Chapter 591

Ji Feng only knew that Yang Yu's character was mute, but he had never thought that this guy was actually so stubborn and had a bit of a mind that would be considered stupid in the eyes of ordinary people.

Because he admired the other party's skills, he would rather go to jail himself than deal with WX, which made Ji Feng laugh and feel good.

However, Ji Feng could not help, his future plans still counted on Yang Yu, moreover, Ji Feng had some interest in that wx, whom he had never met before. To be able to let Yang Yu have such a push, this is wx, should be very uncomplicated, at least his technology is absolutely excellent.

Ji Feng then moved his mind, if he could recruit these two people at the same time, it would be quite good.

That's why Ji Feng thought about what method he would use to be able to save Yang Yu and also get that wx to join his plan.

Of course, this was only Ji Feng's current preconception, but if that wx, who he had never met before, was really bad, then Ji Feng definitely didn't mind sending him to prison himself!

After leaving the interrogation room, Ji Feng couldn't help but deliberate, wanting to save Yang Yu out, it's not really difficult, as long as you can catch that wx, it can be completely counted as Yang Yu is wearing the crime and merit, when the time comes, without reward or punishment, I believe Zheng Yuanshan will also turn a blind eye to it.

The problem now is, not only to save Yang Yu out, but also to ensure that the wx is okay, which is a bit difficult.

As Ji Feng pondered, he unknowingly walked into the guardhouse office. Zheng Yuanshan was sitting on a chair smoking a cigarette, with a newspaper in his hand, looking very comfortable.

"Uncle Zheng!" Ji Feng greeted with a smile and walked in with big steps.

"How was the talk?" Zheng Yuanshan asked with a smile.

Ji Feng shook his head helplessly and said, "I'm really scared of this guy, so obstinate that I can barely suppress my anger!"

Zheng Yuanshan shook his head and laughed: "When we interrogated him, it was the same, Yang Yu confessed to his crimes, but we gave him the chance to take credit for his crimes, but he refused to take credit for his crimes, he completely lost his previous positive and cooperative attitude, and even became extremely obstinate, giving us a big headache!"

"Wearing the guilt?!" Ji Feng couldn't help but be stunned, this coincided with his own thoughts.

"Yes, indeed, let him wear his sins to death!" Zheng Yuanshan shook his head slightly and said, "To be honest, the level of that extortion gang is really too high, our internet police are no match for them at all, even the computer experts invited from the United University and other institutions of higher learning, at most, they can only tie with each other, they can't catch each other at all! Only Yang Yu, he is the only one who has the ability to do so, so in order to catch that cyber extortion gang, we can totally give Yang Yu the chance to wear the blame!"

"Then that means that you guys haven't reported it yet?" Ji Feng's heart moved and he immediately asked.

"Yes, it hasn't been reported yet! Just waiting for Yang Yu to be able to change his attitude!" Zheng Yuanshan nodded slightly, but then shook his head and smiled, "Unfortunately, so much time has passed by now and he still hasn't changed his attitude, so we don't plan to wait any longer and are ready to apply to the top, hoping to transfer more powerful experts to assist us in catching that extortion gang!"

It was only in the face of Ji Feng that Zheng Yuanshan said so much, all this information, could already be classified as police operational secrets, if Ji Feng told the public, it would be tantamount to leaking secrets, whether it was Ji Feng or Zheng Yuanshan, they would both be responsible!

"Uncle Zheng, truth be told, this Yang Yu's father is one of my elders, of course, this is only a minor matter, however, Yang Yu himself is of great use to me!" Ji Feng deliberated for a moment and said, "Just now, I discussed with Yang Yu, he is willing to wear a sin ....."

"Oh?!"

Zheng Yuanshan was slightly stunned and immediately figured out the key, "Ji Feng, with that kid's so stubborn character, he couldn't have agreed so quickly, right? Did you promise something?"

"Worthy of being a man in the police business!" Ji Feng smiled and praised, gave a thumbs up and cupped Zheng Yuanshan first, before saying, "That's right, I did promise something, I promised Yang Yu that as long as he wears his crime, not only will he be fine, but ....."

Zheng Yuanshan frowned slightly and glanced at Ji Feng, but did not say anything.

Ji Feng smiled and did not say anything more, there are some things that even if we all know it by heart, but we cannot say it, we can only be unspoken.

"If it's a gang, even if one or two people get away, it's really nothing ....." Zheng Yuanshan stood up, seemingly talking to himself and to Ji Feng, "Alas, since it's a case, there's no perfect ....."

Ji Feng then smiled, he also stood up and said, "Uncle Zheng, thanks a lot!"

For Zheng Yuanshan's understanding, Ji Feng wasn't surprised, thinking that Yang Yu's straightforward and obstinate nature must have already told Zheng Yuanshan what happened! Must have also said about that wx thing .....

"What do you want to thank me for? I'm not helping you with anything!" Zheng Yuanshan chuckled, "Besides, if you want to thank, then it's only right that I thank you, if you can convince Yang Yu to take the initiative and want to wear the blame, we wouldn't need to apply to the ministry, otherwise, it would also look like our Jiangzhou police are incompetent, wouldn't it?"

Ji Feng instantly smiled and nodded, but in his heart he understood that Zheng Yuanshan had undoubtedly sold himself a big favor, perhaps for him, it was just a time to turn a blind eye and raise a hand to be able to pass, but for himself, it was the first time he bent the law .....

The first time I saw this, I had to pay it back, and when I did, I had to pay it back twice as much.

How should I return it?

The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these.

Yang Yu, this guy!

Ji Feng couldn't help but coldly snort in his heart, when he comes out, he must make this guy to death, otherwise, how can he afford to pay such a big price?

"Uncle Zheng, when are we going to start?" Retracting his thoughts, Ji Feng opened his mouth and asked.

"Of course the sooner the better, the sooner we bust this cyber extortion ring, the sooner we can also settle down." Zheng Yuansan said with a smile.

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Alright then, I'll go and talk to Yang Yu about it, and you can arrange the rest!"

After the two had agreed, Ji Feng immediately came to the interrogation room and saw that Yang Yu was still sitting there with a mute face, he was instantly furious and said in no good mood, "Alright, get ready to start the action!"

"Unless you agree to my conditions!" Yang Yu said.

Ji Feng nodded helplessly and said through gritted teeth, "Okay, I promise, count on you kid to be ruthless!"

"Really?!" Yang Yu was still a bit unconvinced, "You can guarantee that wx is okay too?"

"You come over here!" Ji Feng beckoned his hand.

"What?" Yang Yu was a bit puzzled, but he also stood up and slightly poked his body over.

Whew-!

Ji Feng violently grabbed Yang Yu's neck and pinned him to the table! With how strong Ji Feng was, with Yang Yu's skinny body, he was no match for him, he didn't even have the strength to struggle, he just whimpered in his mouth, but couldn't resist.

"Yang Yu, listen carefully, I ask you, is the other side a gang?" Ji Feng asked through gritted teeth.

"Yes!" Yang Yu was taken aback by Ji Feng's action and hurriedly nodded his head.

"That wx is just one of them, right?" Ji Feng asked again.

"Yes, yes!" Yang Yu said, "But wx is the one with the highest level of skill in that gang, the others are all untalented!"

“Then listen carefully, when you cooperate with the police operation, find the ip addresses of the others first, if you find that wx is with them, tell Chief Zheng quietly first, if their ip is not together, then tell Chief Zheng the ip addresses of the others, just leave that wx alone for now, wait until you get out, you hear me?!” Ji Feng admonished.

Although Yang Yu was mute, but not stupid, he immediately asked, “Ji Feng, you, you want to catch wx alone?”

“This is the only way to ensure that wx is okay!” Ji Feng let go of him and hummed in no good mood, “Since you’re pushing this wx so much, I always have to see it, right?”

Yang Yu pondered carefully for a moment before rubbing his neck and nodding, “I promise you!”

Ji Feng hummed and said, “If you kid makes any more mistakes this time, see how I will clean you up, remember?”

Although he had known Ji Feng for some time, Yang Yu had never seen Ji Feng reprimand him like this before, so he was startled and nodded in a panic, saying, “Remember!”

Ji Feng shook his head helplessly and turned to leave.

When Ji Feng left the detention center and called the news to Yang De Zhaoge on the way back in his car, he did not say that he was going to arrest wx, but only that Yang Yu had really committed a crime, only that he had persuaded him again to agree to wear the crime, and if there were no accidents, he would be out soon.

Yang Dezhao was naturally grateful, as he knew very well how difficult it was to make it this far. If he were on his own, he wouldn’t have been able to get into the guardhouse, not to mention persuading Yang Yu – of course, if he had committed a crime, then naturally he would have been able to get in, and he might even have been allocated a single room! But if you want to see Yang Yu, it’s not possible.

Ji Feng also just made a couple of casual courtesies and hurriedly ended his call with Yang Dezhao, because while he was talking, another call came in.

He hurriedly parked the car at the roadside and looked down, only to discover to his dismay that the call was actually from Zheng Yuanshan, who had just been separated for less than half an hour.

“Hey, Uncle Zheng .....,” Ji Feng immediately picked up the phone.

“Ji Feng, your Vice Factory Director Yang has promised to take credit for his crime, coincidentally, the other party is attacking the server of an internet company, this time, Vice Factory Director Yang may have to take credit for it .....,” Just after he finished speaking, Zheng Yuanshan hung up the phone.

Ji Feng then immediately understood that Yang Yu had already started to make contact with that extortion group, and Zheng Yuanshan was actually telling himself to get ready by making this call!

“Starting to act so soon?”

Ji Feng smiled faintly and immediately dialed Yi Xingchen's number: "Old Yi, you're at the factory, right? ..... Good, you organize a few good men, I'll go there right now!"

Chapter 592

Inside the manager's office of the Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory, Ji Feng was sitting in his boss's chair, his eyes slightly closed, his mobile phone lying quietly on the table in front of him.

On the other side of the desk, Yi Xingchen was playing with his computer, turning his head from time to time to look at the other computer beside him, on that computer screen, displaying the surveillance screen of the entire pharmaceutical factory.

Liu Zejun, Guo Tao and Yao Zhijian were all sitting in the office.

The three men were constantly fiddling with the pistol in their hands, especially Liu Zejun, who was actually carefully polishing a Desert Eagle in his hand, and didn't know where he got it from, and Ji Feng was shocked when he first saw it, but this thing was too dreamy, the general pistol against the Desert Eagle, simply couldn't hold it!

Almost all men like guns, and those who like guns, almost all like Desert Eagles. But in China, even if you are a security guard and have a regular license to carry a gun, you are not allowed to accompany a weapon with such powerful firepower as a Desert Eagle, it is basically a standard pistol.

After inquiring, Ji Feng learned that Liu Zejun's Desert Eagle was obtained from a warlord when he was on a mission in Africa, and had always been treated as a treasure by him, which was evident from the careful attitude he took when cleaning the Desert Eagle as if he was caring for his own child.

Apart from Liu Zejun, Guo Tao and Yao Zhijian were also wiping the pistol.

Ji Feng, who was familiar with firearms, naturally knew very well that guns needed more maintenance than cars, because if they were not kept properly, they could easily make many unexpected mistakes, such as jamming or blowing up!

The consequences can be very serious, especially for some weapons with high firepower, once the chamber blows up, I'm afraid the whole hand will be blown off. In the case of a rifle, if it blew up, the whole chest of the person holding it would be blown open.

Imagine if someone with a gun was about to fight someone else to the death, only to find out when he or she fired it that it had jammed because it hadn't been properly maintained ..... Such a death would be unjust!

So maintaining the gun and checking the weapon before working is the most basic precaution. And for Liu Zejun these people who often roll in the gunfire, checking the guns is even more important!

For this habit of Liu Zejun and the others, Ji Feng still appreciated it quite a lot, perhaps, it was because of this cautious attitude that they were still able to survive peacefully after all these years of working as mercenaries!

"Ka ka ka!"

Liu Zejun quickly loaded the bullet and aimed it at the ceiling, making a false trigger pull gesture, a satisfied smile on his face.

Yao Zhi-key laughed heatedly, "Brother Jun, this Desert Eagle, can you lend it to me for use?"

"Go away!" Liu Zejun said, "You've been playing with my gun since you were abroad, don't you think I know that? I'm telling you, no way!"

Yao Zhijian bristled and said, "It's just a Desert Eagle, it's not a limited edition! Brother Jun, if you lend it to me now, I'll get you a silver Desert Eagle when I have the chance."

"Do you think I'll believe that?" Liu Zejun grunted.

Yao Zhijian then sat back resentfully, but his eyes fell on the Desert Eagle in Liu Zejun's hand from time to time, showing an envious look.

Ji Feng opened his eyes and when he saw this look, he laughed: "Alright, don't envy him, if you have the chance later, I will get you a laser gun! Even if you want a laser gun, it might be possible!"

"Boss, do you think you're making a sci-fi movie?!" Yao Zhijian couldn't help but heave a smile, "Laser guns and stuff like that, that's only in sci-fi movies!"

"Maybe there's really a chance later?" Ji Feng smiled faintly.

All four of them couldn't help but heave a smile, and didn't take what he said seriously, let alone take it to heart, just thinking that Ji Feng was joking. Little did they know that one day, they would actually be able to see laser guns and laser cannons with their own eyes, and they would have one in their hands!

"Alright, no more jokes!" Ji Feng saw that several people didn't believe it, so naturally he didn't say much more, he said with a straight face, "This time our mission is simple, just wait for news and then arrest people! Because the other side is a cyber extortion group, no one can guarantee whether they have weapons or not, so this time the operation must be cautious, you are all people who have experienced gunfire, don't go through life and death only to capsize in this small gutter, it's not worth it!"

Liu Zejun and the others didn't say another word of laughter, but nodded seriously, treating the operation more seriously than anyone else. When they were in Africa, there was a small domestic disturbance, and Liu Zejun was also involved in the operation at that time. He had once seen with his own eyes that an eleven or twelve year old doll had gotten a grenade from somewhere and gotten one of his comrades killed over it!

So for Yi Xingchen and the others, not to mention that the other party was an extortion gang, even if it was just a small child, they would treat it with the highest vigilance and would never be careless.

"Boss, a few of us will be fine for this operation, so you don't need to participate, right?" Yi Xingchen suddenly raised his head from in front of the computer and asked with a smile.

Ji Feng shook his head slightly and said, "Why?"

"You're the boss, if you have to rush ahead in everything, then what's the point of the existence of the few of us?" Yi Xingchen laughed.

Ji Feng couldn't help but nod slightly and said, "What you say is somewhat reasonable, but this character we are going to arrest today is very important, and if possible, we will have to cooperate with the police, so there might be some confusion at that time. In order to avoid any accidents, it's better for me to participate!"

Yi Xing Chen nodded and smiled, "You're the boss, you're in charge!"

Buzz~~~!

Ji Feng's mobile phone on the table suddenly vibrated, Ji Feng immediately picked it up and carefully read through the text message, a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, "Very good! Everyone, let's start moving!"

.....

In the southern suburbs of Jiangzhou, there was a patch of dilapidated residential houses. In a metropolis like Jiangzhou, buildings like this kind of slum-like buildings were definitely not rare, on the contrary, such dilapidated residential houses were still very common.

Many people who come to Jiangzhou to work, or some low-income people who are at the bottom of the social ladder, live in such cheap dwellings. Compared to the residential buildings in downtown Jiangzhou, where a room can fit more than a dozen people and the rent for each person can reach thousands of dollars, these dilapidated houses can definitely be considered as super low-cost housing!

Nearby this dilapidated residential building, there is a dilapidated school, and the dilapidated-looking sign on the main gate, the three words of the orphanage can be vaguely seen, while the rest of the handwriting is too dilapidated and blurred to be seen clearly.

A van stopped in front of the orphanage's gate, and a few figures took advantage of the cover of the night to quickly flash past the orphanage's gate and pounce on the dilapidated dwelling next to the orphanage.

"Be careful! There may be more than one person on the other side!" Standing under a two-storey residential building, Ji Feng looked at the only other residential building in front of him that still had some bright light coming from it and said in a low voice. Although Yang Yu sent him a message stating that WX was the only one staying in this residence, Ji Feng did not dare to take it lightly, once he misjudged or was careless, the consequences could be more than just a bump and a bruise, it could very well kill someone!

Seeing several people nodding, Ji Feng said in a low voice, "Old Yi, from now on leave it to you to take command!"

As he spoke, Ji Feng also stood with Liu Zejun and the others, he was able to set his position clearly, although Ji Feng had learned to command in the super agent training system, this was after all the first time he practiced it, and he was owed a huge favor, so he naturally wouldn't mess around.

Yi Xingchen also knew that now was not the time to be polite, he immediately said in a low voice: "Boss, you are the best, so you will lead the two of them and climb up from the back, Liu Zejun and the three of them will break in from the front! If you encounter resistance, try not to shoot, it's night time, shooting makes a lot of noise ..... Do you all understand?"

Seeing Ji Feng and the others nodding, Yi Xingchen fiercely waved his hand: "Departure!"

Ji Feng waved his hand: "You two, follow me!"

This time, apart from the four of them, they also brought along two security guards who were very experienced in their skills and operations, these two security guards were originally ex-soldiers belonging to the Star Security Company, and in order to ensure that the operation was foolproof, counting Ji Feng, a total of seven people were deployed, and all of them were equipped with weapons, and all of them had quite good skills, which was a very powerful lineup.

The two men that Ji Feng took with him were the two ex-soldiers.

The three of them quickly went around to the back of the residential building in front of them, nimbly climbed up the wall and kept stepping on the carvings in the corners to reach the roof of the residential building.

The trio immediately took out ropes and tied them to an iron frame holding the solar power on the roof of the residential building, gradually sliding down the ropes to each of the three windows on the first floor above, where they could enter the room in the blink of an eye if they kicked with both feet.

Because they were not sure exactly which room WX was in, the three had to be alert and watch out for any movement in front of them.

Ji Feng slid down a little further and his eyes, just in time, could see the room through the window.

The room was slightly brightly lit, it seemed to be the light from the computer screen, in front of the computer, there was also a girl with long hair sitting there, at this moment Ji Feng could vaguely see that the girl's hands were tapping rapidly on the keyboard.

"Wx, it's a girl?!" Ji Feng couldn't help but be stunned.

Immediately, he then suddenly heard a muffled sound, followed by a bang .....

Chapter 593

"Shots fired?!"

Ji Feng immediately frowned, he was just about to make a move when he suddenly noticed that the room he was facing, the door of the room was suddenly kicked open and Yao Zhi Key barged in.

"Do it!"

Ji Feng shouted lowly, grabbed the rope with both hands, violently kicked the glass on the window and rushed in with his whole body, however, when he landed on the ground, he saw an incredible scene.

The girl sitting in front of the computer, who was not short in stature, had just rushed in, but the girl's legs fiercely stirred, and the swivel chair she was sitting on suddenly rushed towards the door, and in the next moment, before Yao Zhijian even had the chance to pull the trigger, the girl had strangely crashed into Yao Zhijian's arms.

Bang...!

With a beautiful over-the-shoulder slam, Yao Zhijian was actually instantly restrained!

Ji Feng couldn't even help but be a little dazed, this girl, her hands were so beautiful, even if Yao Zhijian was only good at firearms and not great at fighting, he was after all a man who had experienced gunfire, but under this girl's hands, he couldn't even last a single move!

"Who are you and why are you barging into my room?!" The girl's voice seemed a little cold, but it was pleasant to the ear.

Yao Zhijian shouted, "Tie your hands!"

Whew!

The girl gave a vicious kick to the back of Yao Zhijian's head.

"Bang!" With a bang, the girl took three or four consecutive steps backwards before she could stand still. She looked at the figure that suddenly appeared in front of her in disbelief and asked in an alert manner, "Who are you again? His accomplice?"

Ji Feng smiled faintly and didn't rush to answer, but first helped Yao Zhijian on the ground up and asked with a smile, "Is everything alright?!"

"It's fine, the point is hard and a bit stabby!" Yao Zhi-key reminded.

Ji Feng nodded with a smile, handed the gun in his hand to Yao Zhi key and said, "If she tries to jump from the window to escape now, can you hit her?"

"Even if a fly tried to fly out, I could break its wings!" Yao Zhijian gritted his teeth and said, being put down by a girl in one shot, this was simply a great shame to Yao Zhijian.

For Yao Zhi-key's words, Ji Feng still believed in it, because he knew very well how proficient Yao Zhi-key was with firearms, with a gun in his hand and enough distance between him and his target, Yao Zhi-key turned into an extremely fearsome killer!

"Where are a few of them?" Ji Feng asked again.

"There's another hard point outside!" Yao Zhi key said simply and clearly, when in action, basically do not call each other by name, and sometimes if the situation is urgent, a simple word or two can signal a warning, for example, just now he shouted out 'zhaji', is to inform Yi Xing Chen three people that there are still experts here!

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and smile, in this small residential house, there were really crouching tigers hiding dragons, there were actually two experts, and one of them, there might be a wx whose computer level was not much worse than Yang Yu's!

He turned his head to look at the girl who was on guard, but was wary of the pistol in Yao Zhijian's hand, and asked, "wx?"

The girl didn't say anything, she just looked at Ji Feng and Yao Zhi Key warily, while moving closer to the window without a trace.

“Don’t think about escaping!” Ji Feng could see the girl’s intention, he pointed at Yao Zhi Key who was standing at the door and said, “My companion, is a better shot than you think, besides, we don’t want to hurt you!”

But the girl didn’t say anything and her gaze wandered, obviously looking for a chance to get away!

The sound of the fight outside the room gradually diminished, obviously the battle was about to end, and at this time, two more people suddenly came in at the window, but the two special forces soldiers that Ji Feng had brought with him. As soon as they entered, both of them raised their guns at the girl.

The scene was completely in Ji Feng’s hands, and the girl became even more nervous, slowly backing up and finally leaning against the wall.

Ji Feng looked around and eventually he saw a leather wallet on the table next to the computer.

When Ji Feng opened it, there was an ID card inside, and a photo of an old man. It was a very kind smiling old man, who just seemed to be too old and had some bad eyes, looking very old and dressed very plainly. It looked like an old grandfather from the neighborhood, which made Ji Feng feel good!

He pulled out the ID card in his wallet, and on it was a picture of a girl, who looked very clean and quiet.

Ji Feng’s gaze, again, fell on the name next to the photo, he raised his head and smiled: “Your name is Wang Xin? It’s no wonder, wx..... is not Wang Xin!”

“Xin Xin, run away ..... Well!” At that moment, a low roar suddenly came from outside the door, followed by a muffled sound, it was obvious that the person who spoke had been restrained.

The girl in the room instantly turned pale and shouted, “Stop-!”

“Don’t worry, your friend will be fine!” Ji Feng hummed and waved his hand.

One of the ex-soldiers behind the girl immediately stepped forward and blocked the girl in the corner.

At this time, a sound of footsteps came from outside, followed by Yi Xingchen’s three men striding in, and in Liu Zejun’s and Guo Tao’s hands, they were also escorting a big, sturdy man.

“Xin Xin!” The big man immediately called out when he saw Wang Xin.

“Big brother!”

When Wang Xin saw the big man being escorted, he immediately turned his head to look at Ji Feng, “Who the hell are you guys and what do you want?! If you dare to hurt my big brother, I won’t let you go!”

Ji Feng waved his hand, “Let go of him!”

Liu Zejun and Guo Tao immediately let go of their hands, only the gun was still pointed at the big man.

“Big brother!” Wang Xin hurriedly ran over and leaned with the big man, looking at Ji Feng and the others warily.

“Wang Xin, don’t be nervous, I came to you today to ask for a guarantee and also, I hope to work with you!” Ji Feng said with a smile, “As for this gentleman, he also seems to be very good at fighting, if you are willing, I also hope to work with you!”

“What kind of guarantee do you want?!” The big man asked warily.

Ji Feng smiled, “My guarantee is that the name WX cannot appear on the internet yet, and also, from now on, you can never blackmail anyone again! Just that little guarantee!”

“You, how do you know .....” The big man was taken aback, he turned his head in a panic and said, “Xinxin, how does he know your identity? What’s going on here?!”

Wang Xin did not answer the big man’s words, but shook his head slightly and said, “No matter who you are, I can’t grant you this request!”

“If you don’t agree, then you’ll have to go to jail!” Ji Feng said indifferently.

Wang Xin then stopped talking.

“Wang Xin, is it fun to blackmail people?” Ji Feng frowned and asked, “Since you have such a high level, no matter what network company you go to, you can get a good position and your salary package must be quite good, why do you have to do such an illegal thing?”

“You are the police?” The big man was taken aback and asked cautiously.

“We are not police officers, but people who cooperate with police operations!” Ji Feng said indifferently, “Wang Xin, now that the police have pounced on those accomplices of yours, I guess they have fallen into the net by this time! We are here, the main purpose, to make you never appear on the internet again, either, you make your own guarantee, or, we send you to jail, it’s as simple as that!”

“Xinxin .....”

The big man suddenly tensed up, and it could be seen that he was very nervous.

Wang Xin also couldn’t help but hesitate, reflecting the light of the computer screen, Ji Feng could clearly see the shifting expressions on her face .....

“If you want me to promise you, that’s fine, but I have two conditions!” Wang Xin finally spoke.

The first one is that the person who is in charge of the project is the one who is in charge of the project.

“You still have conditions? Two more?” The first one is that I want you to take down the police.

“First, I want you to bring down Xie Hongjun. Second, fund the Morning Glory Orphanage!” Wang Xin said.

Ji Feng shook his head slightly and said, “Sorry, I don’t understand either of the two conditions you mentioned. Who is Xie Hongjun?”

“He’s someone who came out of the Morning Glory Orphanage and is now the section chief of the Jiangzhou Urban Development Bureau!” The big man said.

Ji Feng turned his head and said, "Let's do this, it's hard to talk clearly here, why don't you guys come back with me first, and if you have anything to say, we'll talk slowly when we get to my place!"

He slowed down his tone, after all, he still hoped that Wang Xin could follow him in the future, so naturally he couldn't really treat Wang Xin like an enemy now!

"No way!"

Who knew that Wang Xin would say no, "If you don't agree, I won't go with you, even if you kill me, I still won't go with you!"

"You're really not afraid of death?" Ji Feng asked in amazement, how come all the people he met were strange people?

"Without the orphanage, there's no point in me living!" Wang Xin said doggedly.

Ji Feng could only nod helplessly and said, "Alright then, tell me what's going on, if your request is reasonable, I can consider it!"

"It's better for me to speak, Xinxin doesn't like to talk to strangers!" The big man took over and spoke.

Ji Feng was simply crying and laughing, these two were still being pointed at gunpoint now, and they thought they were talking to someone else?

"When you came here, you must have passed by that orphanage in front, I guess, you must have seen it?" The big man asked.

"That's the Morning Glory Orphanage?" Ji Feng asked.

"That's right, Xinxin and I both grew up in that orphanage!" The big man said.

"Then what?" Ji Feng waved his hand and the others immediately put their guns down, Ji Feng casually pulled over the swivel chair in front of the computer and sat down, while Wang Xin and that big man, too, were invited to sit by the bed.

"Xie Hongjun also came from the Morning Glory Orphanage, but now he wants to tear down the orphanage!" The big man said, "The reason Xin Xin joined that organization was to raise money for the orphanage and also to sponsor the children who hadn't grown up yet ....."

Chapter 594

It was only through the narrative of this brawny big man that Ji Feng gradually got a rough idea of some of the situation.

The big man was named Wang Hu, and he and Wang Xin were not real siblings; they were both orphans and had been adopted by the old director of the Morning Glory Orphanage since they were young, and later on, when they grew up, they started to learn to feed back.

To prove to Ji Feng what they said, Wang Hu asked Ji Feng to stay, and the next morning, he and Wang Xin took Ji Feng and the others, to a place .....

On Sunday in Jiangzhou, the sun was already a little too hot for people to feel a little harsh.

On the outskirts of the cluttered residential houses in the southern suburbs of Jiangzhou, there was a road leading to the city, and on the side of this road, near the residential houses, there was a small iron house made of white iron welded together, the kind most commonly found on the roadside normally.

This small iron hut is a kiosk.

At this moment, there were two teenagers of about 14 or 15 years old standing at the counter, acting like little bosses.

Next door to the kiosk was a dilapidated compound with a somewhat dilapidated sign hanging at the entrance with a few words written on it – a scrap buying station!

This compound was filled with all kinds of scrap, drink bottles, paper books, all kinds of metal .....

An old man with an old face and a stooped figure was currently holding a small iron rake, pulling those waste papers from under a simple tent made of asbestos tiles into the yard for drying.

The old man seemed to be in poor health because of his age, and from time to time he would cough, stand up and pound his back and wipe the sweat from his forehead.

In the courtyard, there were also one or two dozen teenagers, who were putting various drink bottles into large bags and in turn yarding them neatly. The only thing they had in common was that they were dressed in shabby clothes.

The only thing they had in common was that they were dressed in shabby clothes. However, the faces of these children were full of happy smiles, and a few were giggling and laughing, full of childish fun and joy.

A white van was parked at the roadside, and Ji Feng sat in it, looking at the scene in the scrap buying station, silent.

After a few moments, Ji Feng couldn't help but ask, "Wang Hu, is this the old dean you guys were talking about?!"

"Yes, this is the old dean of the Morning Glory Orphanage!" A big man nodded and said, "Mr. Ji, you have seen the situation, the old dean is getting older and older and can no longer work as hard as he did when he was younger, that's why the old dean opened a scrap buying station and a kiosk here, in the hope that the money earned from the scrap buying station and the kiosk can be used to provide for the children in the orphanage. Xinxin and I, we were both raised by the old dean!"

Ji Feng frowned slightly and asked, "Since your orphanage has its own industry, why do you have to go down the crooked path of extorting others? Of course, this scrap buying station is a bit small, but, with the donations from the community, it should still be fine for you to barely get by, right?"

Wang Hu shook his head and smiled bitterly, saying, "Mr. Ji, where would there be any caring people here? As far as I remember, when I was in junior high school, a kind-hearted person did donate one hundred thousand yuan, but then the leader of this suburb came to my door and took away seventy thousand directly, saying it was a handling fee, and at that time the old dean was so angry that he hid in his room alone and cried all morning!"

“This scrap buying station, is also built with that remaining 30,000 yuan!” Wang Hu shook his head slightly and said, “It was also from that time that the old dean made up his mind to let all the children in our orphanage, go to school, even if he had to smash pots and pans to make us go to school. Because he knew very well that if we didn’t go to school, we would have no future and the orphanage would have to be bullied all the time .....

Wang Hu’s face was rigid, but at this time his eyes couldn’t help but moisten: “It was also because of the old dean’s insistence that we all had the opportunity to study, and it was only after Xinxin read the books that she learned how to use a computer at the university!”

“That Xie Hongjun, what’s the story again?” Ji Feng asked in a deep voice, he couldn’t help but snort coldly in his heart at this so-called leader of the suburbs coming to his door to ask away 70,000, really fishing for money and not wanting to die, reaching for any kind of money!

“Xie Hongjun is now the section chief of the Urban Development Bureau, there is a developer who has taken a fancy to this land, but the compensation given is not enough, the old dean has not agreed to relocate, Xie Hongjun will send people to cause trouble, in the past the old dean in addition to operating a scrap buying station, at night will also find time to go to the city to set up a stall, selling some fruit, but once seen by Xie Hongjun, he let people drive away the old dean .....

“He was afraid that people would know that he came from an orphanage, and he didn’t want people to know that he was raised by a lousy old man who collected scraps!” Wang Xin, who had been silent, suddenly opened his mouth and said.

Ji Feng nodded slightly and suddenly asked, “Wang Hu, your kung fu is very good, where did you learn it from?”

“In the army!” Wang Hu said, “Wang Xin’s kung fu, I also handed it to her, she is very smart, she learns everything very quickly, her martial arts practice is equally fast, she only took three years and she is already very good!”

When Wang Xin was mentioned, Wang Hu felt proud.

Ji Feng asked again, “These children who are helping with the work are all orphans from the orphanage?”

“That’s right, they’re all orphans!” Wang Hu nodded and said, “Apart from the old director, there are only a few temporary workers in the orphanage, they are all residents of this neighborhood who usually get very little pay to help look after these children .....

Luckily, these children are not like Xie Hongjun, that white-eyed wolf, and usually take advantage of the weekends to come over and help with the work. There are also a few who went to university outside, and now they are all learning to work for themselves to earn tuition, not to add to the burden of the old dean, and sometimes they will send money to the old dean .....

Ji Feng nodded, gave a faint imperceptible soft sigh and fell silent.

After deliberating for a moment, Ji Feng finally opened his mouth and said, “Let’s put it this way, of the two conditions you guys said, I can only agree to one right now, which is to fund the orphanage! As for bringing down Xie Hongjun .....

frankly speaking, even though he is a white-eyed wolf as a person, if he has not made any mistakes, it is simple to jack him off, but if he is to be completely planted, it is unlikely!”

In any case, Xie Hongjun is also a state cadre, although only a small section chief, but that is also a person within the system. If one does not make a mistake, one cannot fire a cadre for no reason, that is not the institutional style of the dynasty.

Of course, in Ji Feng’s opinion, the so-called word “down” is used inappropriately. With Xie Hongjun’s weight, he was not worthy of the word bring down, at most, he could only be described as dealing with!

“Then we’ll jack him off!” Wang Hu gritted his teeth and said, “This bastard, because he is very smart and resourceful, so the old dean especially likes him and loves him the most. But how did he repay the old dean? Letting his men drive away and helping the developers to come and seek this land of the old dean, even if it is a beast, even if it is a beast, it should know how to feed back, it should also know that a drop of water should be repaid with a spring!”

Speaking of anger, Wang Hu couldn’t help but slam his fist on the seat, his chest heaving violently, his face red, veins rising high on his forehead, couldn’t help but gnash his teeth .....

“If you can deal with Xie Hongjun and then fund the orphanage, you can make me do whatever you want!” Wang Xin followed, her eyes, too, filled with anger.

Ji Feng did not rush to reply, but after careful deliberation, he nodded and said, “Then, I can only promise to jerk Xie Hongjun off first, as for the matter of donating to the orphanage, I don’t think we should rush it, after we settle down, we can negotiate slowly, how about that?”

Looking at the suspicious expressions of Wang Hu and Wang Xin, Yi Xing Chen couldn’t help but hum, “You two are really interesting, the boss has a pharmaceutical factory with assets of over a hundred million under his name, funding a small orphanage, he would still lie to you?”

“Boss?!” Wang Hu and Wang Xin became even more suspicious, “Aren’t you assisting the police?”

“It’s not because of you!” Ji Feng glanced at Wang Xin, “Just because of you, not only did you put one of my powerful men in jail, but you also made me lose an outstanding talent, what can I do if I don’t come to your rescue?”

“What?!” Wang Xin was a bit puzzled.

Ji Feng hummed, “Yang Yu, know him, right? It’s the one who was responsible for assisting the police in tracking down this extortion gang of yours before, he tipped you off in order to cover for you, and he ended up getting caught by the police, and he got himself trapped .....”

He immediately told the general story of what happened, Wang Hu and Wang Xin were immediately a little embarrassed, but they did not expect that this matter would really involve Yang Yu!

“I promise you!” Wang Xin immediately without saying a word, directly agreed, “Even if you do not fund the orphanage and do not deal with Xie Hongjun, I also agree to your conditions, from now on the name WX will no longer appear on the network, and will not work in Jiangzhou .....”

Since that Yang Yu was arrested by the police in order to defend himself, and now there is a chance to save him, Wang Xin naturally cannot be too selfish.

“You’re playing with my words!” Ji Feng looked at her with a smirk, “My request is that you are not allowed to appear on the internet from now on, it can be more than just the name WX not appearing on the internet!”

“No problem!” Wang Xin immediately said, “I don’t mean to play with words! However, if you want me to follow you, those two conditions of mine are still valid!”

Ji Feng smiled faintly, “My promises are also valid! What’s more, with your talent and skills, not to mention these two conditions, or even two more conditions, it’s still worth it! You and Wang Hu, are worth the price!”

“Well then, from the day you complete the two conditions I put forward, you are my boss!” Wang Xin immediately said in a decisive manner. Wang Hu also nodded beside him, echoing his voice.

Ji Feng immediately laughed, “Trust me, that day definitely won’t be too long!”

Wang Xin and Wang Hu glanced at each other, and on their faces, a look of relief finally appeared.

“Alright, go say goodbye to the old dean, today I’ll take you to a place first, I still have some things to ask you!” Ji Feng said with a smile.

The two nodded, got out of the car separately and walked towards the scrap buying station.

And at this moment, Guo Tao, who was sitting in the driver’s seat, suddenly said, “Boss, look ahead!”

In his voice, he seemed to carry a hint of caution.

Ji Feng, majestic, immediately turned his head and looked over .....

Chapter 595

Ji Feng smiled and immediately turned his head to look.

On the highway leading to the city, several cars were whistling, led by two police cars, the back could not be seen too clearly, but it was certain that they must be public vehicles. Looking closely, there were seven or eight cars, it was like a small convoy!

What caught Ji Feng’s attention about this convoy was not the number of these public vehicles, nor the fact that they were all driving so fast that they had exceeded the speed limit, but because, rather, this convoy had gradually started to slow down.

“It’s joint law enforcement?!” Yi Xingchen asked with a frown.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but shake his head slightly and said, “Whether it’s joint law enforcement or not we don’t know, but one thing I can be sure of is that this convoy, obviously, is running this way .....”

There are no more buildings in this vicinity other than a large area of residential houses, and this convoy started to slow down in the distance, obviously not heading for the residential houses, they seem to be ..... running towards the scrap purchasing station!

“Could it be that they are coming for us?” Guo Tao guessed.

Ji Feng shook his head slightly, he had already spoken to Zheng Yuanshan last night, the whole of that cyber extortion gang had fallen, except for Wang Xin, none of them had run away. And this matter, it would be over from then on, how could anyone come looking for it at this time?

“Let’s take a look first!” Ji Feng said without moving, no matter what the other party was here for, we always had to wait until the other party arrived to find out.

The speed of that caravan in the distance was extremely fast, and even though it had already started to slow down, it was only a few moments before it had arrived at the front.

As expected, the convoy stopped in front of the scrap yard!

Bang, bang, bang!

The sound of closing doors rose and fell as a group of people got out of the cars. Ji Feng could see clearly that there were two police cars, two black cars, and three pick-up trucks with the word ‘City Management’ written on them.

In the middle of the convoy, there was a black Audi A6, which was a government number plate, but Ji Feng could not tell what department it belonged to, he had no research in this area. But there was one thing he could confirm, this convoy was definitely a bad one!

The door of the Audi opened and a young man in a suit stepped down from the car.

This young man was about thirty years old, wearing a black suit, a dark tie and a small back haircut, looking like a successful man.

The young man looked at the scrap yard and waved his hand, “Get in!”

Immediately afterwards, he took a big step towards the scrap buying station, and the other policemen, city police and the like all followed. There were 20 to 30 of them, and they were dressed in various uniforms, so they walked with a tiger’s breeze and looked quite imposing.

The few people who were walking in front of them looked even more vicious. When they saw something like a tree branch on the road, they kicked it away and some scraps were also kicked aside, looking extremely vicious!

“These are the law enforcement officers?!” Ji Feng couldn’t help but frown slightly.

He had seen many vicious law enforcement officers, but this was the first time he had seen such aggressive law enforcement officers who kicked away even the slightest tree branch on the road, as if anything else would have to actively avoid them once they appeared.

He really thought he was some big shot?

Even if you are a big shot, when you are walking, you can’t guarantee that there is nothing in front of you to block the way, right?

Ji Feng couldn’t help but give a secret cold hum, his impression of these law enforcement officers instantly dropped to the lowest. It’s already quite good if he doesn’t break the law!

Ji Feng couldn't help but recall what happened to Li Yueqin and Li Yantong's mother and daughter back in Yuncheng, how similar were the law enforcement officers back then, to these people now?

"Ah!"

A small child was running out of the scrap buying station when he saw this aggressive group of guys on top of his head, he immediately shrieked in fear and turned around and ran!

"Boss, what are we going to do?" Yi Xingchen looked at Ji Feng.

"There's no need to rush first, let's see what happens!" Ji Feng said indifferently, "Right now we don't even know what the other party is doing here, so don't act rashly!"

Yi Xingchen and the others then nodded and stopped talking.

"Move the car a bit further forward to the main entrance!" Ji Feng said in a low voice.

Guo Tao immediately started the van and drove it to the main entrance.

At this time, a roar suddenly came from the scrap yard: "Xie Hongjun, do you have any conscience at all? The old dean has worked hard to raise you and pay for your education, so it's okay that you don't know how to be filial to the old dean, but now you want to help others to seize the land of the scrap yard and the orphanage? Get out!"

"Wang Hu, you don't have to be so nosy in front of me, don't think you can walk around like that after being a soldier for a few years, it's not your turn to speak here!" A slightly shrill voice came over, "If you say anything else that is inappropriate, I will tear down this broken scrap yard right now!"

"Broken scrap buying station?"

Wang Hu's voice sounded extremely angry as he roared out, "Xie Hongjun, how dare you fucking say that? It's because of this junkyard that you can now stand in front of me like a man and a dog, because of this junkyard you have a book, you have clothes to wear, you have a home! Now that you've made your mark, you're turning your back on me? I tell you, even if you die of old age, you can't change the fact that you were raised by a scrap collector and you can't change the fact that you are an orphan!"

"Xie Hongjun, if you still have some conscience, you should remember that when you were in college, in order to have a girlfriend, you reached out to the old dean for money, saying that you wanted to buy a present for Christmas, and the old dean went to the bank in the city alone in order to get you the money, and ended up falling on the road, and your knee swelled up for a week, you didn't know about this, and now you Why don't you mention it?!"

Wang Hu roared in anger, "Back then, you talked a good game, what when you graduated to be filial to the old dean, you just want to fucking tear our homes apart, is that how you want to be filial to the old dean?"

"Tell him to shut up!" Xie Hongjun was instantly infuriated and said loudly.

The next moment, there was the sound of chaotic footsteps in the courtyard, as well as the sound of violent fighting, and Wang Hu's angry roar, "Xie Hongjun, if you fucking dare to hurt the old dean, I'll have your life!"

“Ah... ah...”

The small children in the courtyard shrieked and looked incomparably frightened, they were terrified by the big fight.

“Something’s wrong!” Yi Xingchen said in a low voice.

Ji Feng grunted angrily and said through clenched teeth, “Get off! Fuck these motherfuckers!”

This was one of the few times Ji Feng had exploded in foul language, which was enough to see how angry the conversation in the scrap yard had made him!

Hula~~!

A group of seven people got out of the car as fast as they could and pounced straight towards the scrap purchasing station.

And at this time, the screams of the children standing at the scrap purchasing station were getting louder and louder, obviously terrified.

When Ji Feng seven people quickly into the scrap collection station, eyes see the scene, let Ji Feng’s face immediately gloomy down, eyes cold light flashes, killing machine emerged.

Wang Hu and Wang Xin were fighting with several policemen and city police. Wang Hu seemed to have scruples, so they didn’t dare to hit them hard at all.

Luckily, Wang Hu and Wang Xin were both quite good at fighting, so those people basically couldn’t beat them.

On the other side, four or five city policemen were gathering all those teenagers together, including the old dean who was already very old. Any young child who dared to cry would be kicked over, causing those young children to shiver in pain and have tears pounding down their faces, but they just didn’t dare to cry out!

Some of the older children tried to fight with the city policemen, but the oldest of them were only 14 or 15 years old, so they were no match for an adult and were slapped straight back!

Bang!

A city policeman kicked the old dean in the back: “Damn old man, get over there!”

That old dean instantly grunted and planted his heels.

“How dare you!” Wang Hu roared in anger, veins rising high on his head, fiercely slammed a policeman beside him to the ground and walked quickly towards the old dean, but was soon pestered again.

Ji Feng pointed at the city policeman who kicked the old dean and turned his head, “Break his legs for me, both of them!”

“Yes!”

Liu Zejun shouted and lunged forward, before that city manager could react, he grabbed that city manager's hair and pressed downwards, that city manager was immediately pressed sideways and lowered his head.

Bang!

Liu Zejun's fist smashed fiercely into that city manager's ear door, directly knocking him dizzy, and he fell softly to the ground at once, without even having the time to scream, he directly passed out.

Liu Zejun, however, did not stop, he took a step back violently, grabbed a policeman and kicked him away, while pulling the baton off the latter's body and smashed it fiercely on the legs of the city policeman on the ground.

"Ah...!"

That city policeman had already fainted, but his legs were instantly broken, and that heart-breaking pain instantly swept through his entire body.

In an instant, his eyes were deadly glazed, his body began to twitch violently, his whole body was in pain and almost fainted, but that heart-breaking pain made him unable to faint, he could only suffer so raw!

"Boss, there are still these few, should we break their legs too?!"

Liu Zejun's eyes were unkind as he stared at the other few city police officers, eyeing them intently. Wang Hu and Wang Xin were afraid of dragging the children in the orphanage down with them and didn't dare to lay a heavy hand, Liu Zejun didn't have much scruples, all the consequences were borne by Ji Feng, so he naturally let loose.

Chapter 596

Bang!

Wang Hu was also moved with anger, he kicked a policeman away and quickly came to Liu Zejun, hurriedly picked up the old man who had fallen to the ground and asked in an urgent voice, "Old Dean, are you alright?"

Wang Xin also hurriedly ran over, looking warily at the police and city police, with a look of extreme anger in her eyes.

Liu Zejun, however, stared at those so-called law enforcement officers next to him with unkind eyes, glancing at their legs and knees from time to time, as if he was determining what was the most vulnerable place and how he could easily break the other party's legs.

Wang Hu and Wang Xin carefully examined the old dean's body to see if there were any injuries.

The old man was old and his bones had long since loosened, so the slightest bump could easily break a bone, and the two had to be careful.

Fortunately, the old dean did not seem to be seriously injured, so Wang Hu and Wang Xin were slightly relieved, yet remembering the culprit, their faces could not help but look down again, angrily looking at the city police and the police officers, and then at the young man in the suit.

“Who are you people?!” The man in the suit looked at the sudden appearance of Ji Feng and the others and couldn’t help but be stunned, just now Liu Zejun’s clean kick that sent a policeman flying and broke a city manager’s legs had instantly subdued him, only now did he react and couldn’t help but ask in a deep voice.

Ji Feng coldly snorted, “What are you again?!”

It was obvious that this young man in a suit was the leader of the group, and Ji Feng already had a guess in his mind about his identity, but he was not too sure.

“This is Section Chief Xie of our Urban Development Bureau, who are you few? Beating up our law enforcement officers for no reason, this is a crime know?!” A police officer bellowed majestically, pointing at Ji Feng and shouting angrily.

“A crime?!” Ji Feng snorted, looked at the policeman with disdain and asked indifferently, “You dare to punch and kick an old man with no hands, isn’t that a crime? As a policeman, you actually dare to do such a thing, this is knowing the law and breaking it!”

“Bullshit!” The policeman shouted angrily and waved his hand violently, “If you dare to cause trouble again, I’ll arrest you here, don’t say I didn’t warn you beforehand!”

“What did you say? You ..... want to arrest me?!” Ji Feng immediately snorted and said indifferently, “Then fine, I’m standing right here, if you want to arrest me, just come over! I’d like to see what you’re capable of to arrest me!”

“You .....” The policeman choked, but he didn’t dare to go forward, what kind of people were standing around Ji Feng, all of them had bad faces, were tall and looked like wolves, didn’t you see that just now a random person came out and kicked away a policeman and broke a The city policeman’s legs!

“I haven’t seen you guys before, so you can’t be related to the old dean ..... Then, are you friends of Wang Hu and Wang Xin?!” The man in a suit looked coldly at Ji Feng and the others, “I don’t care what you are, don’t meddle, or else the law of the land won’t spare you!”

“What a big mouth, opening your mouth and calling it the law of the land!”

Ji Feng’s face sank and he snorted coldly, “You’re Xie Hongjun, right? You’re a good-looking person, but I didn’t expect you to be something worse than a beast!”

“You’d better be careful what you say!” Xie Hongjun’s face was also gloomy, in front of so many people he was angrily rebuked by Ji Feng without mercy, how could his face hold up?

The policeman next to Xie Hongjun also snorted coldly, “A few of you have committed a crime now, don’t you know that?!”

“Get lost, you don’t have the right to speak here!”

Ji Feng snapped his head around and gave the policeman a cold look.

That harsh and murderous look was like a sharp sword stabbing the policeman's heart, causing him to flinch in his heart and open his mouth, but he didn't dare to talk tough anymore.

There were thirty policemen and city police officers present, but none of them dared to say anything as Ji Feng's cold gaze swept over them, and few of them even dared to look at Ji Feng.

"Xie Hongjun, right?"

Ji Feng paused and spoke indifferently, "You came by coincidence, originally even if you didn't come to me, I would have gone to you, let me ask you, what mistake did the old director of this orphanage make that you had to treat him like this? As a human being, it's okay that you don't know how to feed your children, but why do you want to kill your benefactor who raised you?"

"You, you fart!" Xie Hongjun finally could no longer maintain his composure, he shouted, "Arrest them all, if you dare to resist, beat them to death!"

Ji Feng instantly frowned, and then sneered, "Bring this dog over to me!"

"Yes!" Yi Xingchen and the others shouted and suddenly pounced on Xie Hongjun.

Ji Feng grabbed Yao Zhijian, who was also about to pounce, and said, "Close physical combat is not your forte, you stay here, Old Yi and the others will be enough!"

As expected, Yi Xingchen's movements were wide open, he was tall, lanky and fit, and with just one punch, he knocked down a city policeman who was in the way head-on, and went straight for Xie Hongjun.

In a flash, Xie Hongjun was terrified and shouted in panic: "Quick! Stop them! Quickly stop them!"

All the policemen and city police surrounded Yi Xingchen and the others, but no one could stop them, Yi Xingchen and the four of them were like a tiger entering a flock of sheep, those policemen and city police were no match for them, especially since these four of them all carried Qi in their hearts, how could they be compared to these drunken bags who had little actual combat experience at all?

Bang Bang Bang!

With three punches and two kicks, Yi Xingchen and the others threw out those policemen and city police who were close to their side in the first wave, and before the other policemen could lean up, Yi Xingchen and the others had already rushed to Xie Hongjun's front.

Hoo!

Yi Xingchen grabbed at Xie Hongjun with a fierce hand, "Come here for me!"

Bang! The policeman next to Xie Hongjun pulled out a baton from nowhere and fiercely swiped it towards Yi Xingchen.

Yi Xingchen jerked back a step, gave the policeman a cold look, and with a pick of his toes, one of the batons on the ground fell into his hands.

Whew!

Yi Xingchen suddenly surged in stature and ruthlessly struck the baton.

The policeman was startled and hastily held up his baton to block. It could be seen that the policeman still had a good background in kung fu, but it seemed that he had been wasted for too long, his movements were obviously a bit rusty.

As soon as Yi Xingchen's arm exerted a strong force, the policeman's throat would be shattered and turned into a piece of rotten meat!

Slap!

Yi Xing Chen slapped the frightened Xie Hongjun in the face, causing him to stumble and fall over, but he was grabbed back by Yi Xing Chen and strangled his neck, making him unable to move!

Everyone froze, those police officers and the city police did not expect that with so many of them, they would still be burst in by a few people and grabbed the leader and Section Chief Xie.

"Humph!" Yi Xingchen snorted coldly and let go of his baton, only to grab Xie Hongjun by the hair and drag him over to Ji Feng's side.

Xie Hongjun seemed extremely fearful, his body was shaking as he was brought in front of Ji Feng, he almost didn't dare to look at Ji Feng's eyes, his gaze wandered, but he still tried to show the authority of a section chief.

"I warn you, no matter what you are, what you are doing now is a serious crime, you are attacking state cadres!" Xie Hongjun snorted coldly, barely maintaining his arrogance, and said, "I'm telling you, let go of me immediately, or else your crime will be a big one!"

But Xie Hongjun, who had been grabbed by Yi Xingchen's hair, had to tilt his head when he spoke, which made him not only lose his previous majesty, but instead look comical, like a clown, or like a monkey being played with is for others to see!

Xie Hongjun's heart was overwhelmed with shame and hatred!

How could Ji Feng care about his threats?

He snorted coldly and waved his hand, so Yi Xingchen immediately grabbed Xie Hongjun and followed Ji Feng towards the old dean.

Xie Hongjun tried to struggle, but he was held tightly by Yi Xingchen's hair, so he couldn't break free at all.

Wang Hu and Wang Xin glared angrily at Xie Hongjun, the two of them snorted coldly and gritted their teeth as they looked across at Xie Hongjun who had been grabbed over, almost as if they wanted to eat him alive!

The old dean, however, looked at Xie Hongjun, who had been caught in front of him, with a complex expression in his somewhat cloudy eyes, with an extremely complex look of deep disappointment, pain, fear and pleading, and even, a hint of ..... intolerance!

The actual fact is that you can't be sure that you're going to be able to get a good deal on your own.

A person, how can one bear to be bitter to the old man who has worked so hard to raise him? How can one bear to let an old man not even have a home?

“Xie Hongjun, raise your head and look at this old man in front of you, do you know him?” Ji Feng asked indifferently, “How can you bear to treat him like this?!”

Xie Hongjun was already a bit weak in his heart, so how could he raise his head to look at the old dean? But with Yi Xingchen grabbing his hair, he had to look up.

However, what happened today made Xie Hongjun feel like he had been subjected to a great shame, if it wasn't for this old immortal, if it wasn't for this group of bastards around him, how could he have suffered such humiliation?

In a flash, Xie Hongjun's eyes snapped open, and two gazes filled with intense hatred shot out at once, looking at the old dean.

“Slap!”

Wang Hu slapped Xie Hongjun's face fiercely, and a roar came out of his throat, “Bastard, kneel down!”

Chapter 597

“Wang Hu!”

Xie Hongjun was so dizzy from Wang Hu's slap that gold stars popped up in front of his eyes, and once he had sobered up a little, he shouted angrily, “You dare to assault a government official, I'll see who can save you!”

Wang Hu gritted his teeth and said, “I'll beat you up even if I have to go to jail!”

Xie Hongjun also didn't know where he got the courage from, and looked at Ji Feng and Yi Xingchen who grabbed him next to him with resentment, stiffening his neck and gritting his teeth, “I don't care what kind of people you are, what you did today is enough to put you in jail! Now, let go of me immediately, and I can plead with the court for a lighter sentence for you!”

“Send your mother!”

Wang Hu bellowed, “Xie Hongjun, I beat you up, don't blame it on others, if you have any tricks in the future, just come at me! But before that, I want you to know what will happen to you if you are ungrateful!”

He raised his hand high and slapped it again with a fierce slap.

Slap!

Wang Hu once again slapped Xie Hongjun's face heavily, this slap, which contained Wang Hu's great anger, instantly caused Xie Hongjun to stumble, if not for Yi Xingchen's grip on his hair, he definitely would not have been able to stand, and would have been slapped to the ground by this slap.

“Stop it!”

The policeman at the side saw this and shouted angrily, "If you dare to do it again, you are holding a government official hostage, this is a felony, I advise you not to do it again!"

This policeman was the leader, naturally he was much more insightful than those ordinary policemen and city police, and when he calmed down, he noticed that the aura of Ji Feng and the others was very unusual, moreover, these people around Ji Feng were quite skilled, obviously they were definitely not ordinary people. For this kind of people who knew that they had some origins, but did not know the specific identity of the other party, this police leader naturally did not dare to offend easily, so he could only say something to stop them, but did not dare to make any move.

Even though he was only in the police system, he knew that once he had provoked someone he shouldn't have, the consequences were definitely not something he could easily bear.

So he took a deep breath and said in a slow voice, "Gentlemen, I don't know who you are, but I want to tell you that what you are doing now constitutes a crime, and if you stop now, it's not too late, but if you don't get it, you will be judged by the most severe law!"

"Isn't what you just did a crime?" Wang Hu shouted angrily, "The old dean is so old, and you actually kicked him to the ground, isn't that a crime? Is that not knowing the law and breaking it?!"

"Our way of working may indeed be a little rough and a little too simple and direct, but that is no excuse for you to hold Section Chief Xie hostage!" When the police leader saw that the other party was willing to reason with him, he was slightly relieved, what he feared most was that the other party would be unreasonable, in that case, he would really have no choice but to go in or out!

"Brutal? Simple and direct?" Wang Xin laughed coldly, "Just two simple words that lightly gloss over what you have done? It's really an official word with two mouths!"

That police leader was just about to speak when he saw Ji Feng waving his hand and said, "There's some time today or so, so let's just settle this matter all together!"

He turned his head to look at the police leader and said, "It looks like you are also the leader among these people, let me ask you, what is the purpose of your coming to the scrap purchasing station?"

"Joint law enforcement!" The police leader said.

"Don't talk to me in an official manner!" Ji Feng's face sank, "If you want to walk out safely, you'd better answer my questions honestly, others are afraid of your threats, but I'm not!"

The police leader couldn't help but be stunned, then he whirled and said, "Answering the questions is fine, but please let go of Section Chief Xie first!"

"Mr. Ji, you can't let go of this son of a bitch, let me beat him up first!" Wang Hu immediately said sharply, while raising his hand, about to strike again.

"No, don't ....." Xie Hongjun had long been slapped by Wang Hu's slap, his cheeks and lips were swollen high, at this moment, seeing Wang Hu was about to hit again, he was immediately terrified.

Ji Feng, however, waved his hand and said, "Let go of him!"

Yi Xingchen glanced at Xie Hongjun in disgust and coldly snorted, "Get lost!"

Xie Hongjun was instantly pardoned and fled in a panic until he hid behind the police leader, then he shouted in panic, “Zhao Jun, call someone quickly, call someone quickly! These people are not only holding and beating government officials, but they are also openly obstructing law enforcement .....

He lowered his voice and whispered in that police leader Zhao Jun’s ear, “Zhao Jun, they still have weapons!”

“What?!” Zhao Jun was instantly shocked and became even more certain in his heart that these people across the street must be of extraordinary origin. Thinking of this, he couldn’t call people easily even more, if he kept things small, he might still be able to end it, but if it got bigger, it would be really troublesome!

“Hurry up and call someone, do you hear me!” Xie Hongjun yelled in a low voice.

“Section Chief Xie, I think we’d better decide what to do after we get to the bottom of this, okay?” Zhao Jun whispered.

“What’s to understand? Aren’t things still too clear?” Xie Hongjun shouted, “If you don’t call someone, I’ll do it! Zhao Jun, when we get back to the police station, you’ll be waiting to be transferred to the traffic police team to become a junior traffic cop!”

Zhao Jun couldn’t help but hesitate, and with no choice, he could only nod and say, “Alright then, I’ll call someone first!”

He immediately took out the phone and whispered a few words, immediately afterwards, Xie Hongjun seemed to be very dissatisfied with what he said and immediately grabbed the phone with one hand and said loudly, “This is Xie Hongjun from the Urban Redevelopment Bureau, we’ve been kidnapped in the south of the city, you guys hurry up and bring your weapons here, these kidnappers are very fierce, the address is .....

Ji Feng just held his arms and watched Xie Hongjun spewing shit all over the place, with no intention of stopping, except that his eyes, however, were getting colder and colder.

Pop!

After hanging up the phone, Xie Hongjun immediately glanced at Wang Hu and Ji Feng and the others with resentment and said through gritted teeth, “Wait, if I don’t send you to jail this time, I’ll take your surname!”

“You didn’t have a surname in the first place, this word Xie was still picked up for you by the old dean!” Wang Xin sneered, “You’re so afraid of people knowing that you’re an orphan and were raised by an old man who collects scrap, so why don’t you change all your names?!”

“You .....” Xie Hongjun was so furious that he was about to rush up and make a move, but remembering his own situation, he hurriedly stopped in his tracks and just gritted his teeth and said, “Wang Xin, you wait, when you get to prison, I will definitely make you regret it!”

“All right!”

Ji Feng suddenly interrupted him, “You’ve called the man, you’ve said the nonsense, now, shut your mouth!”

He pointed at the police leader, Zhao Jun, and said in a deep voice, "You come and say why you're here!"

"This ....." Zhao Jun looked at Xie Hongjun and then at the calm looking Ji Feng, he didn't know how many thoughts flashed through his mind, finally he gritted his teeth and said, "This is how it is, Section Chief Xie said that we should organize a group of joint law enforcement officers to drive out the people from this scrap buying station and orphanage and make this old man sign the demolition contract, but after coming here several times before, this old man has been tough as nails, so this time we are going to give him some colour ....."

At the end of the sentence, Zhao Jun's voice was almost imperceptible, and a hint of guilt appeared on his face.

Wang Hu and Wang Xin's eyes instantly burst into flames, wishing they could strangle Xie Hongjun right now.

Xie Hongjun, however, glared at Zhao Jun and said through gritted teeth, "Zhao Jun, what the hell are you up to? I think you want to be transferred to the traffic police!"

Zhao Jun immediately turned his head and said, "As you can see, I'm actually helpless to do these things, but Xie Hongjun's girlfriend is the daughter of our Wanjiang District Governor Qiu, if he wants me to go to the traffic police, I'm afraid it's just a matter of words, so ....."

"Wanjiang District?!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but be slightly stunned, what a familiar name, Qiu District Chief .....

He immediately asked, "The District Chief Qiu you mentioned, is his name Qiu Yaxing? He has a son named Qiu Pengfei?!"

"That's right!" Zhao Jun nodded, but was not much surprised, after all, as the head of a district, Qiu Yaxing was still very well known in Jiangzhou, moreover, Qiu Pengfei was likewise one of the more famous of Jiangzhou's playboys, it was not surprising that Ji Feng knew!

"So it's really him ....." Ji Feng nodded and couldn't help but sneer, "What a great official authority, even one of Qiu Yaxing's future son-in-law dares to act in such a manner, not to mention that you Xie Hongjun is not Qiu Yaxing's son-in-law now, even if you are his son, doing this beastly thing ....." hum!"

He did not say what he wanted to do to Xie Hongjun, but the murderous intent in his eyes left no doubt about what was in his heart.

For this Qiu Yaxing, Ji Feng was not very familiar with him, and had only heard of his name.

However, for Qiu Yaxing's son, the famous fop Qiu Pengfei of Jiangzhou, Ji Feng was very familiar with him and had dealt with him.

This Qiu Pengfei is no other than Huang Qidong, the son of the deputy director of the Wanjiang District Pharmaceutical Supervision Bureau, who used shameless tactics against Xiao Changhe's Changhe Pharmaceutical Company.

For this guy, Ji Feng still had a good impression and, moreover, had his contact information!

At this time, Xie Hongjun also seemed to see that something was wrong, he wasn't stupid, otherwise he wouldn't have been able to coax Qiu District Chief's daughter into a corner.

Once he saw that Ji Feng didn't seem to be afraid of his identity at all and was armed, he hurriedly took out his phone and dialed his girlfriend's number: "Yan Yan, hurry up and bring someone over, I'm in trouble in the south of the city ....."

Chapter 598

In Jiangzhou, in the family compound of the district government of Wanjiang District, a slightly obese young woman hung up the phone and walked around the living room with her teeth gritted, her mouth coldly humming, "Dare to find trouble with Hongjun, damn it, I won't let him go, I won't!"

At this time, a young man came out of the room, he was holding a book in his hand and wearing his glasses, he seemed to have just finished his hard reading.

Even at home, this youth was dressed in a proper manner, except for the slippers on his feet, he didn't look at all casual, he looked as if he was a working man, with a shirt, trousers, leather shoes, and a tie!

This young man was no other than the son of Qiu Yaxing, the deputy mayor of Wanjiang District, Qiu Pengfei, who had once dealt with Ji Feng! Of course, at the time of the change of office after the year, Qiu Yaxing had already changed from being the deputy district governor, shaking off the word deputy in front of him and becoming the district governor in name only.

Qiu Pengfei, on the other hand, has also grown a lot.

In fact, ever since he had dealt with Ji Feng at the Changhe Drug Company a few months ago, Qiu Pengfei seemed like a different person, from his previous foppy and stubborn self to a hardworking and progressive one, and he had gradually become stable. Although he still looked like a cheeky second-worlder in front of the other fops, once he returned home or when there were no outsiders, he would seriously read some books and ask his father Qiu Yaxing for advice when he encountered a problem he could not understand.

His performance made Qiu Yaxing feel happy and relieved from the bottom of his heart that his foppy son had suddenly changed his attitude towards life and become diligent and studious.

This surprised Qiu Yaxing and he asked Qiu Pengfei why.

The answer that Qiu Pengfei gave was equally surprising, but also very pleasing to Qiu Yaxing.

The reason for his son's change was that he had met Ji Feng!

In fact, it was indeed because of that one encounter with Ji Feng that made Qiu Pengfei wake up at once. Ji Feng's composure, wisdom, and that stern look in his eyes all made Qiu Pengfei's heart palpitate and made him feel afraid.

However, when Qiu Pengfei saw what happened to Huang Qidong, he instantly woke up to the fact that the district chief's son, a seemingly remarkable status, was actually nothing in front of the real big shots!

Just like that time when he met with Ji Feng, Huang Qidong and the others were all respectful to him, but in front of Ji Feng, he had to be careful, afraid that if Ji Feng got angry, he would be left in the lurch!

The reason for this was that he did not have enough courage in his heart, and he was weak in his heart after doing something bad.

If he hadn't acted recklessly, not to mention Ji Feng, even if a bigger person came, he wouldn't be so frightened!

After realizing this, Qiu Pengfei was like the Buddhist saying of an epiphany, he woke up at once.

From that moment on, Qiu Pengfei changed from his old self. Of course, no matter how he changed, his identity could not be changed, so for many ordinary people, things that were difficult to do, such as joining a state enterprise, becoming a regular employee and having a formal establishment, were all very difficult to do, but for Qiu Pengfei, it was naturally not difficult to do.

But compared to the past, the current Qiu Pengfei is a completely different person!

For example, on the weekend, Qiu Pengfei didn't go anywhere, he was at home with a book on management, studying hard.

"Ee? Yan Yan, what's wrong with you?" Qiu Pengfei was about to go to the toilet, when he saw his sister Qiu Yan Yan, who was walking around the living room, looking agitated and muttering something from time to time through clenched teeth, which made Qiu Pengfei wonder.

"Brother, something has happened to Hongjun!" As soon as Qiu Yan Yan saw her big brother come out, she was overjoyed and hurriedly greeted him, "Brother, Hong Jun was held hostage in the south of the city, those unruly people not only violently resisted the law, but also beat up Hong Jun badly ....."

"There is such a thing?" Qiu Pengfei couldn't help but frown slightly, "Isn't Xie Hongjun in the city construction? What did he do bad again?"

"Brother!"

Qiu Yanyan said unhappily, "You've always looked at Hongjun in a bad light, what could he have done? Now he's the one being beaten up, and not only are you not helping, you're even saying nasty things!"

"Humph! It's not that I don't see eye to eye with him, it's that he doesn't have one thing that I see eye to eye with, that man has too many eyes, he's too snobbish, and most importantly, he's too greedy!" Qiu Pengfei grunted, "Such a person will get into trouble sooner or later!"

"Oh, come on, come on, what's the point of talking about this now?" Qiu Yan Yan took Qiu Peng Fei's hand and said petulantly, "Brother, you must help this time, I can only look for you now, if we go late, he might be killed by someone!"

"Fine, fine!"

Unable to resist his sister's pleading, Qiu Pengfei could only nod his head in agreement and said, "Give Secretary Xu a call, tell him to say hello to the police station, we'll bring a few people along and see what's going on!"

Qiu Yan Yan was overjoyed and hurriedly went to call her father's secretary with joy.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

"Apart from these situations you just mentioned, do you have anything else to say?" Ji Feng looked at Zhao Jun and asked indifferently.

Zhao Jun shook his head and said, "No more, that's all I know, and the reason I followed over is because Qiu District Chief's daughter, that is, Xie Hongjun's girlfriend Qiu Yanyan, said hello to mine, other than that, I don't know anything else!"

Zhao Jun had long noticed that when he talked about District Chief Qiu, Ji Feng didn't react at all, but it happened that Ji Feng knew about District Chief Qiu, which only meant that Ji Feng didn't put District Chief Qiu in his eyes at all.

This kind of person, Zhao Jun did not dare to offend, so he naturally told the whole story, answering whatever Ji Feng asked, not daring to conceal anything.

Ji Feng couldn't help but frown and looked at Xie Hongjun, asking: "Why did you come to demolish this scrap purchasing station and orphanage? There are government plans and approvals?"

"Humph!"

Xie Hongjun snorted coldly, not answering Ji Feng's question at all.

"Very well!" Ji Feng smiled coldly, "Since you are unwilling to answer the question, then, I can only ask Qiu Pengfei directly as well!"

Under Xie Hongjun's stunned and suspicious eyes, Ji Feng took out his mobile phone, tapped on the screen a few times, found Qiu Pengfei's phone number and dialed it.

"Ji, Young Ji?!" When Qiu Pengfei on the other end of the phone received the call, he was with his sister Qiu Yanyan, rushing to the south of the city with a few policemen.

When he suddenly got a call from Ji Feng, Qiu Pengfei looked stunned, although at first he had expressed his attitude of leaning towards Ji Feng, and his father had also leaned towards Ji Zhenguo, a senior city official, but since then, Ji Feng had never contacted him!

What was the matter now that young Ji was suddenly calling him?

"Pengfei, it's been a long time since we've been in touch, is everything okay lately?" Ji Feng asked with a smile.

Xie Hongjun, who was standing next to Zhao Jun, disdainfully brushed his mouth and looked at Ji Feng with contempt, in his opinion, Ji Feng was completely pretending, don't think that anyone can call Qiu Pengfei! Even he, Qiu Pengfei's future brother-in-law, didn't even invite his attention, so how could anyone else want to call him? This bastard is too presumptuous, isn't he?

Xie Hongjun secretly slandered in his heart, but at the same time, he sneered, "Go ahead, pretend as hard as you can! When my men arrive, if I don't get you killed, my last name is not Xie ..... Thinking of this, Xie Hongjun suddenly remembered what Wang Hu had just said: “You didn’t have a last name in the first place .....

He suddenly reacted to how he had asked Yan Yan to bring someone over!

If Yan Yan came, then wouldn’t she know that he was raised by a bad old man who collected scrap?

Xie Hongjun was panicked and hurriedly took out his mobile phone and called Qiu Yan Yan, but after two rings, the phone was hung up again, Qiu Yan Yan did not even answer the call!

The first thing that happened to him was that he had to go back to his home. If Qiu Yan Yan knows where she comes from, she must know that all the things she said to her before were lies .....

The first thing you need to do is to think about this, and Xie Hongjun is at a loss for words.

And at this time, he heard Ji Feng was sneering into the phone, “Young Qiu, I’m really sorry, I beat up a guy named Xie Hongjun, the reason is because he did something worse than a beast .....

By the way, he told me that he was your future brother-in-law and was going to find someone to deal with me, to send me and my friends to jail, I had no choice but to find you to sue, huh .....

Boom!

Qiu Pengfei on the other end of the phone had just finished listening to Ji Feng’s words when he felt a boom in his head, his whole head was about to explode, his scalp was tingling and his hands and feet were even colder.

This damn Xie Hongjun, who did he mess with, why did he mess with Ji Feng’s head again, and he actually brought himself out to threaten Ji Feng?

“This is so damn .....

looking for death doesn’t have to be so accurate!

Qiu Pengfei, who hadn’t spoken foul language for months, couldn’t help but curse angrily, startling Qiu Yanyan next to him.

However, at this moment, Qiu Pengfei heard Xie Hongjun’s angry roar coming from the phone again, “Bastard, you don’t have to pretend here, just wait, when my men come, I’ll see how you die!”

Qiu Pengfei’s hand went limp and the phone fell straight to his thigh.

His chest rose and fell violently, and it took him a few times to suppress the anger that was spewing from his heart.

Qiu Pengfei took a deep breath and picked up the phone again, gritting his teeth and saying, “Young Ji, I am now rushing to the south of the city, don’t worry, I will definitely give you an explanation for this matter!”

Chapter 599

The atmosphere in this unassuming-looking scrap yard in the south of Jiangzhou City was a little tense at the moment, and the thoughts of the people were different.

The most apprehensive among them, apart from Xie Hongjun and Zhao Jun, a pair of difficult brothers, no one else could be found!

These two, a helpless slightly conscience, betrayed Xie Hongjun, and then he will probably be waiting for a paper transfer order, transferring him to the traffic police, to be a wind-blown, sun-drenched, rain-drenched small traffic police, or to be called on.

But that's not the worst of it. What makes Zhao Jun more apprehensive is that if the young men opposite him can't beat Xie Hongjun, then when he returns, Xie Hongjun will have other means to deal with himself, especially his family ....., besides transferring himself to the traffic police.

Zhao Jun's heart is apprehensive, can't help but secretly decide, if these young people in front of you can't fight Xie Hongjun, you have to take the initiative to throw them into prison, to seek Xie Hongjun's forgiveness ..... all for life ah!

Xie Hongjun, on the other hand, was even more upset.

When Qiu Yan Yan comes, how should he explain to her? What excuse can I use to cover up my identity?

"We must be quick, when Yan Yan comes with her, put these bastards in jail first, and not let them have the chance to speak!" Xie Hongjun was secretly fierce in his heart.

The situation was so stagnant that Ji Feng naturally did not bother to answer Xie Hongjun and the others, but was asking the old dean something in a low voice.

According to the old dean's account, Ji Feng finally understood the details of what had happened.

The old dean himself was an ordinary farmer here, and when the construction of the road in front of the scrap collection station had just started, the old dean's family's land, which happened to be within the planning area, was given a lot of subsidies from above.

The old dean used the money from these subsidies, together with the rest of his family's land, to exchange the land for the scrap yard and the orphanage.

This also meant that both the scrap yard and the Morning Glory Orphanage were the old dean's private land!

In fact, that so-called Morning Glory Orphanage was not actually listed and established, it was merely filed in the district it belonged to, but that already had legitimacy.

And if the developer wanted to develop it, he would have to pay adequate compensation – according to the old dean's request, adequate compensation meant building them a new orphanage, even if it was more remote, it didn't matter how luxurious it was, but at least it had to give them a place to live!

Besides, without the scrap yard, the orphanage would lose its source of income, so the old dean actually did not want to give up the scrap yard, but because of his age, he could no longer afford to run the yard, and the old dean was very ambivalent about it.

But at this time, what Xie Hongjun did made the old dean's heart cold and cold.

Not only did Xie Hongjun turn his back on her, but he also started to evict the old director and the orphanage's children without paying enough compensation!

"I don't know, how did he turn out like this, how smart he was when he was little!"

Speaking of this, the old dean's cloudy eyes had long been invaded with tears .....

Ji Feng was silent, and after a moment, he smiled faintly and said, "Old Dean, don't worry, I'll help you solve the matter of the orphanage and the scrap buying station, even if the developer doesn't give you enough compensation!"

"Mr. Ji, if you can settle the matter of the orphanage, from now on, you are our boss, for life!" Wang Xin said firmly beside him, "As for Xie Hongjun ..... if his power is really too great, let's put it aside for now, we're already grateful if you can find a stable home for these orphans!"

Wang Xin and Wang Hu weren't foolish and ungrateful people, their persistence was really only for these children in the orphanage, and for the two of them, repaying the old dean was more important than their lives!

Ji Feng smiled faintly and said, "Since two conditions were agreed upon, there is no need to change them, no more increases or decreases!"

Wang Hu and Wang Xin both naturally knew that this was Ji Feng joking with them, but they were still very grateful to Ji Feng and could not help but nod at the same time, and their faces both eased up quite a bit.

"Mr. Ji, just now that Xie Hongjun seems to have called someone ....." the old dean said with some concern, "This little brother, if it really doesn't work ....."

"There's nothing that won't work!" Wang Hu immediately said angrily, "Old Dean, you don't have to say it, even if Mr. Ji doesn't have this ability to stop Xie Hongjun from doing evil, I won't back down, big deal, I'll fight for my life and kill that bastard Xie Hongjun first, then turn myself in!"

"Nonsense! Be alive, be well, I adopted you because I want you to be well ....." The old dean shook his head and sighed, it's a pity, the orphanage might be about to be torn down!

"Zhao Jun, what do you mean by that?!" Xie Hongjun's mind was made up and he was instantly relieved, he remembered again that Zhao Jun had sold himself out, and immediately gritted his teeth and said, "I see that you really want to go to the traffic police force and become a small traffic cop, then fine, when we finish solving the matter here, I will definitely make it happen for you!"

Zhao Jun opened his mouth, wanting to retort, but he wanted to say something but stopped.

If the young people really can't beat Xie Hongjun, then they will have a way out!

"Zhao Jun, I think you are really out of your depth, a small deputy head of the Criminal Investigation Department, if we talk about it by rank, you are contradicting your superiors!" Xie Hongjun was humiliated by Wang Hu, Yi Xingchen and the others, and he had no place to vent his grievances. When he saw that Zhao Jun didn't dare to be stubborn with him, he became angry again and pointed his finger at Zhao Jun's nose and scolded him!

"I'm telling you, when we get back, I'll make you look good again, just wait, damn it ....." Xie Hongjun scolded Zhao Jun angrily as if he was scolding a child.

Zhao Jun's face changed, and finally he snapped his teeth, "Shut up!"

"What?!" Xie Hongjun was stunned and then became furious, "How dare you talk to me like that?!"

"What's wrong with me talking to you like that? You're just a villain who has climbed up the ladder through nepotism, so what if you're a section chief? So what if you're a section chief of the Urban Development Bureau, can you control me, a deputy section chief of the police station? Zhao Jun couldn't help himself and roared, "I can come, not because you Xie Hongjun are so great, I am looking at you because you are the future son-in-law of District Chief Qiu, but now, I am not serving!"

"You ....." Xie Hongjun was full of incredulity, this Zhao Jun, who had always bowed down to him, actually dared to be so tough?

However, when Zhao Jun, who was used to being a police officer, became angry, Xie Hongjun was really a bit afraid.

He grunted fiercely and secretly gritted his teeth, "When this matter is over, I will definitely give Zhao Jun a good show! Definitely!"

Although Zhao Jun's words were not much, they ripped apart Xie Hongjun's hypocritical veneer, and the word 'nepotism' made Xie Hongjun's heart, which already had little strength, seem to be instantly plunged into his heart by countless sharp knives, causing his body to twitch.

He was so ashamed that he became angry!

This was Xie Hongjun's most realistic portrayal right now!

Xie Hongjun, who was born in an orphanage, was most taboo about people saying that he was an orphan, and even more taboo about people saying that he was raised by an old man who collected scrap, which to him was not a reason for gratitude, but a source of shame.

In fact the benefit that developer gave was not too much, but in Xie Hongjun's heart, he wanted to take this opportunity to eradicate the orphanage so that he would not have to crawl to be known and laughed at from now on!

Buzz~~!

The roar of the engine came faintly, listening to the sound, it was obvious that there was more than one car, Xie Hongjun's heart was immediately pleased, he immediately shouted: "My men are coming! This time, I'll see how arrogant you guys can still be, especially you bastards!"

He pointed at Ji Feng and the others, his gaze lingering on Yi Xingchen and Wang Hu's bodies for a moment, resentful beyond measure, "Dare to beat me? You guys just wait to die, bastards!"

“You’re the bastard, you even did that to the old dean who raised you, you’re the biggest bastard in the world!” Wang Hu roared.

Wang Xin’s gaze however fell on Ji Feng, now she could only hope for Ji Feng, “Mr. Ji, Xie Hongjun’s people are here .....

Ji Feng waved his hand, looking bashful, “The people who come are not necessarily his people!”

And at this time, Zhao Jun did something unexpected, his gaze swept around the faces of those city managers and police officers and said coldly, “We were all called here by Xie Hongjun, we don’t know anything about this matter, all the orders were given by Xie Hongjun, remember?”

Zhao Jun gambled, since he had completely torn his face off from Xie Hongjun, there was no way back, he could only go against Xie Hongjun completely!

“You!” Xie Hongjun was furious, but immediately nodded with a cold smile, “Good, good! So what if I gave the order? I’ll get rid of you all together!”

“Don’t know whether to live or die!” Ji Feng snorted coldly.

However, Yi Xingchen and the others were not the least bit nervous, they took Ji Feng as their leader in everything, here, Ji Feng was their supreme military officer, as long as Ji Feng didn’t give the order, they would never take half a step back, no matter what kind of people were coming from the other side!

Not long after, the roar of the engine outside arrived at their heels, followed by a rapid sound of footsteps.

Behind him, Qiu Pengfei and Qiu Yanyan, the two siblings, also followed at a fast pace.

As soon as they entered, Qiu Yanyan shouted, “Hongjun, Hongjun!”

“You’re dead!” As soon as Xie Hongjun heard that it was his girlfriend who had arrived, he was overjoyed, proudly and spitefully forgetting to glance at Ji Feng and the others.

Chapter 600

Qiu Pengfei and the others walked quickly into the scrap yard, and the policemen at the head of the group shouted aggressively, “Stand still, don’t move, or else they’ll all be arrested!”

These policemen were holding batons in their hands and had pistols attached to their bodies, and seemed to be very powerful.

“What an imposing style!” Yao Zhijian couldn’t help but grimace, these policemen were okay to scare the common people, but to those of them who were used to seeing death and had personally experienced gunfire, it was nothing.

Yao Zhijian even subconsciously glanced at one of the most vicious looking policemen, and glanced at the other’s brow and chest, which are the most popular areas for snipers to attack.

Yi Xingchen and the others also snorted with laughter, these police officers arrived and reprimanded people first in an aggressive manner without distinguishing between red and white, they were really imposing!

Ji Feng, however, just watched with cold eyes, he did not believe that after he had informed Qiu Pengfei, the other party would still dare to act in a disorderly manner. What's more, now that Qiu Pengfei had personally brought people here, he would be even less likely to act recklessly!

He thought that it was only these policemen themselves who wanted to play the fool, or were instructed by Qiu Pengfei's sister, the woman who had run towards Xie Hongjun, to be so rude!

"Hongjun, are you all right? Ah! Who beat you up like this? You tell me who did it, I'll have him arrested and put in jail!" Qiu Yan Yan came to Xie Hong Jun and once she saw that her boyfriend was actually beaten up with a bruised nose, bleeding from the corners of his mouth and even his eyes were swollen, she was so distressed and angry that she couldn't help but say loudly.

Qiu Pengfei was startled and just wanted to drink, when he heard Xie Hongjun say angrily, "It's those bastards, not only are they holding me hostage, but they are also armed, I suspect they should be roaming criminals from somewhere, or some triad members, arrest them immediately!"

"And Zhao Jun and these policemen, not only are they afraid to fight these vicious bastards, but they are helping them to deal with me, arrest them all as well!"

Xie Hongjun roared hysterically, having been slapped several times in succession earlier had caused him great shame in his heart, and now that he saw help coming, how could he not retaliate in anger?

What's more, Xie Hongjun had to be quick and use the shortest possible time to throw these people into prison, otherwise, his identity might be known by Qiu Yanyan, and then she would definitely understand that all the things he said before were lies to her.

If Qiu Yan Yan got angry, it would be much more serious than being slapped a few times!

Xie Hongjun certainly understood this, so he didn't even give Ji Feng and the others a chance to speak, after he finished speaking quickly to Qiu Yan Yan, he immediately waved his hand at those police officers, "Arrest all these people, if they dare to resist you use your weapons, don't forget that they have guns too!"

"Sure enough they're here!"

Zhao Jun's heart kept sinking, he recognized Qiu Yan Yan and Qiu Peng Fei at a glance, this was the district chief's son and daughter-in-law! Qiu Pengfei had come personally, and it looked like these police officers were still aggressive, this time, it was really over, he might have lost his bet!

As for Xie Hongjun's shouting, Zhao Jun no longer took it to heart, since he had already lost the bet, and had completely torn his face with Xie Hongjun, naturally there was no room for maneuvering, this time, just wait to be stripped of this police uniform, this is also considered his own retribution for following the bad deeds!

For a while, Zhao Jun's heart felt like death.

The police and city police who followed Zhao Jun and Xie Hongjun were tense in their hearts.

They couldn't help but secretly regret that they should have listened to Chief Xie and caught those thugs!

But they couldn't help but shudder when they thought about the skills of those young men.

Let's face it! Never do such things against your conscience again!

"Mr. Ji ....."

Wang Hu and Wang Xin also couldn't help but get nervous, although they knew that Xie Hongjun had become an official, but they didn't expect him to be so powerful, actually called so many police officers with one phone call.

It didn't matter if they were arrested, but if this brought Mr. Ji and the old dean into trouble .....

Not only them, but also the children were so frightened that they leaned on the old dean's side, looking at the police officers who came in aggressively some of the slightly younger children were trembling with fear.

Seeing the anxious look of the two, Ji Feng just waved his hand and laughed: "You guys don't need to rush, just take your time to watch and you will know ....."

Wang Hu and Wang Xin were stunned and couldn't help but turn their heads to look, they suddenly found that none of those policemen were moving, whether it was those policemen and city police brought by Zhao Jun or those brought by Qiu Pengfei, despite both sides being extremely alert, yet, none of them were moving!

"Why are you still standing there? Hurry up and do something!" Xie Hongjun hadn't yet sensed that something was wrong, but instead shouted loudly.

Qiu Yan Yan was also a little puzzled, and while rubbing Xie Hong Jun's face, which was highly swollen from the beating, she shouted, "What are you staring at, hurry up and do it!"

"Bullshit!"

Qiu Pengfei shouted at once, Xie Hongjun and Qiu Yanyan's words made the hands and feet cold from listening, he pointed at Xie Hongjun and Qiu Yanyan and was so angry he could barely speak.

"Brother, what are you talking about, can't you see Hongjun is beaten up like this, hurry up and have someone arrest all these thugs!" Qiu Yanyan said sharply.

"You shut up!"

Qiu Pengfei was furious and could not help but take a few steps forward to Xie Hongjun and slapped him across the face, "I'll let you use my Qiu family's name to be arrogant and domineering outside!"

Slap!

Qiu Pengfei used all his strength to slap Xie Hongjun to the ground, but he was still not relieved, he kicked Xie Hongjun, who was almost dumbfounded, and kicked him so hard that he screamed and rolled on the ground, holding his stomach!

Qiu Yan Yan was shocked and hurriedly pulled Qiu Peng Fei back, shouting, "Brother, what are you doing?!"

"What am I doing?!" Qiu Pengfei glared at her fiercely, "Wei Wei your boyfriend, what has he done!"

He viciously kicked Xie Hongjun twice more until he had kicked him all over the place, then he coldly snorted, "I'll settle the score with you later!"

Then, he jogged all the way to Ji Feng and said with a bitter smile, "Ji Shao, this is really ..... this guy is my sister's boyfriend, although he's a jerk, but no matter what, he also dared to mess up in the name of my old man, so I'll bear the consequences of this, what do you think? "

Everyone was dumbfounded, whether it was Wang Hu and Wang Xin and the others, or Zhao Jun and Qiu Yan Yan on the opposite side, even Xie Hongjun, who was rolling around on the ground screaming in pain, froze, forgetting to even scream, just staring blankly at Qiu Pengfei in front of Ji Feng with a cautious look .....

Yi Xingchen and others are also astonished in their hearts, it seems that this boss of theirs, the energy in Jiangzhou is not small, even the son of a district mayor is so respectful to him!

Ji Feng waved his hand and said, "You are you, Xie Hongjun is Xie Hongjun, however, he is indeed unforgivable ....."

He briefly told what had happened, pointed at Xie Hongjun lying on the ground, and sneered, "He's quite something, trying to drive even the old dean who raised him to death!"

Qiu Pengfei only felt his face burning hot, a strong anger held in his chest, almost exploding his lungs.

"This bastard!"

Qiu Pengfei gritted his teeth and cursed angrily, he thought he had been a bastard before, but this kind of ungrateful and beastly behaviour was something he could never do, but Xie Hongjun did it with a straight face, and even called him and Yan Yan over!

"Young Ji, I know what to do, don't worry, I will definitely give you a satisfactory account of this matter!" Qiu Pengfei said through gritted teeth.

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said, "Then I'll be waiting for your good news!"

"Humph!"

Qiu Pengfei coldly snorted, turned around and walked boldly to Xie Hongjun, and said in a cold voice: "Say, how many benefits did you receive from others?!"

"Qiu, young Qiu, I didn't!" Xie Hongjun said in shock, he didn't dare to admit it, otherwise, God knows what Qiu Pengfei would do to him, "Yan Yan, please plead for me!"

"You want to drag Yan Yan down with you?" Qiu Pengfei was furious and kicked Xie Hongjun in the mouth, instantly causing him to whimper and almost not faint to death.

"Take him away, and at the same time inform the discipline inspection department to investigate thoroughly!" Qiu Pengfei bellowed.

The policemen who followed him came forward at once and set Xie Hongjun up.

Xie Hongjun was trembling with fear, he knew he was finished, everything was finished. Suddenly, he saw the old dean, a hint of intolerance seemed to flash across the old man's face.

Xie Hongjun immediately realized what was going on, he immediately struggled and said in a vague voice, "Old Dean, Old Dean, save me ....."

Before he could finish his words, Ji Feng immediately gave a wink to Qiu Pengfei, who immediately understood and slapped Xie Hongjun on the face, instantly knocking all his following words into his stomach, while waving his hand, "Take it away!"

Xie Hongjun wailed and was taken out of the scrap buying station, while Zhao Jun and others were also taken out with their heads hanging in defeat, but their hearts were relieved, so that they would at most be punished and lose their official positions, but they would not be wronged, which was much better than following Xie Hongjun!

The first time I saw you, I was a little bit of a mess, so I'm not going to say much more, just wait for my news.

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Console and comfort your sister more and say sorry for me!"

Qiu Pengfei was immediately grateful, Ji Feng was talking to him as an equal without taking advantage of the opportunity to do anything, he nodded seriously and said, "Young Ji, thank you so much!"

Ji Feng shook his head with a smile and said; "Let's go!"

Qiu Pengfei pulled the weeping and bewildered Qiu Yanyan away, and the arrogant and infinite Xie Hongjun was just dragged away like a dead dog .....
