't help but say bitterly, "Dad, this matter ..... can't be said clearly in a sentence or two, but what is certain is that I've gotten into trouble ....."

"What is going on?" Qian Hongda said in a deep voice.

"Young Wu asked me to send someone to investigate that sister of Ji Feng's in Jinling ..... Now Ji Feng has turned back again and is swooping towards Yuezhou ..... I may have to go abroad to hide!" Qian Bin said bitterly.

"Bastard thing! How come this matter was not discussed with me?!" Qian Hongda was furious when he heard this, "I told you before not to get too close to them, with your nature, you might suffer, you just didn't listen, now it's good?!"

Qian Bin was reprimanded, but he didn't say anything. It was too late to say anything now, Ji Feng already had Ma Bu Zhou in his hands and was coming to Yuezhou.

As for what he was doing here in Yuezhou, one could figure it out with one's heels.

"Was it Wu Zhiyong who suggested that you go abroad?" Qian Hongda suddenly asked in a deep voice.

"Mm!"

Qian Bin nodded, "He told me to go to Rice or to the boundary tent, Dad, do you think, should I go out?"

"Go out for what?" Qian Hongda said in a good-natured manner, "You think you can go out and escape? Even if it's good abroad, it's not your own country after all, and you'll only be a second-class citizen if you go there, are you willing?"

"No!" Qian Bin didn't even think about it, he couldn't help but say.

"Not willing is right, let me tell you, the two countries that Wu Zhiyong chose for you, are not good places! How the situation is abroad is simply not something you can adapt to! Besides, I can't control what will happen once you're abroad at home!" Qian Hongda said, "How about this, you come to me right now and I'll take care of the rest! However, you should be prepared to go to jail!"

"Dad ....." Qian Bin's body trembled at once.

"You can live if you do jail time!" Qian Hongda said in a deep voice, "Do you think I want you to go to jail?"

“..... I, I know!”

.....

“Boss, it’s been tracked, the target is moving fast, according to the satellite image, he got into a sedan and is moving in the direction of the city centre, but the satellite accuracy is limited, we can’t see the license plate, we can only see it’s a black sedan .....”

“Good! That’s good enough!” Ji Feng said, “Keep tracking and keep reporting the other party’s whereabouts!”

“Yes!”

After closing the line, Ji Feng said, “Rush to downtown Yuezhou immediately!”

“Yes!” Liu Zejun answered.

At this moment, Ji Feng and the others had already reached the boundary of Yuezhou, and along the way, they did encounter hurdles, and even many suspicious people who looked like gunmen.

They were at important junctions, watching for passing vehicles.

Ji Feng and the others, however, swaggered through, unhindered, really because those few military vehicles, and the loaded soldiers standing outside their doors, made those gunmen too scared.

Perhaps some gangs dare to go against the police, but there are absolutely no gangs that would dare to go against the military. Those big-headed soldiers, once they go to war, they will never show mercy, and the combat power of the regular army is really scary!

In this way, Ji Feng and the others made their way into Yuezhou without any obstruction, and none of them dared to stop them!

The road also did not encounter any more people besieging and intercepting them. I believe that after exterminating two teams of gunmen near the town, Wu Zhiyong should have known what was going on, and since he had learned wisely, he would naturally not take the initiative to hand over the handle to Ji Feng again.

“Boss, the target is on the prosperous avenue of Yuezhou .....”

“The target is moving fast on Commercial Street .....”

.....

As Wang Xin brought in an update, Ji Feng was constantly adjusting the direction of advance.

Finally, they reached a building and stopped in front of it.

The Municipal Party Committee Compound!

Ji Feng looked at the sign hanging on the gate of the courtyard in front of him in consternation, and his brows gradually furrowed, “Qian Bin actually escaped to here?”

Was it really necessary to storm the municipal party committee compound?

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head, he wasn't arrogant enough to this extent!

Storming the municipal party committee compound, that was undoubtedly a rebellion, although there was no such thing as a rebellion long ago now, but doing so was actually still no different from a rebellion!

"Boss, what should we do?" Yi Xingchen looked a little stunned as well.

It would be difficult to arrest Qian Bin when he entered the municipal party committee compound.

Even if he didn't fully understand some of the situations in the country, Yi Xingchen knew what it meant to storm the Municipal Committee Compound.

"There's no rush!" Ji Feng waved his hand and turned his head to Zhu Huaiqian, "Platoon Leader Zhu, it's your turn to step in below."

"What do I have to do?" Zhu Platoon Leader asked without hesitation.

The army and the local area were originally two systems, so Zhu Platoon Leader was not too scrupulous, as long as he communicated well, it was not too difficult to go to the municipal party committee compound and arrest people.

"Communicate with the other side, in the name of the military, and ask to go in and arrest people!" Ji Feng said.

Zhu Huaiqian nodded, "Yes!"

The gatekeeper of the municipal party committee compound was however terrified, so many loaded soldiers suddenly came and had a murderous look, leaving the gatekeeper stunned.

This group of soldiers wanted to rebel, right?

And when he heard that the other side was coming to arrest people and asked them to report to the leaders, the doorman was relieved.

"Secretary Qian said he'll be right down!" The doorman finished reporting and said in a whisper.

Ji Feng nodded, Qian Hongda was coming over in person, was he going to stop himself in his capacity? Or was he going to be righteous?

"Everyone, the leader said for you to come inside first to rest and wait ....." the doorman added.

"No need!" Ji Feng waved his hand.

The gatekeeper didn't dare to say anything, but he was wondering where the hell these people came from, how dare they be so reckless, so many people surrounding the gate, how bad must the impact be?

But he didn't know that Ji Feng was just going to gather here and wait to see how Qian Hongda would handle it!

In a short time, Qian Hongda's figure appeared in Ji Feng's sight, and next to him was a young man, looking at the young man's appearance, he looked six or seven percent similar to Qian Hongda, he should be Qian Bin.

Swish!

Zhu Huaiqian saluted: "South Guangdong Military District subordinate engineer brigade, Zhu Huaiqian, ordered to take away the VIPs!"

"Good! Bravo!"

Qian Hongda had a calm smile on his face, unable to see his joy or anger, he just nodded calmly as his gaze swept over Ji Feng and Zhu Huaiqian's faces.

"This comrade, I've brought you the wanted criminal you mentioned, the family is unfortunate, just a moment ago Qian Bin confessed to me about those things he did before, which makes me feel guilty!" Qian Hongda said with a calm face, "So, I convinced him to come over with me. As for whether it counts as a surrender, that's up to the judiciary ....."

Ji Feng's eyebrows instantly furrowed, and the gaze he looked at Qian Hongda couldn't help but carry a hint of dissimilarity.

This Qian Hongda, powerful!

He actually hand delivered his own son, this time, even the most picky and ruthless people, I'm afraid they can't say anything.

Masterful!

Even as the opposing party, Ji Feng couldn't help but give a secret praise. With this move, Qian Hongda had firstly cleared himself, and later, mitigated Qian Bin's crime.

Of course, these were not the most important things.

Qian Hongda really had too many advantages in doing this, this move, allowing him to go in and out and stand firm at once!

"This ..... is Ji Gongzi, right?" Qian Hongda's gaze, again, looked at Ji Feng, "This should be considered our first official meeting, this is really not an appropriate occasion!"

Ji Feng smiled, "I don't want to meet in this situation either, however, usually Secretary Qian is busy with work and it's not too easy to see you ....."

"Oh ..... seeing you, I am also very relieved ah, Minister Zhenhua right after!" Qian Hongda said.

"Thanks for the compliment, Secretary Qian, that's all for now, I'll make a special trip to visit you another day!" Ji Feng smiled and waved his hand, "Secretary Qian, farewell!"

"Ji Gongzi take care, Comrade Zhu take care ....."

Chapter 1400

"Ji Gongzi take care, Comrade Zhu take care ....."

All the way until Ji Feng and the others left with Qian Bin, Qian Hongda's face had never changed, it was still so calm, although he smiled in the middle, he couldn't see any half smile on his face, his eyes were even calmer, as if nothing had happened.

Ji Feng gave him a deep look, waved his hand at Zhu Huaiqian, and then turned to leave!

“Ji Gongzi!”

Suddenly, Qian Hongda called out to Ji Feng again.

Ji Feng slowly turned around and looked at Qian Hongda, who had a calm face, and couldn't help but ask, “What, Secretary Qian still has something else?”

“Oh, Minister Zhenhua and I have worked together before, we are also old buddies, since Mr. Ji has come to South Guangdong, then I, as an elder, must do my best as a host, I wonder if Mr. Ji will appreciate your face?” Qian Hongda asked.

Even with Ji Feng's composure and calmness, he could not help but be slightly stunned when he heard these words.

Immediately, he nodded: “Since Secretary Qian has asked, then how dare I not obey?”

“Good, then, I'll make the arrangements on my side!” Qian Hongda said.

Ji Feng nodded and once again gave Qian Hongda a deep look, but he saw that the latter's face was calm and there was a faint smile in his eyes, as if he already had a plan in place.

Old foxes!

Ji Feng immediately came to such a conclusion, but in his heart, he admired Qian Hongda. No matter who it was, it was quite difficult to be able to be so calm in such a situation.

Qian Hongda was able to reach this point, worthy of being an old fox who had been immersed in the officialdom for decades, according to an old saying, he had a certain amount of dao!

Qian Bin was taken away, and under the escort of Zhu Huaiqian with a platoon of engineers, Yi Xingchen and the others took Qian Bin and Ma Bu Zhou, and flew directly from the Yuezhou airport, by plane, to Jiangzhou, where they would be met by people sent by Second Uncle.

Ji Feng, however, took the white spider with him and stayed in Yuezhou, not leaving in a hurry.

He had to go to his previous appointment with Qian Hongda!

“Young Ji, do you really want to go to the appointment?” White Spider asked with some concern, “Will someone be secretly working against you .....”

“Qian Hongda definitely won't do that!” Ji Feng waved his hand.

Through that incident at the entrance of the Yuezhou Municipal Party Committee compound, one was able to see that Qian Hongda was an old fox, but the more such a person was, the smarter they were, they wouldn't do that kind of jade and stone thing unless they were all tired of living!

“Ji Shao, I'm talking about other people .....,” said the white spider cryptically.

Ji Feng then nodded, he knew that the white spider was talking about Wu Zhiyong, the two sides are now in a real fight, their own hands have money Bin and Ma Bu Zhou, this is enough to pose a great threat to Wu Zhiyong, the other side is likely to take extraordinary measures, or even do something too radical, it is not impossible!

“Aren’t you there to protect me?” Ji Feng laughed.

White Spider immediately said anxiously, “Young Ji, if the other party has a large number of people, I’m afraid I won’t be able to protect you!”

“Don’t worry, there’s no need to worry at all, Qian Hongda is here, he definitely won’t let anything happen to me!” Ji Feng laughed. Everyone was safe and sound, that was Qian Hongda’s aim, or at least, his ultimate aim.

Then, he would definitely not let anything happen to him, otherwise, whether Qian Hongda’s future could be saved or not was not to be mentioned for the moment, just based on those situations that Ma Bu Zhou had, Qian Bin would not be able to get out of prison at least for the rest of his life. As for what will happen in prison, everyone has a number in mind.

Therefore, the one who is most nervous about Ji Feng’s safety should be Qian Hongda!

Bai Spider didn’t understand much about this, but she knew that now that Ji Feng was in a dragon’s den, he could be in danger at any time, so she kept her nerves tense until she reached a private box in a club, and she was still incredibly alert.

It was a clubhouse of a private nature, and the place where Qian Hongda had made an appointment.

After arriving at the box, Bai Spider first went in and checked, and only after making sure that there were no problems, she let Ji Feng, who was standing at the door, in.

“Oh ..... Ji Gongzi, this guard of yours is really careful!” Qian Hongda was already waiting in the box, and when he saw White Spider checking everywhere, he couldn’t help but chuckle.

Ji Feng laughed, “She is also nervous about my safety, but I am the one who knows that here, Secretary Qian will definitely protect me well!”

“That’s natural!”

Qian Hongda nodded and smiled, “Ji Gongzi, please sit down!”

In this box, there was a table full of dishes and opened wine, but only Qian Hongda was alone, he didn’t bring any attendants, the driver and secretary were waiting outside, so it was clear that this meeting was purely private, at least, Qian Hongda didn’t want a third person to hear about this conversation.

Therefore, Ji Feng also smiled and said, “White spider, go to the door and watch, don’t let anyone disturb us!”

“Yes!”

The white spider nodded.

Only after the white spider left did Qian Hongda smile, “Sir Ji, it’s a bit unexpected that you can come to the appointment, it’s as if I’ve seen the Minister Zhenhua of the past, it’s true that a tiger’s father has no dog’s son!”

“Secretary Qian, please just call me Ji Feng directly!” Ji Feng smiled.

As for Qian Hongda mentioning the relationship with his father, Ji Zhenhua, Ji Feng was bypassing it. He didn’t know if Qian Hongda was being polite, or if he had really worked with his father.

However, judging from the current relationship between the two sides, this should just be a polite remark from Qian Hongda.

“Well then, I’ll be generous for once and call you Little Feng!” Qian Hongda said smilingly, “Little Feng, you are a very bright young man, I often hear that among the younger generation, Secretary Zhen Guo’s eldest son, and the children of several other families, are quite outstanding, but in my opinion, you are not below them!”

“Secretary Qian, it’s not good to hold up too high, it hurts to fall down!” Ji Feng smiled faintly.

“Hehe ……”

Qian Hongda also chuckled: “This is not holding you up, if it were someone else, under these circumstances, I’m afraid not many people would come to the appointment, right?”

Ji Feng smiled: “Secretary Qian, I wonder if you asked me to come today for ……”

“I’m here to plead for my indisputable son!” Qian Hongda said very frankly, not concealing his purpose.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but raise an eyebrow, Qian Hongda was really direct with these words!

“Hehe ……”

Seeing Ji Feng’s expression, Qian Hongda couldn’t help but laugh, “You don’t have to worry, I won’t make things difficult for you, and, as a cadre, I won’t do anything illegal. I just hope that, when possible, you can lift your hand and not let that child Xiao Bin suffer too much, this is the bitterness of a father, I still hope you can understand!”

“I completely understand!” Ji Feng laughed: “But, this aspect of things is not enough for me, frankly speaking, when we wait until we get to Jiangzhou, how to try, what procedures to follow, all these I will not interfere, and there is no reason to interfere, at most I will just pay attention to it, that’s all!”

“Well!”

Qian Hongda nodded and suddenly asked, “Then, I wonder if I can ask you to help intervene in this case? Of course, as I said earlier, I certainly won’t have any irregularities, but if that boy Xiao Bin has shown merit, the sentence should be reduced by quite a bit, right?”

“What you mean is ……” Ji Feng was a little hesitant.

“If the follow-up of this case you can still personally overlook, I believe Xiao Bin should have quite a few things to report!” Qian Hongda said meaningfully, “Of course, if there is anything lacking in what he said, perhaps I can add some of that too!”

Understood!

Ji Feng was suddenly enlightened, and hearing this, he instantly understood why Qian Hongda had specifically invited him.

It was just like what he had guessed, Qian Hongda was there to plead for his son Qian Bin!

Only, Qian Hongda's way of asking for mercy was not quite the same as what Ji Feng had guessed before, he didn't lean on the old man, nor did he incite, instead he stated his way very directly – a deal!

That's right!

Qian Hongda's statement was, to put it bluntly, actually a deal!

Qian Bin may make a meritorious performance .....

What do you mean by a meritorious performance?

Without a doubt, to report someone, that is the greatest meritorious performance and the most direct way.

And what made Ji Feng think it was a deal the most was what Qian Hongda said later – if there was anything Qian Bin said that was insufficient, Qian Hongda could still add to it!

This meant that if Ji Feng agreed to do so, then Qian Bin would make a report, and the next step would be for Ji Feng to fulfil his promise to have Qian Bin's sentence reduced or to suffer less in the detention centre.

If Ji Feng is able to keep his promise, then next Qian Hongda will tell Ji Feng the most crucial part, making Qian Bin's prosecution complete.

But if Ji Feng is not able to keep the promise he made before, then what Qian Hongda adds next, I'm afraid, will be something else!

As for what Qian Bin will report, one doesn't need to think about it, it must be extremely favorable to Ji Feng!

— From this, it can be seen that this is an outright deal!

This was a secret deal Qian Hongda was making with Ji Feng in order to save his son and in turn, which is why Qian Hongda came to this private club and there was no third person in the box .....

"Secretary Qian, I wonder what aspect of the situation Qian Bin is about to prosecute, which is it?" Ji Feng did not rush to answer, but asked.

You can't deal with an old fox like Qian Hongda without being careful, Ji Feng has to be cautious!

"Hehe ....." Qian Hongda laughed and stirred his finger in his teacup before writing a few words on the table.

However, when Ji Feng saw these few words, he immediately frowned and looked at Qian Hongda with a cold glint in his eyes, "Secretary Qian, is this true?"

"I'm just a father with a heart for his son right now, that's all!" Qian Hongda said.

Ji Feng then fell silent, of course he understood what Qian Hongda meant, the other party was saying that now that Qian Bin was in his hands, as a father, what tricks could Qian Hongda play?

And then, Ji Feng's gaze fell on the table again.

Brilliant Group!

The boundary tent!

These were the few words Qian Hongda had written, and Ji stared dead on, his brows furrowed.
