

Campus Master 1871

The main hall of the Green Gang.

The main hall is actually a small manor house, but there is a two-storey building in the manor house which is not used for living.

Normally, unless there was something going on in the gang or someone had broken the gang rules and needed to be punished, this main hall would only be opened, otherwise, at most, a meeting would be held elsewhere in the manor, and it would be enough for a few elders and leading bosses to discuss among themselves.

But today, this General Hall is exceptionally opened, but not for the sake of the Qing Gang.

Rather, it was because

If we add the Chuk Yuen Gang, the Annam Gang, and the Youth Gang, it would be like the entire New York mob.

For the arrival of people from so many gangs, the Green Gang naturally had to give a high standard of reception.

So, this main hall was opened specifically to receive these guests.

Although everyone knew that these people wanted the Qing Gang to act as mediators in the middle and help make peace with Ji Feng, which was tantamount to bowing down to Ji Feng and begging for forgiveness. The people of the Qing Gang despised in their hearts, but in reality, no one dared to underestimate the power of these gangs.

Even though these gangs had lost many good men at the hands of Ji Feng, and even their bosses had been killed by Ji Feng, the foundations that these gangs had built up over the years were still there, and they hadn't suffered any major injuries.

The people of the Qing Clan naturally understood this, and it could be seen from the place where they entertained these people.

Looking at the dozens of foreigners sitting in the living room, Wu Changgong could be said to be complacent, even though he knew that these people were not actually here for him, but for Ji Feng, but this did not stop Wu Changgong from feeling comfortable in his heart.

After so many years, when had these foreigners ever been so restrained in front of the Chinese?

Look at the look of these people, they don't dare to sit so casually in their chairs, their bodies don't dare to be loose, their hands are either propped up on the table or on their knees, their bodies are straight, and their faces look a little apprehensive, a little nervous

They really look like this!

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

However, no one dares to call them that now, including the White Hand, who also dare not.

What's more, the reason why they are sitting here so honestly and apprehensively today is that they are scared by Ji Feng's cold and strong tactics and dare not continue to fight against him!

They were afraid of the Chinese!

"Elder Wu, may I ask if your gang has contacted Ji Feng?" A gangster's hall master couldn't really be patient anymore and couldn't help but ask.

When he asked this, everyone else followed suit and looked at Wu Changgong, they had come here to reconcile with Ji Feng, so naturally they were most concerned about this.

Wu Changgong said, "Everyone, I told you just now, we have already contacted Ji Feng, and Ji Feng agreed to meet with you, but the place to meet is up to him, so, you should wait patiently!"

Those hall masters had more or less some complaints in their hearts.

They had to know how authoritative they were in the past, where would anyone dare to treat them like this normally?

Even if they frowned a little, someone would be scared to death, not like today.

However, no matter how many complaints and grievances these gang leaders had in their hearts, none of them dared to say a single word today, and they didn't dare to show any sign of dissatisfaction.

Because the person who made them wait was Ji Feng!

It was the tough man who could do away with them at any time, and had even done away with their bosses.

The boss was the role model!

No one wanted to be the next one to be done away with!

What's more, although they were nominally here to go through the Qing Gang and then reconcile with Ji Feng, and in reality they knew better than anyone in their own hearts that this time they were simply here to beg forgiveness from Ji Feng.

If their attitude was not good, or if they angered Ji Feng, then they would be waiting for the whole gang to be wiped out next.

At the very least, the top brass in the gang would be slaughtered!

This was a consequence that no one dared to bear, and definitely could not afford to bear!

Looking at these gang hall masters who used to be so high and mighty, now with faces that were suffocating but dared not speak out in anger, Wu Changgong's heart was even more relieved, and he almost did not laugh out loud.

"Buzz~~!"

Suddenly, Wu Changgong's mobile phone vibrated, he immediately picked it up and heard a familiar voice coming from inside, "I am now at the entrance of your main hall's manor!"

“Ji Feng?!”

Wu Changgong immediately exclaimed, “You’re at the entrance?”

Ji Feng nodded, “But the guards at the entrance won’t let you in, did you tell them about it?”

Wu Changgong immediately said, “No need to say anything, please wait a moment, I’ll come and get you!”

Ji Feng smiled faintly, “Thanks a lot.”

Wu Changgong hung up the phone, looked at those foreigners, a smile appeared on his face and said, “Everyone, I have news for you, I just got the news that Ji Feng will be coming over soon!”

Wow~!

When those foreigners heard Wu Changgong’s words, they were all stunned, and then they began to whisper. Wu Changgong could see very clearly that a few of them still had a tense look on their faces.

These foreigners are just like that, they all bully the soft ones and are afraid of the hard ones! Wu Changgong secretly sneered in his heart and dropped a sentence, “Please wait here, I’ll go and receive them!” After saying that, he walked straight out, leaving behind a group of chattering hall masters of other gangs.

When Wu Changgong arrived at the entrance of the manor in his lawn electric cart, he saw Ji Feng standing proudly with the white spider, and that upright figure standing at the entrance, but it looked mighty and extraordinary, not an ordinary person at first glance.

It was only until this time that Wu Changgong realised how prejudiced he had been against Ji Feng in the first place, at that time because he had treated him like a dude, and as a result, when he saw him, he didn’t even see this obviously extraordinary aura of his!

“Ji Feng, the hall masters and main figures of those gangs are all waiting in the conference room of the main hall!” Wu Changgong walked over quickly and said with a smile.

“What are their opinions?” Ji Feng asked indifferently.

“What else can that gang have to say, it’s just that they have proposed a compensation condition.” Wu Changgong said, “According to their meaning, their nail art is willing to pay five to twenty million rice gold, and at the same time, they are also willing to divide a part of their own business and give it to the Weida Group to do.”

Here, Wu Changgong added: “But then, as you know, the size of these gangs varies and their strength is also uneven, moreover, the projects they operate may not always be suitable for the Weida Group, so my advice to them is that if they can’t divide their business, they should take more money out, and if they can divide their business, they can take less money

Perhaps fearing that Ji Feng might have some misunderstanding, Wu Changgong explained with a smile, “Of course, this is just a suggestion of mine, but in the end, what exactly to do is still up to you.”

“Thanks for your hard work!”

Ji Feng did not rush to make a statement, but first thanked Wu Changgong, no matter what, Wu Changgong was considered to have helped and deserved his thanks.

Wu Changkong couldn't help but wave his hand and laughed, "Where's the hard work I've done Ji Feng, what do you think about the compensation offer they made? Are you going to meet them in person, or should I pass it on to them?"

Ji Feng said, "Since I'm here, of course I have to go and meet them."

Wu Changgong immediately nodded and said, "Good then, get in the car, I'll take you there!"

Ji Feng and Bai Spider got into the car and sat down, and the driver drove them straight to the Qing Gang's main hall.

About ten minutes later, several people arrived at the front of the Qing Gang's main hall. Wu Chang Power walked in first and said aloud, "Everyone, Mr. Ji has arrived."

Hula~!

What Wu Changgong didn't expect was that the gang's hall masters or important figures who were all sitting originally, once they heard that Ji Feng had arrived, they all stood up in a huff, and looking at the expressions on their faces, they actually had a hint of nervousness and even some apprehension, and some of them even turned a little white.

Wu Changgong could not help but secretly sigh in his heart, the underworld is a place where strength speaks for itself, where the law of the weak and the strong is reflected to the fullest.

Ji Feng used his strength to the extreme to make these vicious fellows fear from the bottom of their hearts.

In the midst of Wu Changgong's emotion, Ji Feng walked in with big strides. His stature was tall and his body was even sturdier, so he did not look short at all in front of this group of foreigners who had the advantage of height.

But in the eyes of those foreigners, Ji Feng looked like a big mountain, and every step he took forward gave them great pressure.

Don't look at how cold Ji Feng was, but everyone knew how ruthless and powerful this young man was!

When Ji Feng arrived at the conference room and saw those foreigners, his gaze swept around and then asked indifferently, "Who among you, or among your gangs, still wants to kill me? Still want to go against the Weida Group?!"

Those people knew that they had to deal with the Chinese people, so they all came with interpreters, and those who didn't bring interpreters were also people who could understand the Chinese language themselves.

When they heard Ji Feng's question, it was the whole room was silent and none of them answered.

When Wu Changgong saw this, he could not help but secretly feel a sentence, Ji Feng, this young man, really good spirit, more confident, unexpectedly treat those gangs as nothing, pressed them not dare to raise their heads!

Campus Master Chapter 1872

The whole room is silent!

Dead silence!

Whether it was the hall masters of those large gangs, or those important people, or those who had already confirmed that they could take over the position of the boss, all of them were looking at the table with wandering eyes, or they were directly staring straight into the unfocused

None of them dared to meet Ji Feng's eyes!

This situation, looking at Wu Changgong and the rest of the Qing Gang, could not help but feel their hearts and minds shake.

Ji Feng's aura and might was just too strong, he just swept through with a glance, surprisingly no one dared to look at him, not even those who dared to look at him.

Even, on closer inspection, none of the gang leaders present had a look of defiance on their faces.

Wu Changgong couldn't help but secretly feel that this kind of power of Ji Feng was really a real fight.

He used his own fist to harden the hearts of these normally unruly, arrogant and even domineering gang leaders, and none of them dared to go against Ji Feng again!

This was Ji Feng's power!

And regardless of what the others thought, Ji Feng's gaze swept over everyone's faces and said indifferently, "If anyone is still unconvinced in their hearts, they can say so now, I will give you a chance, we will face each other head to head, the form, the place, the time, you can choose whatever you want!"

Although the tone of Ji Feng's words was very plain, as if he was chatting between two strangers, however, everyone present heard the murderous intent hidden in Ji Feng's words.

Ji Feng was talking about a duel!

That's a no-death no-rest!

Everyone couldn't help but feel a chill in their hearts, was Ji Feng's no death, no rest, really that easy to bear?

Think of the White Hand, think of the Yamaguchi Group, and then think of all those gangsters who were done away with by Ji Feng without a word to know that this is not yet immortal, at least Ji Feng is willing to give them a chance to reconcile.

If Ji Feng continues to chase and kill endlessly, these people, who can still have the life to sit here?

Thus, a bizarre scene appeared

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the actual situation.

They did not dare to show the slightest dissatisfaction in front of Ji Feng, they were all scared by Ji Feng.

This gang of hooligans and thugs had always looked down on Chinese people, thinking that they were all yellow-skinned monkeys, but now they were bowing down in front of these yellow-skinned monkeys that they had never looked down on!

Zhu Mingyuan, who had been at the side, was likewise looking blankly, when did this bunch of foreigners become so well-behaved?

“No?” Ji Feng asked indifferently, seeing that everyone didn’t dare to look at him, he then nodded slightly and said, “That’s it then.”

After saying that, Ji Feng turned around and left.

“Ji, Mr. Ji” Ji Feng was just about to leave when he heard someone call out to him eagerly.

Ji Feng immediately turned around to look and saw a foreigner of about thirty standing up, he frowned and asked, “What, what do you want to say?”

The man took one look at Ji Feng’s frown and hurriedly shook his hand straight, “Mr. Ji, don’t misunderstand, I don’t mean any harm.”

He spoke Chinese, only his tone was very stiff and he stumbled when he spoke, obviously not too familiar with it.

Ji Feng asked, “What do you want to say?”

The man said, “Mr. Ji, I my Chinese is not too good, it’s better to speak English# ¥ @#”

Someone next to this man immediately translated in Mandarin, “Mr. Ji, our hall master wants to reconcile with you, I just don’t know what you are asking for?”

Everyone else also nodded their heads, their purpose for coming here today was to make a reconciliation with Ji Feng.

They were really unwilling to fight with Ji Feng any longer, even their boss had been taken out by Ji Feng, let alone them?

But Ji Feng actually didn’t mention reconciliation at all, which made them a bit anxious.

The question raised by that foreigner was exactly what everyone wanted, so they all looked at Ji Feng hopefully, wanting to know how he would answer.

This was a matter that concerned their vital interests, which made them concerned.

In fact, not only these gangsters, but even Wu Changkong and the other members of the Qing Gang were also concerned about Ji Feng’s answer.

Because from Ji Feng’s answer, they could tell what kind of attitude Ji Feng had when dealing with his enemies, because they had not forgotten that there was still Ji Feng’s enemy in the Qing Gang – Luo Xun!

If Ji Feng was unforgiving to these gangs, or if he opened his mouth wide, then I'm afraid that the Qing Gang would not have been able to explain to Ji Feng if they had dealt with Luo Xun lightly.

Who knows, but Ji Feng only said indifferently: "Demands? I don't have any demands, it's easy to reconcile, you guys can do it yourselves!"

After saying that, Ji Feng turned around and walked out.

The remaining gang leaders and important figures in the room all looked at each other, all dumbfounded.

They were all dumbfounded.

What did Ji Feng mean by that?

What do you mean by "do it yourself"?

Or what exactly should they do to satisfy Ji Feng?

Not to mention them, even Wu Changgong could not help but be stunned when he heard this, and did not react for a while.

Ji Feng's words were too ambiguous, and it was like giving these important figures of the gang a big problem.

If they wanted to reconcile, of course they could.

But what exactly you have to do to reconcile, you have to look at it yourself

This question, it seems, has no answer at all, and even Ji Feng did not even mention half of the requirements, which makes it even more difficult to do.

But Ji Feng was not even talking half a word of nonsense to them, and after dropping these words, he took the white spider and walked out in stride, leaving only a group of people there dumbfounded.

"What does he mean by this?" The people in the room couldn't help but be stunned.

"Watch this?"

Wu Changgong also couldn't help but be stunned, how could Ji Feng drop such a sentence, did he not even think about reconciling with these gangs? That's why he made such a casual remark, and then excused that these gangs hadn't done enough to satisfy him and went after these gangs again?

That was a real possibility!

Wu Changgong couldn't help but feel a slight twinge in his heart.

But when he thought about it, Wu Changkong's heart moved and he seemed to understand something, he couldn't help but secretly stammer, if his guess was correct, then Ji Feng was really too ruthless!

.....

And at the same time, for this kind of behavior of Ji Feng, the white spider was likewise a little puzzled, not quite understanding his intentions.

“Young Ji, you just let them off lightly like that?” White Spider asked, “Those gangsters were outrageous before, not only did they block off the streets so recklessly, but they also laid hands on the employees of the Weida Group. That’s not all, the most outrageous thing about them is that those gangsters almost killed us”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but chuckle at his words, “Let them off the hook? How can it be that cheap?”

The white spider was stunned: “Isn’t it? You didn’t even make a single request, you just told them to watch out, if they don’t do anything and take it as a reconciliation, wouldn’t that be cheap for those people?”

Ji Feng harrumphed, “White Spider, do you think they dare to do nothing?”

Bai Spider was stunned, then it dawned on him, “Young Ji, I understand!”

“Oh?”

Ji Feng laughed, “Then tell me about it!”

White Spider nodded and said, “Now it’s those gangsters who are afraid, they are begging us to reconcile, you dropped that line, they don’t know where your bottom line is, in that case, if they still want to reconcile, then they will definitely have to guess how much they should pay to get you to agree to reconcile, and after that, they will pay a certain price according to their guess! ”

Since those people wanted to reconcile, it wasn’t impossible, but it wasn’t that easy.

But if it was up to Ji Feng to make the demands, if the demands were too high, those gangs would rebel, and they could not even rule out the possibility of those desperadoes wanting to bite the bullet.

And if Ji Feng’s demand was too low, it would be too cheap for the gangs.

Now Ji Feng just dropped an ambiguous statement, and it was time for those gangs to have a headache. They didn’t know how much they could pay to satisfy Ji Feng, but they were afraid that Ji Feng was in New York, which was a huge pressure for them.

In this way, those gangs would inevitably think that they could only pay a huge price in order to satisfy Ji Feng.

At this time, no one would dare to play any foul, otherwise, there would be no need for them to come and beg for peace.

By putting down that statement, Ji Feng was actually squeezing those gangs to the maximum possible extent!

“Young Ji, am I right?” White Spider asked.

“That’s pretty much it!” Ji Feng smiled and nodded his head, Bai Spider was still very smart, just maybe he still had too little experience with the human condition, so he needed a bit of a heads up some times.

“However, it’s not just to squeeze those gangs!” Ji Feng added, “Leaving them with that statement, on the one hand, is to make them pay, on the other hand, but also to put this matter to rest as soon as possible and get the problem solved!”

Both to make those gangs pay the maximum price and not to force them to be unacceptable again and eventually grit their teeth and fight for their lives, compensation from those gangs was a must, but, solving the troubles of the Weida Group, that was the main thing.

“Mr Ji! Mr. Ji!” Suddenly, someone was calling Ji Feng’s name, but it was Zhu Mingyuan who quickly caught up with him.

“Hall Master Zhu.” Ji Feng smiled faintly, “What are your instructions?”

“Mr. Ji is too polite, it’s like this, Elder Wu asked you to stay a little, he has something else to say to you.” Zhu Mingyuan said, “Right now Elder Wu is sending those gang members away and will be coming over soon, Mr. Ji, do you think we should go to the meeting room in front and wait for a while first?”

Ji Feng nodded slightly, “No problem.”

Zhu Mingyuan immediately made a gesture of invitation, “Mr. Ji, please do.”

Not far from the Qing Gang’s main hall, there was a monolithic other time, and according to Zhu Mingyuan, Elder Wu would usually land here, which was also considered Elder Wu’s home.

When he came to the villa’s parlour, Zhu Mingyuan first entertained someone to make tea and serve snacks, and only then did he hesitate for a moment and said, “Mr. Ji, later on, if Elder Wu speaks in a way that offends you, please bear with me.”

Ji Feng immediately frowned, “What, what does Elder Wu want to say to me?”

With a movement in his heart, he immediately asked, “It’s about Luo Xun, right?”

Campus Master Chapter 1873

Ji Feng immediately frowned, “What, what does Elder Wu want to talk to me about?”

His heart moved and he immediately asked, “It’s about the matter of Luo Xun, right?”

Zhu Mingyuan hurriedly said, “Don’t misunderstand, Mr. Ji, it’s not that the Qing Gang wants to harbor Luo Xun, it’s just that there’s a strategy and proportion in between

“Oh?”

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the situation. And what is the proportion?”

It was only to dispose of a hall master according to the gang rules, even though this hall master had a father who was an elder, but what was there to it?

Could it be that because Luo Xun’s father was an elder, he could ignore the gang rules?

If that was the case, then could the son of the leader of the Green Gang treat the whole gang as his private property? Then there would be no need to talk about gang rules and so on.

If this is really the case, then what makes the gang so desirable to its sons?

Don’t forget that many of the world’s most famous Chinese tycoons have ties to the YC, and some of them are from the YC themselves, but are now concentrating on business.

However, this does not mean that they are not members of the gang.

If Qing Gang became someone's private property, would these tycoons still willingly be part of Qing Gang?

Seeing Ji Feng's smiling expression, Zhu Mingyuan couldn't help but hurry up and say, "It's like this, Mr. Ji Luo Xun has violated the rules of the gang, then naturally he has to be disposed of, there is no doubt about that, but, no matter what, Luo Xun's father is also an elder of the Qing Gang, if he holds a grudge against him, then there is no guarantee that he won't secretly do something against the Vida Group"

Before Zhu Mingyuan could finish his words, he heard Ji Feng snort coldly and said, "As long as he dares, then feel free to try."

Zhu Mingyuan instantly smiled bitterly, what Elder Wu was worried about was that this situation was now arising.

After disposing of Luo Xun, his old man would definitely not have a good attitude, and if Ji Feng had such a tough personality again, it would definitely be a big trouble and even a great storm if the two of them were to confront each other.

"Mr. Ji, now that the matter with the Weida Group has all been settled and those gangsters have all gone soft, we should not make any more trouble, don't you think so?" Zhu Mingyuan persuaded.

"Did I make a big deal out of it?" Ji Feng, however, frowned and asked unsavourily.

"..... That's not true." Zhu Mingyuan shook his head with a bitter smile.

"Then what's the use of you telling me this now?" Ji Feng asked.

Zhu Mingyuan smiled bitterly, but didn't know what to say. Obviously, Ji Feng was not going to give him the chance to continue, and directly blocked the topic.

This was not easy to do!

The father of Luo Xun was so used to being strong in the gang that even Elder Wu Changgong would not easily contradict him, but now that the gang wanted to deal with Luo Xun, how could his old man be comfortable?

In fact, if this was the case, it would be fine. After all, there were gang rules there, and even if Luo Xun's old man was uncomfortable, he could not openly favour his son or even harbour him, otherwise he would not be able to convince the public even if he was an elder, let alone gain the approval of the former bigwigs of the Youth Gang.

If that were the case, his position as an elder would not be very secure.

But the key problem is that when the Youth Gang disposed of Luo Xun, Luo Xun's father made a request that in order to dispose of Luo Xun, it was not enough to have recorded evidence, but also to have witnesses.

The implication was that he wanted to see the person who provided this evidence, that is, he wanted to see Ji Feng.

Because Luo Xun's old man was considered to have some roots in the Qing Gang, he made this request and a certain number of people nodded their heads in agreement.

Indeed, if it was said that the people in the gang had discovered that Luo Xun had violated the gang's rules, then they had nothing to say, and they could deal with him as they saw fit.

But now it was Ji Feng who reported that Luo Xun had violated the gang rules, and if the Qing Gang immediately dealt with Luo Xun without saying a word, it would look as if the Qing Gang was afraid of Ji Feng Among those elders and hall masters of the Qing Gang, there were indeed some who held such a thought.

In order to convince the public, the leading bosses then decided to invite Ji Feng to come to the gang to sort of testify in person and to go through the motions. Of course, it could also be said that this was a way for Ji Feng to see with his own eyes how the Qing Gang had dealt with Luo Xun, and it was also a way to give Ji Feng no small amount of face and give him an explanation.

It did seem like a way to have the best of both worlds.

What Wu Changong was most worried about was whether he would clash with Luo Xun's old man when he went through the motions, given this tough attitude of Ji Feng.

Now it seems that Ji Feng will never back down, let alone show any weakness.

This time, I am afraid there is some trouble.

Zhu Mingyuan said secretly, he wanted to persuade a few words, but seeing Ji Feng's firm look, he did not know how to persuade, thinking that this matter should be left to Wu Changong to deal with, he was only greeting Ji Feng in advance, so that he had a psychological preparation, as for what to do in the end, it depends on Ji Feng's decision.

With Zhu Mingyuan accompanying him, Ji Feng was in no hurry to leave, and after about ten minutes, he saw Wu Changong coming over in his electric car.

"Ji Feng, why did you suddenly come over?" Getting out of the car, Wu Changong asked.

"I came over when I had time." Ji Feng said.

Wu Changong didn't ask more questions, he had already seen that although Ji Feng was young, he had a good idea and acted in a rather orderly manner, especially his guts and hands, which no one could match. He must have his reasons for suddenly coming over, so Wu Changong just asked casually.

"Since you are here, don't rush off yet, how to deal with Luo Xun, you still need to be there." Wu Changong said, "I have contacted the dragon head just now, if it is convenient, we will go there now?"

"Where to?" Ji Feng asked.

"The Hall of Punishment."

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows and nodded slightly, going to the Hall of Punishment, that meant that the Qing Gang should be dealing with Luo Xun today, remembering what Zhu Mingyuan had just said, Ji Feng was interested in going to have a look, he wanted to see how brutal Luo Xun's old man was.

He wanted to see how brutal Luo Xun's old man was.

Ji Feng secretly snorted coldly, there are really those who are not afraid of death?

Afterwards, Wu Changgong led them to the Hall of Punishment. According to Wu Changgong, this was actually just the main hall of the Qing Gang, but the Hall of Punishment was not here, and the leading boss was not in this manor either.

When several people arrived at the entrance of the manor, there was already a car waiting there, but Ji Feng was in no hurry to get into the car: "Wait a moment."

Wu Changgong was stunned: "What's wrong?"

Ji Feng smiled, "Waiting for a friend to come over."

Before Wu Changgong and the others could react, they suddenly saw that a man jumped down from the manor's courtyard wall, but it was Li Guoliang.

Wu Changgong's face suddenly changed and he glanced at the Qing Gang's subordinates who were guarding the entrance. The place where Li Guoliang had jumped down was only a dozen metres away from them, but none of those subordinates had noticed.

If Ji Feng was the enemy, then I'm afraid they would have suffered heavy losses today.

Wu Changkong couldn't help but secretly marvel, Ji Feng was able to beat so many gangsters to bow down and submit, definitely not a fluke, he is not only incredibly strong himself, but also very cautious and careful, the strength of his men is also so strong

This makes Wu Changgong once again secretly thankful, fortunately the Qing Gang chose to make peace with Ji Feng to have the current relationship, if at first the Qing Gang did not put Ji Feng in their eyes then the consequences could be really unpredictable.

The first thing you need to do is to get into a car and go straight to the Qing Gang's Hall of Punishment.

The hall of punishment is not too far away from the main hall of the Green Gang's estate, it is only about 20 minutes away by car, it is a small-scale factory, the hall of punishment is located in a two-storey building behind the factory.

When Ji Feng arrived at the place, he saw that there were already quite a few people here in the courtyard, and when they saw Ji Feng enter, all of them looked over.

Ji Feng was also looking around, there were about 20 to 30 people here, on the ground floor of the building, was a spacious hall, at this moment, sitting directly opposite the door was an old man, on either side were two rows of chairs, sitting would be some middle-aged people, and further out, were some tough young men.

At the bottom of the old man's right head, there was a man of about thirty years old, Ji Feng had read about this man, he was Luo Xun.

Beside Luo Xun was a middle-aged man who looked a bit like him.

This should be Luo Xun's father, Ji Feng said secretly.

"Dragon head, the human witness has arrived." Wu Changkong said aloud to the old man.

"Oh?"

The old man's gaze, however, fell directly on Ji Feng: "This, I believe, is the Mr. Ji who has beaten the entire New York mafia to the point of not daring to raise his head, right? You're really a handsome young man!"

Ji Feng smiled and said, "I am ashamed to receive such a compliment from the old gentleman."

Ji Feng was still very polite to the leader of the Qing Gang, for no other reason than the fact that the Qing Gang could hold a group to fight against foreigners in order to gain a foothold overseas. And for the safety of those Chinese, the Green Gang dared to fight hard against the Yamaguchi Group and gangs of other countries.

For these reasons, the Youth Gang has something to be respected.

This old man as the leader of the Green Gang, Ji Feng was naturally polite to him. Luo Xun was Luo Xun and the Green Gang was the Green Gang, these were two different things, and Ji Feng would not have ill feelings towards the entire Green Gang just because of Luo Xun.

At this time, the others were also sizing up Ji Feng, they were all curious about this young man who had beaten the entire New York mafia to the bone with the power of one man. At this moment, when they saw Ji Feng standing there, with an upright figure and an extraordinary bearing, they could not help but all secretly nod their heads.

What a young talent, he really is a character!

Some people secretly praised.

However, there were also people casting gazes filled with disgust and hostility, and Ji Feng looked over directly after he felt it, and as expected, the ones with hostility towards him were Luo Xun and his old man.

Campus Master Chapter 1874

Some people secretly praised.

However, there were also people who cast gazes filled with disgust and hostility, and Ji Feng looked over directly after he felt it, and as expected, the ones who were hostile to him were Luo Xun and his old man.

Ji Feng directly ignored the gazes of these two people and simply ignored them.

In his heart, he secretly snorted coldly, so what if he was an elder of the Green Gang?

No matter who they were, they should be punished if they did something wrong, if someone dared to make a move against the Weida Group, he would definitely not let the other party go.

Only, what to do with it, Ji Feng gave this right to the Qing Gang, let them follow the gang rules.

“Hehe”

Boss Dragon Head laughed gently twice and said, “Mr. Ji, today, on the one hand, I want to ask you to testify, after all, it is about one of the hall masters of my Green Gang, so I cannot dispose of it rashly, and as for what matters, I believe you are also clear. On the other hand, I would like to ask you to be a witness, so that I can give you an explanation.”

Ji Feng nodded slightly, he understood what the leader meant: “I know.”

“Good then! Mr Ji, please sit down!” The dragon head extended his hand in an inviting gesture, and then someone brought chairs for Ji Feng and the others to sit down.

“Since Mr. Ji has arrived, let’s get down to business!” Once Ji Feng and the others sat down, the dragon head looked around at the people seated and said in a deep voice: “As you all know, today’s meeting at the Hall of Punishment is held because someone from our Youth Gang has violated the gang rules by laying hands on ordinary Chinese, please ask the person in charge of the Hall of Punishment to explain what is going on”

A burly man in his thirties stood up next to him and he said aloud, “A few days ago, our Youth Gang received a report that Hall Master Luo Xun had sent someone to make things difficult for the Weida Group, and even posed a direct threat to Ms Ji Nan Yue, the boss of the Weida Group, and her family.”

He quickly described the matter, especially at the end when he also played the recording provided by Ji Feng.

Luo Xun and his old man, their faces then turned a few shades darker, especially Luo Xun, his forehead was green and his eyes were hostile, he wanted to stand up several times to interrupt the head of the Hall of Punishment, but after being glared at by the dragon head, he finally did not dare to move.

When the people of the Hall of Punishment finished, the leader said, “Gentlemen, I think we are all clear about what happened, from the time we came overseas, our gang was bullied by outsiders. ”

“But!”

The dragon head boss suddenly raised his voice: “Luo Xun as a hall master, but did such a thing, it makes people heartbroken, but even more furious!”

Everyone couldn’t help but nod, indeed, the reason why the Green Gang had developed so far was because they were united, and united with all the Chinese around them as well.

In the past, when the youth gangs were weak, they couldn’t fight other gangs, and sometimes when the sons of the youth gangs were being chased, they would hide in the homes of some Chinese traders, who were so welcoming that they not only hid their tracks, but also took care of their food and accommodation

They were also taking risks!

It is because of this solidarity that the Chinese are gradually gaining a foothold overseas, and after the youth gangs have gradually grown, they then turn around and protect those ordinary Chinese

Of course, there are definitely conflicts between people, and the same is true of the Chinese, but they are only internal conflicts, and they are always resolved through negotiation. At least, the Youth Gang would never use underhanded tactics against those ordinary Chinese, because those ordinary Chinese have saved the lives of the sons of the Youth Gang, and more than once.

But now, what Luo Xun did was excessive.

He had allowed those small gangs to go against the Wida Group and even directly threatened Ji Nan Yue's personal safety, what was this if not nesting?

To put it more seriously, this could even be said to be destroying the Qing Gang!

"According to the rules, what should be done about this kind of behaviour?" The Dragon Head Boss asked the people from the Hall of Punishment.

"Using such tactics against other ordinary Chinese will be regarded as seriously damaging the honour of the Green Gang and infighting, and according to the gang rules, will be punished by breaking the arms and legs!" The man from the Hall of Punishment said, "However, Luo Xun, as the Hall Master, deserves an increased punishment"

"Hold on!"

Before the man from the Hall of Punishment could finish his sentence, he was interrupted by a violent shout.

Only to see Luo Xun fiercely stand up and grit his teeth, "Is Ji Nan Yue an ordinary Chinese? Her energy is not small, right? Besides, with this recording alone, what makes you say that I did it, couldn't those small gangs be deliberately framing me?"

The dragon head's face sank, "Luo Xun, the facts are all there, do you still want to deny it?"

Luo Xun snorted coldly, "I'm not trying to deny it, I just doubt the authenticity of this evidence!"

Wu Changgong spoke up, "The evidence is real, we've already had someone do a technical appraisal, if you want to see the appraisal, we can give it to you too!"

"Even if the recording is real, it's only one side of the story, so what makes you think I directed it?" Luo Xun said angrily.

"Cough cough"

Suddenly, Luo Xun's father coughed twice, and the crowd's attention immediately shifted over.

When Ji Feng saw this, he couldn't help but tug at the corners of his mouth, it seemed that this Luo Xun's old man still had some power in the Qing Gang!

"Everyone, although my dog's son's attitude is bad, his words are not without merit, isn't it a bit too arbitrary to convict just based on such a recording?" Luo Xun's father spoke up.

All the people smiled and said nothing.

In fact, everyone knew that those recordings came from different gang leaders, and if one or two people said that Luo Xun had ordered them, then there might be something suspicious, but so many people said that Luo Xun had ordered them, and some even said that they had contacted so-and-so under Luo Xun, and the time and place were all there, and all of them could be verified, so there was not much to doubt.

But when Luo Xun's father says this, it's not like people can directly refute it, after all, he's an elder

"What if you add my fingerprints to it?" Ji Feng said indifferently.

The crowd was immediately startled, and they saw Ji Feng smiling indifferently, "If the recording alone is not enough, there is also my fingerprints!"

In a flash, Luo Xun fiercely turned around, pointed at Ji Feng and cursed, "What the hell are you, this is the Qing Gang, it's not your turn to spill your guts here!"

Stupid!

Wu Changgong cursed in his heart, what he was most worried about had finally happened, Luo Xun had even pointed the finger directly at Ji Feng and even spoke out against him, with Ji Feng's character, could he hold back?

He shouldn't even have let Ji Feng come today!

Or maybe, Elder Luo had no good intentions per se when he specified that he wanted Ji Feng to come!

The smile on Ji Feng's face gradually disappeared, he sat down on the chair, looked straight at Luo Xun and said indifferently: "If I were you, I would have thought before I said the reason you still have the chance to slyly argue here today is because you are a member of the Qing Gang, and I give Elder Wu and your leading boss this face, otherwise, how long do you think you would have survived?"

At once, there was an uproar!

Ji Feng's tone was too strong, and also seemed too arrogant.

Daring to speak to a Hall Master in such a tone on the territory of the Qing Gang, this was not putting the Qing Gang in his eyes?

However, looking at the leading boss and Wu Changgong, they both did not say anything, and all the others could not say anything, yet at this time they heard Ji Feng's voice ring out again.

"You shouldn't think that your head is harder than those gangsters' heads? Or do you have one more life than them?" Ji Feng asked in a flat tone.

When everyone in the room heard this, they couldn't help but stutter in their hearts at the same time.

It suddenly occurred to them that this young man was not as bland as he appeared to be, the gangster bosses who had died at his hands were dozens of them!

"You"

Luo Xun suddenly choked, but he could not find any words to retort. Even though the Qing Gang was very strong, but he was only a hall master, could he be more powerful than those bosses who held the entire gang under their hands?

If Ji Feng didn't even talk to him about any evidence and just killed him, how else could he defend himself?

Couldn't defend at all!

"Ahem"

At this time, Luo Xun's father coughed again, then slowly stood up and walked towards Ji Feng.

At once, everyone tensed up.

Wu Changgong even shouted out, "Old Luo, don't do something confusing!"

But Elder Luo seemed not to have heard him as he came to Ji Feng and said indifferently, "This is the famous Ji Feng, right?"

Ji Feng frowned slightly and ignored him.

Elder Luo extended his hand, "Luo Xun has made a mistake, what to do with him, the gang will definitely not be partial, and I, as a father, will not protect him either, but I still ask Mr. Ji's forgiveness for the premise."

Ji Feng said indifferently, "Forgiveness is not necessary, as long as the Qing Gang disposes of it."

He didn't move Luo Xun because he was giving face to Wu Changkong and the Qing Gang, but not to give face to this Elder Luo. As for shaking hands Ji Feng had even less interest.

However, Elder Luo said, "I have heard for a long time that Mr. Ji is a young and handsome man with excellent skills, but I wonder if I can ask for some advice?"

"Old Luo, don't be silly, come back!" Wu Changgong was instantly anxious and was about to step forward to pull Elder Luo away, but he was blocked by the latter's outstretched hand.

"Ho!"

Ji Feng grinned, from the moment Elder Luo blocked Wu Changgong just now, he could tell that this Elder Luo, too, was a practitioner, and looked like he was quite strong, otherwise he wouldn't have been able to block Wu Changgong with one hand.

"Since that's the case, then I'll give you a chance to ask for advice!" Ji Feng said indifferently.

"Humph! Arrogant to the extreme!" Luo Xun snorted coldly from the side, but in his heart, he couldn't help but secretly sigh with relief, Ji Feng had agreed to do it, so just wait for bad luck.

Although this Ji Feng's strength was said to be very strong, however, his own old man had been immersed in boxing for his entire life, and his strength naturally went without saying. Especially in close combat, he was even stronger than ever.

How strong could this Ji Feng be at such a young age?

Campus Master Chapter 1875

“Good!”

Elder Luo laughed coldly, he was also enraged by Ji Feng’s arrogance.

When Elder Luo said that he would ask for Ji Feng’s advice, it was just a pretext, Chinese people are modest, this is understood by everyone, but Ji Feng was using the slope to give Elder Luo a chance to ask for advice straight away!

“In that case, then let’s get started!” Elder Luo wasn’t polite anymore and said coldly.

“Heh!”

Ji Feng gave a salty laugh, then stretched out his hand and directly put it on Elder Luo’s hand, their hands clasped together, and at the same time, they exerted force.

At the same time, a huge force came violently from Elder Luo’s hand, pushing it towards Ji Feng.

However, Ji Feng’s expression remained unchanged, and with a flick of his wrist, he heard Elder Luo let out a muffled cry, and his whole body actually fell straight backwards, yet the huge inertia made him not fall at all, but directly slid backwards on his back for seven or eight meters, before he fell to the ground.

“Huh?”

“Ah!”

.....

All of a sudden, a series of shrieks rang out in the hall.

No one had thought that it would actually be such a result!

As soon as the two had struck, Elder Luo’s entire body almost flew backwards!

Most of the people present knew clearly how strong Elder Luo was, and there were not many people in the gang who could surpass Elder Luo. However, now, Elder Luo couldn’t even walk past one face in front of Ji Feng, so how strong should Ji Feng be?

However, what the attentive people saw caused them to suck in a breath of cold air.

Their eyes fell on the place where Elder Luo was standing before.

There, one of the floor tiles where Elder Luo had originally landed had turned into broken pieces!

What kind of concept was this?

Those who were in the gang were naturally slightly skilled in martial arts. Especially Wu Changgong, who was also a martial arts expert, they naturally saw at a glance that the reason why the floor tile had become broken was not because Elder Luo’s body was too heavy.

Rather, it was because, after Elder Luo and Ji Feng had struck hands, Ji Feng suddenly launched a force to push Elder Luo backwards, and the latter naturally tried to resist by bracing his feet on the ground, so that the huge force coming from Ji Feng’s hands was transmitted to the ground through Elder Luo’s feet.

So, in order to counter the tremendous force coming from Ji Feng's hands, Elder Luo crushed the floor tiles!

To be able to make a man trample that hard floor tile, it could be seen how great that force coming from Ji Feng's hand really was, and from that, it could also be seen to what extent Ji Feng's strength was really strong!

At this moment, the way everyone looked at Ji Feng again became different.

Originally, although they were also shocked at Ji Feng's battle record, that he had bruised so many gangsters in New York, and even had to bow down to Ji Feng in the end.

But no matter how shocked they were, that was only what they had heard.

In the hearts of these bigwigs of the Qing Gang, they always still had some doubts, after all, Ji Feng was not alone, and before, everyone speculated that there were still experts around Ji Feng, so those battle records could also be made by Ji Feng and his helpers together.

Now, however, there was no longer any doubt about Ji Feng's strength.

With his actual actions, Ji Feng had given all those who doubted him a blow to the head, his strength, that was how strong he was!

"Father!"

Luo Xun exclaimed in shock and ran towards Elder Luo in a panic, several other Qing Clan disciples also ran over, and several people helped Elder Luo up.

At this moment, Elder Luo no longer had the same composure and aura as before, his face was flushed and his legs were trembling, the trembling was so great that everyone present could see it.

"Father, are you all right?" Luo Xun asked eagerly.

"No, it's fine!" Elder Luo waved his hand and took a few deep breaths before he looked at Ji Feng and said, "Mr. Ji, strong strength, I, Luo, am ashamed of myself!"

Ji Feng didn't answer him and just casually sat down on a chair.

Although this Elder Luo was good in strength, for Ji Feng, there was still a big gap, back at the docks in Southern Guangdong, the ancient martial artist beside the young duke, that was the real expert, as for Elder Luo was still far from it.

When Elder Luo saw this, he knew that Ji Feng didn't want to talk to him, but he said, "Mr. Ji, I believe that with your strength, you wouldn't be able to wrongly accuse Luo Xun, much less speak against your conscience, so I believe what you're saying."

"Luo Xun!"

Elder Luo snapped and looked at his son, "Have you done it or not, give an honest account yourself!"

Luo Xun was stunned, and immediately said, "Father, of course I haven't done it"

However, before his words could fall, he was interrupted by Ji Feng.

“Do you know Hunter?” Ji Feng asked indifferently.

“Swish!”

Luo Xun snapped back and looked at Ji Feng in shock, his face couldn't help but change, but he still argued sophomorically, “I don't know what you're talking about.”

However, how many of the people present were fools?

Just by looking at this kind of performance of Luo Xun, everyone knew that what Ji Feng said had poked Luo Xun's soft spot, and it looked like Luo Xun might have really violated the gang rules.

“Luo Xun, do you want to hear how Hunter explained it?” Ji Feng asked indifferently, “You took a lot of money from Hunter, didn't you?”

“You, what are you talking about?” Luo Xun shouted, but the panic in his eyes could not be concealed.

“Slap!”

Elder Luo slapped his son across the face, “You really did it?”

Luo Xun was acting so flustered that anyone who wasn't blind could tell that what Ji Feng said must be true, that Luo Xun must have had a hand in the matter against the Weida Group!

“Dragon head, since Luo Xun has done it, there is nothing more I can say, please ask the brothers from the Hall of Punishment to deal with it according to the gang rules!” Elder Luo clasped his fist and said.

“Father, you, you have to save me, I only took a little money and isn't that Ji Nan Yue not hurt?” Luo Xun exclaimed in shock, but as soon as the words left his mouth he realized that something was wrong, but it was too late to change his mind.

Wow~!

Everyone could not help but frown at this admission by Luo Xun in his haste.

“Someone, according to the gang rules, break his arms and legs and expel him from the Green Gang!” Elder Luo's face turned blue with anger, and without waiting for the people from the Hall of Punishment to make a move, he kicked out two fierce kicks, “Ka-ching~!”

Luo Xun's two lower legs were swept off by Elder Luo's feet!

“Ah...!” Luo Xun screamed miserably, but the next moment, Elder Luo grabbed both of his hands again and twisted them violently, Luo Xun immediately screamed even more miserably as both of his arms were also twisted off!

“Mr. Ji, is this satisfactory to you?” After Elder Luo did this, he ignored his son's miserable screams as he fell limp on the ground, but looked at Ji Feng and asked in a deep voice.

“Heh!” Ji Feng gave Elder Luo a deep look and said indifferently, “It doesn't matter if I'm satisfied or not, as long as you guys keep the rules. Besides, I don't want to see anyone harassing the Weida Group again in the future!”

After saying that, Ji Feng directly stood up, turned around and walked out, while White Spider and Li Guoliang also left after him.

“Ji Feng!”

Wu Changgong hurriedly chased after him and when he came outside, he asked, “Kid, you saw it with your own eyes, didn’t you? Old Luo disposed of his son with his own hands, you shouldn’t have any more comments, right?”

Ji Feng gave him a faint look, “Elder Wu, bullying me for not knowing martial arts, huh?”

Wu Changgong suddenly blushed and smiled sarcastically, “I know I can’t hide it from you that was after all Lao Luo’s move, so we all can’t say anything.”

He knew what Ji Feng meant by that, Luo Xun’s limbs were indeed broken, however, when Elder Luo moved his hand, he did so with a deft touch, breaking Luo Xun’s limbs dry and sharp, but the damage was not much, it was just like ordinary fractures.

If he, Wu Changgong, had been the one to do the fighting, he could have made Luo Xun’s painful and difficult to recover from.

In other words, Elder Luo had shown mercy, and a lot of it.

He could even see it out, then with Ji Feng’s eyesight, he would naturally know what was going on with a sweeping glance. However, seeing that Ji Feng had no intention of pursuing the matter, he was relieved.

“Ji Feng, don’t worry, in the future, the sons of the Qing Gang will never target the Weida Group again, this, I promise you with my personality!” Wu Changgong changed the topic and said solemnly.

“That’s good!” Ji Feng nodded and after walking a few steps, he suddenly remembered something else and said, “Elder Wu, a word of warning for you, that Hunter I mentioned is one of the heads of Dynasty, Luo Xun is in contact with him if you don’t want the Qing Gang to be infiltrated, you better keep an eye out!”

“Dynasty?” Wu Changkong’s face instantly changed dramatically, “Ji Feng, are you telling the truth?”

“Do I have to lie to you?” Ji Feng asked rhetorically.

Wu Changgong was instantly stunned.

Ji Feng asked, “You’ve also heard of Dynasty?”

“Of course I’ve heard of it, this gang is very mysterious and low-profile, but it’s said to be very strong, several gangs have been destroyed by them in the past!” Wu Changgong said.

A gang?

Ji Feng was stunned, and then he understood, it seemed that their knowledge of the dynasty was still at the skinny stage, or they didn’t understand it at all.

But now was not the time to talk about this, it was better to let Li Guoliang tell them later through Zhu Mingyuan.

Afterwards, Ji Feng left the Qing Gang.

.....

The night passed like that, and when the next day had breakfast, Ji Feng got a few good news from his sister-in-law – those gangs had made some moves.

In just one morning, Ji Nan Yue received dozens of phone calls, some from former partners of the Weida Group, who had unilaterally terminated their contracts, but now they were calling on their own initiative, wanting to seek cooperation with the Weida Group.

Moreover, the conditions they offered were very low, completely beyond Ji Nan Yue's expectation.

Not only them, but also a dozen other large group companies have also taken the initiative to contact Ji Nan Yue, wanting to cooperate, and some even directly want to transfer part of their equity to Ji Nan Yue, and without any additional conditions, just wanting to give away their shares!

This kind of change, even for Ji Nan Yue, who had experienced great storms, could not help but be shocked, and even felt like she was in a dream.

She knew that just a few days ago, the Weida Group was still in a precarious situation, but now, it had taken a 180 degree turn.

But Ji Nan Yue knew that all of this was brought about by Ji Feng!

Campus Master Chapter 1877

“Zap!”

Hong Yiming’s fat body was instantly jerked away and fell heavily to the ground. However, before he could react, another kick directly hit Hong Yiming’s chest, instantly causing his eyes to roll white and his body to twitch, barely able to catch his breath, not to mention screaming miserably.

“You guys

It was only until this time that Hong Lei reacted, he shrieked and just wanted to speak, but he was smashed on the neck with a fierce punch by another person, he immediately screamed in misery and instantly fell heavily to the ground, twitching and moaning in pain.

Swish!

Ji Feng jerked Hong Yiming’s belt off his body, and then, he fiercely smashed the belt on Hong Yiming’s face, “Eating out of the inside!”

“Slap!”

“Wolf heart and dog lung!”

“Snap!”

“Slap slap slap

Ji Feng held the belt in one hand and used almost all his strength to viciously whip Hong Yiming’s fat body, hitting the latter with a miserable scream.

How strong was Ji Feng’s strength?

He struck with all his strength, and the belt struck his body, causing Hong Yiming pain.

After just a few strokes, several bloodstains appeared on Hong Yiming’s body, the skin and flesh were all smashed, and the rotten flesh of the wounds turned outwards, looking like a child’s mouth, extremely horrible.

Ji Feng continued to beat him for dozens of times before he threw the belt to the ground, but at that moment, Hong Yiming’s face had already been beaten to death and it was unbearable.

However, Hong Yiming had not yet passed out. If he could, he would have preferred to pass out directly, but every time he almost fainted from the pain, a belt would come down immediately afterwards, beating him to the point of pain, so how could he still pass out?

“It’s no problem if you want to be the boss, but if you dare to deliberately make a setup to plot against President Ji, you deserve to die!” Ji Feng said coldly, “But don’t worry, I won’t kill you, what you did, death is not enough, but death is still too cheap for you hum!”

Hong Yiming was as limp as mud on the ground, just his eyes rolled straight up and his body twitched instinctively, unable to respond at all. At this moment, his entire body was dumbfounded, and he didn’t even know what Ji Feng was saying.

Hong Yiming had long been beaten up!

And at this time, Ji Feng turned his gaze back to Hong Lei, seeing the latter's terrified to the core eyes, Ji Feng coldly snorted, but did not hit him again, but walked out together with Li Guoliang.

In the living room, the clothes on Hong Yiming's body were all smashed, and that flesh was even more miserably beaten, truly like a fat pig lying on the ground!

And at this moment, Hong Lei was almost scared silly!

At this time, the sound of police sirens came vaguely from outside, but at this time, Ji Feng and the two of them had already driven away. And from the beginning to the end, they were well disguised, and they didn't even take off their gloves.

.....

The news then came to the employees of the Weida Group that the vice president of the Weida Group, Hong Yiming, and his son, Hong Lei, had been taken away by the police for hiring killers to murder the old president of the Weida Group, Ji Nan Yue.

It was said that the assassin hired by Hong Yiming and his son was a young gangster from the Youth Gang, but the man was sent directly to the police station by the Youth Gang.

Since Ji Nan Yue was not killed, Hong Yiming and his son were only sentenced to imprisonment for attempted murder.

Only that they would no longer have the opportunity to manage it themselves!

Because in the prison, there are simply too many gang members, and now the vast majority of New York gangsters are currying favour with President Ji of the Weida Group, and Ji Feng, at this juncture, those rogue thugs in the prison heard that someone had been sent in because they had offended Ji Nan Yue and Ji Feng, the fate of Hong Yiming and Hong Lei, father and son, can be imagined

That's why Ji Feng didn't kill their father and son, just because of the things Hong Yiming had done, he didn't deserve to die!

"Elder Wu, thanks a lot."

Ji Feng said into the phone, "If you can, take more care of that convicted brother of the Qing Gang!"

Wu Changgong said, "Ji Feng, you're slapping me in the face by saying that! You're already giving face by not sending Luo Xun to jail, we should say thank you!"

In fact, the person Hong Yiming was really looking for was Luo Xun, only because Wu Changkong had begged for mercy, so Ji Feng didn't pursue the matter any further, and just let the Qing Gang look after the matter, and as a result, a topper came out, and it was said that that person was also one of Luo Xun's powerful men, so it was considered a crime that deserved to be committed.

"Elder Wu, I'm about to leave Rice, if you can, please take more care of the Weida Group, I thank you in advance here!" Ji Feng said.

"Of course no problem!" Wu Changgong said readily, "When are you leaving, I'll see you off?"

"That won't be necessary, thanks a lot!" Ji Feng politely declined.

At this time, Ji Shaolei came down from upstairs with a happy face. Seeing this, Ji Feng couldn't help but feel moved in his heart, so he politely talked to Wu Changkong a few more times, arranged what he wanted Wu Changkong to do after he left, and hung up the phone.

After closing the line, Ji Feng looked at Ji Shaolei, who was full of joy, and couldn't help but ask, "Second brother, so happy?"

"Little Aunt has promised!" Ji Shaolei said.

"Promised?!" Even though Ji Feng had already guessed it when he saw Ji Shaolei's face with a smile, he was still delighted to hear Ji Shaolei say it now.

"That's right, it's promised."

Ji Shaolei nodded and smiled, "Only, I can't go back right now, there are still quite a few things to deal with here, little aunt has to finish up this side of things."

"Just be able to go back, there's no rush for this day!" Ji Feng took out a cigarette and handed one to Ji Shaolei, the two of them lit up, "Until now, we've only completed our mission, ah, it's worth celebrating!"

Ji Shaolei also couldn't help but sigh, "It's not easy!"

It was indeed not easy!

Although Ji Shaolei knew that Xiao Gu was in trouble here before they came to Rice, they never expected that the trouble she encountered would be so difficult, with so many gangs targeting the Wei Da Group, and Hong Yiming, a shit-stirrer, inside the group.

In addition, there are so many rules and regulations in the country, and these foreigners are discriminating against Chinese, if we follow the normal thinking and procedures, it is impossible to solve these problems!

Fortunately, Ji Feng was very strong, and his methods were harsh and ruthless.

First, he destroyed the Yamaguchi Group, killed the gangsters who were plotting against the Weida Group, fought a bloody battle on Long Street, and finally even killed all the gang leaders who were hostile to the Weida Group in one go!

Ji Feng used his ruthless and domineering hand to beat the entire New York mafia to bow down and beg for mercy!

In turn, Hong Yiming, the shit-stirrer within the Weida Group, was taken away by the police and was afraid that he would never get out of prison in his life, including his son Hong Lei, who also ended up in the same way.

In this way, the troubles of the Weida Group were cleared up!

"Third son, you've worked hard!" Ji Shaolei said very seriously, "You've done a great job in coming to Rice this time! I'm ashamed that I didn't do anything as a brother!"

“Let’s not talk about this as brothers!” Ji Feng waved his hand with a smile and suddenly remembered something and asked, “Right, second brother, it seems that the wedding date between you and Xiang Yurou is coming up, right?”

“It will be done after the Spring Festival!” Ji Shaolei said, “What the old man means is to stagger the Spring Festival, there will be less commotion and less impact.”

“Well, then I can wait to drink the wedding wine!” Ji Feng laughed. He also knew that the Ji family was getting stronger and stronger now, and the so-called tree was attracting the wind, so the elders of the family were still thinking of keeping a low profile as much as possible.

In fact, this marriage, is also all for others to see, without those ceremonies, is it not happy in the future?

Ji Shaolei laughed, “San’er, when you graduate next year, it’s time for you to get married, right?”

“Hmm?” Ji Feng was slightly stunned.

“You kid, don’t delay other girls for too long,” Ji Shaolei said with a smile.

Ji Feng, however, immediately fell silent.

Did he delay too long?

If that was the case, then there were many people that he had delayed.

Xiao Yuxuan, Xu Yuan, Qin Shujie, White Spider he could not give them any name, much less hold any ceremony Ji Feng could not help but shake his head, if he could, he would love to hold a marriage ceremony with them in a proper manner.

Is there any way?

Ji Feng fell into contemplation.

.....

In the blink of an eye, two days passed, when Ji Nan Yue and Chu Wang Dong duo used the fastest speed to take care of all the business of Wei Da Group, the group of people also got on the car to the airport.

At the same time, all the major gangs in New York had received the news – Ji Feng was returning to China!

When they received this news, those important figures in the gangs or those who were newly seated on the boss’s throne could not help but let out a long sigh of relief and sighed long and hard: “Thank God, that bogeyman is finally gone!”

At this moment, even these rogues and villains, who were usually so evil, could not help but believe in God. This was because they found that the viciousness and domineering they prided themselves on was nothing but child’s play in front of Ji Feng.

The Chinese monkey they used to despise was truly vicious, beating and killing them was like killing a chicken, and he had cleaned up almost the entire New York mafia!

Now this fierce man was finally leaving!

At this time, Ji Feng, after putting his second brother and his sister-in-law on the plane, took Li Guoliang and the white spider and drove away from the airport.

Ji Feng couldn't leave by plane because in he had to take the laser gun back to China, but it was simply impossible to take this kind of weapon on the plane, so Ji Feng could only leave through other channels.

When night fell, Ji Feng and the three of them set off.

"Guoliang, all the formalities are done, right?" Ji Feng asked.

"It's all done!" Li Guoliang nodded, "You and Miss Bai's boarding records, as well as all kinds of formalities, have all been done, and our route of departure has also been arranged."

"Mm!"

Ji Feng nodded and looked at the time again, it was already eight o'clock in the evening, he secretly said, "I hope Ji YuYi will bring good news before I leave, otherwise"

Campus Master Chapter 1878

"Guoliang, during this time in Rice, thanks to your help, otherwise, I'm afraid I wouldn't be able to stand here now!" Ji Feng patted Li Guoliang's shoulder and said sincerely, "Brother, thanks a lot!"

Ji Feng understood in his heart that Li Guoliang had made a great effort during these days in Rice.

Without Li Guoliang's presence, Ji Feng would have lost an arm, or at least he would not have been able to get a large number of weapons so easily, and he would not have been able to get accurate information, let alone have a good helper who was familiar with New York and had no second thoughts.

It can be said that although Ji Feng was the one who helped his sister Ji Nan Yue to solve her problems, Li Guoliang has at least half of the credit for bringing things to this point!

For this guy who lurked in Rice and willingly worked as a bodyguard, Ji Feng felt a sense of respect from his heart.

At the same time, he was also very grateful to Li Guoliang.

However, Li Guoliang said in a panic, "Don't! Mr. Ji, you are really making me feel ashamed to say that. I didn't do anything during this period, I was just responsible for running errands and driving"

"Alright, alright!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but waved his hand and laughed: "You also see yourself as too useless No more talking about this, Guoliang, are you really not coming back with us?"

Li Guoliang shook his head and laughed, "I still have orders to follow. Before I receive the order to retreat, I can't be a deserter!"

Ji Feng nodded, but in his heart he secretly said it was a pity.

Although Li Guoliang was not the best in terms of physical skills, his current physical skills were almost the same as when Yi Xingchen had just met him, but now Yi Xingchen was persistent in practicing gymnastics, and now his strength had already improved by leaps and bounds, so Li Guoliang was far from being his opponent.

But if we put that aside, Li Guoliang is definitely a very good talent.

Li Guoliang has been a mercenary, he has been in the battlefield, he has experienced many times when bullets were flying and bullets were raining, his combat experience and combat awareness are absolutely first class.

In addition, Li Guoliang has also received special training, intelligence, spying, assassination these high technical content of things he does not know, and also quite proficient.

The most important thing for Ji Feng is that he has been working with Li Guoliang more and more since he came to Rice. Many times, often, Ji Feng just gave a look or a slight hint, and Li Guoliang knew what to do.

Although the tacit understanding between Ji Feng and the white spider was a little less than that between Ji Feng and the white spider, it was still very rare.

A talent like this, who was so comfortable to use, Ji Feng really wanted to poach Li Guoliang to his side.

But unfortunately, Li Guoliang is still a soldier now, if there is no order, he will not go with himself, but on the other hand, Li Guoliang this attitude of sticking to his principles, Ji Feng is more appreciated

“There is no way, it seems that we can only wait until after we return to China, and then we can think of a way to find a way from Uncle Xiao.” Ji Feng secretly pondered, “Perhaps, one can find a way to do the work of the young uncle, let him put Li Guoliang to his side, maybe it can really work!”

“What kind of place is this?” Ji Feng looked around and found that it was very spacious and looked like a large square, but, unlike other squares, as far as the eye could see, it was a place where many large ships were parked, and on that square, a large number of containers were bastioned.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but ask: “Guoliang, is this the pier?”

Li Guoliang nodded and said, “Yes, I have arranged the route, you and Miss Bai will board the ship from here and hide in a container first, after the ship enters the sea and is far from the range of the sea patrol, someone will release you from the container and you will be free then.”

Ji Feng frowned slightly at once: “And go into a container?”

If you are locked into a container, then Ji Feng can lose the ability to move freely, at most, you can only move in the small space of the container, at that time if something really happens, even if you want to escape there is no chance.

..... Even if you don’t mention escape, but if something really happens, Ji Feng won’t even have the ability to fight back.

The actual fact is that there are countless ways to deal with the people outside if they want to deal with him.

Not to mention the others, just by someone locking the container behind him from outside and throwing it into the sea with a crane, Ji Feng would either be drowned by the sea water or suffocate to death!

This was still the simplest method, as for other means, there were just too many of them.

Seeing Ji Feng frowning, Li Guoliang then explained: "This should be the safest way at the moment. This ship arranged today has our people on it, so this line is safe."

Ji Feng faintly shook his head and said, "That may not be the case either. Guoliang, there is no line that is absolutely safe, there might be a small crack somewhere and the enemy might catch it, so be vigilant."

Li Guoliang said, "Even if someone finds out, it's fine, this one is a cargo ship, but there are quite a few people on it, and they are all from different countries, this ship is also registered in Canada, the most the rice country can do is just a routine inspection, the rest they can't do anything."

"Of course, if the Rice did find out about the line, the only thing they could do would be to secretly send someone on board, either to make an arrest of you or"

"Or just do away with me!" Ji Feng took up the conversation.

"There's just that possibility, but, it's too unlikely!" Li Guoliang said, "This cargo ship is mixed with fish and dragons, and this ship is specially used to carry out ramming in stowaways, so the people wearing it are armed, and they will not allow public officials from other countries to come on board! Once found, either expel from the ship, or, killed on the spot or thrown into the sea"

Ji Feng listened to Li Guoliang's explanation and nodded slightly.

After pondering for a moment, Ji Feng asked again, "Guoliang, is there any other way out?"

Li Guoliang hesitated for a moment and nodded, but then shook his head immediately afterwards, "Mr. Ji, to be honest, I do know one more route, but you can't take that route!"

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the route that is used by domestic intelligence officers to retreat, that's why Li Guoliang couldn't say that it was a matter of principle, even if it was one of your own, Li Guoliang couldn't just tell others about this route.

This is quite understandable, probably this route is the route those intelligence officers in China use to escape in case of emergency, once apart from the problem, it may threaten many intelligence officers in Rice!

So even to himself, Li Guoliang would definitely not say.

Naturally, Ji Feng would not blame him for this. Moreover, even if Li Guoliang wanted to activate this route, Ji Feng would still think about it.

He didn't want to put a lot of intelligence officers who dealt with death in danger because of his own momentary move, thus.

“Other than the route you mentioned, is there no other route to take?” Ji Feng asked, frowning.

“For the time being, there is no more, if we want to go, we have to wait until at least three days later!” Li Guoliang said.

“Three days

Ji Feng slightly shook his head, “No, I can’t wait three days, I must go back as soon as possible!”

Right now Zhang Lei was still looking for Zhao Kai, but the latter still hadn’t heard a word, and in the past two days since the people from the special department had gone to rendezvous with Zhang Lei, Ji Feng hadn’t received any news, he was very anxious in his heart and had to rush back at the fastest speed.

“Alright, I’ll take this boat!” After deliberating for a while, Ji Feng finally nodded his head and agreed. Entering the container was fine, as long as one was more careful and prepared, one should not encounter any danger.

“You’ve agreed?” Li Guoliang immediately said, “Good then, I will immediately arrange for you to get on board

“Don’t rush first!” Ji Feng, however, waved his hand, turned his head to look at the direction he was coming from, and raised his hand to look at the time, “Wait a little longer, I have to wait for someone else, or for a phone call!”

Li Guoliang was slightly stunned and didn’t quite understand who Ji Feng was waiting for, but if Ji Feng didn’t say, he naturally wouldn’t ask more questions, he just nodded and said, “Then I’ll make some temporary arrangements and find a resting place first, we can’t keep standing here, it’s too conspicuous.”

Ji Feng said, “It’s better to go up to the car and sit there, don’t tell anyone we’re here now.”

Because after getting on the ship, he had to get into the container, and for Ji Feng, that would be a most dangerous time, so Ji Feng had to try to avoid the danger and be cautious.

Li Guoliang understood what he meant, so he smiled and nodded his head.

In fact, if it was in normal times, Li Guoliang would still be quite cautious, and even if Ji Feng did not say anything, Li Guoliang would still arrange things extremely properly.

But now is more or less different, because Ji Feng’s body is too strong, leaving Li Guoliang with the impression of being almost invincible, so he can’t help but be a little lax in his subconscious.

This is like when you go to give a strong man a send-off, naturally you won’t worry about those little babies who can just walk on the way to plot against this strong man.

In Li Guoliang’s eyes, the contrast between Ji Feng and those people with bad intentions is such a big gap between a strong man and a baby, so how could he worry about Ji Feng?

So, naturally, Li Guoliang was a bit relieved.

"It's time to call too, right?" The phone was turning back and forth between a few of Ji Feng's fingers, and after a moment of contemplation, the phone that was spinning in his hand jerked to a halt, and he was ready to make a call.

"Ding!"

Suddenly, Ji Feng's mobile phone vibrated, but it was Ji YuYi calling

Campus Master Chapter 1879

Time passed, and by now, night had fully fallen, and the huge searchlight on the pier had long since begun to illuminate the

"Mr. Ji, it's time to board the ship." Li Guoliang reminded in a low voice, "It's almost time!"

"Just wait a little longer!" Ji Feng said.

"Mr Ji, it's not too safe on this pier." Li Guoliang whispered, "Now that the cargo ship has almost finished loading its cargo, there will be dock staff and sea patrol coming to inspect it later, it will be troublesome if they find out then"

Ji Feng frowned slightly and asked in a deep voice, "About how much longer?"

Li Guoliang looked at his watch and said, "Almost less than half an hour, but if we wait until that time, it will be too late even if we want to get on the boat, it will be easy to be discovered, and then even if we pay more money, I'm afraid we won't be able to get on the boat."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, Li Guoliang just slightly said Ji Feng also understood.

In fact, this route out of Rice, the Rice side may not be unaware of it, strictly speaking, it should be the Rice public officials working at the pier, or their superiors who know these things.

But as long as they are paid, and if they don't go too far, they will turn a blind eye. To be frank, these people are also reaping benefits, they are trying to make some grey income in this way.

But if they get on board when they come to patrol and check, that would be a bit too much. These MiG are extremely cunning, if the smugglers get on board before they come, then they will pretend not to know, and even if the matter is exposed, they will at most be accused of not doing a good job, and even if they are dealt with then, it will not be too serious.

But if the smuggling is done in front of them, then if it is exposed, the consequences will be serious, and they may be convicted of complicity with the smugglers.

These things are basically understood by anyone who has worked at the bottom of society.

Ji Feng was also quite clear about it, but he could not leave yet.

Of course, what Ji Feng needed was not for her to come and see him off, but to see what she had brought to him!

What Ji Yuqing could bring would determine the way Ji Feng should get along with the Chuk Yuen Gang in the future, and even more so, whether he and Ji Yuqing could still remain friends!

“Young Ji, if we wait here, will the news leak out again?” Bai Zhu, however, suddenly asked.

“Hmm?” Ji Feng was slightly stunned.

“The last time news leaked, it was related to the Bamboo Alliance Gang, this time we are unprepared, if the news leaks and a strong enemy suddenly attacks us, then” Bai Zhu hesitated, “Do you want me to prepare?”

“..... better!”

Ji Feng considered for a moment and nodded his head in agreement.

He could not do any preparation, but it was necessary for Bai Zhu to go and make preparations.

Bai Zhu then understood Ji Feng’s meaning, she nodded slightly, and then quickly left, and soon disappeared into the darkness.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the photos.

Li Guoliang nodded and smiled, “Sure! Since I came to Rice, I rarely have the chance to smoke!”

Ji Feng smiled and asked, “So miserable?”

“Can’t help it, after all, this is not the army or a hiring corps, many habits have to be changed, or else one might be able to see the cracks, or even the origin” Li Guoliang took a beautiful puff and said, “I still I really miss the days when I was a mercenary.”

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest version of the newest version.

Li Guoliang shook his head and laughed: “Not really, it’s mainly because I’ve been idle for a long time and have some itchy hands.”

Ji Feng laughed: “You’re still idle during this period?”

Li Guoliang laughed: “When I was following you, of course it was exciting and addictive, but after you left, didn’t I have nothing to do over here?”

When he was following Ji Feng before, Li Guoliang was indeed living in extreme excitement every day.

Destroying the Yamaguchi group, killing those gangsters, the long street bloodbath

From the time Ji Feng arrived in New York to now, it was only a few days, but the battles experienced in such a short period of time were definitely more exciting than the battles Li Guoliang had experienced from the time he left the hiring corps to now.

But now Ji Feng is leaving, but Li Guoliang still has to stay in the rice country, this future days, but do not know how boring it will be

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into. The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on this.

The two were talking when suddenly a bright light flashed across the car’s rear view mirror, which was the car’s light.

“Someone is coming!” Li Guoliang said in a deep voice.

“Get ready!” Ji Feng said as he threw his cigarette butt directly into the car ashtray.

“Buzz~~!”

Soon, the roar of the car’s engine came faintly, and the three cars approached quickly from far and near and came to heel.

“Boom boom boom”

The people in the three cars quickly got out of the car, only to see a delicate figure get out of the car in the middle, it was none other than Ji Yu Yi, who Ji Feng had been waiting for.

“It’s the first lady of the Chuk Yuen Gang!” Li Guoliang said in a low voice.

“You wait in the car!” Ji Feng instructed, “Be more careful.”

Li Guoliang immediately understood, and his eyes changed a little, looking at Ji Feng’s meaning, this person from the Bamboo Alliance Gang seemed to be coming from a bad place?

Silently, Li Guoliang’s hand had touched his arms

“Ji Feng!”

Looking at Ji Feng getting down from the car, Ji YuYi exclaimed softly and walked over quickly.

Ji Feng, however, looked at the few people who were following Ji Feng, Two of them were no other than the duo of Ah Bo and Ah De, who were beside Ji Yuhui, the others were bodyguards.

“Are you leaving today?” Ji Yuet asked.

“How can I possibly leave without waiting for you to come?” Ji Feng smiled.

When Ji YuYi heard this but she couldn’t help but feel a slight flinch in her heart, Ji Feng’s subtext had made it clear that he wouldn’t leave if he didn’t come.

I am afraid that he was waiting for her to come, not because he couldn’t let go of herself, but so that she could give him an explanation.

In fact, Ji YuYi also understood in her heart that being betrayed, this matter was unbearable for anyone, and placed on Ji Feng’s body would not swallow this anger equally easily.

What’s more, the person who betrayed Ji Feng was also someone from the Chuk Yuen Gang whom he trusted very much!

Ji YuYi sighed lightly and said, “Ji Feng, I’m really sorry about this matter, how could I not have thought beforehand that my people would actually do such a thing.”

Ji Feng nodded indifferently, did Ji Yuhui really not think of it?

Or was she unwilling to suspect her people?

Ji Feng had reminded her again and again before, yet she still remained skeptical of her words, not to mention that this matter, could be solved by more than just an apology!

However, when the nearby Ah Bo heard their conversation, he couldn't help but have a bad feeling rising in his heart.

"Huh!"

Ah Bo slowly stepped forward and said with a smile, "Little Brother Ji, we have heard about all the things you did in Rice, it is indeed very admirable, the so-called heroes come out of youth, this saying is really appropriate for you!"

Ji Feng didn't even look at him, he just said, "Yu Ying, there's something I've been forgetting to say."

"What?" Ji YuYi asked.

"Thanks!"

"Hmm?" Ji YuYi couldn't help but be stunned, "Thank me? For what?"

"In front of the Westin Hotel, I was besieged by nearly a thousand people, when someone used a grenade to disperse the crowd and help me clear the way!" Ji Feng said, "The person who threw the grenade at that time was one of your people, right?"

"How do you know?" Ji Yuhui asked in surprise.

"It really was you!"

Ji Feng nodded, it seemed that his guess was correct. In fact, although the scene was extremely chaotic at that time, Ji Feng's attention was highly focused, and his ears were filled with a familiar shout in addition to the shouting and screaming of those people around him.

Afterwards, Ji Feng recalled that the voice should have been Ji Yuhui's.

When he asked now, it was indeed so.

"Many thanks!" Ji Feng thanked Ji Yuhui once again, and he gave another glance at Ah De who was standing behind Ji Yuhui's side, "This is a favour I owe you, if you are willing to intercede for him, the previous matter will be written off and it will be treated as if it never happened!"

"No!"

Ji Yuhui immediately shook her head, her face frosty, "I helped you out because I consider you a friend. It's only right for friends to help each other. However, my man betrayed my friend, this has nothing to do with favours, moreover, he has also broken the rules of my Chuk Yuen Gang"

Before Ji Yueting's words had even fallen, Ah Bo's face changed, but before Ah Tak could react, he saw Ji Yueting turn around abruptly.

"Arrest Ah Tak!" Ji Yuhui's pretty face was frosty as she bellowed.

"Ah?!"

Ah De was stunned, "Eldest Miss, are you confused? We're here to see Ji Feng off, what are you arresting me for?"

"Ai"

However, Ah Bo was not much of a drastic reaction, he just let out a long sigh and said, "Eldest Miss, so you knew about it a long time ago."

Ji Yuqing said in a deep voice, "Ah Bo, it seems that you are admitting that it was Ah De who leaked the information?"

Ah Bo nodded, "It was him who did it!"

"What?" Only then did Ah Tak react, his face suddenly changed dramatically as he shouted, "Miss, you said it was me who leaked the news, what proof do you have?"

"Shut up!" Ah Bo roared low, "Since Eldest Miss has arrested you, would she not have proof?"

After saying that, Ah Bo looked at Ji Yu Ying and said in a low voice, "Eldest Miss, I won't deny those things that Ah De did, I only ask that Eldest Miss can treat Ah De lightly for the sake of my lifetime of service to the Chuk Yuen Gang, I would be grateful!"

Campus Master Chapter 1880

Ji YuYi, however, turned her head to look at Ji Feng, her red lips flicking open, "Ji Feng, what do you think should be done about it?"

Bo hurriedly looked at Ji Feng and begged, "Mr. Ji, I know that De leaked the information and betrayed you, but please, for the sake of me, an old man who is dying, please give me a higher hand, I don't ask you to let De go, I just ask you to give me a lighter hand, our family has only one child, De... I'm not asking you to let me go.

Ade shouted angrily, "Why are you begging him? Why should I be the one to do it? What proof do they have that I leaked the information?"

"Shut up!"

Ah Bo roared angrily, his face red with anger, "Do you want to die?"

After saying that he hurriedly tried to plead with Ji Feng again, "Mr. Ji, this old bone of mine begs you, please give me a higher hand, no matter what, please leave a root for this old man of mine"

Ji Feng glanced at him, then at Ji YuYi, who was also looking at him, and frowned slightly.

Ji Feng had never been a merciful person, those trainings he received in the training space of the intelligent brain had made him understand that to be merciful to his enemies was to be cruel to himself.

A person like Ah De would definitely have endless consequences if he was kept. However, although Ji Yuhui had put up such a front, seemingly to punish Ah De severely, in reality he was trying to plead with himself, but he could not say so explicitly, so he used this method.

If Ji Yuet had really wanted to deal with Ah Teck in a ruthless manner, she could have disposed of Ah Teck before coming here and then told herself the result.

Even worse, she could have videotaped the process of disposing of Ah Tak.

However, she had brought the person here directly before she took the stance of disposing of Ah De harshly. How could Ji Feng not see that, in fact, Ji Yu Yi still did not quite want to punish him severely in her heart!

And at this time, Ah Bo, is bitterly pleading

The fact that Ji Feng couldn't help but secretly sigh, the so-called pity the world's parents, Ji Yu Ying's plea Ji Feng is about to ignore, but it is the case that Abe is begging him like this, but it makes Ji Feng for a while still a bit unable to lay hands on.

However, when Ji Feng looked at Ade, he found that Ade was staring at him with a deadly stare, his eyes were filled with a strong sense of resentment and a kind of resentment.

A cold light flashed in Ji Feng's eyes and he said indifferently, "This is your Bamboo Alliance Gang's own matter, it's not convenient for me to interfere, what should be done is still according to your rules"

"Ji Feng!"

Before he could finish his words, he was interrupted by Ade's angry roar.

Kneeling on the ground with his arms twisted by the two bodyguards, Ah De was struggling hard, "Son of a bitch, you came to my Chuk Yuen Gang, I served you well with good food and drink, how dare you say that you are not convenient to ask questions? What evidence do you have to prove that I betrayed you?"

"Bastard, shut up!" Ah Bo roared in anger.

"Heh!"

Ji Feng suddenly laughed.

Hearing Ah De's angry scolding, a mouthful of 'Laozi', Ji Feng couldn't help but grin. Only, his eyes were flashing with a biting cold light, as if a sharp knife, even the hard and vicious looking Ade didn't dare to meet his eyes.

"Mr. Ji"

When Ah Bo took a look at Ji Feng's appearance, his heart was suddenly aghast, he just wanted to plead for mercy, but was interrupted by Ji Feng.

Ji Feng waved his hand and didn't let Ah Bo speak, instead, he took two steps forward and came in front of Ah De, looked at this guy with a hideous face and shook his head faintly.

"There are many villains in the world, and you are one of them!" Ji Feng's voice tone wasn't very high, and his speech was also very calm, "But often, a lot of things are bad with villains like you, which makes people disgusted and hated!"

“Damn it! You’re the villain!” Tak roared, “I’m the big brother of the Chuk Yuen gang’s hall, try touching me if you dare?”

“Bastard, shut up!” Ah Bo’s body was cold as he listened, his hands and feet trembling.

This Ah De was simply looking for death, even if he was cursing a person who was no more honest, if he cursed so hard, with a mouthful of old man, the other party would still storm out. What’s more, it was Ji Feng that Ade was cursing at now, the tough man who made the entire New York mafia bow down, what was he doing if he wasn’t looking for death?

“Move you?” Ji Feng sneered, “You’re worthy too?”

“Humph! Since you don’t have the guts, then don’t be cross in front of Laozi!” Ah De sneered, he thought Ji Feng wouldn’t dare to touch him.

“Slap!”

Ji Feng slapped Ji Feng violently on Ade’s shoulder and sneered, “That’s all you’re capable of!”

He stood up and shook his head, letting Ah De bark furiously there, he never said another word to Ah De. Talking to such a person was really degrading, and even one more glance at him would make Ji Feng feel dirty!

Ah De was far inferior to Hong Yiming!

Although this person, Hong Yiming, was sinister and cunning, and incredibly vicious, he had that wisdom. But this Ah Tak, he didn’t even have that bit of wisdom, all he had was the kind of vain arrogance that he thought the Chuk Yuen Gang would back him up and thus came to carry.

This is just a dog who protects his family’s door!

Ji Feng knew what kind of virtue this man was from the first time he had a confrontation with Ah Tak, and the reason he was waiting here was not for Ah Tak, but for Ji Yu Yi.

Now since Ji YuYi had come, no matter what decision she made, Ji Feng no longer mattered.

“That’s it.” Ji Feng raised his hand to look at the time and said, “I should go now.”

“What about Ade?” Ji YuYi was stunned, Ji Feng just left like that? What did he mean then?

“What do you think?” Ji Feng smiled noncommittally, “If you were in my shoes, then what would you do?”

After saying that, Ji Feng turned around and left.

Ji YuYi stretched her hand to call out to him, but she opened her mouth, but she wanted to stop talking.

It was easy to call out to him, but what should she do after calling him out? Was she really going to do away with Ade? If that was the case, how could one face up to Ah Bo?

As she watched Ji Feng gradually walk away, Ji YuHye’s heart was empty, as if she had lost something important, which made her feel very uncomfortable.

Originally, when Ji YuHye brought Ah De here, she actually wanted Ah Bo to ask for Ji Feng's mercy, so that Ji Feng would be soft-hearted, so that perhaps Ah De could escape death and her relationship with Ji Feng would not be affected.

However, Ji YuYi did not expect that Ah De was so stupid, simply stupid to the extreme.

The attitude of Ji Feng was also beyond Ji Yuhui's expectation, he didn't say anything, he just patted Ade's shoulder and let the matter go.

Perhaps

The fact that Ji Feng just let Ade go was because he wanted to use Ade's life to exchange for the favor he had done for him, and then we would be clear?

Thinking of this, Ji YuYi could not help but shake her head, that should not be the case.

At that time in front of the Westin Hotel, she did help Ji Feng, but Ji Feng did not owe herself a favour, for the simple reason that if Ade had not betrayed Ji Feng first, he would never have been in that dangerous situation, and it was only natural for Ji Yuhui to help out.

Then

What did Ji Feng mean again?

"Pop!" Ji Feng got in the car and closed the door, and then, Li Guoliang started the car.

Ji YuYi's heart was suddenly in a panic, as if the most precious thing had been lost. Seeing that the car had already started and was about to leave, she was in a hurry and couldn't care less about anything else, she hurriedly shouted.

"Ji Feng, don't leave in a hurry, I will deal with Ade according to the gang rules"

"No need!"

Ji Feng poked his head out of the car window and said indifferently, "If I can't wait for accurate information from you, I'll have to do it myself!"

Do it yourself?

Ji YuYi was stunned for a moment, not understanding what Ji Feng meant for a moment.

When she wanted to ask again, she found that the car had already started and Ji Feng had retracted his head.

But Ah Bo's face changed greatly, Ji Feng wanted to do it himself? How could he do it when he had already left? Could it be that he had left his men behind in New York and was preparing to kill Ah De in secret?

For Ah Bo's reaction, Ji YuYi didn't notice, and she wasn't in the mood to pay attention to other people's expressions now. As she watched, the car Ji Feng was riding in drove further and further away, finally disappearing behind a row of containers without a trace.

Ji YuYi was despondent.

Ji Feng had left like that, he was supposed to be waiting for himself all the time, but the result himself did not bring him the result he wanted.

Perhaps, Ji Feng was disappointed with himself.

Especially thinking about Ji Feng's kind of bland expression, it was hard for Ji YuYi. In the past, when Ji Feng faced himself, he always had a smile on his face

"Ah De! Ah De!"

Before Ji Yuhui could recall too much about her past experiences with Ji Feng, she suddenly heard two cries of sorrow coming from the side, and she immediately turned her head to look, only to see that Ah Bo had already crouched on the ground at some point.

"Well"

Looking at Ade again, at the moment, he was looking bizarre. Ade no longer had the arrogance and ferocity that he had just had, only to see him lying on the ground, his eyes staring deady, one hand desperately gripping the ground, his feet constantly stomping, and veins sprouting in his neck and on his forehead

All this showed that at this moment Ade must be experiencing an excruciating pain.

"Tak, what's wrong with you?!" Abe shouted.

"Uh..."

Ah De, however, muffled a sound, an extremely odd sound coming out of his throat, and the expression on his face became more and more painful.

"Ji Feng did it, it must have been Ji Feng!" Ah Bo roared, seeing Ah De's kind of look as if he was in pain to the extreme, Ah Bo was really shocked, scared and angry.

"Forget about who did it for now, quick! Get him to the hospital!" It was Ji Yuet who reacted the fastest, and as soon as she saw the situation, she hurriedly ordered her men to carry Ah Teck to the car and then hurriedly rushed to the hospital.

And before Ji YuYi got into the car, but she looked back again, that was the direction where Ji Feng left in his car.

Is this what you mean by taking matters into your own hands?

To be able to use such bizarre means to torture Ah De, I guess, Ji Feng's heart must also be very disappointed and angry with himself, right?
