

Campus Master 2025

Zhang Lei said, "It should be possible, the so-called existence is reasonable, since there is this business and it has always existed, then it means that things are true, otherwise, those people can cheat one prisoner, but after other prisoners see it, they will still agree to do so themselves? Besides, the more they are in this kind of business, the more they are more conscientious than any businessman, and they are afraid of losing their conscience!"

As the saying goes, "There is a god in raising your head three feet," this is not just a saying that circulates among the people, but in fact, for many other businessmen in their professions, they believe in it even more.

Some butchers, for example, often have incense burners in their homes and burn a few pillars of incense every New Year's Day, because they have too much blood on their hands. ...

Although it remains to be seen whether this is true or not, at least the rumours indicate that the butchers were disturbed in some way, and naturally they burned incense to pray for peace, or in their hearts to redeem the souls they had slaughtered with their own hands.

So these people believe that there are gods in this world.

In fact, not only the butchers, but also many people in the underworld, also believe in this.

For example, the famous 'Thief of the Century', Zhang Ziqiang, was very famous, but it was said that when he committed a crime, he would never kill all the people, for example, during a robbery, they would not take all the loot but leave some behind, or during a kidnapping, they would just take the money and usually would not tear the ticket.

The most famous case was the kidnapping of Superman Lee's son, who was extorted for ten suns, that is, one billion dollars. At that time, before receiving the money, the bandits did not mistreat Superman Lee's son in any way, but instead served him well and let him go immediately after receiving the money.

Although this does not rule out the bandits' fear that if they went too far, they would invite reprisals from Superman Li regardless of everything, at least this shows that the more one fishes for the deviant, the more one is actually concerned about some principles, or is more concerned about credibility and morality.

"..... According to the expert's analysis, the reason why these yakuza fishermen have all these seemingly more preachy principles of behavior is actually because all they do are bad things, so there will always be some shadows in their hearts."

Zhang Lei gave so many examples and finally explained, "Therefore, they hope to use that variety of ways to give themselves a little comfort, or this is a kind of comfort for them in their hearts, because they are afraid that they will have retribution, and doing so is also considered to give themselves peace of mind!"

"It does make sense to say that, but ....." Ji Feng frowned slightly and asked, "But this kind of thing depends entirely on the self-awareness of those middle merchants, if there really is any merchant who just isn't afraid of retribution and takes this money The first thing you need to do is to take the money away. .... Why do I still think it's not very reliable?"

Zhang Lei said, "Not to mention you, in fact, at the beginning when I heard this, I also think this thing is very unreliable, but the fact that the vast majority of the families of death row inmates, have gotten the money, this shows that it is reliable."

"Besides, the so-called existence is reasonable, since this business exists, it means there is a market, there are people who need it, and at the same time there are sellers!" Zhang Lei said, "In fact, then again, if there is no such business, those death row inmates will be shot after expiration, then what else can his family get besides grief?"

"But on the other hand, now that this business exists, even if those middlemen are so black-hearted that they swallow 90% of the money, even if 99% of it is swallowed by them, doesn't a little bit of it still end up in the hands of the condemned prisoners' families? This might be a great help to those families."

Zhang Lei said, "Don't forget, there are actually many prisoners who didn't want to commit crimes in the first place, but life has forced them to this point, and now that this business exists, it is still a hope for them?"

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said, "Undeniably, you do have a point, and I'm not saying that there's anything wrong with it, existence is reasonable."

Zhang Lei stretched his hands, "I don't know about that, in fact, about the existence of this business, I only heard about it."

"In that case, even if we really want to buy it, we don't even know who we have to go to yet, huh?" Ji Feng couldn't help but be stunned, "Then what's the point of you talking about it for so half a day?"

"Nonsense! I'm not in this business, how can I know that well?" Zhang Lei was instantly happy, "Just this information, I still eavesdropped on it while my old uncle was chatting with my father and the others, otherwise I wouldn't even know about this."

"Then when you were eavesdropping on the side, you didn't hear them talk about some key people, like who they were going to find and such ....." Ji Feng asked.

"Didn't I just say that the case they talked about was one that had already been solved, the key people had all been arrested, and now even if they wanted to find them they couldn't be found, unless they went to prison, because those businessmen should have become prisoners too." Zhang Lei said.

"Then, what should we do then?" Wang Tong asked eagerly at once.

He had just heard that there was a ray of hope for his mother's illness, but in the blink of an eye this ray of hope was so dashed, and now he knew that such a business existed, but he didn't know who to go to, what should he do?

Ji Feng also scratched his head, this matter is a bit difficult to do.

The actual fact is that you can't get a lot of money from the company, but you don't know who you're going to find to do this.

..... That's ridiculous!

“What can we do .....” Wang Tong scratched his head in anguish and said in a muffled voice: “Originally, if we replaced it in the hospital, relying on other people’s donations, the operation fee alone plus the nutrition fee and so on all add up to more than 200,000. But now if you have to pay for it .....” ugh!”

The cost alone is an astronomical amount!

Not to mention that he Wang Tong did not have that much money, even if he did, he did not know who to buy it from, this is really .....

The first thing you need to do is to get the money you need to pay for it, but Wang Tong knows very well that you can’t get it without a million before and after.

Wang Tong was scratching his hair so hard that he wanted to die!

“Okay, stop scratching!” Zhang Lei knocked Wang Tong’s hand down as he grabbed his hair and said, “A big man, why are you acting like a woman? As I’ve just said, you don’t have to worry about the money, Ji Feng can afford to pay for this.”

Wang Tong was instantly happy, but then his expression was dark again, “Then who will we find to buy it?”

“This .....” Zhang Lei scratched his head and said, “This I really don’t know, I think ah, this matter also depends on the madman.”

“Look at mine?” Ji Feng was stunned, “Look at me what?”

If it wasn’t for Zhang Lei talking about it, Ji Feng wouldn’t even know that this kind of business still existed in this world, how could he possibly have access to it now that he had to rely on him to buy it?

Ji Feng shook his head, he didn’t know where to start ah.

Zhang Lei said, “We can’t rely on us alone, we don’t have the contacts, crazy, I think you have to look for your second brother, he has been in Jiangzhou for a long time, he is considered the local snake here, his contacts are definitely more extensive than ours, maybe he will have a way.”

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said, “It looks like that’s all we can do.”

Even if Ji Feng wanted to help, he would not be able to do so. Therefore, after thinking about it, he thought the same as Zhang Lei, and could only look for his second brother, Ji Shaolei, first.

The second brother has a wide range of contacts in Jiangzhou and has a lot of knowledge, and his status is there, so if he wants to do something, he only needs to say something and someone will send it to his door, but that is mostly about official matters.

The first thing you need to do is to get a job in the private sector, and I’m afraid that’s not what the second brother is good at.

The reason is that in the past few years, Ji Feng has never heard of his second brother mentioning that he has any connection with this area or knows anyone in this area.

But anyway, one always had to give it a try to find out, so Ji Feng nodded his head and agreed.

He nodded and said: "This matter is settled for now, Wang Tong, things are not urgent, even if you scratch your scalp now, it won't help, anyway, if there is a problem we can figure it out together. .... For now, you just relax and settle down at my place first, after we have lunch. I will immediately take you to get help."

Wang Tong nodded, he also knew that this matter could not be rushed, now with the help of Ji Feng and Zhang Lei to open up, he could already relax a lot.

"Ji Feng, Zhang Lei, thanks a lot ....." Wang Tong nodded vigorously, "what you two have done for me, I'll keep it in my heart, in the future ....."

"All right all right! The main man mother-in-law like what look, between brothers to help a favor is not a should, you do not so squirm!" Wang Tong's words have not finished, was interrupted by Zhang Lei, "this way, noon Lei Lei and Yu Xuan are not back, we a few big men probably also no one can cook, I drive to go outside to carry a few dishes over."

Campus Master Chapter 2026

"Come on, come on! What does it look like for a grown man to be so motherly? It's only right for brothers to help each other out, so don't be so squirmy!" Before Wang Tong could finish his words, he was interrupted by Zhang Lei, "Let's do it this way, Lei Lei and Yu Xuan are not coming back at noon, so I guess no one can cook for us, I'll drive out to pick up some dishes."

With Zhang Lei's straightforward temperament, he really couldn't stand Wang Tong's womanly behavior, always sighing and squirming at every turn, and now even saying a word of thanks was so insipid, it was really unbearable.

If he were Zhang Lei, he would have made his attitude very clear – I'll take this to heart, no more nonsense, from now on this life is yours, just look at the actual action!

How crisp and clear!

Zhang Lei shook his head and thought to himself, "I haven't seen Wang Tong for a few years, but he has changed a lot.

In fact, Zhang Lei also knows in his heart, Wang Tong is not like him and Ji Feng, his family suddenly encountered such a big thing, which is indeed too much pressure for a young man of about 20 years old like him.

Moreover, the girlfriend's side of the parents are still so resolutely opposed, but for the sake of the old mother at home, had to stiffen his head to do door-to-door son-in-law .....

This kind of pressure, although Zhang Lei has not experienced but also can understand.

So he did not say much, just a very tolerant smile, and then patted Wang Tong's shoulder, said: "Then you guys can wait here at ease, after so long shopping, I guess you are also tired, just here first to rest a ..... crazy, give me the car keys, I go to get some dishes Come over."

The first thing you need to do is to get some food.

Zhang Lei immediately said, "Can it be the same? I haven't seen Wang Tong for so long, of course it's more atmospheric to eat at home, it always feels cold outside, lacking a bit of emotional taste ..... I say crazy, you should hire a nanny at this house, you can't always count on having them cook, right?"

It's not that easy to find a nanny, especially for a family like theirs. First of all, they had to find one that they could trust, after all, Ji Feng's place was a bit special compared to other families, at least in other families, no one had two girlfriends living together at the same time like he did.

Even if there were, it was not of the same nature as their family.

If the situation in his family was known to outsiders, there was no telling what kind of talk it would cause, so if he wasn't someone he trusted completely, Ji Feng really couldn't hire him into his family.

At least this nanny must know how to keep secrets, if there is no gatekeeper on the mouth, what is going on in the house is out to the public, then Ji Feng will really have no privacy and secrets at all, not to mention private life, maybe once his family's situation gets out, it will cause a big stir in the community and will become a big news!

But it's not enough to keep your mouth shut.

As a nanny, she is a member of the family, so if there are no accidents, she will often be with the family, and even if she has to keep a distance, she will not go outside the courtyard.

Imagine, if this nanny had bad intentions, it would be very easy to get.

Even if Xiao Ying and Han Zhen are all experts at home, they can't be on high alert all the time in their own homes, otherwise they would be too tired.

It is said that tigers still have nap time, as long as Xiao Ying and the girls a little inattentive time, may be a big problem.

Ji Feng would not stand by and watch this happen.

The key problem is that the possibility of this happening is not small, because Ji Feng's enemies are simply too many.

Other than that, just the king of the dynasty and the father-son duo of the young duke alone would definitely try to take his life, not to mention, there was also the Wu family and those other people who had fallen into Ji Feng's hands.

Of course, Ji Feng would not forget about the Qiao family.

Even though the Qiao family no longer had many people in Yanjing, and the remaining ones didn't carry much weight, it was undeniable that if they really started to go crazy, it would be a real headache.

What's more, there are definitely other enemies hiding in the shadows.

If one of them wanted to take this opportunity to send a killer over to pose as a nanny, it would definitely make Ji Feng defenceless.

Therefore, these two points alone already made it difficult for him to find a suitable nanny, and he did not feel comfortable looking for one.

After talking about the business, several people all sat down for a casual chat.

Shen Jingyi usually didn't talk much, and she naturally wouldn't have much to say at this time, so most of the time she was the one sitting next to her, listening to Ji Feng catch up with the three of them.

As for Bai Zhu, she didn't have much to say, she only poured tea and water for a few people from time to time, and then sat quietly on the side.

The girl friend of Wang Tong, Kan Miao, had her eyes skittering all the time, her gaze skimming over Ji Feng and Zhang Lei from time to time, as if she was thinking of something, but she could never find a chance to speak up.

This small action of Kan Miao naturally could not escape Ji Feng's eyes, but he did not say anything.

For Kan Miao, Ji Feng had no good feeling at all, in his opinion, this woman was really a bit too snobbish, and there was always a kind of condescension from her bones when she treated Wang Tong.

More importantly, Ji Feng found that Kan Miao was a bit selfish.

For example, after a conflict with Huang Hao, Kan Miao bluntly accused Wang Tong of being selfish and self-serving, without any regard for her family's situation and inviting disaster to her family.

In fact, Kan Miao had not thought about Wang Tong at all.

Although most of what Kan Miao said at that time was true, it was not Wang Tong's fault alone, Kan Miao was also responsible, but she just ignored her own responsibility, or even if she knew she was responsible, she would not admit it, but reprimanded Wang Tong without mercy.

The fact is that the company's business is not a good one.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

The fact that Kan Miao was able to stick to her guns when her family was unanimously against her dating Wang Tong shows that she should be sincere about Wang Tong.

Based on this, Ji Feng couldn't hate her either.

After all, there can't be all merits in a person, the so-called no one is perfect, as long as Wang Tong likes it, Ji Feng naturally won't have any opinion, even if the relationship is good, he can't make the decision for Wang Tong in this aspect of the relationship, even to give advice Ji Feng will be very cautious, because the future life is still Wang Tong and Kan Miao together, and no one else has anything to do with it.

"Ji Feng, you are now ....."

After a few people talked for a while, Wang Tong finally couldn't hold it in anymore, he hesitantly asked, "What exactly is your identity? How come you suddenly have so much money and, moreover, it seems like you're in a position of power?"

This question had been bottled up in Wang Tong's mind since Li Weidong had seen Ji Feng and covered as if he had seen a ghost.

Ji Feng wasn't like this before, it had only been a few years since he had seen him, and surprisingly, Ji Feng had become something that he barely recognized. Live not to mention, drive a luxury car, and even the people Huang Hao invited to see Ji Feng, are very scornful .....

Wang Tong couldn't figure out what was going on even if he thought about it!

"Heh~"

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, saying, "It's not that exaggerated, as you know, many people in the school used to know that I was an illegitimate son ....."

Before he could finish his words he was interrupted by Zhang Lei, only to see the latter glaring, "Bullshit, what bastard son, it's all because of that shameless woman Hu Xuehui's nonsense outside!"

Ji Feng waved his hand and said very blandly, "It's nothing to be ashamed of, and she wasn't wrong at the time."

"Alright, you should stop speaking for that woman!" Zhang Lei waved his hand and said, "It's better for me to say it, at that time, the madman's family was a bit problematic, it was his mother who gambled with his old man, so she brought Ji Feng to live alone, later his old man came looking for him, and the previous matters were all misunderstandings, so Ji Feng returned to his family."

Wang Tong was stunned, "Family?"

Usually when the word family was used, it meant that it was at least a very powerful and large family, or at least a family of great wealth and a large population, in order to be called a family.

Could it be that Ji Feng was the child of such a family?

Sure enough, Zhang Lei then said, "I won't say who the madman's father is as a junior, but his second uncle, is the head of Jiangzhou."

"Ah?!"

Two shrieks rang out at the same time, but they were from Wang Tong and Kan Miao.

As soon as these two heard this news, they couldn't help but stare at Ji Feng with wide eyes, both shocked and stunned, both with extremely complicated expressions in their eyes.

Kan Miao, in particular, was shocked and at a loss for words. She came from a businessman's family and was naturally very clear about official matters, and she was certainly clear about what the position of secretary of the Jiangzhou Municipal Committee actually represented.

At this level, it could already be called a leader!

Ji Feng was the nephew of the Jiangzhou Municipal Party Secretary!

Kan Miao only felt her heart suddenly jumping wildly, her hands clenched deadly, the tendons on the back of her hands bursting high.

She couldn't believe it!
