Chapter 1801

Hasn't the young duke and the king made any move yet?

Can they be so calm?

Or ..... do they have some other plan or intention? Just letting these few people stall for time?

Thinking of these, Ji Feng immediately whispered, "Guoliang, take out the other side's gunmen!"

Li Guoliang didn't even look back, raising his hand to shoot at the opposite RV and quickly pulling the trigger, but the other side's firepower was too strong, plus the body was in the way, making it impossible for him to hit the other side, so there was a bit of a stalemate for a while!

What made Li Guoliang feel angry was that the gunman on one side of the caravan had been shot in the head by Ji Feng, but before they could finish off the gunman on the other side, another one actually appeared, and the weapon in his hand was equally powerful, and by the sound of it, it seemed to be a micro-charge!

I don't know how many people were in this caravan, why did it seem like there was no end to them?

Li Guoliang gritted his teeth, took out a rifle from the car and aimed it at the caravan opposite, since the body was in the way and he couldn't aim at it, he simply switched to a more powerful weapon and shot directly at the caravan's body.

As long as one bullet could penetrate the body of the car, he would be able to finish off the gunman.

An ordinary pistol might not be able to penetrate the body, but it would not be very difficult for a high powered rifle, after all, the body was only two layers of steel plates, and the car did not look like a bulletproof car, so it should not be very difficult to hit.

"Boom boom boom ....."

Li Guoliang adjusted his rifle to single shot and fired four or five shots in a row, only to see sparks shooting out from the body of that car, which looked so hot that one could not help but be refreshed.

But Li Guoliang's face couldn't help but sink, and he let out a stifled cry, "Son of a bitch ..... This is a modified bulletproof car!"

The bullets hit the car with sparks shooting out, which seemed to be very hot, but Li Guoliang was aware that if the bullets really penetrated the body, there would hardly be any sparks, and the sparks shooting out in front of him could only mean that the bullets could not penetrate the body at all!

Ji Feng leaned against the side of the car, looking at the caravan not far away on the opposite side and frowned.

He said in a deep voice, "Guoliang ....."

Ji Feng's right index and middle fingers crossed a few times, Li Guoliang immediately understood what he meant and rolled on the ground with his rifle in one hand, then went to the other side of the car and disappeared into the darkness.

"Pop! Pop!"

Suddenly, several strong lights shone over, those were the headlights from the opposite caravan, and on the roof of the caravan, somehow there were actually several headlights shining over, immediately illuminating the nearby area as bright as daylight.

"Take cover!" Ji Feng immediately shouted.

At the same time, White Spider also rolled on the ground and hid directly behind the rear of the car, "You be careful too!"

Neither of them addressed each other, which was actually an unwritten rule, or a tradition, when it came to operations.

Especially for operatives who wanted to hide their identities, it was even more important not to address each other by name.

They would either call each other by code words, code names, or simply not call each other at all.

This was now the case with Ji Feng and the White Spider.

They knew that although it was basically confirmed that the people in the caravan were in all probability Little Duke and Master Wang's father and son, which they had already judged through various signs.

However, the people in the caravan did not know who they were!

If Ji Feng's judgment was wrong and the people in the caravan were not the king and the little prince, but someone else, now if they called each other by name, wouldn't that expose their identities?

The damage certainly doesn't stop there .....

"Da da da da da ....." The dense and violent sound of gunfire made neither White Spider nor Ji Feng have time to think much about anything else, which came along with the lights from the other car. The strong lights of the headlights, including even the edge of the area that could not be illuminated, would become the focus of the opposing gunmen.

Ji Feng and the white spider could only avoid the other side's sharpness for the time being and hide tightly, otherwise, as soon as they went out, they would be shone by the headlights, and then I'm afraid that they would not even have the chance to surrender, they would be sieved by the submachine guns!

Ji Feng was able to stay calm, but White Spider couldn't help but be angry, she could put up with it herself, but she couldn't see Ji Feng actually being pinned down by the other side's bullets.

Bai Spider slowly moved her body, and when Ji Feng saw this, he hurriedly pulled her back: "What are you doing?"

Bai Spider, however, broke away from Ji Feng's hand, and Ji Feng immediately understood what she was going to do, counting the time, Li Guoliang should have already arrived, so he nodded his head.

The first thing you need to do is to get the permission of Ji Feng, the white spider body quickly moved to the side of the car, with the cover of the car door, she raised her hand and shot.

Boom boom boom .....

The headlights of the caravan were all shattered.

At the same time, Ji Feng flung his hand and fired a shot, the sound of gunfire on the side of the car came to an abrupt end, another gunman was shot in the head by Ji Feng, his body hung like a noodle on the door of the car.

However, the gunfire on the other side of the car continued, but without the glare of the lights, the other side's accuracy was much worse.

Just then, in the dark shadows in the distance, a shot rang out, "Boom!"

The gunshot on the other side of the caravan instantly disappeared, it was Li Guoliang who went around to one side and took out the gunman.

"Go!"

Ji Feng shouted lowly and without hesitation, he rushed over with the white spider, while pointing his gun at the window of the caravan to prevent any more gunmen from suddenly appearing.

However, to Ji Feng's surprise, until they arrived at the caravan, no gunshots rang out again.

A bad feeling welled up in Ji Feng's heart and he carefully pulled open the door of the caravan, only to find that, apart from the gunmen who had been killed, there was no one else inside the car!

The two masked men, in particular, had disappeared without a trace, as if they had never been in the car from the beginning to the end.

All that was left in the car was some clutter and what appeared to be a beautifully crafted wheelchair!

Ran away?

Ji Feng took two steps to the rear of the caravan, and his face instantly changed!

He saw that the door at the back of the caravan had been opened at some point, and on the pedals, there were a few clear shoe prints .....

Needless to say, the person in the car had definitely escaped!

"Damn it!"

Ji Feng cursed angrily, he grabbed the car door with one hand, his feet pushed hard, the whole person directly flipped onto the roof of the car and raised his eyes to look around.

As expected!

In the distant wilderness, a figure could be seen from afar running like a madman. Because of the distance, Ji Feng could only vaguely see that the running figure looked bloated, and there seemed to be a person on his back .....

Ji Feng immediately associated it with the wheelchair he saw in the caravan, and he knew he was right.

Obviously, there were indeed two people wearing masks in the car at that time, and one of them, should still be a cripple, or someone who was injured and had limited mobility.

“Chase!”

Ji Feng shouted lowly, and his legs sprang into action as he hurriedly chased after them.

The white spider also noticed the unusual situation in the car, and although she couldn't see the situation in the distance, she ran wildly after Ji Feng, because she knew that Ji Feng must have discovered something, otherwise, he certainly wouldn't have lost his temper so much.

However, the speed at which Ji Feng ran was too swift, almost like a cheetah running wildly, so fast that the white spider could not keep up with him even if she tried her best, and gradually, the two pulled apart.

Bai Spider was anxious in her heart and wanted to call out to Ji Feng, but then she dismissed the thought. Obviously, if Ji Feng had not found something extremely important, he would not have run so recklessly and wildly.

In desperation, White Spider had no choice but to chant, “Li Guoliang, this way, hurry up and follow!”

At the same time, she also raised her speed to the extreme, trying her best to catch up with Ji Feng's steps.

“Your Majesty, Little Prince!”

Ji Feng's mouth recited these two names as his feet became faster and faster, almost reaching the limit of his running speed. But to his surprise, the distance between him and those two people in the distance was shortened to an extremely limited extent.

This meant that the speed of those two people in front of him should be similar to his.

This discovery surprised Ji Feng, he knew better than anyone how fast he was now, he really hadn't found anyone faster than him up to now, especially with his instant bursts in short distances.

However, the two people in front of him were actually just a little bit slower than him, to be precise, the one who was running in front of him was only a little bit slower than him.

But let's not forget that the man in front of him was carrying a man on his back!

Without the burden on his back, that man's speed could have been a match for Ji Feng's!

High hand!

Ji Feng made his first judgment, even though this person could also be born with divine strength, or just have a talent in running, but all such possibilities were too small.

Because, this person who was running madly and wildly was, in all probability, the King!

The reason why Ji Feng made such a judgement was because he had seen the speed at which the young lord fled, when he was only one step away from catching him in Southern Guangdong, so he knew very well that although the young lord's speed was fast, it was very insufficient to reach this level.

It was obvious then that this person who was running wildly was the King!

Needless to say, since the person running wildly was the king, then the one on the king's back at the moment was obviously the little prince.

Ji Feng did not expect that the king would be so fast, he was obviously an absolute expert, knowing that, given the king's age, he was already at least middle-aged, as he had a son, Little Prince, so he was naturally not young.

When one reaches middle age, what with one's innate divine strength and talent in running, all these no longer play any role.

Therefore, there was only one possibility now – the king was an extremely powerful master!

Chapter 1802

The king was a master?

This was incredible, or at least very much out of Ji Feng's expectation.

Seeing the king carrying the little prince on his back, running wildly in the middle of the wilderness with flying madness, and at a surprisingly fast speed, it made Ji Feng astonished for a moment!

Although Ji Feng had never fought with the king before, or even directly dealt with him, he could conclude that the king must be someone who knew kung fu, just from the fact that he was still able to run so fast with a person on his back now.

As a middle-aged man, all aspects of physical strength and fitness had already begun to decline, and if the king did not know kung fu, even an extremely fit athlete would not be able to run so fast at his age.

In fact, even an athlete at the peak of his proper age would definitely not have the same speed as the King is now.

It is not too unusual for a person to know kung fu, and there are high and low levels of kung fu that are uneven.

However, if a person who knows kung fu is also surprisingly fast, then it goes without saying that this person must be an absolute master!

The mere fact of having extreme speed is enough to be able to take over the whole world in one move.

An expert may throw a punch with all his might, which can reach hundreds of pounds, but there is always something that can resist his punch, such as a shield or a wall.

But if a man is as fast as he can be, who can stop him?

There is a saying that says, "In all martial arts under the world, no one is invulnerable, only fast is invulnerable, that's what it means.

So Ji Feng immediately asserted after seeing the king's speed that this man definitely knew kung fu, and was a kung fu master!

What kind of person was this king, and how could he possibly possess such good kung fu skills?

Ji Feng was puzzled.

Although he had never met the king, in Ji Feng's imagination, the king was definitely a man with an overwhelming mind, a middle-aged man who was absolutely shrewd.

And such a man fit that image of a great traitor and a great evil!

There is an apt saying – since ancient times, but for all great treachery and wickedness, there must be great wisdom and courage.

If he didn't have a great mind and wisdom, how could the King have run such a huge force in China without showing any traces, even for so many years without being discovered?

If Master Wang was just an ordinary person, not to mention operating for such a long time, it would have been quite good for him to be able to operate without showing any traces, not to mention that there were quite a few business owners who had been taken in by Master Wang.

Therefore, in Ji Feng's view, a middle-aged man who was outwardly gentle and elegant, or had a glorious and righteous image, but secretly was a man with a belly full of male thieves and female prostitutes and full of nastiness, this was only right to fit the image of the king.

However, the scene in front of him was so far beyond Ji Feng's imagination that he didn't even know what to say about it .....

"It's really unexpected, the king actually has such a good body, this is really out of everyone's expectation! Hidden really deep!" Ji Feng couldn't help but sneer in his heart, seeing that the king was still running madly and wildly, Ji Feng brought his speed up to the limit, and likewise chased after him almost like a madman.

This man is definitely a lord, both civil and military, in terms of physical skills, just by looking at his speed at this moment, you can tell how strong he is, ordinary experts in front of the king are afraid that they will not be able to walk in front of him for more than a few face to face before they are taken down.

In terms of wisdom, the King has been making waves in China for so many years without being discovered. If it wasn't for Ishida Ono and Cheng Haotai, who planned Han Zhong's attack on the Tengfei Group, which drew their own attention and eventually followed the vine to find the King's stronghold in Southern Guangdong and wiped it out, I'm afraid that no one would have discovered the King's plot until now.

Or rather, even if someone had discovered his movements, he would have been put right.

If he hadn't had some brains, could the king have made it this far?

Able to write and fight, while having the behemoth of a dynasty behind him, the king was definitely a very formidable enemy.

More importantly, up until now, no one actually knew who the real identity of the king was, not to mention the king, even the young duke, no one knew his real identity yet, not even the slightest trace of it had been found out.

If we let the king escape this time, with the king's ability, once he makes a counterattack or deliberately retaliates, that would be a big trouble in heaven!

Thinking of this, Ji Feng gritted his teeth and used all his strength to give chase desperately.

In the darkness of the night, the king was carrying the young duke on his back and running wildly in front of him, while Ji Feng was chasing after him as wildly as he could, both this chase and the escape were so fast that they seemed to have almost reached the limit of human speed, and if anyone had seen it, they didn't know what kind of astonishment they would have become.

However, Ji Feng's speed was so fast that White Spider and Li Guoliang were anxious behind them. With their speed, it was naturally difficult for them to catch up with Ji Feng and the two of them.

At this time, it seemed that the king also sensed the danger, and he suddenly turned and took the little prince and ran wildly in another direction.

Naturally, Ji Feng was in hot pursuit, this place was full of wilderness, there were few places to hide again, in this kind of open area, the king could not escape no matter how he escaped, what's more, he was already not as fast as Ji Feng with the little grandson, although the difference in speed between the two sides was not very big, it was enough for Ji Feng to catch up with them.

"Ta-da-da ....."

However, just at this time, a gunshot suddenly came, a tongue of fire streaked in front of them, the king fired?

Ji Feng immediately coldly grunted at the same time his body folded and changed direction, but still continued to chase, at this time he also saw that the king did not stop, the one who fired should be the little male who was lying on the king's back.

"Ta-da-da ....."

The sound of gunfire rang out again, Ji Feng cursed angrily in his heart, but had to immediately change direction to dodge, although there was still a distance between the two sides, but Ji Feng had to be careful.

But in doing so, Ji Feng's speed was hindered and had to slow down, and the distance between the two sides once again widened quite a bit.

"We can't continue like this!" Ji Feng was chasing with all his might while his mind was turning rapidly, no one knew how many bullets were left in the gun in Little Duke's hand, if he still had a few more magazines with him, he would not be able to catch up tonight, this situation had to be changed.

Thinking of this, Ji Feng immediately changed his stance, he bent over, reduced his target, and his whole body rushed over as if he were an arrow. This time, he was directly predicting the direction in which Master Wang and Little Duke might escape, and did not follow them to catch up.

For more than ten seconds in a row, the king and Ji Feng both ran in two completely different directions, seeing that they seemed to be coming further and further apart from each other as well, just then, Ji Feng suddenly shouted, "Hey-!"

In a flash, the king changed direction abruptly. And the direction in which he shifted was exactly the same as the direction Ji Feng had predicted!

The distance was instantly closed!

Ji Feng once again gave full chase, seeing that the distance between him and the king was getting closer and closer, he could even hear the shriek of alarm from the young duke, "Ah... Father, he's catching up!"

"Hey!"

Ji Feng shouted violently, "Little Duke, I'll see where you can escape to! I'll cut you alive today!"

I don't know if it was because of nervousness or because it was too bumpy, but the weapon in the little duke's hand actually fell to the ground at once.

Good opportunity!

Ji Feng shouted in his heart, and a few seconds later, Ji Feng rolled on the ground, picked up the weapon and continued his pursuit.

As he ran, Ji Feng checked the weapon and the magazine, and after confirming that there was no problem, he shouted, "Stop, or I'll shoot you all in the head!"

Swish!

In a flash, the king abruptly stopped in his tracks and at the same time placed the young duke on the ground, and the two of them turned back to look at Ji Feng.

Two masks!

Ji Feng could vaguely see that both the king and the young duke were wearing masks on their faces, especially the mask on the young duke's face, which was the same one he had seen before!

Ji Feng tried hard to see clearly what the king and the young duke looked like, but this distance was still too far for Ji Feng, and his eyesight could not reach this level.

Ji Feng immediately walked forward in big strides.

"Ka ka ka~~!"

Suddenly, the king threw a rifle to the young male, while he himself was holding a pistol in his hand, pointing it at Ji Feng from afar.

"Stand still! Take another half step forward and I'll finish you off!" Little Duke shouted sternly.

"Ho!" Ji Feng sneered, but stopped in his tracks.

The two sides just confronted each other.

"Drop the gun and back off!" Little Duke yelled sternly again, "If you don't want to die, do as I say!"

Ji Feng, however, was not afraid, he said in a cold voice, "Little Duke, I didn't expect us to meet so soon! What, you sound like you're scared? Is that all the guts you have?"

There was no sound from the other side, and after a moment, the little duke suddenly roared out, "Ji Feng? It's you! I can't believe it's you!"

The little male's voice was thick with hatred and a hint of shock, he didn't seem to expect that the person who had chased him and his father around like a dog in distress would actually be Ji Feng.

"Ha!"

When Ji Feng smiled, he burst out laughing, "Little Gongzi, it seems that your memory is not too bad, but it seems that your luck is not too good, how come you have become a cripple after not seeing him for a few days?"

"It's all thanks to you!" The little gongzi said with hatred, hearing his voice, it was as if it was squeezed out from his teeth, full of resentment and hatred.

"Humph! Thanks to me?" Ji Feng sneered, at the same time, his feet were moving forward without a trace, "Then tell me, when did I make you a cripple?"

Chapter 1803

"It's all thanks to you!" The little male said with hatred, and hearing his voice, it was almost as if it was squeezed out of his teeth, full of resentment and hatred.

"Humph! Thanks to me?" Ji Feng sneered, at the same time, his feet were moving forward without a trace, "Then tell me, when did I make you a cripple?"

"Stop!"

The young lord screamed, "If you dare to take another half step forward, I will kill you!"

"Kill me?"

Ji Feng sneered disdainfully, "Little Duke, you have a big mouth, I want to see whether you die first or I die first today!"

As he spoke, Ji Feng was walking forward without stopping.

"It's already very close, come closer ....." Ji Feng's face with a cold smile, eyes stern, hands clutching the gun posture even make him look very majestic and imposing.

But in fact, at this moment, Ji Feng's heart is also flying in the calculation, but now there are two guns pointing at him, moreover, these two guns can also be rifles, much more powerful than pistols, which makes Ji Feng have to be careful.

"Boom!"

A gunshot sounded.

Ji Feng suddenly dodged, his body shifted two or three metres sideways with a stiff, cold look in his eyes, and the gun was aimed at the little male sitting on the ground in the distance.

"If you dare to take half a step forward again, the next shot will be to your head!" The King, who had not spoken, finally spoke, his voice seemed a little hoarse, but it was full of coldness.

At the same time as he spoke, a brilliant light flashed in the eyes of the king, he really did not expect that Ji Feng's body was so strong, he had moved two meters sideways and dodged his cold shot.

He had to know that just now he had fired his gun right at Ji Feng, aiming to take advantage of Ji Feng's distracted energy to finish him off.

Seeing this kind of skill of Ji Feng, the king's heart became even more alert.

"If I hadn't dodged just now, that bullet would have hit me, right?" Ji Feng sneered, while fiercely pulling the trigger.

"Boom!"

In the next moment, a harsh and miserable scream came out of the little male's mouth, "Ah...!"

On his shoulder, a blood splash exploded, Ji Feng's shot just now had directly ruined one of the little grandson's arms.

"You are trying to die!" The king was furious when he saw this, he shouted coldly and was about to pull the trigger again.

Ji Feng sneered and his gun was likewise aimed at the king's master, also ready to shoot again.

Although the two sides were now at the stage of confrontation, it did not mean that they could endlessly talk nonsense, and even, even when they were having a conversation, they had to be careful if the other side would finish them off with a single shot.

Ji Feng, in particular, had to be even more careful because the other side was two men and two guns.

In fact, the reason why a standoff had formed at the scene was because both sides were apprehensive.

The king was perhaps apprehensive about Ji Feng's skills, he was not sure of finishing him off instantly, while Ji Feng was equally apprehensive, he did not understand how the king and the young duke had seen themselves in this dark night.

Looking at their performance, it seemed like they weren't too affected by the darkness either?

This made Ji Feng have to be careful. Before he could figure out what other cards the king had, Ji Feng had to be careful, otherwise, instead of being able to capture the king and the young duke today, he might have left his own little life here.

Both sides had mutual scruples and confronted each other, yet they were both looking for an opportunity to strike.

Only the king's side wanted to finish off Ji Feng directly, while Ji Feng, on the other hand, wanted to nullify them, he wanted to capture them alive!

This time, neither Ji Feng nor the king fired, neither of them were sure of restraining or finishing each other off before the other shot, so they didn't make any more rash moves, but that didn't mean they gave up, they were looking for the right moment, as long as they were a little negligent with each other, I believe the other side would not hesitate to pull the trigger.

“Your Majesty, I have heard of you for a long time, but I have never had the chance to meet you, but I never thought we would meet under such circumstances, the great and famous king, but you are so wretched .....” Ji Feng said with a cold smile.

“Then you are proud enough to feel proud!”

The king’s voice was still as cold as ever: “Little beast, if you can return alive today, you can brag to others that you forced the king to flee in such a mess.”

“That I wouldn’t dare to do!” Ji Feng snorted, “How could I be that capable of forcing you to flee in disarray? Especially, you’re still an expert .....” If you say it out loud, I’m afraid no one will believe that the titled king is actually an absolute expert, old thing, you’re hiding really deep!”

“What kind of expert wouldn’t dare to call himself an expert in front of your Duke Ji!” The king said in a cold voice, “Ji Feng, your skills really annoy me! I originally wanted to wait for some time before finishing you off, but instead, I didn’t expect that you would send yourself to my door .....”

Ji Feng laughed: “Really? Then I’ll really let you down, the person who will be taken out today will definitely not be me! Although you have wanted me dead since a long time ago .....”

Speaking here, Ji Feng suddenly said, “By the way, there is a question I want to understand, Your Majesty, if I remember correctly, the real conflict between us should be when you sent someone to assassinate He Hongwei, but I saved him, is that right?”

“Humph!” The king snorted coldly and didn’t answer.

Ji Feng didn’t care either as he continued, “However, what struck me as strange was that shortly after that, you said that I had put your son through torture, but at that time, I hadn’t met your son yet!”

“Oh?” The king snorted coldly, “I don’t understand what you’re saying!”

“You can’t understand?”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but sneer and shake his head, “You think that I can’t hear your voice through the phone? Or do you think that this raspy voice of yours now will not remind me of that previous phone call?”

That’s right!

Ever since Ji Feng heard Master Wang’s voice, he immediately recalled a phone call he had received before.

It was back when it wasn’t too long ago that the two siblings, Wang Xin, came under his command, and Ji Feng was driving on the road, but he suddenly received a mysterious phone call.

It was a man’s voice, and in the phone call, that mysterious voice was full of spite and coldness, like a poisonous snake. Moreover, the voice claimed that his son was thus undergoing some kind of painful torture because of himself, and, in the phone call, he also heard that miserable and incomparable scream.

At that time, Ji Feng wondered who had made the call to him. In his impression, he could not remember who he had such a great hatred for.

Since that moment, Ji Feng remembered that mysterious voice very well.

Subsequently, Ji Feng asked Wang Xin to help him trace the source of the call, and the final result Wang Xin came up with was that the source of the call was probably in the sea of the boundary tent, and it should have been called from the sea.

At that time, Ji Feng decided that someone should have called him on a boat, or on an island in the middle of the sea.

But the more specific location, Wang Xin is unable to find out, Ji Feng can only give up.

However, that voice Ji Feng never forgot.

And later he received that call again, that was after he met the attack, and it was hard for Ji Feng not to remember the business on this call.

Just now when Master Wang spoke for the first time, Ji Feng felt very familiar.

Although Master Wang's voice seemed a little hoarse and full of coldness, not exactly the same as the voice on that call, but with Ji Feng's ear, he still heard that Master Wang was the one who had given the mysterious man who had called him!

It was because the tone of the two voices when they were speaking was exactly the same!

In particular, the resentment contained in the voices was definitely coming from the same person.

"I originally thought that although you were unseen, you were in charge of the entire Chinese market, so you should be considered a figurehead anyways, but I didn't expect you to be this virtuous, you dare not act, the so-called king is no more than that!" Ji Feng shook his head and laughed coldly.

The king was silent for a moment before he said in a cold voice, "Ji Feng, I really underestimated you, my son's defeat at your hands was not because he was too stupid, but that you were more powerful than I expected."

At this moment, Master Wang's voice was no longer hoarse, instead it was replaced by a low voice that was cold to the core, "That's right, I was the one who made the call to you in the first place."

Sure enough!

Ji Feng coldly snorted in his heart, but his mouth was motionless as he asked, "Oh? It seems that I am not mistaken. Then ..... can you let me understand understand why you hated me so much at that time? I can't for the life of me remember how I was your son at that time!"

"Father, don't answer him, he's trying to set you up and take the opportunity to pry into our identities!" The young grandson shouted.

A cold light flashed in Ji Feng's eyes at once, the little prince wasn't stupid either.

But the king's voice remained unchanged, still cold, "You want to know our identities?"

Ji Feng nodded very frankly, "Of course!"

"When you know our identities, you will use the power your family holds to deal with us, you piece of shit, what else can you do but rely on the power of your family?" The young male yelled.

"What means can't be used to deal with people like you?" Ji Feng sneered, "If I am shit, then what are you people who work for the boundary tent people? Even worse than shit? What's more, I have the power of my family, so why not use it?!"

"At least, right now your clan can't help you!" The young duke sneered.

"So yeah, your accusation just now doesn't hold water, I've already forced you guys into this situation single-handedly, so why do I need to use my family's power?" Ji Feng sneered, "On the other hand, you guys are pathetic, you don't even have a family!"

"Bullshit, who said we don't have a family, I ....." the young male was furious.

Chapter 1804

"Bullshit, who says we don't have a family, I ....." the young male was furious.

"You're the one farting!"

Ji Feng sneered, "Up to now you still dare to shout in front of me, how shameless, did you forget that just now you were still being chased by me like a dog that lost its family? No, not only do you not have a family, you don't even have a home ....."

When the young grandson heard that, he burst out in anger.

Especially when he thought of how every time they had fought each other since they had made contact with Ji Feng, they had always ended up with Ji Feng winning big, while he himself could only flee in a mess, and he had even been severely injured by Ji Feng several times in a row, and had to endure that kind of inhuman torture before he could heal his injuries.

When he thought of his past experiences, a strong sense of humiliation flooded his heart, and when he thought of Ji Feng's arrogant words just now, his heart burst into flames and his anger shot straight to his head.

"Fuck you!"

Little Duke sat down on the ground and roared in hysterics, "Ji Feng, go ahead and be as arrogant as you like, I'll see how long you can be arrogant! I swear to God, one day sooner or later, I will cut you alive with my own hands! Remember, just cut your flesh and pluck out your heart one by one!"

"Not only you, but also your family, your woman, I will make sure you know what will happen if you offend my Little Duke!" Little Gongzi seemed to go crazy as he roared madly.

However, when these words fell on Ji Feng's ears, he only snorted with extreme disdain, "That's all you're capable of? A person who doesn't even have a home and is being chased by me like a dog in distress, why are you still shouting here? If I were you, I would have found a piece of bean curd myself and crashed to death ....."

“Who said Laozi doesn’t have a home?!”

The young male was instantly enraged by Ji Feng’s disdainful words, he raised his gun and roared, “Don’t think that only your Ji family is powerful, let me tell you, we .....”

“Ji Feng, put away this set of yours, it’s futile to make people laugh!” However, before the young duke could finish his words, the king immediately interrupted the young duke as he stared at Ji Feng and said in a cold voice, “Ji Feng, at the end of your tether? That’s all the tactics?”

“Old thing, you’re really cunning!” Ji Feng secretly said a pity in his heart, but his mouth was mocking.

The king, however, was unmoved as he said coldly, “You want to know where we came from, no problem, I promise to let you know before you take your last breath ..... but for now, I hope your foot won’t move forward!”

Ji Feng smiled, and that left foot, which had been slightly raised, was retracted.

The young male, however, shouted angrily, “Damn it! So you were swindling me just now? You wanted to set me up so that I would tell you where we came from and then you would know our identities?! Bastard, you are really cunning!”

Hearing what the king said, the young gongzi then suddenly realized that it was no wonder that just now, Ji Feng was constantly sarcastic and his words were so hard and vicious that he could barely control his anger, and just now, if it wasn’t for the fact that Ji Feng’s gun was still pointed at his father, the young gongzi really wanted to shoot this son of a bitch who had brought him endless humiliation to death!

However, it was only now that the young grandson suddenly realized that Ji Feng was deliberately provoking him, and kept mentioning words like ‘family’ and ‘home’ to make him blurt out what family he came from in a fit of rage.

In this way, Ji Feng could use his huge energy in China and easily find out the true identities of himself and his father.

What would happen then, even if one could think with one’s buttocks!

When he thought of this, the young male couldn’t help but break out in a cold sweat, and he stared at Ji Feng with unbelievable anger and said angrily, “Son of a bitch, I never thought I would underestimate you, a wild bastard, but you still have such a stomach full of schemes and tricks!”

The words of the little prince were directly ignored by Ji Feng, although from all the past, the little prince was also considered a character, but right now, what Ji Feng valued the most was the king, which was a big fish, and also an extremely powerful character.

Ji Feng’s face was somewhat gloomy, he was staring at the king with a deadly stare, his heart surging with killing intent.

This person, the king’s master, was indeed very uncomplicated.

Not only was he extremely strong and fast, but more importantly, this person, the king’s master, was incomparably shrewd and was definitely considered a great evil and extremely cunning.

This was something that, from the first words Ji Feng spoke to the king, he was able to clearly feel that his judgement was correct.

The king's reaction was extremely quick and extremely cunning. Ji Feng had wanted to deliberately provoke the young duke into revealing his origins in a state of loss of control.

From the very beginning, the king never made a sound, and did not stop the young duke from scolding Ji Feng.

Of course, the king was silent, but he was not watching indifferently. Ji Feng keenly noticed that while he and the young duke were going at it tit-for-tat, the king was looking for Ji Feng's weaknesses, and he obviously intended to find an opportunity to suddenly strike and finish Ji Feng off.

Only, Ji Feng likewise did not consider the young duke too much of an opponent, and a large part of his attention was also focused on the king, even looking for an opportunity to attack in order to try to be able to take the king and the young duke down by surprise.

It was just that neither side had succeeded.

However, when the young duke was already in a state of rage and was about to say what clan they were from, the king suddenly spoke out and interrupted the young duke.

And then, the king revealed Ji Feng's motive and purpose in one word, so that the young duke also understood abruptly, he knew that Ji Feng was deliberately provoking him!

Ji Feng's heart was cold, and he saw through the king's purpose for doing this at a glance.

—The prince was using him to educate the young grandson, because that tit-for-tat just now had undoubtedly taught the young grandson an extremely vivid lesson.

With the experience he had just had, I believe the young duke would remember firmly for the rest of his life that no matter how much an enemy provoked him, he should not be easily angered, let alone be overwhelmed by the heated anger, for then the consequence would most likely be being caught or losing his life.

This kind of education, using real-life events, is more effective than telling him a million times!

The king was a real character, to use such a way to educate a child, and, moreover, in such a situation. If he did not have enough guts and courage, he would never have done such a thing.

This shows how much of a character the King is!

The fact that the prince used this way to educate the young duke made Ji Feng think of a legendary story.

It was said that Zhu Yuanzhang, the founding emperor of the Ming Dynasty, loved his grandson Zhu Yunzhang very much and wanted to pass the throne to him, so he began to train him with emphasis from the time he was a child.

Zhu Yuanzhang was a great emperor of his generation, who built an unparalleled career, and he had a very unique way of raising his children.

Folklore tells this story – on one occasion, Zhu Yuanzhang let his grandson borrow a ladder to climb up a beam, and then Zhu Yuanzhang simply removed the ladder and Zhu Yunzhang was unable to get down at once.

At this point, Zhu Yuanzhang said to his grandson, “Look, even the people closest to you might lie to you, there is no one in the world worth trusting.

Zhu Yuanzhang then forced Zhu Yunzhang to jump down. Although Zhu Yunzhang was extremely afraid, he did not dare to disobey and had to jump down with his head.

However, when Zhu Yunzhang was about to fall to the ground, he was caught by Zhu Yuanzhang and did not fall to the ground.

At this time, Zhu Yuanzhang said to his grandson, Zhu Yunhuang, that if you do not trust even your closest relatives, who else can you trust in the world?

It was in this way that Zhu Yuanzhang taught his offspring, and although it is not clear how effective his education was, one thing is certain: only a lord of his generation would have had such a different kind of education from the norm.

The lessons learnt through this personal experience will never be forgotten.

This story does not seem to have anything in common with the way the king taught his young son, but both the king and Zhu Yuanzhang were consistent in the way they taught.

From this, one could see the mentality and drive of this man, the king.

This kind of person, Ji Feng had to pay attention to!

It was precisely for this reason that a raging and intense killing urge surged up in Ji Feng’s heart, not because he himself was being used as a teaching material by the king to educate his son that he became angry, but because he realised that this person, the king, was definitely considered a lord.

If a man like that had power or strength in his hands, the damage he could do would be unimaginable. And the king was the best among such people, and let’s not forget that he was also the general head of the dynasty in China. Once such a person wanted to take revenge or make some other big move, it would be a disaster for many people.

Ji Feng never considered himself a saviour, and he couldn’t care less, but there was one thing he was sure to ensure, and that was that he wouldn’t let any guy exist who could threaten his family, especially a lord-like figure like the king!

“He must be killed! This person is definitely a great threat!”

Ji Feng’s eyes were icy cold, and a murderous spirit surged in his heart as he decided that he must find a way to capture Master Wang, and even if he didn’t get him killed now, he would have to waste him.

Moreover, Ji Feng had not forgotten that the king could not only be bold and intelligent, but also just shrewd and cunning, this person also had superior physical skills.

This kind of person is really too dangerous, whether it is for Ji Feng himself or for his family, it is a huge threat. Even for the whole of China, Master Wang was definitely a huge threat.

“Want to leave?”

Right at this moment, Ji Feng immediately noticed keenly that Master Wang’s body began to slowly lean backwards, a precursor to him retreating.

Ji Feng immediately took a step forward, “Swish!”

“Boom!”

Little Duke shouted and fired a shot at Ji Feng.

Chapter 1805

Ji Feng immediately took a step forward.

“Boom!”

Little Gongzi shouted and fired a shot at Ji Feng.

But Ji Feng didn’t even dodge, just by looking at the muzzle of the little male’s gun pointing, Ji Feng didn’t give a damn.

Because he was too nervous, the little gongzi racked his gun, the muzzle was trembling slightly, and his accuracy was so poor that Ji Feng couldn’t feel the danger at all, so obviously the little gongzi didn’t even aim.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but sneer, “What a father of a tiger and a son of a dog, Master Wang, it seems that your son of a dog has failed you!”

The king stood beside the young duke without saying a word, but his body eventually did not retreat backwards because the threat Ji Feng posed to him was too great.

The step that Ji Feng had taken forward just now was clearly a sign that he had discovered his intentions, which made the king’s heart fearful and he easily dared not make any further moves.

Now, both sides were in a complete standoff. Ji Feng’s strength was strong, there was no doubt about it, even when he was pointed at by two guns, he was calm as usual, not the slightest bit of panic at all, from which it could also be seen that he was confident in his own strength.

Just now, when the young duke fired that shot, Ji Feng did not even dodge it. The king would not think that this was Ji Feng being so arrogant as to think that he could be invulnerable to swords and spears.

It must be that Ji Feng had something to rely on before he dared to do so.

The king realised that perhaps it was really like what Ji Feng had said, that the young duke was not even in Ji Feng’s sights, and that his presence beside him was at most a slight distraction for Ji Feng, a way to take some pressure off himself.

But if the two sides really got into a firefight and engaged in a life-and-death duel with each other, the little duke would definitely not be able to help.

It was for this reason that the king did not act recklessly, he was looking for the right moment, as long as he could finish off Ji Feng with one shot, then everything would not be a problem.

The same was true for Ji Feng.

The king's strength was certainly not weak, there was no doubt about that, but to what extent it was strong, Ji Feng had no way of knowing. Coupled with the fact that there was a young male next to him holding a gun and hating him with a passion, Ji Feng could not make his move easily.

Therefore, the two sides were basically maintaining a stand-off balance now. If this balance could not be broken, Ji Feng would not be able to catch the king and the young duke, and of course, the king would not be able to finish Ji Feng off.

Of course, this confrontation was actually the most testing.

Because as long as you were even the slightest bit careless, the other side would seize the opportunity to finish you off, and a move between experts could be just half a move away from getting killed.

Therefore, the confrontation between Ji Feng and the king was actually a process in which the two of them exchanged blows on all fronts.

They had to distract each other with their words and disturb each other's minds, and they had to do everything they could to make each other reveal their weaknesses. Then, they also have to do their best to catch the other side's weaknesses and use the most severe and effective means to finish them off or catch them.

It is clear from this that the process of such an encounter is not so simple. Beneath the seeming calmness is a thrilling danger that can envelop you if you are not careful. So you have to concentrate, be alert, alert, and alert again, and only then can you survive.

This was a torment both for Ji Feng and for the king.

But they had to suffer through it.

For the king, he didn't want to be caught, he wanted to finish off Ji Feng, and if not, he wanted to take his son and get out in one piece, so he had to fight!

And from Ji Feng's point of view then, he had to catch the king and the young duke, even if he couldn't catch them alive, the dead ones would do.

Because the threat of the king to him was too great, once he failed to catch him this time, it would be like letting the tiger back into the mountain, and the consequences of that would be almost unimaginable!

These problems, both sides knew it by heart, knowing that this confrontation, this encounter was so torturous and so dangerous, they had to grit their teeth and continue.

Of course, whether it was Ji Feng or the King, the determination of their hearts and minds was naturally not comparable to that of ordinary people, so even under these circumstances, they still thought of doing their best to achieve their goals, rather than seeing this as a torment.

“Ji Feng, it looks like you won’t be able to catch us today!” The king’s cold voice came over, “We have two guns while you only have one, in this dark night, who has the greater advantage, I think you must be able to see the situation without me saying so?”

“You have two guns?” Ji Feng snorted, “Yes, you do have two guns, but the thing about guns is that it depends on who is using them. If it was you well, I would definitely be scornful, but that gun in your canine son’s hand ..... tsk, seriously, if I had a son like that, I’d be pissed off at myself!”

“Bullshit!”

The young gongzi was shaking with anger and yelled, “Ji Feng, watch your fucking mouth, you’re the canine son, you’re the son of a dog! Your whole family is!”

“Boom!”

Ji Shao flung his hand and fired a shot.

“Boom boom!”

In the next moment, when Master Wang saw Ji Feng shoot, he also violently pulled the trigger, but Ji Feng was the one who directly rolled sideways and left his original position at the same time as he shot, and Master Wang’s two shots were let go.

However, the king didn’t just do that, he kicked the little male away while shooting.

“Ah!”

Little Duke couldn’t help but cry out in shock, his heart horrified.

He didn’t expect Ji Feng to shoot all of a sudden, and if his father hadn’t kicked him away, I’m afraid he would have become a corpse by now .....

A round down, both sides have their own actions, but is no one suffered a loss.

Ji Feng frowned slightly, he felt tricky.

The king is really not easy to deal with, this person is cunning and agile movements, high skills, to say head-on, the other side now has two guns, Ji Feng can not act rashly, can only wait for an opportunity to strike, but the king’s reaction is also not slow, just now Ji Feng’s sneak attack was defeated by the king.

But it was not a solution to keep on stalemating like this. The gun battle and car accident on the road would definitely attract the attention of the police, and no one knew when the police would arrive, so they had to hurry up and solve the problem.

“Your Majesty, there is a question I would like to know, how did you guys see me in such a dark night? Could it be that the masks on your faces are odd?” Ji Feng asked.

“Take your time to think about it yourself!” Little Duke sneered.

“I guess there should be something odd on the masks!” Ji Feng said, “Your Highness, you wouldn’t be so petty, or is there some big secret you can’t tell?”

The king, however, did not say a word, as if he had not heard Ji Feng’s question.

Ji Feng secretly frowned, this was definitely an old fox, in this situation, he could still be so calm and cool that it was scary.

Wanting to distract the king's attention, it seems that just conversing with him won't work, not only can the king be composed, but he is also extremely alert, plus there is a young male next to him stirring the pot, trying to disturb the king with his words, this method may not be effective, we must think of another way .....

"Dang ....."

Suddenly, an extremely thin metallic clanging sound drifted along the wind from nowhere.

Ji Feng immediately said secretly, "Good opportunity!"

However, just at this moment, the king was shouting, "Son, be careful—!"

With that, he saw the king's body steeply crouch down, grabbing the young duke with one hand and bending backwards frantically. At the same time, the gun in the king's hand began to gulp tongues of fire.

"BOOM! Boom boom boom ....."

How could Ji Feng stand by and watch the king escape?

His two heads suddenly fired up and he rushed forward furiously, even if he couldn't catch the king, he had to at least rush to within the reach of his penetrating eyes to get a clear look at the king and the young duke.

"Da da da da ....." At the same time, in the open field not far away, another simultaneous burst of gunfire came, the two tongues of fire so obvious in the darkness of the night.

It was the duo of White Spider and Li Guoliang!

Because Ji Feng's speed was too fast and it was too dark, White Spider and Li Guoliang were simply unable to keep up with Ji Feng's speed and were eventually left far behind. As a result, it was only until now that they followed the sound of gunshots from before and then vaguely saw that Ji Feng was confronting the king.

They had intended to carry out a sneak attack, but they had never imagined that the subtle sound of a loaded bullet could actually startle the king, which really took them by surprise.

In fact, not to mention them, even Ji Feng didn't know how strong the King really was, but just by the King's ability to hear the wind and distinguish the sound, they could tell that he was definitely strong!

"Boom! Boom boom!" Ji Feng chased wildly while firing his gun, because Master Wang's shooting was extremely harsh and made Ji Feng feel extremely threatened, so he had to change his route to dodge while running.

Suddenly, a black object was thrown out of the king's hand.

A grenade?!

Ji Feng caught a glimpse of the black object and his face changed as he shouted, "You two lie down!"

"Boom~~!"

The next moment, a huge explosion exploded a dozen meters in front of him, a flash of fire, the huge shockwave shook Ji Feng's body, staggering back a few steps before he could stabilize himself, but the huge explosion still made Ji Feng have to press his body down to prevent being hit by the shrapnel.

When the explosion passed, Ji Feng got up and gave chase, but this was the king who had already run wildly far away with the little prince on his back, Ji Feng coldly snorted and accelerated violently.

"Buzz~~!"

Just then, there was a roar in the distant sky, and two strong, blinding rays of light coming straight up, illuminating this wilderness as if it were daylight.

It was a helicopter?

Ji Feng instantly frowned, really he had alerted the Rice officials after all, he just couldn't imagine that they had sent out helicopters!

-This is a big problem!

Chapter 1806

Seeing that the helicopter's lights were actually shining in this vicinity, he, along with White Spider and Li Guoliang, were all within the area being illuminated, it was obvious that the people on this helicopter were attracted over by the explosion just now.

Ji Feng gritted his teeth and continued to run wildly after the king.

"Burst ....." A burst of bullets came at once, but it was someone on the helicopter who opened fire.

"Damn it!"

Ji Feng cursed angrily and rolled violently to the ground while shouting, "It's a machine gun! You two back off immediately, I'll draw the helicopter away!"

The burst of bullets just now were from the machine guns on the helicopter, which were not only dense but also extremely powerful, so that Ji Feng could only grit his teeth and dodge.

And only at this time did Ji Feng know that the one that was tracking over was not an ordinary helicopter at all, but most likely a police helicopter gunship.

This kind of helicopter could carry light rockets or machine guns, and with that kind of power, even an iron man would be blown to pulp if he was hit, and there was no way for the human body to resist.

Even if the helicopter that came was not that perverted, the machine gun was definitely there, and the one that strafed just now was the machine gun.

During the capture of Little Prince in Southern Guangdong, the military had once used an armed helicopter, although at that time Ji Feng was only chasing Little Prince on the pier and did not see the helicopter search, but later he also heard about it from Xiang Yongzhan.

On the military helicopter, the weapons carried were extremely powerful, and their killing power was extremely strong. Although this police helicopter was not as perverted, the weapons were also powerful enough.

The machine guns on top of the police helicopter alone are enough to make people's scalps tingle. One should know that these machine guns are not held and fired by human beings, but have an automatic aiming system and are onboard machine guns, so the person driving the helicopter only needs to aim according to the positioning and can fire directly, which is extremely powerful and the shooting density is not comparable to manual operation at all.

What's more, police helicopters generally come with strong lighting systems and high-definition cameras.

Now that Ji Feng was within the range of this helicopter's searchlight headlights, the helicopter pilot could easily aim it.

Moreover, every move Ji Feng made would be recorded by the helicopter's high-definition camera, and as soon as he tilted his face up, his face would immediately be captured by the high-definition camera.

Under such circumstances, Ji Feng had to leave the helicopter's range as quickly as possible.

More importantly, he absolutely could not let the king and the young duke escape. Even though it was dangerous, Ji Feng had to catch up with them, really because the man, the king, was too dangerous and too powerful.

Once the king escaped, the trouble that would be caused would be practically endless!

When the corner of his eye saw that the white spider and Li Guoliang had already left the range of the helicopter's probe, Ji Feng let out a low shout and his legs suddenly accelerated, chasing wildly in the direction where the king and the young duke had escaped.

"Ta-da-da ....."

Suddenly, there was another burst of machine gun fire from the helicopter. Ji Feng let out a muffled cry and hurriedly changed his direction, but his feet were half-hearted, gritting his teeth and chasing furiously.

"Da da da da da ....." Perhaps it was because the people on the helicopter saw Ji Feng trying to escape, they actually didn't even shout, they just aimed at Ji Feng and fired wildly, making Ji Feng have to dodge again and again.

Ji Feng's scalp really tingled!

Usually in those Hollywood blockbusters, you see the army sending out helicopters at every turn to attack the enemy, and that is indeed very impressive, but when it really comes down to your head, you realize how much of a threat this thing poses!

Even with Ji Feng's strength and speed, every time he was targeted by the machine guns on the helicopter, he couldn't help but feel a pang of panic, and as long as he was slightly untimely in dodging, he would be sieved by the dense bullets.

“Ta-da-da .....

The machine gun swept down again.

Ji Feng could only grit his teeth again to dodge, his speed had to slow down once again, seeing that the king was already fleeing further and further away, Ji Feng suddenly roared, “Shoot that helicopter down for me!”

“Yes!”

Li Guoliang’s drink came from the darkness, and the next moment, two tongues of fire were seen suddenly erupting in the darkness.

“Ta-da-da-da .....

Li Guoliang and White Spider attacked the helicopter in the sky from two different directions, fortunately they were both holding rifles in their hands, which were powerful enough and had a long range, if they were pistols, it wouldn’t really be that easy to threaten the helicopter.

The next moment, the helicopter immediately pulled up and began to search in a circle with searchlights.

At the same time, someone from the helicopter started shooting at the place where White Spider and Li Guoliang were, so it was clear that there was definitely more than one pilot in the helicopter.

There were many ways to take out the helicopter. Their priority now was to attract the attention of the helicopter crew and relieve Ji Feng.

What’s more, with two rifles in their hands, it wasn’t impossible for them to take out the helicopter!

With the support of White Spider and Li Guoliang, the pressure on Ji Feng’s side was immediately reduced, and he immediately accelerated to catch up with the King and Little Prince. Now, what about the Rice Police, what about the helicopter, as long as it did not threaten him, Ji Feng did not care.

What Ji Feng cared most about now was that he could not let the King get away.

The speed of the king was extremely fast, and it was only a few minutes from the time the helicopter appeared until now, and the king had already scurried far away, so Ji Feng could only try his best to catch up.

Suddenly, the King jerked to a halt.

The next moment, Ji Feng saw the king throwing something violently towards this side.

Another grenade?

Ji Feng secretly snorted coldly and immediately changed direction, bending down and running.

“Boom...!”

With a loud bang, the grenade exploded not far from Ji Feng and a burst of fire rose up, but Ji Feng managed to dodge it.

However, the sound and fire attracted the helicopter's attention, and the searchlight immediately shone over, while at the same time, the machine gun on the helicopter also followed, and the burst of gunfire was even more piercing than the sound from the helicopter.

"Son of a bitch!"

Ji Feng cursed and immediately rolled on the ground, dodging quickly from the scope of the searchlight, and then rushed directly into the darkness.

"Boom!"

Then just as Ji Feng dodged, another grenade exploded with a bang.

Ji Feng's position was once again exposed, and the helicopter's searchlight immediately shone over once more, while the onboard machine gun also started another round of strafing.

Helplessly, Ji Feng could only dodge once more, and seeing that the king was running further and further away, Ji Feng roared, "Take out the helicopter!"

"Ta-da-da-da ....."

Before his words fell, White Spider and Li Guoliang fired at the same time, only to hear a clattering sound, the searchlight of the helicopter was shattered, the light immediately disappeared, but that helicopter was still hovering in the air, the bullets hit the fuselage and only sent out a string of sparks.

The helicopter was in the air and they had to aim at the cockpit if they wanted to shoot it down from below, but they could not do so with the searchlight shining down on them.

Now that the headlamp was broken, White Spider and Li Guo Lian breathed a sigh of relief and started aiming at the helicopter's cockpit.

"Boom~~!"

However, at this moment, another grenade exploded a few dozen meters in front of Ji Feng, and although that explosion did not cause any harm to Ji Feng, the helicopter was directly trailing and strafing a few dozen meters around the explosion, making Ji Feng angry and helpless.

"Bastard!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but curse, of course he knew that the king was deliberately exposing him so that the helicopters in the air could pester him, and then the king could easily get away.

Although he knew what the king was planning, Ji Feng couldn't break it because the people on the helicopter seemed to have identified him, and they didn't even shout, they just shot as soon as they saw someone, they simply treated them as if they were terrorists.

If Ji Feng stayed behind to deal with the helicopter, then the king was bound to run away, and if he wanted to chase the king, the helicopter followed him like a shadow under the king's deliberate guidance, so he had to be distracted to dodge the bullets coming from the helicopter.

White Spider and Li Guoliang's side was unable to help, so Ji Feng gritted his teeth and snapped to one knee, holding his gun and aiming it at the helicopter in the air.

He had to take care of the helicopter first!

If he was going to chase after the king, he had to clear out this aerial threat first, because this threat was so big that a careless one would be sieved by the machine gun.

After the operation, if it went well and the helicopter was taken out, the King would at most run far away and could still catch up if he did his best to chase.

Ji Feng didn't move a muscle and just aimed at the helicopter that was hovering in the air.

"Boom!"

Ji Feng jerked the trigger, and then he didn't even look at what the result would be, he rolled on the ground, left the place where he had originally fired, moved a dozen meters away quickly, and then did the same trick again and fired another shot.

"Boom!"

Ji Feng fired a shot again.

"Clatter~~!" The next moment, the sound of glass shattering came through.

"It's a hit!" Ji Feng immediately said secretly, while looking up, and as expected, he saw that the helicopter was swaying in the air, as if it was being piloted by a drunken man.

Immediately afterwards, the helicopter began to fall rapidly, while there were also faint shouts of alarm, as if the people on the helicopter were shouting in fear.

"Boom!"

The helicopter fell heavily to the ground, dust flying, and the people in the helicopter did not know whether they were alive or dead.

Ji Feng immediately bellowed, "You guys stay here and curate!"

With that, he then chased wildly and desperately in the direction where the king had fled without reservation.

However, at this time, the king was already running wildly far away, even farther than the distance when Ji Feng had first discovered them.

Could he run away?

Ji Feng secretly snorted coldly and brought his speed to the limit, chasing wildly once more.

Chapter 1807

Can he run away?

Ji Feng secretly snorted coldly and brought his speed up to the limit, chasing wildly once again.

Time passed quickly, and in the wilderness, both Ji Feng and the king were running as hard as they could in a playful frenzy, both Ji Feng and the king had reasons why they had to run wildly.

The king had to escape!

Even if there were two of them and two guns, he knew that the two of them, father and son, were definitely not Ji Feng's opponents, at least not for now.

Because there was a little prince following around!

More people might not necessarily be better, although one more person beside him would be one more gun, but the king knew it all too well in his heart, in front of an expert like Ji Feng, the little duke was nothing at all, even if he was holding a gun, Ji Feng would not put him in his eyes at all.

So in reality, the one who was really going up against Ji Feng was still Master Wang alone.

But in fact, this was not the case. With Little Duke by his side, it was impossible for the king to duel with Ji Feng even if he wanted to; God knew when Ji Feng would casually finish off Little Duke, and the king had to be distracted to take care of Little Duke.

In that case, the little duke would become a burden instead, and instead of being able to help, he would drag him down. One had to know that Ji Feng was no ordinary expert, his toughness had been deeply experienced by the king during the encounter and confrontation just now.

Against such a person, even the slightest distraction would be enough to cause a fatal crisis.

At any time, Ji Shao could take advantage of his distraction and finish him off with a single shot. Even if he didn't need to grab, Ji Feng was equally strong, there was already no doubt about it, and so many facts had proven Ji Feng's strength before.

So the king concluded that he definitely could not fight Ji Feng today and had to escape.

As long as they could escape today, they would be considered to have escaped and when they faced Ji Feng again in the future, the king would still have the confidence to fight as long as there were no tired people around.

Because in his opinion, today it was not that he was afraid of Ji Feng and did not dare to answer the battle, but because he could not fight Ji Feng unburdened.

What's more important .....

A one-on-one duel is something only a medieval knight would do, how could he, as the prince of the kingdom, easily go head-to-head with Ji Feng?

If it wasn't for Ji Feng's unexpected killing today, the king wouldn't have even met him, let alone mentioned the matter of a duel.

Even if he wanted to duel, he would have sent a man to duel with Ji Feng!

The actual fact is that you are able to get a lot more than just a few of the best and most importantly, you are able to get a lot more than just a few of the best.

..... The king laughed coldly in his heart.

However, for Ji Feng, he didn't think that much, at this time Ji Feng only had one thought in his mind – catch the king and not let him escape!

Both sides were chasing and fleeing, and both were as fast as they could be.

However, as time passed quickly, Ji Feng's heart was getting more and more anxious, because he had seen the lights!

Just in front of there, was a road!

Even late into the night, there were actually vehicles passing by from time to time at this point.

Ji Feng couldn't help but feel tight in his heart, the king was not too far away from the road, if they stopped a car to escape ..... Ji Feng was anxious in his heart and almost put all his strength to catch up.

However, the king is getting closer and closer to the road.

"Buzzing~~!" In the air, the sound of a helicopter was faintly heard. Although Ji Feng was wondering in his heart why there was still the sound of a helicopter when that helicopter had been shot down by him just now, he couldn't be bothered to look back and could only grit his teeth and chase furiously.

Swish!

Suddenly, Ji Feng jerked to a halt, his eyebrows tightly wrinkled together and twisted into a 'Chuan' character.

This was because Ji Feng saw that the king had already crossed the trench beside the road, got onto the road, and had his gun set up and aimed at a truck that was coming.

Things had come to this point, there was no point in chasing after him any further.

It was clear to Ji Feng that he would not be able to catch the king today.

He looked back and saw that there was another helicopter in the sky in the distance, and the huge searchlight was searching around.

And vaguely, Ji Feng also heard the piercing sound of sirens whistling.

These facts all indicated that the police were about to arrive, and this helicopter was only the vanguard, behind which there must be a large number of police.

Seeing these scenes, Ji Feng's face was incomparably gloomy.

Today, he had once again watched his enemy slip away from him, last time it was Little Prince, but this time, it was Little Prince's father, Master Wang, instead.

Both of them were extremely important figures, but both times Ji Feng had failed to capture them.

"Originally, it was possible!" Ji Feng let out a light sigh in his heart and looked back at the helicopter in the air, a cold light flickering in his eyes. If it wasn't for that helicopter that suddenly killed and fired indiscriminately and suddenly, the king would have been tried to slip away from him even if he had a great ability .....

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the website.

In the darkness, Ji Feng was like a statue standing there, not moving, just quietly aiming.

A moment later, a cold light flashed in Ji Feng's eyes and his finger decisively pulled the trigger.

"Boom!"

In the next moment, I saw the little prince lying on the king's back, his shoulder suddenly exploded, but the shot hit the little prince's body.

Ji Feng, however, did not hesitate to continue pulling the trigger.

"Boom! Boom! Boom ....."

Once he aimed, Ji Feng fired four shots in a row, while his body was motionless, as if it was made of steel.

The consequences of these four shots, however, were also so amazing.

Starting from his shoulder, this side of the young duke's body was constantly bleeding, blood exploded from his shoulder, ribs, waist, and even his thighs.

Half of his body had almost been smashed!

Ji Feng couldn't help but be a little surprised, this bullet wasn't a blooming bullet, how could it have such an exploding effect when it hit Little Gongzi's body?

Could it be because the little gongzi's body had been modified to cause such a result because of his special physique?

Ji Feng wasn't quite sure.

"Ah...!"

The little prince's miserable and incomparable scream came from afar, so hysterical and full of heart-rending sensations.

The king was even more furious and heartbroken to the extreme, and he roared madly, "Ji Feng! You deserve to die! If I don't kill you, I swear I won't be a man!"

"Ka~!"

Ji Feng was not moved in the slightest, saying harsh words had no effect on him, if words could kill, then he would rather stand here and curse for ten days and ten nights, just to be able to finish off the king and the young duke.

But it was obvious that this was impossible, and insults and abuse were just a sign of cowardice and incompetence.

Ji Feng did not hesitate to pull the trigger again, but there was a clear metallic clanging sound, the magazine was out of bullets.

Faintly shaking his head, Ji Feng took another deep look at Wang and Little Gongzi, by now they had stopped the truck, the truck driver jumped down from the car and knelt on the ground with his hands up, seemingly begging for mercy.

“Ji Feng! The mountains don’t turn, we’ll see!” The king’s angry roar, which contained a strong sense of hatred, came from the king, and then, Ji Feng saw the king and the young duke get into the car, and the truck driver followed suit and left in a huff.

“Sure enough, I still can’t catch up!”

Ji Feng said in his heart, he estimated the time it took to run wildly from here to the road, it was far longer than the time it took for Master Wang to stop the truck, Ji Feng nodded, he made the right choice by not choosing to continue chasing, if he continued to chase, he would only be able to watch Master Wang and the little duke escape.

Now instead, he even sent the little duke four shots, his judgment was not wrong.

It’s just a pity that .....

In the end, he still let the king and the young duke escape!

After this, it will be like letting a tiger return to the mountain. In the future, the king will definitely be more careful and he will become more cunning and more elusive.

He will become even more cunning and unpredictable, and the King will become even more dangerous.

Moreover, no one knows what kind of retaliation the king will take after today, what kind of moves he will make, how sinister he will be, and only the king himself knows these issues clearly, which is the biggest threat.

Thinking of these, Ji Feng’s heart could not help but be heavy.

“This person, the king, is formidable.” Ji Feng couldn’t help but sigh, there was such a powerful person hiding in the shadows watching the tigers, even though he had always been too bold, he couldn’t help but feel a little chill at his back.

“I don’t know when I’ll encounter such an opportunity again next time, what a pity.” Ji Feng once again let out a long sigh, and then looked at the truck, which had already disappeared at the far end.

“But there is a saying that the king is right, the mountains don’t turn, one day, we will still meet!” Ji Feng whispered to himself, “But by then, you won’t be so lucky .....

“Burst burst burst .....

Suddenly, a burst of machine gun fire passed by, while the searchlight headlights shone over again.

The first time I saw it, I was so shocked that I suddenly moved my body sideways and ran like a lightning bolt towards the outside of the illumination range of the searchlights, and after several consecutive changes of direction, I managed to avoid the machine gun fire from the helicopter.

“Son of a bitch!”

Ji Feng was furious in his heart, just now a helicopter had stirred up the situation, which made Master Wang escape under his nose, now there was another one, and it came up without saying a word and strafed.

Ji Feng, who was already repressed to the extreme because of the king's escape, immediately exploded.

He directly ran wildly towards the place where White Spider and Li Guoliang were hiding, and when he arrived at the front, before White Spider could say anything, Ji Feng took the gun from her arms, then twisted around and aimed it at the helicopter in the sky.

"You two, go prepare the car, I'll be right behind you!" Ji Feng said in a deep voice without looking back while aiming, "Also, take all the weapons away and don't leave any evidence behind!"

"Yes!"

White Spider and Li Guoliang nodded at the same time and replied, after which they immediately retreated quickly in the direction they had come from.

Ji Feng's expression was cold as he stared at the helicopter in the air that was searching around with searchlights, and with a grit of his teeth, he fiercely pulled the trigger.

"Ta-da-da ....."

In the next moment, that helicopter fell headlong to the ground with a crash.

"Humph!"

Ji Feng snorted coldly, turned around and left.

Chapter 1808

"Huzzah~~"

"BOOM!"

As a dull and violent crash sounded out, a police car was instantly knocked apart, causing the police officers around the car to panic and dodge to the sides in fear, the police car rolled twice on the road and finally stabilized itself crookedly, the police lights that were originally flashing on the roof of the car were also crushed into pieces.

"Hum~~!"

A gust of wind blew violently, accompanied by the low growl of the motor, and a car went straight through and then disappeared at the end of the road.

This was a scene that took place on a road in the suburbs of New York.

Three police cars were parked on the road, blocking it with other roadblocks, set up as roadblocks to stop passing cars.

One of the police cars was overturned and the roadblock was knocked to pieces, and the police officers could not help but panic and dodge.

It was only when the car crossed the roadblock that the startled officers tried to fire, but when they raised their guns, they were at a loss – where should they aim?

In the darkness of the night, the lights of their police cars were pointed straight ahead, but now that the car had passed them and entered the darkness of the night, they could not see where the other car was, and everywhere was dark, and they could not even see the shadow of the car, but could only hear the low roar of the engine going away fast.

..... Damned desperadoes!

The police officers cursed and started to chase them, but when they turned their cars around, they could not see the car that was rushing through the checkpoint.

Even the roaring roar of the engine was no longer audible.

“***!”

.....

“Buzz~~!”

Ji Feng drove the car, his face calm and seemingly without any expression.

In this dark night, neither the interior of the car nor the headlights outside the car had a single light, and the only thing that could be seen was the faint streetlight lights on both sides of the road, which sort of allowed the car to reveal a little outline.

Ji Feng did not care one bit about the barrier set up by the police. In fact, from the time they got into the car until now, counting the barrier they had just passed, they had already encountered three interception barriers, and each of them had been easily passed by Ji Feng.

With his car skills, the barriers set up by the police were virtually useless. The only thing that was a bit threatening was the guns in the hands of the police officers, but the police officers who set up the barriers were obviously more polite than those who flew the helicopter before, as they did not shoot the car as soon as they saw it, but intercepted it first.

Of course, it could also be because their task was not to shoot the suspect, but to arrest him. It could also be because they couldn't tell whether the car driving by was filled with ordinary people or criminals.

It was also because of these possibilities that Ji Feng was able to break through the barrier unexpectedly and was not caught by these police officers, thus avoiding a trouble of sorts.

The car was silent, only the roar of the engine was clearly audible, the streetlights on both sides kept flying backwards, if not for the sound of the engine, the car would have been like a ghost vehicle wandering in the darkness.

However, White Spider and Li Guoliang, who were sitting in the back row, looked at each other with shame, both wanting to say something.

The dull atmosphere in the car made them feel a little depressed, but more than anything else, they were ashamed, both for Bai Spider and Li Guoliang, and when they thought of what had happened earlier, their faces were a little hot with shame and embarrassment.

“Young Ji, I’m sorry .....”

Finally, the white spider mustered up enough courage and said something.

Ji Feng asked, “Sorry? How do you say that? What are you sorry for?”

White Spider said with a face full of shame, “Before, if I hadn’t been too timid ....., maybe the king wouldn’t have run away.”

Li Guoliang followed suit, “I’m the same, Mr. Ji, I’m really sorry, I know a simple apology can’t change anything or make up for my mistake, but .....”

“Wait, wait!”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but frown and interrupted Li Guoliang’s words, he glanced at White Spider and Li Guoliang in the overhead rearview mirror and asked with a frown, “I’m a little confused by you two, what happened before? What did you say about letting the king run away because you guys were timid? You guys say something clear!”

Ji Feng was indeed a bit confused by what they said, how did the king run away just because of the two of them?

How did this come out?

He knew that White Spider and Li Guoliang had always performed well and nothing had gone wrong, so how could he look at White Spider and Li Guoliang as if they were entirely to blame for the king running away?

White Spider and Li Guoliang looked at each other, and both of them could not help but feel a little embarrassed.

Especially Li Guoliang, he couldn’t tell if Ji Feng really meant what he said or if he was saying the opposite.

White Spider said, “Young Ji, when I was fighting before, I played badly and didn’t stall the police helicopter in time, before you could only be distracted to deal with the helicopter first and then go after the king, and as a result, I was delayed, before letting the king run away .....”

White Spider was indeed guilty in his heart, before in the wilderness, Ji Feng and Master Wang were very fast, the two of them said they were Ji Feng’s helpers, but surprisingly none of them could help.

They even waited until Ji Feng and the King had exchanged fire before they could identify the location of where Ji Feng and the others were through the sound of gunfire.

But by the time they arrived, the situation had changed, and the helicopter of the Rice Police had suddenly appeared, giving the King a chance to escape.

If they had been smarter, faster, or had been able to work with Ji Feng more tacitly, then the three of them would have been able to take on both the king and the young grandson, and they would have been able to catch the king and the young grandson before the MiG police helicopter arrived.

But just because of their incompetence, they allowed the King to take advantage of the chaos and escape!

This was the first serious mistake they had made.

Secondly, when the Rice Police helicopter suddenly appeared, the machine guns on the plane started firing down below, and at this time, the first reaction the two of them made was not to return fire with their guns, but to dodge!

In this way, it instantly exposed Ji Feng to the sight of the personnel on the helicopter, and coupled with the deliberate guidance of the king, it therefore also made Ji Feng the main target of the helicopter's attack.

As a result, Ji Feng was forced to grit his teeth and dodge, dodging the helicopter, but he could not go after the fleeing Prince and Little Prince with all his might, which made Ji Feng finally watch as the father and son intercepted a car on another road and managed to escape.

This kind of evasive action made both White Spider and Li Guoliang feel their faces burning hot when they thought about it afterwards.

Thanks to the fact that they had both been in the midst of gunfire before, they both reacted in this way when they heard the gunshot, especially Bai Spider, who felt so guilty that she could not forgive herself.

She knew that Li Guoliang was only a helper, but she was Ji Feng's guard!

As a guard, when danger came, the first thing she had to do was to protect Ji Feng's safety, but it turned out that her choice was the opposite of the right choice, surprisingly the first thing she wanted was herself, what kind of guard was this?

Putting all this aside, what happened afterwards was even more embarrassing to their faces, and they felt their faces burn when they thought about it.

Because of the constant strafing of the helicopters, it made Ji Feng be forced to have his hands full. At that time, Ji Feng roared and told White Spider and Li Guoliang to shoot down the helicopters in the sky.

But White Spider and Li Guoliang failed to do so, and even when Ji Feng roared out in anger a second time, they still failed to do so.

In the end, it was Ji Feng himself who took out the helicopter!

Those two consecutive angry roars from Ji Feng were practically like shouting, "You two losers, can't you even take cover?!"

It was a really bad feeling.

White Spider was Ji Feng's guard, and it was the kind of guard that was close to him, except when he was sleeping at night and not close to him, at other times, White Spider almost rarely left Ji Feng's side.

And in the past, White Spider was still a very reputable assassin, and followed Ji Feng to practice aerobics for so long that her strength could be said to have improved by leaps and bounds, but she is this kind of performance today .....

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

Ji Feng's two roars were like two hard slaps on Li Guoliang's face. When he thought of his performance, Li Guoliang felt that he really had no face!

How could they not have thought at that time that the machine guns on the helicopter were following the searchlights?

Even if they couldn't shoot down the helicopter at once, then they could have completely shot the searchlight on the helicopter first, so that Ji Feng would at least not receive that kind of focused care, right?

If you're that capable, why be a soldier!

Li Guoliang was embarrassed and guilty.

In that situation at that time, even if they made one less mistake, maybe Ji Feng would have been able to catch up with the king, but it turned out that they had made almost all of those fatal mistakes .....

How could this make White Spider and Li Guoliang feel embarrassed?

.....

"Just this reason?" Ji Feng couldn't help but be stunned as he listened to them swallow and explain the reason.

"Mr. Ji, I didn't do a good job, I'm really sorry!" Li Guoliang said, "I will ask for my own disciplinary action from my superiors, and if I can, I intend to retire from the army ....."

Chapter 1809

"Mr. Ji, it's me who didn't do a good job, I'm really sorry!" Li Guoliang said, "I will ask for my own disciplinary action from my superiors, and I intend to retire if I can ....."

"Retire?"

Ji Feng glanced at him in the rear-view mirror, not commenting on this intention of his for the time being, but asked, "White Spider, what about you, what are your plans?"

Swish!

Bai Spider's face suddenly went white, when Ji Feng asked her this, wouldn't that be the same as asking her about her future plans?

This also meant that Ji Feng was already very dissatisfied with her, which was why he was asking her where she was going to go and what she was going to do in the future?

A strong feeling of reluctance and a vague feeling of heartache swept through Bai Spider's entire body like a tidal wave.

But when she thought about her previous kind of performance, White Spider had no face to say so again, she was silent for a moment before saying, "I, I also plan to return to the military again ....."

"Mm!"

Ji Feng smiled and did not show any too much excitement, he just nodded very naturally, as if he had heard two answers that could not be more normal.

Only, Ji Feng, however, did not say whether their answers were good or bad, nor did he say whether he agreed or not.

Rather, the corners of his mouth pulled up in a slight arc, chuckled twice and asked, "Guoliang, you just said that you didn't perform well in the battle and felt guilty in your heart, that you felt sorry for what you learned in the army and didn't deserve to be a soldier, didn't you?"

Li Guoliang nodded awkwardly, he was indeed thinking this way. His performance in the battle before was just too bad.

Ji Feng nodded and asked, "Then let me ask you a few questions."

Li Guoliang immediately sat up straight and nodded, "Mr. Ji, please speak."

"Hehe, no need to be so serious, just be casual." Ji Feng smiled and waved his hand, seeing Li Guoliang's movements in the rear view mirror, Ji Feng smiled and asked, "First question, how long have you been on this mission? I mean, how long has it been since you received the order to be in charge of protecting the General Manager of Weida Group, Ji Ji?"

Li Guoliang said, "It's been a few years."

He only said an approximate time, and didn't say anything more specific, because for missions are required to be kept secret, and Ji Feng wasn't his direct superior after all.

"Then before you received this order, you had been working as a mercenary abroad, right?" Ji Feng asked again.

"Yes!"

Li Guoliang nodded, although he didn't understand why Ji Feng was asking these questions, he still answered the questions honestly.

"Very good!"

Ji Feng dropped his head with a smile and said, "This means that you have actually been away from the real battlefield for a few years now, is that right?"

"It's ..... right." Li Guoliang hesitated for a moment, this question that Ji Feng asked, he had not thought about it before, in his opinion, as long as he was on a mission, then he was on the battlefield, but strictly speaking, now he was indeed considered to be out of the battlefield.

“A person who has been out of the battlefield for a few years and is now engaged in a job that doesn’t really have much to do with direct combat, hasn’t your skills deteriorated a bit?” Ji Feng asked.

“..... Yes!” Li Guoliang blushed and felt his face burning hot.

“Then what makes you say that your previous performance in the battle was bad?” Ji Feng immediately asked.

“..... eh?”

Li Guoliang was stunned and didn’t even react for a moment.

“A person who has been out of the battlefield for a few years can have your reaction speed and hands, as well as this kind of combat awareness, what are you not satisfied with?” Ji Feng asked, “Do you still have to be required to take out the helicopter with one shot, or to go and catch the king in a few seconds? If that’s the case, then you’re Superman!”

“Mr. Ji .....,” Li Guoliang’s lips moved, but he didn’t know what to say.

“Is it because you feel guilty that you didn’t help me and instead just left me to fight alone?” Ji Feng asked again.

“Since that’s the case, then where did the car we’re driving now come from? Where did all that information we got come from? If it wasn’t for you, how could we have known about Hunter’s situation? How could we have followed the trail to catch Hunter and then run into the King and the young Duke halfway? Have you considered all these questions?”

“I .....,”

Li Guoliang scratched his head with some embarrassment, “These are all things I should have done.”

Ji Feng laughed, “Then won’t that do? As long as you did everything you should have done, you have completed your mission perfectly, as for the previous battle, the scene was a bit chaotic, and the appearance of the rice police helicopter was too unexpected, it was not at all predictable in advance, any action taken at that time could not be said to be absolutely wrong, what else do you have to feel guilty about?”

“But in the battle, I still didn’t help you before I let the helicopter hold you back, allowing the King to escape!” Li Guoliang said helplessly.

“That’s normal too!”

Ji Feng said, “Master Wang is an expert himself, extremely strong, even without the interference of the helicopter, I would have to take a big risk to catch him, and there is no guarantee that I would succeed. What’s more, the appearance of the police helicopter, this is not subjective to our subjective will, you don’t want it to appear it doesn’t appear?”

Li Guoliang nodded his head, only that he was still a little uncomfortable in his heart.

If it was in the past, he could definitely shoot the helicopter down, but tonight’s performance was really a bit humiliating.

“Did you see that I shot down the helicopter with a few shots, so you think you’re incompetent?” Ji Feng asked again, “Guoliang, do you know how I shot down the helicopter?”

“How did you fight?” Li Guoliang was stunned.

“I’ve experienced countless life-and-death battles, and the intensity of those battles is something you’ve definitely never experienced before! So I have enough experience, moreover, the darkness couldn’t hinder my marksmanship, that’s how the helicopter was shot down by me!” Ji Feng said.

In the training space of the intelligent brain, those scenes that Ji Feng had experienced were much more intense than this, it was those countless times of training that had made Ji Feng almost incorporate these skills into his bones.

What’s more, in this darkness, his vision was almost unaffected, although there was also a certain range limitation, but that helicopter was flying in the air with such a big target, he was able to shoot the plane down even if he closed his eyes and just listened to the sound.

“So now you tell me, what do you have to feel guilty about?” Ji Feng laughed: “There is a limit to what people can do, you can’t always give yourself too much credit, now it’s just two helicopters coming, so what if the ones coming are bombers? Could you still take a rifle and shoot down that bomber?”

The corners of Li Guoliang’s mouth twitched a few times, wanting to laugh but holding it back.

Ji Feng laughed: “So ah, you just honestly help me to do other auxiliary work, those messy ideas do not have at all, if your mind is filled with these miscellaneous things all day long, I can guarantee that in the future, even some very simple tasks, you will be screwed up, at that time, you really regret can not find the door! ”

Li Guoliang nodded his head and said, “Mr. Ji, I’ll take note of what you said! Thank you!”

“That’s right!” Ji Feng smiled and nodded his head.

He was still satisfied with Li Guoliang, admittedly, in the previous battle, Li Guoliang’s performance was indeed unsatisfactory, but Ji Feng knew very well that he couldn’t make everyone the same as him, that wasn’t realistic.

Even if you are the best special forces soldier, there is no shame in choosing to dodge in that situation, to tend to good fortune and avoid evil, this is something you are born with, it is a human instinct, there is nothing to be ashamed of.

After talking about Li Guoliang, Ji Feng looked at the white spider in the rearview mirror again.

When Bai Spider sensed Ji Feng’s sight, she understood what Ji Feng was going to say, so she hurriedly said, “Young Ji, I also understand what you mean, I won’t think about it again.”

“Oh?”

Ji Feng raised an eyebrow, “I haven’t even said anything yet, and you understand what I mean?”

Bai Spider’s expression was a little embarrassed, she knew that she hadn’t behaved very well before, but she had to ask Ji Feng to give her words of relief, which was even worse.

“White Spider, you’re going back to the army, aren’t you?” Ji Feng asked.

“I .....” Bai Spider was unable to say anything, she was just about to say something when Ji Feng cut her off.

Ji Feng nodded and said, “That’s good, let’s see, after I’m done with this side of Rice, I’ll contact Xiang Yongzhan when I get back to China and let you go back to the special operations brigade, or whatever other army is fine, as long as you want to go, I’ll try my best to help you mediate from there, what do you think?”

White Spider’s face instantly changed, “Ji Shao .....”

“Of course, if you can’t wait, you can also go back to your country early!” Ji Feng didn’t even wait for Bai Spider to speak before interrupting her, “Or, this is Rice, if you don’t want to go back to your country, you can always leave, I definitely won’t stop you!”

“Ji Shao .....”

Bai Spider’s face changed drastically and her voice went a bit out of shape.

Ji Feng, however, waved his hand and said, “All right, that’s it, nothing else needs to be said.”

Bai Spider’s face was pale and she wanted to say something, but when she saw that Ji Feng was no longer speaking, she didn’t know how to speak, not to mention that Li Guoliang was still beside her, which made it impossible for her to say a lot of things.

But the white spider is very clear, Ji Feng is really angry, he may really drive himself away .....

The king escaped in front of his eyes, can he not be angry?

This anger was naturally spread on the body of the white spider.

“Guoliang, let’s have you drive instead.” Ji Feng suddenly stopped the car at the side of the road, now that he had completely broken out of the barrier set up by the police, he didn’t know the rest of the road, so it was most appropriate to switch to Li Guoliang to drive.

“To use the fastest speed to get to where Hunter is!” Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

“Yes!”

Li Guoliang immediately answered loudly.

Chapter 1810

“Guoliang, how far away are we from where Hunter is now?” Ji Feng asked.

“It’s about half an hour’s drive away.” Li Guoliang said.

“And what if we speed up?”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but frown slightly at his words and said in a deep voice, “Half an hour is a bit long, if we use the kind of speed we used to catch up with the king and his men before to get there, about how long will it take, will fifteen minutes be enough?”

Li Guoliang immediately said, "Mr. Ji, I suggest not to do that."

Ji Feng asked in a deep voice, "Why?"

Li Guoliang said, "Because there are radar detecting speed on almost all the main roads in New York, not to mention that only before this area there was a fierce battle in the area and the Rice police lost two helicopters, they will definitely use satellites to monitor, once we over speed it will easily attract the attention of the police."

Ji Feng frowned, "The police can also use satellites?"

Li Guoliang shook his head and explained, "Of course the ordinary police station does not have the right to use satellites, but after such a big incident this evening, I believe the police will definitely report upwards, never underestimate the efficiency of the MiG agencies, if the CIA intervenes in this matter, we will be even more unable to speed."

Ji Feng nodded and didn't say anything.

He knew more or less about the situation in Rice, and Li Guoliang was right in saying that one should never underestimate the efficiency of Rice's government agencies.

They are most concerned about efficiency, otherwise it is a waste of taxpayers' money, which is not a light crime.

If you measure the efficiency of the MiG agencies against the efficiency of the relevant departments in the country, it can definitely be described as God's speed.

In fact, it is not just Rice, there are many government agencies in the world that are incredibly efficient, especially when compared to the agencies in China, it seems that all foreigners have become superhuman and non-human.

The reason is that some departments in China are simply too slow in their work.

Meetings!

This is one of the most frequent methods of solving problems, the majority of departments, that is two days a small meeting, three days a big meeting, many cadres spend most of their time in meetings.

This is definitely an extremely unique thing in the Chinese officialdom.

In response to this situation, some people have even come up with some small passages to satirize this bureaucratic style of meeting at every turn, as if things cannot be solved without a meeting.

For example, small meetings for small things, small meetings for big things, propaganda at meetings is not important, but the opinions exchanged at meetings are. .... etc. etc.

It is clear from this that meetings have in fact become a complete formality.

This, coupled with the official mentality of many people, makes efficiency something that is farther away from the Chinese than the distance from the sun to the earth.

But abroad it is quite different. For example, one of the most disgusting countries to the Chinese people, the boundary tent.

Their government agencies are incredibly efficient, which we have to admit.

For example, the rules for public servants, especially for police officers, or other personnel with a service nature, are such that if they are complained about several times by the public, they can never be promoted in their life, or they can simply be dismissed.

And there is a complete monitoring mechanism.

This kind of thing would be unbelievable if it were in China.

Who would dare to complain against those officials? Besides, not to mention complaints, what if there was a major incident involving human lives? Many people were removed from office at the time, but in the blink of an eye, they were transferred to overseas posts and nothing happened .....

If not for the reminder of Li Guoliang, Ji Feng subconsciously really did not pay attention to this point, this neglect is extremely serious, it is not good to have a misjudgment of the situation.

And in addition to the efficiency of the work, there is another point that makes Ji Feng more frowned upon, and that is the satellite monitoring of Rice.

As we all know, Rice's satellites in space, especially those targeting the Earth for monitoring, are the most numerous in the world, and even the whole world is using Rice's satellite navigation system, which shows from the side how many satellites Rice has and how large the coverage is.

It is also because of the large number of satellites and their powerful functions that many departments in Rice have reached a point where the use of satellites is extremely frequent.

Even just to catch a fugitive, they may use satellites to track and monitor.

And as Li Guoliang also said, for a world-class prosperous metropolis like New York, it naturally goes without saying how many satellites there are overhead, the city is definitely a key surveillance target, and even every main road is monitored.

"So unless you want to attract the attention of the MiG officials, you can only drive at an even speed and try not to exceed the speed limit, and even if you do, you can't go too far." Li Guoliang explained.

"Then try to go faster!" Ji Feng nodded.

Now that the king had escaped, Hunter's place became even more important. Originally, Ji Feng had planned to capture Hunter and then force him to ask about the whereabouts of the king and the young duke, but now it was even more necessary for him to do so.

New York was not the king's territory, his territory was in China, so his whereabouts in Rice, especially in New York, should be known to Hunter.

The most crucial thing now was whether the king would inform Hunter to let him move immediately after he escaped.

So Ji Feng had to hurry and get there; the sooner they arrived, the more hope they would have of catching Hunter.

If they went late, Hunter might have already moved away.

While Li Guoliang complied and gradually increased his speed, Ji Feng took out his mobile phone from his pocket and then switched it on, ready to call his second brother and tell him to be more careful.

One should know that when Wang and Little Gongzi were escaping, Ji Feng had sent a 'big gift' to Little Gongzi.

Those shots were originally intended to hit Master Wang, but it turned out that because the distance was too far, the bullets were deflected after being fired and coincidentally all hit Little Duke's body.

As a result, half of the little prince's body was almost blown up, and that kind of tragic situation made people's skin tingle when they looked at it, as if someone had put a grenade directly in his arms and exploded.

Although Little Prince is a reformed human being, it is so late in the evening and in the middle of nowhere, the king may not be able to bring Little Prince to treatment in time, so Ji Feng is not too sure whether Little Prince can survive.

If Little Duke was really taken out just like that, the king would definitely go crazy. It was not that fun for an expert like that to launch into madness.

When the time came, if the king implicated his anger on Little Gou and her family because he couldn't do anything to himself, with the king's strength, Second Brother would definitely not be able to resist alone, so he had to ask him to arrange for those bodyguards and they would make early preparations together.

"Tick ....."

The phone had just been switched on when five or six text messages actually came in, and when Ji Feng took a look, they were actually from Ji YuYi.

He opened the text messages and looked at them, and his heart was a little strange.

The tone of the text messages sent by Ji Yuhui seemed to be very urgent, for example, the first one she sent read, "Please call back immediately when you see the text message, it's urgent."

Then the next few text messages, one more urgent than the other, and the last one directly sent a few words, "Call back, urgent urgent!"

Ji Feng frowned slightly, looking at the time when Ji Yuqing sent the text message, it was just over an hour ago, it was already late at night, what urgent matter could she have?

But seeing how urgent Ji Yuhui's text message was, Ji Feng decided to give her a call, it just so happened that it would take a while to get to Hunter's place now, so it was a way to pass the time.

Ji Feng dialed Ji Yuqing's number, and immediately Ji Yuqing picked up the phone, as if she had been waiting for her call, which made Ji Feng's heart even stranger, it looked like Ji Yuqing had really encountered something difficult.

"Ji Feng, are you?" Ji YuYi's voice came through.

"Who else could it be if not me?" Ji Feng laughed, "I just saw your text message, what's wrong, what's so urgent that you, Miss Ji, are so out of shape?"

Ji YuYi, however, did not joke with Ji Feng, instead, she was silent for a moment before suddenly asking, "Ji Feng, do you trust me?"

"Hmm?"

When Ji Feng heard this, he couldn't help but be stunned, he was really baffled by Ji YuYi's question.

"YuYi, what's wrong?" Ji Feng asked.

"You speak first, do you believe me?" Ji YuYi, however, insisted that Ji Feng answer.

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Of course I believe, what's wrong?"

"It's good that you believe me ....." Ji Yuhui at the other end of the phone seemed slightly relieved and hesitated for a moment before saying, "Ji Feng, I have news for you... ..the matter of you attacking and killing those gangsters is known!"

"What?!"

Ji Feng's voice instantly raised a few notches and his eyebrows furrowed tightly, "YuYi, speak more clearly!"

Ji Yuhui said, "I received the news in the evening, now the whole New York's Dao is rumored, saying that the reason why those gangsters were suddenly taken out is because they all coincided to do one thing – to lay hands on Ji Nan Yue, the boss of Weida Group, and his family, so Ji Nan Yue invited an expert from China to do away with all those people ....."

"Good man, this is who is so well-informed and knows more than me!" Ji Feng laughed and asked again, "YuYi, what else, go on."

Ji YuYi's heart jumped rapidly and furiously a few times at these two laughs from Ji Feng, she hurriedly said, "Ji Feng, who is the one who spread this news, I really don't know ....."

"It's fine, it's fine!"

Ji Feng said smilingly, "Now do not pursue this, you first say, what else is rumored outside."

The more Ji Feng's attitude was like this, the more Ji YuYi's heart was in a state of disbelief.
