“Brothers, I only have one piece of news to tell you – Mr. Ji has been attacked and seriously injured!”
Without any unnecessary nonsense, Yi Xingchen opened his mouth and gave out such news.

“Swish!”

Almost instantly, the eyes of all the battle team members present shone brightly, and a solemn aura of killing filled the air

Everyone’s faces were incomparably gloomy!

Perhaps for many people in the Tengfei Group, they might not even know who Ji Feng was, however, for this battle team, this was not the case.

It could be said that it was Ji Feng who had single-handedly created this battle team, and at the same time, it was also Ji Feng who had taught them the body-building exercises.

This made them feel grateful!

Perhaps for ordinary people, getting a way to strengthen their bodies and bodies, that was just an unexpected pleasure, and certainly worth being happy about, but not so very happy. However, for those who practiced martial arts, the body-building exercises that Ji Feng taught them could be of too much value.

It was like a secret book of martial arts in the ancient martial arts world, so you can imagine what kind of value this gymnastics had!

What was particularly surprising to Yi Xingchen and the others was that the effect of the gymnastic exercises that Ji Feng had taught them was truly astonishing, and since they had practised them, their strength had improved by leaps and bounds.

The more they did so, the more they understood how precious this set of aerobics was.

Yet, Ji Feng taught it to them straight away!

This act of Ji Feng’s alone was enough to make their hearts happy and convinced.

As the saying goes, a man who knows himself dies, and this is how it is. What’s more, Yi Xingchen and the others were all soldiers or mercenaries themselves, and their feelings were even purer than many people in society, so their gratitude and worship for Ji Feng was even deeper.

Not to mention, Ji Feng and they themselves have quite a good relationship and are considered very good friends and have been getting along for so long

Even if there were no other factors, just seeing their friends being attacked and killed and seriously injured, then they would not stand by and do nothing as long as they had the ability to do so.

Soldiers value comradeship the most, and since they have fought side by side, they are brothers!

Now that Ji Feng had been attacked and killed and seriously injured, how could they not be angry?

Therefore, as soon as Yi Xingchen finished saying the news, everyone's faces, including Lu Gang's, instantly turned cold, and a few of them even started to look fierce, including Guo Tao and Liu Zejun, who both had unkind eyes.

But even though all of them were murderous, none of them spoke indiscriminately, from this it could be seen that their discipline was definitely not worse than in the army.

"Everyone, I won't talk too much nonsense, now I just ask you, Mr Ji has been attacked, what should we do?" Yi Xingchen's gaze swept over everyone's faces as he asked in a deep voice.

"Nothing to say, find the people who attacked and killed Mr. Ji and fuck them!" A team member grunted coldly through clenched teeth.

"That's right!"

Lu Gang grimaced and said, "Mr. Ji was attacked and killed, we can't just stay here and do nothing but eat and train, we must find those who attacked and killed Mr. Ji!"

Yi Xing Chen asked, "How do we find them?"

"Go to Nan Yue!" Yao Zhijian said in a deep voice, "Since the other party has done it, they will definitely leave traces, when the time comes, we don't need to cooperate with anyone, just our battle team alone, from tracking to searching and finally doing it, we can do it all independently!"

"Then what if someone obstructs it?" Yi Xingchen asked.

"Boss Yi, you don't need to say so much, you know us, Mr. Ji met with an attack and killed, we will take revenge no matter what!" Lu Gang said, "Just go ahead and arrange the action!"

"Good!"

Yi Xingchen nodded gratefully and said, "In that case, then I won't say any more superfluous words everyone!"

Swish!

Everyone stood up straight.

Yi Xing Chen said aloud, "Mr. Ji has given me an order after the attack, asking us to leave one-third to half of our team members to continue guarding the security of the Tengfei Group, the rest, all of us to gear up and rush to Nan Yue at the fastest speed!"

"Yes!"

Everyone boomed out, "Use the fastest speed to get to Nan Yue!"

However, not a single person mentioned staying behind.

Yi Xing Chen hummed, "You guys don't need to give me a sloppy look either, I have made Mr. Ji's order very clear, a third of the people will not be able to go this time, is there anyone who has volunteered to stay?"

"....."

This time, the entire training hall was silent, everyone was expressionless, as if they had not heard Yi Xing Chen's words.

Seeing this, Yi Xing Chen could not help but hum and said, "Brothers, staying here on guard is not an easy task, especially after a large number of our forces are drawn away, there might be some people with bad intentions coming to hit the group, you all know that some of our group's technology is very much coveted by some people!"

However, no one said anything.

When Yi Xingchen saw this, he raised his voice a few notches: "I'll ask again, is there anyone who is willing to stay? I have to remind you, Mr. Ji's family is in Jiangzhou, protecting them is also one of our duties!"

"Boss Yi, don't fool us here either, Mr. Ji has met with an attack, Mr. Xiao and the girls will definitely go to visit, how could they still stay in Jiangzhou?!" Lu Gang said with a heated laugh.

"Brat"

Yi Xing Chen cursed and hummed, "In that case, then I have nothing more to say, let's follow the old rules and draw lots! However, let me say something ugly first, I understand the brothers' feelings, they all want to take revenge for Mr. Ji, but, this time even Mr. Ji met with an attack and even had to mobilize us, how dangerous it is to go to Southern Guangdong this time, there is no need for me to say more, right?"

Everyone present knew very well how strong Ji Feng was.

Moreover, in previous operations, Ji Feng would basically rarely mobilise them and give such an urgent order.

It could be imagined that Ji Feng must be in a lot of trouble at the moment, so this trip to Southern Guangdong would definitely not be too peaceful, and the danger was definitely not small.

Ji Feng's order was personally answered by Yi Xingchen, and of course, he could hear how Ji Feng sounded on the phone.

At that time, even through the phone, Yi Xingchen could hear the strong murderous aura contained in Ji Feng's words, it was obvious that Ji Feng had really moved to kill this time, he was afraid that he was going to go on a killing spree!

"Boss Yi, if you keep talking, I'm afraid that other people will be touching Mr. Ji's ward!" A team member said.

"That's fine!"

Yi Xingchen hummed, "Then let's start drawing lots!"

.....

Ji Feng was attacked and killed by a mob of unknown origin in Southern Guangdong, and his life and death were unknown.

While people were still shocked by this unexpected news, people with a heart found that a group of people from the Tengfei Group had started to rush to Nan Yue, and according to what the outside world knew about the identity of this group of people, these people should all be elite personnel under Ji Feng, especially people like Yi Xingchen and Lu Gang, that were even more formidable.

As a matter of fact, when Ji Feng started to enter everyone's sight, the people around him, likewise, all naturally came under the spotlight. This, naturally, also included the people from the Tengfei Group.

So for many people, the identity of Yi Xingchen and the others was not a secret at all, and the more the outside world knew about them, the more they were very shaken.

What is Ji Feng up to?

Or rather, what is the Ji family up to here?

Especially when many people learned that Yi Xingchen was once the leader of a foreign mercenary group, while Lu Gang and the others were elites from the military, they were even more surprised.

This group of people had set out together for Southern Guangdong, this was simply going to be a war!

However, another piece of news was even more disturbing to some people – this group of Ji Feng's men had chased Dynasty's small company and a large number of his men into the ground, and they were as scared as dogs in a house!

Perhaps this news was nothing to the general public, it only added a few more points to the tough image of Ji Feng's men.

However, for some people who knew about the existence of the dynasty and knew a little bit about what kind of organisation it was, this news was extremely shocking!

To be able to chase and kill the youngest son of the dynasty like that, how fierce should Ji Feng's men be?

Just by thinking about it, one could know what kind of people this group of Ji Feng's men were, it was not too much to say that they were as strong and fierce as tigers and wolves.

And now, this group of men had set out, and their target was clear, they were heading straight for Southern Guangdong!

Although no one was sure whether they were armed or not, with the large backpacks and hand luggage bags behind them, and the roaring rows of SUVs they were riding in, one would almost think that this was a tiger and wolf army bravely heading for the front line!

This was truly shocking!

Could it be that because Ji Feng had been attacked and killed, the Ji family no longer cared about anything at all this time, and simply used the simplest means to hit back at each other?

An eye for an eye!

Blood for blood!

Ji Feng had been attacked and killed by a mob of unknown origin, so now, the Ji Family was also going to use this means to retaliate most violently against the enemy in an open and honest manner?

This speculation gave everyone a feeling of chills all over their bodies.

The Ji Family was truly enraged!

Since some people are no longer talking about etiquette and manners, the enraged Ji Family has likewise set aside any other concerns and will retaliate by the same means!

One can only imagine how much energy will be generated once the Ji Family, a huge behemoth that almost overshadows the sky, is completely enraged, how fierce their revenge will be, and how many people will be chilled to the bone!

For a while, there was no telling how many people were watching, they all wanted to know who had actually gone so crazy and ended up enraging the Ji family to this extent!

Everyone believed that no matter who this mastermind behind the attack on Ji Feng actually was, once he was uncovered by the Ji Family, his fate would definitely not be that wonderful!

Campus Master Chapter 2132

“Hoo

In the corridor outside the intensive care ward of the First People’s Hospital in Southern Guangdong, Zheng Yuanshan was walking backwards with his hands behind his back, constantly walking back and forth, with a vague look of anxiety between his brows. As he walked, he also looked at the closed door of the room from time to time, then shook his head again.

On either side of the room door stood two young men, they were the two experts from the special police team that Zheng Yuanshan had sent to Ji Feng, specifically to protect him.

“He hasn’t come out since he went in?” Zheng Yuanshan suddenly stopped in his tracks and turned his head to ask these two young men.

“Then was there any movement in the ward?” Zheng Yuanshan asked again, “Or did you guys hear any sounds?”

“..... No.” The two shook their heads at the same time, they had been waiting outside the door of this ward since Ji Feng entered the ward, but up until now, they hadn’t heard any sound coming from the ward.

“How can this be

Zheng Yuanshan lifted his hand to look at his watch and said, “It’s been six or seven hours and there’s actually no movement at all?”

From the time Ji Feng strongly requested to enter Bai Zhu’s ward until now, most of the day had already passed, so it was reasonable to say that even if Ji Feng had fallen asleep in there, he wouldn’t have slept for such a long time at once!

What's more, Ji Feng was still in a wheelchair, and in his current condition, it was impossible for him to go to bed and sleep without help

But why did he just not come out?

Zheng Yuanshan was a little anxious in his heart, he had found some clues about this attack and killing, but had to check with Ji Feng, moreover, Zheng Yuanshan had quite a few questions to ask Ji Feng.

Now more than a day has passed since Ji Feng was attacked and killed. If it had been longer, it would have been even more difficult to find the person behind the attack.

In fact, for experienced veteran police officers, they have a general feeling about many cases, such as within how long the crime has taken place, is the golden period to solve the case, and if the period has passed, the clues may disappear, or the culprit may escape, etc.

Zheng Wonsan is naturally experienced, so he understands the urgency of time even better.

If some of his questions could be answered here by Ji Feng, he could take measures as fast as possible and might be able to catch the culprit behind the crime!

But now Ji Feng was in Bai Zhu's hospital room and did not come out, which made Zheng Yuanshan helpless.

Now that Bai Zhu was still in a coma, what exactly was Ji Feng doing in there?

Zheng Yuanshan was a bit confused

Suddenly, Zheng Yuanshan's heart thumped – could it be that something has happened?!

Zheng Yuanshan's face couldn't help but change a little, from this attitude of Ji Feng insisting on seeing Bai Zhu he was able to see that this girl must be very important to Ji Feng.

If he suddenly saw Bai Zhu injured like this, would Ji Feng be overstimulated and pass out, or would he do anything too drastic?

The first time I thought of this, Zheng Yuanshan was a little unable to stand up, he paced faster, several times wanted to turn around to push the door, but finally held back.

.....

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into. His hand clutched Bai Zhu's cold and tender little hand, urging the bio-current to comb Bai Zhu's body and heal the trauma she had suffered.

At this moment, Ji Feng's forehead was already covered in sweat, and his eyebrows were tightly furrowed, with the corners of his eyes slightly fluttering twice from time to time.

Ji Feng was feeling very painful at this moment!

The bruises in her body were so severe that almost all the routes where the bio-current ran had become fragmented.

Perhaps that was why the bio-currents in Bai Zhu's body were running around, and as a result, the bio-currents, which were originally extremely beneficial to the body, had become a scourge in Bai Zhu's body.

The energy of those bio-currents was extremely powerful, and if they were uncontrolled in Bai Zhu's body, the damage they caused would naturally be self-evident.

Ji Feng could even imagine what kind of pain and suffering Bai Zhu was going through at this moment. At this moment, he was even a bit glad that Bai Zhu was still in a coma, because if Bai Zhu was awake at this moment, the extreme pain in her body would have been more than she could endure!

It would have caused her pain!

At the thought of this, Ji Feng's heart couldn't help but twitch a few times, which also reinforced his determination to cure Bai Zhu as fast as possible!

In order to cure Bai Zhu, he must first sort out these meridians in Bai Zhu's body, only then can the scattered bio-currents in Bai Zhu's body be brought together, at that time, these bio-currents will no longer be a scourge, but will warm Bai Zhu's body and will slowly repair her meridians!

So the first thing that Ji Feng had to do was to repair those broken meridians of Bai Zhu.

However, this was difficult for Ji Feng.

Because in order to repair Bai Zhu's broken meridians, he needed to have enough bio-current, but at this moment, the bio-current in Ji Feng's body was much weaker than before!

However, Ji Feng was determined with clenched teeth.

He decided to cultivate while treating Bai Zhu, and although this was extremely strenuous, he did not hesitate in the slightest.

However, when Ji Feng actually went to do it, he realised that this method was more difficult to implement than he had imagined, and he encountered difficulties right at the beginning.

—because in that violent explosion, Ji Feng's meridians had likewise been damaged, and although his injuries were far less serious than Bai Zhu's, at the moment he was weak and the bio-current in his body was much weaker, plus his meridians themselves had already been damaged, so as soon as he exerted the bio-current with all his might, his whole body would be like pins and needles unbearable pain!

Anyone who had never experienced it would never be able to appreciate how painful it really was!

That feeling is like having an ancient beast in your veins, rampaging through them with abandon, rupture them completely

But Ji Feng didn't stop, it was as if he didn't feel that immense pain inside his body as he continued to push the bio-current to repair that broken meridian for Bai Zhu.

Ji Feng's gaze was fixed dead on Bai Zhu, closely watching any change in her expression, not missing a single moment.

This was a process that required patience and care, because if anything went wrong in the middle, it could lead to a hidden disease in Bai Zhu's body or make her meridians completely destroyed and she would never be able to cultivate again!

Naturally, Ji Feng did not want any accidents to happen, so he was extra careful.

Time passed, and in the blink of an eye, several hours passed, Ji Feng just cultivated, then activated the bio-current to heal Bai Zhu, then cultivated again just repeating so simply.

Finally, after a full six or seven hours of treatment, the situation inside Bai Zhu's body improved a lot, and most of her meridians were repaired up, only the last bit was missing.

Of course, the repair mentioned here was not a complete healing, it was just like a person who had broken a bone in a certain part, going to the hospital to get the bone buttressed was only the first step, the most important thing was still to heal.

What Ji Feng has completed now is the process of joining the bones together, only that he has joined the meridians for Bai Zhu, and it will take time to see when the meridians will heal next.

However, if the meridians could be connected, they could accommodate the slow running of bio-currents, and in the process, Bai Zhu's body would naturally be nourished, so this was the most important and crucial step to get the meridians docked.

Now it was just a little bit closer to being all done!

However, Ji Feng's face was also getting paler and paler, sweat was constantly snapping down on his forehead, and his whole body looked as if it had come out of a steamer.

"Master, your health condition is seriously bad, please stop boosting the bio-current immediately!" The intelligent brain was the first to notice Ji Feng's weakness and immediately spoke out to remind him.

"I'm fine!"

Ji Feng said back in his mind, "It's still a bit short, if I stop now, I'll have to wait for at least another few hours!"

In fact, at this moment, Ji Feng was naturally very clear about his situation, the bio-current in his body could already be said to be almost as weak as silk, and at this moment he was completely gritting his teeth to hold on.

If he stopped now, he believed that he would definitely pass out straight away, and by then he would be delayed for at least a night or a day, and in the process, no one would dare to guarantee that Bai Zhu would not have any accidents!

What's more, now that there was only the last bit left to finish, how could Ji Feng give up at this time?

"Master, please stop immediately!" The intelligent brain, however, ignored Ji Feng's reasoning and instead said in a very mechanical manner, "Judging from your physical condition, if you continue, it will cause you to suffer a serious injury!"

“It’s just a wound to the vital energy, it will recover after a period of recuperation!” Ji Feng said back, but his hands did not stop, continuing to grit his teeth to push the bio-current.

The intelligent brain’s voice was a bit anxious: “Master, please stop releasing bio-current immediately, the bio-current in your body has reached a very dangerous level

“Wise Brain, shut up!” Ji Feng shouted lowly in his heart.

“..... Yes, Master!”

The wise brain suddenly did not make any sound.

Only then did Ji Feng let out a slight sigh of relief, although he knew that Wisdom Brain was doing it for his own good, he could not listen to Wisdom Brain at this moment. However, Ji Feng still felt more or less guilty about berating the Wisdom Brain.

But soon, Ji Feng’s attention was once again focused on Bai Zhu, and he gritted his teeth as he pushed the bio-current as hard as he could. However, as time passed, Ji Feng was feeling weaker and weaker, and his eyes were even a little blurry.

It was bad!

Ji Feng thumped in his heart.

Campus Master Chapter 2133

It’s bad!

Ji Feng cackled in his heart.

His eyes couldn’t see clearly anymore, this was a precursor to fainting!

Mustn’t faint at this time!

Ji Feng secretly gritted his teeth, seeing that he was still a little short of the last point, he could finish combing all the major meridians in Bai Zhu’s whole body, if he fainted at this time, it would be a lost cause.

Because even if the last point was not connected, the bio-current would not be able to complete the running cycle in her body, and then her body would still be the same as it was before it was combed.

There was even the possibility that those bio-currents that were running amok in Bai Zhu’s body would once again shatter the meridians that had just been connected, and at that time, Bai Zhu would once again be severely injured, which would undoubtedly be adding insult to injury for her.

“Damn it!”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but burst out a foul mouth in his heart, he bit his tongue hard to clear his head more or less, and then tried his best to keep pushing the bio-current!

Time continued to pass, and even though Ji Feng had been gritting his teeth, his physical energy, as well as the bio-current in his body was limited, and these would not increase because of his persistence.

So after just a while, that blurred eye feeling appeared once again.

Ji Feng immediately realised that this time he was afraid he wouldn't be able to hold on.

But he was unwilling to give up on this, so even though his entire being seemed to be drained at this moment, he was still fighting with his last ounce of strength and holding on!

“Boom!”

The door of the ward was suddenly pushed open, and Ji Feng vaguely heard what seemed to be someone talking, among which there seemed to be Zheng Yuanshan's voice, as if there was also a girl's alarmed voice.

But at this moment, Ji Feng didn't have any other effort to pay attention to them, he continued to connect Bai Zhu's broken meridians almost entirely by instinct and subconscious obsession.

It's still a little bit short, just a little bit short of the last

“Ji Feng!”

Zheng Yuanshan exclaimed out of breath, his face full of shock. As soon as he entered the ward, he noticed that Ji Feng was sitting in a wheelchair, shaking all over, and his upper body was constantly shaking, as if he was drunk.

When he walked in, Zheng Yuanshan was shocked to find that Ji Feng's body was soaked through, his forehead and face were all covered in sweat, his hair was completely wet with sweat and stuck to his forehead, his whole body was just like he had just been fished out of the water!

He was indescribably weak!

Zheng Yuanshan was shocked and baffled, how could Ji Feng be so weak? What exactly was he doing during this seven to eight hour long period of time? Did he just sit here all the time?

The others likewise all noticed Ji Feng's condition, and one of the middle-aged doctors in a white coat immediately said, “Quickly push him to the hospital bed, hurry up and prepare him for a full body examination”

Ji Feng opened his mouth to refuse, but he found that he couldn't even say a word.

He could only clench his teeth, still pushing the bio-current

“It's done!”

Suddenly, Ji Feng's body shook as he sensed that the meridians in Bai Zhu's body had been combed through, and all those broken meridians had been connected!

It was too late to feel anything, or even to breathe a sigh of relief, before Ji Feng's eyes went black, and his whole body only felt that the sky was spinning, and he lost consciousness.

But before he lost consciousness, Ji Feng grinned slightly, revealing a smile that only he could understand, as he was relieved!

“He's fainted!”

Seeing Ji Feng's entire body limp on the wheelchair, his head dropping straight forward, Zheng Yuanshan immediately exclaimed, and then immediately said, "Doctor, save him immediately, I don't care what you use, make sure he's safe and sound, or else otherwise I'll shoot you!"

Seeing that Ji Feng had turned out to be like this, Zheng Yuanshan, who did not know how many big storms he had experienced, had lost his usual composure and calmness at this moment!

In fact, even if Zheng Yuanshan didn't say anything, the doctor definitely wouldn't be the least bit slow, because how Ji Feng's identity was, Zheng Yuanshan had already told him, if he let Ji Feng die here, not to mention that he was just a doctor, even if the dean came, I'm afraid he couldn't afford it!

So as soon as Ji Feng fainted, the doctor immediately organised his staff to carry Ji Feng to a bed in the outer room, and then immediately gave him a full body check-up.

At the same time, there was another doctor who came over and started checking Bai Zhu's condition.

This was Bai Zhu's attending doctor, because there was an order from Ji Feng that no one was allowed to come in without his permission. Ji Feng had been in this ward for a full seven or eight hours, which also made Bai Zhu not take any medicine for such a long time, and now he had to take the time to check if there was any change in Bai Zhu's physical condition.

However, when the doctors and nurses finished their examination, everyone's faces were stunned beyond belief.

"This can't be!"

"How can this be?!"

Several exclams rang out at the same time, the doctors and nurses' faces all wore a look of dismay, surprise, and disbelief.

Zheng Yuanshan jerked back and asked nervously, "What's wrong?"

The doctor busily said, "Director Zheng, the patient's condition seems to have suddenly changed."

Zheng Yuanshan immediately tensed up and asked, "What kind of change? Is it good or bad? You say something clear!"

Could it be that one's suspicions had come true?

Because of seeing Bai Zhu's current injury, the result made Ji Feng's mood stirred and he did something excessive on impulse?

At the thought of this possibility, Zheng Yuanshan became even more nervous.

"It's a change for the better!"

The doctor's words, however, caused Zheng Yuanshan to let out a sigh of relief violently, "Director Zheng, please see, after our examination, the patient's physical signs, whether it's blood pressure or heart rate, or the frequency of brain activity, or even every other aspect of the body, have all been greatly enhanced, and just by looking at this data, it's only slightly lower than that of a healthy ordinary person."

“What?!” Zheng Yuansan was stunned and did not respond for a moment.

“The patient is recovering and is doing so at an extremely fast pace!” The doctor was also full of disbelief, “It’s now about nine hours since our last check-up, and in that time, the patient’s signs have almost improved by more than half! This is unbelievable!”

Zheng Wonsan asked, “You mean that Bai Zhu is doing better than before?”

“That’s right! Much too much better!” The doctor said with great certainty, his face full of excitement, “Look at these brain waves, and the electrocardiogram, and From my experience, there has never been a person with such vital signs who couldn’t wake up, let alone become a vegetable!”

Zheng Yuanshan immediately asked, “Are you sure?!”

The doctor nodded, “At least from the data, I can be sure, of course, more specifically, I have to conduct a detailed examination, but with my deduction, within two days at the latest, the patient can definitely wake up!”

“Good!”

Zheng Yuanshan clapped his hands together and said excitedly, “Doctor, if Bai Zhu can really wake up, I will definitely have heavy thanks!”

The doctor hurriedly shook his head, “I wouldn’t dare to do that, Director Zheng, frankly speaking, I don’t know why the patient suddenly appeared to have such a change, because in the 20 to 30 years I’ve been practicing medicine, I’ve never seen a patient who recovered so quickly, not to mention that the patient hadn’t taken any medicine for seven to eight hours before this... ..”

Just as the words came to an end, the doctor’s voice changed to an abrupt halt as he suddenly looked at Ji Feng, who was being examined on the bed in the outer room, and seemed to have realised something.

Zheng Yuanshan also vaguely understood something and also looked in the direction where Ji Feng was.

“Well”

Just then, a faint voice rang out in a low tone.

Swish!

Both Zheng Yuanshan and the attending doctor instantly widened their eyes, and in the next moment, they snapped back and saw that Bai Zhu, who was originally lying motionless on the hospital bed, was now slowly raising his hand and his head was moving slightly!

“It’s awake!”

The attending doctor’s eyes widened in surprise as he shouted in a low voice, “Director Zheng, did you see that? The patient has woken up!”

Zheng Wonsan nodded repeatedly, “I saw it.”

“This is unimaginable!” The doctor said in awe, “How on earth did he manage to”

“Doctor, hurry up and check again, make sure there are no surprises!” It was Zheng Yuanshan who was more composed, seeing Bai Zhu wake up, he was only stunned for a moment before he immediately said.

“Yes, yes, yes!”

The doctor hurriedly nodded his head and said, “It’s to be a full examination”

Seeing the doctor take the nurse to check Bai Zhu once again, Zheng Yuanshan couldn’t help but let out a long sigh of relief, this is good, Bai Zhu has finally woken up!

But soon, Zheng Yuanshan’s heart lifted again, because at this moment Ji Feng still didn’t know how it was!

However, at this time, Ji Feng’s attending doctor also got the test results and came over with an odd expression on his face, opening his mouth as if he was about to say something.

Zheng Yuanshan’s heart tightened and he immediately asked, “Doctor, how is Ji Feng’s condition?”

“He is nothing, it seems like he’s just” the doctor’s face was strange, “it seems like he’s just too tired.”

“Fatigue?!” Zheng Wonsan frowned.

“That’s right!”

The doctor nodded, “To put it bluntly, the patient just overworked himself and gave into exhaustion Listen!”

Zheng Yuansan was slightly stunned, and immediately, he froze.

It was because he clearly heard the purring sounds from Ji Feng, who was lying on the hospital bed!

“He’s obviously exhausted!” The doctor said, “All his body indicators are normal, only a few indicators such as blood sugar are a bit low, which all show that he is overworked You see, he is now in a deep sleep, when he wakes up, he should be back to normal!”

Zheng Yuanshan nodded slowly and said, “Doctor, it’s hard work for you!”

“I should have, I should have!”

Looking at the soundly sleeping Ji Feng, Zheng Yuansan but a strange look on his face, Ji Feng came in for seven or eight hours, Bai Zhu suddenly got better and woke up so quickly, while Ji Feng was overworked and fainted

If at this time Zheng Yuanshan can no longer associate Bai Zhu’s improvement with Ji Feng, then he has lived for so many years in vain.

But what exactly did he use to make Bai Zhu get better?

This is simply a means to bring the dead back to life!

Zheng Yuanshan couldn't help but shake his head, his heart was overwhelmed with emotion, no wonder this kid could rise quickly in such a short period of time, no one was able to cover his light.

It seemed that Ji Feng was more powerful than anyone had imagined.

Then all those enemies of his will have a hard time, I'm afraid!

Campus Master Chapter 2134

Ji Feng woke up from a deep sleep.

When he woke up, the first thing he noticed was a soft breathing sound beside him, which made him startled.

Someone had come to him, and he hadn't even noticed it?

However, when Ji Feng recalled what exactly had happened before, he smiled bitterly in his heart No wonder, this time he had almost exhausted the bio-current in his body, and it seemed that he had passed out from living exhaustion, so it was no wonder that he had fallen asleep so heavily.

I just don't know if the white pearl is well yet.

Despite thinking about Bai Zhu in his heart, Ji Feng still did not open his eyes right away, but concentrated on holding his breath and did not move to sense the situation around him.

There seemed to be several people around, but Ji Feng could not tell who they were, and he felt that his perception seemed to have dulled considerably.

Ji Feng had expected this situation, it was the result of the excessive consumption of bio-current in his body. In fact, he had known that this would be the result ever since he started to fully activate the bio-current to heal Bai Zhu.

Once he started to resume his cultivation, his condition would gradually improve.

"Doctor, how is his condition?" Suddenly, a girl's low voice rang out.

Ji Feng immediately heard it, it was the voice of the little nurse who was responsible for taking care of him.

Immediately after that, a man's voice was heard saying, "The condition is good, the patient's physique is really amazingly good, he actually recovered so quickly in such a short time"

"Then how did he sleep for a day and a night at once?" The young nurse asked again.

"He was injured himself, plus he was overworked yesterday, so he naturally slept for a longer time. The doctor said with a smile.

"Hmm. He looked really scary yesterday, he looked as if he had been fished out of a steamer, his face was white, I think those seriously ill patients look better than him!" The little nurse said.

"Xiao Ai, don't talk nonsense!"

The doctor suddenly shouted, lowering his voice, "Be careful of talking nonsense and getting yourself into trouble!"

The little nurse said somewhat unconvincingly, "I'm telling the truth"

"That's not something you can just say!"

The doctor lowered his voice and said, "Don't you know what the patient's status is? Didn't you see the way Director Zheng almost ate people yesterday? Besides, you were the one who guarded the door yesterday and didn't let anyone in, and that's why he fainted" These rich and powerful people are not very good-tempered, so maybe if you say something unpleasant you'll anger them, and then you'll lose your job, but if he deliberately makes things difficult for you, you'll be in trouble!"

The little nurse tsked and muttered, "Even if he's in a good position, he can't be unreasonable, he asked me to guard the door yesterday to keep people out, he can't blame me for that, can he?"

"You, naive!"

The doctor shook his head and said, "Ai, how many rich and powerful people have you seen who would reason with ordinary people like us?"

Ai then stopped talking.

"Ugh!"

The doctor sighed lightly and said, "Ai, listen to my advice, your situation is difficult enough now, so you must serve your patients with all your heart and soul, don't get yourself into any more trouble, or else you will definitely suffer a big loss when the time comes!"

The little nurse named Ai grunted, "If you really make me mad, the big deal is that I'll quit, what's the big deal!"

"You."

The doctor said, "Is it that easy to find a job nowadays? What's more, this is an intensive care ward area, the salary is high and the benefits are good, young people should not be so impulsive, put up with what you can!"

The young nurse said, "Director Hu, thank you."

"Thank you for nothing! You just don't mind my nagging." That doctor said with a smile.

"Why not, if you can talk to me like that, you care about me, I can't thank you enough!" The little nurse said with a smile.

"Oh!"

The doctor laughed, "I'm also looking for someone to talk to, my daughter is about the same age as you, but she never wants to listen to me when I'm at home, she just thinks I'm nagging"

The two people chatted idly while they went out the door.

Only then did Ji Feng open his eyes and said in consternation, “I can’t believe I actually slept for a day and a night

From the conversation between the doctor known as Director Hu and the little nurse just now, Ji Feng knew that he had actually slept for a full day and night, which made him even a little scared.

After sleeping for such a long time, he didn’t feel anything at all. If someone tried to lay hands on him again during such a long period of time, then he really wouldn’t have any half-hearted resistance, just like that Director Hu and that little nurse just now, they didn’t even know how long they had been here and they didn’t notice it themselves at all.

“This time the consumption is really a bit too big” Ji Feng shook his head slightly, but did not regret it in the slightest, as long as he could cure Bai Zhu, even if the consumption was even bigger, he would definitely not hesitate.

“How is Bai Zhu doing?” Ji Feng was anxious in his heart and wanted to get up, but found that his body was soft and limp.

He couldn’t help but sigh, he was thinking a little too much, consuming so much, how could he recover after a sleep

He raised his hand and pressed the call button at the bedside.

Soon, a small nurse pushed the door in, the same one who was responsible for taking care of him before.

“Mr. Ji you’re awake, do you feel uncomfortable anywhere?” The little nurse asked as she walked over quickly with a small skid of steps.

“There’s nothing wrong with me, how is Bai Zhu?” Ji Feng asked, “It’s the patient I went to see earlier!”

“Oh, she has woken up and is completely out of danger, she is now recovering.” The little nurse said, “The doctor gave her a full examination and confirmed that there is nothing too wrong with her body, as long as she recovers from her injuries at ease, she will recover as before and will not leave any after-effects”

“That’s good!”

Ji Feng nodded and asked, “By the way, is her mind still clear? Are there any symptoms like memory loss?”

The little nurse hesitantly said, “It seems like no, but I’m not too sure about the specifics because I’m not in charge of that ward”

“Well then, how about this, you push me over there again in a wheelchair and take a look”

“Huh?”

Before Ji Feng had finished his words, the little nurse was startled: “Still going? No no, just because you insisted on going over yesterday, you ended up fainting and the leader gave me a bad scolding, you can’t harm me again!”

When Ji Feng heard that, he couldn't help but frown: "The leader scolded you? You didn't say that I asked for it?"

The little nurse shook her head, "Just don't harm me, okay?"

Ji Feng was amused when he saw her like this, but he still didn't move on the surface and said, "Miss Nurse, look, yesterday the leader scolded you, probably because I fainted, but this time I'll just go over and check on her, I'll do absolutely nothing, if you don't believe me, you can watch from the side... .."

"No no no!" The little nurse shook her head.

"Really no?!" Ji Feng's face instantly sank.

"No means no!" The little nurse said.

Ji Feng said in a deep voice: "Then aren't you afraid that I will directly go to your leaders to complain and have the hospital fire you?"

The little nurse's face instantly changed and her eyes turned red: "How can you be so unreasonable! Just because you have money and power, why do you have to make things difficult for me? Why do you have to give me a hard time? The hospital leaders are giving me a hard time, and you are giving me a hard time too. If you have the guts, go ahead and file a complaint, just fire me, what's the big deal?"

At the end of her sentence, there were tears in the little nurse's eyes, but she was biting her lips, forcing herself not to cry out, and she was aggrieved and looked strong.

Ji Feng was stunned, he didn't expect that this little nurse had cried when she was scared by herself.

You know, last time he used this method to scare the little nurse, and then she agreed to take himself over to see Bai Zhu, but this time

Suddenly, Ji Feng slapped his forehead, he realized that he had missed a trick!

Because Ji Feng remembered the conversation between the little nurse and that director Hu just now, he realized that this little nurse named Xiao Ai, this time may have suffered a lot of aggravation, he repeatedly scare her, and immediately made her aggravated, angry and crying

Although he did not know what kind of trouble this little nurse was in, Ji Feng was a little embarrassed, he originally just wanted to use the easiest way to get her to take himself to see Bai Zhu, but did not expect to bully people instead.

Thinking of this, Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head with a smile and said, "That what I was just joking with you, I didn't really want to complain about you, besides, you strictly enforced the rules and didn't do anything wrong at all, I wouldn't be justified even if I went to complain, would I?"

The little nurse glared at him and hummed, "You rich and powerful people still say whatever you want, how can you possibly be reasonable!"

"Who said that, the rich ones aren't necessarily all bad people!" Ji Feng said, "Look at me and I'm not"

"You just said you wanted to file a complaint against me!" The little nurse glared at him.

“.....”

Ji Feng coughed dryly and said, “Didn’t I say that I was just joking with you, not really complaining about you.”

“Then what about yesterday when you said that too!” The little nurse immediately said.

“..... yesterday was also a joke!” Ji Feng was a little embarrassed, he hurriedly changed the subject and said, “Actually, I did it because I was too worried about my friend, as you can see, my friend was injured in that way. Now you say she has woken up, do you think if you were in my place, you would especially want to go and see her?”

The little nurse’s mouth moved, but she didn’t say anything. Only, her face was much softer, obviously impressed by Ji Feng’s words.

Seeing this, Ji Feng immediately added: “Miss Nurse, I apologise to you for my behaviour just now, your service was very good and very dedicated, not only will I not complain about you, but I will specifically raise a commendation with your leader, of course this is not a condition, whether you take me there or not, I will do so! It’s just that I really want to see my friend in particular now, so please do me a favour, OK?”

The little nurse’s attitude softened

Campus Master Chapter 2135

Seeing this, Ji Feng immediately took advantage of the heat and said, “Miss Nurse, I can see that you must also be a kind girl, and if you put yourself in my shoes and think about it, you would definitely be like me, right?”

“That friend of yours is very important to you?” The young nurse asked.

“Not just important!”

Ji Feng’s face immediately became quite serious and he said in a firm tone, “She’s my girlfriend! Moreover, the reason why she was injured like this was entirely for saving me, so do you think I should go see her?!”

The little nurse was instantly moved, but she was still a bit uneasy and asked hesitantly, “You really just went over to take a look?”

“Of course!”

Ji Feng nodded and said, “Of course, if she wakes up, I still want to talk to her, but other than that, I definitely won’t do anything else!”

The little nurse’s row of shell teeth bit her lips before finally nodding, “Okay then, I’ll push you over!”

“Thanks!” Ji Feng nodded his head and said.

“You don’t need to thank me.” The little nurse said, “I just think that you’re not a bad person for your girlfriend, so I’m helping you, but you have to promise me that you can’t move around after you get there, otherwise, I’ll push you back immediately!”

Ji Feng immediately laughed, "I promise!"

Only then did the little nurse go forward and grabbed Ji Feng's arms with both hands to help him sit up, then took a few quick steps to push the wheelchair behind the door over and forcefully helped Ji Feng transfer from the bed to the wheelchair.

Just then, Ji Feng suddenly noticed that the hospital gown he was wearing had actually changed to a new one somehow, and it still smelled like disinfectant water

"Miss Nurse, may I ask how many nurses are in charge of this ward of mine in total?" Ji Feng suddenly asked.

"There are a total of four in charge on a daily basis, two day shifts, two night shifts, and usually there are other nurses at the nurses' station." The little nurse replied casually.

"Oh! Then you are in charge of the day shift?" Ji Feng asked again.

The little nurse said, "We take shifts, and I'm in charge of the day shift this week."

"..... Oh."

Ji Feng responded somewhat oddly and then stopped asking.

The little nurse pushed Ji Feng at the back, looked at him strangely and secretly wrinkled her nose at him, secretly saying, "And he said he praised me with the leader must have been dissatisfied with me and was expecting to change to another nurse!"

However, this little nurse is unaware that Ji Feng's heart is more or less embarrassed at the moment, because through the few questions just now, Ji Feng has guessed that the clothes on his body, I'm afraid, is this little nurse to help him change, let a beautiful young girl to change their own clothes, and also intimate clothes which makes Ji Feng more or less not too comfortable.

Only, because of the fear of this little nurse's face, so Ji Feng did not ask so directly.

"By the way, you've been taking care of me for a few days, I still don't know your name." Ji Feng suddenly asked.

"My name is Yang Xiaoyi!" The little nurse said heavily.

Ji Feng looked back at her somewhat strangely, and saw that she was straining a pretty face, gazing ahead, not knowing what she was thinking.

In fact, at this moment, this little nurse called Yang Xiaoyai was extremely aggrieved.

She felt that she had been cheated, Ji Feng had talked so nicely before, but in reality, not only was he thinking of changing the nurse, but he was also asking her name, wasn't he going to complain about her?

None of these people are good, all of them are so hypocritical!

Yang Xiaoyai thought angrily, "If you want to file a complaint, just do it, then quit, it's no big deal!"

At this moment, Yang Xiaoyi heard Ji Feng ask her, "By the way, I heard your words just now, you seem to be in some kind of trouble, right? Is there anything I can help you with?"

"Thanks, I can handle my own matters, so I don't need you to bother!" Yang Xiaoyi said stiffly.

"Hmm?!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but be more or less surprised at his words, he couldn't figure out how Yang Xiaoyi suddenly changed her attitude, just now he could still have a few words with him.

But Ji Feng didn't ask, he thought his question might have touched on Yang Xiaoyi's worries and therefore made her unhappy.

Ji Feng just said, "My name is Ji Feng If you really encounter any trouble, I will definitely help if I can, so please don't be polite."

"Hmm. Got it." Yang Xiaoyi said.

When Ji Feng smiled, he also just smiled and nodded, and then, they went outside Bai Zhu's ward.

At this time, the two special police experts sent by Zheng Yuanshan had come to follow one after the other, and only after they nodded did Yang Xiaoyi push Ji Feng inside.

"Bai Zhu!"

As soon as he entered the ward, Ji Feng saw Bai Zhu, who was lying on the hospital bed, and at this moment, Bai Zhu was opening her eyes and was obviously awake.

Ji Feng was about to go over, but was stopped by Yang Xiaoyi: "Hey, hey, you take it easy!"

Ji Feng immediately said, "Push me over!"

Yang Xiaoyi bit her lip, and seeing the excited and delighted look on Ji Feng's face, she pushed him over anyway.

"Ji Shao, what brings you here, " Bai Zhu asked, slightly tilting her head sideways. Her voice was hoarse, as if she hadn't drunk any water for a few days.

However, this voice sounded better than heavenly music to Ji Feng's ears!

Only after experiencing that moment of imminent loss could one appreciate how wonderful it was to have!

Not to mention that it was lost and found again!

He held Bai Zhu's hand in his and didn't say anything, but just kept stroking it as if he was stroking a precious treasure.

Feeling Ji Feng's heart, Bai Zhu couldn't help but tug at the corners of her mouth, and despite her weakness, she tried her best to show a smile and said softly, "Young Ji, I've heard the nurse say that you overworked yourself and passed out I know you were so tired because you were saving me, thank you."

The actual fact is that if you hadn't given up your life to save me, how could I be sitting here talking to you right now? I'm afraid I would have been blown up into the sky

Bai Zhu shook her head repeatedly, "Young Ji"

"Well, you don't need to say anything, as long as you can wake up and be well, I'll be relieved." Ji Feng interrupted her and said in a soft voice, "Sleep, rest more so that your body can recover faster, and when you're fully refreshed, your cultivation will be more effective."

"But I've slept for a long time, I really can't sleep now." Bai Zhu said.

"I'll help you!"

Ji Feng smiled faintly, "Remember to cultivate slowly after you wake up, don't rush, your meridians have only been connected and can't withstand violent shocks, understand?"

Bai Zhu let out a nasal sound, "Mmm!"

Ji Feng stretched out his hand and stroked it next to Bai Zhu's neck, and the next moment, Bai Zhu slowly closed her eyes and soon her breathing evened out as she fell asleep.

Little nurse Yang Xiaoyi was stunned: "She, she's"

"It's okay, she's asleep, let's go back." Ji Feng smiled and said as if nothing was wrong.

"..... Oh!" Yang Xiaoyi oddly glanced at Bai Zhu, who had fallen asleep in a blink of an eye, before responding and then pushing Ji Feng out.

When he returned to the ward, Ji Feng originally wanted to talk to Yang Xiaoyi to see what kind of trouble she was in, and if he could help Ji Feng planned to help her out as a thank you, but Yang Xiaoyi was obviously not interested in chatting, so Ji Feng dismissed the idea.

After letting Yang Xiaoyi leave, Ji Feng immediately started to enter the cultivation state, now that Bai Zhu had woken up, he had to recover as soon as possible.

This revenge, it must be taken!

.....

Brilliant Group, inside the general manager's office.

"What?! Ji Feng's woman has woken up?!" The man with gold-rimmed glasses looked at Zhai Yadong in astonishment and asked, "Is this true? Is your information accurate?"

"It should be true." Zhai Yadong nodded and said, "The information is definitely accurate, there is no need to question that."

"I see, it's some of the eyes he specifically left for you, right?" The man with the gold-rimmed glasses asked.

Zhai Yadong smiled and said, "This question"

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses immediately waved his hand, "Alright, alright, I know you won't answer, just pretend I didn't ask Grandma, Ji Feng's woman actually woke up, she's really lucky, that kind of big explosion actually didn't even kill her!"

He said reluctantly, "It's really a spoilsport, this Ji Feng not dying was depressing enough, but as a result, his woman didn't even die really don't know what that gang of thugs are actually doing for food, I heard they are also very professional, firepower is still very strong, but this result is really"

"Knock knock knock" As we were talking, a knock on the door suddenly came, followed by a female employee in a professional suit who opened the door and walked in, "Mr. Zhai, there is a Mr. He Hongwei visiting, you see"

"He Hongwei? Why is he here again?" The man with gold-rimmed glasses frowned at once.

"Invite him in!" Zhai Yadong said immediately.

"Old Zhai, this guy is clearly here for those few projects, why do you even bother with him?" The man with the gold-rimmed glasses asked.

Zhai Yadong said, "I believe that He Hongwei must have other things to do this time, about those projects, what should be said I have already said last time, he should also understand what I mean, certainly will not come over again for this reason"

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses grunted, "Then I'd like to see what this guy is really doing here!"

A few minutes later, He Hongwei appeared at the door of Zhai Yadong's office, followed by the small flat-headed bodyguard.

"Mr. He is here again, sorry to welcome you" Zhai Yadong smilingly extended his hand, however, before he could finish his words, he was interrupted by He Hongwei.

"Mr. Zhai, I'm not really here today, I'm just here to ask you to pass on a few words to a certain person for me!" He Hongwei said coldly.

Zhai Yadong and the man with the gold-rimmed glasses looked at each other, both of their faces couldn't help but change slightly, they certainly knew who the certain person He Hongwei was referring to in his words.

There was no doubt that He Hongwei was talking about Wu Zhiyong!

Zhai Yadong said in a deep voice, "..... Mr. He, please speak."

Campus Master Chapter 2136

Zhai Yadong and the man with the gold-rimmed glasses looked at each other, both of their faces couldn't help but change slightly, they certainly knew who the certain person He Hongwei was referring to in his words.

There was no doubt that He Hongwei was talking about Wu Zhiyong!

Zhai Yadong said in a deep voice, "..... Mr. He, please speak."

The man with gold-rimmed glasses, however, frowned, his eyes looking somewhat playfully at He Hongwei, and imperceptibly skimming his mouth, seemingly appearing somewhat disdainful.

Only, because Zhai Yadong had spoken, he did not say anything.

Swish!

The little flat head who had followed He Hongwei in immediately looked over, and a fine aura flashed from his eyes. This man with gold-rimmed glasses showed disdain for He Hongwei, and the little flat head immediately took notice of him.

However, these small movements between them were not noticed by He Hongwei, in fact even if he did he would not pay attention to them, he did not come here today to argue with the other party over such small matters.

He Hongwei nodded and said, "Mr. Zhai, first of all, please ask someone if he was the one who did the attack on Ji Feng!"

Zhai Yadong nodded slightly and said, "Chief He please"

"What a joke!"

However, Zhai Yadong hadn't even finished his words before he was suddenly interrupted.

He Hongwei immediately frowned slightly, and Zhai Yadong also turned his head to look over, and saw the man with gold-rimmed glasses, who originally had a disdainful face, snorting, and said, "He Hongwei, I really doubt how your title of the so-called Yanjing Three Jie actually came about, why do I see that you all seem to have no brain?"

"Shao Jie!"

Zhai Yadong's face instantly changed and he hastily reminded in a low voice, "Watch your words!"

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses didn't care at all, he just grinned disdainfully and said, "What's wrong with my words? Do I not even have the freedom to speak? Mr. He, I think that even the grandson of a big family or a second generation ancestor who is even more arrogant can't forbid others to speak, right?"

"Shao Jie!"

Zhai Yadong's face changed dramatically and he shouted lowly, "Cut the crap!"

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses did not retort, but only looked at He Hongwei with a smirk, as if he was waiting for his reply.

The little flat head's face turned cold, and his eyes stared at the man with the gold-rimmed glasses, a bit of cold aura flickering.

However, He Hongwei did not show much sign of anger, he just asked in a calm tone, "I would like to know, what is your basis for saying that I have no brain? It's true that the gentry of a big family don't have the right to ban people from speaking, but it's still easy to crush a few of those yakuza who have mischievous intentions and personal attacks!"

“I’m so scared!”

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses immediately took two steps backwards, revealing an extremely frightened look, but looking at his exaggerated movements, it was obvious that he was deliberately making such a show of sarcasm at He Hongwei.

He Hongwei, however, said indifferently, “It doesn’t matter if you’re afraid or not, the key is to be able to withstand it!”

Zhai Yadong’s face instantly changed, how could he not hear that He Hongwei had made it very clear that he didn’t care whether you were really afraid or sarcastic, as long as you couldn’t say anything, then don’t blame him for retaliating.

Other people won’t let you insult them at will.

Maybe you can insult ordinary people because they are not as rich and powerful as you are and can’t do anything about it, but you said it yourself just now, people He Hongwei is the son of a big family, if they want to pinch you to death, it couldn’t be simpler!

“Mr. He” Zhai Yadong was just about to open his mouth when he was interrupted by He Hongwei.

“What do you want to say, Mr. Zhai?” He Hongwei asked, “If you are trying to explain or round things up, I advise you not to say anything!”

“.....”

Zhai Yadong opened his mouth, but was hard pressed to know what to say.

He Hongwei once again turned his gaze towards the man with the gold-rimmed glasses and asked, “I’ll ask again, on what basis are you saying that I have no brain?”

As long as one was not blind, one could tell that at this moment, He Hongwei had already been moved to anger. Perhaps, he had come to the Splendid Group this time with anger itself, plus being insulted, how could he be indifferent?

“On what basis?”

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses sneered, but there was no fear on his face, instead he sneered, “He Hongwei, you don’t need to put on such a bullying look, others are afraid of you, but I’m not! Since you want to know why so badly, then I will tell you!”

He snorted coldly, “You barged into our Splendid Group in such an aggressive manner, one is not to talk about business, the other is not our friend, yet after you came here, you directly and boldly asked our General Manager Zhai to deliver a message for you, who do you think you are? The son of a big family can just treat people like servants?”

He Hongwei said indifferently, “Go on!”

“Humph!”

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses sneered, “Also, you don’t even say who the person you want to pass on is, so you let Mr. Zhai pass on the message for you, so we go and tell the ghost? And what about someone I think you are the one who is someone! What's the matter, I said you have no brain, and you still don't believe me?"

After hearing this, He Hongwei was silent for a moment, then shook his head and said, "I really think highly of you!"

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses immediately asked, "What do you mean by that?"

He Hongwei shook his head and ignored him.

In fact, originally, He Hongwei was still very wary of this man with gold-rimmed glasses who had suddenly appeared in their sight, because this man seemed to have a status no less than Zhai Yadong's and did not seem to be an ordinary person either.

But at this moment, He Hongwei was disappointed.

He Hongwei just couldn't believe that Zhai Yadong and the man with the gold-rimmed glasses didn't know that the certain person he was referring to was Wu Zhiyong, but the man with the gold-rimmed glasses was pretending not to know, and even sneering at him.

Although on the surface it appeared that the man with the gold-rimmed glasses had taken advantage of him and had left him speechless, in reality, this performance of the man with the gold-rimmed glasses illustrated the superficiality of this man. He only knows how to use his tongue to take advantage of his mouth and make enemies for no reason at all.

But instead of realising his own problem, the man with the gold-rimmed glasses looked smug, which was a great disappointment to He Hongwei.

So much for this man!

He Hongwei shook his head and suddenly felt a sense of laughter, thanks to the fact that Ji Feng had taken this man with gold-rimmed glasses so seriously, and had even gone to investigate him personally.

Going to all the trouble for this person was a waste of energy!

"Mr. He, I will definitely help bring your words, do you have any other matters?" Zhai Yadong saw that He Hongwei was silent and thought that it was the arrogant behaviour of the man with the gold-rimmed glasses that had completely enraged He Hongwei, so he changed the subject and sort of rounded up the situation.

"I haven't finished my words!" He Hongwei said in a deep voice, "Ask him if he did it or not! If not, then naturally it's best. But if he did it you tell him that this time he has gone too far, and that this time, whether it's Ji Feng or me, we won't just let it go!"

Zhai Yadong frowned, but still nodded and said, "I'll make a note of it."

He Hongwei nodded his head and said, "Well! Then there's nothing else, that's all farewell!"

"No see you off!"

Zhai Yadong also just nodded politely, but did not send off, now the two sides are completely on opposite sides, these superficial courtesies can be maintained, there is no need to be overly enthusiastic at all, that may instead make people think that they are afraid.

“He Ji Feng got himself into trouble, he didn’t know where he had invited his enemies, and as a result he was being chased, and now instead he’s coming to us in an aggressive manner to question us, a bit too much, isn’t it?” The man with gold-rimmed glasses spoke up once more.

“Shao Jie!”

Zhai Yadong hurriedly gave him a wink, was He Hongwei really that easy to mess with? Not to mention, there was a wounded Ji Feng!

He was already wary enough, and now that he was wounded, I’m afraid he had a belly full of anger that he had no place to vent.

He Hongwei’s eyes narrowed slightly as he slowly turned around and stared at the man with the gold-rimmed glasses, saying in a deep voice: “I advise you to keep your mouth shut! Otherwise, you’ll really get into big trouble!”

“Hmph!”

But the man with the gold-rimmed glasses sneered, “You don’t have to worry about my affairs. I would like to advise you, you’d better not meddle in other people’s affairs, I think, since those people dare to lay hands on Ji Feng, they will likewise not put you in their eyes, so don’t draw fire on yourself then!”

He Hongwei said indifferently, “I’ll give you the same words! As for the man behind the curtain he will definitely not end up well!”

“But don’t let the stolen chicken lose its rice then!” The man with the gold-rimmed glasses sneered.

“You’ll see the result!” When He Hongwei finished speaking, he didn’t even look at the man with the gold-rimmed glasses anymore, turned around and left with big strides.

The little flat head, on the other hand, gave the man with the gold-rimmed glasses a deep stare before he went out, as if he wanted to keep him firmly in his mind.

“Shao Jie, what you said today was too much!” As soon as He Hongwei left, Zhai Yadong couldn’t help but say.

The man with gold-rimmed glasses said indifferently, “He He Hongwei has energy, but this is Southern Guangdong, he can’t afford to make any waves! As for Ji Feng he is nothing more than a sick and consumptive ghost now!”

Zhai Yadong frowned and was just about to say something when he was interrupted by the man with the gold rimmed glasses, “I say old Zhai, you are just too cautious, let me tell you, people like them are usually used to being arrogant, that’s why they presume to take revenge, but they simply don’t know that since those people dare to lay their hands on Ji Feng, that means they are not afraid of them at all, and they want to put him to death! ”

“Just watch, if He Hongwei and Ji Feng have to take revenge, they will definitely end up in the dust and may even lose their lives!” The man with the gold-rimmed glasses sneered, “What’s more, this is Southern Guangdong, not a place where they can do whatever they want!”

Zhai Yadong was silent for a moment and shook his head. In reality, he didn’t think so, if Ji Feng and He Hongwei were really so unbeatable, why would Wu Zhiyong have fallen in Ji Feng’s hands continuously?

It’s just that seeing the man with the gold-rimmed glasses, Zhai Yadong didn’t say these words out loud, there are some things that he, an outsider, is not convenient to say.

However, Zhai Yadong can sense that the next I’m afraid there will be big changes in Southern Guangdong

Campus Master Chapter 2137

In the intensive care ward of the hospital, Ji Feng was sitting cross-legged on the hospital bed, his eyes tightly closed, looking as if he was asleep.

But in reality, he was practising body-building exercises at the moment.

Originally, he had consumed a large amount of bio-current during the fight with the middle-aged policeman, and later on, he consumed a huge amount again in order to treat Bai Zhu, and as a result, these two times had almost depleted the bio-current in Ji Feng’s body!

So after making sure that there was nothing wrong with Bai Zhu, Ji Feng immediately returned to the ward and began to cultivate.

Only, in order not to let anyone notice his unusual actions and try not to draw attention to himself, so even though Ji Feng was cross-legged and cultivating, his back was still leaning on the head of the bed, so that even if someone came in and saw it, they would only think that he was resting with his eyes closed.

However, when Ji Feng had just entered his cultivation state, he was shocked to find that this time his consumption was just a little too great.

When he came to the training space of the wise brain once again, he could barely feel the presence of bio-currents in his body!

The body was so empty that it was almost as if it had been emptied.

This made Ji Feng stagger, it was the first time he had encountered such a situation since he had started practicing body building exercises.

This gave him a clearer understanding of the strength of that middle-aged policeman again.

In fact, Ji Feng knew very well that apart from treating Bai Zhu, the biggest exertion this time was concentrated on the sparring with that middle-aged policeman.

In the battle, Ji Feng had really consumed a large amount of bio-current.

The strength of the middle-aged policeman was beyond Ji Feng’s original expectation. It could be said that the middle-aged policeman was the toughest person Ji Feng had ever seen so far, bar none!

Even Master Wang, whose strength greatly exceeded Ji Feng's expectations, was afraid that he was not as strong as that middle-aged policeman.

This was because when he had fought against Master Wang back then, Ji Feng had not struggled so much at all, not to mention being in such a dangerous situation.

Of course, this was also somewhat related to the other party's elaborate design and deployment, and the fact that the other party had a weapon in his hand, which Ji Feng was quite afraid of, so he couldn't help but be tied up when making his move, making it difficult to bring out his ultimate strength.

But even so, it was enough to show how strong that middle-aged policeman was!

In fact, when Ji Feng thought back on it, he and the middle-aged policeman were in a fierce battle at that time, and he only had a slight upper hand throughout the whole process.

Even in a hard-fought situation, Ji Feng only had a slight advantage, but it would be hard to say how much of a lead he had.

It was fortunate that Ji Feng found out that the other side was counting on him, deliberately using constant defence to deplete his physical strength, so Ji Feng took advantage of the situation and after attacking hard for a while, he pretended to be exhausted, leading the other side to take the initiative to attack.

As a result, at the moment when the opponent was not on guard and attacked with all his might, Ji Feng used his biological current to form an invisible and colourless bio-current whip in his hand and gave the middle-aged policeman a severe blow to the head with that terrifying power, catching the opponent off-guard, and only then did he hit him hard.

If not, I am afraid that even if Ji Feng could defend himself, he would definitely not be able to keep the other party.

With that middle-aged policeman's strong strength, if he had wanted to escape at that time, it would have been really easy to do so, it would have been too simple.

From this, one could see just how strong that middle-aged policeman was.

It was self-evident how much consumption Ji Feng had suffered when he fought against him.

Thinking about the middle-aged policeman, Ji Feng's heart could not help but be a little gloomy. According to the feedback from Zheng Yuanshan, in addition to finding a piece of broken body and pieces of flesh, a leg was also found at the scene, but it was impossible to tell how many people were killed by the explosion at the scene.

Because the explosion was so violent that some people had been completely shattered, it was difficult to tell in detail how many people there were under those circumstances.

This made Ji Feng's heart wary and worried, he felt that with that middle-aged policeman's strength, he wouldn't necessarily die in that explosion. He knew that the policeman's strength was not much worse than his, and even though he had been wounded at that time, it was the other party's companion who had created the explosion, so the middle-aged policeman should have been prepared in his heart, and maybe he had some measures to protect himself.

If that was the case – that would have been a real problem!

With that middle-aged policeman's strength, if he could really escape this time, then he would definitely launch a retaliation, and even Ji Feng wouldn't dare to say that he could defend against it then!

Under such circumstances, Ji Feng would have to seize the time to recover his strength.

However, it didn't go too well at first.

Because Ji Feng had surprisingly not found a way to recover his strength!

Originally, the bio-current in Ji Feng's body was something he had accumulated little by little through practicing body-building exercises, and from the first set of movements, until now, he had practiced every single movement incomparably solidly.

Now, however, Ji Feng was not fit to do so.

His internal organs had not yet recovered, and as a result, those aerobic exercises that were no longer difficult for him had become highly difficult at the moment, and there were even a few of them that he could not even do, because his physical condition at the moment simply did not allow him to do such difficult movements.

But if it was said that he would practice the aerobics directly afterwards, again, because his bio-current consumption was too great, it simply could not support him to complete the movements.

As a result, Ji Feng was unable to find a suitable solution instead.

In fact, originally, after waking up from his injuries, Ji Feng could still practice the second and third sets of aerobics to recover, because at that time, although he was injured, there was still a certain amount of bio-current in his body that could protect his internal organs and was enough to support him to complete his cultivation.

But after giving Bai Zhu treatment, the trace of bio-current remaining in his body was not enough to give him support.

In desperation, Ji Feng could only discuss with Wisdom Brain.

The intelligent brain said, "Master, it is suggested that you start practicing from the first movement, which will be beneficial to your strength progress."

Ji Feng frowned and said, "Start with the first move?"

"That's right! According to the data analysis, the bio-current in the master's body has been extremely thin, so the only way to build up is to start from the beginning, so that the body can be repaired while the strength is recovered." The intelligent brain said.

"But if we start from scratch, those movements will pull the internal organs again!" Ji Feng frowned.

It wasn't that Ji Feng was afraid of pain, in fact, Ji Feng had experienced pain that was a hundred times more painful than this, what he was concerned about now was that if he started practicing from scratch, he would pull his internal organs, would this have any effect on his body, such as leaving hidden diseases or something.

The intelligent brain said, "Master, according to the information in the database, there is currently only this one method because the master has not accepted the reminder and has overexerted himself, the other methods are no longer available."

Ji Feng frowned and said, "Then will this leave any hidden illnesses in the body?"

The intelligent brain said, "Master, I can't answer this question, however, the master should know better."

"What do you mean?" Ji Feng was stunned.

"Because the master had reached a certain height, the master should know better whether doing so would leave hidden illnesses in his body." The intelligent brain said, "If it will, can't it be eliminated later?"

"This" Ji Feng couldn't help but ponder as he understood what the Wisdom Brain meant.

According to the wise brain, because Ji Feng had reached a certain height in cultivation before, then he was naturally clear whether he could eliminate the hidden disease in his body with his peak state.

Of course, if it wouldn't leave hidden illnesses, then naturally it would be better.

"Then what's your opinion?" Ji Feng asked.

"I suggest that the master can wait until his body has recovered to a certain extent before starting to cultivate." The intelligent brain said.

"This is indeed the safest way." Ji Feng nodded, "However, I don't have that much time."

He had asked the doctor, and with his current injuries, if he were to fully recover, it would take at least twenty days, if not more, so how could he have that much time to waste?

Besides, he couldn't really stay in the hospital for a small month with nothing to do, just convalescing his body all day.

In the end, Ji Feng gritted his teeth and decided to give it a try according to what the intelligent brain said.

Because he was sure that even if he pulled the injury now and left a hidden disease in his body, as long as his strength recovered, he would be able to dissolve the hidden disease and nurse his body to the best condition.

So, Ji Feng endured the pain and started practising body-building exercises.

However, Ji Feng was not reckless. At the beginning, his movements were very slight, and it could even be said that his movements were not standard at all, so that the tugging on the injury was minimal and he was able to achieve the purpose of the exercises, only that the effect was definitely not as good as when he practiced seriously, that was for sure.

But at least, it should be possible to recover this way, just at a slower pace.

As it turned out, Ji Feng's practice was effective.

Moreover, the effect seemed to be quite good. As soon as he started practicing, as a result, he could clearly feel his body absorbing energy from the outside world at a rapid rate, which was simply better than when he first practiced aerobics!

Ji Feng had more or less realized in his heart that he had already practiced to a certain height before, so his physique was already very good, and now it was just a matter of recovery, which was naturally easier and more effective than when he was newly pioneering!

Ji Feng even felt that his body was like a sponge, originally his peak state would have been when he was sucking up full of water, and the water in that sponge was the bio-current in his body.

Now the water has been squeezed dry, but once it comes into contact with water, then naturally it will still absorb like crazy, even if there are wounds on the sponge, it doesn't have a great effect on the effect of absorbing water

What's more, in the process of absorbing outside energy, Ji Feng could clearly feel that the injuries in his body were gradually being repaired, which made him greatly delighted.

Just like that, as the injuries continued to be repaired, Ji Feng's movements gradually became more and more standard.

He was completely immersed in his cultivation, and his body recovered at an astonishing rate

Campus Master Chapter 2138

"Phew~"

When Ji Feng exited from his cultivation state, he couldn't help but exhale a long breath of turbid air, and a glow of joy appeared on his face.

This risky cultivation had an unexpectedly good effect!

Just this one time of cultivation alone had restored about 30% of Ji Feng's strength, and the pain in his body had also been significantly reduced to the extent that he could barely feel the pain when he was just sitting still.

"It seems that as long as he keeps on cultivating, he will be able to leave the hospital in a few days!" Ji Feng secretly said.

Of course, being able to be discharged from the hospital only meant that his injuries had recovered, but it would still take some time before he could return to the kind of peak state he was in before his injuries.

After all, this cultivation is a boat against the current, the further you go, the more difficult it becomes, just like before the injury, Ji Feng spent a long time and made very limited progress, that's the reason.

But Ji Feng wasn't too worried, as long as he could recover from his injuries, everything else was fine, at least as far as he was concerned, he had recovered about 30% of his strength, and now several big men were absolutely unable to get close to him.

"Must recover as soon as possible!" Ji Feng secretly said, his heart more or less in a hurry.

The sudden appearance of the thugs this time, as well as the middle-aged police officer who was so strong, had given him a sense of crisis.

There was really no telling how many people wanted to kill him now, and if he didn't have enough strength, he was afraid that it would be difficult to defend himself, let alone fight with his enemies.

"Wait, no matter who you are and where you come from, when I get out of the hospital, let's play slowly!" Ji Feng's eyes were icy cold, and a fine aura flashed by, showing that his strength was recovering rapidly.

"Knock knock knock." A knock on the door suddenly sounded.

Immediately afterwards, he saw little nurse Yang Xiaoyi walk in, and in her hand was a white tray with a few bottles of hanging water.

"It's time for the injection." Yang Xiaoyi said.

"Heh!"

Ji Feng cooperated and stretched out his hand, but when he saw the dense needle holes on the back of his hand, he couldn't help but shake his head and laugh, he had become a medicine jar himself.

Yang Xiaoyi came straight to him and skillfully tied the band and stuck the needle.

Ji Feng asked, "Nurse Yang, are you in a bad mood?"

"Mmm!"

Yang Xiaoyi answered without raising her head, "But don't worry, I won't bring my personal emotions to work."

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, "I didn't mean that, I just saw that you didn't look too good, so I casually asked, did you encounter anything that bothered you?"

Yang Xiaoyi sighed lightly and said, "Nothing has been fine, ring the bell for me when the water is almost finished hanging."

Ji Feng said, "Nurse Yang, if there is anything you need to help you can tell me, no need to be polite."

"It's nothing, you'd better recuperate at ease." Yang Xiaoyi shook her head, seemingly unwilling to say anything more to Ji Feng, and left with a tray after finishing the treatment.

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head as he watched.

"Ding"

Suddenly, the mobile phone placed on the bedside table rang, Ji Feng then withdrew his thoughts, picked up the phone and saw the caller ID on the screen, he couldn't help but pull up the corners of his mouth and picked up the phone, "Old Yi, you guys have arrived?"

.....

Brilliant Group, General Manager's office.

Zhai Yadong was standing in front of the huge floor-to-ceiling window, talking to someone, and looking at the slightly respectful look on his face, it indicated that the person he was talking to should not be of low status.

“Young Wu, this is roughly the situation, you see” Zhai Yadong asked with a respectful tone.

“Is that really what he said?” A low voice came from the phone.

“Not a word out of place.”

Zhai Yadong said, “That’s what he said, and he seems to have a very serious attitude, it shouldn’t be like he’s just saying that”

Zhai Yadong weighed his words word by word, on many issues he had to report truthfully and not with the slightest personal emotion, because he knew very well that this time the opponent was simply too powerful and the matter was too serious, any slight mistake could lead to a lapse in judgment on the part of young Wu.

And this would most likely lead to the final outcome, which would be extremely contrasting, and might even cause extremely serious consequences!

After all, whether it’s He Hongwei or Ji Feng, that energy is so great that it’s no less than Wu Shao’s. What’s more, now that the two of them have joined hands, how can this be underestimated?

It was obvious that Zhai Yadong was reporting to Wu Zhiyong, and the words that He Hongwei said after he came over really made Zhai Yadong’s heart jump.

He Hongwei himself was Wu Zhiyong’s arch rival, but he personally came to the Splendid Group and asked Zhai Yadong to give Wu Zhiyong a transfer, which was undoubtedly already extremely enraged, because this time He Hongwei came over, completely in the capacity of the youngest of the He family, which made Zhai Yadong not dare to treat it as an equal.

This kind of thing must be left to Wu Zhiyong to resolve.

There was a silence on the phone as Wu Zhiyong seemed to be deliberating, and seemed to be thinking.

When there was no sound for a while, Zhai Yadong could not help but feel a little anxious and asked tentatively, “Young Wu, what do you think I should say back to He Hongwei from my side?”

“Talk back?!”

Wu Zhiyong seemed to be awakened from his contemplation, he sneered and said, “What reply? He, He Hongwei, came to ask and I have to answer? Next time if he comes again, don’t bother with him!”

Wu Zhiyong was very unhappy, according to Zhai Yadong’s description, he could completely imagine the scene when He Hongwei came to Splendid Group, needless to say, He Hongwei must still have that stinky face, looking like a gentleman, but in reality, he was as arrogant as anything in his bones.

He was simply a hypocrite!

What's more, the two of them were already rivals, and now it was Ji Feng who was in trouble, and he had nothing to do with him at all, yet he came to question him in an aggressive manner, who did he think he was?

The moment he thought of He Hongwei's hypocritical appearance, Wu Zhiyong was very upset, so he spoke in an ungracious manner.

But Zhai Yadong was frozen, "Ignore him?"

"That's right!" Wu Zhiyong said, "No need to pay attention to him, you just need to do your job normally, this matter you do not get involved in, and do not ask questions."

"But" Zhai Yadong opened his mouth, "Is it really okay to handle it like this?"

"There is no but, you just do it!" Wu Zhiyong said, "Ji Feng met with an attack and He Hongwei came straight to ask me, so is it possible that the day he He Hongwei slipped on a watermelon rind, he will also have to come and ask if that watermelon rind was thrown by me? It's simply inexplicable!"

Zhai Yadong was stunned: "This" is not the same, is it?"

Wu Zhiyong said noncommittally, "There is nothing different, Old Zhai, just do your own thing"

"Then" if He Hongwei comes back, what should I say?" Zhai Yadong asked. It couldn't really be like what Wu Zhiyong said, just ignore him, right?

"If he comes again, then you tell him to go find the murderer himself if he's capable, or just get beaten up if he's not!" Wu Zhiyong coldly snorted, "Isn't he Ji Feng capable of a lot? Then just go and take revenge yourself!"

"..... Okay, I know." Zhai Yadong said.

"That's it then, keep in touch if anything happens." After Wu Zhiyong finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

Zhai Yadong listened to the busy tone coming from the phone and couldn't help but shake his head and smile bitterly, Younger Wu's answer was really simple" but the problem is, this matter is not so simple!

We all know that only the day before there was a negative report about the Brilliant Group in the major media and newspapers, that is, about the Brilliant Group wanting to sell a strategic national project to the people of Kepong, which resulted in public discontent and public debate.

As a result, Ji Feng was suddenly attacked when the tables were turned, and as long as they were not stupid, the first person everyone suspected was definitely the Wu family.

This was because many people knew what relationship the Brilliant Group had with the Wu family.

Now He Hongwei came to question him directly, obviously because of this point as well, but Wu Zhiyong said he didn't need to pay attention to him, was this a tacit acknowledgement that he was the one who did the attack on Ji Feng, or was he simply too lazy to pay attention?

In Zhai Yadong's opinion, whichever it was, it would be unwise to respond in this way.

If he acquiesced to the fact that he had done it, then he would definitely be subjected to Ji Feng's frantic retaliation, which was no fun. If you don't bother, it's better to just forget about it. At most, you'll just lose a little face, but you'll get the benefit, you don't need to fight to the death with Ji Feng!

The actual fact is that you will be able to get a lot more than just a few of these.

"Boom!"

He Hongwei directly threw his briefcase onto the cabinet, casually pulled over a chair and sat down.

Ji Feng smiled and asked, "What's wrong? Why are you pulling a face?"

"It seems that Wu Zhiyong is determined to see us laugh." He Hongwei said in a deep voice.

"What do you mean?" Ji Feng asked with a frown.

"I went to the Brilliant Group in the morning and asked Zhai Yadong to bring a message to Wu Zhiyong for me, " He Hongwei told the morning's events, then pointed at the watch on his wrist and said, "It's been half a day now , Zhai Yadong must have already reported to Wu Zhiyong, but he hasn't replied yet, Wu Zhiyong must be gloating there."

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "I think you shouldn't have gone in the first place, whether or not Wu Zhiyong did it, both of our positions have decided that we won't get along peacefully, we're going to fight anyway, what does it matter if he did it?"

He Hongwei said in a deep voice: "It's not the same, if we know that Wu Zhiyong did it, then we can fight him with all our might, if he didn't do it, then we still have to divert some of our energy to guard against the enemy hiding in the shadows I dare to be sure that now Wu Zhiyong must be having fun in secret! "

Ji Feng asked, "In that case, you don't think Wu Zhiyong did it?"

He Hongwei nodded and said, "I don't think he's that stupid! Something so obvious, he wouldn't do it, and even if he did, he wouldn't make such a big deal about it!"

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said, "I think so too."

He had fought with Wu Zhiyong not once or twice, and he knew more or less about Wu Zhiyong's style, and he also thought that this time it was not Wu Zhiyong's doing.

"What's the use of knowing, there are obviously still enemies hiding in the shadows now, if we don't find them out, we can't let go of them in Southern Guangdong." He Hongwei shook his head.

"Don't worry."

Ji Feng smiled, "Those people can't hide for much longer, I believe we will soon have news"

Campus Master Chapter 2139

"Don't worry."

Ji Feng smiled, "Those people can't hide for long, I believe there will be news soon"

He Hongwei couldn't help but be stunned at his words, "What do you mean? You're so sure?"

Ji Feng nodded, "I'm sure! No matter where they are hiding and how tightly they are hiding, I will uncover them!"

He Hongwei asked thoughtfully, "Do you already have an arrangement?"

"Sort of!" Ji Feng said, "Just wait and see patiently, I will definitely uncover those guys!"

"Since that's the case then I'll wait!" He Hongwei nodded his head.

He knew that Ji Feng would definitely not be indifferent after he had suffered such a big loss. In fact, even if he were in his place, he would definitely be thunderstruck if he was suddenly attacked and killed for no reason, not to mention that Ji Feng had never been someone who was willing to eat a dumb loss!

And more importantly, in terms of actual actions, Ji Feng was even better.

He Hongwei had heard about all those things that Ji Feng had done in the past, whether it was the Qiao family, or the Old Wang family, or some people from the Wu family, if they were playing conspiracies with Ji Feng, or competing with each other by their own means, Ji Feng would play with them in the same way.

However, if the other side once wanted to use force, Ji Feng's toughness and fearfulness was immediately revealed.

Just look at those individuals or families who had tried to lay hands on Ji Feng, how many of them had ended up well?

In terms of force, Ji Feng's strength was just a bit outrageously strong.

And now, yet someone had used a weapon to attack and kill him, this was like playing with a big sword in front of Lord Guan, once Ji Feng moved, it would definitely surprise everyone.

So when he heard Ji Feng say that he already had an arrangement, He Hongwei realised that he didn't even need to intervene next, Ji Feng alone would be enough to uncover all those thugs hiding in the shadows one by one.

Those people had completely enraged Ji Feng, and He Hongwei could almost imagine what would happen to them!

"Really don't know how to live and die!"

He Hongwei couldn't help but shake his head, in fact, when he first heard the news that Ji Feng had been attacked and killed, he felt a sense of absurdity in addition to shock.

He really didn't know who had planned this attack on Ji Feng's life, it was simply stupid!

In particular, the other party had actually mobilised a large number of people, used a large number of weapons, and even a large number of thugs, this was not going to attack and kill Ji Feng at all, but to run into a gun!

He Hongwei knew very well that, in fact, no matter whether those thugs could successfully finish off Ji Feng at that time, the man behind the curtain would probably be uncovered eventually.

If those thugs succeeded in killing Ji Feng, then the Ji family would be absolutely furious and would definitely use all their energy to investigate the matter thoroughly, so that there would be absolutely no hiding place for those people in the huge China.

But if those thugs did not succeed, it would be even more foolish, because then not only would Ji Feng be enraged, but it would also cause Ji Feng's vigilance and frantic revenge.

After all, if it was just the Ji family retaliating, they might still be mindful of the repercussions and not implicate more people after they disposed of a group of people.

However, now it was Ji Feng who was personally retaliating, but anyone who was involved in the attack and killing, he would definitely not be able to let go.

So to say that, those people's actions were really stupid!

"Ji Feng, you should also be more careful, since those thugs dare to come and attack and kill you, they are afraid that they are already prepared to die." He Hongwei reminded, "As the saying goes, porcelain doesn't touch with tiles, you must protect yourself while you are taking revenge."

"I will be careful." Ji Feng nodded his head.

In fact, he knew better than He Hongwei that those thugs involved in attacking and killing him were almost all dead soldiers.

But so what?

If the other side really had this idea that bare feet weren't afraid of wearing shoes, then they were wrong, and very wrong at that!

Ji Feng never thought he was porcelain, on the contrary, he thought he was stronger and more ordinary than a tile pot, as for those dead soldiers, just come up, come and kill one, that's all!

Moreover, what Ji Feng was really looking for was the man behind the curtain who was hiding in the shadows!

That was the culprit!

"You just know what you're looking for, then I'll wait for your good news!" He Hongwei stood up and said, "If I hear anything back from Wu Zhiyong, I will inform you in time."

"Well!"

Ji Feng nodded his head.

After that, He Hongwei left. He couldn't always stay here, and to stop the cooperation between the Brilliant Group and the Boundary Pontiffs, relying on public opinion pressure alone was not enough, so He Hongwei had to go and do something.

After He Hongwei left, Ji Feng picked up the phone and dialed a number: "This is Ji Feng Use the fastest speed to find out a few issues for me"

When the phone was put down, Ji Feng's face became more serious than ever.

He slightly narrowed his eyes as a cold aura flashed by.

"No matter where you guys are hiding" Ji Feng said to himself in a cold voice, "and those people who are watching the joke"

Ji Feng knew that many people were probably secretly hoping for his downfall, only those people didn't have that strength. Now that he has been attacked and killed, I don't know how many people are secretly having fun in secret

.....

As night falls, the international metropolis of Yuezhou, the provincial capital of Southern Guangdong, begins its bustling and noisy nightlife.

Some people say that if you want to see whether a city is prosperous or not, you don't have to look at how many skyscrapers there are, but how many entertainment venues there are, how luxurious and how extravagant they are

This is the case with Yuezhou.

As one of the top metropolises in China, the level of extravagance in some entertainment venues in Yuezhou is almost unimaginable to ordinary people.

The Black Panther Nightclub is one such entertainment venue.

When night falls, it is the liveliest time of the day again.

Of course, to be more accurate, it should be described as vile, or indulgent.

At the moment, the Black Panther nightclub is packed with people, and the first thing you see when you first enter is the dim lighting and the deafening sound of heavy metal music that makes your eardrums tremble.

Further on, in the dance floor of the nightclub, along with the dim lights that sweep by from time to time, one can see a large number of men and women, gyrating their bodies.

These girls were all dressed extremely hot, with ultra-short skirts, hot trousers that only just covered their key areas, and even some with hips so voluptuous that they made the ultra-short hot trousers impossible to wrap around, leaving a patch of white butt flesh exposed.

These hot ladies, under the pressure of their fast-paced daytime lives, choose to come here at night to indulge.

The men here are equally obnoxious about clothes in general, and many are even outright topless.

With the rhythm of the heavy metal music, these men and women were gyrating wildly, perhaps because there were so many people on the dance floor, so that there was little distance between them, and even some of the more daring men and women had rubbed up against each other as hard as they could.

If you look closely, you will see how many people have their hands in their hot trousers or short skirts, and the low moans that are muffled by the heavy metal music, and the lust-filled eyes in the dim lighting

The whole dance floor was filled with hormones!

Black Panther was sitting on a sofa by the window in a room on the first floor, looking at the men and women below who were already full of fire, while showing a satisfied look that seemed to be enjoying themselves.

And beneath him, a long-haired woman was rapidly undulating her head

Just then, three sturdy figures flashed in that dim light. Black Panther could not help but grin, now his men were getting stronger and stronger, and powerful fighters were joining him one after another, making his business bigger and bigger.

Soon, however, Panther realised that something was wrong.

With a popping sound, the deafening music below suddenly stopped, followed by the lights above the hall and dance floor all lighting up.

At once, there was a gasp of surprise from the hall, and one could even clearly see a number of women scrambling to pull up their skirts, others with panties hanging from their ankles, and behind her, men were pressing against her.

Perhaps not anticipating this sudden appearance, a number of people instead froze, forgetting for a moment how to react, and when they did, there was another shout.

“What’s going on?” Panther bellowed at once, as he pushed the woman underneath him, not caring that the thing was still exposed, and hurried to the window, only to see a man coming up to the DJ, pushing him out of the way, and then picking up the microphone.

“Everyone, this place is closed for the night, so please go back!” The man said.

“What?”

“Go back? Are you kidding me?”

“We even bought tickets

At once, the bottom exploded with noise as soon as they heard the words.

At the same time, a group of men dressed in black clothes have all gathered around, these people are the nightclub’s thugs, are specifically responsible for the order of the place, that is, to watch the venue.

But the man with the microphone didn’t care at all, he just drew his pistol directly from the back of his waist and casually fired a shot into the sky: “Boom!”

In an instant, the nightclub fell silent.

“Those who don’t want to leave, can stay!” The man said indifferently, “But bullets don’t grow eyes!”

“Ah...!”

The next moment, quite a few people shrieked, but this time it wasn’t out of nervousness, but fear, and almost everyone started to frantically run out the door.

“Holy shit!”

Black Panther was instantly furious, he straightened his trousers in a couple of seconds, casually took out a pistol from a drawer in the room, then hurriedly picked up the walkie-talkie and shouted in a low voice: “Are they all fucking dead? Get that guy!”

At this time, however, Panther did not notice that there were two other men coming up the stairs

Campus Master Chapter 2140

“Holy shit!”

Black Panther was instantly furious, he straightened his trousers in a couple of seconds, casually took out a pistol from a drawer in the room, then hurriedly picked up the walkie-talkie and bellowed, “Are they all fucking dead? Get that guy!”

At this time, however, Panther did not notice that two other men were coming up the stairs

The Black Panther nightclub was in a state of panic, and almost all of the customers were running out of the club, even those who were brave enough not to scream, but had an extremely panicked look on their faces and were running out of the club in a panic.

If it was just an ordinary fight, they would have stayed here to watch the action, because even if it was between two gangs, it would only be a fight between the two sides and it would not have much to do with them. As long as they stayed a little away from the action, basically no one would target them.

But now it was different, that guy had a gun in his hand!

Even if he wasn’t coming against them, if a gunfight broke out here, God knows if the bullets would hit them?

You know, bullets don’t have eyes!

What’s more, South Guangdong is one of the most developed provinces in China, and it goes without saying that the provincial capital, Yuezhou, is economically developed, but it is also undoubtedly extremely chaotic.

A well-developed economy means a lot of money and more opportunities, so it’s understandable that there are many gangs here.

Despite official crackdowns, for many people, the saying that people die for their money is clear enough, and there will always be people who will take the risk.

What’s more, as long as they have a good relationship with certain leaders and make their contributions on time, the crackdown is basically of little concern to them.

For this reason, almost everyone who frequents entertainment venues is not surprised by the firefights between gangs. As there are so many gangs here, it is inevitable that there will be disputes between them and it is only natural that there will be firefights.

However, in the past, most of the firefights between gangs were with machetes or steel pipes, and people hardly ever saw guns being used.

If they did, it was in less crowded areas, and people would at most read about it on the TV news or in news reports, such as the discovery of a few bodies in a certain suburb, or a murder where several people had been shot.

But this time, someone had fired a gun right in front of their eyes, which made the guests, who were used to gangland firefights, start to panic.

The result was that in a matter of minutes, a large number of customers fled, shouting and screaming, and the gunshot instantly cooled the fire of desire that had been burning in everyone's bodies, as if a pot of cold water had been thrown on their heads.

The strong hormones that were still rising in the crowd also dissipated in an instant.

Even some of the staff working in the nightclub ran out in a shriek.

So soon, only some beaters were left in the lobby of the Black Panther nightclub, along with the burly man who had chased the DJ away, gun in hand.

When he saw this scene, Black Panther was furious and he bellowed into the intercom, "Everyone, copy! Grab this son of a bitch, or just kill him, dead or alive!"

Black Panther was really angry, he had been in Southern Guangdong for so many years, who didn't give him some face?

But now someone had actually come to his door with a gun, this simply made him furious!

Those fighters at the bottom were about to turn around, because there were usually very few people causing trouble, so they were usually only equipped with machetes and other weapons, there was no way they could fight with people's pistols, so they were going to get their guns!

However, as soon as these people moved, they only heard a "BOOM!" sounded.

The next moment, a harsh scream came out of nowhere: "Ah...! My leg-"

The bullet went straight through the leg of one of the beaters, causing him to fall straight to his knees and howl in pain as his hands covered the spot where he had been hit.

"Stand there where you are, anyone who dares to move a step, the bullet won't be in the leg!" The stout man shouted sorrowfully and lowly.

At once, that group of beaters were all shaken.

Even though they were usually brave and ruthless and had not seen blood on their hands, no one wanted to have their heads blown off!

“F*ck!”

Suddenly, someone in the crowd cursed, “Fucking ruthless if you have a gun, huh? How many bullets can you have in a magazine? There are over thirty of us here, how many can you hit?”

As soon as this voice came out, everyone’s faces came alive.

Someone followed and echoed, “That’s right, it’s great to have a gun, isn’t it? Who the hell doesn’t have a gun? Brothers, let’s all rush out and copy”

“Boom!”

The man’s voice came to an abrupt end as the sound of gunfire suddenly rang out, only to see a blood splash emerge directly from his shoulder, and he fell to the ground on his back with a low scream, then his eyes rolled over and he passed out.

Everyone looked at the stout man in shock, only to see that in his other hand, there was another pistol somehow, and the black hole of the gun was pointing at them.

“Guess, how many people can I kill with the bullets from these two guns put together?!” The stout man smiled coldly, then casually pulled open his waistcoat, only to see that the left breast pocket was surprisingly bulging, and looking at the exposed section, it was all magazines!

“Guess again, with these bullets, can I beat all of you into a sieve?” The stout man’s face wore a grim smile, “I think maybe four or five bullets each at most, I wonder if that’s enough?”

“.....”

There was a sudden silence on the scene.

Everyone’s faces changed as they stared at the gun in the stout man’s hand and then at the magazines in his pocket, none of them dared to speak.

At this time, Black Panther, who was on the first floor, also changed his face, and he instantly realised that he was in big trouble today!

Thinking of this, Black Panther no longer said anything about finishing people off, he couldn’t even take a second look at the situation below, turned around and frantically ran towards the window of the room.

“Bang!”

Just at that moment, the door to the room was suddenly kicked open.

“Ah...!”

The woman in the room screamed in terror, even more than forgetting that she hadn’t even put her clothes on yet

With a grit of his teeth, Panther hurriedly pulled open the window and jumped straight down.

“Pop!”

As soon as the black panther landed, he pulled his legs and fled frantically, he knew that he had met a ruthless man today, if he could not escape, he would definitely die

However in a flash, before Panther could fully run, he suddenly heard an ear-piercing sound.

“SQUEAK—!”

It was the sound of tyres rubbing against the ground. The panther subconsciously turned his head to look and saw that there was a car on his left side, and at that moment the car had its headlights on and was coming directly towards him.

The black panther was instantly dead, and he subconsciously ran in the opposite direction.

“Whoa!” A sound.

With a sound of breaking glass, Black Panther screamed miserably and stumbled to the ground, causing him to muffle a painful cry. However, Black Panther did not dare to stop in the slightest, as he gritted his teeth and climbed up to run again, but when he looked up, he was shocked to find that he had entered the Black Panther Nightclub again!

It turned out that the car outside was rushing towards the door. Panther was so panicked that he just subconsciously ran in the opposite direction, but he didn't expect that he would smash the glass door of the nightclub and go straight into the nightclub

He ran back again by himself!

The black panther hurriedly turned his head, and his heart instantly sank.

Only to see that on either side of the already shattered glass door, two men, also wearing vests and looking incredibly tough, were looking at him in a good way.

The two men were obviously waiting for him here, their every move was under their control, even which direction they were going to escape, they had calculated everything and were even just waiting for them here in a limited way.

And he himself is like a dog in distress

The black panther's heart instantly rose with a sense of powerlessness, and at the same time was terrified to the extreme.

Who is the other side? How could they have such a well thought out operation?

“You, which gang are you guys from?” Black Panther hurriedly asked.

However, the two men just looked at him as if they hadn't heard his question, which made the fear in Black Panther's heart even greater, and he couldn't help but swallow his saliva with difficulty.

“You're Black Panther, aren't you?” Finally, one of the men spoke up.

“I'm Black Panther, who the hell sent you?!” Black Panther's voice was trembling a little, but he still tried hard to find an opportunity, “How much did the other side pay you guys? I'll pay double, no, I'll pay five times as much! As long as you can spare me, I can pay you guys right away”

“We’re not interested in money!” The other party interrupted him directly.

“Then” Black Panther’s face changed, what else could he do if he couldn’t even give money?

“We are after your life!” The other party said.

Sure enough!

Black Panther’s body trembled and almost went straight to limp.

“Gentlemen, I have no enmity with you, don’t kill all of you, okay?” Black Panther begged, “I’ll give you whatever you want, just please let me go”

“Give me everything you want?” The other side asked.

“Yes, yes, yes, anything, anything!” When Black Panther heard this, he immediately nodded his head desperately as if he had grabbed a life-saving straw.

“Well then, answer a few questions for me first, if your answers satisfy me, maybe I will consider letting you exchange certain things for your life!” The other party said.

Black Panther’s heart burst with ecstasy, at least he didn’t have to die now, he hurriedly said, “You guys ask, I will answer truthfully!”

“I heard people say that you have been smuggling arms, what I want to ask is, to whom have you sold the arms?” The other party asked, “Especially in the recent period, you’d better think carefully before you answer me!”
