“Saved the old man?!”

Ji Feng was immediately stunned, “In that case, this old man Yang is really quite a big deal!”

The old man, just how high the prestige in China was, that really didn’t need to be said.

And this Yang family’s old man had actually saved the old man, so one could imagine what kind of weight he actually occupied.

Of course, perhaps the old man wouldn’t let him act unscrupulously just because he had saved his life, but no matter what, the old man would always take into account the kindness of saving his life.

As it turned out, the old man was not an impersonal person, and even cared a lot about family and friendship.

Perhaps, Master Yang would not be arrogant and lawless just because he had once saved the old man, but even if he kept a low profile to the extent that he stayed at home all day and closed his door to guests, others would definitely not really ignore him.

What’s more, since this old man Yang once came from the army, that meant he had other underpinnings.

Ji Shaodong said, “Isn’t it! And speaking of which, this Elder Yang’s deeds are quite legendary, I heard that he seemed to have fought with Elder Tie and had a certain prestige in the military. The only thing is, this old man insisted on retiring from his important position later on for some unknown reason, and returned to his hometown of Qihe City in Jibei Province to take care of himself.”

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows and said, “Oh?”

The Tie Lao that Ji Shaodong spoke of was the former personal guard beside the old master, Tie Long, who was also an expert in martial arts and had followed the old master almost all his life, being considered a brother in life and death by the old master.

The children of the Ji family also treated Tie Long as a relative of their grandfather’s generation, whether it was the three brothers of Ji Zhenhua or the people from the side line, they all respected Tie Long.

I didn’t think that that Elder Yang had actually fought with Elder Tie, which was a bit out of Ji Feng’s expectation.

“Big brother, why did they cross paths, was it a hostile relationship, or something else?” Ji Feng couldn’t help but ask.

“It seems like it was just a sparring match.” Ji Shaodong said, “I also just once heard my little uncle mention it once, that was when it was Tie Lao’s 60th birthday, the scene was very lively at that time, so my little uncle talked about what happened back then in passing.”

Ji Feng slowly nodded his head and asked, “Then who won?”

Ji Shaodong said, "I don't know, Little Uncle just said that Tie Lao was very powerful and was very famous at that time, even Master Yang came to challenge him, but didn't say anything about the result, after all, the two old men were very old, no matter who lost or won, it wasn't really that important."

"That's true."

Ji Feng nodded, the result of winning or losing was not important, and it was not good to say it in public.

However, according to Ji Feng's estimation, since Little Uncle took the initiative to bring this up, and it was also on Tie Lao's birthday, it meant that this time it was definitely Tie Lao who won, it was just that Elder Yang was also prestigious after all, and besides, he was also considered an older generation, so Little Uncle was leaving room for manoeuvre when he spoke.

"Then why didn't Elder Yang stay in Yanjing?" Ji Feng asked.

Ji Shaodong said, "I don't know what happened, I think it was so chaotic at that time, I'm afraid there are some reasons in between that are not enough for outsiders to understand."

Ji Feng then slowly nodded his head, this matter is indeed not very good to say.

In fact, the situation was so chaotic at that time, there were too many things that could not be explained clearly, and even the old man was almost unable to protect himself at that time, wasn't he?

And then there was the old man, and many other fathers, who were also implicated in the turmoil.

So what happened at that time is really not easy to say in a few words now, and besides, even those who experienced that turmoil may not be able to say it clearly, let alone Ji Shaodong.

"However, although Master Yang had retired, he had a kung fu body in place and had also been in battle, someone who had really seen blood, so at that time his son stepped up and served in the military."

Ji Shaodao said, "Because his son also received his true teachings, most of the Yang family's sons have served in some instructor-type positions over the past few decades. As of now, the Chief Instructor of the Armed Police is a member of the Yang family, and is the third son of Elder Yang. And the Chief Instructor of the Armed Police in Jibei Province is likewise a son of the Yang family."

Ji Feng marvelled, "That's amazing!"

If that was the case, then it could truly be said that the Yang family had disciples all over the world, and there was no telling how many people were students of the Yang family.

I'm afraid that many departments like the police and so on will have these people, so the influence of the Yang family is really not to be underestimated!

Ji Shaodong said, "Yes, honestly speaking, the Yang family's influence is still not small."

Ji Feng said, "Then big brother you mean to say that those murderers last night were actually probably all soldiers, or armed police?"

Ji Shaodong said, "I can't rule out this possibility, but I'm not sure, but from what you said, the only thing I can think of is this Jibei Yang family, the rest, I don't know."

Ji Feng then nodded thoughtfully, after a pause, he suddenly asked again, "Big brother, then how is this Yang family's relationship with our beloved?"

Ji Shaodong laughed: "The two sides are not from the same system, so there is no relationship to talk about, right?"

Ji Feng then understood, he nodded and said, "Hmm, I understand."

"Third child, if it really involves the Yang family, then I advise you to be more cautious, after all, the prestige of Elder Yang is there, when the time comes that there is really any conflict, perhaps the involvement will not be small." Ji Shaodong reminded.

"I know."

Ji Feng nodded, "I'm just saving people, if Yang Bin is really the kind of person who is unforgivable or has committed some kind of crime, then I have nothing to say, otherwise, I am not willing to watch him being killed, such an expert, just being killed like this is too undeserved."

Ji Shaodao said, "Then you should also pay attention to the way, this matter should be left to the police, if the person you say is being hunted is really innocent, the police will not do anything to him, but if he has a reason to be hunted, you can be a bit offended by rashly intervening."

Ji Feng couldn't help but frown and said, "Even if Yang Bin is guilty, or if he deserves to die, but those people don't have the power to kill at will, do they? Well, even if they have that power, then why should they not even spare the security guards at the entrance of the district?"

If it was just chasing and killing Yang Bin, perhaps Ji Feng wouldn't have been moved, after all, he had seen a lot of fighting and killing. However, while chasing and killing Yang Bin, those people actually shot at two security guards who didn't even know what was going on, and even one look at the wounds on those two security guards told him that they were directly strafed, and Ji Feng couldn't help but be furious.

The security guards' lives are not lives anymore?

Ji Shaodong said, "There's still this going on?"

Ji Feng said, "That's right! That's why I decided to take care of this matter, and what's more, I had my eye on Yang Bin's skills, so I want to find out about this matter!"

Ji Shaodong was silent, and after a moment, he said, "Then what are you going to do?"

Ji Feng said, "I want to see who is so arrogant. Of course, for the time being, I won't directly get involved in this matter, I'll just see what the police find out first, after all, I only want to save Yang Bin, not to be a hero, but if some people handle things unfairly, I will definitely take care of it!"

"If you have any difficulties, give me a call in time!" Ji Shaodong said.

Ji Feng then smiled, "Good!"

After ending the call with his big brother, Li Ruonan immediately asked, "Ji Feng, the call you took just now, was it about those suspects?!"

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Not really, my big brother told me some news, but I can't be sure yet."

Li Ruonan said, "Then tell us about the situation, it might be helpful to us in investigating the case."

Ji Feng, however, just shook his head and smiled, saying, "Right now I'm not sure, when I get concrete information, I will definitely tell you."

Li Ruonan then bristled, "What's the big deal, if you don't say anything, I can still find out!"

Ji Feng then smiled and asked, "Hey, the cooperation with the military, do you still want my help?"

"What do you say?!" Li Ruonan gave him a blank look, this guy was really asking knowingly, he had to say it himself before he could do it.

"Then talk to me once you have asked for instructions from your leaders, I will help you contact the military at that time." Ji Feng said.

"Wait for me here for a moment, I'll go and ask for instructions now." Li Ruonan said.

"Knock, knock, knock!"

Suddenly, a knock sounded on the door, and Li Ruonan casually said, "Please come in."

The door to the office was pushed open and a young man walked in and said, "Captain Li, Bureau Gao wants you to go to his office."

Li Ruonan nodded and said, "Okay, I'll go there now."

Seeing this, Ji Feng intended to offer his farewell, but Li Ruonan said, "Ji Feng, you wait here first, just as I go over to ask for instructions from Director Gao, if Director Gao agrees, you may be needed later."

"Alright."

Ji Feng nodded his head.

Director Gao was a middle-aged man of about fifty, with a slim figure and slightly sunken eyes, at first glance no one would have thought that this would be a police officer, and a deputy director of the Jiangzhou Municipal Bureau who had been doing this all his life.

When Li Ruonan arrived at Director Gao's office, he was reading a document.

When he saw Li Ruonan enter, a smile appeared on Director Gao's face and he said, "Ruonan, you haven't rested since last night, have you?"

Li Ruonan nodded and said, "I just took over a case and couldn't sleep even though I didn't have a clue."

Chief Gao then said, "You, although you are a police officer, but after all, you are a girl, your body is the most important thing, how about this, I have seen all your efforts recently, so I will allow you to take a few days off, you go back to rest first, don't work too hard."

Li Ruonan's face changed slightly at once!

Campus Master Chapter 2342

“Let me take a holiday?”

Li Ruonan was a bit stunned and said, “Bureau Gao, I know you are concerned about me, but I just took over a case here, how can I take a holiday, I want to finish the case at hand before I take a break.”

I want to finish the case at hand before I take a break.” Bureau Gao then shook his head and smiled, saying, “You, I knew you would have this attitude, but Ruo Nan, there is no way to finish the case, and this society is not going to be common in a day. But we’re not machines, we can’t never rest, can we?”

“But

Li Ruonan still wanted to say something, Gao Bureau then waved his hand and said, “Okay, it’s settled, you go back to rest for two days first, the case you have on hand, I will let someone replace you, when you come back from your leave, then devote yourself to work, so that the efficiency of work can also be higher!”

“..... Okay.” Li Ruonan nodded her head.

“That’s right!” Gao Bureau smiled: “Two days ago, Mayor Li also asked about your work, and he was very heartbroken to learn that you were working so hard, so take advantage of the two days off to spend time with your family while resting, it’s not easy for us to be police officers, and we all owe something to our families, so try to make up for it when you can.”

Li Ruonan said, “Thank you for your concern, Bureau Gao.”

“Go on!”

Bureau Gao then said with a smile, “I’ll arrange for someone to take over your job here, so you can rest in peace.”

Li Ruonan nodded and said, “I’ll go back first then.”

She had just taken over a case and had to go on leave, which was somewhat uncomfortable for her, as leave was not what she wanted.

After all, this case is not a small case, a gang of people armed with automatic weapons, recklessly chasing a person in the city, this is tantamount to ignoring the existence of the police, rampant to the extreme, Li Ruonan originally intended to investigate this case to the bottom of the water, she wanted to see what kind of people are so heartless, to kill innocent security guards so freely.

I don’t know what the difference was between killing those two guards and killing a chicken in the eyes of those people!

What’s more, this matter also involved Ji Feng. Li Ruo Nan had no intention in her heart to let someone else take over the case, in fact, she was vaguely looking forward to it, she was willing to work with Ji Feng – in fact, it was rare for the two of them to work together.

However, she did not expect that Bureau Gao would actually let her take a leave of absence at this time. She wanted to refuse, but it happened that Bureau Gao had brought out her family, so she could not refuse any further and could only nod her head and agree.

When she thought about it, it was indeed time to spend some time with her mother. Her father was busy at work and often worked late into the night before coming home, one of her two brothers had a family of his own, while the other one was not doing his job all day and often did not come home, so her mother was indeed a bit lonely at home alone.

Therefore, thinking about this, Li Ruonan also agreed to take a two-day break.

But in fact Li Ruonan is not aware that after she left the office of the high bureau, the high bureau is slowly relieved: "This girl fortunately she agreed to take a holiday, otherwise there is really some trouble"

When Ji Feng saw Li Ruonan, he noticed that she looked a little off, and couldn't help but ask with a smile, "What, got criticized by the leader?"

Li Ruonan glared at him and said, "You're the one who's been criticized! I've always worked hard and conscientiously, why would the leader criticize me?!"

Ji Feng looked at her fierce look and couldn't help but laugh and asked, "If you're not being criticized, then why do you look like you're preoccupied?"

Li Ruonan said, "The leader asked me to take a holiday."

"Vacation?" Ji Feng couldn't help but be a little surprised at his words and asked, "When is the holiday?"

"Just now, I guess someone will come to take over the case in my hands soon." Li Ruonan said, "My father is also really, nothing why always ask with the leader about my situation ah, home must say he can not, make my work so passive"

"What, Mayor Li heart you are still wrong?" The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on a lot of things.

Li Ruonan said, "But the problem is that I don't want to take a holiday right now, but the Gao Bureau insists that I take a holiday is really annoying."

"Huh!"

Seeing Li Ruonan's rare little daughter-like distressed look, Ji Feng couldn't help but chuckle and said, "It's good to rest for two days, you can go home and mull over the aerobics and try to get the moves right."

Li Ruonan said, "If I can't figure it out, you can come and point me out when the time comes."

Ji Feng coughed lightly and said, "Alright, since you're on holiday, then I won't bother you here, we'll be in touch when you come back from holiday."

"Coward!"

Li Ruonan couldn't help but make a sarcastic remark, her voice wasn't loud, but it was loud enough for Ji Feng to hear.

However, Ji Feng smiled and waved his hand to Li Ruonan as if he was deaf to it, and then left her office, leaving the latter alone in the office to gnash his teeth.

However, after walking out of Li Ruo Nan's office, the smile on Ji Feng's face soon disappeared and was replaced by a touch of doubt and a bit of thoughtfulness.

Li Ruo Nan's leave of absence came too suddenly!

The first thing you should do is to take a few days off.

"Maybe I'm overthinking it." Ji Feng secretly said.

"Tick tock"

Just at this time, Ji Feng heard a text message alert from his mobile phone, he took out his phone and took a look, but it was a feedback message from the bank, the money had been received by the other party and the transfer was successful.

A cold smile then flashed across Ji Feng's face, it seems that those two shameless things are about to get carried away!

.....

"Two million!"

Chen Chao looked at the string of numbers on the bank card, his face was full of excitement, even though it was not the first time he had done such a thing, he was still excited and could hardly contain himself.

Two million, this was the first time he had ever received such a huge sum of money!

But soon, the excitement on his face became a little lighter, because he thought that a large part of the two million was going to be paid to Lu Xinfu, and he himself would only get 300,000 that's two million, and he only got less than 20% of it!

The actual fact is that you can't be able to see such a huge amount of money being taken away by someone else and not do anything about it, so if you just take your salary, it would take Chen Chao twenty years to earn it even if he didn't eat or drink.

But now the vast majority of it had to go to Lv Xinfu, and in this whole process, he, Chen Chao, was the one who worked hard, while Lv Xinfu only moved his lips!

Chen Chao's heart was a little unbalanced, he really did not want to transfer so much money to Lu Xinfu, even if the latter was his own uncle, he really did not want to.

However, Chen Chao could not stop fighting, otherwise, Lu Xinfu would definitely not spare him.

Worried and reluctant, Chen Chao was so torn that he dragged on for a day before he finally made up his mind.

"Just wait, I'll definitely take the big one later!"

Chen Chao secretly gritted his teeth.

He personally went to Lu Xinfu's office, then transferred the money to a secret bank card of Lu Xinfu through online transfer, when he saw that the money in the card was a full million dollars less all of a sudden, it was really dripping blood in his heart!

"Boom!"

The door to the office was suddenly kicked open, and both Lu Xinfu and Chen Chao were startled at the same time, however, when they saw clearly who came, they were so scared that their faces turned pale.

The ones who came were a few policemen in police uniforms!

"Arrest them!"

The policeman in the lead shouted, and the other policemen then quickly stepped forward and controlled Chen Chao and the two of them before they could react, and even directly put on handcuffs.

Chen Chao was so frightened that his legs went weak and he didn't dare to resist, but Lu Xinfu was a veteran, and he shouted while struggling, "What are you doing? Who let you in, I am the leader of the United University, who are you to arrest me?!"

"Lu Xinfu! Chen Chao! You are suspected of extortion and blackmail, the evidence is overwhelming, what else do you have to say!" The policeman in charge bellowed.

"What extortion, I don't know what you're talking about!" Lu Xinfu struggled angrily, "I am a dang member and the leader of the United University, you have no right to arrest me!"

"United University has a leader like you, that's really a shame for the whole school!" Just then, an angry shout suddenly came, but an old man with white hair walked in slowly, but this old man's face was with a strong look of anger.

"Old, old headmaster?!"

Lu Xinfu was slightly stunned, and then he was shocked, "Old Headmaster, what are you talking about, where did I do wrong"

However, before he could finish his words, he was interrupted by the old headmaster, "Lu Xinfu, you are still sophomoric even now? You are simply shameless!"

Lu Xinfu's heart was weak, but he had developed a thick skin, so he still said, "Old Principal, what are you talking about?"

The old headmaster couldn't help but shake his head and said, "You really don't see the coffin but don't cry! Listen to it yourself!"

Pop!

The old headmaster took out his mobile phone from his pocket and placed it on the table.

"Old Brother Ji, this matter is not just a matter of making money for you ah, it's still a matter of your future!"

“Have you forgotten the agreement between us? If I tell the senior management of your group, I would like to know if you will be dealt with

“Surnamed Ji, do you think that if I were to give this recording to the Tengfei Group, what would happen to you tsk

As the recording was played, Chen Chao’s arrogant voice was displayed in front of everyone without reservation.

“Swish!”

Chen Chao’s face turned white, his legs went limp and he was about to baldly fall to the ground, but he was firmly controlled by two policemen, one left and one right.

And at this time, Lu Xinfu likewise couldn’t help but stutter in his heart, and his face couldn’t help but change!

Campus Master Chapter 2343

“What you have done is truly a disgrace to the entire United University!”

Even though he had already heard the contents of the recording once, at this moment, hearing Chen Chao’s arrogant voice again, the old headmaster was still incomparably furious.

Although in a sense, the position of the president of the United University could no longer be described as a teacher, but more accurately as an official, the old president still retained the backbone of the old generation of intellectuals in his body, and naturally, he could not bear to see such dirty things.

What’s more, this kind of thing also appeared under his rule, and Chen Chao and Lu Xinfu were both employees of the United University, which made the old headmaster even more ashamed and angry.

So even in front of the police, the old headmaster still shouted a loud and angry rebuke.

Chen Chao’s face was pale, just the content of the recording was enough to make his fate extraordinarily miserable, extortion and blackmail, and also a huge sum of two million dollars, if it really entered the judicial process then it would definitely be the end of a heavy sentence.

When he thought of the serious consequences, Chen Chao was so scared that he could hardly control his weakness, and his body could not help but feel weak.

Subconsciously, Chen Chao turned his head to look at Lu Xinfu.

However, at this time, although Lu Xinfu was equally pale, his mouth was still sophomoric as he exclaimed, “Old headmaster, I don’t know what you mean, this bastard

He glared angrily at Chen Chao and said angrily, “I really did not expect this little beast to do such a thing, to actually have the audacity to blackmail others ah, old headmaster, I admit that this is all the evil result of my usual lax discipline, but I really had no knowledge of this ah

“Uncle!”

Before Lu Xinfu had even finished his words, Chen Chao could not help but let out a cry of surprise.

He looked at Lu Xinfu, and his originally miserable white face was instantly covered with inexplicable consternation: "Uncle, you"

"You what you?!"

Lu Xinfu glared at him and angrily rebuked, "You bastard, I have managed to get you such a good opportunity to work in the school, but I never thought you would be so bold as to do such a thing, you are simply a bastard! I warn you, when you get to the police station, what you have done yourself, tell the police honestly, think carefully and think clearly before you say anything"

What exactly was Lu Xinfu saying, Chen Chao could no longer hear, at this moment, he was looking at Lu Xinfu with a gaze full of disbelief, his mind was almost blank.

How could Chen Chao have ever imagined that Lu Xinfu would sell him out on the spot without hesitation, even hinting that he should not speak nonsense, he was his own nephew!

This was his own uncle?

Chen Chao didn't even know what to say for a moment, and a strong fear swept through his whole body, leaving him at a loss as to what to do.

However, at this moment, Lu Xinfu did not see Chen Chao's face as if he was still turning his head to the police and said, "Comrades police, I think you have misunderstood, this matter has nothing to do with me at all, I am just lax in discipline"

"Lu Xinfu!"

The old headmaster was furious, his hair on end, his eyes glaring, "You really don't see the coffin without tears! You've come to this point, and you're still arguing!"

Lu Xinfu was very weak and scared, but how could he possibly give in at this time? If he did, he would probably have to go through jail, and besides, he was not a rookie who had just entered society and would honestly confess all his problems after being scared twice.

So Lu Xinfu said, "Old headmaster, I have said it all, you really misunderstood me, this matter"

"Lu Xinfu!"

The police officer in charge shouted, interrupting Lu Xinfu and said in a cold voice: "You don't need to be sophomoric, we have already investigated, Chen Chao extorted a huge sum of two million from the Tengfei Group, leaving only three hundred thousand for himself, while the remaining one hundred and seven hundred thousand were all paid to you."

When Lu Xinfu heard this, the corners of his eyes jumped wildly and he said, "Comrade police officer, you can't say this nonsense, when did I ever receive a million and seven hundred thousand dollars, I could never earn so much money in my lifetime"

The policeman in charge said, "Under normal circumstances, it is true that you would never earn that much money in your lifetime, but now, you have earned it in just one crime."

Lu Xinfu was instantly anxious: “I really didn’t! Comrade police, if you don’t believe me you can go to my home and search it, all my assets are at home, just a little, how can I have a million and seven hundred thousand

“Lu Guoqiang!”

The policeman at the head of the group suddenly bellowed.

Lu Xinfu’s voice instantly stopped abruptly, whirling in consternation, and gradually, a cry of fear appeared in his eyes, and even if you look closely you will see that his body was shaking slightly.

The policeman at the head said: “Lu Xinfu, the name Lu Guoqiang should not be unfamiliar to you, right? You used a fake ID card and a fake name to get a bank card for the purpose, I’m afraid, of hiding the money you got from your crime, right?”

Lu Xinfu opened his mouth with difficulty, “You, how do you know

The police officer in charge smiled and said, “Want to know? Just keep listening and you’ll find out.”

Lu Xinfu then looked at the phone on the table, only to hear a conversation being played inside, the voice sounded so familiar.

“Uncle, I’ll transfer this money to your card as soon as it arrives, is it still going straight to that secret card of yours like before?”

“Mmm!”

“Let’s do it this way, you’ve done a good job this time, you’ll take 300,000 and credit my card with the rest

“Swish!”

After just hearing these two sentences, Lu Xinfu’s face instantly turned white and white, that was the conversation between him and Chen Chao, how could he not hear it?

It’s just that

Why did their conversation appear on the recording? How could it have been recorded?

This, what the hell is going on?

The first time he and Chen Chao played a little game to set Ji Feng up, they were already destined to end up like this today.

He would not have thought that Chen Chao’s body had been unknowingly bugged by Ji Feng, and that the conversation between him and Chen Chao when they first conspired to deal with Ji Feng had likewise been recorded by Bai Zhu.

When he heard the recording, it all became clear to him – he was finished!

Unwillingly!

Unbelievable!

He had worked in the school for more than ten years to reach his current position as Director of the Facilities Management Division, and now he was not only going to be jerked off, but he would definitely have a prison sentence, which would be a devastating blow to him, and Lu Xinfu was not willing to accept it!

“Take it away!”

Seeing that Lu Xinfu no longer had any room for sophistry, the policeman in charge waved his hand and was ready to take the man away.

However, just at this time, Lu Xinfu suddenly raised his head and shouted, “I want to report, I want to wear the crime

Everyone was stunned, and the policeman in charge frowned and said, “What do you want to report?”

The old headmaster also looked grave, could it be that this blackmail case was also related to other leaders in the school? Or was Lu Xinfu going to expose some other criminal acts in the school?

“Ji Feng, the advisor of the Tengfei Group, agreed to work with someone in private to defraud the group of money, in fact he also constituted a crime of fraud!” Lu Xinfu shouted, “We have the recording here as evidence as well, if you want to arrest, you have to arrest him as well

“Ji Feng?!”

Chen Chao, who had been dumbfounded at the side, was slightly stunned, and then also reacted and shouted, “That’s right, Ji Feng! Comrade police, I want to report to you, I have evidence of Ji Feng’s crimes in my hands, moreover, I also have evidence of Lu Xinfu’s crimes, I know the facts of many of his crimes

“Chen Chao!”

Lu Xinfu heard the words, but really shocked and angry, how he did not expect, originally were stunned nephew, how will suddenly bite him, “you crazy ah you! What are you talking nonsense about?”

Chen Chao didn’t even look at him, but just stared at the policeman and said, “Comrade policeman, am I taking credit for my crime? Will it be treated lightly?”

The policeman nodded and said, “If you can cooperate with us and take the initiative to report the crime, you should be considered meritorious.”

Chen Chao was instantly overjoyed, “Thank you, Comrade Police, thank you, Comrade Police, I am willing to tell everything I know, everything

“Chen Chao!”

Lu Xinfu was shocked and angry, and roared, “You’re looking for death

The police officer next to him hit Lu Xinfu’s rib cage with an elbow without a trace, and the latter’s eyes widened instantly, his voice stopped abruptly, his mouth opened, but he couldn’t say a word.

The police officer in charge said, “But

“Why?”

“Because from the beginning to the end the people of the Tengfei Group knew about Ji Feng being blackmailed by you, and they authorized Ji Feng to do so!” The police officer said, “In other words, in this matter, Ji Feng and the Tengfei Group are both victims, while you, are the suspects

“No! Impossible!”

“How can this be?” Chen Chao was shocked to the core and shook his head repeatedly, he originally thought he had a handle on Ji Feng, but how could he have thought that in the end it was actually just a farce?

“I don’t believe it, Ji Feng must have committed a crime too

“Snap!”

“Snap!”

Just then, Chen Chao suddenly felt a blackness in front of his eyes, a human figure flashed past, and then he received several loud slaps on his face so steeply that he almost fainted as his eyes went gold.

Likewise, Lu Xinfu, who was almost out of breath after being punched by the policeman’s elbow, was similarly slapped twice hard.

When they reacted, they saw that Ji Feng had come into the room at some point and was looking at them coldly, saying disdainfully, “You two shameless bastards, even now you are still thinking of dragging others into the water, without realising your mistakes at all, you are shameless to the extreme!”

Campus Master Chapter 2344

Lu Xinfu and Chen Chao were dumbfounded.

Ji Feng’s slaps were too severe, hardly showing any mercy. With their physiques, how could they possibly withstand Ji Feng’s vicious smacks?

Ji Feng swept a cold glance at them and couldn’t help but give a cold snort.

“You should really be glad that I’m willing to obey the law, otherwise, dogs like you should just be chopped up and fed to the dogs!” Ji Feng said coldly.

“.....”

Those cold words caused Lu Xinfu and Chen Chao to shiver twice as they subconsciously winced.

At this time, even if they were as stupid as they were, they knew that Ji Feng was definitely not as timid and fearful as they thought, and even more so, he was not that easy to be taken advantage of.

At this moment, how could they dare to be arrogant again?

It was just that when Lu Xinfu was looking at Ji Feng, there was still a little bit of resentment in his eyes, which was well hidden but was indeed there.

After all, he was living a very privileged life, taking up important positions in the school and enjoying the patronage of others, but because of Ji Feng's appearance, all this was lost to him, and he would even have to live in prison from now on.

How could Lu Xinfu not hate Ji Feng?

Chen Chao also hated it, but at this moment he had long since turned white with fear, especially since he was still a little sluggish from those few slaps from Ji Feng, so Ji Feng keenly caught the glint of resentment in Lu Xinfu's eyes.

"Looks like you're still not convinced, huh?!" Ji Feng stared at him coldly and said, "People like you, if I told you how many students have lost the opportunity to do experiments with their own hands because of your actions, or perhaps delayed some talented students because of it, you certainly wouldn't feel ashamed, because in your mind there is no such thing as the existence of these things!"

Ji Feng smiled coldly, "However, if I tell you that just because of those things you once did, but angered quite a few people, perhaps when you get to the prison, someone will make a special trip to take care of you, and of course, your good nephew, when the time comes, they will definitely let you taste some of the special means in the prison all over again."

"When I say this, I'm sure you guys will be touched, right?" Ji Feng said.

"....."

Both Lu Xinfu and Chen Chao's faces couldn't help but change. Although they were not very clear about the situation in this prison, they had seen a pig run even if they had never eaten pork.

If it was really like what Ji Feng said, when they arrived at the prison, someone would take extra 'care' of them, then they would really want to die.

"When you are lying in bed at night after enjoying the day, hopefully you will think back on whether you ever thought you would have such a day when you did those things with a clear conscience!" Ji Feng snorted coldly, and then he smiled faintly, "Of course, provided that you can sleep."

Lu Xinfu and Chen Chao were terrified, they themselves were stunned by the sudden appearance of the police, and now Ji Feng's words really made them scared to the point of cold sweat, and their bodies went weak.

After that, Lu Xinfu and Chen Chao were taken away, and the phone was also taken away by the police as evidence. After they copied the recording and then verified it, they could return the phone.

If wasting a mobile phone could send scum scum like Lu Xinfu and Chen Chao to jail, Ji Feng couldn't be happier, but for the old headmaster, it wasn't so pleasant.

In the United University, a director of the equipment management office was able to use the means to extort a huge sum of two million dollars, and this was only what was discovered, there were still others that were not discovered?

There was no telling how much money was involved!

The old headmaster's face can't be embarrassed, moreover, it is obvious that there is a big management loophole, it is strange that the old headmaster can be pleasant.

However, Ji Feng could not help with these things, he was not a leader in the school, he could only give some advice at most, but the old headmaster had to take the lead and bring the staff under him to do the real work.

The only thing Ji Feng is concerned about is the equipment in the lab.

"You kid"

The old headmaster couldn't help but shake his head and laugh bitterly: "If you want to use the lab, just come to me directly, you have to make this play, this is good, after such a thing, I, the old man, have no honor, you kid as a student of the United University, is your face honorable?"

Ji Feng laughed: "In fact, at first I didn't think things would come to this point, because I was only borrowing the lab for a while, and it just so happens that I now have the ability to do so, so I hoped to donate some equipment, which would be considered a contribution to the university"

He shook his head and said, "It's just that I didn't expect that Lu Xinfu and Chen Chao would be so shameless, and since they wanted to play, then I had to play along with them."

"Those two scum!" The old headmaster's face turned a little red with anger.

"It's not worth getting angry over them!" Ji Feng smiled and said comfortingly, "Besides, if you get angry at your own body, wouldn't it be even less worth it? Old Principal, since the scum has been cleared out now, then you should hurry up and arrange for someone to take over the Equipment Division, so that I can talk to them about donations as soon as possible on my side."

Ji Feng didn't have that much time to waste, so it would be best to get the donation done sooner, and besides, he needed the lab to verify his research and theories.

The old headmaster said, "I'll approve your use of the lab, but as for the donation, it can't be rushed, some equipment is difficult to purchase, even the transportation will take time."

Ji Feng slowly nodded, indeed, a lot of equipment actually had to be purchased from abroad.

Although it is said that now a lot of equipment in the country can be manufactured on their own, but in fact the equipment in the university laboratory, but still use good to reflect the experimental effect, and, now there are some university laboratories that are national, many national scientific research projects to go in which, the United University has a number of projects, there are even academicians of the Academy of Sciences teaching.

Therefore, the purchase of equipment is all the more important not to be sloppy.

With the support of the old headmaster, Ji Feng simply stayed at the school, and without saying a word, he went straight to the laboratory. As for the donation of equipment, we had to wait until the old headmaster sent someone to take over the equipment office, then make a list of the equipment needed, and then the Tengfei Group would make a donation according to its ability based on the price of these equipment.

This process was not too tedious, but it was not something that could be done in a day or two.

When Ji Feng went to the laboratory, he had a satisfied look on his face, especially when he saw the size of that laboratory and the software and hardware facilities, which could definitely be described as a national laboratory.

The equipment in the lab alone was enough for him to conduct many kinds of experiments, and even, if he had enough materials and energy sources, he believed that he could make the first generation of laser guns in this lab, and it would definitely be much more stable and powerful than the one he had received from the Boundary Pontiff before!

It was a pity that the energy source for the laser gun was extremely demanding and there were some scarce materials, so with all this experimental equipment, he might not be able to find the right materials, so this idea only flashed through Ji Feng's mind.

And then, he left the laboratory.

With the equipment, then naturally we need to prepare the raw materials for the test, Ji Feng needs to go and buy them personally, what is needed, only he himself knows best.

.....

The first thing you need to do is to get your own personal information.

However, when it was almost noon, Li Ruonan received a phone call, and this happiness of Li's mother disappeared without a trace.

"What?!"

Li Ruonan stared, looking surprised, and shouted into the phone, "Say it again, what did he do to those people?"

"Captain Li, the few suspects we caught last night were all transferred away."

"Transferred to where?" Li Ruonan asked.

"I don't know, it was an order from the senior captain himself, so we can't ask much. But"

"But what?!"

Li Ruonan asked, "Just say what you have to say, don't stammer."

The person on the other end of the phone said, "Captain Li, it's better for us to talk when you finish your leave and come back to work."

Li Ruonan then knew that it shouldn't be convenient to say what the other party had to say over the phone, but how could her character wait until her leave was over, she said, "No, that's too late, I'll go to the bureau now, you wait for me"

"Captain Li, you're on leave, how about this, let's go outside and find a place to sit for a while?"

"That's fine, say the address."

Hearing the other party say a place, Li Ruonan hung up the phone, then three or two steps back to the bedroom, then immediately two or three minutes later, in the midst of Li mother that dumbfounded, the wind out of the door.

“Mom, there’s something at my unit, I’m going out for a while, I won’t be eating at home at noon.”

Dropping these words, Li Ruonan clanged the door shut and then heard the sound of footsteps stomping down the stairs.

Li’s mother couldn’t help but shake her head, “This girl of mine ah

The person who called Li Ruonan was Li Ruonan’s colleague and her right-hand man, Ding Weijian.

The two of them met at a Sichuan restaurant, and as soon as they met, Li Ruonan couldn’t wait to ask, “Ding, what’s going on, I’ve only had a day off, how come this kind of change has happened?”

Ding Weijian said, “Captain Li, in fact, less than two hours after you left, someone came to take over the case, and the captain sent them directly.”

Li Ruonan said, “If they took over the case, why didn’t they take advantage of the situation to conduct a surprise interrogation and find out the identity of those people as fast as possible, why did they still move them away?”

Ding Weijian said, “Captain Li, in fact, less than two hours after you left, someone came to take over the case, and the captain sent them directly.”

Li Ruonan said, “If they took over, why didn’t they take advantage of the situation to conduct surprise interrogations and find out the identity of those people as quickly as possible, why did they transfer them away?”

Ding Weijian shook his head and said, “I don’t know, the captain didn’t give an explanation either, he just sent someone to take over the case directly and then moved the people away

I kept an extra eye on them at that time, so I kept an eye on them, when I saw the suspects being escorted to the car, I secretly followed them out.”

The first time I saw the suspects being escorted to the car, I secretly followed them out.” Li Ruonan’s eyes lit up when she heard this, and she asked, “Oh? Did you get any results from your tracking? Do you know where those people were moved to?”

Ding Weijian was a little hesitant and said, “Captain

“Go ahead, just say what’s going on, why are you stammering so much?” Li Ruonan’s eyebrows knitted up, “It was not convenient to say on the phone before, now there is no one else, if you have anything to say, just say it directly!”

“Then what

Ding Weijian was still a bit hesitant, seeing Li Ruonan’s face was not good, he then lowered his voice and said, “Captain, I followed their car, because I was worried about being discovered, so I didn’t dare to follow him too close, but I found out that the senior captain sent someone to escort those suspects in a police car, to the outskirts... ..”

“The outskirts!?”

Li Ruonan couldn't help but be slightly stunned, “What did they escort the men to the suburbs for?”

Ding Weijian said, “That's where I felt something was wrong, the place they went to was the outskirts, a farmland contracted by an outsider, like a green vegetable planting base near but other than that, there wasn't even a police station there, let alone a police station or a guardhouse or something. I just can't understand what they are doing by taking the suspects there!”

Li Ruonan of course also realised that something was wrong, in fact she knew from the moment Ding Weijian first brought up the subject that there might be something wrong with it.

Otherwise, Ding Weijian would not have made the trip to call her when she was still on holiday. She and Ding Weijian were both colleagues and friends, and she naturally knew his temper well.

“Ding, did you find out something?” Li Ruonan lowered her voice and asked.

“Mm.”

Ding Weijian nodded his head and said, “That's right.”

Li Ruonan immediately asked, “What did you find out?”

Ding Weijian said, “After following them to the outskirts, the further I followed them the stranger I felt, I thought at the time that this was some kind of special action by the First Captain, and that was why I didn't talk about it to my comrades inside because it needed to be kept secret.”

Li Ruonan nodded slightly, it was not impossible that this was a possibility, for example, the captain might be using the suspects as bait to see if they had any accomplices, or, to achieve something else, it was not impossible.

Ding Weijian said, “But then I found out that things didn't seem to be like that.”

“What do you mean?” Li Ruonan asked.

“I saw the man sent by the First Captain, after taking those suspects to the outskirts, pick up with a few people.” Ding Weijian said, “Then he handed over all those suspects to the other side.”

“A joint?!”

Li Ruonan's face steeped in concentration as she asked, “Ding, can you be sure?”

Ding Weijian nodded, “Of course, I saw it with my own eyes! When they left the police station, all those suspects had handcuffs on their hands, and even when they got off the bus in the suburbs, the handcuffs on their hands hadn't even been taken off yet, but when they waited until they handed the people over to the connector, they uncuffed them all!”

“And then what?” Li Ruonan's pretty face sank as she asked.

“And after that the person from the other side who came to the joint took those suspects to their own car and then left.” Ding Weijian said.

“What about the people the First Captain sent?” Li Ruonan asked.

“They drove back!” Ding Weijian said, “When I came out just now, I even saw one of them humming a little tune as he walked out, probably in a pretty good mood.”

“Humph!”

Li Ruonan couldn't help but give a cold snort and said, “So, where were those suspects taken to? Did you continue to follow them?”

Ding Weijian said, “Well, I followed them down.”

“Then where did they go?” Li Ruonan immediately pursued the question.

“The bus station!” Ding Weijian said.

“Where?” Li Ruonan's voice steeply rose a few notches and her eyebrows instantly furrowed as she asked, “You said, they went to the bus station?”

Ding Weijian nodded and said, “That's right, they went to the bus station, I saw them enter the station with my own eyes.”

Li Ruonan's face looked very unpleasant, and her eyebrows knitted together, “So, they have left Jiangzhou by bus now? And in a big way, they left by car?”

Ding Weijian nodded, “That's right, I'm afraid they'll be arriving in Hangzhou before too long.”

“They took a car that went to Hangzhou?” Li Ruonan asked.

“Yes.”

Ding Weijian nodded and said, “After they left, I secretly went to the bus station and asked the ticket inspector to make sure that those people were on a bus bound for Hangzhou.”

“Humph!”

Li Ruonan couldn't help but give a cold snort.

Ding Weijian said, “Captain, according to my analysis, the reason those people took the bus is because they didn't have any documents on them, so they couldn't take any other means of transport other than the bus. Besides, the cars are mixed with fish and dragons, it's not easy to mix in here and try to find them.”

Li Ruonan nodded slightly and said, “They are trying to hide their whereabouts, and it seems that they should not want anyone to know where they are from.”

“But that person they were chasing is still in the hospital, as long as he recovers, won't we be able to know where those murderers came from by then?” Ding Weijian asked, somewhat puzzled, “Why would they bother going to all that trouble?”

“And what if that injured person doesn’t wake up?” Li Ruonan asked.

“..... Then it would really be a headless case!” Ding Weijian changed his face.

“Swish!”

The next moment, Li Ruonan hurriedly took out her mobile phone while saying to Ding Weijian, “Ding, call the cadres guarding the hospital right now and tell them to be on heightened alert and also pay attention to their own safety.”

Ding Weijian asked, “What about you?”

Li Ruonan snorted coldly and said, “I want to ask Zhao Gongyong what he has found out after he took the case over!”

Li Ruonan had not even planned to sleep before conducting surprise interrogations on those suspects, just to get the case solved as soon as possible, but she had not expected that just when she had rolled up her sleeves and was ready to do a big job, her superiors would find a random reason to give her a leave of absence.

What’s even more outrageous is that Zhao Gongyong didn’t even say hello to her and moved the people, and from Ding Weijian’s description, it’s obvious that the suspects were let go.

Li Ruonan was furious!

This is too much of a bully!

Even if someone wanted to play favourites or do something shameful, they should at least find a reasonable excuse to deceive her, so that she would be taken into account!

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on a lot of things.

..... This is not giving her a holiday, this is clearly treating her like a monkey!

“Captain! Captain!”

Ding Weijian hurriedly stopped the angry Li Ruonan and said, “Captain, you should not be impulsive first, you are still on leave, besides this case has already been handed over to the First Captain to be in charge, there is no reason for you to interfere now!”

Li Ruonan said, “You want a reason? That’s good, just because I took the case, now I want to care about the progress of the case, this reason is enough, right?”

“This

Ding Weijian said, “Captain, you should calm down first and listen to my analysis.”

Li Ruonan said angrily, “What am I calming down for? It’s too bullying for them to do this, good! They can leave me out of it, but those two guards just got blitzed for nothing? Luckily they were lucky, if the gun had gone a little higher, they would have been killed on the spot, who would have thought about them? Who should their families go to?”

“But what should you do if the Captain says to leave you in peace, or find some random excuse?” Ding Weijian asked, “Captain, can’t you see that? This matter is definitely not just the First Captain’s idea alone, so you’d better think it over before you say anything.”

Li Ruonan’s beautiful eyes glared, “What am I thinking about? Since I’m wearing this police uniform, I have to do what I should do! What’s wrong with taking a leave of absence, it’s not like being sacked, why shouldn’t I ask questions?”

Ding Weijian said, “But

“Alright, you don’t have to say anymore.” Li Ruonan waved her hand and interrupted Ding Weijian, saying, “Ding, I know you are doing this for my own good, but you know my temper, if I have to watch this happen and do nothing about it, then you might as well kill me.”

Seeing that Li Ruonan had said this, Ding Weijian did not dare to stop him, otherwise, Li Ruonan might really flip out with him.

“Ding, don’t just call, now you personally take someone to the hospital immediately to protect that person who is being chased.” Li Ruonan said, “Remember, be safe.”

“Yes.”

Ding Weijian nodded his head.

After instructing, Li Ruonan couldn’t help but grunt coldly and took out the phone and was about to dial the number of the First Captain Zhao Gongyong, but after thinking about it, Li Ruonan dismissed the idea again.

But after a moment’s thought, Li Ruo Nan dismissed the idea.

She put the phone away, turned around and headed out.

“Captain, what are you doing there?” Ding Weijian asked, stunned.

“To find Zhao Gongyong and Director Gao!” Li Ruonan said.

She needed to know what all this was about, what exactly those people were from, how they were able to walk away unscathed after doing wrong, and even played a deliberate trick on her for it!

Campus Master Chapter 2346

“Ta-da!”

“Ta-da

Li RuoNan strides in from the office building door, originally beautiful pretty face, but at this moment is not many people dare to stare, because this way to walk even a fool can be able to see, this Li captain, mood is not good.

Especially since that pretty face is almost covered with frost, a pair of beautiful eyes is also cold and frightening, as if to eat people, plus Li RuoNan’s fiery temper, no one really dares to touch this bad luck now.

So everyone just nodded to greet Li Ruo Nan and then turned around to go their separate ways.

Li Ruonan didn't mind, it didn't matter what other people thought of her, the key was that what she did must be worthy of her conscience, or at the very least, worthy of the uniform she was wearing!

"Good day, Captain Li!"

"Hello, Lieutenant Li."

"Pa!"

Along the way, some people saluted, while others bent slightly to greet Li Ruonan, and she only nodded in response – if it was in normal times, Li Ruonan would definitely smile and say a few words to people, but today, she obviously wasn't interested in that.

Everyone could see that too, so when they saw Li Ruonan striding towards them, they hurriedly stepped aside.

Li Ruonan grabbed one of the young policemen, looked at the latter's face that seemed to be red with tension, and asked, "Is the senior captain here?"

The policeman nodded his head repeatedly and said, "Yes it is, just now the senior captain came back from outside"

"That's right, I'm afraid the First Captain is on his lunch break now" said another policeman.

"Humph!"

Li Ruonan couldn't help but let out a cold hum, secretly saying, he still has the face to take a lunch break?

"All right, there's nothing more to do here, hurry up and do what you need to do, rest what you need to rest, and the rest hurry up and finish the job at hand." Li Ruonan waved her hand.

"Yes!"

They all knew that Li Ruonan did not like to keep work on her hands, unless it was the kind of work that could not be finished in a short time, otherwise, Li Ruonan would insist on finishing it as soon as possible.

Because in Li RuoNan's opinion, they, as detectives, might be on assignment at some point, and it was not up to them to arrange this time, but the criminals to decide.

So at this time, they have to make sure they have no other attachments to distract them, let alone, be distracted by other work.

Li Ruonan herself did likewise, so the other police officers were convinced.

After making sure that Zhao Gongyong was in his office, Li Ruonan went straight upstairs without saying a word and headed straight for Zhao Gongyong's office.

"Knock, knock, knock!"

When she arrived at Zhao Gongyong's office, she knocked on the door, no matter how she said it, Zhao Gongyong was also her superior, at least half a level higher than her in terms of rank, and she had to show some respect on this point, not to cause gossip among others.

Although Li Ruonan was quick-tempered, she was not a fool.

What's more, she herself came from a high cadre family, so she was naturally very clear about political matters, and how to get along with her colleagues and deal with people in the world, she was able to learn a lot from her father.

"....."

However, there was no response from the office, so Li Ruonan's beautiful brows couldn't help but frown.

She raised her hand and knocked again, "Knock, knock, knock!"

"....." There was still no response, not even a semblance of business inside, not at all as if someone was in there.

"No one is there?"

Li Ruonan's brow couldn't help but wrinkle up, she was downstairs just now but heard the police officer say with conviction that Zhao Gongyong had just come back from outside which means that Zhao Gongyong must have come back from dinner, so where could he have gone if he wasn't in his own office?

After thinking about it, Li Ruonan knocked on the door again.

The result was still no response.

Li Ruonan then directly took out her mobile phone, called up Zhao Gongyong's number and dialed it.

"Jang"

Suddenly, a vague ringing sound came out from inside the office, although it was not very clear because the office door was separated, but the sound was definitely coming from the office.

Swish!

Li Ruonan's face could not help but sink as a wave of anger rose up in her heart.

This Zhao Gongyong was really in the office, but he didn't react at all when he knocked on the door Did he really not hear it, or did he not want to hear it?

"Beep beep beep"

There was a busy tone coming from the phone receiver.

Li Ruonan's face was very unattractive, she called and there was no answer, she gritted her teeth and dialed again!

The phone ringing once again in the office, Li Ruo Nan just so stand in the doorway quietly waiting, she just can not believe that this is still a lifetime without meeting, unless she is transferred out of the city bureau or Zhao Gongyong go, otherwise, they are in the same criminal police team, do not believe not to meet!

“Hello” Just then, a somewhat muffled voice came over the phone, “Who is it?”

“Captain Zhao, this is Li Ruonan, I’m outside your office right now.” Li Ruonan said in a deep voice, “There’s something I need to ask Captain Zhao for advice.”

“So it’s Ruo Nan!”

Zhao Gongyong’s voice seemed to pick up in spirit all of a sudden and said, “Then wait for a moment while I tidy up my clothes”

Li Ruonan said, “Then hurry up, I’ll be waiting at the door.”

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you’re doing.

Meanwhile, in the office, a man in his thirties was wearing a police uniform and sitting on the bed in the lounge with a slight frown on his face.

This man was Zhao Gongyong, probably in his early thirties, with a stocky figure, not bloated and fat like some officers, but rather appearing to be in good spirits – in fact, it was completely unnoticeable on his face that he had just been woken up, and he was even wearing his leather shoes on his feet.

Zhao Gongyong sat on the edge of the bed and only after a while did he stand up and open the door. When he saw Li Ruo Nan standing at the door, he smiled and said, “Ruo Nan, aren’t you on holiday, why have you suddenly come back?”

Li Ruonan said, “I didn’t need to take a holiday in the first place, now I’m back to continue my work.”

Zhao Gongyong shook his head and laughed, “This is not good, you are indeed very capable and work very hard, but Ruo Nan, no matter what you do, you have to combine work and rest, you can’t just focus on work.”

Li Ruonan said, “I know my own situation, Captain, I am back now, one is to cancel my leave, two is to continue to follow up the case I caught that night, to be honest, I have found new clues in that case, I promise to identify the suspects within three days... ..”

Zhao Gongyong’s eyebrows jumped twice at his words and asked, “What clues?”

Li Ruonan said, “It’s okay if those people don’t talk, because the automatic weapons they are carrying are all standard weapons, so the military takes this very seriously, as long as we agree, the military can help us interrogate those suspects, you know, the military has a kind of medicine, as long as the suspects are injected, it will make them muddle their consciousness out of control, and answer whatever they are asked. Anything.”

Speaking here, Li Ruonan stared into Zhao Gongyong’s eyes and said, “Captain, think about it, under such circumstances, is it still necessary to continue the interrogation? Can those people’s identities still be hidden?”

Zhao Gongyong smiled and could not help but have the corners of his eyes jump wildly a few times.

Li Ruonan asked, "Captain, where are those suspects? Let's hurry up and send them to the barracks and inject them with that kind of potion!"

"That what Ruo Nan ah, this matter, it is better not to fake the military!" Zhao Gongyong said, "You can't rely on the military for everything!"

"But this matter if the military is willing to assist us, then it will certainly be beneficial to us ah!" Li Ruonan said.

"I know."

Zhao Gongyong nodded and said, "It is indeed beneficial to us, but there is a saying you should have heard, everything has two sides, the military to assist us this is certainly beneficial, but there are also disadvantages Think about it, no matter what happens let the military to assist, then why do we need the police? Do you and I still have any need for these people to exist?"

Li Ruonan said, "Then what does the captain mean?"

"It's simple, you stay on leave and I'll personally take charge of this case." Zhao Gongyong said, "As for the military side we thank them for their kindness, but this time we police are going to handle the case independently, we don't need the military's assistance."

"Captain! You don't agree to let the military interfere, this I have no problem with." Li Ruonan said, "But I won't continue my leave, I will continue to follow up this case, if the captain is willing to take charge personally, then I am willing to assist from the side"

"No need!"

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market. In addition, there are some hidden circumstances in this case, it is better for me to take charge of it alone, so you should leave it alone."

Seeing that Zhao Gongyong had dismissed all her proposals, Li Ruo Nan could not help but feel angry in her heart. If she did not know that the suspects had been transferred away, Li Ruo Nan would really think that Zhao Gongyong's words were from his heart.

Of course, it was true that there was something else going on in the case.

Li Ruonan sneered in her heart, but her face did not move at all, she just nodded slightly and said, "Alright then, since the organization is so caring towards me, I will obey the organization's orders, however, I have one more request."

When Zhao Gongyong smiled, a relaxed smile appeared on his face and he nodded, "Ruo Nan, just say what you have to say"

"I want to see those suspects!" Li RuoNan said.

"..... Sh, what?"

The smile on Zhao Gongyong's face instantly froze for a moment, and he couldn't help but flash a stunned look in his eyes, obviously not reacting for a moment.

Campus Master Chapter 2347

"..... Sh, what?"

The smile on Zhao Gongyong's face instantly froze for a moment, and he couldn't help but flash a stunned look in his eyes, obviously not reacting for a moment.

Li Ruonan said very seriously, "I said, I want to see the suspects that I caught last night, and I want to see them now!"

Zhao Gongyong's face then changed, "Ruo Nan, you are on leave, besides, I am in charge of this case"

"I know."

Li Ruonan nodded and said, "It's true that the captain is in charge of this case, and it's also true that I'm on leave, but there's no law or discipline that says I can't see a suspect while I'm on leave, especially when I was in charge of this case a day ago!"

Zhao Gongyong frowned and said, "Ruo Nan, don't be petty, you know, our bureau, ever since Director Chen took office, has stipulated that police officers are not allowed to interfere with other people's cases without permission, although this is not a legal requirement, but it is an internal rule of our bureau."

Li Ruonan said, "That's right, the captain has a good memory!"

Zhao Gongyong said, "So, I can't agree to this request of yours, Ruo Nan, you are also a deputy captain, so don't take the lead in breaking the rules."

Li Ruonan shook his head, "I would never take the initiative to break the rules, unless I am forced to do so"

"That's good." Zhao Gongyong said, "Alright, you don't have to worry about this case, go back and rest."

"I can't go back now." Li Ruonan shook her head.

"Why?" Zhao Gongyong asked curiously.

"Because now is the time of necessity." Li Ruonan said.

"Sh, what do you mean?"

Zhao Gongyong could not help but be stunned, but immediately reacted and frowned, "Ruo Nan, do you mean that you are going to break the rules now?!"

Li Ruonan said, "Technically speaking, it doesn't count! Because the bureau likewise has a rule that if someone breaks the rules of interrogation, or if they know the law, others have the right to interfere"

When Zhao Gongyong heard that, he was immediately a bit annoyed, he said in a deep voice: "Lieutenant Li, according to your meaning, is that I, Zhao Gongyong, know the law and break it?"

He couldn't help but be a little annoyed in his heart, as the captain of the Jiangzhou Municipal Bureau's Criminal Investigation Police Brigade, yet he was accused like this by his subordinates in front of him, which made Zhao Gongyong's face very embarrassed.

"I didn't say that, if you interpret it that way, there's nothing I can do!" Li Ruonan said, "Besides, I was just elaborating on the bureau's rules, and I wasn't referring to you specifically, Captain, so why are you getting so worked up?"

"Isn't this being a thief?!"

These words were Li Ruonan's subliminal words.

How could Zhao Gongyong not hear it, he said angrily, "To say that I know the law and break it, then you have to show evidence first, as for what regulations you are talking about, those were left behind by Zheng Yuanshan, now the Jiangzhou Municipal Bureau is no longer his Zheng Yuanshan's time, his set of rules no longer works!

Hearing him speak of Zheng Yuanshan in such a tone, without any respect at all, Li Ruonan's heart immediately became angry and she said, "It's not necessary for you to evaluate how Director Zheng is! Moreover, even if there were no regulations in this regard, it is by no means too much for me to ask to see those suspects now!"

"I'm in charge of this case now, I disagree!" Zhao Gongyong said.

"Humph!"

Li Ruonan said, "Do you disagree, or are you just weak in your heart because you've done something wrong?"

Zhao Gongyong said angrily, "What do you mean by that?"

Li Ruonan brushed aside her mouth and said, "Captain Zhao, you don't need to get angry in front of me, anger can't cover up the truth! Still, I want to see those suspects, and I want to see them now!"

Zhao Gongyong said, "Li Ruonan, please be careful who you are! Now I have every reason to suspect that you may have had contact with people related to the suspects while you were on leave, so now that you're asking so strongly to see the suspects, perhaps you're trying to convey some kind of message too!"

"What a load of nonsense!"

Li Ruonan heard this Zhao Gongyong's nonsense, he had just done something that was not in line with his status, but now he was actually backtracking and saying that he had contact with the people related to the suspect, which made Li Ruonan burst into flames, he wanted to raise his hand and give Zhao Gongyong a slap.

However, Li Ruo Nan still held back, she gritted her teeth and said, "Captain Zhao, you can eat your food indiscriminately, but you can't say anything indiscriminately, if you have no evidence, it's better not to accuse people indiscriminately, it's too degrading!"

Zhao Gongyong said, "This is also what I want to say to you, this case is now in my charge, you say I have done something wrong, better show the evidence!"

Li Ruonan said, "Just call those suspects over and we'll know everything."

"Joke!"

Zhao Gongyong said, "If I accuse a passer-by of being a thief and say that if he takes off his clothes and lets us examine him, then we can see for ourselves, do you think the other party will agree? When the time comes, I'm afraid he'll just give us a slap on the wrist and sue us!"

Li Ruonan's face went cold: "Captain Zhao, don't steal the concept, you accuse passers-by indiscriminately without evidence, of course people can slap you! However, now that I am the vice captain of the criminal police brigade, I have full authority to demand to see those suspects, there is no comparison between these two matters! Don't use that little bit of cleverness of yours to weasel your way out of this with me!"

"Li Ruonan!"

Zhao Gongyong was somewhat infuriated by Li Ruo Nan's words, and he said in a deep voice, "Don't go too far!"

Li Ruo Nan said angrily, "You are the one who has gone too far! I'm telling you, today I must see those suspects, otherwise, I will definitely sue you for knowing the law and breaking it, privately releasing the suspects"

Zhao Gongyong stared at her and gritted his teeth, "And what if I don't agree?"

Li Ruonan said, "If you don't agree, I'll go to Bureau Gao, if Bureau Gao doesn't agree either, then I'll go to Director Chen, I don't believe it, how can it be justified to release suspects at will?"

Zhao Gongyong was gloomy and said, "Li Ruonan, don't go too far, I've already put up with you again and again!"

Li Ruonan said, "I've been even more patient with you, if it was my old temper, I would have kicked you a few times, would I still be standing here debating with you?"

"You"

Zhao Gongyong was furious.

Li Ruonan's face was cold as she said, "What, do you really want to try your hand at me?"

Zhao Gongyong: "..... Humph!"

There were rumors about Li Ruo Nan's skills in the city bureau, although this woman was not very tall and far less stout than men, her skills were said to be quite powerful.

If it was a few years earlier, Zhao Gongyong might have been able to fight with her, but in the past few years he has been eating, drinking and socializing, and has been working hard everywhere, his kung fu has long been rusty, if he really fights with Li Ruonan, it is not really clear who will lose and who will win, Zhao Gongyong does not dare to take the risk.

The fact that Li Ruonan is also the daughter of the mayor of Li, this alone makes Zhao Gongyong not dare to do anything.

It's okay to disagree with Li Ruonan on work, but if you start a fight with Li Ruonan, no matter what the final result is, once it gets to Mayor Li's ears

So Zhao Gongyong waved his hand and said, "This case is my responsibility, no one is allowed to see those suspects without my consent, that's all, I have things to do."

"Captain Zhao, is this your final attitude?" Li Ruonan stared at him and asked.

"That's right."

"Good!" Li Ruonan nodded her head and said, "I understand."

After saying that, she turned around and left Zhao Gongyong's office, but instead of leaving the police station, she went straight upstairs and went to Chief Gao's office.

At this time, Zhao Gongyong was dialing a number in his office: "Bureau Gao, just now Li Ruonan suddenly came to see me about today's matter I also wondered how she knew about it. I suspect, did she perceive something, so some people in the bureau told her?"

"..... She wanted to see the suspects, but I didn't agree Yes, she was annoyed, but I pushed back"

"Beep beep beep"

Just then, a busy tone suddenly came from the phone receiver.

Zhao Gongyong was a bit stunned, not understanding how Gao Bureau suddenly hung up the phone, but thinking about it, it was probably something urgent over there, so Zhao Gongyong didn't dial it again, he was only calling this number to get through to Gao Bureau anyway.

"Humph! Little girl, thinking that just because you have a little background you can't put anyone in your sights?" Zhao Gongyong couldn't help but sneer, "Don't even think about it, I know you are the mayor's daughter, if I didn't have enough benefits, if the other party's background wasn't strong enough, would I have taken the case from you? Really"

.....

"Bureau Gao!"

At the same time, Li Ruonan was knocking on the door of Gao Bureau's office and asked bluntly, "Gao Bureau, I want to cancel my leave and at the same time request to take back that original case!"

Bureau Gao was already mentally prepared, so he just smiled and said, "Ruo Nan, aren't you on leave? Why are you back all of a sudden?"

Li Ruonan said, "Bureau Gao, I got accurate information that Zhao Gongyong sent someone to send those suspects away, he is knowing the law and breaking it, I request to take charge of this case again and continue the investigation, at the same time, to hold Zhao Gongyong responsible!"

"Sent away?" Bureau Gao looked a little surprised, "That's not likely, is it?"

"My informant saw it with his own eyes!" Li Ruonan said, "I went to see Zhao Gongyong, but he wouldn't admit it, and to prove his innocence, I asked to see the suspects, but Zhao Gongyong refused."

"So, you just heard about it too?" Bureau Gao asked.

"Yes, I heard." Li Ruonan said, "But to verify if this is true, just bring those suspects out to see them, it's very simple."

"Ruo Nan, don't be so impulsive." Bureau Gao said, "Captain Zhao disagrees, he may have his own ideas, but no matter what, he is your leader after all, you suspect him so easily and even want to verify it yourself, isn't that trying to tear him down? That's not good!"

Li Ruonan said, "Director Gao, I just want to make sure those suspects are still around, I didn't think of tearing down anyone's platform, nor do I have so many convoluted ideas. However, if some people do things that are not on the stage themselves, then they deserve to be torn down!"

Campus Master Chapter 2348

Li Ruonan said, "Director Gao, I just want to make sure those suspects are still around, I have no intention of tearing down anyone's stage, nor do I have so many convoluted ideas. However, if some people do things that are not on the stage themselves, then they deserve to have their stages demolished!"

Director Gao frowned slightly and said, "Ruo Nan, this kind of thinking of yours is not right, no matter what, Captain Zhao is your leader, you should first trust your leader and learn to respect your leader even more."

Li Ruonan said, "Until today, I respected him, but now, I just need to beg to see those suspects! I want to confirm whether they are still there or not, and whether they have really been let go, if that is the case, then it means that someone is bending the law for personal gain, and such a person is not worthy of being a leader!"

"Ruo Nan!"

Chief Gao's voice rose abruptly, and his brow furrowed, with a flash of anger in his eyes, but it quickly disappeared, "Ruo Nan, now that you are also the vice captain of the criminal police brigade, it is reasonable to say that there are some truths that you should understand, you should know that if you insist on seeing those suspects today, this is undoubtedly like telling everyone that you don't trust Zhao Gongyong, which is not what the bureau would like to see!"

Li Ruonan said, "Chief Gao, I remember when I first joined the police academy, the instructor once told us that the first thing to do as a police officer is to have a spirit of doubt, it's not that I don't trust Captain Zhao, it's just that I want to speak with facts, that's all."

Speaking here her gaze was fixed on Chief Gao's eyes as she said, "Chief Gao, now I just want to verify whether my informant is lying or not, if he is not lying, then it means that someone in our bureau must be bending the law for personal gain, such matters must be investigated to the end!"

"....."

Director Gao then fell silent.

A moment later, he couldn't help but ask, "Then, what if I don't agree to this request of yours?"

Li Ruonan wasn't the least bit surprised, but just said very firmly, "Then I'll go to Director Chen, and if Director Chen doesn't agree either, then I'll go directly to the Municipal Committee!"

The director's eyebrows could not help but wrinkle up, some dissatisfied glance at Li Ruonan, obviously, for Li Ruonan's certain practices, director Gao has a bad opinion in his heart, but only because of what is in the way did not say it directly.

Li Ruonan naturally knows it well, but she is as if she did not see it, just standing there waiting for Director Gao to state his position.

After a while of silence, Director Gao said, "Ruo Nan, in fact, this matter is not as simple as you think, you are now on leave, so don't ask more questions."

Li Ruonan immediately asked, "Chief Gao, then you mean to say that Captain Zhao really did let those suspects go?"

Chief Gao shook his head with pressure and said, "Not released, to be precise, the suspects were handed over to the local police authorities, they will verify the case and also merge it with several local cases"

"What about our side?" Li Ruonan asked, "Someone was chased and killed, and two innocent security guards were almost killed, should we just let it go?"

"Of course not!"

Director Gao said, "Before they were escorted away, those suspects had already expressed their remorse and all agreed to compensate the two security guards who were shot to some extent, the amount will soon be credited to our bureau's account, and we will pass it on to the two injured people when the time comes."

Li Ruonan asked, "What about the people who were hunted down?"

Director Gao said, "You mean the one who was chased that night?"

Li Ruonan nodded and said, "That's right. Those murderers were escorted away, how will we explain to him when the time comes?"

Bureau Gao said, "That's very simple. The injured man is not completely awake yet, right? When he wakes up and his health stabilizes, he can likewise be handed over to the local police"

"He has to be handed over too?" Li Ruonan's eyebrows immediately knitted together as she looked at Chief Gao in consternation.

“That’s right, what’s the problem?” Chief Gao asked, “Since the case has been handed over to the local police, isn’t it reasonable to transfer the injured man along with it?”

“But then, who will consider the safety of the injured?” Li Ruonan asked.

“The local police, of course!” Bureau Chief Gao said.

“Director Gao!”

Li Ruonan looked at Director Gao in amazement and asked, “You should know that since the other side dares to send so many people and carry automatic weapons to chase the injured, that means those murderers are very powerful in the local area, if the injured are transferred there at this time, wouldn’t that put the injured in a very dangerous situation?”

Sending a sheep into a tiger’s mouth!

This reasoning was not possible for Gao Bureau, who had been a police officer for so many years, not to understand, but why did he still do it?

Li Ruonan looked at Bureau Gao, a look of extreme disappointment flashed across the bottom of her eyes, she could think even if she was a fool, there must be certain interests involved, otherwise, solving this kind of case would be considered a meritorious opinion, she didn’t believe that Chief Gao would let this opportunity go for nothing.

“Comrade Ruo Nan, you can rest assured that the local police will likewise protect the safety of the injured.” Chief Gao said with a smile, “We have to trust our local police brothers as much as we trust ourselves”

“What I want to know is, the local police that Chief Gao is talking about, which place is it exactly?!” Li Ruonan asked.

“.....”

Chief Gao then couldn’t help but choke for a moment, and the smile on his face faintly froze a little, “It’s Jibei Province, Qihe City Municipal Bureau.”

Li Ruonan said, “Jibei Province? So, it was the Qihe City Bureau that sent an official letter asking us to hand over the man to them?”

Bureau Gao nodded and said, “That’s right.”

Li Ruonan asked, “Then, I would like to see the official letter sent by Qihe City’s Municipal Bureau, is that okay?”

Bureau Gao nodded, “That’s certainly no problem, however, Comrade Ruo Nan, this matter needs to be kept confidential, after you get out of my place, you have to pretend that you don’t know anything, as if what happened that night never happened, do you understand?”

Li Ruonan asked, “Why?”

Bureau Gao said, “Because this matter, involves the special department.”

“Special department?” Li Ruonan asked, her eyebrows slightly knitted.

Bureau Gao nodded and said, “How about this, you take a look at the official letter first, as for this case, we will talk slowly later when we have time, frankly speaking, Ruo Nan, if not for the sake of your girl’s usual hard work, you won’t even get a word of explanation for this matter today, because this can almost be said to have violated the discipline!”

Li Ruonan couldn’t help but be slightly stunned at her words, she had some doubts in her heart, this case even involved a special department? Just talking to herself for a couple of minutes was a violation of discipline?

Was it really that serious?

The case was really like what Director Gao had said, that there was something inside, but it was not the kind of inside story of someone bending the law for personal gain that she thought, but because it involved a special department, it had to be kept secret from the public?

For a moment, Li Ruonan was a little hesitant!

“Ugh!”

And just at this time, Director Gao was the one who sighed again and said, “Ruo Nan, in fact, why I have to give you a leave, you should more or less understand now, right? It’s best not to get involved in this case, because it’s likely that not only will you not be able to solve the case, but you might also bring yourself into a whole lot of trouble.”

He gave Li Ruo Nan a meaningful glance and said, “Especially this kind of case involving special departments, it is even more cautious, because Mayor Li’s identity itself is somewhat sensitive, so Ruo Nan, now you should know it, I do all this can be for your own good!”

Li Ruonan silent, now she also can not judge Gao Bureau words are true or false, official word two mouths, in fact, any system of leadership are the same, Li Ruonan naturally is not dare to believe all his words.

It is just that there is a saying that Director Gao is right, if this case really has something to do with the special department, then one may not have anything if one invites it, but who knows if there will be people who think that this is what the father meant?

Or would someone use this matter as a handle to attack his father?

Li Ruonan looked at the official letter, secretly clenched his teeth and casually took it over, then directly took it out of the envelope and opened it, quickly scanning it from beginning to end.

It was true!

The official letter was sent by the Qihe City Bureau, first thanking the Jiangzhou City Bureau for their help and efforts, and then being polite for a while, before offering the hope that the person could be brought back

At the end of the official letter, there was also the official seal of the Qihe City Bureau.

This should be true, Li Ruonan certainly knows the official seal of the bureau, this Qihe City Bureau's official seal is the same as their bureau's, only the name is different, this should not be faked.

"Now you understand?" Bureau Gao looked at Li Ruonan and asked with a smile.

"Understood, it was me who was too impulsive." Li Ruonan nodded and said.

"It's good since you understand, Ruo Nan ah, it's good to have a skeptical spirit, but you also have to think about it, some things are actually not as simple as they seem on the surface!" Director Gao said smilingly, "Alright, no more superfluous words, you continue your vacation, stay home and spend more time with your parents and family, as for this case, you just pretend it never happened."

Li Ruonan nodded and said, "Yes."

However, in her heart, she always had some doubts, was she really too impulsive?

Li Ruonan always felt that something was not quite right, but she could not say exactly what was wrong for a while.

She felt that it would be better to listen to Ji Feng's opinion as he had told her about the case.

Campus Master Chapter 2349

When Li Ruonan called, Ji Feng was working hard in the laboratory of the United University.

Although it was a hot summer day, Ji Feng was wearing thick work clothes and a mask-like thing on his face, except for his eyes, which were protected by a transparent glass-like thing, so as to protect him and not affect his vision.

In front of Ji Feng was a machine about four or five metres long, with a workbench covered with various metals and other bits and pieces.

These were all things that Ji Feng had personally bought back from the market.

At this moment, he was holding a high-temperature electric gun in one hand and a long pair of pliers in the other, fixing a piece of silver-white metal on the workbench, and was using the high-temperature electric gun to heat and melt the metal.

In fact, the equipment in this laboratory is far easier to operate than this, and the block of metal does not need to be fixed by hand at all. All that is needed is to fix the block of metal into the slot on the equipment, then point the electric gun at the block of metal that needs to be heated, and the machine will do its work automatically.

Even, when the metal block is melted, the scorching hot metal water will flow directly down the slot into the container that has already been prepared If this is still too much trouble, then there are even easier methods, and even fully automatic from start to finish is not a difficult thing for the equipment in this laboratory.

But Ji Feng did not choose those methods, but used the most primitive and stupid method – pure manual experimentation.

Because he had to carefully observe how the metal would actually change when it was being melted, theoretical knowledge alone was not enough, it had to be combined with practical experience!

What's more, the kind of alloy that Ji Feng was going to test now did not even exist in the database of the intelligent brain; strictly speaking, it belonged to his own home-made creation, so he had to be cautious and careful again.

In fact, the idea of making an alloy was not just a matter of melting all the metals and fusing them together to make an alloy, it was purely a matter of course.

The requirements for the process of making an alloy were extremely strict, and the whole process was definitely not just about melting down various metals. Ji Feng was only doing this now to conduct preliminary experiments, and if the final experimental results proved that his idea was feasible, then he would enter the real process of making an alloy, so that the alloy he had designed could be manufactured.

"Ding"

Suddenly, Ji Feng's mobile phone rang, Bai Zhu, who had been resting and waiting on a chair in the distance, immediately brought the phone over, looked at the caller ID on it, and then quickly brought it over to Ji Feng, "Young Ji, it's Li Ruonan calling."

Ji Feng, however, said without looking back, "You pick it up."

Now it was the last few steps of the experiment to the most critical, Ji Feng naturally could not spare his hands to answer the phone, even though the old headmaster had opened his mouth, he could use the laboratory as he wished, but after all, he also had to restrain himself, and try to finish earlier if he could, after all, this was not the old headmaster's hall of fame either, it was better to cause less trouble to his old man.

Bai Zhu nodded slightly and said, "Yes!"

She picked up the phone, "Officer Li, this is Bai Zhu, Ji Shao is busy, you can tell me directly if you have anything" Okay, I'll tell him here"

Speaking here, Bai Zhu held the end of the phone microphone and said to Ji Feng: "Ji Shao, she said that the murderers that were caught that night were all let go by their police station"

"Let go?"

Ji Feng was slightly stunned, although his hands did not stop, his eyebrows were furrowed, and he asked without looking back, "Why were they let go?"

Bai Zhu immediately relayed Ji Feng's meaning, because the temperature near Ji Feng was a bit high and he was still wearing a protective mask, so he had to let Bai Zhu relay his meaning.

After a while, Bai Zhu said, "Young Ji, she said that this matter was not clear over the phone, and that it was complicated anyway, and that even the person who was being chased might now be handed over to the local police"

"What?!"

Ji Feng was stunned for a moment, “Handed over to the local police? Which local? What handover?”

Didn't we say before that the suspects had been let go? How come they suddenly became handed over now? And it was still handed over to the local police The information in these words made Ji Feng instantly realize that things didn't seem to be as simple as he had imagined.

Bai Zhu relayed Ji Feng's words again, but soon she said, “Young Ji, she said it was better to meet and talk”

Ji Feng then nodded, these words were indeed not suitable to be said over the phone, and since Li Ruonan was so insistent on meeting to talk about it, she obviously should have something else to say to herself.

Thinking of this, Ji Feng said, “Tell her that she should come here if she has time, I can't leave now!”

Li Ruonan agreed, anyway, she was also on holiday right now and had nothing to do, so naturally she didn't mind coming over to this side of Union University, she would go anywhere anyway.

On the other hand, Ji Feng's side, after the agreement was made, was then left aside, only to urge Bai Zhu to remind himself, and then, Ji Feng continued his own experiment.

Now that the experiment has come to its last few steps, Ji Feng must give his full attention.

.....

“It's finally done!”

Not knowing how long had passed, when Ji Feng saw the piece of metal that was about the size of a baby's fist on the workbench in front of him, he couldn't help but reveal a smile on his face, while he slowly uttered these words.

This piece of metal, was the alloy he had developed!

In fact, it was easy to develop and gold, as long as one was familiar with the principles and processes, and had the right materials and equipment, it was not difficult to make the alloy.

Only, the key was to see how the performance of this produced alloy would be and what kind of characteristics it actually had, which was the most important.

Although Ji Feng has gone through repeated calculations on the computer, even the molecular structure of the alloy has been repeatedly deduced and analyzed, but the real results will definitely have errors with the calculations, there is no doubt, even if the most advanced experts in the military to do experiments, there will definitely be errors.

The key is to see if this error is within an acceptable range!

So, what Ji Feng has to do now is to test whether the properties of this alloy are the same as his previous calculations or not, if they are the same, then it proves that he has indeed succeeded, but if they are different, then it proves that he has failed this experiment.

At this time, the various equipment in the laboratory came in handy.

Hardness, standard values of self-weight, design values of tensile strength, local compressive strength, modulus of elasticity, coefficient of linear expansion and so on, all kinds of indicators have to be tested rigorously, and all these also need the most professional equipment to do so.

There is no doubt that the equipment in this laboratory is just right!

“Pass!”

“Pass! Pass”

“Pass” Ji Feng’s mouth muttered secretly, after each test, he would very carefully write down the results with a pen, and then compare them with his previous calculations, as the results of each test were compared, the smile on Ji Feng’s face became bigger and bigger .

When the last result was compared, Ji Feng finally couldn’t help but let out a sigh of relief: “..... It’s still successful!”

It was successful!

At least, this experiment was successful, he had successfully produced his own design of alloy, and every performance index was within a reasonable range, not too huge an error from what he had deduced before, which meant that the alloy was fully qualified!

Looking at that one item of data, Ji Feng’s face could not hide a smile, it was an indescribable sense of achievement, even when the Kang Yuan slimming powder and special effects current were manufactured, Ji Feng did not have such a strong sense of achievement.

The reason is that this piece of alloy, now, is entirely of his own design; this technology is not available in modern society, and it is likewise not available in the database of the intelligent brain.

This also meant that it was all entirely his own achievement, and it was hard to describe the sense of achievement in words.

Looking at the piece of metal that had been partially cut off, Ji Feng even had a feeling of excitement that he hadn’t felt for a long time!

But before Ji Feng could fully appreciate the fruits of his creation, Li Ruonan’s phone call came and she arrived at the entrance of the United University.

So, Ji Feng had to temporarily suppress that excitement in his heart, packed up the rest of the alloy and loaded it up, and walked out with Bai Zhu.

.....

When she saw Li Ruonan, her face was a bit depressed, making Ji Feng a bit strange, and only after asking did he know what was going on.

As a result, Ji Feng’s brow was furrowed.

“Jibei Province, Qihe City?!” Ji Feng frowned and confirmed again, “This is what your deputy director told you personally?”

“Mm.”

Li Ruonan nodded and said, “More than that, I also saw the official seal of the Qihe City Police Department on that official letter. Bureau Gao said that this matter involved a special department, and that I should not ask about the latter, and told me to pretend I didn’t know anything, as if this case had never happened.”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but sneer at once, “Good guy!”

Hearing his laughter, Li Ruonan seemed not quite right and couldn’t help but ask, “What’s wrong, is there something wrong?”

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “Even the special department has come out, it’s really impressive!”

Li Ruonan said, “That’s what Bureau Gao said.”

Ji Feng slowly shook his head and said, “I don’t know if the people from the special department are special, but one thing is clear to me unless they are vicious murderers, I can’t think of anyone who would shoot two innocent security guards straight out of the blue! If those people are from the so-called special department, then it’s time for this special department to be fixed! I don’t know why there is any need for such a department to exist if it doesn’t take other people’s lives into consideration!”

Li Ruonan’s pretty face instantly changed slightly, “Ji Feng, don’t talk nonsense.”

Ji Feng waved his hand and said, “They can’t arrest me just because I said a couple of words, can they? Hmph!”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but sneer, although he wasn’t sure if those people were from the special department or not, there was one thing he was sure of, those people were at least ruthless and vicious.

Besides, more than those people, Ji Feng was more willing to believe what Yang Bin said, those murderers, were just some people’s lapdogs, what they wanted, was Yang Bin’s life!

That

Ji Feng glanced at Li Ruonan and said, “You might have been tricked!”

Campus Master Chapter 2350

Li Ruonan’s pretty face couldn’t help but change, “Ji Feng, are you telling the truth?!”

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “I don’t know exactly what’s going on right now, and I can’t say much less produce evidence to prove my guesses, but there is one thing I can be sure of.”

“What?” Li Ruonan asked.

“No matter if those people are from the special department or not, as long as they are from the government department, it is enough to show that they are not small, right?” Ji Feng didn’t answer Li Ruonan, but asked.

“..... is correct.”

Li Ruonan thought about it and couldn't help but nod, although she didn't know exactly what those people's origins were, but just from those automatic weapons they were holding, it could be seen that the units equipped with such weapons were definitely not ordinary units.

Even the Jiangzhou City Bureau's criminal police brigade would only issue such powerful weapons when they were on a big mission, but it was not just a simple matter of issuing them.

The weapons are handed in immediately after the mission, but don't think that this is the end of the story, in fact it is just the beginning.

When the weapon is handed in, it has to be checked for the condition of the weapon, the number, the number of bullets, etc. If the weapon was fired during the mission, a detailed report has to be written to explain why it was fired and the details of how it was fired.

If nothing happens, it's fine, but if something happens, the authorities will definitely come after them with the report.

Therefore, in general, even the Jiangzhou Municipal Bureau does not easily issue these powerful weapons, unless it is a special police force or a bomb squad.

Of course, in addition to these ordinary police officers, there is also a relatively independent department in Jiangzhou – the Police Emergency Response Special Police Unit.

After all, Jiangzhou is an international metropolis, almost a Chinese business card type of city, and in the unlikely event that something unexpected happens here, it is likely to have a huge impact, so the existence of a special rapid-response police force is very necessary.

But apart from these departments, anyone else who wants to get their hands on automatic weapons is simply out of the question unless they go to the black market to buy them.

But those few murderers they were armed with an automatic rifle, and on top of that a pistol, and even a tracker was found in their car This is like going to war!

Regardless of which department they are, that really is not small coming.

"Then, since they're from a government department, then I'm sure they definitely wouldn't dare to shoot at ordinary people that freely, especially if they're not under any threat!" Ji Feng said with certainty, "Don't think that only you police officers need to write reports for shooting, those special department people need to write reports even more for shooting. Once they mess up, the consequences they have to bear are definitely more serious than you guys!"

Li Ruonan was stunned, "Then they still dare to shoot at innocent security guards at will?"

Ji Feng asked, "Then if it were you, would you?"

"Nonsense!"

Li Ruonan glared at him and said, "I'm a police officer, why would I beat up ordinary people if I'm fine?"

Ji Feng said, "Then what if you weren't a police officer but a bandit?"

Li Ruonan said, "Then I probably wouldn't fight either, because it's not like they've offended me or threatened me I said, why are you using me as an analogy, it's not like I'm a vicious villain"

Just as the words came out, Li Ruonan's face changed abruptly, and she looked at Ji Feng in consternation.

As if Ji Feng knew what she was going to say, he nodded slightly and said, "Now do you understand?"

Li Ruonan nodded slowly and said, "Yes, I understand"

That's right!

Li Ruonan really understood, she finally knew why Ji Feng had neither evidence to prove the identity of those murderers, nor any reasonable reason, and knew that Bureau Gao had personally said that those people were all from the special department, but Ji Feng still insisted that he had been tricked

The reason for this is that the behavior of those people is not at all what people in the government department should do!

To be able to shoot towards an innocent security guard without hesitation, and to completely strafe past him, it was even possible to imagine the scene at that time – those murderers drove to the front of the district and continued to chase after that fleeing person, only for the security guards in the security post at the entrance of the district to hear the commotion and come out to ask what was going on.

Before they could get close enough, they were hit by the murderers who got out of the car and fell to the ground with a direct burst.

Judging from where they fell, they had only just left the security post when they were shot at!

This meant that they hadn't even talked to the culprits, so it was even more unlikely that they would have posed any threat to them or impeded their movement.

This is a clear indication of how vicious and cruel those men were!

They would not be from the government.

Although there are people in the government who are also vicious and domineering, and even have blood on their hands, they are not so brutal in public, at least not in this situation.

–Those murderers were not from any special department at all!

Li Ruonan understood that, just like what Ji Feng had said, she had really been tricked!

Thinking about these issues, Li Ruo Nan's beautiful eyes were covered with anger and her pretty face was full of frost, she had a feeling of being fooled!

First, they found a random reason to let her take a leave of absence, and they even said that it was for the sake of her parents, so that she could go back to spend more time with them and their families.

In addition, when she found out the news, she went to the police station to ask questions, only to have Bureau Gao give her a grand excuse – those were not murderers, they were from the special department and they were on a mission!

At that time, Li Ruonan was somewhat skeptical, but now that she thought about it, she had actually been teased all along, and these two people, Bureau Gao and Zhao Gongyong, had not only taken the case out of her hands and released the people, but didn't even give her a legitimate reason!

"Bastards!"

Li Ruonan's body couldn't help but tremble a little in anger, "It's simply too deceitful!"

Ji Feng patted her shoulder and comforted her, "Ruo Nan, there's no need to be so angry, the officialdom is actually more dark than what you see, but more often than not, there are actually only one or two people who are really dirty."

Li Ruonan said, "No! I'm going to ask them for clarification!"

Ji Feng smiled and asked, "How are you going to find them and ask them? Haven't you read the official letter? If you don't believe it, you can privately ask the Qihe City police station to check it out, other than that, the most you can do is suspect, but nothing can be done."

When Li Ruonan thought about it, it was really true.

Even if she suspected that Gao was playing something fishy and reported it to the top, but if the top sent someone down to investigate, at most they would only verify the authenticity of that official letter, and if it proved to be true, what could be investigated?

It would be better to verify the authenticity of the letter yourself!

Li Ruonan said, "Then I'll call Qihe City Bureau right now and ask them about the official letter."

Ji Feng said, "Don't use your own name, use the name of the Jiangzhou Municipal Bureau's criminal police team."

Li Ruonan immediately understood and nodded, "I understand."

And then, Li Ruonan made a phone call to someone, seemingly asking for the number of Qihe City Bureau, and then this was dialed to the Qihe City side.

After a short time, Li Ruonan hung up the phone and looked at Ji Feng oddly.

Seeing this, Ji Feng could not help but raise an eyebrow and asked, "What's wrong? Looking at you like this, is there something wrong?"

Li Ruonan said, "I just called the Qihe City side to ask about it, but they said that the official letter was real and was indeed issued by their city bureau, and I asked about the specifics of this case, but they said it was confidential and could not be made public"

Ji Feng smiled and asked, "So you think that my analysis was wrong?"

Li Ruonan immediately shook her head and said, "No! I think your analysis is right, even if those few people are really from the special department, they are still a few scum! It's the rat turd that spoiled the pot of soup!"

Li Ruonan was convinced that Ji Feng's words were right. Not because of her unreserved trust in Ji Feng, but simply because of Ji Feng's words – no one would poison two innocent people for no reason!

Ji Feng laughed: "Since you believe in me, why are you still looking at me like that?"

Li Ruonan said, "I'm just wondering why even the Qihe City side is saying that? It's fine if Bureau Gao lied, why did Qihe City's side follow suit?"

Ji Feng smiled and asked, "What do you think then?"

"I think?"

Li Ruonan's eyebrows knitted slightly and after thinking for a while, her pretty face suddenly changed once again, "Could it be that the root of the problem lies on the Qihe City side?!"

Ji Feng instantly smiled as he nodded and said, "I think so too."

In his heart, he was secretly praising Li Ruonan for this girl's cleverness, in fact, he had already had a rough guess of what had happened, even a rough guess of where those murderers had come from, and then he had connected all the dots, and that was how he figured it out.

And Li Ruonan guessed that the problem might lie on Qihe City's side just by analysis, which was already very good.

"What exactly has happened over in Qihe City?" Li Ruonan muttered to herself in some confusion.

"I see, ah, you should still be concerned about that injured person lying in the hospital right now!" Ji Feng said, "Those few murderers have been moved away, so I'm afraid that the one they're after won't be too safe either, right?"

"What you mean is" Li Ruonan said in consternation, "Those murderers will once again strike at that person they are chasing?"
