

Campus Master 1921

“That’s true!”

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, “However, I still want to take the liberty of asking a question, we didn’t know each other before, and we don’t have any relationship of interest, you went and offended Wu Zhiyong in order to testify for me, isn’t that not very cost effective?”

Yao Yue Ran said, “This question is actually very easy to answer, firstly, I am just telling what I saw, which is normal for me. Secondly, whether it offends the Wu family or not, I don’t care, at most it’s just a bit more offensive.”

Ji Feng smiled and nodded, he knew that Yao Yue Ran was referring to the fact that the Yao family had already offended the Wu family by politely refusing their request for a marriage union.

Given Yao Yue Ran’s character, it might not be a big deal to offend the Wu family a little more.

This explanation did seem reasonable, but Ji Feng did not think so.

It was a fact that the Yao family had already offended the Wu family.

However, whether the offense was tough or not is not irrelevant, just look at the current situation.

The Yao family has offended the Wu family by politely rejecting them on the issue of marriage, and because of this, there is gossip out there, which is obviously very bad for the Yao family, and now all parties are definitely watching the Yao family, and there is no doubt that the pressure on the Yao family is not small.

But this is just a little tactic of the Wu family, if the Yao family dares to continue to offend the Wu family to death, Ji Feng believes that the Wu family will definitely not be indifferent, they will definitely use even more ruthless means to retaliate against the Yao family.

If you look at the character of the Wu family, just look at Wu Zhiyong and you will know.

Even though Wu Zhiyong was so ruthless, and had a gloomy and malicious character, he was still able to be valued in the Wu family. From this, it could be seen that the elders of the Wu family obviously had no aversion to such a character of Wu Zhiyong, and it could even be said that they were in cahoots.

Of course, out of respect for the principle of rivalry, this will not be said by Ji Feng, but only occasionally in the mind to think about it.

..... Although now Ji Feng is not able to do what his elder brother did to truly respect his opponents, but at least, the superficial efforts he will do, and is also working in that direction towards his elder brother

Since the Wu family are such people, Yao Yue Ran’s action today is tantamount to further offending the Wu family, especially in the midst of this kind of encounter between Wu Zhiyong and the Ji family’s children, Yao Yue Ran stood up to help the Ji family, which would definitely anger the Wu family.

This is like two people who have an enmity, and because the other is strong, one of them wants to find a third party to join forces so that they can grow in strength and also have the third party hold the other in check, but they are rejected.

At this time, the one who is rejected will definitely be uncomfortable in his heart and may even hold a grudge against this third party.

And in a situation other than this one, where the two people from before are in conflict again, and this third party suddenly takes the side of the other side, at this time, this person who was originally rejected will definitely be very annoyed.

He would even transfer all his hatred to the third party, and this Yao family, obviously, was the third party.

So at this time, Yao Yue Ran making such a blatant move to support himself would definitely make the Wu family quite annoyed, and would even be completely enraged.

Therefore, for the explanation given by Yao Yue Ran, Ji Feng was somewhat unimpressed.

Although Yao Yue Ran seemed to be very full of wildness, she was not a stupid person, like this kind of thing that was deliberately looking for trouble for her own family, Yao Yue Ran was doing it so quickly, which made Ji Feng a bit puzzled.

“So that’s how it is, it’s me who thought too much!” Ji Feng said with a faint smile.

“Oh? What did you think?” Yao Yue Ran smiled and asked at once.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but glance at her in amazement, and was a little surprised in his heart as to how Yao Yue Ran’s voice had all of a sudden risen a little higher.

Although this change was not very obvious, Ji Feng still sensed it keenly.

It seems that

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a lot of money for their own personal use.

With these thoughts flashing through his mind, Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, “I didn’t think much of it either Miss Yao, no matter what, I’m grateful that you were able to come forward to help me testify.”

Yao Yue Ran waved and said very straightforwardly, “Ji Feng, it’s meaningless to keep talking about this, you’re a man, how can you also be so motherly like a woman Now that you’ve bought me coffee, it’s already considered that you’ve returned the favor.”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but dumbfounded, he nodded and laughed, “Then, good, I won’t say any more polite words.”

“That’s right!” Yao Yue Ran nodded with great satisfaction, except that, when Ji Feng didn’t notice, a look of disappointment flashed across Yao Yue Ran’s eyes, but it was only a flash, and then it disappeared.

“Right, the Wu family bullied you so much, have you thought about how to retaliate?” Yao Yue Ran suddenly asked.

“Hmm?” Ji Feng was stunned and gave Yao Yue Ran a surprised look, this question she asked was just a little too straightforward, not even carrying a hint of a curve in between.

“Don’t misunderstand, I didn’t mean to pry for information, I just wanted to say that if you plan to take revenge on Wu Zhiyong, can you ask me to join you?” Yao Yue Ran saw Ji Feng’s astonished gaze and couldn’t help but hurry to explain.

“Of course!”

Yao Yue Ran’s face sank abruptly, “Ji Feng, I wonder how much you know about the feud between our Yao family and the Wu family?”

Ji Feng shook his head with a smile and said, “I’ve just returned from abroad, so I really don’t know too much about it.”

Yao Yue Ran then couldn’t help but choke on her words.

Originally, Yao Yue Ran thought that with Ji Feng’s status, he must be very well-informed, and that the matter she was talking about must be of great concern among these big families, so when she said this topic, she believed that even if Ji Feng did not agree with her, he would at least have some knowledge about this matter.

But Ji Feng said he had just returned from abroad and did not know anything about these things

The actual fact is that you can’t be sure that you’re going to be able to get a good deal on your own.

Or was it that Ji Feng had really just returned from abroad and indeed did not know what things he was talking about?

Yao Yue Ran was a bit confused for a while.

However, Ji Feng did not follow her words, which made her prepared words useless, and she could not continue to communicate with Ji Feng as she originally thought, otherwise, more and more horses would be revealed, and with Ji Feng’s shrewdness, I am afraid that he would immediately see some problems.

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of the problem. ”

Ji Feng smiled faintly: “Let’s talk about it when the time comes.”

Seeing this calm and collected smile of his, Yao Yue Ran’s heart was again exasperated, how old is this guy, he is also too calm?

Even those in their thirties and forties may not be as calm as him. Yao Yue Ran could not help but secretly feel in her heart that this top gentry from a big family, the TZ of the Ji family, was really not comparable to those family’s children below.

Not to mention other things, just this calm atmosphere of Ji Feng, those people can't even beat a horse to catch up.

But Yao Yue Ran knew that in the Yao family, there were several people who were over forty years old and still thought about how to play and where to have fun all day long, they were simply living like dogs when compared to Ji Feng!

Because of Ji Feng's calmness and composure, Yao Yue Ran was unable to say a lot of things, but because of this, the atmosphere of their conversation was quite relaxed.

After sitting in this box for about half an hour, the two of them separated.

Of course, before they left, they exchanged contact information and Ji Feng did not mind giving Yao Yueyan his number.

Afterwards, Ji Feng refused to give Yao Yue Ran a lift and let her go first on the pretext that he wanted to go for a stroll.

The first time I saw her drive away, Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and smile, this Yao Yue Ran, is really quite interesting, at least, she is not pretentious, very real, which is very different from Ji Feng's impression of the kind of big family's thousand-year-old lady.

However, just because he had a good impression of Yao Yue Ran did not mean that Ji Feng did not know what Yao Yue Ran wanted.

Ji Feng vaguely felt that Yao Yue Ran must have had something in mind when she came out to testify for herself today.

Ji Feng remembered that when Yao Yue Ran came out to testify, she said that she hated those who were watching people in the dark, and despised such people, especially such men

Now that I think about it, she was obviously talking about Wu Zhiyong, and, deliberately speaking very loudly, must have wanted to reach Wu Zhiyong's ears, whether directly or indirectly.

In such a public place, Yao Yue Ran openly came out to testify for herself, which was tantamount to being on the opposite side of Wu Zhiyong – others might not know, but Wu Zhiyong knew very well that he had ordered that manager Mao.

As soon as Yao Yuran came forward to testify, then Ji Feng's reason for beating that Kepong man would exist and would be reasonable, after all, it was that Kepong man who went too far in the first place before Ji Feng moved his hand.

And as a result, it would obviously not be that very unfavourable situation for Ji Feng, which would ruin Wu Zhiyong's intention to use this matter to find trouble for Ji Feng and thus tarnish the reputation of the Ji family, and Wu Zhiyong would definitely be very annoyed.

If Yao Yue Ran did this, it would bring the Yao family a lot of trouble.

Once the Wu family was angered, the retaliation they would take against the Yao family would definitely not be as simple as simply letting the wind out and putting the Yao family under pressure as it is now, the Wu family would definitely retaliate even more fiercely.

Yao Yue Ran is not stupid, of course she would not have thought of this, but she still stood out and even provoked Wu Zhiyong with her words Did she really just say what she saw?

Anyway, Ji Feng does not believe this statement.

Campus Master Chapter 1922

The meeting with Yao Yue Ran ended in this kind of simple small talk.

Ji Feng just felt that Yao Yue Ran was a very maverick girl, but other than that, Ji Feng knew nothing about this Yao Yue Ran.

Of course, what interested Ji Feng as well was the information that Yao Yue Ran revealed in the conversation – she actually wanted to deal with the Wu family too!

This made Ji Feng feel very surprised. According to his elder brother and his family, the Yao family should be no match for the Wu family, and it could even be said that it was definitely not a match for the Wu family.

Is it possible that Yao Yue Ran is trying to join forces with him?

Ji Feng shook his head, he felt that this guess was somewhat unreliable.

To deal with the Wu family on his own, not to mention what outsiders thought, even Ji Feng himself knew that he alone was definitely not a match for the Wu family, even his father and second uncle had to be cautious against the Wu family, let alone himself.

So if Yao Yue Ran were to choose to join forces with himself, wouldn't that be too much of a stretch of the imagination?

Or is it that Yao Yue Ran actually wants to use himself to promote cooperation between the Yao family and the Ji family, so that they can jointly deal with the Wu family?

This is somewhat possible.

Ji Feng faintly shook his head, I'm afraid only Yao Yue Ran himself knows this question, so he stopped thinking about it and directly took a taxi back.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

“Big brother!”

Following the address that second brother said on the phone, Ji Feng looked for it directly, only to find that big brother and the others were all here, only that Ji Shaojun was missing.

Ji Shaodong smiled and pointed to the sofa next to him, gesturing for Ji Feng to sit down, and asked, “Nothing happened at the police station, right?”

“That’s good!”

Ji Shaodong nodded and said, “I’ve also called the police station to ask about it, basically there’s nothing wrong with it, I’ve also asked about the hospital, that Kepong man also only has a swollen face, two lost teeth and a slight concussion in his head, in general there’s nothing serious, it’s considered a minor injury!”

Ji Feng laughed: “If I had known I would have just used a belt to whip it, I actually got a concussion”

Ji Feng nodded slightly, he personally beat him up, what the result was he naturally knew better than anyone else.

As for that what slight concussion, in fact this situation is really hard to define, when a person is exercising strenuously, or if their head vibrates a little bit, a slight concussion may occur, he himself used his shoe to directly whip that Kepong man’s face, it would definitely make his head vibrate, so for this result Ji Feng was not surprised at all.

As long as it is not a serious concussion, it is not considered a serious injury, then even if the fault is entirely on Ji Feng’s side, eventually going through the legal process, the result will be nothing more than criminal detention, as long as the compensation for various expenses such as medical fees, will not be sentenced at all.

Of course, now with the evidence provided by Yao Yuran, it can be very clear that the one who made the mistake in the first place was not Ji Feng, and the one who started the fight was also the one who was beaten up, so I’m afraid that after Ji Feng compensated the medical expenses, he wouldn’t even have to be detained, if not, he wouldn’t be able to walk out of the police station now.

“By the way, Lao San, how come Yao Yue Ran suddenly came forward to help you testify?” Ji Shaodong suddenly asked, “And, how did she appear in that hotel?”

“I don’t know either!”

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, “After I got out of the police station, I did sit with Yao Yue Ran at the cafe and also asked this question, and according to her, she was just uncomfortable at the time, so she said everything she saw, and secondly, she also hated the Wu family”

Speaking of this, Ji Feng suddenly said, “By the way, according to Yao Yue Ran, the owner of the hotel we went to eat at was actually Wu Zhiyong’s lover.”

“Mm! This situation, we already know about it too.” Ji Shaodong nodded his head.

“You guys know?”

Ji Feng was stunned, “Since you guys knew that it was Wu Zhiyong’s territory, you still ran over there for dinner?”

Ji Shao Hong said, “We only found out later too, Little Feng, you still don’t know, right, when you guys were taken away by the police, the boss went berserk, he directly had to seal that hotel completely, and as a result, he drew out the right person, who are you?”

Ji Feng blurted out, "Wu Zhiyong!?"

"That's right! It's Wu Zhiyong!" Ji Shao Hong nodded and said, "He was in the hotel at that time, and it was obvious that he was behind the whole thing."

"Apart from him, who else could have such bad water?" Ji Shaolei sneered and said, "At that time, we felt that something was wrong when we lured Wu Zhiyong out, only to seal off the hotel, that manager Mao was so arrogant that he turned black and white upside down, it was good if we didn't just trash the hotel for him at that time."

"But that was the letter that drew out Wu Zhiyong!" Ji Shaolei sneered, "It was obvious that this hotel was very important to Wu Zhiyong, the more we thought about it, the more we felt that something was wrong, so we investigated the background of that hotel after we came back, and only then did we find out that the owner of that hotel was a woman, and was also Wu Zhiyong's lover!"

Ji Feng nodded slightly, so that was the case, the whole thing was really behind Wu Zhiyong!

"It looks like the person who was secretly watching our jokes in the dark at that time was Wu Zhiyong!" Ji Feng said. At that time, when he was in the hotel, he felt that someone was peeking in the shadows, at that time, because there were quite a few guests in the whole hotel and there were quite a few onlookers around, so Ji Feng didn't find the exact location, he just knew that someone was definitely peeking.

Later, once he heard Yao Yuran say it, Ji Feng suspected that the person hiding in the shadows and peeking should be related to the Wu family, but now he realized that that person was actually Wu Zhiyong.

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and smile, saying, "I can't imagine that Wu Zhiyong is actually okay with this"

As the leading figure of the third generation of the Wu family, it is right to do everything openly and honestly, to be decisive, to dare to take charge, this is the kind of spirit and style that the leading figure of the third generation of a top family should have.

This kind of hiding in the shadows and directing others to drop stones, or even directly planning this kind of clumsy conflict, this can only be done by those low-life or some hooligans, but I can't imagine that it is actually Wu Zhiyong who is taking on the battle, this is really

It's so embarrassing!

"Humph! You think Wu Zhiyong is some kind of good thing, how great is he?" Ji Shaolei had never had a good feeling about Wu Zhiyong, and he never knew how to write the word polite for those who didn't have a good feeling, so he didn't care that his elder brother Ji Shaodong was still here, and said straight away, "If you think about those things that Wu Zhiyong has done over the years, which of them are not all lewd and nasty and dirty?"

Ji Shao Hong also nodded and said, "Wu Zhiyong, this person, is just too sinister, and seems to be bent on using conspiracies and tricks, and has never seen a square duel before, so indeed he has lost his status as the young master of the Wu family!"

Ji Feng, on the other hand, shook his head slightly, he knew that his second brother’s words were already somewhat unobjective and were deliberately trying to scandalise Wu Zhiyong.

In fact, having fought with Wu Zhiyong either directly or indirectly, Ji Feng knew more or less about this person. In his opinion, Wu Zhiyong is indeed a person who likes to use conspiracies and tricks, to play dirty tricks, to play underhanded tricks, and rarely goes up against people openly and honestly, which can be seen from the fact that he threw all the mischief on his own brother.

However, Ji Feng thought that even so, words like lewd and nasty could not be used to describe Wu Zhiyong. In fact, the level of intrigue Wu Zhiyong played was actually quite high, or at least, that was not something that ordinary people could play!

Moreover, Wu Zhiyong is definitely capable, otherwise, he would not be able to sit in the position of the third generation leader of the Wu family, you know, in the Wu family is not only the two brothers Wu Zhiyong and Wu Zhihe, there are also other sons and daughters, there are also side lines and so on.

“Anyway, this guy Wu Zhiyong is not a good bird, unlike our boss, if he wants to do it, he will tell Wu Zhiyong openly and honestly, just to clean him up!” Ji Shaolei said disdainfully.

“What?!”

Ji Feng was stunned, “Second brother, what do you mean by that? What did you guys say to Wu Zhiyong?”

Hearing the meaning of Ji Shaolei’s words, it seemed like Big Brother and the others had clashed with Wu Zhiyong as well?

Ji Shaolei let out a heated laugh: “Third child, can’t imagine, the boss declared war on Wu Zhiyong, and also directly in front of Wu Zhiyong, you didn’t see Wu Zhiyong’s face at that time Wu Zhiyong was a little better, the few lapdogs he was following around, scared like a grandson, his face was all white at that time!”

Ji Feng did not care what the reaction of those few dog legs was, those people Ji Feng did not even put in his eyes, he just looked at Ji Shaodong and asked, “Big brother, you really declared war on Wu Zhiyong?”

Ji Shaodong nodded and said very calmly, “If Wu Zhiyong is too unruly, he must be shown that some things cannot be done too much.”

Ji Feng was surprised, of course he knew that his elder brother was referring to the matter of Wu Zhiyong encouraging Manager Mao to sully the reputation of the Ji family, but the murderous aura in Ji Shaodong’s words was very obvious, this was obviously an intention to have a fierce encounter with the Wu family!

“Of course, this time is limited to between us and these juniors of Wu Zhiyong, it’s up to us how far we can go!” Ji Shaodong said.

Ji Feng nodded slightly, he knew that his elder brother was paying attention to the score.

“Old Third, you still follow your plan, we brothers communicate more, and we will always be ready to respond!” Ji Shaodong said again.

“Don’t worry, I know what to do!” Ji Feng nodded his head and said.

This time, as long as the brothers took it step by step and played it steady, maybe it would be difficult to beat Wu Zhiyong to a pulp on this, but if they wanted to teach Wu Zhiyong a hard lesson, it would definitely not be a big problem!

Campus Master Chapter 1923

In the blink of an eye, two days had passed.

Because of the accidental conflict with the Kepong people, it made Ji Feng’s original plan to leave Yanjing for Jiangzhou the next day have to be postponed.

During these two days, he had full communication with his elder brother, Ji Shaodong, and his second brothers, Ji Shaolei and Ji Shaohong. The brothers discussed the plan of action together, and Ji Feng also stated his initial intentions.

After the discussion, they worked out a plan together.

Because they had just declared war on Wu Zhiyong, at this time, Wu Zhiyong must be the most heavily guarded, so it would definitely be difficult if they rushed into action now, so several people decided that it would be better for each of them to act according to their actual situation, and to try to keep a low profile.

On the very night of the clash, his father, Ji Zhenhua, also made a point of asking about the situation. When Ji Feng finished recounting the situation, Ji Zhenhua didn’t say much, but Ji Feng still felt his father’s displeasure.

Of course, this displeasure was not directed at himself. It was obvious that his father was also angered by the kind of unbridled behaviour of Wu Zhiyong and the others, but then, his father did not say anything more, so Ji Feng did not know what his father would do.

Ji Feng also said the plan he had agreed with his elder brother Ji Shaodong and the others, but after listening to it, his father, Ji Zhenhua, only said, “Be careful of the impact, and of course, most importantly, protect yourself.”

Other than that, there was no further mention of the matter.

Ji Feng only knew that his father had acquiesced, but what his father thought of their plan, and whether the plan was good or bad, Ji Feng did not know.

However, in these two days, the news that Ji Shaodong had personally declared war on Wu Zhiyong spread through the circles of Yanjing.

This news, which was like explosive news, had spread throughout Yanjing’s circle in a very short time. There is no way to find out where the news came from, it could have been the guests who were eating in the restaurant at the time, or it could have been one of the parties involved in this matter

The first time the news was spread, it instantly exploded throughout Yanjing.

Ji Shaodong is the eldest grandson of the Ji family, the leading figure of the third generation, and can almost represent half of the Ji family.

In contrast, Wu Zhiyong, as the leader of the third generation of the Wu family, is also the most important son of the third generation of the Wu family, and is no less important than Ji Shaodong.

If these two clashed head-on, it would definitely be a tiger fight.

Even if their respective families gave them enough help, it would almost turn into a full-scale fight between the Ji and Wu families.

In fact, after the news got out, there was even speculation that if this matter ended up going too far, it would even turn into a fierce clash between the two big factions, the Ji and Wu families!

This was the speculation of a certain scholarly official in a neutral faction, and when others heard about it, many thought that this speculation was not impossible.

Ji Shaodong and Wu Zhiyong each represented the third generation of the two families' raw power, and they represented the hopes of their respective families. Neither family, then, would want their hopes to lose to the other.

In this way, the Ji family will definitely do their best to support Ji Shaodong, and the Wu family will likewise do everything they can to support Wu Zhiyong, with the sole aim of winning this battle of the tigers!

However, these two families do not exist in isolation. Around the two families, there are also a large number of educated people who share their views and opinions, and who have a common philosophy and ideal of governance.

They likewise would not stand by and do nothing.

So, although this time it was ostensibly just a fight between two young people, no one dared to treat it as just a battle of wills, which had clearly gone beyond the realm of wills.

Even the senior leaders took the news seriously when they learnt of it. It was said that some senior leaders had paid a special visit to the elders of the two families to ask, tentatively, whether the two families were trying to take on each other.

Of course, the top bigwigs were most concerned about the Ji family, after all, it was Ji Shaodong who took the initiative to declare war on Wu Zhiyong in this fight, so there was no doubt that this time it was clearly the Ji family who had taken the initiative to strike.

So on that day, that senior bigwig asked Elder Ji very politely if this old man, who had been a powerful man for half his life, was really extremely dissatisfied with the Wu family and wanted to take action against them, so he sent his grandson out first to weigh up the weight of the Wu family?

However, the Ji family's old man only said lightly, "A fight between children, it's no big deal."

The senior bigwigs then knew what it meant, this was not a duel between families, at least, the elders of the Ji family would not interfere too much.

Only, whether Elder Ji really just saw this fight, as a game between children, this required a big question mark, especially when the cause and aftermath of this conflict were investigated, those bigwigs became even more worried.

It was the Wu family who had started this conflict!

The third generation leader of the Wu family, Wu Zhiyong, had really gone too far in what he had done.

It was fine for them to fight with each other, but the problem was that Wu Zhiyong had instigated someone to ruin the reputation of the Ji family, and he had done so in front of the Ji family's sons and daughters.

They don't even know whose grandchildren they are!

Thinking of the temper of the old man living in the East Sixth Street courtyard, even back then, in that * scene, he was almost killed but still didn't bow down, his grandson, how could he still be a pus?

If it wasn't for the face of the old man of the Wu family, those senior bigwigs really wanted to reprimand Wu Zhiyong for what he had done, which was really excessive.

Even now, many people believe that Wu Zhiyong's son is too underhanded and his heart is not right, so if he were to take the reins of the Wu family in the future, it might not be a blessing for the family.

Many others, however, could not help but laugh in shame after learning the whole story, cursing Wu Zhiyong for his stupidity.

Although everyone knew that Wu Zhiyong had suffered a great loss at the hands of the Ji family's children before, and was even forced to pour sewage on his dead compatriot brother, he must have been holding an evil fire in his heart, and must have hated the Ji family to the core.

However, what Wu Zhiyong is doing now is a bit too much, or rather, what he is doing is not right.

If you suffered a big loss at the hands of the Ji family's children, that is because you, Wu Zhiyong, are not good enough to play with the Ji family's children, but now you are actually instructing people to ruin the reputation of the Ji family, this is beyond the bottom line.

If you can tarnish the reputation of the Ji family today, won't you be able to tarnish the reputation of other families tomorrow?

If you play this trick when you fight together, won't the reputation of all the families be ruined by then, what will the people think? What will the ordinary people think?

In any circle, there is a bottom line, or rather, there are unspoken rules.

Wu Zhiyong, stepped on the line.

If not for the fact that the old man of the Wu family was still alive, I believe that this kind of practice by Wu Zhiyong would have been criticised by many people, but now everyone was looking at the face of the old man of the Wu family, no one said anything, even those high level bigwigs, they only asked politely.

Of course, with Ji Shaodong's blatant declaration of war, the clash between Ji Shaodong and Wu Zhiyong was now inevitable, so most of the discussion and attention was focused on who would actually win in this clash.

This is also the most discussed by everyone.

On both sides of the conflict, Ji Shaodong is one of the most outstanding people of the young generation in Yanjing, and his every move is quite grand, atmospheric and calm, and he also has a lot of political achievements in Jinling, and is a practical person.

Wu Zhiyong is not bad either. He is also doing a good job in the northwest and is quite skillful.

The two of them can be said to be half and half, even, in terms of economic strength, Wu Zhiyong has more resources than Ji Shaodong.

So on the surface, it seems that Wu Zhiyong has a slight advantage and a hope of victory.

However, no one would jump to this conclusion.

The reason for this is that among the third generation of the Ji family, there is another person who is quite strong and dazzling: Ji Feng, the son of Ji Zhenhua, the eldest grandson of the Ji family.

He started with nothing and rose to prominence with a small pharmaceutical factory, exploding the entire market with a weight loss pill, and even sweeping the entire health care market.

The product 'Special Effect Current' was favoured by the military and was even classified as a strategic logistical material internally. Even foreign militaries could not help but be excited, and I heard that many foreign spies were caught rushing for the special effect current.

The formation of the Tengfei Group, the economy is taking shape, and the strength is growing rapidly.

In addition, Ji Feng and raw from the hands of the Wu family will Rong Peng this member of the economic generals to dig the past, so that the Wu family in the economic aspects almost hurt the vitality.

Indirectly, he fought with certain people of the Wu family, beat the Wu family's helper, the Zheng family, and even, Ji Feng caught Wu Zhiyong's mistake, and finally forced the latter to grit his teeth and throw the sewage on his own brother's body

This pile, piece by piece, all make this son of the Ji family, who came from grass roots and grew up in the wild, all over his body is full of dazzling light.

No one dares to ignore, and absolutely cannot ignore this first grandson of the Ji family who has risen so strongly!

Some people even said that the current Ji Family had formed a double male rising stance, and if Ji Shaodong would become the helmsman of the Ji Family in the future, then Ji Feng would be the core engine of the huge wheel of the Ji Family.

It was evident that the outside world had a high opinion of Ji Feng!

And right now, since it was a contest between the third generation of the Ji Family and the Wu Family, how could Ji Feng sit back and watch?

If Ji Feng and Ji Shaodong were to join forces, how could Wu Zhiyong win?

Not to mention winning, even just defending against the Ji family's two brothers would be quite difficult, knowing that apart from one Wu Zhiyong, there was no one in the Wu family who could match the two of them.

Everyone seemed to have seen that the most intense clash of the younger generation was about to take place!

Campus Master Chapter 1924

The circles in Yanjing are abuzz with noise, and there is no telling how many pairs of eyes are watching the movements of Ji Shaodong and Wu Zhiyong in order to analyse their intentions, as well as to judge the direction of the two families and so on.

Likewise, everyone has not forgotten to pay attention to the other outstanding son of the third generation of the Ji family – Ji Feng.

But for all this attention, neither Ji Shaodong nor Ji Feng cared too much.

What Wu Zhiyong had done was indeed too disgusting, and it was natural that Ji Feng and the others would not just tolerate such a thing, so Ji Shaodong was thoroughly enraged and chose to declare war directly on Wu Zhiyong.

And since war has already been declared, it is no longer worth paying attention to what the outside world says next, what talk there is or what gossip there is.

The most important thing they needed to do now was to defeat the other side.

Whether it was Ji Shaodong or Wu Zhiyong, both of them knew that the other party was definitely not a simple character and was definitely not that easy to defeat.

Therefore, at this time, the most important thing they needed to do was to use all means to defeat the other party, but other than that, nothing could affect them.

It was in the midst of this flurry of disturbances that Ji Feng and the others decided to return to Jiangzhou.

This kind of duel between the two sides, naturally, cannot be like those fights between hooligans, who are not convinced, pull out to practice, or single or group fight, whoever falls down first is the loser, whoever is standing is the victor

The duel between Ji Shaodong and Wu Zhiyong is even difficult to tell the winner in a very short time, this is because the means and way they fight is very different from those between the hooligans.

They might be using their economic power, or perhaps they might also be rounding each other up in the officialdom, sniping, etc.

The actual fact is that you will be able to get a lot more than just a few days to get a lot more than just a few days.

Of course, there was one more thing Ji Feng did not forget, for this reason, the night before he was about to leave Yanjing, Ji Feng found his younger uncle Ji Zhenping.

Ji Feng went straight to the military camp. It was said that the work in the army had been a bit busy recently, so Ji Zhenping would work until late every day before he could go home, and very often he would even simply spend the night in his office.

Because Ji Zhenping had long since left the Red Arrow Brigade and changed to a new office and work unit, Ji Feng, who was not too familiar with Yanjing, spent a lot of time trying to find his little uncle's office, and when he arrived at his little uncle's work unit, it was already after 8pm.

Because he had greeted his young uncle in advance, when Ji Feng arrived at the entrance of the unit, there was already a young man in military uniform waiting for him there, but even so, the guards standing at the entrance still checked him extremely strictly, especially for the car, and only after making sure there was nothing wrong with it, did they let him go.

This made Ji Feng quite amazed, what kind of unit was this new transfer of Little Uncle, how come the scrutiny was so strict?

After recalling the sign hanging at the door, it seemed to say that it was the 14th Bureau of the General Staff Logistics Division It was just the Logistics Division, so strict?

Ji Feng felt a little odd, but he didn't have time to think about it much before he followed the soldier who greeted him to the door of his youngest uncle's office.

"Knock, knock, knock!"

The young man knocked on the door before pushing it in, "Chief, the man you told me to wait for is here"

Then, Ji Zhenping's voice came from inside, "Hard work, let him in."

When the young man came out, Ji Feng walked in with a smile, "Little uncle, you are getting more and more powerful now, but how did you become some kind of chief?"

A uniformed Ji Zhenping was sitting behind his desk reading documents, smiling and scolding, "You kid, this is a normal job transfer, no matter what the position is, in the end it's all military"

He waved his hand with a smile and asked, "Say, why are you still running to me at this late hour, what is so important? Did you get into trouble at home?"

Ji Feng laughed, "Do I look like the kind of person who causes trouble?"

At this time, the young man who brought Ji Feng in just now came in with tea, and as he was about to go out, Ji Zhenping said, "No one is allowed to come in and disturb without my consent."

The young man immediately answered, "Yes!"

In his heart, he was a bit strange, did he have another important task?

After the young man closed the office door, Ji Zhenping said, "Alright, there are no outsiders here now, so just say what you have to do."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, then took out his mobile phone from his pocket and handed it to Ji Zhenping.

"What for?" Ji Zhenping looked at him in confusion.

"Little Uncle, take a look at the photos on the phone." Ji Feng said.

"What photos?"

Ji Zhenping took the phone over in confusion, it was still a phone he had given to Ji Feng, so of course he could play with it. However, when Ji Zhenping saw the photo on the phone, he instantly frowned.

From this photo, it seemed to be a weapon, which looked like some kind of gun.

However, this weapon was very different from the weapons Ji Zhenping knew, first of all, in this appearance, this weapon actually did not have a muzzle, there was only the thin, long, steel needle-like thing at the very front, and the whole shape of the weapon also looked very bulky.

"What is this thing?" Ji Zhenping asked.

"Little Uncle, this is what I came to see you about today!" Ji Feng said, "This is what I got when I was in Rice, taking advantage of the fact that the top brass of the Yamaguchi-gumi were all in a meeting, and then spooning them up, and it was during that operation that I inadvertently found such a contraption in one of the safes!"

From the hands of the Yakuza?

Although the Yamaguchi-gumi was only a yakuza gang, anyone who was familiar with Kepong knew how close the connection between the Yamaguchi-gumi and the Kepong government was.

Moreover, it was absolutely impossible for the Yamaguchi-gumi to get a useless item to put in the safe.

Ji Zhenping immediately realised that Ji Feng had come to see him at such a late hour and had deliberately come to his office, so he must have another intention.

Or, it was because what Ji Feng had to say was particularly important and he had to come here.

Thinking of this, Ji Zhenping immediately asked, "What exactly is this?"

Ji Feng said, "A new type of weapon!"

Sure enough!

Ji Zhenping's heart sank and he asked after him, "What kind of weapon is this, tell me more clearly."

Ji Feng said, "I was in that villa safe of the Yamaguchi group, besides getting this weapon, there were also a bunch of drawings, information and other things, I took a few cursory glances, those were all information about this weapon, so I will look forward to going back, after helping little aunt solve her troubles, I didn't come back with them, but with the help of our channels, the smuggled back"

"I know all this."

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are doing.

Only, at that time, Ji Zhenping was unaware that Ji Feng insisted on sneaking back instead of following Ji Nan Yue and the others back on the plane, surprisingly, it was to bring this weapon and information back to China.

"This is the right thing for you to do!" Ji Zhenping nodded, "The security checks over in Rice are very strict, you definitely can't bring this weapon on the plane, moreover, it might cause even more trouble."

"I was thinking the same thing at the time!" Ji Feng said, "But after bringing it back, I kept putting it off again because there were too many things to do, and it was only until the last few days that I started to carefully study the information on this weapon, and thus learned the name and usage of this weapon."

"Oh?"

Ji Zhenping immediately asked, "What kind of weapon is this?"

Ji Feng said, "The name of this weapon, is called a laser gun"

He roughly described the features of the laser gun, and he only passed over the technology used in it and other issues, or just said that he himself was not quite sure, etc.

It's not that Ji Feng didn't want to tell the truth, but the information he got in his hands was not too clear and understandable, so if he was too straightforward, it would be troublesome to explain, which would be bad.

Therefore, in order to avoid making trouble, Ji Feng simply adopted a little bit of a ploy, highlighting the laser gun and ignoring and reigning in his own role.

Ji Feng did this just to make the military and the top echelons of the country more alert, to let them know that there were already people working on new conceptual weapons, and that those weapons that originally appeared in movies and novels were not out of reach.

Even, Ji Feng also heard that within the next one or two decades, Rice has decided to replace the military with new concept weapons, such as electromagnetic guns, rail guns and other super new technology weapons

If the country doesn't pay attention to it, I'm afraid it won't take more than a few decades to fall behind the other big countries again, and when that happens, the contrast in power will be no different from the opium war a hundred years ago.

The first thing that Ji Feng intended to do was to hand over the weapon to his uncle as soon as he returned to China, but then he felt that it was a bit inappropriate to do so.

After he came back from Haizhou, just in time for the New Year, there were many things that made his scalp tingle, plus the provocation of Wu Zhiyong a few days ago and so on, until now, Ji Feng is considered truly free.

And he was going to Jiangzhou tomorrow, so he wanted to finalise this matter before he left for Jiangzhou.

“Swish!”

As expected, as soon as Ji Zhenping finished listening to Ji Feng’s introduction of this kind of weapon, he immediately stood up with a swish, his eyes shining, his face extremely grave!

Campus Master Chapter 1925

“Little Feng, where is this weapon now?!” Ji Zhenping’s face was very grave, obviously for this matter is highly important.

“Because that thing seems to be still a bit imperfect, I was worried if that thing had radioactive substances present, so I put it in the car under my house

Before Ji Feng could finish his words, he was interrupted by Ji Zhenping: “What do you mean, put it in the car? Kid, do you dare to be more stupid?”

Ji Feng froze: “What’s wrong?”

“What else is wrong

Ji Zhenping said, “Such an important thing, how can you just put it in the car, what if someone steals it? There is radioactive material present, then you should tell me directly, I will help you find a lead box, in that even if there is even more strong radiation, it can’t escape ah!”

Ji Feng laughed bitterly, “I didn’t get around to it

“You!”

Ji Zhenping waved his hand and said, “Okay, let’s not talk about that now, you immediately tell me the parking location, and the license plate number, I’ll send someone to get it

As he spoke, Ji Zhenping stood up to get his coat and prepared to go out.

Ji Feng said, “Little Uncle, you don’t need to be so nervous, the news that that weapon is in my hands is only known to you, if you go in person like this, it might attract the attention of others instead? I think ah, it’s better for you to send someone to fetch it.”

Although he didn’t know what his current position was, the number of guards outside was so large, and the inspection was so strict that even if he sent someone to meet him, the guards would only let him go after a strict inspection.

The more important this position is, the more people will pay attention to it.

So if Little Uncle makes a personal trip this evening, it might attract the attention of others.

Of course, even though Ji Feng's home is now in the same neighborhood as Ji Zhenping's, but at this time he would have to marshal the lead box and then come out again after going home, that would definitely attract attention as well.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. In addition, you can tell me the process of getting this weapon again, in more detail."

Ji Feng nodded his head and immediately gave a detailed account of the process by which he obtained this weapon, and at the same time, he also said his guess – this weapon, which came from the Boundary Peng, was most likely produced by one of the laboratories in the Boundary Peng, and it was even likely that the dynasty had made it.

After hearing Ji Feng's analysis, Ji Zhenping nodded slightly, then immediately sent someone to fetch the item.

After arranging everything, Ji Zhenping then said, "Little Feng, I need to go out immediately, why don't you come out with me."

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Just in time, I should also go back, I have to return to Jiangzhou tomorrow."

Afterwards, Ji Feng and Ji Zhenping went downstairs together.

Ji Zhenping said, "Little Feng, if your guess is true, then there will definitely be a follow-up to this matter, and you might be approached again then, so you should be prepared first."

Ji Feng smiled and said, "I have been mentally prepared for this for a long time, as long as they don't make things difficult for me, then there will be no problem."

Ji Zhenping naturally knew what Ji Feng meant by this, this kid was talking about the things he had done in Rice, he laughed, "Even the Rice guys can't do anything to you, why should our people bother you?"

"That's not necessarily true!"

Ji Feng said, "You know everything that happened on the cargo ship when I was coming back, right?"

Ji Zhenping immediately understood, so Ji Feng was worried about this matter.

In fact, when Ji Feng had not yet returned, Ji Zhenping had already gotten the news that a line on the Rice side had been exposed and there had been a fierce battle on the ship, and even though Ji Feng and the others were not in danger, the line would definitely have to be scrapped from then on.

It's not that easy to build a line, not only do you have to spend a lot of manpower and resources, but most importantly, how can you hide it from the eyes of the intelligence department of Rice, but also, you have to get on good terms with the owners and captains of the cargo ships and other people on board, if you choose the right people to penetrate, etc. These are all extremely taxing matters.

"Now that this line has been scrapped, the loss is indeed not small." Ji Zhenping nodded and said in a low voice, "However, this is nothing compared to what you brought back. The most important thing is that although the line was scrapped, our people came back unharmed, so that's not much of a problem."

If the line is exposed, we can find a way to rebuild a secret channel from somewhere else later, but if the people are gone, it would be a big loss.

To train an agent with superior experience and strength, the amount of effort and money required was simply not something that outsiders could imagine.

Ji Feng was slightly relieved to hear this. In fact, he knew that with his status, even if the damage caused was even greater, he would certainly not have anything to do with himself and no one would come after him.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of services and services to the public.

For example, Ji Feng once saw a news story on the internet some time ago, where a newly built provincial stadium held a match with many spectators and a very enthusiastic scene.

However, while the match was in progress, the stands suddenly collapsed, causing a tragic result of more than ten deaths and hundreds of injuries.

After the incident, everyone was highly concerned that the stadium, which had just been built and was claimed to be able to accommodate 10,000 people at the same time, had collapsed so quickly.

This was clearly another case of jerry-built tofu-dreg construction.

However, while the media is digging for the truth, the netizens are concerned and the relatives of those killed and injured are waiting for the results of the investigation, no one actually knows who was responsible for the construction of this stadium!

The people responsible for the construction of the project excused themselves by saying that part of the stadium was contracted out, while the officials said that they were only responsible for supervising, not managing, the project, but no reasonable explanation could be found for who was ultimately contracted out!

There was an outcry and everyone was unhappy.

But even so, no one came forward to give an explanation. In the end, the officials actually said that after investigation, the reason for the collapse of the grandstand was that a few spectators were not sitting on the stand as required, but jumping and dancing on the side of the stand, which happened to be a weak point in the structure of the stand, and as a result, the stand collapsed, causing heavy casualties among the spectators.

According to the officials, they are equally responsible, but responsible for what.

According to, the official responsibility lies in the fact that their men did not stop the jumping and dancing spectators in time, that's all!

Once this statement came out, even though everyone couldn't help but rage, but those few spectators were actually arrested and even ended up being sentenced to jail

When Ji Feng saw this news, he was so angry that he directly balled up the newspaper into a ball and threw it into the bin.

What the hell kind of disgusting statement is this!

Could certain people be any more disgusting?!

Anyone who is not stupid knows that this is just an excuse, a pretext, how can a newly built grandstand not accommodate a few spectators jumping around?

How about a rope for all the spectators to hoist up when they get on the stands to save them from being crushed?

What a load of bollocks!

It was obvious to the discerning eye that some important people were involved, and that the builder, who could not be found, was an important person, or had a direct relationship with an important person.

Some people, in order to save themselves, went so far as to open their conscience and tell lies with their eyes wide open, even going so far as to condemn those few innocent spectators!

Later on, when Ji Feng was chatting with his elder brother Ji Shaodong and the others, he even talked about this topic. Ji Feng also heard about it, and Ji Shaolei knew more about it. According to him, originally this stadium was indeed bid away by a large state-owned construction group, and there should have been no problem next, just waiting for the construction to start.

But at this time, the son of a local vice-governor of a powerful faction, but fancy this project, hard to use relations, from the hands of that state-owned enterprises to dig down the project of the construction of the grandstand.

It goes without saying that in order to make money, this kind of person can do anything, and that the construction of the grandstand is naturally also jerry-built quality is very poor.

And when things went wrong, with that gentry's old man stepping in, naturally all voices were hardened, and eventually even innocent people were sentenced to jail!

And that vice governor's son, surprisingly, was not involved at all, just left the country to avoid the wind

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

But no matter what, this thing still makes people feel chilled, because the person who started this thing, the leader's son, is not a problem at all, and also with a lot of money in foreign countries is free and happy.

The result of the collapse of a bridge in a certain place was also disgusting to the extreme.

Ji Feng was deeply disgusted by such things, and he definitely did not do that kind of people.

"Little Feng, don't say anything about this matter to anyone, remember?" Ji Zhenping admonished, and after that, he left the unit in a car, supposedly to report upwards.

Campus Master Chapter 1926

That night, Ji Zhenping sent someone to take the weapons away.

Along with the weapons, there was of course the stack of information that Ji Feng had brought back.

However, what surprised Ji Feng was that the people sent by Little Uncle had taken away all that car, which left him speechless. That car was the spare car for his father Ji Zhenhua's guards, only that it was temporarily kept in the garage downstairs, waiting for rotation.

Ji Feng hurriedly called his younger uncle, but was told that the car had been stored with radioactive stuff, and perhaps there was still residual radioactive material in it, so it had to be driven over again for testing, and as for the spare car, the top would allocate another one over.

Since that was the case, Ji Feng said nothing more, as long as he could give his father an explanation.

Ji Feng didn't want his father to wait to use the car before he suddenly found out that it was gone, and then he might think he had messed up again.

The night passed in a flash, and when Ji Feng woke up early the next morning out of habit, he saw that the living room light was still on. He originally thought it was because the nanny had forgotten to turn off the light last night, but when he walked to the living room he found that his father was sitting in the living room smoking a cigarette, seemingly thinking about something.

Ji Feng's brow then couldn't help but frown, it was already late when his father came back last night, and now he was up so early, his rest time was not guaranteed at all, how could he have a good body like that?

"Dad, why are you up so early?" Ji Feng asked.

"Up?"

Ji Zhenhua looked at his son who was only wearing a jumper and was already slightly taller than himself, his face could not help but reveal a gratifying smile, the child had grown up and was gradually maturing.

Although he didn't wait to watch Ji Feng grow up day by day, it was a blessing for a parent to see his son being very good and making overachievements.

"Dad, are you troubled by something? Why did you get up early in the morning to smoke?" Ji Feng sat down opposite his own old son and looked at his father's slightly tired look, Ji Feng couldn't help but ask.

"Nothing much!" Ji Zhenhua smiled and waved his hand, very receptive to his son's concern, "You don't have to worry, just take care of yourself."

Ji Feng could only nod his head.

Ji Zhenhua suddenly added, "You don't need to have any worries about that side of the Wu family, no need to worry, let alone be afraid, I'm here for everything."

“Mm! I remember!” Ji Feng smiled and nodded, “I’ve dealt with Wu Zhiyong, I know how to deal with it!”

“That’s good!”

Ji Zhenhua nodded slightly and said, “Of course, it’s good to have an idea in your mind, but you shouldn’t be impatient, you should learn to have patience in everything, learn to be patient, and learn to persevere even more.”

“Mm!”

Ji Feng nodded his head.

There were not many opportunities for father and son to chat, even when Ji Feng was on vacation, there were not many times when he could see his father so free.

So for such a time, Ji Feng still enjoyed it very much.

In fact, deep in Ji Feng’s heart, he had always longed for such a time. In many people’s hearts, they will have unique memories belonging to him and his father, and may often recall sitting on his father’s lap, or being held in his arms, or riding on his neck giggling when they were small

Although the memories may be a little fuzzy because of the young age, or perhaps just a slight impression, they are always quite fond memories that bring a smile to one’s face when one is not aware of them.

When you grow up, or when you have to work hard for a living and work tirelessly for your goals in life, you may seldom remember the past.

However, once a person is hurt or feels incomparably lonely, the vague and indistinct memories deep inside have become the fondest memories in everyone’s heart, and at the same time, such memories deep inside will make everyone begin to understand the greatness and difficulty of a father.

In Ji Feng’s heart, however, there were no such memories, and what he had in the depths of his memory were only images of living with his mother.

Of course, those experiences were unhappy, and could even be described as tragic!

Now sitting across from his father, Ji Feng was able to feel his father’s concern for him, even though he hadn’t grown up next to him, but this blood relationship, which was thicker than water, would make him feel a kind of warmth.

Ji Feng did not feel too much emotion, but quickly began to enjoy this kind of time, he casually picked up his own old man’s special cigarettes from the coffee table, lit one up and also smoked it.

Ji Zhenhua was not averse to his son smoking, he had also come over from his younger days, so he just laughed and said, “Be careful, your mother will have to reprimand you if she finds out!”

Ji Feng said with a heated smile, “Then we’ll go out and smoke?”

Ji Zhenhua nodded and said, “That’s fine.”

So, father and son went to the balcony and secretly smoked while chatting.

It was only after breakfast that Ji Feng said goodbye to his parents and took his luggage to meet up with Tong Lei and Zhang Lei.

“Young Ji!”

Although it was already spring, the temperature in Yanjing was still quite cold, and it had only been a short time since the Great Cold of the twenty-four solar terms had passed.

Luckily, Bai Zhu was wearing quite a lot of clothes and a thick white down jacket outside, otherwise, an average person would be freezing cold all over if they stood in this cold wind for a while.

“Why don’t you just go up?” Ji Feng shook her small hand and found that Bai Zhu’s hand was cold, so obviously she had been waiting here for quite some time.

“Forget it, let’s not talk about it, let’s take a taxi!” Ji Feng waved his hand and changed the subject.

In fact, Ji Feng knew very well in his heart that Bai Zhu was afraid to go up there, she was worried that her parents had a bad opinion of her or didn’t like her, and thus something else would change.

It was because of this thought that when she came back, Bai Zhu even refused Ji Feng’s offer to let her come back with her, instead she found a hotel outside and stayed there, even though the hotel was not far from the neighborhood, but it still made Ji Feng feel bad.

Bai Zhu now has no one to rely on, not even a home, so I’m afraid the only person she can rely on is herself.

The two Audi A6s that Ji Feng originally had had had been driven by Zhang Lei, so this time they intended to drive back, but of course, with Zhang Lei’s enthusiasm for the car, the driver’s seat was definitely his.

As expected, after a few people met up, Zhang Lei took the initiative to take up the task of the driver, and after filling up the fuel, they headed straight for Jiangzhou.

“Crazy, you kid are not interesting enough!” Zhang Lei suddenly said.

“What’s not meaningful enough?” Ji Feng was stunned by what he said.

“Your family boss declared war with Wu Zhiyong, the Wu family boss, right? You didn’t tell me about this, I also heard that you had a fierce clash in the hotel owned by Wu Zhiyong’s mistress?!” Zhang Lei tsked, “You should have told me then and let me go and join in the fun.”

Ji Feng laughed: “What’s the point of you following along, I may not even be able to intervene in this matter.”

Zhang Lei heatedly laughed and said, “I’ll help out in my own name, can he still eat me up?”

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “This is not your personal matter, you come out to represent the Tong family, it will be troublesome in turn, so I did not tell you.”

“Rather

Zhang Lei nodded his head, very helpless.

There is no way, born in the Tong family, he is outside that represents the Tong family, his every move will be interpreted by the outside world as a signal for the action of the elders of the Tong family.

The matter was originally confined to a contest between the juniors of the two families, and Zhang Lei could help in secret, but if he was involved in a blatant manner, the scope of involvement would be wide, which is not good, and some of the bigwigs above would not like to see this happen.

Zhang Lei naturally understands this situation, but, Wu Zhiyong, that ruthless and dark son of a bitch, is coming against the mountain with his own brother, and Zhang Lei naturally wants to help, this is determined by his character.

“If you ask me, that son of a bitch Wu Zhiyong was hit hard in the face by your boss, and in the end your boss declared war to his face, it was all because Wu Zhiyong asked for it!”

Zhang Lei snorted, “I’ve heard about this person Wu Zhiyong for a long time, it’s said that this guy is quite black, but since the last time he threw sewage on his own brother, I’ve realised that he’s not only black, but he’s also black at heart!”

Zhang Lei said, “What’s there to be afraid of? Even if Wu Zhiyong was here, I would still dare to say it, since I dare to do it, don’t be afraid of others saying it!”

Ji Feng laughed, “What can you do if you say it? Can you defeat him by relying on your mouth?”

“That’s not true!”

Zhang Lei nodded in deep thought and laughed: “To say ah, or your boss that hegemonic words, see the real thing under the hand tsk, in front of Wu Zhiyong dare to say this, I think there are not many people in the whole Yanjing, this sentence has spread, do not know how many people are by your boss this sentence It’s a good thing that you’re not a big fan of your boss!”

Ji Feng laughed, not to mention others, even he was subdued when he first heard this.

He would never have thought that the boss, who had always been gentle and elegant, would actually say such domineering and aggressive words!

From the time Ji Feng met Ji Shaodong, Ji Shaodong had never been the kind of person who was calm, wise but not flamboyant, cultured and majestic, and could be said to be a dragon and a phoenix among men, but Ji Shaodong had directly declared war on Wu Zhiyong, which was really out of Ji Feng’s expectation.

This can also be seen, for Wu Zhiyong’s tactics, for his own arrested by the police, Ji Shaodong is how angry!

Campus Master Chapter 1927

The hustle and bustle of Yanjing was left behind, and Ji Feng and his group finally arrived in Jiangzhou in the evening, after about eleven hours of driving.

In fact, thought Zhang Lei's driving speed and physique, they could have arrived faster, but because Zhang Lei had been hogging the driver's seat and would not let go, Tong Lei was worried that his body would not be able to bear it and insisted on taking three breaks in the service area midway, which delayed them by more than an hour.

In addition, also because of the cold weather, people's bodies can't take it if they keep running on the highway, so they also had a simple lunch at the service area halfway through, before continuing on their way.

For this reason, Tong Lei could not help but complain about Zhang Lei a few times, but after all, they are young people, and Tong Lei does not like to talk much, so she did not say anything more.

But in fact, Ji Feng knew that the reason why Zhang Lei kept grabbing the car was because this guy wanted to practice his driving skills!

In the past, Zhang Lei had seen the speed and technology of Ji Feng's driving, the kind of technology that can incomparably and casually cut through the very crowded traffic, but the speed does not drop at all, it can be said that it is pleasing to the eye, the car skills are dazzling to the extreme, can really make Zhang Lei envious of the dead.

There is no man who does not like cars, especially young people, for the car that is an incomparable love, Zhang Lei is also no exception.

The reason for this is that the Tong Kai De has never allowed Zhang Lei to drive, after all, Zhang Lei was still too young, plus the Tong family has been adhering to the poor son rich daughter education, so Zhang Lei, not to mention driving, he usually even when he is at home on vacation, want to ride in his old man's car is not easy.

It was hard to wait until Ji Feng threw the two Audi's at him, so how could Zhang Lei's enthusiasm for the car be any less?

But unfortunately, no matter how much he practiced, Zhang Lei's car skills were extremely limited, not to mention reaching Ji Feng's level as if he was the king of handling, and even compared to those taxi drivers, his skills were only a tiny bit better.

Therefore, Zhang Lei was very reluctant, and as long as he had the opportunity, Zhang Lei would like to practice.

Therefore, usually if he went out, even if it was a long way, Zhang Lei would try his best to drive.

But on this journey from Yanjing, Zhang Lei found that his driving skills still hadn't improved much, so he couldn't help but feel a bit distressed and asked helplessly, "Crazy, how on earth did you practice this skill of driving?"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, "What, you're still not dead?"

"Nonsense!" Zhang Lei said without good humour, "Don't you know that I am a person who seeks progress?"

“I say you, driving is just for convenience, what can you do by practicing your car skills?” Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, “I don’t approve of you practicing your car skills because your kid’s character is not suitable.”

With Zhang Lei’s character, if his driving skills were top-notch, once he got impulsive, he might go to the road to show his driving skills at some point, and then he would definitely get into a mess.

It’s not bad to be able to drive peacefully.

This was something Ji Feng had said to this guy Zhang Lei before, and he still said it now.

“Got it!”

Zhang Lei waved his hand and said, “I knew that’s what you kid must have replied, fine, if you don’t teach me I’ll find my own way to learn.”

Ji Feng laughed: “Don’t say so much, let’s concentrate on driving, the traffic situation on this road is very complicated.”

The traffic situation in Jiangzhou is no better than Yanjing’s. If you don’t concentrate on driving at this time, you might bump into something, and there’s no telling how many similar incidents happen every day.

“You’re a hungry man who doesn’t know what he’s hungry for!” Zhang Lei shook his head helplessly and had to concentrate on driving.

However, just at this moment, the corner of Ji Feng’s eyes flashed, and then he let out a low shout, “Be careful.”

Zhang Lei also instantly frowned and fiercely pivoted the steering wheel, hitting the car in the direction of the side Boom!

The next moment, Zhang Lei slammed on the brakes and brought the car to a halt, muttering, “Holy shit! How can you drive like that? If I had been driving faster, I could have just knocked them off the road!”

Ji Feng said in a deep voice, “Cut the crap, go down and take a look first!”

He couldn’t help but shake his head, just now he was still worried about the complicated traffic situation in Jiangzhou, afraid that Zhang Lei would be distracted and thus have some kind of traffic accident, but it turned out that not even two minutes later, this accident came, it was really spiritual!

The only thing is, this accident is not Zhang Lei’s responsibility, although this kid’s driving skills are not too good, but that is also relative, compared to him Zhang Lei’s driving skills are naturally not very good, but compared to other drivers, Zhang Lei’s driving skills are definitely very good, even those taxi drivers who run on the road all day, driving skills are not as good as him.

Not to mention anything else, just Zhang Lei’s reaction speed and body coordination, coupled with his six senses that were also improving day by day, was enough to give him a higher level than ordinary drivers.

This time, Ji Feng saw clearly that it was a black car in the left lane that suddenly leaned over and seemed to be trying to cut through in front of their car, but it didn't succeed, instead it collided sideways with the Audi.

Of course, it was Zhang Lei who drove into the other car, but it was because the other car had jumped the lane.

After being hit, the car in front of them also stopped, Ji Feng and the two of them just opened the door and got out of the car, they saw a man of about thirty years old get out of the car in front of them. There are so many cars on this road, even if you guys are a little ahead, how fast can you go?"

Driving on the road, such bumps and bruises are really too common, so Zhang Lei did not get angry, and his tone was not too heavy, but just a bit complaining, after all, no one wants to encounter such things, on the one hand, it is more troublesome to negotiate, on the other hand, even after calling the police, when waiting for the police and insurance company adjusters, it is also more time-consuming.

They drove for more than ten hours to reach Jiangzhou, but they didn't expect to encounter this kind of thing as soon as they arrived, and this was during the Chinese New Year.

Of course Zhang Lei did not take it too seriously, and as he spoke, he shook his head and walked forward, wanting to see where the two cars had collided, but he had just taken one foot when he suddenly heard the man on the other side open his mouth and swear.

" the next door! You want to die for driving so fast? Or are you in a hurry to go to your next life?!" The man opened his mouth with an unpleasant and harsh insult, he pointed at Zhang Lei with a brutal face and cursed, "You don't know how to stop and give way when you see my car leaning this way?"

Swish!

In a flash, Zhang Lei's face sank, his teeth clenched, and a fierce look appeared on his face: "Son of a bitch, let me hear you curse again!"

Zhang Lei was instantly pissed off, the situation was more than understandable, it was obvious that the other party was driving a bully car to jump the road, which caused a traffic accident. Although Zhang Lei felt depressed, he had communicated with the other party, but the result was that he received an insult directly, and the other party had actually justified his mistake and blamed him in turn.

The other party's unpleasant insults instantly set Zhang Lei on fire like a powder keg.

Ji Feng's face was also abruptly gloomy, his eyes slightly narrowed, then he shouted in a deep voice: "Be careful what you say, when you scold other people's parents, think about whether you were born by your own parents!"

Who knows, once the man heard what Ji Feng and Zhang Lei said, his eyes snapped up and he shouted violently, ", two little pussy-raised contraptions actually dare to talk to me like that, Laozi won't slap you two motherfuckers to death"

His words hadn't even fallen yet, he swooped over in big strides, raised his hand and slapped it towards Zhang Lei's face.

“..... fuck me!”

Zhang Lei could no longer hold back from the scolding, he roared in anger, fiercely took an arrow step forward, his left leg slightly bent, his body slightly sideways, turned around, and his right leg lightning-like swept across viciously.

“Boom~~!”

The man’s palm was still a few steps away from Zhang Lei when Zhang Lei’s vicious leg smashed into the man’s ear door.

Only a thud was heard!

The man didn’t even have time to react before he was smashed to the ground by Zhang Lei’s leg.

“Fuck!”

Zhang Lei took a step forward and directly stepped on the man’s head under his feet, and said in a carnal voice: “I’ve seen many arrogant people, but this is the first time I’ve seen something like you, I want to see whether your mouth is hard or this tarmac surface is hard, ah!”

He shouted lowly, his foot suddenly launched, fiercely stepped on the man’s head, rubbed it violently, saw the man’s face in as if it was a watermelon being stepped on and sliding on the ground

“Zee!”

A sound so harsh that it made one’s scalp tingle rang out, and all of a sudden, another miserable and incomparable scream shouted out from that man’s mouth, “Ah—!”

The man was in such pain that he rolled on the ground with his hand clutching his face, but just as his hand covered his face, he let go as if he had been struck by electricity, and only then did he see that his face was covered in blood.

The most shocking thing was the man’s mouth, which was bleeding out, his lips were worn down, his gums seemed to be worn down, and it looked like he had lost his teeth as well

“So that’s all there is to your mouth!” Zhang Lei’s face was icy cold and his eyes were filled with an icy look, “Since you don’t have such a hard mouth, don’t spit out such cheap words, or else I’ll tear your mouth apart!”

Campus Master Chapter 1928

“So that’s all your mouth is like!” Zhang Lei’s face was cold and his eyes were filled with an icy expression, “Since you don’t have such a hard mouth, don’t spit out such cheap words, or else I’ll tear your mouth apart!”

Even if it was because there was an accident here, blocking the way of the cars behind them and making them have to sound their horns or turn around carefully, it could not cover up Zhang Lei’s icy voice.

Zhang Lei was indeed angry, and it was a heartfelt anger.

It had taken them a full day to reach Jiangzhou, and they were about to go home when they came across such an incident.

It's enough to get tired of being in an accident at this time of year, let alone running into an overbearing car. People who have driven cars have the most experience, and encountering someone driving an overbearing car on the road is simply a source of inexplicable anger. But Zhang Lei also still hold back the fire, he also does not want to easily get into conflict with people.

However, who knew that he had just gotten out of the car and merely complained about the other party, and as a result, he came early with vicious insults, and even his parents were implicated in the scolding.

This was like a basin of cold water being poured directly on Zhang Lei's head, which really poured him a complete and utter chill!

What kind of character is Zhang Lei?

The reprimand and strict discipline of his old man had made him rebellious since he was a child, but he could only be an honest and good boy at home, but the rebellion in his heart was revealed after he went out, and it was more rebellious than ordinary children.

From that time onwards, Zhang Lei developed a stubborn character and a temper that was not irritable but definitely not calm, and he even seemed a bit irritable compared to the average person.

What's more, Zhang Lei is a man with no room for sand in his eyes, and with a strict family upbringing he has some traditional Chinese thinking – parents are the greatest in the world!

No one can insult his parents, or else Zhang Lei will fight with them to the death!

How could a man with his temperament stand the insults from the other party?

What's more, the man's words were so unpleasant that even a person with a good temper could not bear to hear them, let alone a person of Zhang Lei's character.

In a flash, the fire in Zhang Lei's heart burst out.

Thus, the man who had a cheap mouth was out of luck. For the sake of his girlfriend Shen Jingyi, he had fearlessly barged into two ancient martial arts clans and fought against so many masters without even blinking an eye, so many people had their arms and legs broken by him!

How many people had their arms and legs broken by him! Now, how could he be lighter on this son of a bitch with a mouth that was so cheap?

So Zhang Lei just one foot down, the guy's mouth with the solid tarmac, an incomparable intimate contact, and ruthlessly rubbed over.

As for the consequences

The son of a bitch opened his mouth and cursed his parents when he didn't even consider the consequences, how would Zhang Lei be bound?

If he didn't teach him a lesson, I'm afraid Zhang Lei would never be satisfied in his life!

Therefore, Zhang Lei used a harsh and cold tactic to directly grind this bastard's mouth raw on the ground, making him hurt to his bones, and even more so, making him remember today's lesson deeply in his heart.

In this way, Zhang Lei believed that this bastard would never forget this day for the rest of his life!

In the future, as long as this son of a bitch dares to be bitchy again, he will remember what happened today, and he will likewise know that it doesn't matter if his mouth is bitchy, but if he is bitchy to others, not everyone will spoil him like his parents did!

..... If a person opens his mouth and insults other people's parents, or even takes pleasure in cursing at them, then that person is either spoiled by his parents or doesn't take them seriously!

However, just because he doesn't take his parents seriously doesn't mean that others do too.

"Ouch me super!"

The man was rolling and wailing on the ground in pain, but his mouth was still not honest, and he actually burst out foul language again, only, because his lips were raw and abraded, even when he was cursing, his mouth was bubbling with wind, and his words were somewhat unclear.

However, this man's action had completely enraged Zhang Lei.

Now he was still unrepentant and opened his mouth to curse, Zhang Lei could not help but let out a fierce laugh: "It seems that the blow just now was really too light, then, if I don't beat you up today, I'll take your name!"

Before the words left his mouth, Zhang Lei fiercely took two steps forward and lifted his foot high and kicked the man directly in the face.

"Boom!" The man was kicked with another miserable scream, piteous, as if he was being tortured immensely.

"Ah son of a bitch, Rao Zhi must kill the female" The man was rolling on the ground in pain, but his mouth was full of angry curses, but at the same time, he did not forget to scream incessantly.

"And kill me?"

Zhang Lei smiled coldly when he heard that, even though the man's mouth was leaking, Zhang Lei could still understand what the son of a bitch meant, he laughed harshly, "Well then, I'd like to see whether you kill me or I kill you today!"

The cold light in his eyes flashed, and although his face was smiling, there was not a trace of laughter on his face, instead, it looked cold and incomparable.

Zhang Lei was truly moved to kill.

If a person innocently found fault with him, or even bullied him, Zhang Lei was afraid that he would not be so angry, or would even simply ignore the other party, or would prefer to put up with them and not see eye to eye with them.

However, this man was really disgusting to Zhang Lei to the extreme. In fact, any normal person who heard those abusive words from him would definitely not be calm.

No one wants to hear someone using their own relatives, their own parents as a greeting, and words like 'fuck your mother' are so vicious to many people that they can't even wait to run the cursing animal over or choke him to death in a cesspit to relieve their hatred!

As the saying goes, a bad word is a cold word in June, and in fact, such abusive words are more hurtful than anything else!

"Bastard, I'll stomp you to death!" Zhang Lei took a few steps to the guy and lifted his foot again, this time he would rather risk something happening to him, but he definitely wanted to stomp this bastard back into his mother's stomach!

"Lei Zi" Ji Feng frowned, "It's not worth it for such a bastard, just call the police."

This son of a bitch is obviously a bastard who has a life and no one to feed him, and it's too much of a loss of status to go against this kind of person, while if you fight with him, this guy is not even able to withstand one finger of Zhang Lei, this kind of person is simply like those scoundrels on the street, there is no need to go with him in general.

What's more, because of the traffic accident here and the fight, quite a few people have come to watch now.

If Zhang Lei was too heavy-handed, it would be bad to cause any trouble, and it would not be a good idea to cause any more trouble.

Zhang Lei laughed coldly and said, "I have to talk to him today! If he doesn't curse, that's fine, but since he likes to curse so much, I'll let him curse enough to see if I don't break all his teeth!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, Zhang Lei's face turned cold and his foot, which was raised high, was about to kick down.

However, at this moment, he suddenly heard someone shout in alarm, followed by a woman's voice, "Stop!"

Zhang Lei didn't even turn his head back and sneered, "Stop when you say so? Now that you know you're out, why did you go?"

However, the man was screaming in pain and cursing angrily, "Fuck you"

"Boom~~!"

The next moment, Zhang Lei kicked over again, the heavy kick directly on the guy's mouth, causing the latter to open his mouth wide once again and scream miserably

"Hiss...!"

A series of backward breathing sounds rang out one after another, and the surrounding onlookers could not help but let out a low cry of shock.

Under the light of the car lights, one could clearly see that the guy lying on the ground had all his incisors kicked off by Zhang Lei's kick, with one of his incisors being directly broken, making his mouth full of blood and looking miserable and frightening.

"Chun Lei!"

A cry of alarm rang out, followed by the sight of a long-haired woman quickly running over from the other side of the car, hurriedly helping the man who was lying on the ground screaming in agony, exclaiming, "Chun Lei, how are you, where did you hurt?!"

When a woman intervened, Zhang Lei immediately frowned and took two steps backwards.

He had beaten that man because he had a cheap mouth, even to the point of being outrageous, so he deserved to be beaten, and Zhang Lei would not even blink an eye if he laid a heavy hand on him.

But now that this woman had come out, Zhang Lei couldn't do anything, he couldn't do anything about beating a woman.

Even Zhang Lei is a little worried, this woman saw her companion was beaten, will not be like a madman directly jumped over to scratch their He has seen many women rely on the fact that they are lesbians, beat up people more fierce than men.

That's why Zhang Lei took two steps backwards.

The woman did not pounce, but after shouting twice, she angrily turned back to stare at Zhang Lei and angrily shouted, "Why are you so violent, my friend has already fallen to the ground from your beating, how can you still hit him again, want to kill someone!"

Zhang Lei sneered, "Beating him to death is light, I even want to bruise him to death ee?"

Before Zhang Lei could finish his words, they came to a screeching halt, immediately his mouth let out an ee, and his face revealed an extremely shocked look, as if he had seen something incredible, simply surprised to the extreme.

Campus Master Chapter 1929

Before Zhang Lei could finish his words, they came to a screeching halt, and immediately his mouth let out a babble, and an extremely shocked look appeared on his face, as if he had seen something incredible, simply astonished to the extreme.

"Ah?!"

In the next moment, that woman also let out a simultaneous cry of shock, and immediately looked at Zhang Lei with a face full of astonishment.

Zhang Lei stared at the woman with wide eyes, looked at the woman, and hurriedly looked back at Ji Feng, and then at the woman: "You, you are crazy, you come over and look at her is that what... .."

Zhang Lei saw the woman who was squatting on the ground, it was almost as if he had seen a ghost, and he could not even speak properly.

In fact, Ji Feng had also seen this woman who suddenly rushed out, before Zhang Lei kicked that one, Ji Feng heard that woman shouting to stop, and he felt familiar with it, but before he could say anything, Zhang Lei directly kicked over.

As a result, the man's incisors suffered!

Ji Feng could see clearly that one of the man's incisors had been broken into a piece, and the pain was even more painful than having his teeth kicked out directly.

Then the woman rushed out, and Ji Feng felt that the woman's figure and back looked familiar, so he looked at her twice.

But when Ji Feng saw how the woman was dressed, he didn't feel familiar again.

Because this woman was wearing white fur, with stockings and black boots underneath, that hair was also permed into big wavy curls, and her wrist was carrying bright jewellery, and looking at the brightness, I don't know if it was white gold or what material it was

All in all, this woman looked very mature, completely dressed like a rich woman in a flashy and extravagant outfit, looking like a broad wife in general.

In Ji Feng's impression, he never seemed to know such a woman and rarely dealt with such people.

So originally, he also thought that this woman's back looked somewhat familiar, but was put off by Ji Feng's thought that he should have misread it.

However, when this woman turned around to rebuke Zhang Lei, Ji Feng saw the front of this woman, and when he saw what this woman looked like, in a flash, he froze on the spot.

How come it was her?

Ji Feng was stunned beyond words, he was very surprised, how could he have not expected to see her here, and, actually, in this situation!

"Crazy, she is Hu Xuehui?!" Zhang Lei also looked over with a stunned face and asked in amazement, his face could be really odd to the extreme, his heart was even flooded with an absurd and funny feeling.

Hu Xuehui!

They had actually met Hu Xuethui here, and moreover, they had met in this way!

Zhang Lei could really laugh and feel very strange at the same time.

Ji Feng faintly nodded his head.

That's right!

This woman who suddenly rushed out was no other than his old acquaintance and his former girlfriend – Hu Xuethui!

Of course, that was already in the past tense.

The woman who had changed a lot today seemed to have changed a lot, from her dress to her physical appearance, otherwise, how could Ji Feng not recognize her at first sight?

You know, with Ji Feng's eyesight and memory, there really wasn't anyone he had seen and then seen again and eventually couldn't remember, even if it was just based on her body type, Ji Feng should have been able to tell who the other person was after thinking carefully for a while.

But he didn't recognize it was Hu Xuehui at first, yet the latter had been his girlfriend whom he had fallen in love with bitterly, the girl who had once initially entered his heart, and the girl who had left too deep an impression on him.

Even when he broke up later, Hu Xuehui left him with too deep and too profound memories – only, those memories were the most painful ones for Ji Feng.

But even so, Ji Feng could not immediately recognize Hu Xuehui, so you can imagine how much Hu Xuehui had actually changed.

"So what Hu Xuehui, how come you're here? This is your friend?!" Zhang Lei froze and pointed at the guy lying on the ground and asked in consternation.

"Yeah, I didn't expect to run into you guys here either", Hu Xuehui's face was very embarrassed, smiling somewhat unnaturally as her gaze swept past Ji Feng's body, but then hurriedly moved away in a whirl.

Ji Feng didn't react in the slightest, as if he didn't see it, but he didn't escape too much either, let alone any hatred.

He looked at Hu Xuehui with that kind of gaze as if he was looking at a stranger.

"Ah"

A painful moan immediately broke this awkward atmosphere, Hu Xuehui immediately reacted, she hurriedly asked with concern, "Chun Lei, how are you, I'll take you to the hospital"

The man named Chunlei pushed her away and said angrily, "No way! I, I'm going to wait here today, give me the phone, I want to call someone"

Because the incisors were kicked off, the man called Chun Lei was leaking when he spoke, his speech was slurred, but everyone present could understand that he was going to call for someone.

Hu Xuehui could not help but blush at the words and said, "Chun Lei, don't be impulsive, today's matter may be a misunderstanding, let me send you to the hospital first"

"What did you say?!"

The man named Chun Lei's voice suddenly raised a few points, he sat up with a stifled cry, pointed at his face, and said in pain and anger, "This is also called a misunderstanding? Hu Xuehui, whose side are you on?"

Hu Xuehui hurriedly said, "Chunlei, what's the use of you talking about this now, it's better to hurry to the hospital"

“I don’t want to go to the hospital, when have I ever been beaten like this? No, I won’t get them two dogs killed today”

“If you dare to swear one more word, I’ll skin you!” Seeing that the guy just wanted to say dirty words, Zhang Lei’s face all swished down, gloomy to the extreme, and his voice was even colder, so that people definitely did not doubt the truth of his words, if that man dared to insult him again, Zhang Lei would definitely not let him go.

The next moment, the man’s voice came to an abrupt halt!

The man had already seen Zhang Lei’s ruthlessness and formidable hands, so it would be a lie to say that he was not afraid at all.

If you are bold, it also depends on the person you are dealing with.

This man looked ruthless, but in front of Zhang Lei’s ruthless methods, he couldn’t be ruthless, and he didn’t even dare to be ruthless!

This was evident from the fact that his voice came to a screeching halt when he was reprimanded by Zhang Lei with a single word!

Seeing this, Hu Xuehui immediately said in a low voice, “Chun Lei, let me take you to the hospital first, the injury on your face is not light, if you go late, you might be left with large scars in the future, and you might even be disfigured”

The man’s eyes flashed a look of panic, perhaps because Hu Xuehui’s words made him really scared, he immediately hated voice: “Go to the hospital can, but can not be so cheap those two, kids, you give me the phone, I must find someone to get them can not, in addition to write down their license plate number If I don’t get them killed, I’ll write the three words of Bian Chunlei backwards!”

Hu Xuehui said helplessly, “Chunlei, listen to me, these two people I know them, they can’t get away, but the best way we can do is to call the police, don’t mess around in private”

“You know them?” The man called Bian Chunlei’s eyes suddenly glared, “Tell me who they are and where their home is, I’ll tell someone to do them”

“They are all very respectable people in Jiangzhou, many leaders are very close to them, there are also some big brothers on the road, when they see them they are like rats seeing cats, you say how powerful they are!” Hu Xuehui lowered her voice to a low level and said, “If you use your kind of reckless approach to them, I’m afraid none of us will be able to get out of Jiangzhou alive!”

Bian Chunlei’s body suddenly jolted, “Really?!”

Hu Xuehui said: “Of course it’s true, did you forget I told you, I used to go to school on this side of Jiangzhou, so I’ve seen them, Chunlei, you listen to me, if you don’t want to die, then hurry to the hospital, the rest of the things we call the police, go through the formal channels to solve! ”

The pain on his face and mouth reminded him that today he was really beaten badly, this face was really stepped on the ground and could not be picked up, side Chunlei’s heart hate almost can eat Zhang Lei and Ji Feng alive, it seems that this will relieve the hate.

However, thinking about what Hu Xuehui said, Bian Chunlei couldn't help but feel a little bit scared in his heart.

Were these two guys really that powerful?

Bian Chunlei still doesn't quite believe it, but he also knows that Hu Xuehui did go to school over here, and there is no reason to lie to him, which makes him believe

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

Hu Xuehui said, "Chunlei, we can't delay any longer, otherwise, the injury on your face is really in trouble your mouth is still bleeding even now!"

"Good! Let's go!"

Bian Chunlei said hatefully, despite the heart is very reluctant, can't help but say: "Damn, if it's not a new transfer of a police chief in South Guangdong, the current on the road things are more strict, I don't want to give my big brother trouble, otherwise, I will not be able to let these two guys go"

For his words, Hu Xuehui pretended not to hear, although she knew that Bian Chunlei's elder brother was a very powerful character in the South Guangdong underworld, and had friends all over the world, and had many connections on this side of Jiangzhou. However, Hu Xuehui knew that this was useless to Ji Feng

"Fuck hiss"

Being supported by Hu Xuehui, Bian Chunlei reluctantly stood up, but just as soon as he exerted himself, he couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air, and he didn't know where the injury was touched, and immediately the pain disappeared without even finishing his curses.

Zhang Lei, however, instantly glared and said in a cold voice, "What did you say!?"

Hu Xuehui hurriedly said, "Nothing! He didn't say anything, Zhang Lei, don't be normal with him, he is this person with this nature"

"Humph!"

Zhang Lei did not eat this, he coldly snorted, "Hu Xuehui, you don't need to say good things for him either, I know what kind of person he is better than you, of course, I know what kind of person you are too!"

At these words, Hu Xuehui's face suddenly turned white, a look of extreme embarrassment flashed across her eyes, as if she didn't even know what to say.

Zhang Lei, however, as if he did not see it, said in a cold voice: "No need to look at me like that, did I say something wrong? Or have I wronged you?"

Hu Xuehui opened her mouth, but she could not say anything.

In fact, she knew better than anyone else what Zhang Lei meant when he said that, but Hu Xuehui didn't dare to refute or deny it, because what Zhang Lei said was the truth, which Hu Xuehui herself knew very well.

"Kid, what are you talking about?!" Hu Xuehui didn't say anything, but Bian Chunlei quit, his eyes glaring, staring deadly at Zhang Lei, he said in a deep voice: "Kid, I know you are very powerful and well-connected in Jiangzhou, but I have to warn you, don't treat everyone else as a yakuza, there are plenty of people who are more powerful than you!"

Zhang Lei immediately laughed, "From what you said, you are also very well-connected in Jiangzhou?"

"Hmph!"

Bian Chunlei could not help but sneer, "If I am well-connected, you will definitely know, I assure you! I can tell you very clearly that I, Bian Chunlei, have never dared to mess with me in all the years I've been on the road, and no one has ever dared to beat me up like this, kid, you're dead!"

Zhang Lei snorted, "No one dared to hit you before because you didn't meet me, but now that you've messed with my head and you're still so cheap, you're asking for it! I tell you, this time you should secretly be glad that you didn't run into me in the middle of nowhere, otherwise I would have buried you in the ground!"

"You" Bian Chunlei was furious at Zhang Lei's words, he was always the one threatening others, when did it become someone else's turn to threaten him?

"Chunlei! Don't be impulsive!"

Seeing that Bian Chunlei was about to rush up and fight Zhang Lei again, Hu Xuehui was so frightened that she hurriedly pulled him to a halt and hastily lowered her voice to persuade him, "Chunlei, a good man won't eat a loss in front of him, you are alone now, but there are two of them, you will definitely suffer a loss in a fight!"

It was not just a loss, it was like actively seeking a beating!

Just one Zhang Lei had already beaten Bian Chunlei to the point of becoming inhuman, not to mention that there was a Ji Feng standing next to him.

The first thing that happened to him was that he was hit by Zhang Lei's leg and was still buzzing in his ears. If this guy hit him again, he would have a concussion.

Seeing that Bian Chunlei hesitated, Hu Xuehui knew that he had taken his words into account, so she hurriedly continued, "Chunlei, let's hurry to the hospital, it's only a battle of wills to stay here, there's no point, don't you think?"

Bian Chunlei's face changed and he couldn't help but grit his teeth

"Hiss"

The pain that came from the gums and lips in his mouth was so intense that Bian Chunlei could not help but suck in a breath of cold air once again, it turned out that when he was biting his teeth he had forgotten that before this his teeth had been stepped on by Zhang Lei on the ground and trampled off raw, and even now his mouth was still painful.

Bian Chunlei couldn't help but let out a stifled cry, "Let's go!"

Hu Xuehui was instantly overjoyed, as long as she could get out of here quickly, that was better than anything, "Slow down, I'll hold you up, we're leaving"

"Slow down!"

However, before Hu Xuehui and the two of them could even take a step, they suddenly heard Zhang Lei's voice ring out.

Both of them turned around at the same time, and Hu Xuehui asked, "Zhang Lei, what else is going on?"

Zhang Lei could not help but give a cold laugh, Shuo Da: "What's the matter? You're really asking this lightly, you hit my car for no reason, you even opened your mouth and cursed, you even slapped your ears trying to slap me at the drop of a hat, and now you want to go away so easily? Is there such a cheap thing to do?"

Hu Xuehui was in a hurry and said, "Then what else do you want, you've already beaten Chun Lei like this, isn't it bad enough? Do you have to beat him to death to be considered!"

"Beaten to death?"

Zhang Lei sneered, "But I don't think it's enough, for a bastard whose mouth stinks worse than a shithole, no amount of beating is too much! If this wasn't a public place, I would have pressed him into a cesspit and drowned him!"

Swish!

Bian Chunlei's eyes instantly turned red, and he didn't know if it was because of his anger or because he was so humiliated, his body was trembling with anger, he pointed his finger at Zhang Lei and gritted his teeth, "You"

"Don't you dare say another word!" Zhang Lei's eyes glared.

Over there, Chun Lei's words came to an abrupt halt, and under Zhang Lei's ice-cold gaze, the former stiffly did not dare to say another word, and the original kind of humiliation and anger in his eyes dissipated at once.

It could be seen that he was truly afraid of Zhang Lei.

"Humph!"

Zhang Lei glanced at him with great disdain and snorted, "With such little guts, you are still more cross than even a fucking crab, dragging like a two-fifths of a million, opening your mouth and insulting other people's parents, what are you? Do you really think that just because you are capable of something that no one can rule you? Look at you!"

Looking at Bian Chunlei's red eyes, Zhang Lei's face gradually turned fierce as he said in a cold voice, "I've said that about you, what can you do to me? If you really have the guts, you can resist now, just do something like a man out and see!"

Huffing~~huffing~~!

Bian Chunlei panted sharply and stared at Zhang Lei angrily.

"You can resist!"

Zhang Lei stared at him with great disdain and said, "Aren't you a bully? Didn't you come up here and want to slap me? Come on, I'll stand right here, you can do as you please!"

"I think, as long as one is a man, in the face of such an insult, even the most cowardly person would have to fight with the other party, right?" Zhang Lei let out a fierce laugh, "Come up here, let me see how manly you are, as long as you come up here, I promise to fulfill you and let you be a big man for once!"

"Come up here!" Zhang Lei suddenly shouted.

"You" To everyone's surprise, instead of rushing up out of anger, Bian Chunlei was frightened by Zhang Lei's voice and took a step back in a panic.

"Afraid of death, afraid of being beaten!" Zhang Lei shook his head with great disdain, "Look at your bearish face, what a thing!"

"Zhang Lei, stop it!" Hu Xuehui couldn't help but say, "You've already beaten him up like this, why humiliate people again?"

"Get out of the way! What do you think you are again?!" Zhang Lei glared at her fiercely, "Talking to you is already considered looking up to you, don't take yourself too seriously!"

"You"

Zhang Lei, however, glared and sneered, "What, did I say wrong? Who do you think you are? Still I humiliate people, if these words were to come out of someone else's mouth, I would definitely consider them, but these words coming out of your Hu Xuethui's mouth, how the fuck do I hear them and find them so harsh" You wannabe bitch still has the face to say it!"

Swish!

Zhang Lei took a step forward with anger in his eyes, "When it comes to humiliating people, I, Zhang Lei, think that even ten of me are not as good as you, Hu Xuehui! I don't even hesitate to humiliate my own boyfriend, and I even hate to step into the dust, just because I want to climb up the ladder and follow your sister, who is a bullshit mistress of a small boss, to live a good life!"

Hu Xuehui's face turned pale as she was told, and her eyes were even filled with intense embarrassment, her whole person was almost dumbfounded, frozen on the spot, not even knowing what to do.

“A person like you still has the face to come out and say that I humiliated people?” Zhang Lei sneered, and immediately, he patted the clothes on his chest and bristled, “Do you want me to go on? I know a lot about your sisters’ experiences!”

“Zhang Lei!”

Zhang Lei turned around and saw that Tong Lei had gotten out of the car at some point and was standing beside it, but her face was a little upset: “You’re going too far!”

Zhang Lei grinned too much? Hmph!

No one knew better than Zhang Lei how vicious and unforgiving Hu Xuehui had been when she humiliated Ji Feng.

At that time, Tong Lei was not yet with Ji Feng, so she had no idea how much humiliation Hu Xuehui had brought to Ji Feng, and just how much she had hurt him!

It had been a long time since Ji Feng and Hu Xuehui had broken up, almost a semester or so, and once when Ji Feng was helping his mother sell vegetables on the street, he ran into Hu Xuehui and her sister again, and at that time, Hu Xuehui had even insulted Ji Feng once again.

Even Hu Xuehui’s sister was sneering at Ji Feng, and even Ji Feng’s mother was implicated in the incident.

This matter was still something that Ji Feng occasionally said later when he was drinking.

You know, ever since he broke up with Hu Xuehui, Ji Feng had hardly ever mentioned this woman, but that time when he was drinking, Ji Feng talked about this matter, so it was obvious in his heart how much damage this matter had caused him.
