

Campus Master Chapter 49-50

Chapter 49

Ignoring Xu Mo's almost man-eating look, Ji Feng said to the fat boss indifferently, "Boss, cash me in!"

The fat boss smiled bitterly and could only nod his head in agreement. But when it came to cashing the prize, there was a small problem.

"This little brother, you see this 60,000 yuan is a considerable amount of money, this place is quite far from the bank, and I don't have that much money in the shop, look at ....." the fat boss that inquiring gaze looked at Ji Feng, "Or else I'd like you to give me your bank card number, I'll transfer the money to you directly through online banking, how about that?"

Ji Feng was stunned, "Bank card?"

The fat boss nodded and said, "That's right, I'm the only one in the shop and I can't leave, so I can't accompany you to the bank to get the money, so I can only transfer it through the bank."

"But I don't have a bank card!" Ji Feng laughed bitterly, although he had gotten his ID card, but as he was merely a high school student, the most money he usually had on him was only a few dozen dollars, except of course, when it came to paying tuition fees. In such a situation, he wouldn't have thought of getting a bank card, and now he was in a bit of a bind.

Suddenly, Ji Feng seemed to think of something and jerked his head to look at Xiao Yuxuan, "Teacher Xiao, you must have a bank card, right?"

"Ji Feng, are you asking the fat boss to credit the money to my card?" Xiao Yuxuan asked.

Ji Feng nodded and said, "That's right, that's the only way!"

"Good then!"

Xiao Yuxuan also agreed painfully and directly reported the card number to the fat boss, "Boss, my card is from the Agricultural Bank, the card number is ....."

The fat boss quickly tapped on the computer keyboard in front of him, and within a few moments, he looked up and said, "Several people, the money has already been transferred, you guys check it!"

As soon as his words fell, he heard a pleasant ringing sound coming from the kun bag Xiao Yuxuan was carrying with her, “Ding .....

Xiao Yuxuan immediately opened her kun bag and took out a pink female mobile phone, glanced at the message and said to Ji Feng, “The money has arrived, why is it only 60,000 .....

Several people’s faces changed at the same time, Zhang Lei even looked at the fat boss with a gloomy face. .com “Boss, what’s going on, why are you deducting money?” The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

As soon as the fat boss saw that several people did not look right, he said in a panic: “Don’t be anxious, listen to my explanation. The reason why money is deducted is because on the one hand, if you win a huge amount of money, you will be charged tax, and on the other hand, some handling fees will be deducted for bank transfers, so how dare I deduct money!”

“Is that so?” Ji Feng asked with a frown on his face.

“Of course it’s true!” The fat boss hurriedly took out an instruction booklet, on which was the ratio about the amount of lottery winnings to the taxes paid, “Apart from this tax that should be deducted, because this lady’s is a card from the Agricultural Bank, there will be an additional handling fee for inter-bank transfers, this adds up to exactly 60,000 left!”

Ji Feng did some secret calculations in his heart, then he nodded slightly and said, “So that’s how it is, then forget it, let’s go!”

PS: insert a sentence: fox buy lottery tickets at most only won five dollars, so do not know how much tax to pay in the end to win the jackpot, here to make up a little, understand the reader adults do not seriously count, thank you for the support of the fox, thanks!

When a few people walked out of the lottery shop, most of those students who had been swimming had also returned. The weather is the hottest time, and the temperature in the water is higher than the ground, so these students could not take it anymore after only half an hour of swimming.

Seeing the dozens of students who were cooling themselves under the shade of the trees by the roadside complaining in low voices, Ji Feng and Zhang Lei looked at each other and both saw the smiles in each other's eyes.

In fact, from the very beginning, they knew how bad this proposal of Xu Mo's was. Jokingly, the weather was not even October when the autumn tiger was raging, so going out for a picnic at this time was really asking for trouble.

If you want to go on an outing, you should at least do it in spring or autumn when the weather has already turned cooler, not in early autumn when summer has just passed and autumn has not yet completely set in, but how would young master Xu, who lives a rich life and does not know the hardships of the world, know this?

Hearing these people's complaints, Xu Mo's face was even more ugly, and with a wave of his hand, he said in a deep voice, "Since we've all had our fun, let's all go back!"

As soon as his words left his mouth, Tong Lei at the side couldn't help but wrinkle her eyebrows and said unhappily, "Xu Mo, how can you do this? It's the hottest time of the day, so if we go back now, someone might get heatstroke when we get home!"

Xu Mo blushed and said with some embarrassment, "Tong Lei, what do you think we should do then?"

"Of course we should play here for a bit longer and wait for the weather to gradually cool down a bit before going back!" Tong Lei said with great displeasure, this Xu Mo, just knew how to mess around, there was no reasonable arrangement at all, she had wanted to speak up long ago. It was only because of her personality that made Tong Lei unwilling to argue with Xu Mo.

Being reprimanded by Tong Lei in public, Xu Mo's face was a little embarrassed, so he said, "Alright then, you guys play here, I'll go back first!"

After saying that, he wanted to leave.

"Hey!" A student in the crowd gave a contemptuous laugh and said disdainfully, "Damn, bringing us here, not knowing what to get up to, and now wanting to leave alone, how can such a person be the vice class president?"

After being tossed around for half a day, doing nothing but swimming and picnics, and with the weather still hot as hell, there were people who had long been dissatisfied with Xu Mo, and at this moment, seeing him wanting to leave, they muttered in whispers.

"Who's talking, stand out if you have the guts!" When Xu Mo heard this, he roared in annoyance, his harsh gaze sweeping over the group of students, the others shifted their gaze, not daring to meet him, obviously afraid of his retaliation.

“Student Xu Mo, originally I shouldn’t have spoken, but as a teacher, I suggest that you handle this matter from the perspective of uniting with your classmates!” Xiao Yuxuan said indifferently.

“That’s right, you organized this outing, how can you leave early?” Tong Lei said discontentedly.

“You, you guys ……” Looking at all these students accusing themselves, Xu Mo suddenly became irritated and cursed angrily, “What are they all saying, I can leave if I like, what do you care! What do you care?”

After saying that, he did not even turn his head and left with a big stride, the few students who usually befriended him also hurriedly followed, the contemptuous gazes of their classmates made them feel like a manacle on their backs!

Chapter 50

As they watched Xu Mo and the others leave, all the students revealed contemptuous glances. Go to see the net . Perhaps they didn’t dare to show the disdain in their hearts when Xu Mo was around, but behind his back, numerous students were still discontent.

It was clearly Xu Mo who had organised the outing for the students in the class, but now he disregarded the feelings of others and took his lapdog with him, so how could the students in the class not have thoughts?

“Damn, really arrogant as hell!” Zhang Lei looked at Xu Mo’s back and cursed rather indignantly.

“Swearing again!” Tong Lei glared at him in anger, and the dissatisfaction in her heart towards Xu Mo was also vented on Zhang Lei’s head.

Naive Zhang Lei, the big brother, simply did not dare to tussle with Tong Lei, and could only heave a smile and look elsewhere.

“This Xu student is really ……” Xiao Yuxuan shook her head slightly, out of her own cultivation, she didn’t want to talk about others behind their backs, but the dissatisfaction in that look was already fully revealed.

“Forget it, go or stay, this is people’s freedom, we can’t control it!” Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, looking down on Xu Mo even more. Originally, Ji Feng thought that Xu Mo was somewhat capable, although he was flaunting his power on the basis of his family background, but coming from an official family, he should at least have some cultivation, but now it seems that he is just a useless second generation ancestor.

Compared to him, Ji Feng suddenly found that he was actually very good. If he could have enough power and capital again, Xu Mo's little family history would become nothing in front of him.

A group of students took a break for about two hours, fortunately there was a shop next to Mang Shi Shan, some students also paid for a few poker games, a group of students divided into several groups and played, the two hours did not seem so long.

During this time Xiao Yuxuan secretly asked Ji Feng if she would accompany him to get the money out, but Ji Feng refused. He didn't want Xiao Yuxuan's such delicate skin to be exposed to the scorching sun. Thinking of this, he couldn't help but think of the spring light under Xiao Yuxuan's skirt, and he couldn't help but feel another flutter in his heart!

Xiao Yuxuan also seemed to realize that Ji Feng was doing it for his own good, so she couldn't help but feel a little touched in her heart, this little guy, he was quite caring!

By the time 4pm rolled around, the sun was no longer so hot and the students started to go home sparingly. .com

But Ji Feng was in no hurry to go back, because he hadn't thought about what to tell his mother about winning the lottery for no reason, and if he told her that he had won the lottery by buying a ticket, he didn't know if she would believe him!

And if he didn't tell her, Ji Feng would be even more upset in his heart. It was already hard enough for his mother to raise himself all these years, and now that he had a chance to make things easier for her, Ji Feng was naturally unwilling to see her continue to work hard.

You know, all these years, mother Xiao Soumei's hard work was not only physical, but also pain in her heart. The identity of his own illegitimate son had made his mother bear the scolding of being unmarried and pregnant and having an unorthodox style, and I am afraid that in the eyes of many people in his hometown, his mother was an unorthodox woman.

Every time he thought of this, Ji Feng's heart was like a knife, but he was powerless to change it. He could only secretly vow to study hard and be filial to his mother when he became successful in the future.

Thinking of this, Ji Feng couldn't help but think of his 'father' whom he had never met.

If that heartless man hadn't abandoned himself and his mother, how could his mother have suffered so much all these years?

Ever since he understood, Ji Feng had often been able to hear his mother crying secretly under the covers at night, that heart-breaking pain that made Ji Feng hate the man who had abandoned his mother beyond measure!

But every time he asked for information about his father, his mother, Xiao Su Mei, would reprimand herself and then never mention the matter, which made Ji Feng helpless.

“Ruthless man, you don’t owe me anything, but over the years, you owe your mother far too much!” Ji Feng secretly gritted his teeth, but the emotions in his heart were incredibly complicated, for that man, he both hated it bitterly and couldn’t help but want to know things about him.

Who exactly was the father .....? Ji Feng just knows that his surname should be with his father, because in the surrounding relatives or acquaintances, there is no one surnamed Ji, but, China is so big, there are too many people surnamed Ji .....

“Crazy, what are you thinking about, it’s time to go home!” Zhang Lei’s voice interrupted Ji Feng’s contemplation, “It’s already dark, and all the students have left, so we should go back, right?”

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, “Let’s go, let’s go back!”

“Ji Feng, we won’t be joining you guys, it will take us a while to get home from here!” Tong Lei said softly, “Teacher Xiao, take care on your way, be safe!”

“You guys too, see you on Monday!” Xiao Yuxuan said with a smile like a flower.

Ji Feng was just about to speak, but he saw Zhang Lei giving him a wink one after another.

When Zhang Lei saw that he didn’t understand what he meant, he pulled Ji Feng over in anger and said in a low voice, “Crazy, you’re silly, my buddy is creating an opportunity for you, now hurry up and send my old sister home, slowly cultivate your feelings well, I’ll just go and send Ms. Xiao’s side!”

Who knows, although he could have lowered his voice, he was still heard by Tong Lei and Xiao Yuxuan.

Tong Lei’s pretty face was red with shame and she scolded, “Zhang Lei, what are you talking about, don’t hurry up and go! Or else .....

As if Zhang Lei remembered something terrible, he panicked and showed a scared look, dropping a sentence, “Crazy, buddy, I’ll leave first, see you later!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, he had already run out a long way away, leaving only Ji Feng to laugh bitterly.

Tong Lei was too shy to meet Ji Feng's eyes, and only greeted Xiao Yuxuan before hurrying away.

Xiao Yuxuan looked at Ji Feng with a wry smile, secretly saying in her heart, so the girl this little guy liked was Tong Lei. If the two of them could really get together, they would really be an enviable little couple.

Xiao Yuxuan thought of her own one again and couldn't help but reveal a sweet smile, wasn't the little couple in front of her a replica of herself and that one?

"Teacher Xiao, let's go!" Ji Feng said with an awkward smile.

Xiao Yuxuan snapped, "You little guy, what did you call me?"

Ji Feng smiled embarrassedly, "Sister Yu Xuan!"

"That's more like it!" Xiao Yuxuan gave him a white look and laughed delicately, "Alright, let's not tease you anymore, let's go!"

Ji Feng scratched his head awkwardly and looked at Xiao Yuxuan who was walking in style, helplessly following him.

"Little guy, the banks are all closed now, so you can't withdraw money. Are you that relieved that you put the money in my place?" Xiao Yuxuan suddenly glanced back at Ji Feng and asked.

"At ease!" Ji Feng blurted out without hesitation.

"That's sixty thousand dollars, are you really that relieved that you're not afraid that I'll renege on the debt?" Xiao Yuxuan smiled delicately, "Anyway, it was a lottery win, and that fat boss also paid the money directly to my card, even if I reneged on the debt, you can't do anything about it, are you that relieved? Then I'll really renege on my debt!"

Although he knew that Xiao Yuxuan was joking, Ji Feng couldn't help but get serious and said solemnly, "Sister Yuxuan, to tell you the truth, this 60,000 yuan is almost an astronomical amount of money for me, and for our family as well. I'm not afraid to laugh at you, our family can't even get out a thousand dollars now, let alone sixty thousand. But I'd feel more comfortable putting it with you than in the bank!"

"Oh?" Xiao Yuxuan looked at him in amazement, "Why?"

Ji Feng said seriously, "Because you care about me! I grew up being looked down upon and looked down upon by others, even my mother was looked down upon, and none of the people closest to me ever used to care about me. But you are different, although you may just be out of a kind of teacher's concern for students, but at the very least, I feel that kind of concern from you, and this kind of feeling, apart from my mother, only you have given me. So, it's not that I'm not afraid of you renegeing on your debt or trusting you, but even if you take all the money, it's only natural, because you've shown me the feeling of being cared for, and that's something that no amount of money can buy back!"

Looking at Ji Feng's sincere and somewhat painful eyes, in a flash, Xiao Yuxuan felt her heart being pulled hard and painful!
