

Campus Master 1971

Xiang Yongzhan grunted twice: "It's hard to say."

He knew that this guy Ji Feng was even better than a monkey, so if you didn't pay attention when dealing with him, you might fall into his path, so Xiang Yongzhan naturally had to be careful.

Ji Feng laughed: "Don't worry, just wait in peace, I can guarantee that someone will definitely come to your door to give you benefits."

"Give me benefits?" Xiang Yongzhan was a bit puzzled.

"That's right!"

Ji Feng nodded, "Even if it's not directly sent to you, it will still be sent to your home in Yanjing, you have to know, what exactly is the identity of that killer in your hands, for some people, it is incredibly important!"

What exactly is the identity of that assassin, this is quite important to some people.

If the other party was an elite of the special forces, then this matter would definitely not end here, no matter who it was, casually using an elite warrior from the forces to assassinate another family's son, this was a big taboo.

If he can assassinate Ji Feng today, he will be able to assassinate He Hongwei tomorrow, and the day after tomorrow he may simply be able to carry a gun and sneak directly into the inner sanctum to do harm to the head!

This is the kind of behaviour that no one can allow.

More importantly, the command of the military has always been a matter of great importance to the top brass. If any son of a family can command the elite soldiers of the military to do something illegal, then what else do we need the generals above us for?

What's more, this son of a family is not even a member of the military

If Wang Zhijun himself was an officer in the military, like Xiang Yongzhan, then if he sent one or two warriors to do something illegal, then at most it would be just his personal actions, nothing to do with command, it would be the same as a leader of some police station, commanding the police below to do something bad, it would be the same.

But Wang Zhijun is not a member of the military, and this is a serious problem.

This kind of taboo matter, the top will naturally not just let it go, and will definitely pursue it to the end.

When that time comes, the people involved will not be one or two, to be able to use the elite warriors of the special forces, it may be how big the background.

At least an ordinary officer does not have the right to command special forces fighters.

However, if the killer is not a member of the military, or even if he is a member of the military, but under whose orders he came, the right to make this decision is entirely in the hands of Xiang Yongzhan.

If some people don't want the matter to get too big and don't want to get into trouble, I believe that Xiang Yongzhan, the key person who can decide the direction of the matter, will definitely become the target of public relations.

Even the entire Xiang family would become the target of some people's PR.

If there is not enough benefit, Xiang Yongzhan only needs to crook his lips, then it will be enough for some people to drink!

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

The first time I saw him, I was so happy to see him.

"Ji Shao, drink tea, it's getting cold" Bai Zhu stood next to him at some point and handed Ji Feng a cup of tea, "Who are you talking to on the phone, laughing so happily? Is it that the matter from last night was resolved?"

"It wasn't that easy!" Ji Feng laughed, "The one who should be in a hurry now is not us, but the person who actually sent that killer."

"Oh!"

Bai Zhu answered, but looking at her expression, she seemed a bit confused.

Ji Feng then smiled, "Don't quite understand, do you?"

Bai Zhu's pretty face reddened slightly, but she still nodded honestly, she indeed didn't quite understand it.

Ji Feng pointed to the sofa and let Bai Zhu sit down, smiling, "Well then, it just so happens that I have time today, I'll give you an analysis, interested in listening?"

"Mm! Interested!" Bai Zhu immediately nodded her head.

"Then let's talk about it from the beginning!" Ji Feng took a sip of tea, then gave Bai Zhu an analysis.

From the beginning when Wang Zhijun called to provoke him, then to the back when he learned Wang Zhijun's identity and speculated that Wu Zhiyong might send a killer over, until the end when things ended, Ji Feng briefly went over it all.

All these things, Bai Zhu followed the personal experience, so she understood what she heard.

Afterwards, Ji Feng briefly talked about the family Xiang Yongzhan belonged to, their influence in the military, and the pattern of Yanjing.

"Young Ji, I actually don't quite understand, since we caught that killer, why did we hand the man over to Captain Xiang?" Bai Zhu asked suspiciously, "If that killer is in our hands, when the time comes, won't it be up to us to decide how to interrogate him and what the outcome will be? After handing it over to Captain Xiang now, can he listen to you that much?"

Ji Feng laughed, "I had no intention of making him listen to me!"

Looking at Bai Zhu's puzzled look, Ji Feng explained, "Actually, by handing the man over to Xiang Yongzhan, I was looking at the Xiang family's influence in the military, and at the same time, as the Xiang family is also a big family, the most likely thing they could do in this matter is to remain neutral, so that Xiang Yongzhan could also not take over that killer."

Bai Zhu said, "But he still took over the past, huh?"

Ji Feng nodded and said, "That's right, I'm going to be indebted for that, Xiang Yongzhan took over for my sake."

The matter had just happened and Ji Feng had informed Xiang Yongzhan, he should not have time to think about these issues, moreover, I am afraid that Xiang Yongzhan himself did not even know what was going on, he took over the person as soon as Ji Feng said so, obviously, Xiang Yongzhan did this completely for Ji Feng's sake, otherwise, he was a titled special operations brigade leader, how could he have time to bother with such idle matters!

Bai Zhu understood somewhat, and she asked again, "Then in that case, are we punking Captain Xiang?"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, "It should only be that I gave him a bargain! On the surface, it looks like I've transferred a problem into the hands of Xiang Yongzhan, but in reality, there's no doubt that that assassin is of military origin, and when the time comes, once the real trouble goes to the top, a joint investigation team will definitely be formed, and the military will definitely be represented by someone from the Xiang family, and it's likely that someone from the Xiang family will preside over it!"

"So this way, it will end up on the Xiang family's head instead, rather than me directly handing people over to Xiang Yongzhan now, so that the Xiang family can take the initiative and at the same time be prepared in advance."

Ji Feng laughed: "The most crucial thing is that after the Xiang family has taken the initiative, some people can be passive, watch, when the time comes, the Xiang family will inevitably get a lot of benefits."

"You mean to say that Wu Zhiyong might give a lot of benefits to the Xiang family, so that when they investigate, they obscure the identity of that killer and don't involve Wu Zhiyong?" Bai Zhu asked suspiciously, "But then, we won't be able to investigate Wu Zhiyong, so won't that be bad for us?"

Ji Feng laughed, "Even if we don't hand it over to the Xiang family, but directly lock that killer up in the police station for interrogation, we actually won't be able to find out about Wu Zhiyong in the end. Wu Zhiyong already suffered a loss last time, so he definitely won't make the same mistake again this time!"

He smiled faintly and said, "Moreover, even if Wu Zhiyong is eventually found guilty, someone will definitely come out to take the blame for him. This kind of thing is easy to operate, relying on this one assassin alone will not pose too much of a threat to Wu Zhiyong himself, but will instead cause the Wu family's men in the military to suffer heavy damage."

Bai Zhu said, "Wouldn't that work too? Why do we need to spare Wu Zhiyong for nothing?"

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "The Wu family's influence in the military is not very large in the first place, even if we uproot their people in the military, it won't cause the Wu family to fall apart, at most, it will just be like breaking bones, but it won't mean much to us."

Bai Zhu nodded thoughtfully.

Ji Feng added, "So, in the event that we can't target Wu Zhiyong, the best way is to target the main spearhead at Wang Zhijun, then we can go after him from Wang Zhijun's body and continue to ride the wave of victory, and finally break at least one arm of the Wu family!"

"I understand, it's better to hurt its ten fingers than to break its one finger!" Bai Zhu said immediately.

"That's the truth." Ji Feng smiled faintly.

"But" Bai Zhu was a bit hesitant again, "That Wang Zhijun is a straw man at first glance, not at all capable of being a weapon, can he be considered an arm of the Wu family?"

"He indeed doesn't count, however, his family does!" Ji Feng said.

"But the crime is only Wang Zhijun, it's not like it's his family." Bai Zhu was puzzled again.

"It all depends on how it works."

Ji Feng laughed, "Bai Zhu, just take your time and watch, when this matter is really over, you might be able to understand."

There were many things that were often poorly taught just by words, only when she saw it with her own eyes would she understand.

Ji Feng casually put his tea cup down and smiled faintly, "I'm afraid that Yanjing is already exploding right now!"

.....

The whole thing became clearer and clearer as the news gradually came through, and many people gradually calmed down from their original shock when they first heard the news, and began to think about the whole thing.

However, when the latest news came in, everyone sat down again.

Wang Zhijun had sent someone to assassinate Ji Feng, and the hardman he had used was most likely someone from the military, and most likely someone from the military's special forces!

This news, at once, once again ignited the Yanjing City which had gradually calmed down.

This time, anyone with some insight, when they first heard the news, one thought instantly flashed through their minds – it was related to the Wu family!

Campus Master Chapter 1972

This news immediately ignited once again the Yanjing City, which had gradually calmed down.

This time, anyone who had some knowledge, when they first heard the news, one thought instantly flashed through their minds – it was related to the Wu family!

Because everyone knew that the Wang family did not have any overwhelming connections in the military, so how could they easily mobilise people from the military's special forces to assassinate the descendants of the old Ji family?

Although the old man is still alive, the old man actually only has his last breath left and is barely hanging on, which is not too different from being dead.

At least, many of the Wang family's relations have begun to drift apart, not because the world is too hot and cold, but because the people that the old man offended were too many, and those families and forces that still have a good relationship with the Wang family, seeing that the old man is dying, naturally do not dare to get too close to the Wang family.

This is because everyone knows that once Master Wang dies, the Wang family will inevitably be subject to the revenge of the descendants of those heroic figures.

What Old Master Wang did back then was indeed too much, and there were many people who were framed by him alive, or framed by him, which ultimately led to a tragic end.

Although the blame for what happened back then could not be put on Elder Wang alone, no matter what, Elder Wang was also responsible for a large part of it.

It was because of the existence of people like him, it was because of those false accusations that gave some people the excuse to do something about it, and as a result, it caused some big names to be screwed alive, and even most tragically, some people committed suicide by banging themselves against the wall in prison in grief and anger!

Think about those people, they had been heroes all their lives, they had fought their way through a lot of gunfire, but in the end, they ended their lives in such an extreme way, in great grief and anger.

Even if one uses one's toes, one can imagine how much hatred the descendants of those people have in their hearts.

The so-called hatred of killing one's father and taking one's wife, this was definitely the greatest hatred of all!

Once Old Master Wang passed away, the downfall of the Wang family could definitely be foreseen, even if the Martial Family was behind the Wang family, it would definitely not be able to resist the revenge of so many people!

Because, Master Wang had made a deadly feud with those people!

It was also because of these reasons that the Wang family's situation had become increasingly difficult in the past few years, and there were hardly any connections left around.

Under such circumstances, it was almost impossible for the Wang family to reach out to the military, and how could they easily mobilise the elite soldiers of the special forces?

Any fool knows that this is impossible!

Then, where did the elite special forces soldiers who assassinated Ji Feng come from and who sent them?

Almost everyone thought of one possibility at the same time – the Wu family!

Only the Wu family was still maintaining a fairly good relationship with the Wang family, and the Wang family had saddled the Wu family with a lot of hard work over the years, so there was a reason for the Wu family to help Wang Zhijun and help the Wang family.

On top of that, among those connections of the Wang family, only the Wu family has this ability to mobilize special forces fighters at any time!

So, there was no other possibility for this matter other than the Wu family!

This answer was the common speculation of almost everyone.

However, after most people guessed this possibility, they could not help but be horrified, was the Martial Family about to go to full-scale war with the Ji Family?

Sending someone to assassinate the other family's descendants was definitely a big taboo, one could even say that it was a deadly feud!

The Martial Family was going to clash with the Ji Family in a full-scale war, even to the extent of separating life and death!

At this time, someone thought of a clash between the Wu and Ji families that had occurred only a short time ago. It was shortly after the Chinese New Year that Wu Zhiyong and Ji Shaodong seemed to have had a clash, and it was during that clash that Ji Shaodong declared war on Wu Zhiyong in front of him.

At that time, people were still speculating how Ji Shaodong, as the leader of the third generation of the Ji family, would take action against Wu Zhiyong, but what people did not expect was that Ji Shaodong did not seem to have taken action yet, but the Wu family had already taken action first.

Perhaps

It was because Ji Shaodong had declared war on Wu Zhiyong that this incident came about?

This is not a sudden incident at all, but the Wu family has adopted the strategy of making the first move in the face of Ji Shaodong's declaration of war?

But was the Martial Family really so sure that they could destroy the Ji Family in this contest?

This is what the majority of people are wondering.

But no matter how much the outside world speculates on this matter, now that the matter has come to this point, it is too late to say anything else.

However, to everyone's surprise, the always assertive Ji family's old man did not make any move this time, and even the entire Ji family did not say anything.

Only a few young sons and daughters of the Ji Family were the only ones who, because of their indignation, angrily scolded the Wang Family and the Wu Family and said some harsh words, but everyone knew that they were not Ji Feng or Ji Shaodong, and they could not even represent the third generation of the Ji Family, let alone represent the Ji Family.

Everyone's eyes were fixed on the Ji family, wanting to see what the Ji family had to say.

As this kind of matter had gone beyond the bottom line, the Ji family was afraid that they would not just keep silent and grit their teeth and endure it.

However, for two days in a row, there was no reaction from the Ji family, as if the matter had never happened, as silent as ever, nothing unusual at all.

But the more this happened, the more nervous everyone became, because everyone knew that the Ji family would never do nothing if two of their firstborn sons were assassinated by their rivals. If the Ji family really endured this, then in the future, wouldn't all the cats and dogs dare to kill the Ji family's sons?

So now there is not the slightest doubt in the outside world as to whether the Ji family will strike back, they are just guessing when the Ji family's thunderous counterattack will actually come.

At the same time, within the Martial Family in Yanjing, there are likewise divergent opinions, all secretly speculating how the Ji Family will retaliate, whether it will retaliate against the Wang Family, or whether it will directly turn the spearhead on the Martial Family?

The Martial Family.

Several people were sitting in the living room, their faces not looking too good, and Wu Zhiyong was also present.

Among these people, Wu Zhiyong's face was the most unsightly, and his gloomy face almost dripped water.

However, when the news came from Jiangzhou that the assassin of Ji Feng was a special soldier of the military, Wu Zhiyong received a call from the old man himself.

Immediately, Wu Zhiyong realised that the problem was serious!

As soon as he returned to Yanjing, he was called here, and when he arrived, he found that his father and his second and third uncles were all here.

"Tell us all about it, how exactly should we respond to this matter." A middle-aged man sitting to Wu Zhiyong's left spoke, his face grim and his voice carrying a hint of exhaustion.

"According to the news from Jiangzhou, that assassin has already fallen into the hands of Xiang Yongzhan, so I guess it won't take long to find out the results next." Another middle-aged man said, "Now it depends on just how deeply involved this matter is with our family."

"That's right!"

Another slightly younger man said, "If this is just a matter of the Wang family's unworthy thing taking matters into its own hands, then there is nothing to worry about in this matter."

After a pause, he added, "But if this matter really involves our family, it can be a different story."

The first middle-aged man who spoke nodded slightly, he certainly understood this reasoning, if the matter had little to do with the Wu family, no one would try to wrongly accuse the Wu family.

But the question was, did this matter really have nothing to do with the Wu family?

He turned his gaze towards Wu Zhiyong, and the other two people's gazes, too, fell on Wu Zhiyong's body.

"Father"

Wu Zhiyong gritted his teeth and said, "This matter has little to do with Wang Zhijun, that warrior, I sent him there!"

"What?!"

Before Wu Zhiyong's father could say anything, the other two men exclaimed at the same time, both looking at Wu Zhiyong in amazement, "Zhiyong, it was really you who did it?"

"I did it!" Wu Zhiyong nodded through clenched teeth and said with a gloomy face, "At that time I received a call from Wang Zhijun and knew that he was going to meet with Ji Feng in private, I thought it was a good opportunity, so"

"Zhiyong, before you did this, why didn't you discuss it with your family?" Wu Zhiyong's second uncle couldn't help but say, "You're being too nonsensical! Is this kind of thing that easy to do? Even if you want to do it, you should do it in a safer way, at least, don't have any leverage in the hands of others!"

Wu Zhiyong shook his head and said, "The warrior I sent there is an absolute elite warrior who has been on an assassination mission overseas and is the ace warrior of their unit, so assassinating a Ji Feng is naturally not a problem. didn't think that it turned out that I still underestimated him!"

"You're confused!" Wu Zhiyong's father couldn't help but let out a long sigh, "How can this kind of thing be done so easily? It's against the taboo!"

"Well"

Wu Zhiyong nodded, but did not make any arguments.

In fact, before making the decision to assassinate Ji Feng, Wu Zhiyong had repeatedly considered the pros and cons of this, but the result of his consideration was that he could do it.

Wang Zhijun was insignificant, even if he was sacrificed, it was nothing, but if he could take this opportunity to finish off Ji Feng, it would definitely inflict a heavy blow to the Ji family, and sacrificing a Wang Zhijun would be nothing.

Taking out Ji Feng was more important than anything else.

No one knew better than Wu Zhiyong how much of a threat this person, Ji Feng, really was!

Campus Master Chapter 1973

Getting rid of Ji Feng was more important than anything else.

No one knows better than Wu Zhiyong how much of a threat this person, Ji Feng, really is!

In Wu Zhiyong's opinion, as an opponent, or to put it more seriously, as an enemy, it was not too much to pay any more attention to Ji Feng, but on the other hand, even the slightest bit of contempt for Ji Feng would definitely lead to remorse!

From the very beginning when he first clashed with Ji Feng, or rather with a few of the Ji family's sons and daughters, at that time, Wu Zhiyong really had not yet put Ji Feng in his eyes, let alone considered him as an opponent of the same level.

The entire Ji family has many capable people, such as Ji Shaodong, who is said to be one of the three greats of Yanjing, and Ji Shaolei, who makes all Yanjing's fops baulk at the mention of him, but of course, there are also those who are slightly less capable than Ji Shaodong, such as Ji Shaohong, etc. It seems that the third generation of the Ji family is indeed full of talents, and can be said to have a successor.

However, in the eyes of Wu Zhiyong, although there were so many talents in the Ji family, the only one who was really worthy of being his opponent, who had the ability and qualification to be his opponent, was Ji Shaodong.

As for those people like Ji Shao Hong and Ji Shao Lei, they still have a certain gap compared to Ji Shao Dong, and this gap is not small. At least, they want to grow up to Ji Shaodong that level, but not only the age of the problem, but also various aspects of ability and insight, as well as their own level also have to reach Ji Shaodong that level.

The first thing that I would like to say about Ji Feng is that Wu Zhiyong really did not put him in his eyes at all.

In his opinion, Ji Feng was just an ordinary young man who had been living in exile with his mother for more than ten years, and when he suddenly returned to the Ji family, it would take him a few years to adapt to his identity and fully integrate into the family.

Although Wu Zhiyong also knew at the time that Ji Feng had made good achievements in Jiangzhou, but that was probably only because Ji Zhenguo was the secretary of the municipal party committee of Jiangzhou and a handful of people, with this convenient condition, as long as one is not a fool, it is easy to do anything!

So as long as Ji Feng wanted to, not to mention building a Tengfei Group, even if it was a bigger group, he could create it.

Therefore, in Wu Zhiyong's mind, he didn't think that starting up the Tengfei Group from scratch was Ji Feng's real ability. Which of these could be created by a twenty-year-old university student?

The company's main goal was to create a new product that could be used in the market.

Since that was the case, what was there to be proud of when Ji Feng founded the Tengfei Group?

Naturally, Wu Zhiyong would not pay attention to Ji Feng.

Even though usually Wu Zhiyong repeatedly admonished his younger brother Wu Zhihe and the people around him, urging them not to take anyone lightly, in reality, it was hard for Wu Zhiyong to say how much he valued Ji Feng in his heart.

All the way to the clash with Ji Feng, Ji Feng's strong performance, and his sleight of hand, made Wu Zhiyong almost take a blow to the head.

Wu Zhiyong finally began to take Ji Feng seriously, yet before he could study Ji Feng as a person, it was as if God had deliberately arranged it since then, and the two sides collided several times one after another.

In Huahe County, Wu Zhihe was hit in the face.

In Southern Guangdong, Zheng Yuxiu made a fool of himself in front of Ji Feng, alarming the entire Southern Guangdong officialdom.

Even the Zheng family was made to feel passive, wretched and exhausted by the Ji family's retaliation, and in the end, if the Wu family had not stepped in and paid a considerable price, the Zheng family would have suffered even greater losses!

And next, the Wu family could be said to have fallen one after another at the hands of Ji Feng.

This is especially true for the Rong Peng Group's branch, where Rong Peng and Rong Suyan left Southern Guangdong and followed Ji Feng to Jiangzhou, taking a large number of management and technical talents with them.

It was because everyone knew about the relationship between the Rong family and the Wu family, but Ji Feng pried the Rong family away by pulling the tiger's teeth out of its mouth!

And the person who started all this was the one who had always been belittled by Wu Zhiyong – Ji Feng!

The person who had humiliated Wu Zhihe was Ji Feng.

The person who made Zheng Yuxiu plant a big heel, and even made the whole Zheng family incomparably wretched, was also Ji Feng.

The person who went to Southern Guangdong single-handedly and, after some manoeuvring, managed to pry the Rong family away, thus causing the Wu family's economic foundation to be almost shaken, was also Ji Feng.

What's more, Ji Feng later went into Southern Guangdong once again, chasing after him all the way along the line of the underworld, and finally forced Wu Zhihe to die, and even forced Wu Zhiyong to finally hold back the resentment and grief in his heart, to endure the humiliation and throw all the dirty water on his own brother.

All these things were done by Ji Feng!

Who would have thought at the time that a wild boy from the Ji family who had been stranded in the folklore for more than ten years would be able to make the Wu family suffer such a great loss?

However, it was a real thing!

These things were indeed Ji Feng's handiwork, which caused a huge stir throughout Yanjing and in the entire circle, so much so that everyone began to take a fresh look at this first grandson of the eldest family of the Ji family who had suddenly emerged and began to study him.

And from that time onwards, Wu Zhiyong realised that this Ji Feng, was definitely an incomparably powerful figure, and he was also the one who posed the greatest threat to the Wu family!

So, while everyone else was still just paying attention or re-examining Ji Feng, Wu Zhiyong already had an incomparably clear goal – to get rid of Ji Feng at all costs!

Because the threat Ji Feng posed was definitely greater than Ji Shaodong, and probably much greater!

So by this time, Wu Zhiyong could no longer treat Ji Feng as his opponent, but had already treated Ji Feng as if he was a life-and-death enemy!

Because of this, Wu Zhiyong definitely did not want to miss any opportunity that might take out Ji Feng, and he would not even let go of any opportunity that could bring trouble to Ji Feng.

When Wu Zhiyong knew that Wang Zhijun was going to meet with Ji Feng, he realised that the opportunity had come!

In fact, originally, after Wu Zhiyong knew this news, he wanted to send more people to do away with Ji Feng, but to his regret, it was already very late when Wang Zhijun told him, and it was not very easy to find experts who were both in Jiangzhou and absolutely guaranteed in strength in such a hasty time.

Even if the Wu family was more powerful, this kind of thing could not be done just by saying that it could be done.

Therefore, Wu Zhiyong could only send that one strong assassin there after using many connections.

This is something that Wu Zhiyong naturally understood, and he knew very well that Ji Feng must have someone around him for protection. If he sent some mediocre hands over there, in case he was caught, then instead of trying to kill Ji Feng, he would bring endless trouble to himself.

Sometimes, a strong assassin could be more difficult to deal with than a group of rabble-rousers.

However, Wu Zhiyong had not thought that he had still underestimated Ji Feng.

The assassin he had sent had missed, and most damagingly, the assassin had been caught and handed over to Xiang Yongzhan by Ji Feng!

This was really fatal!

If Ji Feng and Xiang Yongzhan were to trace the identity of the assassin, by then, not only would the Wu family's connections in the military be uprooted, but even the Wu family would be implicated!

As for how serious the consequences would be, one only had to look at the faces of his father and the others to know.

“Phew~~!”

Wu Zhiyong couldn't help but sigh in his heart, his work was lost, ah, if he had known that Ji Feng was so difficult to deal with, he should have sent a group of rabble over at that time, even if he shot him indiscriminately, he would have killed Ji Feng, or, he would have simply done nothing, and waited for his chance slowly later.

I only blame myself for being too eager at first, as soon as I heard that Wang Zhijun was going to meet with Ji Feng, I couldn't help but want to get rid of Ji Feng in a hurry If I had been able to keep my composure, why would I have had this trouble again now?

"Boss, what do you think we should do about this?" Just when Wu Zhiyong was pondering, his third uncle couldn't help himself, "Right now that killer is in the hands of that kid from the Xiang family, he has now found out that that guy is a soldier, if we let him investigate any further, we will be in trouble"

"Zhengxin, I'm afraid you're thinking a bit simplistically. I reckon ah, by now the Xiang family is afraid that they have all checked it out!" The Wu family's second shook his head and said.

"Why?" The man who had become Zheng Xin was stunned.

"Isn't that simple?" The Martial Family's second stretched out his hand and said, "We all know very well just how much energy and influence the Xiang Family has in the military, think about it, now that the outside world is saying that the killer is a soldier, how did this news get out?"

"It must have been the Xiang family who found out!" Wu Zhengxin blurted out.

"That's it."

The Wu family's second sighed lightly, "Since the Xiang family was able to find out that the killer was a soldier, do you think that they still can't find out which army this soldier is from, what his name is, and what his background is?"

Wu Zhengxin froze, "Lao Er, you mean that the Xiang family has actually checked it out completely?"

"What Zhengxiang said is correct!" The oldest member of the Wu family, who was sitting in the main seat, which was also Wu Zhiyong's father, spoke up, "Military matters are not a problem at all for the Xiang family, it would be too easy for them to find out about a person."

"But why didn't they report it?" Wu Zhengxin asked in confusion.

"Zhengxin, if you were a member of the Xiang family and you were clutching such a handle in your hand, would you easily report it?" Wu Zhengxiang asked.

Campus Master Chapter 1974

"But why didn't they report it?" Wu Zhengxin asked in confusion.

"Zhengxin, if you were a member of the Xiang family and you were clutching such a handle in your hand, would you easily report it?" Wu Zhengxiang asked.

"What do you mean?" Wu Zhengxin was stunned, "Could it be that this Xiang family still wants to get involved?"

"Humph! They've already gotten involved!" Wu Zhengxiang couldn't help but hum, "When Xiang Yongzhan took over the people over, the Xiang family had already interfered."

“Then who does the Xiang family intend to help?” Wu Zhengxin immediately said sharply, “I have heard that that little bastard from the Ji family is still on good terms with Xiang Yongzhan, does that mean that the Xiang family is going to join the Ji family to deal with us?”

Wu Zhengxiang shook his head, “I’m afraid that only the Xiang family will know this question. But one thing is for sure, although the Xiang family has a fairly good relationship with the Ji family, but to say that the Xiang family is completely on the side of the Ji family, I don’t think this is very likely, and we can even rule out this possibility outright.”

“Why?” Wu Zhengxin asked in confusion.

“It’s actually quite simple, because the Xiang family’s main forces are all in the military, which determines that it’s impossible for them to be completely on the same side as the Ji family.” Wu Zhengxiang said with great certainty.

Looking at Wu Zhengxin’s still puzzled face, Wu Zhengxiang couldn’t help but shake his head, this old third, this brain also doesn’t know how to grow, hard than others have a tendon, temper is also very bad, not moving to lose his temper, while usually if encountered a matter, he likes to take a reckless approach most.

Now he was asked to discuss things, and he didn’t know whether it was right or wrong.

“Lao San, what your second brother means is that this Xiang family’s main influence is all in the military, where they have great influence, but then, the Ji family’s main influence is in the political world, and although their influence in the military is not small, it is nowhere near as strong as the Xiang family.”

Wu Zhiyong’s father explained, “If the Xiang family and the Ji family really stand together, they will have all the military and political circles, so do you think the highest level above can sleep peacefully?”

Wu Zhengxin still didn’t quite understand, but at this moment the other two people didn’t have the leisure to explain anything to him in detail, they were just thinking hard about their countermeasures.

“Boss, let’s do this, let’s contact the Xiang family first, I believe that the Xiang family has not released all the news, probably waiting for a price, at this time we go over, both sides should be able to cooperate for once.” Wu Zhengxiang said.

The oldest three, Wu Zhengxin, did not understand what was going on, but Wu Zhengxiang was very clear that the Xiang family would never really stand toe to toe with the Ji family.

These two families, one possessed great power in the political world and could be considered a huge family that covered the sky. The other, on the other hand, is extremely influential in the military world.

If these two families are united, I’m afraid some people will think, “What do we need the people above us for?”

Why don’t the Xiang family and the Ji family just hollow everyone out?

This is definitely a taboo thing, and is also the most important thing that the senior management has always attached the most importance to and prevented the possibility of, so no matter what time, the Xiang family and the Ji family at most may only be good relations, in some aspects of cooperation, but to say that both sides completely in the same camp, this possibility almost does not exist.

..... Unless someone is trying to plot something wrong!

“Hmm!” The key question now is, even if the Xiang family side communicates well, but if the Ji family does not believe the final investigation results, then what? ”

“What can we do if we don’t believe it? That’s only possible if there’s evidence!” Wu Zhengxin bristled, “Isn’t evidence the key to everything these days? If not, it’s useless even if they take the case to the Inner City!”

“You’re so stupid!”

Wu Zhiyong’s father glared at him and couldn’t help but shake his head.

With Elder Ji’s prestige and energy, if he were to launch into a fit of madness, who could stop him?

What’s more, just by the fact that this matter had now become so clear, now anyone with a discerning eye could probably guess that eight out of ten`9 times this matter should have something to do with their Wu family, and if it was not handled properly causing bad repercussions, by then the head of the Great Inner Council would probably even consider taking people from the Wu family out of some important positions in order to calm down these repercussions.

This is not impossible!

At that time, even the old man of the Wu family, I’m afraid it is not good to say anything, because anyone can see what your Wu family has actually done, although there is no evidence, but everyone’s heart can be like a clear mirror.

Unless Master Wu can simply be shameless and just deny it.

But if that were to happen, then the Wu family would really lose face and become the laughing stock of Yanjing!

The old man would never do that either!

A tree needs skin, but a man needs face!

So the most important thing now is to communicate with the Xiang family, how to keep the Ji family from making trouble, how to win people’s trust, and all this is only possible if there is evidence that can be taken into account, otherwise, the Ji family is not that easy to fool.

Wu Zhiyong’s father and the second Wu Zhengxiang looked at each other, and both of them nodded imperceptibly at the same time, as if they had formed some kind of consensus in this momentary meeting of eyes.

“Zhiyong, that untalented boy from the Wang family, is his name Wang Zhijun, right?” Wu Zhengxiang suddenly looked at Wu Zhiyong who had been silent.

“..... Yes!” Wu Zhiyong nodded his head, but in his heart he secretly said, this is going to take that step.

“I seem to have heard before that this kid himself is not only very untalented, but also inferior, huh?” Wu Zhengxiang asked.

“That’s right, he did quite a few things that went too far in the past, but they were all suppressed.” Of course, Wu Zhiyong knew what his second uncle meant, so he went along with his words, “But this time, what he did was too much, he actually dared to hire a murderer, it was really bold!”

A smile appeared on Wu Zhengxiang’s face as he nodded his head and said, “Yes, this kid is indeed very unpleasant, I can’t imagine that he would do such a thing now, it’s really disappointing!”

Wu Zhiyong nodded and said, “Second Uncle, then what do you think I can do?”

Wu Zhengxiang said, “Since you have done something wrong, you should be punished, no matter if you are an ordinary citizen or the children of a government official, it is the same, the law is fair to everyone, the so-called prince commits the same crime as the common people, that is the truth.”

Wu Zhiyong nodded and said, “Second uncle is right.”

“However, people are selfish, when they have done something wrong, no one wants to be sentenced or even shot, but they have done something wrong and committed a crime, so they have no choice but to keep their mouths shut and not give an account, and as a result, they have dragged some other innocent people into it, which is a very stupid act!”

Wu Zhengxiang frowned and said, “This is very bad! Zhiyong, you seem to be good friends with that kid from the Wang family, right? That’s good, you should try to persuade him not to go against the law, it won’t end well!”

At the end of the sentence, Wu Zhengxiang was already snappy.

Wu Zhiyong understood, and he nodded and said, “Second uncle, I understand, I will take a flight to Jiangzhou this afternoon to visit Wang Zhijun, I will persuade him to give an honest account of everything!”

Only then did Wu Zhengxiang show a slight smile and nodded his head, “Hm! That’s right!”

Wu Zhiyong smiled with difficulty, but the smile on that face was so ugly.

At this time, Wu Zhiyong’s father spoke, “Older two, communication is needed there in the Xiang family, but, the Old Wang family has children who have done something wrong and committed a crime, this is also heartbreaking, I think you should go to the Old Wang family on behalf of our family and visit them, communicate with them properly and comfort them.”

Wu Zhengxiang frowned and said, “Let me go?”

“Lao Er, it’s just as well that you go, you and that who of the Old Wang family,” Wu Zhengxin had not finished his words before he was interrupted by Wu Zhengxiang with a glare, “Fine, forget I said it!”

The heavy-hearted Wu Zhiyong couldn’t help but twitch the corners of his mouth a few times at this point.

It was no longer news in Yanjing that second uncle had a close relationship with a certain woman from the Old Wang family, but to say it in front of second uncle was still a bit inappropriate, especially on this occasion.

“All right!”

Wu Zhiyong’s father waved his hand helplessly and said, “Lao Er, it’s better for you to run!”

Wu Zhengxiang nodded and said, “I’ll go if I go, I can’t help it, who let this be for his nephew.”

Tengdi, Wu Zhiyong’s face suddenly reddened, a flash of embarrassment flashed in his eyes, “Second Uncle, I’m really sorry for making you bother, I’ve taken it all to heart Don’t worry, something like this will only happen this once, it definitely won’t happen again.”

Only then did Wu Zhengxiang nodded in satisfaction and said, “Don’t be discouraged, that kid from the old Ji family is wild, he has been wild since he was young, you must come up with something beyond the norm to cure him, I believe that the people of our Wu family will not just give in, right?”

Wu Zhiyong nodded seriously, he secretly said, how could he possibly admit to being a coward? As long as Ji Feng was still alive, he would not admit his weakness, one day, I, Wu Zhiyong, would step on Ji Feng’s corpse and drink heavily!

“I can go and communicate with the old Wang’s side, it shouldn’t be a big problem, after all, Ji Feng isn’t dead, even if it’s murder, it can only be considered attempted murder, at most it will be a sentence of a few years, when the time comes, with a little more manipulation, he will be out in a year at most, it won’t even take a year.” Wu Zhengxiang said, “But how do I talk about it?”

Wu Zhiyong’s father said, “There is a vacancy for a mayor in the northwest, I think the old Wang family should have a suitable candidate”

Wu Zhengxiang then understood, he nodded, “That’s no problem. Then over to the Xiang family, who will go?”

Campus Master Chapter 1975

Wu Zhiyong’s father said, “There is a vacancy for a mayor in the northwest, I think the old Wang family should have a suitable candidate”

Wu Zhengxiang then understood, he nodded, “That’s no problem. Then on the Xiang family’s side, who will go?”

Since the boss had said that there was a vacancy for a mayor over in the northwest, that meant that this time the Wu family was planning to use a mayorship in the northwest as a condition to get the Wang family to give up Wang Zhijun.

In this way, Wu Zhengxiang could be much more at ease, and his heart was also at ease.

Although Northwest China is an underdeveloped region, a mayoral vacancy is not something that anyone can fight for, especially now that the Wang family can be said to have enemies on all sides, if they want to fight for this position, it is definitely not an easy task.

Therefore, if the Wu family put up this position as a bargaining chip, the Wang family would definitely be moved.

What's more crucial is that Wang Zhijun is just a completely untalented thing, and compared to a mayor's post, anyone from the old Wang family would know what to choose as long as they are not stupid.

Moreover, although the 'fact' now is that Wang Zhijun hired a hitman to assassinate Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei, the two of them did not lose their lives, so this would not be considered a crime of murder, at most it would be an attempt.

Even if the court dealt with the case harshly, Wang Zhijun would only be sentenced to a few years at most, and other than that, the Wang family would not suffer any losses!

Therefore, Wu Zhengxiang knows very well that there is almost no suspense when he goes to the Wang family this time.

The most crucial question now was, what kind of benefit should be given to the Xiang family so that they would help to cover up the real identity of that killer?

After a moment of silence, Wu Zhiyong's father gritted his teeth and said, "On the Xiang family's side, I'll go!"

Wu Zhengxiang could not help but be stunned, "Big brother, if you go, what kind of benefits should you promise to the Xiang family? You must know that the Xiang family's appetite will definitely not be small, so ordinary favours will not be able to move them."

Wu Zhiyong's father said in a deep voice: "No matter how big their appetite is, I will give them enough benefits this time, and I believe that if I, Wu Zhengmin, personally visit the door, they will have to give me this face anyway!"

"Father"

Wu Zhiyong couldn't help but grit his teeth, his eyes filled with grief and anger.

He knew very well that his father personally went to the Xiang family, although it looked like he was going to talk to the Xiang family about cooperation, but in reality, everyone knew that with his father's status, going to the Xiang family at this moment would be almost like going to beg for forgiveness.

This kind of thing made Wu Zhiyong feel humiliated, and he could even say that it was a kind of grief and hurt that was engraved in his heart, making him almost want to go and tear Ji Feng apart immediately.

If it wasn't for Ji Feng, how could his father have suffered such humiliation?

As for who was right and who was wrong in the middle, Wu Zhiyong had never thought about it, or he simply did not have the concept, or even if he knew what was right and wrong, he would not think about it!

"Zhiyong, this time it's a lesson." Wu Zhengmin patted Wu Zhiyong's shoulder and said in a deep voice: "Even if the Xiang family has a big appetite, it won't go too far, so you don't have to worry about it, but you can't be so reckless in the future. If you don't do a good job as the eldest brother, how can others obey you?"

Wu Zhiyong gritted his teeth and said, "Father, I'll remember."

“Let’s do it as discussed.” Wu Zhengmin righted himself and said in a deep voice, “Older brother is right, since the Xiang family was able to investigate the true identity of that killer, they definitely have all the evidence now, so we must act quickly, otherwise, once the Ji family gets hold of this evidence, it will be really troublesome!”

Wu Zhengxiang, the second oldest member of the Wu family, immediately nodded, “Mm, I’ll go to Old Wang’s house right now!”

Looking at his father as they all started to act, Wu Zhiyong secretly gritted his teeth and clenched his fists.

“Ji Feng, once again I’ve suffered at your hands!” Wu Zhiyong secretly snorted coldly, “But that’s as far as it goes. No matter what, there will definitely not be another time I swear!”

Both father and second uncle had personally gone out, one to the Xiang family and the other to pacify the old Wang family, so I believe that the whole thing would no longer be a surprise.

This stabbing incident will be characterized as Wang Zhijun hiring a murderer with the intention of killing both Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei Strictly speaking, this is just an ordinary case.

At most, the identities of the two parties involved in the case are a bit more special, both are the sons and daughters of Yanjing’s magnificent aristocracy, but that’s all.

However, Wu Zhiyong didn’t know that the assassination was not going to end so easily, and that the scenes he envisaged of his father and second uncle being caught in the act had little to do with the final outcome of the case.

And when Wu Zhiyong finally got a clear picture of the whole thing, he almost vomited blood.

Also about to vomit blood was Wu Zhiyong’s father, Wu Zhengmin, and his two uncles

.....

The two main figures of the second generation of the Wu family personally went out to visit the Xiang family and the Wang family respectively. Although their actions were kept strictly confidential, there is a saying that there is no impervious wall in this world, and the conflict between the two sides is now a matter of concern to everyone at the moment, and there is no telling how many pairs of eyes are watching every move of the two sides.

Therefore, the move of the two Wu Zhengmin was spread out in a very short time.

At this time, everyone realised that things were about to change.

Because of the importance of the Wu Zhengmin duo in the Wu family, at the moment, apart from the old man of the Wu family, it was basically just Wu Zhengmin who was making the decisions.

The fact that Wu Zhengmin had personally stepped in was a good indication that things had definitely reached a very critical moment, otherwise, would Wu Zhengmin have personally gone to the Xiang family?

In the blink of an eye, two days had passed.

Immediately afterwards, new news reached the outside world that the person who hired the murderer to assassinate Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei was Wang Zhijun.

It was said that Wang Zhijun had personally confessed his crime!

When this news broke out, everyone couldn't help but snicker, and some even snickered, what kind of big head was Wang Zhijun acting like?

Just by virtue of being a good-for-nothing playboy, he could still mobilise the elite soldiers of the Special Forces?

Dream on!

How many elite warriors would be willing to obey the orders of a straw man?

What's more, with Wang Zhijun's status and ability, I'm afraid he wouldn't even have access to the Special Forces, so how would he be able to mobilise them?

Obviously, this must be the Wu family's intention to put the blame on Wang Zhijun's shoulders.

But immediately afterwards, another news came out, after interrogation, the assassin who assassinated Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei explained that the person who instructed him to assassinate Ji Feng was Wang Zhijun.

And most importantly, he was not a member of the military, just a hobo who had once been a soldier but was now discharged from the army.

As for those weapons he was using, they were purchased by him through the internet.

When this news came out, it immediately caused an uproar.

"The Wu family is really good! They can actually turn black into white and white into black! This technique of reversing black and white is truly unmatched by anyone!"

Anyone with a discerning eye could see at a glance that this was the Martial Family using tricks, and that the news that had just come out was definitely the most truthful.

It wasn't because everyone wanted to see the Martial Family and the Ji Family pinching each other, but because, these families in Yanjing actually had their own sources of information, and the information they initially received was absolutely true.

This was obviously because the Wu family didn't know what tactics they had used to make Wang Zhijun take the blame on himself, and even more so because that assassin had actually bitten Wang Zhijun directly.

At this time, everyone's eyes began to focus on the Ji family.

In the face of the Wu family playing such a trick, how would the old Ji family react?

You know, now this series of tactics are proving that the Martial Family is simply unscrupulous, they are almost treating the Ji Family like fools!

Even if this was put on an ordinary person, it would almost be unbearable, let alone now a big and powerful family like the Ji Family?

The Ji Family could endure this kind of tactics played by the Wu Family?

However, to everyone's surprise, in the face of this almost shameless tactic of the Martial Family, the Ji Family did not react in any way, as if they did not see the Martial Family's tactics at all, which left everyone stunned and puzzled at the same time.

What was wrong with the Ji family?

Could it be that the always strong Elder Ji and the Ji family have actually conceded in the face of the pressure from the Wu family this time?

As long as one is not a fool, one can definitely see that the Martial Family is playing a trick, and it is such a blatant trick, how come the Ji Family has not reacted at all?

However, no matter how the outside world speculated, the Ji family did not react at all, as if they really believed Wang Zhijun and the assassin's confession that the assassination was staged by Wang Zhijun.

This time, I don't know how many people are muttering in their hearts, the Ji family really doesn't know what's going on this time, could it be that they are under pressure from the top?

Could it be that the Wu family has some other secret means to keep the Ji family from making rash moves?

Amidst this suspicion, time passed quickly.

Another two days had passed.

Several of the main figures in the assassination, such as that assassin, and the mastermind Wang Zhijun, including this case, had started to enter the judicial process, and the reactions brought about by this matter had gradually faded, and some people had even started to be disappointed that this time when Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei were assassinated at the same time, the Ji family really didn't make any noise at all, which was just too unbelievable for people to think.

Just as everyone couldn't help but shake their heads in awe of the martial family's brilliant tactics and the Ji family's wretchedness, a shocking and inexplicable piece of news suddenly spread throughout Yanjing

Campus Master Chapter 1976

Wang Zhijun, a son of the Old Wang Family, has been filed for investigation for the premeditated assassination of Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei, and will be formally charged shortly afterwards. Currently, the police are interrogating him.

Those being interrogated along with Wang Zhijun are the assassins hired by Wang Zhijun, as well as several of Wang Zhijun's foxes and friends.

According to outside predictions, it is feared that Wang Zhijun will be charged with attempted murder if the situation is as it stands, and that the others will also be charged separately with various offences.

But of these people, including Wang Zhijun, the most likely sentence would be just a few years in prison, or even less.

Because the target of their premeditated murder was not actually killed, and because the Wu family's people have reportedly started moving around, and the old Wang family has likewise started moving around, these few suspects will probably receive lighter sentences.

Maybe even the mastermind, Wang Zhijun, might only get a year or two!

However, everyone knows that if Wang Zhijun goes to prison, the old Wang family will certainly not leave their hands unattended, so in that case, maybe Wang Zhijun will get out in a few months.

As for the way to get out, there are really a lot of names.

For example, if the old Wang family and the Wu family were powerful and powerful, they could find any reason to get Wang Zhijun out.

The first thing you need to do is to get the information from the police.

Even the entire old Ji family did not say anything, as if they were really going to just hold their noses and admit it this time. The outside world is speculating that it's not that the old Ji family doesn't want to react this time, after all, Ji Feng, as the first grandson of the eldest family, was almost shot and killed, which is absolutely intolerable.

However, the Ji family did not react in any way, which was very surprising and led to a wide range of opinions.

After all, everyone knew how powerful the Ji family was, and in the face of such a situation, the old Ji family actually said nothing, which was definitely not the character of the surname Ji.

So many people are speculating that it's not that the Ji family doesn't want to do anything in response, but it's likely that they are under pressure from a certain source, such as the Wu family.

It is even likely that this pressure is also coming from the top!

Or, it is also possible that the Ji family has been held up in some way and that is why they can only bite the bullet and admit it.

This kind of argument dominated the mainstream argument.

Because in this matter, the Ji family's reaction was simply too abnormal!

Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei were almost killed, not to mention other things. Even if such a thing was done to ordinary citizens, it would be absolutely intolerable, not to mention a big family like the Ji family.

But the Ji family just didn't react at all, which is really too strange and weird.

In any case, it just doesn't make sense.

So everyone was speculating that the Ji family was definitely under pressure from the outside world and had no choice but to hold their noses and admit it.

This couldn't help but give everyone a sense of sympathy and at the same time a sense of fear for the Martial Family.

Even a family as sheltered as the Ji family would be threatened by the outside world and had to grit their teeth and endure it, what if this were someone else?

Or what if it were himself? Would they be able to resist this kind of pressure again?

However, just at this time, a piece of news suddenly broke out, leaving everyone shocked and baffled.

Wang Zhijun's father, who was also the leader of the second generation of the old Wang family, that Minister Wang, who also had a notorious reputation, had actually been reported to someone!

This whistleblower was no other than a mobster named Bian Chunzhan from far away in Southern Guangdong.

This person was also the elder brother of the person involved in the assassination of Ji Feng, Bian Chunlei.

According to Bian Chunzhan's report, he had sent a staggering amount of huge funds to Wang Zhijun one after another for several years, and was deeply liked by him. For this reason, he was once able to visit Wang Zhijun's old Wang's house in Yanjing, and at that time, he also met Wang Zhijun's father.

That Minister Wang, also encouraged Bian Chunzhan a few words, and for Bian Chunzhan's 'filial piety', also showed a very satisfied look, also to Bian Chunzhan a lot closer.

In addition, the old Wang family opened a high-class private club in Yanjing, whose original investment was made by Bian Chunzhan, but all the profits were given to Wang Zhijun, and most importantly, Minister Wang also occasionally went to that club to enjoy life, and of course enjoyed the 'best services' of the club!

It was because of this that Bian Chunzhan had the opportunity to leave behind evidence, which were some images taken by the surveillance cameras in the clubhouse. According to the police insiders, those images were very unpleasant to look at and made people cringe.

When this news came out, the whole of Yanjing was in an uproar.

No one expected that just when everyone thought that this matter would just go away, another fierce story would break out, and the matter would involve Wang Zhijun's father!

And the most important thing is that this is not just an empty rumour, but there is real evidence!

Wang Zhijun's father was going to be unlucky!

No one had the slightest doubt about this.

Even the Wu family would not have the ability to suppress the matter, nor would they dare to do so, because the impact of the news was too bad.

If the Wu family dared to suppress it, they would be actively giving away the handle to their opponents, and then even if the Wu family was as powerful as they were, they would still have to take responsibility.

The style of work and the economy, both of which have very serious problems, how can a person like this still hold a high position?

Even if the top agrees, the people will not agree.

No one can go against the general trend, public opinion cannot be insulted, and the Wu family is not qualified to do so!

Therefore, there was no doubt that Wang Zhijun's father could never remain in his current position.

However in that case, the only pillar of the Old Wang Family would have to fall.

Then, how can the building of the Old Wang Family still stand?

In the Old Wang Family, the old man has only one last breath left and could die at any time.

The old Wang family is going to be doomed, the building is going to fall!

Next, the reaction from above directly verified everyone's suspicions.

The Jiangzhou and South Guangdong police jointly reported upwards that since the case had involved Wang Zhijun's father, it was no longer appropriate for the police alone to handle it.

So they could only report upwards, and it was up to the top to decide exactly what to do.

The feedback they received was swift to the point that just a few hours after the news broke, word came from above that Wang Zhijun's father would be suspended from his duties and investigated, and at the same time, a task force would be set up by the Discipline Inspection Commission to lead the police in Jiangzhou and South Guangdong, specifically to investigate the case!

Immediately afterwards, a large number of reports were sent to the task force's desk, and the subjects of the reports, without exception, were all about Wang Zhijun and his father.

By this time, what Wang Zhijun's father was involved in was not just economic and style issues, but many other issues as well.

All these problems were so serious that the task force couldn't help but be staggered by them, and the outside world was shocked beyond belief.

The old Wang family was going down the drain!

Before this, who would have thought that such a situation would actually arise?

Originally, everyone thought that the Ji family was really going to hold their noses and admit it, yet the next thing that happened was such a sudden change that it involved Wang Zhijun's father when no one had expected it, and looking at the trend of things, it had the tendency to stomp on that Minister Wang all at once!

This is really dazzling, yet astonishing.

However, there were some people who were beginning to figure out the flavour.

“The Old Ji family has struck back!” Some weighty figures then began to lament, “This is really powerful, if they don’t strike, they will almost kill the Old Wang Family!”

“Is this the Ji family’s counter-attack to the assassination?”

“What else could it be? The Jiangzhou police are only interrogating the assassination, so why are the police in Southern Guangdong suddenly involved again?”

“This

“But don’t forget, just last year, the former deputy director of the Jiangzhou police, Zheng Yuanshan, was transferred to the South Guangdong police department!”

“So that’s how it is!”

The listener suddenly realized it and said in a shocked voice, “Zheng Yuanshan’s transfer to South Guangdong is a chess move laid by the Ji family long ago! This time, it was the Ji Family that was making a move in secret, through an assassination incident, first capturing Wang Zhijun, a not very important figure, and then, the Ji Family was silent, just letting the Wu Family and the old Wang Family all move, so that the focus of their attention was on Wang Zhijun’s body, but in reality, the Ji Family was already working on a counter-attack from the very beginning of the incident!”

“That’s right! I’m afraid that the Wu and Wang families were not even half prepared, and as a result, Minister Wang was directly taken down! The speed of war is precious, the strike was a thunderbolt, this is the old Ji family!”

“Impressive indeed!”

Everyone was overwhelmed with emotion and even admiration.

This was not a complicated move by the Ji family, it was just a way of diverting the attention of their opponents, showing their weakness, and using an insignificant figure to involve such an important person as Wu Zhiyong, causing the Wu and Wang families to move.

In this way, both the Wu and Wang families’ attention would be distracted, and the Ji family would be able to lay out their plans and then counterattack, leaving the Wu and Wang families no time to react at all!

In fact, everyone could see clearly that even if the Wu and Wang families could have realised this beforehand, they would not have been able to stop this from happening.

Even if the Martial Family was as strong as they were, they couldn’t!

Campus Master Chapter 1977

In fact, everyone could see clearly that even if the Wu and Wang families could have realised this before this, they would not have been able to stop it from happening.

Because at that time, the Wu and Wang families were simply powerless to take care of others.

If the two families wanted to protect Wang Zhijun's father, they would have to protect Wang Zhijun first, because only by removing Wang Zhijun from this matter would they be unable to implicate his father.

However if that is the case, it will inevitably involve Wu Zhiyong to know that the Ji family can definitely not be bullied by just anyone, and if they are not given an explanation, it will definitely not be justified.

At that time, who can still protect Wu Zhiyong?

As the leading figure of the third generation of the Wu family, Wu Zhiyong could never afford to lose, and the Wu family would never allow such a thing to happen.

But if you really want to protect Wu Zhiyong, then you will have to sacrifice Wang Zhijun, but then you will inevitably implicate his father This is a dilemma!

The matter has come to this point, for the Wu family can really be a dilemma.

If you look at the entire Wu family, there is absolutely no one more outstanding than Wu Zhiyong. If Wu Zhiyong were to fall this time, he would definitely no longer be able to lead the entire Martial Family as a leader in the future, and then the Martial Family would definitely fall gradually, and then the entire family would be damaged!

This is definitely something that the Martial Family cannot afford!

However, Wang Zhijun's father was equally difficult for the Wu Family to give up.

Once Wang Zhijun's father lost this position, it would be the same as the Wu family losing this position, which would also be a considerable loss to the Wu family.

The consequences of Wang Zhijun's father's downfall are far more than that, the chain reaction that will follow is the most frightening.

Once Wang Zhijun's father fell, it would be like the pillar of the entire Wang family had fallen, but there were still other people in the Wang family.

Although those people are not as high up as Wang Zhijun's father, they are all in business or are small leaders.

At that time, the Wang family will be attacked, there is no need to say more. Thinking about those people outside who have been eyeing the Wang family, it will definitely make people's skin tingle.

If the entire Wang family is completely fucked, then for the Wu family, it would be like having an arm chopped off!

It would break the bones!

Even if the Martial Family, which is a large and powerful family, would definitely be in pain to the marrow of their bones, and I am afraid they would all be dripping blood and shivering with heartache.

More importantly, if the entire Wang family was completely trampled down, where would the Wu family's face still be?

If even their own followers could not be protected, the prestige of the Martial Family would definitely be dealt an extremely serious blow, and it could even be said that they would be disgraced. ...these are the questions they will have to think about.

Who wants to become a second Wang family themselves?

So actually speaking, the impact of giving up Wang Zhijun's father was hardly worse than the impact of giving up Wu Zhiyong... It was really a dilemma for the Wu family, it was a tough choice either way!

However, the Wu family had to choose, because at this time, things were no longer at the will of the Wu family, and the family no longer had the right to speak!

From Jiangzhou to South Guangdong and then to Yanjing Once such a long battle line is drawn, the Wu and Wang families will definitely lose sight of each other, not to mention that it is always the Ji family that takes the initiative, where to start and where to use as a breakthrough, these are entirely in the hands of the Ji family.

The Martial Family and the Wang Family are very happy, but in reality, they have always been led by the Ji Family by the nose, and they have to follow them!

This made the Martial Family and the Wang Family even more frantic, but there was no way to break the current situation.

So even some figures of the older generation and those at the top couldn't help but sigh in admiration after knowing this.

"This hand of the Ji family is formidable!"

It is said that one of the old comrades who presided over the great inner circle once exclaimed this after hearing about this matter

"This is a real yang plot, a tangential yang plot! There is no conspiracy at all, it is to seize the opponent's weakness, occupy the great righteousness, attack from on high, and directly give the opponent a two-choice choice!"

"But what makes people helpless is that this multiple choice question is insoluble, no matter how you choose, you are forcing the Martial Family to cut flesh on their own body, that kind of pain is really maddening!"

When the comments of these great figures were circulated through various channels, the outside world was even more shocked, the comments given by these great figures were really not low.

So this also made many people couldn't help but feel awe in their hearts. This is the Ji family, if they don't strike, then they will strike with a thunderous force, as if five thunderbolts had struck, leaving their opponents with no half-measure, let alone the power to fight back, that's something not even to mention, just a joke.

The real mastermind behind the assassination case of Ji Feng was Wu Zhiyong, and it was even likely to be one of the main figures of the Wu family.

As for Wang Zhijun, I am afraid that he is just an idiot who is still in the dark until now.

This is something that anyone with a little bit of brains in the outside world would be able to see.

But the Wu family's reaction was so arrogant that they directly put the blame on Wang Zhijun, which is clearly telling the Ji family that even if you can see that this matter is related to the Wu family, so what? Without a solid reason, without real evidence, your family will have to put up with it, even if your master Ji has always been strong, it's useless.

But I'm afraid the Wu family would never have imagined that people from the old Ji family would simply ignore it and just follow their own layout, what with all the scheming and petty tricks, so that the Wu family people seemed to be quite pleased with themselves, and some of their sons spoke outside in an arrogant tone, yet the Ji family simply ignored it, and as a result, this move instantly knocked the Wu family off their feet.

With just this move alone, it directly turned the Wu Family's previous act of constantly jumping up and down into a ridiculous joke!

This could not help but bring to mind the saying, "Originally wanting to see someone else's joke, one did not expect to turn into a joke themselves!"

How ridiculous!

Looking at the whole process of events up to now, the encounter between the Ji family and the Wu family could be described as exciting and fierce, from the beginning when Ji Feng was assassinated, which triggered the attention of the outside world, and then to the Wu family's constant small moves and small cleverness, it seemed to be exciting.

However, the thunderous strike of the Ji family, when no one expected it, was to blast all the schemes and petty tricks of the Wu family to smithereens.

Just one strike, but it felt so sound!

Even some people, after carefully mulling over the whole process, could not help but applaud, shocked by this calm and atmospheric way of playing the game of the Ji Family, yet with a feeling of heartfelt admiration!

Even those who don't deal with the Ji family too much can't help but let out an exclamation, "The old Ji family, amazing!"

Some people also sighed, "I don't know if this kind of tactics and layout is the handiwork of Old Master Ji or Ji Zhenhua, if it's Ji Zhenhua, then the Ji family's prosperity in the next twenty years is already unstoppable, this kind of atmospheric tactics and magnitude is already completely incomparable to those conspiracies and tricks! The two sides are no longer on the same level!"

In fact, very few people knew that this time, the layout and plan had only come from the hands of a young man in the third generation of the Ji family!

If the outside world knew about this, I am afraid that some people would jump up in shock!

Even the second-generation figures of some families could not use these tactics so easily, but in the Ji Family, it was just a youngster who did it.

Fortunately, there are not many people who know the truth of the matter, otherwise, Ji Feng will definitely become the object of everyone's research and defense

By this time, everyone could see that in fact, things had developed to this extent and the two sides had already won and lost!

Now, no matter what the Wu family chooses, the Ji family is already invincible, while the Wu family is bound to be hit hard. However, how much damage the Martial Family will suffer will depend on how tenacious the Martial Family is and how strong its resistance is.

But more importantly, it would also depend on the mood of the Ji family!

While the outside world was either stunned or in awe at the Ji family's magnificent and thunderous tactics, the Wu family in Yanjing was in a state of sorrow.

Several brothers from the Wu family had gathered together once again, and Wu Zhiyong was also present.

But this time, the faces of several people were terribly gloomy, not to mention smiling, and not even a half of a kinder look could be seen.

This blow from the Ji Family was simply too vicious, it was like the heaviest blow to the head, directly hitting the entire Wu Family with stars in their eyes and dizziness in their heads.

"Jumping clown!"

Thinking about how they were sitting here earlier discussing countermeasures, and thinking of taking several steps so that the Ji family would be unable to tell how reasonable they were only to find in the end that people were simply calm and collected, just waiting to see their own jokes.

The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these.

Campus Master Chapter 1978

"A decision has to be made!" Wu Zhengmin said in a deep voice.

This time, Wu Zhengmin no longer had the confident fullness that he had a few days ago, instead, he had a tightly locked frown, already deeply helpless.

"Nowadays, the Ji family is pressing forward step by step, and at the same time the top has tangible evidence, this time, the old Wang family will not be able to carry the load no matter what, unless we intervene!" Wu Zhengmin rubbed his brow and said in a deep voice.

"But if we were to intervene, then Zhiyong's side" Wu Zhengxiang wanted to say something but stopped.

Wu Zhiyong secretly clenched his fist, of course he understood the meaning of his second uncle's words. If the Wu family took action to protect Wang Zhijun's father, then the matter would inevitably involve him, and even all of the Wu family's connections in the military, and even some of the forces around the Wu family, would certainly be dealt an extremely heavy blow.

The situation at hand was already very clear, and there was no need to say anything more.

“What else is there to discuss here, of course it’s to protect Zhiyong!” Wu Zhengxin said, “No matter how important the old Wang family is, it is still an outsider, Zhiyong is our own family, who will we protect if not him?”

“But, if we lose the Old Wang family, it will be an extremely serious loss for us!” Wu Zhengxiang said helplessly.

Even though the Old Wang Family was considered to be a not-so-small family, in reality, because Old Master Wang had offended too many people, coupled with the fact that Old Master Wang’s health was getting worse and worse over the years, it caused the Wu Family to be declining rapidly, and eventually they could only rely on the Wu Family completely.

Because of this, the Wang family was now almost like a vassal of the Wu family.

Perhaps it was also because the people of the old Wang family had inherited the kind of acerbic and mean-spirited, as well as selfish and underhanded character of Old Master Wang, so in the past few years, the people of the old Wang family had been attacking others in various positions according to the wishes of the Wu family, and had achieved a lot of benefits for the Wu family.

It can be said that the Wang family is now a knife for the Wu family in the political world, or rather a fighter for the Wu family.

Now if they watch the old Wang family fall, it would be like breaking their own arm. Once the old Wang family falls, then for the Wu family, I’m afraid that in the next not too short period of time, their strength will be weakened significantly, and at that time, it would be strange if other families don’t take advantage of the opportunity to attack!

“This is the tactics of the old Ji family!” Wu Zhengmin let out a long sigh, “It’s also our fault for being too careless, if the Ji family’s tactics were that easy to defuse, there wouldn’t be the old Ji family now! They are giving us a choice to advance a dilemma, yet, we still have to choose!”

Wu Zhengxin said indignantly, “So what can be done? Could it be that if we lose the Old Wang Family, our Wu Family will fall? Hmph! It’s only a period of rest and recuperation, unless his Old Ji Family doesn’t make any mistakes at all in the future, otherwise, there will be a good look for them just wait!”

Wu Zhengmin and Wu Zhengxiang both couldn’t help but shake their heads, if only things were really as simple as they were said to be!

“Boss, no matter what, we have to decide now, now the discipline inspection committee side has already isolated Old Wang for examination, if we move slowly, I’m afraid it won’t be our choice then, the Ji family will definitely deal with us after cleaning up Old Wang, at that time, it can be an all-out attack by the Ji family... ..We have to hurry up!”

“Yes!”

Wu Zhengmin rubbed his eyebrows, “The Ji Family has given us a dilemma, but it’s biased to also add a mandatory time limit on top of that choice

“Father!”

Wu Zhiyong suddenly spoke up, he gritted his teeth and said, "Second uncle, third uncle, you don't have to be so difficult, this time it's better to protect the Wang family, even if this matter is investigated into me, at most I will just resign voluntarily and go out to avoid the wind, I believe that at most five to ten years, I can still come back again, by then, I still have time to rise again"

"It's not as light as you say!" Wu Zhengxiang shook his head, "Since the Ji family has come to this point, do you think you still have a chance to rise again?"

"Yes, Zhiyong, don't be childish, now you are the only one who can take the lead among these young children below our Wu family, now we have to keep you no matter what we say, everything else can be discussed again!" Wu Zhengxin also followed suit and said.

Wu Zhiyong stopped talking, but in his heart, he was secretly relieved.

In fact, why did he want to get himself involved?

The reason why he said that he wanted to protect the Wang family and take responsibility himself was actually just a disguised retreat as an advance. He wanted to let second uncle and third uncle know that Wu Zhiyong was still a person who dared to take responsibility, with a hardened style and strong character, the more this would highlight his excellence, then second uncle and third uncle would definitely not agree to this proposal.

Now it seems that this is really the case.

In this way, Wu Zhiyong was also relieved, as the saying goes, if you leave the green hills in fear of not having firewood to burn, as long as you preserve yourself first, you will have the opportunity to grow the Wu family again in the future.

"Older two and older three, since your opinions are all in agreement, then let's decide the matter like this!" Wu Zhengmin glanced at Wu Zhiyong and said, "Zhiyong, this time you have to remember the lesson and engrave it deeply in your heart, no matter what time it is, small cleverness can certainly benefit you for a while, but if you want to prosper for a lifetime, you have to learn to be upright"

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing. Obviously, Wu Zhengmin had seen Wu Zhiyong's small cleverness, and these words were also a double entendre, on the one hand, he taught Wu Zhiyong a lesson about playing small in dealing with Ji Feng, on the other hand, he was also teaching him to try not to play such small cleverness in front of his own family as well.

The oldest one, Wu Zhengxin, did not have much brain, but Wu Zhengxiang was a very smart person. If Wu Zhengxiang's son was not still young, it would have been a bit difficult to save Wu Zhiyong this time.

However, Wu Zhengmin did not object to what Wu Zhiyong was doing.

Wu Zhiyong was his son, how could he stand by and watch his son being ruined?

Especially since Wu Zhihe had been forced to die by the Ji family, and now he only had one son left, Wu Zhiyong, he naturally had to protect him.

Therefore, Wu Zhengmin only turned a blind eye to the petty tricks that Wu Zhiyong played in front of his second and third sons.

“Boss, since the decision has been made, then let’s hurry up and act.” Wu Zhengxin urged.

“Well!”

Wu Zhengmin nodded and said, “Well then, since all of your opinions are unified, I will now immediately go and find the old man and ask him for his opinion again.”

Wu Zhengxiang also stood up and said, “In that case, then I will also go out and make preparations, even if we keep Zhiyong, but how exactly should we deal with the old Wang family’s side, how will the investigation team above treat it, this will still be a bunch of questions ah!”

“Well!”

Wu Zhengmin nodded and said, “It is right to make preparations in advance. Old Two, you must remember one principle, you can give up the old Wang family, but you must not let outsiders say any gossip, let alone let other families follow suit or have dissenting thoughts! As for the investigation team, I will deal with it. The extent of this investigation and who is involved cannot all be left to their discretion!”

Wu Zhengxiang nodded and said, “I know then I’ll go.”

“Boss, then I will also go back first, if there is anything you want me to do, just talk to me directly.” Wu Zhengxin said.

“Well! When you go back, you have to talk to the little kids below, don’t let them go out and mess around anymore, they all have to be honest and proper these days, otherwise, if they cause any more trouble, our Wu family will really be buzzing!” Wu Zhengmin admonished.

“Boss, don’t worry, those little brats, I’ll clean up whoever dares to disobey me!” Wu Zhengxin said with a big grin.

Wu Zhengmin stood up and said in a deep voice, “Then we’ll go together, I’ll go to the old man’s place too. Zhiyong, you just stay at home, think about the whole thing, think about it from start to finish, see where you went wrong and what else you missed”

Wu Zhiyong nodded heavily, “Father, I will.”

After that, the three Wu Zhengmin went out one after another.

Looking at their backs, Wu Zhiyong’s face was incomparably gloomy, he couldn’t help but clench his fists, and looking at the muscles in his cheeks bulging, he could tell how tightly his teeth were clenched at this moment!

“Shame on you!”

Wu Zhiyong’s face was incomparably gloomy, and his eyes almost spewed fire out of them.

He, once again, had lost at Ji Feng’s hands, and, this time, it was going to be even more miserable and pitiful than the last defeat!

And more importantly, Ji Feng was still using his heartlessness to get what he wanted, and he still ended up losing miserably at Ji Feng’s hands.

You know, at that time, Ji Feng did not know that he was going to send someone to kill him, but the next series of actions were so calm and atmospheric that he had no power to counterattack.

Did this mean that even if Ji Feng had stood there and let himself attack at will, he would not have been able to inflict any damage on him, yet all Ji Feng had to do was wave his hand slightly and he would be slapped away like a fly!

That was the real shame!

“Damn gunman, what elite fighters of the special forces are all bullshit!” Wu Zhiyong slapped a fierce slap on the coffee table, almost mad with anger.

If that assassin had been more competitive at that time, and had directly done away with Ji Feng with a shot or a knife, where would this wretched scenario have occurred now?

Even if the Ji family was furious and unforgiving, what could they do without tangible evidence? The most you can do is to vent your anger on Wang Zhijun’s head. At that time, even if the old Wang family can’t be saved, but if Ji Feng dies, then everything will be worth it.

..... But unfortunately, there are not so many ifs in this world.

So, even though Wu Zhiyong’s chest was violently heaving with anger and he was thunderstruck, there was nothing he could do.

Campus Master Chapter 1979

Especially when he thought that the outside world’s opinion of him would change from then on, and his reputation and prestige would also fall by the thousands, Wu Zhiyong’s mood became even worse.

At that time, not to mention the Yanjing Three Masters, even a junior like Ji Feng, who was even younger than him, was afraid that he would be rated even higher than him in the outside world, which made Wu Zhiyong, who had always considered himself to be even better than Ji Shadong and Xiang Yongzhan and others, how could he stand it?

He was so hateful that he almost went mad!

But Wu Zhiyong had never thought that if he hadn’t taken the initiative to provoke him, if he hadn’t been so ruthless as to want to put Ji Feng to death, there wouldn’t be this situation now.

I am afraid that in Wu Zhiyong’s concept, he would never think that he was wrong.

Even if sometimes he would feel that he had made a mistake, it was not this kind of fundamental mistake, but he would think that there was something he had not done well enough in his actions against Ji Feng, or where there was a break just this kind of mistake.

Wu Zhiyong forgot the saying, those who insult people, people are always insulted!

“Ji Feng

Wu Zhiyong’s eyes were red, he gritted his teeth and roared hysterically low: “This time we’re not finished we’ll see!”

Because of the excessive excitement making Wu Zhiyong's chest heaving violently, his teeth were clenched, but he was oblivious, only his eyes were staring dead ahead, as if Ji Feng's abominable face was in front of him.

"It's the second time, just in your hands alone, I've already fallen on my face for the second time!" Wu Zhiyong's chest was filled with indignation, if Ji Feng were here, Wu Zhiyong would definitely throw away all his gentle and refined appearance and engage in a fight with Ji Feng, punch by punch!

In two consecutive fights, he had fallen on his face at the hands of Ji Feng, and this was not counting the other small indirect encounters, if even those were counted, Wu Zhiyong would be even worse off!

As the leader of the third generation of the Wu family, he had lost twice in a row to this wild bastard Ji Feng, and the leader of the third generation of the Ji family, Ji Shaodong, hadn't even fought yet, and he had lost so miserably, which made Wu Zhiyong humiliated and resentful, almost to the point of going mad.

How could he not hate?

"Ji Feng, just you wait" Wu Zhiyong's low roar and growl was so ear-piercing in the room.

.....

Wu Zhiyong's guess was indeed not bad at all, after experiencing this encounter, the outside world's opinion of him had indeed dropped quite a bit, and his prestige was also dropping rapidly.

Because things had come to this point, what was really going on in this, in fact, the outside world already knew almost everything. Even if there is some news that has not yet gotten out, others can guess what is going on.

In fact, the whole process of this matter is very simple, is that Wang Zhijun in order to stand up for a few guys in the mafia, to ask Ji Feng out to talk, but he ended up bringing a killer in ambush in the dark, with the intention of taking Ji Feng out, but the result is beyond Wang Zhijun's expectations, the killer not only did not take Ji Feng out, but was captured alive.

Of course, in fact, this was only a superficial statement, but in reality, everyone knew that the one who really wanted to do away with Ji Feng was someone from the Wu family, or to be precise, it was Wu Zhiyong, the leading figure of the third generation of the Wu family, who was the mastermind of this matter, and this, by now, was no longer a secret.

It was just because Wang Zhijun was pushed to the forefront to be the scapegoat – who made the Wang Family just a vassal of the Wu Family?!

These things were almost known to the outside world, others were not fools, and the circle in Yanjing was just that big, the slightest breeze could not be hidden from anyone.

So as soon as the news came out, no one mentioned Wang Zhijun anymore, and when they talked about this conflict, they just directly said that Wu Zhiyong and Ji Feng, or how the Wu family and Ji family were because everyone knew that Wang Zhijun was just a decoration, and even, most likely, Wang Zhijun was probably kept in the dark from the beginning to the end .

After all, if the assassin who assassinated Ji Feng misses, then Wang Zhijun will definitely be out of luck!

If Wang Zhijun had even the slightest bit of brains, he wouldn't have agreed to be the bait to attract Ji Feng out, this was simply walking on the edge of the abyss, if there was even the slightest mistake, he would be out of luck!

Therefore, Wang Zhijun was directly ignored by people, and everyone knew that the mastermind of this matter was the Wu family.

Especially Wu Zhiyong, who was said to be the mastermind of this assassination of Ji Feng.

But this should turn out to be very disappointing for Wu Zhiyong, right?

The outside world can't help but shake their heads, frankly speaking, this matter Wu Zhiyong has really gone too far, and I don't know where he got such a strong confidence that he thinks he can definitely kill Ji Feng?

The fact that Ji Feng had been living in exile for more than ten years, but he was indeed a son of the old Ji family, the son of Ji Zhenhua, so would he not have experts around him to protect him?

Even if one thought about it with one's brain, one would know that it would not be that easy to kill Ji Feng!

What's more, the move of using an assassin to assassinate an opponent is not something that should be used lightly no matter what time of day it is!

If everyone killed each other like this, wouldn't families such as the Xiang family, which had great influence in the military, or some generals who controlled elite troops, be able to kill whoever they wanted?

How many political families could resist the assassination of elite soldiers?

Wouldn't the country be in chaos?

This is a travesty!

Some righteous people could not help but denounce the fact that Wu Zhiyong was challenging the bottom line of all families by doing this.

Some other people, however, said that there was no reason why Wu Zhiyong had made such a foolish move, after all, such a move was indeed out of line.

But if we think of the previous incident where Wu Zhihe was forced to die, but Wu Zhiyong had to grit his teeth and throw dirty water on his own brother's body, everyone probably understood what was going on in Wu Zhiyong's mind.

Obviously, Wu Zhiyong was scared!

He was afraid of Ji Feng!

If he wasn't scared of Ji Feng in his heart, would Wu Zhiyong have made such a faint move? He should have used a means that was acceptable to everyone within the normal range to compete with Ji Feng, or to avenge his brother's shame, which was normal.

But look at what Wu Zhiyong has done?

Sending gunmen to assassinate Ji Feng Wu Zhiyong this is not want Ji Feng to die immediately now, do not want him to live in this world for one more second, but, he has no way to let Ji Feng to die, so, can only take such an extreme method.

Because the existence of this person, Ji Feng, would obviously pose a great threat to Wu Zhiyong and make him scared in his heart!

This makes many people can't help but shake their heads, Wu Zhiyong this action, has revealed his inner fear and weakness, and then see now still not a word but is said to be still normal life of Ji Feng, two contrast, can be said to be the high and low!

This also reminds people of the Chinese New Year when Wu Zhiyong provoked the Ji family's children with his underhanded tactics, resulting in angering Ji Shaodong.

In a fit of rage, Ji Shaodong personally declared war on Wu Zhiyong in person, which also caused an uproar at the time.

At that time, everyone was speculating whether, with Ji Shaodong's declaration of war, the Wu and Ji families would engage in a full-scale clash and game, or would it be confined to the third generation?

In addition to this, there was also an analysis of the power comparison between the third generation of the two families, and it was suggested at the time that Ji Shaodong had a greater chance of winning, because in the Ji family, there was not only one Ji Shaodong to carry the load, but also a shining figure that no one could ignore – Ji Feng.

So that declaration of war had everyone looking forward to it, a big clash between the third generation of the two families, which would also probably determine the direction of the situation in the next few decades, so the vast majority of people were looking forward to it, while guessing where and in what way this big clash would start

However, no one expected that only a few days had passed before the collision between the two sides suddenly happened in a way that no one could have imagined – assassination!

And it didn't even happen to Ji Shaodong, but to Ji Feng, another dazzling figure in the third generation of the Ji family.

What happened next was a dazzling experience.

Handing over the killer to the military, interrogating Wang Zhijun, investigating the identity of the killer, diverting the Wu family's attention from sounding out the West, and ultimately throwing the Wu family a tough multiple choice question with a time limit straight away

This series of actions happened in just a few days, the situation changed so quickly, the kind of tension that simply made people breathless.

It was only until this time that everyone realized that in this matter, Ji Feng had played a huge role.

The game caused from Ji Feng was originally confined to these small characters, but in the end, it was to end up in the higher others.

..... Needless to say, everyone can guess that Wang Zhijun's old son cannot be saved, and the Wu family will certainly not go to protect an outsider and give up Wu Zhiyong.

Then along with that, the old Wang family will definitely collapse!

All of this was triggered from Ji Feng's body, thus showing how big a role Ji Feng played!

In contrast to Wang Zhiyong's ugly attitude as if he was a clown, one could not help but feel the huge gap between the two.

Many people were a bit puzzled, Wu Zhiyong wasn't that bad before, so how come he became helpless and ugly as soon as he met Ji Feng?

Was Wu Zhiyong too weak, or was Ji Feng too strong?

No matter what outsiders say, this game, which started with the clash between Ji Feng and Wang Zhijun and ended with the concession of the Wu family, although it was very short, it had a kind of wave and even a wonderful feeling in it, but now, it is considered to have finally entered the end and is about to come to an end.

And at this time, Ji Feng received a news that made him very surprised

Campus Master Chapter 1980

In the blink of an eye, a week had passed since the last stabbing incident.

Ji Feng's life had also returned to the right track, he started to take Tong Lei to school every day, and after school, he just surfed the internet, read books or newspapers at home, and lived a simple life.

This could not be helped. Ji Feng would have liked to go out more often or visit Qin Shujie and Xu Yuan, but as far as the current situation was concerned, it was obvious that this hope of his could not be realized.

After all, there was no telling how many pairs of eyes were watching him now, and every move he made was believed to fall into the eyes of those with an eye on him, so it was better to keep a low profile during this period of time.

In particular, his father Ji Zhenhua even called and told him to pay attention to his personal safety. Although what Wu Zhiyong did was taboo and a breach of the bottom line, who can guarantee that there are still people like Wu Zhiyong in existence?

It is also possible that if someone holds a grudge against Ji Feng because of a certain matter, but cannot deal with Ji Feng, they end up going against the people around Ji Feng in a fit of anger.

Although Ji Feng believed that the few women around him were now protected by guards and nothing should go wrong, it was always good to keep a low profile during this time.

What's more, right now Qin Shujie's side is not yet protected by very capable experts, there are only two female guards sent over from the security department of the Tengfei Group, who are secretly protecting Qin Shujie and Yao Yao, the little one, but they are not equipped with weapons, so Ji Feng is more or less still a bit worried.

So Ji Feng was also wondering if he could go to Xiang Yongzhan and ask for two more elite female warriors from him to be responsible for protecting Qin Shujie and Yaoyao?

In fact, if we put all this aside, this kind of simple life would be a pleasure for Ji Feng.

At least he didn't have to worry about when he was being set up or if he was going to be attacked The simple and easy life did make his mood pleasant as well.

So Ji Feng took advantage of the few days of clarity to start gathering some of the information he needed on the internet or in the newspapers – from the time he returned to Jiangzhou, he had been looking for an opportunity to enter Southern Guangdong through a suitable entry point.

Although this time the fight with Wu Zhiyong ended in his victory again, the old Wang family was definitely going to fall, the Wu family was like having an arm chopped off alive, which would definitely make them hurt to the core and could even be said to have broken their bones, this cut could not be considered deep.

But Ji Feng knew that the Wu family would not be devastated by this, in fact, the Wu family was not greatly injured by this, they could only be considered to have suffered a certain degree of serious injury, that's all.

After this clash, there was no longer any possibility of reconciliation between the two families, in fact, the two families were already deadly enemies after the death of Wu Zhihe!

The two families have been at loggerheads for a long time, or strictly speaking, the Wu family could not wait for Ji Feng to be run over by a car tomorrow

The day when a full-scale conflict will break out between the two families can be seen, although it is not known exactly when it will happen, but it is only a matter of time, it is certain to happen!

In such a situation, how could Ji Feng still keep his hand?

It was always necessary to prepare well in advance in order to be invincible, this was Ji Feng's habit, so from now on, he was looking for the opportunity to enter Southern Guangdong, for no other reason than that he would not be run over by the Wu family in the future.

Perhaps father and second uncle and the others wanted Ji Feng to bring huge funds to stop the Rongpeng Group from cooperating with the Kepong people, they couldn't stand by and watch some strategic projects, and some precious resources, just let the Kepong people take them for nothing.

But frankly speaking, Ji Feng did not consider himself to be that great.

The first thing he had to do was to protect himself.

Only when he could guarantee the safety of himself and his family, would he have the heart to do anything else.

And if he could ensure that he was invincible and at the same time stop the wolfish ambitions of the Boundary Pontiffs and do a little bit for the country, then of course it would be great.

Now Ji Feng is looking for such a method, in fact, he is also looking for a way to both successfully enter Southern Guangdong and stop the Rongpeng Group that is, to stop the present-day Brilliant Group from cooperating with the Kepong people.

And in order to do this step, the right entry point is the most crucial.

Otherwise, is it still possible to run to South Guangdong with money for no reason and directly say to the head of the Brilliant Group, "You can't cooperate with the enterprises of the Kepong, I have money here, you sell the project and shares to me"

Such a stupid thing Ji Feng couldn't do.

Not to mention whether the Brilliant Group would believe him, even if they did, but with his relationship with the Wu family, I'm afraid the Brilliant Group wouldn't even sell him a screw!

Therefore, Ji Feng had to find the right method.

In front of him at this moment were several newspapers from Southern Guangdong, from news to business, he read them all very carefully.

"Ding"

Suddenly, the mobile phone placed on the coffee table rang, and Ji Feng casually picked it up, only to find that the three words Ding Weijian were displayed on the screen of the phone.

Ji Feng couldn't help but raise his eyebrows, feeling a little strange.

When Ji Feng and Tong Lei first moved to this villa, they went to the furniture city to buy furniture together, and ended up meeting a second-rate man named Zhang Yongqiang, and there was a small conflict.

It so happened that Li Ruo Nan, who was a traffic policeman at the time, also got involved and it was she who informed the police.

When the matter was finally settled, it was handled by Li Ruo Nan's old subordinate, who was Ding Weijian.

But now Ding Weijian suddenly called, but it made Ji Feng a little strange, although he and Ding Weijian know each other, but there is little contact with each other, at this time Ding Weijian called, what is the matter?

These thoughts flashed through Ji Feng's mind and he casually picked up the phone, "Captain Ding, this is Ji Feng, what are your instructions?"

A bright laugh immediately came from the other end of the phone, "Young Ji, don't shabby me, I'm just the deputy captain, if our captain hears this, I won't have a good day"

Ji Feng's heart twitched, "Li Ruonan?"

He remembered that he had heard Zheng Yuanshan say a long time ago that Li Ruonan seemed to have been promoted, as if he had become a senior captain of the criminal police force, and was also the deputy director of a certain branch, the captain Ding Weijian was talking about, was it Li Ruonan?

Ji Feng smiled and exchanged pleasantries with Ding Weijian before cutting to the chase and asking, "Captain Ding, looking for me for something?"

"Yes there is something, our captain asked me to tell you to come to the city bureau, someone wants to see you!" Ding Weijian said, then he repeated it again as if to confirm, "Yes, that's right, someone wants to see you!"

"Captain Ding, what kind of person wants to see me? You have someone on your side right now, right?" Ji Feng asked.

As soon as he heard Ding Weijian's tone of voice, he could almost imagine the scene at the other end of the phone – it was obvious that someone must have been directing Ding Weijian from the side or saying something to him while Ding Weijian was on the phone, which was why Ding Weijian had that last repeated phrase.

Ding Weijian said, "Young Ji, come over if it's convenient, you'll know when you come."

Ji Feng frowned and said, "I don't quite have the time right now"

Ding Weijian paused, then added: "Ji Shao, it's about that case where you were assassinated, there's a person involved in the case who strongly requests to see you, and so I still hope you can take the time to come."

"The person involved in the case wants to see me?"

Ji Feng was slightly stunned, isn't the person involved in the case Liu Fei and Bian Chunlei and a Hu Xuehui, of course, there is also Wang Zhijun and that assassin, but the latter two are already handed over to the military, now want to see themselves, is nothing but Liu Fei and Bian Chunlei and Hu Xuehui

Ji Feng nodded: "Okay then, I'll go over there now, it will probably take me about an hour to get there."

Ding Weijian immediately let out a sigh of relief, "Okay then, I'll wait for you in my office!"

After closing the line, Ji Feng was still a bit strange, things had basically come to an end by now, what did those people want to see themselves for?

The new evidence was not only a matter of fact, but also a matter of fact.

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on this.

As for Hu Xuehui

Ji Feng faintly shook his head, on the night he caught them a few, he made his words very clear, at that time Hu Xuehui still scolded him for being desperate, now he shouldn't think about seeing him either

After largely smoothing these things out, Ji Feng took Bai Zhu out the door.

No matter who wants to see him or her and what exactly is going on, we will naturally know after we wait until the place.

.....

And at the same time, in the captain's office of the city bureau's criminal police team, Ding Weijian was standing in front of his desk and said, "Captain, he promised to come over now, he can arrive in about an hour, what else do you want to order?"

"Hm!"

Sitting behind the desk was a woman in a police uniform, it was none other than Li Ruonan, as Ji Feng had guessed.

At this moment, she nodded in satisfaction and said, "There's nothing more, Little Ding, this mission was well done, I'll give you a credit!"

Ding Weijian laughed, "If a phone call can be considered a task, then this credit is too good to earn Captain, you know young Ji so well, why don't you call him yourself? You saw that when I called him, he even asked a few questions and seemed a bit wary"

"I'm not calling him!" Once she heard this, Li Ruonan, who was still full of smiles, suddenly knitted her eyebrows and hummed, "That guy didn't even know to give me a call after such a long time, why should I give him a call? Letting you call him is already giving him face, if I'm in a bad mood, I'll simply let the doorman call him!"

Campus Master Chapter 1981

Ding Weijian was stunned, as a police officer, helping those involved in the case to convey their opinions and ideas is also within the normal scope of work, how can there be a distinction between who calls ah?

Also, that comment from the captain just now sounded a bit awkward, how come it was so much like a girl who was angry because her boyfriend hadn't called her for a long time?

"What are you looking at!"

Looking at Ding Weijian's odd look, Li Ruonan suddenly blushed and her eyes flashed, but her mouth was flustered as she said, "Hurry up and wait in the office, when that guy comes, take him to the detention center!"

Ding Weijian looked at Li Ruonan somewhat strangely, to know, Li Ruonan can always be a competent look, even sometimes performance than many male comrades are more tough, like now this kind of blushing look, Ding Weijian are still the first time to see ah!

"Captain, you are nothing, right?" Ding Weijian asked hesitantly.

"Nonsense! What can I have to do? Hurry up and get lost!" Li Ruonan suddenly glared at him with almond eyes.

However, just as he ran out, he suddenly poked his head in again and said, "Captain, I think, someone like Ji Shao must be very busy, there must be a reason why he doesn't call you. ..."

Before he could finish his words, he saw Li Ruonan pick up a folder directly from his desk and was about to smash it over, "I'll let you talk nonsense"

"I won't say anymore, Captain spare my life!" Ding Weijian shouted, then fled in a panic, leaving Li Ruonan standing alone in the office, holding up a folder in her hand, dumbfounded.

"Puff~~!"

Looking at the office door, Li Ruonan couldn't help but puff out a smile, her pretty face suddenly blossoming, filling the entire office with spring colours.

"This kid" Li Ruonan shook her head, and didn't mean to get angry. She was not the kind of bureaucratic leader and had not been angry with her men in most cases, rather it was with the prisoners that she was more furious.

But when she thought of what Ding Weijian had just said, Li Ruonan couldn't help but grit her teeth a little, what was this brat talking about.

After a pause, Li Ruonan sighed quietly: "How busy can he be? Even if he is busy, does he not even have the time to make a phone call?"

Li Ruonan's head shook lightly and she laughed bitterly, "Li Ruonan, Li Ruonan, don't think nonsense, what's yours is yours, what's not yours, you can't get it, why do you have to treat yourself like this You don't know how many women that bad guy has around, how could he possibly think of you?"

"What's more, you are not gentle and not considerate at all" remembering what Ding Weijian said, Li Ruonan's heart is more or less unpleasant, do men like that kind of fake woman, is it bad to be true to your nature?

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

In front of her eyes, it seemed that Ji Feng's bad smile appeared again, as if he was mocking her, "Li Ruonan, look at your body, which point is like a girl, simply a mother tyrant dragon"

"Pah!"

Li Ruonan directly smashed the folder over, wrinkled her nose and said in an exasperated voice: "I am a mother tyrant dragon, what's wrong, you don't contact me, I really don't care about you, the men chasing this girl are lined up in a long line"

However, remembering the previous and Ji Feng from the beginning of the acquaintance until now, get along with the little by little, also do not know how, Li Ruonan heart is feeling very unpleasant, nose a little sour

.....

About an hour later, Ji Feng arrived at the city bureau criminal police team.

In fact, it could have taken less time, but after experiencing the last stabbing incident, Bai Zhu became more cautious and did not dare to put too fast when driving, fearing that someone would suddenly attack again.

When she went out, Bai Zhu even took some other equipment with her, in addition to a pistol that she always carried with her.

In this regard, Ji Feng did not say anything, it is always good to be prepared.

Besides, taking these equipment with him would also allow Bai Zhu's tense nerves to relax slightly, so he did not object.

When he arrived at the CID, Ji Feng went straight through the hall and prepared to go upstairs.

But when he reached the entrance of the stairs, he suddenly stopped in his tracks and just turned his head towards the wall on his right and looked over.

On the wall to Ji Feng's right were two huge windows, and inside the windows were photos of all the serving officers of the entire CID, with names, positions and ranks and some simple introductions below the photos.

The first one in the list is Li Ruo Nan.

Ji Feng quietly looked at the photo in the window, even though it was only a work photo, but Li Ruo Nan, who was wearing a police uniform and a police cap in the photo, still looked so heroic.

Especially, the heroic look on Li RuoNan's face made Ji Feng feel very interesting.

Looking at the photo of Li RuoNan, Ji Feng remembered the bits and pieces he had done since he met Li RuoNan.

He remembered the female traffic police officer he met on the road with a big temper, the sense of amazement he felt when he first met her, and the kind of 'righteousness' Li RuoNan had.

There was also his argument, or rather tussle, with Li Ruonan.

Li Ruonan's pleasant and angry appearance, the franticness when she was angry and almost violent, and the occasionally tender and moving

The first time, Ji Feng was a little lost in thought.

When Bai Zhu saw this, she was instantly alert, she asked in a low voice, "What's wrong, young Ji? Is there something going on?"

"Oh!"

Ji Feng snapped back to his senses and shook his head, laughing, "Nothing, just saw a picture of a friend."

Bai Zhu nodded and didn't say anything else.

"Let's go!" Ji Feng let out a secret sigh in his heart before leading the way upstairs, at the same time, he took out his mobile phone and dialed Ding Weijian's number.

"Young Ji!"

After receiving Ji Feng's call, Ding Weijian immediately came out to greet him.

Ji Feng shook hands with him and said, "Just call me Ji Feng, we are all friends, no need to play all these falsehoods."

Ding Weijian nodded with a smile and made a gesture of invitation, "That's an honour for me. Sit inside."

When he came to Ding Weijian's office and sat down, Ji Feng opened the door and asked, "Captain Ding, you suddenly called me over, who is it that wants to see me?"

Ding Weijian said, "It's like this, there's information coming back from the detention center, one of the people involved in this case, Hu Xuehui, strongly requested to see you, claiming that if she can't see you, she won't eat"

Pouring water for Ji Feng and Bai Zhu respectively, Ding Weijian continued, "There is no other way, we can only call you, although Hu Xuehui is a crime, but at present has just entered the judicial process, after all, there is no final verdict, she also has the right to make such a request, we just help her to convey"

"Hu Xuehui hunger strike?!" Ji Feng but his brow furrowed and his face had an odd expression, "Is this true?"

"It's true!"

Ding Weijian nodded, "According to the information coming back so far, from this morning until now, she hasn't eaten a drop of water, not even a bite of food! If that wasn't the case, the guardhouse wouldn't have asked us for help, after all, you're one of the parties in the case and she's involved, so it's reasonable to say that the guardhouse would normally refuse this request of hers."

"Heh!"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed: "That's really slippery!"

Ding Weijian was stunned, "How so?"

Ji Feng waved his hand, "Nothing, it's just a casual sentiment."

In fact, Ji Feng was so speechless that he didn't know what to say.

Hu Xuehui's hunger strike?

Is there anything more funny than that?

Even if it was said that Bian Chunlei had gone on a hunger strike in the detention center, Ji Feng would probably believe it, but to say that Hu Xuehui had gone on a hunger strike was something that Ji Feng would not believe.

How could Hu Xuethui go on a hunger strike?

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

For this goal, Hu Xuehui even took pride in her sister being someone else's lover, even knowing that her cheap brother-in-law had ill intentions towards her, but she could be willing to do so.

Later, when that cheap brother-in-law of hers was unlucky, she could actually hang out with someone like Bian Chunlei again. No one would believe it if they said that Hu Xuehui didn't do it for money.

Could a woman like that possibly go on a hunger strike?

Ji Feng shook his head, he wouldn't believe it anyway!

Obviously, Hu Xuehui was definitely not on a hunger strike, she just wanted to use this excuse to see herself, and there was no telling what she was trying to pull!

"Are you planning to see her?" Ding Weijian asked, "My opinion is that you should try to go and meet her if you have time, after all, this case is not yet finally closed, maybe she can still provide any valuable clues?"

"Then let's meet!" Ji Feng nodded his head.

Ji Feng also wanted to know what Hu Xuehui was up to and had to meet him?

Ding Weijian immediately said, "Well then, if you two aren't too tired, then let's go to the guardhouse now?"

Ji Feng nodded and said, "No problem!"

The three of them then immediately left the office and prepared to rush to the detention centre.

However, they had just walked a few steps when they suddenly heard a pleasant woman's voice from behind them, "Xiao Ding!"

Several people immediately turned around and found that at the end of the corridor, a woman was standing there, but it was Li Ruonan, who was dressed in a police uniform.

Ding Weijian said sorry, then trotted over and the two of them said a few words about something.

Soon, Ding Weijian walked over quickly and said, "Two, I'm sorry, I have to go on an assignment on my side, so our captain will take you to the guardhouse next."

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, "That's alright, you go about your business!"

After Ding Weijian left, he saw Li Ruonan walking over unhurriedly, not even glancing at Ji Feng, just passing him by and saying indifferently, "Let's go."

Ji Feng was stunned

Campus Master Chapter 1982

Ji Feng was squirming.

It was because today's Li Ruonan was acting really odd.

From the beginning at the police station, she led the way without saying a word, without even looking at Ji Feng, as if she didn't know him at all.

This is not all, when we arrived at the courtyard, Li Ruonan said straight away, "Get in this car of mine!"

Ji Feng laughed: "We drove here"

“This is our policy to try to facilitate the people If you insist on driving your own car, that’s fine with you!” Li Ruonan said indifferently.

“What’s wrong with you?” Ji Feng asked with a smile, “I say, have you taken the wrong medicine?”

Li Ruonan smiled and instantly glared, “You’re the one Ji Feng, please watch your words, I’m the head of the criminal police now, and it’s office hours, I don’t like people joking with me at this time.”

Ji Feng laughed: “Understood get in, my car is more comfortable to sit in.”

Li Ruonan expressionlessly got into the back seat of the BMW X6, but muttered, “Even a fool knows this car is comfortable, you still need to say? So much nonsense, usually never heard you say one and a half sentences

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are talking about.

However, Ji Feng’s heart was secretly frowning, Li Ruonan was very wrong.

In the past, Li Ruo Nan, and he were all talking and laughing, and if he was in a bad mood he would still open his teeth and claws, and he might even sometimes have a couple of moves with Ji Feng but no matter what, Li Ruo Nan was not like today, so cold, completely like she was facing a stranger.

Not even like a stranger!

Because even when facing a stranger, you might still smile politely or say something polite, but looking at Li Ruonan like this, where is the half-way point of being polite?

It was almost as if she was facing an enemy!

The first thing you can do is to take a look at the actual situation. How come she had such a great hostility towards herself?

Ji Feng carefully recalled for a while, but still could not think of where exactly he had offended Li Ruo Nan. He wanted to ask, but seeing that Li Ruo Nan only had a sullen face and did not say a word, so Ji Feng could only shake his head helplessly, and his question was somewhat unaskable.

The car began to go on the road, on the way, Li RuoNan still did not say a word, Ji Feng sitting in the passenger seat, do not turn the head can not see the back, also do not know Li RuoNan is a kind of expression, therefore, he simply also hugged the arms, began to close the eyes to recuperate.

The actual fact is that you can’t get a lot of money out of a person’s pocket.

“This guy

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not in a position to be able to get a good deal of money.

The two of them are now in the same car, but this guy actually acts as if he doesn’t know her, what is this?

This is too much of a disregard for her!

The two of them were in the same car, but it was as if they didn’t know each other.

However, as she watched, Li Ruonan became somewhat deflated.

“He doesn’t even take himself seriously, what’s the point of looking at him?” Li Ruonan is angry in her heart, how can the two of them say that they have fought together before, when the jewellery company robbery, thanks to the fact that she is still so worried about him

Thinking about this, Li Ruonan’s heart was a little sour.

I’m afraid that in Ji Feng’s heart, she is just a very ordinary friend, that is, the dispensable kind

“This heartless guy!” Li Ruonan cursed in her heart, “I shouldn’t have met him if I had known!”

“What’s so pretty about my head?” Suddenly, a voice came over.

Li Ruonan was startled and her face flushed red, a hint of panic flashed across her eyes and she said in a panic, “Who, who’s looking at you.”

Ji Feng chuckled and looked back at Li Ruo Nan’s tender white face with a hint of redness, he couldn’t help but laugh, “Ruo Nan, is there something you want to say to me”

Li Ruo Nan was stunned, “No.”

Ji Feng smiled and asked, “Then why do you keep staring at my head?”

“Bah!”

Li Ruonan blushed and immediately spat, “Don’t make a fool of yourself here, who’s staring at your head, just that big winter melon like head of yours, what’s so pretty about it?”

Ji Feng immediately laughed, this is what Li Ruonan is like, she knows how to fight back, she knows how to fight with him, this is normal.

The more Ji Feng laughed, the more Li Ruonan blushed, but she didn’t get too shy, instead she glared angrily at her beautiful eyes and hummed, “What’s so funny about laughing?”

Ji Feng guffawed, “Nothing.”

Li Ruonan, however, did not relent: “No, you have to tell me clearly, why are you laughing at me?”

“Go ahead and laugh, laugh your ass off!” Li Ruonan grunted indignantly.

“Do you hate me that much?” Ji Feng asked, “A bit harsh, right? You actually want me to die?”

“You’re a big scourge when you’re alive, it’s better to die instead of being quiet!” Li Ruonan said in a huff, remembering that Ji Feng had not contacted her at all for such a long time, apparently he had simply forgotten about her, she immediately gritted her teeth again and said, “You’re a heartless bastard!”

Ji Feng was stunned: “That’s, how am I unconscionable?”

Li Ruonan hummed and directly turned her head over.

Ji Feng smiled and shook his head, seeing that Li Ruo Nan was ignoring him, he didn't ask anything else, but he could see that I was afraid that he had really offended Li Ruo Nan somewhere, that's why she said that.

But exactly what had offended her, Ji Feng could not recall for a while, which made him shake his head.

On the contrary, Bai Zhu, who had been concentrating on driving, glanced at Li Ruo Nan from the overhead rear view mirror and was slightly surprised.

For the rest of the journey, several people did not speak again. Li Ruo Nan was only angry and ignored Ji Feng, so Ji Feng also had to continue to close his eyes, until he arrived at the guardhouse, Li Ruo Nan said in no good mood, "Here we are, get out of the car."

Ji Feng helplessly shook his head, it seems to be to find the opportunity to ask Li Ruo Nan, where exactly did he offend her, or what did he do wrong

The actual fact is that you will be able to get a lot more than just a few of these.

What's more, to make such a cheerful girl like Li RuoNan turn into this kind of appearance now, how much has she suffered?

Led by Li Ruonan, the three of them went straight to a visiting room, which was set up with a long table, with both sides so close to the wall that one had to turn sideways to get through.

He couldn't help but laugh, "Isn't this a bit of a waste of space? I don't see any problem with two smaller tables in this room"

"Don't talk nonsense if you don't understand!" Li Ruonan said without good humour, "If the distance between the visitors and the detainees is too small, what if an injury occurs during the visit?"

"With the police here watching, what's the problem?" Ji Feng laughed, "Besides, it seems that the people being visited have to be handcuffed, right?"

"You can't hurt people if you're handcuffed?" Li Ruonan looked at Ji Feng with contempt and hummed, "When I first joined the workforce, I heard that there was a prisoner in custody who had a confrontation with someone who came to visit him, and as a result, that person directly pounced on him and bit the face of the visitor. "

Ji Feng couldn't help but be stunned, there was actually such a thing?

"It seems like there must be a big grudge between those two people!" Ji Feng shook his head, how much did this person have to hate each other to bite off the flesh of someone's face in one bite like that?

"Maybe Hu Xuehui hates you just as much?" Li Ruonan said as if gloating.

Ji Feng: "....."

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're talking about, and you want Hu Xuehui to come over and bite a piece of flesh off your face as well.

But Li Ruonan is straight away don't look away, pretending not to see.

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head, it seems that today is not going to be a good day for Li Ruo Nan, it is better not to provoke her.

Fortunately, the staff of the detention center was quite fast, not long Hu Xuehui was brought over, only to see Hu Xuehui wearing a prison uniform, the original long hair has been cut off, turned into short hair, eyes are still a little red, seems to be crying.

Once she saw Ji Feng, Hu Xuehui's face obviously had an excited look on it, but when she saw Li Ruonan and Bai Zhu beside Ji Feng, her body just gave a lurch and her face darkened a bit.

"Sit down!"

The two female police officers led Hu Xuehui to the opposite side of the table, looking stern and vigilant as they stared at Hu Xuehui.

Hu Xuehui sat down honestly on the chair opposite, but her pair of eyes were always fixed on Ji Feng's body.

Ji Feng frowned slightly and asked, "I heard them say that you want to see me?"

Hu Xuehui nodded, but she wanted to say something.

Ji Feng said, "If you have anything to say, just say it directly, I'm listening."

"I can I talk to you alone?" Hu Xuehui first looked at Bai Zhu and Li Ruonan beside Ji Feng before asking hesitantly, "It won't take you too long, just a little while."

Campus Master Chapter 1983

Ji Feng said, "If you have anything to say, just say it directly, I'm listening."

"I can I talk to you alone?" Hu Xuehui asked hesitantly, "It won't take you too long, just for a little while"

"No!"

Before Ji Feng could say anything, Hu Xuehui flatly refused, "Ji Feng is one of the parties in the case, you are involved in the case and a suspect, you two can't talk alone."

Hu Xuehui then panicked, she looked at Ji Feng with a pleading gaze, "Ji Feng"

Ji Feng faintly shook his head and said, "As you heard, these are the rules, let's follow the rules."

As soon as Hu Xuehui heard this, her expression darkened a few points again, but she could only agree, she was not in charge here now, and she naturally understood.

Bai Zhu couldn't help but frown slightly, giving Hu Xuehui a somewhat unpleasant look.

She felt that this woman was talking nonsense with her eyes wide open.

What will not delay Ji Feng much longer this is clearly bullshit. You know, ever since Hu Xuehui proposed to see Ji Feng, they rushed to the police station CID, then rushed here again, if you count the time to go back, this whole day was just wasted.

This is just a simple statement, if there is anything wrong with this conversation with Hu Xuehui, it is possible that Ji Feng's mood will be affected, and this next many things will have to be pushed back I'm afraid

The actual fact is, just by looking at Ji Feng's occasionally furrowed brow, one can tell that he must be experiencing some kind of difficulty right now, thinking hard about it.

Now Hu Xuehui actually said something about not delaying too much time, Did she really think that Ji Feng had nothing to do or did she think that everyone else's time was like hers to take out and squander and waste?

"Say, what is it that you are looking for me?" Ji Feng didn't say any more nonsense and asked directly. In fact, he didn't have anything to say, especially with Hu Xuehui, he had even less to say, because what should be said and what shouldn't be said, in the past time, he had already said.

Now, Ji Feng really couldn't find anything else to say.

Seeing Ji Feng's attitude so resolute, Hu Xuehui's complexion dimmed a bit again, and she sighed lightly, "Ji Feng, you've changed, the old you would never have been so cold or so desperate"

"Wait! Wait!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but wave his hand as soon as he heard this, frowning, "Hu Xuehui, let's open up and talk, I don't have a lot of time, especially in the recent period, I'm even busier, if you have something you can say directly, as for some other irrelevant things, forget it, it's a waste of time."

As soon as he heard Hu Xuehui say this, he couldn't help but feel his scalp tingling.

Ji Feng really don't know how Hu Xuehui still has the face to mention the previous, not to mention what Hu Xuehui have done in the past, even if even Hu Xuehui didn't do it, if it was a girl with a stronger self-esteem, after breaking up with her boyfriend, I'm afraid she wouldn't put on such a pathetic look and say anything again Before

Why is it different now from before, don't you have a number in your heart?

The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these.

Hu Xuehui was embarrassed by Ji Feng's direct and dry interruption, and her face turned a little red, especially when she saw Li Ruonan's odd look, she hated to leave through more doors, but she held it back.

"Ji Feng, don't misunderstand, I just said it casually, I didn't mean anything else!" Hu Xuehui explained.

"I know." Ji Feng nodded, "Tell me about you."

"Mm!"

Hu Xuehui nodded and said, "Ji Feng, I want to ask you for two things, and I hope you can agree."

Ji Feng said without moving his voice, "Tell me first."

He didn't promise whether he would say yes or not, and acted plainly, which made Hu Xuehui couldn't help but be lost in thought for another moment. Hu Xuehui thought back to a few years ago when the two of them were still in love. At that time, Hu Xuehui would not say that she was begging Ji Feng to do something, even if she just casually said that she wanted Ji Feng to do something, Ji Feng would happily run his ass off to do it.

But now, the answer she got was only a 'tell me about it'.

Hu Xuehui knew very well in her heart that the kind of time she used to have would probably never happen again in this life.

A feeling of remorse grew deep inside Hu Xuehui's heart, spreading as it did when she realised her folly a few years ago

"I want to beg you to help me, Ji Feng, that matter of Wang Shao wanting to assassinate you really has nothing to do with me, I only know one person, Bian Chunlei, I don't know anyone else Ji Feng, you have to believe me." Hu Xuehui said eagerly.

"You mean, let me help you get out of here?" Ji Feng asked.

"Yes, Ji Feng, I beg you, I really can't stay here anymore, those female prisoners are more fierce than one another, they force me to serve them footwash, and if I don't listen they even choke me and pull my hair"

"I can't help you with this!" Not waiting for Hu Xuehui to finish, Ji Feng decisively refused, "When you can get out, it's up to the police and the court, not up to me! As for the bullying you received in the detention center, I can help you reflect it to the leaders so that you will no longer be bullied"

"But I really didn't stab you, I didn't even know about it, Ji Feng, you have to believe me" Once Ji Feng refused, Hu Xuehui immediately panicked.

"Then how did you get in?" Ji Feng asked.

Hu Xuethui was stunned.

Ji Feng said indifferently, "If I remember correctly, it seems like you did something illegal over in Southern Guangdong, right?"

Speaking here, Ji Feng turned his head to look at Li Ruo Nan and asked, "Ruo Nan, what is her problem?"

Li RuoNan said, "According to the feedback from the South Guangdong police side, Hu XueHui is suspected of being involved in the casino business of the triad leader Bian ChunZhan, and is also suspected of sharing the spoils, among other issues!"

Ji Feng looked at Hu Xuethui again, "Did you hear that? Do you yourself still not know what's the reason why you're here?"

Hu Xuethui was speechless, her face was ugly, but she couldn't say a word.

"Alright, let's talk about the second thing." Ji Feng said indifferently.

“You refuse to even save me, this second thing, what’s the point of saying it or not ……” Hu Xuehui shook her head, with a hint of hatred in her eyes, “I really didn’t expect that you would be so heartless!”

“It seems that our conversation is going to end here.” Ji Feng shook his head and stood up.

“Ji Feng!”

Hu Xuehui screamed, “You really don’t remember any of your old feelings? I’m getting bullied to death by them here! If I stay any longer, I’ll die!”

Ji Feng didn’t say a word as he turned around and walked away.

Hu Xuehui’s gaze instantly turned extremely resentful as she shouted shrilly, “Good! I’ve finally seen your true face clearly ……”

“Be honest!” A female police officer bellowed.

Hu Xuehui’s chest rose and fell violently, her eyes filled with hatred as she stared at Ji Feng’s back with tightly bitten lips.

Ji Feng walked to the door and stood still, he slowly turned around and said, “Hu Xuehui, don’t mention the past again, I don’t want to say anything hard, your problem is not too serious, when you get out, there will be a good man to live a good life!”

Hu Xuehui gritted her teeth and said, “Since you’re not helping, don’t pretend to say nice things here, get out!”

Ji Feng shook his head and walked out with big steps.

Li Ruonan waved her hand, “Take her back, in addition, arrange a better room for her, you all heard the problems she reflected just now, right? Don’t let such a thing happen again.”

The two female police officers hurriedly nodded their heads in response.

And then, Li Ruonan and Bai Zhu walked out of the visitation room.

When they came outside, they saw Ji Feng standing in front of the car waiting for them. Li Ruonan walked up and asked, “Ji Feng, are you alright?”

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, “What can happen to me?”

“That Hu Xuehui just now is ……” Li Ruonan looked at him suspiciously, “You two don’t seem to have a normal relationship, do you?”

“That was before!”

Ji Feng said very frankly, “We used to be boyfriend and girlfriend, back in high school. Then something happened, and then now we’re all going our separate ways.”

Li Ruonan asked, “Is it that simple?”

Ji Feng laughed, "What else could it be? Does there have to be some kind of earth-shattering sorrow and joy to sound interesting?"

Li Ruonan said, "Then how can there be some details, right?"

Although the conversation between Ji Feng and Hu Xuehui just now was not much, there was a lot of information in between. Li Ruonan felt that things between the two of them should be very twisted.

Ji Feng, however, shook his head and laughed: "I can't imagine that even you are so gossipy."

Li Ruonan hummed, "No? I'm a woman too, why can't I gossip a little?"

Ji Feng burst out laughing, Li Ruo Nan couldn't help but blush slightly, then as if she remembered something else, she pooh-poohed, her pretty face sank, and then directly opened the door and got into the car.

"Drive!"

Li Ruonan said without good grace.

Ji Feng was stunned, just now there were still talking and laughing, how come in the blink of an eye it turned into the same again? This woman is fickle, I can't imagine that even Li Ruo Nan is the same!

He didn't know that at this moment Li Ruo Nan was muttering in her heart: "Why did I say so much to him, I'm still angry with him!"

When he got into the car, Ji Feng said, "Ruo Nan, if you can, give Hu Xuehui a new single room, or warn those in her room to stop her from being bullied again."

Li Ruo Nan immediately looked at Ji Feng oddly, as if she had discovered some secret, and asked, "What, you still have old feelings for her?"

Ji Feng laughed and did not say anything.

Li Ruonan then bristled and secretly said, "If you don't say, you don't say, what's the big deal, like that kind of woman can even look at, what a poor vision"

But Li Ruonan is not heard, Ji Feng in turning around, blandly shaking his head and smiling: "Old love"

This meeting with Hu Xuehui was very disappointing for Ji Feng.

He did not expect that Hu Xuehui's threat to go on a hunger strike and go through all the trouble to see him was actually to get him to help get her out. Originally, in Ji Feng's mind, Hu Xuehui was so determined to see him, probably because she had something important to tell him, such as that she had the intention to repent and hand over some evidence in her hands.

Or perhaps Hu Xuehui knew that she was going to jail and had to give an account or something.

Who would have thought that she would make such a request!

Moreover, Hu Xuehui was not even half-remorseful, just sophomoric that she was not involved in the assassination For her illegal acts in Nan Yue, she did not mention anything at all.

If Ji Feng hadn't had some understanding of the case before, he might have really been fooled by her.

However, what made Ji Feng even more disappointed was that after he decisively rejected Hu Xuehui, he saw a resentment in Hu Xuehui's eyes.

"This woman is really getting worse and worse!" Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and sigh secretly.

He did not go to reflect on his own mistakes, or even die without admitting it, but instead blamed others for his imprisonment. In the past, Hu Xuehui was so unbearable, but she was not so selfish now!

Ji Feng really didn't know what to say. Should we say that this society is a big dye pot that can make a person completely lose himself or herself and make even the most familiar people afraid to recognize him or her, or should we say that Hu Xuehui is this kind of person by nature, but as she experiences more and more things, this nature is completely exposed?

On the way back, Ji Feng did not speak.

Frankly speaking, his heart was not feeling well either.

It wasn't that Ji Feng still had any feelings for Hu Xuehui. In fact, the moment he woke up from the hospital a few years ago and saw his mother's tears, he suddenly understood everything, or rather, he became understanding all of a sudden.

And later on, Hu Xuehui's behaviour made Ji Feng no longer have any semblance of affection for her, and all the feelings between the two of them in the past were seen more and more lightly, until he finally looked away completely.

In fact, everyone knows that the hazy feelings of youthful ignorance are actually the sweetest, the most beautiful, and the most memorable.

It has been said that one should never fall in love with someone at the age of 17 or 18 because that person will be someone you will never forget for the rest of your life, regardless of whether you will end up staying together or not.

This is what Ji Feng and Hu Xuehui experienced. Originally, if nothing had happened, even if Hu Xuehui had said those desperate words to him, as long as Hu Xuehui and her sister Hu Xueqin did not humiliate her mother Xiao Su Mei later, Ji Feng would not have completely treated Hu Xuehui as a stranger.

Perhaps at some later moment in the dead of night, the hazy memories of his feelings, hidden deep in his heart, will still surface and will make him smile when he remembers

And now, it's all gone.

Hu Xuehui's series of performances really made Ji Feng feel a bit unpleasant.

This was what made Ji Feng the most disappointed.

"Hey! Are you alright?"

“Pop!” Li Ruonan tapped Ji Feng’s shoulder from behind, “That Hu Xuethui is your former first love, right? A little sad to see your first love fall to the current state?”

“Heh!”

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, saying, “Sadness for sure, but not because Hu Xuehui has fallen to this state.”

Li Ruonan blinked, “Then why is it?”

“Well how to say it!” Ji Feng mused, “Let’s put it this way, I should say that when I found out some of the things Hu Xuehui did, I was a bit a bit sad.”

“That means you haven’t completely forgotten your feelings for her!” Li Ruonan said.

“No.”

Ji Feng shook his head very plainly and said, “This sadness I’m talking about is not disappointment or sympathy for Hu Xuehui, but for me back then.”

Li Ruonan was a bit puzzled, “What do you mean?”

Ji Feng laughed: “To give a not-so-appropriate example, if, say, in your teenage years you once liked a certain boy, the kind of boy you liked to your heart’s content, but then you found out more and more that the boy turned out to be a scum, you might also have this kind of sadness.”

“I see, you are feeling that the feelings you gave before were somewhat worthless, right?” Li Ruonan dawned on him.

“It can’t be interpreted that way either.” Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, “Forget it, let’s not talk about this, anyway, I don’t quite understand the explanation Right, Ruo Nan, you have been very wrong today, is it that I have offended you somewhere?”

“..... you Ji Shao will still offend people?” Li Ruo Nan was stunned, then she remembered that she was still angry with Ji Feng, her pretty face instantly sank, “Besides, how dare I be angry with you.”

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed: “The word angry is written on your face I thought about it all the way and didn’t figure out why, anyway, if I really did something wrong, please forgive me more, and if you are willing to say it, I will definitely pay attention in the future!”

Li Ruonan was stunned, she didn’t expect Ji Feng to be so gentle, this guy didn’t even know where he was wrong himself, he apologized first.

Compared to before, Ji Feng was much more of a gentleman.

However, Li Ruonan is more uncomfortable, before the two met, but they both like to fight, especially Ji Feng this bad guy, if a while not flirt with her are difficult to bear.

Now he is getting more and more polite

“You didn’t offend me, nor did you do anything wrong, it’s my problem!” Li Ruonan shook her head, her heart gloomy, “I have other things to do, stop by the side of the road.”

“Hmm?” Ji Feng was stunned, “What do you have to do, let me take you there directly.”

“No, I’ll just take a taxi there myself.” Li Ruonan said.

Ji Feng smiled, “You don’t have to be polite with me, it’s not easy to get a taxi near this detention center, just give me your address directly, I’ll send you there.”

“.....”

Li Ruonan was furious, this guy, as long as he couldn’t see you, he would go anywhere!

She bit her lips, “Then just send me back to the police station directly.”

Ji Feng looked at her in surprise, wondering how she had changed her mind again, but seeing that Li Ruo Nan did not look too good, he said no more, today’s Li Ruo Nan was obviously not quite right, and he did not know what was going on.

The three of them stopped talking for the rest of the way, and Li Ruo Nan kept turning her face out of the car window, her face changing a bit from time to time, not knowing what she was thinking.

It was only when they reached the CID compound that Li Ruonan said, “I’m here, thanks.”

She then got out of the car and walked straight ahead.

“Ruo Nan!”

Ji Feng lowered the car window and shouted.

Li Ruonan’s body just gave a lurch, and she took a deep breath before she turned back and asked, “What?”

Ji Feng smiled, “If you really encounter any problems and need help, just say so, we are friends, no need to be polite with me!”

Li Ruonan froze in her tracks.

Ji Feng put his hand on his face and made a gesture of making a phone call, “Contact often, we’ll go out together some day.”

“..... Good.” Li Ruonan nodded her head.

“Bye!”

Ji Feng smiled and waved his hand, while the car slowly drove away.

Watching the BMW X6’s windows slowly rise and Ji Feng’s brilliant smile disappear behind the dark window film, Li Ruonan stood there, surprisingly a little lost in thought for a while.

It was only when a policeman greeted Li Ruo Nan in the courtyard that she came back to her senses and her face burned a little.

After glancing once again at the direction where Ji Feng had left, she sighed lightly, not knowing what she felt in her heart, and then turned around and went upstairs.

At this time, Ji Feng, however, also turned around in the car and looked back a few more times.

“Young Ji, this female officer seems to like you.” Bai Zhu suddenly spoke up.

“Huh?”

Ji Feng was instantly shocked by Bai Zhu’s words, and then he laughed: “How is that possible, Bai Zhu, don’t talk nonsense”

Bai Zhu said, “I think it’s quite possible, and the possibility is still very high, otherwise, she certainly wouldn’t have this attitude towards you!”

Ji Feng looked at her suspiciously and laughed, “Sounds like you know a lot, huh?”

Bai Zhu pursed her lips and laughed, “Young Ji, you shouldn’t underestimate people. Although I’m not an expert in relationships, don’t forget that I’m also a woman, and I certainly know more about women than you do. Ji Shao, think about it, that female officer just now treated you coldly, it might look like it was because she was in a bad mood or you had done something to offend her, but I don’t think so.”

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, saying, “Come on, don’t talk nonsense, there’s no such thing”

“I’m not talking nonsense!” Bai Zhu immediately said, “You still remember, right, at first it was a male officer who received us, but just when we were about to go to the guardhouse, we were stopped by that female officer just now, and she took us there instead, which means that it must not be because she was in a bad mood, otherwise why would she mind this nonsense?”

“To say that you offended her, this is not very likely either, because there were several times in between when she spoke to you casually, as if she was talking to someone very close, only that she suddenly became cold again as she spoke.” Bai Zhu said, “Moreover, I paid special attention to the way she looked at you, young Ji, I’m sure that was the look of fondness!”

Ji Feng was instantly surprised, “You could even tell this?”

“Because that’s the kind of look that Lei Lei and Yu Xuan had when they looked at you!” Bai Zhu said, “Young Ji, don’t you feel it at all? I think, you should have felt it!”

Ji Feng smiled, but did not argue any further.

When Bai Zhu didn’t hear Ji Feng’s voice, she turned her head to look at him, but found that Ji Feng had closed his eyes at some point and was leaning against the backrest with his arms clasped, as if he had fallen asleep.

Bai Zhu was stunned, then she seemed to understand something, and a smile appeared at the corner of her mouth, Ji Shao still said he didn’t know? He definitely knew!

“Ding”

Just at that moment, the phone suddenly rang.

Campus Master Chapter 1985

Ji Feng took out the phone and looked at it and smiled slightly, the call was from He Hongwei.

Without saying much, Ji Feng knew what this guy was calling to do.

Just imagine, a person who would rather take out billions of dollars to support himself and fight the Wu family to the end in blood, how could he sit still at this time?

The feud between He Hongwei and Wu Zhiyong, Ji Feng had already heard about it from his second brother, and because of this, he had also expected that He Hongwei would call himself sooner or later, and now the call had really come.

The call really came now. You know, at that time, because of the conflict with the Wu family, the Ji family faced almost a full-scale attack from the Wu family in the economic field, especially when the Wu family still had such a behemoth like the Rongpeng Group at its disposal, and it looked to outsiders that the Ji family had almost no resistance in the economic field.

It was under those circumstances that He Hongwei approached Ji Feng and without hesitation, he opened his mouth and offered to support himself with billions of dollars, which shows how much He Hongwei hates Wu Zhiyong.

What's more, now that the Wu family's defeat in this encounter was a foregone conclusion, He Hongwei naturally couldn't sit still.

Shaking his head with a smile, Ji Feng picked up the phone, "Brother Hongwei, what's the word?"

"Haha, old brother, do you have time tonight, how about coming out for a sit down?" He Hongwei's voice came over the phone, looking very excited and in high spirits.

"What, you're already in Jiangzhou?" Ji Feng asked with a smile.

"I arrived an hour ago, and now I'm on my way to the Tian Yao Group's Jiangzhou office. I remembered that we haven't seen each other for a while, and I want to have a drink with you, just don't know if it's convenient for you?" He Hongwei said with a smile.

"No problem, how about this, Jinling Road Taste Country Residence, 7pm, what do you think?" Ji Feng said cheerfully.

"Good! See you then." He Hongwei agreed with great alacrity.

He had never seen He Hongwei so excited before. In the past, no matter what time it was, He Hongwei gave people the impression that he was gentle and elegant, and he believed that as he grew older, He Hongwei would become more and more refined.

But this time, He Hongwei looked very brash, so it was clear how good he was feeling!

"Young Ji, where are we going next? Is it to meet your friend?" Bai Zhu asked when he heard that Ji Feng had made an appointment with someone.

"Straight home!"

Ji Feng raised his hand to look at the time and said, "It's still early, so we'll go there when it's almost time."

In fact, even if you go to the Taste Country Residence now, it's no problem at all. Although this Taste Country Residence is only a restaurant, not the kind of club or other leisure place that is open around the clock, but, located on the most prosperous Jinling Road in Jiangzhou, the Taste Country Residence is actually almost the same as being open around the clock.

Even if it wasn't the time for meals, there was a chef on hand at all times, so if there were guests there, they could basically meet the demand.

It was just that considering that He Hongwei was now rushing to the Tian Yao Group's Jiangzhou office, he must still have things to take care of, which was why Ji Feng had set the time for dinner.

When he returned home, Xiao Yuxuan had not yet returned home from work, and Tong Lei had also gone to the school library to read a book, so only Ji Feng and Bai Zhu were left at home.

Ji Feng wondered if he should keep one or two more people at home.

If the other party does something in the villa or hides and then suddenly attacks, it would be impossible to defend against it.

Moreover, if everyone in the family left, the villa would be a bit cold.

"It looks like we must find Xiang Yongzhan, we have to find a way to get a few more people from him, this guy has gotten so many benefits this time, he always needs to bleed a little!" Ji Feng muttered darkly.

"Young Ji, would you like a glass of water?" Bai Zhu changed his clothes and walked out of the room.

"No need." Ji Feng shook his head and said, "Bai Zhu, you should rest first, we don't know what time the night will end."

"Mm!"

Ever since she had established a relationship with Ji Feng, Bai Zhu was not so polite anymore, and hearing Ji Feng say that, she turned around and went back to her room.

Ji Feng thought about it, and then took out his mobile phone and dialed Xiao Yuxuan's number, informing her that he was going to have dinner with He Hongwei in the evening and asking if she was going to go together.

"I can't, there are still some documents on hand that I haven't finished, I can't get away now, it's better to let Lei Lei go with you." Xiao Yuxuan said.

"You know, she doesn't like socializing!" Ji Feng said.

"Then you'll have to go alone, he won't see anything strange, right?" Xiao Yuxuan asked.

"It's fine." Ji Feng laughed.

"Then I won't go over." Xiao Yuxuan said, "You need to drink less, your body is most important."

Ji Feng nodded with a smile and hung up the phone.

Since he knew that there should be no big deal for He Hongwei to come this time, it should just be a small gathering, so Ji Feng planned to bring Xiao Yuxuan along.

In fact, Ji Feng was also considering whether it was possible to establish a deeper cooperation with the Tianyao Group, as the cooperation was somewhat limited by the Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory alone.

But since Xiao Yuxuan doesn't have time, it's okay.

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who have been in the business for a long time.

As night fell, about twenty minutes before the appointed time, Ji Feng had already arrived at the entrance of Taste Country Residence on Jinling Road.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

He Hongwei was not late in coming, and after just a few minutes, Ji Feng saw the figure of He Hongwei. Behind He Hongwei, there were also two people following, who looked like they should be his bodyguards.

"Brother Hongwei!" Ji Feng smiled and walked over.

"Haha!"

As soon as He Hongwei saw Ji Feng, he laughed twice, only to see his face full of excitement, extending his hand from a long distance, taking a few steps to Ji Feng and laughing, "Older brother, you'll have to treat me today!"

Ji Feng laughed, "That's natural, you came from Yanjing to Jiangzhou, I naturally have to be the host, you can't even snatch it away!"

He Hongwei hedged and laughed, "Joke! How could I possibly snatch it from you today, besides, you have to invite even if you don't, I'm going to drink this meal today! What a great pleasure!"

The two of them looked at each other and laughed at the same time.

After the waiter led them to the box, He Hongwei's two bodyguards stopped outside the door and did not come in, and Bai Zhu likewise stopped in his tracks.

Ji Feng, however, frowned: "Bai Zhu, what are you doing outside?"

Bai Zhu couldn't help but blush and looked at He Hongwei before taking small steps in and sitting down next to Ji Feng.

When He Hongwei saw this, he raised his eyebrows and a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, with his intelligence, how could he not understand what Ji Feng meant by this action?

"Beautiful guards, tsk, old brother, I find that you are much more enjoyable than I would be!" He Hongwei flirted with a smile.

"Heh!"

Ji Feng laughed and had no intention to explain to He Hongwei, in fact, even if he explained, He Hongwei might not believe it, nowadays, the sons of the world, the noble young men, even if they have two beautiful bodyguards by their side, that is only to protect themselves during the day and warm their beds at night, to say whether there is a relationship between them, that is some bullshit.

Not to mention, whether this beautiful bodyguard can really play a role in self-defense, whether they have real kung fu, or just bedside manner

The actual relationship between him and Bai Zhu is something that he understands in his own heart.

But he still smiled and asked, "Do I look like that kind of person to you?"

He Hongwei waved his hand with a smile and said, "Just kidding! Frankly speaking, if it was just another person, I wouldn't believe it, but for you, I believe it!"

"So I'm still special, huh?" Ji Feng laughed.

"We haven't known each other for a day or two, I know more or less what kind of character you are!" He Hongwei laughed.

Just kidding, if Ji Feng really wanted to find a woman, what kind of beautiful woman couldn't he find?

Whether it was the big stars that those fops liked, or some young women with special tastes, as long as Ji Feng beckoned, there were many women rushing to him.

The fact is that there are a lot of women who will jump on him as soon as Ji Feng waves his hand. Why does he need to bring women around to draw attention to himself?

The company is not the kind of young master who likes to compare with others on who is the prettiest woman around!

So He Hongwei believed that this girl beside Ji Feng, Ji Feng really liked her, not just the playful kind, otherwise he wouldn't have brought her in.

But what made He Hongwei feel funny was that this Ji Feng guy would also have this kind of love over time.

He Hongwei had met Bai Zhu before, but at that time, Bai Zhu was still only Ji Feng's full-time guard, whereas now, Ji Feng had brought Bai Zhu to the wine table in a dignified manner, so it was obvious that their relationship had changed.

This should be the case that the two have been together for a long time, so they have developed feelings.

In fact, He Hongwei did not know that the relationship between Ji Feng and Bai Zhu was not just a matter of getting along for a long time, but that the storms they had experienced together were beyond He Hongwei's imagination!

"Old brother, let's have a good drink today!" He Hongwei quickly stopped continuing that conversation and instead laughed, "This time, you've fiercely slapped the Wu family in the face in front of everyone! You even severed an arm of the Martial Family, impressive! A great pleasure!"

Campus Master Chapter 1986

“Older brother, let’s have a good drink today!” He Hongwei quickly stopped continuing that topic and instead laughed, “This time, you’ve fiercely thrown the Wu Family a resounding slap in the face in front of everyone! You even severed an arm of the Martial Family, impressive! It’s a great victory!”

He Hongwei was so excited.

This time, the Wu family had really fallen on their face, and it could even be said that they had broken their bones. Seeing that their enemy had been made to suffer so badly, how could He Hongwei not be happy?

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, “You can’t say that, others have already put a knife on my neck, I can’t be indifferent, right?”

“Well!”

He Hongwei nodded heavily, deeply convinced, “That’s right! The Wu family is indeed a little too rampant, especially Wu Zhiyong, he did go too far in this matter.”

No matter what circle one is in, there are specific rules that belong to it.

For example, in the underworld, it was all about strength, which was also known as the winner being the king. As long as you are fierce enough, powerful enough and also able to convince the crowd, then you can be the boss.

However, in the underworld, there are also many things that you should never do.

For example, betraying your own boss.

If anyone does that, everyone will look down on him. Even if he joins another gang, perhaps because of the huge benefits he brings to that gang, he will be reused to a certain extent, but it is absolutely impossible to make the other gang’s boss treat him as his beloved.

Because since you can betray your own boss today, who knows if you can betray others tomorrow as well?

Such a person, I’m afraid, will be guarded against and even more despised in the entire Dao.

It is the same in the political world, or in any other circles for that matter.

When Wu Zhiyong sent someone to assassinate Ji Feng, this broke a big taboo.

You, Wu Zhiyong, can assassinate Ji Feng with impunity because you can mobilize special warriors, so if it was someone else who offended Wu Zhiyong, could he not also just send someone to do away with him?

This kind of thing is something that no one can tolerate.

In this circle, one of the most minimal rules is that you can fight with the other party by virtue of your own sleight of hand or your wits, or you can use any other method, but you just can’t break the bottom line.

An underhanded tactic like assassination would make everyone in this circle feel threatened, and how could Wu Zhiyong be tolerated?

In fact, it's not just in a certain circle, but even in various industries, it's actually the same.

Wu Zhiyong's behaviour made almost everyone feel that the next person to be assassinated could be themselves, which is why so many people were concerned after it happened.

What they were concerned about was not just who won or lost between the Wu and Ji families, they were more concerned about how this act, which had violated the circle's bottom line, would end up.

If it was the case that the Wu family was unharmed and Wu Zhiyong passed through unscathed, then I'm afraid that many people's hearts would not be so settled. If they were to have a conflict of interest with the Wu family, they would inevitably be a little worried that Wu Zhiyong would not just shoot a killer to assassinate himself like he did this time.

And in this case, when Ji Feng struck a beautiful and ruthless counterattack, beating Wu Zhiyong into the dust and even directly chopping off an arm of the Wu family, how could the others not let out a long breath?

That's why He Hongwei said that Ji Feng's action was a great pleasure, and he wasn't the only one who was happy about it!

"What Wu Zhiyong did was indeed over the top, but if that killer really got his hands on him, then I'm afraid the situation would have been a different story!" Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, saying, "By then, I'm afraid that no amount of investigation will lead to the Wu family's head, and at most, Wang Zhijun will just be the scapegoat."

He Hongwei nodded, indeed, if that killer had really killed Ji Feng with one shot at the scene, then the killer would naturally be able to leave the scene comfortably, and by then the Wu family would have enough time to clean up the aftermath and erase all traces.

At that time, even if everyone knew that the matter would be done by the Wu family, without evidence, they couldn't do anything to them.

"There are no ifs in this world!" He Hongwei laughed, "Now it turns out that you can sit here and drink and chat while that killer is the one who has been locked up, that's enough."

"It was a fluke for me too, I was really close to being just shot in the head at that time." Ji Feng smiled and shook his head.

"Anyway, now that it's over and the result is satisfying, we can have a drink!" He Hongwei laughed, "Come on, to celebrate your safe passage and the Wu family's downfall, let's drink a toast!"

Ji Feng smiled as he lifted his glass and clinked it with He Hongwei, and saw He Hongwei directly tilt his head and drink it in one gulp.

Ji Feng couldn't help but laugh, "Planning to drink openly today?"

This was white wine, a full one tael of quilt, and He Hongwei actually drank it in one gulp, which he had never seen before!

He Hongwei laughed, "Of course I want to drink openly! It's not often that the Wu family is so unlucky, so of course it's worth celebrating!"

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, yet he could understand He Hongwei's feelings.

He was cuckolded by Wu Zhiyong, not to mention the fact that it was publicized to almost everyone, which was a disgrace to his family, and even his family was disgraced, so even an ordinary citizen, not to mention He Hongwei, would definitely fight for his life with a kitchen knife.

What's more, the person involved in this matter is He Hongwei?

As the representative of the third generation of the He family, how could He Hongwei swallow this anger?

Even if He Hongwei was well-trained, he would never be able to bear such a thing, especially at that tender age.

However, He Hongwei held back, and although it caused a huge furore at the time, the anger had not come out completely and was still at the bottom of He Hongwei's heart.

A few years have passed, and as time passes, the anger at the bottom of He Hongwei's heart has not gradually dissipated, but has become stronger and stronger, which makes He Hongwei unable to resist sticking his nose in whenever he hears news about the Wu family, especially when he encounters moments that can cause trouble for the Wu family.

For example, last time when the Wu family wanted to launch a counter-attack against the Ji family in terms of the economy, He Hongwei immediately approached himself after he found out about it and opened his mouth to offer a huge sum of billions of dollars, just to be able to cause trouble for the Wu family.

Not to mention now?

Ji Feng was also a young man, so he was very clear about this kind of thinking of He Hongwei and could understand it very well.

It would be strange if He Hongwei didn't have any fire at all, if that was the case, even Ji Feng would think that He Hongwei was not possessed by Old Master Wang!

"Come on, Ji Feng, let's have this second cup, for the fall of the Wang family, cheers!" He Hongwei once again lifted his cup, clinked it with Ji Feng, tilted his head and drank it all.

"The old Wang family doesn't count as a fall, does it?" Ji Feng laughed, "Isn't that Old Master Wang still in the intensive care unit? Besides, only Wang Zhijun and his son were involved in this incident, the rest of the Wang family is still fine!"

"That's enough! There's no need to explain this to me, right?" He Hongwei shook his head and smiled, revealing an unspoken look and said, "The old Wang family is just a grasshopper after the autumn, it doesn't have a few more days to bounce around!"

He Hongwei understood Ji Feng's thoughts, Ji Feng did not want to give the outside world a notorious reputation of driving them to extinction.

In fact, the old Wang family didn't need Ji Feng to drive them to extinction at all, as soon as Wang Zhijun's father fell, the Wang family would be completely finished.

Now that Wang Zhijun's father has been removed from his post, he has entered the final stage of review. After the Discipline Inspection Commission has investigated all the problems, it will then enter the judicial process, and when the time comes, the court will naturally decide what should happen to Wang Zhijun's old son.

This move by Ji Feng is tantamount to directly cutting off the pillar of the old Wang family.

The remaining members of the Old Wang family have already become frightened birds of prey, not knowing when they will be in danger.

In fact, no one has really touched the Wang family yet, waiting for the end of Wang Zhijun's old man's trial and, at the same time, waiting for old man Wang to take his last breath.

As long as they waited for that time, I believed that those people who had been eyeing the old Wang family would absolutely pounce on them without mercy!

In fact, those people are already like sharks who have smelled blood, and have already started to make their preparations, just waiting for Old Man Wang to breathe his last!

The fate of the old Wang family could be imagined!

And in this whole process, the role played by Ji Feng and the Ji family is absolutely crucial and heart-warming!

If the old Wang family was a building, Wang Zhijun's father was the most important pillar, then Ji Feng had directly cut off this pillar.

In a flash, the building was already trembling and could collapse at any time, not to mention that there were people waiting outside with bulldozers, trucks, and even explosive packs waiting in the wings

The complete decline of the old Wang family is definitely a foregone conclusion.

The actual fact is, the Wu family is equivalent to being chopped off an arm, and still beating a very powerful arm, that kind of deep bone marrow pain, hey, not very good yo!

When he thought of this, He Hongwei was overwhelmed with joy.

He couldn't help but raise his glass again and drink another glass with Ji Feng!

Putting the glass down, He Hongwei picked up a tissue and wiped his mouth. After three glasses of wine in a row, He Hongwei's face was a bit red, but he looked very situation, and there was a look of excitement in his eyes.

He Hongwei said, "Old brother, this time I came to Jiangzhou, in fact, apart from celebrating with you, there is another thing that I think it's better to mention before I get too drunk."

When Ji Feng heard this, he immediately asked, "Oh? What is it?"

The smile on He Hongwei's face immediately disappeared, he bared his teeth and said ruthlessly, "It's not really a big deal, I want to invite you, to go around South Guangdong, of course, if you can bring the funds or just take the Tengfei Group there, that's naturally better"

Ji Feng was instantly shocked: "You want to go to a fire fight with the Wu family?!"

Campus Master Chapter 1987

Regarding He Hongwei's proposal, Ji Feng couldn't help but be surprised in his heart.

He Hongwei's meaning was already very obvious, bringing funds to Nan Yue, which actually meant that he wanted to enter the economic field of Nan Yue, and Nan Yue was almost treated as the Wu family's back garden, so if they just went over there, it would definitely cause a strong backlash from the Wu family.

What's more, it seems that He Hongwei is not satisfied with just bringing money into Southern Guangdong, he even proposes that Ji Feng should bring the Tengfei Group there, which is already more than obvious.

This is to enter Southern Guangdong with full force!

Moreover, since He Hongwei proposed that Ji Feng bring the Tengfei Group over, it was obvious that the size of the funds He Hongwei was carrying would definitely not be less than Ji Feng's. This was definitely called a huge amount of money.

This was He Hongwei's intention to kill in Southern Guangdong, right?

"A fire fight?"

When He Hongwei heard this, he couldn't help but shake his head and smile, saying, "I don't think so, right? It's already the era of market economy, business operation, based on strength and business means, it has nothing to do with the Wu family!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and said, "That's what I said, but how could the Wu family sit back and do nothing?"

It was indeed true that this was the era of market economy.

But the problem is that in China, this so-called market economy is actually just a name, in fact, there is local protectionism in many places, using the right to interfere with business operations, that is all too common.

Not to mention other things, let's just talk about business operations nowadays, but whenever a large number of projects are involved, which of them are not carried out under the interference of power?

The tendering and construction of various projects and the operation of various businesses are not unrelated to power.

Although the slogans are often loud and clear, we all know what is really going on in reality.

Take the simplest example, for example, an engineering project, from the tendering process to the final acceptance of the project, is actually carried out entirely under the interference of power.

In this process, it is possible that a small section chief can leave a large group with full strength and scale in the dust.

For example, when it comes to the acceptance of a project, as long as the functional department does not give its nod, the project is substandard, no matter how good the quality of your construction is, it is useless.

As long as the officials want to fix you, there are too many ways to do it, picking bones from eggs, this is their most common trick.

If the officials want to let you off the hook, then even if your project quality has a big problem, they will turn a blind eye to it. Just think about how many tofu-dreg projects appear around the country every year, but can be successfully accepted, the foul play in the middle is clear.

So it can be foreseen that if Ji Feng and He Hongwei join forces to enter Southern Guangdong, by then how difficult their operation will be, even if one can imagine it with one's heels!

By then, the Wu family's people might not even need to step in, just a casual greeting to the relevant authorities from a person of weight, and by then the people below would know what to do, and their normal operations would be interfered with, and their hands would even be tied, making it difficult for them to do anything at all.

"Brother Hongwei, what exactly do you plan to do, just say it straight." Ji Feng said. It would be an absolute lie to say that He Hongwei did not understand the reasoning behind this.

So Ji Feng simply asked directly, "It's not impossible to go around Southern Guangdong, in fact, I also have this intention, but considering various factors, I have never put it into practice, if you have a good plan, I can consider it."

He Hongwei laughed: "There is no plan yet, just this intention, but in the Wu family, you don't need to worry, I'm still afraid they won't play foul!"

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows, "From what you're saying, you want to make trouble in Southern Guangdong, huh?"

He Hongwei smiled faintly, "You can't say that, in fact, I really hope to go to Nan Yue, of course, not in the name of the Tianyao Group, but in my personal name. But as you said, the Wu family definitely did not want to see us enter Southern Guangdong in such a vast manner, so I simply gave them the opportunity to play cat and mouse!"

Ji Feng immediately understood that He Hongwei was not going to go to Nan Yue to conduct normal business operations at all, he just wanted to make such a move, or simply hold the price of losing a sum of money to get the Wu family to make a move.

As long as the Wu family dares to follow the trouble and make a mess, when the time comes, He Hongwei will have something to say.

To put it simply, He Hongwei is actually trying to make the illusion that he is preparing to enter Southern Guangdong in a big way to make the Wu family nervous and make them make a faint move.

This way, someone in the Wu family's lineage will be out of luck.

The only thing He Hongwei would lose would be some money.

It was a trap!

“That’s why you asked me to bring the entire Tengfei Group over?” Ji Feng asked with a smile.

“Only then will some people really get nervous, if we only bring tens of millions over, we won’t even be able to make a wave in an economic town like Southern Guangdong, why should people value us? By then, not to mention getting certain officials to step in, the competition in the shopping malls of Southern Guangdong alone will be enough to squeeze us out!”

He Hongwei laughed: “And if you and I join hands, certain people won’t be able to sleep, and then a good show will start to play out.”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but shake his head and smile.

Indeed, if the Tengfei Group and the Tianyao Group joined forces, it would definitely be a behemoth, even if He Hongwei did not do it in the name of the Tianyao Group, but in his personal name, but even so, the Wu family would definitely not dare to take it lightly.

You know, no matter what, He Hongwei is the boss of the Tianyao Group, and that’s a real thing!

What’s more, He Hongwei is still a member of the He family, and when He Hongwei moves, who knows how many people will look to the wind?

For example, those who want to ingratiate themselves with the He family, or those who are already close to the He family, when they see He Hongwei’s rampant attack on Southern Guangdong, how can these people not seize this opportunity?

If they were to add themselves, Ji Feng believed that the Wu family would be standing by like a great enemy.

Maybe then it could really be a fuse that would draw out a large group of people from the Wu family and then fight them off one by one!

“How about it, are you interested?” Seeing Ji Feng’s thoughtful look, He Hongwei asked with a smile.

“Isn’t that a bit of a loss for a gain?” Ji Feng deliberated and asked, “Just to beat up some officials of the Wu family lineage, you don’t really need to go to such great lengths, you just need to sprinkle silver directly and you will definitely reap the rewards!”

To deal with the officials of the Wu family line, the method was actually very simple, He Hongwei only needed to bribe a group of people, or just have someone from the He family go out and ask for information, when the time came, as long as those officials were not clean under their asses, their problems would soon be exposed.

As long as one is willing to spill money, it is actually easy to find evidence.

But the question now is whether the Wu family will stand by and watch those officials being dealt with!

It wouldn’t be hard for the Wu family to bail people out, and if that was the case, then everything He Hongwei had done would be for naught by then.

Moreover, even if those officials from the Wu family's lineage could be dealt with, the question was, would this really hit the Wu family hard?

Ji Feng felt that this was unlikely, if it was so easy to hit the Wu family, then I'm afraid that the Wu family would have been attacked to the bone long ago, how could it still be standing up to now?

In fact, in many matters, evidence does not tell everything, politics is not that simple.

The first time I thought of this, Ji Feng suddenly had a movement in his heart.

It was reasonable to say that He Hongwei wouldn't not understand this, he grew up with his ears and eyes, he should understand it even better than himself, but how could he still offer this kind of opinion?

"Brother Hongwei, do you have other plans?" Ji Feng asked.

"I knew you would ask that, yes, I do have some other plans!" He Hongwei smiled and nodded, admitting very frankly, "Older brother, don't you think that the Brilliant Group is a piece of fresh and fat meat?"

"What do you mean?" Ji Feng immediately asked, "You have your eyes on the Brilliant Group?"

"That's right! I've been eyeing the Brilliant Group for more than a day or two!" He Hongwei grinned, "I've been paying attention to the Brilliant Group ever since it first started making contact with the Lingxia Group in Kepong."

"What do you plan to do?" Ji Feng immediately asked.

"I haven't thought about how to do it yet, I just have a general idea, but I'm not strong enough alone, so I have to call on you to do it." He Hongwei said.

"Joking, right?" Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, "If you're not strong enough, then what's the use of having one more of me? The Tengfei Group is only just starting out now, and it doesn't have much strength to speak of in itself."

"No, no! That's not the way to say it." He Hongwei waved his hand, "As I said earlier, I'm not going in the name of the Tian Yao Group, but in my own name, so it's necessary for the two of us to join hands in order to make something happen, otherwise it would be difficult to do anything if I were alone."

Ji Feng frowned and said, "But even if the two of us combined, compared to the Brilliant Group, it's still a small witch! Don't you forget that the Brilliant Group has a full tens of billions of dollars in assets!"

"That's why I asked you to join me!" He Hongwei laughed, "It is indeed difficult to deal with the Brilliant Group, but no matter what, solutions are always thought up by people, and I can use the Tianyao Group when necessary, but only when it is crucial, after all, this Tianyao Group is not mine alone, it must be done carefully"

Ji Feng deliberated and mused, "Brother Hongwei, you are trying to play snake swallowing elephant, huh? That's not very good to achieve, and it might get dusty instead!"

"That can't be helped, in any case it is necessary to go to South Guangdong!" He Hongwei said.

"Oh?"

Ji Feng couldn't help but glance at him, "Brother Hongwei, do you want to go to South Guangdong that much? What is going on?"

Campus Master Chapter 1988

"Oh?"

Ji Feng couldn't help but glance at him, "Brother Hongwei, you just want to go to South Guangdong that much? What is going on?"

He Hongwei said, "Let's put it this way, you are free to decide whether to go or not, but I have to go, on the one hand, the Brilliant Group is indeed a big piece of fat meat, and it has started to go downhill now, so it's the best time to do it, on the other hand, there are many strategic projects under the Brilliant Group, and these projects absolutely cannot fall into the hands of the Kepong people, such as rare metals and other projects!"

Ji Feng nodded slightly, he had also considered this point a long time ago, and it was because of these reasons that he had decided to go to South Guangdong, and even his second uncle had told him several times.

However, for some time, Ji Feng had never found the right time.

It was not difficult to enter Southern Guangdong, but it was too difficult to get involved in the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Lingxia Group.

If they want to cooperate, as long as it does not involve something confidential to the state, then no one can control it.

What's more, with the Wu family backing them up, the average person is not even qualified to get involved!

Ji Feng also has not found the right opportunity yet, so until recently, he was still collecting information, looking through various newspapers, impurities, watching TV news, browsing the Internet for some business information and major group developments in Southern Guangdong, etc., in order to find the right time to enter Southern Guangdong and successfully intervene in the deal between the Brilliant Group and the Lingxia Group.

But the problem was that if they rashly entered Southern Guangdong, it would definitely cause the Wu family to be on guard and alert, or on high alert, so how could they intervene at that time?

Now that Ji Feng heard that He Hongwei actually wanted to do the same, he was instantly pumped up to hear what kind of tall tale He Hongwei had!

So Ji Feng simply put his chopsticks down and lit a cigarette, then asked Bai Zhu to go to the side and turn on the ventilation system, and began to listen carefully to He Hongwei's explanation.

"Actually, apart from those I just mentioned, there is another most important reason", He Hongwei said.

"What reason?" Ji Feng immediately asked.

“The top is paying attention!” He Hongwei said, and at the same time, his finger pointed to the ceiling.

Ji Feng immediately raised his eyebrows, “Brother Hongwei, you mean that this time it’s not actually just you, it’s someone who asked you to go to Southern Guangdong to cause trouble?”

Hearing this, He Hongwei could not help but shake his head and laugh bitterly, “What words do I find so hard to hear once they reach your mouth? Listen carefully, I’m not going to cause trouble, I’m going to engage in normal business activities, at most, while engaging in business activities, and then slightly engage in side business, to complete the tasks given by my superiors, that’s all.”

Ji Feng waved his hand and frowned, “Okay, okay, let’s go back to that topic just now. Brother Hongwei, you just said that someone from above sent you to South Guangdong to stop the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Lingxia Group, is that right?”

He Hongwei nodded and said, “That’s right!”

Ji Feng nodded soberly, his heart dawning with realisation.

He said, “This is exactly why the good He Hongwei suddenly proposed to go to Southern Guangdong, and also put up that kind of fanfare, saying that the two of them joined forces, and even asked himself to bring the entire Tengfei Group there, so that he could attract the attention of the Wu family, cause the other side to be highly alert and uneasy, and then let them make faint moves, and then counterattack immediately afterwards or something... ..

This is a bit of bullshit at first hearing, or, this method is just too stupid, this is definitely not a method that He Hongwei can come up with, it’s just too stupid!

That’s why Ji Feng immediately raised a question after hearing it just now, and he immediately realized that this fellow He Hongwei must have other plans and ideas, he just didn’t say it.

And when He Hongwei said that he was going south to stop the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Lingxia Group, Ji Feng still felt that it was somewhat unreliable.

The reason is that from the beginning of the contact between these two companies to the recent rumors of a real cooperation, there was a period of time between now and then, if He Hongwei really wanted to stop it, what would he have done?

Moreover, even if he wanted to stop it, He Hongwei would have to bring the power of the Tian Yao Group to bear in order for it to work, right?

If he alone wanted to stop the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Kepong people, that would obviously be unrealistic!

The Wu family was not a vegetarian either, so they naturally would not stand by and watch He Hongwei go and cause trouble.

Considering all this, Ji Feng still had doubts in his mind.

But now that He Hongwei had said so, Ji Feng finally understood why He Hongwei had suddenly come up with this suggestion. It seemed that He Hongwei had received a strict order, which was why he was in such a hurry and had to drag himself along to Southern Guangdong.

“Brother Hongwei, what you did in this matter is not very generous!” Ji Feng looked at He Hongwei and couldn’t help but laugh and scold, “You took the mission yourself, but you had to drag me along to top the thunder, this is not a very generous thing to do, I didn’t find you so cunning before!”

“You’re wrong to think that!”

He Hongwei waved his hand with a smile and said, “I actually called you up after careful consideration. Personally, I think if the two of us join forces, it’s definitely a win-win situation.”

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, “Oh? How come I didn’t see that?”

He Hongwei said, “You didn’t see it? I think you’re just playing dumb! Don’t tell me that when you see such a big piece of fat meat as the Brilliant Group, you won’t be moved at all?”

Ji Feng stretched his hand, “What can I do if I’m moved?”

“Pah!”

He Hongwei immediately snapped his fingers and said, “As long as your heart is moved, just this one reason alone is actually enough.”

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, “But the problem is that the Brilliant Group is indeed a piece of fat meat, but the outside of this piece of fat meat has a row of thorns inserted by the Wu family, whoever tries to take a bite will definitely get stabbed all over the face! Brother Hong Wei, this reason of yours is not sufficient!”

How much importance the Wu Family attached to the Brilliant Group, this issue Ji Feng thought no longer needed to be discussed.

In today’s Wu family, Wu Zhiyong’s father, Wu Zhengmin, wanted to come over and take the reins more than two years ago because he had his eyes on Jiangzhou, the number one economic town in China, but it turned out to be a horse that had lost its footing and almost planted a big heel.

Although he has since stabilised his footing, the road upwards is becoming narrower and narrower, and his chances of finally entering the inner centre are slim, and he has no hope of sitting on the chair that faces south.

This is destined to prevent the Wu family from rising in the next 20 to 30 years.

This does not include the possibility that something will happen to the old man in such a long period of time, otherwise, it is not even possible to say that the Wu family will fall.

Of course, as a big faction, it is difficult to fall unless it is hit hard, but to reach the top, the Wu family is very difficult, almost impossible.

If one of them could sit in the top chair of the Great Inner Circle, the rise of the Wu family would be unstoppable.

But that is, after all, decades away, and no one can say for sure.

So to put it simply, I’m afraid it will be very difficult for the Wu family to make any more inroads in the political arena in these decades; all they need to do now is to stabilise.

What they need to do now is to stabilise. It can be imagined that in the next long period of time, the Wu family will definitely shift some of their efforts from the political world to the business world, so it goes without saying how much importance the Brilliant Group will receive.

Anyone who tries to hit the Brilliant Group at this time will definitely provoke a fierce counter-attack from the Martial Family.

So, even though the Brilliant Group is a piece of fat meat, if you don't want to take a bite of it, you still have to deliberate and deliberate!

"Alright, this one reason is not good enough, so let's have another one!" He Hongwei said, "There are several strategic projects under the Brilliant Group that cannot fall into the hands of the Kepong people no matter what, since the reform and opening up for so many years, there have been too many strategic projects and resources in our country that have been controlled by the Kepong people and people from other countries!"

"Iron ore, iron and steel, trace elements, rare metals" He Hongwei's face gradually turned serious, "Let's not talk about strategic resources, let's talk about the things around us. Ji Feng, think carefully, from the moment you open your eyes in the morning, you go to the bathroom to brush your teeth and wash your face, what you use, there are no more of our domestic goods!"

"Toothpaste, which looks like it's all a Chinese brand, has actually been acquired by foreigners long ago, Chinese brand toothpaste, sounds like our country, right? But it was bought out by an English company back in 1994! And the breakfast you eat, the engine and transmission of the car you drive, the steel and cement of the house you live in, which of these things are still Chinese?"

He Hongwei said so much in one breath, he took a moment to slow down, lit a cigarette himself, relieved his breath, looked at Ji Feng and asked, "Older brother, we can no longer watch the country's strategic resources fall into the hands of the Boundary Pontiffs! This reason, isn't it enough?"

Ji Feng was silent for a moment, shook his head with a smile and said, "The reason is exciting, but, Brother Hongwei, the two of us are not strong enough, and unless you can use the power of the Tianyao Group, there is almost no way for us to intervene in the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Bebongs!"

"If the time comes when it's necessary, the Tian Yao Group will definitely be used!"

He Hongwei said, "Ji Feng, let me tell you something, before I came to Jiangzhou, the Prime Minister called me to the Great House, and his old man said to me, we, should keep what we have!"

Ji Feng instantly sat up straight, his face moved!

Campus Master Chapter 1989

"If the time comes when it's necessary, the Tianyao Group will definitely be used!"

He Hongwei said, "Ji Feng, let me tell you something, before I came to Jiangzhou, the Prime Minister called me to the Great House, and his old man said to me, we, should keep what we have!"

Ji Feng sat up straight at once, his face moving!

“The Prime Minister looked for you?” Ji Feng couldn’t help but ask, “So, it was actually the Prime Minister who told you to go to Southern Guangdong and stop the Brilliant Group from cooperating with the Kepong people?”

“What do you think his old man meant by that statement?” He Hongwei asked rhetorically.

Ji Feng laughed, “I understand the same as you do!”

We should keep what we have, if these words just came out of an ordinary person’s mouth, it might just concern his personal interests, or his family’s fields must not be seized, or his rights must be defended, etc.

However, now that these words are coming from the mouth of the old man from Dainei, the meaning is completely different.

He is clearly speaking from the height of the nation.

We have to guard our own things and not let foreigners come and usurp them or play tricks to take them by trickery.

“It seems that the project involved in the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Boundary Pontiffs is, I’m afraid, very important!” Ji Feng was secretly deliberating in his heart, just because of this cooperation, second uncle had already mentioned it to himself more than once, even his father had also said that if possible, he would go to South Guangdong to take a look at it.

And now, even He Hongwei had been sent out, and it was the one from Dainei who had personally sought out He Hongwei, so it could be seen how much importance the senior management attached to the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Boundary Pontiffs.

Of course, the importance they attached was not to ensure the cooperation between the two, but to find a way to stop it.

“As leaders, they naturally have to set an example, especially when the Martial Family is involved, they naturally won’t use the power in their hands to interfere with this cooperation by breaking the rules, but their feelings, however, I can understand!” He Hongwei said in a deep voice: “This time I came to Jiangzhou, on the one hand, I do want to celebrate with you, which is a private matter, while on the other hand, yet I also want to join hands with you and go around Southern Guangdong together.”

Ji Feng pondered, not rushing to answer.

He certainly understood what He Hongwei said, in fact, even if He Hongwei didn’t say this, Ji Feng was still clear about what exactly the above was thinking.

It was clear from the attitudes of his father and second uncle that they were opposed to the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Kepong people, only that their opposition would not play a substantial role for the Brilliant Group, which had the Wu family as its backer.

After all, the Brilliant Group is a private enterprise, and after Rong Peng and Rong Suyan’s father and daughter had completely broken up with the Wu family, the Brilliant Group has now become a joint venture between a private enterprise and a foreign enterprise.

Although the so-called foreign enterprise was only an offshore company!

If the Wu family had not been in the way, it would have been easy to stop this cooperation, but the fact is that the Wu family seems to have ignored the opposition of others and had to make this cooperation happen!

Ji Feng believed that since even the Prime Minister had talked to He Hongwei, hadn't the other top brass communicated with the Wu family?

They obviously did not reach an agreement, or the Wu family was bent on having their own way, and the top, when there was really no way out, asked He Hongwei to find a way to stop this cooperation

This also shows the determination of the Wu family, even the top brass couldn't convince the Wu family ah!

Then, if he and He Hongwei were to enter Southern Guangdong, it was conceivable how much resistance they would encounter.

"Still hesitating?" Seeing Ji Feng pondering but not speaking, He Hongwei couldn't help but ask.

"I'm not hesitating." Ji Feng shook his head.

In fact, in his heart, Ji Feng was incredibly in favour of entering Southern Guangdong and stopping the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Kepong people, and he had already started making preparations for this matter a long time ago.

The only question at hand was, how to do it in order to successfully stop it?

"This matter is easy to say, but if you really do it it won't be that easy!" Ji Feng deliberated, "Brother Hongwei, do you have any plan?"

"Putting aside the plan for now, I just want a word from you, do you want to do it? If you're a man, give a quick word, so much dilly-dallying will hurt your feelings!" He Hongwei asked.

"If I can, I want to do it more than anyone else!"

Ji Feng blurted out, and said with a firm expression, "Brother Hongwei, you are not the only one who loves the country, and you don't need to provoke me with such a provocative method.

He Hongwei couldn't help but smile: "So, you've decided to do it?"

Ji Feng said, "Still the same, I want to hear your plan, if there is no plan at all, just the two of us venturing over there, we will definitely bump our noses!"

He Hongwei said, "Of course there is a plan, only this is not the place to talk about it in detail, if you decide to do it, then we can find another time and talk about it in detail."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, this was indeed not the place to talk, given the consumption level of this Taste Country Residence, those who came here to eat were definitely people of a certain status, or people with certain assets, if this conversation was overheard by outsiders, it might cause some kind of storm again.

Moreover, Ji Feng also believed that He Hongwei must have a detailed plan, and if not, he would have a general direction.

Since the Prime Minister found He Hongwei, naturally it is not possible to just give him so light a sentence, to keep their own things just by the mouth to say two words can not be able to keep.

So Ji Feng believes that He Hongwei must have gotten some kind of support from the Prime Minister.

These things, naturally, could not be said here either.

So Ji Feng nodded very readily: "Then good, the time is up to you, I am able to find the time anytime, as for the location well if you don't have a good place to go, then go to the headquarters of the Tengfei Group, it is certainly safe there, no one will overhear it!"

He Hongwei immediately nodded: "That's good, let's set it for tomorrow. Time waits for no man, before that because it was the Chinese New Year, the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the people of Kailong paused for a while, so we must hurry, otherwise it will be too late for us to do anything when the wood has been laid."

"No problem!" Ji Feng nodded his head and agreed.

"Alright then, let's finish the business, drink!" He Hongwei slapped on the table with an excited look on his face, "Cheers!"

"Bottoms up!"

Ji Feng also smiled and lifted his cup, before drinking, he added, "Brother Hongwei, by the way, I'll tell you, your excitement is very poor!"

"Haha"

He Hongwei burst out laughing, and he didn't have any embarrassment as he said, "Older brother, I actually know that I don't need to use too clever excitement methods with you."

Ji Feng glanced at him, "What does that mean? Am I stupid?"

"Heh!"

He Hongwei waved his hand with a smile and said, "Because after I entered the Great Inner City, I didn't just meet the Premier, I also paid a visit to a chief."

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows, "Who?"

He Hongwei grinned, "Minister Ji!"

Ji Feng was slightly stunned, immediately, he shook his head and laughed, it turned out that He Hongwei had already met his father, so this guy must have already known what he was thinking, now he just wanted to say yes himself.

"You guy" Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head.

“Older brother, in fact, I have no choice, if I alone want to do this matter, it is really a bit difficult, so I can only find you.” He Hongwei said, “Before not saying that I had met Minister Ji, I actually just wanted to see how your attitude on this matter really was.”

“So you’re relieved now?” Ji Feng glanced at him and asked.

“Of course!”

He Hongwei nodded decisively, “Actually, I could guess your attitude before I came here, just by looking at some of the things you’ve done before, especially your attitude towards the people of Kepong, I could probably tell your temper.”

Ji Feng shook his head with a smile and said, “It can’t be helped, I’m such an outgoing person, no matter what others say, I just can’t get fond of the people of Kepong.”

“I can understand that!” He Hongwei nodded, “In fact, frankly speaking, if I was still just a student now, then I would dare to say anything. Only, now it’s not possible, whatever I do now, I have to consider all aspects and pay attention to the impact, I envy you instead.”

Ji Feng smiled and didn’t say anything.

He Hongwei then let out a light sigh and said, “Actually, to put it mildly, I could have not taken this errand at all, because this matter is really not a lot of benefit to me, and even in the end, after the matter is done, there is a possibility that I will end up making more effort than good.”

“But”

He Hongwei paused, looked at Ji Feng and said, “Older brother, there are some things that someone has to do, at least, I can’t stand by and watch the Kepong people take away precious things that belong to us from our land again..... not to mention precious things, even if it’s just a matchstick, I won’t allow the Kepong people to take it so smoothly!”

“So, I promise to come down!” He Hongwei said, “I’m not saying how great I am myself, I just don’t want to hear any more news similar to the rare earth incident!”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but frown, of course he knew what the rare earths He Hongwei was talking about were.

And the rare earth incident that He Hongwei was talking about, Ji Feng had certainly heard about it, although he didn’t understand it very well, but in general, he still understood it.

This is something so helpless for China that it almost qualifies as a disgrace!

Campus Master Chapter 1990

Ji Feng could not help but frown, of course he knew what the rare earths He Hongwei was talking about were.

And the rare earth incident that He Hongwei was talking about, Ji Feng had of course heard about it, although he didn’t understand it very well, but on the whole, he still understood it.

It was something so hopeless for China that it was almost called a disgrace!

The rare earth that He Hongwei talks about is actually a metal, but it is not an ordinary metal. The main purpose of this metal is to be used to make high-tech precision weapons, such as missiles, such as radar, night vision goggles and many other kinds of precision weapons.

In order to manufacture these sophisticated high-tech weaponry, rare earths are a metal that must be used. Without rare earths, the accuracy of these weapons would be drastically reduced, if not completely without precision and accuracy to speak of.

This is why many countries around the world regard rare earths as a strategic national resource, especially in developed countries such as Rice and Kepong!

In China, on the other hand, there is a not insignificant amount of rare earth resources.

In the beginning, because of the lack of technology and knowledge, there were big loopholes in the utilisation of rare earths in China. Moreover, because of the lack of technical power to make effective use of them, coupled with the lack of importance attached to rare earths by many officials, it made it easy for many foreigners and foreign companies to buy large quantities of this precious resource in China at very low prices.

When China began to realise the preciousness of this resource and was ready to restrict exports, it turned out that many of the rare earth mines in the country had actually been acquired by foreign companies.

There were also many places where foreigners had circled large areas of land in the name of investment, and they were mining rare earths.

Although the state has made some regulations, such as strictly limiting the amount of rare earths to be exported, it was discovered at this time that they had already made preparations in advance.

On the one hand, those foreign investors had acquired many enterprises in China or invested in the construction of many factories, on the other hand, they also occupied the upstream resources in other industries and were economically prepared for a long time ago.

If China dares to ban the export of rare earths, then other countries will impose blockades on China for other products, such as some advanced technologies, such as some machine tools, or even, most ruthlessly, rice countries will even impose economic sanctions on China!

Originally, when signing contracts with people, it was difficult to charge the other party with breach of contract even if you wanted to because you had not considered all these.

However, if you watch the export of rare earths, you have to watch people manufacture those high-tech precision weapons, even including the country that has been harbouring wolfish ambitions towards China – Kepong!

But there was nothing that could be done about it!

In the end, Ji Feng didn't really know what kind of method the country adopted to deal with it, because when he heard about these things, he was just a poor student, and at that time, it was a teacher who had just joined the workforce for a few years who told them about these things, and at that time, even if Ji Feng wanted to inquire about more specific information, he had no place to do so.

But what is certain is that China must have made concessions to a large extent at that time, because up to now, rare earths are still being shipped out of the country and are being used by countries either to make weapons or to stockpile them

Although China has gradually started to regain its disadvantage and has taken a variety of measures to master the global rare earth market, and even more than 90 percent of the world's rare earths are supplied by China, the decades-long export of large quantities at very low prices is definitely an extremely significant loss.

Moreover, rare earths are just one example, there are many more things like this.

This kind of thing makes Ji Feng a little helpless every time he thinks about it.

None of these foreigners had good intentions, especially that neighbour of China's, who was simply wolfish and eyeing China, they would do everything they could to restrict China and take advantage of it.

Suddenly, Ji Feng's heart moved and he frowned and asked, "Brother Hong Wei, could it be that there are projects under the Brilliant Group that are similar to rare earths?"

There were many projects under the banner of the Brilliant Group, several of which were related to strategic projects of the country, and it was said that there were also some precious resources.

Ji Feng had also learned about them, but there was still a part of them that he could not figure out, after all, he was not an expert in this area.

But now when he heard He Hongwei mention rare earths, Ji Feng was suddenly shocked. If the Brilliant Group had similar projects under its umbrella, once all these projects fell into the hands of the Kepong people, then even if there was more money, he would not be able to get back these strategic resources.

If these precious resources fall into the hands of the Kepong people, with the Kepong people's wolfish ambition, when something changes, China will definitely be very passive.

"Is it precisely because the Brilliant Group has these precious resource projects under its banner that even the Prime Minister has stepped in?" Ji Feng frowned and asked in a deep voice.

"Don't be nervous!"

He Hongwei waved his hand and laughed, "It's not decades ago anymore, our country's comprehensive national power is increasing, even the current world hegemon, Rice, would definitely not dare to use the same domineering tactics against us as before, otherwise, if he dares to punch us, we would dare to slap him back!"

Ji Feng nodded slightly, "In that case, there are no such precious resource projects under the Brilliant Group?"

"Mm! The Brilliant Group is a private enterprise after all, even if they have the Wu family behind them, those extremely precious strategic resources are still out of their reach."

He Hongwei explained, when it came to business, he was naturally more proficient than Ji Feng: "However, even if the projects under the Brilliant Group weren't particularly precious resources, they were still valuable and could be called national strategic projects, they definitely couldn't fall into the hands of the Boundary Pontiffs! Older brother, you can't take it lightly just because it's not a precious resource!"

"That's for sure!"

Ji Feng said, "It's fine if I don't intervene in this matter, but as long as I do, not to mention strategic projects, even if it's just a dime, the Kepong people won't be able to take advantage of it!"

The current China is not the China of a few decades ago when it was just starting to develop, today's China has already started to rise rapidly and its comprehensive strength is increasing rapidly.

Although there are still such and such problems in China today, and there are still corrupt officials, corruption and other problems that most people hate, but it is an indisputable fact that China's comprehensive national power is rapidly increasing.

If any country wants to bully China now, they have made a mistake!

What's more, under such circumstances, if they still watched the Kepong people use a sum of money to get rid of a strategic national project belonging to China from the Brilliant Group, I'm afraid they wouldn't feel too good in their hearts.

"Brother Hongwei, you're trying to provoke again!" Ji Feng glanced at He Hongwei and hummed.

"Haha!"

He Hongwei didn't hide it, instead he nodded and said, "That's right, this is the method of provocation, however, I think this method is useful for should work!"

Ji Feng laughed, "It does work!"

Any provocative method is not as convincing as giving a practical example directly.

He Hongwei had only given an example of rare earths, and Ji Feng knew that this time, no matter what reasons there were, he would have to find a way to stop the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Lingxia Group.

It would not be Ji Feng if he watched the Kepong people take a strategic resource that belonged to China and did nothing about it.

"You're good!"

Ji Feng gave a thumbs up to He Hongwei: "It seems that you kid has figured out my character!"

He Hongwei laughed: "It's not that I've figured out your character, but I know that you kid is at least not a bloodless person, say from those things you've done you can tell that you're a hanyou"

"Cut it out! But don't give me a high hat!" Ji Feng hummed, "Better cut the bullshit and drink!"

"Yes, yes, drink!" He Hongwei harrumphed.

The two raised their glasses and both drank in one go.

“Ding” Just then, Ji Feng’s phone suddenly rang, he didn’t care, he just casually picked it up and looked at it, he found that the screen showed the landline area code of Yanjing, so he casually picked it up, “Hello. This is Ji Feng, who is it?”

“.....” There was no response on the phone, and Ji Feng only heard the sound of breathing faintly coming from the phone, and the breathing was not quite even, as if the person on the other end of the phone was suppressing his breathing.

Ji Feng’s eyebrows couldn’t help but wrinkle up, what was the meaning of this, calling his phone and not talking, what kind of trick was this?

“May I ask who is this?” Ji Feng asked once again.

“Swish!”

Ji Feng waved his hand and made a gesture, indicating to He Hongwei not to speak, and then he said into the phone, “If you don’t speak again, I’ll hang up”

“..... Ji Feng!” Ji Feng hadn’t finished his words when a low voice suddenly came over the phone.

This voice sounded somewhat familiar!

Ji Feng was slightly stunned and his mind raced to think, then, he frowned furiously, “..... Are you Wu Zhiyong?”

This odd voice on the phone sounded very much like Wu Zhiyong’s voice!

“Hm?”

He Hongwei smiled and immediately sat up straight, a cold light flashed in his eyes, it was that sinister villain Wu Zhiyong calling?

He Hongwei was really very sensitive to the word Wu Zhiyong, really because he hated Wu Zhiyong almost to his bones!
