Chapter 4

“Could it be because of the heatstroke the other day and falling on the ground, so it broke my head?” Ji Feng was in some disbelief about the change in himself!

Throughout the morning, Ji Feng was in shock, and in order to confirm whether the scene before was his hallucination or not, he took out all of his textbooks and specifically picked out what he hadn't learned yet to read. Go to see the net .

After reading it, he immediately closed the book and did not look at it any more. After waiting a few moments, he then began to recite it in his mind.

The results both shocked and delighted him, even the most complex English words or reasoning formulas that he had never learnt before, he was able to recall them clearly and say them word for word!

After repeated verification, Ji Feng found that the previous scene was not his hallucination, but a fact!

Ji Feng looked at the textbook dumbfounded, his heart bursting with ecstasy, “He really has the ability to never forget!”

Why did such a change occur?

Ji Feng was soon puzzled again, he knew his ability, usually it took him a few days to recite a text, compared to now it was a world of difference.

After thinking about it for half a day, he could only shake his head and stop thinking about it, but in his heart he was secretly happy.

With the ability to never forget, this meant that in the next year, he would be able to make up for all the homework he had missed in the past and be able to get into a very good university!

Or even, be able to do a lot of things that he wanted to do before but couldn't The ability to never forget is definitely not just used to get into university!

When Ji Feng thought of the excitement, he couldn't help but scratch his head, and his face was slightly red with excitement.

Next to him, Zhang Lei suddenly asked suspiciously, “I say crazy, why are you so abnormal today? Shouldn't you really be crazy?”

“Go to hell!”

Ji Feng glared at him and scolded with a smile, “I wouldn’t be mad if you were mad!”

“Still being able to curse means it’s normal, okay, okay!” Zhang Lei let out a long breath and laughed, “Seriously, I was really afraid that you wouldn’t be able to take the blow and have some kind of problem in your heart. .com Crazy, that snobbish woman Hu Xuehui, it’s not worth you grieving for her!”

Ji Feng could hear that Zhang Lei’s concern was sincere, and a warm current could not help but flow through his heart, shaking his head and laughing, “Lei Zi, you are right, that kind of woman is not worth my grief for her. So, I’ve already forgotten about her!”

From the moment he saw his mother’s tears at the hospital, Ji Feng had already decided that he would forget about Hu Xuehui, and even if he remembered occasionally, it would just be a commonplace memory without any special meaning!

He habitually swept a glance towards the front and finally landed on Hu Xuehui who had been transferred to the front rows, remembering his own foolishness in the past, he couldn’t help but shake his head and smile.

Growing up, there is always a price to pay!

Fortunately, Hu Xuehui had proposed a breakup early, which also made Ji Feng wake up early. If not, Ji Feng would not have known how long he would have been addicted, and it was not even possible that he would have misplaced his life.

Looking at that once incomparably familiar back, Ji Feng was very calm, but in his heart he was only making up his mind: “Don’t bully the young man into being poor! Since you like money so much, I’ll go and work hard to earn money until I have more money than I can count. Only, I don’t do it to make you regret it, or to gamble, but for my mother. I will make all those who once laughed at her and scorned her, regret it. But all this, with you, Hu Xuehui, no longer has anything to do with

Once again, he took a deep look at Hu Xuehui’s back, and Ji Feng simply withdrew his gaze, from then on, the two were strangers, even if they passed by, they would never know each other again!

Seemingly sensing the gaze behind her, Hu Xuehui, who was sitting in the third row, looked back, but saw that Ji Feng was calmly looking down at his book, sometimes with a frown on his face, sometimes with a smile on his face, seemingly very engaged.

She disdainfully brushed aside her mouth, a poor man, what’s the use of trying harder, even if you get into university, can you afford to go?

The afternoon passed uneventfully, and soon it was time for school to end. The first day of school, so there was no evening study. Ji Feng politely refused Zhang Lei's invitation to treat him at the seafood restaurant, and was ready to leave school!

In Ji Feng's opinion, between friends, even a comforting look was enough. The fact that Zhang Lei was able to comfort him a few times was already the best pick-me-up gift.

Zhang Lei also knew Ji Feng's temper, so he didn't say anything more.

After the two of them parted, Ji Feng ran all the way back home where his mother, Xiao Su Mei, was busy in the kitchen.

"Mom, I'm back!" Ji Feng shouted.

Xiao Sumei poked her head out of the kitchen and was suddenly full of smiles, "Feng'er, go upstairs first, mum will be ready to fry another dish!"

Ji Feng wanted to go and help, but after looking at the kitchen which was already packed with people, he could only nod his head and smile, "I'll go then!"

The house where Ji Feng's mother and son now lived was in the old city of Mang Shi County. The houses here were all private self-built private houses, most of them were three or four-storey buildings without balconies, just like those humble hostels, with the doors of the rooms connected side by side, facing the corridor.

Most of the houses here are rented out, such as the building where Ji Feng now lives, and are mostly inhabited by people with low incomes. For example, Uncle Zhang on the first floor is a rag collector, and when Ji Feng was small, his mother, Xiao Su Mei, sold them to Uncle Zhang after she collected scraps.

Another example is Auntie Wang on the ground floor, who is a small vegetable vendor, just like Xiao Sumei.

Because the landlord had set up a communal kitchen and a large bathroom in the courtyard, when it was time to cook, everyone would crowd together and knew each other very well.

The people who came here to rent a room, apart from the landlord, were almost all poor and worked at the bottom of the social ladder, so they were all very amiable and sometimes helped each other out, which was also very cozy.

The house rented by Ji Feng's mother and son was on the third floor, originally a large room, but because Ji Feng had grown up, Xiao Su Mei let the landlord partition it off, usually the outside room served as the living room, at night, it was Ji Feng's bedroom, the dining table for dinner became his desk, and the poor quality sofa became his single bed!

Sitting on the sofa, Ji Feng was a little hesitant, wondering if he should tell his mother about the changes that had happened to him.

After thinking about it for a long time, Ji Feng decided not to tell his mother for the time being, but to wait until after the college entrance exams were over, and then give her a surprise!

Thinking of his mother's happy appearance, Ji Feng couldn't help but reveal a smile.

"Feng'er, come down and help serve the dishes!" Mother Xiao Su Mei's voice suddenly came over.

Ji Feng immediately opened the door and ran down.

Under Xiao Sumei's attentive preparation, the four dishes and one soup dinner was sumptuous, and looking at her son's wolfish appearance, Xiao Sumei was overjoyed.

.....

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

"With the ability to never forget, it's definitely no problem to get into university, but how long will this ability last? Will it be gone after a few days?"

Ji Feng's mind rambled on, and it was not until late at night that he sort of fell asleep and drifted off into dreamland.

Just then, in his mind, a voice that sounded like a synthesized voice suddenly rang out, "Complete integration with the host is complete, Smart Brain One, activate!"
