Chapter 1781

“Guoliang, how’s the investigation going?” Ji Feng asked.

Ji Feng brought White Spider to the place where he had made an appointment with Li Guoliang, and saw that Li Guoliang was already driving and waiting. Only, the car he was driving was not the one he had used during the operation last night, but a very ordinary pickup truck, and there seemed to be no problem looking at the number plate.

Of course, Ji Feng didn’t know much about the number plates of cars in Rice, but one thing he was sure of was that Li Guoliang would not drive a very special car, which would only draw attention to himself.

In fact, Ji Feng was very satisfied with Li Guoliang’s ability, this person is flexible and very good, the most crucial thing is that he is very experienced, know when Ji Feng should use what things, no need for Ji Feng to say much, Li Guoliang will be well prepared in advance.

This allowed Ji Feng to save his mind, he didn’t need to worry about other aspects at all, he just needed to concentrate on how he should act.

So now after Ji Feng and the white spider got into the car, he didn’t even ask about anything else, but directly asked Li Guoliang about his findings.

As expected, Li Guoliang still didn’t let Ji Feng down, he nodded and said, “It’s all been found out.”

Ji Feng nodded his head with a satisfied smile and said, “Tell me more about it.”

White Spider turned her head out of the car window and vigilantly watched everything outside the window to prevent anyone from eavesdropping or coming to disturb Ji Feng and Li Guoliang’s conversation.

She and Ji Feng were likewise very cooperative, and she didn’t need Ji Feng to say much at all, she knew what to do and what to do.

“Based on those names you provided, and those few gangs, I specifically did my investigation.” Li Guoliang had already opened his mouth to introduce them, “Two of them are not in New York, according to the information they got, they should be out on something.”

“What about the others?” Ji Feng nodded and asked. He had gotten quite a lot of information from the bosses of those small gangs, and there were quite a few people involved in them.

It was inevitable that there would be a few people who were not in New York, whether they had deliberately hidden out or had really left New York temporarily for something, it did not matter, as long as the vast majority of them did not hide out, then it would be fine.

The remaining one or two fish in the net can be dealt with at any time in the future. In fact, even if they realize something and want to escape, they will be on tenterhooks, which is not as painful as sticking your head out.

So Ji Feng didn't even ask about the two guys who had left New York, what he was concerned about was the vast majority of people who hadn't left.

"Inside those people you mentioned, there is a big man from the Four Seas Gang, the Green Gang also has one, and the White Hand has three families involved in this matter, including the Fels family, which ranks second among the White Hand families, and the head of the family is Carl & Fels "The first of these is the one that is the second most popular.

After listening, Ji Feng couldn't help but frown: "The Qing Gang is also involved in this matter?"

Last night, Ji Feng asked a lot of information from the bosses of those small gangs, but some of them only had a name, as for the specific origin of this person, the bosses of those small gangs didn't know either, so Ji Feng simply also told Li Guoliang all these names and asked him to investigate.

But what Ji Feng didn't expect was that the Green Gang was actually involved!

Li Guoliang nodded and said, "Yes, the one you mentioned, Luo Xun, is a hall master of the Qing Gang, Mr. Ji, this Qing Gang is a Chinese gang, it only came to Rice in its early years, and after many years of fishy fighting, it was only after this that it gained a firm foothold, it can be said that it has gone through a lot of hardships, and thus gradually developed and grew."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, he knew more or less about the Qing Gang, and on the first day he came to Rice, Li Guoliang had told him about the exploits of the Qing Gang.

One of the things that Li Guoliang said made Ji Feng feel quite good about this Qing Gang.

According to what Li Guoliang said before, the Qing Gang was mainly developed in Chinese circles, and its power was spread all over the Chinatown in Rice, but of course it was also extending to the periphery.

Many of the bigwigs in the gang are no longer involved in the gang's affairs, and their goal is to develop regular industries and make money.

However, when there is a crisis or a major issue, these bigwigs will still come out and say a few words.

So the only people who can really be considered members of the gang are those who are still active in the Chinese streets and are still doing some illegal activities.

But these people never harmed the Chinese in Chinatown, and there were strict rules in the gang that punished anyone who dared to harm them in Chinatown.

The gang's rules are strict and the penalties are even stricter.

As a result, very few of the members of the Youth Gang have been known to cause harm to anyone in Chinatown.

Most of them were foreigners.

More importantly, the Yakuza were particularly hostile to the Chinese in New York, and when the Chinese saw them, they were afraid to go around.

In the face of this situation, the Yakuza and the Aoyogi had more than once fought against each other, and on a few occasions, there was almost a large-scale firefight, which would have resulted in massive casualties if the police had not stopped both the Aoyogi and the Yakuza in time.

Because the police intervened, the two sides did not fight, and when the Yakuza were in power at the time, they sent out a large number of fighters directly, as long as they saw the boundary tents, they could toss them around!

It was just a matter of going to jail!

There were people in prison, and there were also people from the Youth Gang, so no one could do anything about it.

However, the Yakuza were unlucky, as they were not as numerous as the Chinese.

If they continued to fight, they would lose a lot of money.

Faced with this situation, the Yakuza had no choice but to bite the bullet and concede defeat, saying that they would restrain their men and would not provoke the Chinese any more.

Only then did the Ao Gang give up, and the matter came to an end.

However, the shamelessness of the Kaitou people is deep in their bones, and they still harass the Chinese from time to time.

Because of the favouritism of the Rice Police, the Green Gang was not in a position to make a big fuss again, and things were left at a standstill.

When Ji Feng first heard Li Guoliang talk about this matter, he was very surprised.

This was the first time Ji Feng had heard of such unity among the Chinese people. In fact, when he thought about it, this might be the nature of the Chinese people.

They like to fight internally, and because of the slow and backward economic and social development, many Chinese people are not of high quality, or they have such and such bad habits.

However, when faced with an external enemy, even two people who have had hatred in the past will put it aside and unite as one.

But if an outsider comes to bully us, then there is nothing to say and we will fight back!

What's more, this foreign enemy is also a Canopy man!

But it is undeniable that in this matter, the Green Gang did a pretty good job and was admirable, especially the one who was in charge of the gang at that time, who had the courage to be admired!

For such a Chinese gang, Ji Feng could not help but think of it as one of his own in his heart, no matter if they were overseas Chinese or had taken root in Rice, they were still Chinese at heart, and this was very difficult to change.

But now, Li Guoliang actually told him that those despicable moves against the Weida Group actually involved a hall master of the Qing Gang!

This made Ji Feng feel a little uncomfortable in his heart.

Was this still the same Green Gang that had once defended their fellow brothers against all odds?

With the power of the Green Gang, it was impossible for them not to know that Ji Nan Yue, the boss of the Weida Group, was also a Chinese, but that Hall Master called Luo Xun, had done it anyway.

Not only did he do it, he also instructed the local hooligans and thugs in New York to go after the Weida Group.

Ji Feng really didn't know what to say.

He was silent for a moment and said, "Guoliang, this Luo Xun of the Qing Gang, let's put it aside for now, tell me about the others, I want their details, or their addresses, of course, if you can track their exact traces in real time, that would be even better."

Li Guoliang immediately nodded his head, but in his heart he was slightly relieved.

He was really worried that Ji Feng would, in a fit of anger, ignore the situation and directly kill the Qing Gang, if that was the case, it would trigger a full-scale showdown with the Qing Gang.

Anyone with a bit of brain could think of the consequences.

With Ji Feng's extreme strength, even if he lost to the Qing Gang, it would be enough to make the Qing Gang pay an extremely heavy price, and he might even take out the entire Qing Gang's top brass!

If so, it would be the heaviest blow to the Chinese forces in the whole of Rice!

Whether from a personal point of view or out of public interest, Li Guoliang did not want to see this happen. However, Ji Feng had asked him to investigate, which was an order, and he could not hide anything halfway from Ji Feng, so when he spoke about the Qing Gang, he deliberately put it in the middle, but with a lot of apprehension in his heart.

Now Ji Feng's attitude made Li Guoliang slightly relieved that Ji Feng wasn't as shocked as he thought he would be, so there was a possibility of a peaceful resolution to this matter!

Li Guoliang was worried that Ji Feng would change his mind and hurriedly introduced him to the details of those mafia bigwigs.

"I'll start with a few families of the White Hand"

Chapter 1782

"So, it's impossible to get rid of all these people tonight?" Ji Feng asked.

"Theoretically speaking, it's not very likely." Li Guoliang shook his head.

Ji Feng nodded slightly and pondered.

When those small gangs were cleared out, the opponents left in front of them, there were still two forces.

One of these forces belonged to the backstage of those small gangs, or to be more accurate, those who directed the small gangs to lay hands on the Weida Group.

There is another force, which is of a more covert kind of shadowy power.

Of course, if we're talking strictly, there's another force, the paid assassins, who can't be ignored.

Only, until these killers make their move, you simply don't know if they are enemies or not, nor do you know where they are hiding, when they will make their move, or even the identity they usually use to disguise themselves

Therefore, in Ji Feng's plan, these killers are a force to be dealt with in a separate way.

And for those more hidden shadowy forces, Li Guoliang now also does not have much important information, so Ji Feng then intends to put it aside first, at least before mastering the other party's specific information, Ji Feng will not act rashly, otherwise, it would be very unwise behavior.

So what Li Guoliang mainly introduced were just those big mobsters who were directing the small gangs, or those few big gangs.

Li Guoliang had investigated the big guys and the bigger gangs more carefully, in fact, the information of these people was not a secret, they were all known to be in the triads, no matter if it was the people around, the people on the road, or the MiG, they must be very clear.

But unfortunately, no evidence of their crimes could be found. In the country of Rice, evidence is extremely important, and if there is no evidence, even if everyone knows that a certain person has committed those crimes, there is nothing that can be done about it.

In this respect, China is a long way behind.

In China, if the government really wants to take action against someone, the law, the evidence and so on, are just for the outside world to see, and it's not too much to say that it's a veil of shame.

In fact, what to do with those people depends not only on the law or the evidence, but also, and most critically, on what the leaders above say.

There is a saying that if the leader says you can do it, you can't. If the leader says you can't, you can't!

This is also very appropriate when it comes to this kind of thing.

If the leader says that you have committed a felony and should be sentenced heavily, then even if it is possible to impose a lighter punishment, the heaviest standard will be used to impose the sentence. But if the leader says it is best to exercise discretion and impose a lighter punishment, then even the death penalty can be turned into a term of imprisonment, while perhaps after a few years in the supervisory force, you will come out swinging.

This is the so-called Chinese characteristic, right?

But this kind of thing doesn't work at all in Rice. Everyone knows that someone must be guilty, but as long as they can't find any evidence of their crime, they can't be touched.

This is precisely why the police and some departments in Rice go through repeated and careful investigations of the targets they have set their sights on.

Their aim is to find out evidence to prove that those people have indeed committed a crime.

So it was not too difficult for Li Guoliang to get information about those people.

Li Guoliang spoke in great detail about all the information he had, and then quietly waited for Ji Feng to make a decision.

Ji Feng pondered, and after a moment he said, "Guoliang, you drive first, there is no rush to make a decision now, let's go and have a look on the ground first!"

Li Guoliang immediately asked, "Is it still the same as last time, let's go to see where they live first?"

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said, "That's right, it's the same as last time. However, not only should we go to their residence, according to what the information shows, where they usually like to go most, their office, and their residence, all these places should be visited."

Li Guoliang hesitated, "But in this way, we don't have too much time. Mr. Ji, if we follow this scouting method, if we want to see all of these people's residences and the places they like to go, as well as their office places, it will take at least until tomorrow morning, and that's if nothing unexpected happens!"

Ji Feng smiled faintly: "It's okay, we can look at a few places, so many people, it's not realistic to settle them all in one night!"

"This is!" Li Guoliang nodded and responded, since Ji Feng had said so, then he had nothing more to say.

Ji Feng leaned against the backrest of the back seat, lowered the car window, felt the cold wind blowing outside, and stared sternly at the scenery outside the car window, mentally writing down the characteristics of these environments, as well as the paths they were passing through.

In fact, Ji Feng did not know that if they looked so carefully, not to mention one night, I am afraid they might not be able to finish it by this time tomorrow.

You know, the people we are checking out today are completely different from the small gang leaders we took out last night. The people we are investigating today are all of high status and have a much larger number of minions around them than the bosses of the small gangs.

And they all basically have a legitimate identity covering them on the surface.

For example, a certain mobster may be the boss of so-and-so company in name, but in reality that company is their mob enterprise.

It is not an easy task to get a clear and accurate trail of them.

Therefore, in order to prevent not being able to find the exact traces of those people when the time came for action, Ji Feng decided to take a look at all the places where they frequented, so that only in this way could he be able to find the other party and kill them in one blow as soon as he could.

If he missed because he couldn't find them, it would be a joke. It would also alert the other side, so it would not be easy to strike again.

Next, Li Guoliang drove Ji Feng and the white spider to see the gangsters involved in the Weida Group incident and the locations of the big gangs, in the order of the information he had found out.

In the blink of an eye, the time had come to night.

Wearing a black trench coat and a hat on his head, Ji Feng looked like an exotic foreigner, and unless one was directly opposite him, no one would ever think that this was actually a young Chinese man.

At this moment, Ji Feng was sticking his hands in his pockets and striding out from an alleyway.

"Young Ji is here!"

"Buzz~~!"

Hearing a car by the roadside, it immediately started up and slowly drove away, and when Ji Feng walked to the roadside, the car drove right up to him.

Ji Feng pulled open the car door and got in, and casually asked, "This is the sixth one, right?"

Bai Spider nodded, and then she took out a folder from the storage box at the front of the car, and after opening it, inside was a small map of New York City with several very conspicuous red dots on it, with something marked in writing next to it.

She said, "Young Ji, this is indeed the sixth one already, and, from the first marked point at the beginning to this one, a rough estimate shows that there is at least a straight line distance of about a hundred kilometres, so if we count the time for action, one night may not be enough. Do you think we should get here first? Or, should the two of us split up and each be responsible for a part of it?"

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "We can't move separately. In the course of the operation, no one can guarantee what kind of accidents will occur, and the two of us working in tandem must ensure that everything is foolproof in this kind of operation"

Speaking here he raised his hand to look at his watch and said, "Guoliang, turn around from the junction and let's return the same way."

"Yes!" Li Guoliang immediately answered.

"Ji Shao" White Spider looked at Ji Feng with some confusion, she wondered why Ji Feng wanted to return the same way, wouldn't it be a waste of time?

"In New York, we have no accurate intelligence sources, to accurately grasp the whereabouts of these people at any time, the preparation must be done." Seeing the puzzled look in White Spider's eyes, Ji Feng explained, "In order to prevent anything unexpected from happening, this time, the two of us together, we will scout those places again!"

White Spider couldn't help but feel awe in her heart, originally she thought that when she used to be an assassin, she would make very thorough preparations before each operation, and she felt that she was meticulous enough.

But now she realised that in fact, Ji Feng's preparations were much more outstanding than hers.

Although Ji Feng might not be as meticulous as she was, his attitude towards the preparations was incomparably serious, and the vast majority of people could not match him on this point alone.

And Li Guoliang likewise had a secret admiration in his heart. Given Ji Feng's status and position, it was only natural for him to be a playboy, and no one would find it strange, however, instead of being a playboy, Ji Feng was an extremely outstanding handsome person.

His serious and cautious attitude towards things made Li Guoliang greatly admire him.

Perhaps, this was the reason why Ji Feng was always confident when facing any opponent, Li Guoliang said secretly.

Next, Ji Feng took the white spider and repeatedly scouted the surroundings, residences and other aspects of the six targets he had selected, and after such a trip, it was midnight and time for action.

This time, both Ji Feng and the white spider could be said to have taken the operation lightly, just before this, they had scouted twice!

Li Guoliang parked his car at an inconspicuous place by the roadside and waited quietly, he could even imagine that when the sun rose tomorrow, the whole of New York, would be shaken into what it was.

I'm afraid that the entire New York mob will be completely terrified, with mobsters being taken out every night, and either in large numbers, or, in the case of heavyweights there's no telling how many people will go crazy with fear!

Chapter 1783

In New York, in a wilderness close to the city, but still a little way away, there is a lush forest.

Even though it is the dead of winter, the woods are still so lush that one can almost forget the cold of winter just by looking at the swaying leaves and think that spring has arrived.

And if you look further ahead from the woods, there is a large artificial lake with a shimmering surface that has not frozen over in the cold of winter.

The reason for this is that around this artificial lake is a thick band of woods, which is like a tall wall enclosing the artificial lake, making it a more pleasant environment with a considerable difference in temperature and climate from the outside world.

If one did not look up from here and still see the towering factory chimneys in the distance, I am afraid that anyone would think of this place as a paradise.

You can imagine how pleasant it must be to live here.

However, it is not easy to own a home here, whether in China or in the country, even in New York, the world's most prosperous metropolis, a home of this kind is still only affordable to the rich.

The term "rich and powerful" is not just popular in China, it is the same in any country, and foreign countries are not paradises where everyone is so fair to each other. Even the most economically developed countries are definitely not as rosy as people think.

So when you look around this artificial lake, there are hardly any residential buildings, and even if there are, they are some distance away, so it is obviously impossible to enjoy the fresh air and beautiful environment here every moment of the day.

But what is surprising is that right on the shore of this artificial lake, amidst a lush forest, there are actually lights coming out.

A closer look reveals that there is a manor house hidden in the middle of the lush woods, and it is a manor house that covers an extremely large area.

The manor's courtyard walls were built right in the middle of the woods, with a strip of land cleared away to build the manor's main building

As you can imagine, the people who could live in this manor house would obviously not be street bums, let alone those who work hard every day to pay back the bank interest.

Look at the front door of that manor house, which has a line of English letters written on it that looks open and clawed.

These letters are in fact abbreviations, if translated, are a long list of surnames, which is a Western custom, for example, after a woman marries her husband, then their surname, in front of their husband's surname, or in some countries, is directly on the husband's surname.

The initials at the beginning of this string of letters represent an extremely powerful family – the Fells!

The power of this powerful family in the White Hand, it goes without saying, so after seeing this string of letters, I am afraid that no one will have any doubts about why they have such a table manor in such a nice environment.

This is the home of the current head of the Fels family, Karl & Fels!

It was late in the evening, and apart from the searchlights that swept over the walls of the manor and the patrolling guards, there was no other movement around.

At this time, some distance away from the woods, a car pulled up to the side of the road, its motor and headlights switched off, silent.

Two figures flashed past and instantly disappeared into the woods.

In the manor, a man who was exactly asleep, suddenly felt a cold neck, at the same time, a cold female voice came to his ears: "Carl Fells?"

Swish!

Karl's body stiffened abruptly, as the head of the Fils family, despite years of pampering, but to be able to be the head of the family that after all is not a simple generation, just in this short moment, Karl will realize what has happened to him.

Someone had infiltrated his bedroom and put a knife to his neck.

"Eh!"

Karl hurriedly held up his hands to show that he would not resist, and at the same time, he then made to speak.

"I can guarantee that your throat will be cut before you can shout out, if you don't believe me, you can try it!" The cold female voice rang out again, making Karl not even dare to move a finger again.

"So you are Carl!" The female voice said coldly, and her wrist snapped to force.

"Wait a minute!" Carl felt the sharp blade pressed against his neck increase in strength, and he was suddenly scared to death, and hurriedly lowered his voice and said, "Don't kill me, I'll give you anything you want!"

Although Karl could not see him in the darkness, he could feel the cold killing intent coming from him.

Carl was terrified!

It suddenly occurred to him that in the past few days, the New York mob had been subjected to almost a general massacre, with all the top brass of the Yamaguchi group being taken out overnight, and the bosses and heads of more than twenty smaller gangs being taken out before that.

Could it be that now was finally talking about himself?

His mind raced with thoughts, if it was really what he guessed, then he was in real danger this time, the other side had even taken out so many people, how could they be worse than himself?

"The Fells family is the most powerful family in the White Hand, if you kill me, the whole world will no longer have a place for you to stand, you will be hunted all over the world"

"Ji Shao" A soft cry rang out and Carl's voice came to a screeching halt as he realised abruptly that there was another person in the room.

"You"

However, before he could finish his words, he only felt a blackness before his eyes and his entire body lost consciousness.

Ji Feng swept him a cold glance and said, "White Spider, follow what I taught you before and ask him!"

White Spider immediately nodded and asked in a low voice in front of Karl.

In fact, if there was light in the room at this time, one could clearly see that at this moment, Karl's face was already full of bewilderment, and his eyes were not even half-bright, as if his whole body had become empty and his soul had been drained away.

This was because Ji Feng had used bio-current to simulate neurotoxin and injected it into Karl's body, turning him into this state.

In fact, when he first came in, Ji Feng could have made Karl be injected with the neurotoxin without any notice, only that Ji Feng was not sure if this person was Karl or not, so he deliberately woke him up.

After testing out that this person was Karl, there was nothing more to say. Ji Feng did not have time to sit down and talk to Karl about any deal, nor did he even have the interest to talk to him.

With the bio-current, Ji Feng didn't need to worry about Carl not telling the truth at all, he had plenty of ways!

After a few moments, White Spider whispered, "Young Ji, it's OK!"

Ji Feng waved his hand, "Deal with it, call it a day!"

With that, the knife in White Spider's hand, slashed through Karl's neck, before the blood shot out, White Spider casually pulled the quilt to cover Karl underneath, then calmly got up and left.

"Young Ji, there's a bomb in the basement of the manor!" White Spider suddenly said in a low voice.

"Hmm?" Ji Feng was stunned, and then he understood what she meant, White Spider was going to use a bomb to blow up the manor!

"I've asked, the stairs from the entrance of this room can lead straight to the wine cellar, through the wine cellar is the basement, and the guards won't be alerted in between!" White Spider whispered.

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Be careful, let's go to the basement!"

A few minutes later, the roar of an engine suddenly came out of the darkness, and a car drove off straight away without any lights or lights on.

This time, it was Ji Feng who was driving, the darkness did not affect him in the slightest, which surprised Li Guoliang, he could hardly understand why Ji Feng was driving in the dark without lights, instead he was still so relaxed, as if he was driving in the daytime

"Boom~~!"

A loud sound suddenly came.

Li Guoliang jerked around to look, and saw a fire suddenly burst into the sky at the far side of the lake, lighting up the dark night. Even from a distance, it seemed that Li Guoliang could still feel the searing heat from that explosion and the huge shockwave.

He couldn't help but be aghast in his heart, the Fells family's manor, was just blown into ruins

Needless to say, this was obviously the means of Ji Feng and the White Spider.

Li Guocheng was shocked and pained, but more than that, he was impressed!

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of services and services to the public, including the provision of services to the public, the provision of services to the public, and the provision of services to the public.

Those mobsters are in trouble!

Li Guoliang suddenly thought that the Qing Gang was also involved in this incident, how would Ji Feng treat the Qing Gang?

The people of the Qing Gang were all equally unruly and untamed, if they clashed with Ji Feng

And the Four Seas Gang

The first thing you need to do is to make sure that you have a good understanding of the situation.

Now all he had to do was to honestly do what Ji Feng ordered, and then follow Ji Feng into action, to see Ji Feng's methods, it was enough for him to learn a lot!

"Zee...!"

It was only after a few junctions had been passed that Ji Feng stopped the car, "Guoliang, you drive, go to the next place!"

Li Guoliang did as he was told and took Ji Feng and the white spider with him, heading straight for the second target

Chapter 1784

Something big has happened again in the New York underworld!

Several of the biggest names in the business, including the head of the Fells family, the second largest family in the White Hand, six of the biggest names in the mob have been killed.

Some of them died in their bedrooms, others, in their living rooms, and one died in his car, with a knocked out sexy girl next to him as.

What's more, the luxurious manor of the Fils family was blown to rubble, which means that the Fils family's lair, was destroyed!

The news, as if it had grown wings, flew to the ears of everyone on the road, even those who were cheating on the streets, and even those thieves, all knew the news.

This was already the third time in just a few days that a yakuza gang had been attacked and killed.

The first time, it was the top brass of the Yamaguchi-gumi, which was wiped out in one night, leaving the entire New York yakuza in shock. The second time, the bosses and main leaders of over twenty small gangs in New York were taken out, and this time the shock caused was even greater than the first!

However, no one expected that just when the storm caused by the first two incidents was in full swing, there was actually another piece of news that would shock people even more.

This time, it turned out that a big shot who was well-known in the New York City and even in the whole of the mafia had been killed, and moreover, six of them had been killed at once!

It was unbelievable!

If it was said that the Yakuza were wiped out, it could be explained that they were all gathered together for a meeting and someone managed to sneak in and take advantage of the opportunity to blow up all the Yakuza with a bomb, which was shocking but barely acceptable, after all, if it was someone with super good reach, it might not be impossible to sneak in.

Besides, with so many people from the Yakuza gathered together at the time, no one could guarantee that someone was not colluding with outsiders, after all, when there are many people, it looks chaotic.

So, what about this time?

The six men who were taken out were all the top bigwigs in the Yakuza in Rice.

The head of a powerful family of the White Hand, another powerful big shot, and a guy who was known as a human machine, who had gone from being a small-time gangster, relying on his fists, to sitting in the boss position step by step..... so many people, which of them were not surrounded by experts to protect them?

However, all these people were actually killed off!

This is really unbelievable!

And before the ripples caused by the first two incidents had subsided, this shocking news came again, and the entire New York mob was abuzz.

Even those thieves who spent their days hanging around the streets, stealing for a living, didn't have the heart to work.

They gathered in groups, smoking cigarettes and talking about the events of the past few days.

"Hey! Have you heard?"

"Of course, it's amazing how so many big guys have been taken out."

"It's the third time now, what a hell, who the hell is after our New York mob, do they have to take out everyone before they're happy?"

"Shhh don't talk nonsense!"

The man who had spoken before was startled and hurriedly turned his head subconsciously to look, and only after making sure that no one else had heard him did he breathe a slight sigh of relief.

"Do you guys think that this could have been done by some gang?"

"How could that be! The one most capable of doing this is the White Hand, but didn't the head of the Fells family get killed too? Obviously the White Hand didn't do it."

"That's true, several big gangs were attacked and all had their big men taken out, but, there were several other big gangs that didn't suffer any damage."

"Oh? You're talking about"

"You should not forget that in Chinatown, but there is still a powerful gang."

"The Green Gang?"

Several people said in unison.

The first time you think about it, it is very possible, in the past, the Green Gang can be and Yamaguchi group hard fire, see how strong the Green Gang, and then look at the several events among the Green Gang and several other gangs did not suffer any losses, so when you think about it, that is not impossible.

“OK action, hurry up and get to work, if we can’t pay our share today, the boss will definitely clean us up!” A few people discussed and discussed, but they didn’t guess what was going on, so they all lost interest.

At the mention of the boss, several thieves suddenly all winced in fear, the boss did not treat people who could not pay their share money in a normal way.

“Really, so many small gang bosses have been taken out, how come no one has taken our boss out too? Satan is on top!”

.....

The whole of the New York lane was in an uproar because of the deaths of those six mob bosses!

Almost all the gang lords, members and even the lowly thieves on the streets were talking about what had happened in the past few days, some with gnashing of teeth, while others with awe in their hearts.

But one thing is beyond doubt: the continuous attacks and killings against members of the yakuza over the past few days have really emboldened everyone.

Even those gangs that have had important figures killed have been terrified at the very mention of this incident. The severity and terror of the attackers is no longer in doubt, and the events of the past few days have already proved the terror of the attackers.

Even these ruthless gangsters, who have blood on their hands, can’t help but be cautious when they talk about these matters.

No one wants to be targeted by the assailants because of their bravado.

Just the thought that they might be targeted by such a terrifying raider could not help but make their hearts beat wildly, their scalps explode and their bodies go a little weak.

But even so, the furore intensifies and these guys don’t dare to talk about it openly, but privately they do talk about it, because after all, what has happened is so shocking.

And there was no shortage of people who thought the same as the thieves.

They didn’t know who had done it, but there was one simple truth that everyone understood.

That is – whoever gets the most out of these events is the one who did it!

Although it is not clear from now who has gained the most, the gangs that did not have important people taken out have clearly benefited.

What’s more, the Takenakenen Gang, which has taken advantage of the opportunity to occupy most of the Yamaguchi gang’s territory, has also benefited greatly, so isn’t that suspicious too?

In a flash, the Green Gang, the Takenakeno Gang, and a few other gangs that were powerful but not under attack, became suspicious of the other gangs.

The gangs that had their big men taken out even vowed to find the culprits, and the pressure on these suspected gangs increased steeply.

All these storms outside, Ji Feng didn't care, he just had to follow his plan to get rid of all the people targeting the Weida Group, and then find the promoter hiding behind the curtain, his plan would be almost complete.

Last night, Ji Feng got some information from the mouths of those few mob bosses, but it was still a bit insufficient, so Ji Feng was now thinking about how to track down the person behind the curtain.

In the blink of an eye, another day had passed.

In the night that had just passed, several more mob bosses were taken out, and the New York mob was once again shaken.

Equally shaken was the New York police.

Although the news had been deliberately kept under wraps and there was little media coverage due to the threat of the mob, especially from the White Hand, the police were feeling the pressure.

Although it is not uncommon to see fires in the mafia, and there are many deaths every year due to mafia fires alone, the police have become accustomed to it.

However, this was a different story. This was clearly a targeted attack on the New York mob, and the target was very clear and ruthless, which made the police both shocked and angry, as they were clearly treating them as if they were nothing.

But even though they were angry, there was nothing they could do, they didn't have a clue, let alone find the killer.

What's more, even if they did find the killer, would they be able to guarantee that they would catch him?

Who would want to mess with such a horrible guy? There's even a good chance that is still a gang!

On the one hand, the police had to block the news and clean up the scene like hard workers, while on the other hand, they could only report to the top very helplessly that they could not clean up this matter.

However, unlike the police's reaction, the triads were almost in a state of panic at this time.

The fact that so many gangsters had been killed one after another and so many gangs had been wiped out made the gang leaders nervous and, at the same time, they were all furious.

They couldn't sit on their hands like this any longer, if this continued, then they would all be killed off one by one!

Fear, which was not helpful, did nothing but hasten death.

After being cornered for several days in a row, these bigwigs, who had developed a ruthless nature from their long association with the mob, all became ruthless and began their actions.

The White Hand, the committee decided unanimously, in the shortest possible time, to go all out and find out who the killer was.

The other gangs likewise looked around for clues, vowing that they would find the killer.

And at this time, a few gangs that were already suspected, such as the Chuk Yuen Gang and the Ching Gang, which were stronger and had not suffered any losses in the attack, became the focus of attention for the other gangs.

There were even powerful gang leaders who approached them directly, almost triggering a violent clash.

When Li Guoliang told Ji Feng all these news, Ji Feng only smiled slightly, not half surprised, as if he had expected such a situation to arise.

"It's good to be in chaos, it's time to be in chaos too!" Ji Feng smiled faintly, "Let them be chaotic for a while, Guoliang, get ready, let's go somewhere tonight!"

"Yes!" Li Guoliang immediately answered, and then he asked, "Where to? What do I need to prepare?"

"To meet the person behind the curtain!" Ji Feng sneered, a cold aura flashed in his eyes!

Chapter 1785

"Yes!"

Li Guoliang immediately nodded his head and answered.

In his heart, he was stunned that Ji Feng had investigated who was behind the conspiracy against the Weida Group?

He had come to Rice for such a long time, but he had not found out anything, he only knew that this matter involved a lot of forces, but Ji Feng had only been here for a few days, and he had already found out?

Of course, despite the doubts in his heart, Li Guoliang followed Ji Feng's orders to the letter. As a soldier, Li Guoliang understood very well what to ask and what not to ask.

Although the order he received was to assist Ji Feng, this strict discipline was already deep in his bones, so although Li Guoliang wanted to know exactly how Ji Feng had found out, he would not take the initiative to ask if Ji Feng did not tell him.

Afterwards, Li Guoliang followed Ji Feng's instructions and went to prepare the vehicles and weapons he needed.

Ji Feng, on the other hand, discussed with the White Spider about the details of the operation.

For this matter, Bai Spider was personally involved from beginning to end. What's more, she had been with Ji Feng for such a long time, and for her character, Ji Feng had already understood it, so there was no need to hide anything from her.

"Young Ji, for today's operation, is it still just the two of us going?" White Spider asked.

"There's a problem?" Ji Feng asked.

“Shouldn’t we be a bit more cautious?” White Spider suggested, “After all, what we’re facing today is no ordinary person, that’s a Transformer after all. Moreover, we still don’t know exactly how many there are, and if we encounter another expert like the one we met last time in Southern Guangdong, I’m afraid we won’t be able to cope with it with just the two of us.”

Ji Feng nodded thoughtfully.

In fact, what they were going to face tonight would most likely be a group of reformers.

In the past two days of operation, Ji Feng and the others had done two main things: firstly, they had taken out all those mob bosses who were targeting the Weida Group. Secondly, before they finished them off, they learned from them the reason why they were targeting the Weida Group.

In front of the neurotoxin simulated by the bio-current, those so-called yakuza bigwigs had no ability to resist at all, and whatever Ji Feng wanted to ask, they would all answer in one go.

According to the interrogation of those mob bosses, the reason why a few of them targeted the Weida Group was because someone had given them an advantage to make things difficult for the Weida Group.

However, there were only three or four of these kind of mob bosses who were paid to do things, and they could only be considered average bosses compared to other mob bosses. Like the rest of the big brothers are more powerful, just giving money may not be able to move them, and because of this, they came into contact with the people behind the curtain.

Ji Feng learnt from their mouths that the people who had asked them to take action against the Weida Group were two groups of people, from two companies respectively.

If that was all, then at first glance, it might seem that it was just the business rivals of the Weida Group who used unfair competitive means to deal with the Weida Group, which did not seem strange.

However, Ji Feng was able to see something odd from the names of these two companies.

Ji Feng found that the names of these two companies were both very familiar.

When they had first arrived in Rice, Li Guoliang had given him a copy of the investigation information, which showed the names of companies that did not deal with the Weida Group, and among them, there were a few more mysterious ones, and Li Guoliang had personally gone to one of them to scout and encountered the reformers there, and in the end, Li Guoliang could only retreat.

The two companies mentioned by the mob bosses were two of the more mysterious companies that Li Guoliang had mentioned, and one of them was the one that Li Guoliang had personally explored!

From this, it dawned on Ji Feng.

The real driving force behind the attack on the Weida Group was those mysterious companies.

And from the fact that Li Guoliang had encountered a transformer in one of the companies, the real mastermind behind this would be self-explanatory.

–Dynasty!

Maybe it was someone from Dynasty, or maybe the operation against the Vistra Group was planned by Dynasty itself, but whatever the case, it had to be Dynasty!

So obviously, those companies must also have a very close relationship with Dynasty.

So Ji Feng decided that tonight he would go and explore those companies, he wanted to see what kind of ghosts were in there!

“The two of us will be enough.” Ji Feng pondered for a moment and said, “We won’t necessarily make a move if we go there tonight, let’s talk about it after we figure things out first.”

“Will it spook the snake?” White Spider asked.

“If we can really scare the other side, it wouldn’t be a bad idea!” Ji Feng sneered, “They’ll only make mistakes if they panic, and we’ll be able to see more!”

The white spider then understood Ji Feng’s meaning and nodded slightly, not saying anything more.

In fact, originally, Ji Feng had planned to uncover the person behind the curtain and deal with it as he saw fit once he understood the truth of the matter.

But since he knew that this matter was actually related to the dynasty, Ji Feng became a lot more cautious.

The strength of the dynasty was so strong that there was no need to say anything more about it.

Therefore, Ji Feng was in no hurry to make his move, he was going to find out the situation first, and then try to kill the other party in one go.

“Ding

As he was talking, Ji Feng’s phone suddenly rang, and he took it out to find that it was Ji YuYi calling.

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows and guessed a few things about the purpose of Ji Yuoyi’s call.

He picked up the phone, “Hello, YuHui?”

At the other end of the line, Ji YuYi’s voice immediately came through, “Ji Feng, do you have time to come out for a meal?”

Ji Feng smiled faintly, “So urgent? Didn’t we agree to invite you for dinner when I free up time

“Ji Feng, frankly speaking, I have something urgent to ask you.” There was a hidden anxiety in Ji YuYi’s tone as she said, “Can you come out and meet? I won’t keep you too long!”

“This

After thinking about it, Ji Feng nodded and said, “Alright, but let me make it clear first, I really don’t have much time today

Ji YuYi immediately said, “It won’t take you much time, where are you, I’ll go find you.”

Ji Feng smiled and said an address, it was a leisure square not too far from Ji Nan Yue's villa, during the daytime, Chu Yue happened to have taken him there, there were not many people there and it was easier to talk.

Ji YuYi immediately said, "I'll go there immediately, keep in touch!"

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled as he got off the line. It seemed that Ji YuYi was under a lot of pressure there.

Since Li Guoliang told Ji Feng about the situation outside, Ji Feng knew that the Bamboo Gang must have been under considerable pressure. Almost all the important figures of the big gangs had been attacked and killed, but only a few gangs such as the Bamboo Gang and the Green Gang were unharmed.

And the Takenakenaken Gang even took advantage of the good opportunity of the destruction of the Yamaguchi-gumi to go on a rampage and seize the territory of the Yamaguchi-gumi, gaining great benefits, which made other gangs even more suspicious.

So in this way, the Chuk Yuen Gang was immediately thrust into the limelight.

In fact, when Ji Feng heard the news, he was stunned for a while, then he shook his head and laughed bitterly, this time, the Bamboo United Gang had really suffered an undeserved disaster.

The Bamboo United Gang did not target the Weida Group, plus the relationship between Ji YuYi and Ji Feng, it was natural that he would not lay a hand on the Bamboo United Gang, there was no reason to do so!

But he hadn't thought beforehand that because of this, the Bamboo Alliance had almost become a target!

Originally, Ji Feng had planned to communicate with Ji Yuqing, but on second thought, he dismissed the idea. If he went to communicate with Ji Yuqing like that, wouldn't it be like directly telling her, "I did all those things outside and got you into trouble, I'm really sorry!"

Whether or not Ji YuYi guessed that he had done it, Ji Feng would not take the initiative to admit it, his relationship with Ji YuYi had not yet reached that stage!

What's more, if we put it in another way, this matter would at most only put some pressure on the Chuk Yuen Gang, but there would not be any big losses. This is a reminder that even if they have taken over the territory of the Yakuza, it is better to keep a low profile.

Ji Feng, on the other hand, had a new idea from the reaction of the outside world.

It was just the right time for Ji Yueting to call now.

In less than an hour after the phone call, Ji YuYi called again, saying that she had arrived at the agreed location.

Ji Feng could not help but shake his head and smile, it seemed that Ji Yuhui was indeed very anxious.

When he rushed over with the white spider, he saw Ji Yuhui standing beside a car, walking back and forth from time to time, looking very anxious. And beside her, Ah Tak was looking around.

“YuYi!”

Ji Feng smiled as he walked over and smiled, “Coming fast.”

Ji YuYi physically pulled open the car door and said, “Shall we talk in the car, or find a place to sit down?”

Ji Feng laughed, “The car is too stuffy, it’s better to talk while walking. There’s not much people here anyway, it’s good for talking.”

As it was now late winter, there was a cold wind blowing through this square from time to time, and very few people were now stationed here in the originally lively square, so there was no need to worry that someone might overhear anything.

Ji YuYi nodded slightly and said, “That’s fine.”

Ji Feng smiled and made a gesture of invitation, and Ji Yuhui was just about to lift her foot when Ah De suddenly said, “Missy, I want to follow you, I’m not comfortable with you going there alone!”

Ji Feng’s eyebrows frowned slightly at once, but he didn’t say anything.

Ji YuYi said, “What’s not to worry about, you stay here, it’s fine.”

Ah De, however, said, “No, Missy, I have to think of your safety, I can’t let someone with unknown motives be alone with you!”

As he spoke, he pointed at Ji Feng and said in a deep voice, “Eldest Miss, this person is probably related to all those things that have happened recently, we have to guard against him!”

Swish!

White Spider’s pretty face was instantly gloomy, a cold light flickered in her eyes, this action of Ah De, this demeanor, this was insulting Ji Feng!

Chapter 1786

Swish!

White Spider’s pretty face was suddenly gloomy, a cold light flickered in her eyes, this action of Ah De, this demeanor, this was insulting Ji Feng!

Her beautiful eyes flashed with a bitter cold light as she stared at Ade’s neck, as long as Ji Feng gave a slight nod, she could slit Ade’s throat at any time, so that this guy who dared to speak out of turn could never utter a sound again!

He felt as if he was a frog being watched by a poisonous snake, which sent a chill down his spine and made the sweat on his body stand up, so if it wasn’t for Ji YuYi in front of him, he would have turned and fled.

Ji Feng’s face was calm and he didn’t say a word.

When a small person like Ah De provoked him, Ji Feng was not even interested in saying a word back. If it was in normal times, such a person would have been directly handed over to the White Spider to deal with.

However, now that there was Ji Yuhui around, Ji Feng wanted to see how Ji Yuhui would handle it.

Don't ever think that this is just a lack of understanding of the rules, it doesn't seem to be a big deal, if you think so then you are wrong, people in the jianghu world are most concerned about rules, even if they are nasty in their hearts, but on the surface rules are still the most important.

The fact that Ade said this about Ji Feng seemed like he was very loyal to Ji Yuqing and was thinking about her safety, but in fact, in Ji Yuqing's opinion, he was slapping himself in the face!

Ji Feng was her friend and they could talk to each other as equals, but this did not mean that Ah De could also talk to Ji Feng in this way, he had no right to talk.

What's more, what Ah Tak said was, in fact, insulting words.

Insulting Ji Feng in front of Ji YuYi was no different from insulting Ji YuYi. If Ji YuYi did not say anything, or just lightly reprimanded him, then Ji Feng would really have to reposition his relationship with Ji YuYi.

A person who does not follow the rules, I am afraid not many people would like to associate with him.

Therefore, Ji Feng just put his hands in his pockets and didn't even glance at Ah De, but walked straight ahead while dropping a sentence to Ji Yu Yi: "I'll wait for you in front!"

Ji YuYi nodded slightly, she immediately understood Ji Feng's meaning.

It was up to her how to deal with Ah De, Ji Feng would not interfere.

But the more this happened, the more Ji YuYi felt bad in her heart, it was obvious that Ji Feng was not going to help Ade plead for mercy, let alone persuade her to settle things, it was clear that he wanted Ji YuYi to give him an explanation!

"White Spider, go!" Ji Feng's voice came over.

"..... Humph!" White Spider coldly glanced at Ah De before following in stride.

Once Ji Feng and White Spider left, only Ji YuYi and Ah De were left here, which made Ah De's heart start to drum, especially when he saw Ji YuYi's face across the table was cold and her eyes were full of disappointment, Ah De was even more nervous.

But remembering his relationship with Missy, Ah Tak's courage was strengthened again.

"Eldest, Eldest Miss, this Ji Feng is too arrogant, isn't he? What does he mean by that?" Ah De said, unable to help but look indignant, Ji Feng hadn't said a word to him at all, which made Ah De feel a sense of humiliation.

What was this?

It was clear that he was directly ignoring him!

This wasn't even enough, Ji Feng actually walked away straight away, wasn't this a way to let Ji YuYi deal with himself?

“Missy, you’re not one of his men, so why should he put such pressure on you? From this, we can see that he doesn’t even have you in his sights!” Ah Tak said indignantly, “In that case, all the more reason why I can’t let you be alone with him!”

However, Ji Yuhui just looked at Ah Tak without saying a word.

Ade was even more furious by her look and couldn’t help but to noodle a few times, not daring to say anything else.

“Sigh” Ji Yueting stared at Ah De for a long time before she let out a soft sigh.

“Big, big miss.” Ah De noisily said, “I, I am speaking from my heart, your safety is the most important, in my heart, there is no one more important than you”

“Ade, I understand your heart.” Ji Yueting nodded and said in a gentle and calm tone, “We are similar in age, we can say we grew up together, what is in your mind, how can I not know?”

“I knew it, you would definitely understand my heart, Missy!” Ah Tak was instantly relieved; Ji Yuet’s gentle tone clearly meant that she would not reprimand him.

“It is precisely because I know your heart that I am so disappointed in you!” Ji Yueting shook her head gently.

“Sh, what?” Ah Tak was stunned.

“Your grandfather has served the Chuk Yuen Gang all his life and has made a lot of achievements, as his grandson, you would have been expected to do the same, and your grandfather thought the same way, that’s why he brought you to Rice, because he hoped that in the future, when you grow up, you would be able to take charge and hold up our Chuk Yuen Gang’s business in Rice.”

Ade Nuo’s did not know what to say. In fact, in his heart, he would be the head of the Chuk Yuen Gang in Rice sooner or later, but he did not dare to answer the question now that Ji Yueting had said it.

Nor did she intend for Ah Tak to answer as she continued, “But I never imagined that you would turn out to be like this now! These past few days you’ve been side-stepping me and picking on me and Ji Feng from time to time, and I didn’t even see eye to eye with you, but you’re now” What exactly is the reason that made you turn into this state now?!”

“Big, big miss, I”

“Your character is cowardly and arrogant, while being smart and not being able to tolerate people in your heart, you really don’t resemble your grandfather at all!” Ji Yu Ying interrupted him, “You know the rules of our gang, I don’t want to say anything else, you go back and go to the Hall of Punishment by yourself.”

Ah De was instantly shaken, “Big Miss, you want me to go to the Hall of Punishment?!”

Ji Yueting waved her hand, “Go on!”

“What exactly have I done wrong?” Ade suddenly roared as he angrily said, “Eldest Miss, you know how I feel about you, that kid is just an outsider, who knows what he has in mind? I’m only thinking of your safety, and you’re actually punishing me?”

Ji Yueting’s face turned cold: “How dare you argue? How dare you say you were only worried about my safety? Do you have to ask me to spell things out clearly before you dare to admit?!”

“Of course I was thinking of your safety!” Ade said indignantly, “Miss, if it was just you who wanted to punish me, then I wouldn’t say a word, but you’re actually doing this to me for an outsider, I’m not convinced!”

“You’re not convinced? Heh!” Ji YuYi sneered, “Fine, since that’s the case, then I’ll let you be convinced!”

“You know that maintaining a good relationship with Ji Feng will only do us good and no harm, yet you still repeatedly provoke my relationship with Ji Feng in front of me, what is your intention?” Ji YuYi asked.

“Similarly, you know that I have a good personal relationship with Ji Feng and he is my friend, but you, as a subordinate, even insulted him in front of me, where do you put my face? Is this a breach of the gang rules?” Kee asked again.

Ah Tak gritted his teeth and said, “Missy, you can do whatever you want to do to me, but I am not convinced, because anything I do is done with one eye on you.”

“Well, that’s good!” Ji Yueting nodded and said, “Then you can go and tell that to the people in the Hall of Punishment, tell them exactly how you are thinking single-mindedly of me and see what they will do to you Go on, and at your grandfather’s place, I will speak to him personally.”

Ah Tak’s face changed dramatically at once: “Miss, are you really going to treat me like this for the sake of an outsider?”

However, Ji Yueting said with a calm face, “Are you going by yourself, or shall I call your grandfather now and ask him to come and pick you up?”

“Yes! Fine!”

Ah Tak was full of indignation, “I’ll go, I’ll go now. Miss, one day sooner or later you will know that I am the only one who is really thinking of you, and those people from unknown origins who take the initiative to approach you are all scheming!”

After saying this, Ah Tak turned around angrily and walked away.

Ji Yuhui gave him a deep look and could not help but shake her head with a soft sigh.

This Ah Tak, really let her down too much.

Despite his repeated sophistry, saying that he was thinking of himself, but Ji Yuet was not a fool, how could she not know what was in Ade’s mind?

Even though Ah Tak acted so loyal and indignant when Ji Yueting said she would dispose of him, Ji Yueting had followed her father since she was a child and had seen nothing, so how could she be fooled by such a petty tactic of his?

“Ugh”

Ji Yuqing couldn't help but shake her head again and sighed softly.

Ade was asking for death himself!

In fact, although Ji Yuet had known since a few days ago that Ah De had been stirring up trouble with her, she had not dealt with him because of his grandfather's face.

If she didn't deal with Ah De, there would be no need to continue the conversation between her and Ji Feng today, and not just today, they would not be able to continue to get along in the future.

Even if Ah De had any disagreements with Ji Feng behind his back, as long as he didn't speak out so badly in front of her, Ji Yu Yi would turn a blind eye for Ah Bo's sake, and the number of times Ah De and Ji Feng would come into contact in the future would be very limited anyway.

If things had come to this state, one could only blame Ah Tak for being too wild, too unaware of the high ground!

Ji YuYi no longer thought about Ade, she quickly caught up with Ji Feng, and the white spider immediately said in a sensible manner, “Young Ji, I'll wait for you over there”

With that, the white spider avoided it.

Ji YuYi sighed lightly, “Ji Feng, sorry for what happened just now, I didn't restrain my men”

Ji Feng smiled and waved his hand, saying, “Isn't it all in the past, and you've done a good job of handling it, so there's no need to be so polite.”

Ji YuYi couldn't help but feel a twinge in her heart, he knew how he had handled it?

Chapter 1787

Ji Feng waved his hand with a smile and said, “Isn't this all in the past, and you've done a good job of handling it, so there's no need to be so polite.”

Ji YuYi couldn't help but feel a twinge in her heart, he knew how he had handled it?

Ji YuYi subconsciously looked back, she estimated that from where she was standing just now, it had to be almost 20 to 30 meters away from Ji Feng, and now that the cold wind was blowing from time to time, it was hard to hear what they were saying from where Ji Feng was standing, so how did Ji Feng know?

Seeing Ji YuYi's slightly surprised look, Ji Feng smiled and didn't explain anything, but asked, “YuYi, you're in such a hurry to call me out, you're not just letting me see how you teach your men a lesson, are you?”

Ji YuYi instantly blushed slightly, of course she could hear that Ji Feng was saying that her men were rampant and dared to disrespect themselves in front of outsiders.

Slightly embarrassed, Ji Yuhui coughed lightly and said, "Ji Feng, you should not make jokes about me, Ah De is also spoiled by his grandfather, I will teach him a lesson"

Ji Feng smiled and waved his hand, "Just kidding, don't take it seriously."

Ji YuYi laughed bitterly, "I am not in the mood for jokes now, Ji Feng, I asked you out because I want to ask you a question."

Ji Feng instantly knew what Ji Yuhui wanted to ask, he nodded his head and said, "Go ahead."

"The things that happened in the past few days, did you do it?" As expected, this was the question that Ji Yuqing was asking.

"What kind of things?" Ji Feng asked.

Ji Yuhui gave him a suspicious look and asked, "You really don't know?"

Ji Feng smiled and did not answer.

Ji YuYi could not figure out what he meant and hesitated for a moment before she said, "Ji Feng, whether those things were done by you or not, I won't pursue them anymore, I want to ask you a favour, can you do it?"

Ji YuYi knew very well that if Ji Feng did not want to answer, no matter how she asked, nothing would come out of it. What's more, if it was really Ji Feng's doing, he would be very tight-lipped about such a big matter and would definitely not tell anyone easily.

Therefore, Ji YuYi decisively stopped asking questions and changed the subject, telling her real purpose.

Ji Feng asked, "What kind of favour? As long as it's within my ability, I'll do my best."

Ji YuYi said, "I think you have heard about what is going on out there now, right? Our Chuk Yuen Gang has been pushed to the limelight all of a sudden now, almost all the gangs suspect that it was us, and if things continue to develop, I am afraid that we will be attacked from many sides at any time."

Speaking of this, Ji YuYing shook his head with a bitter smile and said, "With the strength of the Chuk Yuen Gang, if we are attacked by the group, I am afraid that we will be uprooted within a few days, we don't have that ability to deal with so many gangs at the same time!"

Ji Feng nodded slightly, this was a true statement from Ji Yuwen.

It was true that the Bamboo Gang was very strong, but this was Rice after all, and there were several other gangs that were stronger than them, such as the White Hand, which was a behemoth that no one could match.

Ji Feng asked, "So, how do you want me to help?"

Ji Yuetian said, "I am asking for your help to send out an idea on what our Chuk Yuen Gang should do in this situation to get out of this dangerous situation?"

“Looking for me to give you an idea?” Ji Feng was stunned and then smiled, “I think it’s very simple, you can also completely announce to the public that the Chuk Yuen Gang has also been attacked and killed, in this way, it’s the same as all the other gangs, others will naturally not suspect you.”

Ji Yu Ying was instantly saddened and shook her head, “I’ve thought about this solution, but when I think about it, it still won’t work.”

“How so?” Ji Feng asked.

“In order to dispel other people’s suspicions, there would have to really be an important person attacked and killed, do I have to get an important person in the gang killed just to dispel other people’s suspicions?” Kee shook her head.

“Then you guys can make a fake message.” Ji Feng said.

Ji Yuhui laughed bitterly, “If only it was that easy You may not understand that gangs nowadays have very close ties with the police department, if it’s fake news, other gangs will definitely be able to find out, and then our Chuk Yuen Gang will be even more suspicious. ”

“In that case” Ji Feng nodded thoughtfully and said, “Then there is only one way.”

“What solution?” Ji YuYi immediately asked.

“Show weakness!” Ji Feng said.

Ji YuYi said curiously, “Show weakness? Ji Feng, what you mean is”

Ji Feng said, “I think that the other gangs are actually targeting you guys, partly because the Chuk Yuen Gang has no casualties and has not been attacked or killed. But, I think there might be a large part of the reason, because of interests.”

A thoughtful look crossed Ji Yuet’s face.

After a moment of contemplation, Ji Yuhui hesitantly said, “Ji Feng, are you saying that we, the Chuk Yuen Gang, have taken up too much in the competition for the interests of the Yamaguchi-gumi? That’s why we have attracted the eyes and jealousy of other gangs, and of course there is little doubt, because you got the most benefits.”

“..... Whoever gets the most benefits is the most suspicious!” Ji YuYi blurted out.

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, “Exactly!”

Ji Yuhui couldn’t help but be silent as she pondered this suggestion made by Ji Feng, this was about the interests of the entire gang, and not just a star of interest.

How big the entire Yamaguchi-gumi’s territory was, and how much profit it could generate every month, only they, the people in the Dao, knew best.

Suddenly, they had to give up this huge profit that had come to them

The company had to consider the matter carefully.

Looking at Ji YuYi's thoughtful look, Ji Feng smiled, "That's all I have, I can't think of any more brilliant ideas, this is just a suggestion for reference only!"

Ji YuYi shook her head and said, "No! This is a very good suggestion, I will consider it seriously. Ji Feng, thank you."

Ji Feng smiled and waved his hand.

Ji YuYi said, "I think it's almost time for dinner, let's find a place to eat, let's sit down and talk while we eat?"

"You're still in the mood for this?" Ji Feng asked with a smile.

"Eating a meal won't delay anything." Ji YuYi smiled sweetly, and her whole body seemed to look a lot more relaxed. Apparently, Ji Feng's advice was still effective, at least in Ji Yuhui's opinion, it should be useful.

Ji Feng smiled and said, "I think it's better to do it another time, you're not in the mood to eat now, so I'd better not delay you in thinking about the big things of the gang!"

Ji Yuhui also couldn't help but smile, "That's fine, next time I'll treat you!"

Afterwards, Ji YuYi did not stay any longer and after saying goodbye to Ji Feng, she hurriedly drove away. However, it could be seen that she was still in a very good mood when she left. At least between her eyebrows, there was less of a hint of the anxiety that she felt when she came.

"Come on, let's go back too, Guoliang's side should be almost ready!" Ji Feng said with a smile.

The two of them drove back and on the way, Bai Spider suddenly asked, "Young Ji, if the Chuk Yuen gang spits out the interests of the Yamaguchi group that they seized, won't that weaken them?"

Ji Feng smiled, "Don't you think that not only did the JUF Gang not offend me, but they even did me a favour, so it's a bit inappropriate for me to treat them like this?"

Bai Spider pursed her lips and smiled lightly, "I didn't say that, I was just a little curious. However, I believe you must have your reasons for doing so."

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed: "When did you learn to talk so well?"

Bai Spider laughed lightly, "After spending a lot of time with Yu Xuan, you can always learn a little bit of her strengths ah."

Ji Feng smiled slightly, the better the relationship between Bai Spider and Yu Xuan, the happier he was naturally, which at least meant that Bai Spider was thoroughly integrated into the family.

"Actually, ah, it seems like I'm harming the Chuk Yuen Gang with the advice I gave to Ji Yuwen, but I don't think so, on the contrary, I feel that I'm helping them by doing so!" After the two of them joked around, Ji Feng got back to the main topic.

White Spider couldn't help but show a surprised look, what did this mean, Ji Shao was clearly asking the Chuk Yuen Gang to spit out the fat meat that was already in their mouths, but he actually said he was helping the Chuk Yuen Gang?

Is there such a thing as helping?

“This is actually quite understandable!” Ji Feng said, “The fact that the Chuk Yuen Gang is expanding too fast may not necessarily be good. Although I don’t know much about it, I think the Rice government will definitely not sit back and watch a Chinese gang grow and develop rapidly, if the Bamboo United Gang expands too fast, it will probably end up being dealt a secret blow by the Rice government, and it will probably be blackmailed!”

White Spider was stunned, “Blackmailed?”

She couldn’t help but nod thoughtfully, thinking carefully, yet it wasn’t impossible that this was a possibility.

Although White Spider was not interested in politics or the situation, she naturally did not fail to understand such a simple reasoning, no country would sit idly by and do nothing about the growth of a foreign power.

What’s more, given the relationship between Rice and China, coupled with the hegemony of the Rice side, I believe that once the Chuk Yuen Gang is dealt a blow, it will definitely be fatal.

“Moreover, apart from the Rice government, there is also a Yamaguchi-gumi. It is true that it will be difficult for the Yamaguchi-gumi to revive itself in a short period of time, but the headquarters of the Yamaguchi-gumi is still there, and it will definitely make a comeback in the future. At that time, it is only when the Chuk Yuen Gang faces a strike from many sides, and every opponent is incredibly strong, so they have even less ways to deal with it!”

Ji Feng said, “Instead of being wiped out by that time, it would be better to develop steadily now, and not to be the bird that comes out of the woodwork, the so-called citron that comes out of the woodwork rots first, that’s the truth.”

Bai Spider couldn’t help but realize: “So that’s how it is, in that case, Ji Shao is really helping the Chu Lian Gang.”

Ji Feng smiled.

In fact, Ji Feng did have such an idea in his heart, but apart from that, he did so because he had another intention.

Because Ji Feng had realised that the rapid growth of the Bamboo United Gang was actually not good for the Weida Group, either!

Chapter 1788

In fact, Ji Feng did have such an idea in his heart, but apart from that, he did so because he had another intention.

Because Ji Feng had realised that the rapid growth of the Chuk Yuen Gang was, in fact, not good for the Wei Da Group, either!

Having someone like Ah De in the Chuk Yuen Gang might be a threat to the Wei Da Group. You have to know that Ah Tak’s grandfather is the patriarch of the Chuk Yuen Gang. Don’t look at Kee Yu-ye as being very strict with Ah Tak, but when it comes to the final disposal, she must still have regard for Ah Bo's face.

And Ade was obviously angry and hateful towards himself, and with his nasty nature, once the Chuk Yuen Gang grew strong, Ade was afraid that he would retaliate.

But by that time, Ji Feng would have already returned to China, then there was a chance that Ade would shift his anger to the Weida Group.

Ji Feng had to be prepared in advance and to suppress the growth of the Chuk Yuen Gang.

From the very beginning when Ji Feng set off to come to Rice, his purpose was to help the Weida Group and help his sister-in-law to solve the trouble and he certainly could not leave new hidden problems for the Weida Group.

Now he was only curbing the development of the Chuk Yuen Gang, with the other gangs in check, even if Ah Tak wanted to act recklessly, he would have to weigh his options carefully.

If he really dares to go too far in his recklessness, not to mention that Ji YuYi is protecting him, even if the entire Chuk Yuen gang stands up for Ah Tak, Ji Feng will definitely have to take him out!

So strictly speaking, now that Ji Feng was curbing the development of the Chuk Yuen Gang, on the one hand, he was also helping Ji Yu-yeung out, as it was not a good thing for the Chuk Yuen Gang to develop too rapidly. And on the other hand, Ji Feng was also making preparations for the future.

Ji Feng did not care much about what Ji Yuqing would do when she returned, because he knew very well that as long as Ji Yuqing was smart enough, she would definitely follow the suggestions he made.

In fact, ever since Li Guoliang had told him about the reaction of the outside world, Ji Feng had already guessed that there was only one way out for the Chuk Yuen Gang now, and that was to spit out the fat meat they had already swallowed, or at least, a large part of it, so that the other big gangs could share the benefits, or even take the lion's share.

Only in this way can the Chuk Yuen gang get out of its current precarious situation.

Because apart from this solution, there is no other way for the Chuk Yuen Gang to break the situation.

Just as Ji Yu-yin said, the gangs nowadays are not the same as before, every big gang is inextricably linked to the police, and it is simply impossible for the Chuk Yuen Gang to create a fake news that they have been attacked and killed, it would be too easy to be detected.

If they were to create such a false story, even if they hadn't done it, people would think they were the mastermind.

In the underworld, it's all about rules, but it's more about strength, and explanations are of little use to these people.

Of course, the Chuk Yuen Gang could have continued to be tough, as long as they had the strength to beat up all the gangs that threatened them, then naturally they would have solved this crisis.

But it is clear that the Chuk Yuen Gang will not have that strength at all.

In fact, even the strongest gang, the White Hand, did not have the strength to conquer all the gangs, otherwise, the White Hand would have unified the world long ago, so why would they let foreign forces like the Bamboo League and the Yamaguchi-gumi gain a firm foothold in New York?

Therefore, there was no other way for the Chuk Yuen Gang to go but to follow Ji Feng's suggestion.

So Ji Feng put the matter of the Bamboo United Gang aside. After returning to Ji Nan Yue's villa, he and White Spider simply packed up and went to meet up with Li Guoliang.

"Mr Ji, should we wait until late at night before we make our move?" Li Guoliang suggested.

"No, it's the same if we go now." Ji Feng shook his head, "After all, we don't know the exact whereabouts of their company's boss, so we might be able to run into each other if we go now, but if we go late at night, I'm afraid we'll only see a few security guards."

Li Guoliang said ashamedly, "It's because I'm not competent enough to investigate clearly."

Ji Feng waved his hand, "This is not your fault, it only means that the other party has been prepared for a long time. We are only going this time to take our chances, and to sort of explore the road first."

After getting the information about the mastermind from the mouths of the black bosses, Ji Feng asked Li Guoliang to investigate.

However, the results were somewhat unsatisfactory.

Li Guoliang only found out the basic information of the boss of that company, but other than that, he didn't know anything about the boss's whereabouts, his residence, or the people he usually came into contact with.

What's more, long before Ji Feng came to Rice, Li Guoliang had already scouted this company and accidentally met and fought with the reformer, realising that this company might have some relationship with Dynasty.

Since then, Li Guoliang has started to collect information on all the companies that are hostile to the Wida Group, including this company, but until now, Li Guoliang has not had much substantial gains.

Li Guoliang only found out that it was a local trading company in Rice, mainly engaged in the foreign trade business of some civilian products, but the target market was mainly the boundary tent.

The owner of the company was a Rice Chinese named Hunter, and there was also the basic information of several vice presidents and senior executives of the company.

But apart from that, there was no other information.

Not even anything about the interior of that company, the style of decoration, the security facilities and so on.

Of course, for that office building, Li Guoliang still investigated some information, such as the architectural layout of that office building, as well as the architectural drawings of the whole building, Li Guoliang got them all.

So this time when he went to that company, Ji Feng only intended to explore the situation first. With these drawings, Ji Feng did not have to worry about being discovered when he was exploring.

Although the general company would make certain changes to the internal layout when carrying out renovations, but these were not too big a problem for Ji Feng, if there was no challenge at all, then Ji Feng could go directly to move the old boss of that company, Hunter.

The address of that company was located in an office building in the centre of New York, about forty minutes' drive from the villa where Ji Nan Yue lived.

When Ji Feng arrived in the city centre, it was already dark, the street lights on both sides of the street were already lit up, and lights were emanating from the surrounding buildings.

Li Guoliang parked his car in the car park in front of the office building, because it was already dinner time, so there were quite a few empty spaces here, which was convenient for Ji Feng.

Of course, because the working hours of the rice people were very free, many of the windows in the office building were still lit up, so it was obvious that some people were still working.

Ji Feng and the three of them sat in the car and did not get down for the time being.

"Mr. Ji, that company is on the seventh floor of this office building, and according to the office building's rental contract, that company should range from the seventh window from the left, all the way to the twentieth window." Li Guoliang said.

"The size of the company is not small!" Ji Feng hummed, the building pattern of this office building was a corridor with rooms on both sides, this company spanned over a dozen windows, which meant that their company had nearly thirty offices, which was not a small scale.

"Young Ji, how do we get up there?" White Spider asked, "There must be cameras installed all over this entrance, and there are security guards, if we were to go in from the front, we would definitely have to register, and we might be noticed."

"Then what if we go up from the back?" Ji Feng asked.

"That's also a bit troublesome." Li Guoliang took over from the side, "The office building itself is also equipped with security devices, and there is security monitoring on every floor."

Ji Feng nodded, he had been reading about this company on the way here, and he hadn't had time to find out about these circumstances.

"The cameras should be installed at the stairway, right?" Ji Feng asked.

Li Guoliang nodded, "Yes, according to what I have learned, each floor of this office building has two cameras installed at the stairway, one is facing the corridor and the other is facing the stairs."

"Hmm!" Ji Feng nodded and said, "It seems that it's still necessary to wear the previous equipment to do so!"

"Young Ji, you mean, we still put on our windbreakers? Go up from the back?" White Spider immediately understood Ji Feng's meaning and asked.

“That’s right.” Ji Feng nodded and looked up at the window of that company again and said, “There are still lights in the window, which proves that there are still people inside, let’s go there now!”

Li Guoliang said, “Young Ji, I’ll go with you this time, the information was investigated by me, I’m more or less more familiar with it than Miss Bai, so it’s more appropriate for me to go.”

Bai Spider hurriedly said, “Ji Shao we don’t have any windbreaker or equipment suitable for Mr. Li to wear here.”

Li Guoliang pointed to the back window and said, “That’s in that box.”

Ji Feng waved his hand, “Then so be it, Guoliang will go with me, White Spider, you stay behind and prepare to pick up the action!”

White spider had to nod and agree, but glared at Li Guoliang without a trace, this guy, really unlikable!

Ji Feng and Li Guoliang quickly put on their windbreakers, hats and masks in the car, then got out and went around the front door of the office building.

“Guoliang, early preparation!” Seeing that Li Guoliang’s outfit was perfectly hiding all his appearance, Ji Feng couldn’t help but tease with a smile.

“I was trying to move with Mr. Ji and also learn by the way.” Li Guoliang gave a heated laugh.

In fact, Li Guoliang had really been itching in his heart for several days, from the moment Ji Feng and White Spider joined hands to wipe out the Yamaguchi group, Li Guoliang realized Ji Feng’s strong strength, and then with the fact that those gangs were turned upside down by Ji Feng and White Spider alone, Li Guoliang was even more itching and wanted to follow Ji Feng’s actions.

So he had long been prepared.

The duo went around to the back of the office building and easily entered the office building through the window at the back.

Afterwards, they did not take the lift, but very carefully walked slowly up the stairs. All the way to the sixth floor, they did not encounter any problems, and when they passed by the cameras, they were also cleverly dodged.

“Da da da da” Just when they had reached between the sixth and seventh floors, suddenly there was a sound of footsteps coming from the corridor on the sixth floor.

Ji Feng immediately made a gesture and the two of them quickly hid behind the safety door at the stairway.

Soon, a figure came up the stairs and Ji Feng looked through the doorway, however, when he saw the figure, he was stunned.

“Why is it him?!” Ji Feng was surprised in his heart.

Chapter 1789

Soon, a figure came upstairs and Ji Feng looked through the doorway, however, when he saw the figure, he was stunned.

“Why is it him?!” Ji Feng was surprised in his heart.

Ji Feng frowned and held his breath, not making a single sound, just staring closely at the figure coming up the stairs from below, his mind quickly pondering.

“How did he appear here?” Ji Feng was secretly puzzled.

This guy who came up the stairs from below was no other than the Chinese guy – Lu Guowei – whom Ji Feng had met in the waiting room when he had come to Rice and transferred from Jiangzhou to Yanjing.

At that time, when he met Lu Guowei in the airport waiting room in Yanjing, this person was accompanied by two foreigners, one was called James and the other was called Roger.

Ji Feng clearly remembered that this man was doing the introduction of himself and his two foreign friends.

The reason why Ji Feng crossed paths with this person at that time was also because this Lu Guowei took the initiative to come up and strike up a conversation, seemingly wanting to get close to the white spider.

In the waiting room, Bai Spider had said that she sensed that this person was somewhat dangerous. At that time, Ji Shaolei was still puzzled as to why Bai Spider would feel this way, so Ji Feng explained to him briefly that after experiencing countless dangers, one’s perception would become very sharp, and one’s sense of danger would be extremely sensitive.

Only, at that time, Ji Feng didn’t take it seriously. Even though the white spider felt that something wasn’t quite right, but seeing that Lu Guowei’s trio didn’t do anything further, so Ji Feng didn’t care too much.

After Ji Feng came to Rice, he never saw this Lu Guowei again, so he never thought of him again.

However, he never expected that Ji Feng would actually see this person here.

“Could it be that this Lu Guowei was also working here?” Ji Feng was secretly puzzled, but thinking about it, he thought it was not right, because according to Lu Guowei’s self-introduction at that time, he was a native of Jiangzhe, China, and was in the foreign trade business, mainly supposed to target the Rice market. And the two friends around him, James and Roger, happened to be both from Rice too.

Since this was the case, then this Lu Guowei was obviously not working here, could he be here to talk business with one of the companies in this office building?

Ji Feng thought about it carefully and dismissed this idea of his, he felt that this was not very likely.

The reason was very simple, it was reasonably close to the end of the day, many people had already left work and gone home, Lu Guowei came over now, who was he going to talk to?

There is another point that makes Ji Feng think his guess is wrong, that is, Lu Guowei’s dress does not look like he is here to talk business.

At this moment, Lu Guowei's dress was very casual, loose clothes looked like home casual dress, and he didn't hold anything in his hand, not even a briefcase, where does this look like he came to talk business?

These thoughts flashed through Ji Feng's mind, and he pondered, keeping his gaze on Lu Guowei.

Lu Guowei did not go upstairs very fast, and looking at his face, he looked very laid back, so it took him nearly a minute to get upstairs.

Ji Feng stopped for a moment more before he dodged out from behind the door and waved his hand at the place where Li Guoliang was hiding.

Li Guoliang made a gesture, which Ji Feng recognized as a gesture of questioning, and his hand pressed down, signaling Li Guoliang not to hurry, and then Ji Feng gestured to Li Guoliang and the two of them began to walk slowly up the stairs.

"Da da da da"

Ji Feng and the two of them didn't stop after reaching the seventh floor, but headed straight for the eighth floor, and of course, when they passed the stairway, a white object popped out from Ji Feng's hand.

"Pop!"

The object hit the camera mounted above the security door with unerring accuracy, and a layer of white powder-like stuff was added to that camera.

Ji Feng and Li Guoliang were walking upstairs as if nothing had happened.

They went up to the eighth floor before Ji Feng made a gesture to stop and then turned around and returned. Li Guoliang immediately understood, and then began to be on guard.

At this moment, Ji Feng put his footsteps extremely lightly, even if someone was standing right at the entrance of the staircase, as long as they could not see him, they would not notice that someone was walking here.

Ji Feng appeared on the seventh floor and went through the security door into the corridor, and at this moment, his pupils contracted violently, there was someone in the corridor!

Ji Feng immediately dodged and retreated inside the security door. Then he quickly recalled what he had just seen.

"There was a person walking in the corridor, and he was with his back to himself!"

Ji Feng confirmed that the person did not find himself, but he still did not rush in, but after pausing for a few breaths, he then took another step into the corridor.

But as soon as he reached the corridor, he noticed that the person he had just seen was still walking, the other person had been walking in the opposite direction to Ji Feng, and this person, surprisingly, was the Chinese man he had just seen, Lu Guowei!

Ji Feng secretly said that it was strange, this staircase was located in the middle of the office building, from here to one of the ends of the office building, it would only take a few minutes at most, but how come Lu Guowei was still in the corridor, according to reason he should have already walked to the end.

As his mind was racing, Ji Feng took a step back and hid his body behind the security door, only slightly probing and staring at Lu Guowei while surveying the environment and layout of the area where the company was located.

There were no unusual devices in the corridor, and apart from the two cameras at the stairway, there were no other cameras, at least, not on the surface.

Once again, Ji Feng carefully scanned the side and finally confirmed that there were no cameras or some other devices out here.

However, just at this time, Ji Feng's eyebrows furrowed.

He found that Lu Guowei, who was in the distance, had actually pushed open the door of an office without knocking, and seemed to be talking to the person inside about something. A few breaths later, he closed the door again, then turned around again and continued on his way.

When Lu Guowei walked to the door of the next office, he likewise pushed open the door of that office, then talked to the person inside for a few moments, and once again put the door on Ji Feng found that Lu Guowei kept going until he pushed open the door of the office at the end of the corridor, and after talking to the person inside, he then turned around and returned.

Ji Feng immediately avoided it and said in his heart, no wonder he felt that Lu Guowei was walking so slowly, it turned out that this person would push the door open every time he passed an office.

"So what kind of person is he looking for here?" Ji Feng secretly said, he shook his head, "Not like that! Because when Lu Guowei was pushing the door, that demeanor and movement, it was too casual, as if he was pushing the door of his own home"

"The door of your own house?"

Ji Feng was abruptly shocked, and he suddenly thought of a possibility: "Lu Guowei was conducting an inspection? Or rather, he was on patrol?!"

It was very possible!

From these actions of Lu Guowei, it could be surmised that if he was really on patrol, then why would he dress so casually, why would he still appear in a company related to Dynasty at this time, why could he casually push open the door of every office, and also casually talk to the people inside before closing the door behind him..... all of this, it would make sense.

Because, Lu Guowei was originally a person in this company!

"Son of a bitch" Ji Feng couldn't help but cursed, another person with ties to Dynasty, and a Chinese!

The fact that he is in the foreign trade business is obviously just a cover for Lu Guowei, in fact, he is eight out of ten `9 people from Dynasty!

No wonder this Lu Guowei dared to say that he knew a lot of friends in Rice, and if there was anything he couldn't solve, he could call him.

Ji Feng couldn't help but sneer, today he ran into this Lu Guowei, it was really a windfall.

It didn't say anything, today's first target, was him!

"Cough" Ji Feng coughed extremely slightly.

Soon, light footsteps sounded and Li Guoliang came down from above.

Ji Feng lowered his voice to an extremely low level, "The target was found, you go down first and meet him at the back of the office building."

Li Guoliang immediately understood Ji Feng's meaning, he immediately nodded his head and without saying a word, turned around and quickly went downstairs.

Ji Feng stood by the security door without moving, just staring at Lu Guowei's figure with a deadly stare.

However, to Ji Feng's surprise, Lu Guowei pushed open the door of the last office after walking to the end of the corridor, but he didn't talk to the people inside like he did before, instead, he went in directly.

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows, but did not move around, but stood in place, waiting motionlessly.

The first thing he did was to wait for the next day.

A good agent has to be able to stay calm, and although Ji Feng was not an agent, he was much better than any ordinary agent!

Time passes quickly.

One minute

Two minutes

Ten minutes had passed and Lu Guowei still hadn't come out, and in the process, from those few offices, four more people came out one after another and took the lift to go downstairs.

Ji Feng was still waiting patiently.

Finally, after twenty minutes had passed, the door of the office that Lu Guowei had entered finally opened and Lu Guowei came out.

A cold smile appeared at the corner of Ji Feng's mouth, it seemed that he had guessed correctly, Lu Guowei was really on regular patrol!

When he saw Lu Guowei slowly walking towards the stairway, Ji Feng thought for a moment and then decisively hid behind the security door again, just in time to hide his silhouette.

Soon, he saw Lu Guowei walking down the stairs and entering the corridor on the sixth floor.

Ji Feng also followed silently, and then he noticed that Lu Guowei was actually pushing open each office door on the sixth floor one by one as well.

“Sixth floor?” Ji Feng was stunned, had he guessed wrong?

According to the information provided by Li Guoliang, that company’s office was only on the seventh floor, the sixth floor belonged to another company’s office space, what was Lu Guowei doing on the sixth floor?

Could it be that Lu Guowei was in charge of the security patrol of the whole office building?

Chapter 1790

Could it be that Lu Guowei was in charge of the security patrol of the whole office building?

Despite the doubt in his heart, Ji Feng did not move a muscle and continued to stare at Lu Guowei.

He saw that after Lu Guowei had pushed open the doors of all the offices on the sixth floor in turn, he also talked to the people inside, but when he reached the end of the corridor, he did not enter the last office, but turned around and returned.

Ji Feng immediately hid behind the security door and watched as Lu Guowei passed less than a meter in front of him before entering the corridor on the seventh floor again.

“So that’s it!”

Ji Feng suddenly thought of a possibility that Li Guoliang’s investigation information was wrong, or that this was a trick played by that company to cover their ears – that company’s office was not just on the seventh floor, the sixth floor was likewise their turf!

It was precisely for this reason that this Lu Guowei patrolled even the sixth floor together, it was their company’s turf, so of course he had to patrol it.

Thinking of this, Ji Feng no longer had the slightest hesitation as he reached out and knocked on the security door.

“Knock!”

In this silent building, the crunching sound was so clear.

Swish!

Lu Guowei jerked back around and stared towards this side for a long time, as if to confirm that he hadn’t heard wrong, or was waiting to see if anyone was coming up.

“Knock!” Ji Feng knocked once again.

This time, Lu Guowei didn’t hesitate anymore and finally came over towards this side.

Ji Feng was standing at the entrance of the stairs, waiting for him quietly.

Lu Guowei was very alert, and after he arrived at the security door, he didn’t immediately come over to see what was going on, but slowed down his steps and moved very slightly, slowly approaching.

However, all his movements were under Ji Feng’s eyes, and Ji Feng could see them clearly.

When Lu Guowei finally arrived at the security entrance, he just wanted to stretch his head to take a look when he was suddenly startled, only to see a person standing in front of him wearing a trench coat, a hat on his head and a mask on his face who could not be seen clearly at all, just staring straight at him.

In a flash, Lu Guowei was shocked and his subconscious hand went to his arms.

However, how could Ji Feng give him the time to do so? His fingers brushed across Lu Guowei's neck like lightning, and the latter only felt a blackness in front of his eyes, and his body could not use any strength at all, so he fell down softly.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the website.

.....

When Lu Guowei was awakened by a stabbing pain, he sat up with a jolt and looked around in horror, only to find that he was in the darkness at the back of the office building, and still sitting on the floor.

“.....”

Lu Guowei opened his mouth to shout, but then he realised that not a single sound could come out of his throat.

He was so terrified that he tried to get up and escape, but at this moment his body had no strength at all, as if this body no longer belonged to him.

What was going on?

What was going on here?

Lu Guowei was terrified, hadn't he met someone at the staircase who he couldn't see? But how did he appear here?

“He felt like he was suffocating, the silence and darkness around him, the lack of strength in his own body, the inability to make a sound in his throat, the silent fear, it was like being excluded from the whole world.

This kind of terror cannot be experienced by anyone who has not experienced it first hand.

In this way, for five or six minutes, Lu Guowei remained in this state, unable to move, unable to speak, unable to even move his fingers.

These few minutes were simply longer than a few years for him, and it was an incomparably painful ordeal.

Lu Guowei was almost on the verge of collapse.

However, the greater torment for him was also the intense fear inside him, which was what caused him the most pain.

“How can this be?” Lu Guowei's heart was hissing as fear began to spread fast and incomparably, “Is something wrong with his own body? Or did the man who couldn't see his face do something to himself?”

Lu Guowei didn't know why he had become like this, he was so confident in his own physical fitness that he found it hard to believe that he didn't even have the strength to move his fingers now.

As time passed, the fear in Lu Guowei's heart intensified, he was so scared that his lips were trembling, but he just couldn't say a word.

Lu Guowei was about to collapse!

"Hehe" Suddenly, a laughing sound came over.

The sound came from behind Lu Guowei, causing him to stutter in his heart, and if his body wasn't under his control at all, he would have jumped up in fright, as if someone had stepped on his tail.

"Lu Guowei, a native of Jiangzhe, China, is ostensibly a businessman in the foreign trade business, but in reality hey!" That voice continued to ring out, although the tone was light and there was a hint of mockery in the words, but, these words sounded like a thunderbolt in Lu Guowei's ears, making his heart tremble.

Who was this?

How did he know his identity?

Could it be that he was really coming directly for himself?

Lu Guowei was incomparably shocked, it was obvious that this person who was speaking seemed to know his identity very well! The most important thing was that this person was speaking Chinese!

Could it be that the Chinese side knew who he was and was going to take action against him?

For a moment, Lu Guowei's heart continued to sink as he realised that he was in a very bad situation.

"Snapping"

A light footstep came, and soon, only to see a person standing in front of Lu Guowei, squatting down, it was the one wearing a mask.

Lu Guowei's eyes widened instantly, he wanted to say something, but he didn't have that ability.

"Tsk" Ji Feng stared at Lu Guowei and shook his head slightly: "A good human being doesn't do it, but to be that monster that doesn't look like a human being, doesn't look like a ghost, can you be superior after your body has been transformed?"

"Uh~~uh~~" Lu Guowei used almost all of his strength before a weak and incomparably odd sound came out of his throat, but he still couldn't utter a single word.

"Lu Guowei, is it really that good to be a reformer oh, or what you call a super soldier?" Ji Feng asked.

Just before this, taking advantage of Lu Guowei's unconsciousness, Ji Feng had already examined Lu Guowei's clothes and his body. To Ji Feng's surprise, this Lu Guowei was actually a transformed person as well.

Only, Lu Guowei's transformation was not as thorough, it seemed that only some of the more important bones on his body had been modified, while the rest were still the original bones.

Moreover, those bones that had been transformed were not metal, so it was no wonder why he was able to pass through the airport's security checks without being found in an abnormal situation.

"....."

Naturally, Lu Guowei couldn't answer a single word.

Ji Feng smiled coldly: "Isn't it curious why I know your identity so well? Perhaps you think that you should know me, don't you?"

Lu Guowei blinked his eyes.

Ji Feng, however, shook his head, sneered and said, "I'm afraid you'll be surprised when you see me!"

"Snap!"

Just as Ji Feng finished his words, he saw Li Guoliang waving his hand straight at him, so he stood up with understanding and quickly walked around to the dark shadow behind Lu Guowei, where Li Guoliang was standing on guard.

"What's wrong?" Ji Feng asked in a low voice.

"Don't let him see what you look like!" Li Guoliang lowered his voice and said, "I've heard that there is a technology in the Rice Kingdom where a person will still have a bit of the last image he saw remaining in his pupils for a certain period of time after death, and this technology, on the other hand, can replicate the remaining image, although it's not exactly the same, it still has a certain degree of similarity."

Ji Feng couldn't help but be a little surprised: "Rice still has this kind of technology?"

Li Guoliang nodded: "There should be, I have not seen it with my own eyes but I have heard of it. Although there are also conditions for this kind of technology, for example, if a person dies for a long time, the last image disappears and there is no way to recover it, but it is better not to take the risk."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, "I understand. You're right, it's better to be safe than sorry."

If Rice really had this kind of technology, then Ji Feng indeed couldn't take the risk unless he ended up blinding Lu Guowei's eyes and then killing him.

That would be troublesome and not in line with Ji Feng's plan.

He secretly snorted coldly, this was really cheap for that son of a bitch Lu Guowei!

Ji Feng had wanted to show Lu Guowei his true face and then give him a severe so to punish him for being a Chinese and actually working for the dynasty, but now it seemed that this intention could not be carried out.

"Then let's start the interrogation straight away." Ji Feng said.

Afterwards, he took two quick steps to Lu Guowei, Cui moved the bio-current to simulate it as a neurotoxin, and slapped Lu Guowei on the head.

“Uh~~” Lu Guowei’s body trembled slightly twice, a slight odd sound came out of his throat, and then, Lu Guowei’s eyes started to become blank and unfocused.

Ji Feng stared at Lu Guowei, his eyes were cold.

This was another Chinese who was working for the Dynasty, he was even willingly transformed into an inhuman monster, I really don’t know how much benefit the Dynasty had given them to allow them to be so ruthless to themselves, let alone to China, to their own country and compatriots.

Thinking about all the things the dynasty had done in China, and thinking about what the boundary tent people had done to the Chinese, Ji Feng could not wait to see one dynasty person and kill one, and to see one boundary tent person and get two!

Ji Feng now also understood, no wonder White Spider had felt that this person was dangerous, at that time he hadn’t paid too much attention to it and hadn’t used his perspective eyes to probe, now he realized that, as it turned out, this person was also a reformer, so in that case, those two rice friends of Lu Guowei, James and Roger, should also be from the dynasty, I guess.

“Son of a bitch!” Ji Feng cursed, these three people didn’t know how long they had been in China and what kind of bad things they had done.

“Lu Guowei, let me ask you,” Ji Feng gathered his emotions and interrogated in a cold voice.
