

Campus Master 2033

Old Gai smiled without the slightest surprise, obviously he had encountered this kind of problem not once or twice, "Of course, it's all business anyway, everything is at the patient's will. However, if you only buy the goods, this price is not much lower."

Silly Biao frowned and asked, "We just want the goods, we don't do the surgery at your place, is there no use in changing this price?"

Since he had been entrusted by Ji Feng, then Silly Biao would naturally do his best to get things done for Ji Feng, and in his opinion, it was his job to try to cut the price down.

Even though Ji Feng had not made any arrangements, in Silly Biao's opinion, if he could cut the price down, then it was better than spending more money, right?

Even if Ji Feng was rich, he wouldn't say that he didn't think he had more money to spend, so he wasted it on fun, right?

However, Old Gai shook his head and said, "Brother Biao, I'll be honest with you, when I told you the price of two million just now, I actually said it was too low."

Silly Biao frowned: "What do you mean?"

Old Gai said, "Let me put it to you this way, in our profession, there are people who are incredibly greedy in every aspect, so a mere two million for a surgery, or such a surgery, that's not too high a price, is it?"

Silly Biao didn't say anything, in fact he wasn't too sure if the price was high, because all Silly Biao used to care about was the affairs of the road, or buying some luxury goods for the women around him, buying luxury cars for himself and so on, where would he care about the surgery?

But in order not to let Old Gai see that he didn't understand this, Silly Biao said in a calm manner, "You go on."

Old Gai then nodded and said, "With so many links, a mere two million is definitely not enough to share, so what should we do? Of course, we have to find a way to get the patient to take money out again, for example, when looking for a source of goods, it would have been possible to find it in Jiangzhou, but instead, the patient was given the message that it was not found locally in Jiangzhou and had to go overseas to find it, which naturally increased the cost"

Silly Biao was immediately a little annoyed: "According to you, then according to the price of two million you quoted, if we end up sitting down for this operation all together, wouldn't it cost three or four million?"

Old Gai said, "Five or six million is also possible!"

Silly Biao was instantly furious, "Fuck! You guys are too fucking shady, aren't you? If you want so much, aren't you afraid you'll die?"

Old Gai stretched his hands and laughed, "Brother Biao, it's not me who is greedy, but those leaders and bosses who are reaching for money. The two million you gave is quite a lot, but think about it, the owner of the goods must also give a sum of money, and the police in the prison must also share some of it? Do the leaders also have to share some? And the leaders in charge, and the bosses who did this business

He laughed, "In addition, there are also the nutritional expenses for the patients, and the fees for the main surgeon, etc., just think about it, is this really a lot of money?"

Silly Biao said with a sullen face, "Then wouldn't we be able to save this money by not doing the surgery?"

"Brother Biao, you are only knowing one thing but not the other." Old Gai shook his head, "In fact, within such a sum of money, the owner of the goods, the doctor and the police, in fact, the money they take is all a small part, the real bulk of it is taken away by the leaders and the bosses who do this business."

"So even if you don't do the operation, it's actually only a bargain of one to two hundred thousand at most, even if you then waive my benefit fee, that's at most a bargain of three hundred thousand, and that's the top of the list!" Old Gai said, "But think about it, when they operate casually internally, let you pay five million you have to take ah, we always need to treat this disease, right?"

"Fuck"

I thought I was already shady enough collecting protection money and using my men to do business, but I didn't think you guys were much shadier than me!"

Old Gai said, "Brother Biao, there's nothing I can do about it, after all, I'm not in charge of this business, I'm just an errand boy, I'm only paid for my hard work, besides, there's no room for bargaining when it comes to curing diseases.

Silly Biao immediately scratched his head and didn't say anything.

In the monitoring room, Ji Feng and Zhang Lei looked at each other and couldn't help but smile at the same time.

"You really don't say, what this old guy said really has some truth to it." Zhang Lei shook his head and cursed with a laugh, "This is fucking odd, the hearts of these guys are too dark!"

"It's normal, that's how they make money!" Ji Feng smiled noncommittally.

In fact, he also felt that this old man Gai was right, this is a matter that involves people's health, and once it is related to health, then even a small matter is a big problem, especially for the rich people.

Generally speaking, those who come to these brokers to buy privately must have some money in their hands, and for them, life is more important than money.

If the price is very low, these people will not feel at ease!

It's like giving the doctor a red packet when you're having an operation in a regular hospital.

For example, if we are preparing for an operation in a certain hospital, in fact, in our hearts, we are disgusted to the extreme by the act of doctors receiving red packets, and in our hearts, we scold doctors for having no medical ethics, having our conscience eaten by dogs, not worthy of being doctors, etc.

However, if we are really preparing for an operation and the doctor in charge does not accept our red packets, do we dare to let him operate on us with confidence?

I am afraid that eight out of ten of us would not be entirely at ease, right?

That's what Lao Gai said.

I have to say that these people in this kind of business are really treacherous and cunning. Not only are they black-hearted, but they have also captured this mentality of the patients very accurately.

What's more, the leaders who are involved in this business are the ones who take the lion's share.

In other words, a large part of the money that the patients took out went into the pockets of those leaders, while in reality, those people did not do anything at all, they did not even make any effort in the whole process, they just sat there and collected the money.

However, while Ji Feng and Zhang Lei were talking, they didn't notice that Wang Tong, who was sitting at the side, had a very ugly face at the moment, with a look of anger in his eyes, but more of a look of helplessness and pain.

Wang Tong naturally heard what the fixer called Old Gai said, didn't he hear that the price of two million was just a false one, and that the last operation would not even be worth four or five million.

And that's without any guarantee that the operation will be successful.

Four or five million!

Many people might not be able to earn that much money in their lifetime!

When Wang Tong thought about it, with his own salary, which was still relatively high in Southern Guangdong, he would not be able to earn this much money even if he did not eat or drink until he died.

Now, however, this money has to be paid by Ji Feng

If it were possible, even if there was that much of a way, Wang Tong would never agree to do this.

But the problem was, he couldn't help it.

His mother was still waiting for this money to save her life, that was the old mother who had raised him for more than twenty years, how could he not save her just because it cost more money? That was obviously not possible.

"Ji Feng"

Wang Tong spoke with difficulty, he looked at Ji Feng, "This money"

Only then did Ji Feng realize that Wang Tong might have been stimulated, he immediately turned around and laughed, "Wang Tong, don't think too much, money spent can be earned again, it's nothing, compared to auntie's health, money is a son of a bitch!"

Wang Tong instantly clenched his teeth and held his breath.

He was afraid that if he took a little big breath, tears would fall from his eyes.

Wang Tong gritted his teeth, nodded heavily and said, "Ji Feng, brother thanks!"

Ji Feng smiled and patted his shoulder, saying, "Since you also said you were a brother, there's no need to be overly polite."

"Yes, Wang Tong, don't squirm here like a woman, don't drop the golden beans, " Zhang Lei teased.

Wang Tong smiled, but in his heart he was grateful to Ji Feng to the extreme.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Wang Tong really didn't know what to say, and he felt that his words of thanks were too pale.

In the end, Wang Tong didn't say anything, he just kept this kind of affection in his heart.

As the saying goes, a great kindness does not come with thanks, and Wang Tong informed himself what he should do.

"All right" Ji Feng is not dwelling too much on this issue, he picked up the phone and said: "Silly Biao, you promise him, this business we do, there is no other requirements, only one thing, the speed must be fast We need to find a source of goods that matches the model as soon as possible, the rest can be discussed later."

"Yes!"

Silly Biao nodded and said, "Old Gai, I see that you are quite honest, so let's do it this way, I'll do the deal for my friend, we have a deal! But first, I have a request, you must be fast in finding sources of goods!"

Old Gai was immediately overjoyed as he nodded his head, "Don't worry about that, we're all professionals, since we've been paid, then we'll naturally work with care, but"

Silly Biao asked, "There's something else?"

Old Gai laughed: "This deposit, Biao brother is not how much to give, or let me go back to have an account, so as to mobilize manpower to start into the transaction process, and also to hurry to the patient examination, and then according to the model to find sources of goods"

"All right, all right, how much do you want?" Silly Biao interrupted impatiently.

"Let's give half first, one million!" Old Gai said.

"Silly Biao, promise him that money is not a problem, to get into the transaction process as soon as possible!" Before Silly Biao could say anything, Ji Feng's voice came over.

Campus Master Chapter 2034

"Let's give half up front, one million!" Old Gai said.

“Silly Biao, promise him that money is not a problem, to get into the transaction process as soon as possible!” Before Silly Biao could speak, Ji Feng’s voice came through.

Silly Biao immediately nodded his head.

Old Gai, however, was stunned, “Brother Biao, what did you just say?”

Silly Biao waved his hand and said, “Nothing, one million is it? No problem, but I want to get into the transaction process as soon as possible!”

Old Gai was delighted at his words, and a delighted smile appeared on his face, “Of course it’s no problem, Brother Biao, as long as your money is in place, I can contact the boss for you at any time, then you just need to bring the patient and go through the examination according to our requirements, and then you can enter the transaction process.”

“Mm!”

Silly Biao nodded and said, “Then you can watch the arrangements, you guys are more familiar with these matters than me, so I won’t say much more. But, let me say something ugly first, there is one thing I need to remind you of.”

Old Gai immediately nodded and said, “If there is any problem, Brother Biao, please speak directly.”

Biao stared at Lao Gai for a few moments, and kept looking at him until he was a bit uncomfortable, even looking down to see if there was something wrong with him, before Biao started to speak: “Lao Gai, it’s normal for you to make money in business, and no one can say anything. But there is one thing, the quality of this source of goods, and everything else in this whole process, you have to make sure it is the best!”

After a pause, Silly Biao continued in a deep voice: “Old Gai, I know that since you can do this kind of business, then it goes without saying that you must have all the links in place, and there must be leaders above to cover you, but you must not think that everything will be fine just like that.”

The old Gai suddenly smiled: “Biao brother you say this is a bit Oh, we do business, of course, is the integrity of this, and moreover, Biao brother you also know, we are on the road is not that people’s money to help people eliminate disasters, we certainly can not fool the customer, you can rest assured.”

“It better be!”

Silly Biao grunted and said in a deep voice, “If you dare to play tricks, then you are inviting disaster for yourselves!”

Old Gai nodded with a smile and said, “That’s, that’s”

Only, Lao Gai’s heart was not impressed, although Lao Gai was not particularly clear about how powerful the boss and those leaders were, he did know something, not to mention Silly Biao, even the biggest mob bosses in Jiangzhou had to be polite when they met the boss and those leaders.

Now, Silly Biao actually said that they would invite disaster for themselves, and Old Gai felt very funny when he heard that.

However, Silly Biao was a customer and Old Gai was only a fixer, so naturally he would not laugh at Silly Biao, at most he would just slander him in his heart, and on the surface Old Gai would definitely still pretend to be laughing and look educated.

But Silly Biao was not really silly. Having been in the jianghu for so long, he still had a way of reading people. As soon as he saw the look on Old Gai's face, he knew that this guy had not taken his words seriously and was obviously not impressed.

Silly Biao couldn't help but sneer and said, "Old Gai, if you don't take my words seriously, I think that you will definitely regret it. I am not afraid to tell you that the person who entrusted me to find you this time is not as big as you can imagine, you see I, Silly Biao, still have some face, right? But if that person wants to get rid of me, it would be easier than crushing an ant!"

Seeing that Old Gai's face finally showed a hint of seriousness, Silly Biao sneered, "Think about it, for the sake of making a little more black-hearted money, you'll end up angering such a big shot, is it worth it or not! Think about it yourself, that's all I have to say!"

Old Gai frowned and said, "Brother Biao, I have already said that since we have taken the money, we will naturally do our best, no matter the buyer is a club, we treat them all equally."

Silly Biao laughed, "If that's the case, then naturally it's all the better. However, if you are too black-hearted, what you will invite at that time will be a disaster, Old Gai, don't say I haven't warned you!"

Thinking of Ji Feng who was still in the surveillance room, Silly Biao couldn't help but sneer in his heart, his words had come to this point, if Old Gai and his gang still dared to be black-hearted, they would definitely regret to death when the time came.

These people think that they have formed a huge network of connections in Jiangzhou, thinking that they are covered by the leaders above, the police in the prison below, and the fighters outside, and that no one dares to mess with them in Jiangzhou, and that even if the leaders above want to investigate, it will definitely be difficult, and they may even be put down as soon as the investigation starts.

But these people do not know that they are indeed powerful, but that also depends on who they are playing in front of!

In front of Ji Feng, they wouldn't even know how they would die if they didn't play with authority.

Although he was uneducated, he had seen a lot of things. He had also heard that the Fourth Master of the Northeast was so arrogant that he had a large number of gunmen under his hand, and he was a hegemon in the whole Northeast.

But what happened in the end?

He was shot down with a single shot.

In front of absolute power and the violent organs of the state, it is useless to have any kind of mob boss or network of connections, as long as you dare to jump around, you will still be shot down.

It was because of this understanding that Silly Biao knew how to pull strings everywhere and was firmly behind Ji Feng.

The matter was settled in this way. Silly Biao first had someone bring up the drinks and dishes for Lao Gai and invited him to eat and drink first, then casually found an excuse and went out of the box.

On the other hand, Ji Feng and the others were slightly relieved.

"It's all right now!" Zhang Lei clapped his hands, "Since it's already set, then the following is just waiting for the goods, Wang Tong, you should feel relieved now, right? There are so many people in the whole of China, there's always someone who matches the model of your uncle's mother"

"Hmm." Wang Tong nodded, but was still a little hesitant and unsure, this surgery was not over, before everything was settled, he was always still a little unsure in his heart, so the smile on his face was not too natural.

After all, it was Wang Tong's mother who was suffering from a serious illness, so no one would be able to relax if this matter was put on their shoulders.

Seeing that the atmosphere in the room was a bit depressing, Zhang Lei said, "Well, since things have come to a head, there's no need to rush, how about it, everyone is hungry, right, why don't we have Silly Biao serve the food?"

"Knock knock knock~~!"

As he was talking, there was a knock on the door of the room, and Silly Biao pushed the door and walked in, asking slightly respectfully, "Young master, you saw the process just now, right?"

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, "I saw it all, Silly Biao, you did a great job this time, hard work!"

"Yo yo~~"

Silly Biao hurriedly waved his hands and said, "Don't say that, Big Young Master, I just said a few words, and this price hasn't been pressed down yet, I wouldn't dare to take credit for it"

Ji Feng laughed: "All right, still literary whether you have worked with your heart or not, I naturally know in my heart."

The first thing you need to do is to get a good impression of yourself, and the smile on his face grew even bigger: "Young master, what do you think, what are your next orders?"

Ji Feng said, "The next thing still need you to operate, the sick one is my friend's mother Wang Tong, when the time comes you two together, Zhang Lei and I are not convenient to appear, but if you have any problems, you can contact me and Zhang Lei at any time, no problem, right? "

"No problem no problem!" Silly Biao nodded his head repeatedly.

"Ji Feng, Zhang Lei, I really don't know how to thank you guys, so I won't say anything." Wang Tong said.

"Just don't say anything, big men don't need to be so matronly." Ji Feng laughed, "Silly Biao, then serve the food, we're all hungry."

Silly Biao immediately said, "Good, knowing that Young Master is coming, this time I purposely asked the shop to make several special fish, I'll have them bring them up!"

After that, Silly Biao ran out laughingly.

The atmosphere at this meal was much more relaxed, at least Wang Tong's mother's problem was initially solved, or at least there was a hint of a solution, so Wang Tong's mood was better and he was able to talk and laugh at the dinner table.

It was as if Wang Tong's girlfriend, Kan Miao, was just fine, often following them when they were talking, as if she was familiar with everyone, as if she had completely forgotten what had happened before.

However, the more Kan Miao was like this, the more Zhang Lei resented it. With his fiery temper, that was a person who could not tolerate sand in his eyes, especially when he saw that his good friend had actually found such a woman as a friend, and was also a door-to-door son-in-law, Zhang Lei could not help but shake his head a little.

But Wang Tong didn't say anything and Ji Feng didn't mention it, so Zhang Lei could only pretend he couldn't see it, but he wouldn't give Kan Miao a good look.

For example, when Kan Miao interjected when everyone was talking, Zhang Lei immediately stopped talking. This kind of gesture clearly means that Kan Miao is not welcome to interrupt here, so Kan Miao can't help but be a little embarrassed.

But Kan Miao was not the kind of young girl who was not deeply involved in the world, and after a slight embarrassment, she once again ate as if nothing had happened and chatted with everyone.

Even Zhang Lei could not do anything about her cheekiness, so he could only keep his head down and eat, not bothering to talk anymore.

After eating, before leaving from Jiangnan Fishing Village, Ji Feng asked Silly Biao to exchange contact information with Wang Tong, and after that, several people returned to Ji Feng's villa for a temporary break, so that they could also take the opportunity to chat and catch up with each other.

Zhang Lei, on the other hand, took the opportunity to make a trip back to school and brought the Audi over. Seeing this scene, the smile on Kan Miao's face grew even bigger.
