Chapter 1811

“It’s fine, it’s fine!”

Ji Feng said smilingly, “Let’s not pursue this now, tell us first what else is being rumoured out there.”

The more Ji Feng’s attitude was like this, the more Ji Yuoyi’s mind became alarmed and suspicious.

You know, when Ji Feng wanted to exterminate the Yamaguchi group, he also had such a light-hearted attitude, as if he was talking about something as simple as eating and dressing, and as a result, the Yamaguchi group was exterminated, cold and domineering tactics, light-hearted attitude, this was the way and method Ji Feng treated his enemies.

Now that he was like this again, how could Ji YuYi not be surprised?

What’s more, now that news of Ji Feng’s extermination of the Yamaguchi-gumi and killing of the mob boss in New York Road had leaked out, the first and most suspicious person would be her, Ji YuHye, and the people in their Chuk Yuen Gang who knew about the news.

Before that, Ji Feng had repeatedly instructed her to restrain her men from leaking the news, but after only two or three days, the news had leaked out.

Not to mention Ji Feng, even Ji Yuhui’s first reaction upon hearing the news was a thud in her heart, secretly saying, “Someone in the gang has leaked the news?”

Even she thought this after hearing the news, so what would Ji Feng think?

On the one hand, she wanted to inform Ji Feng so that he could be prepared, but most importantly, she still wanted to explain to Ji Feng so that he would not have any misunderstanding in his mind, but now it seemed that the effect of her explanation was not too good.

Ji YuYi took a deep breath and then said: “Ji Feng, the news is all over the place now, and there are also people saying that the reason why you went after those mob bosses is actually partly because your relatives were attacked by some mobsters, but more importantly, it is still the Chinese forces who want to take advantage of this opportunity to fully occupy New York, or at least to have untouchable power

“My appetite is so big, huh?” Ji Feng laughed twice and asked again, “What else?”

Ji YuYi said hesitantly, “There’s also the fact that almost the entire New York underground world has now learned about this news, and even many big gangs have made moves

Ji Feng immediately asked, “What kind of action?”

Ji YuYi said, “According to the information I got, several gangs are now mobilizing their manpower, and some gangs, it seems, have blocked off the streets near Weida Group

“Blocked off?”

Ji Feng couldn't help but frown slightly and asked, "Are they that bold? If they blocked off the streets, what about the other companies? The officials allow them to do this?"

What was important to know was that the place where the Vida Group was located was a prosperous area of New York City, although it could not be said to be absolutely downtown, that area was at least extremely prosperous, with many businesses around, and many of them were very influential enterprises.

If the gangsters blocked off the streets in the vicinity in preparation for their attack on the Weta Group, what would happen to the other businesses in the area?

What's more, New York is an international metropolis, and what happens here has a great impact on the whole world, so would the officials allow these gangs to act so recklessly?

This is what Ji Feng was puzzled about.

The first person who would not agree to this would be the New York City government if they dared to do that, there is no doubt about it, after all they have to take into account the impact. "

Ji Feng asked, "Then when you say blockade, what do you mean?"

Ji YuYi said, "Ji Feng, you may not even know much about some of the operations and actions of the gangs, if those gangs want to blockade a certain street, first of all they must have a target."

Ji Feng nodded and said, "That's right, their target is obviously the Weida Group."

Ji YuYing said, "So, those gang members blocking the street are actually specifically targeting the Weida Group, they don't carry any weapons on the surface and just walk on the received like that, looking no different from ordinary pedestrians. Or, there were also those who stopped at business places like cafes on that nearby street, pretending to be ordinary consumers."

So that's how it is!

Ji Feng couldn't help but feel clear in his mind as he nodded and asked, "Actually, these people won't do anything to other pedestrians or consumers, and what they are targeting are only people from the Weida Group, right?"

Kee nodded and said, "That's right. If say, the employees of the Wei Da Group passed through there, they would be treated differently by them, it could be harassment, or it could be direct violence against the employees of the Wei Da Group, or, there could be something else"

Ji Feng was silent for a moment before asking again, "And then what?"

Ji YuYi was stunned, "Then?"

"Yes!" Ji Feng nodded and said, "Those gang members blocked the streets to specifically target the Weida Group. Is it to harass the employees of the Weida Group who don't dare to come to work, or to kill them all clean?"

"Of course they wouldn't dare to openly kill people in broad daylight!"

Ji Yuhui said, "However, there is no doubt that the employees of the Weida Group will definitely not dare to come to work. Ji Feng, this is actually just one of their tactics, I believe their main aim is still to target Chief Ji and her family and you."

That's for sure!

Ji Feng secretly said, the person who took out those mob bosses was himself, and the rumor was that the cause was also because of Ji Nan Yue, the boss of Wei Da Group, if those mobsters wanted to take revenge, the first thing they would look for was definitely themselves and their little sister.

Merely using the means of blocking off the streets would at most only create chaos within the Weida Group and make the employees fearful, but it was obviously a bit unrealistic to try to bring down a group of companies of any size and strength with this method.

"In other ways, what other means do they have?" Ji Feng asked again after going over this information in his mind, "What does it mean to say that those gangsters are targeting General Ji, and me, what means do they have?"

"That I haven't received accurate information yet, but what is certain is that since they have made such a big move as blocking the streets, they definitely won't just let it go, and definitely won't begrudge sending some more people to deal with General Manager Ji and you, " Ji Yuhui said. "Ji Feng, you have to be careful."

"Mm! I know." Ji Feng nodded, "Thank you for telling me this, goodbye."

"Wait a minute!"

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows and asked, "What else do you want to say?"

Ji YuYing said, "Ji Feng, if those gangs want to make a move, the night is definitely the best time to do it, so tonight is definitely the most dangerous, because your phone was always off before, I couldn't reach you, so I sent some men over first, hoping to help you."

"Where did you send people?" Ji Feng asked.

"It's not very difficult to find out where Mr. Ji lives." Ji YuYing said, "I was sending people directly to General Manager Ji's villa and told them to stand by near there Ji Feng, I'm giving you the contact information of the person leading the team, you can contact him directly" "

"No need."

Ji Feng, however, decisively rejected her, "If those gangsters are determined to make a move, it's useless even if you send the entire Chuk Yuen gang over, besides would you send the entire Chuk Yuen gang over?"

Ji Yuhui was stunned.

"That's it." Ji Feng finished speaking and was about to hang up the phone.

“Ji Feng, wait!” Ji Yuhui hurriedly shouted, “Don’t hang up the phone in a hurry, I still have something to say.”

“Let’s talk about it later! By the way, thank you again for informing me of this news in time” Ji Feng didn’t wait for her to say anything more at all and hung up the phone straight away.

In a flash, Ji Feng’s face became incomparably gloomy, and a cold light flashed in his eyes.

The news had leaked out!

Moreover, it was done by people from the Bamboo Alliance Gang!

The first time he heard this news, Ji Feng immediately made a judgment, and he was convinced that his judgment was correct.

Because, apart from the people of the Chuk Yuen Gang, no other outsiders knew about his extermination of those gangsters!

If, say, he had exterminated the Yamaguchi gang, and this news was known to his little aunt, he believed that his cousin Chu Wangdong would also know about it, and perhaps it would leak out from that aspect, which was understandable, after all, this possibility did exist.

For example, this girl Chu Yue might have accidentally let slip the news when she was talking to any of her friends, and with that nature of hers, it was not impossible for this possibility to happen.

However, no one in Xiao Gu’s family knew about his secret assassination of those gangsters.

The only ones who knew about it were second brother Ji Shaolei, White Spider and Li Guoliang.

Obviously, White Spider and Li Guoliang could be ruled out, so it seemed that no one else could leak the information, but Ji Feng knew that apart from them, there were also people who knew the information – people from the Chuk Yuen Gang!

Ji Yu Ying, Ah Te, Ah Bo

All of these people could have known, but of course, to be more accurate, they should have guessed.

Because before this, Kitty had approached him alone, when Ah Tak was present and had clashed with him, and was eventually disposed of by Kitty.

At that time, Kee asked herself directly if those things were her own doing

In fact, at that time, Kee had already concluded in her heart that those gangsters were assassinated and it was her own doing!

Chapter 1812

If Ji YuYi was able to guess, then so were Ah De and Ah Bo, who had been following her around, because they were also present when action was taken against the Yamaguchi group, as well as those members of the Chuk Yuen gang who were involved at the time

The first thing you need to do is to make sure that you have a good idea of who has leaked the news, and you can even make a good guess.

There was no other possibility but the Chuk Yuen Gang!

Of course, while thinking of the Chuk Yuen Gang, Ji Feng also thought of other possibilities, for example, could it be that when he was on the phone with Ji Yu Yi, the contents of their mutual calls were being monitored?

For example, was it the Rice CIA?

Then again, for example, the king and the young duke also already knew that he had come to New York, and with the king's energy, I'm afraid it wouldn't be too difficult for him to find out that he also had a young aunt who ran a group company in Rice.

Because Ji Feng knew very well that although he did not know the real face of this person, Master Wang, he could be sure that his real identity, in eight`nine out of ten cases, was a Chinese, and that his real identity must be very powerful in China, and he might even be a very important person of some kind.

It would be too easy for someone like this, who was also a heavyweight cadre of the dynasty, to pry into some matters.

Now that the king knew that Ji Feng had come to New York and so many things had happened before, the Yamaguchi group was destroyed and those gangsters were assassinated, although the king did not see with his own eyes that it was Ji Feng who did it, with the hatred between them, it was understandable that the king would want to wrongly accuse Ji Feng and deliberately spread rumours.

However, Ji Feng was the one who ruled out the king's father and son straight away, for the simple reason that when Ji YuYi got the news, the king had not yet met himself, so he did not yet know that he had come to New York.

This was sorry to come just in terms of timing, so it certainly couldn't have been a rumour spread by the King to get back at himself!

And to say that the call with Ji YuYi had been bugged while he was on the phone, Ji Feng likewise found it impossible.

First of all, his own phone was for the exclusive use of the Chinese military, and it was also a special phone in the special forces, so how could an outsider be listening in?

Besides, it was possible that Ji Yuqing's phone might have been bugged, but according to Ji Feng's understanding, it hadn't actually been that long since Ji Yuqing had arrived in Rice, and the vast majority of people didn't even know that Ji Yuqing had already arrived in Rice.

In this case, unless the CIA of Rice was particularly interested in Ji Yuqing, it would be impossible for Ji Yuqing's phone to be tapped.

In fact, there was another most simple reason that made Ji Feng decisively rule out any other possibilities.

This reason was that the rumors from the outside world were all too real!

According to Ji YuYi, at this time, the outside world was rumored that the reason why he would destroy the Yamaguchi group and would go after those gangsters was because they had done something to threaten his young aunt

This is something that Ji Feng has never talked to anyone on the phone about, even if the CIA in rice had used the most advanced technology to listen in on Ji Yujie's phone calls and knew that he had taken out those gang bosses, but they wouldn't be so powerful that they could guess out of thin air the reason why he had done it to those gang bosses, right?

..... Only those from the Chuk Yuen gang know best and can spread the truth about what happened!

The three people who are most suspicious are Ji Yuet, Ah Bo and Ah Tak

Even if Ji Yuhui is now desperately calling over and informing Ji Feng of this news, Ji Feng has to suspect her because there is no second possibility other than them!

"It's true that they've been betrayed after all!" A cold light flashed in Ji Feng's eyes, and a cold smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

In fact, from the very beginning, Ji Feng had predicted that this might happen. Only at that time, the top brass of the Yamaguchi group were all gathered together, and the opportunity was rare, so Ji Feng did it anyway, as long as the Yamaguchi group was destroyed anyway, even if they knew it was their own doing, at most they would only seek revenge on themselves, and would not drag Little Aunt and the others into it.

But now it seems that the idea at that time was still a bit too simple, because Ji Feng didn't expect that so many things would happen later.

These thoughts flashed through Ji Feng's mind quickly, which was a long story, but in reality, it was only a split second, and then, Ji Feng was ready to call his second brother, Ji Shaolei.

It was useless to think about anything else now, the most important thing was that he had to inform his second brother and his sister-in-law that they should leave the villa first and go out to hide, or to prepare in advance.

"Ding"

However, before Ji Feng could dial second brother's number, his mobile phone suddenly rang, and it was still second brother calling.

Ji Feng immediately picked up the phone, "Hello, second brother"

But as soon as he spoke, he was interrupted by his second brother, Ji Shaolei, who said in a very urgent tone on the phone, "San'er, your phone finally got through. Don't say anything yet, listen to me, the news has leaked out, now it's known outside that you destroyed the Yamaguchi group and attacked and killed those gang leaders, and"

"And those yakuza are all on the move now, ready to take revenge, right?" Ji Feng quickly picked up the words and asked in consternation, "Second brother, how did you know that?"

Ji Feng was indeed surprised, apparently Second Brother also learned about this news some time after he had left, but it was night time, so who would reasonably inform Second Brother at such a late hour?

Ji Shaolei was stunned and asked, "You knew about it too?"

"Yes, Ji YuYi only called to tell me a few minutes ago, Second Brother, how did you know?" Ji Feng asked.

"It was someone from the old family arrangement who called" Ji Shaolei said, "I called you immediately after I received the news, but it turned out that your phone was off all the time, I could only call you every ten minutes, fortunately you turned it on"

The first time I heard this, it seemed that the person sent by father and second uncle was not just Li Guoliang, but the person who called to inform second brother was obviously hiding in the shadows, and even they did not have access to him.

However, this person hiding in the shadows obviously played a key role, and it looked like second brother had been notified a long time ago.

Ji Feng then asked, "Second Brother, are Little Aunt and the others alright?"

Ji Shaolei immediately said, "Little Aunt's family is fine, you don't have to worry about that. After receiving the notification, I immediately told Little Aunt in detail about the matter, then we all went to a villa that Little Aunt had secretly purchased, it turned out that there was no one in that villa, and those bodyguards were all temporarily dispatched back home."

Speaking of this, he continued, "In addition, little aunt has also reported to the police and applied for police protection, now the original set of villas are surrounded by police, even if someone wants to find someone who wants to destroy the things in the villa to vent their anger, there is no chance!"

"That's good" Ji Feng was only slightly relieved to hear these arrangements, "As long as Little Aunt and the others are okay, I can let go on my side."

What Ji Feng was most worried about after hearing the news was that little aunt and the others were blocked in the villa and couldn't get out, and there were not enough people around, so if anything happened then, the consequences would be unthinkable.

Now that he heard that Little Aunt and the others were safe and had arrived at a place where no one could find them, then Ji Feng put his heart down.

"San'er, how's your side?" Ji Shaolei asked, "I'm afraid that those gangs are now looking for you, you are equally dangerous at this time"

"I'm fine!" Ji Feng shook his head and said, "I can go anywhere, besides, even if I break straight into those gangs' lair, they can't keep me, you tell Little Aunt and the others to relax, hide for a while, take care of yourself, these troubles, I will definitely solve them as soon as possible!"

Ji Shaolei could not help but say, "I think this way, if it is not possible, you also come here, for the time being, to avoid the wind"

“How can I avoid it?” Ji Feng smiled: “We came just to help Little Aunt solve the trouble, now the trouble is not solved, instead it brings a whole bunch of new trouble Besides, if I go to you guys, in case I am targeted, then everyone will be in danger, it is better for me to stay outside. ”

“..... Well then, that’s all we can do now.” Ji Shaolei also knew that this was the most appropriate thing for Ji Feng to do, “San’er, you have to be careful, this place can be different from your old home, you must be careful and prevent the officials from interfering, this bunch of Mi Guos have always wanted to find trouble in China, you understand that right”

“I understand!” Ji Feng nodded and smiled and said, “Don’t worry, I know what to do, and the trouble will be solved as soon as possible!”

“Well, if you encounter any problems, give me a call in time.” Ji Shaolei handed over another sentence.

After that, they closed the line.

At this time, White Spider and Li Guoliang in the car, obviously also realized that something was wrong, but if Ji Feng didn’t say anything, they naturally wouldn’t talk too much to ask.

Especially Bai Spider, she had already realised that she had made a mistake, and seeing Ji Feng’s gloomy face, she dared not speak up.

“Guoliang, after you get to Hunter’s place, don’t rush close first, be careful, if you encounter anything wrong with things, you two escape immediately! Remember, once something unexpected happens, you guys have to run away as fast as you can, don’t mind me.” Ji Feng explained.

“Mr. Ji”

“Young Ji”

Li Guoliang and the white spider couldn’t help but be startled at the same time, they didn’t expect Ji Feng to suddenly open his mouth and say such a sentence, how did it sound as if he was giving an account of the aftermath?

The two of you will be able to help me share some of the attention, so it will be easier for me to escape, right?”

Of course not!

Li Guoliang and the white spider secretly said at the same time.

Chapter 1813

Of course it’s not right!

Li Guoliang and White Spider secretly said at the same time.

It was indeed just as Ji Feng had said, if they stayed, they might distract Ji Feng, but it was unlikely to say that they would become a burden to Ji Feng.

At least, with Li Guoliang and White Spider’s skills, they really weren’t at the point of becoming a burden to anyone.

Both of them understood that the reason why Ji Feng would say this was that he actually just didn't want them to follow anymore, this was obviously for their sake, and the two of them knew it in their hearts, but the problem was that from the look on Ji Feng's face, it was obvious that something was wrong, and it didn't look like it should be anything trivial.

Now Ji Feng told them to leave, the intention was naturally self-evident.

Li Guoliang said, "Mr. Ji, no matter what, you always have many inconveniences when you move alone, you always need someone to help around, I can at least wait outside in the car to meet you, don't you think so?"

"And me!"

White spider immediately answered: "Ji young, your English is only a half-barrel level, you can still understand simple conversations, but if the other party speaks too fast and too complicated, you will not understand, so you still need a translator by your side, even if I don't do it, I can just translate for you, right?"

Ji Feng's gaze swept past their faces and frowned slightly, "You guys can really talk! I'll tell you guys clearly, we're going to deal with Hunter now, whether the result will be good or bad is hard to say now, maybe we can capture Hunter very smoothly and get the result we want."

"But"

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you want. Or perhaps, we will only flounder if we go. Because the news, in all likelihood, has already leaked out."

"It's the King?" The White Spider immediately understood.

They had fought with the king only before, but of course, to be precise, it should be Ji Feng who had fought with the king, and the king had obviously recognized Ji Feng.

Since the king knew about Ji Feng's existence and appeared in the middle of nowhere for no reason, he naturally couldn't have come all the way over here to walk around, he obviously had something to do.

If he were the king, he could easily guess that Ji Feng had appeared in the middle of nowhere, either because he had received accurate information to intercept them or, perhaps, because he was going to deal with Hunter and had accidentally come across them on the way.

If the king had finally concluded that it was the second possibility, then obviously he would have informed Hunter in time for him to make early preparations.

By now, I'm afraid Hunter would have already made his preparations, and they might have already set up a net, just waiting for himself and the others to barge right in without a clue.

If they were fired at random, none of them would survive unless they were immortals.

The white spider also understood why Ji Feng would be so cautious, not cautious can not ah, people are powerful, but also can not stop the bullets, if they are invulnerable to swords and guns, who cares if Hunter set up some kind of trap, just break in.

“Are you sure you want to go?” Seeing Li Guoliang and White Spider’s appearance, Ji Feng frowned and asked.

“Mr. Ji, didn’t you say before that the reason why my strength has regressed is because I have been out of the dangerous environment for too long, now that I have such an opportunity, I want to give it a try.” Li Guoliang said.

“Wherever Young Ji goes, I will go!” White Spider said even more crisply, making his attitude very clear.

But Ji Feng only said indifferently, “I wouldn’t dare to do that, I can’t afford to use you, who is about to return to the army, or else when we return, Xiang Yongzhan will still be looking for trouble with me?”

Swish!

Bai Spider’s face changed, her expression was embarrassed, but she didn’t know what to say, she could only say at a loss for words, “Ji Shao

Ji Feng, however, stopped paying attention to her and just kept silent, so Bai Spider didn’t dare to say anything else.

She knew that she had made a mistake and made Ji Feng angry.

The first time I saw him, I was able to get to know him.

Usually, Ji Feng was very kind to others, never had any attitude, and would not get angry easily.

However, once Ji Feng became really angry, the consequences could be very serious.

The first time was because she was confronted with Xiao Yuxuan, or even subconsciously resisted Xiao Yuxuan, and Ji Feng was angry because of this.

That time, the result of Ji Feng’s anger was that he gave Bai Spider two choices, one was to go back to the army, and the second was to get along with Xiao Yuxuan properly and stop being so tit-for-tat, otherwise there would be no room for her at home!

At that time, Bai Spider also knew that she was at fault, after all, at that time when she first approached Ji Feng, she actually wanted to disadvantage him, and even wanted to lay hands on Xiao Yuxuan, and then she suddenly appeared at Ji Feng’s home, it was quite normal for Xiao Yuxuan to be hostile towards her.

It was just that at that time, Bai Spider didn’t know exactly what she was thinking and insisted on looking at Xiao Yuxuan in a bad light, which resulted in a conflict between them.

But at that time, the white spider also realized her mistake and was gradually correcting it, which is why Ji Feng allowed her to stay.

There was another time when White Spider also made a mistake, and that time it was because White Spider told Xiang Yongzhan about Ji Feng’s whereabouts, and Ji Feng was furious and even determined to kick her out.

If not for Xiang Yongzhan’s pleading and Bai Spider’s sincere admission of her mistake, she would definitely not be the one following Ji Feng now. If that had been the case, she would have been sent back to the Special Operations Brigade once again by now, or would be under surveillance in the military.

For someone who used to be the head of the dynasty branch, life was absolutely impossible to be peaceful, and no matter where she went, she could not escape the fate of being watched.

If Ji Feng hadn't asked her back from the Special Operations Brigade at that time, Bai Spider could be sure that her life now would definitely not be as leisurely and relaxed as it was now.

And now, she had made Ji Feng angry again

The white spider's heart was apprehensive.

The same thing was on Ji Feng's mind at this time, but what he was thinking was completely different from the white spider.

The first thing you should do is to think about how to deal with the situation in front of you.

As far as the current situation was concerned, no matter how angry Ji Feng was, the news that he had killed the local yakuza boss in New York in order to help Little Nun fight back against the foreign harassment, thus exterminating the Yamaguchi group, had indeed been spread, and almost everyone in New York already knew the news.

Those yakuza, too, had already started to act, blocking off those streets near the headquarters of the Weta Group, with the aim of revenge against the Weta Group, of course, and ultimately, against him and his little aunt.

Even a fool could imagine that tonight, those angry gangs would definitely take revenge, and I believe that on the Wider Group's side, Little Aun must have already made arrangements, and they had all gone to a safe place, and would not be in any danger for the time being.

But this situation obviously cannot continue indefinitely, neither for Xiao Gu nor for himself, there is not that much time to waste.

So it was necessary to settle these matters in the shortest possible time.

But in order to solve them as soon as possible, one must think of a prudent and quick solution, and one must be cautious and then cautious again, doing one's best to be as foolproof as possible.

Once Ji Feng loses, then what he loses with it, I'm afraid, is his life, the life of his second brother, and the personal safety of his little aunt's family, the entire Weida Group really, and many more things.

And now, whether these things can be preserved depends on how Ji Feng solves this matter.

So Ji Feng can't afford to lose.

Yet precisely because he can't afford to lose, he has to win!

But how easy would it be to solve this fiasco, to win in this huge fiasco?

How many gangs are there in the whole of New York is a question that I am afraid even the most well-versed in the things of the underworld would not be able to answer. But there is no doubt that everyone would say, a lot!

It is an international metropolis, with a population of over 20 million, and almost the economic powerhouse of the world.

How many shadows can there be under such unparalleled prosperity? How could there not be gangs?

There are countless small gangs and too many medium-sized gangs to count, and although there are not many big gangs, each of them is so powerful that even the majority of the small gangs combined would not be as strong as one big gang.

The actual fact is that the majority of those who have been offended are all medium-sized and above – of course, he also took out more than twenty small gang bosses.

..... Only, in fact, when the bosses of those small gangs were killed by Ji Feng, the main leaders were also killed along with them, so that those small gangs were actually extinguished.

So Ji Feng didn't count those small gangs at all.

But those big gangs alone are powerful enough to make anyone pay attention to them, especially since this is still Rice, a place where guns are rife. Think about those gang members, if each of them had a weapon in their hands, unless the army was used, it would be impossible to exterminate them!

"We can't fight them hard, and we can't fight them from the front!" Ji Feng deliberated secretly.

There was a Chinese saying that a teacher was killed by a chaotic fist, no matter how good one's martial arts skills were, it was still difficult to beat four hands with two fists, not to mention that there were so many people in the triad.

If you fight them hard, it would be like looking for death, only a fool would do that.

"Ding"

Ji Feng was pondering when the phone suddenly rang again, he looked down and found that the phone was again from Ji YuYi, Ji Feng couldn't help but frown slightly.

After deliberating for a while, Ji Feng still picked up the phone, "This is Ji Feng"

"Ji Feng, do you remember the question I asked you earlier?" As soon as he picked up the phone, Ji YuYi's voice came over.

Chapter 1814

"Ji Feng, do you remember the question I asked you earlier?" As soon as she picked up the phone, Ji YuYi's voice came through.

In Ji YuYi's voice, there was a bit of urgency and some expectation, but more than that, it was still apprehension, she was waiting for Ji Feng to give her an affirmative answer?

Ji Feng frowned slightly as he said in a deep voice, "Do you think I'm very laid back now?"

However, Ji YuYi hurriedly said, "Ji Feng, don't misunderstand, I know I might be a bit boring in asking this, but, this question is really important to me!"

This question was not only boring, it was simply boring!

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head.

Now that we are about to arrive at Hunter's place, it is time to make preparations to do something, but Ji YuYi is still calling like a little girl to ask, do you remember what I asked you?

Even if there was no leak and he had no ill feelings towards the JLPT, Ji Feng was too lazy to pay attention to this nonsense when she called before he was about to act.

It wasn't like he had so much time on his hands that he had to go and talk to someone on the phone to pass the time!

Every minute was useful to Ji Feng now, even if he was already prepared and didn't have to purposely prepare anything for the next battle, it was good to have more time for him to think.

Ji Feng shook his head and said in a deep voice, "I don't have time to answer your questions now, let alone have this leisure to discuss with you whether or not to trust you! Yu Ying, how many people knew about my extermination of the Yamaguchi group and my attack on those gang leaders? Why did the news leak out, don't you still have a number in your heart?"

Ji YuYi immediately said sharply, "Ji Feng, I knew you misunderstood, I knew that the information had leaked, you would definitely suspect me and the other brothers of the Chuk Yuen Gang at first, thinking that we had leaked the information, but Ji Feng, have you thought about it, it's not just us in the Chuk Yuen Gang who know about the information 喂, hello hello?"

"Pah!"

Ji Feng didn't want to hear any further, he directly hung up the phone, then turned it off and put it in the inside pocket of his jacket, his expression was calm, as if he had never received a call from Ji Yu Ying.

There was no doubt that the leak was clearly the work of someone from the Chuk Yuen Gang, and it was even likely that the leak was made by Ji Yuet-jen or one of her close associates.

But instead of investigating in her own gang to find out who had leaked the information, Ji Yu-yi kept calling to clear her name.

The first thing that she said was, "Do you trust me?"

The moment Ji Feng heard this, his heart burst into flames.

It's not that I don't trust you, it's because I trust you so much that the news leaked out and became common knowledge in the whole of New York.

If this was the result of his trust, then Ji Feng really wanted to say that this trust was too fucking cheap!

He originally thought that although Ji Yuqing was the daughter of a mob boss, she was at least not bad and he should be able to date her.

But now it seemed that he was really wrong.

Nowadays, there is no moral righteousness in the Jianghu world, and these people are usually full of benevolence and morality. But when it comes to the real thing, they are cleaner than anyone else, and they will write themselves off first.

This kind of practice really makes Ji Feng's heart despise and disappointed.

They really had a high opinion of the Jianghu people, they were completely devoid of the kind of style of the ancient Jianghu people, it was really disappointing!

Even Ji Feng thought that if there were benefits, these so-called Jianghu people were afraid that they could all sell their own brothers in the twinkling of an eye, and as for ordinary friends like themselves, or not even ordinary friends hey, there really wouldn't be much to say.

Ji Feng shook his head, since he had already seen the reality clearly, there was nothing to be sentimental about.

"Mr. Ji, we're about to arrive." Li Guoliang spoke out and reminded.

"Oh?"

As for who leaked the news, how to solve this fiasco and so on don't even think about it now!

.....

"Beep beep beep" The busy tone coming from the receiver seemed to be reminding Ji YuYi that her call with Ji Feng had been cut off, obviously, this should be because Ji Feng didn't want to hear anything more from her, so he just hung up the phone.

"Hang up?" A red tide could not help but appear on Ji Yuhui's fair face as a wave of anger surged in her heart, obviously, this was the call that Ji Feng hung up Don't tell her that it was because Ji Feng's phone suddenly ran out of battery, where in this world were there so many coincidences?

The phone had been out of order for a long time before, and when it was easy to get through, Ji Feng's voice was not very enthusiastic, especially when Ji Feng knew that the news of his extermination of the Yamaguchi group had leaked out, and when he spoke he obviously took on a sense of total distance, completely lacking the kind of gentleness and politeness he used to have when communicating.

Now that the phone was suddenly cut off again, Ji YuYi wouldn't believe it if she said that Ji Feng didn't hang up the phone on his own initiative.

"He actually hung up on me?" There was a hint of anger in Ji YuYi's voice.

Even though her personality wasn't too cold and she was still close to Ji Feng, no matter what, she was still the eldest lady of the Chuk Yuen Gang!

Even when she was on the phone with the heads of the powerful families of the White Hand, the other party would never be so rude as to suddenly hang up the phone and let her gabble on like a fool.

However, Ji Feng did not even shake her off and hung up the phone straight away, simply treating her like air.

How had Ji YuYi ever been treated like this before?

This caused a surge of anger to emerge in her heart, and she was even thinking, "Thanks to all the trouble I went through to call you to inform you, but you're throwing me off, I should have known I would have watched you get killed!"

"Phew~~!"

Ji Yuhui took a few deep breaths, but her face still didn't look too good.

At this time, Ah Bo and Ah De who were waiting beside her were glancing at each other, Missy didn't seem to be in a good mood, huh?

"Missy, what did he say?" Abe asked.

"Nothing much to say."

Ji Yuqing shook her head and sneered, "He hung up on me He actually threw me a curve!"

"What?!" Ah De suddenly let out a strange cry and stood up with a slap on the table, angrily saying, "Missy, what are you saying? That son of a bitch Ji Feng actually dared to hang up on you and throw you a look? He's arrogant as hell!"

"All right! Missy is here, what are you tapping the table for?" Ah Bo glared at him and reprimanded, "Missy hasn't said anything yet, so it's not your turn to talk nonsense here! Go! Make Missy a cup of coffee to refresh herself!"

"..... Yes!" Ah Tak shrank his head and hurriedly left.

Only that neither Ah Bo nor Ji YuYing saw that as Ah De turned to leave, the corners of his mouth were tinged with a smug smile.

Hey, this time Ji Feng was in big trouble, almost everyone in the Dao had already known that the destruction of the Yamaguchi Group and the assault and killing of those yakuza bosses was done by Ji Feng, so I was sure they would be mad as hell to take revenge on Ji Feng.

Especially those big gangs that had important figures taken out, they would definitely not let Ji Feng go. Perhaps the death of one important person would not break the bones of a big gang, but it would be like slapping those people hard in the mouth.

Ji Feng, with only one person, dared to challenge those big gangs, this was simply trampling on their majesty, not putting them in their eyes at all!

How could these gangs tolerate someone provoking them like that?

What's more, since the one who was killed off was an important figure in the gang, how could they not have loyal men? How could those people possibly spare Ji Feng, the murderer?

Think about it, with so many people, all trying to deal with Ji Feng like they were mad, even if Ji Feng had a hundred lives, he wouldn't survive more than a few days!

Not only Ji Feng, but also his relatives and the Weida Group, all of them will suffer!

As long as he thought of the trouble that Ji Feng would face in the future, and the treatment he would receive and the miserable end he would suffer, Ade was overwhelmed with pleasure, that feeling was like drinking ice water on a hot day, the feeling of relief was indescribable.

And now, Ade was even better.

Ji Feng had actually hung up on Missy!

Originally, Ade thought that since Ji Feng was in such a bad situation, Missy was afraid that she wouldn't be able to look past it, so she would definitely try to help Ji Feng, and maybe if they spent more time together, their eyebrows would grow fond of each other.

Therefore, at the beginning, Ah De was a bit worried that Missy would fall for Ji Feng.

But now, Ah De almost didn't laugh out loud, Ji Feng actually hung up on Missy and threw his face at her, even the most brainless fool wouldn't do that, right?

Didn't he know that the entire New York mafia wanted to get rid of him now, but only Missy wanted to help him?

However, the more 'stupid' Ji Feng was, the happier Ade was.

If Ji Feng was really pleasant to Ji YuYi, or even if the two of them were talking and laughing, then Ade would really be jealous and go crazy.

While walking out, Ade turned slightly sideways and looked at Ji Yuhui's charming and beautiful face and body out of the corner of his eyes. He couldn't help but feel a wild jump in his heart, if he could take such a natural beauty to bed

I'll take Missy!

Chapter 1815

"Ji Feng, this son of a bitch, he still dares to be so arrogant now, he simply doesn't know what he's doing!" He was even gloating and thinking, "Ji Feng is really a bad ass, he thinks he's from a big family, but he's still putting up a fight, and he's still holding on for his pathetic pride, how pathetic!

Perhaps Ji Yu-yi had not been in the country for a long time, so he might not know too much about the gangs in New York, but Ade was in New York most of the time, and only occasionally went back to the headquarters on the island, so he knew the gangs in New York very well.

The strength of these gangs is not something that can be understood just from hearsay.

For example, the Bamboo Alliance Gang, which is thought to be a deadly rival to the Yakuza, seems to be on the back foot, being pinned down by the Yakuza and having no chance to fight back.

But in reality, it has never occurred to outsiders how strong the Yakuza are. They have an operations team that specialises in solving problems by force, and this team is full of elites, with all kinds of masters, such as karate masters, who can hardly be beaten in close combat.

There are kendo masters, there are ninjas, and in assassinations against rival gangs, they can be killed in one fell swoop, and with the slightest carelessness, they may be killed.

That's why those gangs that don't get along too well with the Yakuza will guard closely for fear of a surprise attack by those kendo masters and assassination masters of the Yakuza, and then they may not even know how they will die!

In addition to all this, the Yakuza had a large number of specially trained men and the support of the Kaito Yakuza headquarters, so imagine how powerful the Yakuza would be!

Against such a gang, the Takeno gang was only pinned down, but it was able to stand firm without being wiped out, what does this tell us?

It shows that within the Chuk Yuen Gang, there is likewise a certain amount of strength that can at least resist the pressure brought by the Yakuza!

From this, we can see that even a bamboo gang that has not developed for a long time in Rice can have such strength, so how deep should those gangs that have developed for tens or hundreds of years in New York have, and how powerful they are?

But Ji Feng was so unaware of life and death that he provoked so many gangs at once. It was certain that this bastard was dead.

The poor thing is that Ji Feng doesn't seem to realise what a powerful enemy he is provoking, and he doesn't even know that once those gangs are mad enough to retaliate against him, even the New York government will have to give some face, and even the White Hand may not dare to fight them, let alone Ji Feng who is just a flesh and blood body.

What's more, wasn't the head of one of the White Hand's powerful families likewise taken out by Ji Feng?

Now if another White Hand was added, even if Ji Feng had great abilities, he would definitely have a hard time escaping death.

It is ridiculous that Ji Feng still thinks that anyone should give him face as a second generation ancestor, and he actually dares to throw his face at Missy, doesn't this mean that he is not dying fast enough?

Ade sneered in his heart, if it was himself, even if he lost a little bit of dignity, he would at least make friends with a gang first, at least in times of crisis, he might be able to escape first.

But now that Ji Feng is like this, he's still dragging his feet like he's dying, who cares about him?

This guy is dead.

Ade couldn't help but laugh in his heart.

The more he thought about it, the happier he was, the happier he was, and even the more he walked, the more energetic he was.

A few moments later, Ade came back with two cups of coffee on his face, and he said gently, "Missy, here's your coffee."

"Thanks." Ji Yuqing nodded and took the coffee.

Ah Tak handed another cup of coffee to Grandpa and said, "Missy, you're still so polite with me, aren't you? I can't wait to do something for you!"

Ji Yu-yi nodded noncommittally and said nothing.

Seeing this, Ah Tak's eyes twinkled and he said gently, "Miss, it's true that drinking coffee can refresh you, but if you stay up late for a long time, it's not good for your health.

Ji Yu Ying waved her hand and said, "No need, Ah Te, I still have something to say to Uncle, you can go wait outside first!"

Ah Tak choked, he was about to say something else, but was interrupted by Ah Bo.

"Didn't you hear what Missy said? Still not going out?" Ah Bo said in a deep voice.

"..... Yes!"

Ah Te sullenly replied and gave Ji Yuet a deep look again before turning around and striding out, but when he turned around, he was clenching his fists with a sense of resentment in his heart.

"Thanks to me for thinking so much of you, but you have repeatedly ignored my good intentions and actually treated me like a subordinate I will get you and see how you still show your nobility when you get to bed!"

Watching Ah De walk out the door, Ji Yu Ying then rubbed her brow and sighed softly.

"Eldest Miss, this child Ah De has been spoiled by me and is somewhat ignorant of manners, don't mind it." Ah Bo hurriedly said.

"Ah Bo, you are overthinking."

Ji Yuqing waved her hand and said, "I wasn't thinking about that."

Abe nodded and said, "Eldest Miss, are you still thinking about Ji Feng?"

"Apart from his business, what else could be bothering me so much?" Ji YuYi shook her head helplessly and said, "This person, Ji Feng, is stubborn and arrogant, but the person is smart to the core, and he is strong"

Ji YuYi did not continue because she really did not know what way to describe Ji Feng's strength.

With two of his men and just three people, Ji Feng had exterminated the Yamaguchi group that was able to keep the Chuk Yuen gang pinned down and, moreover, was able to silently kill those closely protected gang leaders, and even some important figures of the big gangs had died in Ji Feng's hands.

This kind of ability was simply unimaginable, I'm afraid it would be more appropriate to say that he was non-human, and I'm afraid there would be quite a few people who believed it.

"Yes!"

Ah Bo nodded and said, "This man's strength is really too terrifying!"

Terrible!

This was the most straightforward perception of Ji Feng's strength that Ji YuYi and Ah Bo had.

When the thought of terrifying is born in people's hearts, it means that, in our hearts, what is considered terrifying has come to represent invincibility.

In Ji Yu Ying and Ah Bo's hearts, perhaps Ji Feng was that invincible figure!

"With this kind of person, it's naturally best if we can be friends, even if we can't be friends, then we definitely can't make enemies, as for becoming enemies" Ah Bo shook his head and laughed bitterly, "Unless we want to die faster Otherwise, it's better not to call him an enemy!"

Ji Yuhui rubbed her brow again and said, "Who says otherwise! But the question is, whether we should be friends or become enemies, this is not at all at our will, things are really fickle, no one knows what will happen next minute"

Abe asked, "Missy, are you talking about the leak?"

Eldest Miss hadn't been so emotional in the past, but now, even Ah Bo wanted to let out a few long sighs.

Originally, they could indeed be friends with Ji Feng, and were actually on the verge of becoming friends with each other, and the personal relationship between Missy and Ji Feng was still very good.

But who would have thought that at this crucial moment, the news of Ji Feng's extermination of the Yamaguchi group and the killing of those yakuza bosses would suddenly leak out.

When the news leaked out, Ji Feng's first suspicion was that they were the Chuk Yuen Gang, there was no doubt about it.

If Ji Feng decides that the news was leaked by the JUF, I am afraid that he will immediately turn against the JUF, not to mention being friends.

"Uncle, have things been arranged?" Ji Yuqing asked.

"All has been arranged"

Ah Bo nodded and reported, "All those who took part in the operation that day have been guarded, I will interrogate them personally!"

Ji Yuqing shook her head and said, "It's better for me to do it, I'll interrogate them myself."

"Eldest Miss, you'll come personally?" Ah Bo was stunned.

“That’s right!”

Ji Yuhui nodded and said, “We have to give Ji Feng an account of this matter, and it has to be a very clear one. Otherwise, the relationship we used to work hard to maintain with Ji Feng will collapse at once, and both sides will even become enemies, and the consequences of that, we can’t imagine!”

“That day when Ji Feng exterminated the Yamaguchi group, we brought people over to meet him, so those people we brought over there, all of them knew about it, and they must be strictly interrogated!” Ji Yuhui said.

“But Missy, although those brothers know that the Yamaguchi group was exterminated by Ji Feng, they may not know Ji Feng’s name, and besides, how can they know that those gangsters were also taken out by Ji Feng?” Ah Bo asked.

“Of course I’m clear about that, as well as Ji Feng’s relationship with the Weida Group, those brothers shouldn’t have the chance to know that either.” Ji Yuhui said.

“Then Missy still wants to investigate?” Ah Bo asked, “I think that this matter will definitely not be a leak from our Chuk Yuen Gang, because everyone knows that it’s impossible for those brothers to leak information even if they wanted to, they don’t know anything other than that the Yamaguchi Group was destroyed by Ji Feng, how can they leak information?”

Ji YuYing nodded and said, “I know all that you said, but we have to look into it, at least so that Ji Feng can’t find any reason to do so, and it’s best to give Ji Feng a reasonable explanation.”

Chapter 1816

Ji YuYing nodded and said, “I know all of what you said, but we have to investigate, at least so that Ji Feng can’t find any reason to do so, and it’s best to give Ji Feng a reasonable explanation.”

“Ji Feng must be given an account!”

Both Ji YuYi and Ah Bo were thinking the same way, and they knew very well that this was the only right thing to do.

Of course, they could also choose to ignore Ji Feng.

After all, since the news hadn’t leaked out from the Chuk Yuen Gang, there was absolutely no need for them to be vain; it was Ji Feng’s business if he was in trouble, and the Chuk Yuen Gang still had to function normally.

Even if Missy Ji Yuhui reached out to help Ji Feng for the sake of her friend, it would still be out of friendship. And if she didn’t help, then Ji Feng couldn’t say anything. After all, Ji Feng had offended so many powerful gangs, and even the powerful families in the White Hand Party.

There was absolutely no need for the Chuk Yuen Gang to offend so many people because of one Ji Feng.

Even if Ji Feng suspected that the information had leaked out from the JUF, let him do so, as long as he stood up for himself, there was nothing to say.

Even if Ji Feng suspected that the information had leaked from the JUF and acted out, then the JUF had another option – to kill Ji Feng!

A person who turns his face up without distinguishing between red and white is not considered a friend.

There was no need to be polite to this kind of person. When had the Bamboo Alliance Gang ever been forced to be tied down by a single person?

This was something that had never happened before!

If Ji Feng dared to go that far, then let's finish him off.

The Bamboo Gang had many friends, there was absolutely no need to care so much about a friend who was usually eight sticks away, it wouldn't be cost effective!

In fact, the gangs in the jianghu nowadays are not as moralistic as people think, and those so-called jianghu moralities of the past have become very thin for modern people.

It's not uncommon to betray one's friends for the sake of profit, and it's not even uncommon to betray one's boss, not to mention taking out someone who has nothing substantial to do with the Chuk Yuen Gang, and there's no telling how many such people die every day!

The personal friendship of one person, Ji Yuet-ying, could not outweigh the interests of the Chuk Yuen Gang.

Moreover, as the eldest lady of the Chuk Yuen Gang, she knew exactly what was more important. If Ji Feng went too far, I am afraid that she would first become impatient without even having to say anything to Ah Bo.

What's more, taking out one Ji Feng would only be one less so-called friend, but this would not only solve the problem, but also make friends with those gangs that hate Ji Feng.

However, this was not the case.

Whether it was Ji YuYing or Ah Bo, these latter two options only flashed through their minds, and soon they knew exactly what they should do.

Ignoring Ji Feng, they did not dare.

As for taking Ji Feng out by hand the two of them didn't even dare to think about it.

It was really because, the strength of this person, Ji Feng, was so outrageously strong that it even made people feel afraid!

One person, with two henchmen, took out so many elites of the Yamaguchi group, if this can still be said to be a fluke, it can be reluctantly explained as, at that time, those people of the Yamaguchi group were gathered in Taro Sakata's villa, no one noticed Ji Feng and they infiltrated in, and as a result, they were wiped out by Ji Feng with a bomb Then, what about those gang leaders who were later assassinated?

Those small gangs naturally do not need to say much, in the eyes of the really big gangs they are all rabble, not strong and fooling around, it is only natural that they are taken out by Ji Feng.

But

What about the big gangs?

The two of them were located in different parts of New York and were surrounded by tight guards, but they still died in Ji Feng's hands.

If you think about the night when Ji Feng killed the Yakuza, two or three hundred elites from the Yakuza operation team, all armed, surrounded Sakata Taro's villa as if it was an iron pass, even a bird could not fly in, but Ji Feng infiltrated with his two men with unparalleled ease, and dared to use gunfire to attract more guards into the villa and then wipe them out in one pot

If this is not strength, then try doing this with another person?

Even the world's top assassins would definitely not be able to reach this level, and would definitely end up being sieved by those vicious and ruthless guards of the Yamaguchi-gumi.

But Ji Feng had done it with ease.

Thinking about all the things that Ji Feng had done, which one of them was something that an ordinary person could do? Which of these things did not challenge the limits of other people's imagination?

It's a joke!

The fact is that if you want to take out the headquarters of the Bamboo Gang in Treasure Island, it is impossible, but if you want to take out the branch of the Bamboo Gang in New York, it would be a breeze.

Ji Feng is unbeatable!

This was the common perception of Ji Yuhui and Ah Bo, so how dare they ignore Ji Feng, or even try to kill him?

Since they didn't dare to ignore Ji Feng, they also had to give Ji Feng a piece of their mind.

Because no matter what, the matter of leaking information, the Chuk Yuen Gang was suspected, they would have to investigate internally and first make sure that none of their own people had indeed leaked information before they could justifiably say to Ji Feng that this matter had nothing to do with us.

At this time, if Ji Feng were to go any further, there would be nothing more to say.

Although the Bamboo Alliance Gang couldn't do anything about Ji Feng, they weren't free to bully him either!

"Actually, if I could, I would still like to maintain this friendship with Ji Feng, frankly speaking Ji Feng is still a good person!" Ji YuYi sighed lightly, "The best thing about this person is not his strength, but his calmness, ruthlessness, and that confidence, plus his huge energy in the Mainland, he will definitely be a character in the future!"

Ah Bo also nodded and said, "Yes, no one wants to be an enemy if they can be friends. It's always good to have more friends. Missy, we've done all we need to do now, even if we want to interrogate those brothers, we'll have to wait until tomorrow, it's so late now, Missy should rest first, I'll keep an eye on anything!"

Ji Yuqing shook her head and said, "No, how can I sleep at this hour? I'd better go and ask those brothers directly, and inform Ji Feng as soon as I get a result as soon as possible."

Ah Bo nodded and said, "I'll arrange it for Missy!"

Only after Ah Bo had gone out, could Ji Yuhui not help but let out a soft sigh, "I hope there won't be a bad result!"

Ji Feng was undoubtedly in a fit of rage right now, so Ji Yuhui could only try to rush to get a result of the investigation as soon as possible before his anger subsided, and then when she spoke to Ji Feng again, she would be able to give him an accurate account, and only then could she stop Ji Feng from suspecting herself and the Bamboo Alliance Gang, and also maintain her relationship with Ji Feng.

A person like Ji Feng, no one would want to be an enemy with him, unless they were stupid!

Even from a personal point of view, Ji YuHui was definitely not willing to become an enemy with Ji Feng.

Over the years, Ji YuYi had been used to seeing all kinds of family sons, but there had never been anyone like Ji Feng, confident, yet full of mystery, and more importantly, Ji Feng had the strength that made people gods and goddesses fear him, as well as a wise mind

The most crucial thing now is to find out as soon as possible whether the brothers within the Chuk Yuen Gang have anything to do with this leak, if not then naturally everything is fine, but if the leak is really related to the brothers of the Chuk Yuen Gang

"There should be no relationship!" Ji Yueting shook her head, no matter how she analyzed it, she thought it was impossible for the brothers of the Chuk Yuen Gang to be the leakers.

Ah Bo quickly made the arrangements, and Ji Yuqing began to question the Bamboo Alliance Gang brothers who were involved in picking up Ji Feng that day, and one by one, individually, hoping to confirm that they had nothing to do with the leak.

"Grandpa, Missy is not making a big deal out of this, what has Ji Feng done, why should it have anything to do with us, if he wants people to know, he should not be afraid of others knowing about it, what is this now? We are such a big gang, do we have to be afraid of him alone?"

Looking at the closed door of the room, where Eldest Miss Ji Yuet was questioning the brothers one by one inside, Ah Teck said discontentedly.

At once, Ah Bo glared at him and said in a deep voice, "Ah De, you come with me."

"What's wrong, Grandpa?" Ade was stunned.

"Come over when I tell you to, where's all this nonsense?!" Abe said in a deep voice.

Ade shrank his head, not knowing why the old man was so angry, so he had to follow his grandfather into a nearby room and asked, "Grandpa, what's wrong?"

Ah Bo, however, ignored him and just stared at him coldly.

Ade was a little uncomfortable from the stare, he couldn't help but ask, "Grandpa, what's wrong, why are you looking at me like that?"

"Ugh"

Ah Bo gazed at his grandson and couldn't help but let out a soft sigh, "Ah De, you were brought up by grandpa since you were young, what kind of character you have, grandpa knows best. Grandpa knows that you are a good boy in everything, but you have never experienced any storms, and you have been spoiled since childhood, so you have no tolerance for others, to put it bluntly, you are narrow-minded"

"Grandpa"

Ade discontentedly interrupted his grandfather, "I'm not as bad as you say, am I?"

"I hope so!" Abe said in a deep voice, "Ade, let me ask you, did you do this thing?"

"..... Sh, what?" Ade was stunned.

"The leak, was it you who did it?" Abe asked in a deep voice.

Ade's face instantly changed, "Grandpa, what are you talking about?"

Chapter 1817

"The leak, was it you who did that?!" Abe asked in a deep voice.

Ade instantly blushed, "Grandpa, what are you talking about?!"

"What am I talking about that you wouldn't know?" Ah Bo stared at Ah De and said in a deep voice, "Ah De, remember what I just said? You were brought up by Grandpa, and what kind of person you are, Grandpa knows better than anyone, even better than yourself! Now, let me ask you one more time, does the leak have anything to do with you?!"

Ah De immediately said sharply, "Grandpa, what do you mean by that, as if the leak was my doing, how can you look at me like that?"

Ah Bo shook his head and sighed, "It's not that I want to look at you like that, it's how you see yourself! Ade, I really hope that this matter has nothing to do with you, really from the bottom of my heart, I even found a million reasons to convince myself, but no matter how much I think about it, I can't find the right reason to prove that you have nothing to do with this matter!"

Ade's face didn't look too good as he said, "Grandpa, according to you, it's assumed that I did this?"

"You think so?" Abe asked rhetorically.

“What does this have to do with me, Grandpa, I think you’ve got it wrong?!” As if his tail had been stepped on, Ade shouted out in discontent, “Grandpa, how can you doubt me? What does this matter have to do with me?!”

“Do you really think that your grandfather’s old bones have lived all his life for nothing?” Ah Bo’s face sank, “Let me ask you, how many people in our Bamboo Association Gang know Ji Feng’s name? Apart from me and Missy, it’s only you!”

“What does that tell you? Does knowing Ji Feng’s name mean that he must be a leaker?” Ade said impatiently.

“Grandpa, I think you’re getting old and your brain is a bit inadequate, are we the only ones within the Chu Lian Gang who know Ji Feng’s name? A few of Missy’s personal bodyguards, they know the same!”

Ade said unconvincingly, “Besides, even if I’m the only one who knows Ji Feng’s name, then the leaker must be me? Why can’t it be someone close to Ji Feng? Doesn’t he have any relatives? They must all know about these things and it’s not strange at all for them to leak the news!”

Ah Bo nodded and said, “You’re right, it’s definitely not just us in the Chuk Yuen Gang who know the information, Ji Feng’s relatives might also know. You must be wondering why I came up to you instead of suspecting Ji Feng’s relatives, right?”

“Yeah, why?” Ade asked.

“Because you’re too stupid!”

Abe said nonchalantly.

“Sh, what?” Ade couldn’t help but be stunned, “Grandpa, you’re calling me stupid?”

“Aren’t you?” Abe asked rhetorically, “Just by the way you’re acting now, you couldn’t be more stupid. If you were smart, just now when I asked if you did it, the first thing you should do should not be to deny it, but to prove through your analysis that it is impossible for you to leak the information, but how did you do it?”

Ade couldn’t help but blush, Abe did say that was a little too hurtful, Ade had never considered himself stupid.

“Also, the stupidest thing about you is that you never think about the consequences when you do something and you like to be clever, Ade, what disappoints me most about you is that you always like to put your own ideas on other people’s heads and always think that other people’s ideas will be the same as yours

Having said all this in one breath, Abe’s tone was a little rushed and breathless.

He shook his head and sighed, “Did you not understand what I meant by my words when I said all that?”

“Indeed I didn’t understand!” Ade waved his hand impatiently and said, “Grandpa, I really don’t know what the hell is the point of you saying all this, I think you are a bit old and confused, you even suspect your own grandson

OK OK, I’m not going to talk to you anymore, it’s so late, I’m going to rest, you also early “Feeling weak, are you?” Abe said.

Ade said with some impatience, “What am I weak-minded about? Grandpa, what is wrong with you, why do you always say these inexplicable words?”

“Since you are not faint-hearted, then stand here and hear me out!” Abe said in a deep voice, “Even now, you still have your heart in the right place, you are really too stupid to be foolish!”

He didn’t give Ah De a chance to speak and immediately went on to reprimand, “In your opinion, since Ji Feng is trying to help his relatives out, and since what he is carrying out is still such a big operation, he will definitely let his relatives know about it, so you just think that even if you leak the news out, when the time comes, Ji Feng won’t be able to find out who actually leaked the news, am I right?”

Ah De bristled and didn’t say anything.

But from his unimpressed look, he could tell that he didn’t take what Ah Bo said to heart, and was even a little tired of it.

Abe couldn’t help but shake his head and said, “Ade, I call you stupid because of this kind of thinking. Let’s put aside the matter of destroying the Yamaguchi gang, how big a deal is it to assassinate so many gangsters? Not to mention how serious the consequences would be once word got out, just the number of powerful gangs that would be made by doing so, it’s too many to count.”

“So what!” Ade grunted.

“So what?! Hmph! Since that’s the case, if Ji Feng really told his relatives about this, do you think his relatives would dare to support him in doing so? Wouldn’t they stop him?” Ah Bo’s face sank as he angrily rebuked, “Think about it, since Ji Feng dares to do this, it means that eight out of ten `nine of his relatives don’t know about these things!”

“Ji Feng has done so many things, he would not tell his relatives? Impossible, right?” Ah De asked in amazement.

“Ji Feng’s relatives are decent businessmen, they are not gangsters, naturally they are not willing to mess with what they see as rogue villains, not to mention them, no decent businessman in the world is willing to mess with gangsters!”

Ah Bo said in a deep voice: “If they knew that Ji Feng was going to take on those gangsters, how much of a burden would they have in their hearts? If you were in Ji Feng’s shoes, would you still tell your relatives and let them follow suit in fear when you have the ability to solve this matter?”

“No!” Ah De said.

Abe said at once, “Then do you think it’s possible for them to know that those things were done by Ji Feng?”

“Should not know?” Ah De’s face changed a little as he asked hesitantly, “Grandpa, are you saying that Ji Feng’s relatives don’t know about these things?”

“Humph! Do you still need to ask me? Don’t have the brains to think for yourself?”

Ah Bo didn't repeat his explanation, he just grimaced and said in a deep voice, "Ji Feng's relatives don't know about those things he did, and his men naturally won't leak this secret, and the only one who knows about this information, apart from them, is our Chuk Yuen Gang, do you think Ji Feng will think of this step?"

Ah De's face instantly changed dramatically and he lost his voice, "Grandpa, do you mean that Ji Feng has already concluded that it was one of our Chuk Yuen Gang's men who leaked the secret?"

Seeing this look on his face, Ah Bo couldn't help but stutter in his heart and secretly said, "Bad! It's really him who did it!"

Ah Bo stared at his grandson with a disappointed face, how he wished in his heart that Ah Teck could produce strong evidence to prove that it was not him, but Ah Teck's performance

"Ade, did you really do it?" Abe asked in a deep voice.

"How is that possible!"

Ah De almost jumped up when he heard this, he said, "Grandpa, this is just your analysis, God knows how many people Ji Feng has told these things to? Besides, even if it was really someone from our Chu Lian Gang who leaked the information, it's still possible for everyone"

However, at this time, Ade's speech was no longer so justified, and even when he reached the end of his sentence, his voice was so low that it could barely be heard.

The first thing you need to do is to look at him and see how he looks like a thief, but he's still a tough guy.

If he had only been suspicious a moment ago, but now that he had seen the way he was behaving, he could almost conclude that it was De who had leaked the information, and if he hadn't done it himself, at least he had something to do with it!

No one knew his grandson better than Ah Bo, and Ah Bo was sure that this matter must be related to his grandson!

So, if Ji Feng and Missy trace it down

"His grandmother's"

Ji Feng burst out a foul mouth, he was really shaken up.

The scene in front of him made Ji Feng dumbfounded by the shock, he didn't even know what to say, and it was a long time before he burst out such a foul mouth.

At this moment, Ji Feng was inside a villa, and he was standing outside the door of a room on the third floor of the villa, the door of which was not closed tightly, and there was still a gap.

It was through this slit that Ji Feng saw the scene inside.

Judging from the decoration style of this room, it was a bathroom, and directly opposite the door of the room was a very large bathtub. For the other facilities, Ji Feng did not have time to take a look, because he was stunned by the scene in that bathtub in the first place.

In that large bathtub directly opposite the bathroom room door, there were two people in it kissing passionately.

The two of them were both in a position of sitting half in the bathtub, without a single inch of their bodies, holding each other tightly, and were kissing passionately, which did not seem too strange, it was normal for a couple or husband and wife to make out.

However, if this was the only thing that happened, Ji Feng would not have been shocked because the two people who were kissing passionately in Ji Feng's sight were actually two men!

Two men are kissing passionately!

Even though Ji Feng was so confident about his own strength, he couldn't even help but rub his eyes to confirm whether he was seeing things or whether there was really such a shocking scene going on inside

Chapter 1818

Two men are kissing passionately!

Even though Ji Feng was so confident in his own strength, he couldn't even help but rub his eyes to confirm whether he was seeing things or whether there was really such a shocking scene going on inside

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

However, when he saw the scene in this bathroom, he couldn't help but freeze on the spot, and for a while he didn't know whether he should rush in and directly restrain the person, or whether he should turn around and leave – his mind forgot how to make a decision.

It could be seen how badly Ji Feng was shaken!

“Hoo hoo~~!”

The white spider that was trailing behind Ji Feng saw Ji Feng frozen in place and not moving, she was immediately aghast in her heart, Ji Feng's reaction was too abnormal, was there some kind of danger here that she didn't notice because her realm was not enough?

This was a habit that she had developed during her long career as an assassin, as there were now technological defenses that one would never have thought of.

The White Spider, for example, knew of one defence that would have been difficult to guess beforehand.

Nowadays, many important people have a pressure detector or a vibration detector installed in their homes, or in some important places where they often operate.

These detectors are extremely sensitive and unobtrusive, but can be a deadly threat to anyone who wants to infiltrate.

For example, the White Spider had once assassinated a tycoon in Europe, and at that time the tycoon's house was equipped with such a vibration detector, which was used to detect the staircase and the living room.

Normally, without the tycoon's permission or within the specified time, the maids were not allowed to go upstairs, because apart from the specified time, the vibration detector was always on, and even if a small cat went upstairs, it would trigger enough vibrations that the house's mechanism would immediately turn on, and such a sudden attack would be difficult for even the strongest person to escape!

If it was a human being, a single step on it would naturally go without saying.

At that time, it was fortunate that there was a small accident that made White Spider give up her plan to attack that tycoon in the villa and retreat, which spared her from the disaster.

Later on, White Spider heard that apart from her, several other assassins had also carried out assassination attempts on the tycoon, but they all died in the mechanism set up in the tycoon's house. When White Spider found out about this, she could not help but break out in a cold sweat.

She used a small car accident to move a number of the tycoon's bodyguards away while he was out, and then used other means to distract the remaining bodyguards before finally taking out the tycoon.

It was because of that successful assassination that the White Spider accomplished what no other assassin had been able to do, making the Black Widow's name known throughout the assassin community!

Since then, the White Spider has always been vigilant – you can't be a killer just by being strong, but you also have to be aware of the rapidly developing technology, otherwise, even the most powerful expert can't stop a bullet, and even the most powerful killer will die sooner or later under the target's mechanism.

Now the White Spider was equally alert, her body only slightly pressed against the wall, but without any half-hearted pressure, and her steps were even lighter and more cautious.

Approaching the bathroom door, the white spider began to turn slightly sideways and probe, wanting to see if there was something in the bathroom, or if there was danger elsewhere before Ji Feng froze here.

“Hooooo~~!”

Suddenly, the white spider saw Ji Feng violently swing his hand twice, and then just kept blinking at himself.

White Spider's eyebrows knitted for a moment, not understanding what Ji Feng meant.

Could it be that young Ji was saying that there was danger in this bathroom, that's why he waved his hands to keep himself away, and then used his eyes to remind himself?

The white spider instantly became more alert, while her heart flinched, and moved more carefully, but did not stop approaching the bathroom door Even if there was danger in the bathroom, she, the bodyguard, should be the one to rush to the front, instead of letting Ji Shao take the front.

When she was capturing the king before, she thought her performance was already humiliating enough, so how could she be a burden now?

“Don’t come over!” When Ji Feng saw that the white spider had actually stopped at her feet, he immediately lowered his voice to an extremely low level and waved his hand to stop it.

However, since White Spider had decided that Ji Feng did not want her to risk going over, how could she possibly stop?

The next moment, before Ji Feng had the chance to stop again, the white spider had already reached out to the gap in the bathroom door and looked through it.

Ji Feng was speechless.

The next thing he saw was that Bai Spider’s pretty face turned red, she didn’t even dare to look back at Ji Feng, she just stood there for a while, neither in nor out

The first thing you need to do is to get back to your job.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

In the large bathtub, the two men were still kissing furiously, the two of them embracing each other tightly, that kind of spring boiling, it was as if a blazing fire had fallen into a pile of dry wood, instantly burning up a big fire, making the whole bathroom heating up rapidly

The two of them hadn’t reacted yet, and Ji Feng turned his palm into a knife and quickly slashed at the necks of the two.

Instantly, the duo’s eyes went black and their bodies collapsed limply.

Ji Feng didn’t even know what to say, he looked around and found a curtain in front of the bathtub, he casually pulled the curtain down, then towards the two people’s bodies, quickly wrapped the two people up, forming a large package, he carried and walked out.

All the way until Ji Feng walked out of the bathroom, the white spider was still embarrassed and didn’t dare to look at him.

“Go!”

Ji Feng said in a low voice, although he was also very tired in his heart, but now was not the time to think about this, had to seize the time to verify the identity of this duo.

In fact, before this Ji Feng had already scouted the villa inside and out, and found several people, but looking at the age of those people did not match Hunter, now only the two people in the bathroom were left, if there was no Hunter among these two people, then it proved that Hunter had already left the villa, perhaps he had been informed by the king in advance

Quickly returning to the car, Ji Feng said in a deep voice: "Guoliang, take a look at these two guys, which one is Hunter?"

"This is"

Li Guoliang casually opened the curtain, only to see two naked` men, he immediately pulled the curtain up, leaving only two heads exposed.

The two guys did something, Ji Feng is really speechless, he has long heard that in foreign countries homosexuality is very common, but heard and see with their own eyes are completely different things, originally in the arrest of Lu Guowei, know Hunter has a man as a 'girlfriend', he was very tired, did not expect this night is to see with their own eyes such a 'hot' scene.

If he hadn't been trained in various ways before, otherwise, Ji Feng even doubted that he would be so disgusted that his hands and feet would be so weak that he wouldn't even have the strength to lift them down.

"It's him!"

Ji Feng was tired in his heart, but Li Guoliang had already finished identifying him.

"It's Hunter?" Ji Feng's spirits lifted, "Guoliang, can you confirm it?"

"Unless there is someone else who looks exactly like Hunter, otherwise, this person is undoubtedly Hunter." Li Guoliang said with great certainty.

"Good!"

Ji Feng was instantly a little surprised, he hadn't thought that it was really possible to catch Hunter.

Originally, Ji Feng thought that since the king had already escaped, he would definitely inform Hunter, so that it would be difficult to catch Hunter, but he didn't expect that it would be so easy!

"It seems that the king might have been too panicked when he escaped, or too angry because half of his son's body was smashed, so his mind couldn't calm down and analyze, which is why he didn't think he was here to catch Hunter, and therefore didn't inform him!" Ji Feng said darkly.

"But"

Another possibility occurred to Ji Feng: "Could it be because there is a conflict between the king and Hunter, so even if he guessed that he was here to capture Hunter, he deliberately pretended not to know, in which case he could sit back and watch himself and Hunter fight, thus reaping the benefits of the fishermen?"

Li Guoliang asked, "Mr. Ji, Hunter has been captured, what should we do next?"

Only then did Ji Feng come back to his senses, he shook his head, he was really a bit too shaken by Hunter and these two guys, he actually kept wandering off

“Guoliang, you wake that guy up first!” Ji Feng pointed at the guy who was making out with Hunter earlier, “Ask this guy a few questions first.”

“Yes!” Li Guoliang nodded his head.

Only at this time did Ji Feng get a clear look at this person’s appearance.

This was another man with clear eyebrows, and that ‘girlfriend’ of Hunter’s all belonged to the same type, this kind of body type should be said to be skinny in terms of men, but it looked like Hunter obviously liked this kind of man Ji Feng was speechless and could only shake his head.

“Well”

The man let out an unconscious groan, apparently about to turn awake.

Ji Feng’s body hand slapped on his head, and where it entered was a wet patch, reminding Ji Feng of what he had just seen in the bathroom.

He immediately frowned greatly and hurriedly rubbed his hand.

The guy, however, slowly opened his eyes, only his eyes were completely blank, he was injected with a neurotoxin simulated with bio-current by Ji Feng

Chapter 1819

“Hunter is my husband”

Under the effect of the neurotoxin simulated by the bio-current, the well-browed man began to explain his relationship with Hunter.

“Bah!”

The white spider just couldn’t help but spit at the sound of it.

Thinking about what she saw in the villa’s bathroom, Bai Spider couldn’t help but have her pretty face burn, and the look in her beautiful eyes became a bit complicated, as if she was embarrassed or something else, as she quickly stole a glance at Ji Feng and blushed even redder.

What a long insight.

He could not help but shake his head straight, it seems that this Hunter just likes men, and still likes the kind of men with clear eyebrows, but it is just when they are in the heat of passion, but was Ji Feng to look at, this makes Ji Feng can really be thundered outside, to this day he still feels uncomfortable all over his body.

So after asking this ‘girlfriend’ of Hunter a few questions, Ji Feng said in a deep voice, “OK, this guy doesn’t know any useful information either”

The first thing you need to do is to ask yourself a few questions and you’ll be able to see that this man, with his beautiful eyebrows, is at most a plaything of Hunter’s. It’s impossible to say that he knows any important information, because he doesn't even know what Dynasty is, and he knows nothing about Hunter's real identity.

Therefore, it would only be a waste of time to put any more energy into this person, and Ji Feng decisively turned his attention to the still unconscious Hunter.

"Mr. Ji, shall we start questioning now?" Li Guoliang asked.

"Don't be in a hurry"

Ji Feng shook his head and said.

He stared at Hunter and carefully sized him up for a while, before this revealed a look of relief that this was indeed the case. Not surprisingly, when he Choi moved the biological current to act on his eyes, and then used his penetrating eyes to examine Hunter's body, he immediately found that this Hunter, too, was a transformed person.

Only, this person's transformation was not very thorough, only some important parts of the bones in his body had been replaced.

For example, Hunter's limbs, as well as his ribs, were not the normal kind of bones of a normal person, although exactly what material Ji Feng could not distinguish with his eyes alone, but obviously not the bones of a normal person.

So Ji Feng could conclude that this Hunter had also been transformed.

However, there were still some bones in Hunter's body that had not been transformed, such as his spinal column bones, and skull, which were all the kind of white and gnarled bones of a normal person.

In addition, Hunter's body had also been strengthened. Looking at the tightness of his muscles, even those robust young men might not be able to match him, it was hard to imagine that this was the body of a middle-aged man.

For example, Ji Feng had seen those transformers before, Hunter's transformation was undoubtedly very successful and could even be described as perfect, at least from the surface it was impossible to tell that he was a transformer.

From this point on, it could also be seen that Hunter's status in the dynasty should not be very low, and was probably even higher than that of the young grandson.

According to Ji Feng's experience, the more thoroughly the body was transformed, the lower the status should be in the dynasty.

For example, those limbless and simple-minded transformers Of course, in the dynasty organization they seem to be called super soldiers Those people have had almost their entire bodies transformed, except for some extremely important parts, such as the heart, organs like the brain have not been transformed, almost all other places have been transformed.

The kind of transformed people, however, are the equivalent of the dynasty's fighters, dead soldiers, or to put it more crudely, the dynasty's cannon fodder.

Of course, compared to those armed men on the periphery, the status of these reformers is still quite high, but if compared to those managers within the dynasty, the status of reformers is far inferior, let alone compared to the top of the dynasty.

In that case, this man Hunter might still be really important. Then, when dealing with him, one could not be too rash.

But in this way, Ji Feng saved himself a lot of trouble, at least Hunter's physique was much better than the average person, even after being injected with neurotoxin later, he wouldn't immediately turn into an idiot like an ordinary person, he was still useful.

After a few moments of contemplation, Ji Feng began to stimulate the bio-current to simulate neurotoxin and inject it into Hunter's body

Time passed quickly, the night had passed in a flash, and the sky was gradually dawning.

Zee

The door of the room opened and Ji Yueting walked out of the room, her face with an undisguised tiredness, feeling the cool air outside, Ji Yueting couldn't help but stretch out and take a few strong breaths of fresh air.

Despite the fact that the lack of sleep all night had made her a little tired, there was a hint of relief in her beautiful eyes.

"Finally, the trial is over!"

Ji Yuhui couldn't help but let out a sigh of relief, but what really made her relax was the result of the interrogation.

Because of the leaked news, Ji Feng's attitude towards her was obviously a lot colder, and he didn't even answer her calls anymore, which Ji Yuhui had to take seriously.

In order to give Ji Feng an explanation, Ji YuHye gathered all the brothers of the Chuk Yuen Gang who were involved in picking up Ji Feng on the day he killed the Yamaguchi Gang, and strictly interrogated them one by one.

After the operation, Ji Yuqing had strictly ordered everyone not to say a word about what had happened that day, so the only people who really knew the inside story were those who had participated in the operation that day.

Moreover, those people might not know so well.

The others only knew that the young man was a friend of Missy's and was very powerful and had destroyed the Yamaguchi group.

There were even some brethren who thought that Ji Feng was a friend of her, Ji Yuhui, and since the Yakuza had always been a deadly rival to the Chuk Yuen Gang, Ji Feng should have been hired by her, Ji Yuhui, to deal with the Yakuza

The first thing that happened was that no one knew what really happened or how it started. In order to prevent these people from lying, Ji Yuhui asked particularly detailed questions and even deliberately used a surveillance device to film the entire interrogation process, and after interrogating a person, she would repeat the surveillance video again so that she could finally confirm if the other person had lied.

The result was a great relief to Ji Yuwen that none of these brothers had leaked any information.

This meant that the news of Ji Feng's extermination of the Yakuza and his assault on those gangsters was definitely not leaked out from the Chuk Yuen Gang.

Even if there were some people who might have heard Ji Feng's name by chance, how would they know what the relationship between Ji Feng and the boss of the Weida Group actually was?

If they didn't know this clearly, then there was no way to talk about leaking the news.

"Phew~~!"

Ji YuYi couldn't help but let out a long breath, the big stone that was pressing on her chest was removed at once, making her feel a lot more relaxed.

Her luxuriant jade hand patted her towering breasts, seemingly wanting to disperse the stuffiness in her chest. The look on Ji Yuhui's face was also much more relaxed, perhaps because she was in a good mood, making her more uniquely charming and flirtatious at the moment.

The gang has its own rules, so even if she were standing here naked, no one would dare to stare directly at her, unless they didn't want to live.

Among the gangs, the punishment for subordination is extremely harsh, breaking hands and feet is only a minor punishment, and three stabs and six holes are not too uncommon.

This is because gangs have evolved into modern times and many penalties have been abolished.

If it was in the Republic of China, there were more punishments in gangs, and they were even more ruthless and cruel, such as being put in the frying pan and having their eyes gouged out, and so on.

As a result, while Ji Yu-ye was showing off her beautiful figure here, the Chuk Yuen gang members who were on guard nearby were not looking at her, as if they could not see Missy standing here, but in fact, it was Ji Yu-ye who treated them like air.

Ji Yuet-ying waved towards a bodyguard, who immediately trotted all the way over, "Missy, what are your orders?"

"Where is Ah Bo?" Ji Yuet asked.

"I'm going to find"

"Eldest Miss!"

Before the bodyguard could say anything, there was Ah Bo's voice not far away, he was coming out from another room, which was the lounge: "Missy, I've been waiting for you."

Kitty waved her hand, "Come in and talk."

Ah Bo then followed Ji Yuet-ying to the living room and the two of them sat down, when they saw Ah Tak coming over with a steaming breakfast, "Missy, you've worked hard all night, you'd better have some breakfast to pad your stomach first."

"Thanks!"

Ji Yuqing nodded her head lightly, then stood up and said, "I'll go wash up first, Ah Bo, you eat first."

Ah Bo immediately said, "I've already eaten."

Without saying anything more, Ji Yuwen went straight upstairs to wash up and change her clothes.

Ah Bo immediately glared at Ah De, who dodged his gaze, not daring to meet Ah Bo's gaze, and could only force his composure.

"Don't forget what I told you, when Missy comes down again, don't mention the pot out of nowhere, remember who you are!" Abe reprimanded in a low voice.

"I remember."

Ade said, "Grandpa, don't keep lecturing me like this, why do you make it seem as if I really leaked the news"

Not waiting for Ade to finish, Abe's eyes suddenly glared, "How dare you say that!"

He immediately turned his head to look around and saw two bodyguards at the entrance of the living room, but fortunately they didn't notice the conversation inside, only then did Abe grimaced and said in a low voice, "Remember, from now on, you're not allowed to mention the leak voluntarily, especially in front of Missy, remember? Do you think Missy is as stupid as you? Will she ever think that you did it?"

Ade then stopped talking, his gaze flickering a little, a sign of a weak heart.

Chapter 1820

After washing up, she was even more radiant and feminine.

Ah Tak was still a bit vain, his face clouded with uncertainty, not knowing what he was thinking, but when he overlooked Ji Yueting, who was coming down the stairs, his eyes flashed wildly for a few moments and he could barely move his eyes.

"Missy!" Ah Bo hurriedly greeted, he had seen his grandson's infatuated look and wanted to take this opportunity to remind Ah Te not to lose his temper.

In fact, Ah Bo was secretly amazed that Missy was getting prettier and prettier.

On top, she wore a casual warm dress in a stylish and innovative style that highlighted her perfect figure without being over the top, but with a sense of restraint and modesty.

Beautiful, charming and dignified, if these qualities are fused in the same woman, then it goes without saying that this woman's charm is absolutely irresistible.

Such is the case with Ji Yuqing at the moment, and this is just her casual attire.

It seemed that this gorgeous woman had this ability to wear even a few tens of dollars' worth of ground-floor goods on her body, and she could still wear them with the effect of a queen.

Watching Ji Yuqing descend the stairs step by step, her swaying figure, her beautiful eyes darting around and looking at each other, she had a noble and heart-pounding allure!

Not to mention Ah Te, even Ah Bo, an old man who was already half-dead in the ground, could not help but be amazed and moved for a moment, let alone a young man like Ah Te.

He could not say that he had seen countless women in his life, but at least he had had quite a few, but he had rarely seen a woman as beautiful as Missy.

Not only did she have an outwardly stunning beauty, but she also had an aura that other women did not have, a noble feeling that made people want to conquer her.

At this time, Ah Bo also somewhat understood why his grandson would leak the news that Ji Feng had exterminated the Yamaguchi group and attacked and killed those gangsters, doing this kind of eating out of the bag, it must be because Ah De saw that Missy was treating Ji Feng in a very affectionate manner, so his heart became somewhat uncomfortable.

Or rather, it was Ade who had a sense of crisis.

Therefore, this was why Ah De did that kind of confused thing. He was preventing Ji YuYi from getting along with Ji Feng for a long time and possibly getting attached to him over time, and then, there would be nothing left for him, Ah De.

Ah Bo understood his grandson's thoughts and mentality, and thinking about it, he couldn't help but feel a bit disgusted with Ji Feng.

An outsider who was so close to Missy, not to mention the fact that he was so reckless and even on the strong side, wasn't this bullying the Chuk Yuen gang like no one else?

Ah Bo began to understand something about his grandson, and his mind gradually began to drift towards him.

Originally, he was thinking that he must let Ah De avoid being punished, and now with this thought, he was even more determined in this thought, if Ji Feng wanted to show off, let him do so outside, this Chu Lian Gang was not a place where he could run wild!

"Missy, you, you're so beautiful" Ah De couldn't help but exclaim. While Ah Bo was thinking fast in his head, Ah Tak was staring at Ji Yuqing the whole time.

However, Ji Yuet-ying only pulled the corners of her mouth in response to Ah Tak, she did not intend to go on with Ah Tak on this topic, but took a few steps to the living room on the ground floor and sat down on the sofa.

Ah Tak hurriedly said, "Missy, have some breakfast, you must be hungry after a hard night's work"

Ji Yuqing nodded and said, "Thank you."

After a pause, Ji Yuet added, "Ah De, from now on, you don't have to do these things, there are servants in the manor, if you do this, you are stealing their rice bowls, this is not good. Besides, those brothers down there are all watching, as their big brother, you have to behave like a big brother"

Ade instantly turned red and said, "Yes"

He didn't expect that the breakfast he had gone to so much trouble to prepare would end up in a scolding from Ji Yuoying, which made Ah De's face a little embarrassed and his heart even more resentful, but he didn't show it.

Ah Bo smiled and said, "Miss, you have worked hard all night, hurry up and have breakfast, your body is most important."

Ji Yuwen then nodded, she knew that Ah Bo was digressing and relieving Ah Te, but she didn't say anything, after all, Ah Bo had watched her grow up, and she always had to give him face.

However, Ji Yuet-ying was increasingly disappointed with Ah Teck.

As Ah Bo's grandson, he had been given important responsibilities by the gang to assist Ah Bo in handling the affairs of the Chuk Yuen Gang in New York, but Ah Bo did not have any semblance of being a big brother, he was simply a second-rate man with nothing to do, and all he could think about was how to impress himself

Even if you are chasing a girl, you don't chase her like this.

If he wasn't A-Bo's grandson, Ji Yuqing really doubted that the brothers in the gang would obey him.

It seems that when Ah Bo retires, it is time to reconsider whether to let Ade continue to stay in Rice, Ade is not a person who can preside over the big picture, he does not have the ability to do so.

As Ji Yuwen elegantly ate her breakfast, Abe asked from the side, "Eldest Miss, the interrogation last night, there are results, right? That matter"

"It has nothing to do with the brothers in the gang!" Ji Yuqing finished the last mouthful of soy milk, wiped her mouth and said.

"That's good!"

Ah Bo breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Since it has nothing to do with our Chuk Yuen Gang, then no matter how much Ji Feng pursues it, he can't blame us."

Ji Yuhui nodded slightly and said, "What I am worried about now is that if Ji Feng doesn't listen to our explanation, or if he has a preconceived notion that it was one of us from the Chuk Yuen Gang who leaked the information, then it will be a problem."

Ah Bo frowned, "I don't think Ji Feng looks like such an unreasonable person?"

Ji YuYi shook her head slightly and said, "That's not the way to put it, no matter how shrewd a person is, once he is overwhelmed by anger, he won't be able to reason with you. Ah Bo, make a copy of the surveillance video from last night."

Ah Bo immediately asked, "Does Missy want the CCTV footage to be given to Ji Feng?"

Ji YuYi nodded and said, "That's right. This is the only way to let Ji Feng know what we have done, and he will naturally know that our Chuk Yuen Gang has no ill will towards him."

Ah Bo said without moving his voice, "I'm afraid that Ji Feng has already developed ill feelings towards us, and by the way, he has even developed hostility towards Miss Miss, I think this way, why don't I deliver the video to him, after all, all the major gangs are targeting Ji Feng now, if Miss personally delivers the video, there is no guarantee that there will be any trouble"

"Then what if we go together?" Ji Yuhui asked.

"Go together? Oh" Ah Bo laughed, "Missy, I think at this time, we should not show too much importance, otherwise, Ji Feng really thinks that things have something to do with us, as the saying goes, if there is nothing to do, it is not treacherous."

Ji YuYi pondered a little and nodded, "Well, that's fine, Ah Bo, then this matter will be hard for you."

Ah Bo waved his hand repeatedly and said, "What are you talking about, Miss, you have personally worked all night, you are the one who has worked hard Miss, I think you should take a rest."

"No need to rest, the situation is so chaotic now, I have to think about what our next step should be." Ji Yuqing said.

Right now the currents were raging outside, almost all the big gangs were going crazy trying to find Ji Feng, and many of them had also turned their spearheads on the Weida Group, at this time, it was inevitable that there would not be people fishing in the water, and in this chaotic situation, what kind of benefits the Chuk Yuen Gang could gain, this was something that had to be considered properly.

Ah Bo nodded and said, "Then I won't bother Missy, but I want to send the video to Ji Feng, how should I contact him?"

Ji Yuhui said, "I'll contact him, you can just send it directly when the time comes."

Ah Bo smiled and nodded, "Yes."

Then, Ah Bo retreated, leaving only Ji Yueting alone, and of course there were two bodyguards at the door.

Ji Yuhui glanced at the doorway and her eyebrows knitted slightly.

Ah Tak was acting a bit abnormal today!

Ji YuYi felt a bit strange, if it was in the past when talking about Ji Feng, Ah De would always look disdainful, and how he would always try to say a few bad words about Ji Feng, but today when talking about Ji Feng from the beginning to the end Ah De actually didn't interject a single word, this was a bit too abnormal.

"Is it because the lesson he learned last time has made him remember?" Ji YuYi thought, but then she shook her head no.

At that time, Ji YuYi took Ah De to see Ji Feng, but Ah De ended up clashing with Ji Feng in front of her, and in her anger, Ji YuYi let Ah De go to the Hall of Punishment to receive the punishment by himself, that time Ah De was himself very defiant, so how could he be taught a lesson?

What was the reason for that?

Ji YuYi didn't think about it for a while, she shook her head slightly and didn't bother to think more about Ah De, then she picked up the phone, first thought about it slightly, then dialed a series of numbers.

"Mr. Ji, this is a temporary landing place I used to have, no one can find this place for the time being." Li Guoliang said.

It was a very typical rice country house, a small two-storey building with fence walls and a wooden structure house, with a beautiful environment and convenient transportation. The most important thing was that it was very remote, but the house was fully equipped with all kinds of equipment.
