“Not only are their intentions malicious, their attitude is even more arrogant!” Ji Feng shook his head and smiled.

He gave a detailed account of his encounter with Cao Yong and Zhao Anxiang in the room, especially the process of inducing a confession from Cao Yong and Zhao Anxiang, and how he disrupted the other side’s rhythm.

..... The reason why Ji Feng was brutal in the room and seemed to be stirring things up, but in reality, he did so with a deeper meaning.

The moment Ji Feng entered the room, Cao Yong and Zhao Anxiang’s attitude was very arrogant, and they came up to give him a downward spiral. Ji Feng could see at a glance that things were not right, and he then felt that Cao Yong and Zhao Anxiang did not have good intentions, then before this, they must have discussed it, or they should all have certain steps in handling the case.

So Ji Feng could only stir things up, and regardless of what procedures or steps they had, he could first disrupt the rhythm.

As expected, Cao Yong and Zhao Anxiang were angered by Ji Feng several times, and as a result, they lost their composure and no longer had the same kind of authority as before, and finally they were led by Ji Feng’s nose.

I am afraid that until the end, Cao Yong and Zhao Anxiang still thought that Ji Feng was too arrogant and unreasonable, and that because of his background, he did not put anyone in his eyes, even if it was the State Security, he would give his face whenever he wanted to.

However, they did not know that it was through the intimidating attitude they put up as soon as they came up that Ji Feng immediately realised that the mastermind behind Cao Yong and Zhao Anxiang must be planning something big.

All these details he had to let Little Uncle know, because after all, it involved State Security, which was not like entering a police station or something like that, and had to be treated with caution.

The top might be able to tolerate the sons of the family breaking the law, but it would not tolerate someone posing a threat to national security.

This was something that Ji Feng knew very well.

“They’re going to come down hard!” Ji Zhenping’s face was cold, and a cold light flashed in his eyes, “Zhang Qian, that son of a bitch

“Zhang Qian?”

Ji Feng was slightly stunned.

Ji Zhenping nodded and said, “That’s right, it’s Zhang Qian! Since those two people you mentioned are specifically responsible for domestic intelligence, they must belong under Zhang Qian’s leadership!”

So that was it!

Ji Feng immediately understood that this person called Zhang Qian should be the boss of the domestic intelligence department, then this person should be considered a heavyweight in the State Security.

“Zhang Qian doesn’t deal with us?” Ji Feng asked in a low voice.

If there was such an enemy in State Security, it would be a real nuisance, at least, if he moved to find you in trouble, or if there were people watching you all the time in the dark, then one would have to think about doing anything before doing it!

This is especially troublesome for Ji Feng.

Because what he is going to do next, I’m afraid, is even more unexplainable, not to mention that in the future, he will gradually turn those super advanced technologies in his mind about the Gamma Galaxy into physical objects gradually, if a product that is far beyond the current level of technology suddenly appears, by then the State Security will definitely not be familiar with it!

Especially, the person who is personally concerned about this matter is also the boss of the domestic intelligence department, this will be even more troublesome!

Fortunately, Ji Zhenping shook his head and said, “It can’t be understood so simply like this, let’s go back and talk about it, this matter must be discussed with your father!”

Ji Feng nodded: “Good!”

Strictly speaking, this is the first time he has dealt with people from the State Security, and he has no idea how to deal with it in his heart, so he must listen to his father’s opinion.

On the way back, Ji Zhenping contacted Ji Zhenhua directly, only saying that there was something going on at home and that he should go back, but he didn’t say much else.

But Ji Zhenhua was the one who directly agreed.

“It seems that your father should have received some news too!” After hanging up the phone, Ji Zhenping said, “That’s much better!”

“What did my father say?” Ji Feng asked.

“These things can’t be said clearly over the phone, let’s talk about it when we get home.” Ji Zhenping waved his hand, even though their phone calls were encrypted, it was always good to be cautious.

Ji Feng nodded, after a while, he suddenly asked again, “Little Uncle, tell me about State Security, I hardly know much about this department.”

Ji Zhenping smiled at his words and could not help but laugh, “Actually, ah, State Security is not as mysterious as the outside world thinks, except for one special department, other departments are basically just ordinary office units, only sometimes the people they come in contact with are different”

Ji Feng listened quietly, and had a more detailed understanding of some of the situations within State Security.

The one that Ji Feng was most concerned about was that special department in State Security.

According to Little Uncle's introduction, there is a department in State Security that is specifically responsible for intelligence and national security work. To put it bluntly, this is the special department, and the vast majority of resources of the entire State Security are used in this department.

Within this department, there are several divisions, including those specialising in foreign intelligence work, which are divided into Asian groups, European groups, etc. Of course, there are more detailed divisions within each group, such as those specialising in a particular country, or those specialising in a particular region of a country!

In addition, there is also a division that is specifically responsible for domestic intelligence, and the boss of this division is Zhang Qian.

Zhang Qian's division is basically responsible for collecting domestic intelligence, which includes detecting whether there is collusion with foreign powers, or some major cases, in which State Security figures are present.

Also, there is the one that specialises in the security of leaders, and the one that specialises in the economic sphere, the military sphere and so on!

But at the end of the day, there is only one this special department!

"In that case, there is still a leader above Zhang Qian as well?" Ji Feng asked.

"That's for sure!"

Ji Zhenping nodded and said, "They are collectively under the leadership of the Central Office, however, when it comes to leadership, it is actually only nominal, usually the Central Office rarely interferes with their actions other than giving orders. The director of the Central Office usually mainly serves the top chief and also has his own political affairs to deal with."

Ji Feng immediately asked, "Then in that case, isn't that Zhang Qian one of the three giants of State Security?"

Ji Zhenping said, "It's hard to say if he's one of the three giants, but at least, he's one of the giants!"

Ji Feng then understood that, to put it bluntly, the director of the Central Office was the boss of State Security, and there were special departments in State Security, which were subdivided into several divisions, each of which had several bosses side by side, and Zhang Qian was one of them.

This time, Cao Yong and Zhao Anxiang, who came to investigate him, were Zhang Qian's men, only that Ji Feng did not know which group they were from.

In that case, how this Zhang Qian's attitude would largely determine the direction of this matter.

"Actually, it's not exactly like that." Ji Zhenping said, "Between these several divisions of State Security, there is also competition, and it's fierce, and they monitor each other, so if anyone goes too far, others will speak up, and when that happens, the Central Office will step in!"

"Hmm."

Ji Feng nodded, of course he understood this point, the power that State Security has that is naturally self-explanatory, but having such a large amount of power and not being restrained is extremely scary.

The company's main business is to provide a good service to its customers.

Of course in this way, even if Zhang Qian was one of the giants of State Security, he wouldn't dare to go overboard in many matters, and would have to consider the implications of things!

"That's good!" Ji Feng couldn't help but let out a slight sigh of relief, as long as there was a good monitoring mechanism, it wouldn't particularly matter if Zhang Qian didn't deal with them, at least, it wasn't like Zhang Qian didn't have any scruples!

When Ji Feng and Ji Zhenping returned home, Ji Zhenhua was already waiting at home.

Seeing them back, Ji Zhenhua said, "Sit down all, Little Feng, you're not nervous today, are you?"

Ji Feng scratched his head and said a little less than kindly, "I'm still a little nervous in my heart, I just don't show it"

"Well!"

Ji Zhenhua nodded and said gently, "It's right to be nervous, one must have a sense of reverence, if one is not afraid of anything, then it's not a good thing, only by maintaining a sense of reverence at all times can you be cautious and humble!"

Ji Feng listened quietly and nodded slightly.

"Big brother, what happened today" Ji Zhenping was an acute person, and he was about to open his mouth to ask questions as soon as he sat down.

"I know about today's matter." Ji Zhenhua nodded and said, "Old Xue from the Central Office sat down at my place today and spoke to me about what happened."

"Then did they tell that the people from State Security were inducing a confession from Xiao Feng and were questioning the origins of the technology of the Tengfei Group?" Ji Zhenping asked.

Ji Zhenhua, however, didn't react much and just said gently, "Little Feng, tell me about today's situation."

"Mm."

Ji Feng nodded and quickly repeated the matter again, some details he hadn't left out.

"Big brother, this time they've gone too far, they're going to come down hard!" Ji Zhenping said in a deep voice, "We can't just stick our necks out and wait to be knifed, can we?"

"What words!"

Ji Zhenhua glared at him, "You're already such an adult and still don't have a sense of proportion in your words!"

Ji Zhenping grunted, "I can't stand this anyway. If you don't say anything, then I'll go and ask Zhang Qian, why should they be so suspicious when Xiao Feng has made some achievements? Is this reasonable? Is there any conscience left? If Xiao Feng hadn't handed in the weapon, who would have known about it? Now they are suspecting Little Feng.”

“Things can't be qualified by anyone's words, and the facts can't be distorted by anyone who wants to distort them!” Ji Zhenhua said, “Xiao Feng, next if necessary, you will continue to cooperate with their investigation, to make things clear naturally the best, also save some people gossip well! As for other things, you don't need to worry.”

“Mm!”

Ji Feng immediately nodded, with these words from his father, his heart was greatly assured.

However, he still had one more doubt, looking at the tone of Little Uncle's demeanor when he spoke, it seemed like there was some kind of grudge between him and that Zhang Qian, right?

Campus Master Chapter 2192

“Mm!”

Ji Feng immediately nodded his head, with these words from his father, he was greatly assured in his heart.

However, he still had a doubt, looking at the tone of his demeanor when he spoke, it seemed like there was some kind of grudge between him and that Zhang Qian, right?

But with his father present, Ji Feng could not ask more questions, he just looked at his younger uncle a few more times, trying to see something from his demeanour.

But although Ji Zhenping's face was a bit gloomy, he didn't show much, so Ji Feng had to give up.

“Little Feng, do you have something to say?” Ji Zhenhua suddenly asked.

“Hmm?”

Ji Feng was stunned.

Ji Zhenhua said, “I see that you seem to be hesitant to say something, is there something you feel bad about saying, so you are hesitating?”

“This is at home, what is there to hesitate about, just say whatever you want to say directly!” Ji Zhenping said.

“There's actually nothing”

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled and said, “I just feel that whenever little uncle mentions that person called Zhang Qian, it seems like there is something strange in his demeanor, well it seems like there is some annoyance, and some helplessness, and some other indefinable feeling, so I guess little uncle and Zhang Qian did not know each other before? ”

Uh

As soon as he heard what Ji Feng said, Ji Zhenping choked for a moment and looked a little embarrassed.

Ji Zhenhua also could not help but twitch the corners of his mouth, shook his head and smiled, saying, "This is all something your little uncle did when he was young!"

When Ji Feng heard this, he immediately became interested.

The good deeds done by my younger uncle when he was young? This sounded like it had some origins. It seemed like he guessed right, little uncle and that Zhang Qian really did know each other before!

"Little Uncle, you and Zhang Qian have a grudge against each other?" Ji Feng asked.

"Alright, alright, you're a child, why are you asking so many questions!" Ji Zhenping hummed, then raised his hand to look at his watch again and said, "So what, big brother, I still have work to do at my unit, so I won't be delayed here"

"You!"

Ji Zhenhua glanced at him and said, "What's not to say since things have been going on for so many years? Besides it's not something shameful, everyone has been young, there's nothing!"

Ji Zhenping said awkwardly, "It's not that Little Feng is here, I'm an elder, I can't leave any bad impression on him!"

Hearing them say that, Ji Feng became even more interested, and he immediately asked, "Little Uncle, what's going on, you have to tell me what's going on, otherwise if I go up against that Zhang Qian guy in the future, how am I supposed to deal with it?"

When Ji Zhenping heard that, he immediately said, "What do you need? If you go up against Zhang Qian, you don't have to talk to him, just throw your fist and beat him up, no problem!"

"What are you talking about!"

Ji Zhenhua glared at him and said, "Xiao Yu is already a big girl, and you're still so fussy as a father!"

Ji Zhenping shook his head and said, "Big brother, don't say anything about me either, I can do whatever I want to others, but not to Zhang Qian, the mention of him makes me angry, I think that's all I can do in this life."

Ji Feng couldn't help but raise his eyebrows, from the sound of it, the grudge between Little Uncle and that Zhang Qian is not small, actually can make Little Uncle remember for so many years, until now mentioning Zhang Qian still makes him so angry, this is not an ordinary grudge ah!

"Little Uncle, so you have a deep grudge against Zhang Qian?" Ji Feng asked from the side.

"That's a small person!" Ji Zhenping hummed, "Back then it was because of him that your little aunt and I almost didn't make it, do you think this grudge is deep?"

"Huh?"

Ji Feng was slightly stunned and didn't even react for a moment.

Originally, he had thought that there was some other kind of grudge between his little uncle and Zhang Qian, but it turned out that it was actually this kind of thing?

“Your little uncle and Zhang Qian were classmates when they were young, and the two were not all the way in school” Seeing that Ji Zhenping was just sullen and didn’t explain much, he smiled and solved the confusion for Ji Feng.

It turned out that the era when the youngest uncle grew up was a time when the great * had just passed and was still relatively conservative.

And at that time, the same people are still cautious, although also dare to speak up, but still careful when speaking, afraid that they accidentally said something wrong, was reported, that the consequences can be serious.

..... For that period, although Ji Feng did not experience, but also heard a lot, before in junior high school, he and his mother lived in the slum, when there was an old man who walked the streets to collect scrap, also and they live in the same compound, Ji Feng once listened to him to tell his encounter.

The old man used to be a teacher, and one day he went to a shopping mall with his colleague – the supply point in those days – and the two of them went shopping together.

But the economy was tight at the time and the old man was not quite willing to buy one in his mind, so he casually said, “What’s the use of buying that”

As a result, it was because of the phrase ‘that thing’ that he was reported by his colleague.

The old man was then expelled from their school, followed by a reprimand.

The old man’s comment was not meant to be taken as anything other than a slight vulgarity of speech in a small place, but he was treated in such a way.

But I’m afraid the old man didn’t expect that he would be punched and kicked after just a few words of defence, and even have his leg broken by his own students, so that he was left with a lifelong disability – although he could walk after recovering from his injury, he couldn’t use much strength in his leg and couldn’t even stand for too long.

So when Ji Feng was in junior high school, the old man could only make a living by riding his pedal tricycle and collecting scrap from street to street.

You can imagine what kind of environment it was back then. Even though the time when Little Uncle grew up * has passed, there are obviously still after-effects in the hearts of the people.

At that time, he was young and active, and fights and brawls were common, and Zhang Qian was one of his rivals.

But because he had been active since he was young, and because several of his old men liked him, when he had nothing else to do, the people around him would teach him a few moves, but he never thought that he would be able to practice them in a good way.

This aroused the interest of Tie Long, the old man’s toughest guard, and as a result, as soon as he was on leave, Tie Long would teach him and Tie Jun both kung fu, and within a few years, he was improving extremely fast.

As a result, when Zhang Qian clashed with Little Uncle again, he was beaten up badly!

On one occasion, Zhang Qian was even beaten up and received a few stitches in the corner of his eye.

For a long time, the two of them were at peace with each other, at least on the surface, and Zhang Qian was not as crazy as before.

The younger uncle got into trouble and was naturally given a good beating by the older man, but he didn't dare to cause any more trouble.

The first time I saw her, she was walking alone on the road and was almost molested, but luckily she didn't get into trouble because he went to pick her up.

In those days, when being whistled at and looked at by a man was considered molestation, such things were naturally quite serious, and what's more, there were rumours going around that the young aunt had been raped and defiled by a hooligan, and even that she had bad manners, and so on.

However, in the investigation afterwards, Uncle found that the source of these gossips all pointed to Zhang Qian, and the people who spread the gossips outside were all people who were close to Zhang Qian.

The people who were spreading the gossip outside were also people who were close to Zhang Qian. At this point, how could Little Uncle not understand that Zhang Qian was deliberately trying to stink up Little Aunt's reputation?

If his girlfriend had really been molested by a hooligan, then the gossip outside would at most annoy Ji Zhenping, but he would be helpless, because what they said was true, and you couldn't just go around the world fighting with people, right?

But the problem was that his girlfriend hadn't been in trouble, she was just in shock, but now her reputation had been tarnished, so how could Ji Zhenping not be angry?

So without saying a word, he found the people who had spread the gossip and sent them all to hospital, and Zhang Qian was even worse.

At that time, there was quite a furore over this matter, and even Zhang Qian's family had to sue Ji Zhenping and had to send him to jail.

It was under such circumstances that the old man stepped in to pacify the Zhang family, and then personally sent Ji Zhenping to the army, even letting him participate in the self-defence counter-attack back then, personally sending his son to the battlefield, even though it was not the same as sending him to his death, but that kind of feeling is self-evident.

And this matter Zhang Qian itself was in the wrong, so the matter passed.

Hearing this, Ji Feng finally understood why his younger uncle was reluctant to bring up the grudge with Zhang Qian, in fact he was reluctant to mention the fiasco back then.

This kind of thing that involves the wife's reputation, naturally the less mentioned the better, even though nothing happened back then, but can't help others think more about it, right?

"So that's how it is" Listening to the whole thing, Ji Feng's heart dawned on him, and he understood the grudge between his younger uncle and Zhang Qian.

In general, the fault of this matter does not lie with one person, the younger uncle is also at fault, because before Zhang Qian had suffered a loss at his hands, so he held a grudge, and only later took advantage of the opportunity to retaliate.

However, in this case, Zhang Qian had gone too far.

To slander the reputation of someone's family members at will was too much. In that era, a woman's reputation was literally equivalent to her life.

Zhang Qian was a bit too vicious in doing so!

Campus Master Chapter 2193

It was too much to slander the reputation of someone's family members at will. In that era, a woman's reputation was practically equal to her life.

Zhang Qian was a bit too vicious to do so!

And with such a layer of enmity, it was understandable how the relationship between Little Uncle and Zhang Qian was, then.

Perhaps as they grew older, both sides had changed their mentality, and with the promotion of both sides to higher positions, they were no longer the impulsive and hot-blooded boys they were back then, but the grudge from back then was not always so easily resolved.

I am afraid that neither of them will feel too comfortable in their hearts when they think of what happened back then.

Moreover, if either of them is the kind of person who is cautious and vindictive, I am afraid that this grudge will continue long afterwards, even decades are possible!

"Now that Zhang Qian is in control of a department of State Security, this is not good news for us, and I even suspect that this time when Xiao Feng is being investigated, could it be Zhang Qian's idea!" Ji Zhenping said.

"I don't think so!"

Ji Zhenhua shook his head and said, "The Zhang family isn't the type to act overly aggressively, and Elder Zhang is still around, so if Zhang Qian did this, at least Elder Zhang wouldn't agree!"

Investigating Ji Feng, smearing that the technology of the Tengfei Group came from Dynasty, and even directly smearing that Ji Feng had a very close relationship with Dynasty all these actions were actually a war cry to the Ji family.

As the saying goes, cutting off people's wealth is like killing their parents. Although this is not too accurate at this moment, it does speak for itself.

Given the Zhang family's style, it was unlikely that they had done this, or at least they were not the mastermind.

When Ji Feng heard this he couldn't help but be a little puzzled as he asked, "Dad, it sounds like this Zhang Qian is of some origin, could it be that the Zhang family is also a family?"

He said, "If Zhang Qian was just a classmate, there was no way that the two of them would have fought so hard, after all, at that time, he was young and vigorous, although the old man was very strict, but when he was annoyed, he might have used the family's power to do something drastic.

However, according to my father, at that time, my younger uncle only found the people who spread the rumours in a fit of anger and sent them all to the hospital, and then said that he gave Zhang Qian a severe beating.

This meant that Little Uncle was only using his fists to get justice for his girlfriend at that time.

Ji Feng then felt that at that time, Little Uncle seemed a little too calm!

It didn't fit the kind of youthful exuberance that Little Uncle had at that time!

So the only possibility was that the Zhang family should also have some strength, and Zhang Qian likewise had a background.

As expected, I only heard my father say, "That's right! Master Zhang also came from the war era, only that when he joined the team, it was already late in the war"

Ji Feng instantly understood that the Zhang family was also considered a family, only that, Elder Zhang joined the team later and should have been younger than Grandpa, so he was considered a junior!

In that case, the Zhang family should also be considered a family, and a family with a certain amount of accumulation and sedimentation, although it was nowhere near the Ji family, but it wasn't something that anyone could just touch!

Hearing this, Ji Feng could understand why at that time, Little Uncle only moved his fist and did not take other measures – in fact, to put it bluntly, the situation at that time was just like the sons of various families nowadays, these gentry were fighting together and everyone was still careful to keep some bottom line.

That's why Little Uncle didn't use the family's power to move the Zhang family. In fact, if you think about it, no matter what Zhang Qian had done, Master Zhang had contributed to the country during the war years, and even if Little Uncle wanted to mess up, Master Zhang would not agree.

So Little Uncle simply used the most direct and effective method to severely beat Zhang Qian.

Ji Feng also understood why his father said that after the accident, the old man personally stepped in to 'appease' the Zhang family, and here was the reason.

"If you put it that way, Zhang Qian is also considered a son of a family." Ji Feng nodded thoughtfully and said, "Dad, then could it be that the Zhang family has joined forces with someone?"

"No matter what the reason is, as long as we walk the talk and do the right thing, we won't be afraid of those clowns jumping on the bandwagon, let alone any demons and monsters!" Ji Zhenhua didn't answer Ji Feng's question positively, but only said gently, "As long as you're fine, feel free to let others investigate!"

“Big brother, then we can’t just let them do whatever they want!”

Ji Zhenping immediately became anxious and said, “The possibility that Xiao Feng said doesn’t exist, that person Zhang Qian is vengeful and has an eye smaller than a needle, if he still holds a grudge for what happened back then, it’s not impossible for him to get involved in this matter now. If that’s the case, then they’ll definitely be looking for trouble with Little Feng again next!”

Ji Zhenhua glared at him and said, “Then how can you be sure that this must be Zhang Qian’s idea? Just because the two people investigating Little Feng are both Zhang Qian’s men? Could it be that Zhang Qian alone can command them?”

“Then we have to guard against that too!” Ji Zhenping said.

“You!”

Ji Zhenhua shook his head and said, “Past grudges are past, it has been so many years, you all should not always bear in mind, at that time you were all young and vigorous, it is understandable to be a bit frivolous, but now you are all shouldering heavy responsibilities, but you can no longer be like before, now your every word and action, every move, even your every Now every word you speak, every action you take, even every decision you make, has a lot to do with the future of many people, even life and death, so be steady!”

“..... I’m not being impulsive either, I’m just saying to find ways to be prepared, better to be prepared than unprepared!” Ji Zhenping said, but his voice was a little weak.

“This matter I know, you should do what you still do, if someone investigates, you should give cooperation, the rest do not worry!”

Ji Zhenhua said in a deep voice: “Little Feng, are you sure there’s nothing wrong on your side?”

Ji Feng immediately said, “There’s definitely no problem!”

“You still don’t know Xiao Feng’s situation, isn’t he just making a little achievement, what’s wrong with that?” Ji Zhenping said, “Look at those kids from other families, they are all in a mess, none of them have a clean bottom.

Ji Zhenhua then glared at him, then said to Ji Feng, “Little Feng, since there’s no problem on your side, there’s nothing to worry about, do your thing without worry!”

“Then can I return to Nan Yue?” Ji Feng asked, “I still have things to do over in Nan Yue.”

Right now, Nan Yue was alone in He Hongwei, his tussle with the Brilliant Group must be going on very fiercely, at this time Ji Feng had to rush over to help, otherwise, with the Wu family behind him, the Brilliant Group might not be afraid of He Hongwei!

“Of course you can, it’s not like they’re restricting your personal freedom!” Ji Zhenhua laughed.

“Hey!”

Ji Feng grinned.

Ji Zhenhua looked at his son's somewhat naive action, couldn't help but touch his head and said, "Little Feng, Dad knows that you still don't quite understand a lot of things and feel a bit confused, but you still need to figure out these things yourself, there are some truths that you can only understand, the more Dad talks to you, the more it will bother you instead, understand?"

Looking at his father, who already had slightly flamboyant hair at his temples, Ji Feng's heart warmed and he nodded, "Dad, I understand what you mean."

"Well!"

Ji Zhenhua nodded and said gratefully, "The good thing is that you have been growing and progressing, this makes me feel at ease, do whatever you want to do and go boldly, Dad is behind you!"

Even though he usually didn't spend much time with his father, and even when he did, his father didn't say much, Ji Feng could still see that strong expectation, as well as a look full of relief, in his father's eyes.

.....

Ji Zhenhua did not stay at home for much time, to his position, there is actually not much time left for himself.

Although the situation in South Guangdong was urgent, Ji Feng was not in too much of a hurry to get there, but stayed at home waiting for his mother to return and spent a good day with her before booking a ticket and preparing to fly to Yuezhou.

When Ji Feng was going to the airport, Xiang Yongzhan personally drove him.

"Older brother, I've probably understood what happened to you, this is a bit unfair to you!" Xiang Yongzhan said directly, "I also mentioned it to the top, but the top didn't take it on board, I'm sorry that I couldn't help!"

"What's there to be sorry about!" Ji Feng laughed, "It's good enough for you to say something for me, I'm grateful."

Now it is the State Security people who are investigating themselves, Xiang Yongzhan can stand up for what is right, this is already considered very righteous, Ji Feng is naturally very grateful, as for saying that the above did not adopt Xiang Yongzhan's opinion this matter even the little uncle has nothing good to do, if Xiang Yongzhan can solve the matter in a few words, that would be strange.

"No matter what, this matter I will pay attention to the end, if you have what need my help, also feel free to say straight, whether it is testimony or something else, as long as I can do it, there will certainly be no second thoughts!" Xiang Yongzhan said.

"Old Xiang, thanks a lot" Ji Feng patted his shoulder, it is said that the children of the world family are calculating, and there is no real friendship between each other, but old Xiang this person is still very good.

"OK, you just send it here, the front is the terminal, I'll go there myself"

Ji Feng's words had not yet finished, when he heard a piercing sound suddenly come from behind: "Woo woo~~ woo woo~~"

But it was the sound of a police siren coming, and immediately after that, they saw a police car suddenly overtake from the side, then crossed in front of their car at once and stopped.

"Bastard!"

Xiang Yongzhan cursed angrily and braked sharply, yet at this time, there were two police cars pressing up behind them as well, blocking their front and back roads.

Ji Feng instantly frowned

Campus Master Chapter 2194

"Fuck this shit!"

Xiang Yongzhan couldn't help but curse out in anger, extremely angry.

The police car had cut off their path just now, and the action was so sudden that if Xiang Yongzhan hadn't reacted sharply, he would have definitely crashed directly into it.

With the speed of the car just now, they would probably have been injured!

This made Xiang Yongzhan very annoyed, he was driving a car with a Yanjing Military Region number plate, even if there was any problem, he could communicate directly, instead of suddenly barging over like this.

"Boom!"

Xiang Yongzhan unbuckled his seat belt and got out of the car directly, his face grim as he stared at the police cars.

Ji Feng likewise got out of the car, his brows slightly furrowed as he turned to stare at the police cars behind him – with his and Xiang Yongzhan's strength and combat awareness, they would both subconsciously go on alert whenever they encountered the slightest situation, and since Xiang Yongzhan was staring at the front, he naturally guarded the back.

Soon, the people in that police car got down, three men in black suits came down from the front police car, while two police officers and a middle-aged man came down from the two police cars at the back.

"What do you want?!" Xiang Yongzhan asked in a deep voice.

"Who is Ji Feng?!"

A man in a police uniform bellowed, "Stand out and speak!"

Xiang Yongzhan instantly exchanged glances with Ji Feng, it seemed that these people were here to find Ji Feng!

Ji Feng's eyes narrowed slightly before he took two steps forward and said, "I am Ji Feng, who are you people?!"

Although these people came in a police car, Ji Feng could tell that they were not all policemen, because in front of that middle-aged man, those two policemen were obviously a bit restrained, so obviously that middle-aged man was the head here.

Ji Feng's gaze, glancing at the middle-aged man's body for a few moments, did not have this person in his memory, but looking at this person's stern eyes, serious face, and a cold aura on his body, it all showed that he was not an ordinary person.

—In fact, ordinary people would never dare to intercept them so directly, let alone rampage and intercept a military vehicle.

They couldn't even be considered intercepting, it was almost as if they were trying to arrest a prisoner!

"You're Ji Feng?" While Ji Feng was sizing up the other party, the middle-aged man was also sizing him up.

"Who are you?" Ji Feng asked in a deep voice, the other party's tone had a questioning feel to it, making Ji Feng a little uncomfortable.

"Perhaps you've heard of my name, my name is Zhang Qian!" The middle-aged man said slowly, "I think the elders in your family should have told you about me?"

Zhang Qian?

Ji Feng immediately frowned and his eyes narrowed slightly.

Even Xiang Yongzhan couldn't help but be slightly startled when he heard this name.

Zhang Qian's name might not be known to ordinary people, but as a son of a family, especially since Xiang Yongzhan was also in the military, how could he not have heard of it?

One of the giants of State Security, in control of a special department, in the words of some gossips, this was a man who walked in the darkness.

No matter who it was, no one wanted to be approached by them, or even want to have any semblance of involvement with them!

Of course, now with the gradual spread of the rule of law and the gradual transparency of some policies, the current State Security certainly doesn't have the kind of pre-emptive power similar to that of the Jingyiwei, but some of the impressions left by this special department are not so easy to change!

And now, this gang was looking for Ji Feng, and the person who came, was also the boss of this special department.

This made even Xiang Yongzhan have to be cautious.

However, Ji Feng was only slightly stunned, but he soon calmed down, although he didn't know what Zhang Qian wanted to do when he approached him, he thought his purpose was no different from Cao Yong and Zhao Anxiang.

So Ji Feng just nodded his head and said, "I have indeed heard of Director Zhang's great name."

“What you heard, I’m afraid, wasn’t anything good, right?” Zhang Qian asked.

“Heh!”

Ji Feng smiled, but did not answer, what he heard and who he heard it from, these he did not need to tell Zhang Qian, what’s more, there was still some conflict between the two of them, so there was even less need for him to accompany Zhang Qian in his small talk.

So Ji Feng said directly, “Director Zhang, you stopped me so suddenly just to talk to me about this?”

Zhang Qian shook his head and said, “Of course not, I know your time is valuable, but likewise your status is also very distinguished ah, if not so stop you, I’m afraid it’s very difficult to see you once

Ji Feng smiled indifferently, for Zhang Qian this kind of not Yin and Yang words, he directly pretended not to hear, and did not bother to refute.

The reason for this reaction is that Zhang Qian’s face became imperceptibly gloomy again, but he didn’t show it: “I stopped you because I want to talk to you about some issues, do you want to talk about them here, or do you want to come with me to a clean place?”

“Is this an executive order?” Ji Feng asked.

“No!” Zhang Qian shook his head.

“Then I’m under arrest?” Ji Feng asked again.

“Of course not, there are just a few questions I want to get clear from you, that’s all” Zhang Qian said, “Of course, you can also choose to refuse, that’s your right, if you refuse, you can leave now! ”

“Ji Feng

As soon as Zhang Qian’s words fell, Xiang Yongzhan couldn’t help but blush, he hurriedly touched Ji Feng’s arm next to him and whispered, “Think it over!”

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said, “I know what to do.”

Of course he understood Xiang Yongzhan’s meaning, Zhang Qian was setting a trap for him!

On the surface, it seemed that Zhang Qian was very polite and courteous, and with his status, he could still say very politely that he was just looking for Ji Feng to ask a few questions, and if Ji Feng did not agree, he could leave at any time.

But in fact, the key lay in Zhang Qian’s identity.

What kind of person was Zhang Qian?

In terms of age, he was of the same generation as Ji Feng’s father, and had even been classmates with Ji Zhenping. In terms of his status, Zhang Qian was even one of the giants of State Security. He was only directly responsible to the Director of the Central Office, and furthermore, he was only responsible to the Supreme Chief, and no one else had the authority to interfere with his work at all!

In his capacity, he personally rushed to the airport to ask Ji Feng a few questions, but Ji Feng ended up rejecting them outright. If this matter got out, what would others think of Ji Feng?

What would people think of Ji Feng if this got out?

The young and arrogant, do not know how high the sky is?

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

..... is afraid that anyone would think so, and if this matter reached the ears of some of the older generation, what image would Ji Feng have?

What's more, if you reject Zhang Qian in the street, it is undoubtedly the same as directly throwing him a slap in the face, which seems to be very cool, but Ji Feng did not forget, in Zhang Qian's back, standing but the Central Office, and the back of the Central Office

The actual fact is that if you don't get it right, it may even have consequences.

You should know that many things are not as simple as you might think.

The actual fact is that the actual people of the world are not really a lot of people.

How could they sit idly by and do nothing?

This is just like, if say Master Ji was denied face, then how could those of his old men, such as Master Tang and Tiejun, be comfortable in their hearts?

..... If Zhang Qian was just an ordinary staff member of State Security, then Ji Feng would have no problem even if he ignored him, but Zhang Qian's status is that of one of the giants of State Security.

Therefore, Ji Feng had to be cautious.

"It seems like you're not very happy about it, it's okay, you can choose not to agree"

"Where to talk?" Ji Feng directly interrupted Zhang Qian's words and asked indifferently, "I'm afraid this is not the place to talk, do you want to go to the car to talk, or find some other quiet place?"

"....."

Zhang Qian couldn't help but choke slightly at once, his eyes clouded for a moment, then he smiled faintly again, "It's better to find a quiet place."

Ji Feng nodded and said, "I remember there is a good cafe around here, we can go there."

After saying that, Ji Feng directly pulled open the car door and sat inside.

Zhang Qian's eyes couldn't help but be gloomy for a few more moments, he didn't expect that Ji Feng would actually answer so simply, without even any pause, and he didn't know if it was because this kid was stupid and bold, or if he really realized something!

But Zhang Qian didn't say anything in the end, he just waved his hand and told the police car to give way to Ji Feng, then, under Ji Feng's leadership, they went to a cafe near the airport, asked for a quieter seat and sat down.

Since Xiang Yongzhan was an outsider and not in a position to get involved, he could only give Ji Feng a wink and then sat down on a seat farther away, while the few seats around them were occupied by the two policemen and a few people in suits, who should all be Zhang Qian's men.

"Commissioner Zhang, if you have anything to say, just say it directly." As soon as he sat down, Ji Feng said directly, his tone was very flat, neither showing politeness nor much indifference, as if he was just speaking to a stranger.

"Since that's the case, then let's get started!"

Zhang Qian, as if he did not see Ji Feng's attitude, just said, "Actually, I'm only looking for you today to verify a few issues Of course, it's not really anything new, our staff should have already verified with you before, but their tone or their working methods might have been a bit inappropriate, so it gave you the wrong idea"

"Mm!"

Ji Feng nodded noncommittally.

Zhang Qian then paused for a moment, this kind of attitude of Ji Feng really made people uninterested to talk to him, but he had to say it, which was a bit helpless.

Campus Master Chapter 2195

"In fact, regarding the rise of the Tengfei Group and the source of that laser gun you handed in, there was an investigation done within State Security, and for that reason, it even alerted the International Affairs Department"

Zhang Qian settled down and said, "Of course, strictly speaking, this investigation was not about the rapid development and growth of the Tengfei Group, but because of the technologies that the Tengfei Group has mastered! You should understand that the few technologies held by the Tengfei Group are too solid!"

Ji Feng smiled faintly and said, "I understand what Director Zhang means, the technologies that the Tengfei Group holds are too advanced at least in one area!"

The technology held by the Tengfei Group was indeed too solid, which Ji Feng also admitted, and Zhang Qian was right.

In fact, Kang Yuan slimming powder is secondary, because this kind of weight loss product is really too ubiquitous in the market, so even if the slimming powder is particularly surprisingly effective, it will at most only attract some people's attention, and will not make the state security all intervene.

I am afraid that it is the special effects current and the technology contained in the 3D television set that will attract the most attention from the State Security.

The 3D television set contains an illusory three-dimensional light screen technology that is so advanced that if people who have not seen it before saw it at first glance, they would even think it was the technology from the future world of science fiction movies that had suddenly appeared in reality!

..... is, in fact, also true.

And that is precisely why these two technologies look so solid and give the State Security an excuse to step in.

“It’s good that you can understand that!”

Hearing Ji Feng understand things so well, Zhang Qian nodded slightly, very satisfied, “Tengfei Group’s technology is so eye-catching, and some of the technology itself is very sensitive, plus the appearance of that laser gun, it has to make people have some associations. Besides, right now, someone has reported it again, so we have to investigate, and please understand!”

“Someone reported it?”

Ji Feng’s eyebrows immediately frowned slightly, he immediately caught the sensitive information in Zhang Qian’s words, this time State Security intervened to investigate the Tengfei Group because someone reported it?

Zhang Qian however said, “So, now we start?”

“Wait a minute!”

Ji Feng put up his hand and said, “I can understand Director Zhang’s intention and your explanation, but other than that, I have a small doubt!”

Zhang Qian said, “What doubt, you say.”

“Heh

Ji Feng smiled faintly and asked, “The technology of the Tengfei Group is very advanced, and it is on these advanced technologies that the group has developed and grown, but what makes you guys assume that these technologies are from Dynasty, and even suspect that I have close ties with Dynasty?”

Zhang Qian said in a deep voice: “I have already said that it was someone who reported

“Then

Ji Feng smiled, an odd smile on his face, “If someone reported that I have ties with aliens and am the spokesperson of aliens on Earth, with the aim of infiltrating the human race and always preparing to invade the planet are you also going to investigate which aliens I am working with? ”

Zhang Qian’s face became a little less than pleasant: “That’s your query?”

Ji Feng nodded his head slightly and said, “That’s right!”

Zhang Qian said, “Alright, there’s no point in arguing about intentions!”

Ji Feng smiled and didn’t say anything more, some things don’t require you to say one word without giving in, as far as the current situation was concerned, he and Zhang Qian were not actually on equal footing, so he just needed to surface his attitude, and didn’t need to argue with Zhang Qian excessively.

When he saw that Ji Feng was no longer speaking, Zhang Qian said, “We will now begin our formal questioning – the first question, Ji Feng, where exactly did the technology of the Tengfei Group come from?”

“There!”

Ji Feng reached out and pointed to the ceiling, “Outer space!”

Zhang Qian’s face instantly sank: “Ji Feng, you should understand that this matter must be investigated to find out the truth, if you are still so uncooperative

“I’m telling the truth, since you guys don’t believe it forget it!” Ji Feng shook his head, “Well, if I have to answer, I still have my original answer, any of the technology of the Tengfei Group is drilled out by our technical team, it has nothing to do with any other organization or individual, not even half of it!”

Zhang Qian nodded his head and said, “Very well. The second question, what is your relationship with Dynasty?”

Ji Feng glanced at him and asked, “What is my relationship with Dynasty that you would not know?”

Dynasty was operating rampantly in China, and even many people of considerable status had joined Dynasty, and what’s more, some companies were controlled by Dynasty.

And in the last two years, Ji Feng and Xiang Yongzhan together had cracked down on Dynasty many times, and the two of them had even joined forces to directly wipe out Dynasty’s forces in Southern Guangdong almost in one go!

Zhang Qian’s department was specifically responsible for domestic intelligence, so could he not know about these situations?

Therefore, for this question from Zhang Qian, Ji Feng was disgusted.

Zhang Qian, however, said indifferently, “Answer positively.”

“Strictly speaking, it’s considered a hostile relationship!” Ji Feng said indifferently, “Of course, if a hostile relationship is also a relationship according to some people’s view, perhaps in their view, this is evidence that I have an intimate relationship with the dynasty!”

“The next question” Zhang Qian directly ignored the second half of Ji Feng’s sentence, how could he not hear the sarcasm in these words?

But just as Ji Feng was unwilling to argue with Zhang Qian, Zhang Qian was likewise unwilling to engage in a verbal argument with Ji Feng, to the point that if it wasn’t necessary, Zhang Qian wouldn’t even be willing to make this trip!

So next, these two asked one question and answered the other, their tone was flat, their words indifferent, and this atmosphere was not even as good as two complete strangers chatting.

“I’ve finished asking my questions, thanks for your cooperation, that’s all for today.” Finally, Zhang Qian stood up and said indifferently.

“You’re welcome!”

Ji Feng said noncommittally.

“.....”

Zhang Qian didn't answer, instead, he told his men to pack up their things and was ready to leave, but at that moment, only a bang was heard and the door to the room was pushed open at once.

Ji Feng and the others immediately turned their heads to look, but they saw that Ji Zhenping actually walked in with big strides, and ignored the waiter who came up to welcome them, but walked directly to Ji Feng's seat in front of them and sneered, "Zhang Qian, I see that you don't have any face at all, you are the Director of the State Security, and you came to make things difficult for a child?!"

Zhang Qian's face instantly sank like water, not to mention that he had been gagged by Ji Feng's salty look before, but now in front of so many people, he was directly scolded by Ji Zhenping as shameless, how could he not be annoyed?

"Ji Zhenping, pay attention to your status!" Zhang Qian said in a low voice.

"Of course I know what my status is, but it's you who hasn't realised what your status is, right?" Ji Zhenping stared coldly at Zhang Qian and said, "Zhang Qian, I hope you better know what you're doing!"

"The State Security people are doing something, what do you want to do when you barge in so rashly?" Zhang Qian asked in a deep voice.

"Humph! A villain is a villain!"

Ji Zhenping shook his head and laughed coldly, "You really haven't changed after all these years, what else do you know how to do besides setting traps for people and secretly undermining them?"

There was a trap in Zhang Qian's words, and although Ji Zhenping was a soldier with a straightforward personality, he was not a fool, so he naturally heard it immediately.

"That's all you have, you're really a dog that can't change its ways!" Ji Zhenping scolded unceremoniously.

"Ji Zhenping!"

Zhang Qian immediately roared low with a gloomy face.

But Ji Zhenping sneered, "What, you want to play, right? Then I'll accompany you!"

Zhang Qian stared deadly at Ji Zhenping, the cold light in his eyes flashing, not hiding his anger and hostility, while Ji Zhenping was tit-for-tat with him, not letting go in the slightest.

"..... Let's go!"

In the end, Zhang Qian chose to back down, but before he left, he gave Ji Zhenping a deep glance and said in a cold voice: "Ji Zhenping, sometimes it's bad luck to be too arrogant!"

Ji Zhenping sneered, "That's not for you to worry about! But I would like to advise you, if you think about counting others all day long, one day you will lift a stone and smash your own feet!"

"Humph!"

Zhang Qian coldly snorted and turned to walk away, brushing past Ji Zhenping.

With a cold smile on his face, Ji Zhenping didn't even look at Zhang Qian, he just said to Ji Feng, "You kid, you're really too honest, there are some people you can be polite to, but there are some people that you don't even have to shake him off!"

As soon as his words left his mouth, Zhang Qian's figure paused for a moment, but did not turn back, but left the cafe with big steps.

While Xiang Yongzhan, who was not far away, could not help but grin when he heard these words.

In Yanjing, I'm afraid that the only person who dared to speak to Zhang Qian like that was Ji Zhenping!

"Pa!"

Xiang Yongzhan stood up and saluted, saying loudly, "Good day, Chief!"

Ji Zhenping looked at him and nodded, "Well, you're not bad, do a good job and don't disgrace your father!"

"Yes!" Xiang Yongzhan shouted in response.

"Alright, this isn't in the barracks, no need to be so polite!" Ji Zhenping waved his hand and said, "Let's go, Xiao Feng just take my car and go back!"

Xiang Yongzhan immediately nodded, he knew that Ji Zhenping did not want him to get involved in this matter, this was a kind of protection for him, after all, no one wanted to get involved with the State Security, that would not be good!

After Xiang Yongzhan left, Ji Zhenping and Ji Feng also left the cafe.

"What did Zhang Qian talk to you about?" On the way to the airport, Ji Zhenping couldn't help but ask.

"Nothing, the same old questions." Ji Feng shook his head and said, "However, I feel a bit strange, this person is somewhat hostile towards me, but he doesn't seem to be very enthusiastic about convicting me"

When he first met Zhang Qian, Ji Feng was indeed wary, in fact he was still wary until the end when Zhang Qian left.

However, while being wary he also realized that something didn't seem quite right

Campus Master Chapter 2196

When he first met Zhang Qian, Ji Feng was indeed very wary, in fact he was still wary until the end when Zhang Qian left.

However, while being wary he also realized that something didn't seem quite right

"What do you mean?" Ji Zhenping asked.

"I think that Zhang Qian may not be playing a major role in this matter" Ji Feng deliberated, "It's as if he's not determined to get a confession from me!"

"Humph!"

Ji Zhenping suddenly snorted coldly, "You think he still has any good intentions? Even if this matter wasn't Zhang Qian's mastermind, he definitely wants to see our family's bad luck in his heart!"

Ji Feng nodded and said, "That's true."

It was true that Zhang Qian did have hostility towards him, which Ji Feng could naturally see, and in fact, Zhang Qian did not try to hide this hostility, as his tone was somewhat impulsive from the first words he said to Ji Feng as soon as he stepped out of the car.

But other than that, Zhang Qian did not act in an overly aggressive manner.

Especially when it came to the investigation of the Tengfei Group and Ji Feng, Zhang Qian did not even have the slightest intention to get angry, but only asked a few questions in a routine manner, during which he only asked Ji Feng to cooperate and answer the questions honestly, but nothing else.

Even, he didn't even care what Ji Feng answered, as long as Ji Feng answered his questions, the matter was considered to be over.

This situation was obviously very wrong.

"Little Uncle, I think it's important to be on guard against Zhang Qian there, but you can't put all your eyes on him!" Ji Feng deliberated, "I'm afraid that the mastermind of this matter is someone else!"

"Tell us what you think!" Ji Feng's words caught Ji Zhenping's attention.

Although he had a grudge against Zhang Qian, Ji Zhenping was not a hot-blooded and impulsive youngster, he certainly understood that he should think about the whole picture.

"I can't say exactly, it's just a feeling" Ji Feng mused.

Today Zhang Qian's actions were very wrong, especially during the questioning process, Zhang Qian was completely routine, even as if he was doing a task.

How can I put it

There was absolutely no point in him subjectively wanting to get a confession from Ji Feng!

If Zhang Qian wanted to take this opportunity to get on Ji Feng's bad side, or to make some kind of small move, then he could have completely induced a confession from Ji Feng, or he didn't have to come and question Ji Feng directly at all, but to investigate privately and secretly, or even to take some of the scientific researchers and executives of the Tengfei Group and take certain measures to investigate them.

If you want to get any useful information from those people's mouths, it is much easier than getting it from Ji Feng!

If it was Ji Feng instead, then he would definitely do the same.

The reason is that with his status, whether or not he is really connected to the dynasty, if you want to move him, you have to have tangible evidence and be thoughtful.

In this regard, Zhang Qian's approach is undoubtedly a bit strange.

The fact that he was able to sit in the position of a special department boss, he must have a lot of experience in handling cases. How could he not know that asking Ji Feng in such a blatant manner would not only fail to achieve anything, but might also make Ji Feng wary enough?

That's why Ji Feng felt that things were odd.

After listening to Ji Feng's analysis, Ji Zhenping pondered for a moment before saying, "What you say also makes sense, but it is still unclear how the situation is going to be. Your father is right, no matter what others do, as long as we don't have a ghost in our own hearts, then there is no problem!"

After a pause, he added: "Let's wait and see what happens in this matter, it's the other side that wants to start something now, so they will definitely do something, we just have to wait for the other side to jump out!"

Ji Feng nodded, it was indeed true, now it was obvious that the other side was in the dark and they were in the light, so whatever they did would be seen by the other side, instead it was better to do nothing and just wait for the other side to jump out.

As long as they can stay calm, then the other side will definitely be anxious!

"You don't have to worry too much about this side of things, your dad will definitely not sit back and do nothing, it's no big deal to involve State Security, just put down your baggage and do your thing at ease!" Ji Zhenping patted Ji Feng's shoulder.

"I know!"

Ji Feng nodded, he hadn't been too worried about it, only that the fact that it involved State Security gave him a feeling of being tied up in a lot of issues, which is why he was a bit squirmy.

Of course there was a more important point – if he really had to look into it strictly, he really had no way to explain the origin of those advanced technologies of the Tengfei Group.

Apart from the Kang Yuan slimming powder, which he had guided Kang Yuan to 'develop' step by step, the special effects electricity and 3D television sets were all his creation, and the group's research and development team had actually only made some improvements and research on top of that.

For example, they control the packaging of the product or the cost of production, but the real core technology is still in the hands of Ji Feng.

If the State Security really wants to seriously trace it, Ji Feng can only say that he invented all these technologies!

But I'm afraid that nine out of ten people won't believe it when it's said, even though it's true.

In that case, even if he denied it, I'm afraid some people would really think that there was some kind of special connection between him and Dynasty!

This was also one of the areas where Ji Feng was most distressed.

Even though they knew that for a while, State Security would definitely not look deeper into it to such an extent, it was always a problem, and something had to be done about it!

“Ding

As he was thinking, Ji Feng’s phone suddenly rang, he casually took out his phone and glanced at it, finding that it was Yi Xingchen calling, he immediately picked up the phone, “Old Yi, what’s up?”

“Boss, the call went through!”

As soon as Ji Feng’s words fell, Yi Xingchen’s somewhat high voice came over the phone.

Ji Feng was stunned: “The phone call got through?”

But in the next moment, Ji Feng reacted abruptly, and he was instantly delighted in his heart as he hurriedly asked, “You mean, the phone call I asked you to make, it got through?”

Originally, Ji Feng’s mind was still thinking about the matter of State Security, and when Yi Xingchen suddenly called, he didn’t react for a moment.

But soon, he realised what Yi Xingchen was talking about.

— Yi Xingchen was saying that the number that Suo San had provided to contact Qiao Rong had been called by Yi Xingchen!

Because Xiang Yongzhan had said that someone wanted to see him and it sounded a bit urgent, Ji Feng had only temporarily explained to Yi Xingchen to keep calling, but he hadn’t expected that the call would go through so quickly!

“That’s right!”

Yi Xingchen’s voice was also excited as he quickly said, “Just ten minutes ago, after I contacted Wang Xin, then I started dialing that number originally I thought it would be another day of wasted work, but I didn’t expect that on the third call, the call was suddenly connected! !”

Ji Feng immediately asked, “Can you be sure it’s her voice?”

The phone number was used by Suo San to contact Qiao Rong before he was arrested, and it’s been more than 20 days since then, so no one can guarantee if Qiao Rong is still using this number.

If this number was not being used by Qiao Rong, there was no point in calling it, so it was especially important to make sure that the person on the other end of the line was not Qiao Rong!

“This

Yi Xingchen’s voice was suddenly hesitant as he laughed bitterly, “Boss, I can just hear that the person answering the phone is a woman and has a sharp voice, but to say if it’s her, I’m not sure, because I don’t recognize her voice!”

Ji Feng tapped his head, “That’s true, it seems that I was too anxious!”

It was naturally hard to hear a person’s voice just on the phone, unless it was someone more familiar, but Yi Xingchen had barely dealt with Qiao Rong, so he naturally had no idea whether the person who answered the phone was Qiao Rong or not.

“Boss, although I can’t be sure if it’s her voice, however, Wang Xin seems to have made a new discovery!” Yi Xingchen said.

“Oh?”

Ji Feng asked at once, “What discovery?”

Yi Xingchen said, “I can’t say exactly, it seems to involve something professional, now Wang Xin is on the line, it’s better to let her tell you!”

“..... Boss!”

Soon, Wang Xin’s voice came through.

Ji Feng immediately said, “Wang Xin, you’ve worked hard, I heard Old Yi say that you’ve made a new discovery, right?”

“Yes, boss, now although we can’t be sure if the person using the phone is the target we are searching for, but one thing is for sure, this number the other party is using, the number of calls is not very many, and there are only a few signal towers used!”

Wang Xin said, “I have monitored the range of this number’s previous activities, and it is now certain that the person who is currently using this number is still within this range that I have circled, and the distance is not too far!”

Ji Feng asked, “This means that in addition to being able to track the person who is currently using this number through this number, you can also determine the activity pattern of the user of this number?”

“Pretty much so.” Wang Xin said.

“Then can be sure that the current user is the same person as before?” Ji Feng asked.

“It’s not possible to be sure yet, but what is certain is that even if the same person is not using the number before and after, the two people must not be far apart, and at least one of them we can trace!” Wang Xin said with great certainty.

“That’s good enough!”

Ji Feng nodded heavily, in fact he also knew that he was asking for a bit too much, even if Wang Xin was as good as he was, it was impossible to identify who was using the phone just by the signal, it was almost impossible.

“Actually it’s not completely out of the question!”

Campus Master Chapter 2197

“That’s good enough!”

Ji Feng nodded heavily, in fact, he also knew that he was asking a bit too much, even if Wang Xin was as powerful as she was, it was impossible to identify who was using the phone just by the signal, it was almost impossible.

“Actually,....., it’s not completely impossible!” Perhaps sensing the hint of disappointment in Ji Feng’s words, he could not help but speak hesitantly.

“What solution?” Ji Feng immediately asked.

“Right now I can track the person who is currently using the phone, if I can find a way to make him or her answer the phone outdoors, I can use the HD camera of the monitoring satellite to capture the image of this person, so that we can tell if it is the target we are looking for or not!” Wang Xin said.

“This way

Ji Feng’s brow couldn’t help but furrow as he carefully deliberated.

Wang Xin could already trace the person who was currently using this number, in which case, he only needed to determine his location and he could be arrested directly, but if he wanted the other party to answer the phone outdoors, this could be somewhat difficult, because he absolutely could not alert the other party before that, in which case, how could he make the other party appear outdoors?

“Let me think about it first!” Ji Feng said, “Wang Xin, you first give the phone to Lao Yi!”

“Boss, I’m here!” Yi Xingchen’s voice came over.

Ji Feng immediately said, “Old Yi, tell me in detail how you spoke to the other party, don’t leave out any details.”

“Mm!”

Yi Xingchen said, “Because I was worried about the other party being alerted, I didn’t have any regularity when I called, I would dial whenever I thought of it, today the other party finally answered the phone, it was a woman who answered the phone, but the tone was particularly impulsive, I pretended to be a debt collector and said some threatening words, I didn’t expect the other party’s tone to be even more impulsive than mine, said a long list of words, and finally said that it was a wrong number, then hung up. and then hung up the phone.”

Ji Feng asked, “Then, when you were on the phone, did you hear any background sounds from the other party, for example, was there any sound of a car or anything else?”

If there was the sound of a car on the phone, then it meant that the other party was picking up outdoors, most likely on the side of the road, or driving. And if there was any other sound with certain characteristics, it was likewise possible to tell where the other party was when they answered the phone.

But Yi Xingchen was the one who said, “It’s very quiet over there, and there’s no sound other than the other party’s voice.”

Ji Feng asked, “Then did the other party have the sound of walking, or the gasping sound they made while walking?”

“Neither, it was very quiet over there, or maybe I didn’t listen carefully, I didn’t hear any sound at all anyway.” Yi Xingchen said, “It was as if, the other party was in a very quiet place and was sitting there making the call

Suddenly, Yi Xingchen's voice rose a few notches, "I remember, that woman's voice was sharp, but it seemed a little bit like she was lacking in mid-air!"

"Oh?"

Ji Feng's eyes lit up, "Think carefully again, are there any other characteristics other than that?"

"..... doesn't seem to have any." Yi Xingchen said.

"Well"

Ji Feng nodded thoughtfully and asked again, "By the way, where is the range of the signal Wang Xin is tracking?"

Yi Xingchen said, "In a neighborhood in Yanjing, probably within the range of a certain two buildings."

Ji Feng said, "You send an enlarged map to my email, remember to mark it in some detail."

"Yes!"

Yi Xingchen said.

Ji Feng deliberated carefully for a moment more and said, "That's it for now then, you guys take a rest first, when I've thought about it, it's time to act next."

After closing the line, Ji Feng couldn't help but say, "Little Uncle, turn around, let's not go to South Guangdong for now."

Ji Zhenping asked, "What, what's wrong? Is it someone you're looking for?"

Although he couldn't hear what was on the phone, he could naturally surmise a rough idea from Ji Feng's words.

Ji Feng nodded his head and said, "Hmm. We might have found Qiao Rong, we're just not sure if it's her or not yet, we still need further confirmation"

"What?!"

Ji Zhenping was immediately surprised and asked, "You found Qiao Rong? How did you find her?"

Ji Feng said, "Using telephone tracing"

He told the general story of what had happened.

Ji Zhenping was immediately surprised and said, "Good boy, you guys are flexible enough to come up with such a trick, really three stinkers are better than Zhuge Liang"

Ji Feng and the others actually thought of impersonating a debtor, deliberately pretending to be a debt collector and calling Qiao Rong, this kind of rogue method, I'm afraid only they could think of it.

"Right"

Ji Feng suddenly had a movement in his heart and said, "Little Uncle, now there is a problem that I need your help with."

“What kind of problem?” Ji Zhenping asked.

“Find a way to get the other party to come outdoors to answer the phone!” Ji Feng said, “At the moment, we can only be sure that the number is still in use, but there is no way to determine whether the user is still Qiao Rong. My people plan to use satellite monitoring, but only if the other party comes outdoors.”

“And then what?” Ji Zhenping asked.

“I can’t think of any way to get the other party to come outdoors without alerting them, so I can only ask you for help.” Ji Feng said.

“Come outdoors,” Ji Zhenping listened and couldn’t help but frown, “This is indeed a difficult problem, but isn’t your method too rigid, since this path won’t work, then why not change it? ”

“You mean sending people to monitor?” Ji Feng asked.

Ji Zhenping nodded and said, “There are many similar methods! Since we can already determine roughly which buildings they are in, we can send someone to monitor them, or if we can’t, we can just take the photos and squat, and as soon as the target comes out, we can get confirmation.”

Ji Feng asked, “But what if the other party never comes out? If it’s really Qiao Rong, then she must be incredibly vigilant and careful, and there must be someone to meet her, or, if it’s not Qiao Rong, and we squat for ten days and half a month, only to find out that the target is wrong, by then I’m afraid she won’t even know where she’s escaped to.”

“In the end, you’re still inexperienced!” Ji Zhenping shook his head and said, “It may be a little difficult to get the other party to come out and answer the phone, but it couldn’t be easier to get them to come out.”

“Oh?”

Ji Feng immediately pursued, “What are the methods to do that?”

“There are just too many ways.”

Ji Zhenping said, “Just do some small action, it can be done, kid, learn it,”

Ji Feng was stunned.

.....

As night fell, Yanjing’s bustling nightlife was only just beginning.

Ji Feng and Ji Zhenping were standing on the balcony of a house, both of them with a telescope hanging on their chests.

At the same time, in one of Ji Feng’s ears, he was carrying a miniature headset.

Raising his hand to look at the time, Ji Feng picked up the headset and said, “Old Yi, let’s start.”

“Yes!”

Yi Xingchen's voice came over the phone, followed by the sound of dialing, the phone went through, but no one answered.

"Beep beep beep"

A few moments later, a busy tone came from the phone.

All this was clearly heard by Ji Feng, and he said in a deep voice: "Old Yi, dial again!"

"Yes!"

Yi Xingchen dialed the number again.

But a few times in a row, either the other party simply hung up or simply no one answered, until a busy tone came from the phone, then Yi Xingchen hung up.

"Come again!"

.....

"Come again!"

.....

"Again!"

The phone kept getting hung up, but Ji Feng was not anxious at all, but repeated it over and over again very calmly, he never lacked patience, especially when it came to doing important things.

Yi Xingchen dialed once more and then waited patiently.

"Buzz~!"

Suddenly, a subtle sound came, and Ji Feng's eyes instantly narrowed, it was the sound of his phone vibrating.

Yi Xingchen's spirit likewise lifted as the call was answered!

"Grandson, you're finally willing to answer grandpa's call, I'm telling you, don't just find a random fucking woman to answer the phone and think you can fool around, grandpa isn't that easy to fool!"

As soon as he noticed that he was on the phone, Yi Xingchen didn't care if the other party spoke or not, he came up with a long list: "I'm telling you, it's only right to pay back what you owe, you think you can get away with it? Don't forget you still have your family, they can't run away"

"Shut up!"

Suddenly, a sharp voice came from the other end of the phone, it was a woman's voice, but it seemed very angry: "I told you, you have the wrong number, there is no one you are looking for here, call again and I will call the police"

"I'm so scared yo~!"

Yi Xingchen sneered, "It's not like grandpa hasn't been in the bureau before, so what's the fear? I advise you to let that guy answer the phone, or else don't blame me for poisoning his family, I'll break his mother's leg, believe it or not?"

"....."

There was no echo on the other end of the phone, only the sound of slightly ragged breathing, as if the other party was frightened by Yi Xing Chen.

Yi Xingchen was such a resourceful person, he instantly laughed: "You know you're scared now, right? I tell you, if you don't pay back the money, it will be too late for you to be scared by then"

"Bastard! Shut up!"

The woman on the other end of the phone was furious: "If you dare to call again, I'll destroy you!"

After saying that, she hung up the phone with a snap.

Hearing this, Ji Feng couldn't help but reveal a smile as he asked into the headset, "Wang Xin, did you find out?"

"Found out, it's still the same location, just less than two kilometres west of you" Wang Xin's voice also came from the headset.

"Very good!"

The smile on Ji Feng's face got even wider as he turned his head to Ji Zhenping and said, "Little Uncle, the other side hasn't changed its position, so it's up to you to confirm what to do next."

"You just learn it well!" Ji Zhenping laughed.

Ji Feng smiled and nodded, looking in the direction of a cell in the distance, a cold light flickering in his eyes, Qiao Rong, let's see how you can escape this time!

He could hear it, that voice just now – it was Qiao Rong's!

Campus Master Chapter 2198

"Just learn from it!" Ji Zhenping laughed.

Ji Feng smiled and nodded, looking in the direction of a cell in the distance, a cold glint in his eyes, Qiao Rong, let's see how you can escape this time!

He could hear that voice just now – it was Qiao Rong's!

In fact, as soon as the phone was connected and the other party's voice came through, Ji Feng could immediately tell that the woman's voice was no other than Qiao Rong's!

There was no doubt about it!

Ji Feng had dealt with Qiao Rong not once or twice, so how could he forget Qiao Rong's voice?

What's more, as his level of fitness training continued to deepen, Ji Feng's own perception had also become sharper, and as long as it was a voice he had heard, he would definitely not forget it.

So he could be absolutely sure that that voice was Qiao Rong's!

Of course, compared to before, at this moment Qiao Rong's voice was obviously a lot sharper, and even had some weakness in it, just like what Yi Xingchen had said, it was a sign of lack of mid-air, yet he didn't know whether Qiao Rong was weak because her heart was exhausted from all the time she had been running away, or because the injuries on her body hadn't completely healed.

In Ji Feng's mind, it should be the first one that was a bit more likely.

Because although the injuries on Qiao Rong's body were serious, it might not be that difficult for the dynasty to heal Qiao Rong, and since Qiao Rong could transfer an expert like Suo San from the dynasty, it would obviously not be a problem to have the dynasty help her heal the injuries on her body.

—But then, Ji Feng couldn't help but have another question: since Qiao Rong had the conditions to treat her injuries at any time, why was she still in a wheelchair?

According to the girl who took care of Qiao Rong, the reason why Qiao Rong wanted her to take care of her was because Qiao Rong was crippled in both legs and could not take care of herself.

When I thought about it, I couldn't help but feel a little contradictory before and after this.

“Could there be some problem in between?” Ji Feng was secretly puzzled, but after pondering for a while, he could not think of anything and could only leave it for now.

Now was not the time to think about this, catching Qiao Rong first was the most important thing.

No matter what, being able to confirm that the person who answered the phone was Qiao Rong was still extremely exciting for Ji Feng, which meant that Qiao Rong was in that neighbourhood in their sight and hadn't escaped too far!

As long as they could catch Qiao Rong, they should be able to learn something from her, especially a lot of secrets about the dynasty!

More importantly, as long as Qiao Rong was captured, for Ji Feng, it would be like having one less time bomb.

This woman Qiao Rong was too ruthless, one could even say she was a bit crazy, no one knew what she could actually do. Last time she could send someone to assassinate herself, the other day she knew if she would just send someone to assassinate her family next time if her brain got hot?

This was absolutely intolerable for Ji Feng, so he had to catch Qiao Rong no matter what!

This was why even though Ji Feng knew very well that the game between He Hongwei and the Brilliant Group over in Southern Guangdong had reached its most intense, as soon as he heard that Qiao Rong's phone call had come through, he immediately turned around and came back again.

This showed how seriously he took this matter!

“Little Uncle, what do you plan to do?” Ji Feng turned his head and asked.

“The mountain man has his own brilliant plan!” Ji Zhenping laughed and patted Ji Feng's shoulder, smiling, “Just take your time and watch!”

Ji Feng could only shake his head helplessly, “Then I’ll wait and see!”

He was curious as to what method Little Uncle would use to make Qiao Rong walk out of the building.

You know, Qiao Rong was in a wheelchair, trying to make her walk out would be practically impossible!

.....

“Pop~pop~pop”

“Boom!”

As the TV screen kept jumping, after changing several channels in a row, the remote control was suddenly thrown onto the coffee table.

Qiao Rong’s face was cold, her chest was heaving violently, and her eyes were almost spitting fire – all these signs showed that she was not in a good mood at the moment, and could even be said to be in a very bad mood.

In fact, for some time now, Qiao Rong had been in a very bad mood.

Especially in these last few days, Qiao Rong had become even more irritable.

She had been a noblewoman, who was always being complimented and embraced wherever she went, and even when she was injured, she was patiently waited on and had servants to call on.

The sharp contrast between the two has made Qiao Rong extremely agitated, holding an evil fire in her heart, and she wants to tear down the building!

“Bastard”

Qiao Rong cursed shrilly, not knowing who she was cursing.

Just then, there was a sudden scream from downstairs, “Ah-”

Immediately after that, there was a panicked shouting, accompanied by a burst of screams and the sound of hurried footsteps.

“There’s a fire! There’s a fire!”

“Run quickly!”

“Hurry up and call the police, there’s a fire”

Qiao Rong was instantly shocked, she sat up from the sofa with a jerk, then hurriedly pulled over the wheelchair next to her and sat on it with both hands, she pushed the wheelchair herself and hurried to the balcony, what she saw immediately stunned her.

Looking down from the balcony, she saw smoke billowing from somewhere downstairs, and in just a few moments, it had reached her, making her choke uncomfortably.

A fire?

Qiao Rong’s face turned pale and she cursed, “Damn!”

But she didn't have time to think about it and hurriedly retreated from the balcony, a look of astonishment on her face, but she didn't leave in the first place.

"This is"

On a distant balcony, Ji Feng was also a bit stunned, "Little Uncle, you set fire to it?"

Ji Feng would not be naive enough to think that the fire in that neighborhood was just a coincidence, and it was obvious that it was probably arranged by the younger uncle.

But

In order to force Qiao Rong out, it is directly fire in the residential building, is this not some

"You can understand it as setting fires!"

Ji Zhenping laughed, "But strictly speaking, it's just the smoke that was set."

"Smoke?"

Ji Feng was slightly stunned, and then asked, "Is it smoke bombs?"

Ji Zhenping laughed, "Of course not, Qiao Rong is not that ignorant, if a smoke bomb was put out, she would definitely be able to detect it, what I had someone put out was a special kind of smoke making stuff, this kind of smoke is no different from the smoke produced when following a fire, at least ordinary people would definitely not be able to distinguish it!"

"Special equipment?" Ji Feng asked.

"That's right!"

Ji Zhenping nodded and smiled, "Gadgets like this are plentiful in the special forces."

Special forces would often carry out some very difficult missions, so it was necessary to have all sorts of tools and skills, and this kind of gadget that released smoke was one of those tools.

"But what if the residents in the district call the police?" Ji Feng asked, "Now they've obviously taken it seriously!"

"Don't worry, the police have made arrangements there too, there won't be any problems!" Ji Zhenping smiled, "Some other possibilities have also been taken into account, now our people are already in the building and will also prevent the stampede to the maximum, In short, everything is arranged, just be patient and wait!"

Ji Feng was then relieved: "That's good!"

"You can rest assured!"

Ji Zhenping smiled and patted Ji Feng's shoulder, said: "Although it is said that the army is also a violent organ, but there is still a big difference with the dynasty, the dynasty is to achieve the goal by any means, whether there are casualties of ordinary people, they do not care, but for the army, while carrying out the task, to protect the safety of the people, but also must be carried out! "

“This is the biggest difference between a country and a dynasty!” Ji Zhenping said.

“Well!”

Ji Feng nodded his head, these words of his little uncle could be said to have fundamentally stated the fundamental difference between the violent organs of the state, and dynasties!

Although it was said that there were black sheep among the violent organs, and there were quite a few of them, the purpose of the violent organs was still to protect the people as much as possible while maintaining the rule of the state, because the people were the cornerstone of the state, without the people, there would be no state!

But for the dynasties, it’s almost the equivalent of a terrorist organisation in general, they don’t give a damn about the ordinary people!

“That’s why, as long as the country isn’t rotten to the core, it will still have the support of the people, while organizations like the dynasty are shouted down by almost everyone!” Ji Feng lamented, “In fact, although the common people are naive and pure, their eyes are also shining, they know what is good for them and what is bad

“So it’s not really just because they infiltrate the country’s economy or want to seize power to crack down on dynasties, there’s more to it than that!” Ji Zhenping said.

Ji Feng nodded heavily.

“Woo woo woo woo~~”

Suddenly, there was a sound of sirens in the distance, and Ji Feng immediately looked over with his binoculars, but saw two police cars driving ahead, followed by a few fire trucks, and were whistling.

“Little uncle, how do they

“It’s all arranged, just watch at ease!” Ji Zhenping said, “Only after they arrive will the people ambushed in the building have a legitimate reason to act.”

Ji Feng nodded in relief, so that was the case.

.....

“Damn it! Damn it

In the building, Qiao Rong’s body twisted from time to time, her expression agitated, and a stern look flashed in her eyes from time to time.

There was actually a fire!

This sudden accident made Qiao Rong extremely upset, of course she didn’t want to just be burned to death in the room for nothing, even if it didn’t burn to death

She turned her head to look at the balcony where smoke was coming in from time to time, she could be choked to death just by choking like this!

“Looks like we can’t stay here” Qiao Rong mused anxiously, “Gotta get out!”

Randomly, she then made to push her wheelchair to leave, but as soon as her hand rested on the wheel, she suddenly paused, "Could someone have found out that I was here and made such a scene?"

Campus Master Chapter 2199

"Looks like we can't stay here!" Qiao Rong mused anxiously, "We need to leave!"

Randomly, she then made to push her wheelchair to leave, but as soon as her hand rested on the wheel, she suddenly paused, "Could someone have found out that I'm here and made such a scene?"

Come to think of it, yet it wasn't out of the question.

For example, if someone had found some clue that she was hiding in this neighborhood, but didn't know exactly which building she was hiding in, so they deliberately set fire to it, so that once she went out in a hurry, she would definitely be caught by the other party's minions It wasn't impossible!

Thinking about the ruthlessness of Ji Feng and the beasts of the Ji family, Qiao Rong felt that it wasn't that they couldn't do such a thing!

As for whether other innocent people would be implicated along with the fire or be burnt to death in the blaze, Qiao Rong didn't even consider it, and she likewise didn't think about what kind of responsibility the Ji family would bear afterwards if the fire was really set by Ji Feng and the Ji family's people, even if she was caught!

There is such a kind of people in this world, when they think about problems, they never judge others by themselves, using their own thinking and character to position others, they are ruthless people, so they think that everyone in the world is more ruthless than themselves

There is no doubt that Qiao Rong is such a person!

But coincidentally, Qiao Rong's speculation with full malice was to a certain extent close to the truth. The fire downstairs was indeed set by Ji Zhenping, but what she did not expect was that the fire was not real at all, but just something that was used to produce smoke.

Moreover, in the two buildings that were affected, Ji Zhenping had arranged manpower beforehand to prevent any possible stampede that might happen, and also had observation points underneath the cell, as well as high places all around, to prevent people from suddenly panicking because of the incident and thus jumping straight down from the upper floors

The actual fact is that someone has found out that she is hiding here and is now trying to force her to come out!

It was also because Qiao Rong was alert enough to guess this possibility that her original intention to go downstairs to the wide open ground as soon as possible, like the others, was put off again.

"If this fire was really set on purpose, then if she went out now, wouldn't she be completely exposed?" Qiao Rong said darkly.

But

If she didn't go down, what could she do?

At this moment, Qiao Rong was anxious beyond measure, even though she was alert enough and had thought of almost every possibility, but in the end, she still had no good solution.

What could a crippled person like her do?

Qiao Rong was almost manic!

She grabbed the wheel with both hands and kept grinding it back and forth, and her body was twisting and twisting as if it was on fire under her buttocks, so it was clear how anxious and annoyed she was in her heart.

“No matter what, we can’t just go out like this!” Qiao Rong gritted her teeth and muttered to herself.

“It seems that I can only use that method again” As she spoke, Qiao Rong looked down at her legs, hatred grew again in her eyes, her teeth clenched: “Ji Feng, damned little beast, you deserve to go to hell! ”

.....

The ‘fire’ got bigger and bigger.

Those two buildings in the district had been completely surrounded by smoke, and the rolling smoke was still rising, so that one could tell at a glance that it was definitely on fire, and that the fire was not generally large.

By this time, police and fire fighters were evacuating the residents of the building.

A large number of fire fighters, wearing masks, rushed into the building, more important than putting out the fire, to get all the residents in the building out.

“Little Uncle, will there be any chaos in such a mess?” Seeing these situations from a distant balcony, Ji Feng couldn’t help but frown and asked, “With such a mess, in case there is any chaos, there might be a large number of people injured ah”

“Don’t worry, those two buildings are not high, just small high-rise, and people have already been arranged inside!” Ji Zhenping laughed.

“That also has quite a few occupants ah!” Ji Feng frowned, “Maybe there are people inside here who are impatient, or usually too stressed, and now when they look at such a big smoke, they might break down in their hearts and jump straight off the balcony”

“There are not many people inside the building!” Ji Zhenping said, “There will definitely not be any problems!”

“Eh?”

Ji Feng was slightly stunned, he keenly perceived the meaning of his younger uncle’s words and asked, “There aren’t many people inside the building, what does that mean?”

Ji Zhenping hummed, “You kid, you think I haven’t considered all these issues you’re worried about? This kind of operation that involves a large number of ordinary people and may even have a great impact, you think it’s that easy to be approved, huh?”

Seeing Ji Feng's thoughtful expression, Ji Zhenping said, "Before the operation, it was carefully projected and arranged, put it this way, a large portion of the residents in those two buildings were basically lured away for various reasons, or they weren't in the buildings, or weren't in the neighborhood at all... .."

"Lured away?" Ji Feng was stunned and asked, "Lured away how?"

"To give you an example, I think there will definitely be a lot more fights and brawls in Yanjing today, and the protagonists of many of these incidents are the residents of these two buildings! So they'll just have to be invited to the police station" Ji Zhenping said, "Got it now?"

"So that's how it is!"

Ji Feng suddenly understood: "Deliberately arranging for people to have conflicts with those residents for various reasons, then being invited to the police station and then informing the families?"

"Not just this method, there are many more ways to arrange" told you, no need to worry at all, there might be some accidents during the operation, but there will definitely not be any major problems!" Ji Zhenping said.

"That's good, that's good!" Ji Feng nodded his head repeatedly.

Only now did he understand sort of completely put his heart down, it seems that the military is truly experienced in operations, I'm afraid they have long ago worked out a set of strategies and routines for operations, in what kind of environment, what methods to use, how to cooperate between various departments, how to arrange

This is not really a problem for the special forces, I'm afraid!

That's good!

What Ji Feng was originally most worried about, was that Little Uncle and the other commanders were not well thought out, or that there was any negligence on the part of the operatives, resulting in casualties among the people, and if that was the case, then Ji Feng would rather not have found Qiao Rong's trail!

Now that this was the case, that was naturally the best.

"See, but all the people who stayed at home have basically been evacuated out!" Ji Zhenping pointed to the two buildings that were 'on fire' and said, "In order not to alert Qiao Rong, so not all of the people in those two buildings were drawn away, there was still a portion that came back after work, they should all have left by now" "

Ji Feng nodded slightly, he could completely understand.

Now the weather is hot, before this, the people in this community once after work will certainly all move, either out for a walk, take a cool ride, or do something else, if Qiao Rong lives here, then she must be able to hear these sounds every day.

If all the people in the two buildings had been led away, no one would have returned by the end of the day, and Qiao Rong would have been alerted when she couldn't hear the familiar sound of movement.

From this point of view, Little Uncle and the others had indeed thought it through well enough and had a certain degree of grasp of human psychology.

“There doesn’t seem to be any Qiao Rong ah” Ji Feng took the binoculars and observed carefully, “Little Uncle, all these people who evacuated out, we have to strictly line up all of them before we can do it!”

“That’s for sure!”

Ji Zhenping said, “Especially the disabled, as well as some people with mobility problems, those on crutches, those in wheelchairs, will all be carefully ranked”

Qiao Rong is doing wheelchair, they all know that this kind of target is more obvious, Qiao Rong even if she wants to disguise, at most, she can only hold a cane, and then better, she can’t do it as well as she can, otherwise she wouldn’t have the need to be in a wheelchair.

Ji Feng nodded slightly and took the binoculars to observe carefully.

The panic at the bottom continued, with shouts, yells and shrill whistles ringing out from time to time, from the cries of people ‘escaping’ from the building in tears of joy, to the sounds of fire fighters blowing their whistles to evacuate people

Groups of people ran out of the stairway, with police officers in front of them and behind them, respectively, to maintain order.

Because there was thick smoke obscuring them, Ji Feng could not see clearly every person running out of the building, nor could he be sure if Qiao Rong was among them.

However, when Ji Feng saw that all those people who had escaped were gathered together, with police officers watching around them and some people on the periphery, he was relieved. Obviously, Little Uncle had also anticipated this situation and had therefore sent people to keep an eye on the periphery long ago.

If Qiao Rong really mixed in with those people, it was fine if she didn’t run, as long as she thought of sneaking away, she would definitely attract attention.

Just like that, in the blink of an eye, half an hour had passed and there was basically no more people running out of the building, at this time, Ji Zhenping also received a report from the bottom: “Chief, all the people in the residential building have been evacuated”

“Finished evacuating?”

Ji Zhenping frowned at his words and asked, “Can you be sure?”

The subordinate replied, “Yes! We are evacuating one by one.”

Ji Zhenping frowned and said, “What have you found?”

“Report, Chief, nothing has been found!” The subordinate reported.

“Nothing found?!” Ji Zhenping’s frown immediately tightened as he exchanged a glance with Ji Feng, how was this possible?

“Then is there anyone in a wheelchair, or on crutches?” Ji Zhenping asked again.

“Neither.”

“No?!”

Ji Zhenping’s face froze, “Can you be sure there’s no one inside the building?”

“We’ve searched twice and are currently sweeping for a third time, but so far, we haven’t found any suspicious targets!”

“How is this possible”

Campus Master Chapter 2200

“How is this possible?”

Ji Zhenping couldn’t help but be stunned, his brow furrowed, the report from below surprised him, and he was also a bit puzzled, since the technical department under Ji Feng had confirmed that the target or simply Qiao Rong, must be in one of those two buildings, they just couldn’t be sure exactly which one it was in!

They made careful arrangements and first conducted a secret investigation of the occupants of those two buildings, checking everyone’s files carefully, although they found no useful information, but all the occupants of the two residential buildings were screened once.

So, some of those who were clearly not suspicious were led away by accidents or skirmishes that could be arranged.

Then they made a thorough plan, and even ambushed people in the building in advance, and even specially arranged for police and fire fighters but it didn’t occur to them that Qiao Rong was not found in the end!

“Check again! Check one house at a time!” Ji Zhenping said in a deep voice: “See if there are any of those that have no one at home, you guys listen carefully outside the door and see if there is any movement!”

“Yes!”

“And”

Ji Zhenping added, “To take the detector!”

“Yes!”

“Step up your game, be careful when checking, the target this time is very cunning and malicious, so be careful of your own safety when you are on the move, remember?” Ji Zhenping admonished.

“Yes, Chief!”

After the arrangement was made, Ji Zhenping’s face was not relaxed, his brow was still slightly furrowed as he turned his head and said, “Little Feng, just now I received a report that Qiao Rong was not found in those two residential buildings!”

Naturally, Ji Feng had also heard Ji Zhenping giving the order, he frowned and said, "Could Qiao Rong have figured out our plan, so she deliberately hid in her house and didn't come out?"

"That's also a possibility, so just now I asked the group of boys to search again, and also use the detectors, as long as there's someone in the house, they will definitely be found!" Ji Zhenping said.

"Well!"

Ji Feng nodded thoughtfully and said, "Little Uncle, I'm going to go to the scene and take a look, maybe I'll find something unexpected."

Ji Zhenping frowned and said, "What if you go over there now, what if someone recognises you? There might be Qiao Rong's accomplices at the scene, and there might even be people from Dynasty. If the other party recognizes you, it doesn't matter if they will alert Qiao Rong, but if they take advantage of the chaos to attack you again, or if they directly fire a cold shot at you at that time, it's impossible to defend against it!"

Ji Feng laughed, "My luck is not that bad, right? Besides, I'll just stay away and take a look, I won't get too close!"

"..... Then let's do this, let's go down together!" The last incident had just passed not long ago, if something happened to Ji Feng now, and it was under his nose, then he really couldn't explain it to his big brother.

Ji Feng nodded his head and said, "Alright."

Afterwards, they packed up their equipment, and together with Ji Zhenping's guards, they took a car to the entrance of the cell where Qiao Rong was – because there was a fire in this cell, a cordon had been put up at the entrance, forbidding any more vehicles from outside to prevent blocking traffic and so on.

Therefore, Ji Feng and the others parked their car some distance away from the entrance, and then the three of them together with their equipment quickly arrived at an upper floor of a building near the fire building and entered one of the homes.

"This is one of the monitoring points!" Ji Zhenping explained.

"Hello Chief!"

"Chief!"

Seeing Ji Zhenping enter, the few young men in plain clothes who were originally in the room could not help but salute one after another.

Ji Zhenping, however, just waved his hand and said, "Any findings?"

"Report chief, everything is normal, there is nothing special found!" A young man said.

"Have you found anyone with distinctive features?" Ji Zhenping asked, "For example, people in wheelchairs, on crutches, or people with an obviously unnatural walking posture?"

"No!"

“Got it, keep monitoring.” Ji Zhenping nodded his head.

Ji Feng, however, came to the balcony while Ji Zhenping was learning about the situation with the young man, and where he was now, he was at most 50 or 60 meters away from the ‘on fire’ building, so even without binoculars, he could see it clearly.

“Tick tock

A prompting sound suddenly came from the headset, and immediately afterwards, Ji Feng heard someone report, “Report chief, we rechecked again, no target was found, and no one was left in the residential building!”

“Can you be sure?” Ji Zhenping asked, “Did you check every house?”

“Yes, checked them all, including the lifts and the hallways, no sign of anyone moving around!”

“..... check again!” Ji Zhenping said in a deep voice.

“Yes!”

“How could there be no” Ji Zhenping frowned in contemplation, then he looked at Ji Feng, “Little Feng, can you be sure that Qiao Rong is at

Only then did Ji Zhenping realize that the balcony was surprisingly empty, and Ji Feng, who was originally standing on the balcony, was nowhere to be found.

“Where did the person who came with me just now go?” Ji Zhenping immediately asked.

“Chief, that gentleman just now went out.” A young man said.

“Nonsense!”

Ji Zhenping instantly sank his face, “This kid really ran out alone

“Yes!”

The two warriors put down the work in their hands and hurriedly followed them out, but when they got out the door they found that Ji Feng had surprisingly disappeared long ago, not knowing where he had gone at all.

The two warriors looked at each other and immediately had a tacit understanding that one took the stairs and the other took the lift to quickly go downstairs, Ji Feng had just gone for a moment, he must not have gone far, so he might still be able to catch up.

.....

“How can a good fire?”

“That is, what bad luck, I haven’t eaten my dinner yet!”

“What’s this, my valuable things are at home, didn’t I have time to pack them? It’s good enough for people to run out!”

“Yes, yes, yes.”

.....

Under the residential building where the ‘fire’ had broken out, people gathered around and talked.

They were all isolated in a circle by the police, but no one cared at the moment, as the police explained to them that this was to establish the list of people, to prevent anyone from taking advantage of the opportunity to do anything illegal, and also, to prevent anyone from still staying upstairs.

The people all understood this, and the police would not harm them anyway.

However, there was one figure in the group that was slowly moving into the shadows, not standing under the streetlights like the others.

This figure was a little thin, so it did not stand out in the confusion of the crowd, and no one noticed.

Perhaps realising that no one had noticed him, the figure gradually picked up speed and crept under a green tree, avoiding the two policemen, and then, under the cover of the night, soon left the circle formed by the policemen and ducked into the crowd of spectators.

When they arrived, even less people noticed this person. When there was a fire in the neighbourhood, the residents of the other buildings naturally came down to see what all the fuss was about; this is the nature of the Chinese people, so it was normal for some people to come and go, back and forth.

Therefore, when the figure left quietly, it did not attract anyone’s attention.

Soon, this figure arrived at the fence of the neighbourhood, she looked back at the noisy and noisy place and could not help but sneer, “Humph!”

And then the figure began to climb up the fence. Because the neighbourhood was well policed and patrolled by security guards twenty-four hours a day, the fence was not very high, just to separate it from the outside world, so the figure climbed over it easily.

“You’re very agile!”

Just then, a voice suddenly came from not far away, causing this figure, who was about to leave, to suddenly freeze for a moment, before almost jumping up like a frightened rabbit.

Swish!

This figure turned around with a jerk, and a shocked look appeared on his face: “You are you?!”

Only to see that under the street lamp not far ahead, a man was holding his arms and leaning against the street lamp post, staring at himself with a mocking smile on his face.

“Didn’t expect it to be me?”

Ji Feng held his arms and laughed meaningfully, “It seems my appearance has frightened you, I’m really sorry But then again, I’m also surprised, I didn’t expect a woman who is almost half a hundred years old to still be so nimble and climb over the fence so simply, it’s really impressive! That’s amazing!”

He smiled slightly: “Qiao Rong, what you did just now was not like a person in a wheelchair!”

Qiao Rong!

The skinny figure who had quietly left the crowd and then climbed over the fence was none other than Qiao Rong, the one Ji Feng and the others had been hunting for!

But unexpectedly, they actually saw her here, which really made Ji Feng a little surprised.

“You

Qiao Rong’s face was a little ugly, especially the moment she saw Ji Feng, her eyes even carried a look of fear, “How did you get here?! What happened today, did you guys arrange this?!”

Ji Feng asked rhetorically, “What do you think?”

Qiao Rong finally understood that her guess was right, eight`nine out of ten of today’s events were arranged by this little brute Ji Feng, otherwise, how could he appear here by such a coincidence? There is no such coincidence in this world!

“When did you find out about me?” Qiao Rong asked through clenched teeth.

“Just a moment ago!” Ji Feng smiled, “I was planning to blend in with the crowd to see what was going on, but instead, I saw someone actually sneaking away, so I followed them over, but I didn’t expect that it would be you!”

Speaking of this, he couldn’t help but shake his head, “Originally I was wondering how on earth a person who was supposed to be in a wheelchair managed to escape from the tunnel. And to run so fast that those well-trained warriors didn’t even catch up with
