

Campus Master 2071

When Shao Wen saw Ji Feng wearing sunglasses in front of him, and then looked at the bald head who was tied up, and the father and son Han Zhong duo sitting on the side, Shao Wen finally understood what had happened.

His face just couldn't help but change .....

"Fuck! Baldhead Liang, how dare you fucking conspire with outsiders to undermine me?!" Wen Shao glared at him and cursed angrily, "Fuck you, usually I don't treat you too badly, right, but you dare to harm me!"

"I can't be blamed for this." The head of the company said with a sobbing face, "You have seen the situation here, if I did not call you as this big brother said, then I am afraid that I would have been dug into the cellar by now, Wen Shao, please understand ....."

However, before the bald head could finish his words, he was interrupted by Wen Shao's angry scolding voice: "Fuck you! You ganged up with others to backstab me, and now you dare to ask me to understand you, I understand your mother ah understand!"

Wen gritted his teeth and said, "Bald Head Liang, listen to me, I'll remember this today, you'll have time to cry later!"

Bald Head Liang couldn't help but shiver when he heard that, he hurriedly said, "Wen Shao, you ....."

"All right!"

Ji Feng said indifferently, and all of a sudden, Bald Head Liang's voice came to an abrupt halt, and the entire hall was suddenly silent.

Young Man then stared angrily at Ji Feng, then looked at Han Guozhu and Han Zhong, and said in a cold voice: "You guys are fine, count this young master down today, say it, what do you want!"

"Fuck!"

Han Zhong saw this and couldn't help but curse angrily, staring at Wen Shao who was full of care, his inner rage rising: "You are Wen Shao? Do you know who I am?"

But Wen Shao snorted coldly, "Kid, you are the first person who dares to call himself Laozi in front of me, I'll remember you! As for who you are, I will definitely know, only, when the time comes, I'm afraid you won't want me to know your identity ....."

Han Zhong snorted coldly, "Are you that confident?"

Wen Shao shook his head and smiled faintly, "Whether it's confidence or not, you'll know later."

From this Wen Shao's face, one could see the anger and also the pain after being beaten, but more than that, it was his determined eyes, as if he was really confident that he could clean up Han Zhong later.

Han Zhong sniggered, "I'm afraid you won't have a future."

Wen Shao grinned, "That can't be helped, but as long as I don't die, I will definitely fix you up later, you can rest assured, I promise you with my personality!"

Han Zhong said in a cold voice, "So, I have to get you killed?"

Wen Shao shook his head and smiled, "If you think that killing a deputy mayor's son won't cause any bad consequences, then you can go ahead and do it, I'm just afraid that you can't bear that kind of consequences ah!"

Han Zhong's eyes narrowed slightly, a ray of cold light shot out from his eyes, staring at Wen Shao's body.

At this moment, Han Zhong was truly moved to kill.

Even when he had arrived at the ancestral hall, he had been caught in an accident and then found himself in a trap set up by someone else, and at that time he had only changed his face, but Han Zhong did not find that feeling of panic on his face, let alone the fear of being caught after doing something bad.

And now, Wen Shao seemed to have completely calmed down, and even started to turn his head to threaten him.

Looking at the determined look in Wen Shao's eyes, Han Zhong even vaguely had a chill down his spine, how this Wen Shao gave off a dangerous feeling, almost like a poisonous snake!

People like this were all very dangerous, and Han Zhong was now vaguely beginning to believe this guy's words – if he didn't die, he would definitely retaliate.

"I see, you really want to die!" Han Zhong said in a deep voice.

"Heh ....."

Wen Shao grinned, but no longer even bothered with Han Zhong at all, it was obvious that Han Zhong was barely worthy of an equal conversation in his eyes, or rather he didn't even put Han Zhong in his eyes, even though he was now reduced to a prisoner.

"Boom~!"

Han Zhong violently slapped a slap on the table as he glared, "You son of a bitch actually dare to be arrogant, since you want to die so badly, then I'll make you whole ....."

Here everything has Mr. Ji to decide!"

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of the son of the deputy mayor, even if he is the chairman of a group, he would not dare to kill the son of a deputy mayor easily.

In the society for so many years, for the official can have how much energy, Korea pillar is really understand no more, the so-called extermination of the county magistrate, broken family governor, a deputy mayor in the hands of the power, and he can use the energy, that is simply ordinary people simply can not imagine.

So it is not wise to easily make a deadly feud with a deputy mayor.

As a businessman, Han Guozhu naturally would not make such a choice lightly, this was a habit he had developed through years of doing business.

What's more, now that Ji Feng was there before he spoke, where was Han Zhong's turn to be so impulsive?

Han Zhong, however, shook his head and did not say anything, in fact, he knew very well that this person, Wen Shao, looked too dangerous, this kind of person was simply a time bomb, if we did not get him killed, then there would definitely be trouble in the future, and it was even likely that something unthinkable would happen.

"Kid, how you treated me today, I remember you too!" Wen Shao's gaze fell on Ji Feng again, seeing that Han Zhong had stopped talking, Wen Shao assumed that Han Zhong had given in to his toughness, so Wen Shao transferred his hatred to this guy who had beaten him up.

Ji Feng shook his head indifferently, not taking Wen Shao's threat to heart at all.

This guy's downfall had been predetermined long ago, and Ji Feng was simply not willing to see eye to eye with him.

However, this disdain from Ji Feng caused Wen Shao to be extremely deeply irritated, and he gritted his teeth and said, "It seems you're very bullish, huh? Very well, you will definitely regret it later, I promise ....."

"You guarantee my ass!"

Before Wen Shao could finish his words, he heard Han Zhong snicker and shake his head with great disdain.

This Wen Shao was really out of his mind, actually going to threaten Ji Feng!

He thought that because he was the son of the vice mayor, he could run amok, but he didn't even know that this status of his was not even a fart in front of Ji Feng.

"Do you know who he is?" Han Zhong asked with a cold smile.

"The man who beat me up!" Wen Shao stared at Ji Feng and said coldly, "Moreover, he is also the person I will take revenge on in the future!"

"I'm just afraid that after you know his identity, you won't have that guts to mention revenge!" Han Zhong sneered, "Let me tell you, he is the nephew of the secretary of the Jiangzhou Municipal Committee, the direct descendant of the Ji family in Yanjing, and you want to take revenge on him? Don't you think that's too funny?"

Wen Shao's face instantly changed dramatically and he lost his voice, "How is that possible?!"

Bald Head Liang also instantly trembled and looked at Ji Feng with a shocked look in his eyes, Ji Feng was actually the nephew of the Jiangzhou Municipal Party Secretary?

What was the Yanjing Ji family all about and how big it was, Bald Head didn't know, but the nephew of the Jiangzhou Municipal Party Secretary, he knew how much weight this status carried.

At least, as the son of the deputy mayor, Wen Shao was really nothing in front of Ji Feng!

“What’s impossible about that?” Han Zhong sneered, “You think you are great, but you don’t know that people who are more bullish than you are everywhere, you don’t count for shit at all.”

“.....”

Shao Wen’s face became ugly as he stared at Ji Feng with a look of disbelief in his eyes. How could Ji Feng have come from such a big place? How was this possible!

Other people might not know what Ji Feng’s identity represented, but Wen Shao was clear about it, even if he was as stupid as he was, but as the son of the deputy mayor, he knew some things about the system, and he realized that he was really in big trouble.

It’s impossible to think, just doing the bureau to make money, how can I attract this kind of people?

“You really are .....” Wen Shao was a bit underwhelmed.

“What do you think?” Ji Feng asked with a wry smile.

Wen Shao gritted his teeth and said, “If I use my entire savings, can I exchange it for my peace?”

Ji Feng laughed: “I think the most important thing you should do now is to think about what those people you once cleaned up will do to you when you’re in jail! Of course, if there are no surprises, your father should also be involved in these things you did, so I think you should think about how you should stay in prison in the future for both of you, father and son!”

Wen Shao’s face grimaced, “You want to screw me over?”

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “Fix you? Are you worthy?”

Wen Shao choked for a moment, but soon, his face was filled with a fierce look and his eyes gradually turned red as he gritted his teeth and said, “If I go to jail, then you won’t get a single cent of my money! In the end, the net will be broken!”

Ji Feng snickered, “The one who dies will definitely be you, a stinking salted fish, but the net will not break. Your money, I don’t care!”

If Ji Feng wanted Wen Shao’s money, with Wen Shao already in his hands, he could take it whenever he wanted, but this was money Ji Feng would not want.

“You don’t want the money?”

Wen Shao gritted his teeth and said, “Then what do you think if I tell you that I still have evidence of many officials’ crimes in my hands?”

Ji Feng’s eyebrows frowned slightly and said in a deep voice, “Then what do you want?”

Ji Feng had no doubts about Wen Shao’s words.

In fact, Ji Feng had also long guessed that there must be incriminating evidence of other officials in Wen Shao’s hands, otherwise, it would not be too easy for him to come over smoothly all these years, after all, his old man was only a deputy mayor, which was not enough to cover the sky in East Lin City.

So it could be deduced from this that the father and son duo of Wen Shao must have some way of making those officials turn a blind eye or even actively cooperate with them.

Now it seemed that Ji Feng's guess was right!

Campus Master Chapter 2072

"How about I trade those evidences in my hands for my peace and that of my father?" Wen Shao asked, staring at Ji Feng with a deadly stare.

"What do you think?" Ji Feng asked rhetorically.

"I don't think it's a problem!" Wen Shao said, "If my guess is correct, you must really want those things, while I just want me and my father to be safe and sound, so we can totally make a deal."

"Heh!"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, saying, "Now that you're in my hands, you can't live if I let you die, so what qualifications do you have to make a deal with me?"

Wen Shao gritted his teeth and said, "But you don't want to get those incriminating evidence."

"I have many ways to make you talk, do you want to give it a try?" Ji Feng asked.

"....."

Wen Shao's face got a little ugly, he knew that what Ji Feng said was true, and he knew even more that if Ji Feng really used any means on him, there was absolutely no way he would be able to hold out!

Shao Wen knew very well that he was no hard-headed person, let alone a hero.

"Then what exactly do you want?" Wen Shao said angrily.

"What do I want?"

Ji Feng smiled faintly, "It's very simple, when my people come, they will directly hand you over to the judiciary, and what they will do to you then is out of my hands."

"You ....." Wen Shao was furious, if he fell into the hands of the judiciary, of course there were ways to preserve himself, the judiciary in this entire East Lin City, the people who had benefited from him, Wen Shao, were really countless, he had countless ways to preserve himself.

But Wen Shao was the one who realized that Ji Feng was afraid that he did not intend to hand him over to the judiciary of East Linn City, but to Ji Feng's people!

If that was the case ..... even with his heels he could think of what would happen!

The man is really excessive, even if you give money, even if you hand over the incriminating evidence, Ji Feng is simply bullying people too much!

When had he ever been in such a situation, when had he ever begged others?

But Ji Feng didn't give any face, which made young Wen very angry.

But there was nothing he could do about it, because Ji Feng was right, he was in Ji Feng's hands, and if Ji Feng told him to die, he would never live.

However, Wen Shao was still a bit reluctant, how could he willingly go to jail?

So Wen Shao still couldn't help but ask tentatively, "If I take out all my money, plus the incriminating evidence I have, that would always be enough, right?"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed derisively, "You're playing a good game, you'll have to hand over all these things sooner or later, so what qualifications do you have to trade them now?"

Wen Shao gritted his teeth and said, "Then let's bet!"

"Hm?"

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows, "You want to bet with me?"

Wen Shao said, "That's right! I'll use all my money, plus all those incriminating evidence, to bet with you, if I lose, I'll hand all this over and also tell everything I know, but if I win ....."

"You really want to bet?" Ji Feng interrupted Wen Shao's words and asked.

"..... Don't you dare?" Wen Shao asked with a cold smile.

Ji Feng chuckled: "You really deserve to run a casino, it's come to this point, you actually still think about gambling ....., Well, anyway, it's raining and beating up kids, it's idle, so I'll play with you. Say, what do you want to bet on?"

Wen Shao smiled and was overjoyed, "You really agreed?"

Ji Feng hummed, "Since you like gambling so much, then I will fulfill you."

"Alright then, let's bet on pokies!" Wen Shao immediately said, "How about we take the same amount of chips and whoever loses out first will be considered the loser?"

"Stud is too slow." Ji Feng shook his head, the main reason why he was willing to play with Wen Shao was because the people sent by his big brother Ji Shaodong had not arrived yet, so he still had some time, but if he really played for a long time, he couldn't bring himself to do so.

"Are you afraid?" Wen Shao asked with a cold smile.

Ji Feng's eyebrows frowned slightly, he stared at Wen Shao for a moment and couldn't help but shake his head, this person was already a bit crazy, looking at that almost paranoid general look on Wen Shao's face, it seemed that he thought he refused to play pokies because he wasn't very good at it, so Wen Shao instantly tried to force himself to play by using a provocative method as if he was grasping for a straw.

Ji Feng gave a secret sneer and nodded, "Fine, let's comply with you then."

Wen Shao was immediately overjoyed and said, "Good then, we'll start immediately, you can have your man be the lotus officer ....."

"No problem!"

Ji Feng nodded and said, "However, I won't play for too long, let's take half an hour as the limit, whoever loses more within that time will be considered a loser."

"No problem!"

Wen Shao nodded heavily, a look of triumph flashed in his eyes, he stood up at once, quickly walked to a gambling table, took out a pair of poker from the drawer and slapped it on the table, "Then start quickly!"

Ji Feng sneered, "Do you really think you can use this trick to save your life? Or are you so confident that you think you can really win against me?"

"Whether I can win you or not, let's see the real thing under our hands!" Wen Shao said confidently, "Unless you don't dare!"

"Heh!"

Ji Feng shook his head with a smile and said, "Han Zhong, you'll be the lottery official."

Han Zhong, however, said with some hesitation, "Ji Feng, do you really want to play with him? You have to think it over."

Although Han Zhong already had immense admiration for Ji Feng's skills, but when it came to gambling, Han Zhong had never seen Ji Feng play before, and now that they were actually gambling here, and the stakes were actually whether they would let Wen Shao go, this made Han Zhong a little worried.

Ji Feng naturally knew what Han Zhong was worried about, he nodded with a smile and said, "Don't worry, I have a measure in my heart."

Seeing that Ji Feng had said this, Han Zhong could only nod his head and agree to take on the role of a lottery officer.

Although Han Zhong had never gambled either, he had seen others gamble with each other, so he knew how pokies were played, and he usually played poker a lot, so he was quite skilled at shuffling the cards.

However, this looked completely different in Wen Shao's eyes, and the way he looked at Han Zhong changed a little.

"Shall we begin?" Han Zhong shuffled his cards and asked.

"Wait a minute!" Wen Shao suddenly called out, "I demand a change of play, let's play dice!"

Ji Feng's eyebrows furrowed at once, "Are you sure?"

Wen Shao nodded heavily, "That's right, I'm sure, there's no need for a third person to interfere in playing dice, it's more fair for us!"

"Fuck!"

Han Zhong instantly glared, Wen Shao was clearly not trusting him when he said that, thinking he would do something when shuffling and dealing the cards.

However, Wen Shao stared at Ji Feng and asked, "Play dice, we'll play match size, do you dare?"

Ji Feng smiled faintly, "Have you really thought it through?"

"That's right, I've thought it through." Wen Shao had indeed thought clearly, and he realised that playing dice was actually more beneficial to him than playing pokies.

If he were to play pokies, it would only be Han Zhong who could be the lotus since Bald Head Liang was already injured, and that would be very unfair to him, and if Han Zhong did something slightly wrong, he would be out of luck.

Moreover, there was a certain element of luck involved in playing pokies, so maybe Ji Feng would get a very big hand and have a chance of winning.

But playing craps is different, if you don't have some technical skills, you can only play blindly, although there is also an element of luck involved, but the probability of shaking out a large number of points is not very big, while you have some skills in craps, so you can say that you have an advantage.

So Wen Shao emphasized again, "Let's play dice!"

"..... Good." Ji Feng smiled faintly.

Once Wen Shao saw that Ji Feng agreed, he immediately took out another dice from the drawer as well as the dice cup and said, "There are three dice here, let's compare to big."

Ji Feng nodded, "Yes, you go first."

Wen Shao took a deep breath, then with a grit of his teeth, he put the dice into the dice cup and started to shake them, looking at his look and posture, he really had a bit of a professional look.

"Pop!"

Wen Shao placed the dice cup heavily on the table, the dice inside immediately stopped rolling, he gritted his teeth and slowly took away the dice cup, immediately, his face revealed a joyful look.

Two fives and a six, a very good number of points.

"Whew~~"

Wen Shao seemed to let out a long breath, with this number of points, he thought that it was already difficult for Ji Feng to win against him by luck alone, so he confidently pushed the dice cup and said, "It's your turn!"

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, casually picked up the dice cup, looking at the three dice on the table, he directly covered the dice cup, while tapping the table: "Pa!"

And then, Ji Feng said, "Alright."

"Ha!"

Wen Shao actually lost his voice and laughed, Ji Feng's action almost made him not laugh, if he was not still aware of his situation, Wen Shao was afraid that he would have burst out laughing, where can anyone play dice like this, is this guy stupid from watching movies, or does he think he is really a super expert?

He really thought that he could just knock on the table and get the number of points he wanted?

“Pretentious!”

Wen Shao cursed in his heart and stepped forward, casually picking up the dice cup: “Hmph! It’s you who wants to do this, don’t forget our previous agreement, if you renege .....”

However, before Wen Shao could finish his words, they came to a screeching halt, and in a flash, his eyes widened as he stared deadily at the three dice on the table ..... surprisingly, they were three sixes.

“Good! Beautiful!”

Han Zhong shouted at once, “Ji Feng, well done! Win!”

“How is this possible?!” Wen Shao’s face changed dramatically, “This, this can’t be .....”

“You lost.” Ji Feng smiled faintly, “It looks like this last straw to save your life, but you didn’t grab oh!”

“..... this can’t be, this can’t be .....” Wen Shao’s face was pale, his mouth muttered unconsciously, and his eyes almost lost their sparkle.

He did not expect that Ji Feng had actually won him with a casual move, which was unimaginable.

Just now, when he saw Ji Feng’s action, he was still ecstatic, thinking that Ji Feng was pretending and that he must have won this time. But in the blink of an eye, he found out that he was the one who
**** .....

Campus Master Chapter 2073

“****!”

Seeing Wen Shao’s disoriented look, Han Zhong couldn’t help but curse, a sneer on his face, “You think you’re great at gambling, huh? You don’t even use your head to think about it, now you are just a dog in the water, we have all the advantages of time and space, we are in complete control of the initiative, yet we are still willing to bet with you, can you really win the bet?”

Han Zhong laughed coldly, this young Wen was really stupid!

In fact, originally, when Han Zhong saw that Ji Feng had actually agreed to bet against Wen Shao, and that the blockade was actually still going to set Wen Shao free, this made Han Zhong worried.

It was true that although it was true that Ji Feng was usually extremely strong both in terms of doing things and in terms of his physical skills, the problem was that Ji Feng had never gambled with anyone before, whereas this Wen Shao was running a casino, so how could Ji Feng be better than Wen Shao when it came to gambling skills?

But Ji Feng had already agreed to it, so Han Zhong couldn’t stop it, because he felt that maybe Ji Feng was trying to achieve something as a strategy.

However, the moment the final result of their bet was revealed, it dawned on Han Zhong.

It turned out that it was because Ji Feng had full confidence in his own skills that he had agreed to bet against Wen Shao!

He thought that Ji Feng must have had his mind made up a long time ago and that was why he wanted to play with Wen Shao. It was even likely that he wanted to ruthlessly crush Wen Shao in the area he thought he was best at, completely knocking away his pride and self-confidence, so that Wen Shao would no longer have any capital to be proud of.

And now it seemed that Ji Feng had indeed managed to do it.

Hearing Han Zhong's taunting words, Wen Shao's face turned blue for a while, and a struggling yet incredulous look appeared in his eyes.

"How is this possible ....." Wen Shao's mouth muttered unconsciously, and then he shouted, "This is impossible, you must have cheated!"

"Put your mother's bullshit!"

Han Zhong cursed angrily, he couldn't hold back any longer, he fiercely took two steps forward and grabbed Wen Shao's collar, throwing his hand and slapping him across the face with a heavy smack.

Han Zhong sneered, "What the fuck are you! Ji Feng still has to cheat with you? You think too highly of yourself, don't you?"

The corner of Wen Shao's mouth was bleeding from the blow, but he gritted his teeth and said, "If he didn't cheat, how could he have shaken out the six leopards so easily? Even many gambling masters can't do it that easily!"

"Boom~~!"

Han Zhong kicked Wen Shao out of the way, he had wanted to kick this son of a bitch a few times for a long time, "Something that doesn't know the sky is high, what kind of thing do you think you are? Are you worthy of having Ji Feng cheat on you? I think you can't afford to lose and want to cheat, right?"

Wen fell to the ground on his back, but his face was full of determination: "No! He must have cheated, he must have ....."

Ji Feng stared at him coldly and said in a deep voice: "Young Wen, I advise you to accept defeat if you are willing to bet."

"I didn't lose!" Shao Wen yelled, "It was you who cheated ....."

"Swish!"

Before Wen Shao could finish his sentence, he saw Ji Feng grab the three dice on the table and throw them towards him, Wen Shao subconsciously dodged, but then, he saw the three dice smash and roll on the floor a few times ....." Another three sixes!

Or six leopards!

"Is this also me cheating?" Ji Feng asked with a smirk.

"This ....."

Wen Shao froze, Ji Feng revealed this hand, immediately let his stomach of aggression instantly disappeared without a trace, his voice was also abruptly stopped, he had nothing to say.

The fact that he could throw three sixes to the ground with his hand was enough to show how skilled Ji Feng was. Young Wen immediately understood that Ji Feng was not cheating at all, but that he really had this kind of skill that was so brilliant.

After thinking about this, Wen Shao's face immediately turned pale, and his whole body lolled on the ground, shriveling up at once, as if his whole body's essence had been drained away at once.

It was only after a while that Wen Shao cried out, as if he had lost his life, "I, lost ....."

"Humph!"

Ji Feng gave a cold snort.

Wen Shao only felt a mouth full of bitterness and said, "All my savings, and all those incriminating evidence I hold in my hands, I will hand them over to you ....."

"No need!"

Ji Feng, however, shook his head and said disdainfully, "Do you think that I am really betting against you just for your money? Or is it for those incriminating evidence?"

Wen Shao looked at him somewhat bewildered.

Ji Feng sneered, "If I want those, even if you have hard bones, I have countless ways to make you meekly hand over both the money and the incriminating evidence, besides, I don't think your Excellency's bones are much harder, are they?"

A look of shame flashed across Wen Shao's eyes and he was just about to speak, but he heard Ji Feng sneer, "I am betting against you to let you know that others think that you are the only smart person in this world, and that just because you have some background, a few thugs and can read a bit, you think you can run amok and do whatever you want!"

Wen Shao gritted his teeth, feeling humiliated.

Ji Feng sneered, "And I'm not afraid to tell you, in my eyes, you actually don't count for shit, you think you're smart, but there are more than ten million people smarter than you in this world? You think you're so smart at gambling that you see it as a life-saver, but what about now? What is your little gambling skill? What do you have to be proud of?"

Hearing these words, that look of defiance and fierceness on Wen Shao's face slowly disappeared and was replaced by a look of bewilderment.

Ji Feng's words were like a knife directly **** into his heart.

Yes, he is most proud of a few things, in front of Ji Feng but simply useless, on the smart, he was calculated, and also by his own men and others to join hands to calculate, how the end, already is needless to say.

The most important thing is that you can be sure that you're going to be able to get the most out of your life.

And if we talk about the identity background .....

The most important thing is that you can be sure that you're going to be able to get the most out of your business.

Even the gambling skill that Wen Shao was most proud of had been lost in front of Ji Feng.

This made Shao Wen almost desperate.

He suddenly realised that the other party was right, he really was nothing!

The pride within Wen Shao's heart was struck almost to the point of collapse, and his original self-confidence and self-complacency disappeared without a trace.

"Humph!"

Seeing Wen Shao's miserable face, Ji Feng couldn't help but snort coldly. The reason why he would bet against Wen Shao was actually to crush him in the aspect that this man was best at, to blow him out of shape!

He wanted to let Wen Shao know that if he stripped away his veneer of being the son of the deputy mayor, he was actually nothing! He had absolutely no place to be proud of, and he was no more superior or nobler than those he had counted on.

He might even be nothing more than a rotten man!

"What a thing!"

Han Zhong also couldn't help but scold, "Just a fop with a little background, who spends all day doing whatever he wants, and really thinks that no one can rule you? You really think no one can control you?"

He sat dumbly on the ground, his whole body seemed to have lost its vitality.

He was so devastated that he almost collapsed .....

Ji Feng no longer bothered to look at him, he just sat leisurely in his chair and contacted his elder brother Ji Shadong.

It didn't take long for the people sent by Ji Shadong to arrive next, which were people who came down directly from the province and formed a task force.

After handing over Wen Shao and the others to them, Ji Feng left together with Han Zhong and his father. The purpose of his visit to East Lin City was to rescue Han Guozhu, other matters were not his specialty and he did not have that much energy to go over it.

Of course, Ji Feng believes that the task force will definitely take care of this matter, Wen Shao has been doing wrong for so long, his deputy mayor father must also be involved, what awaits them is definitely not a good day!

On the way back, Ji Feng received a call from his elder brother, Ji Shadong.

“Old Third, have you all returned to Jiangzhou?”

“On the way back.” Ji Feng smiled, “Big brother, how’s the East Lin City side being handled? I didn’t cause you any trouble, did I?”

“Of course not, you helped me instead.” Ji Shaodong laughed, “I had recently considered going to serve in that province over there, now you have directly set that powder keg on fire, this time it will definitely blow up a large area, this is clearing the way for me in advance!”

Ji Feng was stunned at his words, “You’re going to serve over there?”

Speaking of this Ji Feng suddenly reacted, “Big brother, you’ve been promoted?”

When he was in Jinling, Ji Shaodong was already the district chief, at this time, if he was transferred out again, then he would definitely be promoted, this was the law. What’s more, Ji Feng knew that the province where East Lin City was located was not part of the Ji family’s sphere of influence, yet big brother was being transferred there, did this mean that big brother was going to open up the territory?

“There’s no promotion either, it’s considered a flat transfer.” Ji Shaodong said, “After all, so far, there is only one deputy mayor who has gone wrong, and if there is no accident, I will fight for a bit to take his place.”

“But this time there are quite a few officials involved, and with something like this happening to the deputy mayor, I just don’t believe that their mayor and municipal party secretary are not responsible, maybe they are all involved with this matter .....” Ji Feng was a little confused, how did big brother used to be just A deputy mayor?

The first thing you need to do is to take one step at a time, so that you can walk steadily. Other officials have problems, you can slowly check .....

Ji Feng then understood that big brother went over to be a deputy mayor, and this was just a transition. When he has mapped out the situation in East Lin City, it will be time for the first and second in command of East Lin City to step aside, and whether they will be transferred or removed from office and investigated at that time will depend on how strong the fight against crime is from above.

Campus Master Chapter 2074

To put it simply, before Ji Shaodong gets a clear picture of the situation in East Linn City, the first and second in command of East Linn City are just helping to continue to look after East Linn City, and if they behave well during this period of time and have a repentant heart, they might even end up in a more decent position when the time comes.

If not, then Big Brother will not be polite to them.

For this, Ji Feng had no sympathy for the officials of East Linn City, especially the first and second in command, and Ji Feng was even a bit disgusted with them. You know, Wen Shao’s old man is just a deputy mayor, if there is no connivance from the leaders above, how could Wen Shao be so reckless?

Those businessmen from abroad had become sheep in his eyes, slaughtering them as much as he wanted, simply doing whatever he wanted!

Even a fool would not believe that the first and second in command of East Lin City are not responsible!

So if he did it to them, Ji Feng would not only have no sympathy, but would also feel relieved.

Ji Feng even felt that even if they had a repentant heart next, he should not be soft on them. When they made mistakes, they did not think about how those who had been oppressed had been treated!

As the saying goes, even if an official makes a mistake, he or she should have a decent end ..... This is bullshit!

Why should some people be superior to others?

Ji Feng shook his head, he knew it was difficult for him to change these things, so he did not say more.

However, Ji Feng was just about to hang up the phone when he suddenly remembered something else and couldn't help but ask, "Big brother, if you're going to serve in East Linn City, then my sister and Auntie Li and the girls ....."

Ji Shaodong said, "Don't worry, I will definitely arrange for someone to take care of them before I leave Jinling, and I will be the first to know whenever they have any problems at that time ....."

"No no!"

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "That's not what I'm talking about, I'm saying that ..... the two of them, mother and daughter, will they be too lonely in Jinling?"

Originally, when Ji Shaodong was in Jinling, he could often visit Li Yantong and Li Yueqin's mother and daughter, having a family member around, at least they would not feel too lonely.

But now that Ji Shaodong is leaving Jinling, and Li Yantong and her mother and daughter are in a big city like Jinling, they will definitely feel lonely, they don't even have a family anymore .....

However, Ji Shaodong has no good way to do this, he just lightly sighed, said: "No way, in fact, before this I have also communicated with them, they do not want to go to Jiangzhou, as for Yanjing ..... they are not too convenient to go there, so... .."

Ji Feng silently nodded his head.

He understood what his elder brother meant, if the two of them, Li Yueqin and Li Yantong, went to Yanjing, it was obviously inappropriate, not to mention whether they would be targeted by people with an agenda after they went, it was hard to say just what mother Xiao Su Mei would think.

Even if the mother is more generous, I'm afraid she can't be generous in such matters, which is determined by the nature of women.

What's more, from what Ji Feng knew about Li Yueqin, how could she be willing to go to Yanjing if she had the kind of personality that would rather keep a small shop and be bullied than contact her father?

The fact that they were unwilling to come to Jiangzhou already spoke volumes.

Ji Feng couldn't help but rub his brow, he was also in a difficult position on such matters. Thinking about every New Year's holiday, other people's families are always bustling with laughter and talk, although sometimes there may be a lot of people and chatter, but it is very warm and homey.

However, Li Yueqin and Li Yantong could only keep the cold and empty house, and there was not even a sound of laughter in the house, a feeling that Ji Feng had a personal experience of, because when he and his mother were dependent on each other, this was how they spent every New Year's Eve.

What was that feeling was still fresh in Ji Feng's mind.

Therefore, he didn't want to let his sister live that kind of life again. Nor did he want to leave them without a single family member by their side.

But this problem is not too easy to solve, after all, they are not willing to come to Jiangzhou, while Ji Feng is too distracted .....

Ji Feng couldn't help but secretly sigh lightly, for a while he couldn't really think of a suitable solution, he could only say, "Then I'll go to Jinling recently and talk to them."

"Well, that's good." Ji Shaodong said, "After all, you and Yan Tong are siblings, so it's good to talk about anything, and what you say also represents the eldest mother to a certain extent, so I think Auntie Li can also agree."

"That's all that can be done." Ji Feng said.

"It's not easy for them either, if you can, you still have to find a way to solve it properly, if there's any problem that you can't grasp, we'll discuss it." Ji Shaodong said.

"Well!" Ji Feng nodded his head.

And then, Ji Feng chatted with Ji Shaodong for a few more minutes before hanging up the phone.

Rubbing his eyebrows, Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head, this kind of problem wasn't very good, it needed to be deliberated properly.

The problem is not easy to solve and needs to be considered.

Looking back at the two Korean pillars still sitting at the back, Ji Feng couldn't help but smile and asked, "Uncle, you weren't treated excessively in East Lin City, were you?"

"No no!" Han Guozhu hurriedly shook his head and said, "They just didn't let me go out and withheld my phone from me, the rest wasn't much excessive."

"That's good."

Ji Feng nodded and said, "This time uncle should be relieved, with uncle's statement and all that evidence, I believe that gang will definitely spend time in jail next."

"Yes!" Korean pillar nodded and said emotionally, "Mr. Ji, I really don't know how to thank ..... for this one."

"Hold on hold on!"

Ji Feng hurriedly waved his hand and laughed, "Uncle, you can just call me Ji Feng directly, I'm good friends with Han Zhong, you calling me sir, this really makes me uncomfortable all over!"

Han Guozhu said, "That won't do."

Ji Feng laughed, "Uncle, if you keep being polite to me, I don't even know how to talk to you, so don't give me a hard time."

Just kidding, he and Ji Feng were good friends, if Han Zhong's father was always respectful to him, he wouldn't know how to get along with Han Zhong.

Han Zhong followed suit and said, "Yes, dad, you should not be polite with Ji Feng, otherwise how should I get along with him?"

"This ..... is fine." Han Guozhu nodded his head and said, "Then I'll trust him too."

"It's the right thing to do, you're supposed to be an elder!" Ji Feng laughed.

Korean pillar also laughed, he was certainly happy to be able to get closer to Ji Feng, and this situation right now was naturally what he wanted to see the most.

"By the way uncle, the money you lost ....." Ji Feng was just about to speak when he heard a mobile phone ringing, he saw that Korea pillar hurriedly took out the phone, and then frowned.

"What's wrong?" Han Zhong asked.

"It's Yan Shouzhu calling!" Han Guozhu's face did not look too good, "I'd like to hear what he can say!"

And then, Han Zhong picked up the phone and said in an unpleasant tone, "Yan Shouzhu, you still have the face to call me? How dare you join hands with others to set me up when I have so much trust in you?"

"Don't come with me, they came to arrest you? Then you deserve it!" Korea Chu said angrily, "I didn't expect you to have the face to come to me for help? Yan Shouzhu, I'm telling you, just give up, it's good enough that I don't step on you now, so don't expect me to save you!"

I don't know what was said on the phone, only to see Korea Chu sneer and say angrily, "You still have the face to mention the friendship between us? Why didn't you think that there was still friendship between us when you were scheming me with others? All right, that's it, you're on your own!"

After saying that, Han Guozhu hung up the phone with a snap, still indignant, "This Yan Shouzhu, he's really shameless and ruthless to a certain extent!"

"He begged you for help?" Ji Feng asked.

"Mm. He said that the police came to arrest him, and he called me from his office, asking me to save him .....", Korea pillar coldly snorted, "He really has the nerve to say that! How dare he have the nerve to mention any friendship to me ....."

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed: "This person, ah, are not long back and forth eyes, ah, when he was calculating you, did not think that he would also have such a day."

Seeing that the Korean pillar had deep emotions and seemed to be a bit depressed, Ji Feng changed the subject and asked, "Uncle, why did you gamble so much?"

"What else can I do, it's all the fault of greed."

He said with a bitter smile, "Originally I didn't want to go gambling, but I couldn't resist Yan Shouzhu's enthusiasm, so I went with him. But then it was the more you lose, the more you lose, the more you lose, the more you lose, the more you lose, the more you lose, the more you lose, the more you lose, the more you lose, the more you lose."

The first thing you need to do is to get a little bit of money, and then when you see the money you originally won lose, even the capital has lost some, you will think of fishing back, but the result can only be deeper and deeper, and finally smashed in with the capital and profit.

"It's okay, this time it's a lesson learned, the loss wasn't too big anyway, and you definitely won't gamble again in the future." Han Zhong said comfortingly.

"The loss is not big ....., " Han Zhong shook his head, in fact, the loss is not small, only, this thing he is not ashamed to mention again, Ji Feng can save him safe and sound, let him lose 200 million less, it is already the best result, he can't He could not ask Ji Feng to help him get back the money he had lost.

In the future, he should never dabble in gambling again..... Korean pillar secretly admonished himself.

Campus Master Chapter 2075

The trip to East Linn City was smooth and the problem was solved, so Ji Feng was more or less relieved that everything seemed to be crammed together during this period of time. First, the problem of stopping the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Kepong people had not yet been solved, then the matter of Wang Tong came up, but before this matter could be solved, something happened to Han Guozhong again.

Now that Han Guozhu had returned safely, Han Zhong could return to work at the Group without worrying, and Ji Feng could focus on other matters.

However, the most important thing at the moment was to stop the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Kepong people.

Therefore, when Ji Feng first returned to Jiangzhou, he contacted Zhang Lei and asked him about the progress of finding sources of goods from Lao Gai's side.

The answer he got made Ji Feng more satisfied. According to the news from Silly Biao's side, he had now found four sources of goods that could initially match Wang Tong's mother's model, and a series of tests had to be carried out to see if they could actually match in the end, and as long as it was finally determined, the next step was to carry out the transaction.

And after that, when Wang Tong's mother's body had recuperated to a slightly better state and was able to undergo surgery, it would be carried out immediately.

Zhang Lei said, "Things are going relatively smoothly, but, according to Silly Biao, the price that gang is asking for is not low!"

Ji Feng immediately said, "Money is not a problem, even if the other party wants a sky-high price now, we can only accept it, otherwise, Wang Tong's mother will have to wait for death!"

If we had to wait for a kidney source from a regular hospital, no one knew exactly how long we would have to wait before there was a suitable one, and even if there was, there would be a queue to get one, after all, when it came to a matter of human life, no one could possibly want to let go.

Of course, Ji Feng could also use his status to put pressure on the hospital so that Wang Tong's mother could have priority for the operation, but this was something he could not do, and he dismissed the idea without even thinking about it.

What's more, it would be great to have an extra kidney source now.

Even if a family was destitute, they would not be unable to spend money in order to save their lives.

Zhang Lei said, "That's right, but I think you'd better talk to Silly Biao and tell him to try to get around that fixer called Old Gai, even if it's to save lives, you can't be ripped off without restraint!"

If the money was for the doctors who did the surgery and the prisoners who provided the kidney source, then of course everything was fine, after all, they deserved the money, but the vast majority of the money would be made by the middleman fixers and those shady businessmen who were in the business, which made Zhang Lei a little indignant.

Ji Feng laughed: "Anyway, getting the operation done first is more important than anything else, everything else can be dealt with slowly later. Besides, if there is really no more this business, there is no telling how many people will have to wait for death."

These businessmen are certainly black-hearted and greedy in their demands, but one has to admit that the existence of these people has helped some patients regain their lives to a great extent.

After all, in the current medical market, many people might not be able to find a suitable kidney source even if they had the money. But now with the existence of this gang of black-hearted businessmen, many patients only need to pay money, and it is possible to save their lives, and at the same time, the families of those prisoners have also received benefits.

So simply blaming those black-hearted businessmen is also biased.

In fact, in Ji Feng's view, the reason why these businessmen exist is because the country's mechanism in the area of medical care is not sound, so their existence is reasonable and necessary at this time.

If the market in this area could be regulated in a reasonable manner so that these businessmen were not so shady, this would instead be a healthy order.

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, it was still too early to talk about these issues, the most important thing now was to solve the matter of Wang Tong's mother as soon as possible, then we could talk about the rest.

"Keep me informed if there is any news." Ji Feng admonished, "I may be busy for a while recently, so I'll have to rely on you to work on this matter."

“Don’t worry, you busy yourself, leave this matter to me!” Zhang Lei said, “Anyway, there’s basically nothing going on in school these days, I’m having a lot of time on my hands .....

Ji Feng laughed, “Have you considered what to do in the future?”

Now that school is about to stop, the current group of students are basically thinking about whether they should stay in school or go out and find a job, even though technically they still have a year before they graduate, but in reality there is basically nothing to do in their last year in school.

Also, many students are getting restless and want to start planning a good future for themselves.

Of course, there are also people who are still studying hard and want to go to graduate school in their final year to further their education.

However, Ji Feng knew Zhang Lei, if he wanted this guy to continue studying, he would definitely not be able to do so, which is why Ji Feng asked him what his plans were for the future.

Once he mentioned this, Zhang Lei couldn’t help but smile bitterly: “I can’t make the decision on this matter, you also know, my family doesn’t know how many people are waiting for me to graduate, ready to arrange my future path to go!

Ji Feng laughed, “That’s true!”

Zhang Lei’s status had long predetermined that it was impossible for him to freely choose his future path, because this was no longer just his own business, but also the future development of the Tong family.

At this point, even if Zhang Lei wanted to rebel for once, he had to be cautious and prudent.

“It can’t be helped, many times people can’t just live for themselves!” Zhang Lei couldn’t help but shake his head, “I actually want to go and do something else, but if I do, it will definitely cause quite a stir when the time comes, besides, my family has put a lot of thought into me, so I can’t be too capricious!”

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, “I knew you would think that way!”

When it came to who among friends knew Ji Feng the best, it was definitely Zhang Lei, and vice versa, the one who knew Zhang Lei the best was naturally also Ji Feng.

So for Zhang Lei’s current choice, Ji Feng wasn’t surprised at all.

This is just like when he was in high school, because his family was too strict, so Zhang Lei’s character was a bit rebellious, he dyed his hair yellow and wore hip-hop style clothes, he looked like a social gangster, not like a student at all.

However, for the academic performance expected by his family, Zhang Lei had never fallen behind, so in Ji Feng’s opinion, the reason why Zhang Lei was so maverick was actually just to relieve the pressure in this way, but when the pressure was relieved, he would still follow the requirements of his family and the expectations of his parents.

The same is true now.

So if you look at it purely from that aspect, Zhang Lei is definitely a good boy.

And most importantly, even though Zhang Lei was rebellious, he knew what he could and couldn't do, and wouldn't be as indulgent as some young people who didn't even know what they were doing!

"Actually, it's still early to say all this, there's still nearly a year to go, take your time to think about it, there's no rush." Zhang Lei laughed, "Maybe I'll suddenly change my mind and run straight to the Tengfei Group by then, it's not easy to say!"

"If that's the case, I'd really like to do that!" Ji Feng laughed, "Only, I'm afraid your old man will come straight over and clean me up!"

Zhang Lei is definitely a talent, there is no doubt about it, from the beginning to the end Ji Feng thought so.

Moreover, Ji Feng had considered asking Zhang Lei to be the team's captain when he first set up the team, to directly lead the whole team.

But at that time, on the one hand, Zhang Lei was still in school, so he did not have too much time, and his kung fu had not yet been practised, and he was still in the process of practising gymnastics, so if he parachuted into the team directly, Lu Gang and Yao Zhijian might not be convinced.

On the other hand, it was also a matter of considering Zhang Lei's status.

After all, if we look at it at that time, the Tong family would have given Zhang Lei a random job to do, and it would definitely be more promising than him being in the Tengfei Group.

Even now, it seems that Tengfei Group has not really shown the momentum to take off completely yet.

So at that time, Ji Feng also dismissed his idea.

Now it seems that there is no such possibility to get Zhang Lei to come to the Tengfei Group.

"Alright, let's not talk about that." Not being able to do what he wanted to do, Zhang Lei was also a bit discouraged in his heart, he just said, "Anyway, just keep a place for me at Tengfei Group, maybe one day I will really go there."

"No problem, we brothers didn't say anything, even if you come to be this boss!" Ji Feng laughed.

"I believe it!"

Zhang Lei, however, nodded solemnly, even though Ji Feng said it in a joking tone, but Zhang Lei believed that if he really wanted to take charge of the Tengfei Group, Ji Feng would definitely not have second thoughts, because how deep the brotherly love between him and Ji Feng really was, only the two of them could understand and comprehend.

Ji Feng smiled and didn't say anything else, they didn't need to talk more useless nonsense between them.

After ending the call with Zhang Lei, Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head, of course he could keep the position for Zhang Lei, but to say that Zhang Lei should come to Tengfei Group, that could only be a thought.

Next, Ji Feng first talked to Silly Biao on the phone and asked about the progress of the kidney source search, then he talked to He Hongwei and told him that he might have some things to do next, so he would be delayed for a few days.

However, He Hongwei said that he could not wait any longer and had to go to Nan Yue to feel out the situation first, and that he would go to Ji Feng as soon as he was done.

After agreeing with He Hongwei, Ji Feng started thinking about his sister Li Yantong's affairs.

But after thinking about it, Ji Feng still didn't have too good a solution, which made him scratch his head, he had never encountered such a tricky problem before.

"Why do you keep frowning?" Xiao Yuxuan noticed and sat beside Ji Feng and asked, "What's wrong?"

Campus Master Chapter 2076

"Why do you keep looking sad?" Xiao Yuxuan noticed and sat beside Ji Feng, asking, "What's wrong?"

"Don't mention it, there's something I've been thinking about for a long time and I haven't been able to figure out how to solve it!" Ji Feng shook his head and said helplessly.

"What is it that has made you so difficult?" Xiao Yuxuan was very surprised, she knew Ji Feng's mind very well, generally things were not difficult for Ji Feng, no matter what difficulties he encountered, he would try to find a solution as much as possible, it was really rare to see Ji Feng in this state now.

"Could it be that, this time when you went out, you encountered some difficulties again?" Xiao Yuxuan asked, "Didn't you say that the matter of Han Zhong's father was all taken care of?"

"If it's just the matter of Han Zhong's father, then it's really good."

Ji Feng laughed bitterly, "There's nothing difficult about it. But the point is that it's not about him now ....."

Xiao Yuxuan asked curiously, "Then what is the matter? Tell me about it, maybe I can even help you with advice and counsel?"

"Well, actually it's not a big deal when you talk about it carefully, it's about my sister Li Yantong and her mother Aunt Li ....." Ji Feng quickly said the whole thing briefly and spread his hands, "The problem right now is that I don't want to see my sister and Auntie Li so alone in Jinling, but I don't know what to do."

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "I also thought about going straight to Jinling to talk to them properly, but then I thought about it carefully, but I didn't know what to say to them when I arrived, so it's not like I've been mulling over this matter. ...."

"So that's how it is!"

Xiao Yuxuan held her chin in one hand, propped her arm on her knee, her cultivated eyebrows slightly knitted, and whispered, "Ji Feng, in fact, according to my opinion, you should definitely go on this trip to Jinling, and not only this time, you should also go often in the future."

Ji Feng nodded in deep thought and said, "You are right, in fact I should indeed go to see them more often."

No matter what, Li Yantong was his own sister, and he was heartily happy that he suddenly had an additional sister, without any vigilance or wariness.

No matter what Li Yueqin thought in her heart, after all, he and Li Yantong were his own siblings, and this kind of blood relationship could not be severed in any way.

This is why Ji Feng has been thinking of going to Jinling often to see them.

On the one hand, with frequent visits, his relationship with Li Yueqin would definitely improve to a certain extent, and he would definitely become closer to Li Yantong.

And on the other hand, Ji Feng also wanted to care more about them.

However, these thoughts Ji Feng only occasionally thought about in his heart, but rarely actually did, but not because he didn't want to, but couldn't.

Not to mention other things, just the dynasty with which he had a grudge, as well as the king and the young duke, and some other forces that were eyeing on the side, Ji Feng did not dare to contact them too often.

Otherwise, once those people could not take advantage of him, they would end up setting their eyes on Li Yantong and Li Yueqin, and what consequences that would cause would be unthinkable, and if something happened then, Ji Feng would be too late to regret.

The first thing you need to do is to get in touch with your sister, Li Yantong, on the phone a few times.

This is precisely why, when Xiao Yuxuan said that he should visit more often, Ji Feng was deeply impressed, because this comment touched Ji Feng's heart.

However, Ji Feng did not expect that Xiao Yuxuan said immediately afterwards, "But if you want to persuade them to come to Jiangzhou, then I think it's better to forget about it, this proposal of yours is not quite suitable."

Ji Feng was stunned and said, "Why?"

Xiao Yuxuan pursed her lips and smiled, explaining, "In this matter, you can't just rely on your own ideas, the most crucial thing is still to see what Aunt Li and your sister and their ideas are, perhaps in your opinion, your sister is alone in Jinling, but in fact perhaps not necessarily so?"

Ji Feng's eyebrows frowned slightly, but he did not interrupt her.

Xiao Yuxuan added: "Besides, your sister has her own job over there in Jinling, and after such a long time, she must also have her own circle of friends and her own social circle, if you rashly ask her to give up all these things she has now and come to Jiangzhou, do you think she will be happy about it? Don't forget, there are many things that money can't actually buy, such as friends to talk to, and a small circle of your own, etc. ...."

Ji Feng's frown grew tighter and tighter: "But with just the two of them in Jinling, once something comes up, they don't even have someone to talk to ...."

"Do you have one when you come to Jiangzhou?" Xiao Yuxuan asked rhetorically.

“What do you mean?” Ji Feng was slightly stunned.

“Think about it, even when they come to Jiangzhou, you all have your own things to do, and you may not be in touch for a long time ..... Just like you and second brother, you haven’t seen each other for a while, right?” Xiao Yuxuan said, “Besides, from what you said, that Aunt Li may not be willing to come to Jiangzhou, after all, for her, you can be not only an outsider, but also someone who can evoke sadness in her after meeting you .....

Speaking here, Xiao Yuxuan paused and added: “So that’s why you can’t just do things the way you think, don’t you think?”

Ji Feng’s brow was tightly furrowed, and he was silent for a moment before saying, “Yu Xuan, to be honest, what you said does make sense, it’s not that I didn’t think of it this way before, but I always considered that just the two of them, mother and daughter, staying in Jinling, were always a bit lonely, so that’s why .....

“Then how do you know that they will feel lonely when they stay in Jinling?” Xiao Yuxuan asked, “How can you be sure that they are spending time with their friends in Jinling, living a calm and carefree life, that is not a kind of happiness?”

“.....”

Ji Feng was slightly stunned, he didn’t know how to answer for a while.

Xiao Yuxuan saw this and could not help but purse her lips lightly and said, “At a glance you just never considered this issue, I have already said that you try not to measure others by what you think, you think they are lonely in Jinling, but is that actually the case?”

Ji Feng pondered for a long time and couldn’t help but ask, “Then what do you think, what would be better for me to do?”

Xiao Yuxuan leaned over to Ji Feng and smiled, “I think, respect them and give them love from your heart, but in a way they like, not in a way you want to give!”

“Mm! I understand.”

Ji Feng nodded, “It depends on what they want, not what I want to give .....

Xiao Yuxuan smiled sweetly, “That’s it.”

Ji Feng nodded slightly, after talking to Xiao Yuxuan like this, he really had quite a feeling of enlightenment.

If you want to give someone what they don’t need, it’s not care, it’s a soft violence.

The most important thing is to give each other the most needed help, this is the real care!

In fact, it’s not that Ji Feng didn’t understand this truth before, but when everyone thinks about a matter, they will subconsciously start from their own perspective, so the things they do are often not quite in line with other people’s heart.

This time, Ji Feng had also made this mistake.

But after such a reminder from Xiao Yuxuan, it dawned on Ji Feng, and he nodded and said, "I'll go to Jinling tomorrow and ask them what they think!"

Xiao Yuxuan nodded and said, "That's how it should be."

Ji Feng hugged Xiao Yuxuan's soft and delicate body and said, "Yuxuan, it's thanks to having you around to remind me today, otherwise, I really wouldn't know what to do about this matter!"

Xiao Yuxuan laughed, "That's because Great Grandma is not here, if Great Grandma was here, this would only be a small matter to her and she would be able to come up with a solution in a minute!"

"You!"

Ji Feng laughed and picked up Xiao Yuxuan with one hand, saying, "Daring to talk about others behind their backs, I think you don't want to be good anymore."

Xiao Yuxuan gave him a flirtatious white glance and said, "Then ..... do you want to punish me?"

Low soft words, charming, those two pairs of watery beautiful eyes also carry a touch of expectation, warm fragrance and soft jade in the arms, this change to any normal man absolutely can not hold back, Ji Feng is certainly no exception.

So he directly picked up Xiao Yuxuan and went upstairs in three or two steps.

Soon, there was a faint sound of delicate moans coming from the bedroom, making one's bones almost crisp from listening .....

.....

The next morning, Ji Feng went directly to Jinling.

The time of arrival at Li Yantong's home was only a little after ten in the morning, as it was not too far to drive from Jiangzhou to Jinling.

When Ji Feng arrived, his elder brother, Ji Shaodong, was already waiting there, sitting on the sofa with Li Yueqin and Li Yantong, chatting.

Seeing Ji Feng's arrival, Li Yantong's serene face flashed with joy and she hurriedly greeted him, "Little Feng, you haven't come to see your sister for a long time, hurry up and sit down ..... This is Miss Bai, right? ..."

It was Li Yueqin's face that flashed an unnatural look, although it wasn't too obvious, it still didn't escape Ji Feng's eyes.

Naturally, Ji Feng knew why Li Yueqin felt unnatural, so he directly pretended not to see it and smiled, "Auntie, I've come to see you, is your health and everything okay lately?"

Li Yueqin nodded and said, "All good, all good ....."

Ji Feng then had some helplessness in his heart, Li Yueqin was obviously still a bit raw with him, and there was a kind of vigilance and wariness to keep a certain distance from him.

When Ji Feng saw this, he actually knew that what Xiao Yuxuan said was right, Li Yueqin was definitely not going to Jiangzhou, and looking at Li Yueqin's rosy cheeks, and then looking at the home furnishings and arrangements and what not were all very neat and tidy, very much a kind of homey, Ji Feng also understood that they were living very well in Jinling, not at all as lonely as he thought...

Campus Master Chapter 2077

When Ji Feng understood this, he dismissed the idea of asking Li Yueqin.

Needless to say, Li Yueqin would definitely not agree to go to Jiangzhou with him.

Moreover, now Ji Feng instead felt that it might be the best choice for Li Yueqin and Li Yantong if they stayed in Jinling.

If she went to Jiangzhou, she might not be able to adapt to the living habits and social environment there, but in a city like Jinling, which was between the first and second tier, she would be able to live better.

Therefore, Ji Feng simply stopped mentioning this topic and just chatted with them about family matters.

Perhaps it was because Ji Feng had always been sincere, so after the initial unnaturalness, Li Yueqin slowly adapted and could occasionally have a few words with Ji Feng, which made Ji Feng very happy.

In fact, taking a step back, even if you just treat Li Yueqin as an ordinary elder, she is still very amiable, and Ji Feng really likes this feeling.

Because he hadn't seen her for a while, Ji Feng stayed directly in Jinling that night, staying in his elder brother Ji Shaodong's flat.

Before resting for the night, the two brothers fixed a few more small dishes and drank a little wine.

"Old Third, you have done a good job this time, now the main leaders involved in the whole East Linn City, their criminal evidence has been grasped, next as long as you slowly clean up, the pattern of East Linn City will be renewed, and those messy social customs will gradually be changed."

Ji Shaodong said, "This is all because you got their incriminating evidence, no small credit!"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed: "It was a fluke, if they hadn't been so greedy and asked for 200 million, I wouldn't have been able to go to East Linn City. If they don't go down, it would be unconscionable!"

Ji Shaodong: "The social atmosphere is bad now ....."

For Ji Shaodong this kind of upright and stable person, see all kinds of bad phenomena in society, really let him some not like, but he knows these things to change can only slowly, is not in a hurry, so Ji Shaodong only have some heart powerless feeling.

Seeing this, Ji Feng couldn't help but laugh, "Okay, let's not talk about that, drink."

Ji Shaodong smiled and nodded, the two of them drank a glass, and he asked, "By the way, you said today that you were going to Southern Guangdong with He Hongwei, how are the preparations going?"

Ji Feng said, "There's actually nothing to prepare for, we can only take one step at a time for such things."

"Well!"

Ji Shaodong nodded, "That's true, things in the mall change rapidly, one can only improvise. However, this time, the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Boundary Pontiff is still done under legal circumstances, it's not difficult for you guys to stop it."

Regarding the affairs of the Brilliant Group, Ji Shaodong was likewise well aware of them, as the first eldest son of the Ji family, these matters would be specifically told to him, and even, the family would also train him as their successor, after all, his potential and abilities were evident to all.

Even the old man, appreciated Ji Shaodong very much.

So Ji Shaodong knew more about these matters and understood the difficulty of this matter better than others.

"It can't be helped, it has to be done even if it's difficult." Ji Feng said, "Even the old boss has directly talked to He Hongwei, the importance of this matter speaks for itself, moreover, He Hongwei has also said something, there are always things that someone needs to do!"

"Hehe!"

Ji Shaodong nodded with a smile and said, "That's like from He Hongwei's character, this guy doesn't look civilized and polite on the surface, but in reality he has arrogance and ruthlessness in his bones, he is a very good person."

Ji Feng laughed: "If you were to be heard by Wu Zhiyong, I'm afraid he would be very disdainful, right?"

"Wu Zhiyong ....." Ji Shaodong shook his head and said, "I also know something about the feud between him and He Hongwei, this matter Wu Zhiyong has gone too far, from this we can see the character of this person Wu Zhiyong, if Without the behemoth that is the Wu family, Wu Zhiyong is simply not enough to worry about!"

Although Ji Shaodong's tone was flat, the confidence and atmosphere in those words were unmistakable.

Ji Feng laughed: "But I'm afraid Wu Zhiyong himself won't think so. If he knows that you have such a high opinion of He Hongwei, but a much lower opinion of him, he will definitely be unconvinced!"

"He has long been unconvinced!"

Ji Shaodong shook his head and laughed: "At that time, some people in Yanjing rated what Yanjing Three Greats, and once Wu Zhiyong saw that He Hongwei was actually among them, he seemed to be somewhat unpleasant, and he even said in public that He Hongwei being rated as one of the Three Greats of Yanjing was a name that did not live up to its name ....." In fact, just because of this attitude of his, he already lost to He Hongwei, just that he himself does not know it yet."

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, although big brother seldom fights people well and ruthlessly, but he sees people with an extremely sharp eye, and can see each other's weaknesses at the root, in this point, Ji Feng knows he still has to learn a good lesson.

"However, although Wu Zhiyong has all kinds of flaws, but this person is ruthless, which I think you must have learned before, so you must be careful when you arrive in South Guangdong, your own safety is the most important ah!" Ji Shaodong admonished.

"Don't worry, I have a good idea." Ji Feng smiled.

He had already fought with Wu Zhiyong more than once, either directly or indirectly, and he had already learned about Wu Zhiyong's ruthlessness.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

The reason is that Wu Zhiyong has nothing else to offer besides conspiracy and ruthlessness, but neither of these is too much of a threat to Ji Feng.

The fact is that if you want to talk about conspiracy, it doesn't affect Ji Feng at all, not to mention the fact that He Hongwei, who is so smart, is in front of you, even if it's just for Ji Feng, Wu Zhiyong doesn't have much chance to win.

Because, Ji Feng's hand, still clutching Wu Zhiyong simply want not to fight the bottom card!

And to say that ruthlessness .....

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, in front of absolute strength, how vicious can only be considered to send out dumb hate.

"Big brother, you can rest assured, see how I can stop the Brilliant Group from cooperating with the Boundary Pontiffs!" Ji Feng lifted his wine glass and said boldly.

"Then I'll be waiting for your good news!" Ji Shaodong smiled and nodded his head.

Next, Ji Feng stayed in Jinling for two more days, this time with his sister Li Yantong as his guide, taking him around some of the famous places in Jinling. In fact, many places here had already been visited by Ji Feng before, but this time he was still very happy to play.

Not for any other reason, it was a blessing and enjoyment in itself to be able to hang out with his sister.

It was not until the fourth day that Ji Feng said goodbye to Li Yueqin and Li Yantong and returned to Jiangzhou.

At this time, He Hongwei had already arrived in Southern Guangdong.

But Ji Feng was not in a hurry to go to Nan Yue. He picked up the phone and dialled a number only after deep consideration.

"Young Ji?"

After the call was answered, a somewhat surprised voice came from the other end, "Is it Ji Shao?"

Ji Feng smiled, "Mr. Pei, it's been a long time."

“Young Ji, is it really you? I thought I had misread it!” The Chief Pei on the other end of the phone said in surprise, “It’s been a long time ..... Ji Shao, why did you remember to call me suddenly?”

“Then let me get right to the point, Mr. Pei, I remember you said before that if you could, you would still like to do your old job back right?” Ji Feng asked.

“Yes, how .....” Chief Pei asked, “Young Ji, why are you suddenly asking about this?”

“Nothing, I just want to ask, if there is really an opportunity, is Mr. Pei willing to go back to the mechanical industry again?” Ji Feng asked.

“If there’s really a good opportunity, of course I’m willing!” General Manager Pei said without hesitation.

“Really?” Ji Feng asked.

“Of course, I myself started out in machinery, I am most familiar with this business and have the most feelings, only, the machinery industry is not doing well now, ah, the Kepong people’s machinery is too competitive, domestic goods simply cannot compete with them, so ..... alas!” Mr. Pei sighed lightly.

But Ji Feng laughed: “Good! Mr. Pei, I remember your words, if there is a suitable opportunity in the future, you can’t back out!”

Chief Pei smiled and immediately said, “Young Ji, I, Pei, may not dare to say anything else, but a man’s spittle is a nail, as long as I have said something, it will definitely count!”

This General Manager Pei was no other than Pei Shou, who had once met Ji Feng on one side.

The reason why Ji Feng and Pei Shou met was because Yao Yao’s little girl and Pei Shou’s son, Pei Xiaohu, were kindergarten classmates, and at that time, the kindergarten organized a trip for the children, and as a result, there were some changes in the middle, and that was when Ji Feng and Pei Shou met.

It was also at that time that Ji Feng learnt that Pei Shou used to be in the machinery industry, but because domestic products were not competitive and could not withstand the impact of Kepong’s products, he eventually switched careers intelligently.

Now that Ji Feng wanted to stop the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Kepong people, he remembered Pei Shou ..... In fact, a long time ago, Ji Feng had already considered working with Pei Shou.

And now, Ji Feng is going to really enter the implementation stage.

After ending the fairy tale with Pei Shou, Ji Feng dialed He Hongwei’s number again, “Young Master He, I’m also going to South Guangdong .....”

Campus Master Chapter 2078

“Ooooh~~~”

A delicate moan rang out, and in the middle of the bedroom, three people were tangling to their heart’s content.

Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei both had jade bodies, and at this moment, Xiao Yuxuan was wrapping her limbs around Ji Feng's body like an octopus, welcoming his fierce onslaught.

The girl, who was lying next to her, was already weak, her limbs were all a bit soft, her pretty face was glowing with a flush, and her skin, which was exposed outside the quilt, still had traces of indulgence, which showed how intense the previous entanglement was.

At the moment, Tong Lei's eyes were misty, her red lips were parted, her forehead was still slightly stained with sweat, and strands of hair were clinging to her forehead, giving the beautiful woman an added charm at the moment.

It has been said that there are two most beautiful moments in a woman's life: the moment after childbirth when she radiates maternal glory, and the moment after she has reached the peak of pleasure.

So it has been jokingly claimed that the Mona Lisa smiled so beautifully because she had experienced an intense and pleasurable passion just before painting the picture.

..... Although there is no basis for this claim, it does show that women are most beautiful after the peak of pleasure.

This is the case with Tong Lei at the moment, especially when her beautiful eyes seem to be open and closed, her face is flushed, and her body exudes a lazy aura, which is truly beautiful.

But in reality, Tong Lei really doesn't even have the strength to move her fingers now.

It was because today, instead of practising gymnastics, Ji Feng and the others were indulging in a passionate tangle, so to speak, in the most instinctive way.

She just lay there on the bed, feeling that regular burst of trembling coming from beside her, her whole body was in an ethereal state, it was almost as if she had come to heaven, her whole body was flying.

"Oooh~~!"

Another moan of utmost delicacy, Xiao Yuxuan's body suddenly stiffened, she hugged Ji Feng tightly, her body trembling slightly from the excessive tensing, the whole room instantly fell into silence, there was no sound at all.

It was only after a long time that Xiao Yuxuan's body slowly softened, and then she collapsed softly on the bed, as if her whole body had been drained of its strength in an instant .....

At the same time, Ji Feng was also lying between Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei, holding them both tightly in his arms, his hands roaming back and forth on their smooth, elastic and seductive bodies, feeling their amazing seductive power.

The bedroom was so quiet, Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei were both in a daze, reminiscing beautifully about the sensation that had just sent their souls soaring, which was truly soul-crushing.

It was only after a while that Xiao Yuxuan let out a long breath: "Phew~~! It's so good ....."

"Puff!"

Tong Lei on the other side of Ji Feng sniffed and immediately puffed out a laugh, “Sister Yu Xuan, are you enjoying it that much?”

Xiao Yuxuan laughed angrily, “Lei Lei, don’t you enjoy it?”

Tong Lei pursed her lips and laughed lightly, but did not answer.

Ji Feng listened to them talking and laughing, and was happy to enjoy himself.

After a while, Xiao Yuxuan rolled over towards Ji Feng’s side, allowing herself to find a more comfortable position in Ji Feng’s arms, and asked, “Ji Feng, will you be in danger this time when you go to Southern Guangdong .....?”

Once she heard this, Tong Lei also immediately put away her smiling face and looked at Ji Feng seriously, wanting to get an accurate answer from him.

Ji Feng laughed: “Don’t worry, I’m only going to stop the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Boundary Peng people this time, it’s just a purely commercial act, it doesn’t involve any fight to the death, what danger can there be?”

Xiao Yuxuan angrily said, “When you went out in the past, you always said there was no danger, but then a series of things would happen, many times it was very dangerous, and you didn’t come back to tell us, this time are you trying to hide it from us again?”

Ji Feng was stunned: “Who did you guys hear that from?”

Xiao Yuxuan gave a delicate hum: “You don’t care who we heard it from, we know it anyway.”

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, “It’s all happened for a reason before, and those are just little thieves, not worth mentioning, not even considered dangerous to me ..... but this time you guys can rest assured because this time it’s really just pure business.”

“Come on, involving the martial family, and the Boundary Peng people, what pure business can there be ah?” Xiao Yuxuan couldn’t help but give him a whack, but of course, that strength was no different from scratching an itch for Ji Feng.

“Sister Yuxuan is right.”

Tong Lei also took over from the side and said, “Ji Feng, the Wu family hates you to death, if there is a chance, they will definitely not let you go, moreover, all the people in this sector pong are also ruthless, you must be careful.”

Ji Feng laughed: “Unless the Wu family wants to cause a full-scale game between two big factions, they wouldn’t dare to go too far. As for the Kepong people ..... this is China, not Kepong, decades ago their combined national power was so much stronger than China’s and they didn’t even crush it, now they still want to make waves in China? With a little dwarf like them, it’s just a dream!”

“You .....,” Tong Lei sighed lightly, “You’re just good at comforting us.”

“Heh!”

Ji Feng laughed and didn’t say anything more.

In fact, Ji Feng knew very well in his heart that when he said these words, he was indeed comforting Tong Lei's two daughters mostly, in fact, truly speaking, this time to go to South Guangdong, perhaps there is really a certain degree of danger.

The actual fact is that if the Wu family really dares to do away with him, it will certainly cause a full-scale collision between the two major factions of the Wu family and the Ji family, and it may even cause the Ji family to counter-attack and retaliate like crazy, which the Wu family will certainly not do as long as they are not crazy.

But in reality, Ji Feng knew that the Wu family might not do so easily, but he was not sure if Wu Zhiyong would do so.

This person may not be as good as those old foxes who have been in the world for a long time, but when it comes to ruthlessness and malevolence, Wu Zhiyong is definitely no worse than anyone else, and this has been proven countless times.

This is definitely a dangerous guy!

Ji Feng had always been very wary of Wu Zhiyong in his heart and had considered this long ago.

And the Kepong people who have cooperation with the Brilliant Group .....

Ji Feng secretly snorted coldly, if anyone thinks that the Kepong people are not dangerous, then he is not far from being played to death.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

In Kepong, where gangsters were prevalent, most of these people were either directly or indirectly connected to the gangsters, and they had nothing to do with words like kindness.

Besides, Ji Feng didn't know how many people in Kepong were related to the Dynasty organisation, in case one or two of those Kepong people who were talking to the Brilliant Group about cooperation were from the Dynasty, when they would just launch a surprise attack, the danger would still be not small.

But these situations cannot be told to Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei, otherwise it will only make them worry in vain.

"That Brilliant Group ....." said Tong Lei, "Their cooperation with the people of Kepong is legal, and they are so strong, and Kepong's Lingxia Group is also a large multinational group, you will definitely have a hard time trying to stop them Ji Feng, if you encounter difficulties, you should not hold on alone, ask for help from your family in time, there is no shame in that!"

Ji Feng smiled and nodded, "Don't worry, I know what to do."

Xiao Yuxuan hummed: "Brilliant Group ....." this name is not a good place to listen to, I remember there was a brilliant group in Jiangzhou before, and it is still with a gangster nature, by the way, at that time, this brilliant group's thousand-year-old lady, seems to have clashed with Lei Lei, right? "

Ji Feng nodded his head, "Well! That's right."

At the beginning, there was indeed a Brilliant Group in Jiangzhou, and its thousand-year-old Miss Yun Bing was brutal and insulted Tong Lei in public, but the result was that it angered Ji Feng, which in turn caused the entire Brilliant Group to be decimated.

Xiao Yuxuan said, "This is a good sign, it turns out that two years ago it was already destined, the Brilliant Group was eventually to be destroyed!"

Ji Feng was suddenly sunburnt, these two Brilliant Groups were not the same thing at all, besides, this was a bit too superstitious, but Xiao Yuxuan cheered him up, so he naturally accepted it gladly.

Next, Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei were repeatedly admonished to let Ji Feng be careful, until late at night, the three of them went to sleep.

The next morning, Ji Feng took Bai Zhu with him and took a plane to Nan Yue. Of course, before getting on the plane, he first called Rong Peng and Pei Shou separately.

When the two of them walked out of the Yuezhou International Airport, looking at the rolling traffic at the street, his eyes shone brightly, finally arriving in Yuezhou, this time, it would be a head-on battle with the Wu family, and Ji Feng had been looking forward to this for a long time.

"Hey hey, give way give way ....."

Suddenly, a iterative voice came from behind, appearing to be very eager.

Ji Feng was just about to turn around when he suddenly felt a gust of wind blowing behind him, he subconsciously and instantly moved two steps sideways to avoid it, and immediately afterwards he heard Bai Zhu shouting petulantly, "What are you doing? Be careful!"

At this time, Ji Feng also saw it, only to see a bald head was walking quickly from behind.

Because he found that it was a bald monk, still wearing a grey-brown monk's robe, with black cloth shoes on his feet, holding a futon fan in his hand, perhaps because he was walking too quickly and too fast, making his shiny head covered with sweat stains.

This bald-headed monk was very fat, and that fat was very obvious, but he walked with incomparable lightness, and with just a slight turn, he dodged past Ji Feng.

At the same time, he gave Ji Feng an incomparably surprised look, "Ee?!"

Campus Master Chapter 2079

This bald-headed monk was very fat, that fat was very obvious, but he walked with an incomparable lightness, just a slight turn, and then he dodged past Ji Feng.

At the same time, he gave Ji Feng an incomparably surprised look, "Ee?!"

This fat monk looked at Ji Feng with great surprise, as if he had discovered a new continent, and looked Ji Feng up and down with a very peculiar look.

"Miso~~"

Bai Zhu instantly stood in front of Ji Feng's right side, his body slightly sideways to the fat monk, his eyes stern and alert as he stared at the other party.

With the distance between them and the position Bai Zhu was standing in, if the fat monk made any move against Ji Feng, Bai Zhu would be able to react in the first instance, and at that time, no matter what the fat monk wanted to do, Bai Zhu would be able to deal with it calmly.

What's more, they were unfamiliar in Southern Guangdong, and now they had just left the airport and encountered a monk of unknown origin and dressed very oddly, which made Bai Zhu unable not to be alert.

Ji Feng was not much nervous, he also looked at the fat monk and asked, "This ..... master, have I grown flowers on my face?"

"No!" The fat monk shook his head.

"Then why is the master looking at me like that?" Ji Feng asked with a smile.

"Heh~~!"

The fat monk laughed brightly and said, "This monk, there's something I don't know if I should say ....."

Ji Feng smiled faintly when he heard this, "Don't you monks all preach that the four great things are empty? Does Master still have any worries?"

"It seems that not only is Master Shih's heart open, but he also has a good understanding of the Buddha." The fat monk said.

"I know a little bit of the skin." Ji Feng said, "Master, whatever you want to say just now, you can say it directly, as long as it is not a malicious sarcasm or verbal attack, I am all ears!"

"Well!"

The fat monk nodded slightly, that looked at Ji Feng with a satisfied look in his eyes, seemed to look very pleased, "Master Shih is open-minded, that's more than good, since that's the case, then I'll say it ....."

Open your mouth is to call yourself 'I', and also say what Buddha ....."

Ji Feng looked deeply at this fat monk and deliberated in his heart, but he was not moving on the surface and nodded, "Please speak, Master."

The fat monk nodded and said, "Master, I can see that your seal is vaguely dark and your bad luck is on top, if I deduce correctly, within this next month, it is likely that Master will be in trouble and may even be involved in a human life lawsuit ....."

"Unbridled!"

Before the fat monk could finish his words, he was interrupted by Bai Zhu.

Only to see Bai Zhu's eyes blazing incomparably in her beautiful eyes, staring deadly at the fat monk, anger surging on her pretty face, "You monk, instead of properly chanting your sutra in the temple, you have to come out and talk nonsense, you are simply too outrageous!"

It was simply ridiculous!

They had just gotten off the plane, and this fat monk was running over to spout nonsense, and even said that Ji Feng would be in trouble and possibly involved in human lives, this fat monk was simply crazy!

Anyone, no matter how generous, would certainly be uncomfortable when hearing such words suddenly, not to mention that this fat monk was talking about Ji Feng, how could Bai Zhu be happy?

However, Ji Feng waved his hand slightly and said very calmly, "Bai Zhu, don't get angry yet, listen to what this master has to say."

"Young master, don't listen to this monk's nonsense here, I think he is just a fake monk who came here from nowhere to try to cheat money!" Bai Zhu said angrily.

"Oh, it's not unreasonable for this female monk to suspect me like this."

When the fat monk heard Bai Zhu's words, he was not the least bit angry, but instead, with a smiling face, he said, "However, even if I want to cheat money, that is only possible if you willingly pay me, and if I can really do it, then it is also considered my ability, just for that, you should also give more or less, what I said is still right, right?"

"What's more, I have no intention of asking for money at all, I just have a few words to tell this monk, as for listening or not listening, that's your business, what does it have to do with me?" The fat monk even said with a smile.

"Well! That makes sense!" Ji Feng smiled and nodded his head, "Then, please continue."

The fat monk smiled and said, "Dare I ask, Master, do you believe what I just said?"

Ji Feng said, "What do you think?"

"Hehe ....." the fat monk smiled and said, "I know that it would definitely be difficult to ask a monk to trust a stranger out of hand, but it doesn't matter, my name is Yuan Zhi and I hang out at Kai Yuan Temple, if a monk is interested, you can always come to Kai Yuan Temple to find me."

After saying that, he put up one hand and lowly pronounced a Buddhist hymn, "Amitabha Buddha ..... Shih-ji, see you later!"

Ji Feng smiled and nodded his head, but did not say anything.

Afterwards, I saw the fat monk who called himself Yuan Zhi laughing cheerfully and turning around to leave. His obese body swayed as he walked, looking very comical, but when one looked closely, it was peculiar .....

"Young Ji, you don't really believe this monk's words, do you?" Seeing Ji Feng staring at the fat monk's back, Bai Zhu couldn't help but say alertly, "This is simply a crazy monk, just talking nonsense, Ji Shao, you can't believe him easily, it's not possible that there's something wrong with this monk!"

"Well!"

Ji Feng nodded and laughed, "If it was a normal monk, I'm afraid he wouldn't call himself 'I', moreover, to talk about the Four Great Empty ..... huh!"

This fat monk named Yuan Zhi's speech and mannerisms were indeed very strange, and from the very beginning Ji Feng could see it.

Although today is a modern society, the age of technology, but monks generally when facing outsiders, but also usually will call themselves poor monks, or some other self-title with a modest meaning.

Previously, when Ji Feng was in Jinling, he had been to a monastery, where the monks were just courteous and polite, and some of them simply said 'monk I how how .....' when they spoke.

Like this kind of monk who directly called himself 'I', Ji Feng really saw it for the first time.

Of course, this is a little strange, but it doesn't mean anything, probably also because this monk Yuan Zhi doesn't have that humble habit of calling himself.

But there was another point that made Ji Feng a little suspicious, and that was that there were very few monks who followed the code of the Four Great Emptiness anymore.

Nowadays, monks have become a pure profession, they can marry and have children, and also enjoy the convenience brought by all kinds of modern equipment, for example, they will use the most advanced mobile phones and have the most fashionable clothes.

And to become a monk, there are also many requirements in many places such as education, and it can be said that guidelines such as the four great emptiness are already rare in modern times.

Ji Feng had just made a casual remark, but Monk Yuan Zhi said that he knew a lot about Buddha .....

This tone in which Monk Yuan Zhi spoke, as well as his response, was different from many modern monks.

This is also a point that Ji Feng found strange.

But off to the side, this Yuan Zhi monk was not to continue deeper into the conversation, but after saying a few words, he left, and this short time Ji Feng did not see any too obvious clues.

Faintly shaking his head, no longer thinking about this matter, Ji Feng said, "Bai Zhu, let's go."

Bai Zhu nodded, but still said uneasily, "Young Ji, you mustn't be influenced by that crazy monk, this man doesn't know what he's from, he's simply full of nonsense!"

Ji Feng smiled and said, "Don't worry, I know what's in my heart, I won't be easily influenced by others!"

Bai Zhu then put her heart down slightly, what she was most afraid of was that Ji Feng was affected by that crazy monk's words just now, you know, once a person has a knot in his heart, then no matter what he does next, he will be disturbed, and sometimes he will even lose sight of this and make a wrong decision, and in serious cases, it may lead to a big disaster.

When Bai Zhu used to be an assassin, she would adjust herself to the best condition before she went on a mission, otherwise, she would have a series of mistakes.

And now Ji Feng was burdened with the important task of stopping the Brilliant Group from cooperating with the Kepong people, and he also had to fight with the Wu family and the Kepong people, so it might as well be a fight to the death, and if Ji Feng made any major mistakes in the process, the consequences would be simply unthinkable!

“Damn crazy monk!” Bai Zhu couldn’t help but curse in his heart, they had just left the airport and encountered this kind of madman, it was like throwing a pot of cold water on their heads for this trip to Southern Guangdong!

At this time, Ji Feng had already made contact with He Hongwei, and then stood quietly by the roadside, waiting for He Hongwei’s arrival.

Ji Feng’s expression was calm, as if what had just happened had not happened at all.

In fact, Ji Feng indeed did not take the crazy monk’s words to heart, although he was somewhat curious about this monk called Yuan Zhi, but with Ji Feng’s strong mind, this matter really did not affect him!

So soon Ji Feng put this matter behind him, just treating it as a kind of fun insight when he was out, his mind was now mainly on the Brilliant Group and the Boundary Pontiff, neither of these two parties were good, and he had to be careful with them.

“Tic-tac-toe...”

Suddenly, a car horn sounded, followed by a black Volvo sedan stopped at the roadside, the window lowered, He Hongwei poked his head out and shouted, “Ji Feng, get in quickly, no parking here .....”

The first thing you need to do is to get into the car with one hand and greet Bai Zhu.

He Hongwei, as soon as he put on the gas, the car quickly left, he drove while laughing: “You kid finally came, this is good, the two of us join forces, enough to make the Wu family and the people of KAI Peng suffer!”

Campus Master Chapter 2080

As soon as He Hongwei added fuel to the accelerator, the car left quickly, and he laughed while driving, “You kid is finally here, this is good, the two of us joining forces, it’s hard enough for the Wu family and the Jie Peng people to suffer!”

Ji Feng raised an eyebrow and asked, “Looks like you’re confident, huh?”

He Hongwei laughed: “The most taboo thing to do is to look ahead, since you have decided to do it, you have to bring confidence that you will win, just imagine, if you don’t even think highly of yourself, how can you still succeed?”

Ji Feng smiled, “That makes sense! However, having confidence alone won’t do, you also need to have a well-thought-out plan so that you can ensure success to the greatest extent possible.”

“There’s certainly a plan.” He Hongwei said, “I’ll tell you in detail when we get back to the hotel, and you can help me deliberate on it then.”

“Well!” Ji Feng nodded his head.

“Actually, speaking of which, even if the plan is well thought out, it’s only a general just sketch, improvisation is the most important.” He Hongwei laughed, “This time, if the two of us join forces, even if the Wu family and the Boundary Pong people take the initiative again, we can definitely tear a layer of skin off them!”

Ji Feng laughed, "But the Wu family won't just stand by and watch us make waves in Southern Guangdong, so be careful of what they will do."

He Hongwei couldn't help but sneer at his words, "I'm here this time to have a go at them. Back then, a founding general once said, "I won't come to peace, I won't come to peace! Now, I also want to give this saying to the Wu family, especially Wu Zhiyong!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and smile, it seemed that this time He Hongwei was really going to make a big move.

In fact, thinking about it, with the grudge between Wu Zhiyong and He Hongwei, He Hongwei was able to endure until now is already quite good, if it was the second brother Ji Shaolei, or Zhang Lei that temper, I'm afraid that he would have fought with Wu Zhiyong long ago, and how could he endure until now?

"Originally, my confidence wasn't that high, but when you arrived today, I had enough confidence!" He Hongwei said, "Before you alone could make the Wu family ash several times, this time plus me, it's just as well that the Wu family doesn't move, as long as they dare to make a mess, they will be made to look good!"

Ji Feng laughed: "Young master He, I find that you seem to be a different person today?"

In the past, He Hongwei was a very stable and gentle person, even if he was annoyed, he would not easily speak out of his mouth, but would make the first move, and when he did, even if he did not say a word, others would know how his tactics were.

However, today, He Hongwei was uncharacteristic, his whole body seemed to be in a state of exuberance, and he even said a lot of harsh words.

This is not like him!

He Hongwei shook his head and said, "It's not that I've changed, but because the external environment I'm in is different, something has been pressed into my heart for so many years, I have to find a channel to release it, otherwise, even the most cultured person will go crazy."

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows and said, "Hearing you say that, why do I feel like I've fallen for your trick? Young Master He, you wouldn't have tricked me into coming to Southern Guangdong to be your helper, would you?"

Of course Ji Feng understood what He Hongwei meant by what he said, the feud between Wu Zhiyong and He Hongwei back then could be said to have caused He Hongwei to suffer no small amount of humiliation.

Now that he has come to South Guangdong and has such an opportunity, He Hongwei wants to give vent to all the kind of anger that was previously pressed into his heart through this opportunity!

But this middle ..... seems to have nothing to do with himself, huh?

The first thing you can do is to take a look at the situation and see if you can find a way to get rid of it.

Ji Feng was just about to speak when he heard He Hongwei add, "I bet even without me, you would have gone to stop them!"

Ji Feng smiled and didn't say anything.

In fact, he himself certainly knew better than anyone else that even without He Hongwei, he would definitely come to Southern Guangdong and would resolutely stop the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Boundary Pontiffs.

Even if it was just to combat the Wu family, Ji Feng would have done so, not to mention that it also involved the Kailashimo Group of the Kailashimo?

The wolves of the Kepong people were ambitious, and Ji Feng would naturally be obliged to do something about it when he had the ability to do so.

However, Ji Feng was not a person who liked to vote, so he only kept these words in his heart and did not say them out loud.

"What, I got it right?" Seeing that Ji Feng didn't say anything, He Hongwei knew that he was acquiescing and couldn't help but laugh.

"You know me that well?" Ji Feng smiled back.

"It's not that I know you, but I know myself!" He Hongwei said.

"I know a lot of things you've done, especially your encounter with the Wu Clan, I've carefully studied the whole process, and of course, your battle with the Boundary Pontiffs, and I found that in many ways we're both very similar, for example, we both want China to be stronger, we both hate the Boundary Pontiffs, and, both don't want the Wu Clan to be good... ..and you act more ruthlessly in these aspects, sometimes, so I know you will definitely come!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but sun himself, "You're complimenting me? Why does it sound like I'm praising yourself?"

"Hehe ....."

He Hongwei laughed: "It doesn't matter who you're complimenting, the key thing is that we're both the same kind of person when it comes to certain things, and that's enough."

Ji Feng also can't help but shake his head and smile, I have to say, this guy He Hongwei does have a unique personality charm, although he is gentle and elegant on the surface, but in reality he is very proud in his bones, and the person is also quite wise, but he does not lack the kind of passion and impetus that young people have, it can be said that this is quite an excellent guy.

If not for the good relationship with He Hongwei, Ji Feng would even be a little jealous of this guy, and even if He Hongwei stood in the Wu family's camp, it would be a real headache for people.

At least so far, Ji Feng has not found any obvious flaws in He Hongwei.

Such people were generally quite powerful.

Ji Feng had a little more confidence in this trip to Southern Guangdong.

“How far is the hotel you’re staying at from here?” Ji Feng changed the topic and asked casually.

“Not too far, about half an hour or so to go .....

“Be careful!”

Before He Hongwei could finish his words, he heard Ji Feng shout lowly, and in the next moment, He Hongwei jerked the steering wheel and then slammed down the brakes with one foot.

The tyres and the ground instantly produced a violent friction, emitting an ear-piercing sound: “Squeak-”

However, the brakes were still too late, only to hear a “bang!” Then the car jolted to a halt.

Ji Feng shook his head helplessly, he still crashed into it.

Just now, he saw a black car jerking across the left lane, trying to squeeze into the lane they were driving in, but He Hongwei didn’t have time to avoid it and ended up colliding with it.

“Snap!”

He Hongwei opened the door and got out of the car with a frown, Ji Feng and Bai Zhu both followed suit, then as soon as they got out, they saw a man in a T-shirt get out of the black sedan in front of them as well.

This man got out of the car, but he was still cursing, “Fuck! How the fuck are you driving? Can’t you see I’m coming, and you’re still driving hard, don’t you see?”

He Hongwei didn’t even have time to speak before he heard a scolding sound, and his face suddenly turned gloomy: “You’d better keep your mouth clean!”

“Put your mother on!”

The man instantly glared and cursed, “How dare you talk about me when you’ve fucking hit me?”

He Hongwei said in a deep voice: “The lane you took is a bus lane, you overtook the bus from there, which is against the rules, you are responsible for this, I haven’t even said anything yet, how dare you curse?”

“What fucking rules, I don’t understand!” The man was still cursing, with a brutal look on his face, “Kid, do you see what kind of car I have here? If you know what you’re doing, you’d better pay up or else you’ll suffer!”

“Humph!”

He Hongwei’s face was incomparably gloomy, even the best connotation was not enough when it came to this kind of person, “I advise you not to invite trouble for yourself!”

With that, He Hongwei took out his mobile phone and was about to make a call.

“Fuck me, how dare you be cross with me?” The man was immediately annoyed, he came up and slapped towards He Hongwei’s face, “I let you be cross, let you grow a memory today .....

“Boom~~!”

The next moment, the T-shirt man's words came to an abrupt end, only to hear him wail, the whole person instantly flew backwards, clanged into his car, the huge rebound force made him fall to the ground again, the whole person was immediately dumbfounded, grunting and wailing.

He Hongwei turned his head to look in astonishment, just in time to see Ji Feng withdraw his foot, and he froze.

Ji Feng said, "See, when dealing with this kind of person you can't reason with him or be too civilized, if he's cross, you have to be even more cross than him!"

"You kid ....." He Hongwei immediately shook his head and laughed bitterly, Ji Feng could kick a person away, but he was far from being able to compete, if he really had to start fighting, he might not be a match for that man.

In fact, with He Hongwei's status, why would he need to fight with someone? So when he encountered this kind of hooligan, he couldn't really handle it and had to call someone.

However, He Hongwei did not expect that a simple kick from Ji Feng would solve the problem.

At this time, Ji Feng took two steps forward and stepped on the head of the T-shirt man who was still wailing, stomped his face on the ground and said in a cold voice: "Now, do you have anything to say?"
