

Campus Master 1881

Ji Feng stood at the entrance of the ladder and shook hands with Li Guoliang to say goodbye, as soon as he walked across the ladder and boarded the cargo ship.

“Mr Ji, just let that guy go?” Li Guoliang asked.

“Let him go?” Ji Feng hummed, “He’ll be lucky if he survives this evening!”

Li Guoliang was stunned, thinking that Ji Feng should have laid out some backhand, so he didn’t ask any more questions, but just said, “Don’t worry, Mr. Ji, if that guy is still alive by tomorrow, I will definitely find a way to deal with him!”

Ji Feng smiled and nodded, “OK!”

“Duh...!”

At this time, the whistle sounded from the cargo ship.

“Young Ji, it’s time to get on board!” Bai Zhu reminded from the side.

Ji Feng turned his head to look, only to see that there were already sailors standing by the side of the ship waving their hands this way, he patted Li Guoliang’s shoulder, “Take care, maybe we’ll see each other soon!”

Li Guoliang didn’t realise the subtext in Ji Feng’s words, he just nodded and said, “Have a good trip!”

Ji Feng took Bai Zhu with him and turned around to go up the ship’s ladder.

The ship’s ladder was then slowly retracted, and just as Ji Feng and the two of them got on board, a sailor came over, a yellow man with an Asian face, and when he saw Ji Feng and the two of them, he asked, “Mr. Ji?”

Seeing that he was speaking Chinese, Ji Feng asked, “Are you a Chinese?”

The man, however, did not answer, but only made a gesture of invitation, “Mr. Ji, this way please, two of you!”

Ji Feng didn’t mind either, nodding his head and following the man forward.

The three of them arrived at the rear section of the ship, where many containers were fixed, the man opened one of them and said, “Mr. Ji, this container is empty, you two just rest here first, and I will come back when we are on the sea.”

Ji Feng nodded and said, “Thank you.”

The man nodded expressionlessly, and after letting Ji Feng and the two of them in, he closed the container door from the outside and turned around to leave.

At this time, another man came out from the gap between a few containers and asked in a low voice, “Mr. Ji they all went in?”

“Mm!” The former nodded.

“Brother, something is not quite right today.” The latter said, “When those people were boarding the ship just now, I saw a few white people who looked ordinary, but looking at the way they walked, they should not be ordinary people!”

“Do you know which side they were from?” The former asked without moving a muscle.

“I don’t know! We have to be careful.” The latter said.

“Well!”

The former nodded, “Tell you what, whatever people are coming up here, you stay here and I’ll go check it out.”

The latter was instantly startled and asked in a low voice, “What, you suspect those people are coming for Mr Ji?”

“There’s nothing wrong with being careful!” The former said, “No matter who those people are coming for, we can’t let anything happen to Mr. Ji, this is what has been explained from above.”

After the two finished discussing, the one who guided Ji Feng and the others into the container left, but the one who appeared later entered the gap in the container once more and his figure disappeared at once.

.....

At this time, Ji Feng naturally could not anticipate that their return journey this time, but it would not be a smooth one.

The first thing you need to do is to look around and see that the container is filled with a lot of goods, only near the doorway, leaving a space about three or four meters deep, which is just right for him and Bai Zhu.

The container was dark inside, even the doorway did not have any light shining in ..... In fact, it was also dark outside at this time, only the ship had lighting, but the light was also very faint.

However, this is not a problem for Ji Feng, he can see everything in this container clearly.

“Bai Zhu, take a rest!” Ji Feng casually put his luggage bag aside, took Bai Zhu’s small hand and sat down.

“Mm!”

Perhaps because this space was too small and there was little light in the container, so Bai Zhu couldn’t help but be a little shy as she was pulled by Ji Feng’s small hand.

However, this shyness of hers was what made the atmosphere hazy and ambiguous.

Bai Zhu sat beside Ji Feng and only felt her heart thumping, her heart panicking so much that she didn’t even know where to put her hands, sitting there, her body tense and tense, even having to deliberately control her breathing.

Ji Feng keenly sensed Bai Zhu’s abnormalities, he couldn’t help but ask: “Bai Zhu, what’s wrong?”

“No, nothing!” Bai Zhu hurriedly shook her head.

“Hehe .....

Ji Feng couldn't help but laugh. Bai Zhu did not know that her appearance at this moment was clearly seen by Ji Feng.

At this moment, Bai Zhu's pretty face was red, a pair of beautiful eyes peeked at Ji Feng from time to time, but could not be seen, but it was this kind of look of hers, but it made Ji Feng couldn't help but smile.

“Bai Zhu.” Ji Feng pulled Bai Zhu's body over and looked at her reddish pretty face and couldn't help but laugh, “Why are you shy?”

“No, not at all.” Bai Zhu hurriedly said.

Ji Feng smiled.

Now Bai Zhu was so shy, that day in the country villa arranged by Li Guoliang, Bai Zhu was sitting directly on his lap, at that time, she was full of courage.

Now that I think about it, Bai Zhu did have enough courage to say those words at that time, and as she said, once she had passed that momentum, she was afraid that she would never be able to muster up the courage to say those words again.

When he thought of this, Ji Feng couldn't help but feel compassion in his heart. He reached out and wrapped his arms around Bai Zhu's slender waist, but found that Bai Zhu's body was tense and stiff.

“Bai Zhu ..... come!” Ji Feng felt compassion in his heart, holding Bai Zhu's elastic thighs with one hand and wrapping his arm around her waist with the other.

“Mmm!”

Bai Zhu softly mmmmed, understood Ji Feng's meaning, holding back her shyness, turned around and sat across Ji Feng's lap, one hand also wrapped around Ji Feng's neck, face to face with him, but could not see Ji Feng, could only vaguely see his outline in the darkness.

But even so, Bai Zhu was so shy and tense that even her breath caught in her heart.

At this time Bai Zhu didn't even realize that after her eyes had adjusted to the darkness in the container, she was actually able to see Ji Feng's silhouette in this kind of place where there was not even a hint of light .....

Although the vast majority of ordinary people are able to see each other's silhouettes in the dark, the fact is that it is usually difficult to encounter absolute darkness, even if it is pitch black, there will be a faint light from the outside world, it will not be as dark as ink.

But in this container, it was indeed as black as ink.

It was clear that Bai Zhu's eyesight had also improved considerably.

The same is true for Ji Feng, who also did not notice this change in Bai Zhu, he just wrapped his arm around Bai Zhu's waist, and from Bai Zhu's stiff waist he could feel that Bai Zhu was still very nervous at this time.

With a faint smile, Ji Feng chatted casually with Bai Zhu, allowing her to relax.

Sure enough, just a few moments later, Bai Zhu relaxed, she leaned all over in Ji Feng's arms, her hands still wrapped around Ji Feng's neck ..... This kind of action can only be done by a woman like Bai Zhu whose body is so flexible that she can do it.

Ji Feng couldn't help but think badly, with a soft body like Bai Zhu's, if she was in bed, wouldn't she really be similar to a python .....

.....

It is also not known how long it took, Ji Feng only heard the sound of sirens faintly coming from outside, and after some time, there was only the faint sound of waves outside, other than that, it was just the loud motor sound of the freighter, other than that, no other sound could be heard.

Ji Feng knew that the freighter had almost sailed out to sea and had already passed the patrol inspection.

At this time, outside the container where Ji Feng and the two of them were, a figure walked over quickly, to the point that this person almost came at a trot.

"Who?!"

Suddenly, a voice came out from the gap between the containers next to them.

"It's me!" The visitor whispered, his voice a little urgent.

"It's past the inspection, let Mr. Ji out." The man in the gap in the container stepped out.

"Be quick!"

The visitor took a few steps to the container and said in a deep voice, "Just now I noticed those white people coming this way with their bags, I'm afraid things have changed."

The other man said in a deep voice at once, "What, those people are really coming for Mr. Ji?"

The visitor said, "Whether it is or not, let Mr Ji hide for a while first, but he can't be locked up in the container ..... Hurry up and help open it!"

"Ou! Ou~!"

Just as the duo were about to open the container, they heard a teasing voice from behind them, "Our cute little monkeys, what are you doing here?"

The duo's hearts sank as they looked at each other and slowly turned around.

"Who are you people?" One of them asked in English, "We are working, please don't disturb us!"

"Is it your job, to help people smuggle themselves in?" A white man asked teasingly.

The two men's faces remained unchanged and one of them said in a deep voice, "Gentlemen, if you want to pick a fight, I think you've got the wrong people, I don't know how many people have been thrown overboard and fed to the sharks by our captain himself ....."

“Well .....

A white man shrugged, “Your captain is a piece of shit in front of us..... two, don’t struggle, if our information is correct, in the container behind you, there should be fugitives who are wanted by the Rice police, right?”

The two sailors’ faces changed dramatically at once.

“You two get out of here now and maybe you can live!” A white man said grimly.

“Yes you can!”

One of the sailors also followed the other’s example and shrugged, before he and his companion looked at each other and slowly stepped forward, saying, “Gentlemen, it doesn’t matter if we get out of the way, but this container is full of goods, you can’t .....

Hoo~~!

Before this sailor’s words had even fallen, his face changed dramatically.

In a flash, he saw a white man suddenly rushing over, incredibly fast, and the next moment, this white man kicked the other sailor in the body, because that sailor ..... was taking advantage of his companion’s talking to distract the other side to quietly open the container door...

Campus Master Chapter 1882

In a flash, a white man was seen suddenly rushing over, incredibly fast, and the next moment, this white man kicked another sailor in the body, because that sailor ..... was taking advantage of his companions talking to distract each other to quietly open the container door... ..

“Watch out~!” His companion shouted and at the same time, his body surged up and kicked out fiercely, he was ready to intercept the white man who came at him so fast, however, the white man was too fast and it happened so suddenly that the yellow sailor was ready to do it but he didn’t expect the white man to do it suddenly .....

He didn’t stop it!

It all happened in a flash, in the blink of an eye, the white man kicked in the sailor who was sneaking open the container door.

“Ugh~!” The sailor let out a muffled cry and his entire body was sent flying sideways by the white man’s kick.

“Clang!” A sound.

The sailor flew sideways and crashed into another container, the sound was so loud that even in the loud sound of the waves, it still carried a long distance.

This shows how far that white man’s kick went!

“Swish~~!”

At the same time, the remaining sailor's face changed drastically, and at the same time, he attacked the white man before, and kicked him fiercely, with great speed.

However, even with such a fast speed, when the sailor was about to kick the white man, he saw the latter turn around and at the same time took a lunge forward stance and punched him fiercely.

"Boom!"

The white man's fist collided with the sailor's kick without reservation.

The next moment, the sailor let out a sudden, muffled cry, "Well ....."

At the same time his body seemed to be grabbed by a big hand and was instantly thrown out ....., The sailor's whole body was suspended by one foot and the other foot was dragged on the ground and rubbed sharply for a distance of five or six meters before he could stand firmly on his body.

But at this time, his face was already flushed, and under the illumination of the ship's searchlight, one could clearly see the shock and disbelief in his eyes, while his chest was heaving violently and he was breathing heavily.

It was clear that the short but vicious exchange of blows just now had been intense to the extreme for him.

"Well~~well~~"

The white man, however, stood up straight, shrugged his shoulders with both hands, and let out that teasing voice with a full flavor of rice from his mouth.

"My lovely little monkeys, is this the stature and strength of your Chinese agents? God, it's so surprisingly poor ....., It turns out you just look like monkeys, but whether it's your strength or speed or agility, you can't even compare to monkeys, it's so tragic!" The white man had that derisive smile on his face as he looked at the two sailors.

At this moment, those two sailors were clenching their teeth tightly, not saying a word.

The sailor who had been kicked by the white man and crashed into the container had obviously been injured, only to see that he was standing with his back against the container, but those two legs were still shaking in a way that was visible to the naked eye.

It was not because he was afraid; in fact, for people in their line of work, the word fear has long since become irrelevant to them.

The reason for this shaking of his legs was obviously because he had been injured.

The white man's kick was so vicious, so powerful that he couldn't even resist and had to hit the container hard like that .....

The other sailor was forced back by the white man's punch on his foot after a sneak attack.

At this moment, he is standing there, but his body can still be seen to be tilted, because his foot has long been painful to the point of numbness and no sensation!

A kick, which sent one sailor flying, and a punch, which forced the other one back with a raw fist.

The two sailors were defeated even after only one encounter under the white man.

At this time, the white man's companions had not yet struck, and looking at their size and walking posture, as well as the playful look on their faces, the two sailors' hearts continued to sink.

I could tell that the white man's companions were definitely extremely strong too!

If the white man's companions also attacked, then they would only be able to die.

The most crucial thing was that at this moment, Mr. Ji was still in the container!

The two sailors looked at each other from a distance and one of them said in a deep voice, "Who are you people?!"

The other one quietly put his hand to his waist.

"Little monkey, I advise you not to play tricks!" The white man said, "If you are planning to call your captain over, then I want to tell you that this is the wrong idea for you. I repeat, if you leave now, you may live! Otherwise, it's a dead end!"

The two sailors were silent.

When the white man saw this, he spread his hands, "I'll tell you what, I'll give you ten seconds to think about it, if you haven't made a decision by the end of that time, then ..... I'll make it for you."

"Let us leave, that's fine too!" One of the sailors gritted his teeth and said in a deep voice, "But if we leave like this, we won't be able to explain to ..... the captain when we get back, so I need to know what you are!"

"WELL!"

The white man laughed, "You want to explain to the captain? I see, you want to know what we are, report it to your superiors when you get back, and then let them have their revenge, is that it?"

The sailor grunted, "Think what you like. But I don't know what you're talking about!"

The white man grunted with disinterest, "You really don't know? Is that the nerve of you Chinese? You still dare not admit your identity even now?"

The other sailor sneered, "Our identity is Chinese, that's all, you're the ones who don't dare to admit your identity, right?"

The white man held up a finger and shook it slightly, "If you know our identity, then you won't be able to leave today ..... Are you sure you want to know?"

"I'm more curious!" The sailor who was leaning against the container said.

"I wouldn't want to know ....." The other sailor, however, shrugged, "Then you guys talk first, I'll take my leave!"

"Very well~~"

The white man grinned at once, "Looks like this little monkey is still very smart."

The sailor who was leaning against the container grinned similarly, "I think, I'm smart too ..... Well!"

He stood up straight with one hand on the container and gritted his teeth, "Perhaps, I can leave safely even after I know who you are?"

The white man gave him a disdainful look, "You're dreaming!"

The sailor sneered, "Whether you are dreaming or not, you always have to try to find out!"

"Looks like a little monkey is going to be thrown into the ocean and fed to the sharks today ....." The white man stared at him, bared his teeth and said with cold intent.

"I'm not so sure about that!" The sailor was tit for tat and sneered.

"Heh ....."

The white man had a murderous look in his eyes as he slowly stepped forward and sneered through clenched teeth, "Little monkey, let me rip your neck off ....."

The sailor sneered: "I'm afraid you don't have the ability to do that!"

The white man was murderous: "I'll kill you right here!"

The sailor stood there motionless, only looking at the white man who was walking step by step without flinching, sneering, which further aroused the anger in the white man's heart, his eyes were a little red, a sign of bloodlust.

At that moment, however, the white man's accomplice shouted, "James!"

The white man immediately turned around and instantly saw that, as he was walking towards the sailor, another sailor had unexpectedly taken the opportunity to suddenly rush to the container door and was quickly opening it.

****!

The white man waved his hand, "Finish him off!"

After saying that, he turned around sharply to look at the sailor by the container and said in a cold voice, "You deliberately talked to me just to distract me so that your companion could go and open the container? Damn it ..... I'll wring your neck!"

.....

Warm and soft, fragrant and fragrant.

This was Ji Feng's most intuitive feeling at this moment.

Bai Zhu straddled Ji Feng's waist, that soft body was leaning tightly in his arms, her hands wrapped around his neck, and her soft lips were printed on his mouth .....

At this time, Bai Zhu's eyes were slightly closed, her long eyelashes were slightly fluttering, her pretty face was even covered with a blush, if there was light here, it would definitely charm all men.

“Boom!”

The container shook violently.

Bai Zhu jerked straight up as if she had been electrocuted and looked around somewhat warily.

Ji Feng also couldn't help but frown, it was rare to have such a warm moment with Bai Zhu, but it was disturbed.

That vibration just now was definitely not a shaking because the container was not secured properly, Ji Feng could clearly feel that it was because something had hit the container.

“Ji Shao .....” Bai Zhu whispered, “The situation doesn't seem right!”

“Mmm!”

Ji Feng patted her **** and told her to stand up, and then, Ji Feng slowly walked to the door of the container and listened intently.

“Ah .....”

Suddenly, a miserable scream came in.

Ji Feng's eyes instantly shot up with a brilliant light, he immediately heard that the voice was familiar, it was the voice of the sailor who had brought him into the container before.

Bai Zhu also heard it, and she whispered, “Something must have happened!”

Ji Feng nodded, his brow furrowed.

What he had been worried about seemed to have happened, something must have happened outside the container, there was no doubt about that, but what had happened and why the sailor had screamed, Ji Feng did not know now.

Bai Zhu said, “Young Ji, now we can't get out, what should we do?”

Campus Master Chapter 1883

Bai Zhu said, “Young Ji, now we can't get out, what should we do?”

Ji Feng waved his hand and said, “Don't rush first.”

Afterwards, Ji Feng quickly activated the bio-current and acted on his eyes, he stared closely at the container door, his sight passed through and the situation outside fell into Ji Feng's eyes.

In Ji Feng's line of sight, outside the container, there was a group of people who didn't know when, it was a group of foreigners, they had the very obvious characteristics of foreigners, moreover, one of the foreigners was carrying a big bag in his hand, inside that, there were actually weapons!

Automatic rifles, pistols, hand grenades, and .....

Ji Feng frowned, that thing with a long tube, should be a flamethrower!

Seeing these, even a fool would definitely know that this gang was coming from a bad place, judging from the dress of these foreigners, they were definitely not ordinary stowaways, nor were they sailors, nor were they staff members dressed up.

Then, on this ship, apart from these kinds of people, there was only one last possibility left – this group of people, who had come on board on purpose.

As for their purpose of coming to the freighter ..... when Ji Feng saw the situation on the ground, it became clear to him.

At the feet of the group of foreigners, there were two people lying on the ground, one of them, was the sailor who had guided Ji Feng and Bai Zhu into the container earlier, while next to him was a person who was dressed in the same way as this sailor.

Obviously, this person should also be a sailor on this cargo ship!

They were Chinese, even though the sailor did not answer Ji Feng's question or admit that they were Chinese, Ji Feng was able to guess that not only were they Chinese, but they should also be Chinese agents!

But at this moment, both of these two people were injured.

Just by looking at these two men's bodies, one could tell that they were not lightly injured.

One of the sailors, his calf was clearly showing an abnormal bend, obviously fractured, just short of a white bone pushing out.

The other sailor was no better, his body seemed very stiff and he was obviously in severe pain, but because he was lying on the ground, he couldn't see where he was injured.

Ji Feng's face sank and a cold aura flashed in his eyes.

"Young Ji, what do we do?" Bai Zhu asked in a low voice, "We can't get out now!"

"Don't be anxious, there will be a way out!" Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

Bai Zhu nodded slightly, but she was still a little anxious in her heart. Although she was convinced of Ji Feng's strength, the current situation was that they were all locked in the container, and the door of the container was locked from the outside, so it was impossible for them to get out even if they wanted to.

However, something was obviously going on outside, and if someone was targeting them, they were unable to even put up half a fight.

"Ou~~! Ou~~!"

Just as Ji Feng was contemplating on a solution, he saw the group of foreigners outside move, and Ji Feng immediately pricked his ears to listen carefully.

He saw a white man say derisively, "My cute little monkeys, you are too uncooperative, I am really sorry, you will become dead monkeys today!"

“James?!” The cold light flashed in Ji Feng’s eyes, he recognized this white man at once, this person was no other than the Rice man with whom he had a face-to-face, James.

When they first came to Rice, they changed planes at Yanjing International Airport, and at that time they met a few people who accosted them, among them was Lu Guowei, a Chinese, and two other Rice nationals. This James, was one of them!

Originally, when they were fighting against Dynasty in New York, Ji Feng had caught Lu Guowei, but James and the other guy were nowhere to be seen.

Ji Feng secretly said, his mind turning rapidly: “Lu Guowei is from the Dynasty and has turned into a transformer, so this James should also be from the Dynasty .....

Thinking of this, Ji Feng fixed his eyes on James, wanting to see if his body had also been transformed.

But the result made him shake his head a little, because through the door of the container and at night, his vision was not up to this level, he could only see outside, but could not see through James’ body.

Had to get out!

“You’re from the Rice CIA?!” A sailor’s voice pulled Ji Feng’s thoughts back to reality, but he saw a sailor lying on the ground gritting his teeth, “Kill us if you have the guts!”

“Kill you all, that’s too easy.” James tsked, “You’re insignificant, we’re here today to catch the fugitives!”

As he spoke, his gaze fell on the container where Ji Feng was and he grinned, “In your China, there is a saying that seems to be called catching a turtle in a jar? Well, that’s how it is today! ..... Get ready!”

As James waved his hand, several other men immediately opened their duffel bags and held their weapons in their hands, and two of them, in turn, had their flamethrowers set up.

“I heard that this fugitive is very powerful, he’s killed a lot of people in New York!” James said, a murderous look in his eyes, “I just don’t know if he can withstand the five hundred degree heat of the flamethrower!”

“Son of a bitch!”

A sailor cursed through clenched teeth.

James laughed, “You Chinese are really incompetent, is that all you can do, curse?”

He waved his hand, “Stand by, spit fire!”

Swish!

Those foreigners with weapons immediately formed a fan shape, the guns in their hands were all aimed at the container where Ji Feng was, and in the middle, there were two people with flamethrowers. They were preparing to spit fire.

James said in a deep voice, “Fire on both sides, open the door in the middle, prepare to spit fire .....

“Yes!” The others shouted in response, and then the two men on the very outside pulled the bolts of their guns, ready to fire.

“Son of a bitch, if you dare to do this, you will definitely be finished off in the future, no matter where you escape to!” The two sailors roared, but James turned a deaf ear to them and just waved his hand, “Fire .....

“BOOM~~!”

Before James’ words had even fallen, a loud bang suddenly rang out, and all of a sudden, everyone was startled, they saw that the container door suddenly flew over, and before those gunmen could even react, they were instantly slapped down on the ground!

“Well .....

“Ah!”

..... miserable screams continued, and those foreigners, except James, were all screaming miserably.

Although the door of this container was not too heavy, however, the blow just now was too sudden, they were not the slightest bit prepared, moreover, they were slapped to the ground alive, that kind of impact, it was too violent, even if they were tough people, they could not bear it somewhat.

The two sailors on the ground were stunned by this turn of events, but they were not hit by the flying container door because they had been on the ground before, and it was the foreigners who were unlucky.

James was equally shocked, but his reaction was much quicker than the others, he was only slightly shocked, then he reacted immediately, drew his gun and was ready to shoot in the direction of the container.

“Boom~~!”

As soon as James raised his gun, he saw a blackness in front of his eyes, and the next moment, a sharp pain spread throughout his body, accompanied by a crunching sound: “Ka-chow~~!”

James’ nose was broken, and his whole body flew backwards and fell heavily to the ground.

The next moment, at the place where James was originally standing, Bai Zhu was standing there like a female leopard in a rage, her beautiful eyes blazing with fury and murderous intent.

This was very different from the gentle look she had before when she was snuggled in Ji Feng’s arms, causing the two sailors to forget to moan .....

“Mmm!”

James, however, groaned in pain as he lay on the ground and shook his head vigorously before he came to his senses: “****!”

He gritted his teeth and prepared to get up.

“Snap!”

A foot stepped on James' face and instantly stomped him back down.

"Damn it!"

James cursed angrily, while bracing himself on the ground with one hand and kicking his feet straight upwards ..... He was quite agile and had a great sense of power!

However, this sudden move of James was not half as threatening in front of Bai Zhu.

Only to see Bai Zhu's body slightly side, a vicious knee slammed into James' waist socket .....

"Ah...!"

With a wretched scream from James, he was instantly knocked to the ground, but his head was still being stepped on by Bai Zhu, and the whole man was as if he was swung up and then dropped to the ground again ..... so miserable!

"James, are you trying to arrest me?" Ji Feng slowly walked over and asked indifferently.

"Uh ....."

James was still dumbfounded by Bai Zhu's hit, and still did not react, yet when he heard Ji Feng's voice, his eyes suddenly widened, and his hands grabbed Bai Zhu's feet, trying to push them away, but he could not do it.

Ji Feng waved his hand, "Bai Zhu, let go of him!"

Bai Zhu gave James a cold look before he lifted his feet and took a step back, but was still incredibly wary.

Ji squatted down, looked at James whose nose was broken and his face was full of blood, and asked, "James, I originally wanted to find you, but I never thought you would send yourself to the door ..... Just now you said you wanted to catch a turtle in a jar? Then have you ever heard of throwing yourself into a net?"

James gritted his teeth and said, "Ji Feng, I am the captain of the Operations Division of the CIA in Rice, you are on a killing spree in New York, I have orders to catch you back or kill you on the spot, if you are smart enough, you should just fold your hands and catch them, otherwise, when the military sends a warship to intercept, you will die even more miserably then!"

"Slap!"

Ji Feng flung his hand and slapped James on the face, instantly hitting the latter's head with a bang on the floor and letting out another miserable scream.

Ji Feng sneered, "How dare you play tricks with me even now? Since when did the CIA of Rice become the lapdog of the dynasty? When did you, a reformer, become a captain of the CIA again?"

Campus Master Chapter 1884

Ji Feng sneered: "How dare you play tricks with me even now? Since when did the CIA of Rice become the lapdog of the dynasty? When did you, a reformer, become a captain of the CIA again?"

Even though James' nose was broken, his face was covered in blood everywhere, and even James' face was covered in dirt because of being stepped on by Bai Zhu, but at this moment when Ji Feng said these words, one could still see that James' face had changed abruptly!

In particular, a ray of essence shot out from his eyes, and although it was only a flash, it was still caught by Bai Zhu.

"Ji Feng, you need to say less words that I don't understand, I've fallen into your hands today, do whatever you want with me!" James gritted his teeth and said, "But I have to remind you, my identity is the captain of the Operations Division of the Central Intelligence Bureau of Rice, if you move me, what awaits you will be a never-ending hunt for you by the entire CIA, until you are killed! So, I advise you to think carefully!"

"Shut up!"

Bai Zhu shouted coldly, her pretty eyes blazing with fury, "Don't change the subject here and confuse the public!"

She turned her head and said, "Young Ji, this person is not telling the truth, just now he acted ....."

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, "I know, don't worry."

How could James' performance escape Ji Feng's eyes? As soon as he said that James was a reformer just now, the latter's mood and expression immediately changed again, if he didn't have a ghost in his heart, would he have reacted so much again?

Ji Feng sneered: "James, it seems that you really don't see the coffin. .... That's good, since you're so tough-mouthed, it's interesting instead."

James seemed to hear the chill in Ji Feng's words, he subconsciously winced and couldn't help but ask: "Ji Feng, you, what do you want?!"

Ji Feng grinned: "Since you say you are not a reformer, then I do have a way to help you clarify ..... I have heard that but for all reformers, some organs or certain parts of the body will not be the same as normal people, for example, I once met a reformer whose bones all over his body were all metal ....."

James' face couldn't help but change, and a look of fear flashed across his eyes. He vaguely guessed what Ji Feng was going to do to him, and he subconsciously wanted to break free and escape, however, in front of Ji Feng, where was his place to struggle?

"Slap!"

Ji Feng casually slapped James on the head.

Immediately, only to see that James was like a chicken, being slapped on the ground by this slap, falling with a woosh, the whole person almost did not pass out, his internal organs were almost out!

Ji Feng faintly smiled: "James, later I will break your limbs, if your bones are normal, then it means you should not be a reformed person, but if your bones are different from normal ..... hey!"

Ji Feng gave this heave laugh, but it made James couldn't help but shiver.

Ji Feng added: “When the time comes, I will send you directly to the CIA, so that all those CIA people can see that you, a man in the Operations Division, are a transformed monster .....”

James suddenly changed his expression, he shrieked, “You, you can’t do this to me, Ji Feng, I’m from the CIA in Rice, if you dare to do this to me .....”

Ji Feng then took over, “Then your people will kill me, right?”

James choked, since Ji Feng dared to say this, it meant that he was not afraid of the MiCIA people at all ....., In fact, thinking about it, if Ji Feng was really afraid of MiCIA, afraid of the CIA people, then he would definitely not dare to be so arrogant in New York and actually go on a killing spree with impunity, killing the entire New York mafia into a river of blood, making those normally The rascals and thugs who normally run amok were all silenced, not even daring to breathe a word.

What’s more, Ji Feng was also a member of one of the top powerful families in China, and James, who knew a lot about the situation in China, knew how much power was in the hands of the real powerful families in China.

There is a saying that has been around since ancient times in China – a governor who destroys his family and a magistrate who destroys his family.

One can imagine how frightening those who hold power in their hands are in this country of China. Although the times are different now, the national conditions of China have actually not changed much, and the energy of this person, Ji Feng, should definitely not be underestimated.

The CIA is still a fear for Ji Feng?

James heart can’t eat energy, he hurriedly said: “Ji Feng, let’s reconcile, I think, today’s matter may be a misunderstanding, I think, even if you are not afraid of the CIA people to hunt you down, but your relatives have to continue to do business in the country, if they are harassed for three days .....”

Ji Feng smiled faintly: “Then the people who harass them are out of luck.”

James immediately choked again, Ji Feng was not afraid of his threats at all, and could even say that he did not even put them in his eyes, which made James helpless.

If it was someone else who said this, James would definitely think that the other party was talking big, however, when Ji Feng said this, James absolutely believed it, really because Ji Feng not only said this, but he had already done so long ago.

Otherwise, what were those rogue and villainous leaders in New York taken out for?

Wasn’t it because they actually got hot-headed and went to hit the Weta Group?

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

James was thinking fast and furiously about how to get out of the situation, but he didn’t notice that Ji Feng took out a small bottle from his pocket and handed it to Bai Zhu, then whispered something to her.

Bai Zhu then quickly walked towards the two sailors who were still lying on the ground, poured out two pills from the vial and gave them to the two sailors respectively.

After that, Bai Zhu arranged their bodies and leaned against the container before walking over.

At this time, Ji Feng, however, had squatted down and said, "James, can you tell me, how did you guys know I was on this ship? Also, what exactly is the relationship between Dynasty and the CIA in Rice?"

James was stunned and he whirled around and said, "I'm sorry, I can't answer that question of yours because I have no idea what you're talking about ....."

"It seems that you don't want to live!" Ji Feng shook his head, "Originally, I was bored today on the boat, so I talked so much nonsense to you, but since you are so uncooperative ....."

James instantly turned pale and just wanted to speak when he saw that Ji Feng's slap was but a few centimeters away from his forehead.

"Wait ....."

"Slap!"

As soon as James opened his mouth, Ji Feng's slap slapped on his head, and the next moment, James' eyes rolled over and he directly passed out.

"Young Ji, should we start the interrogation now?" Bai Zhu asked in a low voice, she knew that Ji Feng had a special technique used for interrogation, no matter how tough the other party was and how overwhelming their willpower was, they would be absolutely unable to resist under this technique of Ji Feng's.

But Ji Feng shook his head and said, "There's no need to rush, it's better to ask them first!"

He pointed at the two sailors who were resting against the container, he was now completely sure that those two were the agents of China, and probably the sailors were just their cover identities.

These two people obviously knew more about the situation in Rice, or at least better than he did.

In particular, what Ji Feng wanted to know most about the CIA and the dynasty in Rice, he had to hear what the two sailors had to say before he could determine how he should interrogate James.

If he interrogated him hastily, he might miss out on any important issues. It was for this reason that Ji Feng spoke to James so much. On the one hand, he had to wait for the two sailors to take a breather and recover, so Ji Feng had Bai Zhu give them the special effects current produced by the Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory, which was exclusively for the military.

And on the other hand, Ji Feng was also trying to get some useful information from the conversation with James.

Also as he said before, he was idle and bored on this boat anyway, so it would be a good way to pass the time .....

In fact, Ji Feng did not get nothing, he could tell something from James' words and his reaction.

For example, when he said that James was a reformer, James changed his expression, then it was obvious that James, the identity of this reformer, was concealed from the outside world.

It was believed that the vast majority of people within the CIA were also unaware of it.

Otherwise, James would not have reacted so violently after hearing that he was going to send him back to the CIA.

And what Ji Feng is most concerned about now is whether James, a reformer, is really completely unknown in the CIA, or whether some of the CIA leaders actually know about it, but just don't tell anyone .....

To put it bluntly, what Ji Feng wants to know most right now is what the relationship is between the CIA and the dynasty in Rice, exactly.

Is it that they are cooperating to some extent?

Or is it that the CIA's people were lax in their gate-keeping and as a result, Dynasty's people got mixed up?

This is a crucial point!

The CIA, as one of the special departments of the country, has the largest number of agents in the world, as well as enormous resources, and there are even people lurking in most countries around the world.

Such a special and powerful department actually represents the Rice State.

Then, if the Rice CIA cooperated with Dynasty, it would definitely be a huge problem for China.

If it is said that in this world, the ones who do not want to see the rise of China the most are undoubtedly Rice and Kepong. The rise of China would pose a huge threat to the former, and could even threaten Rice's position as the world's hegemon.

As for the KAI Peng .....

Ji Feng couldn't help but smile coldly, how could one Asia possibly accommodate two tigers?

Campus Master Chapter 1885

Ji Feng could not help but smile coldly, how could one Asia accommodate two tigers?

What's more, the feud between China and Kepong was decades or even a century long, the national feud was precipitating and brewing, how could Kepong stand by and watch China rise?

However, according to all the information he had received previously, the relationship between Dynasty and Kepong was quite close, and Ji Feng even suspected that there was some kind of nasty agreement between Dynasty and Kepong.

Now, Rice has interfered again!

If Rice was really in cahoots with Dynasty, it would be a huge problem for China.

Thinking of this, Ji Feng turned to look at the luggage bag he had placed in the container, which contained the laser gun he had obtained from the Yamaguchi group .....

Thinking of all the possibilities, Ji Feng's brow couldn't help but frown slightly.

His fists gradually clenched, and he snorted coldly in his heart, "Dynasty, KAI Peng ..... no matter how powerful you are, and no matter if Rice is also involved, if you want to deal with China, you will have to pay a price that is beyond your imagination."

"This price ..... I'm afraid is something you can't afford!" A cold light flashed in Ji Feng's eyes, and his heart once again surged with a high fighting spirit.

As Ji Feng's experience gradually increased, the unconquerable character in his bones was becoming more and more obvious. Before he claimed his ancestors, he was just a poor boy with nothing, and the only thing he had was his mother who was dependent on him and loved him immensely.

At that time, it was inevitable that Ji Feng would have an inferiority complex in his heart. After all, he was a teenager at heart, and when he saw that almost everyone around him was better than him at his age, he had weakness in his heart.

However, even in that situation, Ji Feng still had the will to fight in his heart.

Not to mention now!

Even if the opponents now are stronger than one another, the Qiao family, the Wu family, the dynasty, the boundary canopy ..... no matter who the opponents are, Ji Feng will not concede defeat.

Ji Feng has never forgotten the promise he made to his grandfather in the hospital ward in Yanjing.

Within ten years, the top of the world!

All, even if the road ahead was as bumpy as it could be, and the enemy as powerful as it could be, Ji Feng would step through it all the way!

"Young Ji, they're much better!"

Bai Zhu's voice pulled Ji Feng's thoughts back from his memories as she softly said, "Only, all their limbs were broken and they were injured quite badly before, so now, although they are in good spirits, they can't stand up yet, much less move freely."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, of course he knew that although the effect of the special effect current was extraordinary, it was after all only medicine, not a panacea, and there would always be a recovery period for people who had been injured.

Now those two sailors were in good spirits, and that was good enough.

"You stay here and watch this bunch of scumbags, I'll go talk to them!" Ji Feng took a look at James, who was passed out on the ground, and a few other foreigners, and instructed.

"Yes!"

Bai Zhu immediately nodded and replied, "Don't worry, young Ji, if these people make any moves, I will definitely teach them a lesson!"

Although Bai Zhu said it lightly, but looking at the fury contained in her beautiful eyes Ji Feng knew that if James and the others tried to do something, Bai Zhu would definitely teach them an unforgettable lesson .....

Ji Feng quickly came to the two sailors and asked, "How is it, is it okay?"

The two men hurriedly nodded their heads.

Ji Feng said, "I'm sorry, I know you guys were dragged into this by me ....."

Although Ji Feng did not see the situation before, Ji Feng could also surmise that James and the others were going to deal with him, and these two must have tried their best to stop them, but they ended up being no match for James and the others, which is why they were injured.

So strictly speaking, they were both injured because of themselves.

A sailor said, "Mr Ji, you don't need to apologise, we were just carrying out orders, that's what we should do."

"Yes, Mr Ji, you don't have to be polite!" Another sailor also said.

"Then I won't be polite!" Ji Feng smiled and nodded, mere words of thanks didn't mean much, "How much do you guys know about the CIA in Rice?"

"Know some, but not a lot."

The sailor who brought Ji Feng into the container before shook his head slightly, because he was not lightly injured before, he still looked weak now, and his voice was not too high when he spoke:

"Although the CIA seems to be mysterious at first glance, the department is actually very extensive, and the people inside are not as elite as the outside world has rumored, all of them are highly skilled ....."

"In fact, the real elite elements of the CIA, there are not many of them, but they are the most mysterious, those who often appear outside more openly, most of them are civilians, or fronts ....."

Ji Feng listened attentively, almost having a general understanding of the CIA. Listening to these two people tell the CIA's situation casually, Ji Feng couldn't help but nod his head secretly, no wonder someone said, the person who knows you best is your enemy, this saying is true at all.

After listening to the introduction of the two Chinese agents, Ji Feng asked again, "So, do you know about Dynasty?"

Both of them nodded at the same time, "Yes."

Ji Feng asked, "Then with the information you have, could there be a connection between Dynasty and the CIA?"

"This ..... we can't be sure!" The two shook their heads at the same time.

"In fact, nominally, Rice is also targeting Dynasty, and the CIA even has a special department responsible for clearing Dynasty's forces in Rice, and there have been several fierce battles in this." A sailor said, "With the CIA's intelligence and operational capabilities, and fighting on Rice's soil, it should have been able to beat the Dynasty into a corner."

"But the strange thing is that the dynasty has not been hit too hard in Rice and is still very powerful!" Another sailor said.

“Heh!”

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, more or less having a number in his mind.

It seemed that these Yanks were not sincere in eradicating the Dynasty, otherwise, with the CIA’s ability, it might be possible for the Dynasty to gain a firm foothold in the country, but it would be very difficult to expand its power.

But the fact that the dynasty’s power is not small in Rice speaks volumes.

“So is there any private agreement between the CIA and Dynasty in Rice? Or is it possible that they have already cooperated with each other?” Ji Feng asked again.

“This ..... is something we don’t know, this kind of information must all be top secret, even if they really have cooperated with each other, it would be difficult to find out.” A sailor said.

This is true!

Ji Feng smiled faintly and nodded, “Thanks a lot.”

He stood up and quickly came to James, staring at him for a moment, carefully contemplating for a while, before he slowly stretched out his hand and urged the bio-current to simulate a neurotoxin and imprinted it on James’ head.

“Well .....”

It was as if James had been electrocuted, his body trembled violently a few times and his eyes opened.

But at this time, James’ gaze was devoid of the same spirit as before, nor was it fearful, horrified, or even seemingly unhinged, with a blank look in his eyes.

The neurotoxin simulated by the bio-current had worked!

Seeing this, Bai Zhu immediately took a few steps away in a very tacit manner and stood guard nearby so that Ji Feng could interrogate him in peace.

“James, let me ask you, are you the captain of the CIA’s Operations Division?” Ji Feng asked James’ identity first.

“..... yes.” James said blankly.

“Surprisingly, it’s true?!” Ji Feng frowned, it looked like the relationship between the dynasty and the CIA was not ordinary deep, he immediately continued to ask: “What is your status in the dynasty again?”

“I am Mr. Hunter’s subordinate and was ordered to join the CIA!” James said.

“What is your mission for joining the CIA?” Ji Feng asked.

“Responsible for spying on the CIA’s intelligence, and if there is anything that is detrimental to the organization, tell Mr. Hunter in time!” James said.

Ji Feng asked again, “So, do the people in the CIA know your true identity?”

This question made James silent for a while, a thoughtful look appeared on his face, and a moment later, he shook his head slightly, “..... don’t know.”

.....

“Young Ji, what should we do with these people?” When Ji Feng finished interrogating James, Bai Zhu asked in a low voice.

“Hand them over to the Rice side!” Ji Feng said.

“Eh?”

Bai Zhu couldn’t help but be stunned at his words, “Hand them over to the Rice side? Young Ji, this is in the middle of the ocean, and there are no official people from Rice on board, how can we hand it over to them?”

Ji Feng smiled faintly, “I have my own way!”

Under Bai Zhu’s puzzled eyes, Ji Feng came to the two sailors and asked, “Do you have any other companions on board?”

The two men hesitated slightly, this question was a bit inconvenient to answer.

Ji Feng then understood, he said, “Inform your companions and tell him to find the captain of this freighter .....”

About two or three hours later, two armed helicopters with the logo of the MiG military descended from the cargo ship, and two teams of soldiers came down from the helicopters.

However, when the captain led the men to hand James and the others over to these military men, the faces of those military men could not help but change.

For they saw that James’ arm was broken, a metal with an odd colour, the bone in James’ arm .....

Transformer!

In a flash, those soldiers were immediately on strict alert, and at the same time began to contact their superiors.

At this time, Ji Feng, however, was with Bai Zhu and the two sailors, once again hiding in a container. Through the door of the container, Ji Feng could clearly see what was happening outside.

He couldn’t help but secretly say, “It looks like these soldiers not only know about transforming people, but also take this very seriously!”

Ji Feng carefully stared at the reaction of those MiG soldiers outside.

Campus Master Chapter 1886

Ji Feng carefully stared at the reaction of those MiG soldiers outside.

He found that after seeing the reformers, these soldiers did not have the kind of shock that they had after seeing one of their own injured, there was only a vigilance and wariness like a great enemy.

From this Ji Feng then made the inference that, at least, these military personnel did not come together with the reformers, or it can also be said that the rice military did not have any connection with the dynasty .....

Ji Feng was more or less relieved. If the rice country was not involved for the time being, a dynasty and a boundary poncho alone would be relatively good to deal with.

Because of the discovery of the transformers, these Rice soldiers appeared to be particularly concerned.

After leaving a few men behind to guard James and the others, the others all started to enter the cargo ship and search around, and it was clear that these soldiers were taking this extremely seriously. Some of them even interrogated the captain of the ship.

Of course, they did not spare James and the others who were caught.

But unfortunately, James' eyes were blank, as if he was demented, and he was unable to answer any questions at all. The people other than James, however, were all extremely badly injured and were thankful to God that they had survived, so naturally they could not possibly answer questions.

Besides, those people had been knocked unconscious by the container door right at the beginning, and almost all of them were seriously injured, so even if they were awake now, they didn't know anything.

This left those soldiers helpless, and at this time, a few other soldiers, from the captain, learned about the first informant who found these transformers.

When they learnt that it was a yellow sailor who had injured these transformers, they were all surprised to the extreme.

Even the majority of the MiG soldiers expressed their disbelief, perhaps in their opinion, that the yellow sailor could not have beaten these transformers so badly!

For this reason, several military officers questioned the yellow sailor repeatedly.

However, the sailor answered without any problem, especially to prove that he had the strength to defeat the reformers, he even performed his kung fu – he flew up and kicked a container into a deep dent.

Because this yellow sailor had legal formalities and full documentation, and perhaps because those soldiers did not find anything useful, it was only after careful questioning that those soldiers all left by helicopter.

The whole process, except when those soldiers were searching around Ji Feng could not see, its process he watched, especially when the party he saw that yellow sailor even talked and gestured about how he inadvertently bumped into these reformers, Ji Feng also watched clearly.

He could not help but secretly nod his head, this yellow sailor obviously reacted very witty, and disposed of in a proper way, he wonderfully portrayed himself as a guy who was gloating because he was somewhat skilled and complacent for catching the bad guys who sneaked into the ship.

Such a man would not be taken very seriously.

A man like him would not be taken seriously in the eyes of those in the military, and that's how he got away with it.

As the roar of the helicopter faded away, the indicator lights on the helicopter disappeared into the darkness, and the sailor said something to the captain that made him stop pursuing the matter, and that was the end of the matter.

After about two hours, it was the darkest and most silent time before dawn, when the sailor who had fooled the MiG came over and let Ji Feng and the others out of the container.

The two sailors who had been injured before were sent away for recuperation.

As for how they explained to the captain, Ji Feng did not know. In any case, since then, there were no other accidents.

The next day in the evening, under the leadership of those three sailors, they secretly lowered the small boat from the cargo ship and went to a completely unfamiliar place. Afterwards, those few sailors also got a medium-sized plane from somewhere, and several people took the plane and flew straight to China.

This made Ji Feng secretly amazed, although he had experienced such training in the training space of his intelligent brain, this was the first time he had personally experienced this kind of long-distance running.

During this process, Ji Feng also saw how these agents survived in the real world ..... They had advance arrangements for every step they took, for example, they could get a plane in a completely unfamiliar country and there would be people who would deliver food to them, if you connect all these locations you would find that it was actually a winding route.

The end of the route is China.

For the next two days, apart from having to refuel and feed the plane, they were flying in the sky the whole time.

After three days from the time they boarded the ship, they finally arrived at the Gobi Beach in western China, where Ji Feng and Bai Zhu were taken to a military base.

And then, they took a military plane and flew straight to Yanjing.

On this journey, Ji Feng finally realized the hardships of those agents lurking abroad, because once they encountered danger, they would hardly have any substantial assistance, unless they could find a way to reach the realisation of the arranged retreat.

But how easy is it to escape in someone else's territory, where the other side's men are everywhere?

So lurking abroad, once things go wrong, it is likely that they will die without even knowing how they died!

This makes Ji Feng also full of respect for those agents, only after experiencing it first hand, can one know how dangerous and how difficult the work they are doing really is.

.....

After returning to Yanjing, Ji Feng did not even return home, but called Tong Lei directly and called her out.

“Ji Feng!”

When Tong Lei saw Ji Feng, a moving smile bloomed on that delicate and clear stunning face, and she jumped into Ji Feng’s arms with immense joy: “You’re back .....”

She did not ask when Ji Feng came back, because she knew that as soon as he came back, he would definitely come to see her first.

Tong Lei’s crisp words made Ji Feng’s heart soft and warm.

He stroked Tong Lei’s long, silky hair and felt the faint fragrance of the pleasant person in his arms, which was so familiar that although he had not seen her for only a week or so, Ji Feng already missed her a lot.

No wonder someone said that there are two kinds of women in this world that will make men give birth to the years when the king does not go to court early from now on.

One kind, is a stunning demon girl who is flirtatious to the extreme and seductive to the bone.

The other kind is a pure and flawless woman, a woman who will make men unable to help but feel pity and want to love and pity at will.

There is no doubt that Tong Lei is the second kind.

She was so pure and beautiful, as if she was a fairy who did not belong to this earth and had come to the mortal world in search of her destiny.

Looking at Tong Lei’s frosty and slightly red pretty face, Ji Feng kissed her forehead and said, “Lei Lei, did you miss me?”

“Mmm!”

Tong Lei did not hide her feelings and nodded her head lightly.

Ji Feng smiled faintly, hugged her tightly and whispered, “I miss you too .....”

In the distance, a car slowly pulled up to the roadside, it was Bai Zhu. She sat in the car and saw Ji Feng hugging Tong Lei tightly through the car window, without the slightest bit of jealousy in her heart, instead her pretty face burned a little.

Bai Zhu was a little embarrassed in her heart, like a child who stole something from someone else ..... However, remembering when she and Ji Feng hugged each other like this, Bai Zhu was a little sweet and shy again .....

“Lei Lei, I’ll take you to a place!” Ji Feng took Tong Lei by the hand and walked quickly towards the car.

“Where to?” Tong Lei asked.

“To Haizhou.” Ji Feng said, “Your brother is there right now, let’s go find him.”

Tong Lei immediately understood, her beautiful eyes blinked, “Are you going to find Zhao Kai? Haven’t you found him yet?”

Ji Feng shook his head and sighed, “It would be good if we found ..... your brother has been there for more than a week, but there is still no trace of Zhao Kai, no word of him. So I have to go over there and check it out, why don’t you come with me.”

Tong Lei nodded her head and whispered, “Mm!”

When the two of them got into the car, Ji Feng took out his phone and dialed Tong Kai De’s number: “Uncle Tong, this is Ji Feng .....

Tong Lei then leaned on Ji Feng’s shoulder and didn’t say anything, quietly listening to Ji Feng talking to his father, her clear and peerless pretty face with a pleasant smile, as if with a faint sweet smell, fresh and refreshing.

“Brat, not even a greeting, and you’ve abducted my precious daughter?” Child Cade scolded with a laugh.

“Heh .....

Ji Feng let out a sarcastic laugh, just came back directly a phone call to call out Tong Lei, did not even go to the child family to visit their parents-in-law-to-be, indeed a little too and rules, also some say, Ji Feng more or less a little embarrassed.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. And if he went to the child’s house, it would take a day’s delay at any rate, and Ji Feng could not wait any longer.

He smiled sarcastically and said, “Uncle Tong, I know I’m wrong, I’ll definitely visit you and auntie when I get back, and make good amends to you then.”

“Alright, it’s fine if you kid has me and your aunt in your heart.” Tong Kai De was only angry at Ji Feng for not coming to see him for a long time, in fact, where would he really be angry, “It’s good for young people to run around a bit more, to see more of the world, however, pay attention to safety!”

Ji Feng nodded his head in response, as his father-in-law-to-be, Tong Kaide had to listen to him any way he was lectured, what’s more, Tong Kaide lectured him, naturally for his own good, Ji Feng naturally wouldn’t be good or bad.

Then, after ending the call with Tong Kai De, Ji Feng immediately said, “Bai Zhu, go to Haizhou City in Beihe Province!”

After saying that, he added, “Use the fastest speed.”

Bai Zhu immediately nodded, “Yes!”

Ji Feng leaned back in the back seat of the car, his face calm, but his heart was already full of thoughts.

How was Zhang Lei’s search going over there?

This guy Zhao Kai, what on earth could have gone wrong?!

Campus Master Chapter 1887

Beihe Province is not far from Yanjing, and it can even be said that Yanjing is almost surrounded by Beihe Province.

As soon as you leave Yanjing, you will arrive at the border of Beihe Province.

In China's earlier ancient times, Yanjing actually belonged to the North River Province, which later became the national capital of China.

However, Haizhou, which is located in the central part of Beihe Province, is slightly further away from Yanjing, and if you drive from Yanjing, it takes almost two hours or so to reach Haizhou.

However, it is now the winter season and heavy snow has already fallen on the ground. Although the snow on the highway has been cleared away, the snow on the roads in downtown Yanjing has not been completely removed, making the speed of vehicles on the road particularly slow.

In Yanjing, where the traffic situation was already crumbling, this kind of speed would drive people absolutely crazy.

Along the way, Ji Feng just sat in the back seat, watching the buildings and vehicles outside the car moving slowly forward, and although he was anxious in his heart, there was nothing he could do about it.

Now after all, the traffic situation does not allow it, one cannot just fly over someone's head ..... from Yanjing to Haizhou is only like two or three hundred kilometres, and there is no other means of transportation to take besides long distance buses and trains.

In fact, even if you take other means of transport, it is definitely not as fast as driving yourself.

Luckily, Bai Zhu's driving skills were quite good, and after a full hour or so of driving at turtle speed, they finally reached the relatively wide outer ring, and the car began to accelerate.

At this time, Ji Feng was secretly thinking about Zhao Kai's matter in his heart.

There was no doubt that something had happened to Zhao Kai. However, what could have happened to this guy and where exactly could he have run off to, this was something that Ji Feng could not remember.

He quieted his mind and carefully combed through his memories of what had happened.

From almost a month before the final exams, it seemed that Zhao Kai received a phone call from home and then took leave to go home. Since then, he has not contacted anyone ..... at least, Han Zhong and Du Shaofeng, his brothers, Zhao Kai has not contacted anyone.

Because Zhao Kai is going home, plus everyone is relatively busy, especially himself and Han Zhong, that is even more busy ass can not occupy the chair. So there was no contact with Zhao Kai, but, unexpectedly, until the final exams were about to come, Zhao Kai still didn't have any news.

It was only at this time that Ji Feng and his team discovered that something was wrong.

After that, Ji Feng and Han Zhong immediately started discussing and splitting up to investigate and get Zhao Kai's home address out of the school. At this time, Ji Feng, however, found out that something was not right from a phone call.

It was only because Ji Feng had to go to New York that things were delayed and he could only let Zhang Lei go and investigate first.

However, the result of Zhang Lei's investigation was beyond Ji Feng's expectations, Zhao Kai really had an accident.

Up until now, Ji Feng still didn't know what had happened to Zhao Kai, and no news had come from Zhang Lei, especially after the special department's people went over, Zhang Lei never contacted him again.

Ji Feng suspected that Zhang Lei should have discovered something, otherwise, he would have contacted himself at any time so that he could discuss his next action strategy.

"Ji Feng, don't worry, Zhao Kai is very resourceful, besides there is still my brother there, even if there is something, it won't be difficult for them, there shouldn't be any problem!" Seeing Ji Feng's expression, Tong Lei couldn't help but whisper.

Although Ji Feng was acting calmly on the surface, but to say that the one who knew Ji Feng the most in this world was undoubtedly Tong Lei.

Even Xiao Yuxuan may not know Ji Feng better than Tong Lei, because Tong Lei and Ji Feng have known each other for too long, since the beginning when Ji Feng was most down and out, Tong Lei and him were classmates.

It can be said that Tong Lei has witnessed the whole process of Ji Feng's rise from the lowest point in his life to his later rise and then to the present.

What's more, Tong Lei is a girl who is full of spirituality. Although she doesn't say much and her personality is somewhat cold, she is intelligent to the extreme, and she understands Ji Feng best.

So Tong Lei could tell at a glance that Ji Feng was now anxious in his heart.

"I know." Ji Feng nodded and smiled, "It's just that so many days have passed since the incident, and this guy Zhao Kai still hasn't been heard from at all ....."

If we were to say that the reason why Zhao Kai disappeared was because Zhao Kai's father had absconded with his entire family because of his style or financial problems, then it would be justifiable for Zhao Kai not to contact them because with Zhao Kai's character, he obviously didn't have the face to contact these friends again at that time.

But the problem was that after Zhang Lei's investigation, he had basically ruled out this possibility.

And that meant that it was very likely that Zhao Kai's personal freedom had been controlled by someone and he had no more ability to move freely!

This was what Ji Feng was most worried about, because after all, so many days had passed, and even if someone had kidnapped Zhao Kai, no kidnapper would keep a hostage for so many days for no reason, right?

What Ji Feng was most afraid of was that now after so many days, Zhao Kai might ..... no longer be alive.

“What if .....”

“Don’t worry about it, even if there is a problem, it’s useless for you to be in a dry hurry now.” Tong Lei whispered, “Rather, it is better for you to nurture your spirit now, so that when you arrive in Haizhou, you will be able to deal with all things calmly, don’t you think?”

“Mm!” Ji Feng nodded with a smile and embraced Tong Lei, “There is still a distance to go to Haizhou, you should sleep for a while, I will call you when we arrive!”

Tong Lei’s head nodded lightly and leaned on Ji Feng’s embrace, her beautiful eyes slowly closed .....

Ji Feng was looking at the rapidly receding highway guardrail outside the car window, a cold aura flickering in his eyes: “If Zhao Kai is really no longer in this world .....”

“Phew~!”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but let out a long breath of turbid air, but he didn’t dare to continue thinking about it, because he really didn’t want to face that kind of heart with strong expectations, only to find out after arriving at the place that the good brother had already died long ago .....

Ji Feng really didn’t know how he should face that kind of scene!

So, he didn’t even know what to think!

.....

Since getting on the highway, Bai Zhu brought the speed of the car to the extreme, but even so, by the time it reached downtown Haizhou, it was already dusk.

Ji Feng contacted Zhang Lei when he arrived in the city, only to learn that the guy was drinking with someone.

“Crazy, go straight to the Haizhou Hotel near the family compound of the district government on Youth Road, and when you arrive, tell the front desk that you’re looking for me and ask them to take you to your room!” Zhang Lei said over the phone, “I can’t leave on my side for now.”

“Drinking is that important?!”

Before Ji Feng could say anything, Tong Lei couldn’t help but raise her pretty eyebrows and huffed, “Ji Feng was worried all the way, so he could easily come over, but you yourself ran out for a drink? Didn’t I tell you in advance not to go out, why did you still make it like this?”

Zhang Lei instantly laughed bitterly, “Lei Lei, are you my own sister? Brother has been working hard here for so many days, don’t you encourage me or scold me, okay? You give the phone to Crazy, I’ll talk to her!”

Zhang Lei couldn't help but feel, they say that girls are extroverted, he had seen it before.

Ji Feng smiled and took the phone, of course he knew that Tong Lei and Zhang Lei, a brother and sister, had actually always had this style, as if they were a pair of enemies.

"Lei Zi, come back as soon as possible, drink less, I still have something to ask you afterwards." Ji Feng said with a smile.

"Don't worry ....." Zhang Lei laughed, then, he lowered his voice and said, "Crazy, I'm drinking with a few punks right now, I know a lot of news from his mouth... .."

Ji Feng was suddenly dumbfounded, he nodded and said, "You take care of yourself."

Hanging up the phone, Ji Feng said, "Lei Lei, Bai Zhu, let's go straight to the hotel."

Bai Zhu immediately nodded and followed the navigation's instructions to rush to the Haizhou Hotel, while Ji Feng said to Tong Lei with a smile, "Lei Lei, your brother is drinking with some punks."

There was some confusion in Tong Lei's beautiful eyes, "Drinking with gangsters?"

Although Zhang Lei was more or less out of the ordinary, the friends he had made were still quite good. Moreover, the people who could make Zhang Lei a friend must all be very outstanding, so how could he be interested in drinking with punks?

Ji Feng said: "Lei Lei, you shouldn't underestimate those punks, there might be a lot of things that others don't even know about, they already know. Since Lei Zi knew that we were coming over, but still ran over to drink with those punks, then obviously, he must have found out something important ....." We'll go over first, and when Lei Zi comes back we'll ask and it'll be clear."

Only then did it dawn on Tong Lei.

Subsequently, Ji Feng and the three of them arrived at the Haizhou Hotel, they gave the front desk Zhang Lei's name, a front desk attendant immediately nodded and said, "Mr. Zhang has already greeted you, and your room is ready, please follow me for the three of you ....."

Ji Feng couldn't help but nod his head, this guy Lei Zi was still very reliable in his work.

Suddenly, Ji Feng's eyes narrowed.

A feeling like a man's back instantly rose from Ji Feng's heart, as if someone was staring at him from behind.

The corner of Ji Feng's mouth slightly pulled up a curve, he did not look back, but directly walked two steps faster to hold Tong Lei's tender hand, but the cold light in his eyes flashed.

It is really unexpected that he was targeted as soon as he entered Haizhou, things are really not that simple! Ji Feng secretly said in his heart.

Although Ji Feng didn't move, he trusted his feelings.

It was obvious that someone was definitely staring at him from behind just now, and moreover, that direction should also be near the service counter.

In that case, I'm afraid that Zhang Lei's every move in Haizhou had already been watched by someone else, so he couldn't escape the eyes of others at all!

The first thing you need to do is to get a good look.

Ji Feng sneered in his heart, what he was most unafraid of, was other people's stalking ..... This is good!

Campus Master Chapter 1888

Good stalking!

Ji Feng sneered in his heart, what he was most unafraid of, was the stalking of others ..... This is a good sign!

Being stalked means that one's arrival has made some people's hearts a little uneasy. Or rather, some people's hearts had already started to be uneasy before this, that's why they sent people to this Haizhou Hotel to stake out.

Of course, Ji Feng thought that the people responsible for this stakeout should not be here to keep an eye on themselves, they were most likely just responsible for keeping an eye on this Haizhou Hotel, and their purpose should be to keep an eye on Zhang Lei and the others.

Because after he arrived here, he had directly reported Zhang Lei's name to the hotel's front desk, and Zhang Lei had even opened a room in advance when he knew he was coming to Haizhou.

In this way, it would be difficult even if one wanted to be inconspicuous.

After all, he had just returned from the country of rice and had not even returned home before coming directly to Haizhou. Unless the people who were stalking him would have been unpredictable, it would have been absolutely impossible for them to have predicted that he was coming to Haizhou.

In that case .....

However, Ji Feng also came to a conclusion from this point, the matter of Zhao Kai has not yet reached the worst point, if everything has been settled, all the evidence has been destroyed, even if there is not even a trace left, then, some people are naturally not afraid of someone to investigate.

But now since someone is staking out the hotel, it means that someone is obviously trying to keep tabs on Zhang Lei's movements at all times.

This was quite understandable, and only someone with a ghost in their heart would be afraid of someone investigating.

Or rather, certain people are afraid that Zhang Lei has really found out something .....

"Things shouldn't be at their worst yet, there should still be room to turn back!" Ji Feng secretly thought, his heart more or less relaxed.

In fact, what Ji Feng is most afraid of is not how tricky things are, nor is he afraid of coming to no place to start, not knowing where to investigate, he's not even afraid that Zhao Kai's father really did commit a crime etc etc.

What Ji Feng was most afraid of was that Zhao Kai was no longer in this world!

If things have really come to that point, Ji Feng even if he kills all of Zhao Kai's enemies, it won't help anymore, no matter what he does, Zhao Kai won't be able to come back to life .....

Now it's okay!

Ji Feng gently exhaled a foul breath, there was still hope!

"Gentlemen, these are the rooms Mr. Zhang Lei has opened for you ....." While Ji Feng was contemplating, the waiter brought them to the door of the two rooms on the sixth floor.

"Where is Zhang Lei's room?" Ji Feng asked casually.

"It's next door to yours!" The waiter replied.

Ji Feng nodded slightly, this arrangement was not bad, at least the rooms were closer together, so it would naturally be more convenient when discussing things, and if there were any unexpected situations, they could also respond in time.

After the waiter left, Ji Feng took Tong Lei and Bai Zhu into the room, he looked around, this room is a small suite, slightly better than the ordinary standard room, in terms of decoration and the arrangement of various things in the room, can also be seen.

And on top of that, in addition to the various amenities of a standard room, this room had, near the door, a small room, slightly so much larger than the storage room, with a single bed in it.

If one were to bring along an assistant or a personal bodyguard, it would be quite appropriate to stay in this kind of room.

Ji Feng secretly nodded his head, it seemed that this should also be the room that Zhang Lei had purposely chosen, he should have known that he would bring Bai Zhu with him wherever he went.

It was just that I'm afraid Zhang Lei hadn't thought beforehand that this time he had actually brought Tong Lei with him as well.

"Let's go! Let's go to the other room and have a look." Ji Feng said with a smile. The three of them then went to the room next door, and they found that the layout of this room was also the same as the next one.

"Young Ji, I'll stay in this room." Bai Zhu said, "This room is closer to the stairway and the lift, so if anything happens, I'll be able to find out first."

"That's ..... fine!"

Ji Feng nodded and gave Bai Zhu an apologetic look.

Although he and Bai Zhu hadn't had too much intimate contact yet, after all, the relationship between the two of them was no longer the purely proprietor and bodyguard relationship that they had before; technically speaking, they were already lovers.

However, now that Bai Zhu has to be left alone in a room, I'm sure she'll be a little uncomfortable in her heart.

But there was no better solution to this matter for the time being, and even if he had to tell Tong Lei, he would have to find a suitable opportunity, so Ji Feng felt in his heart that this was somewhat aggravating for Bai Zhu.

Bai Zhu, however, had a light smile on her face and nodded her head.

In fact, for Bai Zhu, she didn't have too many demands. With all her past experiences, Bai Zhu had a very clear position for herself – whether she and Ji Feng were a couple or not, at least, she was first and foremost Ji Feng's guard.

She knew very well the status and weight of Tong Lei in Ji Feng's heart, and having followed him for so long, Bai Zhu had also learned more or less about his past from Xiao Yuxuan.

Bai Zhu knew that Tong Lei once had feelings for Ji Feng when he was at his lowest point in life, or at the lowest point in his life, and for a person like Ji Feng, the feelings that gradually arose at that time are the fondest memories of his life, which no one can replace.

If, in the future, Ji Feng and Tong Lei may be forced to separate for some reason, and they cannot be together, even so, I believe that in Ji Feng's heart, the one who carries the most weight is still Tong Lei, and not another woman.

This is determined by human nature.

Of course, there will be many men who may only be able to share hardships with a woman, but as the years go by, as the man gradually makes some achievements and achieves something, he will not be able to share wealth and prosperity with the woman on his pillow who has become a yellow-faced woman.

But Bai Zhu can be sure that Ji Feng will definitely not.

.....

The first thing you need to do is to have some casual food at the hotel restaurant, which is also considered dinner. After that, Ji Feng took Tong Lei and Bai Zhu for a casual walk around the Haizhou Hotel.

He was not bored because he was idle, but it was a habit he had developed from his long-term training – whenever he arrived at an unfamiliar place, the first thing he had to do was to observe the surroundings and keep it firmly in his mind.

This habit of action was strictly enforced especially when Ji Feng treated a matter as an important task to be completed.

When Ji Feng had this surrounding environment in his head and was about to drive to explore further away, Zhang Lei called, he had come back from drinking with others.

The three of them immediately rushed back to the hotel, but they saw that Zhang Lei's face was slightly red, a sign that his alcohol had gotten the better of him. But fortunately, Zhang Lei was still conscious and was not much affected.

"Are you still okay?" Ji Feng asked.

"Of course no problem." Zhang Lei laughed, "It's just to set those guys' words, so I drank two more glasses ....."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, "Then tell us about the situation."

Zhang Lei didn't say much nonsense, he knew that Ji Feng must be anxious in his heart, so he said directly, "After coming here for the past few days, the other two brothers and I split into three ways, investigating from different angles ..... Let's start with my side, when I first came here, I went straight to Zhao Kai's house, but apart from a nanny who was probably around thirty years old, there was no one else to see."

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Go on."

"Because you said before that there might be something wrong with that nanny at Zhao Kai's house, so I claimed to be Zhao Kai's classmate, and since I came to Haizhou for fun, I stopped by to check on Zhao Kai ..... but from that nanny, I didn't see much abnormalities, except that she looked a bit unnatural and appeared slightly nervous."

Zhang Lei said, "In fact, this doesn't tell us much, because you had already concluded before that something had happened to Zhao Kai, and I could see this from that nanny's reaction, but there was no way to know what had happened to Zhao Kai."

Ji Feng nodded thoughtfully.

Zhang Lei added, "Actually, if I were to use force on that nanny, I might get something useful, but since I wasn't sure how much that nanny actually knew, I didn't take action against her in order to avoid alerting the snake."

Ji Feng laughed, "When you went to Zhao Kai's house and stayed in Haizhou again, I'm afraid you'd already alerted the snake."

Zhang Lei nodded, "I also sensed that someone was watching us near this hotel."

Ji Feng asked, "So you're still living here?"

Zhang Lei smiled heatedly, "That's precisely why I have to live here, since some people are not comfortable with me, then simply let them keep watching me, my every move is in their eyes, so that they don't jump to the dogs!"

Ji Feng was then relieved as he shook his head and laughed, "In that case, how else are you going to investigate?"

Zhang Lei gave a heated laugh, "If I don't want them to spy, do you think they can follow me?"

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and laugh, this guy Zhang Lei was getting more and more confident now, but it was true, with Zhang Lei's skills, if he didn't want people to follow him, not many people would really be able to follow him.

"Today I just lost all the people I was following and went to meet two little cops." Zhang Lei said.

"Little cops?" Ji Feng asked, "Didn't you go and drink with the punks?"

"Who said that a cop can't be a gangster?" Zhang Lei asked rhetorically.

Ji Feng's eyebrows instantly furrowed, "What does that mean? There are punks who have become police officers?"

Zhang Lei sneered, "That's not new! These two policemen I went to see today, they are no different from the gangsters anymore, and it was from their mouths that I finally inquired about the detailed news about Zhao Kai's family ....."

"What news?"

Ji Feng immediately asked.

Campus Master Chapter 1889

"What's the news?"

Ji Feng immediately asked.

Zhang Lei must have investigated some problems in the past few days in Haizhou, and with his ability, it would be strange if he couldn't find out the problems.

And these were also the problems that Ji Feng wanted to know the most.

Zhang Lei said, "I might have found out the whereabouts of Zhao Kai's old man, didn't that nanny in his family say that their whole family left Haizhou and went abroad, but after my investigation, I found out that I'm afraid Zhao Kai's old man didn't leave Haizhou!"

"What?!" Ji Feng was stunned: "Lei Zi, tell me in detail, what is going on?"

The fact that Zhao Kai's old man hadn't left Haizhou was a surprise and astonishing to Ji Feng. To know, Zhao Kai's old son was an official in Haizhou, if he was still in Haizhou, there would definitely not be no news at all, even if something had happened, there would definitely be some rumors in the community.

But Zhang Lei had been in Haizhou for two or three days, but he hadn't heard anything about what had happened to Zhao Kai's old man, which was obviously not normal.

Even Ji Feng thought at first that Zhao Kai's family must have left Haizhou, and most likely in some legitimate name, and only then would there be no rumours in the community and no family members of Zhao Kai could be found.

The news that Zhang Lei brought was indeed amazing.

“To go into detail on this matter, it would have to start at the beginning.” Zhang Lei said, “After I came to Haizhou, I just went to Zhao Kai’s house and met the nanny, and then I was followed by someone.”

“Heh!”

Ji Feng laughed, “That’s really efficient!”

Zhang Lei nodded and said, “At that time, I knew that either someone was watching Zhao Kai’s house all the time, or, there was something wrong with that nanny, and she was the one who informed some people to follow me. However, I personally feel that the second one is more likely.”

Ji Feng raised an eyebrow, “Why?”

Zhang Lei said, “I don’t know why, it’s just a feeling. Because if it was someone watching Zhao Kai’s house, I should feel .....

Ji Feng nodded slightly, he understood what Zhang Lei meant.

This feeling that Zhang Lei was talking about was actually because of an improvement that Zhang Lei had made after practicing aerobics. All aspects of his body had improved, such as his hearing, vision and senses, etc.

Although Zhang Lei couldn’t tell the truth, Ji Feng was very clear that the kind of feeling Zhang Lei had was actually a manifestation of his progress, because Ji Feng had already had this kind of feeling when he first started practising aerobics, and he knew better than anyone else exactly what kind of feeling that was.

“On top of that, before I entered Zhao Kai’s house, I deliberately skulked around as if nothing was wrong, just to see if there was anything unusual around, but I didn’t find anything as a result.” Zhang Lei said, “Combining these factors, I can be sure that there must be something wrong with that nanny, there is no doubt about it!”

Ji Feng nodded, he really wasn’t surprised by this news, in fact, he had already sensed that something was wrong with that nanny by talking to her on the phone.

And now Zhang Lei had personally met with that nanny again, so it was a final confirmation.

“Then what happened?” Ji Feng asked again.

“Because I found out that I was being followed, I was a bit less convenient when I was investigating.”

Zhang Lei said, “Although I can very easily get rid of the person following me at any time, but if that happens, the other party will definitely know that I am more difficult to deal with, and they will definitely be more alert then, and if they doggedly do something against Zhao Kai and his family as a result .....

Ji Feng immediately said, “You are right to do so.”

As Zhang Lei said just now, when he first came to Haizhou, he only knew that something must have happened to Zhao Kai’s family. But exactly what had happened was unknown, and if Zhang Lei had come up and displayed his overpowering abilities, making certain people feel extremely threatened, then maybe Zhao Kai's family might have been hurt even more.

"Although there is just that possibility, but I don't dare to take the risk, especially right now when Zhao Kai and his family don't know where they are or even if they are alive or dead, a casual move on my part could cause harm to his family!" Zhang Lei said.

Ji Feng nodded and said, "So when you encountered this situation, you called me?"

Zhang Lei shook his head, "Of course not. Although I was being followed, I always had to do something, so I pretended that it was because I hadn't found Zhao Kai, so I was just having fun in Haizhou alone, first I got a room here and then wandered around, only in the process of wandering, I pretended that I was going to a nearby supermarket to buy cigarettes, or fruit or something like that, and then indirectly chatted with other people for a few minutes, intentionally or unintentionally mentioning Zhao Kai's family ....."

Ji Feng smiled and said, "That's a good idea."

The place that is not too far from this hotel is the government family courtyard, Zhao Kai's home is in that family courtyard, and although the common people are also afraid of the officials, but they usually like to talk about, certainly not less than the officials of all kinds of things, especially they are still in the vicinity of this family courtyard business.

If Zhang Lei chatted with them, he might really be able to find out some information.

"Good for what?" Zhang Lei shook his head and laughed bitterly, "Originally, I also thought this was a good idea, no matter if it was a rumor or something else, I could always hear something, right? But who knows, just as soon as I opened my mouth to ask, or just chatted a few words, before I could get to the point, a city manager came over and drove all those stalls away."

Ji Feng couldn't help but be stunned, "Driven away? What about the people in the supermarket?"

The city management drove away the vendors who had set up stalls, but there was no reason for them to drive away the people in the supermarket, right?

Zhang Lei grunted: "Of course the people in the supermarket are busy welcoming the industry and commerce! That's not all, there's something even more odious! The day after that, none of those hawkers showed up, I originally thought they should be afraid of getting into trouble and might have ducked out for the time being, so I didn't care, but a few days ago I inadvertently spotted a man at a junction ....."

Zhang Lei's face welled up with a look of annoyance: "It was a middle-aged man who had a fruit stall, and when I saw him later, his face still bore obvious scars, and as soon as he saw me, he had a clearly panicked look on his face, and without saying a word he hurriedly pushed his car and turned around and ran, not even wanting the boxes of fruit that were on the ground... .."

Ji Feng's eyebrows instantly tightened up, his face was gloomy and ugly.

Needless to say, the middle-aged man selling fruits had definitely been beaten up, and the reason they were beaten up was definitely because of Zhang Lei, otherwise, that person wouldn't have had a panicked look on his face as soon as he saw Zhang Lei.

Even if I thought with my toes, I knew that the reason why someone would beat up those vendors was not for anything else, but because they had chatted with Zhang Lei.

It was because some people were afraid that they had said something to Zhang Lei that they shouldn't, so they taught them a lesson!

And that was why the middle-aged man who was selling fruits, also turned around and ran without saying a word after seeing Zhang Lei, because he was afraid, he was afraid that if he talked to Zhang Lei again, he would still be beaten up, maybe even with more serious consequences!

Zhang Lei gritted his teeth and cursed angrily: "I'll fuck his ancestors! When I saw this situation, I immediately understood what was going on, this is someone who doesn't want those stallholders to talk to me!"

Ji Feng said in a deep voice: "It looks like this person behind the scenes who doesn't want those vendors to talk to Zhang Lei has a lot of energy in Haizhou! ..... Hehe!"

To be able to mobilize people from industry and commerce and city management, and to do things so recklessly, yet the police have not reacted much, this means that at least the industry and commerce and city management departments, all listen to this person's orders, and the police also give this person face.

From this point of view, this person should at least be a leader of the district.

It is even possible that he was a higher-level leader.

Of course, there is also the possibility that he is a very powerful person outside the system, but no matter what the identity of this person is, at least this matter must have involved some leader of the district.

In that case, the reason why Zhao Kai's family will be in trouble, should be an official matter involved.

In fact, if you think about it, it's not surprising that Zhao Kai's father is a cadre himself, so the person who can get him into trouble should naturally be an official, and the level must be higher than his.

"Those bastards, they're really arrogant enough!" Zhang Lei snorted coldly, even now when he thought about it, his face was still very unpleasant.

"It's more than arrogant, it's to the point of being reckless!" Ji Feng sneered.

"This is also called reckless?" Zhang Lei shook his head with a sneer and said, "The truly unscrupulous is still behind!"

"How so?"

Ji Feng asked in a deep voice.

Hearing the meaning of Zhang Lei's words, it seemed like something even more outrageous had happened later?

As expected, Zhang Lei took a fierce puff of his cigarette and said in a cold voice, "On the same night I met that fruit vendor, there were police officers coming to check on me at the Haizhou Hotel, and this Haizhou police's inspection was very interesting.

Ji Feng frowned: "They've come to arrest you?"

Zhang Lei sneered, "Those policemen didn't come to invite me to dinner anyway!"

Ji Feng asked, "Then how did you get out of it? Did you reveal your identity, or some other method?"

Zhang Lei snorted, "Showing my identity with that gang? I can't afford to lose that kind of face! Before they entered the room to check, I had already gone out of the window at the stairway, hung on the vent at the back, and waited until they left before I came in!"

Speaking of this, Zhang Lei's face turned gloomy, "I'm sure that those dogs must have wanted to plant evidence on me or find some random reason to take me away, only they didn't think that as soon as they arrived downstairs, I realised that they should be coming for my trouble, so I hid in advance... .."

Campus Master Chapter 1890

Looking at Zhang Lei's gloomy expression, Ji Feng did not have the same anger as before, he patted Zhang Lei's shoulder and said, "It's not like you haven't experienced this kind of thing before, so don't have such a big reaction!"

Zhang Lei couldn't help but grunt and said indignantly, "I'm not reacting too strongly, but I just can't swallow this anger! Motherfucker, I haven't done anything here, I just came to simply check up on Zhao Kai's matter, and I ended up attracting so much trouble, that's fine, but the fucking police were actually mobilized and came directly at me ..... Are they police or bandits?!"

Ji Feng sneered and said, "Haven't you seen police officers who are even worse than this?"

Zhang Lei then stopped talking.

He had indeed seen police officers who were even worse than this, and he had seen them more than once, and I'm afraid even he couldn't remember how many times he had seen them.

When he was in junior high school, Zhang Lei had seen for the first time how those scum bullied people, and if he hadn't seen it with his own eyes on that occasion, Zhang Lei wouldn't even have believed that there were still such excessive things under his old man's rule.

Although that one incident was dealt with promptly after he told his father, Tong Kai De, it made Zhang Lei change his mind about the police profession.

As for later, there were simply too many such things that he had seen.

By the way, on their first day at university, when they were on their way to Jiangzhou by train from Mang Shi County, they had a conflict with an arrogant kid, and as a result, weren't they almost wrongly accused by the police when they arrived in Jiangzhou?

What happened further on, that is really not enough to say one by one, otherwise, even if we talk about it until tomorrow morning, we will not be able to finish it.

But even though he knew this, but Zhang Lei's face still looked very bad, he gritted his teeth, "I just can't understand, can't that gang look at the skin they're wearing first when they're doing bad things for the tiger or even doing bad things directly themselves?"

Could it be that after that gang had done something against their conscience, they could be at peace with themselves?

Zhang Lei was a bit puzzled.

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "It's not that you can't understand, it's just that you don't want to think about it. What is this society really like, don't tell me that up to now you still don't know!"

This is how society is, and even more outrageous things are happening from time to time, not to mention this situation.

Now those police officers only used the name of provisional inspection to arrest Zhang Lei, in Ji Feng's opinion, this was already considered very good. If it were the more outrageous police, they might not even bother to look for an entrance and just come and arrest him.

What's the point of a protest?

The police have to find reasons to arrest people?

Nowadays, even fines can be enforced by fishing, let alone an order from a higher authority?

Zhang Lei's ability to discover the situation beforehand and then hide in time may have been beyond the expectations of those police officers, but at that time, if Zhang Lei had been in the room, unless he had directly resisted violently, he would have been arrested, there was no doubt about it.

Originally, Ji Feng was reluctant to deliberately try to think of the police in such a dark way, but unfortunately, he was rarely able to see the light of day .....

"Go on." Ji Feng laughed: "Just don't dwell on such trivial matters."

"Damn it ....."

Zhang Lei fiercely extinguished his cigarette and said in a deep voice: "Since that inspection, I realized that it would be very difficult to solve this matter by myself, unless I plan to directly reveal my identity, but then, it might give the person behind the curtain a feeling of impending crisis, and it would be troublesome for the other party to do something... .."

Ji Feng nodded and said, "So you called me?"

Zhang Lei nodded, "That's right. I needed manpower on my side, so I had to call you."

Ji Feng asked, "Since then, those police officers haven't bothered you anymore? And let you get away with it until now?"

Once this was mentioned, Zhang Lei couldn't help but sneer, "How could they be so kind? They came twice more afterwards, and they came two nights in a row, only, as soon as they came, I was able to see clearly from the window, so I dodged in advance ....."

Ji Feng couldn't help but frown once again.

It looked like those police officers had to catch Zhang Lei before they would give up.

"It's not a solution for you to keep hiding around like this, is it?" Ji Feng asked, "Aren't you afraid that those police officers will give you some planted evidence or something after entering your room, and then they will just issue you a wanted notice, and you will be in big trouble!"

"You think they didn't do it, huh?" Zhang Lei snorted coldly.

"What, they really did?!" Ji Feng couldn't help but be stunned, "Then how come you can still stay in Haizhou and not have anything happen to you at all?"

"Of course they did!"

Zhang Lei pointed to the bedside table in his room and said, "Right there, one of the policemen put a small packet of white flour in it!"

Ji Feng sneered, "How dare you use white flour to plant evidence? Good! What a good boy!"

This time, even with Ji Feng's heart, he couldn't help but be angry.

Originally, he thought that those police officers might find some random reason or get something stolen or something to put in Zhang Lei's room, so as to plant evidence on him, and then they could arrest him.

After arriving at the detention center, there should be a police officer or whatever coming to give him a warning not to meddle, or just give Zhang Lei a lesson to make him feel scared and then leave Haizhou in the dust.

..... Under normal circumstances, the result of such a thing would be to give a warning.

However, now this group of police officers in Haizhou are directly using white flour to plant evidence, they are not trying to plant evidence, they are trying to put Zhang Lei to death!

Just because Zhang Lei was investigating something in Zhao Kai's family, someone wanted Zhang Lei's life!

"Then how did you do it?" Ji Feng asked in a deep voice.

"I've really seen this kind of thing a lot, so I prepared a DV camera in advance and hid it in the wardrobe, and every time I saw that gang coming, I turned the camera on in advance and filmed the whole process of them planting evidence on me!" Zhang Lei grinned, "Of course, up to now, none of them have seen it!"

"Heh!"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, "So, you still can't sleep peacefully at night now?"

Zhang Lei spread his hands, "What can I do then? I can't just show them the footage taken, can I?"

Ji Feng nodded, indeed, if those people knew that they had a handle in Zhang Lei's hands, when the time came, not only would they try to get rid of Zhang Lei by all means, but more importantly, they would do whatever they could to set things right with Zhao Kai's family, without leaving any traces.

"In that case, maybe we can see a good show tonight as well?" Ji Feng asked.

"I can't say about that, who knows if they will still come today!" Zhang Lei said.

Ji Feng smiled and asked again, "Go on, what do you do next?"

Zhang Lei said, "You transferred two helpers to me, it was much easier to move later, I was in the light, they were in the dark, we investigated at the same time."

Seeing his expression, Ji Feng couldn't help but feel a twitch in his heart and immediately asked, "What results did the investigation come up with?"

"The result is that Zhao Kai's father is most likely still in Haizhou!" Zhang Lei said, "Because I knew that I was being followed and that there were police officers looking for me, I went specifically to places where those police officers don't go!"

"Where?" Ji Feng asked casually.

"For example, casinos, some entertainment places!" Zhang Lei smiled mockingly, "Since the law and order over here is so chaotic, I thought that there probably wouldn't be any police to check those places!"

"That's true!"

Ji Feng laughed, "You did pick a good place!"

The places that Zhang Lei had chosen could not be more convenient to ask for information and so on, and there were no police to carry out checks, so it could be said to be safe and secluded.

In these places, there is a mix of fish and dragons, and people from all three religions and streams will hang out here, so even the most secretive information may be heard here.

As expected, Zhang Lei said, "I spent a night and got acquainted with a few hooligans and inquired from them that Zhao Kai's old man was probably secretly imprisoned and, most likely, in the detention center in Haizhou!"

When Ji Feng heard this, he frowned: "Secretly imprisoned? Is he being double-crossed?"

When the police arrested or detained a suspect, they also had to be notified, so it was naturally impossible for outsiders not to know about it, not to mention any secret detention.

Rather, the double-custody policy, which was specifically used to deal with cadres, would have this means of secret detention.

Could it be that Zhao Kai's father was really corrupt and that's why he was secretly imprisoned?

Zhang Lei shook his head, "No. If it was because of this problem, then it would be fine to imprison Zhao Kai's father alone, so why did all his family members disappear together?"

Ji Feng nodded, and he thought deeply about this statement of Zhang Lei's.

The mere fact that Zhao Kai and his family were all unaccounted for was very suspicious.

Zhang Lei said, "I heard that Zhao Kai's old man was involved in a white face case, and it was said that Zhao Kai's old man was an important figure in this white face case! He was locked up because the leaders above asked to follow the vine to draw out the real drug lord's big boss."

Ji Feng couldn't help but be stunned, "Who did you hear that from?"

Zhang Lei said, "I heard it from the police ..... you forgot, I just went drinking with a few punks today, and two of the guys, were police officers, of course, you can also say that they are scum mixed in the police force."

Ji Feng then understood that the saying that the so-called police and criminals were a family was a bit biased, but it was not without reason. It seemed that the two policemen who were drinking with Zhang Lei today were this kind of people.

"They know the inside story?" Ji Feng asked.
