

Campus Master 2021

On the way, several people joked and laughed, time passed quickly, almost an hour or so later, the car arrived at Ji Feng's home.

By this time, Wang Tong couldn't laugh anymore.

And Kan Miao, who had been incomparably nervous, his face even changed, his gaze flashed, and he looked nervous

A villa, and a villa with a large courtyard, not to mention the rest, just this footprint, if you include the wide road in front of the courtyard, several hundred square feet I'm afraid can not even get down.

And this is only the flat area, if we talk about the building area of the villa Wang Tong looked at this three-storey villa, he could not help but shake his head, this must be 700 or 800 square feet, or more is not impossible.

The courtyard, the villa, and the beautiful surroundings and all those ancillary facilities you see around here all the way over

If you take into account the location of this place and the price of property and land in Jiangzhou, it is self-evident how much this place is worth.

Of course, although this villa is not in the downtown area of Jiangzhou, but in fact, everyone knows that the more suburban the villa is, the more expensive it is, and those who can afford to buy a villa are naturally not bad with that kind of money.

Perhaps for them, prosperity has already made them bored.

So you can imagine how much this villa is worth!

But Ji Feng said that this was his home.

Wang Tong was somewhat stunned as he looked at the villa in front of him, forgetting to say anything for a while, only opening his mouth slightly, barely able to turn his eyes.

When she saw the villa, Kan Miao's eyes were also filled with a complicated look, except that she did not stand at the door like Wang Tong, but instead, she glanced at Ji Feng with a complicated look.

When she saw Ji Feng standing with a bland smile on his face and a long body, the corners of Kan Miao's mouth involuntarily flushed with a bitter smile, she felt some bitter taste in her mouth and her face felt even more hot and spicy.

"It's true, I didn't guess wrong" Kan Miao secretly said, "Just but I don't know, what exactly is this person's identity!"

"Heh~~!"

Kan Miao shook his head with a bitter smile, not knowing what it was like in his heart.

Thinking about how he had originally thought that these two so-called friends of Wang Tong's were just the most ordinary poor students, the kind of people who came from a mud-legged background, he had therefore educated Wang Tong in a long and convincing manner, giving him some kind of theory about how what he would achieve in the future depended on what kind of people you were with now... ..

As soon as he remembered all this, Kan Miao felt his face burning hot and burning uncomfortable.

At that time, neither Ji Feng nor Zhang Lei acted too aggressively, and Kan Miao thought that it was a deliberate act on their part, that they were deliberately putting on that kind of appearance, trying to maintain poise or something.

But now look again, Ji Feng and the others still have the same attitude, still with a bland smile on their faces, and seemingly dressed in ordinary clothes, with nothing too impressive about their dress or anything else.

But when Kan Miao looked at them, she had a different feeling.

It was not until this time that she noticed that, whether it was Ji Feng or Zhang Lei, the clothes they were wearing, although the style looked like a very popular style, the fabric used to make the clothes, and the workmanship, seemed to be extraordinary.

The layout of the clothes also looks obviously a bit different, plus Ji Feng and Zhang Lei are both kind of tall men, the clothes worn on their bodies, but there is a vaguely unique temperament.

“How come I didn’t see it myself before” Kan Miao cursed himself in his heart for having eyes that the clothes on that Ji Feng looked very much like they were tailor-made, but how could he see it as a ground stall before?!

“I’m really stupid!” Kan Miao cursed.

In fact, from the beginning, Kan Miao was looking at Ji Feng and Zhang Lei with tinted glasses, she subconsciously thought that Wang Tong came from a poor place like Mang Shi County, and it seemed that his family situation was not too good, and since Ji Feng and Zhang Lei were Wang Tong’s high school classmates, they naturally came from the same place, and their relationship seemed to be good

As the saying goes, things come in groups and people are divided by groups, and two classmates whose families are very different from each other are often very difficult to become the kind of close and good friends.

It is because of these reasons that Kan Miao subconsciously thought that Ji Feng and Zhang Lei were not good people, like this kind of people, Kan Miao naturally did not want Wang Tong to get in touch with them, they are just bad, but do not bring Wang Tong to the ditch!

At that time, in Kan Miao’s eyes, there were only Huang Shao and Li Shao and so on, Ji Feng and Zhang Lei, two guys from the mud-legged background, and how could they possibly enter Miss Kan’s eyes?

Kan Miao said in his heart, self-deprecatingly, he really has golden eyes, ordinary people can not enter his eyes ah

“Squeak~~!”

The villa door suddenly opened.

Because several people had gotten off at the entrance in advance, Bai Zhu drove the car in first, then parked it and then opened the gate completely. The metallic scraping sound that was produced when the door was opened seemed very thick and heavy, and was very obvious in this quiet environment.

Wang Tong and Kan Miao instantly came back to their senses, and both of them glanced at each other, seeing the complicated look in each other's eyes, they each had different things on their mind, and seeing this scene, but they didn't know what kind of feeling they both had in their hearts.

"What are you waiting for here, go inside!" Zhang Lei said with a smile, he was not at all polite, smilingly led the way in first: "Wang Tong, no need to be polite when you come here, this place is bought by the madman, you come and treat it as your own home anyway, I am never polite with him."

Ji Feng laughed: "All go in, always standing at the door is not a thing!"

Wang Tong and Kan Miao both nodded and smiled, but at this moment the kind of smile on Kan Miao's face, it was almost as if it was forcibly squeezed out, the skin on her face also seemed like the moisture had evaporated in a flash, it looked dried up, her lips were a little dry, that smile was really hard to see.

Under the guidance of Ji Feng and Zhang Lei, Wang Tong and Kan Miao followed the two of them into the villa's courtyard.

Looking at the landscape trees and other flowers and plants planted in a staggered manner on both sides of the gate, which had begun to flourish in this spring that had gradually become warmer, making the whole courtyard present a vibrant feeling, one could not help but take a deep breath as soon as they entered, as if they were soothed by a trip to the heavens, Kan Miao and Wang Tong could not help but be a little lost in thought.

"Miao Miao, your family is also a villa, how come you don't have a courtyard like this?" As he walked forward, Wang Tong lowered his voice and asked in Kan Miao's ear.

"Can that be the same" Kan Miao shook her head, "There are also different kinds of villas, take Jiangzhou for example, why can some villas reach one or two hundred million while others are only worth a few million?"

"Oh!"

Wang Tong nodded, he really didn't know much about villas, but from this price comparison, he was able to see it at a glance.

It was obvious that this villa of Ji Feng's was definitely not low in price, there was no doubt about that.

Kan Miao was about to bend down to take off her shoes, but was stopped by Bai Zhu, "You don't need to take off your shoes, there is a shoe cover machine over here, just put your feet on it."

Seeing that the shoe cover machine was half a metre away in front of her, Kan Miao blushed and panicked. Her home was also equipped with a shoehorn machine, which of course she knew, but because she was nervous, she didn't know what she should do for a while, making her face burn even more.

Arranging for everyone to sit down, Bai Zhu then went to make tea, and Wang Tong and Kan Miao then sat on the sofa, looking more or less restrained.

Zhang Lei sat on the arm of the sofa, pulled open the drawer under the coffee table and found a packet of cigarettes, smiling, "Wang Tong, smoke, don't follow the guy politely, his are good cigarettes, I often go by a few packs here with him."

Wang Tong smiled and took the cigarettes over, but found that the cigarettes did not seem to be anything special, but at this time it was Zhang Lei who laughed: "This cigarette can not even be bought with money, today the two of us are also considered to have a blessing."

Can't even buy it with money?

Wang Tong was slightly stunned, what did this mean?

He suddenly thought of a possibility and asked out of the blue, "You can't even buy it with money? Is it a special offer?"

Zhang Lei glanced at Ji Feng and saw him with a smile on his face, so he nodded and said, "It's a special offer!"

"Bullshit"

Wang Tong originally wanted to laugh at Zhang Lei's nonsense, but when the words reached his mouth, he suddenly swallowed them again, because Wang Tong suddenly remembered that even Ji Feng could own such a big villa and such a big yard in a place like Jiangzhou, where every inch of land is gold, it wasn't impossible for him to own special-supply cigarettes!

Thinking about his own speculation earlier, Wang Tong sat back a bit and asked tentatively, "Is this cigarette really a special supply?"

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said, "It's a special supply, I still have a few packs here, when you leave, I'll bring them for you."

"Heh~!"

Wang Tong forced a smile, and after a moment of silence, he finally asked, "Ji Feng, you"

Zhang Lei directly took over and asked with a smile, "Wang Tong, are you trying to ask, what exactly is Ji Feng's status, he is still in school, how can he use yo a villa in Jiangzhou, and the cigarettes he smokes are all special, right?"

Wang Tong immediately nodded his head, that was what he meant.

It was really because what he had seen today had surprised Wang Tong too much.

Previously, Wang Tong knew what kind of person Ji Feng was, at that time, Ji Feng was wearing clothes that cost several tens of dollars a piece, and he could wear a piece of clothing for a long time, and he was still wearing it even after it had been washed and lost some of its colour.

The fact that Hu Xuehui dumped Ji Feng was known to many people in the school, and it was because Ji Feng's family was poor that Hu Xuehui dumped him.

But it's only been a few years since we've seen each other, how come Ji Feng has changed so much?

Campus Master Chapter 2022

This before and after change of Ji Feng is too big and the time is too short, which makes Wang Tong really a bit unbelievable.

If he and Ji Feng had not seen each other for decades even if they had only seen each other for a dozen years, Wang Tong would not feel too incredulous if Ji Feng could achieve what he has achieved now.

After all, there are so many things that can happen in a decade or so.

It is reasonable to spend more than ten years in Jiangzhou, an international metropolis, to be able to save a family business of no small size, after all, Jiangzhou is really too prosperous, here, although the pressure is high, consumption is high, but undeniably, there are also more opportunities here.

As long as one is willing to put in the effort and suffer, one will always be able to reap some rewards here.

Not to mention that if you work hard for decades, you may be able to achieve great success, or even become a well-known entrepreneur or successful person, which is not impossible.

However, what Ji Feng had achieved in front of him did not look like such a thing, which made Wang Tong really surprised and unable to imagine.

He had not seen Ji Feng for only a few years, and Ji Feng's family was not very good at that time.

What's more important is that Ji Feng is still a student up to now, he's still in school!

To be able to create a large family business in just a few years is already remarkable, and if it is said that during these few years, Ji Feng is just a student, entrepreneurship is still just his hobby, or a side business

Wang Tong is really hard to believe.

Not to mention the others, just this villa alone, now even 20 million I'm afraid can not take down, right?

I also don't know what kind of lot this belongs to in Jiangzhou, if it was a slightly better lot, then I'm afraid the price would be even higher.

This is not even counting the BMW X6 that Ji Feng drives

It is conceivable that now Ji Feng has at least tens of millions of dollars, or hundreds of millions is not impossible.

Tens of millions to hundreds of millions!

For the majority of people, I'm afraid they wouldn't be able to earn this much money in a few lifetimes, not to mention a lifetime, but Ji Feng has earned this much money in just a few years, which is too shocking.

But more than that, Wang Tong still couldn't believe it.

“Ji Feng, could it be that you won the jackpot by buying a lottery ticket?” Wang Tong asked hesitantly, but no sooner had he asked this than he himself shook his head in joy, “Look at my brain, this is obviously impossible!”

Even if all these family businesses created by Ji Feng were windfalls, then how could he afford to draw the special offer?

Or to be more accurate, how could Ji Feng afford to get his hands on the special supply of cigarettes?

Although Wang Tong was from a small place like Mang Shi County, he was not ignorant of anything, and nowadays, with such advanced consultation, it was really easy to know anything.

This is why Wang Tong was even more astonished, what had happened to Ji Feng?

Also stunned was Wang Tong’s girlfriend, Kan Miao.

In fact, Kan Miao was even more shocked than Wang Tong, and it could even be said that at the moment Kan Miao was in a horrified mood; she was shocked, nervous and scared, to name but a few.

Kan Miao understood better than Wang Tong could see that this man called Ji Feng was, I’m afraid, formidable and frightening.

Because Kan Miao did not know Ji Feng’s past like Wang Tong did, nor did she know the details of Ji Feng’s past, Kan Miao could instead calmly analyse what she was seeing.

This person called Ji Feng was definitely a very big and scary person!

This was something that Kan Miao was especially sure of, and this was the reason why she was most nervous along the way.

Even though Kan Miao didn’t know Ji Feng at all before, and Zhang Lei and the others had never said Ji Feng’s identity, Kan Miao guessed hard from what she saw that Ji Feng was definitely not a mudblood or a poor student with nothing to lose, as she had previously speculated.

This was someone with a lot of pedigree! Kan Miao said to himself with certainty in his heart.

Kan Miao was very clear about Huang Hao’s origins, and the people he had befriended in Jiangzhou, then naturally, were not ordinary people, which was evident from the fact that Huang Hao had directly transferred a commercial vehicle to pick them up with a single phone call.

This is evident from the fact that Huang Hao called for a commercial vehicle to pick them up with one phone call.

And what kind of person that Li Zihao was, Kan Miao was equally clear that even though Li Zihao was not as high as Huang Hao, he was not an ordinary person either.

However, in front of Ji Feng, that Li Zihao was nothing.

Kan Miao clearly remembered that when the people Huang Hao had called had surrounded them all and were ready to clean them up, Ji Feng and Zhang Lei had made the other side meekly go and call the leader in with just two or three words.

At that moment, the kind of aura that Ji Feng and Zhang Lei had on them was intimidating.

It was at that moment that Kan Miao began to realize that Ji Feng and Zhang Lei were perhaps not just poor students with nothing as she had previously thought.

And the next thing that the leading man did after he came out, made Kan Miao immediately feel a kind of shock, one could even say horror.

That leading man, surprisingly, knew Ji Feng, and, from this man's face, it was even obvious that he could see a sense of scorn, it was obvious that the leading man was somewhat afraid of Ji Feng.

When she first saw this man's expression, Kan Miao did not quite believe it, she thought that this man usually had this kind of expression, that this was just his habit, or that she had simply been mistaken in her own eyes.

But the next time that man had a conversation with Ji Feng, Kan Miao couldn't help but stutter in her heart.

That man was actually speaking to Ji Feng in a slightly polite tone. Nonetheless, even in the face of Ji Feng's ridicule, that man only turned red in protest, but did not dare to have any look of annoyance.

From this, it could be seen that that man was somewhat afraid of Ji Feng!

The helper that Huang Hao had called in was actually afraid of Ji Feng, didn't this mean that even if Ji Feng's coming was not as good as Huang Hao's, it was not far off, at least, he could make Huang Hao's helper fearful!

The next scene even shook Kan Miao to the core – because the helper that Huang Hao had called didn't do anything to Ji Feng, instead he even watched them leave, and as a result this caused Li Zihao's displeasure, so the latter said a few words.

However, as soon as he spoke, he was slapped twice by the guy who was leading him up, almost like he was beating his grandson!

By this time, even a fool would know that this man did not put Li Zihao in his eyes at all, and it was obvious that his status was quite a bit higher than Li Zihao's!

Therefore, the two slaps that hit Li Zihao's face were as if they were on Kan Miao's face, making her eyes glaze over and her head dizzy.

The man smacked Li Zihao as if he was beating his grandson, but he was scornful of Ji Feng!

Even a fool would know that that Li Zihao was even less of a thing in front of Ji Feng!

..... There was no doubt that she had looked away, and just because of her blindness, she had offended someone who came from a very big place!

And from the tone of voice of the man leading the group, Kan Miao vaguely heard that he didn't seem to have much respect for Huang Hao either, and could even be described as somewhat casual in his speech.

Kan Miao was then even more shocked to discover a fact – this guy in the lead was, I'm afraid, even more dignified than Huang Hao.

Yet he was very scornful of Ji Feng

When Kan Miao thought of this, she felt her body stiffen a bit, her heart was pounding furiously, and her whole being was uncontrollably nervous.

On the next journey, Kan Miao was unable to control the nervousness that spurted out of her heart, her entire body was shaking slightly, even if she was clutching Wang Tong's arm tightly, it was useless because she had realized that she had probably done something extremely stupid!

By the time she arrived here and saw Ji Feng's home, Kan Miao was completely sure of her suspicions.

Herself

Indeed, she had done something incredibly stupid!

Kan Miao couldn't even help but secretly shake his head and laugh bitterly, what on earth was he thinking, to treat a person of such great standing as a poor student with nothing, a mud-leg?

Really would be brain dead

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who have been in the business for a long time.

The fact is that you have offended them both at once!

Kan Miao's heart really does not know what it is like, there is shock, regret, and a kind of unreal feeling like a dream all kinds of complex feelings are mixed together, making her mouth incomparably bitter, heart is even more complex hard to understand!

"Wang Tong, let's put my matter aside for a moment, let's talk about your matter first!" Ji Feng's voice, interrupted several people's thoughts, Wang Tong and Kan Miao looked up at the same time, they saw Ji Feng said, "I know you should be in trouble things, let's solve the trouble first, the rest of the things are all good!"

When Zhang Lei heard that, he also nodded his head: "Crazy person is right, let's talk about the other things later, Wang Tong, just tell us the trouble you encountered first, let's discuss and solve it together!"

As soon as he mentioned the trouble he had encountered, Wang Tong couldn't help but look gloomy and let out a long sigh, "Alas-"

Ji Feng and Zhang Lei's eyebrows immediately furrowed, just from this sigh, they could hear the strong sadness and resignation contained in it.

One could imagine what kind of sorrow and bitterness Wang Tong had in his heart!

"Is it inconvenient to say?" Ji Feng frowned and asked, "If it's really inconvenient"

"Between us brothers, there's nothing inconvenient about it!" Wang Tong shook his head and said, "It's just that alas, there's actually nothing to say, it's that when I was in my sophomore year, my mother fell ill, very seriously,, and at this time, my relationship with Kan Miao also ran into trouble, her family was dead set against it... ..”
