

Campus Master 371

Chapter 371

Qin Shujie stepped off the bed and walked barefoot on the floor to the window, she slightly pulled the curtains open a crack and watched the BMW X6 speeding away, a strong sense of shyness rose in her heart, and in the midst of that shyness, there was also a hint of sweetness.

After all, the power of vodka is not something that anyone else would have blown out of proportion. If anyone else had drunk half of the bottle, they would have felt dizzy. Although Qin Shujie was a very good drinker, she was also a little drunk.

Only, she didn't really get drunk.

Today, Qin Shujie just wanted to indulge for once, and besides, Ji Feng was an older boy whom she didn't hate and could even say she had a good feeling for, perhaps a man!

For Qin Shujie, although today could not be said to be the most gray day of her life, but, at least it was one of them. The betrayal of her husband back then almost broke her, and now the indifference and greed of her elder brother has made her even more sad, and she has almost tasted all the sorrows and sufferings of life.

Qin Shujie had almost despaired of life. At this time, when Ji Feng sent her back, she thought, let loose once and for all, since so many people coveted her money, her body and her beauty, why should it be cheap for others, why not give it to this little guy whom she had a good feeling about!

With the intention of drinking, Qin Shujie was slightly more daring, but in fact, while indulging, she was more or less afraid in her heart, what should she do if Ji Feng also just coveted her body?

Therefore, when she deliberately and untraceably pulled open her pajamas and even completely stripped herself naked at the end, her heart was beating rapidly and furiously, practically about to jump out of her throat, and it was hard to restrain it.

At that time, Qin Shujie was in an extremely contradictory mood, she longed for Ji Feng to stay and indulge with her, but at the same time, she was afraid that Ji Feng would only indulge this time for her body, if that was the case, she would simply die!

In fact, Qin Shujie, who had originally fought and fought in the shopping mall, should not have been so vulnerable, and she had a defiant streak in her heart.

But the problem was that she was only a woman, and even if she was strong, she was still only a woman who needed a man's love, affection and love!

Without this, Qin Shujie's strength would only be for her daughter to live a better life in the future, and she, herself, would have no pursuit, not even a goal in life, because since her father's death, her life has always been the most grey.

However, to Qin Shujie's surprise, although Ji Feng had the same normal reaction as other men, he did not go any further and did not even move his hand. You know, at that time, Qin Shujie had already pretended to be completely drunk, even if Ji Feng did something, she definitely couldn't have reacted, but Ji Feng didn't

Especially when Ji Feng was leaving, that shake of the head and a smile instantly made Qin Shujie extremely ashamed.

She knew that perhaps in Ji Feng's heart, she was already

Perhaps, he also just regarded himself as a friend?

Qin Shujie felt that she had used this method to seduce him, which really made her feel ashamed of herself, and she didn't know what was going on, she just so ghostly wanted to indulge for once, she simply didn't know shame!

Yet in the midst of her shame, Qin Shujie also had a sweet feeling.

This was a decent man!

Or rather, this was a man who acted very decently when facing women outside. It didn't matter what he thought in his heart. Qin Shujie was still extremely confident about her looks, and she believed that any normal man would not be able to remain completely calm after seeing her body.

But it was one thing to want to, but it was another thing to know if she would do it.

I don't know how many people in this world think about committing crimes and getting rich overnight every day, but not many of them actually do it. Whether it's because they are timid or because they have more restraint, it all shows at least one thing: before committing crimes, he is a good person!

Ji Feng was also the same, when he saw Qin Shujie's body, his breathing was very rapid, his heart had obviously moved with desire, but he restrained himself.

Qin Shujie's emotions were incomparably complicated for a while, and she just stayed there.

"If, at first, I had met you how good it would have been!" Qin Shujie quietly stood in front of the window and muttered, "..... If that was the case, I wouldn't have ended up in this situation now, much less so miserable"

Then, not knowing what had occurred to her, she smiled again, "If I did meet you at that time, I certainly wouldn't be able to look at you either, because at that time, you were still a little brat, giggle"

But soon, she was a little worried again, "And I wonder after this time, did he see something, if he knew I was doing it on purpose would he think I was an immodest woman? Or, does he think I'm slutty?"

Qin Shujie was a little worried for a while, and the thoughts in her heart were quite complicated.

"Why didn't I meet you earlier, why couldn't you have been a little older?" Qin Shujie shook her head slightly and then smiled bitterly, "For a divorced woman, with your status and position, perhaps I am delusional"

It's been a few years since the divorce, it's not that Qin Shujie hasn't thought about finding another one, but the first thing to consider is her daughter, Yao Yao!

Secondly, there was the real purpose of that man approaching her!

If a man approached her for the sole purpose of her body and her company, but treated her daughter well and treated her as if she was his own daughter, Qin Shujie might even be willing to accept him.

Because right now, her only goal is to let her daughter grow up carefree, the company and herself, are not too important.

But obviously, how could a man who would only come for her body and the company be that good to Yoyo? This is obviously impossible, so all along, Qin Shujie did not look for another one, but just put all her energy into her daughter and the company, which has led to the current size of the company, and because of this, it has attracted the covetousness of her elder brother Qin Yujie and her sister-in-law Fan Lianggui.

Gradually, Qin Shujie's mind faded, after all, she is not a woman who can't live without a man, she also has a strong side to her character.

However, when she met Ji Feng, that string in her heart was so gently plucked.

Especially today, Ji Feng's performance made her heart tremble gently.

Ji Feng did not have a lot of wealth, which Qin Shujie did not know very well, but she also knew that the jade he sold to himself alone was more than 40 million, and with Ji Feng's steadiness and intelligence, this 40 million in his hands would probably turn into a golden chicken that would lay eggs.

This, coupled with Ji Feng's performance today, made Qin Shujie's heart flutter even more. There really weren't many men like that these days.

Qin Shujie believed that if it was any normal man today, he might not be able to hold back, and even if he came across a man with bad intentions, he might take photos or videos or something to blackmail himself after taking advantage of him.

But Ji Feng didn't, so how could Qin Shujie not be moved.

"It's just that his status even his family, and how would he be allowed to find a divorced woman? Unless it's to be a lover for him, " Qin Shujie couldn't help but shake her head slightly, she wasn't horny to that extent, moreover, between her and Ji Feng, it was far from being a lover.

"It's just that, let nature take its course" Qin Shujie's head shook lightly and she lay back on the bed again, with an unexplainable and complicated mind, quietly closing her eyes.

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who have been in the business for a long time. At this time, he was looking at the figure in front of the car and smiling bitterly.

Ji Feng's car stopped at the side of the road, not because he wanted to, but because he had to.

In front of his car, a patrol motorbike with flashing police lights was also parked at the roadside, and a delicate figure stood in front of Ji Feng's car, except that the face of the traffic policeman was as cold as frost, staring angrily at Ji Feng in the car.

“How did I really run into this aunt” Ji Feng laughed bitterly, when driving, especially after violating the traffic rules, the most fearful thing is to run into the traffic police, but Ji Feng is violating once, and then run into once, moreover, the same traffic police, Li Ruonan!

“Ji Feng, get out of the car immediately!” Li Ruonan was so angry that fire almost spurted out of her beautiful eyes, she was simply infuriated, she had run into Ji Feng before, but this darned guy had just accelerated and run away, leaving her to follow behind and eat dust, but still failed to catch up.

It was hard to find Ji Feng’s vehicle through the main desk, and Li Ruo Nan, who hated it so much, drove after him, but unexpectedly, she met Ji Feng who turned around and came back halfway here.

Li Ruonan was so relieved, you bastard, you’ve finally fallen into my hands!

Bang!

Ji Feng got down from the car with a smile on his face and asked with a smile, “Big traffic cop Li, what’s up again? Did you wait here specifically for me?”

“Nonsense! What am I waiting for you for if there’s nothing!” Li Ruonan said in an unpleasant voice, “I came to ask you, over at the University City Economic Development Zone, did you break the traffic rules? Just like last time, you’re still taking the pavement instead of the right way, are you having fun?”

Ji Feng’s mouth opened wide and he said with a stunned expression, “I, I say, you didn’t chase me all the way here because of this, did you?”

“Of course! What else do you think I’m here for?!” Li Ruonan hummed in no good humor, “Take out your driving licence and ID card, hurry up!”

Ji Feng laughed bitterly, “Don’t you know there’s this electronic eye thing? How are you a traffic cop?”

“Nonsense, of course I know there’s an electronic eye, but I came here to educate you properly, you guys are getting used to walking on the sidewalk!” Li Ruonan glared at him, “Cut the crap, take out your driving licence and ID card!”

“There’s no need for that, is there?”

Ji Feng smiled faintly, “You’ve even been to my house, you need my ID card?”

Chapter 372

Swish!

Li Ruonan snapped to attention and saluted, “This gentleman, please cooperate with me and take out your ID card and driver’s seat!”

Ji Feng was stunned, then he lost his smile, “Li Da Traffic Police, are you really checking me out? Be nice!”

Shaking his head with a bitter smile, Ji Feng took out his ID card and driving licence and handed them over. ***

Li Ruonan, however, did not take them, she hummed and glared at Ji Feng, "I'm not doing this to punish you, demerit points and fines are not even the purpose, I'm letting you know today how much danger you'll bring to other pedestrians by walking on the pavement! And, please learn to respect the traffic police!"

Ji Feng's forehead immediately rose a few black lines, looking at Li Ruonan who had a serious face, he could only smile bitterly and said, "Yes, yes, I know I'm wrong, I'm sorry Li Da traffic police, I promise I will never walk the sidewalk again I mean when I'm driving, and of course, I will absolutely respect the traffic police and respect anyone, because your great act has made me understand that any profession is respectable, it's me who is too narrow-minded, too cautious, too"

Pfft!

Before he finished his words, Li Ruonan was amused, she gave Ji Feng a white glance without good humor and chirped, "Just know how to be poor, you must not be like that in the future"

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Looking at Li Ruonan's delicate and valiant appearance, Ji Feng couldn't help but frown slightly, after deliberating for a while, he still asked: "I said Li big traffic police, how come I always feel that you and a certain person look very similar, strictly speaking, I should say very familiar, have we met before I mean before we met for the first time, haven't we already met?"

In Ji Feng's opinion, he had a feeling that he must have met Li Ruo Nan before since the first time he saw her. Or rather, had seen someone who looked similar to Li Ruo Nan. Otherwise, he would never have had this extremely familiar feeling.

But because of the many things that had happened between now and then, such as going to Yanjing and meeting the three great Yanjing youngsters, Ji Feng had forgotten to think about these things, but now that he thought about it carefully, it was indeed true.

Li Ruonan heart a shock, but the face is as if nothing happened, said: "What are you talking about? What before the first meeting Since it's before the first meeting, then it must not have met!"

This guy, his vision is too poisonous!

We must change our image in front of this guy in the future, if he recognizes us

Ji Feng naturally did not know what was going through Li Ruonan's mind, and hearing the other party's reply, he could not help but frown, "Haven't met? Maybe so, but even if we haven't met, I've definitely seen someone who looks a lot like you ee?"

A figure suddenly flashed in Ji Feng's mind, he could almost be sure now that he had really seen someone who resembled Li Ruo Nan before, but who exactly that person was, Ji Feng was still a bit unable to recall for a while.

Li Ruonan was afraid that Ji Feng would continue to think about it and said at once: "OK OK, don't look for reasons to get close, your violation has been taken down by the electronic eye, I won't issue you a ticket today, hurry up and go remember, no more"

Before she finished her words, Ji Feng interfaced, "I know, no more pavement well, go go go!"

He took a few steps and seemed to remember something else, jerking his head back.

Li Ruonan was suddenly startled and asked in some panic, "You, why don't you go?"

"Don't you need me to give you a ride?" Ji Feng asked, looking at Li Ruo Nan's motorbike and smiling, "I guess your motorbike doesn't have much fuel left, right? Rack it up behind my car and I'll give you a lift!"

"Who said there's no more fuel"

Li Ruonan hadn't finished her words when she subconsciously turned her head and froze, she turned back and looked at Ji Feng with a shocked face, "You, how did you know that my car didn't have any?"

On that motorbike, the needle of the fuel gauge indicator dial, was clearly pointing at the red line, the fuel was running low, only, Ji Feng was at least four or five meters away from the motorbike, and that fuel gauge indicator dial was so small, how did he see it?

Ji Feng smiled: "No need to feel strange, I'm guessing, get in!"

With that, he went straight into the car.

Li Ruonan immediately hummed and muttered, "Must have heard it by listening to the sound" People who drive a lot basically have this skill, what is the godliness"

Although the words were said, Li Ruonan still sat in the passenger seat, humming: "The motorbike is so heavy, how do you put it on the car to come?"

Ji Feng smiled faintly and did not speak, but drove the car directly to the front of the motorbike.

Immediately afterwards, he got out of the car and walked over, moved the motorbike quickly, and with the momentum of the motive power moving forward, with a violent lift, he put the motorbike into the trunk, although there was still a section exposed, but after all, it was already stable.

Swish!

Li Ruonan's pair of beautiful eyes suddenly widened as she subconsciously exclaimed, "Non-human!"

This patrol motorbike was a lot heavier than a normal motorbike, even with the forward momentum of the wheels rubbing against the ground, that was definitely not that easy to lift, but this guy had managed to do it, and looking at that look, it seemed to be very easy" If this wasn't inhuman, what was it?

A few black lines sprang up on Ji Feng's forehead, he quickly used a rope to secure the motorbike, returned to the driver's seat and hummed, "Can't you say something nice, like human, Hercules or something like that, why do you have to say something about non-human!"

Li Ruonan giggled, "Non-human is also a compliment to you, aren't those people and Hercules, also not human?"

This woman's words were too choking, so Ji Feng simply stopped paying attention to her and just moved the car, stepped on the accelerator and roared away.

An hour later, Ji Feng arrived in front of a gas station near the university city, he put Li Ruonan's motorbike back down and said, "Okay, go and refuel yourself, I'll pay the fine at the bank."

"Stingy bastard!" Li Ruonan muttered with a beak, "It's not like I fined you"

Ji Feng burst into tears and laughed, helplessly said, "I say, what do you want from me anyway? You're a police officer, do I have to accompany you to get gas and send you back to the traffic police?"

"I'm not that bored!" Li Ruonan gave him a blank look, and waved that little white gloved hand, saying, "Thanks for the ride, let's go!"

"Zizi"

Just then, the intercom on Li Ruonan's motorbike suddenly rang out, "Attention all units, attention all units, there is a robbery of a jewellery store on Kyushu Avenue in the university city, the address is ShuYao Jewelry Company on Kyushu Avenue, comrades on patrol in the vicinity please rush to the scene immediately, attention, the robbers are armed and have opened fire, attention, the robbers are armed! Repeat again"

The reason why Li Ruonan and Ji Feng froze at the same time was because she realized the seriousness of the matter, because in general cases, there is absolutely no all-channel call, the criminal police have their own special intercom channel, the traffic police also have their own intercom channel, but now, the emergency call for a criminal case, her intercom went off, this is undoubtedly an all-channel call, obviously the state of affairs is very urgent.

The reason why Ji Feng froze was because the place where the robbery took place was actually the Shuyao Jewellery Company!

For this company, he was really familiar with it, because the first big business he came to Jiangzhou, was with the Shu Yao Jewelry Company. And the owner of this company was no other than Qin Shujiao, who had separated from him only an hour or so ago!

"No way?" Ji Feng gave a secret bitter laugh and shook his head slightly, Qin Shujie was also really a bit too unlucky, the situation had become urgent to this point, which meant that the bandits were definitely very ferocious, otherwise, the messenger in Li Ruonan's intercom would not have alerted twice in a row that the robbers were armed and that they had opened fire.

In that case, Shu Yao Jewellery Company must have suffered heavy losses.

Li Ruonan was the first to react, and she snapped back to look at Ji Feng and said, "Ji Feng, I need your help!"

"How can I help you?" Ji Feng laughed bitterly, "Didn't you hear? The robbers have guns in their hands and have already fired, which means they are very vicious, what can the two of us do with our bare hands?"

"No, even if it doesn't make any difference, as a police officer, I must go to the scene of the case, otherwise, I'll be sorry for this uniform I'm wearing!" Li Ruonan immediately said decisively, she whirled and then eagerly persuaded, "Ji Feng, your hands are so good, maybe they can really come in handy, come with me, I really need your help!"

Looking at Li Ruonan's almost pleading eyes, Ji Feng did not hesitate half a second and immediately nodded and said, "Yes! We'll go together, but you have to promise me that you can't act recklessly, if you see that things can't be done, don't take any risks, if you don't promise, I think it's better for me not to go, at the same time, I won't let you go either!"

Ji Feng but knew how desperate this woman would be once she got serious, just from the fact that she had been chasing herself almost to that villa of Qin Shujie in order to teach herself not to walk on the sidewalk, you could see her character.

Li Ruonan hesitated for a moment before nodding her head immediately, "Okay! I promise you!"

Ji Feng smiled faintly and immediately pulled open the car door, "Get in and help me show the way!"

Li Ruonan, however, shook her head and said, "I'd better drive the motorbike to show you the way, because I need to keep in touch with the main desk at all times to find out the latest trends of the case!"

"Go!"

Ji Feng didn't have the slightest nonsense and directly got into the car.

In fact, if there hadn't been Li Ruonan present, he would have been running to the Shuyao Jewellery Company by now, and to him, Qin Shujie was his friend.

For his friend, Ji Feng would definitely not do such a thing as running away from the battlefield.

Chapter 373

Ji Feng skillfully manipulated the BMW X6 and followed Li Ruo Nan who was driving the patrol motorbike in front of him, quickly rushing towards the Shuyao Jewellery Company.

Looking at Li Ruo Nan who had already turned on the siren on the motorbike, Ji Feng's brow furrowed as he thought about it, but took out his mobile phone and called Qin Shu Jie's number.

More than an hour ago, Qin Shujie was still in a drunken state, and now she didn't know if she could listen to the phone.

However, this matter happened in her company, and there might be someone close to her inside, so if something really happened, it would be better to tell her at the first opportunity.

"Beep."

The phone went through, but no one answered, Ji Feng's brow couldn't help but frown, this kind of thing, Qin Shujie must be notified to.

However, now that she was drunk, Ji Feng didn't know what to do.

In desperation, Ji Feng had to put the phone back and pressed the horn twice as hard as he could, urging Li Ruonan to speed up a bit more. Since Qin Shujie was still drunk and unconscious, Ji Feng simply planned to help her take care of things, at least, where he could be of use, he would never be ambiguous.

The robbers had already violated Ji Feng's bottom line just by daring to shoot.

The fact is, she is even more anxious than Ji Feng, as a police officer, if she watches the robbers shooting recklessly but can't do anything about it, that feeling of helplessness to the point of almost going crazy, Li Ruo Nan is really not willing to experience.

At this time, Li Ruo Nan no longer cared about any violation of the law, her speed was even faster than those speedsters on the street, riding a motorbike, she was speeding across the road, looking like a bolt of lightning.

However, when she reached the city, Li Ruonan's speed had to slow down. There were more vehicles and pedestrians here, and even though she had her siren on, the people in front of her were still going their own way, as long as those pedestrians and ordinary people panicked and gave way, while those who were driving their cars acted as if they hadn't heard.

Li Ruonan's face was blue with anger as she kept honking her horn, but it didn't help in the slightest.

Ji Feng drove closely behind, taking it all in, his brows furrowed, his face incomparably gloomy.

"Ding"

At this time, Ji Feng's mobile phone suddenly rang, and he hurriedly took it out to take a look, but unexpectedly found that the call was from Qin Shujie.

He immediately picked up, "Sister Qin, are you alright?"

As soon as she heard Ji Feng's voice, Qin Shujie couldn't help but be shy, she struggled to bring her breathing back to normal and gave a muffled sound, saying, "It's fine, I took a shower just now, so there's no more big problems, I'm just slightly still dizzy."

In fact, Qin Shujie was practically dying of shame in her heart as she said this. She hadn't been very drunk from the beginning, except that because of the strong male scent that filled her nostrils when Ji Feng was holding her in bed, her body actually couldn't help but react, and it was only after Ji Feng left that she realized that her panties had actually gotten wet

Because of this, she took a shower, and her wine had long since sobered up.

Ji Feng, however, did not notice Qin Shujie's strange appearance, as soon as he heard that Qin Shujie was okay, he immediately said: "It's good that it's okay, Sister Qin, if you have time now, come to your company immediately, here well, how to say, something bad happened! "

"My company?"

Qin Shujie was stunned, then she reacted and asked in a panic, "What bad things happened?"

"There were robbers who robbed at gunpoint!" Ji Feng said briefly.

"Huh?!" Qin Shujie couldn't help but exclaim in amazement at once, asking, "How could this happen, how, how could this happen?"

Ji Feng sighed lightly and said, "Sister Qin, being anxious now won't help much anymore, if it's convenient for you, come over immediately now, you might be able to help."

“Good! I’ll go over immediately!” Qin Shujie said immediately, and she couldn’t help but ask again, “Ji Feng, how did you know that this kind of thing happened in my company?”

Ji Feng immediately gave a brief and clear account of what had happened, and as he was talking, he suddenly had a thought in his mind and immediately asked, “Sister Qin, although your company is a jewellery company, there shouldn’t be a lot of jewellery per se, right? Why would it be targeted by robbers?”

A jewellery company, after all, was not a jewellery shop, let alone an exhibition hall or something like that where jewellery and jade were concentrated, a jewellery company, was only responsible for the processing or trading of jewellery, and since those robbers had guns, they naturally would not be those silly guys, but why would they target Qin Shujie’s jewellery company?

Qin Shujie froze for a moment before suddenly exclaiming, “Ji Feng, they, they were after that batch of jade in the company!”

“How so?!” Ji Feng couldn’t help but be stunned.

“Remember that jadeite you sold to me? A large part of it has been processed and sold out, the rest, are the best part, the very best water jadeite, just this small part left is worth more than ten million, if it is processed well, it is not impossible to sell it for thirty million.”

Qin Shujie quickly explained, “Some time ago, I then decided to process this last piece of jadeite into various objects to be used as the finale for each branch underneath, the day the processing was completed was yesterday

“Those jadeite you put in the company?” Ji Feng frowned and asked.

“Because the company has a large safe, and the security measures in the building are also very tight, plus those jadeite will be sent to each branch this evening, so I also did not store it in the official safe” Qin Shujie’s tone was very regretful, had she known that this kind of thing would occur, even if there was only a few hours’ gap, she would have sent the jadeite to the official safe ah!

Ji Feng, however, immediately had an awe-inspiring look in his eyes and said, “Sister Qin, then come over immediately, if my guess is right, there must be a mole in your company, and, I guess the key to the safe is not the only one you have?”

“An insider?!”

Qin Shujie exclaimed in shock, not responding for a long time.

Ji Feng laughed: “The jade that was processed only yesterday will be delivered to each branch this evening, those robbers didn’t come early and didn’t come late, they waited until today, and they took advantage of the fact that everyone was resting at noon, isn’t that a bit too much of a coincidence? If I were a robber, I would definitely choose the night to be the safest, and, if I could steal, I would definitely not choose to rob”

Qin Shujie’s heart began to sink, Ji Feng said so clearly, if she still did not understand, then really do not deserve to be the boss of a company.

Obviously, Ji Feng’s analysis made sense, and the possibility was extremely high.

“I’m coming over!” Qin Shujie couldn’t hold back any longer and immediately hung up the phone and rushed over here.

Her company wasn’t very big, and a loss of ten or twenty million dollars was enough to hurt her to the point where she might not even be able to get over it for a year or two!

Therefore, Qin Shujie was bound to be nervous.

And at this time, Li Ruonan, after constantly contacting the main desk, already had some basic information in general.

Ji Feng hung up the phone and walked out of the car, Li Ruo Nan then told him the information she knew first.

Shu Yao Jewelry Company, located in the most prosperous section of Kyushu Avenue in Jiangzhou Economic Development Zone, is located on the sixth floor of a high-grade office building, Yihe Building, because most of this building are some high-tech companies, so the security measures are very strong, security guards are also equipped with weapons, just because those robbers appeared too suddenly, they did not play much of a role, it is still not known how the situation is, only the people outside heard the sound of gunshots and saw the robbers from afar, which is why they called the police.

“Just a bunch of rice buckets!” Li Ruonan strongly agreed with this statement, since there were guns in their hands and those robbers were weak-minded, how come they couldn’t resist for a while?

“Oh” Ji Feng instantly laughed as he turned his head and asked, “Can you get in touch with the main desk using your mobile phone?”

Li Ruonan immediately nodded and said, “Yes, it’s possible, it just needs some time to adjust.”

“Good then, get in!” Ji Feng immediately turned back and sat back down on the passenger seat, waving at Li Ruo Nan.

“Huh?” Li Ruonan was stunned, she twisted her head to look, just such a crippling traffic situation, her own motorbike was difficult to pass, Ji Feng still planned to drive a car to overtake other cars?

“What’s the matter with you, hurry up and get in the car!” Ji Feng drank out.

Li Ruonan grunted and immediately ran over and sat in the passenger seat.

Buzz!

Ji Feng began to slowly back up the car, and when a distance of about a few dozen meters flowed out in front of him, he began to continuously add fuel to the accelerator, and his face became grave.

Boom!

Ji Feng flicked the gearshift paddles violently, the operation on his hands and feet was dazzlingly fast, and in a flash, the BMW shot out in an instant as if it was an arrow that had left the string.

The next moment, it rammed hard into a car in front of it. The BMW X6 driven by Ji Feng was like a tank, instantly knocking the car in front of it out of the way.

He was still pumping the gas, the sound of the roaring engine, and the ear-splitting crash sound, causing everyone to be startled, as Ji Feng was like driving a tank, madly charging forward.

Squeak!

Seeing Ji Feng's madness, all of a sudden, the drivers of those vehicles that had been carefree, were scared out of their wits and hurriedly swerved their cars on both sides to make way for Ji Feng.

As Ji Feng passed almost unhindered all the way through, he couldn't help but look at the dumbfounded Li Ruonan beside him and laughed, "You see, these people know that you don't dare to do anything to them, so they won't care if you sound the siren or not, only if you make them feel the danger will they obediently do what you say, or rather, do what you want as a result!"

Li Ruonan looked at him blankly with a shocked face, and after a long time, finally spat out two words, "Crazy!"

Chapter 374

Under Ji Feng's madness, he drove the BMW x6, which had already been smashed beyond recognition, to not far from the Jardine House, but could no longer get closer.

Because, on the outskirts of the Jardine House, there was a huge crowd of ordinary people waiting to see what was going on, Ji Feng could drive his car straight through those cars blocking the road, but he absolutely could not drive all these people away.

He had no choice but to park the already smashed car at the roadside and got out of the car together with Li Ruonan.

Looking at the smashed headlights and the completely deformed motor cover in front, Li Ruonan couldn't help but have a gloating smile on her face: "You just had a good time crashing, I wonder if you'll have such a good time when you go to pay for car repairs in the future!"

Ji Feng grinned: "I'm sorry to disappoint your old man, this car is bought with a full set of insurance, even if the tyres are punctured, the money for tire repair can be claimed from the insurance company"

Li Ruonan was speechless.

"Squeeze in first and keep an eye out!" Ji Feng stood on the roadside stone pier to scan a week, but now only a dozen police officers around the building, he could not help but frown, according to reason, now even running to, the nearby police should also arrive ah, this efficiency they want to come to help the robbers clean up the scene?

Seems to have seen the thoughts of Ji Feng's heart, Li Ruonan couldn't help but explain: "Just now I contacted the main desk, because another place also appeared a case at the same time, and it seems to be a very serious case, so the police force are all set to that side, here is also the nearby street police station has these civilian police officers

“Transferring the tiger away from the mountain!” Ji Feng suddenly dawned on him, although it was said that there was no lack of coincidence that serious cases appeared in two places at the same time, but still, Ji Feng vaguely felt that this was the gang of bandits transferring the tiger away from the mountain.

Only, were they making such a big commotion just for the ten to twenty million jadeite?

Such a big commotion, the official will definitely not sit back and do nothing, it is possible that all these people will be stranded here, for the sake of the ten or twenty million jadeite, it is definitely not worth money, but you have to have a life to spend!

The first thing you need to do is to take Li Ruonan and squeeze in, but suddenly your heart flutters, he slightly sideways, the afterglow of his eyes saw a few people.

It was four young people, the oldest, who looked to be only in his thirties, and the youngest, who seemed to be a high school student, but the conversation between these four people was of great interest to Ji Feng.

“Boss Yi, our business has come oh, I can’t imagine that I can meet this kind of thing even when I go back to my country for holiday Hey, what good luck!” The youngest one said with a face full of excitement, for the robbery that was born in front of him, not only did he not feel the slightest bit of fear, but his spirits were high.

“Yeah, Boss Yi, Ji-key is right, anyway, idle, since we came across it, why not move around?” A young man with an inch of hair next to him asked with a smile.

Another youth followed suit and laughed, “Boss Yi, let’s do it!”

The one called Boss Yi, however, did not immediately agree to do so, but looked at the three young men, “Liu Zejun.”

“Present!” The young man with an inch of hair immediately straightened his face.

“Yao Zhi-key!” Boss Yi called out again.

“Present!” The youngest one also had a serious face as he nodded in response.

“Guo Tao!” Boss Yi looked to the last youth.

“Yes, Boss!” The youth named Guo Tao also followed suit and answered.

Looking at the three most proud brothers, Boss Yi could not help but say seriously, “All three of you boys remember this! Outside, you are used to being wild, that is because of the outside environment, there is nothing wrong with that. However, the situation in China is different from outside, there are no mercenaries allowed here and there is not much room for bounty hunters to live, so since you are on holiday, you should have a good time and no one is allowed to cause any trouble!”

The look on the faces of the three youths suddenly dimmed, and Boss Yi couldn’t help but scold with a laugh, “Look at your bearish looks, you have no talent at all, just a few bouncing little monkeys, don’t worry yet, if the police can't handle it, we'll take action then, we won't get into trouble then! There's a Chinese saying that says, "Do what's right and do what's right. There's a Chinese saying that says, "Seeing righteousness is courageous, but there's a world of difference between seeing righteousness and murder!"

The youngest, Yao Zhijian, opened his mouth and finally couldn't help but say, "Boss Yi, you're so cunning!"

The other two nodded at the same time, and Boss Yi burst out laughing, "It's not called cunning, it's called wisdom."

.....

The four people's conversation, word for word, fell on Ji Feng's ears, he was stunned, these four people are foreign mercenaries?

Ji Feng couldn't help but pay more attention to them, according to Ji Feng's knowledge, mercenary is not a simple profession, but whenever mercenary is mentioned, people will mostly mention iron blood, bloody rain, war

The four of them are obviously experienced in the fire and the rain, this time with them, I'm afraid that for no reason there will be a few more variables ah.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

Ji Feng immediately turned his head to look and instantly realized that on the sixth floor of the Yihe Building in front of him, where the Shuyao Jewellery Company was located, there was a sudden crunching sound of glass breaking, and those people around the building who were watching immediately crossed their feet and whispered, some of the more timid ones were even screaming in shock.

"Do you know what's going on inside now?" Ji Feng asked with a frown.

Li Ruonan shook her head, "We don't know yet, but the robbers must not have left yet, because there are police and onlookers all around the building, as soon as those robbers come out from inside, someone will definitely show up."

"What about the ventilation ducts and sewers?" Ji Feng asked again, "And the rooftop!"

Li Ruonan choked, her face changed slightly, but she couldn't answer.

"You wait here, don't act recklessly, I'll go in and take a look" Speaking here, he couldn't help but shake his head slightly and said, "I can only hope that those robbers haven't left yet!"

"Wait a minute, how are you so familiar with this?!" Li Ruonan couldn't help but ask.

Ji Feng laughed: "I've seen more movies, so I understand."

In fact, these things, all belonged to one item of sneaking, Ji Feng had completed training in all subjects of sneaking more than half a year ago, and it was done according to the standards of a class agent, although agents and robbers were different, both sides had a common purpose – to complete the target and then leave safely!

Li Ruonan said, “We’ll both go in together!”

“Fuck off!” Ji Feng glared, “With your hands, if the other side has guns in their hands and mountains, how many can you handle?”

Li Ruonan choked, and then asked unconvinced, “Then how many can you deal with?!”

“All of them!” When Ji Feng said these two words, his entire person had already dived into the crowd and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

Li Ruonan was startled, then stomped her little foot helplessly and could only squeeze through from the other side to meet up with those civilian police.

Ji Feng’s speed was not too fast, but the route he chose was the most inconspicuous place, when everyone’s eyes were focused on the sixth floor of the building, even if Ji Feng passed under their noses, no one would definitely find out.

When arriving at the foot of the building, Ji Feng saw a civilian police officer not far away was on guard, and from time to time look back at the sixth floor of the building, Ji Feng could not help but slightly shake his head, and then swept a glance at the masses of those onlookers “Really don’t know how to live or die!” Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, watching the hustle and bustle, do not even want to live?

If those robbers haven’t left yet, when the time comes, once a gun battle is born between them and the police, these citizens present, it’s possible that some unlucky people will be hit by the bullets flying around, and by then, it’s possible that even their small lives will be lost.

The corner of Ji Feng’s mouth pulled up a bad smile as he picked up a small stone on the roadside, bent his finger and suddenly flicked it out.

Whoosh...!

The stone hit the crowd at once.

“Ah!” A man suddenly covered his buttocks and cursed angrily, “Who hit me? Who the hell is so unethical? Want to burst the chrysanthemum!”

The crowd burst into laughter and chaos.

When the policeman turned around to look, Ji Feng walked past him so smoothly that not only did the people not notice, but even the policeman who was close by did not notice either.

Once he passed the police, Ji Feng’s speed suddenly accelerated, and in the blink of an eye, he flashed to the front door of the Jardine House, and in the process, almost no one noticed, except for some professionals.

“Ee? Boss, it seems like someone just went in?” At the end of the crowd, Yao Zhijian was full of shock and said in a low voice, “This person’s speed is so fast!”

The other two young men instantly turned pale, they all knew that although Yao Zhijian was the youngest, his eyesight was not below that of Boss Yi, as Yao Zhijian was a top sniper, eyesight, was the minimum requirement.

“Just now we seemed to have a vague feeling of a figure There’s not really someone going in, is there?” Liu Zejun asked in disbelief. Guo Tao next to him immediately nodded in agreement, he also had the same doubts, although their eyesight was all still good, but now the distance was very far after all.

Boss Yi, however, nodded with a stony face and said, “It should be, moreover, that person is definitely a top expert!”

“Boss Yi, then you are better than you” Guo Tao asked cautiously.

“Definitely not below me, even if I am not as good as him!” Boss Yi said with a stony face.

“Hiss—!” The other three couldn’t help but suck in a breath of cold air, who is Boss Yi, in foreign mercenaries, but known as the King of Soldiers, the terror of single combat ability, even once singled out five foreign grade special forces, and the other three dead and two wounded.

But now, Boss Yi even said that the figure was even stronger than him

“It’s rare to encounter such an expert, brothers, let’s have a good time too, well, those robbers must not be able to run away in front of him, but they will be able to create some trouble for him” Boss Yi’s eyes rose with a thick battle intent. “Let’s go in and clean up those robbers first, then we’ll make this friend!”

“Good!”

“Yeah, hey!”

The other three immediately nodded their heads in agreement, and with a wave of his hand, the four of them burst into the crowd, and at once a noise and disturbance rang out, many of the onlookers were wailing and complaining, but there were too many people to squeeze in, and they could only just be caught in between the crowd, it was very uncomfortable.

These people did not notice that several figures were also approaching Jardine House quickly

Chapter 375

Bang!

After an extremely light sound, Ji Feng steadily landed on the ground through the ventilation duct opening in the ceiling of the seventh floor.

At this moment, Ji Feng’s face was cold and his movements were clean and crisp, without the slightest hint of procrastination. As soon as he landed on the ground, he took a few steps and flashed to the corner of the wall, and his whole body disappeared.

It was obvious that the other party was definitely not an overly professional bandit, but should be an ordinary robber.

Despite making such a judgement, Ji Feng did not relax in the slightest, according to the intelligent brain, there was no telling how many agents, who had died from carelessness.

Naturally, Ji Feng would not do such a stupid thing.

What's more, Ji Feng naturally knew that since these robbers could pull off the little trick of transferring the tiger away from the mountain, they were naturally not considered stupid, and they could come to the seventh floor at any time to check.

"Knock knock" Just at this moment, Ji Feng heard a few extremely light footsteps, he immediately looked up at the ceiling, his eyes flashed coldly, and at once his entire body was completely hidden in the miscellaneous room in the stairwell, only looking out through a gap in the doorway.

A few figures flashed by quickly and soon disappeared.

"It's them!"

Although those silhouettes flashed by extremely fast, but with Ji Feng's eyesight, it was still enough to see those few people clearly, these few people, were the same mercenaries that he saw outside earlier.

"Not bad" Ji Feng smiled faintly, after making sure they had all gone downstairs, Ji Feng then pushed open the door of the utility room and walked out quickly.

His target, was the robbers on the sixth floor.

At this moment, in the jewellery company on the sixth floor, a group of company staff were crouching with their hands on their heads in the area between the company's halls in fear, and in the surroundings, there were several masked robbers holding weapons, staring at these staff, while several other robbers were gathered in front of a foot-high safe, and were using a small cutting machine to quickly cut the safe.

On the other side, in the finance room, two Ji Feng were loading up all the cash in the finance room.

In a small circle formed by those staff members, several corpses were placed in between, blood was flowing all over the floor, the pungent smell of blood almost made these people want to vomit, but remembering the cruelty and fierceness of those robbers, they could only hold it back with trembling bodies.

In front of the safe, one of the robbers whispered, "Boss, it's hard to open this safe, it's made of some kind of alloy, our small cutter doesn't seem to work well!"

A few robbers had been using this small cutter for two hours, and only at this point did they cut a small arc in the safe, this kind of degree, it really made the robbers gnash their teeth.

"Baka, you guys, no talking!" A slightly slim, masked man next to him, scolded angrily in a low voice, "Work quickly, the Chinese police are slow but powerful, don't get yourself into trouble."

A few of the guys didn't dare to speak at once and increased the power of the cutting machine. They didn't dare to argue with this guy, jokingly, the very corpse behind them was there, who dared to disobey?

When the little man saw how timid they looked, a look of contempt flashed across his eyes, then he regained his composure and just looked around vigilantly.

At this time, a grunting sound suddenly came, and several robbers immediately turned around, only to see the same two masked robbers, pulling a small jet cutter towards this side.

“Boss, I found this unintentionally in the storage room when I was on guard, and thought it might be useful, so I brought it with me.” The robber who was pulling the cutter said.

A few people were overjoyed, with this jet cutter, two of them working together, the efficiency naturally increased greatly.

These robbers, however, did not notice that just above them, at the mouth of the ventilation duct, a thin figure quietly departed.

“Islander?!” Boss Yi’s face instantly turned gloomy.

“Yes, Boss, I heard him speak the island language with my own ears, only, later on, he spoke Chinese, so I wouldn’t be sure, but it’s likely to be an islander!” The skinny figure just now was naturally Yao Zhi-key, and only his figure was suitable for detection through the ventilation duct between the ceilings.

“Damn it! What an ingrate!” Liu Zejun immediately cursed through clenched teeth, “The account from back in Africa can be settled now!”

“Settle with who?” Guo Tao was stunned, “This islander is not an island mercenary who has a problem with us.”

“But he’s a robber, and he’s still coming to rob us in China!” Liu Zejun grunted in an unpleasant tone as he immediately turned his head and said, “Boss, finish them off!”

Boss Yi shook his head slightly and said, “It’s still not sure if that person, is an islander or not, and we don’t have weapons with us now, almost everyone on the other side has weapons

“To deal with these dirt chickens and dogs, no need for weapons!” Liu Zejun’s face was full of killing intent, he casually touched his hand on his thigh, and there was an extra military spike in his hand, “With just this, I can kill them all without leaving a single one!”

Boss Yi deliberated for a moment before saying, “No! Our main objective is to restrain them, not to kill them, Liu Zejun, don’t mess around, or you’ll get into big trouble here. As for the account of those islanders’ mercenary groups, we’ll settle it with them when we get back!”

“That’s right, the boss is right, there’s a reason for injustice, these people don’t have any grudge against us, it’s better to restrain them, if it doesn’t work, then we’ll kill them!” Guo Tao said from the side.

Boss Yi also shook his head slightly, with all that hatred back then, why wouldn’t he want to finish off this islander? But now it was in China, and the downfall of breaking the law was not so rosy

Just at this moment, Yao Zhi key but suddenly opened his eyes wide.

“What’s wrong?” Boss Yi was the first to notice Yao Zhijian’s reaction and immediately asked.

“Boss, I just saw that figure from before again, he went straight to the sixth floor,” Yao Zhi-key said in a low voice.

Yi Lao Da Metropolis’ spirit lifted and said, “Good, let’s go to the sixth floor immediately, everyone be careful, if you get hurt by a stray bullet, it won’t be a good idea, try not to give them a chance to shoot!”

“Understood!” The three of them said in unison.

“There are actually islanders involved?” Ji Feng frowned, recalling the conversation he heard from those few mercenaries just now, things seemed to be getting more and more complicated, his eyes were also chilly, “To come to our land in good time, this is a bit of a bully.”

He glanced at the stairway, which was guarded by two robbers, and felt into his arms, but found no weapons, only a few keys.

“Anyway, the car is already broken, the keys will just be matched again” Ji Feng shook his head slightly, but the two keys in his hand suddenly shot out!

Swoosh—!

A cracking sound suddenly rang out, and in the next moment, the two masked robbers fell softly to the ground, not even half a sound came out.

Ji Feng took a few quick steps and casually pulled off the mask from one of the robbers’ head and put it on his own head. The difference was not so great that at first glance, one should not be able to tell the difference.

He lifted the knocked out robbers with one hand and threw them directly into the storage room at the entrance of the staircase, then, he walked down the staircase with ease, and even walked past the staircase entrance and almost reached the lobby, he even waved his hand to the two robbers guarding the lift.

Those two robbers likewise gave him a wave, and one of them even gave a thumbs up.

Ji Feng just walked past.

He did not know that just above the stairway on the seventh floor, through those Xu gaps, how dumbfounded the four of them, Boss Yi, were looking.

Although they had done such things before, Ji Feng’s performance was just, too formidable!

Those two people were actually casually thrown into the utility room by him with one hand!

This hand alone was enough to make people stare in disbelief, those were two people of over a hundred pounds, not two bricks, much less two sandbags.

What’s more, looking at Ji Feng’s skilled and calm look, it was obviously not the first time he had done such a thing. Moreover, those two keys made the hearts of Boss Yi’s four men tighten, that was simply more terrifying than bullets.

This young man, was definitely a top expert!

Ji Feng walked directly into the jewellery company in a big way, and none of the several robbers that he met along the way who were guarding the door stopped him, but Ji Feng silently kept the location of these people in his mind.

When he arrived at the lobby, Ji Feng stood there, a strong anger rising from his heart, his gaze, dead on the very corpses among the trapped hostages, these people were all shot dead!

The most important thing is that the parts of these people's guns, surprisingly, are all in the vitals, head, chest, throat

Ji Feng's murderous gaze swept through the hall for a week, and finally, his gaze landed on a small man next to the safe.

The islander that those mercenaries were talking about should be him, right?

Ji Feng looked around and still couldn't find a suitable weapon, so he simply walked straight over and headed straight for the small islander.

"Baka, get out and stand guard immediately, this is not a place for you to come!" The little man immediately saw Ji Feng and shouted lowly.

Swish!

A cold light flashed from Ji Feng's eyes, it really was the islander!

Chapter 376

Looking at the islander, Ji Feng tried his best to keep his eyes calm, he quickly sized him up, this man looked only about one meter six, with a thin figure, wearing black clothes he looked like a small monkey, however, Ji Feng smelled an extremely strong smell of blood from his body.

A murderous aura rose from Ji Feng's heart as he took two more steps forward and said with a slight respect, "I just saw that someone seemed to have barged in, so I came to report!"

"What kind of person?" The islander instantly became alert and said, "Is it the police?"

"It seems to be mercenaries!" Ji Feng smiled, "It is said that they are very fierce mercenaries from abroad, I didn't dare to alarm them, so I rushed over to report!"

"Mercenaries" The small islander seemed to be pondering, "How can there be mercenaries here?"

He, however, did not notice that Ji Feng was already less than five meters away from him.

"Mr. Taro, are mercenaries very powerful?" Seeing the islander pondering, a man next to him, who was also wearing a mask, asked in a low voice.

"Of course they're powerful!"

The islander named Taro immediately said, "You Chinese, all of you are short-sighted, so naturally you have not seen how powerful mercenaries are. They are all people who have truly fought on the battlefield of life and death, and all of them are extremely terrifying, if there are really mercenaries coming, there will be some trouble today immediately speed up the cutting, and we are ready to leave!"

"Yes!" The man immediately nodded and said, "Mr. Taro, that brother on the tenth floor and Mr. Aota"

"Shut up!" Taro immediately shouted lowly.

The man immediately under a shiver, hurriedly closed his mouth, not daring to speak in.

Ji Feng, however, listened to the heart, there is still someone on the tenth floor?

He suddenly thought of something and his heart sneered.

"By the way, it seems there is another extremely powerful person who has also come in!" Ji Feng said again.

"What?!" The islander Taro exclaimed, "Where did that powerful person come from?"

"I don't know about that, but then he said something." Ji Feng shrugged his shoulders and laughed.

"What words?" Taro was stunned, and immediately, his pupils contracted violently, and just as he wanted to make a move, his entire body froze in place, and a bone-chilling feeling instantly rose from his spine, rising all the way to the top of his head and exploding.

Behind him, Ji Feng had already stood there at some point, and his voice was extremely calm as he said, "He said, the islanders came to our China to commit crimes, and dared to kill our nationals so recklessly, all of them deserve to die!"

Taro's eyes were filled with disbelief, he wanted to resist, wanted to make a move, but he only felt a numbness in his back, his whole body just stiffened, he could not even move, even if he spoke, he could not open his mouth.

"Mr. Taro, is it?" Ji Feng laughed lowly: "How about it, the feeling of being stiff is not pleasant, right? Well before you die is equally unpleasant, so did you ever consider the feelings of those people before you killed them? Did you ever think that you would have to follow in their footsteps just a few hours later?"

At this moment, he suddenly remembered a legend among the martial artists and ninjas of the island, that in the land of China, there was a kind of master who practised ancient martial arts and was so terrifying that sometimes, with a single move, they could restrain a person and render him powerless to resist.

It is said that back in the days of the war, it is not known how many island soldiers died under such people, and even countless island masters died tragically in the land of China.

Taro, who had lived in China for many years, had never seen such a man at all, so he had gradually forgotten this legend, but who would have thought that today he would meet such a man!

Taro knew that a man like himself was nothing in the eyes of his opponent, and that he could kill him whenever he wanted to.

“Pop!” Taro only felt his eyes go black and he fell head first to the ground.

At the same time, Ji Feng withdrew the hand that hit the back of Taro’s head, rolled his whole body on the ground, and smoothly drew a pistol from the man next to him, while strangling the man, but the right hand holding the gun was raised.

“Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!” When the pistol reached Ji Feng’s hand, it was simply like a part of his body, each bullet, hitting where his gaze landed.

“Ah!”

A scream suddenly rang out, and when Ji Feng strangled the man, picking up the second gun with unparalleled speed and finishing the bullets again, there was no one left standing in the entire hall. All the guns in the robbers’ hands were directly shot away, and their wrists were pierced, bleeding.

The group of hostages in the hall had already been scared out of their wits and screaming.

Stomp, stomp, stomp!

At the sound of this scream, Ji Feng keenly heard the sound of footsteps from outside the door, he frowned, suddenly lifted the robber in his arms and threw him up high, while rising up, spinning in the air and kicking out viciously.

The robber did not even scream.

The robber didn’t even have time to scream before he was sent flying towards the entrance by Ji Feng’s kick.

At this moment, two figures flashed at the entrance and were bumped into by the robber.

Bang!

The weight of that robber instantly knocked the two men to the ground, muffling two sounds.

Ji Feng, on the other hand, had already raised his gun and arrived at the door.

“This brother, please stop!” A voice suddenly shouted from the corridor, the voice was very urgent: “Brother, don’t do anything, we don’t mean any harm, we just want to help, we really don’t!”

A small and a large figure suddenly ran over from the corridor, both holding up their hands to show that they did not mean any harm.

Ji Feng immediately recognized them, these two people were the same mercenaries that he had seen on the outskirts of the crowd before, and his excuse to distract Taro before was also because he saw them and remembered to say that there were mercenaries coming.

“This brother, introduce yourself, my name is Yi Xing Chen, I’m their big brother, we just saw that there were robbers here, so we wanted to come and help, we really don’t mean any harm!” The tall man said quickly.

Naturally, Ji Feng knew that they were harmless because he had heard the conversation between these people earlier, so he nodded and said, "Sorry, you guys appeared so suddenly, I thought you were robbers!"

Seeing that Ji Feng believed his words, Yi Xing Chen was slightly relieved and his heart smiled bitterly, it was all Liu Zejun and Guo Tao, two guys who were too eager, just running to the door like that, people were already being merciful by not shooting them dead directly.

"In that case, can this friend let my two little brothers get up first?" Yi Xingchen lowered his hand and pointed at the two people on the ground who were still pinned down by that robber.

Even with the robust bodies of Liu Zejun and Guo Tao, being smashed by a man who flew from a dozen metres away, they were still in a heap, and up to now the two of them still didn't have the strength to get up.

Of course, under the black hole of Ji Feng's gun, they didn't dare to get up rashly, otherwise, in case they caused Ji Feng's misunderstanding, they wouldn't know how they would die then.

"Of course!" Ji Feng took a step forward and kicked the robber who had already fallen unconscious, instantly kicking the robber away.

"Cough" Liu Zejun and Guo Tao on the ground coughed a few times and climbed up in some distress, but their hearts were shocked beyond belief, they were smashed down by a flying person before?

"This brother, a brief introduction, these three are my brothers, Liu Zejun, Guo Tao, Yao Zhijian." Yi Xing Chen said quickly, "The robbers guarding the lift entrance have been taken care of by us, so I was planning to come and see if my brother needed any help here."

"I don't need it here." Ji Feng shook his head slightly and said, "If you guys insist on helping, just help find a rope and tie up all these robbers!"

"Tie them up?" Yi Xingchen and the others were stunned and had some difficulty understanding.

However, when they saw the scene in the hall, they couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air, no less than fifteen robbers in the entire hall, surprisingly, all of them were covering their wrists and rolling on the ground in pain, except for those screaming and terrified hostages, there was not a single robber who could stand.

The four of them could not help but swallow their saliva with difficulty, this, this is really not a movie?

There were nearly 20 robbers here, even if Ji Feng had two guns in his hand, he couldn't solve them in an instant, so wouldn't these robbers resist? Did they just stand there and let Ji Feng shoot them?

"Work!" The four of them, Yi Xingchen, were after all people who were used to seeing such scenes, he shouted lowly and the other three immediately started working.

The way they tied the rope was very odd, only to see the one named Liu Zejun, taking out an extremely sharp military knife from his arms, cutting off the clothes from these robbers' bodies incredibly fast, using only the edges of the clothes, knotting them into a rope in three or two strokes, and then tying the robbers up in a special way, so that they couldn't break free even if they weren't injured!

“Good tactics!” Ji Feng couldn’t help but sigh in admiration.

Next to him, Yi Xingchen laughed, “Compared to brother, we’re still far from it, brother’s skill is really

No matter from the very beginning, or until now, what Yi Xingchen and the others had seen had constantly shocked them, Ji Feng’s skill was really beyond their imagination.

Hearing Yi Xingchen’s compliment, Ji Feng only smiled lightly, but his heart was thinking, on the tenth floor, there were likewise people, and there was at least one other islander named Cang Tai.

After hearing the gunshots, how would those people react?

Ji Feng likewise understood why there were robbers guarding the lift, because what they really wanted to cover was those people on the tenth floor.

On the tenth floor, what exactly was there that would attract the islanders?

Chapter 377

“Master, there is a signal from the outside world” Just as Ji Feng was contemplating, the voice of the intelligent brain suddenly rang in his head, he immediately took out the phone and found that there was indeed a phone call coming in from above, and it was also an unfamiliar number.

Ji Feng immediately frowned, in order to move without being exposed, Ji Feng had adjusted the phone to silent before he went upstairs, if he forgot to adjust

He took a deep breath, adjusted his emotions and picked up the phone; “Who is it?”

“Ji Feng, it’s me, Li Ruonan!” A pleasant voice came from the phone.

Ji Feng was stunned, how did she have her phone number?

“How’s the situation on your side?” Li Ruo Nan also knew that her call was a bit presumptuous, she was also a criminal police officer before, so she naturally knew how dangerous it was to call suddenly during an operation, but the sound of gunshots coming from upstairs just now made Li Ruo Nan extremely worried, and she didn’t know what had happened, she was afraid that something might happen to Ji Feng, so she couldn’t help but make a phone call.

“The robbers on the sixth floor have all been restrained, but this is not their real target,” Ji Feng quickly went over the situation, “According to my deduction, their ultimate target is somewhere on the tenth floor, where should have what they need!”

Li Ruonan said at once, “Ji Feng, I already know about this situation, now the people from the Interpol team have arrived, the captain said that there is a high-tech company on the tenth floor, they have newly researched a technological achievement, those islanders’ target is that technological achievement.”

“It’s true!” Ji Feng immediately dawned on him, which meant that the robbery of Qin Shujie’s company was actually really coincidental It was really too much of a coincidence, and one could only say that Qin Shujie was too unlucky.

Of course, this is under the premise that he did not appear, as for now, the most is the loss of some finances and the destruction of the safe.

The most serious thing, when it comes to those few employees who were killed, I’m sure it will be very troublesome to deal with them later.

“Ji Feng, according to the intelligence, the robbers on the tenth floor are not that many, there are about ten of them, however, they are the elites of the Black Dragon Society in Jiangzhou, while on the sixth floor where you are, most of them are some local daoists, there is no comparison at all!” Li Ruonan said quickly, “So you must not risk going up to the tenth floor, all the exits such as sewers and vents are now sealed off by the police, you come back immediately and leave the rest to the police!”

Ji Feng was stunned and couldn’t help but ask, “The Black Dragon Society? Isn’t that made up in movies and in the movies? Is there really this organization?”

“Of course there is!” Li Ruonan said eagerly, “Ji Feng, I can’t talk to you much now, come down quickly, now the special police will start attacking soon!”

Ji Feng frowned slightly and said, “The attack is about to start?”

He always felt that something was not right, those robbers had made such a big noise, they must have known that they would attract the police over, when the exit was blocked, how were they going to run out?

The robbers were definitely not that stupid!

Ji Feng quickly deliberated for a moment, he believed that these robbers must have a way to leave safely, if not for his sudden appearance here, I am afraid that in a short time, those robbers would have left safely!

These thoughts flashed through his mind quickly, and Ji Feng immediately said, “Since the exit has been blocked and there is no way for me to get out, I will simply stay here and see how those robbers are going to slip away!”

Just as he finished his words, he hung up the phone straight away, not having the time to say so much now.

“This guy!” Listening to the busy tone coming from the phone, Li Ruo Nan was furious and stomped her foot, in fact, the police must have gotten more than that little bit of information, just because of the discipline, Li Ruo Nan could not explain it to Ji Feng, but she had hinted many times in and out of words, but this guy just couldn’t understand!

“Ruo Nan, that friend of yours doesn’t want to come out?” Next to her, a man in a police uniform asked with a frown.

Li Ruonan nodded slightly and said, "Captain, he's very skilled, the robbers on the sixth floor have been restrained by him, he said that since the passages have been sealed off, he can't get out either, so he'll just stay and see what happens!"

"Nonsense!" The captain immediately sank his face, "Staying to see what's going on? The people on that tenth floor are all tough bandits with weapons in their hands, how can he be better than bullets? You call immediately and tell him to hurry down through the stairs!"

Li Ruonan said bitterly, "Captain, he's already switched off his phone!"

"Humph!" The captain grunted in exasperation and could only shake his head, "In that case, I'm afraid we won't be able to take care of his safety when the time comes"

Li Ruonan was instantly anxious and stomped her feet, but there was nothing she could do but say in her heart, "Ji Feng, you bastard, if anything happens to you, I won't let you go you'll be fine!"

At this time, Li Ruonan was incredibly remorseful, if he hadn't forced Ji Feng to come, Ji Feng wouldn't have entered the building alone, and likewise wouldn't have been in danger.

On the other hand, several leaders of the police department were beside the police car, planning something.

If Ji Feng had been present, he would have instantly recognised that one of them was Zhang Lei's second uncle, the deputy director of the Jiangzhou Municipal Bureau, Zheng Yuanshan.

Although he was the deputy director, his background and origin, coupled with Zheng Yuanshan's majesty and hand, gave him a high prestige in the bureau, and even the director would let him have his way.

Other people, moreover, directly addressed him as Director Zheng, and no one would ever care about his status as deputy director. No one would ever care about his status as deputy director, because everyone knew that what the director could do, he could also do, and even what the director could not do, he could also do.

At this moment, Zheng Yuanshan was discussing this operation with the captain of the special police team, as well as the captain of the city bureau's criminal police team and other people.

"Bureau Zheng, I think we should attack strongly, although there are hostages inside, but with the ferocity of those thugs, they will definitely not let them go, if we attack strongly, in the chaos, we can definitely save some of the hostages!" The SWAT team leader suggested.

The criminal police chief next to him also couldn't help but nod his head and said, "Bureau Zheng, I also think so, these thugs are all elites of the Black Dragon Society, ordinary means are useless to them, the only way is to attack strongly."

Director Zheng, however, shook his head slightly and said, "You can't attack by force."

He grunted and said with a sullen face, "This islander has really played a good game, they have deliberately made such a big commotion, in fact, to attract a large number of people to come and watch, if we forcefully attack in public, then many people will jump out and say something, accusing us of disregarding the lives of the hostages"

Hearing this, the others could not help but have slightly sunken faces, they all knew that what Chief Zheng said was true, if they forcefully attacked today, even if they succeeded, several of them would definitely be forced to resign tomorrow, perhaps, even Chief Zheng could only resign due to pressure.

“But if we don’t attack strongly, when the time comes, they will be able to use the hostages to blackmail us, and they will definitely be able to leave!” The SWAT team leader couldn’t help but say, “If we try to catch them again at that time, it will be difficult. Besides, even if we could catch them, I’m afraid that information would have been sent away through other channels long ago.”

“The chief is here!” A policeman reminded in a whisper.

Chief Zheng and the others immediately turned their heads to look, but they saw that the Director of the Municipal Bureau, You Jianxing, was getting out of a police car and walking quickly towards this side.

“Chief Zheng, what’s the situation?” You Jiangshu immediately asked eagerly as soon as he arrived.

Zheng Yuansan immediately gave a quick account of what had happened and finally said, “The dilemma we are facing now is whether to attack strongly or not, and how to keep the hostages safe.”

You Jiangshi said, “Mayor Li and Secretary Ji instructed us that we must solve this matter as soon as possible, and we must never let the information leak out, let alone put people’s lives and property at risk.”

The crowd noticed that when he spoke, he spoke of the mayor before he spoke of the secretary, but no one thought there was anything strange about it, because everyone knew that You Construction was Mayor Li’s man, while Secretary Zheng was Secretary Ji Zhengguo’s right-hand man.

However, what turned the crowd off was that he said these words, which were completely grand, but without any semblance of substance. It was really cunning to only say that the matter was to be resolved as soon as possible, but not to say whether it was a strong attack.

But in another way, it was also enough to show how uncommitted this chief was.

The eyes of several other captains flashed with a hint of disdain, but they could not say anything because of their status.

Zheng Yuanshan, however, did not move his voice and said, “Chief, we cannot continue to delay, one more second of delay will put those hostages in more danger.”

“Well, Chief Zheng said this very well” You Jiangshi nodded but did not continue, he would not make a decision easily, in case something happened, he could not be held accountable at that time.

Just at this time, Li Ruonan but fast ran over and said loudly, “Director You, Director Zheng, Ji Feng is still inside!”

“Who?!” Zheng Yuansan was stunned.

“Ji Zhenguo’s nephew, Ji Feng!” Li Ruonan said quickly, “He has already taken care of all the robbers on the sixth floor, now he said he was going to check out the situation, I feel that he wants to go alone to take care of those robbers on the tenth floor”

Swish!

You Jianjian's face instantly changed, a cold sweat immediately broke out on his back, and he lost his voice, "Secretary Ji's nephew is inside?"

It's over!

How could one come at this time!

Even if he was criticized afterwards, he shouldn't have come now, if something happened to that whatever Ji Feng

You construction is simply going to regret it, he shouted, "Strong attack, immediately strong attack, get Ji Feng out!"

"Tic tic tic" Just at this moment, Li Ruonan's mobile phone but a message suddenly came, she looked down and immediately said joyfully, "It's a message from Ji Feng him, he told us not to act rashly first, if the robbers want a vehicle like a car to escape, try to stall the robbers, he will find a way to solve those robbers"

Everyone was aghast.

And at this time, Ji Feng, but together with Yi Xingchen four people, is walking towards the upper floor, behind them, those hostages who were originally almost scared silly, are all frantically kicking and beating those robbers who have been tied up, even Taro, who is paralyzed and can't move, and that robber who was knocked unconscious, did not escape the fate of being beaten!

Chapter 378

(For what kind of treatment those restrained robbers would receive, Ji Feng no longer bothered about it, his attention, completely focused on the tenth floor that he was about to reach.)

Beside him, Yi Xingchen and the others were, however, two in front and two behind, alert.

Ji Feng nodded secretly as he watched, these few people should be considered absolute elites in the mercenary corps, this way of alerting them was extremely effective although not perfect, moreover, it was evident from this that their combat awareness was very good, such people were definitely battle-hardened.

"Mr. Yi, just now my friend provided information, there should be almost ten humongous bandits on the tenth floor, and most of them are elites from an organization of the islanders, and they are all armed, so it should be troublesome!" Since the other party was kind enough to help, Ji Feng felt the need to present the situation clearly, "So when the action comes later, I suggest that I do the main attack, you guys are responsible for covering me!"

Before Yi Xingchen could say anything, Liu Zejun next to him became a bit dissatisfied, "This gentleman, this won't do, we are all Chinese, since there are now islanders causing trouble in our territory, there is no reason to let only you go on the main attack, although we often hang out abroad, we are also part of China, and will likewise not watch the islanders do whatever they want to do in our place. "

Because Ji Feng had been wearing a mask until now and had not given his name, so the four of them, Yi Xingchen, could only become him as Mr. and knew nothing else.

This was not because Ji Feng was deliberately playing mysterious, but he was deliberately hiding his identity. On the one hand, he knew that what he had offended today was the Black Dragon Society of the island, which was obviously supposed to be a huge organization, while on the other hand, it was because although Yi Xingchen and the others were happy to help, but their specific identities, Ji Feng still did not know, as to whether their purpose of coming to China was really just for holiday, Ji Feng was equally unsure, in this case, it was necessary to conceal their identities for the time being.

Hearing Liu Zejun's words, Guo Tao also nodded approvingly and said, "That's right, this gentleman, although several of us are not experts, but when it comes to dealing with the islanders, we are all on the same side, we won't hide behind you."

"It's better for me to cover, you all go!" Yao Zhi Key was playing with two pistols he had gotten from the robbers in his hands, the pistols were in his hands, it was almost as if they were part of his body, incredibly flexible.

Naturally, Ji Feng could tell that this was definitely an expert in playing with guns.

He then smiled and nodded, saying, "Alright then, the four of us will be the main attackers later, and little brother Yao Zhijian will be responsible for covering."

At that moment, a sound of footsteps suddenly came, and the faces of the five men sank at the same time. Yi Xingchen fiercely gestured, and Ji Feng's five men then all separated and hid in the corridor's corner.

Only when the footsteps gradually faded away did all five of them come out. Ji Feng and Yi Xingchen looked at each other and both saw the look of caution in each other's eyes.

"It seems that the burst of gunfire on the sixth floor just now has alerted the robbers on the tenth floor" Ji Feng said in a low voice, "Our speed must be fast because they must all be alert."

"Well, you're right, but the lift is obviously out of the question, we can only kill them directly up from the stairs." Yi Xingchen said in a deep voice, "The ventilation ducts can't be used either, I feel that this group of humongous bandits up there are very different, this can be heard from their footsteps, so they definitely won't leave the ventilation ducts as a breakthrough!"

Ji Feng nodded slightly, if the other party blocked the ventilation pipe while he and the others foolishly went in, once they were discovered then, it would be impossible to hide and they probably wouldn't even know how to die.

"This brother, let Yao Zhi key cover, Liu Zejun and Guo Tao will kill up from the stairs, and you and I will go up from the side wall." Yi Xingchen said quickly, finally he looked at Ji Feng, "Brother, don't blame me for overstepping my bounds to command you, ah, after all, I know several of them better and am more skilled in commanding them."

Ji Feng smiled, "Just do as you say, I'll take the front, you take the back."

Yi Xingchen immediately shook his head, "That's not right, it's better for me to be from the front"

Before he could finish his words, he saw that Ji Feng had already turned to the window and dropped a sentence, "Don't argue, you are guests from afar, where is the sense of letting you take risks!"

Everyone knew that as long as this group of robbers were not too stupid, they would definitely lay their own eyes and ears among the crowd outside to pass on the news at any time, and as long as someone appeared at the window outside and climbed up from the wall, the robbers would be the first to know that the front of the building was definitely the most dangerous place.

If you go out from yourself, let Yi Xingchen go to the front, attract the attention of the robbers, Ji Feng from the back of the building wall to go around, naturally can be much less dangerous.

However, this matter originally had nothing to do with these four people, and Ji Feng was not used to taking advantage of others, so he preferred to choose a more dangerous place to be at peace with himself.

If it was treating an enemy, Ji Feng would never be soft, but if it was treating a companion or a comrade, Ji Feng could never be ruthless.

Looking at Ji Feng who had already drilled out of the window quickly and nimbly, Yi Xingchen opened his mouth but didn't know what to say. The other three also had slightly stony faces and a respectful look flashed across their eyes.

"Three brats, do you know what to do now?" Yi Xingchen asked in a deep voice.

"I know!" The three immediately answered solemnly.

"Good, all the cheap people have let me us, if we don't do a good job, I won't have the face to meet them again anyway, so all of you, cheer up, don't show any mercy under your hands, go and finish off those *ing islanders, finish off that group of humongous bandits!" Yi Xingchen gritted his teeth and roared low.

Ji Feng had given him a relatively safer path, but this was nothing but an insult to Yi Xingchen, as a man, a mercenary who had experienced blood and rain, how could he be afraid of danger?

"Work!" Yi Xingchen shouted lowly, and the whole person immediately rushed quickly towards the window on the other side.

.....

Hoo-!

Ji Feng directly drilled out of the window, and his entire person climbed upwards along the downpipe at the corner of the wall, nimbly as if he was like a gecko that was drenched in it.

At the same time, he kept a vigilant eye on the surroundings from time to time, and not just from above. Because Ji Feng knew very well that in case someone was hiding among the crowd of onlookers, then just one bullet could make him fall from the eighth floor where he was now!

"Look, there's a man on the wall over there!" Sure enough, within a few seconds of Ji Feng's appearance, someone from the crowd who had been tilting their heads to watch the fun exclaimed.

Swish!

At once, almost everyone's eyes turned over and saw that Ji Feng was climbing up the water pipe fast, everyone couldn't help but let out a cry of surprise, that was on the eighth floor ah, in case he fell down then wouldn't he fall into a pile of mush?

The first time those onlookers saw Ji Feng, Li Ruo Nan and those police officers likewise saw Ji Feng, especially Li Ruo Nan, when she saw that the man was actually Ji Feng, she immediately turned pale, without a trace of blood.

"Little Li, what's wrong?" You Jianjian was the first to see Li Ruo Nan's change, there was no other way, there were only two people and one thing that could matter most to his future now.

These two people, one was Ji Feng in the building, and the other, was Li Ruonan in front of him. The other thing was this robbery incident that was happening in front of him.

No matter which aspect went wrong, he would definitely not be able to keep his black hat on his head.

Zheng Yuanshan also looked over, he naturally knew what Li RuoNan's real identity was, also followed and asked, "Little Li, is something wrong you know the man on the water pipe?"

Li Ruonan's face was pale and her red lips were trembling slightly, "That, that person is he is Ji Feng!"

"What?!" Everyone couldn't help but exclaim, Zheng Yuanshan and You Jiangshen's faces instantly changed, who are you kidding, that person who was climbing upwards on the water pipe fast, was Ji Feng? He didn't want to die?

But, he doesn't want his life, others have to, he will simply scare people to death if he does that!

You are the nephew of a city party secretary, what are you risking this for?

"Don't shout, he must have his reasons for doing this, let's watch carefully!" Zheng Yuanshan was the first to calm down and immediately waved his hand, "Prepare the fire air cushion immediately to prevent him from"

The next words he did not say went on, because everyone knew what the consequences would be then if Ji Feng really fell down.

The two special police officers immediately pulled the fire air cushion and ran over quickly, then inflated it in a hurry.

At this time, Zheng Yuanshan said, "Little Li, don't worry too much, this person is wearing a mask, not necessarily Ji Feng, maybe it's a robber, being chased by Ji Feng with nowhere to run this is why he climbed the water pipe may be."

Li Ruonan nodded slightly with a pale face, but in her heart she understood that the back, the clothes, was without a doubt, Ji Feng!

However, she knew that Zheng Yuanshan must be trying to stabilize people by saying this, so she naturally couldn't follow suit and tear down the stage.

Sure enough, once Zheng Yuanshan said this, the others' faces eased up quite a bit, especially You Jianjian, who even let out a long sigh of relief and said, "Yes, yes, it should be Ji Feng chasing the robbers"

Li Ruonan's eyes instantly flashed a look of disgust, her lips moved, but a soft sigh, just gazing at Ji Feng on the water pipe, could not say anything, her nervous heart was about to jump out of her throat.

At the same time, in the crowd of onlookers, but one person touched out the phone and quietly sent a message.

A few seconds later, the glass of the window on the tenth floor was suddenly smashed, followed by a man poking his body out, with a gun in his hand pointed at Ji Feng, and immediately pulled the trigger.

Ji Feng, who was climbing on the water pipe, was suddenly flabbergasted, he let go of his hands violently and his whole body suddenly fell downwards.

"Ah!" All those who saw this scene could not help but cry out in shock, and even the timid ones had already started to cover their eyes, not daring to continue watching.

Chapter 379

"Don't-!"

Seeing Ji Feng's violent descent, Li Ruonan's beautiful eyes suddenly widened, which were full of despair and shock, she let out a frantic sprint and was about to rush over, but was stopped by Zheng Yuanshan.

"Little Li, don't be impulsive, it's useless for you to go over now" Zheng Yuanshan whispered, "Calm down!"

"How can I be calm, Ji Feng is going to fall down" Before she could finish her words, she heard the robber upstairs suddenly shoot.

Bang, bang, bang, bang!

That robber fired three shots in a row, and the whole scene fell silent for a moment, everyone looked dumbfounded in the direction of the water pipe on the eighth floor, full of disbelief, and even those who covered their eyes, after hearing the gunshots, couldn't help but let go of their hands and hurry to look over.

However, to people's dismay, there was no longer the figure of the masked man near the water pipe, only the robber lying dumbly at the window, looking around.

Where was the man?

Everyone was shocked, a big living person, how could he just say he was gone?

And Li Ruonan and Zheng Yuanshan and the others were equally shocked, where had Ji Feng gone?

Not only the people present, but even the people in front of the television set, were also full of dismay and shock, what had just happened? The man who had fallen from the pipe had suddenly disappeared?

It was the first time we had heard of a robbery like today's, where the robbers didn't even make any noise or offer to negotiate with the police.

At this moment, those television stations that got the news came to life and sent out their interview vans to conduct interviews.

And that one of them, the TV station, happened to set up its machine for live broadcast ten minutes earlier than its other counterparts.

In just ten minutes' time, the TV station's ratings were soaring, but most people who were free knew about the armed robbery case on Kyushu Avenue in Jiangzhou, and the TV station was broadcasting it live, so in a flash, the TV sets in front of those public places were overcrowded!

It was also because the live broadcast was advanced by so much as ten minutes that Ji Feng was filmed from the time he drilled out of the window, all the way to the robber shooting from the tenth floor window, a scene that was clearly seen by all the viewers watching the live broadcast.

However, as their hearts hung high in the air, they were also stunned beyond belief.

Where had the man gone?

At this time, no one had any doubts about whether Ji Feng was the robber, even if he was wearing a mask, everyone was unanimous that he was a good man, otherwise, how could the robber have shot him?

But now, this good man had disappeared while shooting!

Everyone was wide-eyed, because the shooting distance was far, so they couldn't see too clearly, but from the time the robber on the tenth floor revealed his head, to the time he fired, it was only a matter of a few seconds in between, and the man on the pipe was gone!

"He, how did he" Li Ruo Nan was also full of dismay, this is too incredible, a big living person suddenly disappeared, how is this possible!

Everyone was staring closely at the place where Ji Feng had disappeared, and while they were stunned, they couldn't bear to see a person die just like that in front of them.

But these people did not see that, just on the other side of the water pipe, the corner of the wall seemed to have been deliberately protruded for aesthetic purposes, while at that moment, Ji Feng was the whole person just clinging to the wall above, as if he was a gecko, with his whole body strangely keeping a horizontal line with the wall.

From above, only a section of the wall could be seen, and nothing more could be seen, while from below, because it was far away and the floor was too high, people could not see clearly, so in full view of everyone, no one had discovered where Ji Feng was hiding.

At this moment, the cold light in Ji Feng's eyes flashed, and he sneered in his heart. There were really accomplices of the robbers among the crowd of spectators below, otherwise, the robber on the tenth floor could not have appeared so coincidentally.

Ji Feng cursed, he quietly turned his head to look around and immediately smashed his fist on the wall.

Bang!

The tiles on the wall were instantly smashed and cracked, Ji Feng's face was cold as he calmly broke off a piece, folded his body and flung his hand!

Swoosh—!

In the next moment, the robber on that tenth floor window fiercely stared, he only felt a pain in his head, and immediately fainted.

Whew!

Once again, Ji Feng appeared on the water pipe and reached out to catch the pistol that had fallen down because the robber had fainted. Immediately afterwards, he climbed upwards without stopping.

“Ah! He has reappeared!” Everyone was surprised, and they could vaguely see where Ji Feng was hiding... it turned out that he was hiding under that extra piece of wall!

But everyone who saw this scene could not help but breathe heavily and their eyes were wide open. In their opinion, Ji Feng was undoubtedly a hero who had fought the thugs wisely, and now that the hero had not died as they had imagined, but had come back to life, even more heroically than before, these people were naturally even happier while they were nervous!

“He's not dead, he's not dead!” Li Ruonan looked at Ji Feng who suddenly reappeared and finally couldn't help but shed tears, only at this moment did she realize that she was so worried about Ji Feng
.....

Yuck yuck yuck!

I'm worried about him because I begged him to come along to help this time, if it wasn't for me, he wouldn't have taken such a risk

The fact is that the company's business is not just about the company's business, it's about the company's business.

The first time, Li Ruonan just looked at that athletic figure, obsessed!

The two people next to him, You Jianjian and Zheng Yuanshan, could not help but let out a long sigh of relief, especially You Jianjian, who was drenched in sweat.

“It's good that it's okay, it's good that it's okay, it really scared me to death” Those who were close to You Jianjian could hear the mutterings from his mouth, and they all couldn't help but frown slightly, but no one said anything because of his status.

Zheng Yuanshan also let out a long sigh of relief and secretly said, “I've long heard that this kid is good at fighting, but I didn't expect that he was actually this good!”

Zheng Yuanshan used to be a police officer, and also a criminal police officer, naturally his eyesight is extraordinary, he certainly can see that Ji Feng just now those few strokes, is not an ordinary person can do

Of course, if it were an ordinary person, also do not have so much courage to climb up along the water pipe, and his purpose, or to restrain the robbers!

“All snipers prepare, prevent the bandits from shooting out of the window, if necessary, you can shoot, no need to ask for instructions, pay attention, repeat again”

Zheng Yuanshan was the first to react, immediately reaching for the intercom and issuing orders to all the snipers.

You Jianjian was immediately a little annoyed, but opened his mouth, but could not say anything, now he was so scared that his legs were weak, and his voice was a little shaky when he spoke, so it was better not to go issuing orders, otherwise, in the future, he would become the laughing stock of the whole police station.

The other onlookers, who couldn't help but hold their breath, looked nervously and incomparably at the figure on the who tube that was rapidly moving upwards.

After solving the robber, Ji Feng did not make the slightest stop, even when he reached the window on the tenth floor, he still did not stop halfway, but continued to go up, and only when he reached the eleventh floor did he stop. This whole process only took less than five short seconds, and his speed was so fast that it could be imagined.

Zheng Yuanshan and the others at the bottom even looked at him with wide eyes, even if they were taking the lift, they were not that fast, this kid was really too fierce!

Those special police officers and interpol officers were even more excited. They had only heard of such experts in legends, but now that they had seen them with their own eyes, how could they not be excited?

Phew!

After making sure that no one was inside, Ji Feng rushed straight in through the window on the eleventh floor, and everyone instantly tensed up, they couldn't see Ji Feng!

Ji Feng, who landed steadily, was now in a large conference room. He quickly came to the door and listened quietly for a while, and only after making sure there was no sound outside, he pushed the door and walked out.

As soon as he arrived at the corridor, Ji Feng began to run rapidly. In this unoccupied place his speed was simply so fast that if someone was there, he could at most only see a black shadow flashing past in the blink of an eye, and it was absolutely impossible to see his movements clearly, so one could imagine how fast he would be.

At the entrance to the staircase on the eleventh floor, Ji Feng rushed straight down.

This was because he had clearly heard the sound of gunshots ringing out from below, and it was obvious that Liu Zejun and the others had already exchanged fire with the robbers!

When the two bandits facing him saw Ji Feng, he didn't hesitate and raised his hand and fired two shots.

Bang! Bang!

The two robbers fell head-on, their shoulder blades, directly pierced by the bullets. Ji Feng leapt down the stairs violently and kicked them one by one, directly knocking them unconscious, while picking up the guns in their hands.

“Took out two, there should be about ten more!” Ji Feng secretly said, and quickly ran towards the tenth floor.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Intense gunshots rang out continuously throughout the tenth floor, making everyone tense, but what was even more tense than those onlookers was a room on the tenth floor with several people wearing various different coloured masks.

These few people were all gathered around a computer, and the screen was showing a data transfer that seemed to be almost complete.

“Yours, is the copy ready yet? They’re about to attack!” A voice in a rusty Chinese language rang out in a low tone.

“Mr. Cang Tai, there are still five minutes left before the entire data is copied, please delay for another five minutes and we can withdraw!” A man sitting in front of the computer replied excitedly, also speaking in a very awkward manner in the same rusty Chinese language.

Chapter 380

“Good! Very good!” The man named Cang Tai was wearing a mask, but he couldn’t hide his excitement, “Now, start setting up the bombs immediately, and when we leave, make the whole Jardine House, a sea of fire!”

“Yes! Mr. Cang Tai!” The few people behind him immediately answered in the same voice. bubble-book_bar()

“In addition!”

Cang Tai added, “Contact the police outside for me, we want a helicopter and two cars, ready to leave!”

“Yes!” The men under his command responded, and then began to immediately go and contact the police outside.

Cang Tai smiled triumphantly, “As long as we get the information, those rice buckets of the Chinese police will no longer be able to do anything to us, hahaha”

A man warned, “Mr. Aota, there seems to be an expert coming from the building, Mr. Taro on the sixth floor seems to have lost his hand, should we strengthen our guard?”

“No need, we have hostages in hand, we don’t need to guard against anything at all” Mr. Aota waved his hand and said, “What’s more, although Taro has hostages under him too, those people who follow him are some stupid Chinese rogue gangsters, they can’t even compare to our Black Dragon Society’s elites, that’s why they missed, we don’t need to worry about anything at all!”

“Yes!” The men under his command responded.

“Have you contacted the police?” After waiting for a moment, Cang Tai asked at once.

“It will take another minute, Aota-san!”

“Be quick!” Aoi-tae was somewhat dissatisfied, “We are all elites, we must use the standards of the elites to demand ourselves, never the efficiency of those stupid hooligans in China!”

“Yes!”

.....

Ji Feng walked quickly down the corridor on the tenth floor in a grand manner, but in his heart, he was extremely alert, there were simply too many companies and rooms on the tenth floor, he was not sure exactly which one it was in, and now it was too late to ask Li Ruonan, so he could only look for it one by one.

The company was fitted with glass doors, and the situation inside was clear to see.

He immediately stopped in his tracks, his brow furrowed tightly.

Like the other companies, there was no one in this company, but Ji Feng had a keen sense that something was not right inside.

Even if the staff of the company had panicked and fled when they knew that a robbery had taken place in the building, then the company should be in chaos. But this was not the case here, the company looked orderly, not only did it not have any signs of clutter, but it was very neat and tidy, especially some of the documents on the reception desk, it was as if someone had organized them.

This desk is perverse!

He did not hesitate half a second and came straight to the door while taking off his jacket.

Ji Feng slowly pushed the door open, and at the same time, he violently threw the jacket in.

“Bang bang bang!” A few gunshots suddenly rang out, and Ji Feng rolled on the ground and entered that company in the blink of an eye, hiding against the reception counter.

A few masked bandits quickly ran in, his eyes flashed and his body surged.

The next moment, Ji Feng arrived in front of those bandits, he didn't even give the other party half a chance to react, a pair of hands was like a life-threatening scythe, hitting the bodies of these bandits with unerring accuracy.

Bang, bang, bang!

The four bandits instantly fell to the ground, their bodies twitched a few times, and they never moved again.

Ji Feng had only slightly inputted some bio-current, and it was enough to paralyse their bodies, unable to use any more strength. At this point, even if they still had guns in their hands, or even if these people were holding remote control bombs in their hands, they no longer had the chance to fight back.

A voice with a cry in fright came over quickly, Ji Feng was stunned, slightly stepped forward, walked to a room inside the company, and instantly anger rose in his eyes.

In this room, there were about twenty staff members crouching on the floor with their heads in their hands, shivering in fear, and in each of the four corners of the room, there were four gun-wielding bandits.

What's more, one of the bandits, who had already stripped a female staff member naked, was preparing to forcibly molest her

When they saw Ji Feng suddenly enter, the four bandits were all stunned.

"@#$%$##$" one of the bandits jabbered a few words of bird language, which made Ji Feng's head spin.

He, however, smiled faintly without the slightest panic and pointed outside, just making hand gestures.

Those four bandits were also a bit confused, not understanding what Ji Feng was doing at all.

Seeing another bandit come in, those staff members couldn't help but be even more scared, these brutes were really capable of anything, it was just too frightening!

Ji Feng once again made a few hand gestures haphazardly and took a few more steps closer to the front.

"#%$%#%"

To his surprise, the bandits were suddenly alert, and two of them had even started to raise their hands, ready to shoot at Ji Feng.

"Bang Bang Bang Bang!"

How could Ji Feng give him the chance to shoot?

Before those four bandits had the chance to shoot, Ji Feng had already shot first, hitting all four of them, and at the same time, he suddenly surged in stature and used his hand to point at each of them.

Pounce! Flop!

All four of them fell headlong to the ground, the pain of having their wrists pierced by bullets, coupled with the strange pain and soreness hurrying from within their bodies, made their bodies involuntarily twitch and look extremely painful!

"You guys are safe!" Ji Feng said in a low voice, seeing that those people instantly became excited and were about to cheer loudly or lose their composure and shout, Ji Feng immediately glared and roared low, "Shut up! If you want to live, don't make a sound!"

Everyone was immediately scared and hurriedly shut up, not daring to make a single sound.

Ji Feng coldly snorted, "Now in the whole building, this is the safest place, if you make a sound and attract the bandits, or if you go out and meet them directly, you will all only die. So you'd better stay here honestly, and when all the other bandits are restrained, the police will come and take you out!"

Everyone was busy nodding their heads, and the woman who was about to be molested but had been saved by Ji Feng, hurriedly put her clothes on with her hands and feet, and sat down on the ground with a red face after her.

“Remember, don’t make a sound!” Ji Feng pointed at them, before turning around and leaving.

Whew!

Ji Feng had just left the door of the company when a strong wind suddenly hit him, and he instantly rose up and kicked out with a lightning-like kick.

“Bang!” With a bang, a figure was directly kicked away by him, and only when he landed on the ground was he shocked to find that the one he had kicked away was Liu Zejun!

“Stop it, brother, it’s one of your own!” At this time, a low shout came from the corridor, Yi Xingchen and the three of them quickly rushed over, and when they saw Liu Zejun who had been kicked away, they looked at Ji Feng in horror.

They had just watched clearly from afar, Ji Feng and Liu Zejun were in a complete encounter, but in this lightning flash, Ji Feng had kicked Liu Zejun, a fighting expert, away with one kick, this was too shocking to them!

“Sorry for the late discovery!” Ji Feng shrugged his shoulders and said with a bitter smile. On the battlefield or in the middle of an operation, there were really a lot of things that accidentally injured one of their own. That was why in the Gamma Galaxy, soldiers would bring a kind of detector with them when they moved between each other, which could distinguish between the enemy and us.

Yi Xingchen laughed bitterly, “Brother’s body is just a bit too terrifying.”

Guo Tao and Yao Zhijian hurriedly went to help Liu Zejun up, looking at Liu Zejun who was kicked and could not lift his strength, the two of them were appalled, if this kick was on their own body

Ji Feng smiled apologetically and went over and gave Liu Ze-jun a few pats on his body, the latter was instantly refreshed and moved his arms and legs a few times, his face full of amazement, “I can move?”

Everyone looked at Ji Feng with a look of horror in their eyes, what kind of technique was this?

Ji Feng was not at liberty to explain this, bio-current was his secret and could not be told to outsiders.

He said in a low voice, “How are you guys checking?”

“All the bandits on the periphery have been solved, now there are only a few other rooms left to check!” Yi Xingchen said immediately.

“Go!” Ji Feng immediately took the lead and quickly walked towards those few rooms that hadn’t been checked.

The four of them, Yi Xingchen, looked at each other and followed at the same time.

.....

“Mr. Cang Tai, the police have been contacted” said a man with a red mask.

“Great, we can leave here, there was a gunshot not far away just now, I think someone is coming, we have to hurry” Cang Tai burst out in joy, but then his voice turned abruptly.

At the doorway of the room, a voice suddenly sounded, “I think, you should not have a chance to escape!”

Ji Feng’s five men appeared in the doorway, five guns, pointing at the six bandits.

All the bandits were stunned, how could they have not thought how these people had come here without a sound. However, when their eyes fell on their two companions at the doorway who had fallen to the ground, not knowing whether they were dead or alive, they instantly understood.

These men were masters!

Knocking down the vigilantes at the door without making a single sound, what was such a person if not an expert?

Cang Tai’s hand could not help but quietly feel behind him, while his mouth said, “What are you people?”

Hoo-!

Ji Feng’s body suddenly surged and instantly arrived at Cang Tai’s side, and his hands lightningly nudged at them a few times.

Flop flop flop!

Several bandits all fell down in response to the sound, their bodies twitching, just like the two who fell down at the door.

Gollum

A small remote control slipped from Aota’s hand and fell to the ground.

“There’s a bomb?!” Yi Xing Chen and the others instantly sucked in a breath of cold air, these guys were really ruthless, they wanted to die together?

They couldn’t help but be thankful, luckily Ji Feng had found and restrained these guys in time, otherwise, they wouldn’t have thought they could resist the power of the bomb!

“Zizi” This is Zheng Yuanshan, deputy director of the Jiangzhou Municipal Bureau, please ask your leader to speak to me!” The intercom on the table suddenly emitted a voice.

Ji Feng smiled slightly and picked up the intercom, “Chief Zheng, it’s me, most of the bandits inside have been solved and the hostages have all been rescued, you can send someone now”
