

Campus Master 2019

“Hehe,” Huang Hao forced a smile that was hard to read.

But in Huang Hao’s heart, he was disdainful and at the same time a little upset, this Li Weidong was talking too much, what do you mean not even a fart..... exactly who is not even a fart?

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on this.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The mayor of Yuezhou, the capital city of Southern Guangdong, can definitely be called a vassal.

The son of a mayor is not someone who can be cleaned up just by saying so.

What’s more, that Ji Feng guy is only Ji Zhenguo’s nephew, not his own son, and Ji Zhenguo naturally can’t treat him like his own son. If Ji Feng got into trouble outside, I believe Ji Zhenguo would not be so spoiled and would definitely criticize him severely.

So if Ji Feng were to make a move, he would definitely have some scruples.

What’s more, no matter how powerful this Ji Zhenguo was, their Huang family didn’t have no background at all, and they weren’t able to bully anyone!

Thinking of this, although Huang Hao did not say anything on his lips, he naturally brought some defiance when he spoke, he said, “Older brother, don’t tease me, but since that guy is Ji Zhenguo’s nephew, then I won’t say anything, let him go, Older brother, you wait a moment, I’ll come down.”

Li Weidong, however, listened with a straight frown, “Huang Hao, you can’t be careless,”

“Don’t worry old brother, I have it in mind!” Huang Hao laughed and said no more.

“I have a number in mind, hum, you have a number of shit!” After hanging up the phone, Li Weidong couldn’t help but shake his head and sneer.

Huang Hao might not know, but Li Weidong was clearer than anyone else that it was already Huang Hao’s luck that Ji Feng didn’t make a move today.

If it was Ji Zhenguo’s son that he met today, Huang Hao would have been sent to the hospital by now!

The three sons of Ji Zhenguo, two of them were all mixed-up devils.

Other than that, let’s just say that little guy Ji Shaoyun, when he was only in junior high school, he had already beaten up some of the dudes in the compound, and even some of the punks in society were beaten up by him.

It is said that this guy was a little bully in school, and that bad energy is not to mention.

If he hadn’t joined the army and become a soldier, I’m afraid the whole of Jiangzhou would have been in a state of turmoil.

And this Ji Shaoyun is still just a little bastard king.

The real bastard king is Ji Shao Lei.

If Huang Hao met Ji Shaolei today and the two sides clashed, Li Weidong believed that with Ji Shaolei's temper, not to mention Huang Hao, even he himself would be involved.

You know, not anyone can still have a good temper after being besieged, let alone Ji Shaolei?

This was also Ji Feng, who was a bit more stable than Ji Shaolei, and perhaps also for the sake of his little sister Li Ruonan, which was why he gave up.

Thinking about Huang Hao's arrogance, Li Weidong couldn't help but shake his head and secretly said, "It looks like this Huang Hao still can't be a deep friend, this person is too arrogant and simply doesn't know the sky is high, sooner or later he will suffer a big loss in the future!"

Originally, Li Weidong wanted to remind Huang Hao and convey to him the words that Ji Feng had left behind, but now that he thought about it, Li Weidong thought it was better not to say anything, as Huang Hao was not convinced in his heart anyway, so it didn't make much difference whether he said it or not.

Moreover, Li Weidong did not want to help Ji Feng pass on the message in his heart, he and Ji Feng were not on good terms in the first place.

If his father hadn't asked him not to mess with the Ji Feng brothers, Li Weidong's relationship with Ji Feng would have been even worse, as the so-called one mountain does not allow two tigers, in this place in Jiangzhou, we are all gentry, there is always a high and low.

Political matters Li Weidong does not understand, anyway, he often heard about his father and Ji Zhenguo discord remarks, which naturally makes him a little unhappy in his heart, think that his father is suppressed by Ji Zhenguo, himself also suppressed by Ji Shaolei and Ji Feng.

If not for his father's warning, Li Weidong would definitely have broken bread with Ji Feng and his brothers.

Even now, it was just a matter of being able to get by face to face.

His relationship with Ji Feng was not a good one.

Now, he just needs to make sure that he is not involved in the conflict between Ji Feng and Huang Hao, otherwise, this would be a problem.

Li Weidong is not as arrogant as Huang Hao, or to be more precise, although Li Weidong is also arrogant, but he is more aware of Ji Feng's power, so he knows very well that if there is no need, it is best not to provoke Ji Feng.

What's more, now that it was Huang Hao who had started a conflict with Ji Feng, there was no need for Li Weidong to be so foolish as to top himself!

"Older brother!"

While he was pondering, he suddenly heard a shout, and Li Weidong saw Huang Hao walking over quickly, followed by several young men and women behind him.

The two of them didn't have time to exchange too many pleasantries before Huang Hao asked, "Elder brother, those few people surnamed Ji have left?"

There was no longer any figure of Ji Feng and the others in the area, so they had obviously gone far away, but Huang Hao was still a little itchy in his heart, reaching his head out to look around, as if he wanted to see those two extremely fine women again.

"Gone!" Li Weidong nodded.

"What a pity" Huang Hao couldn't help but tsk his mouth and lick his lips, looking resigned.

"Huang Hao, do you still want to continue to pester?" Li Weidong said with a frown.

"Of course not!"

Huang Hao shook his head with a smile and said, "Old brother, although I've never been afraid of them either, but after all, more is better than less, and more friends are better than more enemies!"

In fact, although Huang Hao thought in his heart that even if Ji was more powerful, it was not that easy to bully him, and when it came to a real fight, maybe he would lose, but he would definitely make his opponent pay a certain price.

The actual fact is that you can't deny the fact that you've got a lot more than just a few of these.

But

The actual fact is that you can't get the two best women if you don't provoke Ji Feng.

Huang Hao's heart was like a cat scratching, itchy and uncomfortable.

"Mmm! It's right if you can think like that!"

Li Weidong nodded and said, "Huang Hao, as a friend, let me advise you, unless it's necessary, it's best not to mess with Ji Feng, don't think that he's just Ji Zhenguo's nephew, he's actually more powerful than Ji Shaolei!"

Li Weidong naturally didn't know what Huang Hao was thinking at the moment, otherwise, he definitely wouldn't hang out with Huang Hao anymore. Since Huang Hao had such a thought, then one day in the future, as soon as there was an opportunity, Huang Hao would put this thought in his psyche into practice, and by then, he would truly anger Ji Feng.

Once Ji Feng is enraged, it is not that fun.

This is something that too many of Ji Feng's enemies have already proven with their miserable endings. Li Weidong is in Jiangzhou and is the mayor's son, so he knows more than anyone else, so he is also more aware of Ji Feng's fear.

But now, Li Weidong was unaware of Huang Hao's true thoughts, so he was still persuading.

"There are many people who have fallen under Ji Feng, but there are also very few rumours of Ji Feng running amok, most of the people who have fallen under him have taken the initiative to provoke him!" Li Weidong said, "So you just don't mess with him"

Huang Hao, however, shook his head and said, “Older brother, I’ve already offended the surnamed Ji today, he must have seen so many of us that he didn’t have an immediate attack, but left first. But when he leaves, how can he not retaliate?”

Li Weidong couldn’t help but look at him in surprise and asked, “Is that what you think?”

He instantly thought a few points higher of Huang Hao, he didn’t expect ah, this arrogant guy actually had this kind of brain, he could actually analyse that Ji Feng would retaliate next?

In fact, when Ji Feng was leaving, he did leave behind a phrase that meant exactly that!

“Of course!”

Huang Hao said, “Just think about it, anyway, if it was me, I definitely wouldn’t have been able to give up. And old brother, today I even dragged you into this, I believe Ji Feng will definitely retaliate against you as well, I think, we need to think ahead, it’s best to be able to pre-empt the attack ah!”

Li Weidong suddenly frowned, he suddenly understood, where this Huang Hao was analyzing, he was clearly deliberately provoking, he was trying to pull himself together to deal with Ji Feng.

“Motherfucker!”

Li Weidong cursed, thanks to the fact that he still considered Huang Hao as a friend, this guy actually schemed himself, he grinned: “Huang Hao, this matter, I will not get involved, otherwise if my father finds out, then I will definitely eat my words! As for retaliation well forgive him Ji Feng wouldn’t dare to retaliate against me!”

..... have to say, growing up in this kind of official family children, even if they are more incompetent, that scheming also learned a seven or eight points.

“..... Oh, that’s true, that Ji’s no matter how arrogant he is, he wouldn’t dare to retaliate easily against old brother!” Huang Hao barely smiled, but his heart was disappointed, and, also a little worried and nervous

And at the same time, also a little nervous, there is Wang Tong’s girlfriend, Kan Miao.

At this time, Ji Feng and others were already in the car.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

And in this way, Kan Miao was even more nervous

Campus Master Chapter 2020

Kan Miao was very nervous.

Even though she was leaning close to Wang Tong at the moment, because there were too many people in the car and it was very crowded, so Kan Miao's small body was almost covered by Wang Tong, but it could be seen from Kan Miao's hands that were holding onto Wang Tong's clothes that Kan Miao was actually very nervous.

This was because it was very obvious that Kan Miao's hand was trembling slightly.

Kan Miao's tightly tensed pretty face and her somewhat averted eyes were also enough to let people know right away how nervous this girl was at the moment!

Wang Tong, who was sitting beside her, naturally felt Kan Miao's nervousness most directly, and he grabbed Kan Miao's hand and shook it hard to give Kan Miao some comfort.

Kan Miao looked at Wang Tong and opened her mouth to say something, but when the words came to her mouth, she didn't know what to say and could only swallow them back.

This was because Kan Miao really did not know what to say, let alone what to say to Wang Tong.

She knew that just a short while ago, she had a heated argument with Wang Tong, and had even come close to breaking up with him.

Especially now that no one was talking in the car, Kan Miao was even more embarrassed.

On the other hand, it was also because Kan Miao's mind was in turmoil at the moment. Even if she wanted to speak, she could not organize her words in a logical manner, and her words would definitely be incoherent or stumbling, so it would be better not to speak at all.

However, Kan Miao did not know that she was not the only one who was nervous at the moment.

Wang Tong, who was sitting next to her, was also a bit nervous and his mind was in a mess, so he didn't know where to start.

As Bai Zhu drove on, her gaze swept over the overhead rear view mirror from time to time, and it was clear that she seemed to have some interest in the duo, Wang Tong and Kan Miao. Or rather, somewhat curious about them.

Ji Feng naturally noticed Bai Zhu's movements, and he smiled and asked, "Bai Zhu, what are you looking at?"

The corners of Bai Zhu's mouth tugged lightly and she pursed her lips and smiled lightly, "Not looking at anything I think, isn't this Miss Kan a bit cold? Do you want to turn on the heating?"

"Hmm?"

Ji Feng was slightly stunned.

The others couldn't help but be stunned as well, and their gazes all looked towards Kan Miao who was huddled with Wang Tong.

"Swish!" Seeing everyone's eyes converge on her, even Ji Feng who was sitting in front of her looked back at her, Kan Miao's face immediately turned red, she shook her head in a panic: "It's not cold, it's not cold, it's fine"

"It's warm inside this car, besides it's already spring, the weather itself is not cold, there are so many people crowded together in the car, there's no need to turn on the heater." Wang Tong also laughed.

"But I saw just now that Miss Kan's hands seemed to be shaking a bit?" Bai Zhu was a little puzzled, "Miss Kan, if you're cold then just say so, don't hold on to it."

"Well! That's right!" Ji Feng nodded, "That Kan Miao, right? We and Wang Tong are both good friends, good brothers, counting up to now has been five or six years of friendship, you do not need to be restrained at all, anything you need can be raised directly"

"I'm fine, you guys don't need to mind me!" Kan Miao waved his hand repeatedly, very embarrassed.

However in this way, Ji Feng and the others became even more strange.

You know, just this short while ago, Kan Miao was looking at him and Zhang Lei with a complete gaze of looking at countryside mud-legged people, with undisguised contempt in his eyes, his words were not at all merciful, and he directly told Wang Tong not to associate with himself and others, he would be taken to the ditch

The more you have to do, the better. If you don't want to go out with them for the rest of your life, then of course it would be great.

But now, Kan Miao is very polite and seems a bit restrained

This kind of behavior is a bit abnormal!

The actual fact is that you will be able to find out more about the actual situation.

The latter immediately nodded imperceptibly, signaling that he understood. Bai Zhu and Ji Feng's tacit understanding had been completely uncalled for, and now there was no need for too much verbal communication between them at all, often Ji Feng just made a gesture or a glance, and Bai Zhu knew what he meant.

Just like now, for example, when Ji Feng just glanced at her, Bai Zhu could grasp what it meant.

Seeing that Bai Zhu had understood what he meant, Ji Feng said nothing more, instead he turned his head and chatted with Zhang Lei and Wang Tong.

Ji Feng smiled and asked, "Wang Tong, I remember that the school you took the exam at that time seemed to be a bachelor's degree, right?"

"That's right, I also have an impression!" Before Wang Tong could answer, Zhang Lei nodded and said, "I was wondering before, as far as I remember, Wang Tong seemed to have gotten into an undergraduate school in the northeast, how come he went to school in the south?"

"Yeah, Wang Tong, what's going on?" Ji Feng asked, "Could it be that we remembered wrong?"

In fact, in Ji Feng's memory, there was indeed such a thing, except that he couldn't quite remember which school Wang Tong had gotten into, because at that time, Wang Tong was very low-key, and even their two good friends didn't contact each other.

Wang Tong shook his head and said: "Hey! Don't mention it at that time I did go to an undergraduate college in the northeast, but it was a third-rate undergraduate college, the tuition fee alone was more than 10,000 a year, if you add in living expenses and all that, you can't get by without 20,000 to 30,000 a year, how could my family have that much money? So I just went to a college or university."

Wang Tong shook his head with a bitter smile and said, "At that time, I considered that the south was more developed after all, the school I attended now was already poor, this insight couldn't follow any worse, right? So I chose South Guangdong."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, so that was the case.

Indeed, generally many of the third-rate undergraduate institutions are private schools, they are naturally run to make money, and the schools do not have the advantageous conditions of public schools, private schools are unable to obtain a large amount of state funds allocation, the fees are naturally much more expensive.

It is not uncommon for some schools to charge 20,000 to 30,000 a year for tuition, and if you add in living expenses and other miscellaneous fees, it can cost 40,000 to 50,000 a year!

If it's just for one or two years, it might be affordable, but for four years of college, it would add up to more than 200,000 yuan, which is definitely a lot of money for an ordinary family.

In a small inland county like Mang Shi County, how could an average family afford such expensive tuition fees?

So many students can't afford to go to school even if they get into the third grade, and end up either choosing to repeat another year, or, they have no choice but to take the initiative to downgrade and go to a junior college, or some simply go to a technical school to learn some skills and then go out into society.

Wang Tong is obviously in this situation as well

"How come you didn't tell me when you had difficulties" Zhang Lei frowned straight as he listened, then he shook his head helplessly, "Forget it, it's too late to say anything now!"

"It's actually nothing, going to college isn't necessarily that much worse!"

Ji Feng shook his head, "In fact, in my opinion, going to university is certainly necessary, but it's not a must. For the vast majority of people, going to university, either to a particularly good kind of university, you can learn the real thing, and in the future after graduation, whether it's a job or starting your own business, you will have the bottom line."

"If you can't get into a particularly good university, it's better to learn a skill, or just enter a certain profession, and then put your heart and soul into it, and later on you may well be better off than even them!" Ji Feng said.

"That's true! Crazy, I agree with you on that!" Zhang Lei was deeply convinced of this.

"Look at how many students who graduated with a bachelor's degree can't find a job, or the jobs they find are not as good as those who go out to work, and as for those who have a skill, it's even worse! It is said that a slightly better carpenter in Jiangzhou can now earn more than 10,000 a month, and those who are good at their craft are naturally even better off, so how many ordinary undergraduate students can get such a high salary now?"

"So ah, Wang Tong's choice in turn is likely to be the right one." Ji Feng laughed.

"That's what I thought too!"

Wang Tong nodded and laughed: "Actually, to say the least, I don't have any regrets, the things I learned from going to college are rather still useful, just take us high school classmates, I graduated a year earlier than you guys, and college is said to be a three-year system, but in fact you can usually get out in two years, so by the time you guys graduate, I'll already have two years of work experience."

"If you guys come out and do the same industry as me, maybe I can even be your leader!" Wang Tong laughed, "Of course, if you guys do those high-class industries, then I won't be able to compete"

"What high-grade and low-grade, the jobs are just different types, there is no difference between high and low!" Zhang Lei laughed, "Besides, what can the so-called high-class industries do? Come out to be a white collar? A gold-collar job? On the contrary, it's better to work for a few years and then work alone as a boss, wouldn't that be very comfortable?"

Wang Tong laughed, "It's hard too, it's not that easy to say or be."

"Nonsense, the hardest thing in this world is earning money, which is not hard? Even robbing a bank that's not something ordinary people can do!" Zhang Lei laughed.

"Ha"

Several people were instantly happy.

Kan Miao was the only one who didn't know what she was thinking, the expression on her face changed, looking at Wang Tong who was joking with Ji Feng and Zhang Lei, she opened her mouth several times to say something, but didn't say it.

On the way, several people joked and laughed, time passed very quickly, almost an hour or so later, the car arrived at the doorstep of Ji Feng's house.

By this time, Wang Tong could not laugh anymore.

And Kan Miao, who had been incredibly tense, had an even more volatile face and a flickering gaze, looking very nervous
