At this time, Ji Feng, however, took two steps forward and stepped on the head of the T-shirt man who was still wailing, stomping his face on the ground and said in a cold voice: "Now, do you have anything to say?"

The man broke into a manic cuss: "Fuck ah!"

Ji Feng only exerted a little force and instantly made the man scream miserably.

Ji Feng said in a cold voice, "If you still don't know what to do, then it seems I can only use my method to let you know!"

"Kid, do you know who I am?" The man was being stepped on, but his mouth was still letting out harsh words, "I won't let you off the hook if you dare to treat me like this"

"Still dare to talk tough?"

Ji Feng snorted coldly, "I think you really want to die"

"Wait a minute!"

Seeing that Ji Feng was about to make another move to clean up that guy, He Hongwei suddenly spoke up, he gave Ji Feng a wink and said, "Forget it, let him get lost, this kind of person is not worth bothering with him."

Ji Feng looked at He Hongwei, but saw the latter nodding slightly as his eyes glanced over to the left front.

Ji Feng's heart moved, immediately followed He Hongwei's gaze and looked over, he realized that this guy was driving a Mercedes Benz, and looking at the license plate, it actually had a government number plate, and looking at the numbers, it seemed to be the car of one of the more prominent leaders in Yuezhou city government?

Ji Feng's mind turned rapidly, but for a while he didn't understand He Hongwei's thoughts, wondering if he didn't want others to know that he had come to Yuezhou yet, or if there was some other reason.

"Suit yourself!" Ji Feng raised an eyebrow, then lifted his foot from the guy's face and said, "Kid, count yourself lucky today, if it was in normal times, see how I'll clean you up!"

"Hmph! You're still cleaning me up?" The guy gritted his teeth and got up from the ground and said angrily, "I remember you guys, just wait, you'll have a hard time later!"

"So, you still want to take revenge on us?" Ji Feng asked with a frown.

"Retaliate against you guys? What a joke!" When the man heard Ji Feng's words, he snorted, "You guys also ask around in this Guangdong Province, who dares to treat me like this here? You guys are really fucking awesome, if I don't make you two submissive, I'll write Zhang Gang's name backwards!"

Ji Feng's face suddenly turned gloomy as he stared at the man who claimed to be named Zhang Gang and said in a cold voice, "You rushed over from the bus lane, which itself violated the traffic rules, and as a result made our car have an accident, and instead of compensating, you cursed and even tried to hit my friend!”

“..... And now, you want to retaliate against us?”

Ji Feng’s voice was a bit low, but even a fool could hear the anger contained in it, “I want to ask, what makes you so cross?”

“On what grounds?”

The man waved his hand and said with a big grin, “Because I’m Zhang Gang! Kid, don’t talk so much fucking nonsense to me, you beat me up today, I’ll remember you”

“It’s best if you can remember!”

Ji Feng directly interrupted his words, coldly stared at him and said in a deep voice: “Since you are so rampant, then I have nothing more to say, now, please compensate us for the damages immediately!”

Zhang Gang was stunned, “Make me compensate?”

Ji Feng nodded his head very seriously and said, “That’s right!”

“Ha!”

Zhang Gang suddenly gave a very strange laugh, as if he had found an incomparably absurd joke: “You’re not out of your mind, are you? How dare you ask me to compensate? You can ask around, how many people in this Guangdong Province dare to ask me to pay compensation?”

You’re the one who’s out of your fucking mind!

He Hongwei secretly said in his heart, he looked at this man called Zhang Gang with astonishment, was this man really without any brains at all, or was he just so ignorant because he was usually so used to being arrogant?

Couldn’t he see that even though he had given his name and acted so wildly, Ji Feng was indifferent to it? Even his anger was getting stronger and stronger?

Anyone with a little bit of brain should have thought that since Ji Feng dared to do this, he must have something to fall back on, but this guy in front of him couldn’t see it at all?

However, when He Hongwei saw the fierce and contemptuous look on this guy’s face, He Hongwei also understood that it was obvious that this guy named Zhang Gang also had something to fall back on, and that this guy probably saw that the car they drove was not as expensive as his, and probably thought that it was just an ordinary rich family, so that’s why he was so fierce.

He Hongwei couldn’t help but shake his head, this kind of person is really arrogant and used to, this is also met with him and Ji Feng, if today and this guy started a conflict with just an ordinary citizen, then can imagine how this person will bully others!

“You’re not compensating?” Ji Feng asked.

“Cut the fucking crap ah” Zhang Gang hadn’t even finished his sentence when a sharp pain instantly spread from his stomach throughout his body, and immediately, he only felt his body lighten, and his whole body directly He flew backwards and hit the car once more with a clang

“Boom~!”

Zhang Gang fell to the ground once more and wailed once more.

However, this time Ji Feng did not show any mercy, he slowly stepped forward and came to Zhang Gang, his right foot raised high and stepped down violently on Zhang Gang’s wrist.

“Ka-chow!” A sound.

With the sound of bones cracking, one could only see that Zhang Gang’s wrist had actually deflated instantly, showing an abnormal distortion that one could not help but feel one’s scalp tingling at the sight.

In a flash, Zhang Gang’s wailing stopped instantly, he stared dead in the eyes, the blue veins on his forehead rose up abruptly, his mouth was even open wide, his face was turned red

It was as if, Zhang Gang’s entire body suddenly paused for a few seconds.

Immediately, an incomparable miserable scream shouted out from his mouth, “Ah—”

An unspeakable pain swept through Zhang Gang’s whole body instantly, causing him to tremble to the point where he almost wanted to crash to the ground, so you can imagine how much pain he was experiencing at this moment!

However, Ji Feng looked as if he hadn’t heard, his face sunken, without any extra expression at all He lifted his left foot again and stomped down on Zhang Gang’s already injured elbow.

“Crunch!”

That kind of sound that makes people’s teeth sore and their scalps tingle, if they had never heard it before, I’m afraid they would be uncomfortable and get goose bumps all over their bodies.

However, for Zhang Gang, this sound, it was like a sound from hell, causing his eyes to stare desperately in pain, his body to tremble sharply, his body to sweat, his whole body was simply like a dead fish

His mouth, in particular, was deadly open, as if he wanted to scream, and as if he wanted to beg for mercy.

But in the end, Zhang Gang did not scream, the bones were crushed, the intense pain had already exceeded the limit of what he could endure, so Zhang Gang finally rolled his eyes and passed out.

Ji Feng bent down and reached out to grab Zhang Gang’s belt, casually lifted him up and then heavily placed him on the roof of his Mercedes-Benz, which immediately pressed the whole car down quite a bit.

“This is the easiest way to solve it!” Ji Feng clapped his hands, as if to knock the dust off his hands, while he turned his head to look at He Hongwei, “Sorry, I didn’t hold back for a moment, did I disrupt your plan?”

“That’s not true.” He Hongwei shook his head, “I just saw that this person was driving a car with government number plates, so I didn’t want to alert the official people first, but now? hit it, it’s no big deal!”

“That’s good.”

Ji Feng said with a calm face, “For this kind of person, if I don’t clean him up, I might not be able to sleep at night

He Hongwei smiled and nodded, despite the calm tone of Ji Feng’s speech, yet he could see that Ji Feng’s eyes were hiding a dash of thick anger, it was obvious that Zhang Gang’s behavior had completely angered Ji Feng and made him move with real anger!

Although he didn’t know why Ji Feng was so furious, He Hongwei still chose to respect Ji Feng’s approach and said, “Now that something like this has happened, I think it won’t take long for the officials to investigate us, so in order to gain the greatest initiative before then, should we go back and discuss it now?”

Ji Feng nodded and said, “Well, let’s go!”

Saying that, he once again looked back at the fainted Zhang Gang, a cold light flickering in his eyes.

For this kind of person, Ji Feng was really disgusted to the extreme!

In particular, Zhang Gang’s vicious and bad behavior made Ji Feng instantly think of something from the past, and finally really angered him!

And then, Ji Feng and the three of them set off again, leaving only a black Mercedes parked in the middle of the road, with a man lying on all fours on the roof of the car

There is no shortage of people who like to watch the action in China, so in fact from the moment they both had an accident, there were quite a few people around who stopped to watch the action, all the way to this last scene, and the people around were stunned beyond belief.

This whole process was too dramatic, at first the guy was so aggressive that he was even about to hit someone, but in the blink of an eye he was beaten up like a dead dog, it was simply too upside down.

The ruthlessness of Ji Feng’s beating also made the onlookers couldn’t help but be very shocked.

Stiffly stepping on someone’s wrist and arm, this really makes people’s scalp tingle and the timid ones can’t help but tremble all over.

“Bull what ah, you do not see the big Ben’s license plate ah, that is the official, this time but a good show!”

“Cut! Does an official have a free hand to run around on the road?”

“How dare you beat up an official?”

.....

The people around them were talking in low voices, but they didn't think that the incident they were watching was actually a trigger, and the next thing they knew, it would be a big storm, and it might even affect their lives

Campus Master Chapter 2082

The traffic accident on the road just passed. Although that guy named Zhang Gang was disgusting, neither Ji Feng nor He Hongwei took it to heart. With their cultivation, they were not so bad as to sulk over such a nasty guy.

However, encountering such an incident for no reason was still rather damaging to their mood, so Ji Feng didn't say much on the way, just closed his eyes and rested his mind.

All the way to the hotel to settle down, Ji Feng did not say much.

He Hongwei couldn't help but ask with a smile, "What, still angry about what happened before? It's not worth it for that kind of person, just let bygones be bygones, look on the bright side!"

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "I'm not angry because of that guy, but that guy's behaviour made me a bit angry."

He Hongwei couldn't help but laugh, "I was just about to ask you, I see that you seem to hate that guy, is there a reason for that?"

Zhang Gang's domineering and bad behavior was indeed very irritating, even at that time, even He Hongwei, who always considered himself to be quite cultivated, couldn't help but be angry, but he hadn't thought of fighting with Zhang Gang himself, but He Hongwei didn't expect that Ji Feng would directly take action.

The most important thing was that he could see that Ji Feng was totally indignant at that time, and he had struck with a vicious hand.

So He Hongwei was a bit strange, according to reason they had only come across Zhang Gang by chance, before that Ji Feng should not have had any hatred with Zhang Gang, right?

"There's no reason for that either." Ji Feng, however, shook his head and said, "It's just that that guy's behavior made me think of something from the past."

"So that was the case" He Hongwei then understood somewhat, it seemed that Ji Feng was afraid that he had experienced something like this before, and he must have hated it in his heart at that time, that was why he was so angry when he encountered this kind of thing again this time.

In fact, Ji Feng did have anger in his heart.

Originally, it was all very normal to have an accident on the road, driving would inevitably have some bumps and bruises, it was no big deal.

However, Zhang Gang's arrogant behaviour and bad attitude immediately aroused Ji Feng's anger, because it reminded him of something from his high school days.

This kind of recklessness and even blatantly trampling on other people's dignity on the basis of his background was something that Ji Feng had once experienced firsthand.

When he was in high school, Xu Mo in his class at that time was this kind of person.

The old man's son, the deputy governor of Mang Shi County, was one of the most powerful people in Mang Shi County, and Xu Mo, with his family's power, was so arrogant that even if Ji Feng said a few words to Tong Lei, he had to be threatened by Xu Mo, and if it wasn't for Zhang Lei's help, Ji Feng was sure that he would have suffered and had nowhere to go.

There were many other experiences that had once given Ji Feng this kind of stifling experience, so for people like Zhang Gang and Xu Mo, Ji Feng could really be disgusted to the extreme.

Can people with money and power really do whatever they want?

Are ordinary people not human?

The past experiences made Ji Feng really angry when he thought about it again, but as he grew older and his status changed, Ji Feng's mind gradually calmed down a lot and he became more stable.

However, today, Zhang Gang's bad behavior immediately evoked a memory deep in Ji Feng's heart. He looked at Zhang Gang, and there was no difference between him and those guys he had encountered in the past, it was almost as if they were the same person, which made Ji Feng's anger surge up.

If he hadn't deliberately shown mercy, Zhang Gang would have been more out of breath than in at this moment.

It was also fortunate that Ji Feng had now really grown up and had a much calmer temper, so he just gave Zhang Gang a deep lesson to make him understand some sense, otherwise, with his methods, he could definitely make Zhang Gang live in hell for the rest of his life!

"Ji Feng, I think, some things in the past are just in the past, there is no need to care too much, people always have to look ahead, if they can't put the past behind them, one can never grow up." He Hongwei patted Ji Feng's shoulder and said comfortingly, "The heavier the burden one carries, the slower you will walk, and even after a long time, you might be crushed by that heavy burden."

Ji Feng glanced at He Hongwei in slight surprise.

He Hongwei smiled, "You don't have to look at me like that, I do know a lot about your past experiences In fact, it's not just me, I'm afraid that anyone who is interested in you, especially some of the families in Yanjing, they would be very interested in your past experiences, it's not even too much to say that they know everything about it."

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, "Interested in me"

"What else do you think?"

He Hongwei said, "How much weight your family has in Yanjing, or even in the political arena of China, I don't need to say much, right? Just imagine, the old Ji family suddenly has an additional direct descendant, and it's also Elder Ji's own grandson, do you think others will not pay attention?"

Ji Feng shook his head, "I just didn't expect that they would be so interested in my past as well, and that they would know it in such detail!"

"Because your appearance was beyond everyone's expectation. Moreover, your identity is too important and too damning for many people, if you become the leader of the third generation of the Ji family in the future and the outside world doesn't know anything about you, this would be an absolute taboo for many people, so investigating your past would become a necessity."

He Hongwei said bluntly, "How is your temper, what experiences you have had in the past, your upbringing and so on, only after understanding these can we fully understand you as a person, when the time comes, whether to choose to have a good relationship with you or to take various precautionary measures against you in advance, some people will have a spectrum in their hearts, in fact, to take a step back, if it were you, if the Wu family suddenly I'm afraid that if it were you, if the Wu family suddenly produced an additional first-born son, you would likewise do the same."

The first thing that I would like to do is to take a look at the situation.

"So then, it's better to look on the bright side, after all, for you, what happened in the past already belongs to the past, what we really have to face is the future." He Hongwei said.

"You're really open-minded!" Ji Feng laughed.

"What else can we do?"

He Hongwei stretched his hands and said, "You know the grudge between me and Wu Zhiyong, if I wasn't more open-minded, do you think I could have endured it for so long, just by being patient? Past experiences are memories and a treasure that we should cherish, not abhor."

Ji Feng laughed: "I never thought you'd still like philosophy."

He Hongwei said, "This is not philosophy, but an experience derived from one's own experience. Brother, think more about the future and maybe you will make a new discovery!"

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, "It seems that I really need to learn from you in many aspects."

"It's better to learn from each other!" He Hongwei laughed, "At least, your clean and sharp means of solving problems today is worth learning from me, if you weren't here today, I would definitely have been beaten up!"

"Then let's learn from each other." Ji Feng nodded and smiled.

He Hongwei laughed, "Not bored now, are you? Then let's talk about the next move?"

Ji Feng nodded at once and said, "I'm all ears."

"You kid"

He Hongwei shook his head and laughed before saying, "I've told you all about my plan in Jiangzhou in general, only that before the plan goes ahead, I'm going to put a little pressure on certain people first. I'm going to tell some people that I, He Hongwei, am here!"

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows and asked, "Then how do you plan to do it?"

He Hongwei said, "I'm going to register a company in Yuezhou first, targeting those strategic projects that the Brilliant Group holds in its hands, create a buzz first, see how the Wu family will react, and then decide what to do next, what do you think?"

Ji Feng deliberated for a moment and said, "I don't think there's any problem."

The plan that He Hongwei said was not much different from what he had said back in Jiangzhou, firstly, he would form huge pressure on the Brilliant Group and the Wu family from the public opinion, forcing them not to dare to sign the contract with the Kepong people rashly, so that he could achieve the purpose of stalling for time.

Then, the following actions would not have to be carried out in such a hurry.

"Alright then, since you also agree, we will do so!" He Hongwei said, "You guys just got off the plane, take a rest first, I'll send someone to do the matter of registering the company!"

"Fine!" Ji Feng nodded, registering a company like this must be very tedious, and Ji Feng was too lazy to bother, so he nodded and agreed.

Maybe it was because the matter was too urgent, or maybe because He Hongwei also wanted to fight with the Wu family as soon as possible to vent the anger he had been holding in his heart for so long, so in just two days' time, a series of formalities had already been completed.

While the formalities were being completed, He Hongwei had also chosen the office address for his new company – an office building on a busy road in Yuezhou, where he had rented an office with a golden sign on it.

Tian Yao Group, Teng Fei Group Cooperation Office.

Ji Feng looked at the sign and couldn't help but laugh: "Is this the name of the company you came up with? It's really special."

He Hongwei laughed, "It's just a temporary company, it's the same with any name."

Ji Feng didn't care much about it, just like what He Hongwei said, it was just a temporary company, there was no need to care so much about it.

When he came inside the company, he saw that it was almost like 20 to 30 square feet inside, with a common office area and two offices, it didn't look much different from some other small companies that were just starting out.

"I've already called people over, they'll all be here by evening, we'll officially open tomorrow" He Hongwei was saying, when he suddenly heard a crisp sound coming from outside: "Pop, pop, pop!"

It seemed to be the sound of high heels on the floor.

As the sound got closer and closer, a red shadow appeared at the entrance of the office, only to hear a woman grumpily asking, "Hey, who is the boss of this company? Come out and talk!"

Campus Master Chapter 2083

As the voice came closer and closer, a red shadow appeared at the entrance of the office, only to hear a woman grumpily ask, "Hey, who's the owner of this company? Come out and talk!"

Ji Feng and the three of them immediately looked at the sound and saw a woman appear at the door.

This woman was dressed in a very fashionable way, only to see that she was wearing a hot red hip skirt, the neckline of the skirt was very low, and the bottom was just above the hips, a pair of long legs were completely exposed, especially, the skirt was still tight, almost tightly around her body, her figure was completely protruding out, very conspicuous, and very hot.

Anyone who saw this woman at first glance could not help but take a look at the clothes she was wearing, really because she was so eye-catching in this outfit.

This is not to mention that this woman's hair was even permed into big curved waves, draped over her shoulders, her face was even polished white, and the lips, coated with coloured lipstick, the whole person simply seemed to have walked out of a fashion magazine.

What was even more surprising to the three of them was that this woman had a haughty look on her face, and she looked at Ji Feng and the others with a very strange gaze, as if she was a queen talking to her own men.

It would be a bit of an exaggeration to say how beautiful this woman was, but this woman was very noticeable, both in her dress and in that haughty look of hers.

Seeing that none of the three of Ji Feng spoke, the woman's face immediately looked a little unhappy, her eyebrows slightly knitted, her gaze became a little fierce, she swept a glance at the three of Ji Feng and raised her voice a few more points: "Are all three of you deaf, didn't you hear me speak?"

The three of them couldn't help but stare at the same time at Ji Feng's words, and Ji Feng and He Hongwei glanced at each other, both seeing the consternation in each other's eyes.

This woman was talking too arrogantly, right?

"What about you guys, why don't you answer, are you deaf or stupid?" Once she saw that none of the three of Ji Feng actually responded, the woman instantly sank her face.

"This lady, do you have something to do?" He Hongwei spoke up, he really couldn't understand what this woman had to do with suddenly appearing in front of the company. According to reason, their company hadn't even opened yet, there should be no business coming to their door.

What's more, looking at the woman's stance, it didn't seem like she was here to talk business, but rather like she was looking for a fight.

"Finally, a breath of fresh air!" Who knows, the woman snorted coldly and fanned her face with one hand as a fan, while saying, "Are you the boss here, let your boss come out and talk!"

"Heh!"

He Hongwei smiled faintly and said, "That's right, I am the boss here, I wonder what you want?"

When the woman heard that, she couldn't help but glance at He Hongwei and asked, "You're the boss?"

He Hongwei smiled and nodded, "Yes, I am the boss. I don't know if you"

"That's good!"

The woman didn't even wait for He Hongwei to speak, she directly waved her hand and said with a big grin, "Since you are the boss, then I'll get straight to the point, I'm here today to show you a clear path"

"Eh?"

He Hongwei and Ji Feng both couldn't help but be stunned at the same time, "To point out a clear path?"

The two looked at each other, both could not help but be a little stunned, what does this mean, they really do not quite understand.

When the woman saw this, she couldn't help but say, "Let me tell you this, you should know that this Fortune Plaza is a famous office building in Yuezhou, and it is also located in a busy area, right?"

"That's right, but what does this have to do with the bright road you're talking about?" He Hongwei asked.

The office address they had chosen was precisely the office building A of Fortune Plaza in Yuezhou, which was indeed located in a relatively prosperous part of Yuezhou, and it was also true that this Fortune Plaza was relatively famous in Yuezhou, and many large companies were located here.

However, both Ji Feng and He Hongwei did not quite understand this woman's words.

How come they still needed her to show them a clear path when they were working here?

"Listening to your accents, you should be from overseas, right?" The woman shook her head, "No wonder you guys know nothing"

"What, is there something else to say about this?" Ji Feng asked.

"Of course there is, otherwise why would I come here? It's not like I've had enough!" The woman skimmed her lips and said, "Well, I'm too lazy to talk nonsense with you guys, let's put it this way, then although Fortune Plaza is famous and the location is quite prosperous, however, there are rules for opening a company here."

"What rules?"

Ji Feng and He Hongwei asked at the same time.

The woman raised her eyebrows and said, "The rules are simple, the more prosperous the location, the more people flow, so the more chaotic this law and order and so on. So what, if you want to keep the company running normally, you have to find a way to ensure the safety of the company and its employees."

He Hongwei asked, "Then what you mean is"

"Are you stupid?"

The woman grunted, "What is the best way to ensure the normal operation of the company and the safety of the employees? Of course it's to hire people to maintain order to ensure security."

He Hongwei couldn't help but laugh, "We've already hired security guards, and there were already security guards from the property in this Fortune Plaza building, so we don't need to worry about this security and order."

"Humph!"

The woman snorted, "Just those security guards you hired? They're useless! Let me tell you, in this area, only our brother Zhang has the say, as long as our brother Zhang gives the word, those security guards won't even dare to say a word! If you don't behave yourselves, if anything goes wrong, you won't be able to blame anyone but yourselves!"

Although this woman was dressed in fashion, she spoke with a lot of foul language, even more bold than some of the young girls on the road.

He couldn't help but ask, "In that case, if we want to open a company here, then we must first go and worship this Zhang Gang's dock?"

The woman hummed, "What else do you think?"

He Hongwei asked, "Then if we don't visit this Zhang, will we be in constant trouble in the future?"

The woman nodded, "That's for sure, in this area, if our brother Zhang doesn't give the word, you will definitely have trouble with entanglements, and by then, not to mention that you want to open a company, even if you want to gain a foothold in this area, it will be impossible!"

Ji Feng and He Hongwei looked at each other and shook their heads and smiled at the same time.

They finally understood the woman's meaning, daring to say that this woman was not here to show them any clear path, but to specifically inform them that they had to pay protection fees to that Brother Zhang she was talking about!

This was clearly a warning to them that if they did not visit Brother Zhang and give him favours, he would make it impossible for them to gain a foothold here.

He Hongwei couldn't help but laugh and cry, for as long as he could remember, this was the first time he had ever encountered someone collecting protection money from him, this was really new!

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and laugh, he had encountered all kinds of things, but this was the first time he had encountered a protection fee, which indeed made him cry and laugh.

Bai Zhu was the only one who looked at the red-skirted woman with a stern gaze.

She couldn't help but sneer, this woman really has a sharp eye, what kind of person can she find to collect protection fees, but found the head of Ji Shao and He Hongwei.

Who else could she ask to collect protection money, but them?

This is really the old man hanging himself – he thinks his life is too long!

The next moment, Bai Zhu's gaze took on a cold intent, this woman really didn't know how high the sky was, she dared to come here to threaten Ji Shao, she really didn't know how to write the word "death"!

"What, you guys didn't understand my words?" Seeing the odd look on the faces of Ji Feng and the two of them, the red-skirted woman was displeased, "You two are really as stupid as you can be! Since that's the case, then I'll tell you directly, if you want to do business in this Fortune Plaza in peace, you must"

However, before she could finish her words, she was interrupted by He Hongwei: "Alright, alright, I understand what you mean, you want protection money, right?"

The woman froze, and then said, "It seems you're not too pumped! However, the name protection money is too unpleasant, our brother Zhang just wants to maintain the law and order in this area and protect your safety, since he has made an effort, then you should support him at any rate, this is also appropriate!"

"I understand what you mean." He Hongwei nodded, forcing back the laughter in his heart, and said, "This lady, I can also tell you clearly and unmistakably that we have not lost a single cent of the property and security fees that should be paid, while you want to collect protection fees, I'm sorry, I won't pay a single cent!"

"What did you say?" The red-skirted woman's eyebrows went up and she said angrily, "Say that again!"

"I'll say the same thing ten more times, wanting protection money, no way!" He Hongwei's face sank, "You are simply lawless, you dare to collect protection money here, I think you are really arrogant to the extreme!"

"Aren't you guys afraid of running into trouble in the future?" The red-skirted woman's voice became low, and she asked with a threatening tone.

"Alright, alright"

He Hongwei, however, waved his hand and said, "We understand what you mean, but I advise you not to play rough here, we will definitely not pay this protection fee, so you don't need to waste your breath here."

The woman's face turned gloomy: "You said that! I should remind you that it's not like no one has ever said that to me before, but in the end, those people all had to meekly run to me and beg!"

"We definitely won't!" He Hongwei laughed, "That's the only thing you have to say, right? Now that you've finished, then you should go, we still have things to discuss, so don't bother us here!"

As he spoke, He Hongwei waved his hand.

The red-skirted woman was instantly disgusted, He Hongwei's action was simply like chasing away a fly, not taking her seriously at all, she said with a gloomy face, "Good! I hope you remember what you said in the sky, and don't regret it in the future"

Campus Master Chapter 2084

The red-skirted woman was instantly disgusted, He Hongwei's actions were simply like chasing away a fly, not taking her seriously at all, she said with a gloomy face, "Good! I hope you remember what you said in the sky, and don't regret it later"

He Hongwei shook his head and said, "I, He Hongwei, really don't know what regret means."

"Humph! You will know later!" The red-skirted woman snorted coldly, "Only, by then it will be too late for you to regret it!"

"Then let's wait until I regret it!" He Hongwei said.

"..... You wait!" The red-skirted woman gave He Hongwei a somewhat huffy look and said in an unkind tone. It was obvious that her tone carried a threatening meaning.

However, neither He Hongwei nor Ji Feng would take this threat of hers seriously at all, and the two of them just listened to it as a joke.

In China, there were still people who collected protection money from them, this was really a joke!

Not to mention this red-skirted woman, even if the so-called Brother Zhang behind her came in person, He Hongwei and Ji Feng would not give a damn.

It was really because the difference between them was too great.

If Ji Feng and He Hongwei were just ordinary businessmen, they would not have paid less protection money.

But the problem is, whether it is Ji Feng or He Hongwei, they are not ordinary people, and people like the woman in the red dress, even including the brother Zhang as the woman in the red dress said, they are nothing in the eyes of Ji Feng.

It was simply impossible to get Ji Feng and the two of them to pay protection fees to them.

However, the red-skirted woman seemed to be very confident as she stretched out her onion-white finger and pointed at Ji Feng and the two of them with a cold smile on her face, "Very well! Two handsome men, you are the most ballsy men I've ever seen, I hope you can keep going, maybe I'll still be attracted to you yo don't be a wimp!"

He Hongwei said, "Don't worry, we won't let you down for sure!"

"That's good!"

The red-skirted woman smiled faintly and said, "Then I'll wait to see how you guys perform"

He Hongwei smiled and nodded his head, "Take care, I won't see you off!"

"Humph!"

The red-skirted woman's face sank steeply before she gave Ji Feng and He Hongwei a sidelong glance, turned around and walked away.

"Ta-da-da"

The sound of high heels tapping against the ground came again and gradually disappeared.

Ji Feng and He Hongwei glanced at each other, and both of them couldn't help but shake their heads with a smile.

"Brother Hongwei, it seems that this trip to Southern Guangdong didn't seem to go too well!" Ji Feng couldn't help but laugh, "We haven't even opened this place yet, and someone is already coming to our door to collect protection fees, who knows what other situations will arise in the future!"

"Hmph! No matter what situation arises, there's nothing to say anyway!" He Hongwei grunted.

This hadn't even been officially listed for business yet, and as a result, it had attracted the covetousness of certain people, which indeed made He Hongwei very unhappy, so his tone when he spoke was not too good.

And for Ji Feng, these things are very funny, actually someone received protection money received their head, this is really let him do not know what to say good.

Bai Zhu, however, looked stern, and the way that woman did it just now made her very unhappy and at the same time more wary.

This just arrived in Yuezhou and someone came to pick a fight, in the future, I do not know how many more people look at the wrong way and want to come to find discomfort.

"Ji Feng, it looks like our plan needs to be accelerated!" He Hongwei said.

"Well!"

Ji Feng nodded and said, "That's what I mean too."

This had only just arrived in Yuezhou, and there was no telling what kind of cats and dogs were jumping out, if it took longer, they wouldn't be able to cope with these little minions alone, let alone stop the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Boundary Pontiffs.

He Hongwei immediately said, "Then, there's no time to lose, let's set up the company tomorrow morning and then start acting immediately."

Ji Feng nodded and said, "That's what I mean too."

.....

Early the next morning, Ji Feng and He Hongwei got up early, and after quitting properly, He Hongwei came to Ji Feng's room.

"Why are you dressed like this?" He Hongwei couldn't help but be stunned.

Seeing as today was the opening day of the company, Ji Feng was actually just wearing a very casual outfit.

A white T-shirt, dark coloured casual trousers and casual leather shoes under his feet, how could he look like a company owner without any semblance of one.

Ji Feng laughed: "It doesn't matter what you wear then, the key is to see how things are done."

He Hongwei shook his head and said, "But nowadays many people tend to look at your clothes and thus decide what attitude to use to treat you, and what's even more comical is that even if you're wearing international designer clothes, the vast majority of people in China don't recognize them."

Ji Feng laughed: "It's not just international brand names, ah, not many people recognize the work of some famous domestic clothing designers either."

He Hongwei said, "That's why it's better for you to wear something more formal!"

Ji Feng followed good advice and decisively changed into a suit that was neither too expensive nor too low, yet in doing so, he could not help but make both He Hongwei and Bai Zhu shine.

Perhaps it was because of his long practice of aerobics, which made Ji Feng's body slender, without any extra fat on his body, whether on his waist or his arms and legs, all of them were firm muscles, so when he put on the suit, it was simply a natural clothes rack, and his whole temperament had completely changed.

As of now, if someone were to say that Ji Feng was the son of an aristocrat who had come down through several generations, there would be absolutely no one to doubt it.

Bai Zhu's eyes even shone with a strange light, Ji Feng is usually dressed in a casual way, today he happened to dress up in this formal way, but is so radiant, let Bai Zhu look, also do not know what comes to mind, can not help but a slight blush.

However, the establishment of the office was incomparably low-key, because fireworks are not allowed in Yuezhou on normal days, so they just put up a few flower baskets at the entrance of Fortune Plaza, which also represented the official establishment of the office.

As for the guests who came to attend, there were almost none of them.

The only ones who came were some of the staff that He Hongwei had transferred from Yanjing Tianyao Group, and apart from that, there were only a few congratulatory people from the Fortune Plaza office building.

So the opening of the office appeared to be uneventful and did not attract anyone's attention except for the property company of Fortune Plaza.

However, just as the office opening ceremony was about to be explained, a few unexpected guests suddenly arrived.

These people were all wearing uniforms, and their faces were even written as if they were 'coming from a bad place'.

As soon as Ji Feng and He Hongwei saw these people, they immediately frowned, these people were obviously not good people, which could be seen from their expressions.

On the shoulder straps of these people's uniforms, the word industry and commerce was written.

Obviously, they were staff of the Industry and Commerce Bureau, and coming here was obviously not a good thing.

“Who is in charge of this company? Stand out and say something!” A guy in uniform asked loudly.

“I am the person in charge, I don’t know if there is anything you all want?” He Hongwei stepped forward.

“Show me your business licence, and all your paperwork!” The man said with a big grin, “Someone has reported that there are violations of the law in your place, and now we want to inspect it in detail.”

“Could it be a mistake?!”

As soon as He Hongwei heard this, his face sank steeply, all the formalities of the office were run down by him, he had started preparing for this even before Ji Feng had come to Yuezhou, what was not legal in this?

What’s more, He Hongwei himself was engaged in business, and he had studied the law very thoroughly for a long time. He knew very well that there was nothing illegal about the establishment of the office, not even any violation of local regulations.

However, the staff member of the industry and commerce department glared at him and said, “What did you say? Have we made a mistake? Do you know what you are talking about?”

He said in an unpleasant tone, “Let me tell you, it’s lucky that civilised law enforcement is now in vogue, otherwise I would have slapped you with your words! Cut the crap and show us all your paperwork, we’ll check it and make sure it’s all right before you open!”

Swish!

He Hongwei’s face sank abruptly.

This gang was simply too lawless, were these people industrial and commercial people, or were they the legendary bandits?

They even slapped and smacked over

He Hongwei’s face sank steeply as he said in a deep voice, “Leaders, there is no problem with the formalities you want to check, all kinds of formalities here are legal

“That’s not necessarily true, is it?”

He Hongwei’s words were not even finished when a woman’s voice was suddenly heard, “If your formalities here are all legal, then why do these leaders have to come and check? Do you think these leaders have nothing better to do than to eat?”

Swish!

Ji Feng and He Hongwei’s faces sank at the same time, they immediately heard out that the owner of this voice was no other than the red-skirted woman who had come yesterday.

Ta-da-da~~

As expected, with a sound of high heels, the woman from before reappeared in front of Ji Feng and He Hongwei. But this time, the woman’s face was tinged with a bit of coldness.

“You two, didn’t expect it, didn’t you, this day hasn’t even arrived yet and we meet again!”

“Indeed I didn’t expect it!”

He Hongwei shook his head and smiled, saying, “I really didn’t expect that what you said would actually come true

The red-skirted woman instantly smiled smugly, “What do you think? I told you a long time ago that in this Yuezhou, if you don’t respect our brother Zhang’s words, your business won’t be able to go on, but you didn’t believe me

Now you know, right?”

“Yes, I do know!”

He Hongwei couldn’t help but feel: “I really don’t know what you guys are capable of, to be able to easily mobilize the law enforcement officers from industry and commerce to cooperate with you

He Hongwei originally thought that this red-skirted woman only dared to be arrogant because she relied on that so-called Brother Zhang, but she didn’t expect that she could actually easily mobilize the law enforcement officers of the Bureau of Industry and Commerce, and that she could go to investigate a business very freely.

This kind of atmosphere gave He Hongwei a new understanding of the environment and social atmosphere in Southern Guangdong.

If it were in Yanjing or Jiangzhou, this kind of thing would be almost impossible to happen.

Because everyone knows that in order to develop the economy, there must at least be a good investment environment, so that investors do not have to be apprehensive and unsure, and only in this way can the local economy be driven forward, ultimately benefiting both the people and the government.

In this regard, Yanjing and Jiangzhou are doing quite well, although there are various kinds of foul play and darkness in them, and there is no lack of nasty people among the officials, but even the nastier officials understand that only when the economy is developed can they make money more easily.

That’s why they spare no effort to maintain the local investment environment.

What was even more crucial was that this red-skirted woman came to the door openly to collect protection money, without any half-hearted attempt to hide it, and even when He Hongwei shook his head and refused her, she actually spoke with threats.

This situation really stunned both He Hongwei and Ji Feng.

If they had opened a small shop on the street, they would not have been surprised if some hooligans or people from the road came to collect protection money, because that’s what hooligans and people from the road do in many places, and some small shops are also happy to pay some protection money every month, so that they can avoid harassment from some hooligans, and if there's something wrong, people from the road will also help you out.

But this is Fortune Plaza, a high-class office building on a busy road in Yuezhou, and this is actually happening?

And this woman was so direct in asking for money, as if it was a matter of course.

This really opened the eyes of both Ji Feng and He Hongwei!

I really don't know what they are doing with the large sum of money they are paying to the building's property!

He Hongwei and Ji Feng looked at each other, and both of them couldn't help but shake their heads and laugh, what with the industry and commerce coming to check the formalities and saying that someone had reported these were just excuses, it was all bullshit!

Their purpose is to ask for money in this way!

This is really arrogant to the extreme!

"Really powerful!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and laugh, sighing: "Using people from industry and commerce to collect protection money, and actually making it like an arm, this really makes me grow up!"

"I don't understand what you're saying."

Who knows, but the red-skirted woman said with a smile, "These comrades come to inspect, that's their job, besides, they are state employees, I can't command them. Only, if you guys have to interpret it this way I can't help it!"

Ji Feng and He Hongwei were instantly amused, they both almost burst out laughing.

Even a blind man could see that the staff of the industry and commerce were here to support this red-skirted woman, or to be precise, this red-skirted woman had transferred over to show power to Ji Feng and the others.

The situation here has been clear for a long time, and any explanation is hypocritical.

But this red-skirted woman still had to find some grand excuse and end with another point, another smug display of power.

Ji Feng and the two of them didn't know what to say anymore, they could only shake their heads speechlessly.

Needless to say, it was a show of strength and showing off their muscles now, but if they still didn't cooperate next, then it would not just be a show of strength then, it would be time to make a move.

If they want to find fault with you, then even if your formalities are perfect and legal, they can still find loopholes in them, a tactic that Ji Feng understands very well.

“Listen, I don’t have that much time to waste with you here, so I’ll only give you a minute to think about it!” The red-skirted woman said with a smiling face, “If after one minute you still haven’t made the right choice, then

“It’s certainly no problem if you want to pay!” Ji Feng interrupted her, he really didn’t want to continue listening to the woman’s smugness, “However, I can’t just hand over the money to a stranger for no reason, it’s after all my hard earned money, not something I picked up from the street, what do you think?”

“So what do you want to do?” The red-skirted woman asked, an incomparable look of triumph flashing in her eyes, secretly saying, this is also a goods that doesn’t know pain without beating, little boy, if you can, you continue to be tough, why do you go weak as soon as you see our energy?

The red-skirted woman’s expression was naturally clearly seen by Ji Feng, but Ji Feng didn’t bother to bother with her about this, he just said: “At least, I need to know who you are before I can give money, right? Also, I need to know what kind of person you are talking about, Brother Zhang, to see how much power you guys really have.”

He said, “If you guys are just bluffing and another Wang or Li comes along later, I’ll have to pay again?”

“I can tell you this, in this area, apart from our brother Zhang, no one dares to come and ask you for money!” The red-skirted woman had a smug and arrogant look on her face.

Ji Feng, however, shook his head and said, “No! I have to see Brother Zhang and I will only give the money after I have established your power, otherwise, even if I don’t open this company, I won’t hand over a single dime to you!”

He Hongwei glanced at Ji Feng and couldn’t help but smile slightly, he guessed what Ji Feng was going to do and a wave of anticipation rose in his heart.

He was also eager to see where this arrogant red-skirted woman, and that bullish to the core Brother Zhang she spoke of, were the gods that had appeared, so arrogant that they not only dared to openly come to the door to ask for protection money, but could also so make it so that they could instruct the business sector to come and do things for them!

“Kid, don’t be insensitive!”

The industrial and commercial officer who spoke earlier shouted lowly and glared, “Let me tell you, this is Sister Ying, she is Brother Zhang’s woman, if you continue to be so arrogant, as long as Brother Zhang says one word, you won’t be able to gain a foothold in this Yuezhou.”

“Sister Ying?”

“That’s right, it’s me.” The red-skirted woman nodded her head in triumph.

Ji Feng raised an eyebrow, “Is that Brother Zhang really as powerful as he says he is?”

The man hummed: “If you don’t believe me, just try it yourself and you’ll see

“I warned you yesterday when I came and you didn’t believe me, so what about today?” Sister Ying, however, raised her chin in triumph and said, “You can likewise try again now!”

“Heh~~!”

Seeing this arrogant look on Sister Ying’s face, Ji Feng couldn’t help but shake his head and laugh, he really couldn’t understand what it was about these people that warranted such pride and would make them so arrogant, did they really think that they could just take control of other people’s lives and deaths at will?

“What, you don’t dare to try?”

Seeing that Ji Feng just shook his head and laughed, Sister Ying thought that Ji Feng was afraid, but yet he was not willing to give in because he was in the way of face, this kind of person Sister Ying had seen a lot, they were all the kind of people who were wimpy and good at saving face, and she thought that Ji Feng was also this kind of person.

“I’ll pay as much as I want as soon as you let Brother Zhang come to see me! Otherwise, if I can’t see Brother Zhang, everything is free.”

Sister Ying’s eyes immediately glared and she was about to speak, but the man in the industrial and commercial uniform next to her shouted violently, “Kid, don’t get yourself into trouble! What this Sister Ying said is what Brother Zhang meant, if you still want to gain a foothold in Yuezhou, you’d better cooperate a little

However, before this man could finish his words, he only felt the corners of his eyes jumping wildly, his scalp tingling, and a chill rising all over his body, as if he had the feeling of being targeted by a poisonous snake, causing his soul to rise up and his originally arrogant voice to come to an instant and abrupt halt.

He turned his head and saw a very beautiful woman staring at him with cold eyes and a feeling of trepidation in them – he didn’t know it, but it was a killing machine!

This businessman’s strange appearance was so obvious that it immediately drew the attention of the others, and when Sister Ying followed his gaze, she instantly saw Bai Zhu, who was standing beside Ji Feng, staring at them with a fierce look in her eyes, the kind of icy look that made her heart flinch.

But the next moment, the awe in Sister Ying’s heart quickly disappeared, and was replaced by a strong jealousy.

–Sister Ying did not expect how this woman could be so beautiful.

In front of this woman, what Sister Ying was originally most proud of instantly disappeared, her figure and face, which she was always so proud of, had no advantage at all in front of Bai Zhu

To be precise, she was completely incomparable to Bai Zhu except that she was dressed in a more sultry and revealing way than Bai Zhu!

Of course, being sultry and revealing and wearing as little as possible is sexy to Sister Ying, but even so, she couldn’t help but feel ashamed of herself in front of Bai Zhu.

So Sister Ying then felt that she had been humiliated, and she instantly felt a sense of shame and anger, so Sister Ying’s originally smug look, then she immediately gritted her teeth and her face sank steeply: “I’m telling you, it’s useless to talk more nonsense, now either pay up or

So Sister Ying then felt that she had been humiliated, and she instantly felt a sense of shame and anger, so Sister Ying's originally smug look, then she immediately gritted her teeth and her face sank steeply: "I tell you, it's useless to talk more nonsense, now either pay up or"

Ji Feng shook his head: "It seems you haven't heard my words clearly, I said, to make me pay, then you always have to show something to convince me."

"Cut the crap, since you are not convinced, then I will clean up until you are convinced!" Sister Ying snorted coldly and waved her hand, "What are you still standing there for? Are this company's formalities complete or not, and is there anything illegal or not, why don't you all hurry up and find out!"

As soon as her words fell, the business officer who had spoken before waved his hand, "Check!"

At this time, Sister Ying said, "Remember to act quickly, don't delay people's business!"

"Sister Ying, don't worry, I know what to do!" The man said with a meaningful grin on his face, he said heatedly, and when he turned his head, the look on his face suddenly became fierce and fierce as he bellowed, "Bring out all your company's formalities"

"Heh!"

He Hongwei nodded vigorously and laughed coldly, "Good! Bravo! I've really seen it today, it's great" I'd like to see just how far you can run wild!"

He Hongwei was really annoyed, although he had long known that there were many dark places in the law enforcement team, but this was the first time he had encountered a situation like this today.

The company had just opened and hadn't even started its first business yet, and it had only just set up its shelves, and this group of people came to check the procedures.

Even under the instructions of a woman dressed like a socialite, these businessmen were like obedient dogs, not asking whether the company should be investigated or whether it was reasonable.

This is simply unscrupulous to the point of being outrageous!

He Hongwei's face was iron blue, his gaze was cold as he looked at the gang, his voice was firm and cold: "Today this matter, I, He Hongwei, will definitely pursue it to the end, please remember what I said"

"Cut the fucking crap!"

However, before He Hongwei could finish his words, he was interrupted by a commercial and industrial officer, only to see the man come forward violently and was about to push He Hongwei, while shouting, "Go and bring all your formalities"

"Boom~!"

The next moment, just after hearing a muffled sound, the guy flew straight backwards and instantly crashed into the door with a loud clang.

Everyone was astonished, and when they looked at him, they realised that a small, flat-headed young man of not too tall stature had appeared beside He Hongwei, who looked very ordinary in terms of appearance, stature, and the clothes he was wearing.

This is why no one noticed him before, but now that he suddenly appeared, he gave everyone, including Sister Ying, a big 'surprise'!

Ji Feng and Bai Zhu were unchanged, they both knew that this was He Hongwei's bodyguard, who usually followed him around like a shadow, and would not make a move easily, nor would it affect He Hongwei's life.

However, once He Hongwei was in danger, or if he might encounter any harm, he would immediately step in.

Just now, that staff member of industry and commerce was really arrogant and reached out to push He Hongwei, but the result was that the bodyguard decided that he might cause harm to He Hongwei, so he stepped in.

And the result was that the staff member from the industry and commerce was instantly kicked away and was lying on the ground with his body twitching.

"Uh"

An extremely odd sound came out of the mouth of that staff member of industry and commerce who had been kicked off, showing exactly how much pain he was in at the moment, as he struggled to get up, yet after several consecutive unsuccessful efforts, his body eventually gave a lurch and flopped onto the ground as if he had gone limp all of a sudden.

He had passed out from the pain!

It was evident how powerful the bodyguard's kick was just now, not only did it instantly incapacitate a man in his thirties, but he also passed out.

The most crucial thing was that the bodyguard had a calm face, as if he had done something so insignificant that it was no more difficult than trampling an ant to death.

The company was silent.

A stunned look covered the faces of both Sister Ying and the other business staff.

The situation in front of them was beyond their expectations, leaving them stunned on the spot and not even knowing how to react for a while!

It was only after a full ten seconds or so that they reacted.

This was like stirring up a hornet's nest. A cold and venomous look appeared on Sister Ying's face as she said angrily, "Bastards! Scrap them all for me! including that woman!"

"Give me a go!"

"Get rid of them!"

Those industrial and commercial workers were also in a rage, roaring and rushing forward, looking at the fierce look on their faces, they were about to kill Ji Feng and the others!

Swish!

Bai Zhu took a step forward with a cold light in her eyes and was about to make her move.

But before she could make a move, she saw the small flat-headed youth standing beside He Hongwei, who didn't know where he had fished out a pistol, raised his hand without hesitation and fired a shot.

"Boom~!"

"Flop!" A man instantly fell headlong to the ground, and the next moment, a miserable scream came out hysterically from that man's mouth, "Ah-!"

"Ah?!"

This sudden shot immediately stunned everyone. Those guys who were still trying to charge forward didn't know how they could possibly have such a swift reaction speed, and unexpectedly stopped in their tracks in a flash.

Sister Ying's body even stiffened and her face was shocked beyond belief.

"Whoever dares to come forward again will be killed on the spot!" Little Flathead said, his voice icy cold.

"You, you dare to shoot?!" Sister Ying was shocked, "Don't you want to live anymore?"

"Swish!"

The little flat head didn't even say anything, he directly aimed the gun at Sister Ying, the murderous intent in his eyes showing.

"Stomp, stomp, stomp"

Sister Ying took a few steps backwards in a row, terrified, especially when she saw the strong murderous intent in Little Flathead's eyes, she just felt her body go weak, and even her sweat hairs stood up at the root.

The coldness of the little flat head made her realise that if she made any more moves, this man would dare to shoot her!

"Who the hell are you people?" Ying asked sternly, "Aren't you afraid to go to jail for shooting here?"

"Idiot!"

Bai Zhu said disdainfully.

This woman was obviously used to being arrogant in general and didn't know the sky was the limit before she said such retarded words.

He Hongwei didn't pay any attention to Sister Ying, but patted Little Pinhead's shoulder and said, "Put the gun away, it's just a bunch of vicious dogs, no need to make such a big deal out of it!"

Little Ping Tau put his gun away and his face returned to its previous calm state, but this time, no one dared to treat him as an ordinary person anymore.

How many ordinary people would dare to just fire a gun, and towards a state employee at that?

“Call the police, call the police immediately” Sister Ying shouted as soon as she saw that the little flat head had put away his gun, and she took out her mobile phone at the same time while saying indignantly, “You actually dare to shoot, you are dead!” This matter is not over!”

“I don’t intend to be so finished either!” He Hongwei said in a deep voice.

“Young Ji, should we kick them out?” Looking at Sister Ying and the others backing up while talking on the phone, Bai Zhu couldn’t help but ask.

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “No, just wait and watch the show!”

Bai Zhu then understood what was going on and nodded her head and stopped talking.

Looking at Sister Ying and the others again, they all retreated to the door with a whoop, and the faces of those industrial and commercial staff were not as arrogant as before, although they wanted the money, they did not want to trade their lives for it!

“Ji Feng, are you coming or am I?” He Hongwei asked.

“I’ll do it then.” Ji Feng said.

He Hongwei smiled and nodded his head, saying, “I didn’t expect that our first shot in Southern Guangdong would be fired like this!”

Ji Feng nodded and said, “I’m afraid this is also a sign that our days in Southern Guangdong won’t be much calmer, I’m afraid. Maybe, there will be opportunities to shoot in the future!”

“If it was that easy, why would there be a need for the two of us to come over?!” He Hongwei said.

The two looked at each other with a smile.

Obviously, they had both been mentally prepared for the fierce danger ahead. Moreover, both of them had also made up their minds, how could there be no fierce dangers happening when they faced off against the Martial Family?

Especially since the Wu family still had a Wu Zhiyong in their midst, and that guy had nothing else, but scheming and ruthless tactics that were endless.

The next time there is a chance to shoot, it will be their turn to have a real life and death duel with Wu Zhiyong.

.....

“Hula~!”

The police came quickly, just about ten minutes, and with a sound of footsteps, a group of police appeared outside the door of the office.

Perhaps because they had been alerted that shots had been fired here, the few policemen at the front were wearing bullet-proof vests and had their guns drawn.

"Anyone inside, come out with your hands up for inspection!" The police drank at the door, perhaps because they were worried about Ji Feng shooting at them, so the police all leaned against the sides of the door and did not come in.

"Don't let them out, comrade police, they're all thugs and will really shoot!" Outside the door came Sister Ying's shout, "Rush in and shoot them down immediately!"

"What a vicious woman!" Ji Feng shook his head and turned his head, "This brother, you should hide for a while."

As he spoke, he walked to the window and pulled open the blinds to look, finding that there were also police officers downstairs, he said, "Go through the vent, I believe it won't be difficult for you."

Campus Master Chapter 2087

"Don't let them out, comrade police, they're all thugs and will really shoot!" Came Ying's shout from outside the door, "Rush in and shoot them down immediately!"

"What a vicious woman!" Ji Feng shook his head and turned his head, "This brother, you should hide for a while."

As he spoke, he walked to the window and pulled open the blinds to look, finding that there were also police officers downstairs, he said, "Go through the vent, I believe it won't be difficult for you."

The little flathead shook his head and did not say anything.

He Hongwei said, "Listen to him, what happens next is not something that can be solved by force, they wouldn't dare to do anything to me!"

The little ping-tao hesitated for a moment, but finally nodded and quickly left through the ceiling vent.

"Bai Zhu, you leave too." Ji Feng said.

"Ji Shao"

"Listen, the police station is not some dragon's den, it's fine." Ji Feng said.

"Then you have to be careful." Bai Zhu could only agree.

After they had all left, Ji Feng said, "Well, Brother Hongwei, shall we go out for inspection?"

He Hongwei smiled faintly, "Please do."

Ji Feng laughed, "Better come along!"

The duo swaggered outside, but there wasn't the slightest smile in their eyes. This was because both of them knew that from this moment on, they would start to make waves in Southern Guangdong, which meant that their battle with the Wu family was about to begin.

As soon as Ji Feng and He Hongwei walked out of the entrance of the office, they saw a group of policemen leaning against the wall outside the door, and when they saw them coming out, these policemen were instantly full of vigilance, some of them even took out their pistols in a misty manner, with their black muzzles pointed at Ji Feng and He Hongwei, as if they were worried that they would suddenly get into trouble.

“Ee?”

A surprised voice suddenly rang out, and I saw a red-dressed Sister Ying looking at Ji Feng and He Hongwei in surprise, while screaming, “Comrade police, there are four of them in total, and there is a little flathead who is holding a gun, these two are also very dangerous, you must be careful!”

Hula~!

Those policemen with guns immediately aimed their guns at Ji Feng and the two of them, alert as ever.

Ji Feng took a deep look at Sister Ying and found that he was currently hiding behind a stout policeman, only sticking his head out with a resentful and smug look on his face.

“You’re really tired of living!” He Hongwei said with a sullen face and a cold glint in his eyes.

This woman known as Sister Ying, what she had done had completely angered He Hongwei, this woman was just a little too malicious.

Just because the protection fee had not been received, she had to let the police shoot herself and the others down, perhaps these few lives were no different in her eyes than stepping on a few ants or killing a few dogs.

Even, she treated a dog better than she treated them!

If it wasn’t for the fact that he had received a good education since he was a child and had sufficient connotation, he would have been unable to resist going up and slapping this woman severely.

In her eyes, are a few human lives so unbearable?

The viciousness of this woman’s heart is outrageous!

However, at this moment, Sister Ying laughed coldly, “Am I tired of living? In front of so many police comrades, you still dare to be so arrogant, so you can see how arrogant you are!”

He Hongwei shook his head and stopped talking. He really did not want to say half a word more to Sister Ying, this woman was not only arrogant and arrogant, but also ruthless to the extreme, not taking other people’s lives seriously at all.

And most importantly, the way He Hongwei looked at this woman’s manner of speaking was really chilling. When Ying encouraged the police to shoot them down, it was as if she was talking about a commonplace matter, so it was clear that she hadn’t done much of this kind of thing in her day.

Based on this, He Hongwei had already blacklisted this woman in his heart.

A woman with such a malevolent mind like this had no idea how many people she had harmed in the past, and for such a person to be alive was a danger to many people!

“Listen to the people inside” A policeman was just about to continue shouting when he was interrupted by Ji Feng.

“You don’t need to shout anymore, there’s no one inside, if there’s anything, just go directly to the two of us.” Ji Feng said indifferently.

At the same time, He Hongwei said, “If I’m not wrong, it’s no secret that this Sister Ying is running amok in this area, and I’m sure this is not the first time something like today has happened, but you police officers are not only indifferent, but you actually follow and help the tiger, you’re really rotten to the bone!”

A policeman’s face sank, “Kid, be careful what you say!”

Sister Ying immediately seized the opportunity and shouted, “Comrade police, you have seen how arrogant this man is, he doesn’t even take you guys seriously! Arrest them immediately, or else there could be serious consequences if they do anything later”

“Arrest them!”

A policeman waved his hand at once, and the other policemen rushed forward and drank in an aggressive manner, “Be honest, put your hands up”

Ji Feng and He Hongwei couldn’t help but shake their heads and laugh, raising their hands at the same time, where several policemen would be polite and came up and handcuffed them directly.

“Escort them down, the others go in and search!” The policeman in charge barked.

“Yes!”

The other policemen answered at the same time, however, they did not immediately storm off, but carefully observed the doorway for a while before entering the office catty-cornered.

Ji Feng and He Hongwei were pressed against the wall at the same time, they looked at each other and shook their heads at the same time.

These policemen, they were really rotten to the core.

If they were those elite cops with a high level of operational competence, why would they be such pussies, as long as the situation changed, they would definitely rush in straight away, not to mention that they were all wearing bullet-proof vests?

But this bunch of cops were so cowering, they didn’t look like cops at all!

“Report, there’s no one inside!” A policeman ran out and said loudly.

“Impossible, there are four of them inside, I sent someone to keep an eye on the door when I left, none of them went out, the remaining two must have hidden!” Sister Ying immediately shouted, “Search carefully, they must be inside”

However, no matter how those police officers searched, they couldn’t find a single person, apart from Ji Feng and the two of them, the office was empty, there was no one hiding inside at all.

This made Sister Ying very angry, she almost hated to her bones for that little flat head who had frightened her, but this time she couldn't find it, but no matter how unwilling she was, this was the result.

In the end, Ying could only watch indignantly as the police escorted Ji Feng and He Hongwei away, and then she dialed the phone: "Brother Zhang, the man was caught, but two were run away... ..nasty, saying these rogue words in broad daylight"

.....

Ji Feng and He Hongwei were brought into the police station.

Ji Feng looked as normal, but He Hongwei's face was not so good.

When he was growing up, it was the first time that He Hongwei wore handcuffs into the police station, and he was still made to come in, which made him very annoyed and his face was incomparably gloomy.

However, despite the overwhelming anger in his heart, He Hongwei did not say anything, but just sat down on the interrogation seat with a gloomy face, pushed by the two policemen.

Ji Feng did the same as he looked at the two policemen opposite him and said in a deep voice: "If you do this, aren't you afraid that you will be investigated from above and thus have this skin of yours picked off?"

"Kid, you're arrogant, aren't you?"

A young policeman looked at Ji Feng with squinted eyes and said disdainfully, "I'm not afraid to tell you, I've done this kind of thing a lot, and you're not the only one. But I do admire you, after offending Brother Zhang, you still dare to be so arrogant, you really don't know how to write the word "death"!"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, "I see, you know even less about how to write the word death!"

"Boom~!"

The policeman slapped his hand on the table and shouted coldly, "Cut the crap, say, what's your name, what's your identity and where do you come from"

Ji Feng stared at him with a smirk and asked, "Do you really want to know?"

"Be honest."

The policeman glared: "Cut the crap and give an honest account!"

Ji Feng smiled, "Okay My name is Ji Feng, I am a student of Jiangzhou United University, my family father's name is Ji Zhenhua, he is the Minister of the Organization Department of China, my second uncle's name is Ji Zhenguo, he is the secretary of the Jiangzhou Municipal Committee"

Ji Feng's words have not even finished, the opposite of that police officer froze, he looked at Ji Feng in shock, for a long time did not come back to his senses.

The next moment, this police officer did not even leave half a sentence, directly at once stood up and pulled open the door and hurried out of the interrogation room, looking at his panicked and hurried look, obviously was not lightly shocked.

“You are you telling the truth?” Another policeman looked at Ji Feng in disbelief and asked hesitantly.

“Aren’t you policemen, wouldn’t you know if you check it out?” Ji Feng said.

He had seen many prisoners who talked nonsense in the interrogation room, but there was really no one who dared to pretend to be the son of a central government official, unless he was desperate.

But seeing Ji Feng’s derisive look, the policeman didn’t dare to jump to conclusions, and he didn’t even dare to ask more questions, because at this moment he had realized that if what this young man said was true, then they would be in big trouble!

Perhaps that policeman didn’t know about the Ji family, but a minister’s son and the nephew of the secretary of the Jiangzhou Municipal Committee, these two identities alone were enough to make his heart skip a beat.

Because this policeman really knew too well that today’s action was simply illegal, and could even be said to be planted but it turned out to be planted on the head of such a big government official, what was this if not a death wish?

“Boom~!”

Just at this time, the door of the interrogation room was pushed open and the policeman who led the team before rushed in directly, just as soon as he stood still, he stared at Ji Feng with a deadly stare and asked, “Say it again, who are you?”

“Boom~!”

Just then, the door of the interrogation room was pushed open and the policeman who had led the team before rushed straight in, and as soon as he stood still, he stared at Ji Feng with a deadly stare and asked, “Say it again, who are you?”

“Captain Hu!” The small policeman in the interrogation room hurriedly stood up, pointed at Ji Feng with a stunned expression and stammered, “Captain, he, he said he was”

“I know all about it.”

The policeman known as Captain Hu waved his hand, but his gaze was fixed on Ji Feng’s body, asking in a deep voice: “Repeat everything you just said!”

Ji Feng leaned back in his seat, squinted at him and said with a smirk, “Are you sure you want to listen?”

“What you just said is true?” The policeman asked with a frown.

“Heh~”

Ji Feng, however, shook his head and laughed, and then, he held his arms and just closed his eyes and didn't say a word.

Captain Hu, however, could not drop his guard, he stared at Ji Feng for a while, opened his mouth to say something, but in the end he still did not say a word.

In the end, Captain Hu could only call the little policeman next to him out. After a while, the little policeman walked in, not knowing exactly what the leader had said to him, only to see that he always looked at Ji Feng with a strange look in his eyes, but no longer had the arrogance he had at the beginning, just sitting across the table and looking at Ji Feng from time to time.

Is this guy really the minister's son?!

He's not bragging, is he?

The little policeman looked at Ji Feng and couldn't help but secretly grimace, if this guy was really the minister's son, how could he not have a single person with him?

In the impression of the young policeman, he had never seen any magistrate who did not come out with a group of people in front and behind them, they were all powerful, no matter if they were arrogant and unbeatable or low-profile, they would be accompanied by a few people, at least, there were always bodyguards.

What's more, no magistrate would so easily give up and let the police take them to the police station.

For them, it would be a disgrace!

But the two men arrested today were very different. They didn't even put up any resistance, they just meekly put their hands out and were handcuffed.

Besides, if this guy was really the minister's son, then how could he let Sister Ying off so easily when she was looking for trouble with him, and even let Sister Ying scream from the sidelines?

What kind of person Sister Ying was, the little policeman naturally knew.

In this area, Sister Ying was a big name, Zhang Da Gun's woman, who dared not know her?

But no matter how powerful Zhang Da Cannon and Sister Ying were, they were still far from being able to compete in front of a minister's son, but Sister Ying was unharmed, which meant that the young man in front of him was not very powerful either.

"It must be an impostor!"

The more he thought about it, the more suspicious he felt. He had never seen such a bullying magistrate anyway, and it was such a big magistrate that it was even worse.

Thinking of this, the little policeman looked at Ji Feng with a somewhat unkind gaze.

He felt that both he and the captain had been tricked by this guy, who must be trying to stall for time, or that he was deliberately posing as the minister's son so as not to get cleaned up.

After all, it was Sister Ying he had offended, and she was not normally ruthless when it came to fixing people!

“He really doesn’t know how to live or die!” The little policeman looked at Ji Feng with some sympathy and some contempt, this guy would be able to avoid being cleaned up by this method in the future?

He was too naive, he didn’t even know how powerful Sister Ying and Zhang Da Gun were, not to mention Captain Hu’s methods!

Just as the little policeman was ‘reasoning’ on his own, Ji Feng suddenly opened his eyes and asked, “You seem to be a bit hostile to me, huh?”

“Humph!”

The little policeman snorted coldly and gave Ji Feng a disdainful look, not bothering to pay any attention to him.

Ji Feng was stunned, then shook his head and smiled, and said nothing more.

However, at this moment, the little policeman who thought he had guessed the truth of the matter had no idea that Captain Hu, who was both bullying and ruthless in his eyes, was currently in a state of shock and doubt.

The police officer is not as inexperienced as the police officer, and although he doubts whether Ji Feng’s words are true, he does not dare to deny them easily, and there is nothing wrong with being cautious in the official world.

It was with this mindset that Captain Hu kept an extra eye on the situation and decided to check Ji Feng’s file, as he had said, to see if this guy was making things up or if he really had a lot to offer.

The fact is that the police have a subconscious sense of awe and fear once they enter a police station, so they act a little bit scared, but there are not many people like Ji Feng who don’t seem to put the police in their eyes.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you’re doing.

And if what Ji Feng said was false, then, at most, he only needed to go back and give him a good beating, or directly follow Sister Ying’s wishes to deal with that kid, so that not only could he get out of his own mouth, but also in line with Sister Ying’s wishes, why not do it?

So no matter what, Captain Hu had to go and find out Ji Feng’s identity!

Captain Hu hurriedly walked, however, before he could reach the office, a figure suddenly rushed out in front of him, he couldn’t react in time, and the two of them directly collided with each other.

“Ouch~!”

A painful sound rang out, and he saw Sister Ying sitting on her buttocks on the floor, because she was wearing a wrap-around skirt, so with this sitting, her pair of snow-white thighs were exposed, while the opening of that skirt was facing Captain Hu.

The lace panties and the dark, lustrous piece immediately caught Captain Hu's eye, and all of a sudden, Captain Hu's heart couldn't help but jump wildly a few times, thinking, "This is really a slutty woman, no wonder the surname Zhang pampers her so much, I'm afraid that she is served by her in bed and doesn't know the north and south.

If such a woman could be pressed underneath and ravaged, it would be an absolute pleasure, and I would be willing to live two years less! Captain Hu cursed in his heart, but he did not dare to delay too much and hurriedly went forward to help Sister Ying up.

"Sister Ying, are you alright?" Captain Hu asked with concern, and as he spoke, his hand inadvertently skimmed over Sister Ying's buttocks.

That elastic feeling made Captain Hu's heart burn again.

But when he thought of that Zhang's identity, Captain Hu couldn't help but curse secretly, but his hand was much more disciplined.

"Captain Hu, what are you running so fast for, I can't even dodge you in time, " Ying couldn't help but complain.

When Sister Ying asked this, Captain Hu suddenly blushed and said in a panic, "Sister Ying, I'm in a bit of a hurry, wait for a moment, I need to go back to the office, we'll talk about it later"

"What's so urgent?" Sister Ying interrupted him, "All right, you go and get busy, tell me which interrogation room the two boys that were caught are in, I'll just go there myself!"

"Sister Ying!"

When Captain Hu heard this, he hastily called out.

Sister Ying asked, "What is it?"

Captain Hu's mind turned rapidly, and then he hurriedly said, "Come with me for a moment, I have something for you too, it's not too late for us to go to the interrogation room together later!"

Sister Ying nodded and said, "Alright then, it will take some time for Brother Zhang to get here anyway, so it's not too late for us to go and clean up those two boys together when he arrives."

The duo quickly arrived at Captain Hu's office, and without saying a word, the latter began to investigate Ji Feng's identity.

According to the information shown on the ID card, Ji Feng was indeed from Jiangzhou, and this was indeed true, and because of this, Captain Hu was a bit skeptical about Ji Feng's words.

So as soon as he came up, Captain Hu started investigating according to Ji Feng's ID card. This was not a difficult task for him, as there was a database of information within the police itself.

However, after Captain Hu pulled out Ji Feng's information according to his ID card, Captain Hu froze.

The information on Ji Feng's file was blank, and the rest of the information was also blank. The file showed that Ji Feng was from Jiangzhou Union University and was currently a student.

He thought about it and then searched for Ji Zhenhua's name on the system, but the result showed that there was a confidential level and he could not check it at all.

Captain Hu froze, then he couldn't help but curse himself for being stupid, Ji Zhenhua was a minister, a lot of information was naturally encrypted, it seemed that he could still only start with just Ji Feng's information.

So, Captain Hu planned to search for Ji Feng's information directly on the internet, but when he typed it in, he subconsciously typed in Ji Zhenhua's name.

The webpage opened and a basic profile appeared on the computer screen.

Captain Hu realised that he had entered it wrong and just wanted to turn it off, but when he saw the work photo of Ji Zhenhua on the screen, he instantly froze.

On the work photo, Ji Zhenhua's subdued face carried an unruffled majesty.

However, what caught Captain Hu's attention the most was Ji Zhenhua's face, which was half a dozen percent similar to Ji Feng's appearance

Boom~~!

Captain Hu was instantly struck by lightning and stood frozen on the spot.

He didn't even react when the water cup next to him fell to the ground with a clatter. He just stared blankly at the middle-aged man with a majestic look on the screen, and all that kept coming to his mind was the bland face in the interrogation room, how similar they were, even a fool would know that they must be related by blood!

Captain Hu realised that he had really gotten himself into a disaster!

Campus Master Chapter 2089

"Gulp"

Captain Hu swallowed hard and blanched.

"This is actually real!"

Captain Hu didn't want to believe his eyes, but the middle-aged man in the work photo on the computer screen looked so much like Ji Feng that anyone who saw the two of them would involuntarily think that they were either father and son or relatives in the same family.

Of course, the country is so big that if there are two people who look alike, that's nothing new, it's normal, but how can you know who looks like you in this vast sea of people?

If Ji Feng is not Ji Zhenhua's son, then how could he open his mouth and say Ji Zhenhua's name, and the two of them look so much alike?

At first glance, Ji Feng was clearly the Ji Zhenhua of his youth!

It was not too often that two people with such a resemblance were seen.

So, seeing this, there was no need to think any more, and even though Captain Hu did not want to believe it, he had to admit that Ji Feng was indeed Ji Zhenhua's son.

Although he did not find out Ji Zhenhua's details and there were even many gaps in Ji Feng's file, none of this was a problem because Captain Hu did not lack common sense judgment

That's why Captain Hu was horrified to the core.

The fact that he missed the arrest of the minister's son is not too terrible, at most, he will be wearing small shoes in the future, or even if Ji Feng is a bit narrow-minded and thinks that this kind of thing makes him lose face, then there is really no problem to remove Captain Hu from his post.

But Captain Hu knows better than anyone that this matter will not be so simple.

The reason is that he knows better than anyone what he has done.

Once he was dismissed, there was no telling how many people would follow the well and what would happen to him then, Captain Hu didn't even have to think about it.

In just a few moments, Captain Hu's mind flashed through all sorts of possibilities, as well as all sorts of consequences, and a vast amount of information.

At this moment, his mind was more nimble than ever, but no matter how much he thought, he could not come up with a good solution.

As a result, Captain Hu's heart was sinking, perhaps because he had already seen the dire consequences to come, or because he was anxious because he could not think of a solution, Captain Hu's body was trembling slightly, and his face was even whiter, while his forehead was already covered in sweat.

"Captain Hu, why are you standing still?" Sister Ying, who was waiting at the side, did not notice the look on Captain Hu's face at this moment, and she asked, "Didn't you just say you were looking for me for something? What exactly is it?"

"....."

Captain Hu just sat there, not moving, as if he hadn't heard Sister Ying's words at all.

Sister Ying became a little impatient: "Hey, Old Hu, I'm talking to you, did you hear me?"

Captain Hu slowly turned around and saw that Sister Ying was currently sitting on a table next to her, with a cigarette in her right hand, swallowing clouds, only to see her legs hovering together without an inch, and her chest was snow-white, with a deep cleavage that was attracting the eyes of others.

However, at this moment, Captain Hu didn't even look at this kind of slutty appearance of Sister Ying, he just showed an incomparably ugly smile with a miserable white face.

"Old Hu, what are you up to?" Sister Ying couldn't help but ask when she saw Captain Hu's appearance.

"..... Hehe!"

Captain Hu grinned, revealing an unbearably ugly smile as he opened his mouth, "Sister Ying, we're in trouble this time"

However, before Captain Hu could even finish his words, a man's voice could be heard from outside the door, "Lao Hu! Old Hu!"

Sister Ying instantly said, "It's Brother Zhang who's here"

She immediately opened the door and saw a man walk in, a man with one arm still in a cast, hanging in a bandage around his neck, and a few bruises on his face, but with a face full of cross flesh.

Seeing this, Ying couldn't help but ask, "Brother Zhang, what's wrong with you?"

The man cursed, "Don't mention it, it really fucking pisses me off, I don't know what kind of bastards I met on the road yesterday, they dared to make a move with me because there were so many of them They don't fall into my hands, if they do, I will definitely kill them!"

Sister Ying suddenly gritted her teeth and said, "They dare to do this to you, really damn!"

These two people, in the police station actually talk about getting someone killed like this, and so recklessly, as if they were in their own home, it can be seen how arrogant they really are.

And Captain Hu, who was next to them, surprisingly didn't have any comments at all

"Let's not talk so much, where are those two bastards who dared to be hard with you?" The visitor asked, "I've been depressed for the past two days, they actually dared to come and upset me, today it's just the right time to take it out on them Lao Hu, where are they?"

"They are in the interrogation room, but I don't know exactly which interrogation room." Sister Ying said immediately.

"Old Hu, where is the person?"

However, no matter what they asked, Captain Hu's face was pale and his forehead was sweating coldly, but it was as if he was dumb, and he didn't say a word.

Sister Ying asked, "Captain Hu, are you all right?"

But the visitor waved his hand: "All right, let's go over and find it ourselves, this guy is so out of it"

In his opinion, Captain Hu was reluctant to say anything, he must be afraid of taking the blame after something happens.

It was only when Ying and the man walked out for a while that Captain Hu reacted abruptly, and he jolted, "Ji Zhenhua's son Zhang Gang! I'm sorry, you're killing me!"

Captain Hu roared with grief and anger, and stood up violently, as if he had gone mad, and rushed out.

.....

"Peng~!"

The door of the interrogation room was kicked open, and the small policeman who had been guarding the place was startled and turned his head to look, but he called out, "Brother Zhang!"

At this time, a big grinning voice came from the door, "Let's see what kind of bastard dares to spill his guts in Yuezhou, today Brother Zhang will come to play with you ee? It's you?!"

The words suddenly turned into a roar at the end, followed by a gnashing of teeth and hatred: "Shit! I can't believe I ran into you here, what a fucking coincidence!"

At this time, Ji Feng, who had been resting his eyes, didn't even open them and shook his head, "Zhang Gang, right? It seems that yesterday really didn't change you, you don't even have a long memory."

"Bullshit!"

Sister Ying screamed at once, "Son of a bitch, do you know who you're talking to? I'm telling you, this is Brother Zhang Wait, what did you just say, Brother Zhang was beaten by you?"

Ji Feng opened his eyes and saw that Sister Ying was looking stunned, next to her, but wasn't that the arrogant guy who was beaten up yesterday!

"Grass!"

When Zhang Gang saw Ji Feng, a strong hatred appeared in his eyes, the cross flesh on his face twitched, he gritted his teeth and said, "Bastard, remember what I said yesterday? You didn't expect it, did you? Today you've fallen into my hands!"

He approached Ji Feng step by step with a fierce look on his face, "Today, I'll let you know what it means to be cruel!"

"This is a police station, you dare to mess around here?" Ji Feng asked.

"Go to the fucking police station!"

Zhang Gang immediately roared in anger and said gloomily, "Kid, let me tell you, not to mention this is a police station, even if this is the police department, I'll still clean you up today! I tell you, the chief of the Guangdong City Bureau is my brother-in-law, even if I kill you here, no one will ask questions!"

"You've gotten someone killed here?" Ji Feng asked with a frown.

"It doesn't matter if I've gotten someone killed or not, anyway, I'm afraid you won't survive today!" Zhang Gang said with a cold smile.

"Heh!"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed: "What a big mouth, the brother-in-law of the municipal bureau chief, no wonder he is so arrogant, I've really seen a lot today"

But Zhang Gang said fiercely: "There are still more things to let you learn, now I'll let you taste the power"

As he spoke, Zhang Gang lifted his foot and was about to kick towards Ji Feng.

"Wait a minute!"

However, at this moment, a person suddenly rushed in from outside the door, panicking and hugging Zhang Gang, "Zhang Gang, don't be impulsive, you can't do anything"

Zhang Gang said angrily, "Old Hu, are you fucking crazy? This son of a bitch did the injuries on my body, can I let him go now?"

Captain Hu shouted, "You can't touch him, he's, he's"

"Is he a fucking what?" Zhang Gang said angrily, "Old Hu, let go of me, I have to get him killed today."

"You're crazy!"

Captain Hu could not possibly let go of him, he held onto Zhang Gang for dear life, his heart was terrified to the core, this Zhang Gang, not only was he looking for death himself, he was forcing him to die!

This is a fucking death wish!

The two of them, one trying to break free and the other holding on for dear life, made a mess in the interrogation room.

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head, but his hands struggled violently, only to hear a 'ding' sound, the handcuffs were actually broken by him.

The next moment, he took out his mobile phone from his pocket, the screen showed that he was on a call, Ji Feng asked in a deep voice: "Director Zheng, you heard all of this, right?"

"Heard it all!" The voice on the phone was low and seemed to be forcing down anger.

"Then when will you arrive?" Ji Feng asked helplessly, "I just can't stay here any longer, it makes me too sick."

"Within five minutes!" The voice on the phone said.

"Alright then, I'll wait a bit longer." Ji Feng shook his head and said.

"Little Feng, put the phone on speakerphone." The voice on the phone said.

Ji Feng put it on speaker and then, he heard a low and angry voice coming from the phone, "Everyone in the interrogation room listen, this is Zheng Yuanshan, the director of the Southern Guangdong Provincial Department, what you are doing now is a crime! If you don't stop immediately, you'll be waiting to be shot!"

"I'll be there in five minutes, tell all the leaders of your branch to gather!" With those words, the phone hung up.

Then

the entire interrogation room became silent and pinpricks could be heard.

Campus Master Chapter 2090

"I'll be there in five minutes and have all the leaders of your precinct gather!" With those words, the phone hung up.

Then

the entire interrogation room became silent and pinpricks could be heard.

Captain Hu and Zhang Gang stared at each other dumbfounded, as if they wanted to confirm from dealing with there whether what they had just heard was true, or if it was just their own hallucination!

And Sister Ying

At this moment, she was already dumbfounded.

She stammered and asked, "Zhang, brother Zhang, just now that man said he was the director of the provincial department?"

Zhang Gang was similarly still in shock, unable to adapt to the shocking news he had just heard for a while, adapting he just nodded mechanically and said, "It seems to be right."

Captain Hu is the heart of wanting to die.

Zhang Gang and Sister Ying both didn't know Ji Feng's true identity, but he knew ah.

If there was still a slight doubt in his mind before, now, there is no doubt that this young man in the interrogation room is the son of Minister Ji Zhenhua, a real big magistrate, a guy like Zhang Gang who relies on his sister to be the leader's mistress, is not even a fart in front of him!

What about himself?

Captain Hu wanted to cry, and his intestines were turning blue with regret.

But at this moment, he could not afford to regret, because Zheng Yuanshan had already instructed that he would be there within five minutes, and that he would call all the leaders of the branch.

After the shock, Captain Hu immediately shouted, "Go and inform the leaders immediately!"

And the little policeman, who had long ago been completely petrified by the shock, immediately gave a jolt, nodded his head in a hurry and stumbled outside.

Perhaps because of the excessive shock, the contrast was so great that it made his body go a little numb and he walked with a kind of limp feeling, not knowing if it was because his body was weak or because his head was dizzy.

After reprimanding his men, Captain Hu could not care about anything else, he also drew his legs and ran outside, he had to hurry to inform the chief and some of the main leaders, otherwise, when Zheng Yuanshan arrived and found that the leaders had not arrived, the chief and the others would definitely blame him.

At that time, he would be a rat in the wind box, suffering from both ends, and would definitely end up in a miserable situation!

Once the two policemen left, only Ji Feng and Zhang Gang and Ying were left in this interrogation room. Ji Feng casually pulled a chair and sat down, the sound immediately made both Zhang Gang and Ying startled at the same time.

When they realized that Ji Feng was just pulling a chair, they both couldn't help but blush.

But more than anything else, there was a strong look of fear in their eyes, especially Sister Ying, whose arrogant and haughty look had long since disappeared without a trace, replaced by fear and anxiety, not even daring to look directly at Ji Feng, but only looking at Zhang Gang, as if asking for help, and as if trying to find a backbone

The actual fact is that the actual identity of the person is not known, but he knows that the person can directly talk to the director of the provincial department Zheng Yuanshan, and for this matter Zheng Yuanshan also personally rushed over, so it can be seen that the identity of the person is very unusual.

At least, it was more powerful than his brother-in-law, because as far as Zhang Gang knew, his brother-in-law couldn't alert the director of the provincial department that easily!

Therefore, at this moment, Zhang Gang no longer had any reliance in his heart, originally he was so arrogant because of his brother-in-law, but now he suddenly realized that in front of Ji Feng, his brother-in-law might not even count for anything, as a result, all the complacency and reliance in his heart instantly disappeared, and what replaced it was panic.

At this moment, Zhang Gang seemed to have returned to his former days as a gangster, as if he had accidentally provoked a powerful big brother on the road, and his fate was completely in the hands of others

Zhang Gang was really scared!

However, he still had some fluke, hoping to be able to defuse, voice he carefully said to Ji Feng: "This big brother, you see today's matter just let it go, okay, my arm was broken by you, I also did not have time to do anything to you... . you just let us go, okay?"

Ji Feng looked at him with a smirk and said, "That's not what you said a few minutes ago, when it seemed like you were going to get me killed here, huh?"

The cold sweat on Zhang Gang's body instantly came down, he panicked and said, "Big brother, I was just farting, I was full of shit, don't take it to heart, those words were talking about myself, I was blind"

"OK OK!"

Ji Feng interrupted him, these words he really can't listen to, moreover, seeing Zhang Gang this kind of terrified to the extreme, he also doesn't have half sympathy.

If it was someone else today, I'm afraid that he would have been killed by Zhang Gang and that Captain Hu.

And this Sister Ying, at a glance, you can tell that she is also a woman who is ungrateful and ruthless, and together they are really in cahoots, and each of them is insidious.

The fact is, they are saying they want to kill themselves, and looking at their attitude when they speak, they really don't know how many times they have done this kind of thing.

For this kind of people, how could Ji Feng have any half-hearted feelings towards them?

So Ji Feng just said: "You don't need to beg for mercy here, yesterday I beat you up because you were wrong, you were too arrogant and hurt people with your words, so you should be beaten up. But today is another matter, whether it's yesterday or today, I will settle everything with you!"

Zhang Gang suddenly had a chill in his heart and his face turned white, and immediately, a flash of annoyance flashed across his eyes as he turned back and slapped his hand.

"Slap!"

Sister Ying was instantly hit by this vicious slap on the ground.

Zhang Gang cursed angrily, "You bitch, who are you going to collect protection money from but this big brother? What are you doing with your eyes? I'll beat you to death"

Sister Ying was dumbfounded, she covered her face and looked at Zhang Gang in shock: "Brother Zhang, didn't you order to collect protection money?"

"Grass! You still dare to talk tough?!" The moment Zhang Gang heard this, he was furious, "See if I don't beat you to death bitch"

As soon as the words left his mouth, Zhang Gang went up and slapped and kicked her, beating Sister Ying screaming and rolling all over the ground, but she did not dare to resist and just kept begging for mercy.

The reason why Sister Ying was so arrogant was because Zhang Gang backed her up, but now once her backing was gone, she was instantly scared.

This was the same as Zhang Gang.

Ji Feng was sitting on a chair, his eyes slightly drooping as if he was asleep, oblivious to what was happening next to him.

Although he was somewhat uncomfortable with men hitting women, this time was different. If Zhang Gang wanted to hit Sister Ying like that, it was his business, and he would not have any sympathy for her.

Because when she enjoyed the power and fawning of others that came with Zhang Gang's favor, and thus oppressed others at will, even to the point of making others whole at every turn, she should have realized that one day she might have to pay a corresponding price for it.

God is fair, how much you gain, how much you lose.

Everything she had in the past was given to her by Zhang Gang, and now that Zhang Gang was beating her, perhaps that was the price she would have to pay.

The beating lasted for three or four minutes, until Zhang Gang was out of breath and had run out of energy, then he stopped. At that moment, Sister Ying was lying on the ground, twitching and moaning in pain, obviously beaten badly.

“This big brother, look I have cleaned up this bitch, please forgive me this time, okay?” Zhang Gang turned his face to Ji Feng and fawned over him again, a fierce and fierce man compared to the one he had just beaten Ying.

But Ji Feng simply ignored him, a look of shame and anger flashed in Zhang Gang’s eyes, but he didn’t dare to show it, at this time, he experienced how stifling it was for those who were bullied when they bullied others.

Perhaps, this was retribution in another sense!

Zhang Gang still wanted to speak when he suddenly heard a rush of footsteps at the door, followed by a group of people in police uniforms appearing at the door of the interrogation room, led by one of them, none other than Zheng Yuanshan!

When Zheng Yuanshan saw that Ji Feng’s hands were still handcuffed, his face immediately turned gloomy to the extreme and he shouted angrily, “Look what you’ve done!”

“Director

A fat policeman standing next to Zheng Yuanshan suddenly trembled and proceeded to roar, “Why don’t you hurry up and open the handcuffs?!”

“No need!”

Ji Feng stood up, both hands directly separated, that handcuffs were broken off by him before, “These handcuffs are useless to me, I just don’t know, has He Hongwei been cleaned up by them now

“No, no!” Captain Hu shook his head repeatedly in horror.

“I’d like to see just how far you’ve been emboldened!” The anger in Zheng Yuanshan’s eyes intensified as he shouted lowly, “Lead the way! Go to that other young man’s place.”

All the policemen could not help but feel their scalps tingling as they were swept by Zheng Yuanshan’s angry eyes.

The mere thought of it made their bodies go weak, not to mention Zheng Yuanshan’s almost murderous gaze.

At this time, Zheng Yuanshan saw Zhang Gang, who had shrivelled up in shock, and Sister Ying, who was lying on the ground, too scared to even moan in pain. Good! That’s good! A brother-in-law of a municipal bureau chief can act recklessly and kill whoever he wants

Very good na!”
These consecutive ‘good’ words made Zhang Gang’s legs go limp and he fell to the ground, while Sister Ying was so scared that she couldn’t even make a sound
