“Hula~”

The door of a business car was pulled open and several people with bags on their backs quickly got down from the car, and by the strong light from the high-brightness spotlights of the convention centre, one could clearly see that these people were wearing masks and duck-tongue caps.

At the same time, the doors of several other cars were opened and a group of people got out of them.

The most conspicuous was the man who got out of the middle SUV, who was wearing a long trench coat and a cowboy hat on his head, looking very imposing.

However, if this kind of outfit is placed in the current weather, it looks so solid – it is only autumn now, and many people have just taken their jackets out of their wardrobes, and even some hotheads were still wearing short-sleeved t-shirts at noon, but now there are people wearing trench coats, which makes people feel hot.

It was hard not to stand out as the group was all tall and big, and they looked very imposing when they walked.

As soon as they got off the bus, they immediately attracted the attention of the security guards at the main entrance.

The two security guards at the post couldn't help but glance at each other and seemed to see the strange and wary look in each other's eyes, there were still people coming at this late hour?

“What are these people doing?”

“Go over and take a look!”

The two security guards were instantly on alert.

Even in normal times they would have come over to ask, not to mention that at this moment, in the hall of the International Convention and Exhibition Centre behind them, there were jewels and jades worth a great deal of money, and even, there were top quality jewels from a certain European royal family, which was enough to arouse anyone's eyes and greed, and even the most decent people would turn into greedy robbers if they saw these!

So, both guards couldn't help but grip their batons tightly in their hands and one of them hurried out with a torch.

They took a few quick steps outside and turned on their torches at the same time, and at once, two bright lights shone right at the group, so bright that one could barely open one's eyes!

The flashlights in the hands of the security guards were not ordinary torches, but mineral lamps with high intensity and high brightness, plus there were two rows of large spotlights on the roof of the convention centre itself, so the group of people on the opposite side were instantly illuminated clearly.

The strong light immediately caused the group of people opposite to subconsciously raise their hands to shield their eyes.

“Hey! Who are you people?” One of the guards shouted.

“! #The two guards could not understand which language the man was speaking, but it sounded like bird language to their ears.

“It’s a foreigner?”

The two security guards looked at each other in some confusion, these people were wearing masks and duck-tongue hats, and at the moment they were using their hands to block their eyes, so they couldn’t really see clearly whether the other person was a foreigner or not.

“What should we do?” One of the security guards was a bit hesitant, “Why don’t we report to the leader and ask for someone who knows a foreign language to be sent?”

“No!”

Another security guard said, “The museum is now closed anyway, just let them go!”

Little did he know that his decision would cost him and his colleague their lives.

So, seeing that the two sides could not communicate in terms of language, and seeing that the group of people were still walking this way, the two guards hurriedly went forward at the same time, while waving their hands repeatedly, signalling those people to go back, but the other side did not seem to understand at all, and continued to walk forward, seeing that they were about to enter, the two guards were immediately anxious.

“These people don’t understand Chinese, can’t they still read hand signals?”

The two security guards then planned to get closer before gesturing to the other side, however, as soon as both sides got closer, before they could say anything, they only saw a flash of white light in front of them, and the next moment, those two security guards stared at the same time, as if they had seen something extremely horrible.

“Pfft~! Pff~”

After two tiny but extremely strange sounds, two lines of blood spurted out from the necks of these two guards at the same time, they wanted to scream, but they couldn’t, but their strong desire to live` made them instinctively cover their necks desperately, the batons and mineral lamps in their hands snapped to the ground, and the area suddenly went dark.

If one looked from the side, one could clearly see that the bodies of the two guards were trembling violently, their eyes staring deadly at “Work!”

The man in the cowboy hat and trench coat waved his hand and said in a low voice, but in authentic Chinese, although the tone of his voice had some stiffness and appeared a bit raw, the pronunciation was clear.

With that, one by one, the two men helped the two guards, like good friends hooking up together, and just helped them walk to the back of the car.

When they came out again two minutes later, they had already changed into their security uniforms and put on their security hats, only their faces were still covered with masks, revealing only one pair of eyes outside.

“You two stand guard outside, the rest of you, proceed as planned!” The man in the cowboy hat said in a low voice.

“Yes!”

The two companions who had already changed into their security uniforms nodded in response.

Without saying a word, the cowboy hat man waved his hand and the group immediately struck off towards the main entrance of the convention centre.

.....

At the same time, in the exhibition centre, it was still a busy scene.

The company’s business is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

The showcases are provided by the organisers and are not the usual glass counters in which things are kept under lock and key, and at the end of each day the various areas are cordoned off to prevent theft and any other accidents.

During this process, people from the police and security companies are present.

At this very moment, Li Ruonan was leading a team on patrol back and forth.

“Captain, this place will be over soon, there shouldn’t be anything, I’ll just keep an eye on it, you can go back and rest first!” Ding Weijian couldn’t help but say, “You haven’t rested all day, your body will not be able to take it.”

“It’s better to wait until it’s all over.” Li Ruonan shook her head.

As the vice captain of the criminal investigation team, Li Ruo Nan naturally would not do less than others just because she was a woman, especially not worse than the senior captain Zhao Gongyong.

For Zhao Gongyong, Li Ruo Nan’s impression can be described as bad to the extreme, from the last time the people of Qihe City in Jibei Province in Jiangzhou wantonly committed murder, but in the end by the deputy director Gao Changcai and the criminal police brigade Zhang Zhao Gongyong private to let go, Li Ruo Nan no longer have any good impression of them.

So she wants to use her own practical actions to prove that Zhao Gongyong, the captain, is not as good as a woman, which is not a man and does not deserve to be a captain!

So since the exhibition began, Li Ruonan has been extremely serious, as far as possible without a single mistake, especially when it comes to her responsibility, there will be no negligence, will repeatedly patrol several times or even a dozen times.

You know, the scale of the exhibition centre is quite large, the three districts together span two to three kilometres, and patrolling back and forth a dozen times is equivalent to walking dozens of kilometres!

Even a grown man would feel a bit overwhelmed by such intensity of work, but Li Ruonan still persevered.

The effect of her doing so was obvious, as there was not even a single minor incident in the entire convention centre during the time she was in charge, and even if there was, it was resolved in the shortest possible time.

On the contrary, I heard that when Zhao Gongyong was in charge, there was even a vicious incident in which a visitor fought with each other and one person was seriously injured and sent to hospital, which had a very bad impact.

This made Zhao Gongyong more or less lose face, so when he handed over his work to Li Ruo Nan, his expression was not too good, which enraged Li Ruo Nan even more, and she was determined to make a show of it!

“Ruo Nan!”

Just at that moment, a voice came over.

Li Ruonan turned around and saw that it was Fan Jianyuan walking over with a smile on his face, she was a little surprised: “Jianyuan, why are you here? How did you get in at this hour?”

At this time the entire convention centre was no longer open to the public, and the audience had to wait until the opening time tomorrow before they could come in, either with a work permit from the security company and internal staff, or from the police but Fan Jianyuan had nothing on him, so how did he get in?

Fan Jianyuan said with a smile, “I’ve been coming in every day for the past few days, the people from the security company know me, and knowing the relationship between the two of us, they let me in!”

As he spoke, Fan Jianyuan even lifted the thermos bucket in his hand and laughed, “I knew you must still be here when I sent you a message and you didn’t reply, you haven’t eaten yet, right? I’ve brought chicken soup, come and have some!”

Li Ruonan blushed a little and said with a frown, “Jianyuan, I’m still working, how can I eat!”

Fan Jian Yuan laughed, “Even if you are busy with work, you still need to eat, how can you have the strength to work if you are not full? Ding, are you right?”

Ding Weijian, who was next to Li Ruonan, immediately nodded and smiled, “That’s right! Captain, why don’t you take a break and eat something, this is a dinner of love, if you don’t eat it, we will share it!”

Li Ruonan instantly glared at him and said, “You want to eat? Then it’s good for you to eat!”

“Uh”

Ding Weijian was immediately choked and laughed twice, shrinking his head and not daring to say anything more, it seemed that the captain could not save face, huh?

The actual fact is that you can’t be sure that you’re going to be able to get a good deal on your own.

A few policemen could not help but heave a smile, each understanding that Ding Weijian was asking them not to continue to be light bulbs here, which would interfere with the captain's love affair with his boyfriend.

After Ding Weijian had left with a few policemen, Fan Jianyuan then said with a smile, "It seems you are very popular in the unit."

Li Ruonan shook her head and said, "These boys just like to fool around, Jianyuan, find a place to sit for a while or wait for me outside in the car until I'm done"

"That won't do!"

Fan Jianyuan grabbed her hand.

Campus Master Chapter 2642

Li Ruonan shook her head and said, "These boys just like to fool around, Jianyuan, find a place to sit for a while or wait for me outside in the car until I'm done"

"That won't do!"

Fan Jianyuan grabbed her hand, "Ruo Nan, no matter how busy you are with work, you have to eat a meal, it took me a lot of time to get here, if you don't eat again it will get cold."

Li Ruonan had no choice but to say, "Jian Yuan, stop it, don't you see so many people are busy, if I am eating here alone, what does it look like? It's better to wait until we get back."

With that, Li Ruonan was about to turn around and leave, but her hand was being grabbed by Fan Jianyuan and she couldn't break it after struggling a few times.

She couldn't help but be a little distracted, but just said patiently, "Jian Yuan, how about this, when the exhibition is over, I'll treat you to a nice meal, can I? Now I really have to go to work, let go of me, okay?"

But Fan Jianyuan shook his head and said, "No! Ruo Nan, this is a piece of my heart, can you really bear to just throw it away?"

Li Ruonan subconsciously gathered her hair and didn't answer the question.

Fan Jianyuan could not help but shake his head and said, "Ruo Nan, it seems that you still do not accept me in your heart, right?"

Li Ruonan smiled and couldn't help but say, "Jianyuan"

"I really want to know, how exactly can I impress you?" Fan Jianyuan interrupted her and stared into her eyes as he asked, "Am I not doing enough? Why do I always feel like there's a layer of something between you and me all the time?"

"Jianyuan, let's not talk about that now, okay?" Li Ruonan smiled, her heart was a bit flustered, she subconsciously looked around and found that everyone else was busy with their own matters at hand and didn't notice this side, she was then slightly relieved, "Jian Yuan, don't think too much about well, can't I still drink?"

Only then did Fan Jianyuan smile, "That's right!"

He looked around and said, "It's not convenient over here, let's go to the rest area and sit there and eat slowly."

And then he pulled Li RuoNan over without a word.

Li Ruonan had no choice but to let him pull her, but there was always a feeling of discomfort in her heart, and she couldn't help but look left and right as she walked along, as if she was afraid that others would see her.

"Hey, hey, see, the captain seems a bit embarrassed?" On the other side, a policeman couldn't help but laugh in a low voice.

"It seems like it, it's a rare thing, the captain is actually embarrassed at times!"

"I say you boys, you've got itchy skin, haven't you?" Ding Weijian couldn't bear to hear this, "Daring to talk about the captain behind his back, you've got some nerve!"

A few policemen couldn't help but heave a laugh.

"Go on patrol!"

Ding Weijian glared, "One by two, I think you all have nothing better to do! I'm telling you, finish patrolling the whole exhibition area within half an hour, or else you'll stay here tonight and work overtime!"

"No, Chief Ding, can't we just go now?" Several policemen hastily screamed in distress.

"Then why don't you go quickly!?" Ding Weijian said.

At once, several policemen hurriedly patrolled off, and Ding Weijian could not help but hum, "A few brats, not learning the good things but having to learn to chew the cud!"

He shook his head and smiled, but he couldn't help but glance at Li Ruonan and found that she really did look a bit unnatural, as if she was really shy.

"That's a good thing!"

Ding Weijian said secretly in his heart, Li RuoNan is shy, this means that she truly likes Fan JianYuan, a woman will only show a shy look in front of the man she likes, this is what his girlfriend told him, he felt it was right.

"Fan Jianyuan seems to be good too!"

Ding Weijian suddenly thought of Ji Feng again, he had always thought that there seemed to be something between Ji Feng and Li Ruo Nan before, but now it seemed that he had guessed wrong at first, but when he thought about it carefully, if he compared Ji Feng and Fan Jianyuan, it was Fan Jianyuan who was a bit better and more suitable for Li Ruo Nan.

With mutterings in his heart, Ding Weijian also followed those few policemen and prepared to go on patrol, but just as he was about to take a step, he suddenly heard a 'pop' sound, and immediately his eyes went black.

He was startled and looked around in a panic, only to find that the lights in the exhibition hall had suddenly gone out and the hall was pitch black.

"Ah...!"

"Why did it suddenly go dark?"

"Is there a power outage?"

The exhibition hall was suddenly noisy, and everyone could not help but feel a little panicked, and there seemed to be the sound of footsteps walking hurriedly.

Ding Weijian's heart was instantly startled, and he reacted extremely quickly, reaching for the torch on his waist and his sidearm to prevent anything from happening.

"Ta-da~!"

At that moment, the lights in the hall suddenly flickered and came back on, only that the light was far less bright than before.

"What's going on?!"

Li Ruonan, who had just walked to the rest area and hadn't even had a chance to sit down, was also taken aback, "Why did the power suddenly go out when it was fine?"

Fan Jianyuan laughed, "Who knows about that, with that much power consumption in Jiangzhou, maybe it tripped somewhere, anyway, it's coming back on now, it's nothing, hurry up and eat!"

"No!"

Li Ruonan but shook his head, looked up at those lights that were already weaker than before and said, "This is not another incoming call, it's the backup power supply of the convention centre, the self-provided generator is working, look at the lights, far less bright than just now, this is because the power of the backup generator is not very big, it can support the lighting, but many other equipment won't work."

Fan Jianyuan nodded and said, "So that's it! That's not much, there's not much other equipment here apart from the lighting!"

"There is!"

Li Ruonan said, "The backup power supply may not last much longer, their own generators are not powerful enough No, I have to hurry over and take a look, you sit here and wait for me, don't go anywhere."

This exhibition centre is not only lighting facilities, there are many other equipment, such as security monitoring devices, and on-site anti-theft devices, as well as automatic firefighting and many other facilities need to use electricity.

Fan Jianyuan said, "Ruo Nan, just have someone go and take a look, why go there personally?"

Li Ruo Nan didn't hesitate, she also knew that it was too slow to walk there now, so she immediately took out her mobile phone and prepared to call the person in charge of the conference organiser, but when she dialled the number she realised that there was no signal on her mobile phone!

"Jianyuan, lend me your mobile phone for a while." Li Ruonan said.

"Okay!"

Fan Jianyuan handed his mobile phone to Li Ruo Nan, but when she took it, she saw that Fan Jianyuan's mobile phone also had no signal!

Li Ruo Nan's eyebrows knitted together at once: "How come there's no signal?"

Fan Jianyuan shook his head, "I don't know, could it be that once the backup generator is working, there's radiation, so it's affecting the signal strength of the phone?"

"Maybe."

Li Ruonan wasn't too well versed in this either, "Jianyuan, you wait here, I'll go out and make a call."

The police car outside had a communication device on top, one used within the police system, and was almost immune to such interference.

"BOOM~!"

Suddenly, a loud sound suddenly came from the front door.

Li Ruonan's face suddenly changed as she immediately heard that it was the sound of a gunshot.

As she looked, she saw that three men had unexpectedly come in at the front door, wearing masks and hats, so she could not see their faces, but they were standing at the door, like door gods.

The most important thing was that these three men were holding guns, one of them was holding a pistol, while the other two, were holding long guns – because the distance was too far, Li Ruonan could not see clearly whether they were submachine guns or rifles.

But no matter which kind of gun it was, it was not a good thing.

When Li Ruonan saw this scene, she couldn't help but feel a thud in her heart, she knew, "Oh no!"

Subconsciously, Li Ruo Nan was about to draw her gun, but her hand was suddenly held down by Fan Jianyuan, Li Ruo Nan instantly looked at him angrily, her face was blue: "Fan Jianyuan, what are you doing!"

"Shh...!"

Fan Jianyuan hurriedly made a gesture of silence and busily said, "Ruo Nan, don't be impulsive, look at"

Li Ruonan where there is still time to pay attention to him, as soon as he pushed Fan Jianyuan's hand away, "What are you looking at, there are armed thugs at the door!"

“There are also other doors!” Fan Jianyuan hurriedly said.

“What?!”

Li Ruonan’s body shook as she fiercely turned to look and saw, indeed, at several other doors in this exhibition area, there were people standing, and moreover, these people were holding weapons in their hands!

Amongst them, there was another doorway where people were coming in – those who came in were all gunmen!

There were dozens of them!

One look and Li Ruonan couldn’t help but feel cold feet and chills in her heart, just by standing at the door, there were more than 20 people, plus those who were coming in, there were at least dozens of thugs!

And all of them had guns!

“Ah...!”

Suddenly, someone screamed, realising the situation, and everyone on the scene, including the staff, panicked, shouting in terror and subconsciously trying to flee.

Li Ruonan looked on with great urgency in her heart as she shouted violently, “Don’t panic! Don’t panic! Danger”

“Boom!”

“Ta-da-da”

A shot rang out, instantly interrupting Li Ruonan’s shout, and causing the scene to become even more terrified, screaming and panicking!

Seeing that one door was guarded, a group of people subconsciously ran wildly towards the other door, yet when they reacted to find that the other door was also guarded by thugs, they couldn’t help but scream in alarm and turn around to flee.

However, at this moment, all the doors of the convention centre were guarded and they had nowhere to run but towards one door. When they saw that someone was pointing a gun at them, they were scared out of their wits and turned around and ran back towards the other door, only to be met with the same treatment

The bandits standing at the door didn’t do anything drastic, they just pointed their guns inside and watched as the men ran frantically, one trip at a time, like dogs in distress!

Campus Master Chapter 2643

At the Jiangzhou International Convention and Exhibition Centre, a huge riot is unfolding at the moment.

At the root of this riot was a group of armed bandits wearing masks and hats and holding weapons who stormed into the exhibition area, and some people were even shot at.

So everyone realised what was happening to them at the moment and fear spread in an instant as everyone panicked and frantically tried to escape.

Li Ruonan wanted to draw her gun, but her hand was held down by Fan Jianyuan in a death grip.

“Don’t be impulsive Ruo Nan, there are bandits all around, you are no match for them!” Fan Jian Yuan said sharply, “You’ll only cause more casualties, don’t be impulsive!”

“Nonsense!”

Li Ruonan said angrily, “If I don’t do anything, only then will I cause more casualties!”

Fan Jianyuan yelled lowly, “Didn’t you see that? Those bandits have only fired a few shots since they came in, I’m afraid they didn’t want to kill anyone, but to rob the jewels and jades at the scene!”

Li Ruonan said angrily, “Then we can’t let them rob it either!”

“Are human lives important, or are those jewels and jades important?!” Fan Jianyuan yelled in her ear.

“Both are important!”

Li Ruonan clenched her silver teeth and said angrily, “I don’t have time to talk to you more now, get out of the way, hide to the side and don’t get in my way!”

With that, she was about to push Fan Jian Yuan away, but to her surprise, Fan Jian Yuan’s strength was extraordinarily strong, and she didn’t even push him away at once!

Even Fan Jian Yuan’s hand was pressed against her waist from the beginning to the end, making it impossible for her to pull out her gun.

Especially when she saw that the people at the scene were scurrying around in unbelievable panic, there was no telling how many stampedes had occurred in the chaos, and the few people who had been shot by those bandits at the beginning were now lying on the ground, dead or alive, Li Ruonan was so anxious that she almost exploded!

“Fan Jianyuan!”

Li Ruonan almost roared out, she looked at Fan Jian Yuan angrily and roared, “If you don’t let go of me, I’ll beat you up too!”

Fan Jianyuan said, “I don’t want you to get confused! Ruo Nan, listen to my words

“BOOM~ BOOM BOOM BOOM!”

Before Fan Jianyuan could finish his words, a sudden burst of gunfire interrupted him, and Li Ruonan and he turned their heads to look at the same time, and saw several people in security uniforms suddenly rushing out from the crowd, shooting abruptly in the direction of a gate, while a security guard yelled, “Follow me, run this way!”

It was the security company who started to resist, as the sudden commotion earlier had thrown the security personnel and police officers on the scene into chaos, and even when they tried to resist they were swept away by the frenzied fleeing crowd, trying to fire but being blocked by those who kept running past, leaving them no chance to resist at all!

But as the people on the scene got too tired of running and it was getting more and more chaotic, this was the time when the security personnel present had the chance to say rush out and fight back.

“Boom boom boom boom~~~”

At the same time, Ding Weijian and the others immediately understood the intentions of those security personnel, they were trying to get through a gate first, or at least keep an exit, so that these innocent people at the scene could escape first.

However, even though they understood what the security personnel were doing, Ding Weijian and the others could not help but curse in their hearts that the security personnel had a good idea, but they were too reckless.

So with no choice, Ding Weijian and the others could only fire at several gates separately, hoping to force the bandits back first.

“Blitzkrieg~”

However, when an ear-piercing to the extreme sound of machine guns rang out, a bloody and incomparable scene appeared before everyone’s eyes.

They saw that the few security personnel who had resisted at the beginning, their attack did hit one of the bandits guarding the gate, but in the next moment, two more people unexpectedly rushed in outside the door, and they held their guns and directly aimed at those security personnel and strafed them together.

In an instant, almost all the seven or eight security personnel were killed on the spot, especially the automatic rifle in the bandits’ hands, which was so powerful and fast that two of them even had their stomachs instantly torn open by the bullets, and their intestines immediately flowed out, and their internal organs were even splashed in all directions.

“Ah...!”

Such a bloody scene scared everyone, everyone at the scene was screaming and yelling in shock, they were all terrified.

Ding Weijian and the others were also terrified, Li Ruo Nan was equally stunned, the bandits’ firepower was so powerful that it was beyond her imagination, she had never seen such powerful firepower since she became a police officer!

However, the next moment Li Ruo Nan was the first to react, when she saw the bandits pointing their guns at Ding Wei Jian and others, she could no longer hold back the scene in front of her eyes, she used all her strength to scream, “Ding!

“Xiao Ding get down!”

Li Ruonan’s scream did not know how many people woke up, as Ding Weijian and others slammed down on the ground, many people also instinctively imitated them, also followed on the ground.

“Ta-da-da

As those staff members who were blocked in the convention centre scurried around like headless flies, but were unable to escape at all, and eventually could only run from one trip to another, their strong desire to live made them want to tear a hole in the walls of the convention centre to escape, but they could only hope for luxury, a piercing gunshot instantly brought down the crowd running at the front.

“Ah...!”

With a scream of utter terror, everyone subconsciously slumped to the ground!

The entire exhibition area was instantly silenced.

However, the guns of the bandits kept sweeping over everyone’s bodies, and although they didn’t continue shooting, they sent chills down everyone’s spines, and even the more timid ones were already incontinent with fear!

Under the black muzzles of the guns, everyone was on the ground, and none of them dared to speak or even make a sound.

The only people who dared to make a sound were those who were too scared to endure the fear of death, and who could not help but make some odd sounds in their throats.

“Coughing

Under such circumstances, the coughing sound was so ear-splitting that immediately afterwards, a scene that made the hearts of Li Ruonan and Ding Weijian as well as some of the remaining security personnel at the scene go cold appeared.

Just see the few bandits who were suddenly shot down by the security personnel when they counterattacked just now, but coughing a few times, surprisingly stood up from the ground again, even, except for one of them bleeding on his arm, from the others’ bodies, surprisingly no sign of bleeding could be seen!

..... bulletproof vests!

These people were wearing bulletproof vests!

No wonder they could still stand up after being shot a few times, they were wearing bulletproof vests!

The automatic rifles, semi-automatic rifles, submachine guns, such a powerful firepower was enough to suppress all the police plus the security company people at the scene, the bandits were also outnumbered, especially when seven or eight security personnel were killed on the spot, the force that could resist at the scene was really too little!

What’s more, those bandits were wearing bulletproof vests, how could they fight?

Seeing this scene, Li Ruonan’s body was simply cold, and her heart kept sinking!

Look at the puddles of blood on the ground, it was so blinding.

The seven or eight bodies of the security personnel strewn about looked so horrible!

At this moment, Li Ruonan suddenly felt some regret that she should have listened to Fan Jianyuan right at the beginning and should not have resisted at all, but should have organised the people present as well as possible, so that they would not panic and save their lives first!

Looking at the corpses that had fallen in a pool of blood, Li Ruonan's heart welled up with infinite remorse!

But in fact, she knew that in that chaotic situation, it was almost impossible to organise those people.

But as she watched several lives disappear right before her eyes, Li Ruonan hated herself beyond measure for her inability to do anything about it.

"Ruo Nan, don't be impulsive!"

Seeing Li RuoNan frozen, Fan JianYuan leaned over and said in her ear, "Did you see that, as long as you don't move around, these people won't shoot!"

Li Ruonan stared at the bandits, her eyes shooting out with intense hatred!

These brutes!

They were simply not human!

"Those with weapons on them, hand them all over!" At this moment, a bandit stepped forward and said loudly, "Don't expect that the people outside will save you, your guards outside are all under our control, now, I need your cooperation!"

"....."

No one spoke, and no one made any movement.

Seeing this situation, the bandit could not help but snort coldly, "Not handing over, are you? Very well! From now on, we are going to search you, and if I let me search you for weapons, you will only go to hell and regret it!"

With that, he waved his hand, and two bandits came up, and as soon as they had dragged one up, the other took charge of the search.

"Wait a minute, let's hand in our weapons!"

Fan Jianyuan raised his hand violently and exclaimed, "We hand them over!"

Li Ruo Nan's eyebrows knitted together and Fan Jian Yuan immediately whispered in her ear, "Ruo Nan, these people are here for real, no more dead people!"

"..... hand it over!" Li Ruonan gritted her teeth.

Once the weapons were handed over, it meant that they no longer had a strong ability to resist, and it also meant that they would be lambs to the slaughter from now on!

However, the weapons had to be handed over, they had no choice!

Li Ruo Nan gritted her teeth and was about to get up and hand over her weapons, but Fan Jian Yuan suddenly stopped her, "I'll go, you're so pretty, there's no guarantee that those bandits won't have bad intentions!"

Li Ruonan could not help but feel warm in her heart as she slowly nodded her head.

Seeing that Fan Jianyuan had come over and handed over his weapons, Ding Weijian and the others could only hand over their weapons, and at the same time, there were also a few people from the security company who handed over their weapons.

"Search again!"

The bandit said coldly.

Campus Master Chapter 2644

"Clatter~!"

A pile of pistols and intercom devices were thrown to the ground, as well as dozens of mobile phones, all of which were also casually wrapped in a piece of clothing and thrown to the ground by one of the bandits.

At this time, everyone in the exhibition hall was searched, and all the police officers, including Li Ruonan, as well as the security personnel from the security company all handed in their weapons.

Under the black muzzle of the bandits' guns, even if they were not willing to do so, they could not refuse to hand them over.

Li Ruonan didn't want to hand them over, but she was equally helpless. She knew that Fan Jian Yuan was right, these bandits were for real, the blinding blood on the floor and the bodies strewn about were enough to show how vicious and malicious these bandits really were, and they wouldn't spare a single bullet.

Only by staying alive could they have a chance to get people out!

So when Fan Jian Yuan handed over his gun, Li Ruonan could only endure it.

But these bandits would not let them off so easily, so they sent someone to search each and every one of them again, and they naturally would not allow any instability in the hostages in their hands.

So all the hostages were searched for anything suspicious, including mobile phones, fruit knives or toy knives, and even walkie-talkies and various other devices.

Li Ruonan could only watch all this, but could do nothing about it.

It was only when one of the bandits was being searched that she stared extremely carefully at the bandit, hoping to make a note of the bandit's physical features. Although the other party was wearing a mask and a hat, covering their entire face tightly, Li Ruonan thought, out of police instinct, that they always had something to reveal.

And so it was!

Li Ruonan found something of value, yet this discovery, however, shocked her!

She discovered that the bandit who searched her had blue eyes This person was not a Chinese!

No wonder these bandits all looked tall and big, it turned out they were foreigners!

But how did the foreigners carry so many weapons to China?

Li Ruonan's mind raced, and her eyes swept over and over the uncovered eyes of the bandits' masks and hats, hoping to jot down more useful information.

But when her mobile phone was taken away, her heart couldn't help but sink. Without her means of communication, she had no way of contacting the outside world, even though she had tried to call out before but there was no signal, she was still undeterred, maybe she could get through.

But now, she had no means of communication, so what could she do even if she had a signal?

Looking at the corpses lying in a pool of blood, Li Ruonan's heart was going crazy with hatred, these foreign animals, they don't treat Chinese people as human beings at all, are the lives of Chinese people so cheap in their eyes?

With the search over, all the hostages were gathered in the open area in the centre of the exhibition hall, with a circle of bandits around to guard them.

At the same time, there was another group of bandits who were walking towards those display cases.

"Everyone!"

At that very moment, a man wearing a long trench coat and a cowboy hat came over, this man was also wearing a mask and could not see his face, but from the colour of his eyes, which were very different from those of the Chinese, one could tell that this man was a foreigner.

And his fluent English was an indirect indication of who he was!

He said in English, "Everyone, you don't need to panic, we are not interested in you, only in the beautiful little things in these display cases, so as long as you cooperate honestly, there will be no danger and we will treat him as a friend."

As he spoke, he held out his hand and pointed to the display cases around him.

It was clear that the charming little things he was referring to were those jewels and jades in the various display cases, and they were coming for the vast amount of jewels in this exhibition hall!

"But if anyone has an unfriendly attitude towards us and wants to play tricks, then I'm sorry, he will be our enemy!"

The cowboy hat man spread his hands, "Then we'll just have to clear him out! Now, I ask you all to decide whether you want to be our friends or our enemies! If you choose to be friends, please give us the password of the showcase you belong to, or open it yourself, I think that's the best cooperation!"

At this point it became clear to everyone that these people were coming for the jewels, they were committing armed robbery!

“Bastards!” Li Ruonan couldn’t help but grit her teeth and curse out.

“Ruo Nan, be silent!” Fan Jianyuan hurriedly winked at her.

Li Ruo Nan’s face turned blue as she gritted her teeth and said, “These people deserve to die! Jian Yuan, we can’t just sit here and wait for death, we have to find a way to report to the outside!”

Fan Jianyuan said at once, “Are you crazy?! Look, there are dozens of hostages at the scene, even if we report to the outside, what can we do? We’ll be in more danger if the armed police come! Now as long as we don’t provoke these robbers, we should be fine

Li Ruonan said angrily, “Are we just going to stand by and watch them kill and set fire to the city, and then rob the valuable jewellery afterwards?!”

“Shh—!”

When Fan Jianyuan saw that she was on the verge of roaring, his face turned pale with fear and he hurriedly calmed her down, saying, “Auntie, keep your voice down! If you draw the robbers’ attention to us, we won’t even be able to save our lives, so how can we talk about escaping to deliver the message?”

Li Ruonan knew that he had a point, and despite her resentment, she could only suppress the fire in her heart and said, “Should we just watch them kill and rob and then leave?”

Fan Jianyuan lowered his voice and asked, “Are human lives or jewellery important?”

Li Ruonan said, “Of course I know that human lives are important, but how do you dare to guarantee that they will leave honestly after the robbery? What if they kill all of us by then?”

Fan Jianyuan frowned and said, “How is that possible? There are dozens of us here, how would they dare to kill them all?”

Li Ruonan’s gaze fell on the bodies strewn about, “Isn’t that the best example? If they can kill a few, they can kill dozens!”

Fan Jianyuan said, “They killed those few because they resisted and influenced the robbers’ actions. You see your men also resisted, but then they listened to you in time and fell to the ground, and aren’t they fine now? Ruo Nan, just listen to me, bear with me for now, after these robbers have finished robbing and left, we will then contact the outside, by then without the hostages in hand, the police will not be afraid to act, what do you think?”

Li Ruonan did not say anything, she knew that this was the only way to go at this moment, because this was the best way.

Now there were armed robbers all around her, she couldn’t think of any good way to escape even if she wanted to, on the contrary, if she moved she would also alert the robbers, and if more people were injured or even killed because of her, then she would really regret it for the rest of her life!

“Woo~~”

In the crowd, there were deliberately suppressed cries, some people couldn’t stand the horrible scene in front of them and were so scared that they were about to collapse.

Hearing this, Li Ruonan's heart grew even more hateful.

At this time, the robber in the lead was already aiming his gun at the scene once again and said, "It seems that none of you are willing to cooperate! Then, I can only say sorry to all of you!"

.....

"It's already getting late!"

Raising his hand to look at the time, it was almost eight o'clock, so Ji Feng planned to make a phone call to his sister Li Yantong.

Today Li Yantong went to her second uncle's house, and her father Ji Zhenhua was also there, so in order not to interfere with their father-daughter relationship, Ji Feng did not follow him there, but stayed at home.

But seeing as it was already dark now, Ji Feng planned to call Li Yantong to ask if she was coming back to rest for the night.

"Drip drip drip~~"

"Drip drip drip!"

Just at this moment, a faint sound of dripping came from upstairs, but it made Ji Feng, who had just taken out his phone, frown abruptly.

Ji Feng jerked his head back and saw that Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei were chatting with Han Zhen and the girls about something. The next moment, he suddenly stood up from the sofa and ran upstairs in a hurry without saying a word, and even because he was too anxious, he directly grabbed the handrail of the stairs and went up to the first floor in a longitudinal manner, and then used the same method to go up to the third floor.

In the study on the third floor, his special communication device was ringing!

There was no doubt that something was wrong!

This communication device was specially made by Ji Feng, and the only people equipped with it were Yi Xingchen's battle team, as well as Xiao Yuxuan's few women. Apart from that, it was Xu Yuan and Qin Shujie who had such devices.

Moreover, for the sake of convenience and flexibility, Ji Feng deliberately put the core of this communication device inside a container only the size of a watch, and then used a bracelet as a disguise, so that Xiao Yuxuan and the women all wore it on their wrists.

This way, on the surface, it looked like they were wearing a watch or an ordinary bracelet.

During normal times, the communication device would not be activated, and they would use mobile phones to communicate with each other, because this kind of communication device is not universal, and the frequency needs to be adjusted every time they talk, otherwise it would be easy for the two communication devices to crosstalk with each other.

So if there is not something happening, or in some special operation, the communication device will not be used.

Therefore, Ji Feng had casually put the communication device in his study, but now, the communication device was ringing!

So there was no doubt that something was wrong!

Only, it was still unknown where exactly something had happened, and that was what Ji Feng was most anxious about.

“Pop!”

As soon as Ji Feng picked up the communication device on the desk, he quickly stuffed the earphones into his ears and then picked up, “This is Ji Feng!”

“.....”

The earpiece but no one responded, there was just a loud noise, it seemed like someone was screaming as if they were terrified, and someone else was yelling.

Ji Feng’s eyebrows immediately furrowed, what was going on?

“Speak!” Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

“..... Ji Feng!”

Suddenly, an extremely repressed voice came from the headphones, “We’ve been robbed”

Campus Master Chapter 2645

“..... Ji Feng!”

Suddenly, an extremely suppressed voice came from the headphones, “We’ve been robbed”

This voice was suppressed extremely low, almost inaudible, if not for Ji Feng’s superior hearing, he could barely hear it, however, as soon as he heard this voice, there was a sudden ‘buzz’ in his head, and his whole body was struck by lightning.

Qin Shujie!

It was Qin Shujie’s voice!

“..... Ji Feng, we are at the convention centre, there are bandits”

“So many people are dead”

Ji Feng almost froze on the spot!

International Convention and Exhibition Center, isn’t that where the jewellery exhibition is held? There are bandits there? Robbed?

In a flash, Ji Feng reacted, he immediately said in a deep voice: “Shujie, don’t panic, don’t be afraid, I heard you, all you have to do now is to protect yourself as much as possible, whatever they want to rob, give it to them, protect yourself first, I will definitely save you, definitely!”

“..... Mmm!”

Qin Shujie answered, but her voice was pressed extremely low, which made Ji Feng’s heart feel as if a big stone was pressed into his mouth as he listened, obviously the environment Qin Shujie was in at the moment was extremely dangerous, otherwise, she wouldn’t have pressed her voice so low.

Moreover, just by listening to the noisy voices, screams, and men’s violent shouts coming from those headphones, Ji Feng was able to imagine how dangerous the situation was at the scene!

“Wait for me, I’ll get there as fast as I can!” Ji Feng said in a deep voice, “Don’t break the communication!”

“Mmm!”

The next moment, Ji Feng stormed off!

“Ka ka ka ka~!”

Without saying a word, he directly took out two pistols from the drawer in his study and pinned them to his waist, then he took out his mobile phone and dialed Yi Xingchen’s number and roared, “Old Yi, gather the war party immediately, give me the fastest speed and rush to the International Convention and Exhibition Centre, it’s been robbed by thugs!”

“Yes!”

Yi Xingchen immediately answered, and then asked, “Boss, then our mission is”

Ji Feng roared low: “Old man’s woman is also trapped inside and her life is in danger at any moment! You know what to do now?!”

“Yes!”

Yi Xingchen immediately yelled, “Understood!”

“Pop!”

Ji Feng hung up the phone, then dialed Xiang Yongzhan’s number again as fast as he could, but to his surprise, Xiang Yongzhan’s number couldn’t be reached!

Ji Feng couldn’t help but grit his teeth, “Grass!”

Quickly putting on his weapon, Ji Feng couldn’t care about anything else, nor did he have time to think about why Xiang Yongzhan’s phone was not working, he just ran downstairs while saying, “Bai Zhu, change your clothes and come out with me.”

At this time, Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei had long been alarmed by him, and when they saw him hurrying down, Tong Lei couldn’t help but ask, “Ji Feng, what’s wrong? Is something wrong?”

Ji Feng smiled and said, "Nothing big, just some problems with Xiang Yongzhan, I need to go over there now."

"Going to the army at this late hour?" Xiao Yuxuan was surprised, "Do they have any urgent matters that you still need to go and solve?"

"Just a little matter, nothing serious, just rather urgent." Ji Feng smiled, "You guys rest first, no need to wait for me, I might not be back until late."

"Then okay, be careful on your way, be safe." Xiao Yuxuan nodded her head.

Tong Lei also looked at him with a pair of beautiful eyes, pursed her lips and did not speak.

At this time, Bai Zhu had already changed her clothes in the room and walked out, quickly changed her shoes at the door again and went to the garage to pick up the car.

She and Ji Feng had operated together for an unknown number of times, and the cooperation between the two of them had long been incomparable. As soon as she heard Ji Feng's tone of voice she knew that something might have happened somewhere, so Bai Zhu also brought two guns, and in her satchel she also brought a few extra magazines, in addition to some other equipment.

"I'll go first."

Ji Feng kissed both Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei on their pretty cheeks respectively, and then quickly left the door.

Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei looked at each other and neither said anything.

In fact, they both knew that Ji Feng must have something urgent. As one of Ji Feng's closest people, they really knew Ji Feng too well, even though Ji Feng was talking and smiling to them, it was all in relief.

The two women could tell from between Ji Feng's eyebrows that he was anxious, and this, however, was a look that they had hardly ever seen on Ji Feng's face, so there was no doubt that something was definitely wrong.

But since Ji Feng was not willing to let them know, I'm afraid it was also to keep them from worrying, the two women naturally pretended not to know, and to save Ji Feng from being distracted.

"Sister Yu Xuan, it's time for us to strengthen our exercise!" Tong Lei suddenly said.

"Yeah."

Xiao Yuxuan nodded and said quietly, "It's long overdue to strengthen the practice."

They had the opportunity to practice long ago, and if they had stuck with it from the beginning, they wouldn't have to just watch dryly here now.

Although it might be a bit dangerous to move with Ji Feng, they would rather take the risk than just hide behind and wait in fear for Ji Feng to return at an unknown time.

"Young Ji, where to?"

After the BMW X6 drove out of the villa courtyard, Bai Zhu immediately asked.

Ji Feng, however, did not answer her immediately, but said, "Bai Zhu, let's switch places, I'll drive!"

Bai Zhu slightly froze for a moment and then nodded.

The two of them swapped places, and Ji Feng jerked the throttle to a deep level, the powerful engine burst out with a roar, the front end of the car lifted high and shot away.

Even though the car was still in the district, Ji Feng was able to increase the speed of the car to over 100 yards in just a few moments. On the curved road in the district, Ji Feng kept steering, but because the speed of the car was so fast, it even appeared to be drifting, with the tyres rubbing violently against the ground from time to time, emitting an extremely harsh sound.

Just like that, it only took a few moments for them to rush out of the district and onto the main road.

At this time, Ji Feng became even more frantic, he directly blasted the accelerator to the bottom, and the car immediately flew past like a raging bull.

One hundred and twenty, one hundred and forty, one hundred and eighty

The speed of the car kept increasing, and Ji Feng put his driving skills to use without reservation, almost bringing the car to its limit.

It hadn't even been a minute since Ji Feng got into the car. Spare Bai Zhu, he couldn't help but feel stunned by this thrilling speed and drift, especially when just now in the neighborhood, there was an owner's car coming back from outside, Ji Feng didn't even slow down halfway, he drifted right past that car, and at that time, the car's speed had reached a hundred kilometres!

But after getting onto the main road, the car was much more stable, because it was slightly remote, there were not many cars on the road, and it was almost past the rush hour at the moment.

So it wasn't until this time that Bai Zhu dared to ask, "Young Ji, what's going on?"

"The convention centre was robbed, some thugs broke in and trapped Qin Shujie inside!" Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

"What!?"

Bai Zhu had been to the Convention and Exhibition Centre before and knew how much jewellery was there, and if the place had been robbed, the losses would have to be calculated in billions at least!

What's more, Qin Shujie was still trapped inside!

Of course Bai Zhu knew about Ji Feng's relationship with Qin Shujie, so she instantly understood why Ji Feng was so out of sorts and so furious.

"I'll inform Yi Xingchen!" Bai Zhu said immediately.

"I've already notified him, you should call the police immediately now Wait, you can't call the police now, those idiots will only spoil things!" Ji Feng was just about to tell Bai Zhu to call the police, then dismissed the idea, it was still unknown what the situation was inside the convention centre, if the police were allowed to come at this time, it might be bad.

“Isn’t Captain Li there?”

Bai Zhu was however very surprised, “There are also people from the security company, the police and security guards together are so many people, and they still can’t fight the bandits?”

Ji Feng didn’t say anything.

In fact, Ji Feng did not dare to compliment the fighting strength of those police officers, and as for those security personnel, Ji Feng did not know how their fighting strength really was.

What exactly was the situation at the scene, Ji Feng was also not sure, but he did not dare to talk to Qin Shujie easily, because he heard that at this moment on Qin Shujie’s side seemed to be quiet, which was obviously the bandits had already controlled the scene, if it was the police and security personnel led by Li Ruonan who suppressed or killed the bandits, Qin Shujie would have talked to him long ago.

Therefore, under such circumstances Ji Feng would not be able to let Qin Shujie speak, in case he drew the bandits’ attention, he would probably have harmed Qin Shujie.

But Ji Feng was still incredibly worried, so he said in a deep voice: “Shu-jie, I’m heading your way now and will be there soon, but you have to let me know that you’re safe you just cough in a low voice every few minutes so that I can hear you.”

“Mmm.”

Qin Shujie answered.

But what Ji Feng heard at the same time was still extremely suppressed cries, and low moans of pain, and he merely frowned, his face incomparably gloomy.

Someone had been injured!

Qin Shujie had also said earlier that someone had been killed

There was no doubt that those bandits were ferocious, definitely not ordinary bandits, in fact, just thinking that those bandits were actually able to render Li Ruonan and the security company’s people helpless was proof enough of their ferocity!

“Buzz~~!”

Suddenly, Ji Feng’s phone vibrated, and he casually pressed the answer function in the car, “Who?”

Immediately after that, Xiang Yongzheng’s voice came from the phone, “Ji Feng, did you call me just now? What’s “Old Xiang, hurry up and gather your people and go to the International Convention and Exhibition Center!” Once Ji Feng heard that it was Xiang Yongzhan, he immediately shouted, “Hurry up! The situation is urgent!”

“What’s the emergency situation?” Xiang Yongzhan listened a bit cluelessly.

“The jewellery exhibition at the International Convention and Exhibition Centre has been robbed, and now the place is under the control of bandits, and someone has died! You say the situation is urgent?!” Ji Feng drank: “Old man’s woman is also trapped inside!”

Campus Master Chapter 2646

“The jewellery show at the International Convention and Exhibition Centre has been robbed, the place is now under the control of bandits and people are dead! You say the situation is urgent?!” Ji Feng drank, “Old man’s woman is trapped inside too!”

“When did this happen?!” Xiang Yongzhan was shocked at the words, the jewellery exhibition had been robbed? This was no small matter.

“I received the distress signal ten minutes ago!” Ji Feng said, “Now I’m already rushing towards the exhibition centre, so you should immediately mobilise your men to go there!”

“I’ll set off immediately!”

After hearing this, Xiang Yongzhan hung up the phone after dropping these words.

Obviously, Xiang Yongzhan also realized the seriousness of the matter, if it was really a jewellery exhibition that was robbed, then once this matter became a big deal, it would definitely cause a major impact.

Moreover, I am afraid that the huge amount of jewellery at the exhibition site alone is worth more than ten billion dollars, and this is still a conservative estimate.

Back then, when the thief of the century, Zhang Ziqiang, kidnapped the son of Li Superman, the richest man in Hong Kong, and extorted ten suns, it already shook the world, but compared to now, this is a small matter.

This is definitely considered a shocking case!

Xiang Yongzhan did not dare to delay in the slightest, he put down the phone without saying a word, turned around and bellowed, “Pass on my order, all members of the special combat brigade urgently gather, this is an order to fight!”

The army issued a combat order, which means that it is the most urgent action, special operations brigade soldiers with the most open speed gathered, Xiang Yongzhan at the same time thinking about how to act, this is too big, if it can not be suppressed, it must be reported to the top.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The loud engine roar could be heard even from far away. Ji Feng drove his car and sped through the traffic, startling many drivers on the way who panicked and even cursed, wondering whose rich second generation or official second generation was racing with no conscience.

But Ji Feng didn’t have the time to pay attention to them, his only thought at the moment was to rush to the convention centre as fast as possible and save Qin Shujie.

As for the rest, he couldn’t care less.

“Young Ji, don’t worry, since Chief Qin can ask for help, that means she shouldn’t be in too much danger yet.”

Seeing Ji Feng’s cold expression, Bai Zhu couldn’t help but speak out to comfort him.

Ji Feng slowly nodded, in fact, he was able to hear whether Qin Shujie was alright or not through his headphones, but the problem was, no one could guarantee what exactly those robbers would do in the next moment, and if they were to act in a chaotic manner, Ji Feng was simply helpless from such a distance.

“Ahem

In the headset, there was a light cough from Qin Shujie, which made Ji Feng feel slightly more at ease, but his speed didn’t slow down at all, he had to get to the convention centre while Qin Shujie was still safe in the time period.

Suddenly, there was a loud noise coming from the headphones, and it seemed that someone else was screaming in alarm.

Ji Feng’s heart suddenly tightened and he asked in a panic, “Shu-jie, what’s wrong?”

“I’m fine, those people have arrested a person to carry out a cabinet” Qin Shujie said in a low voice, “Ji Feng, when will the police arrive, I guess it will be my turn soon... ..”

“You’ll be fine!”

Ji Feng’s heart was incomparably tense as he listened, his muscles tensed up, “I’ll be there in a little while, don’t panic, protect yourself!”

“Mm.”

Qin Shujie didn’t dare to say much, but her emotions were obviously much more stable than before, even though Ji Feng hadn’t arrived by now, but hearing Ji Feng’s voice, her heart couldn’t help but settle down.

At this moment, Ji Feng’s heart was burning, and he knew that this was definitely a big no-no in the operation, so he could only grit his teeth and force himself to calm down.

The time of less than half an hour was almost like a century long for Ji Feng, and when the convention centre was already in sight, Ji Feng could not wait to fly there immediately.

“Young Ji, there are probably robbers’ eyes outside, we can’t just go over there, or else we’ll be easily discovered!” Bai Zhu reminded.

“I know!”

Ji Feng nodded and said, “I have my own way!”

If he hadn’t been to the International Convention and Exhibition Centre before, Ji Feng was afraid that he would have to go through a lot of trouble, but the previous days’ visit had given him a general understanding of the structure and layout of the Convention and Exhibition Centre, so Ji Feng directly parked the car on the side of the road and quickly got out of the car together with Bai Zhu.

“Bai Zhu, it’s too dangerous inside, you’ll be in charge of steering outside, I’ll go in!” Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

“How are you going to go in?” Bai Zhu was stunned.

“From the roof!” Ji Feng said.

“Young Ji, you have to be careful!” Bai Zhu was worried, but she also knew that her skills were far inferior to Ji Feng’s, so if she wanted to enter the convention centre silently that was almost impossible, especially when she saw from afar that the various gates of that convention centre were closed, she was even less sure.

But when Ji Feng went in alone, Bai Zhu was incomparably worried.

“I’m fine!”

Ji Feng said, “Keep the communication open!”

After saying that, he suddenly accelerated and ran wildly towards the convention centre.

But Ji Feng didn’t take a straight line, instead, he bypassed the security post outside the convention centre and came under the roots of the convention centre’s building in the section between the two gates, only to see him leap, using the various interrogations on the building and the gaps on the tiles as a point of contact, he actually leapt onto the roof of the convention centre in just a few breaths.

Immediately afterwards, Ji Feng activated the bio-current and ran quickly on the roof of the building towards the ventilation window.

When Ji Feng followed the ventilation window and entered the interior of the roof made of steel structure, he finally got a clear view of the interior of the convention centre.

However, the situation at the scene made Ji Feng’s heart thud and his brow furrowed tightly!

..... Blood all over the place!

The corpses strewn about!

The blood all over the place and the strong smell of blood were enough to show what had happened here – the robbers had shot someone and killed a lot of them, looking at the corpses, I’m afraid there were no less than ten!

It was shocking!

The vast majority of those killed were wearing black uniforms, and Ji Feng knew them, they were the uniforms of the security company, it seemed that the vast majority of those killed were security personnel.

Ji Feng’s gaze swept over, he found that there were dozens of hostages at the scene, these hostages were all concentrated by the robbers to the central position of the exhibition hall, all of them were made to lie on the ground, there were a dozen robbers around them holding guns pointing at them.

In addition to that, there were about a dozen other robbers who were in front of the surrounding showcases, and among them there were also robbers yanking a man by the hair and yelling something.

Although he could not see her face, he knew which one was Qin Shujie just by looking at her back.

Seeing that she was okay, Ji Feng finally breathed a sigh of relief and the heart he had been carrying finally landed on the ground.

It was good that Qin Shujie was safe!

Now that he knew Qin Shujie was safe, Ji Feng planned to rescue her, however, when Ji Feng's gaze skimmed over, it suddenly froze.

Li Ruonan!

Ji Feng saw Li Ruonan who was also lying on the ground!

"I can't imagine that she is also trapped inside!" Ji Feng secretly said, but when he saw the weapons in the hands of those bandits, he understood why there were so many security personnel at the scene, as well as police officers, yet they were still controlled by the bandits.

The weapons in the hands of these bandits were too strong!

Rifles, submachine guns

Such powerful firepower was naturally far from what they could handle with only a few pistols, and it was not surprising that they were controlled.

However, when Ji Feng's gaze skimmed over Li Ruonan's body, he couldn't help but linger for a few more seconds.

— At the moment, on top of Li Ruo Nan, her boyfriend Fan Jian Yuan was resting his hand on her body, and if the two of them were not lying on the ground, but turned over and lying on their backs, it would be exactly like Li Ruo Nan lying in Fan Jian Yuan's embrace!

Ji Feng nuzzled and averted his gaze, then his gaze fell on the several gates of the convention centre, he found that at each of the gates there were people on guard, some were one person, some had two people next to the gate, the same thing was that all these people were holding weapons of no less firepower in their hands.

"I'm afraid, that security guard's post outside must be full of their men already too, right?" Ji Feng secretly said, although it hadn't been confirmed, but he was almost certain that with so many people killed inside, it was impossible that the outside didn't know anything at all, but there wasn't the slightest movement, so obviously the people in that guard post must also be with the robbers!

Ji Feng carefully looked inside the convention centre and memorized the situation inside, including which direction there were several bandits, what weapons the bandits had in their hands, and even the bandits who were frantically filling the bags with jewels and jades, he had it all in his mind!

And then, after another deep glance, Ji Feng slowly retreated along the ventilation tunnel and returned the same way!

“Young Ji! Are you alright?”

Seeing Ji Feng return, Bai Zhu’s face immediately revealed a joyful look and subconsciously asked.

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “I’m fine, but the situation inside is not optimistic, quite a few people have been killed!”

Bai Zhu asked offhandedly, “Is she safe, General Manager Qin?”

“For the time being, she’s still safe!”

Ji Feng said, “But it’s hard to say what’s next! Bai Zhu, now I’m going to start moving, you have to take some risks too

“You say.” Bai Zhu immediately said without hesitation.

“Good!”

Ji Feng nodded and looked at Bai Zhu with great relief, she didn’t think anything again because she was trying to save another woman, which made her very relieved, Bai Zhu’s mind was on him and never bothered to fight for anything!

Campus Master Chapter 2647

“Bai Zhu, now you have to do away with the people in the security post, don’t worry, they must be with the robbers, either that or they didn’t report it knowingly, which is deserving of death!” Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

Bai Zhu immediately nodded his head and said, “Yes!”

Ji Feng added: “After taking out the people in the post, that’s when it’s most dangerous

Bai Zhu listened quietly as Ji Feng arranged his mission.

“Be careful!”

After arranging the mission, Ji Feng looked at Bai Zhu’s unhesitating look and he couldn’t help but say.

Sensing Ji Feng’s concern, Bai Zhu immediately smiled faintly and nodded, “Young Ji, don’t worry, I’ll be fine!”

Ji Feng patted her hand and didn’t say anything else.

Afterwards, Ji Feng did not dare to delay for a moment and turned around to run towards the convention centre again, but this time he did not rush into the vent and contacted Yi Xingchen instead.

“Boss, we’ll be there soon!” Yi Xingchen said.

“Exactly how long will it take?!” Ji Feng asked.

Yi Xingchen said, “No more than ten minutes at most!”

Ji Feng then nodded slowly, from the industrial park to here, it only took less than twenty minutes more than him, Yi Xingchen’s speed was already fast, obviously Yi Xingchen was going all out to get here.

Since Yi Xingchen was almost there, Ji Feng informed Bai Zhu to stop moving for the time being and wait for the battle team to arrive.

He, on the other hand, quickly entered the vent and closely monitored everything in the exhibition hall, especially keeping an eye on Qin Shujie's safety.

It was only when he stood on the steel frame at the top of the exhibition hall and swept his gaze over Li Ruonan's body that he felt a little uncomfortable in his heart.

Seeing Fan Jian Yuan and Li Ruo Nan's intimate gesture, Ji Feng could only shake his head and laugh in his heart. When people are in danger, they will instinctively choose a safe place to hide, and Li Ruo Nan was with Fan Jian Yuan, obviously thinking that he could bring her a sense of security.

Therefore, in Li RuoNan's heart, I am afraid that Fan JianYuan occupies a very important position.

However, Ji Feng did not know that the reason why Li RuoNan was in such a position with Fan JianYuan was entirely due to Fan JianYuan's initiative, and with so many guns pointing around, Li RuoNan was not in a position to move.

In fact, at this moment, Li RuoNan was likewise feeling very uncomfortable.

These were the circumstances that Ji Feng did not understand.

Ji Feng didn't have time to think about this, his heart was full of murderous intent, especially when he saw Qin Shujie lying on the ground, hardly daring to move, while the girl beside her was desperately covering her mouth with her hands, her body trembling slightly, obviously terrified to the extreme, but not daring to let herself scream out in alarm, Ji Feng was truly moved to kill these bandits!

These people, deserve to die!

Just because they had given Qin Shujie such a fright, Ji Feng would not let them go!

"Buzz~!"

The slight vibration of his mobile phone caused Ji Feng's gaze to retract, and then silently retreated through the vent again.

When he came outside, as soon as Ji Feng picked up the phone, Yi Xingchen's voice came through, "Boss, we've arrived and are now with Miss Bai."

"I'm on my way!" Ji Feng said in a low voice, and then walked back.

"Boss!"

When Ji Feng came back, he saw that Yi Xingchen and the others had arrived fully armed, without saying a word, he waved his hand and said, "Old Yi, leave some people behind to set up control around the convention centre, send someone to do away with all the gatekeepers, including the ones in the guard booths, and the rest of the people all come with me!"

Yi Xingchen immediately said, "Yes!"

Ji Feng looked at Bai Zhu again and said, "Bai Zhu, you go and take charge of cutting off the electricity!"

Bai Zhu nodded, "Understood."

"Remember, keep the communication open and make it simultaneous!" Ji Feng admonished.

Yi Xingchen and Bai Zhu nodded at the same time and said, "Understood."

Action, it was on!

Ji Feng didn't dare to delay for a moment, after arranging his tasks, he immediately returned to the exhibition hall again along the vent, at the same time, he drew his pistol, after the operation started, no matter what happened, he had to ensure Qin Shujie's safety.

Time passed by, and Ji Feng estimated the time in his heart.

However, as time passed and the lights in the exhibition hall still did not go out, Ji Feng's brow furrowed and he realised that there might have been an accident.

In fact there had indeed been an accident.

Bai Zhu found that the circuit leading from the exhibition centre to the outside world had been cut off, but the electricity was still on inside the exhibition centre!

She immediately realised that it was likely that the bandits had cut the circuit for concealment and convenience when they did it. Instead, the reason why there was still electricity in the convention centre now was because it was the convention centre's backup electricity activated, as there were enough security facilities in here that had to run on electricity.

So now, to pinch the power inside the convention centre, you have to find the backup power source.

But where is the backup power source?

Bai Zhu knows nothing!

The plan didn't work up to here, which made Bai Zhu's heart secretly anxious, now Yi Xingchen and Ji Feng were definitely waiting for her to cut off the power supply, if she delayed action on her side, I was afraid that the plan would all be disrupted.

"What to do?!"

Bai Zhu pursed her lips and furrowed her eyebrows.

In her anxiety, Bai Zhu couldn't help but glance back, but inadvertently saw the two guards she had taken out in the guard post at the main entrance Right, the guards!

Bai Zhu immediately knew what to do, the people in the security department must know where the backup power supply was!

But how could I get the address from the security department?

Ji Feng thought of Wang Xin, with Wang Xin's ability, I'm afraid it wouldn't be too difficult to find this out.

It turned out that Bai Zhu's guess was right, when Wang Xin received Bai Zhu's call, it only took a few minutes to tell Bai Zhu where the backup power supply of the convention centre was!

That backup power supply, which was actually two high-powered generators, was underneath the Convention Centre's underground car park, on the third basement level!

That's a great place!

Bai Zhu muttered darkly, who would have thought that the backup generators would be there!

Knowing the address, there was nothing to stop him. The underground car park was completely empty and closed, but it was passable on foot, and although it was pitch black, it was not difficult for the heavily armed members of the team.

Finally, Bai Zhu found the working backup generator, she left two members of the team behind and hurried back to the surface, she had delayed too long and had to go back as soon as possible!

Ji Feng stood on the steel frame with a calm expression.

But if one looked carefully, one would find that there was a hint of anxiety in his eyes – the power supply had not been cut off yet, so perhaps something had happened to Bai Zhu.

But now he couldn't leave easily, he could only wait as long as possible.

"Buzz~~~"

Suddenly, Ji Feng's mobile phone vibrated twice.

Swish!

A brilliant light flashed from Ji Feng's eyes, and immediately, he gripped the handle of his gun tightly, Bai Zhu had sent a signal, the action, was about to start.

"Three, two, one" Ji Feng counted silently in his heart.

"Pop!"

Suddenly, there was a blackness in front of his eyes, and the entire exhibition hall was suddenly plunged into pitch black.

It was now!

Ji Feng shouted in his heart, opened his arms and jumped down without hesitation – that steel frame was three stories above the ground!

"Hula~!"

Seeing the sudden darkness in the exhibition hall, those hostages who were originally under control suddenly clamoured, and all of them instantly burst out with the desire to escape, wanting to escape while it was dark.

However, at this moment, a woman shouted, "Get down, get down! Look out!"

No sooner had she said this than two tongues of fire suddenly erupted a short distance away: “Tum tum tum

A burst of gunfire came out of nowhere, instantly frightening everyone and causing them to scream and get down once more, “Ah...”

“Whew~”

Some people only felt a gust of wind blowing beside them, but in this panic and extremely dangerous situation, there was no one to pay attention to this.

The only thing that rang out was a shriek: “Ah!”

But then it stopped abruptly.

“Pfft!”

After two strange rattling sounds, no one noticed that a black shadow actually flashed past quickly and opened the nearest door of the exhibition hall halfway and flashed out!

“Ji Feng!”

At this moment, however, Qin Shujie was all over the place before she reacted to the fact that she was already outside the exhibition hall, “Did you save me?”

The aura on this man in front of her was so familiar!

Even in the darkness of the night, Qin Shujie could immediately distinguish that this was her man, Ji Feng!

“It’s me!”

Ji Feng said in an extremely fast voice, “Hurry up and run forward, there’s someone outside to meet you!”

Qin Shujie hurriedly asked, “What about you?”

But beside her, Ji Feng’s shadow had already disappeared.

Qin Shujie was shocked, but she held back from shouting out. She was smart enough to realise that this was Ji Feng saving her, and her shouting would probably bring danger to Ji Feng, so she could only hold back the worry in her heart and run forward as Ji Feng had said.

At the same time, the exhibition hall was already in a mess.

Although those hostages no longer dared to run, when they heard the sound of gunshots, they were shouting in terror, fearing that the bandits had shot themselves to death indiscriminately.

“Stop!”

As soon as Ji Feng returned, he heard someone shouting in English in the darkness, “Turn on the lighting!”

That’s you!

He was the only one among so many bandits who was dressed differently from the others and was obviously of a superior status, so he was probably the leader.

Therefore, the moment Ji Feng saw him, he rushed towards him. At this moment, Ji Feng had already pushed the bio-current to the extreme, his speed was simply beyond imagination, in just a few breaths, Ji Feng arrived in front of the cowboy hat man.

“Snap!”

Ji Feng grabbed the cowboy hat man’s neck and carried him directly under his armpit, shooting back.

From start to finish, the cowboy hat man didn’t even have time to half resist, in the darkness, Ji Feng was the invincible king!

“Pop, pop, pop!”

In the next moment, several beams of light suddenly lit up, but it was several bandits who had listened to the cowboy hat man’s order and turned on the lighting.

And at this time, their leader had already become Ji Feng’s prisoner!

Campus Master Chapter 2648

“Boss!”

“Boss!”

The previous burst of bandits had caused all the hostages to fall to the ground again in fear. So the moment the lights came on in the bandits’ hands, all the bandits saw a scene that shocked them – their boss, who was actually being controlled, was even being carried like a chick in his hands!

This

The scene before them left many of the bandits stunned, how was this possible? This guy who had the boss in his hands had appeared from nowhere!

“Ka ka ka!”

In a flash, all the bandits subconsciously aimed their guns at Ji Feng.

“Hurry up and let go of our boss!”

“Let go of the man!”

Those bandits roared in anger.

“Uh

At once, the cowboy hat man’s body froze violently, he hurriedly waved his hands repeatedly, an extremely odd sound came out of his throat, and his pair of eyes even stared deadly, like a pair of dead fish eyes.

His throat was being held by Ji Feng, and he was the only one who knew clearly how strong the force in Ji Feng's hand was. At this moment, this bandit leader, who originally never took killing seriously, was scared!

He saw that his men were still confused, so he could only hurry to stop them, for fear that if any of his men shot him in his head, he would really have to pay for it!

He was afraid that one of his men would shoot him if he was in his right mind.

"Kid, hurry up and let our boss go, or else I'll break your neck!" A tall bandit roared.

"Of course you can let him go!"

Ji Feng said in a cold voice, "But only if you let go first!"

He looked at the hostages who were still lying on the ground at the moment with their faces full of panic and said in a deep voice: "Let them go and I'll guarantee your boss's safety, otherwise hum!"

"Kid, you're looking for death!" A bandit roared.

"If you want to die, then it's your boss who will die first!" Ji Feng bellowed coldly, "Release the people! Hurry up!"

"....."

All the bandits were a bit hesitant, many of them looked at each other, seemingly a bit stunned As a big bandit, it was always them who threatened people, when had they ever been threatened? But now, how could the situation be reversed?

How can this make sense?

These bandits were all fierce and vicious people, and they didn't even know how many of them had human lives on their hands, ferocity had become their nature, and at this moment, being threatened by Ji Feng, this made them feel incomparably absurd and strange, and even had a feeling of unreality.

"Let people go!"

Ji Feng's voice was extraordinarily low, and his eyes gradually turned cold: "I'll only give you three seconds! Three, two"

"SHIT!"

Seeing that they were actually being threatened by Ji Feng like this, one of the bandits instantly became furious, and he casually grabbed a hostage and was about to shoot.

However, just at that moment, a sudden gunshot sounded.

"Boom!"

All the bandits were startled, and immediately, someone roared, "Stop! Bastard!"

"SHIT!"

"Kid, you want to die!"

.....

These bandits roared in anger and thundered, however, right in the middle of their roar, there was a miserable scream: “Ah—!”

Only to see that the cowboy hat man, who was held in Ji Feng’s hand, suddenly seemed as if his tail had been stepped on, his body trembled abruptly, struggling desperately and screaming miserably!

His knee, was pierced by a shot from Ji Feng!

“Woo~!”

The cowboy hat man let out an extremely painful sound in his throat, his knee was shot through, that kind of pain was simply excruciating, even if he was the leader of the bandits, he couldn’t endure it as well, even if he clenched his teeth, he still couldn’t stop the raging pain.

However, as if he had done something insignificant, Ji Feng just raised his hand again and aimed the gun at the cowboy hat man’s head!

In a flash, the cowboy hat man’s body froze and his screams came to an abrupt halt.

He felt the malice from Ji Feng, and a strong murderous intent!

This Chinese kid, he really wanted to kill him?!

Not only him, all the bandits were stunned, especially the bandit who grabbed the hostage and tried to shoot him, he didn’t expect Ji Feng to be so ruthless, he originally wanted to kill a hostage to show Ji Feng, so as to threaten him to let their boss go.

But he never thought that Ji Feng would be even more ruthless than him! Even more venomous!

As soon as he grabbed the hostage, Ji Feng shot him without hesitation, and shot him straight through the boss’s knee!

At this moment, he froze in his tracks.

Seeing that Ji Feng had once again pointed his gun at the boss, and, surprisingly, at his head, he immediately understood that this was a ruthless man, and that they had met an opponent who was even more ruthless and vicious than them!

Isn’t it said that Chinese people are timid? How come

Those who were stunned by this scene in front of them were not only these bandits, but also Li Ruonan and Ding Weijian who were lying on the ground and others.

This was not the first time they had seen Ji Feng make a move, but it was the first time they had seen such a ruthless and stern yet decisive Ji Feng, and they were immediately stunned.

“Ji Feng

Li Ruonan couldn’t help but be stunned, a complex look flashed in her eyes, she didn’t expect Ji Feng to come.

Hearing her murmur, Fan Jianyuan beside her couldn't help but have some gloom in his eyes.

"Release them!"

Ji Feng's deep voice bellowed, resounding throughout the entire exhibition hall.

All the bandits were a little hesitant, in the past, even when they were in trouble, there was never a situation where the boss was captured as soon as he came up, now that there was such a big change, they were a little confused too!

"It seems that you guys want to watch your boss die?!" Ji Feng said coldly.

"....."

No one answered, and these bandits didn't dare to speak indiscriminately, Ji Feng's ruthlessness made them not dare to make any rash moves.

Ji Feng smiled coldly and lifted the cowboy hat man up with one hand and said in a cold voice: "Want to die, or want to live?"

"Uh"

Being lifted up directly by Ji Feng pinching his neck made the cowboy hat man extremely uncomfortable, almost unable to breathe, but what made it even more uncomfortable for him was that as the boss he was being lifted up like this in front of his men, which made him feel extraordinarily humiliated.

"Not talking?"

Ji Feng didn't say a word and aimed his gun directly at his head, "I'd love to see if you foreigners have harder heads, don't you think?!"

He had long since seen that many of these bandits were foreigners, especially this leader he had tackled, who was obviously a foreigner, this was evident just by looking at his pair of eyes that were completely different from the Chinese language, the body hair that was already exposed and grew all the way to his fingers.

This is the first time I've ever seen a foreigner, and I've seen a foreigner with a strange body odor.

Ji Feng sneered, these bastards really thought of China as an adventurer's paradise? They came here whenever they wanted to, killing people at will, and they even dared to break into the convention centre to rob it? They simply didn't know whether to live or die!

"Let them go!" Ji Feng shouted coldly.

".....ok!"

Seeing the black hole of the gun pointing at his head, the cowboy hat man compromised. He knew that he could only compromise at this moment, because Ji Feng only had to pull the trigger slightly, and his head would burst open.

As for his men, they couldn't save him at all!

Because this Chinese kid in front of him was not afraid of threats and was even more ruthless than him! This left him helpless!

So, he could only compromise: "I can let them all go, but, you have to let me go too, so that's only fair"

"You're not qualified to make conditions with me!" Ji Feng coldly interrupted him, "You only have two choices, either die or let them go, now, make a decision!"

"....."

The cowboy hat man had an angry look in his eyes as he gritted his teeth and said, "Let them go!"

"Boss!"

"boss"

The other bandits immediately shouted in alarm, if they let these hostages go, they would have nothing to rely on, what would they do if the Chinese police came then? Or what would they do if Ji Feng waited for them to let them go and then told them all to put down their weapons?

The cowboy hat man immediately roared, "I said let them go, didn't you hear me?!"

However, none of the bandits made a move.

The man in the cowboy hat instantly glared, turned his head with difficulty, and stared angrily at the bandits.

Ji Feng couldn't help but frown slightly, it seemed that, these bandits weren't going to listen to their boss's orders, ah, a bit interesting

At this time, Ji Feng's eyes narrowed abruptly, one of the bandits' waist, a small red dot on a walkie-talkie like device flashed twice.

When he looked at the bandit, his head tilted slightly.

The next moment, he heard the bandit shout, "Shoot! Shoot him to death! All these jewels are ours!"

"Right! Shoot him!"

"Ka"

The moment that bandit had just roared out, Ji Feng had already blocked the cowboy hat man in front of him, while he had already started to make some moves.

"Bang Bang Bang!"

"Burst burst burst"

At once, those bandits opened fire!

However, at this time, Ji Feng had already dodged away, except for the cowboy hat man, but he was not able to dodge at all halfway, and was instantly reached a sieve, blood splattered.

“Ah...!”

The sound of gunfire was loud, causing extreme panic among the hostages, screaming in terror.

But now Ji Feng was unable to care so much, these hostages would not be in much danger as long as they did not stand up, so he rolled on the ground and started returning fire when he found cover at the doorway.

“Bang Bang Bang!”

“Boom~!”

Suddenly, with a sudden explosion, the two bandits instantly flew out sideways and one of the doors of the exhibition hall was blown open, and Yi Xingchen rushed in with his men.

And so the melee began!

The lights were already in pieces, and the bandits didn't seem to be easy, the moment the gun battle happened those bandits with lighting devices dropped what they were holding, they were only live targets with their lighting devices!

However, these bandits didn't know how terrifying Ji Feng was in the dark without the lights!

Campus Master Chapter 2649

“Boom!”

“Boom, boom, boom~”

Fierce gunshots filled the entire exhibition hall, interspersed with terrified screams and occasional screams of misery.

The hostages shouted in terror, and with every shot fired by Ji Feng, some bandits fell to the ground with muffled sounds or screams, the scene was chaotic and bloody.

In the midst of this chaos, Li Ruonan, who had been holding back, suddenly moved.

Fan Jian Yuan was shocked and shouted, “Ruo Nan, come back!”

However, Li Ruo Nan did not even turn her head back, running wildly for a few steps before she rolled on the ground and got up again to run wildly In just a few moments, she arrived at the place where the firearms were kept.

Before her weapons were taken away, they were piled up here, Li Ruonan pulled open the bag and casually took out two pistols, then through the chaotic vague light, shot towards those bandits.

This scene, fell in Ji Feng's eyes, he could not help but secretly nod, this girl is still as hot-tempered as ever, but also definitely a qualified police officer, not afraid of death, daring to fight, completely without the mayor's thousand-year-old daughter's pettiness!

Only, thinking that at this moment, Li Ruonan was already someone's girlfriend, Ji Feng couldn't help but be a little distracted.

“Boom boom!”

A sudden splash of sparks beside him made Ji Feng snap back to attention, he raised his hand and fired a shot, instantly one of the robbers was taken down to the ground.

At this time, Ding Weijian and the others all started to grab weapons, some of them running directly towards the bag where the weapons were originally placed, while others were taking weapons directly from the nearest robber who was killed, and all started to fight back.

But it was the battle group led by Ji Feng and Yi Xingchen that really mattered.

This was a group of small warriors with top combat literacy and do tough physical qualities, the toughness of which might not even be comparable to the special forces of some countries.

What’s more, this strong physical quality and the various physical improvements brought about by the long-term practice of aerobics had surprisingly improved their marksmanship, plus these were originally ex-soldiers who had themselves undergone formal and rigorous training, and against them, these robbers’ downfall could be imagined!

So, one after another robber was killed, and Ji Feng even saw that this guy, Liu Zejun, actually played close combat, holding a three-pronged military spike, he actually pounced directly on two robbers, and in between the staggering, the three-pronged military spike in his hand plunged directly through the eyes of one robber.

With a wretched scream, blood spurted wildly!

When Liu Ze-jun grabbed another robber’s neck with one hand and strangled that robber to death, then turned around and quickly pulled the spikes out of the robber’s eyes, the robber’s screams came to an abrupt end and he fell to the ground with a thud!

Close quarters combat, assault in the dark!

This is Liu Zejun’s specialty and his favourite way of killing, and in this melee, Liu Zejun was using his strengths to the fullest!

And looking at his relaxed and calm look, it seemed he hadn’t done his best!

But compared to Liu Zejun, Yi Xingchen and Guo Tao and the others were not as fierce, but the secret tacit cooperation and staggered fire suppression was an extraordinarily ruthless and severe fight, which was also incomparable.

At this moment, Ji Feng’s heart was full of relief, this melee had sort of given the battle team a chance to play and let him see the battle team’s true fighting ability.

It could be said that if it was purely about skirmishing only, he and Yi Xingchen and this battle team were absolutely invincible!

The battle team, had grown to an exhilarating height!

But Ji Feng was not idle, dozens of robbers at the scene, among them there were also people with quite weak combat literacy, Ji Feng saw one robber very cleverly lying on the ground, holding an automatic rifle in his hand, just like a dormant cobra, when he saw the enemy, he raised his hand and fired a shot, immediately after the shot, he lay on the ground.

Ji Feng raised his hand and aimed at him, just as he wanted to pull the trigger, he felt a sudden feeling of danger that came violently.

In the next moment, Ji Feng had no time to make any reaction and could only roll on the ground.

“Boom~!”

At the very moment when Ji Feng had just dodged, sparks flew on the ground where he was originally located.

Ji Feng suddenly changed colour, but he didn't have time to see more, so he quickly dodged again, while rolling on the ground the moment he looked in the direction of the shooting, but he didn't see the robber.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the situation.

Or an accident?!

Ji Feng's mind was racing, but he couldn't come up with a result, and he didn't dare to wander off, so he replaced the clip and shot wildly at the robbers.

At this moment, the frightened shouts of the hostages had already been drowned out by the fierce gunfire, but the fierce gunfire was almost a disaster for the robbers.

“Old Yi, grab some live ones!” Ji Feng shouted.

“Understood!”

Yi Xingchen's shout came from afar.

There was no doubt that the job was Liu Zejun's, which was not a difficult task for him, who was good at close combat.

The battle did not take long, when it was over, the scene was already a mess, corpses were everywhere, and Liu Zejun had lived up to his expectations and captured a live victim, except that both legs of the robber were obviously broken.

After confirming that the robbers at the scene did not play dead or hide, Ji Feng immediately looked at the hostages in the centre of the field.

Luckily!

Although these hostages were shivering with fear, not many of them were injured, and they were not greatly damaged by the melee.

When Ji Feng saw this, he was relieved. He then informed Bai Zhu to send electricity to the convention centre and also knew through Bai Zhu that Qin Shujie was now with her and was safe.

When the light came on again in the convention centre, all the hostages were still too scared to move on the ground, and Yi Xingchen and Ding Weijian and the others went to check the hostages separately.

“Ah!”

“We’re safe ……”

“Ahhhhhhhhhh-”

When those hostages knew that the bandits had all been done away with, the feeling of coming back from the dead made many of them couldn’t help but roar out, even some ladies were crying with joy, while others were still shivering and looking pale, it was obvious that what had happened before had brought them too much fear.

At this time, the robbery at the convention centre had alarmed the entire Jiangzhou hierarchy, including the municipal bureau and the municipal government.

But the first to arrive was the special warfare brigade led by Xiang Yongzhan.

“Ji Feng! The battle is over?” Xiang Yongzhan arrived, but was stunned to see the wreckage all over the place.

Ji Feng nodded and said, “Not bad luck.”

Xiang Yongzhan couldn’t help but frown: “The battle is all over? I came to clean up the battlefield, huh?”

He had originally heard Ji Feng say that the situation was urgent, so without saying a word, he brought the special combat brigade over, and the order to fight was still given.

But only when he arrived here did he realise that the battle had actually ended!

“You came just in time for this ……” Ji Feng pointed at Yi Xingchen and the others and said, “This matter still needs your help.”

“What do you mean? What bad things are you kid bubbling over again?!” Xiang Yongzhan asked warily.

“They want a division!” Ji Feng smiled.

Xiang Yongzhan immediately understood that this kid was trying to get himself to cover up.

It was no secret that the Tengfei Group had its own war team, but there was a speedy way of saying how this war team should be used.

Now Ji Feng casually pulled people over to raid this side for a while, if there is not a legitimate reason, it is more or less unjustifiable.

If it was to assist the military in combat, this would be fine.

Xiang Yongzhan waved his hand and said, “This is a small matter, I’ll take care of it!”

The war team was fighting the robbers, it was not difficult to explain, for him it was just a matter of words, even though everyone knew what was going on, as long as it was justified, no one could gossip, this was clear to Xiang Yongzhan, so he understood Ji Feng’s meaning.

“Thanks!”

Ji Feng smiled and nodded his head.

Xiang Yongzhan waved his hand and said, "You're still polite to me, kid? But I have to say ah, these men of yours are really not weak in combat power hiss! This is an automatic rifle?"

Xiang Yongzhan's gaze fell on the robbers' weapons, and immediately, he used his foot to rub the mask off one robber's face, and kicked the robber's hat away, and a foreigner's face was revealed.

"A foreigner?!" Xiang Yongzhan was instantly alert, he couldn't care less about talking to Ji Feng, he immediately took a big step over and looked around, and couldn't help but say, "Ji Feng, so many of the robbers are foreigners?"

"What, foreigners can just come and rob in China?" Ji Feng said.

"You don't understand what I mean." Xiang Yongzhan's face was a little gloomy as he said, "Where did these foreigners enter from? Where did they get their weapons?"

Ji Feng spread his hands, "If I knew, would there still be this scene?"

Xiang Yongzhan nodded slowly, his face somewhat stony.

So many foreigners had entered the country and were making waves right under his nose, and he didn't even know about it!

"These people are international bandits!" Suddenly, a voice came over. The duo immediately turned around to look, but they saw Li Ruonan walking over.

"What did you say?" Xiang Yongzhan asked.

At this moment, Li Ruonan was in a bit of a mess, her clothes were also a bit dishevelled and her face was red, but the fierce gun battle just now had obviously not been easy for her either.

Smiling, she said, "I just looked at them, there were a few of them, international robbers who had entered the country two months ago, Interpol had sent us a fax, and we had set up an operation to capture them, but in the end, they were allowed to escape!"

"International Bandits!?"

Xiang Yongzhan couldn't help but nod thoughtfully, and glanced at Yi Xingchen and the others who were retreating, and was somewhat shocked in his heart.

This battle group under Ji Feng was really not weak in combat, since they could be called International Bandits by Interpol, these people must not be mediocre, but here they were completely wiped out by Ji Feng and his battle group!

Technically speaking, they weren't completely wiped out, but one of them was captured alive!

This was a remarkable achievement!

Such a team, if we add a guy like Ji Feng who is so strong and perverted, wouldn't this be invincible?

Campus Master Chapter 2650

Not to mention Xiang Yongzhan's shock, Ji Feng was a lot more relaxed at the moment.

The arrival of Xiang Yongzhan made Ji Feng's battle team famous and solved the trouble that Ji Feng might have faced – although killing the robbers was a brave act and was considered meritorious, Ji Feng's battle team came with powerful firepower, raging, and such strong combat power, but there was no official word.

This is a bit difficult to explain to the public.

Although everyone knows that the Tengfei Group has its own battle group, it is one thing to know, but it is another thing to come out openly.

In the past, when Ji Feng was attacked in Southern Guangdong, Yi Xingchen took the war team with him and went away in a fit of rage, creating a huge wave in the Southern Guangdong underworld and shaking the four directions, and people were already gossiping at that time!

Now it's not about him, but this has powerful firepower and action, and that's not easy to explain.

But the arrival of Xiang Yongzhan makes this not really a problem – the idea of joining forces with the military, with Star Security in charge of assisting, and striking hard against the criminal forces, is still more plausible!

Or maybe the military got the news, but couldn't make it because of the distance, so they asked for assistance from Star Security who were training nearby.

This was likewise a good excuse!

At this moment, Ji Feng's battle group had all retreated, and during the previous melee, one of the battle group members had been injured, but the injury was not serious, just a bullet through the arm, and only needed to have the wound cleaned and treated in some way.

So Yi Xingchen took all the men back, the Tengfei Group had its own medical room and was perfectly capable of dealing with it.

The police had also arrived and the emergency vehicles had already taken the injured hostages to the hospital for first aid, while the remaining hostages would also be sent to the hospital by the police for examination to prevent any hidden injuries.

The scene was a busy one, and Xiang Yongzhan did not talk to Ji Feng any more after he agreed to do so, as he had rushed over and ended up cleaning up the battlefield, which made him a bit unhappy.

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who have been in the business for a long time, and they've been in the business for a long time.

Just

Ji Feng's gaze, sweeping past the rowdy crowd at the scene, flashed a cold aura in his eyes.

That bullet!

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

In the melee, it was the person behind him that Ji Feng had taken care of first, so he dared to take care of the other bandits with confidence.

So, why were there bullets coming from behind?

The most important thing was that the other party's reaction speed was very fast. Ji Feng immediately turned around to look back after he had just dodged the other party's bullets, but saw nothing but hostages lying on the ground, and apart from that, there were the bandits who were standing on the ground, and these were the ones who had already been killed by him.

At that time, Ji Feng had already memorised in his mind the positions where the bandits had been killed, and after the melee was over and the bandits had been killed, Ji Feng immediately looked again, and the result was exactly the same as what he had seen before.

There was not one more bandit, nor was there one less!

All the bandits who had been killed were lying in the same position as before!

This meant that the shot was definitely not fired by a bandit who had faked his death, or by a bandit who had been shot but not killed!

Then who had fired the shot?

Ji Feng held his chin in one hand and subconsciously rubbed it, his gaze was like lightning as he swept across the whole room.

"Was that just a stray bullet?" Ji Feng thought of this possibility, but he quickly shook his head and rejected it. It was because he clearly remembered that he heard the sound of gunshots at the moment of the crisis.

Of course, at that time, the whole place was full of thumping gunshots, and even the fierce firing sound of the automatic rifle in the bandits' hands, but, just at the moment when the bullet hit, Ji Feng heard a gunshot, very clearly, and if this was just a coincidence, then it would be too much of a coincidence.

So, Ji Feng was almost certain

Someone was shooting at his own back!

"Who could it be?"

Ji Feng did not move on the surface, but his mind was thinking meticulously, and his gaze even carefully swept over every single person at the scene.

But after thinking for a while, he couldn't come to a conclusion.

In the end, Ji Feng could only shake his head, if he just thought out of thin air, it would be difficult to have a result on this matter, so he decided not to think about this matter for the time being, just leaned against the door and lit a cigarette, and then informed Qin Shujie and Bai Zhu that the two women were waiting for him in the car.

Qin Shujie must be in a panic now, and it would not be good to let her go back alone at this time. Moreover, she was also one of the hostages at the scene, and she also had to go to the police station to make a statement.

“Honey, can I go back first?” Although Qin Shujie’s voice still had a hint of trembling, she didn’t want to wait here, “Yaoyao is at home, and I’m a bit worried with just the nanny alone with her.”

“You can’t leave just yet. You’re one of the hostages, you have to go to the police station to take a statement before you can.”

Hearing Qin Shujie’s slightly trembling voice coming from the headphones, Ji Feng understood very well how frightened she had been earlier, but even at this time, Qin Shujie’s first thought was still to go home and take care of her daughter.

Qin Shujie said, “But I’m worried that Yao Yao is at home, she won’t sleep if I don’t go back, this girl is sometimes very rowdy husband, can you help me ask, I’ll go back tomorrow to take a statement?”

Ji Feng nodded and said, “Wait a minute, I’ll go ask for you!”

“Young Ji!”

At this moment, Ji Feng suddenly heard someone shouting at him, he immediately looked up, but unexpectedly saw Ding Weijian and Li Ruonan walking over together and Fan Jianyuan.

As soon as they approached, Ding Weijian couldn’t help but say, “Young Ji, thanks a lot for this time, if it wasn’t for you, the consequences would really be unthinkable!”

Ji Feng smiled and waved his hand, saying, “It just happened to be the right time.”

If she hadn’t seen it with her own eyes, who would have thought that this was the young man who, with his men, had swept away dozens of international robbers that even Interpol had a headache?

Just as she looked at Ji Feng, Ji Feng’s gaze also fell on her. At the moment, Li Ruo Nan was in a bit of a mess, but was still in good spirits.

Of course, Fan Jianyuan next to her also looked a bit woefully out of shape, but still maintained his flamboyant demeanour.

“Ji Feng.”

Looking at Ji Feng, Li Ruonan seemed to think for a long time before saying, “Thank you.”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but shake his head at his words, “Didn’t I just say that I just happened to meet you, there’s no need to say thank you.”

He came this time to save Qin Shujie, originally he didn’t even think that Li Ruo Nan would also be trapped inside, he just thought that maybe Li Ruo Nan was defeated, or because the bandits had a hostage in hand, Li Ruo Nan and the rest of the police didn’t dare to act rashly.

It was only when he came in through the vent that Ji Feng saw Li Ruo Nan.

“You saved my life!” Li Ruonan was looking at Ji Feng and said seriously, “Or rather, you saved my life once again, I mean it, Ji Feng, thank you.”

“You’re so serious, it’s making me a little uncomfortable!” Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, saying, “I didn’t care about you from the beginning to the end, so I can’t talk about saving your life.”

“I know that and you know that.” Li Ruonan gave Ji Feng a deep look.

Ji Feng froze: “What do you mean?”

He couldn’t help but mutter a little in his heart, why was this girl suddenly speaking so profoundly? Could it be that she had really discovered something?

Who knew, but Li Ruonan just shook her head and said, “It doesn’t mean anything, you know.”

Ji Feng: “.....”

He shook his head helplessly, was this a dumb riddle?

This conversation between the two did not only leave Ji Feng a little helpless, but when Ding Weijian and Fan Jianyuan next to him heard it, they were likewise a little stunned.

However, the reason for their consternation was different.

Ding Weijian was confused and had no idea what the two of them were talking about. Fan Jianyuan, on the other hand, had an imperceptible flash of coldness in his eyes.

Ji Feng steeply frowned slightly, just for a moment, and then stretched out.

Killing machine!

He sensed a dangerous feeling from Fan Jianyuan’s body, although it was not very obvious, Ji Feng was keen to catch it.

“Mr. Ji, I really appreciate you, just like Ruo Nan said, you didn’t just save her, in fact you saved all of us.” Fan Jianyuan held out his hand with a smile on his face and said, “All of us should thank you!”

“You’re welcome!” Ji Feng said.

He understood very well what Fan Jianyuan meant beyond words, it’s not just Li Ruo Nan who should thank you, knowing everyone Li Ruo Nan wouldn’t be any different from anyone else.

To this, Ji Feng only responded very indifferently.

The actual fact that this person is hostile to him, and not just this time, Ji Feng naturally will not be with him in a false sense.

To put it bluntly, if it wasn’t for Li Ruonan, who knew what a bird he was!

However, for Ji Feng’s indifference Fan Jianyuan as if he did not hear it at all, and did not have the slightest embarrassment because Ji Feng did not shake hands with him, only a slight smile, turned his head to Li Ruo Nan and said, “Ruo Nan, it seems that Mr. Ji does not seem to welcome me ”

Li Ruo Nan's face was a little unnatural, she looked at Ji Feng, but she saw his gaze right over as well, her eyes instantly flashed with a panicked look, but this time her gaze did not dodge.

"He's joking with you!"

Li Ruonan said, "Ji Feng, right?"

Ji Feng smiled: "Maybe" Here he said he suddenly had a movement in his heart and seemed to remember something, then he took the initiative to extend his hand and said, "I just don't feel the need to be so polite, since Mr. Fan wants to shake I naturally have no objection!"

Fan Jianyuan smiled, "That's right, shaking hands is also a way to deepen friendship!"
