At this time, Zheng Yuanshan saw Zhang Gang, who had shriveled to the side in shock, and Sister Ying, who was lying on the ground too frightened to even moan in pain, and he nodded heavily: "So, you are Zhang Gang and Sister Ying, right? Good! Very good!"

These two consecutive 'good' words made Zhang Gang's legs go limp and he instantly fell to the ground, while Sister Ying, even more so, was so scared that she couldn't even make a sound .....

"This is the good police officer of your branch, I've really seen it, good!" Zheng Yuanshan turned his head and coldly glanced at the chubby policeman next to him and coldly snorted.

"Director ....."

Zheng Yuanshan's face sank, "What else is there to explain? What crime did this man commit that he was handcuffed by your men and came here? And who are these two people? How did they end up in the interrogation room? Am I misremembering, or are you simply ignoring the provisions of the law and acting in collusion with some criminals to persecute ordinary people?"

"Director Zheng, you've said too much. ...." The fat policeman was so shocked by Zheng Yuanshan's series of stern questions that his face turned pale and his forehead broke out in cold sweat, and his heart even cried out in anguish.

He knew that by saying this, Zheng Yuanshan was putting the blame on his head, and was preparing to use him as a form of authority.

The fat policeman was almost on the verge of tears.

Although many people in the entire police system of Southern Guangdong knew that Zheng Yuanshan had just come to take charge of the police system of a province in Southern Guangdong, he had not really taken control of the entire provincial department because the time was too short, so many people below him did not take him seriously, and even people from the municipal bureaus and some sub-bureaus below dared to disobey his orders.

The fat policeman himself had done this before, but in the end, he did not see any reaction from Zheng Yuanshan, so the people below him gradually got used to it.

Now, however, the fat policeman was screaming in his heart and regretted it immensely.

If he had known that he was going to fall into Zheng Yuanshan's hands today, how could he have done that in the first place?

Seeing Zheng Yuanshan's stern eyes, the fat policeman realized that Zheng Yuanshan must have known all too well about his previous submissiveness, and that he had not attacked him before because he had not found the opportunity to do so. I'm afraid I'm in a bad way today.

A wave of anger rose from the fat policeman's heart, "If you want to deal with me, you have to see if you have that ability!"

However, when the fat policeman touched Zheng Yuanshan's stern eyes, the anger in his heart disappeared instantly and his body was cold.

He suddenly realised that he was only a minor chief of a branch, and even if Zheng Yuanshan had no prestige, he was still the head of the provincial department and held the entire police system of Southern Guangdong Province in his hands.

In terms of general righteousness, everyone had to obey his leadership, even if some of the provincial hall leaders who were not convinced because he was parachuted in had to put on a show on the surface, so how could he, a small chief, compete with Zheng Yuanshan?

The moment he thought of this, the fat policeman's heart trembled, his legs went weak, and the whole person almost sat on his buttocks on the ground.

"Humph!"

Zheng Yuanshan coldly snorted, turned around and walked out with big strides, not even looking at the fat policeman anymore. The change in the fat policeman's eyes just now could not escape the eyes of Zheng Yuanshan, who had been a policeman for most of his life, but Zheng Yuanshan was simply oblivious to it.

If even this kind of villain Zheng Yuanshan has to fight with it, then his job as police chief is just the same.

"Director ....."

When the fat policeman took a look at Zheng Yuanshan leaving, he shrieked in alarm and hurriedly chased after him. But after just two steps, he jerked to a halt, looked back at Zhang Gang and Ying, and said viciously to the other policemen, "Arrest these two criminals immediately!"

The other policemen immediately froze, "Huh?"

When the fat policeman took a look, he was so anxious that his whole body almost smoked, and he roared, "Ah what ah? Execute the order immediately!"

"Yes!"

Several other policemen immediately responded and immediately went forward to arrest the duo of Zhang Gang and Sister Ying.

However, at this time, Zhang Gang and the two of them no longer had the same arrogance and dominance as before, it was as if all their strength had suddenly been taken away from them, they just dumbly allowed the police to push them over and over, their faces a deadly grey.

Especially Zhang Gang, he didn't even dare to look at Ji Feng, and his heart wanted to die.

He was so blind, how could he have gotten into trouble with Ji Feng?

Zhang Gang wanted to die here, there was nothing that made him want to die more than this situation!

There was nothing that made him want to die more than this situation.

When he thought about how he had spoken to Ji Feng earlier, and even if Captain Hu hadn't suddenly rushed in and hugged him, he would have definitely kicked Ji Feng a few times... when he thought of this, Zhang Gang just felt his head spin and he wanted to smack himself to death!

Sister Ying was even worse.

Remorse, fear, trepidation .....

If it were possible, Sister Ying would definitely be willing to flee as far as she could and never set foot in Southern Guangdong again, even if she had to live the rest of her life in poverty and with no one to turn to, no matter how miserable she was, it would be much better than what she was going through now!

Originally, when she saw some of them shooting at the office, Sister Ying thought at that time that Ji Feng and the others were running the kind of company that the underworld washes its hands of, all even though she was a bit scared in her heart, but seeing that Ji Feng and the others were caught, she was instantly much more arrogant.

When it comes to the underworld, could it be more ruthless than Brother Zhang?

Brother Zhang's brother-in-law was specialized in ruling the underworld!

But how could Sister Ying have possibly thought of how ridiculous and remorseful this thought of hers was!

"Pa!"

Ji Feng pulled the chair away from him a bit, and Zhang Gang and Sister Ying immediately shivered in fear and subconsciously had to step back, yet they were mistakenly thought to be trying to struggle by the policeman holding them, so they barked, "What for, be honest!"

"Hmm?!"

Ji Feng frowned and glanced at Zhang Gang and Ying, these two were instantly scared to death, a chill rose from their tailbone, instantly swept through their entire body along their spine, and finally exploded at the back of their spine .....

The two of them were not even looking at each other, so they walked out with big steps.

To say that for Zhang Gang and Sister Ying, Ji Feng was really incomparably disgusted.

What these two people had done in the past two days could be described as ruthless and vicious. If an ordinary person were to fall into their hands, they could be killed alive!

All said, for Zhang Gang and the two of them, Ji Feng really has a kind of hatred from his heart.

Many people say that those rich and powerful people like to oppress others, but in fact, those people often really don't do much evil, and most of those who are really bad are the relatives of those people.

Zhang Gang and Ying are the most typical examples, they can simply say that they can do whatever they want because they have some background, even when they oppress others, they simply treat them like animals, it is really chilling.

So, Ji Feng even wanted to crush these two evil-minded people to death with his own hands!

But he did not do so, because getting these two people killed, but not the heaviest punishment for them, death is actually the easiest, but how can life be worse than death, it is difficult .....

And for the two Zhang Gang, the future awaits them, it will definitely be such a day!

Watching Ji Feng's eyes coldly leave, Zhang Gang and Ying were as if they had sensed something and were paralyzed at once .....

"Boom~!"

The door of the interrogation room was kicked open, Zheng Yuanshan and the others quickly walked in and saw He Hongwei sitting on the interrogation chair with his hands handcuffed and his face ironically blue.

When he saw Zheng Yuanshan and the others enter, He Hongwei didn't even raise his eyelids.

He Hongwei shook his head and said, "I was fine, but I was caught here for no reason, so even if I'm fine, I'm not fine!"

Ji Feng laughed, "Don't worry, Director Zheng is here specifically for this matter ....., Let me introduce, this is the director of the Southern Guangdong Provincial Department, Zheng Yuanshan ....., This... .."

Before he could finish, he heard Zheng Yuanshan take two steps forward and said with a smile, "Mr. He, we meet again, but I never thought it would be under such circumstances, this is my job not done properly, let you be aggrieved ah ....."

He Hongwei shook his head and said, "It's nothing to be aggrieved, if I hadn't brought my bodyguard at that time, I'm afraid you would have seen me in the hospital now."

Zheng Yuanshan patted He Hongwei's shoulder and said, "Don't worry, I will definitely give you an explanation for this matter ....."

Speaking here, he snapped his head back and drank, "What crime did Mr. He actually commit? Who can tell me?"

"Misunderstanding, it's all a misunderstanding ....." the fat policeman was so frightened that he stammered.

"It's really a misunderstanding?" Zheng Yuanshan asked, "Don't be mistaken!"

"No no ....."

"Then why don't you open the handcuffs wide?" Zheng Yuanshan barked.

The fat policeman burst into a cold sweat and immediately fumbled to help He Hongwei open the handcuffs, then he looked at the handcuffs that were still hanging on Ji Feng's wrists that were broken in two and asked carefully, "This gentleman, your handcuffs ....."

Ji Feng stretched his hand out and said indifferently, "You guys are really something, you can handcuff people when you want and uncuff them when you want, you guys make all these laws, right?"

The fat policeman smiled with difficulty, but that smile was even worse than crying.

At this time, one of the policemen who followed Zheng Yuanshan came in and whispered something in Zheng Yuanshan's ear, and Ji Feng heard him saying, "Director, the SWAT team has arrived."

Campus Master Chapter 2092

At this time, a policeman who had followed Zheng Yuanshan came in and whispered something in Zheng Yuanshan's ear, Ji Feng heard him saying, "Director, the special police team has arrived."

Ji Feng smiled slightly, Zheng Yuanshan was going to seize the opportunity to make some waves, in fact, thinking about it, if Zheng Yuanshan couldn't even seize this kind of opportunity, then he wouldn't have been sent by his second uncle to be the director of the Southern Guangdong Provincial Department, you know, in Southern Guangdong where there were people from the Wu family's lineage everywhere around, Zheng Yuanshan was like a lance that charged into battle.

If Zheng Yuanshan's lance is not effective, then the loss will not only be a directorship, but also a gap that was easily opened in South Guangdong will be closed again, and it will be difficult to enter South Guangdong again.

And now, Zheng Yuanshan was undoubtedly going to speak of this crack widening!

"Let them come in immediately!" Zheng Yuanshan waved his hand and said aloud.

"Yes!"

Not long after, under the stunned eyes of those police officers, dozens of special police officers rushed in, hailing, and the black muzzles of their guns made all the police officers present couldn't help but subconsciously back away.

Even though they were police officers themselves, they had ghosts in their hearts, and when they saw so many SWAT officers coming in, they couldn't help but feel weak.

Zheng Yuanshan said in a deep voice to the SWAT officer who was leading the team, "From now on, this precinct will be taken over by you, use the fastest speed to find out everyone's crimes, and I'll settle all the formalities for you!"

"Yes!" The special police officer shouted in response.

"I do have a piece of evidence here, I believe it will definitely help you." Ji Feng suddenly said.

"What kind of evidence?" Zheng Yuanshan asked.

Ji Feng took out another mobile phone from his pocket and said with a smile, "From the time that Sister Ying broke into our office until now, this whole process has been recorded by me, this should be considered evidence, right?"

Zheng Yuanshan was immediately overjoyed, "Of course forget it, Little Feng, this is the most direct and powerful evidence!"

Ji Feng laughed, "That's good!"

At this time, the fat policeman, on the other hand, had a dead face, and he realized that he was really going to be finished .....

Afterwards, Ji Feng and Zheng Yuanshan both took statements and recounted all their encounters.

Zheng Yuanshan said, "This is where things come first, there is no need to bother you with the next thing, if you have time, go home and sit in?"

Ji Feng and He Hongwei looked at each other, and the two of them shook their heads.

Ji Feng said, "It's better to talk about it in a few days."

Now that the matter was not yet over and this kind of thing had suddenly appeared, Zheng Yuanshan would definitely be busy cleaning up the black sheep within the police system next, and, in addition, he would also have to consider how to deal with the situation at hand, so there would definitely be a lot of things going on and it would be difficult to have time to entertain them.

He Hongwei said, "Anyway, there is still plenty of time for us to do so later, we will stay in Southern Guangdong for some time, and when we are free, we will definitely visit Director Zheng."

Zheng Yuanshan was not overly polite, so he nodded and said, "In that case, then I won't see you off, take care on your way ....."

Ji Feng and the two of them smiled and nodded, then they left the police station.

As soon as they left the police station gate, they saw Bai Zhu flashing over from the side and asked with concern, "Young Ji, are you alright?"

Ji Feng smiled and said, "Yes, look, am I not fine now?"

Only then did Bai Zhu put his heart down and said, "You guys didn't come out for so long, I thought ..... if you don't come out in a few more minutes, I'll dive in."

Ji Feng heard that Bai Zhu's words were sincere, and his heart warmed as he patted Bai Zhu's small hand and said, "Don't worry, nothing is wrong."

Bai Zhu nodded her head in a good manner.

He Hongwei laughed beside him, "I say, can we go back and talk about what's going on? This is not a good place to make out!"

Ji Feng shook his head with a bitter smile, he knew that his relationship with Bai Zhu would not be able to be hidden from He Hongwei, this guy's vision was too sharp, so he simply said openly, "Alright then, let's go back!"

He Hongwei laughed and said, "Ji Feng, you're really blessed with a lot of sex, I can't even catch up with you on this point!"

He Hongwei was really a bit emotional, he had seen both Tong Lei and Xiao Yuxuan, both of them were top beauties, and definitely not the kind of vase type beauty, they were not comparable to ordinary girls in terms of both temperament and connotation, women like them, to have one was already an extremely lucky thing.

But Ji Feng has both of them.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

They only need to hook their fingers and there are many women who will take the initiative to pounce on them, but that kind of woman is not something He Hongwei can see.

The real kind of woman with both substance and beauty is something that can't be found. All the women around Ji Feng are actually so beautiful, and they are all very temperamental and different, just like the most vivid flowers in the garden.

Ji Feng laughed: "All right, hurry up and go back, the first day the office opened and encountered such a thing, have to hurry back to clean up!"

"Humph!"

He Hongwei's face sank, "This Southern Guangdong's atmosphere is too corrupt, and it's not properly fixed."

Ji Feng laughed, "You can't complain about this here for others to hear, you should go and talk to the Wu family directly."

He Hongwei gritted his teeth and said in a deep voice: "There will be that day ..... However, this time I think the Wu family should also know about it, I will see then, how they will react!"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, saying, "I advise you not to get your hopes up, we're not here to be guests this time, the Wu family won't be that polite!"

He Hongwei laughed, "I'm just joking, I just hope the Wu family doesn't get angry, and that some of the old people in their family don't get angry and break their health! Otherwise, this reputation of disrespecting old comrades is something I can't afford to bear."

Ji Feng was instantly sunburnt.

He Hongwei's words were simply cursing the Wu family's old man to die early, but on the contrary, he had a subtle way of saying it, this guy was really a bit wilful.

However, in Ji Feng's view, certain people in the Wu family were furious for sure.

This time he and He Hongwei will let the police so easily catch them in the police station, on the one hand, to take this opportunity to make some waves, on the other hand, is also to take this opportunity to tell some people .....

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're getting into.

They have just arrived to experience the darkness of this place first hand, which is like a direct slap in the face of the Wu family, and I believe the Wu family will definitely not take it well.

And these things that Zhang Gang and the others had done, coupled with the fact that he and He Hongwei had come to Southern Guangdong, would definitely make some people in the Wu family sit up and take notice.

The two of them chatted idly and left by car.

Ji Feng glanced back and secretly said, "Zheng Yuanshan should seize this opportunity, I'm afraid the Wu family will have to jump to their feet~!"

The police system in Southern Guangdong, it's time to clean it up completely. This time, I'll see who really jumps out! Hmph!"

When he first came to Nan Yue, even though Zheng Yuanshan had taken over the main post of the provincial department, in reality, he could not do anything here at all, and his hands were tied no matter what he did.

Even if he secretly joined forces with Qian Hongda, it wouldn't make much of a difference.

After all, Qian Hongda is only the secretary of the municipal party committee of Yuezhou. Apart from being able to help Zheng Yuanshan within the boundaries of Yuezhou, at a higher level, Qian Hongda would also be subject to the checks and balances of others, not to mention the fact that Zheng Yuanshan has been subject to the vigilance and ostracism of officials around him from the moment he arrived.

So all along, Zheng Yuanshan was simply not living up to his name in the Southern Guangdong Provincial Department, and he, the director, was not at all as effective as a deputy director in speaking.

Despite the fact that those who spoke to him strictly abided by the relationship between subordinates and superiors and did as they should, the more this was the case, the more Zheng Yuanshan's words could not get out of the provincial hall, let alone command the entire police system of South Guangdong.

Even once, after inspecting one of the sub-bureaux below him and giving a speech, he accidentally heard several sub-bureau leaders below him saying strange things in an ominous manner.

"It looks imposing, but in reality there's no use!"

"That's right, I think he can only give a speech with nothing to do and then walk around and wander around, other than that, he talks for nothing!"

"....."

These words were clearly heard by Zheng Yuanshan, with Zheng Yuanshan's temper, he really endured and endured again before he didn't get angry on the spot, and in the end, he could only leave quietly as if he didn't hear.

However, that experience was always deep in his heart, and he took it as a disgrace!

He was looking forward to the day when he could really make a big move and take full control of the provincial office.

During this period, Zheng Yuanshan had also thought of various ways to open up the situation, but the results were not too satisfactory.

Up until now, Zheng Yuanshan only had a few loyal men on his side, and those were the ones who had been ostracised and sat on the bench, those who had power in their hands, but no one leaned on him!

Although Zheng Yuanshan has gradually gained a firm foothold as time goes by, he is still at a distinct disadvantage and there is no telling how long it will take for him to truly master the provincial department and even the province's police system.

When Zheng Yuanshan was thinking about how to open up the situation completely, Ji Feng and He Hongwei came to South Guangdong.

And most importantly, not only did they come, but they also brought Zheng Yuanshan a perfect opportunity, and there was still iron-clad evidence in hand.

"This time, I'm afraid that you guys won't dare to come out and jump around!" Zheng Yuanshan secretly snorted coldly.

Campus Master Chapter 2093

Ji Feng was right in his prediction, because with the evidence he provided, Zheng Yuanshan began to make a full-scale move.

Because Zheng Yuanshan had very few people he could trust within the police station, he directly used the special police to interrogate the people involved in the case.

Perhaps because they knew the identities of Ji Feng and He Hongwei, those involved in the case were extraordinarily cooperative and gave an honest account without any sophistry or denial.

Of course, the recording provided by Ji Feng was also the most direct evidence, making it impossible for them to cheat even if they wanted to.

Even the chubby division chief also gave an honest account of his problems.

Originally, in this case, the fat commissioner would at most be a little bit of collateral responsibility, the big deal would be his dismissal, but, perhaps because he was overly frightened, he even gave an honest account of his problems in a panic, and Zheng Yuanshan would not miss this opportunity, he immediately sent the special police to get all the evidence in hand.

At this point in time, Zheng Yuanshan was not afraid that those people would retract their confessions.

It can be said that the whole branch is already under Zheng Yuanshan's control, but at this moment Zheng Yuanshan is not satisfied, he knows very well the truth that soldiers are valuable, not to mention that as some branch leaders such as the fat director confessed to certain leaders at higher levels, Zheng Yuanshan has more and more evidence in his hands.

He ordered the special police to bring back all the people involved in the case, but he did not move those in the government for the time being, because they were not under his jurisdiction and if he did, it would be a violation of discipline.

However, Zheng Yuanshan handed over all the evidence about the government officials in Yuezhou to Qian Hongda. Zheng Yuanshan would naturally do his best to clean up the police system, while the official matters would be left to Qian Hongda.

For a whole day, no one in the entire officialdom of Southern Guangdong reacted, not only because Zheng Yuanshan moved quickly enough, but also because his secrecy was in place, so people outside only vaguely felt that something was not quite right, but no one really realised exactly what was wrong.

By this time, Zheng Yuanshan and Qian Hongda had already reaped a great harvest.

When night fell, Zheng Yuanshan, who had been busy all day, took off his police uniform and met with Qian Hongda again at a private restaurant that was not open to the public.

“Some harvest indeed!”

Zheng Yuanshan smiled and sat down, saying, “This time it was really thanks to Ji Feng and He Hongwei, their identities and the evidence they provided gave those black sheep a great deterrent, that’s why they didn’t dare to deny anything, they all honestly admitted their crimes! Speaking of which, we really have to thank Ji Feng and the others for this.”

Qian Hongda smiled and said, “I think it is mainly Ji Feng and his men’s status that has the greatest deterrent effect on those people.”

Zheng Yuanshan nodded slightly and said, “That’s right, they knew they were offending people they simply couldn’t afford to piss off, so they got desperate in their hearts, and because they were afraid of retaliation, they simply admitted their crimes outright and then hoped they could hide in prison to avoid retaliation, and also hoped that this would calm Ji Feng and his men’s anger... ..”

Regarding the psychology of crime, Zheng Yuanshan could not say that he knew everything about it, but at least he had some understanding, so he was not surprised at all that these people had admitted their crimes so honestly.

Qian Hongda said: “Old Zheng, what are you going to do next? You have to think about the follow-up actions.”

“I’ve already thought it over.”

Zheng Yuanshan nodded, “Now I have quite a lot of evidence in my hands, the next step is to see if some people cooperate, if they cooperate, then it’s better to say something, if they don’t .....

He smiled and did not go on, but his meaning could not be clearer. If some people in the hall cooperate with him and lean on him honestly, then he can keep the evidence in his hand without issuing it, but if some people still want to mess with him like they did before, then sorry .....

Qian Hongda nodded and said, "Well! Be more cautious!"

Zheng Yuanshan nodded and said, "Don't worry, I know what to do, there will definitely be no accidents this time."

Zheng Yuanshan, who had already worked in the police system for most of his life, really knew too well about some of the fishy things within the police, as well as various other shady things.

What's more, Zheng Yuanshan had not done nothing during the time he had been in Southern Guangdong, he had already pretty much mapped out the situation of the provincial hall and the entire police system.

Now that the time had come, Zheng Yuanshan naturally knew what to do.

Qian Hongda said, "Still be careful!"

Zheng Yuanshan nodded, he did not feel impatient because Qian Hongda was overly careful, because he knew very well that Qian Hongda had been in Southern Guangdong for such a long time and had been in the Wu family's camp before, so he must know a lot about the Wu family and the political scene in Southern Guangdong.

Now that Qian Hongda had repeatedly reminded him, it was clear that the situation in Southern Guangdong was indeed very complicated and, moreover, the opponents were indeed very powerful.

"Now let's play it safe and take this step first." Qian Hongda said, "Expand the battle step by step, so that we can prevent the Wu Clan's sudden counterattack!"

"Well!"

Zheng Yuanshan nodded, "That's what I think too."

Qian Hongda added, "In addition, since little friend Ji Feng has arrived in Southern Guangdong, it is also necessary to communicate with him in a timely manner."

Since Ji Feng had dared to come to Southern Guangdong with such fanfare and had opened a company here with He Hongwei of the He family, the implication of this was self-explanatory.

Then, before Ji Feng came, the elders of the Ji family would certainly have admonished him a few times.

Because Qian Hongda was not convenient to communicate with Ji Feng often, and, with Qian Hongda's status, he often conversed with Ji Zhenguo and Ji Zhenhua when he arrived, and it was not quite suitable for Ji Feng, who was a junior, to contact him often.

But Zheng Yuanshan is different, because in many things, Zheng Yuanshan has limitations within the police system, but in some ways is also more free than Qian Hongda, not to mention, who in the whole of South Guangdong does not know that Zheng Yuanshan is the pioneer sent over by the Ji family?

Zheng Yuanshan laughed, "I have it in my heart, but old Qian, you should also pay attention on your side, the Wu family is quite ruthless, so you should take care of your own safety."

A cadre of Qian Hongda's level was already a senior cadre, and could even be considered a vassal. The Wu family certainly did not dare to do anything to Qian Hongda, otherwise, the family could not afford the serious political consequences.

The Wu family is powerful, but if it offends the public, even if it is a huge power, it cannot.

However, the Wu family still has a Wu Zhiyong, a ruthless and unorthodox master, if he wants to do something, it really makes people have to guard against.

Qian Hongda smiled blandly and took note of it.

After communicating with Qian Hongda, Zheng Yuanshan returned to the provincial hall and then held an emergency office meeting, where he announced the case today.

All of a sudden, the entire provincial hall was in an uproar.

Only then did they realise that Zheng Yuanshan had unknowingly taken down a branch, and that was not the point, the key was that according to the case announced by Zheng Yuanshan, he had even involved some leaders of the Yuezhou City Bureau, and these leaders, obviously, were the connections of some of the people present here.

This time, everyone sat up.

Everyone knew in their hearts who had done what, and without being told, as soon as they saw the briefing on the case, everyone remembered certain things.

So for a while, the whole conference room was in an uproar and there was a lot of discussion.

However, no matter how much these people talked, no one dared to openly question Zheng Yuanshan, if it was in the past, someone would have done so long ago, but now, everyone's courage was much smaller!

Because no one knew what evidence Zheng Yuanshan had in his hands and who was involved!

Almost all of them were terrified. For a moment, Zheng Yuanshan, a director who had little weight in their eyes, seemed so majestic that they could not help but feel a sense of awe in their hearts.

However, there were also those who had a clear conscience and were focused on other aspects.

Only a slightly surprised voice rang out: "Ji Feng? He Hongwei?! Why does this name sound somewhat familiar?!"

The attention of the crowd was immediately drawn to the case, and they all looked over to see that the two names Ji Feng and He Hongwei were indeed written on the case briefing, and they were the victims, or rather the parties, in the first case.

Zheng Yuanshan said, "There may still be people who don't know, what about these two parties, they both have a certain status and social position, this He Hongwei, is a Yanjing native, chairman of the Tian Yao Group, his father is ....."

With Zheng Yuanshan's introduction, the entire conference room instantly fell silent.

He Hongwei, the youngest master of the He family!

But anyone who was somewhat familiar with Yanjing and the political scene in China immediately knew the identity of He Hongwei!

Everyone was shocked, this matter, was actually related to He Hongwei?

However, before they could regain their senses, they heard Zheng Yuanshan introduce himself again, "This Ji Feng, is a current student of Jiangzhou United University, his father is Minister Ji Zhenhua ....."

Wow~!

Everyone was stunned to the extreme when they heard this.

If it was said that some of these people had not heard of He Hongwei, that was indeed possible, but to talk about Ji Feng, they had all heard of him.

This was because just over a year ago, Ji Feng had come to Southern Guangdong and made a scene.

When they saw the name just now, they just didn't remember it for a while, but now that Zheng Yuanshan said it, everyone immediately remembered it!

Ji Feng! He Hongwei!

Campus Master Chapter 2094

When they saw the name just now, they just didn't think of it for a while, but now that Zheng Yuanshan said it, everyone immediately remembered it!

Ji Feng! He Hongwei!

These two names pierced straight into the eyes of the crowd, and many people even subconsciously looked away from these two names, their feelings were very complicated.

No matter which of these two came to Southern Guangdong, it was enough to attract their attention, let alone now when both of them arrived at the same time?

The names of Ji Feng and He Hongwei stung the eyes of many people.

But that was not the end of it.

For what made everyone feel even more helpless and shocked was that Ji Feng and He Hongwei were actually involved in the case, and they were even taken to the interrogation room of the police station by a police officer from a branch underneath, and were even imprisoned!

Some people suppressed the shock and confusion in their hearts and started to read the briefing carefully. When they understood the details of the case, they almost did not fall off their chairs in shock.

This Ji Feng and He Hongwei had actually come to Southern Guangdong to open a company, and looking at the name, it turned out that the Tian Yao Group and the Teng Fei Group had directly joined hands and set up an office in the Fortune Plaza office building.

What's more, they were actually harassed for no reason at all, and were even forced to collect protection fees.

Just because Ji Feng and the two of them resisted, as a result, the other side not only used the staff of the industry and commerce, but even forced one of them on Ji Feng's side to fire a gun, and as a result, the police were brought in to arrest them .....

"Bastards!"

"Damn it!"

"Stupid pigs!"

In an instant, there were many people in the entire conference room cursing in their hearts, they simply wanted to strangle all those involved in this matter, they should simply die!

The hatred in some people's hearts was so great that they were almost gnashing their teeth!

They hated to the extreme, those people did not do anything good, but actually came to the company owned by Ji Feng and He Hongwei to collect protection money, and it was the first day they opened, and they had not even started making profits .....

The company's first day of operation was not yet profitable.

This is not to mention that those hooligans actually arrested Ji Feng and He Hongwei and held them in the interrogation room.

According to what Zheng Yuanshan wrote on this case report, when he arrived, the suspects were actually preparing to beat up Ji Feng and He Hongwei .....

Just this line alone made many people in the conference room's eyelids jump wildly and their scalps tingle.

What a talent!

Among the several top families in Yanjing, or even in the whole of China, they had provoked two at once, and the direct descendants of these two families had been arrested by them, but they were actually not satisfied with this, and even wanted to beat them up .....

The actual fact is that they do not know what they are doing?

Or is it that they think the disaster they're inviting is too small?

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

It's no wonder that those stupid pigs down there actually committed such a catastrophic crime!

If one were Zheng Yuanshan, one would definitely seize this opportunity tightly and then follow the vine to deal a severe blow to some people.

It would be foolish to say that Zheng Yuanshan could not seize this opportunity.

Therefore, once everyone had an understanding of the case, they understood what Zheng Yuanshan had done. If it was them, I am afraid they would have done even more than that, and even more proudly.

Now, when they could not see the slightest look of complacency on Zheng Yuanshan's face, but only seriousness and anger, some people could not help but feel a sense of awe.

They knew that Zheng Yuanshan had not been complacent since he arrived in Southern Guangdong, and had always been in a passive position, almost on the verge of being hollowed out.

Now he has suddenly taken the initiative, and no one even knows exactly how much evidence he has in his hands relating to the people here, so it can be said that anyone would be afraid of him now for a few moments, but even so, he surprisingly does not have the slightest feeling of complacency, instead he has a look of gravity on his face.

It is as if .....

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Glory and shame!

Some people couldn't help but think of such a phrase, which seemed appropriate when applied to Zheng Yuanshan.

This made many people also start to know Zheng Yuanshan anew. How could someone who could have such a broad-minded temperament be a weak person?

Director Zheng, great!

Of course, those who could see this clearly were also those who were clear-headed and relatively clean themselves. But there were others who were panicked and apprehensive at the moment.

Because they had ghosts in their hearts, but they didn't know how much evidence Zheng Yuanshan actually had about them .....

So at this moment when Zheng Yuanshan's gaze swept by, many of them unnaturally looked away or simply looked elsewhere, not daring to meet Zheng Yuanshan's gaze.

"In view of the special nature of the case, as well as the bad nature of this crime, I have decided that the department will directly set up a special case team, specifically responsible for this matter, and the post of team leader will be held by me personally, do you all have any comments?" Zheng Yuanshan's low voice rang out in the conference room.

Everyone looked at each other and then shook their heads at the same time.

"No!"

"No opinion."

"Well!"

Zheng Yuanshan nodded and said in a deep voice, "Since everyone has no opinion, then, this matter is settled, next I will select the members of the task force, and if you all have any suitable candidates, you can also take the initiative to recommend them to me."

The others nodded their heads in a surprisingly consistent manner.

And at this time, Zheng Yuanshan's face sank again and said, "After talking about the work, I will say a few more words, how bad the nature of this case is, I don't need to say much, I think you all know some of it, right? Here, I would like to respectfully tell you all, the identity of the police, is for us to maintain law and order and protect the lives and property of the common people, however, there are some people who think that they are superior and are official lords, and those common people mud-legged people should accompany him with smiling faces and flatter him ....."

"Boom!"

Zheng Yuanshan slapped his palm on the table and drank in a deep voice, "Then I can tell you all here, if anyone has this idea, then take off this skin as soon as possible, otherwise, if you wait until you commit something in the future and I find out, you will never be tolerated!"

"If you know the law and break it, your crime will be increased by one degree!" Zheng Yuanshan bellowed.

At once, I don't know how many people's eyelids jumped wildly, and the moment Zheng Yuanshan sank his face, they actually had a feeling of panic and trepidation.

Many people looked at each other, but they did not know what to say.

There were also some people who, despite their calm faces, were shocked in their hearts.

Everyone realised that from this day onwards, the past Director Zheng, who had always been mild-tempered and without much finesse, had become a thing of the past, and that the Southern Guangdong Provincial Department would now have a Director who would rise strongly, making it impossible for them to stop him.

Moreover, even if there are still people who will definitely put nails in Zheng Yuanshan's back and trip him up in the process, those people will not dare to directly oppose Zheng Yuanshan anymore.

If you think about it this way, I'm afraid it won't take long for the provincial hall to become Zheng's real surname!

Those who had been fighting against Zheng Yuanshan in the open and in the dark, and had disobeyed his orders, were now beginning to feel regretful, and were secretly anxious and afraid, not knowing how Zheng Yuanshan would deal with them in the future.

Some of the neutral factions who had not opposed Zheng Yuanshan were now beginning to have their minds made up.

Perhaps it would be a good choice to lean on Director Zheng?

However, no matter what all the people in the Southern Guangdong Provincial Department thought, it would not change anything.

The same night, the task force was established, and Zheng Yuanshan officially began his first step in taking control of the Southern Guangdong Provincial Department. At this time, the news of what had happened in the Provincial Office and the case that Zheng Yuanshan had informed the public about reached the outside world, and everyone in the top echelons of South Guangdong who was well-informed knew about it.

At once, everyone was stunned, then shocked and alerted.

Zheng Yuanshan had risen to power!

At least for a short period of time, no one could stop him, because after all, he was the head of the provincial department, and how he managed it was his responsibility, and others could not easily interfere with it, unless he was directly transferred away.

However, it is not that easy to transfer the head of a provincial police department, not to mention that behind Zheng Yuanshan stands the Tong and Ji families, so who dares to do it easily?

However, what was even more shocking than Zheng Yuanshan's strong rise was another piece of news – Ji Feng and He Hongwei, two people who had come to Southern Guangdong!

If the news of Zheng Yuanshan's rise only shocked some people, then the arrival of Ji Feng and He Hongwei immediately caused a lot of people to be intensely wary.

Some people even almost jumped up when they just heard the news!

These are not two ordinary young people, they are already extremely outstanding in their own abilities, plus they are undoubtedly representing their respective families behind them when they come here this time, so the power of their combined energy will definitely make people's scalps tingle just thinking about it.

This duo .....

The two of them are the only ones who can be considered to be in Southern Guangdong!

Campus Master Chapter 2095

Ji Feng is here!

He Hongwei was here!

The news spread through Southern Guangdong at an extremely fast pace, and it was undoubtedly more concerning and disturbing to certain people than Zheng Yuanshan's strong strike within the police system.

Because Zheng Yuanshan only represented the Ji family, although he was also a member of the Tong family, but to some people, the Zheng family was not that frightening, but the Ji family was a behemoth, and Zheng Yuanshan's strike was likely to represent the intention of a certain heavyweight of the Ji family, and it could even be the intention of the entire Ji family.

However, more than Zheng Yuanshan's move, the joint arrival of Ji Feng and He Hongwei made some people even more apprehensive.

This was because what these two represented were two behemoths.

The Ji Family and the He Family!

Who would dare to guarantee that the joining of Ji Feng and He Hongwei is not a precursor to the Ji and He families joining forces?

If these two behemoths really joined hands, then for many people, the pressure would instantly increase exponentially, this is not as simple as one plus one equals two, if the Ji and He families really agreed on certain aspects, then even the highest level would have to consider carefully!

Ji Feng and He Hongwei, the third generation stalwarts of the two families, others may not know, but those who are in the political arena, especially those who know something about the information at the top, know that among the third generation of the Ji family, the weight of Ji Feng and Ji Shaodong can be said to be indistinguishable, whichever one of them comes out, they can represent the entire third generation of the Ji family, especially on the outside.

Therefore, the news of Ji Feng and He Hongwei's arrival caused an uproar throughout Southern Guangdong as soon as it was announced!

There were even rumours that when several heavyweight giants in Southern Guangdong could not help but frown when they received the news, and even the second-in-command of Southern Guangdong even said on the spot, "The mountains are about to rain!"

It was evident how much pressure the arrival of the Ji Feng duo had brought to bear on some people!

In fact, these leading cadres in Southern Guangdong were not the only ones who felt the pressure, even certain people far away from Yanjing were likewise caught off guard by the news and were greatly shocked.

"What do you mean? Ji Feng and He Hongwei went to Southern Guangdong at the same time?"

Somewhere in the northwest, Wu Zhiyong likewise got the news at the first opportunity, and when he heard the news over the phone, his face instantly turned pale.

Wu Zhiyong's brows were furrowed, an undisguised shock flashed across his eyes, along with a hint of panic, as he asked in a deep voice, "Is this news accurate?"

"Accurate!"

The person on the phone said, "Young Wu, I have repeatedly confirmed this news, as far as I understand, Ji Feng and He Hongwei have opened a company in Fortune Plaza in Yuezhou, it does not involve any specific business, it just hangs the sign of the joint office of Tian Yao Group and Teng Fei Group, and this morning is the opening day of the company."

Wu Zhiyong was suddenly surprised and asked in astonishment, "What? The joint office of the Tianyao Group and the Tengfei Group?"

“That’s right! If it wasn’t for someone messing up, they would probably have opened for business normally today.” The person on the other end of the phone said.

“What do you mean?” Wu Zhiyong was stunned, at this moment he was still in shock and did not react for a while.

“Young Wu, it’s like this, just in the morning when the office was listed and set up, someone ran into their company to collect protection money, and ended up clashing with them, I heard that someone else fired a gun, and as a result, they got involved in a case .....” the person on the other end of the phone The man said.

“And shots were fired?”

Wu Zhiyong’s eyes widened at once and he immediately asked, “Who fired the gun? What was the result?”

He couldn’t help but have a vague expectation in his heart that shots had been fired ..... then who would be the one shot? Could it be one of Ji Feng and He Hongwei, or were they both shot?

“As far as we know, the one who shot should be the guard who was following He Hongwei, and no one was injured.”

“No one was injured?”

When Wu Zhiyong heard this, he could not hide his disappointment, but he still asked, somewhat undeterred, “Is your information accurate?”

The person on the other end of the phone immediately said, “It is absolutely true, I have specially mobilised the files to check today, and this is indeed the case. Only, that person who came to collect the protection fee, but also has some background, and has some relationship with the leader of the Yuezhou City Bureau, as a result, Zheng Yuanshan took this opportunity to intervene and caught everyone off guard .....”

This person told the whole story in detail over the phone.

After listening to it, Wu Zhiyong’s face clouded over.

Surprisingly, no one was injured, which meant that both Ji Feng and He Hongwei were fine and hadn’t been hurt at all ..... This result made Wu Zhiyong very disappointed.

When he first heard that someone was shooting, he was even thinking that even if he had to lose a few heavyweight cadres, if he could take out either of Ji Feng or He Hongwei, it would be worth it.

But the result was a disappointment for Wu Zhiyong.

This disappointment made him not even pay much attention to the news that Zheng Yuanshan had taken the opportunity to intervene and his voice in the police system had greatly increased.

Wu Zhiyong really wanted to take out Ji Feng and He Hongwei too much, especially Ji Feng, and if Ji Feng suddenly and unexpectedly hung up now, then Wu Zhiyong would definitely celebrate in a big way for a month, as a way to express his excitement and cheerfulness.

But this hope of his is obviously just a beautiful dream, Ji Feng is safe and sound.

“Then ..... what is the purpose of Ji Feng and He Hongwei running to Southern Guangdong to start a company?” Wu Zhiyong asked.

“That is unknown, because of the reason of someone messing up, their company is not officially open for business today, so exactly what they are going to do, others don’t know.”

“..... I see.”

Wu Zhiyong sullenly returned and asked again, “Other than that, is there any more news?”

“That’s all for now.”

The person on the other end of the phone said, “Wu Shao, now that Ji Feng and He Hongwei are here, Zheng Yuanshan has suddenly become full of energy and is making a lot of moves in the provincial hall, it’s only been half a day and there are already quite a few people leaning to his side, this can’t go on, if it goes on for a while, I’m afraid the whole provincial hall will be completely controlled by Zheng Yuanshan ..... Wu Shao, we have to think of a way as soon as possible, otherwise once Zheng Yuanshan really takes control of the provincial hall, there’s no telling how many people will suffer!”

The actual fact is that you will be able to get a lot more than just a few of these. As long as you act properly, he won’t be able to do anything about it!”

There was silence on the other end of the phone.

Wu Zhiyong also knew that what he said was not very realistic, how many officials were clean nowadays?

What’s more, in that economically developed place in Southern Guangdong, if those officials didn’t reach out for favours, how could they still afford the position under their ass?

Besides, if Zheng Yuanshan were to take control of the entire provincial department, even if the officials of the Wu family were clean, Zheng Yuanshan would have countless ways to jerk them off or make their lives very difficult.

—Have to say, many people are like that, always like to take their own point of view and judge others by themselves.

Wu Zhiyong was of such a character with quite a few people in the Wu family lineage, so he subconsciously assumed that Zheng Yuanshan was likewise such a person, or, for that matter, that the Ji family was all such people.

Therefore, Wu Zhiyong’s heart was also quite anxious, but for a while, he really didn’t have any good solutions, especially, at this moment, he was still shaken by the news of Ji Feng and He Hongwei’s arrival in Southern Guangdong, so at this moment, he could only do nothing.

“I know about this matter, just pay some attention to it, I’ll take care of it.” Wu Zhiyong dropped this sentence, then hung up the phone.

“Phew~!”

Then, Wu Zhiyong sat down on the sofa with his buttocks, his brow furrowed and his face gloomy, “Ji Feng and He Hongwei actually both went to South Guangdong and opened a joint office there? Could it be that they are really going to join hands to do something? Or is it that the Ji and He families have really joined forces?”

Thinking about his grudge against Ji Feng and He Hongwei, Wu Zhiyong couldn't help but have a cold glint in his eyes as he gritted his teeth and said, “You guys really have the guts to actually run straight to Southern Guangdong! I didn't go looking for you guys, and you actually messed with my head ..... damn it!”

Wu Zhiyong's heart was filled with indignation!

However, for a while he had no good response, and thinking of Zheng Yuanshan's rise to power, Wu Zhiyong could only grit his teeth and pick up his mobile phone to dial his father's number.

Wu Zhiyong knew that if he wanted to defeat Ji Feng and He Hongwei and suppress Zheng Yuanshan at the same time, it might be a bit difficult to rely on his own words alone and he had to communicate with his family.

The news spread quickly, and before the night was completely over, all the things that happened in Southern Guangdong had already reached Yanjing.

But everyone who was well-informed knew that Ji Feng and He Hongwei had joined forces in Southern Guangdong, and that Zheng Yuanshan had risen strongly, a news that shook almost the entire Yanjing city!

The Ji and He families had struck!

This was everyone's first reaction, as everyone was clear about just how huge a force Ji Feng and He Hongwei represented behind them.

I'm afraid, this is what the Ji and He families meant!

Sending Ji Feng and He Hongwei over, I'm afraid, is also a vanguard, and what follows is likely to be an incomparably fierce game!

At this time, people couldn't help but think of the several previous encounters between the Ji Family and the Wu Family, as well as the encounter between Ji Feng and Wu Zhiyong.

Even the previous incident in which Ji Shaodong personally declared war on Wu Zhiyong came to mind and was brought up again.

People could not help but guess that last time, Ji Shaodong's declaration of war had left the Wu family in the dust, and in the end, they had even lost such a good sword as the Old Wang Family, so the loss could be considered heavy.

So, could it be that this time, after winning the last encounter, the Ji Family, with the power of their new victory, turned passive into active and started to strike strongly, preparing to hit the Wu Family hard once again?

It's not that there's no such possibility!

Even if that wasn't the case, Ji Feng and He Hongwei's sudden arrival in Southern Guangdong wouldn't be without a reason, and moreover, they definitely wouldn't be getting along calmly with the Wu Clan's people.

Then, it was clear that the next step would be for the duo of Ji Feng and He Hongwei to join forces and fight with certain people from the Wu family.

Or was this another dragon fight between the third generation?

Everyone's eyes fell on Nan Yue, and everyone was looking forward to another fierce encounter between the two sides .....

Campus Master Chapter 2096

Yuezhou City, the capital of Southern Guangdong Province.

Inside the Fortune Plaza office building, a more prosperous section of Yuezhou, Ji Feng and He Hongwei arrived at the office at the same time.

"Brother Hongwei, what do you plan to do this time when you go over there?"

As soon as they met, Ji Feng asked with a smile, "I reckon we're going to have to stick our hot faces to our cold asses this time, are you mentally prepared?"

He Hongwei laughed, "I expected this before I came to Southern Guangdong, there's nothing to worry about!"

Ji Feng laughed, "That's good ....."

It was finally time to get moving!

The staff of the office were all in place now, although the office still didn't have a single business, nor could we talk about running anything, but at least the frame of this office was now set up.

At least at first glance, it does look a bit like a company.

Now that the office has been stabilised and the framework of the company has been set up, the next step is to consider how to start the business.

The purpose of their visit to Southern Guangdong was very simple, so according to their discussion, they decided to go directly to the Rongpeng Group – now known as the Brilliant Group – today.

This idea was proposed by He Hongwei, and Ji Feng nodded his head in agreement to this decision of He Hongwei. Although he still did not know exactly what He Hongwei was going to do in the past today, but with He Hongwei's intelligence and sleight of hand, his going this time would definitely not be aimless.

Given He Hongwei's character, he naturally would not do anything stupid.

However, now that he was going to the Brilliant Group, Ji Feng of course had to ask about He Hongwei's specific plans, otherwise when he got to the Brilliant Group, Ji Feng knew nothing and it would be impossible to cooperate with He Hongwei if he wanted to, that would be bad.

He Hongwei laughed: “Actually, there is no intention, that is, we just go over and tell the people of the Brilliant Group that we are interested in some projects in their hands and hope that we can cooperate with them, this time we are just expressing our intention, that’s all.”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but laugh at his words as he shook his head with a sunburst, “Where are you going to seek cooperation .....

As soon as He Hongwei said that, Ji Feng understood what he intended to do.

He Hongwei was obviously trying to put pressure on the Brilliant Group!

He and He Hongwei’s arrival in Southern Guangdong, I believe that at this moment, anyone with a little bit of information must have known the news, so in this territory, which has almost become the back garden of the Wu family, I am afraid that their every move will touch the most sensitive nerves of some people.

If they went to the Splendid Group with great fanfare at this time, I am afraid that many people would already know their purpose before they even arrived there.

This also means that their visit to the Brilliant Group will take place in full view of everyone.

The actual fact is that if you’ve got a lot of people in your life, you’re going to be able to get a lot of people in your life.

..... It may be an exaggeration to say that the news will spread all over the north and south of the country and that everyone will know about it, but at least everyone who cares about this matter will know about it!

Once this point has been reached, if someone ‘accidentally’ publicizes the projects they are interested in, so that the outside world knows what strategic significance those projects have for the country and for China, if the outside world knows that the Brilliant Group wants to sell these projects to the people of Kepong .....

If the outside world knew that the Brilliant Group wanted to sell these projects to the Kepong people, then the Brilliant Group would instantly be thrust into the limelight!

This is He Hongwei’s way of using public opinion as a tool in his own hands to directly pressure the Brilliant Group – are you going to defy all opposition and take strategic projects that are very important to the country and make a deal with the Kepong people, or will you consider working with China’s own companies?

This question will definitely be the most important one that many people want to ask, and for the Brilliant Group, it is definitely the most difficult to answer.

I am afraid that even the Wu family would not dare to answer this question easily.

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “I don’t think so, if the Wu family really cared about what the outside world thought, then the Brilliant Group wouldn’t necessarily be talking to the Kepong people about cooperation.”

He Hongwei laughed, "I didn't expect to be able to stop them with just this move, if it was that easy to succeed, the top wouldn't have sent the two of us over, the old boss would have communicated with the Wu family directly and maybe the problem would have been solved."

Ji Feng was deeply convinced.

Old Chief had already communicated with the Wu family before sending He Hongwei over, obviously because it didn't work, that's why Old Chief could only use his own methods to solve this matter.

"Using public opinion to put pressure on the other side just makes them not dare to make a rash decision for the time being ..... Even if they have already made a decision, they don't dare to really start working together easily, they always have to be mindful of some public opinion." He Hongwei said, "This buys us some time!"

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Let's hope so."

He Hongwei raised his eyebrows and asked, "You don't seem to be too optimistic about this approach? I remember when I discussed this approach with you in Jiangzhou before, you seemed to have hesitations, do you have any concerns?"

"Not really a concern, I just feel ....."

Ji Feng weighed his words and shook his head, "Brother Hongwei, because I come from the lowest level, so in many cases, I look at things from a different perspective than you do. In my opinion, a big family like the Wu family, they may be slightly concerned about public opinion, but that's only when the group is in an uproar, they will only be slightly concerned, and when the wind has passed, they will still It will be business as usual. But if they really don't even shake off those who oppose it, then there's nothing anyone can do ....."

"Countless facts have proven that opposition and protests alone actually don't even reach the level of tickling those who hold power." Ji Feng said, "Strong chaai, the most you can do after the whole thing is just to lose some money, and all sorts of other ....."

"These problems ....."

He Hongwei shook his head and said, "Indeed, these problems exist now, and some places are very bad, but no matter what, society is always progressing, these phenomena will be less and less, Ji Feng, now we can not manage so much, but, within our ability, the things that should be done is definitely to do... .."

Ji Feng shook his head, "I also just have some feelings for a while, well, since you have decided, then we will go."

"That's right, whether it works or not, the reason why we did it and asked for it without a guilty conscience is enough!" He Hongwei laughed.

"Well!"

Ji Feng nodded in deep thought and said, "That's a reasonable statement."

He Hongwei laughed, "Then again, things aren't actually that bad, perhaps the Wu family can pay less attention to the opposition of ordinary people, but if everyone at the top opposes it, or if it forms a big trend, the Wu family won't dare not pay attention to it."

As he spoke, He Hongwei picked up the briefcase on the table and headed out precisely.

Ji Feng also asked as he walked, "I've always wondered why the Wu family had to be so insistent on working with the Kepong people? Are they really just in it for the money? Or is there some other reason?"

He Hongwei shook his head and said, "I've thought about this question, but unfortunately, I'm afraid that only the Wu family knows what they really think."

Ji Feng then couldn't help but frown slightly, he really had been puzzled about this issue.

What was the inside story of this?

Imagine, in terms of the Wu family's status and strength, if you want money, they have such a private enterprise giant as the Brilliant Group, their financial strength is much stronger than even the original Ji family, there are almost no few families in Yanjing that can compare to the Wu family.

Under such circumstances, the most important thing the Wu family should do is to painstakingly manage their good image, even if they are putting on a show, they should still show their good side, why should they have to cooperate with the Kepong people, even if it attracts a lot of opposition?

If there was no reason why the Wu family had to do this, Ji Feng would not believe it.

Ji Feng had also discussed this issue with He Hongwei and others in the past, and although there were various speculations, there was no tangible result, and the pages of speculation were not too reasonable, so he kept this doubt under wraps.

The two talked about it and headed out, and were just about to go out when they suddenly saw a man probing at the door.

"Who are you looking for?"

He Hongwei asked in a deep voice as he frowned.

Ji Feng also stared at the man and looked over, at a glance this man did not look like any decent person, Ji Feng doubted if he had come here specifically to keep an eye on their every move.

Just then, the man, however, scowled and came up with a flattering smile, "Two ..... this is going out?"

Ji Feng's face instantly sank: "Cut the crap, say what's going on directly!"

The man hurriedly said, "That what ..... is this, my humble self is the head of the Fortune Plaza property, we just learned that this office is only established, as a property, we should always have something to show, this is a little token of appreciation, I hope you two don't mind... I hope you won't mind..."

As he spoke, the man fished out a red envelope from his pocket, bulging with money, obviously filled with a lot of money.

Ji Feng frowned: "You're here to send congratulatory gifts?"

"Yes yes ....."

The man nodded his head repeatedly.

Ji Feng and He Hongwei glanced at each other, then He Hongwei took the red envelope from the man's hand and squeezed it in his hand before smiling, "If I'm not wrong, the half-year property management fee we just paid is almost this much money, right?"

Ji Feng smiled and his face instantly sank .....

Campus Master Chapter 2097

Ji Feng and He Hongwei glanced at each other, then He Hongwei took the red envelope from the man's hand and squeezed it in his hand before smiling, "If I'm not wrong, the half-year property management fee we just paid is almost that much money, right?"

Ji Feng smiled and his face sank .....

"When our office opened, one did not give you an invitation, two did not inform your property management office, you gave me such a thick gift along with it, is this not a bit of a suspicion of courtesy?" He Hongwei stared at the man and asked in a somewhat low voice.

"No, no, don't misunderstand ....." the man hurriedly explained.

"Not what?"

Ji Feng said in a deep voice: "Where were you when Zhang Gang and the others came to collect protection fees? The property management fee paid to you, doesn't it include the cost of security guards? What do you mean now that you've come to offer your hospitality?"

The man smiled sarcastically: "This ..... also please understand, those people have a background, we can't afford to mess with it ....."

Ji Feng coldly snorted, "Then when they were coming, you couldn't give a notice in advance?"

At the time when Sister Ying and the others came, there was no way that the people from the property company didn't know.

Even if they gave a little advance notice and then told themselves about the background of Sister Ying and the others, it would have been useful, but from the beginning to the end, they hadn't seen anyone from the property company, let alone been given any semblance of notice.

Fortunately, Sister Ying and the others were not enough to worry about at all, but if they were ordinary people instead, wouldn't they have suffered a big loss this time?

Now that the people from the property company saw that Sister Ying hadn't fought them, they immediately came to offer their hospitality, and this kind of gift was really a laugh to take.

The head of that property company was dumbfounded by Ji Feng's question and just had an embarrassed look on his face.

“Alright, you can take this money back!”

He Hongwei didn't bother to talk nonsense with this kind of people, he just said in a deep voice: “I just hope that since you have taken the owner's money, then you should also take up your responsibilities, the so-called that people's money to help people eliminate disasters, even if you can't eliminate disasters, don't be a shrinking turtle!”

The head of that property company was said to blush and sarcastically lent the money over.

“Humph!”

Ji Feng sneered, shook his head and walked out with big steps.

He Hongwei, however, snorted, “This kind of person ..... I think this is what he will do in his life, not daring to take responsibility, and how can he make his career bigger?”

Ji Feng said, “Maybe he is also watching people come, thinking that we are outsiders, surely we can't fight the local ground snake, so it is likely that he is still gloating on the side.”

He Hongwei shook his head and said, “Does this count as going out unfavorably? Just set out and met such a guy, it's really .....”

Ji Feng was instantly sunburnt: “When did you become so superstitious?”

He Hongwei laughed: “I just said so casually, not related to superstition or anything ..... However, when you say so, I remembered an anecdote at that time.”

“What?” Ji Feng asked.

“Some time ago I heard such a thing, said that in a certain place there is an official, official position is not low, he is responsible for the work, there is the spiritual civilization construction piece, so he constantly in various meetings to emphasize what style decency firm faith and so on, especially the fight against feudal superstition should be strong... ..”

He Hongwei shook his head and smiled, and said, “But as a result, after this man stepped down because of economic problems, the investigation team's people actually found the gods' tablets for burning incense and worshipping Buddha in his home, and even the decoration in his home and office, there was a special feng shui master in charge .....”

Ji Feng laughed: “There are many such things, those people look like human beings, but in reality they are full of male thieves and female prostitutes!”

He Hongwei shook his head and gave a light sigh.

The duo drove to the Brilliant Group headquarters amidst this idle talk.

Bai Zhu wanted to follow them upstairs, but was stopped by Ji Feng, they were only here for show this time, there would be no danger. If something happened to them in the Brilliant Group, then the Wu family would really be mad!

So, Ji Feng and He Hongwei went straight to the Splendid Group's building and arrived at the front welcome desk, where a girl in a professional suit with a professional smile on her face asked, "Two gentlemen, how can I help you?"

Without any nonsense, He Hongwei said directly, "We are looking for your boss."

"May I ask if you have an appointment?" The girl explained, "Our boss is very busy and you have to have an appointment if you want to see him."

"No, but we have something very important to see him about." He Hongwei said.

The girl hesitated for a moment before nodding and saying, "Then please wait a moment, I'll ask for you."

He Hongwei nodded his head and agreed.

He didn't make things difficult for the girl, after all, she was only a staff member here and not the person in charge, so it was useless to make things difficult for her.

However, a moment later, the girl put down the phone, but said, "I'm very sorry, our boss is meeting with guests, he doesn't have time now, please ....."

"Tell your old boss that He Hongwei and Ji Feng from the Tian Yao Group and Teng Fei Group office have come to visit him specifically." He Hongwei frowned and said in a deep voice.

"Two ....."

The girl still wanted to say something before being interrupted by Ji Feng, "Just tell your boss that, he will agree to see us."

Perhaps it was because she saw the kind of aura on Ji Feng and He Hongwei that was very different from ordinary people, so the girl in charge of reception hesitated for a moment and eventually picked up the phone again.

However, a moment later, the girl looked at Ji Feng and the two of them with a somewhat strange and stunned look, "Two, our boss invites you up to ....."

He Hongwei smiled and nodded, "Many thanks."

The girl gave them an incomparably odd look, muttering in her heart.

Just now on the phone, she repeated He Hongwei's words, only to hear the old boss's assistant on the other end of the line immediately give a startled cry, as if the two names surprised her.

Then, the old boss's voice came through to see both Ji Feng and He Hongwei, and said that it was immediately.

Looking at the backs of Ji Feng and He Hongwei, the girl couldn't help but mutter secretly, could it be that these two handsome men were both very much in demand?

Besides, while Ji Feng and He Hongwei were waiting for the lift, they saw the door of the next lift open, then another woman in a professional suit walked out quickly and then came directly towards them, “Mr. Ji, Mr. He, our boss has an invitation.”

Ji Feng instantly gave her a thoughtful look and asked, “You know us?”

The woman just smiled faintly and extended her hand, “Please, two.”

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, and walked into the lift with He Hongwei, both of them with a look of recognition in their eyes, while still being a little wary.

This woman had recognized them straight away without even asking, so it was obvious that she should have seen them beforehand, or had seen their photos, which meant that people from the Brilliant Group were also following their every move ah.

The lift soon reached the top floor, and Ji Feng and the others knew that the current general manager’s office of the Brilliant Group was on the top floor.

Under the guidance of the professionally dressed woman, they arrived at the general manager’s office and also met the current general manager of the Brilliant Group for the first time.

It was a middle-aged man in his forties or so, with shiny combed hair and slightly blessed, he was the kind of successful person at first glance.

Zhai Yadong!

That was the name of the current general manager of the Brilliant Group.

According to the information obtained by Ji Feng and He Hongwei, this Zhai Yadong was indeed very strong, he was a sea turtle who had returned from studying in Rice, and had been the president of Greater China in two large multinational companies, during his tenure he had achieved very good results, at the same time he also founded a headhunting company himself, and was definitely considered a strong management talent.

He is now the first person in charge of the Brilliant Group – even though he is nominally the general manager and the Brilliant Group is an offshore company, in reality everyone knows that it is just a cover for people’s ears. The real owner of the Brilliant Group is the Wu family.

However, in addition to Zhai Yadong, there was another person sitting on the sofa in the office.

Ji Feng’s gaze swept over this person, and he found a young man of about thirty years old, of course, this young man was relative to Zhai Yadong, this person wore a pair of gold-rimmed glasses, wearing a white shirt and tie, appeared to be very civilized and courteous.

However, after Ji Feng saw him, he could not help but raise his eyebrows slightly.

He felt that there seemed to be something not quite right about this man.

“Introduce yourself, I am Zhai Yadong, the general manager of the Brilliant Group, it is a great honour for me to have Mr. Ji and Mr. He personally here today, welcome!”

Zhai Yadong’s voice was not too loud, but it seemed a bit literate and acidic.

He Hongwei naturally knew what Ji Feng meant, so after exchanging a few pleasantries with Zhai Yadong, a few people took their seats at Zhai Yadong's invitation.

What caught Ji Feng's attention was that from the time they entered until they sat on the sofa in the meeting area, the man with gold-rimmed glasses sitting on the sofa not far away did not even give them a glance, just sipping tea from his own cup, as if he did not care about them, and as if he was a kind of indifference to strangers, which was more or less strange.

However, it seems to feel that Ji Feng is sizing him up, the man's movement of drinking water slightly paused, his gaze flicked from Ji Feng's body, but squinted at Ji Feng .....

"Mr. He, Mr. Ji, forgive me for being presumptuous, but I don't know why you two have come all of a sudden .....,," without exchanging a few pleasantries, Zhai Yadong got to the point.

"It's like this, we are here this time to seek cooperation with your side." He Hongwei said bluntly.

"Cooperation?"

Zhai Yadong was slightly stunned and laughed, "Mr. He, I'm a bit confused, we run different businesses and are located in different geographical areas, I don't know where we can cooperate!"

This was an outright refusal, not leaving the door open at all!

"Cooperation?"

Zhai Yadong was slightly stunned and smiled, "Mr. He, I'm a bit confused, we run different businesses and are located in different geographical areas, I don't know where we can cooperate!"

This was an outright refusal, not leaving the door open at all!

Although Zhai Yadong said it in a more polite way, the meaning of the refusal in his words was too obvious – we do not have any intersection in our business and we are located in different regions.

However, even though Zhai Yadong was refusing, he still put the two sides on a more equal footing, sort of an equal dialogue, and strictly speaking, in doing so, he was somewhat underestimating He Hongwei.

He should be on the same level as Wu Zhiyong, and they could talk to each other on an equal footing, but Zhai Yadong was only one of Wu Zhiyong's men, or rather, a cadre of the Wu family, but he deliberately ignored this fact, and only treated He Hongwei as the boss of the Tianyao Group.

He Hongwei was the boss and Zhai Yadong was also the boss, so the latter then simply spoke to He Hongwei in a reciprocal tone, which was undoubtedly a deliberate attempt to belittle He Hongwei.

If it was between ordinary people in normal times, it might not be that obvious, but the more it was between such people of a certain status, the more obvious this difference in rank and qualification became.

This was the reason why only a few people could actually be called 'so-and-so young man', or so-and-so gongzi, while the vast majority of dudes were the ones who could only be called so-and-so brother.

Although the difference in name calling is very subtle, for many people, it is something that they are very aware of in this regard.

To take a step back, Zhai Yadong was only the general manager of the Brilliant Group, while He Hongwei was the hand of the Tianyao Group, and on this point alone, they simply could not communicate on an equal footing!

However, when Zhai Yadong was speaking, his face was calm, as if He Hongwei was just a person who came to seek cooperation, just the head of a group, that's all.

Ji Feng could not help but give Zhai Yadong a thoughtful look.

Although Ji Feng and He Hongwei had expected that they would not be welcomed and might even be treated with a cold face before coming here, they did not expect that Zhai Yadong's attitude would be more than just a cold face, he was clearly full of hostility.

Ji Feng frowned slightly and secretly said, "Does this Zhai Yadong still want to challenge He Hongwei directly? Or does he think that with his qualifications, he's good enough to compete with He Hongwei?"

He Hongwei's face was calm, still with that gentle and elegant demeanour, and he said indifferently, "Mr Zhai, I think your words are biased."

Zhai Yadong leaned back on the backrest of the sofa, then took out a packet of cigarettes from his pocket and handed them to He Hongwei and Ji Feng. After the two of them waved their hands and refused, he then lit up himself and took two puffs, exhaling two smoke rings, with an attitude of enjoyment.

Ji Feng and He Hongwei looked calm, just sitting there looking at Zhai Yadong, neither showing any sign of displeasure nor any sign of urging, as if they did not notice anything wrong with Zhai Yadong's posing and complacent behavior.

As for the other figure sitting next to him – the man with the gold-rimmed glasses – he was even sipping his own tea, as if he didn't see Ji Feng and He Hongwei at all, not even glancing over here.

He waited until Zhai Yadong had taken a few puffs of his cigarette before he slowly opened his mouth and asked, "I wonder what Mr. He means by that? Where are my words biased, how come I don't know?"

He Hongwei smiled and said, "First of all, the scope of business operations of our two groups, is not without any intersection, in fact, Tianyao Group is now joining hands with Tengfei Group and is preparing to enter some industries that it has never set foot in before, and for a few projects in your hands, we are very interested ....."

He Hongwei directly nailed what he wanted, going over those few important projects under the Brilliant Group.

Zhai Yadong could not help but frown, shaking his head: "Mr. He, I am very sorry, about these projects, now we have entered into substantive negotiations with other companies, and basically the negotiations have been about to be completed, the next will enter the real cooperation stage ..... so, can only say to you I'm sorry, I just hope we'll have the opportunity to cooperate in the future!"

"Cooperate with other companies?"

He Hongwei glanced at him and opened the door and asked, "It's with the Kepong people, right? KAI Peng's Lingxia Group?"

Zhai Yadong, however, shook his head and said, "Sorry, this is our company's business secret, I think Mr. He shouldn't be ignorant of this, right?"

Ji Feng's eyes narrowed slightly, this Zhai Yadong's words were a bit too much.

As the boss of Tianyao Group, how could He Hongwei not understand what a trade secret was? Did he still need someone to teach him?

By saying this, Zhai Yadong was obviously deliberately belittling He Hongwei.

He Hongwei shook his head and said, "Mr. Zhai, I really don't know much about business secrets, but there is one thing I do understand, there are some projects that it is better to give to someone from abroad than to a company from your own country, this is beneficial to everyone, don't you think?"

"Mr. He!"

Zhai Yadong suddenly raised his voice, a pair of eyes looked at He Hongwei, and swept over Ji Feng's body, and the original trace of smile on his face, if any, disappeared.

"I think, words, just now I have said it all too clearly, what Mr. He wants, I can't give you! So, please also ask Mr. He to be able to understand more, if there is a suitable project in the future, I might consider your ..... Sorry, I have things to do next, that's all."

Zhai Yadong stood up, "You two take care, I won't see you off."

Ji Feng and He Hongwei both stood up, they glanced at each other, and then, He Hongwei slightly straightened his clothes, stared at Zhai Yadong, and said in a deep voice: "Mr. Zhai, we don't say dark things in front of the plain people, for those several projects, I will definitely keep an eye on them, and I think you are also clear, those several projects are at least considered strategic projects, if you give those projects to the people of Kailong Is it appropriate I think you should understand without me saying ....."

He paused before saying, "I won't say any more redundant words, Mr. Zhai, this is the first time I come to visit today, I am in a bit of a hurry, please forgive me, however, I will come back often in the future, I hope I won't disturb Mr. Zhai ....."

After saying that, He Hongwei didn't even wait for Zhai Yadong to say anything, then turned around and left.

Ji Feng, however, looked at Zhai Yadong with interest and smiled meaningfully, then only then turned around and prepared to leave.

"What a big mouth!"

Suddenly, a cold laugh rang out behind Ji Feng and He Hongwei.

Ji Feng and He Hongwei both turned around at the same time and saw the man with gold-rimmed glasses, who had been drinking tea with a cup, put down his cup with a sneer on his face and said, "I've grown up, it's really the first time I've heard someone talk to others about cooperation like this, it's really comical ..... Does he think that he is the state enterprise's boss, so you can threaten others at will?"

He Hongwei laughed and said, "Are you talking to me?"

The man with gold-rimmed glasses snorted, "What else do you think?"

He Hongwei shook his head and smiled, asking, "So ..... which one are you again?"

"What, you still want to check your account?"

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses asked derisively, "Or do you want to ask what my status is and whether I'm qualified enough to talk to you?"

He Hongwei said, "If that's your attitude, I don't think there's any need for us to continue the conversation ....."

"Of course there's no need to continue the conversation!" The man with the gold-rimmed glasses said, "With your Excellency's domineering personality, it really takes a good deal of cultivation to talk to you!"

"Boring!"

He Hongwei shook his head, turned around and left.

"Mr. He, before you leave, I have a message for you!" The man said in a loud voice behind him.

"If you have something to say, say it!" He Hongwei said in a deep voice.

"For many people, your status is indeed intimidating, but I have to tell you, status doesn't mean everything, sometimes many people don't care too much about your status, if you want to play, you have to follow the rules, otherwise, you will end up with a big loss!" The man said with a wry smile.

He Hongwei turned around haughtily and stared at him for a long time before suddenly smiling, "I'll remember that!"

At this moment, Ji Feng's gaze was all the time on that man's body, and then he looked at Zhai Yadong, but found that while the man with gold-rimmed glasses was speaking, Zhai Yadong was not even the least bit upset, and even listened with a smile on his face.

Ji Feng couldn't help but have an illusion, how come it looked like this man with gold-rimmed glasses was more like the dominant one here, and Zhai Yadong was like a sidekick instead?

"Heh~!"

He Hongwei shook his head and smiled, saying, "Mr. Zhai, please also remember what I just said, I will come back again!"

Ji Feng laughed, "Mr. He, hurry up and leave, are you going to stay here and let people taunt you?"

He Hongwei also couldn't help but bask, then walked out with Ji Feng in big strides.

Before walking out of Zhai Yadong's office, Ji Feng suddenly stopped in his tracks and jerked back, colliding with the gaze of the man with the gold-rimmed glasses, who also did not expect Ji Feng to suddenly turn back and subconsciously shifted his gaze.

But then, the man with the gold-rimmed glasses sensed that something was wrong, so he immediately turned his head around and stared at Ji Feng.

However, Ji Feng just looked at him calmly, nor did he have any intention to fight with him, nor did he show any weakness, he just asked indifferently, "I seem to feel that your Excellency has a kind of hostility towards me?"

He Hongwei also couldn't help but look back at the man with the gold-rimmed glasses.

"Humph!"

The man sneered, "Joke, doesn't your Excellency also take himself too seriously, me hating you? Ha ....."

Campus Master Chapter 2099

"Hmph!"

The man sneered, "Joke, doesn't your Excellency also take himself too seriously, I hate you? Ha ....."

Ji Feng, however, was not angered by the other party's attitude, he just said indifferently, "It's not the best!"

"What if it is?"

The man, however, asked directly.

He Hongwei immediately frowned and stared at the man.

Even a fool would be able to tell that this man with gold-rimmed glasses was very wrong, whether it was for him or for Ji Feng, he appeared to be somewhat hostile.

It is useless even if he denied it, not to mention the man's denial. What kind of person is He Hongwei? He can be the boss of a large group at a young age, so how can his vision be compared to that of ordinary people?

He could tell right away that this man with gold-rimmed glasses was hostile to them!

There was no need for sophistry!

Therefore, when Ji Feng said this, He Hongwei immediately became alert, because He Hongwei knew that Ji Feng's vision was definitely not below his own. Since Ji Feng was about to leave but suddenly returned to question this man with gold-rimmed glasses again, it meant that there must be something wrong with this man.

As expected, this man was revealing an even more obvious hostility at this moment, and he was even asking provocatively, "What if it is?"

What if I hate you?

"If it's ....." Ji Feng smiled faintly, "I hope it's better if it's not, otherwise, that's really not good news for you!"

"Arrogant!"

The man's face instantly changed and he shouted lowly, "You're not afraid of the wind blowing your tongue?!"

Ji Feng laughed: "It's useless to be angry, it's useless to be loud, whether I'm arrogant or not, time will prove everything later! ..... Take care of yourself!"

After saying that, Ji Feng never looked at him again, turned around and left in big strides.

He Hongwei took a deep look at the man with the gold-rimmed glasses, and then also left.

"Humph!"

Looking at the figures of Ji Feng and the two of them disappearing outside the office door, the man with the gold-rimmed glasses couldn't help but snort coldly, his face very gloomy and his eyes gloomy: "How arrogant to the extreme! I used to hear people say how arrogant these two people are, I didn't quite believe it, but now I've finally seen it, these two people, they're completely the doings of a dude, they're simply unbearable!"

Zhai Yadong's face wasn't too good either, he stared at the office door and said in a deep voice, "You can't underestimate these two people, ah, I heard that Young Master Wu once suffered a big loss at his hands ....."

"Humph!"

The man with gold-rimmed glasses snorted coldly and said, "These two people make me extremely annoyed! People like them are spoiled by their family's background and think that no one is inferior to them, but in reality they are unaware that if they leave the shelter of their family, they are nothing!"

Zhai Yadong said, "In fact,..... these two people still have some ability, objectively speaking, He Hongwei can be called the boss of Tianyao Group at this age, and the group is still operating very well, if he does not have a certain ability, he cannot do it. And this person, Ji Feng, is even more capable, and it is said that the Tengfei Group is his!"

"There's some truth to what you're saying, they do have some ability, at least within so many dudes, the two of them should be considered good." The man with gold-rimmed glasses nodded slightly and said, "However, if we were to speak strictly, their abilities are just like that ....."

Zhai Yadong asked, "What does that mean?"

The company's economy is now such that state-owned enterprises are very well off, and if they run a good business, they only turn over a small portion of their profits, leaving most of the rest for themselves, otherwise, where would they have the money to buy more than 100,000 bottles of red wine? And if they don't do well, the state will subsidise them, or at least they won't lose money, so naturally, the state enterprises won't have any problems!"

“And when they promote themselves, they naturally won’t expose themselves, so what you see is always their shiny side, but you can’t see their oozy backstory.”

The man with gold-rimmed glasses bristled and looked disdainful: “And to talk about this Ji Feng ..... tsk tsk!”

He couldn’t help but tsk twice and hummed, “The Tengfei Group that this person founded has even less technical content, much less revealing his abilities.”

“Oh?”

Zhai Yadong asked, “I don’t quite understand, don’t forget, the Kang Yuan slimming powder under the Tengfei Group, and the special effects current exclusively for the military, as well as the 3D television set that is now exploding, are all very technical! These were all created by Ji Feng, isn’t this enough to show his strength?”

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses snorted, “That’s just a publicity stunt, like the two drugs you mentioned, all Ji Feng needs to do is get the prescriptions and then put them into production after a simple experiment.

“As for that 3D TV set, it seems that it was produced after a merger with a private TV factory, right?” The man with the gold-rimmed glasses pulled the corner of his mouth, “Lao Zhai, don’t you still understand this?”

“What you mean is .....”

Zhai Yadong asked with some hesitation, “The 3D TV technology that the Tengfei Group now has is actually the technology of that private TV factory that Ji Feng grabbed?”

“Apart from that possibility, could you have any other explanation?” The man with the gold-rimmed glasses asked, “Are you saying that you still think that Ji Feng came up with all these things? Could it be that he’s a god?”

“Heh~”

Zhai Yadong shook his head and laughed.

However, there was some hesitation in his heart. As a businessman, although he might not understand too much about high-level politics and the game between some factions, his vision and sense of smell were still very keen in certain aspects.

In Zhai Yadong’s opinion, both Ji Feng and He Hongwei are excellent, and they should not be as bad as the man with the gold-rimmed glasses says.

At least when the man with the gold-rimmed glasses was commenting on Ji Feng and He Hongwei, he was afraid that he had personal feelings in it, and might even have been somewhat malicious in not wanting to acknowledge the abilities of the two of them, which was also possible.

But Zhai Yadong did not say these words, but hid them in his heart, because after all, this brilliant group is not his personal, and considering the identity and origin of the person in front of him, he must also give face to the other party, especially because there is no need to make any unpleasantness with the other party because of Ji Feng and He Hongwei.

So Zhai Yadong neither agreed with the gold-rimmed glasses man's viewpoint, but neither did he deny it either, instead he changed the subject: "You heard what He Hongwei and Ji Feng put down just now when they were leaving, what should we do next?"

"Respond to all changes with no change!" The man with the gold-rimmed glasses immediately said, "They've just set up an office now, without any substantial business content at all, the only thing that's of some use is just the identities of the two of them, but as long as we don't give a shit about them, there's nothing they can do!"

"That said, maybe now they're the ones who want us to do something, because if that happens, they might be able to grab a hold of it and do something about it!" The man with the gold-rimmed glasses waved his hand, looking strong, "So, we'll continue with everything as usual, and the negotiations with the Kepong people are now at their last hurdle, right?"

"Well!"

Zhai Yadong nodded his head.

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses immediately said, "Then let's continue the negotiations! Ji Feng and He Hongwei you don't have to worry about, I'll deal with the two of them ..... Humph! I don't believe it, the two of them can still make any waves in Southern Guangdong! If they dare to mess up, see how I will clean them up!"

Zhai Yadong was silent for a moment before he nodded and said, "That's the only way to go."

Right now, he had no good countermeasures, and he could only adopt the strategy of responding to every change with no change, which was also the safest!

"Two pretentious scum ....., " the man with the gold-rimmed glasses couldn't help but curse again.

"....."

Zhai Yadong didn't seem to hear and got up to go about his business.

.....

"As expected, this trip is a hot face on a cold ass!" As soon as he left the Brilliant Group headquarters building, He Hongwei laughed and laughed at himself.

"Since it was already expected, then don't be depressed." Ji Feng laughed.

"Depressed is not true, except that I am rather interested in the attitude of Zhai Yadong and that man with glasses ..... especially that man with glasses!" He Hongwei said.

"Well!"

Ji Feng nodded and said, "This man is suspicious, he seems to have deep hostility towards us, but the strange thing is that I've never seen this man before in my impression!"

He Hongwei said, "I haven't seen it either. It's strange!"

Ji Feng thought about it and suddenly asked, "Could he be someone from the Martial Family? Or is he one of the sons of the Wu family?"

He Hongwei immediately shook his head and said, "Definitely not! Although I don't know all of the Wu family's sons and daughters, I basically know all of the Wu family's sons and daughters at his age, and even if I haven't met them, I've seen their photos!"

Ji Feng then smiled, He Hongwei was unapologetically admitting that he had investigated the sons and daughters of the Wu family, in fact, this was not surprising, there was a saying that the person who knew you best was often your enemy!

As an opponent, it is natural to know the other party clearly, this is normal.

"Then ..... would it be a sidekick of the Wu family?" Ji Feng suddenly asked.

"That's not known." He Hongwei shook his head and said, "I can't possibly investigate everyone related to the Wu family."

"Then investigate this person as soon as possible!" Ji Feng said immediately.

There was always someone who harboured extremely deep hostility, but his side actually didn't even know what the other party's origins were, which was a bit too passive.

And most importantly, Ji Feng could see from the eyes of the man with the gold-rimmed glasses that he was far more hostile towards himself than he was towards He Hongwei by a few points!

This made Ji Feng very wary!

How did such an enemy suddenly appear?

Campus Master Chapter 2100

This man with gold-rimmed glasses who suddenly appeared aroused Ji Feng's strong vigilance.

Not only because of the strong hostility this man showed towards himself and He Hongwei, but more importantly, Ji Feng very keenly noticed the attitude Zhai Yadong showed when this man with gold-rimmed glasses was speaking.

This person's status should not be below Zhai Yadong's!

That also meant that this person should not be someone from the Brilliant Group, or at least, he was not an employee of the Brilliant Group.

He Hongwei shared the same view, "Not only is he not someone from the Brilliant Group, but according to my estimation, he is also not someone from the Brilliant Group's holding company."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, "That's right!"

In name, the holding company of the Brilliant Group was an offshore company, but everyone knew that the Brilliant Group was actually the private property of the Wu family.

This also meant that that offshore company was actually not very useful to the Brilliant Group at all, and the one who could really command the Brilliant Group was the Wu family.

Therefore, this man with gold-rimmed glasses should not be from the offshore company either.

But looking at Zhai Yadong's attitude towards him, it was obvious that this man's status was not low again, which made Ji Feng and He Hongwei a little curious about this man's origin.

"Could it be someone from the Wu family?" He Hongwei frowned.

"That's unknown, as you know, I'm not too familiar with these families in Yanjing!" Ji Feng shook his head and said.

"In that case ....."

He Hongwei couldn't help but deliberate as he mused, "This man with glasses should be of some origin, we must find out his identity, and at this juncture, we must try to rule out any possible accidents."

"Check!"

Ji Feng said decisively, "We must find out the identity of this person as soon as possible, if he is from the Wu family, then there is nothing to say, but if he is from another source ....."

He Hongwei took over, "That would be a problem."

Ji Feng also agreed with He Hongwei's opinion, if they wanted to stop the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Kepong people, they would inevitably have to fight with the Wu family, as well as the Brilliant Group's people.

If another force suddenly appeared at this time, then there might be unexpected trouble, and there might even be a change of heart, causing them to lose all their efforts and ultimately fail.

So it was important for them to find out if this man with gold-rimmed glasses was sent by another force or not!

"I'll take care of this matter!" He Hongwei said, "I'll find out!"

"What about the matter of the walking message?" Ji Feng asked.

If he wanted to fight anyone head-on, Ji Feng didn't have to worry at all, but when it came to sending people out to spread the news, this matter was something he had more than enough heart to do, because if he wanted to spread the news, he at least had to control public opinion, which required enough manpower, preferably through the news media or other information channels.

In such matters, Ji Feng knew very well that he was not as ambitious as He Hongwei.

He Hongwei smiled, "Don't worry, don't worry about spreading the news, I will arrange it, at this stage you just have to think about your approach!"

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, "That's best!"

Although he and He Hongwei had the same aim in the matter of stopping the Brilliant Group from joining hands with the Boundary Pontiffs, the two had also joined hands.

However, in reality, they were again independent of each other.

The two would not ask each other about what each of them was doing, after all, their identities dictated that they could not fully cooperate with each other. What's more, even if the two were to completely twist together, it would be impossible for both of them to be the main force, there would always be one responsible for the main attack and one to assist at the side.

But whether it was Ji Feng or He Hongwei, both of them were extremely outstanding and distinguished, and neither of them was suitable to be someone else's assistant.

So from the very beginning, they already had a clear understanding of each other's positioning, that is, the two of them could cooperate with each other to a large extent, but each would go about using their own methods to accomplish the matter.

If there is a crossover in their methods, they will work together to accomplish it, but otherwise, they are independent of each other.

For example, today's visit to the Brilliant Group is an idea that both Ji Feng and He Hongwei agree on, which is why they both came together.

This is also known as complementary strengths, and in the end, different paths lead to the same destination.

"By the way ....."

He Hongwei suddenly remembered something as he said, "Ji Feng, there are some media that still need you to step in and communicate."

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows, somewhat not quite understanding, "What do you mean?"

He Hongwei laughed, "You don't think that all the media will listen to me, do you? In fact there are quite a few media outlets that have quite a good relationship with your family ....."

Ji Feng smiled and instantly understood what he meant.

The media that He Hongwei said should actually be controlled by the Ji family, for any power figure, control of the media is a must, this is an important position, just imagine, if you can't control the media, it is also the same as losing the right to speak, if your opponents in the media all day long recklessly report something unfavorable to you, after a long time, even the most powerful figures If your opponent reports something against you in the media all day long, in time, even the most powerful person will not be able to carry it.

You know, public opinion cannot be disobeyed!

But public opinion also needs to be guided!

This is politics, something that no one can avoid, and the Ji family is likewise no exception.

"No problem, I'll take care of this matter!" Ji Feng nodded and agreed very readily, "If you need anything in the future, communicate in time!"

"Of course!"

He Hongwei smiled and nodded his head.

Afterwards, He Hongwei went straight back to the office, but Ji Feng didn't follow him back, he, together with Bai Zhu, went back to the hotel instead.

"It seems that it's time to find a clean place!" Ji Feng looked at the guests coming and going in the hotel and couldn't help but frown slightly, although this hotel was well-serviced, it was also crowded and no one knew if there was anyone in it to spy on them or not.

If they found a house outside, they would be able to avoid the eyes of many people.

"Shall I go out and look for a house?" Bai Zhu asked.

"No need."

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "I'll just find someone to help me, let you go out to look, instead you won't know where there is a suitable ....."

Bai Zhu was unfamiliar with Yuezhou and needed navigation instructions to drive out, so how could she go out and look for a house?

Besides, Zheng Yuanshan was in Southern Guangdong, so it was more than appropriate to ask him for help.

Ji Feng then left this issue behind, it was all trivial, just discuss it with He Hongwei when he returned, what Ji Feng had to do now was to ask his family to contact the media.

At the same time, Ji Feng also had to deliberate on what to do next, after all, what they had to face was not just any ordinary people, but the behemoth that was the Lingxia Group of Kepong, as well as the powerful Wu family.

Inadvertently, the man with gold-rimmed glasses that he had seen at the Brilliant Group popped up in Ji Feng's mind again, and he couldn't help but frown slightly, no matter how much he recalled, he didn't have any semblance of this person, but this person was obviously hateful towards him, so Ji Feng speculated that this person was probably related to one of his opponents.

"Is it someone from the Wu family, or the Qiao family? Or perhaps, it was someone from the Kepong people or the Dynasty?" Ji Feng thought about it left and right, but still had no clue, and in the end, he could only give up.

"It seems that I can only wait for the results of He Hongwei's investigation." Ji Feng shook his head and stopped thinking about the matter.

As expected, He Hongwei returned in the evening, bringing with him the information on the man with the gold-rimmed glasses.

"We found out the guy's background!"

He Hongwei said, "Here's the information, take a look."

Ji Feng casually took the folder handed over by He Hongwei, and after opening it, he saw an information sheet in the form of a table, and the photo on it showed the very same man with gold-rimmed glasses that he saw in the Brilliant Group today.

“Zhang Xingbang?”

Looking at it, Ji Feng’s brow furrowed.

According to what the information showed, this man with gold-rimmed glasses was called Zhang Xingbang, a native of Yanjing. Zhang Xingbang’s mother was a former dancer in the cultural and industrial troupe, who has now moved from the front of the stage to behind the scenes, doing administrative work, and his father was a middle-level cadre in the electricity department, also in management.

From this piece of information, this Zhang Xingbang is from a general cadre family, which is certainly quite good compared to ordinary people, both parents are cadres, so it can be said that the origin is superior and the conditions are very good.

However, Ji Feng was feeling very strange.

How could Zhang Xingbang from this kind of family origin have Zhai Yadong pay so much attention to him? And it looked like his status was actually not below Zhai Yadong’s?

Moreover, this Xingbang was so young that Zhai Yadong could reasonably be considered his elder, which made Ji Feng feel even stranger.

“Could it be that he has something over the top?” Ji Feng continued to look down, but did not find any special information, this Xingbang’s resume was also very ordinary, only on his university education experience, it was written that he studied in England, but that was all.

“Is that all?” Ji Feng looked up and asked.

“That’s right, this person’s friends in Yanjing are also mostly ordinary cadres’ sons, some from a family home, and some are his high school classmates, not much out of the ordinary.” He Hongwei also knew what Ji Feng was asking and said, “I also think it’s strange.”

Ji Feng asked, “This Zhang Xingbang, does he have any relationship with the Wu family?”

He Hongwei shook his head and said, “I don’t think so, looking at his resume from childhood to adulthood, including the results of some of my friends’ enquiries, all show that he is not qualified enough to be in the Wu Family at all .....”

“That’s strange!” Ji Feng was instantly amused, “Brother Hongwei, either your investigation was inaccurate or, it’s a living hell, otherwise, Zhang Xingbang couldn’t have been hostile to me for no reason, nor could he have been respected so much by Zhai Yadong!”

“But what exactly is the problem, for a moment is the investigation can not be found!” He Hongwei shook his head and said.

“Then I’ll investigate!” Ji Feng’s eyes flashed with a brilliant aura, “I firmly believe that this Zhang Xingbang must have an origin that we don’t know about!”

“You’re so sure?” He Hongwei asked.

“I’m convinced!”

Ji Feng said with great certainty, “At least, I have three more reasons to support my opinion!”
