

Campus Master 331

Chapter 331

“Cousin Shao Hong, I’m curious to know how you can have such a gentle smile on your face while a cold light is flashing in your eyes?” Ji Feng chuckled and asked, rather surprised, “Could it be that Cousin Shao Hong can have multiple minds? Or is it just that the appearance is not the same?”

Silence!

A dead silence!

Everyone was half-heartedly stunned by Ji Feng’s question and stared blankly at Ji Feng who had a bland smile on his face, he, what was he saying just now?

The original gentle and elegant smile suddenly froze on Ji Shao Hong’s face, and even with his extremely deep city and what he thought was a very good connotation, he was shaken by Ji Feng’s question, and did not react for a long time. He didn’t react for a long time.

The next one, Ji Shaojun, even grew his mouth and looked at Ji Feng with a face full of disbelief, as if he had seen a ghost in broad daylight.

He, how could he ask this?

Even if everyone knew that Ji Shao Hong was indeed like what Ji Feng said, with a gentle smile on his face while his eyes were flickering with coldness, this was a clear case of honey in the mouth and a knife hidden in the smile. Ji Shao Hong’s character, in the whole family, but anyone who knows him, should all know this character of his.

Even in private, there are many people in the younger generation who call Ji Shao Hong a smiling tiger, so you can know what kind of character Ji Shao Hong really is.

But

Even if you know Ji Shao Hong’s character well enough, and then see his inconsistency, how dare you ask it to his face? Moreover, or in front of so many elders, ask such a direct question?

Not only Ji Shaojun, but even Ji Shaolei, who knew of Ji Feng’s sharp words, was likewise viciously shaken by his words, and without paying attention, almost didn’t bite his tongue off under the fierce shock!

He couldn’t help but suck in a breath of cold air and looked at Ji Feng with the same blank stare, but the laughter in his heart was like a volcano erupting upwards.

Ji Shaolei clenched his fist, unclenched it, clenched it again, and unclenched it again Just like that, he was still holding back tremors all over his body before he could force himself to finally not laugh out loud!

“Lao San this kid is really too bad!” Ji Shaolei was suffocated by that strong laughter, his face was red and his body was trembling, he was even thinking that if it was himself being asked such a question in front of so many elders, I’m afraid that he would have already smashed his fist ruthlessly over.

However, Ji Shao Hong was not himself, so he could not smash it over, nor did he dare to do it!

If Ji Shao Hong dared to do it here, it would be like he had smashed his own future with his own hands, and there would be no possibility of repairing his relationship with the first family ever again!

However, if you do not do it, this question is really maddening to ask!

Ji Shaolei took several deep breaths in a row, and only then was he able to suppress the intense laughter in his heart, and he shifted his gaze to Ji Shaohong's face to see how he would answer.

The others, too, looked towards Ji Shao Hong.

Ji Zhenping was the only one who was sitting there trembling all over, he even immediately put down the cup of tea in his hand, afraid that in case he accidentally drank the water, Ji Feng would ask some extreme question again, he believed he would absolutely spurt out a mouthful of water!

When Ji Zhenhua heard his son ask this question, he couldn't help but feel amused, this kid is really

A strong feeling of anger immediately surged to the head, Ji Shao Hong gripped the cup in his hand cackling, so that the Ji Shao Lei next to him could not help but secretly laugh badly, if this life is plastic, I'm afraid it will all be raw and crushed by Ji Shao Hong, right?

This question really made a face of Ji Shao Hong have no place to put.

However, to Ji Shaolei's surprise, after taking a deep breath, the incomparably stiff smile on Ji Shaohong's face gradually stretched out.

"Oh" Ji Shao Hong actually managed to laugh out, a gentle smile reappeared on his face: "Little Feng, that's a bit wrong, joking should also be divided into occasions, you see, this is what I want to teach you!"

Ji Feng instantly grinned, "Thanks to Cousin Shao Hong, I've been taught!"

Ji Shaolei pulled Ji Feng a few more steps faster and arrived in front of his grandfather and said with a smile, "Third son, these next few elders introduced are all grandfather's old men, they all once saved grandfather's life, don't lose your manners in front of these elders!"

"Shit!"

Once Ji Shaolei's words came out, Ji Feng couldn't help but secretly roll his eyes, thinking to himself that second brother was also bad enough.

What do you mean don't lose your manners in front of these elders?

Does this mean that you can be rude in front of other elders?

The entire living room, in addition to the elders of the family side, it is the side of the family side, according to Ji Shaolei's words to understand, that means, in the side of the family side can be rude!

..... This is not rubbing salt into people's wounds!

This elder, is grandfather's old ministry, grandfather Tang. This is Grandpa Tang's son, Uncle Tang!"

Ji Feng immediately greeted the two politely.

But Grandpa Tang laughed, "Little friend, I don't like this look on your face, there's no need to talk so much about manners in front of me, you saved my life, that's my life-saving benefactor, I wouldn't dare to forget that!"

"Yes, Ji Feng, my family father and I and all still owe you a great favor, haha" Tang Jianguo also laughed next to him.

Once these words came out, everyone was stunned beyond belief, Ji Feng had actually saved Elder Tang's life?!

At this moment, everyone's gaze towards Ji Feng became very different. In particular, the second master Ji was even more stunned in his eyes.

Ji Feng had saved Elder Tang's life, and the latter had even publicly admitted here that Ji Feng was his benefactor, which undoubtedly meant that Elder Tang was openly supporting Ji Feng, and he was doing so without reservation!

Originally, everyone thought that Ji Feng was just a wild boy from a grassroots background who had no backing or backing at all, while the second master over here was able to speak in front of Elder Ji, so in comparison, Ji Feng did not have any advantage at all!

But now, with the full support of Elder Tang, who would dare to underestimate Ji Feng again?

For a moment, the crowd was shocked speechless by this news.

A strange colour flashed across Ji Shao Hong's eyes, and his face suddenly became even more ugly.

Ji Shaolei was similarly shocked by this news, and he gave Ji Feng a surprised look before laughing, "Third son, let me introduce this elder to you, Elder Tie!"

Ji Feng was stunned, it turned out that this old man with a rigid face and extraordinary aura sitting next to Elder Tang was actually Grandpa's personal guard for his entire life, Tie Long!

"Good day, Grandpa Tie!"

Ji Feng felt admiration in his heart for this old man who had protected his grandfather all his life and was so loyal. This was because Ji Feng knew very well that with Grandpa Tie's ability, going down to lead an army was not a problem at all, and his achievements would definitely not be worse than Grandpa Tang's.

However, this old man chose to stay by his grandfather's side, and this loyalty alone made Ji Feng admire him.

"Good! Good!"

Old Master Tie's face, which had been calm, revealed a smile, "Young Master Sun, I've heard Tie Jun talk about you, very impressive, very impressive!"

Once these words came out, everyone was once again shocked.

Those who were familiar with Elder Tie knew that he rarely praised people, and was usually silent, hardly ever hearing him speak.

But now, he had given Ji Feng such a high praise, which was incredible.

The face on Ji Erji's side became even more ugly, but he didn't know what to say.

Several heavyweights sitting in the living room had all spoken out in support of Ji Feng, which really caught them off guard, and even left them a bit at a loss!

Ji Feng immediately smiled and said, "Grandpa Tie has over-appreciated me, I just did what I should have done!"

"That's good!"

Old Grandpa Tie nodded, "Recognising yourself clearly, keeping your place and doing what you should do, not bad! The old chief has a grandson like you, so I, an old man, am relieved!"

The second master Ji and Ji Shao Hong's faces suddenly looked ugly, with Ji Feng around, old man Tie was relieved, that meant that no other sons and daughters could enter old man Tie's eyes?

"Alright, since you've met the elders too, find a seat and sit down and wait for dinner!" Ji Zhenhua said indifferently, he was worried that Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei, the two brats, would say something else that would embarrass the people over there, and then it would be very unattractive if they couldn't come down from the stage.

"It's better to forget it." Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, "Dad, me and second brother should go out first."

Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei looked at each other and turned around and left the door at the same time.

"Hahahaha" Just as the two of them went out, behind them came Elder Tang's extremely cheerful laughter, this time, the elder laughed even more cheerfully than he did just now, the sound seemed like it was going to lift the roof over.

Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei were dumbfounded to laugh at the same time, Master Tang was really enough for him to laugh so recklessly, undoubtedly sprinkling another handful of salt on the already hot face that had been beaten over there, of all the people here, I'm afraid only Master Tang dared to be so reckless, right?

"San'er, you have ruthlessly shocked the people over there today, ha!" After leaving the door, Ji Shaolei finally couldn't hold back any longer and laughed out loud, "That was painful!"

Ji Feng, however, smiled faintly, "It's nothing, the people over there are not enough to be feared!"

Ji Shaohong is too gloomy, this kind of person, destined not to achieve great things, at most, it is just a small fight.

And the second master of Ji, himself, is disrespectful for the old man, much less anything worthy of Ji Feng's scorn.

What is especially important is that Elder Ji has been silent today, so the words of Elder Tang and Elder Tie are undoubtedly representative of his meaning.

The words that Elder Ji wanted to say were clear enough, openly supporting Ji Feng, and anyone who dared to oppose it would first have to think about whether he had such strong support from Elder Tang and Elder Tie behind him.

Chapter 332

I don't know if it was because of Ji Feng's incomparably strong performance that made Ji Erji's side have scruples in their hearts, or if it was because of Elder Tang and Elder Tie's public support that made Ji Erji and Ji Shaohong not dare to provoke openly anymore.

All the way to dinner, no one dared to find trouble with Ji Feng again, and obviously, Xiao Su Mei's status has also skyrocketed, not to mention that Zhang Yun'e has not dared to come to talk, even some of the other women, but only from time to time to look this way, but do not dare to have half a bit of disrespect.

They had all been warned by their husbands that they should not mess with the first family unless they had to, because that would be asking to be embarrassed!

Xiao Su Mei and Liang Hong Dan sensed this change very keenly, women's minds are extremely delicate, and are most sensitive to changes in the outside world. When they saw those eyes that were originally full of provocation, when they looked at them again, they all started to become evasive, and some even had a hint of flattery in their eyes

The two of them knew that their status in this family had risen dramatically!

Moreover, both of them knew very well that this silent change could not be unrelated to Ji Feng's arrival in Yanjing. Because in the past, when Ji Feng had not come, they did not have such a status. Even a random person from the side line dared to insinuate sarcasm at them.

Of course, they all knew that this had a lot to do with the old man's recovery as well.

When the old man returned from his recovery, it would be a major blow to the members of the side line, and they would not dare to make any more moves, at least for a short period of time.

You know, if they bounce around too much and displease the old master, all he needs to do is say a word and it will be enough to make all that person's efforts futile!

..... Unless one leaves the family!

But after leaving the family, how many of them can really make a difference on their own ability?

"Madam, it's time to eat!" Xiao Ying quickly ran over and said in a low voice.

Xiao Su Mei nodded slightly and said, "Hong Dan, let's hurry over there!"

“Sister-in-law, there’s no need to go over so early, let them wait a bit!” Even Liang Hongdan, who had always been mild-mannered, couldn’t help but whisper, “They treated us so badly before, now let them know that being too much will turn others off!”

Xiao Su Mei couldn’t help but smile, because there were more people today, and during the meal it was definitely those men sitting at one table and them women at another.

This comment from Liang Hongdan was obviously directed at those women.

“Well then, we’ll wait for a while before we go over!” Xiao Su Mei couldn’t help but laugh.

With their son here and the old man recovered, they could finally raise their eyebrows for once. With Xiao Su Mei’s fierce temperament, it was actually not easy for her to hold back until now, so now she naturally had to slightly express her displeasure.

If you’re bullied and don’t fight back, that’s not Xiao Sumei’s character. In the past, if it wasn’t for the fact that it would affect her husband, Xiao Sumei would have left long ago and exploded, the big deal was to leave Yanjing and go back to Mang Shi County again, it’s not like she hadn’t done that before!

“Sister-in-law, this time, it was thanks to Xiao Feng!” Liang Hongdan whispered, “I’ve heard Zhenping talk about it, it seems that Xiao Feng has acquired a pharmaceutical factory in Jiangzhou?”

Xiao Su Mei nodded slightly, she had naturally heard about this matter from Ji Zhenhua, but she did not know much about the specific details.

“Sister-in-law, do you think this would work, since Xiao Feng is so capable, and Yin Hong’s husband also happens to be an engineer in medicine, why not let them cooperate?” Liang Hongdan couldn’t help but propose.

Next to her, Ji Yinhong was slightly stunned, and then said, “Sister-in-law, this

For Liang Hongdan’s proposal, she was naturally very moved, over there, the couple was not valued, and her husband was also just an honest technician who was usually treated with disdain, and her family was not very rich.

If Ji Feng really had a pharmaceutical factory in his hands, it would indeed be a very good offer for the two of them to cooperate.

However, what Ji Yinhong was worried about was whether Ji Feng would think otherwise and be unwilling to cooperate with them just because they were from a different family.

After all, Ji Feng had come to Yanjing this time and that kind of strong performance, Ji Yinhong had also heard a little about it.

Daring to order the guards to hold a gun on Zhang Yun’e, and even forcing Ji Shaoyou and Li Yanting to kneel on the spot, one could imagine how strong such a person was!

Xiao Sumei mused: “Sister Yin Hong, I can’t say much about this matter for the time being, because I’m still not sure how big a factory Xiao Feng has set up and what he’s going to do. If you think it’s okay, I’ll ask carefully when we get back, as long as it’s possible, it’s better to cooperate with our own family!”

“Sister-in-law, more for you then.” Ji Yinhong nodded her head at once, of course she knew that Xiao Su Mei was telling the truth, in fact, like these women from their large families, not many of them were really involved in family decision making or other businesses, it was also true that Xiao Su Mei did not know the inside story.

Of course, Ji Yinhong also knew about the fact that many people from the side lines were making a name for themselves in the shopping malls, but she knew very well that if she offered to let them work with her husband, it would be like begging, and Ji Yinhong would rather starve to death than make that kind of move that would make people look down on her.

The three of them joked and laughed, and waited until an orderly came again to invite them, before they looked at each other with a smile and got up to go.

When the three arrived in the front courtyard, everyone was already seated, the women who had followed their husbands were sitting alone at one table, while the young men of the third generation who were on the sidelines were also at one table, and the old man, along with some others, sat at another.

When they saw the three Xiao Su Mei coming, those young people from the side lines immediately hurriedly stood up one after another and kept greeting each other.

They had all heard about what had happened earlier, that it was this eldest aunt’s son, that brat called Ji Feng, who not only dared to provoke even the second master, but even Ji Shao Hong had been defeated in front of him, disgraced!

They, the useless youngsters, could not dare to jump up and down even more.

The women who used to look at Xiao Su Mei with a cold shoulder were now panicking, for Xiao Su Mei had the complete initiative here.

It was only then that they were shocked to realise that this woman from the countryside, whom they had always despised before, had actually become the head mother of the Ji family, not just in name, with the strong support of the old man and her powerful son.

Some people could not help but secretly fear that if Xiao Su Mei now took the opportunity to settle accounts with them

What was unexpected for these people was that Xiao Sumei not only did not settle old scores with them, but also greeted everyone in an orderly manner. She was able to remember the names of almost everyone at the table and smiled a few words of encouragement, making those people breathe a sigh of relief and feel secretly excited at the same time.

It was an honour to be complimented by their mother!

Zhang Yun’e and the others, on the other hand, were secretly shocked, but they had to be convinced.

Xiao Soumei’s performance was exactly the style of the mother of a great family, a faint majesty set off by nobility and elegance that made everyone not dare to take any further offense!

Ji Feng's afterglow saw his mother's performance next to him and could not help but smile slightly, his own forcefulness had finally had an effect, with himself as a strong backing, his mother's bottom line was also much stronger.

"Little one, come and sit over here!"

A bright and mid-range voice instantly attracted everyone's attention.

In front of the oval table, everyone, including Elder Ji, was seated in the same order as before when they were in the living room. But Elder Tang casually pulled another chair from the side and placed it next to himself.

"Come and sit next to me!" Elder Tang patted the chair, not caring about the feelings of the others in the slightest.

Ji Feng smiled faintly, but his gaze fell on his grandfather's face; this seating position was actually a status symbol, and again, he needed his grandfather's nod to do so.

"Little monkey, go over and sit down!" Master Ji nodded with a smile, at critical moments, he was never stingy in giving support to his grandson, especially when Ji Feng was also the old man's favourite grandson.

When these words came out, everyone couldn't help but look sideways.

The old man had actually agreed to Ji Feng sitting there, did this not mean that in the old man's heart, Ji Feng was already considered the third generation heir to the family head?

Many people's faces did not look good, this move by the old master really made those people uncomfortable in their hearts, but no one dared to speak out against it, after all, strictly speaking, it was just like what Ji Feng said, they were also guests, where did they dare to object to whoever the old master arranged to sit where?

Ji Feng smiled and nodded, there was not the slightest difference on his face, he just took a big step to the side of Elder Tang and sat down peacefully.

As for what the other people's expressions really were and what they would think in their hearts, he wasn't going to think about that.

"Let's eat!"

The old man's faint words had an unquestionable majesty to them.

Ji Feng couldn't help but smile in his heart, Grandpa was hammering the sidekicks through today's series of ways, and at the same time laying down a position for himself.

At the dinner table, everyone else was smiling and speaking softly, except for Elder Tang, who clinked his glass with Ji Feng from time to time, so cheerful!

By the time the meal was finished, it was completely dark, perhaps because today was just too naff, Ji Erji didn't even stay for half a minute more before he took Ji Zhenye and the others' car and left together.

Ji Zhenhua also left as well because he had work to do.

All that remained were the two young men, Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei, and to Ji Feng's surprise, Ji Xiaoyu and Wenxin were also there.

The four of them were staying in the guest room of the second courtyard when Ji Shaolei and the three of them suddenly walked into Ji Feng's room.

"Second brother, still not sleeping at this late hour?" Ji Feng asked with a smile.

"Ugh! Can't sleep, my head hurts!" Ji Shaolei looked helpless and handed Ji Feng a cigarette, and the two of them lit it.

Ji Feng couldn't help but ask with a smile, "What's wrong? Too much wine?"

"Drinking is a small thing!" Ji Shaolei said with a bitter smile, "The key is that after eating, my younger uncle gave me a post, saying that he was going to let me attend a banquet of some kind In fact, to put it bluntly, it is a reception held between the sons and daughters of some big families, the purpose is to let everyone go on a blind date, and when they see eye to eye, the parents of both sides then talk! "

"A blind date?!" Ji Feng couldn't help but freeze.

Chapter 333

"Second brother, are you saying that little uncle asked you to go on a blind date?!" Ji Feng couldn't help but freeze a little, and then an odd smile appeared on his face, "Well! That's a good idea, second brother, you're not too young, you do need to get married."

"Brat, even you dare to tease Second Brother!" Ji Shaolei instantly scolded with a laugh.

Next to them, Ji Xiaoyu and Wenxin were pursing their lips and smiling, making Ji Shaolei even more uncomfortable.

Ji Feng glanced at Wenxin in surprise, not understanding why this domineering woman was still here, did she think that by following Ji Xiaoyu, she could just enter her room?

Ji Feng's gaze instantly made the body of Wenxin, who was pursing her lips and smiling lightly, stiffen, and the smile on her face even froze instantly. In fact, entering Ji Feng's room was already a frightening experience for her. If she hadn't wanted to ease up her relationship with Ji Feng so that she could continue to be close to him, she wouldn't have dared to enter easily.

Even now, Ji Feng's seemingly placid gaze sent chills down Cozy's spine, fearing that he would simply say something to throw her out.

Even though Warmth thought she was pretty and there were quite a few sons and daughters of big families who were madly pursuing her, but all those people were too far behind Ji Feng! However, Ji Feng might not be someone who valued beauty that much either. In the eyes of them, the sons and daughters of the great families, perhaps power interested them more.

And when the two of them met before, warmth knew that she had left a very bad impression on Ji Feng, one could even say that it was extremely bad!

Therefore, warmth had no doubt that there was a real possibility that Ji Feng would say something to throw herself out. In that case, she would really be embarrassed.

Fortunately, Ji Feng's gaze only swept from her body and then ignored her again.

Only then did Wen Xin secretly breathe a sigh of relief, and at the same time, she was secretly happy that even if Ji Feng had not kicked herself out for Ji Xiaoyu's sake, it meant that it was possible to ease the relationship between him and herself.

A good start was the first step to success, and warmth was naturally happy in her heart.

"Second brother, it's not right!" Ji Feng suddenly remembered something and couldn't help but say, "I remember hearing people say before that it seems like the sons and daughters of big families like yours are not able to make their own decisions on marriage, right? Don't you have to join a marriage or something like that?"

Ji Shaolei brushed aside his mouth and hummed, "Do the sons of our Ji family still need to be joined in marriage with others?!"

The plain words were filled with a sense of arrogance.

Given the current situation of the Ji family, how would Ji Shaolei, who was a son of the first line, need to join with others in marriage?

Ji Shaolei's subtext Ji Feng understood very well: those who needed to join with others in marriage were all small families, or families with unstable roots, with the energy of the Ji family, how could they make a move to join in marriage?!

"That's true!" Ji Feng smiled faintly, with warmth present, he could not talk deeply with Ji Shaolei, he just laughed, "But, second brother, if that's the case, why did little uncle give you this post back? Why don't you just not go and be done with it!"

"You don't know shit!"

The moment this was mentioned, Ji Shaolei was filled with resentment, "Little Uncle did this, but it was because of your second uncle's wishes! The two of them are forcing me to get married quickly!"

Ji Feng was stunned, and then he smiled, "So that's how it is!"

He immediately understood the meaning of Ji Shaolei's words, thinking that it must be because Second Brother's private life was not so satisfying to Second Uncle, so he wanted to let Second Brother get married early so that he could also collect his heart, and that was why he had arranged for Second Brother to attend this banquet.

As to whether there were other reasons for this, Ji Feng did not know for the time being.

"Second brother, since you are allowed to go, can't you just go and attend directly?" Ji Feng was a bit puzzled, "Why do you still look like you're having a hard time, and you've come to find me?"

"Cough!"

Ji Shaolei coughed dryly and laughed, "Of course I want you to go with me!"

Ji Feng suddenly cried and laughed a little, "I say, second brother, what am I going for? It's not like I'm on a blind date, this is a task arranged for you by Second Uncle and Young Uncle, don't ever involve me!"

Next to him, Ji Xiaoyu smiled cheekily and said, "Third brother, I know why second brother came to look for you!"

"Xiao Yu, it's getting late, hurry up and go back to bed with your friend!" Ji Shaolei instantly glared at her and said fiercely, "If you're late for school tomorrow, see if I don't tell Little Uncle!"

But Ji Xiaoyu was not afraid of her at all, wrinkling her cute little nose and saying in a delicate voice, "Third Brother, actually, Second Brother is afraid of meeting someone, that's why he doesn't dare to go to the party alone and wants you to accompany him! Many people in Yanjing know about this matter oh!"

"Oh?!"

Ji Feng was instantly amused as he looked at Ji Shaolei with a smile, "Second brother, didn't you say that your notoriety was spread throughout Yanjing City at first? How come there's still someone you're afraid of I say, the person you're worried about seeing, wouldn't it be a girl?"

For Ji Shaolei's temper, Ji Feng more or less understood it.

The more you face a tough opponent, the more hard-headed Ji Shaolei behaves likewise, like Qiao Gakai back then, Ji Shaolei just wouldn't give in to softness although he once broke a few ribs.

But now, Ji Shaolei has someone to be afraid of, if the other party is not a girl, that's strange!

An odd smile suddenly appeared on Ji Feng's face, Second Brother was afraid of a woman?

"Cough cough!"

Ji Shaolei immediately coughed dryly twice, his face couldn't help but turn a little red as he glared fiercely at Ji Xiaoyu, "Little girl, I'll settle the score with you later!"

Ji Xiaoyu, however, was not afraid of him and was just laughing cheekily beside him, so happy.

Ji Shaolei laughed: "San'er, actually it's not that I'm afraid of her, it's just that good men don't fight with women, but that woman is always looking for trouble with me, so San'er, in fact, I asked you to accompany me, not only for this reason. This banquet, basically the sons of the great families in Yanjing city will be attended, now more contact, is also considered to mix a face, in the future will always be somewhat useful, you say?"

Ji Feng thought about it, but that was also the truth, in fact, he was more interested in seeing, in the end, that woman, who could make even the second brother afraid of her!

"Alright then, I can accompany you!" Ji Feng smiled and nodded, "But first, let's say that I won't help you fight with others, when you encounter a fight, you can solve it yourself!"

"No problem no problem!" Ji Shaolei was immediately overjoyed, as long as San'er promised to come down, as for fighting or not, let's wait until we get to it!

“Then it’s a deal, San’er, tomorrow you go about your own business during the day and come with me to the banquet in the evening!” Ji Shaolei didn’t give Ji Feng any time to backtrack at all, and immediately got up and left.

“Third brother, you’ve fallen for it!” Ji Xiaoyu couldn’t help but look at Ji Feng with some sympathy, “You shouldn’t have promised Second Brother!”

“Why?” Ji Feng instantly had some bad feelings.

Ji Xiaoyu said, “In fact, the person I just said is the person that second brother likes, only that people, however, may not be the ones who like him

“No way?” Ji Feng suddenly stared, “Could it be that second brother is asking me to help him out with ideas on how to chase girls? This little thing can still be difficult for him?”

“Hee hee

“Someone from the Xiang family?” Ji Feng was instantly stunned.

“Yes!” Ji Xiaoyu faintly nodded her head.

Ji Feng then smiled, he was not a stranger to this Xiang family, as he had heard of this family back in Jiangzhou.

There were many families in Yanjing, but there were only a few truly great families, and the Xiang family was one of them, and it was one of the few families that could be compared to the Ji family, except that the Xiang family was mainly developed in the military. Although the old man is no longer with us, the brothers of the Xiang family are all extremely ambitious and hold important positions in the military, so in Yanjing, they are definitely among the top families!

Now, Ji Feng understood why Ji Shaolei had to drag him along to the banquet. I’m afraid that the second brother was afraid that he would be beaten up if he pestered others, so he dragged himself as a bodyguard, right?

Ji Feng couldn’t help but think maliciously, he couldn’t help but smile badly, “This is somehow interesting, hmm, tomorrow I must go and see what this future second sister-in-law looks like!”

Ji Xiaoyu couldn’t help but wrinkle her cute nose and said, “Humph! Third brother, how is someone who doesn’t like second brother a future second sister-in-law?”

“What’s the point of asking this when you’re a child!” Ji Feng hummed and ignored her.

Ji Xiaoyu couldn’t help but glare at him and huffed, “Xin Xin, let’s go, ignore him!”

Wen Xin actually wanted to stay here for a little longer, even without talking, her relationship with Ji Feng was gradually easing up, but since Xiao Yu had spoken, she naturally couldn’t afford to stay here any longer, so she got up and followed him out.

“Third brother, tomorrow you can be careful, Xiang Yurou’s side has quite a few people pursuing it, when the time comes, they might find trouble with second brother oh!” When she reached the door, Ji Xiaoyu suddenly said this and left in a huff.

Looking at her childish appearance, Ji Feng was dumbfounded and laughed.

But soon, Ji Feng’s face calmed down and he secretly speculated, “It looks like tomorrow will be very lively too!”

Ji Feng knew very well that although the second brother seemed to be a bit jumpy, he was very intelligent and knew what was important and knew how to advance and retreat.

More importantly, the second brother had a stubborn ruthlessness in his bones.

Once a person like him falls in love with someone, he will definitely not turn back until he hits the south wall, so in Ji Feng’s opinion, the second brother may not be afraid of Xiang Yurou.

Then, if second brother had dragged himself along, he was definitely not acting as a bodyguard for him, perhaps he was asking himself to help deal with the people who were following Xiang Yurou around!

“No matter what, since second brother likes that Xiang Yurou, just do your best to help yourself!” Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, “At the same time, go and see how those so-called sons of the world are different from ordinary people!”

Chapter 334

Early the next morning, Ji Feng got up early as a matter of habit. He came to the backyard, but saw that grandpa was moving his body slightly under a big tree, and next to him, Tiejun was staring straight at grandpa like a javelin, fearing that he would make any mistake.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but smile slightly and walked over quickly, standing not far away and watching grandpa move his body.

“Little monkey, don’t you need to practice?” The old man was aware that Ji Feng knew kung fu and also knew that his kung fu was quite powerful, so he couldn’t help but ask.

Ji Feng laughed, “Grandpa, practicing kung fu like this won’t do much for me!”

“Oh?” Elder Ji instantly laughed and said, “Well then, little monkey, show grandpa just how powerful your kung fu is!”

Watching his grandson grow up, the old man was very happy, and being able to see his grandson achieve extraordinary results made him even happier.

Demonstrate kung fu?

Ji Feng, however, could not help but scratch his head, this really put him in a difficult position, because the kung fu he had learnt was almost always the kung fu of killing, and without an object to take advantage of, he simply could not really demonstrate how powerful his kung fu was.

“Little monkey, is it time to find a sparring partner?” The old man asked with a smile, “Just Tiejun.”

“Yes! Chief!” Tiejun immediately answered, but he explained more, “Chief, with my ability, I’m afraid I won’t be able to make Young Master Sun perform at full strength”

“That’s true!” Tiejun had said before that he might not be Ji Feng’s opponent, there was a gap between their strengths, so naturally he would not be able to show Ji Feng’s full strength.

Ji Feng looked around, and eventually, his target fell on a stone table in the courtyard.

He immediately took two quick steps and arrived in front of the stone table.

Seeing this action of Ji Feng, the old man and Tie Jun were immediately interested. It was obvious that Ji Feng was going to do something on this stone table.

Looking at the stone table in front of him, Ji Feng took a deep breath and slowly activated the bio-current in his body.

Hoo!

Ji Feng’s right leg was violently raised high, and at once exceeded the top of his head.

Swish!

A fierce downward slash!

Ji Feng’s right leg, like a stone pillar, came crashing down, hitting the stone table in front of him with a fierce smash.

“Bang!” With a muffled sound, the marble table top, which was more than ten centimeters thick, was broken from the middle by Ji Feng’s leg, which was not like marble, but like a thin wooden board.

“Good!”

The old man’s eyes flashed with a brilliant light, and he shouted in full voice!

Tie Jun, on the other hand, had a strange look in his eyes and looked at Ji Feng in amazement, the power of this leg was just too terrifying!

A marble table top was actually broken by this leg of his, and when he looked at Ji Feng, he seemed to have a calm look on his face, which meant that he did not use his full strength at all, probably not even 10% of his strength.

To split the stone table in half with one leg, Tie Jun could do it just as easily, but if he had to do it like Ji Feng did, without even doing any preparation, he just took a breath, lifted his leg up and slashed it down viciously, breaking the stone table

Tie Jun asked himself that he would never be able to do it so easily!

Tie Jun couldn’t help but be astonished in his heart, knowing that he himself had followed his father’s training and practiced hard qigong for more than ten years, yet he still couldn’t do it to this extent.

So, how strong would Ji Feng be if he exerted his full strength?

No wonder this kid gave himself a very dangerous feeling that day when he simply punched over, now it looked like it was clear that his kung fu was just too strong!

“Little monkey, not bad, very good!” The old man looked very happy, but did not ask Ji Feng where he had learned his kung fu from.

Ji Feng smiled: “Grandpa is overpraised.”

“Little monkey, if you are good at kung fu, it is even more important to collect your mind and nurture your nature, otherwise, being obsessed with force will make you gradually forget the role of your mind, you have to learn to use both kung fu and mind to be a qualified leader, got it?” The old master sat down on the recliner under the big tree and admonished with a smile on his face.

Ji Feng immediately nodded his head and said, “Grandpa’s words, I remember.”

“Well! It’s good to remember, but, not only do you have to remember, you have to learn and apply them, that’s how you can grow!” The old man smiled and nodded, obviously satisfied with his grandson, but soon, he suddenly changed the subject again, “Little monkey, you are going to accompany your second brother to the banquet this evening, right?”

Ji Feng immediately nodded, “Yes, grandpa, second brother said he was going to the banquet”

Thinking about that look on second brother’s face, Ji Feng couldn’t help but laugh.

“That little girl from the Xiang family, not bad! Your second brother is a bit slick, but he’s still a good person, at least he won’t treat that girl badly.” The old man said with a smile.

Ji Feng then understood what the old man meant, he was asking himself to help his second brother more and try to take down that girl from the Xiang family!

Not true!

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, the old man said that girl of the Xiang family, how come he also followed that is the future second sister-in-law only!

“However, if people really don’t like it, they can’t mess around, remember?” The old man said again.

Ji Feng instantly flinched, “Grandpa, I remember!”

“Alright, let’s eat breakfast first! Eat more before you have the strength to do something!” The old master smiled faintly and said.

Ji Feng also smiled along, talking to the old master, although it was just slow and methodical, it made people feel peaceful in their hearts, and they could also learn a lot of truths.

The old man doesn’t say much, but every sentence contains profound truths. The experience of the old man’s life is precipitated, and it is worthwhile for Ji Feng to learn it seriously.

Not to mention the old man’s life as a military man, even if he is just an ordinary old man, his life, there are countless life lessons worth learning for young people.

Soon, Ji Shaolei also came over, but the old man did not mention the evening banquet in front of him. Ji Shaolei was more casual in front of the old man, and when he ate, he ate in a big mouth without any image.

The old man, however, looked on with a smile on his face and was very pleased.

Just after he finished eating, the old man suddenly asked, "Brat, did you take all my cigarettes away?"

Ji Shaolei was stunned, and then he laughed heatedly, "I'm not thinking of grandpa's health!"

"Brat!" The old master couldn't help but laugh as well.

"Old master, why don't I help you digest your cigarettes after they are delivered, that way, it will be better to explain to Aunt Hong and your health will also be protected, what do you think!" Ji Shaolei asked shamelessly.

The old man immediately glared: "Brat, you still want to get ahead of yourself! See if I don't knock you with my cane!"

Ji Shaolei laughed heatedly, got up and ran.

Ji Feng looked on dumbfounded, greeted his grandfather, and hurriedly got up to leave as well.

"San'er, don't forget the banquet at night, I'll contact you then!" Ji Shaolei didn't know where he got another Buick from, he leaned over the car window and shouted, then he stepped on the accelerator and roared away.

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and laugh bitterly as he watched, this nature of the second brother was really spontaneous.

After thinking about it, Ji Feng decided to go to his mother's place, it was not easy for him to come to Yanjing once, so he had to spend more time with her.

But when he arrived at home, he was shocked to find that a mahjong table had been set up at home at some point, with his mother, his third aunt and his aunt Ji Yinhong over there, all present. The other was Xiao Ying, and the four of them were having a good time playing.

"Mom, when did you learn how to play mahjong?" Ji Feng asked in amazement, his mother used to be unable to play any recreation.

"I just learned, or your third aunt taught me!" Xiao Su Mei was very happy to see her son coming.

Ji Feng also got excited and smiled, "Then I'll help you advise from the side."

However, when it came to mahjong, he was a total stinker. He helped his mother with three games in a row, but all of them were just cannons, and he was eventually blown away by his mother.

The first time I saw him, I had nothing to do, so I went into my room and talked to Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei on the phone.

The two women hadn't seen each other for a month, so it was a lie to say that they didn't miss it, and Ji Feng didn't want to hide his feelings.

Ji Feng had just hung up the phone when the three of them, Xiao Su Mei, walked in, Ji Feng was stunned and asked busily, "You guys aren't playing anymore?"

He vaguely felt something strange, the three of them came into his room at the same time, was there something wrong?

Xiao Sumei asked, "Little Feng, that pharmaceutical factory you acquired, what's going on?"

Ji Feng wondered in his heart, but didn't show it, and just told in detail about the acquisition of the pharmaceutical factory. Of course, according to him, the original purpose of acquiring the pharmaceutical factory was actually just to help Xiao Changhe's friend, and he didn't mention about his own development of new drugs.

Xiao Su Mei mused, "Xiao Feng, in that factory of yours, do you still need technicians?"

"Of course we need them!" Ji Feng said without hesitation, "As long as they are proficient in pharmaceutical technology, I need as many as I can get there, only that for the time being, the business of the factory has not yet started, so for the time being, I can't attract people with skills and abilities."

"Little Feng, why don't you let your aunt go and help you!" Xiao Su Mei suddenly said.

"Auntie?" Ji Feng was a bit confused, he looked at Xiao Sumei and the others and couldn't help but laugh, "Mom, just say what you have to say, I'll definitely do it!"

"It's like this, your Aunt Hong's husband, happens to be a technical person in medicine, only, they want to go to Jiangzhou to develop, but they haven't found a good next home, that's why I came to ask you." Xiao Su Mei said.

Ji Feng was stunned, he did not expect that what his mother was going to say would actually be this matter.

He couldn't help but ponder, if he let Hong Gu's husband go to the factory, it was actually not a big problem, but, to be honest, his factory was almost penniless now, with very little business, very little equipment, and not a single drug that was independently developed.

If Hong Nun's husband knows these circumstances, he may not be willing to go

Chapter 335

Seeing Ji Feng's silence, Ji Yinhong's face could not help but look a little gloomy.

In fact, she did not have much hope about whether or not she could work with Ji Feng, after all, she was from the side line, and given Ji Feng's performance in the past two days, he might not really accept her.

However, Ji Yinhong also had her own dilemma. As a son of the side line, she and her husband were not popular. However, her husband was still very good in terms of technology, and because he was too straightforward, he did not mix very well in those big enterprises where relationships and connections were most important.

But if he went to some small pharmaceutical company, he was prevented from doing so by people on the side.

According to some people, “What is the status of our Ji family? You are at least the aunt of the Ji family, going to work in a small company is simply degrading yourself!”

Ji Yinhong’s husband was furious, but as he was too honest, how could he argue with those slick-talking second-worlders and old fogeys?

In the end, he was so angry that he resigned from his job and now sits at home, not doing anything.

Although Ji Yinhong also has her own job, she only has a salary and some extra benefits, and her income is not very good, and her two children, one of whom has just started university and the other is still in high school, are spending a lot of money, so the family is living beyond its means.

When Ji Yinhong knew that Ji Feng had a pharmaceutical factory under him, he couldn’t help but be moved, except that he didn’t know if Ji Feng would agree, and now it looks “Sister-in-law, just don’t make things difficult for the child, let’s just go over and play mahjong first!” The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you’re doing.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers. Now make it so awkward

She was just about to speak when Ji Feng suddenly said, “Mom, Aunt Hong, it’s not impossible to let my aunt go to my factory.”

At these words, Xiao Sumei and the others’ eyes immediately lit up.

“However, Aunt Hong should be psychologically prepared, because my factory is just starting out now, so for the time being I can’t afford to offer too high a salary, If Aunt Father is willing to delegate for a while, I am strongly welcome!” Ji Feng added.

He had carefully deliberated, letting Hong Gu’s husband go to the factory, at least he was considered one of his own, and since Hong Gu’s husband knew technology, then in many aspects in the future, he might need his help.

So if he was willing to go, Ji Feng would naturally welcome it strongly.

However, what Ji Feng was worried about was that if Hong Gu’s husband went and he couldn’t afford to offer much of a salary, it was inevitable that Hong Gu would have something in mind when the time came. So instead of being complained about at that time, it would be better to make it clear now.

In fact, the Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory is indeed short of a large number of talents now, whether in sales or technology, or in various aspects such as management, all lack capable talents. It was only that the factory had not started yet and could not attract anyone at all, so Ji Feng had not thought about this aspect before, but planned to wait until after the matter in Yanjing was settled before hiring a specialized talent to specify a reasonable plan.

Now since his mother had suddenly brought up this matter, Ji Feng simply opened up.

This time, Xiao Su Mei could not help but have some difficulty, she turned her head and looked at Ji Yinhong: “Yinhong, look at this

Ji Yinhong is also a little hesitant, after all, now is the time when the family needs to use money, if Ji Feng offers a very low salary

Ji Feng pondered for a moment and suddenly said, "Aunt Hong, how about this, when I go back to Jiangzhou, let aunt father go with me and visit my factory there first, if aunt father thinks it's okay, then we'll talk about the following things, if I think it's not okay, then even, what does Aunt Hong think?"

"Hmm! I think this is good!" Xiao Su Mei immediately nodded her head and said with a happy face, "Yin Hong, why not follow what Xiao Feng said and go and have a look first, if you think it's okay, just settle down there, it's better than staying in Yanjing!"

Ji Yinhong hesitated for a moment and finally nodded, "Okay then, let's say so!"

Xiao Su Mei joked, "What, you don't want to go back and ask? One person can make the decision?"

Ji Yinhong suddenly blushed slightly and hummed, "That person of his is just a nerd, all he knows is to research some new medicine all day long, I almost always make the decisions on things at home, don't bother with him."

Xiao Sumei and Liang Hongdan burst into another light laugh, having received a satisfactory answer, the three of them joked and laughed, and went out to play mahjong again.

Ji Feng, however, frowned slightly and pondered.

The development of things was out of Ji Feng's expectation, he did not expect that this trip to Yanjing would actually encounter such things.

With the current scale of the factory, but any technical staff with some strength would basically not stay. Unless, the factory was strong enough to attract talents.

"It looks like the promotion of the diet pill is going to be on the agenda." Ji Feng secretly thought, "Only if we promote the diet pill first will we have enough funds to purchase equipment and establish a laboratory"

"Ding"!

Ji Feng was pondering when his mobile phone suddenly rang, he was startled and took out the phone in a panic, only to find that it was an unfamiliar number.

Ji Feng immediately picked up the phone, "Little Uncle, what can I do for you?"

"Brat, you're actually dragging the text with me." Ji Zhenping's laughter came, "Your second brother has gone to look for you, right?"

"If it's about the banquet this evening, indeed he has looked for it." Ji Feng couldn't help but ask, "Little Uncle, even you personally called, could it be that there is something special about tonight's banquet?"

Ji Feng now suddenly reacted, in the morning the old man had asked about the banquet, the post was also handed to the second brother by the youngest uncle, and now the youngest uncle called personally, this was obviously a bit unusual.

“It’s not a special banquet, it’s just some young people getting together” Ji Zhenping’s voice was a little slow, as if he was deliberating his words, “If there’s anything unusual about it, it’s that this banquet is being organized by the He family. promoter, is that kid from the He family.”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but scratch his head and laughed bitterly, “Little Uncle, can you be a bit more detailed, I’m confused by what I’m hearing!”

“To put it simply, the He family, the Ji family and the Xiang family, our three families well, I should say they are more or less the same, the old man of the Xiang family is no longer around, but the second generation is thriving. As for the He family, their views in certain areas are opposed to our family’s position.” Ji Zhenping said with deliberation, “The news of your coming to Yanjing was spread by someone, and at this time, that boy from the He family initiated this banquet, sent the invitation over again, and vaguely mentioned that Xiang Yurou would also be there”

Ji Feng smiled faintly, “Little Uncle, do you mean to say that this banquet is aimed at me and Second Brother?”

“That’s not necessarily true, but it’s always better to be careful than wrong, besides, this time, if you go, no matter who they are coming for, don’t fall on our family’s face.” Ji Zhenping’s last words were forceful and arrogant!

Ji Feng then understood that this time, the banquet might not be aimed at him and his second brother, but at least it had a lot to do with them. Perhaps, there were many people in Yanjing who wanted to get to know this first grandson of the old Ji family’s eldest family now, right?

“Little Uncle, I understand!” Ji Feng smiled and said.

“That’s good, I’m very relieved that you’re doing your job, you kid have always been very measured!” Ji Zhenping praised him and hung up the phone.

“He Family” After hanging up the phone, Ji Feng sat at his desk, casually picked up a pen and wrote down the word ‘He Family’ on a piece of paper. After thinking about it, he wrote two more words – the Qiao family!

At least from the looks of it now, a deadly feud had been formed between the Qiao family and Ji Feng, Qiao Gakai had been sent to prison by him, Qiao Rong was still in the hospital, if someone told Ji Feng that the Qiao family didn’t hate him, Ji Feng would definitely think that person was a complete fool!

As for this He family, since their stance was completely antagonistic to the Ji family, they would naturally not treat him, the first grandson of the Ji family, too kindly.

Suddenly, Ji Feng shook his head with another smile and crossed out these words once again.

With the old man around, it was not his turn to worry about these matters. At least, he could guarantee that within ten years, as long as nothing happened, the old man’s health would not have any problems.

The return of the old master had instantly squashed all the conflicts in the Ji family. No matter how ambitious the people in the side line were, they would have to behave honestly with their tails between their legs, otherwise, what would greet them would be a disaster of extinction.

With this ten years' time, father can completely set up his plans with ease. Even if the old man leaves later, father will already be a big tree that no one can shake.

Under such circumstances, Ji Feng did not need to worry about Yanjing and the family at all, all he needed to do now was to vigorously develop his career and follow his own plans.

He was confident that by the day the old man truly grew old, he would have an extremely glorious career.

Ji Feng had not forgotten his promise to the old man – within ten years, on top of the world!

“Grandfather and father have their setup and plans, and they have their own plans as well!” Ji Feng smiled faintly, “Maybe, my plan will come true before they do”

“As for those bouncing guys a bunch of jumping clowns only, it's not worth worrying too much!” Ji Feng smiled faintly and wrote one word on the paper with force – confidence!

After doing this, Ji Feng threw the pen on the table, and then laughed: “Mediocre people are just disturbing themselves, after dealing with the matter in Yanjing, it's better to go back to Jiangzhou and live my little life, having Yu Xuan and Lei Lei with me is more happy than anything”

Chapter 336

In Yanjing City, there are few people who have not heard of the Wanli Club when it is mentioned. As one of the first few clubs to be established in Yanjing, the Wanli Club is top-notch in terms of both service and facilities.

Even in other places, the Wanli Club in Yanjing is also quite well-known, and most of the members in it are also some famous people or big entrepreneurs.

And in order to enter the Wanli Club, one has to have a membership, or follow a member, in order to enter.

The membership fee for such a famous club is naturally not expensive, but as a status symbol, people are still eager to get in, even if the membership fee is high. Many people don't even have the qualifications to get in.

This is because the Miles Club is not something you can enter just by having money, but also by having a certain status and position.

And tonight, the entire fifth floor of the club was wrapped up by He Hongwei, the youngest of the He family, which was enough to show the energy of the youngest of the He family! It was also enough to see the He family's power and status in Yanjing.

When Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei arrived here in a Buick, there were already a large number of vehicles parked in the car park, and as far as the eye could see, almost all of them were famous cars, so the Buick, like the one the two of them drove, looked a little too shabby.

But neither Ji Feng nor Ji Shaolei had any sense of shabbiness.

Unlike other places, even though Ji Feng and the two of them were dressed in ordinary clothes and drove such a shabby car, there was absolutely no trace of contempt or disdain on the faces of the car attendants who directed the vehicles in and out.

As a matter of fact, these car boys naturally know that those who can come to the Miles Club are not of ordinary status, and those who are not qualified would not have the guts to come to the Miles Club and pretend to be members.

So no matter how shabbily dressed the guests were, there would never be any service staff showing a strange look.

Those rich people with bad taste, they had seen a lot of them.

Although this car boy did not classify Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei as those rich people with bad taste for the time being, he could not see any strange look on his face.

“The service here is not bad!” Just from the car attendants, it was enough to see the service standard of this club, and after Ji Feng parked the car, he couldn’t help but smile and say something.

“Just kidding, with an entry fee of 300,000 plus a membership fee of 100,000 a year, it’s only strange that the service isn’t good!” Ji Shaolei grunted twice.

Ji Feng instantly laughed, “Second brother, why do you feel a bit sour when you hear your tone of voice? Could it be that you’ve been rejected by this club before?”

Ji Shaolei grunted and said in an unpleasant tone, “It’s not rejected either, to be precise, it’s that he was once expelled by them!”

“Oh?!”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but be a little surprised, this club was really bullish, how dare it expel the second youngest member of the Ji family?

“Could it be that this club has a tough backstage?” Ji Feng asked with a smile.

“That’s natural, not only is the backstage hard, but mainly because the members here, all of them are of extraordinary status, so there are generally very few people who dare to make trouble here” Ji Shaolei bristled and hummed, “Back then, when I first came here for the first time, there was a douchebag who crossed me and I used a bottle to open the scoop on his head, as a result, I was also expelled from the club, then I went to Jiangzhou and never had the chance to come here again.”

Ji Feng froze and then laughed dumbly.

It was no wonder that Second Brother had been expelled, since this club itself was positioned as an extremely high-class club, then, naturally, no one would be allowed to hit anyone here, not even the second generation with the greatest status, definitely not.

But when you think about it, Second Brother was indeed enough of a dude back then, actually daring to do it here!

“Second brother, you wouldn’t have been given that appalling monkey’s chicken by the club, would you?” Ji Feng suddenly had a movement in his heart, no matter how fancy Second Brother was, after all, his status was there, the club dared to expel him, couldn’t it be that they wanted to kill the chicken to show the monkey? The club dared to expel him. Or was it a deliberate attempt to slap the Ji family in the face?

Ji Shaolei grunted and said, “They dare to! It was mainly because that Erroneous was unforgiving, so the two of us got into a fight in the club, and they were afraid that it would affect the other guests, which is why they expelled us.”

“Oh?” Ji Feng chuckled, “Who is that erratic guy? How dare he be so cross too?”

Ji Shaolei bristled and disdainfully said, “The second son of the He family, He Hongqiang.”

“No wonder,” Ji Feng instantly laughed, two first-class family dudes who got into a fight were capable of anything, the club naturally didn’t dare to let them fight inside.

As for how to settle things after they come out, that’s their own business, and it has nothing more to do with the club.

“Recently our family’s reputation is not too good it’s all because of those few untalented things over there that have corrupted it, a bunch of nesting things!” Ji Shaolei grunted with an unpleasant expression, “Of course when your second brother was in Yanjing, although I was also untouchable, but at least I was never afraid of anyone, no matter what place I was in, as long as others dared to provoke, we would always be at a disadvantage.”

Ji Shaolei hummed disdainfully, “A few things over there are good, at home all day long they think they are superior, when they go outside, they can’t even straighten their backs, let alone be cross with others don’t talk about this, it makes me angry to talk about it!”

Ji Feng nodded his head and smiled, saying, “Let’s go.”

In his heart, however, he was clear that what his second brother said was right.

The more people flaunt their power at home, the less they have the guts to open up outside, this kind of people, is the nest. And a character like second brother, who is casual at home but never flaunts it, and when he goes out, he won’t take a single loss, no matter who the other party is, he’s never afraid!

As for those in the side line Ji Feng shook his head slightly, he hadn’t really found anyone who had become a weapon.

In the front door of the club, there are two card swipers, members who come here, just need to swipe their membership card on it, the main desk will know, exactly who is coming, if it is an important guest, they will immediately notify their superiors and make the corresponding arrangements, this is also one of the humanized services.

As Ji Shaolei had once been expelled, his membership card had also been taken back, so he could only take out the post from his pocket and waved it in front of the receptionist.

That receptionist instantly smiled faintly, “Please follow me, two, the banquet is on the fifth floor!”

Following behind the receptionist, Ji Shaolei couldn't help but laugh, "I haven't been here for a few years, but this receptionist's cheongsam is getting better and better looking and the openings are getting higher and higher!"

This receptionist was wearing a flower cheongsam, with her hair pulled up in a high bun, looking classical, except that the openings on both sides of the cheongsam were indeed a bit higher than ordinary cheongsams, and even the intimate clothing inside was hidden.

The second brother is really observant.

The receptionist in the front couldn't help but twitch the corners of her mouth a few times when she heard this, but she didn't say anything, but in her heart she was a bit contemptuous, she didn't know which family's second generation was this, speaking so frivolously, no family education!

Naturally, she did not know that Ji Shaolei's words were a bit harsh because he was very unhappy with the club's action to expel him back then.

Ji Feng, however, suddenly thought of a question, "Second brother, who is the owner of this club?"

Ji Shaolei was stunned, then he looked around and whispered a name in Ji Feng's ear.

Ji Feng's heart instantly flinched, he had not heard of this name, but the surname, however, was thought to be the same as a certain big brother, whose identity, naturally, was not difficult to guess.

"No wonder the club dares to expel you, dare I say, this boss's origin is not smaller than yours!" Ji Feng laughed.

"It's just half a catty and half a catty!" Ji Shaolei bristled, "Only I'm not as shameless as him, although I also rely on my family and like to play, but I definitely won't rely on the power of my elders to circle the silver, but some people"

Ji Feng couldn't help but smile and nod, he set himself up just right and didn't step on the line, in this regard, the second brother did a good job.

"Although the owner of the club is him, but usually he rarely appears here, and the official registration name, but a woman's" Ji Shaolei added.

Ji Feng then nodded, to be able to hold such a large industry for that person, I think the identity of that woman speaks for itself.

As the two spoke, they were led by the receptionist and soon arrived at the fifth floor.

On this floor, there was an extremely wide hall, where many people were already gathering in twos and threes at this time, joking and laughing from time to time.

"Please, two!" The receptionist made an inviting gesture and introduced Ji Feng and the two of them into the hall, there was a registration desk by the door, Ji Shaolei handed the post to the person in charge of registration and said indifferently, "Ji Shaolei!"

The registration officer was stunned, but quickly reacted and nodded in a panic, "Mr. Ji, please come in, Mr. He is waiting for you inside."

“Hehe, not a small stance!” Ji Shaolei shook his head and smiled, “San’er, let’s go in!”

As soon as Ji Feng and the two of them entered, the officer in charge of registration hurriedly said, “Quickly go and inform the manager that Ji Shao Lei is here.”

That receptionist, however, was stunned and couldn’t help but ask, “That man’s coming from a big place?”

“The second youngest of the Ji family, do you think it’s big?!” The person in charge of registration glared at her, “Hurry up and go, also remember to inform the security team, to always be on guard against the second youngest of the Ji family striking again and hurting people!”

“Yes!” The receptionist was shocked, she was new here, so she wasn’t familiar with the Ji family’s second youngest, but hearing her colleague’s words, she couldn’t help but be surprised, someone actually dared to hurt someone here?

Fortunately, she did not speak out against him just now The receptionist was somewhat glad to rush off.

“Hehe” Ji Feng, however, could not help but lose his smile, although the two service personnel’s voices were very small, but they could not escape his ears, “To think that in this club, the second brother is equally notorious! ”

At this time, Ji Shaolei, however, froze, and a trace of difference flashed in his eyes as he looked in a direction of the hall, but soon, the strange look in his eyes turned into a cold flash.

His face, too, turned gloomy!

Chapter 337

Ji Feng immediately followed his second brother’s gaze and saw a woman in a black evening dress, illuminated by the lights, just like the stars holding the moon, surrounded by a group of people in the middle.

This woman was like a pearl, radiant and moving. She had short hair, and compared to some of the other women in the hall who wore their hair in beautiful buns and looked noble and elegant, this woman was more resilient, as if she had an imperiousness in her bones that one could not ignore.

There was the feminine and feminine quality of a woman and the valiant and heroic quality of a woman, and the fact that these two qualities appeared in the same person was really a side-splitting sight.

What caught Ji Feng’s attention the most was this woman’s eyes.

Although her face looked bland, there was a faint coldness emanating from her body. Even those people surrounding her only had a subtle smile on their faces, and did not dare to speak too freely, let alone show any semblance of rudeness, but only laughed and talked in a gentle and elegant manner.

The first thing you need to do is to have a good look.

However, what made Ji Feng pay attention was the look on his second brother’s face.

Ji Shaolei’s face was somewhat gloomy, and the cold glint in his eyes seemed to be very displeased.

Ji Feng couldn't help but ask in a low voice next to him, "Second brother, what's wrong?"

"That woman is Xiang Yurou!" Ji Shaolei took a deep breath before he sort of calmed down and said indifferently.

Ji Feng was stunned, then he couldn't help but secretly nod his head, second brother's eyesight was indeed good, that woman in the black evening dress, whether it was her looks or temperament, she was the top choice, I guess with second brother's eyesight, if it wasn't such a woman, he wouldn't be able to look at it, right?

However, what made Ji Feng wonder was, why was Second Brother's face so gloomy? Could it be that he didn't actually like Xiang Yurou, but that the two had a grudge?

Ji Feng immediately asked in a low voice, "Second brother, since that woman is Xiang Yurou, why do you still look so unhappy? Why don't you go over and say hello?"

"That's right, go and say hello!" Ji Shaolei hummed and said in a somewhat unkind tone as he walked over with big steps.

"Ee?!"

Ji Feng didn't follow, he just looked at his second brother's back and shook his head and smiled. But suddenly, he inadvertently saw a person and immediately frowned.

Outside the group of young people surrounding Xiang Yurou, there seemed to be a face that Ji Feng was very familiar with, but it flashed by and Ji Feng didn't see it too clearly.

He deliberated for a moment and then moved his feet and quickly walked over.

Ji Feng could be sure that the figure he saw just now was definitely not an illusion, it must be an acquaintance. Even if he did not know him, he must have met him before.

However, Ji Feng knew that he did not have many acquaintances in Yanjing, and, even among those he knew, the vast majority of them were still people who had problems with him.

Now that this person had appeared in the hall and Second Brother was walking over there, Ji Feng was naturally a little uneasy and followed him quickly.

But before he could take a few steps, he suddenly heard a burst of laughter. Ji Feng immediately looked over and saw that the second brother was standing there with a gloomy face, and on his clothes, it seemed that alcohol had been poured on him.

Ji Feng's eyebrows immediately wrinkled up, something was really wrong after all!

He immediately walked over quickly, he heard a messy laughter come over, a person laughed: "Aiya, really sorry, Second Younger, why are you walking so fast, this accidentally stepped on my foot, and caused Second Younger you almost fell really sorry, Second Younger you should be more careful when you walk next time!"

Ji Feng instantly understood what was going on, and coldly snorted in his heart.

Second brother Ji Shaolei was trained in sparring, if he just walked a little faster and accidentally stepped on someone else's foot, he wouldn't be in such a mess at all and almost fell But anyone who has practiced kung fu has much more nimble reactions and hands than others!

Obviously, someone must have deliberately tripped Second Brother, which caused him to almost fall and have wine spilled on him!

Ji Feng quickly came to Ji Shaolei's side and asked in a low voice, "Second brother, what happened!"

"Nothing!"

Ji Shaolei waved his hand, while unbuttoning his jacket and taking it off, the top of which was wet on his chest and had a strong smell of alcohol.

Ji Shaolei's face was expressionless as he pointed at the one who spoke and suddenly smiled coldly, "Kid, lick the wine off my jacket and I can let today's matter go!"

Everyone was stunned and froze as they looked at Ji Shaolei, who had a cold glint in his eyes, and were surprisingly stunned by his calm words for a moment.

"Hehe"

A snort of laughter suddenly rang out, followed by a man saying, "Ji Shaolei, you're a bit too wild, aren't you? This isn't Jiangzhou, it's Yanjing! It's the Wanli Club! You didn't apologise for accidentally stepping on someone, but now you're so arrogant as to ask someone to lick you clean? Do you really think that because you are the second youngest of the Ji family, no one can rule you?!"

Just hearing this voice, Ji Feng's eyes narrowed and his eyebrows furrowed instantly.

Qiao Gakai!

Ji Feng immediately recognized the owner of this voice, when he was at the Jiangzhou Linjiang Club, Ji Feng had already heard this voice, the young master of the Qiao family, Qiao Gakai!

But wasn't he supposed to be serving his sentence in the prison in Jiangzhou now? How could he appear here?

Ji Feng's mind was turning rapidly, but his brows were slightly furrowed. The familiar figure he had just seen was indeed Qiao Gakai. It seemed that the matter of Second Brother being spilled with alcohol might have nothing to do with Qiao Gakai!

"So it was you!"

Ji Shaolei immediately hummed disdainfully, "If I remember correctly, you should be squatting in prison in Jiangzhou now, right? It seems that someone is bending the law again!"

When Qiao Gakai, who was wearing a white suit, heard these words, he burst out in anger, but when he saw Ji Feng, who was beside him with a calm face, Qiao Gakai held back his anger and grunted, "Sorry, I'm on medical parole, I wouldn't dare have someone bending the law in front of you, Ji Shaolei!"

Ji Shaolei glanced at him indifferently, not continuing to engage in a verbal argument with him, but turned his head to look at the man who had tripped him up, "What, not going to do as I say?"

That was a young man of about thirty years old, he was not very tall and his face was a little pale, and at a glance, he had been emptied of his body by alcohol and sex.

At this moment, being glared at by Ji Shaolei, a hint of panic flashed in this man's eyes, but when he saw the gazes of the others falling on him, he immediately said forcefully, "Second young master, you're being unreasonable! It's clearly you"

"Not going to do as I say?" Ji Shaolei directly interrupted his words and asked in a flat tone.

However, everyone heard an icy murderous intent in his bland words.

Everyone instantly understood that Ji Shaolei was angry.

When a man is angry, it is only blood splattered in five steps!

However, if Ji Shaolei became angry, everyone present would need to weigh their options carefully. The status of Ji Shaolei is not trivial, the second young master of the Ji family, and he is a direct descendant.

At this time, the Ji family is like a tiger with full of power, sharp fangs and chilling claws, waiting for someone to provoke it!

If one provokes the wrath of Master Ji, a king's wrath will cause a million corpses to fall and a thousand miles of blood to be shed!

"Lick! Or not lick!" Ji Shaolei stared coldly at the man, his tone growing flatter and flatter as he threw his jacket to the ground and deepened his three fingers, "You have three seconds to think about it!"

"I say Ji Shao Lei, you are too" Qiao Gakai was just about to speak when he suddenly saw Ji Shao Lei fiercely turn his head, the cold light in his eyes flashing.

"Qiao Gakai, if you don't want to go out and lose your life, then shut your mouth for me!" Ji Shaolei said coldly, "If you don't believe me, you can try it!"

"You"

Qiao Gakai was suffocated by Ji Shaolei's words, but he didn't dare to interfere, he had already seen that Ji Shaolei was really angry, moreover, since the return of Elder Ji, he must have already known about his mother being injured by Ji Feng, but the elder of the Ji family didn't say a word.

This meant that perhaps what the Qiao family had done had also aroused Elder Ji's disgust!

Under such circumstances, even if ten Qiao families were put together, they would definitely not dare to fight with the Ji Family.

"Humph!" Qiao Gakai snorted coldly, but did not dare to say another half-word.

The young man who was being stared at by Ji Shaolei finally turned even paler, even Qiao Gakai did not dare to confront Ji Shaolei head on anymore, how could he, a third-rate family's son, dare to confront Ji Shaolei head on?

At this moment, everyone suddenly remembered that although Ji Shaolei had left Yanjing for a few years, back then, he was the number one fop in Yanjing, and many fops had been screwed over by him, so how did this young man get into trouble with him!

And Ji Feng likewise finally knew, when the second brother was a dude, what exactly was he like This is simply the nemesis of other dudes!

The little dude ran into the big dude, and even dared to take the initiative to provoke, really old life star on the hanging – too long life ah!

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and laugh, but his gaze flicked over the faces of these people around him without a trace, as he observed the reactions of these people.

“Kneel down! Lick!” Ji Shaolei shouted coldly.

The young man instantly trembled as he hurriedly looked towards Qiao Gakai, “Young Qiao! You have to come out and say something”

Who knew that Qiao Gakai just turned his head away as if he hadn't heard his words and didn't even look at him.

The young man's face instantly turned even paler.

Only at this time did he finally understand that he had been used as a gun by Qiao Gakai!

“Three!” Ji Shaolei, however, had already started counting!

Chapter 338

“Three!” Ji Shaolei, however, had already started counting!

The young man's face turned even paler, and of course he knew that the consequences of Ji Shaolei's anger were definitely not something he could bear.

In fact, this young man had never thought of taking the consequences either, because Qiao Gakai had said that Ji Shaolei liked Xiang Yurou, so in this situation, with Xiang Yurou present, Ji Shaolei would definitely try to maintain his gentlemanly demeanour and would definitely not get angry.

But this young man never expected that Ji Shaolei would actually get really angry, and what he didn't expect was that Qiao Gakai, who had sworn that he would make sure that he would be fine once Ji Shaolei really got angry, had actually sold him out in the blink of an eye, without any intention of helping him at all!

“Two!” Ji Shaolei once again shouted coldly.

“Ah!” The young man instantly winced, not a trace of blood on his face, he opened his mouth to plead, but could not get the words out, the look in Ji Shaolei's eyes was just too terrifying. What scared the young man even more was the resounding reputation of Ji Shao Lei a few years ago, this was not a master who was kind to people!

“One!” Ji Shaolei’s icy voice rang out, “Very well, I remember you

Before he could finish his words, he heard a pleasant voice suddenly ring out, “Young Ji, I think today’s matter is actually just a misunderstanding, let’s just forget about it?”

Everyone froze at the same time, the person who spoke was unexpectedly Xiang Yurou who had been watching coldly.

Ji Shaolei was also stunned, and immediately, he could not help but smile slightly, “Yurou, do you also think that today’s matter is a misunderstanding?”

“Isn’t it?” Xiang Yurou smiled sweetly, and in this hall, it was instantly like a hundred flowers blooming, making everyone’s eyes light up and they couldn’t help but thump their hearts.

Even Ji Feng had to admit that this Xiang Yurou, indeed, had a unique charm, if the second brother could be with her, it would really be a beautiful thing!

The only one who didn’t react much was Ji Shaolei, as if Xiang Yurou’s smile didn’t have any effect on him.

“Young Ji, to make things difficult for an untalented second generation, you can’t show off your strength!” Xiang Yurou smiled sweetly, “Let’s forget about this matter, don’t get expelled again like last time!”

“If I don’t want to, no one will be able to expel me, they don’t have the ability to do so!” Ji Shaolei smiled lightly, but his tone was full of incomparable confidence, in the whole of Yanjing, there was no one who had the ability to drive away the Ji family!

“However, you are right, there is indeed no point in embarrassing an untalented second generation ancestor.” Ji Shaolei grinned, “However, I have never been one to not fight back when provoked, not in the past, equally not now, and even less so in the future!”

He fiercely turned his head, and a cold word popped out from his teeth, “Get out!”

“Thank you, Young Ji, thank you, Young Ji!” That second generation ancestor was instantly like being pardoned and bowed in a panic.

As soon as Ji Shaolei waved his hand, the man hurriedly took a few steps back, afraid that Ji Shaolei would think of him again, and then it would be too late to regret.

“Young Ji, this temper of yours is even worse than before!” Xiang Yurou laughed lightly.

Ji Shaolei waved his hand and laughed, “My temper has never been very good, except in front of you Come on, it’s been a long time, give me a hug!”

He laughed and opened his arms to hug Xiang Yurou.

Whew—!

Xiang Yurou jerked back a step, she pulled her evening dress and one leg suddenly kicked out.

Those long, snow-white legs were taut at this moment, as if they were a lance, the toe tautly pointing at Ji Shaolei's collarbone, "If you go any further, I can't guarantee that this kick will not hit you!"

Ji Shaolei smiled faintly, "If you kick your leg again, you'll have to go naked"

Swish!

Xiang Yurou's pretty face was slightly red and she was about to withdraw her leg in a hurry, but Ji Shaolei laughed: "Be careful!"

As he spoke, he took a step forward, wrapped his left hand around Xiang Yurou's waist, put his right hand on her leg and slowly let it down.

Ji Feng looked dumbfounded at the side, the second brother was really

At this time, Qiao Gakai next to him had an ugly look on his face, a cold light flashed in his eyes, he took a step forward and slammed his knee straight into the crook of Ji Shaolei's leg!

Whoosh... whoosh...!

There were two sudden cracking sounds, and as soon as the crowd froze, they saw a figure suddenly fly out.

Bang! Bang!

The figure suddenly flew out and heavily smashed into a table not far away, immediately the plates fell to the ground, the wine splashed, and the clattering sound of the tables and chairs falling to the ground was so ear-splitting that everyone could not help but look sideways.

Swish!

This tremendous commotion also caused both Ji Shaolei and Xiang Yurou to be suddenly startled.

Xiang Yurou suddenly withdrew her leg, her pretty face slightly red as she fiercely glared at Ji Shaolei, "You have offended me once again, I remember that!"

Ji Shaolei laughed heatedly, naturally not taking her threat seriously. He turned his head to look at Ji Feng and asked with a smile, "San'er, what's going on?"

Ji Feng shrugged, "Who knows, I guess this guy was too excited and walked too fast and accidentally stepped on my foot when I raised my foot, he suddenly flew out!"

Everyone couldn't help but be appalled, no matter if what Ji Feng said was true or not, but it was a fact that Qiao Gakai flew out. To make a big living person fly out like that, no matter what method was used, was an extremely shocking thing. What's more, Ji Feng's hands were empty and he wouldn't have had the slightest external help at all.

In other words, it was very likely that he had sent Qiao Gakai flying with just one kick!

The crowd couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air, kicking someone away with one kick, was this kid a superman?

There were some people who suddenly remembered that Ji Shaolei had had wine spilled on him earlier. Didn't that guy say that Ji Shaolei had accidentally stepped on his opponent's foot

Everyone's face looked strange, just used that despicable method to make a fool of Ji Shaolei, and now, as a result, Qiao Gakai's entire body was kicked out by Ji Feng, and this young man used the exact same reason as the other party This is really a vicious and loud slap in the face!

Use your method to slap your face! It's a slap that hurts!

It was only then that the crowd noticed that at Ji Shaolei's side, there was also a young man with the same sturdy and tall figure, but with a more rigid face, moreover, this young man seemed to have a few similarities with Ji Shaolei between his eyebrows, and the two seemed to be from the same family.

The two seemed to be from the same family. Xiang Yurou also glanced at Ji Feng in amazement, this kid was even fatter than Ji Shaolei, he didn't even say a word, he just did it without hesitation.

And at this time, the club's service staff was mentally cackling, especially the one in charge of registration, but even more mentally muttered, "I knew it, others don't dare to do it here, but the Ji family's people fortunately notified the security team in advance!"

There was a fight here, however, none of the service staff dared to come up and stop it, everyone knew that the sons and daughters of the entire Yanjing family were gathered here, almost all of them were the top characters, a conflict between them, even the owner of the club did not dare to stop it easily, let alone these service staff.

"Pah! Pa! Pa!" A piercing applause suddenly sounded, and the eyes of the crowd immediately looked, only to see a young man of about thirty-two or three years old, walking out from inside the hall. Behind him, a slightly younger youth was following. The two had some resemblance in their eyebrows, so they should be brothers.

The young man in the lead had a faint smile on his face and applauded gently.

"Shao Lei, you still have the same temper, no matter where you are, you dare to make a move!" The youth chuckled, "What, have you forgotten how you were kicked out back then?"

Ji Shaolei smiled faintly, "I can't help it, I don't have a good temper, when I encounter someone provoking me, I can't hold down the fire in my heart!"

"I just like this temper of yours, huh" The youth smiled slightly, appearing very poised and one could not help but feel good about himself, "How is your big brother lately? The last time I saw him was when he came to Yanjing for a meeting, and when you do the math, it's been three or four years since we've seen each other."

"Thanks for your concern, my big brother is fine." Ji Shaolei smiled faintly, "Only, he's mixed up in the official world, but he's not as free and easy as you are, young master."

Ji Feng instantly gave a beat in his heart, this youth, was He Hongwei, the youngest He family member?

"This mouth of yours, you're still so unreasonable, well, since you're already here, give me face, put up with anything for a while, and then settle it after the banquet." With a wave of his hand, He Hongwei looked very imposing, even vaguely tending to overshadow Ji Shaolei.

“Everyone, my humble self is hosting this banquet today, actually to promote communication between everyone, after all, Yanjing is only so big, everyone often hangs out in this Yanjing city, it never hurts to get familiar with it!” He Hongwei smiled slightly, appearing gentle and elegant, graceful and elegant, compared to those second generation ancestors who pretended to be gentle and elegant, this kind of manners of his, as if he was born with it, made it almost impossible for people to feel angry and evil.

“For big brother Ji Shaodong, this is definitely a strong opponent!” Ji Feng nodded secretly as he watched, worthy of being the He family’s eldest brother.

At this time, the young man behind He Hongwei, however, walked up to Xiang Yurou with a glass of wine and said smilingly, “Yurou, it’s really nice to see you tonight, you’re really pretty today!”

“Second young man overpraised!” Xiang Yurou said softly, raising her cup and clinking it with the young man.

This was the He family’s second youngest, He Hongqiang? Ji Feng frowned.

Looking at Xiang Yurou’s elegant and flirtatious appearance, a glint of greed flashed in He Hongqiang’s eyes, and he could even faintly see a hint of impulsiveness.

Ji Feng instantly understood that it was no wonder that little uncle would call to remind himself specifically, and grandpa had also instructed him to help his second brother while he was eating breakfast.

Now he finally understood, it turned out that this He family’s second youngest, He Hongqiang, likewise liked Xiang Yurou!

Chapter 339

However, what surprised Ji Feng was that according to Ji Xiaoyu, Xiang Yurou should not like the second brother, but seeing how she acted just now, it seemed that she had such a good feeling for the second brother

Ji Feng was pondering, when he heard He Hongqiang laughing: “Older brother Shao Lei, I can’t imagine that after a few years, we meet again, and in this Wanli Club, it’s really fate!”

Ji Feng immediately looked over, before the second brother just said, when he was expelled from the Wanli Club, actually because of the conflict with He Hongqiang in the club, today he naturally had to pay much attention.

Who knew that Ji Shaolei only glanced at him, shook his head slightly and smiled, then stopped looking at him.

This made He Hongqiang couldn’t help but be a little surprised and at the same time a little angry in his heart that he was being ignored?

In fact, the reason why He Hongqiang took the initiative to speak to Ji Shaolei and spoke with a flirtatious tone was actually to provoke Ji Shaolei again. Only, this time, he was not trying to make a move with Ji Shaolei, but wanted to make Ji Shaolei lose face in front of Xiang Yurou, or rather, make Ji Shaolei lose his temper.

He Hongqiang had heard a lot about Xiang Yurou's character, the pearl of the Xiang family, charming and feminine with a hint of heroism, both a woman's characteristic gentle water and the thorns of a rose, always attracting the men around.

However, Xiang Yurou has a great characteristic, that is, she does not like soft men, and even men with feminine character also do not like.

However, Xiang Yurou also dislikes men who are too masculine.

What Xiang Yurou likes is a man who is masculine but wise, who has a manly temperament and a wise mind at the same time, and such a man is the man she wants in her heart.

This news was obtained by He Hongqiang in exchange for a Lamborghini sports car from one of Xiang Yurou's girlfriends.

In their circle, it was almost difficult to have any real friends. A friend who seems to be on good terms will probably turn around and betray you.

Xiang Yurou's best friend was only a girl from a second-rate family, so she naturally could not resist the temptation of a few million Lamborghini, not to mention that she could exchange a Lamborghini for a piece of information.

After receiving this news, He Hongqiang deliberately acted masculine and wise in the process of approaching Xiang Yurou, hoping to impress her.

But helplessly, masculinity can perhaps be shown through behaviour, such as walking with a tiger-like appearance and trying to highlight a man's sense of strength in every move.

However, wisdom is not something that can be faked.

Sometimes, a single look or a certain sentence can show people whether you are wise or not.

He Hongqiang is naturally not a wise person, so Xiang Yurou has always been lukewarm to him, and after politely refusing to do so to no avail, he can only let him go.

He Hongqiang naturally knows his own affairs, if the elders on both sides don't say something, the matter between him and Xiang Yurou will probably go bad!

And it was not that easy to get the parents of both sides to give their word.

The reason is that both families are not second or third-rate families, and with their status, they naturally do not need to join with other families.

It would be a foolish act, and how could the heads of those families do it so easily?

One must know that since these families are able to stand, their family members are naturally not fools, but have very clear thinking and brains.

As for the elders of the Xiang family with the kind of importance they attached to Xiang Yurou, as long as Xiang Yurou herself was not willing, they would never agree to let their family's pearl marry He Hongqiang.

In such a situation, He Hongqiang has almost no half hope.

It was for this reason that He Hongqiang did not want to let Ji Shaolei get his hands on the beauty, which was definitely not what he wanted to see.

That's why he provoked Ji Shaolei, in order to provoke his anger and make him do it again, even if it meant taking a few blows, as long as he could make Ji Shaolei lose his temper and cause Xiang Yurou to resent him, He Hongqiang was more than happy to do so.

But to He Hongqiang's surprise, Ji Shaolei did not respond to his provocation at all, but simply chose to ignore him!

This result made He Hongqiang feel enraged all of a sudden.

If it was Ji Shaolei's elder brother, Ji Shaodong, who had come, if he had had such an attitude and directly ignored his presence, He Hongqiang would at most be a little upset, but definitely not annoyed. After all, he knew very well that Ji Shaodong was not comparable to him in terms of his ability and status, and perhaps, only his elder brother, He Hongwei, could compete with Ji Shaodong.

However, this Ji Shao Lei even dared to ignore himself?!

He Hongqiang's face suddenly turned ugly as he coldly looked at Ji Shaolei and said in a non-yingy and non-yangging manner, "Brother Shaolei, what, you haven't seen him for a few years and even your old temper has been wiped clean? It seems that Jiangzhou is really a suitable place for retirement!"

"It doesn't matter whether Jiangzhou is suitable for retirement or not." Ji Shaolei smiled faintly and looked at He Hongqiang's somewhat ugly face, "What matters is that by doing so, you are inviting trouble for your big brother!"

"You" He Hongqiang was instantly furious, who did this kid think he was? How dare he speak to himself with such an elder tone!

"He Hongqiang, you don't need to get angry either!"

Ji Shaolei glanced at him and said indifferently, "According to reason, you are considered half a host in this banquet, so I should give you some face. But what you have done hehe, to put it simply, the reason why I am here today is because you have invited me, if you are not welcome, I can leave right now."

He Hongqiang was stunned, and then his face became even more ugly.

If Ji Shaolei left now, it would mean a complete break between the He family and the Ji family, after all, Ji Shaolei was a guest invited by big brother, if he was driven away, it would be a slap in the face of the Ji family!

Although he was rampant, he did not dare to bear the consequences.

However, if he were to say the words to welcome Ji Shaolei, he would not be able to say them.

For a moment, He Hongqiang froze in place, not knowing what to say.

Ji Shaolei smiled faintly, a look of undisguised disdain flashed in his eyes, shook his head slightly and turned his head, "San'er, let's go, this banquet, there's really nothing to attend!"

Ji Feng smiled and nodded his head, he also saw that this banquet was really meaningless, no more than some dude trying hard to pretend to be a decent man, while those women with smoky eyes, trying hard to pretend to be the world's golden girls, hooking up with each other, really let Ji Feng can't raise half an interest.

The only one who really kept Ji Feng's attention was He Hongwei, the youngest member of the He family. That man was indeed not simple, and he had a special aura about him.

This aura of his was obviously a very different style compared to the calmness and great wisdom of his elder brother Ji Shaodong, but it was equally powerful!

Ji Feng's mind couldn't help but conjure up a scene of big brother Ji Shaodong and He Hongwei meeting, two outstanding men running into each other, I guess it would be very exciting, right?

Apart from Big Brother He, Ji Feng would never look at anyone in his eyes again, these people were just not enough for him to remember.

However, that Qiao Gakai made Ji Feng's heart puzzled.

A guy who should still be in prison in Jiangzhou, how did he appear in Yanjing?

He also said that he was on medical parole, but Ji Feng didn't see what was wrong with that guy!

The appearance of Qiao Gakai made Ji Feng's heart a little uncomfortable.

It took all Ji Feng's efforts to defeat Qiao Rong and Tian Guodong and the others and send the five Qiao Gakai to prison, but now, luckily, it hadn't even been a few months, and they had come out brightly and without any half-hearted attempt to cover up!

Once he saw that Ji Shaolei and the two were really going to leave, He Hongqiang immediately panicked a little.

If big brother knew that Ji Shaolei and the two of them had left because of his provocation, it would be strange if he didn't peel his skin off!

However, if he wanted to say something to stop them, He Hongqiang could not pull off this face.

In the end, he could only say nothing and watched Ji Shaolei and Ji Feng turn around and leave.

Just a few steps away, Ji Shaolei suddenly stopped and suddenly turned his head and smiled, "Yurou, it's still early anyway, if you don't mind, why don't we find a place to have a drink together?"

He Hongqiang was startled and looked at Xiang Yurou in a panic, hoping she wouldn't say yes, "Yurou, you can't leave, it won't be much fun without you here."

Ji Shaolei only smiled lightly but did not say anything, he was hoping that Xiang Yurou would make her own decision, it was also a choice for Xiang Yurou.

“It might be meaningless without me here, but if I stay here, I will feel very meaningless, so I’d better go!” Xiang Yurou looked at He Hongqiang, who had an ugly face, and smiled lightly, “Second young master, thank you for your hospitality, I’ll take note of it.”

Xiang Yurou took two quick steps and arrived in front of Ji Shaolei, smiling, “If you want to drink, drink strong wine, if you just want to treat me and drinks, I won’t go.”

“As you wish!” Ji Shaolei laughed.

The three of them turned and left without the slightest regard for He Hongqiang’s face.

In fact, if they were the sons of any other family, they would never dare to sweep the He family’s face away like this, but it was different for Xiang Yu Rou and Ji Shao Lei, the three families were similar and no one feared anyone, so why would they need to leave face for each other?

For a moment, He Hongqiang’s face changed and his expression was wonderful!

Chapter 340

“Ji Feng, I’ll kill you for sure!”

An incomparable groan of pain came out from a corner of the Wanli Club’s clubhouse, and Qiao Gakai, who was being helped to sit on a chair by a member of the security team, finally regained his strength, but the intense and extreme sense of shame in his heart made his body shiver.

He had been kicked by Ji Feng himself?!

The low chatter of those people around him was almost as if there were tens of thousands of flies buzzing around his ears, and he felt that the eyes of everyone around him carried a strong sneer.

Listen to what they were saying!

Ji Feng actually said that he had accidentally stepped on his foot, and as soon as he raised his foot himself, he flew out?!

Flew out!

Once he lifted his foot he flew out myself I * am not a stone on the roadside, let alone a fly in the toilet, how the hell can you kick Laozi out with one foot?!

This extremely insulting tone of voice made Qiao Gakai almost explode with rage!

However, Qiao Gakai knew that he had actually been kicked away by Ji Feng!

So even though he was angry, there was nothing he could say. Who had let him first set Ji Shaolei up before, and then he was humiliated by Ji Feng like this, but he couldn’t say anything about it.

However, now even if he wanted to take revenge, he no longer had this opportunity, Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei and others had already left the club, so he could not find a target even if he wanted to take revenge Of course, even if they had not left, Qiao Gakai definitely did not have that ability to take revenge!

The extremely strong anger almost set Qiao Gakai's entire person on fire as he sat in his chair, panting furiously, his eyes filled with rage and his face was hideous, as if he was about to choose someone to devour!

"Tsk!"

A sinister voice suddenly rang out in Qiao Gakai's ears, "This Ji family's people are a little too rampant, not only did they beat up someone at a banquet held by my He family, but they even insulted you with their words after they had beaten someone up! A careless kick to the head tsk! If it were me, I would have gone to fight for their lives long ago, how could I not put up with this!"

Boom!

The anger instantly swept through Qiao Gakai's whole body, he raised his head sharply, staring deadily at this person beside him, and said hideously, "He Hongqiang, you don't need to whine and sow discord in front of me, don't think I don't know what you have in mind! Want to use my hand to deal with Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei, hey Ji Shaolei has snatched away the woman you like, and you want to use me as a gun Sorry, I will take care of my own affairs, no need for you to worry about it blindly!"

"Qiao Gakai!"

He Hongqiang's face instantly sank as he bellowed coldly, "Recognize yourself clearly! Don't think that just because the Ji family gives way to you, you think that your Qiao family is also a top family! If I want to get rid of you, it's just a matter of a word!"

"You" Qiao Gakai was instantly furious, but his heart snapped.

Qiao Gakai knew that He Hongqiang's words were not wrong, if he wanted to get himself killed, I'm afraid it would be really easy.

In front of a top family like the He family, the Qiao family really had no room to resist. If it wasn't for Elder Ji's words not to let the Ji family's people deal with the Qiao family, the Qiao family would have gone up in smoke long ago.

Seeing that Qiao Gakai was stunned by himself, He Hongqiang smiled smugly and said in a low voice, "Qiao Gakai, if you want to wipe out today's shame, I can help you, but it depends on whether or not you're on board!"

"Sorry, I don't need anyone's help, as usual, I'll take care of my own business!" After a moment of silence, Qiao Gakai still refused He Hongqiang's offer.

"Don't you want to avenge your shame?" He Hongqiang asked.

"....." Qiao Gakai was silent.

In fact, how could he not want to avenge his shame? Even in his dreams, he wanted to!

Not to mention the fact that he himself had been severely injured, spent so long in Jiangzhou Hospital, and was later sent to prison, where he had suffered almost everything. Just to say that his mother, Qiao Rong, had also been seriously injured by Ji Feng, this simply made Qiao Gakai furious.

However, Qiao Gakai knew more about He Hongqiang as a person.

This second world ancestor was definitely not someone who could be worked with!

Besides, if Qiao Gakai wanted to take revenge, he didn't need to leave it to others, he himself was enough!

"Thank you for your hospitality, Second Young Master, goodbye!" Qiao Gakai ignored He Hongqiang's ugly face in the slightest and simply got up to leave. After resting for this while, he had recovered some of his strength.

And at this time, in a room at the end of the hall, He Hongwei, the eldest son of the He family, and a middle-aged man were watching everyone's every move in the hall through the large closed-circuit television in the room.

After the three Ji Feng had left, and Qiao Gakai had then left, a gentle smile appeared on the face of He Hongwei, the grand duke of the He family, as he slightly shook the red wine in his hand, "Not bad!"

The middle-aged man couldn't help but ask with some surprise, "Hong Wei, you let me borrow this hall and make such a big fuss to hold such a banquet just to observe those two boys from the Ji family? As for that?"

He Hongwei shook his head slightly and smiled, "Second Uncle, in my opinion, if it's about treating an enemy, it's worthwhile to take it as serious as possible."

"Then do you see anything?" The middle-aged man asked with a smile. He still trusted this nephew of his, because over the past few years, this nephew of his had always been very accurate in his vision, and even the old man of the family had admired him greatly.

"Ji Shaolei is much more grown up and introverted than before, but he is not too much of a threat to me yet, after all, he is only the boss of a small state-run enterprise and does not have enough resources at his disposal. If he could hold a big group in his hands, it would be very troublesome. Fortunately, the family rules of the Ji family are strict, so the pressure on our He family is much less!" He Hongwei said very considerably, "As for that young man beside Ji Shaolei, it should be that Ji Feng, the first grandson of the eldest family who has only recently returned from the Ji Family He makes me very stressed!"

"Pressure?!" The middle-aged man was a little confused.

"Yes, pressure!"

He Hongwei nodded slightly and said, "I don't know if you noticed, but when he first entered the hall, Ji Feng looked a little uncomfortable, but in less than a minute, he immediately adapted and even started to blend into the environment. The subsequent clash, however, showed the ruthlessness of this man's heart The Ji family has a calm and atmospheric Ji Shaodong who is quite a great general, and now there is an additional Ji Feng who is so powerful What will my He family do to fight the Ji family? "

"Hong Wei, it's not as serious as you say, right?" The middle-aged man's face changed a little, he naturally knew very well how outstanding this nephew of his was, the title of Yanjing's three greats did not come for nothing.

And that Ji Shaodong, was likewise one of the three Yanjing Jiejie, if we added a Ji Feng who made even He Hongwei feel scornful, just in terms of the third generation, it would be really hard for the He family to compete with the Ji family!

“We don’t know yet, it’s just a feeling.” Although the topic of conversation was not how easy, but He Hongwei’s face still had a gentle smile on it, “That woman Qiao Rong is crazy, how many people in Yanjing don’t want to mess with her, but in front of Ji Feng, she can’t even walk a single face, this is enough to show Ji Feng’s wrist

“It is said that this Ji Feng also has this extremely strong body hand, even Tian Guodong those people, have lost in his hands, originally I didn’t believe it” He Hongwei shook his head slightly, “but just now that kick of his, but I don’t believe it also I can’t!”

“Then” said the middle-aged man hesitantly, “Should we take some measures?”

“No need!” He Hongwei smiled faintly, “Some people are more anxious than us!”

The middle-aged man smiled knowingly as he remembered Qiao Gakai’s spiteful face.

.....

“The Yanjing Three?” In the Buick, Ji Feng looked at Ji Shaolei in surprise, “That He Hongwei is one of the three Yanjing Jiejie?”

“Yes, Xiang Yongzhan, He Hongwei, and our family boss, the three of them were known as the Three Yanjing Jie back then, all of them were extremely outstanding figures, highly valued by their family elders, and representative figures of the third generation of each family.” Ji Shaolei laughed, “Only, our family boss is developing in the career path, while He Hongwei is fighting in the shopping mall, as for Xiang Yongzhan well”

“What happened to Xiang Yongzhan?” Ji Feng asked after him. He was interested in this Yanjing Three Masters, to have this title was enough to show how outstanding these three were.

There were so many family sons in Yanjing, but it was these three who had such a title, which was obviously recognized by everyone.

“Xiang Yongzhan is my elder brother, who is now developing in the military!” Xiang Yurou, who was sitting in the passenger seat, suddenly spoke up.

Ji Shaolei hummed and said, “Third child, now do you know why I dragged you to escort me? It’s not that I’m afraid of the two brothers of the He family. Although He Hongwei is excellent, he’s not so good as to make me afraid. But that Xiang Yongzhan guy is a total villain, I’m going after his sister, and if he gets upset, he’d really dare to grab me and beat me up!”

“Do you dare to say that in front of my big brother?” Hearing Ji Shaolei’s blunt words about pursuing herself, Xiang Yurou couldn’t help but blush slightly, but once she remembered this guy calling her brother a scoundrel, she couldn’t help but glare at Ji Shaolei.

“Am I that stupid?” Ji Shaolei harrumphed, looking rather smug.

“Ji Shaolei, you’re much more mature now than you were a few years ago.” Xiang Yurou couldn’t help but praise him, “In the past, if anyone used to provoke you with agitation, it was simply a case of provocation, but I can’t believe that now you’ve learnt to be introverted too!”

“It’s not because you forced me to!” Ji Shaolei said resentfully, “You neither like men with simple minds with hairy limbs nor those who are too feminine, so I had no choice but to become a ten good young man with courage and strategy. Dare I ask Miss Xiang, has the current me met your requirements?”

Xiang Yurou suddenly blushed slightly, gave him a white look and hummed, “To be considered!”

“Hehehe!” Ji Shaolei instantly laughed and drove with more vigour.

Xiang Yurou’s words “to be considered” undoubtedly indicated that she had already started to accept Ji Shaolei, but only because of the girl’s face and the presence of Ji Feng, she could not admit it.

The fact that Ji Shaolei was such a person, how could he not hear the meaning of her words?

As he watched the pair flirting, Ji Feng simply leaned back and closed his eyes to recuperate. In his mind, he was thinking back to what had happened in the past two days.

Grandpa had asked himself to accompany his second brother to this banquet, so he definitely did not just want him to escort his second brother, especially after Ji Feng heard about the ‘Three Yanjing Jie’, he became even more certain.

Perhaps, the old man wanted to let himself get in touch with these family members in advance, or, let himself see with his own eyes the excellence of He Hongwei and the others, and use it to motivate himself.

Or, to allow himself to prepare in advance

Ji Feng had a vague feeling that this youngest He Hongwei of the He family, whom he had only met once, would most likely be a lifelong rival for himself and his elder brother!

This is only a very subtle feeling, but once this thought appeared, it never lingered, behind He Hongwei’s gentle smile, there seemed to be a pair of icy eyes that were staring at him all the time!

Perhaps, this was Grandpa’s real intention!
