

Campus Master 611-612

Chapter 611

Only when he heard that Second Uncle had changed the subject did Ji Feng quietly let out a sigh of relief. It seemed that Second Uncle had uncovered the matter of his abuse of power, which meant that he would not blame himself anymore.

In fact, of the three, father, second uncle and youngest uncle, Ji Feng still liked discussing business matters with second uncle the most.

For his father, Ji Feng was more of a childish admirer and tended to treat him mostly as just a father, an elder. In Ji Feng's view, his father was above him, and whether he beat and scolded him or not, whether what he said was right or not, Ji Feng would firmly listen to him.

If his father's words were wrong, Ji Feng knew it clearly in his heart, but his mouth would not refute it.

This resulted in the fact that Ji Feng would not debate with his father, no matter what the matter was, he would not contradict him.

However, between any two people in this world, the views on a certain thing are definitely not exactly the same. This also means that Ji Feng is obedient to his father and admires him, but he cannot discuss things, let alone debate as if he were a friend, let alone argue like a like-minded comrade, arguing over a certain issue.

And for the youngest uncle, Ji Feng is still more like a friend to see him, the youngest uncle is the youngest, and his character is also the most jumpy, in this point is more or less similar to the second brother Ji Shaolei strictly speaking, it should be the second brother and the youngest uncle's character is somewhat similar!

To use a somewhat irreverent phrase, the younger uncle is like a big kid, with Ji Feng, the next generation of people between, there is almost no generation gap. Of course, if it seemed to Ji Xiaoyu, it would be much different; in her eyes, Ji Zhenping could be a completely strict father.

But the problem was that there were a lot of things that one could not say to one's friends.

When Ji Feng treated his younger uncle Ji Zhenping as a friend, there were many things that he could not discuss with him, and besides, his position and his personality made Ji Feng rarely talk to him about business matters.

In comparison, the only person that Ji Feng can talk to is his second uncle, Ji Zhenguo.

The second uncle has the calmness of the eldest, Ji Zhen Guo, and does not lack the jumpy personality of the younger uncle, Ji Zhen Ping, but the years of experience in the officialdom have allowed the second uncle to hide the impetuous side of his personality.

In fact, from the character of the second brother Ji Shaolei can be seen, as the saying goes, there is a father like his son, the second uncle actually also has a jumpy character.

Therefore, many times Ji Feng felt that not only was it easy to communicate with Second Uncle, but he could also learn a lot, which was completely different from the communication with his father or with Younger Uncle.

Faintly shaking his head and throwing all the cluttered thoughts in his mind out of his head, Ji Feng carefully deliberated for a moment before speaking, "Second uncle, what I am going to say is still about the dynasty."

Ji Zhenguo frowned slightly and said, "Didn't I tell you not to bother with the dynasty's affairs for now? Have you confronted the dynasty again?"

"Not against it either, but, by coincidence, I just ran into it!"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, "It's like this, it's that thing I went to Chief Zheng to do earlier, from among that cyber extortion gang, I bailed out a person"

He quickly told the story of how Yang Dezhao begged for his help and then how he inadvertently helped deal with the orphanage's troubles.

"So that's how it is, in that case, it's because you had a love of talent, so that's why you bailed the person out?!" Ji Zhenguo asked.

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said, "Yes."

"Even so, what you did was still wrong!" Ji Zhenguo's face sank, "There are many talented people, if everyone is bullying and unbridled by virtue of a bit of talent, not taking the law into consideration in the slightest, then wouldn't the world be in chaos?!"

Ji Feng hurriedly nodded and said, "Yes, Second Uncle, I know I'm wrong!"

"All right, let's talk about this matter later!" Ji Zhenguo waved his hand and asked, "Tell me, how is the dynasty involved in the middle of this again?"

"It's like this, Wang Xin didn't exactly participate in that cyber extortion gang out of the need to protect herself and the orphanage, instead she only met up with them on the internet and acted together, then when she shared the money she also transferred it through the internet and never showed her face at all." Ji Feng gave a general account of what happened, "Yet she was still a bit uneasy about that gang, so she left her hand open and opened a back door in the other party's firewall to listen in on them!"

"Well!" Ji Zhenguo nodded noncommittally, gesturing for Ji Feng to continue.

"However, after she opened the back door, she didn't find much of value, however, once she overheard a person on the phone, during which Dynasty was mentioned!" Ji Feng said.

He instantly reacted and immediately asked, "Do you mean that the so-called cyber extortion gang was actually organized by Dynasty? Or, that gang itself is affiliated with the dynasty?"

"It's the former!" Ji Feng said, "It was organised by someone from the Dynasty!"

“What is their purpose?!” Ji Zhenguo asked the key point in one sentence. Now that they knew that group of people was organized by the dynasty, what was their purpose? That was the most important thing.

Ji Feng couldn't help but hesitate a little, he was hesitating, should he tell his second uncle about his and Wang Xin's guesses?

Intelligent programs!

This was only Ji Feng and Wang Xin's speculation, they didn't have the slightest proof at all, and they didn't dare to guarantee that their speculation was correct. If they told Second Uncle just like that, whether he would believe it or not was not to be said first, and if once he believed it, then the actions he would take would definitely affect many people!

“What, there are difficulties?!” Ji Zhenguo saw Ji Feng's hesitant look and couldn't help but ask.

“That's not true, it's just that”

Ji Feng hesitated for a moment, but still said, “Second Uncle, based on the analysis of what we have overheard, that so-called cyber extortion group, its purpose is not just to extort a sum of money, but it is looking for something!”

“Oh?!”

Ji Zhenguo immediately asked, “Do you know what they are looking for?”

Ji Feng shook his head slightly and smiled bitterly, “I don't know, but according to my analysis and Wang Xin's, what the other party is looking for is most likely a piece of intelligent program!”

“What?!” The usually steady and unmoving Ji Zhenguo could not help but reveal a shocked look at this time, “What they are looking for is a piece of intelligent program? Little Feng, tell me carefully, what kind of intelligent program is this!”

Ji Feng gestured with his hand and said, “I'm not too sure, this is just a guess, but if what they're looking for is really an intelligent program, then it should be similar to those artificial intelligences in movies, an intelligent being with its own consciousness, life, or even its own instinctive behavior!”

“How is this possible!” Ji Zhenguo couldn't help but ask in astonishment, “Does such a thing really exist in the world?”

Ji Feng shook his head slightly and said, “I can't be sure, but at least, my speculation and Wang Xin's are the same, moreover, I've already had people start looking for it, hoping to find it before the dynasty does. If it's not an intelligent program that's naturally good, but if it is, it must not fall into the hands of the dynasty, no, I should say it must not fall into the hands of anyone”

Ji Feng believed that any person's ambition would be unstoppable after obtaining a piece of self-aware intelligent program!

Just like himself, after getting the intelligent brain, didn't he also have a certain amount of ambition?

Ji Zhenguo didn't say anything, he seemed to be digesting this information provided by Ji Feng, the appearance of a piece of artificial intelligence was indeed an incomparable shock to Ji Zhenguo, he knew very well, if this was true, what kind of waves it would set off!

"Little Feng, what you said tonight, you can't say this to anyone, remember?" Ji Zhenguo took a deep breath and exhorted Ji Feng with a serious expression.

"Don't worry, second uncle, I know the importance." Ji Feng nodded and said, "Besides, I already said earlier that it was just my guess, and if I hadn't considered that the consequences could be serious, I wouldn't have said anything today!"

Ji Zhenguo nodded in satisfaction and said, "You remember you are well, is there anything else?"

"No, second uncle, I'll go out first then." Ji Feng immediately understood that Second Uncle still hadn't fully digested the impact of the news he had said, he should have deliberated on it.

After telling Second Uncle the news, Ji Feng never mentioned it again, but returned to the living room and joked with Ji Shaolei and the others. Ji Xiaoyu also changed from her usual gentle and quiet self and began to talk excitedly about where she was going to play tomorrow, and thought about what gifts she should ask for from her second and third brothers, her eyes full of little stars

The majority of the time he was listening to the others, in fact, joking was not his strong point in the first place, and if it wasn't for his sharp reflexes, he wouldn't even be able to interject.

Suddenly, a mobile phone rang, and Ji Shaolei immediately stood up and walked out, going to his room to answer it.

A moment later, he came out with an odd expression.

Ji Feng immediately smiled and asked, "Second brother, what's wrong, is there something wrong?"

"Just now Xiang Yurou called, she's coming over to with her brother tomorrow," Ji Shaolei said somewhat oddly, "Her brother is here to look for you!"

"Looking for me?!" Ji Feng couldn't help but be stunned.

Chapter 612

Jiangzhou, at the gate of the Southeast China Military Region, Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei sat in the car, looking at the soldiers coming in and out.

"Second brother, what do you think Xiang Yurou's brother is doing here looking for me?" Ji Feng was a bit puzzled, "Even if he was looking, he should be looking for you, after all, you are his future brother-in-law Which brother of Xiang Yurou?!"

"You brat!" Ji Shaolei couldn't help but shake his head and laugh, "Xiang Yurou is here to find me, her brother is here to find you, you have to distinguish clearly before you do!"

Ji Feng instantly laughed, "Don't worry, I'm sure I can distinguish clearly!"

Ji Shaolei hummed and said without good grace, "The one who came is her elder brother, Xiang Yongzhan, he must have his purpose for coming to you!"

"Between me and the Xiang family, there shouldn't be any interactions, right?" Ji Feng asked with a frown.

"Is it about the pharmaceutical factory?" Ji Shaolei thought of something and turned his head to ask, "Perhaps, Xiang Yongzhan doesn't want to go through He Hongwei as a middleman anymore and wants to talk to you directly?"

Ji Feng nodded thoughtfully, but didn't say anything more, except that in his heart he felt that it was somewhat impossible. After all, the cooperation between the Xiang family, the He family and the Ji family was decided by the elders of the three parties. If the two families alone cooperated, it was likely to cause the other families to be wary and resist, and cooperation between the three families was the best option.

But whether Xiang Yongzhan wanted to spare He Hongwei or not, Ji Feng couldn't say for sure.

"Second brother, what kind of person is Xiang Yongzhan?!" Ji Feng asked. He felt that he still needed to understand the other side first before he could have a proper response.

Ji Shaolei laughed, "This person Xiang Yongzhan is not an ordinary character, no matter who he is dealing with, he is extremely strong, I remember telling you about the three Yanjing Jie before, right?"

Ji Feng nodded and said, "That's right, Xiang Yongzhan of the Xiang family, He Hongwei of the He family, and our family boss, Ji Shaodong, are collectively known as the three Yanjing Jiejie."

"That's it, to be called the Three Yanjing Jie, they are naturally not simple characters!" Ji Shaolei said, "You already know what kind of character the boss is, neutral and calm, quite a great general, this is the evaluation given to the boss by some elders in Yanjing. As for Xiang Yongzhan, many people have only two words for him – Tiger Son!"

"Tiger son?!" Ji Feng was stunned, and then laughed, "What an atmospheric comment!"

"Yes, most of the sons of the family are the sons of tigers, but there are very few sons of the family who can be called the sons of tigers, Xiang Yongzhan is undoubtedly a son of a tiger, and some people also evaluate him as a tiger general!" Ji Shaolei nodded slightly, and his words could not help but be filled with esteem for Xiang Yongzhan, "Of the three Yanjing Jiejie, He Hongwei is slightly more feminine and too gentle. Our family boss is the one in the middle, Xiang Yongzhan is the real fierce, when he goes to battle he is a tiger general, brave and full of magnificence!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but be surprised, this was an extremely high evaluation.

He asked suspiciously, "Is Xiang Yongzhan really that powerful? Isn't it a bit exaggerated?"

After all, it was a peaceful society now, where would there be any war? Even if they were brave, they would at most be able to show off in the usual training, but they would not have the opportunity to fight in actual battles!

Ji Shaolei laughed, "You kid still have seen too little"

He lowered his voice and leaned closer to Ji Feng, whispering, "San'er, you haven't been exposed to it, so you don't quite understand you look like everything is peaceful now and war is far away from us, but in reality, there are quite a few wars in our country, only most of them are just local wars"

"There are wars in our country too?!" Ji Feng was instantly shocked, "That can't be right? If there really is a war, how can such a big commotion be hidden from the public? Even if the media didn't report it, there would be gossip circulating away!"

Ji Shaolei laughed heatedly, "Who said the media didn't report it?"

"Reported it?" Ji Feng couldn't help but be very puzzled.

Ever since he went to university, Ji Feng had paid close attention to the news reports in society, and had ordered a newspaper for this purpose. As long as there were no special matters, he would read the newspaper every day, and would also often browse the news online or watch TV, but he had never seen any reports about domestic wars.

Instead, there were many foreign wars that were often reported, and there were many so-called military experts who were there to comment on them and seemed to have a good head on their shoulders.

"Second brother, you're not teasing me, are you? Did you get bored of waiting and made a joke?" Ji Feng asked with a laugh.

"You kid, when have I ever fooled you?"

Ji Shaolei glared at him discontentedly and hummed, "San'er, listen carefully, in fact, many of our domestic wars are reported, and they are still reported in a proper manner, it's just that the name of the news has changed!"

"Changed to what name?" Ji Feng asked in surprise.

"The actual battle exercise!" Ji Shaolei hemmed and hawed, uttering a term familiar to anyone who paid even a little attention to the military, acting!

Ji Feng, however, opened his mouth wide and looked at Ji Shaolei in astonishment, stunned beyond belief.

"In fact, in our country, there also exists that what, so often will come out to make trouble, this time, local war is essential!" Ji Shaolei said vaguely, "Only, in order to cover up these kinds of military actions, and also to seal the rotten mouths of other countries, so to use the name of military exercises to report, that would be perfectly normal."

Ji Feng slowly nodded his head and said, "It seems that I'm really a bit ignorant!"

"Actually, you just don't care about that!" Ji Shaolei laughed.

Ji Feng suddenly thought of another question, "Then in that case, Xiang Yongzhan really did participate in the war?"

"That's for sure!"

Ji Shaolei nodded and said, "This guy Xiang Yongzhan is one of the very few people I admire, even though this guy is too domineering and acts in an overbearing manner, you have to admit that he is indeed a real man. The first time he took part in a military operation, he took out a special squad of San by himself, and was shot 14 times himself, yet he crawled back to the national border alive!"

Ji Feng could not help but be moved by this and sighed in admiration, "A real man!"

He couldn't help but sigh in admiration in his heart, even an extremely good special forces soldier would be lucky not to die after being shot at with fourteen shots, where else could he take out a squad from the other side? And a special squad at that!

"It was because of that battle that Xiang Yongzhan's name spread to the top echelons of Zheng, and as a result, he, along with Boss and He Hongwei, were known as the Three Masters of Yanjing!" Ji Shaolei said.

Ji Feng couldn't help but give him a thumbs up and said, "He deserves this title!"

"However, this guy is not without flaws, his biggest flaw is that he is too strong, thinks that everyone is a soldier under him, dares to call out to my brother, if I wasn't unable to beat him, I would have beaten him up long ago!" Ji Shaolei bristled and said again with great dissatisfaction.

Ji Feng lost his smile and asked, "Second brother, you have suffered losses, right?"

"Humph!"

Ji Shaolei's face was a little embarrassed and he grunted in defiance, "That was before, now my brother's skills have improved a lot, sooner or later I'll be able to take that guy down, let's see how I'll beat him up then!"

Ji Feng harrumphed, he knew this style of second brother's dead duck's mouth very well.

"Here it comes!" Ji Shaolei suddenly said.

Ji Feng immediately looked forward, only to see a military jeep driving out of the gate of the military district, with a girl in camouflage uniform sitting inside, who seemed to be Xiang Yurou.

"This way!"

Ji Shaolei waved his hand out of the window and honked the horn twice more.

"Zee...!" The jeep stopped not far from the pair, and a man and a woman jumped down from the jeep. In the front was Xiang Yurou, who was dressed in camouflage clothing. Beside her, there was a stout youth.

Ji Feng's gaze was immediately drawn to this youth. This man was probably in his early thirties and had a thin scar on his left cheek that looked as if it had been cut by a knife, but instead of looking hideous, it had a murderous look to it.

The man's eyes were even sharper, with a refined aura showing through, and he was an extremely strong character at first glance.

Ji Feng instantly guessed the identity of this man, someone who could have such an aura, apart from Xiang Yongzhan who took out a special squad of San by himself as Second Brother said, there might not be another person.

“Get out of the car!” Ji Shaolei said in a low voice.

The two immediately and quickly got off the car, Ji Shaolei walked over in big strides and laughed, “Yurou, I finally see you again, but I really missed you”

With that, he opened his arms and hugged towards Xiang Yurou.

A brilliant light flashed in Xiang Yongzhan’s eyes as he fiercely took a step forward, about to teach Ji Shaolei a lesson, but suddenly, the muscles in his body suddenly tensed up, an extremely dangerous feeling instantly swept through his entire body, causing him to surprisingly fail to take this step!

“Pop!”

Xiang Yurou struck out with a whip leg, but Ji Shaolei nimbly jumped and directly dodged it, smiling, “Yurou, is this how you treat your future husband?!”

A look of surprise flashed in Xiang Yurou’s eyes, and then her pretty face turned slightly red and she spat lightly.

But Xiang Yongzhan’s eyes flashed with a brilliant light as he looked at Ji Feng, who was a few steps ahead of him, with wariness rising in his heart: “You must be quite skilled, right? Find a place to spar?”

Ji Feng immediately shook his head and smiled, extended his hand and smiled, “Ji Feng, nice to meet you!”

Xiang Yongzhan couldn’t help but be a little reluctant and said, “You kid slick, I want to spar with you, but you want to shake my hand” But you kid is not bad, get to know each other, Xiang Yongzhan!”

Chapter 613

Ji Feng smiled faintly, “I just heard about your heroic deeds from my second brother, I wouldn’t dare to spar with you!”

Saying that, he shook hands with Xiang Yongzhan.

Originally, he only wanted to shake hands politely to divert Xiang Yongzhan’s attention, but without thinking, just when he wanted to pull his hand back, he suddenly felt a strong force suddenly coming from his hand, and he frowned slightly, but saw that Xiang Yongzhan was looking at himself with a gaze full of wariness in his eyes.

This is good, another militant!

Ji Feng could not help but let out a bitter smile in his heart, but his hands did not forcefully fight with Xiang Yongzhan, for such a person, Ji Feng first thought of Du Shaofeng, he was the same as Xiang Yongzhan, both of them were completely belligerent. If you lose now, it’s okay to lose, but if you win, you’ll be in trouble. Xiang Yongzhan would definitely come to challenge himself from time to time, as was the case with Du Shaofeng in the past.

Unless, of course, he could defeat Xiang Yongzhan in a clean and straightforward manner, so that he would know the huge gap between the two of them and would have no desire to challenge him.

But if that was really the case, it would undoubtedly be a huge blow to Xiang Yongzhan's face, and the two of them would not look very good at that time. After all, Xiang Yongzhan is not just a soldier or a martial artist, he is also the eldest grandson of the Xiang family and the leader of the third generation of the Xiang family.

Therefore, Ji Feng could only choose to retreat, he had already admitted defeat, you can't still press on, right?

Ji Feng's hand did not exert a single ounce of strength, appearing as soft as a bone, Xiang Yongzhan held it in his hand, as if he was grasping a ball of cotton, there was no place to exert his strength.

"You brat, you're really boring!" Xiang Yongzhan gave him a fierce glare and said with extreme dissatisfaction, "Is it so difficult for you to compete with me? Or is it that you don't see eye to eye with my kung fu?"

Ji Feng instantly laughed, "Sir Xiang, I still have a good idea of how good I am myself. I don't want to show off my skills, otherwise I'd be asking to be embarrassed in front of you. Mr. Xiang, why don't you just give me some face?"

Only then did Xiang Yu Rou and Ji Shao Lei react that this duo, Ji Feng and Xiang Yong Zhan, were planning to have a contest!

"Big brother, are you going to bully someone again?" Xiang Yurou couldn't help but frown slightly and glared at Xiang Yongzhan.

"I'm still bullying him?"

Xiang Yongzhan looked at Xiang Yurou in good humour and amusement, and said helplessly, "I see, it's good that he's not bullying me!"

He had tested his strength on the grip strength machine more than once, and he had often competed with others in the army, and his grip could deform even an iron ring. However, now that he was holding Ji Feng's hand, he actually had a stifling feeling that he was full of strength but could not use it.

With just this hand alone, Xiang Yongzhan had to look at Ji Feng in a different light. Among so many high ranking people in the military, there were not many who could have such a skill!

Ji Feng smiled and pulled his hand back from Xiang Yongzhan's hand and said, "Mr. Xiang is giving me a step Right, let's find a place to settle down first!"

"No need, Yu Rou and I are staying at the military district's guest house, this time I came to Jiangzhou, one, to see if this kid Ji Shao Lei has grown up, and two, to find you!" Xiang Yongzhan's words were very similar to his temperament, both were so straightforward.

Ji Feng's heart moved and he smiled and asked, "Then in Sir Xiang's opinion, has my second brother grown up?"

“Still the same hangdog look!” Xiang Yongzhan grunted, obviously dissatisfied with Ji Shaolei, his future brother-in-law, “After coming to Jiangzhou for all these years, he hasn’t changed at all, he still owes the same as before!”

Ji Feng was dumbfounded, as Xiang Yongzhan was Xiang Yurou’s elder brother, he was qualified to say this. In fact, in Ji Feng’s opinion, although the second brother, Ji Shaolei, would occasionally make a show of it and go to some of the sex places, he was still not a bad person and was not much of a womanizer, at least better than himself.

Ji Shaolei, however, was very dissatisfied, he bristled and hummed, “My growth is increased connotation, in fact you, a big old man, can see that?”

“What are you talking about?!” Xiang Yongzhan’s eyes glared, “I think you kid has an itchy skin again!”

“Hey, Xiang Yongzhan, I’m only being so polite to you because you’re Yu Rou’s big brother, otherwise” Ji Shaolei bristled, yet before he could finish his words, Xiang Yongzhan threw a fierce punch.

The first time I saw him, I was able to get to him.

Ji Shaolei, however, fiercely dodged his body, directly dodging this extremely fast punch from Xiang Yongzhan.

“Ee?!”

Xiang Yongzhan made a surprised sound, “You kid has grown a bit!”

An outsider would see the action, but an insider would see the doorway.

This dodge by Ji Shaolei only seemed slightly more responsive to ordinary people, but it did not seem so to Xiang Yongzhan.

This dodge was enough for Xiang Yongzhan to see many things, such as Ji Shaolei’s body coordination and the explosive power he showed in that moment, all far beyond ordinary people, even better than some excellent special forces soldiers.

“Who did you learn kung fu from?!” Xiang Yongzhan asked in amazement.

Ji Shaolei laughed: “How about that, did it surprise you?!”

“It’s still a bit of progress, but whether it surprised me or not, that’s not important, wait until you can defeat Yu Rou when you can be proud of yourself!” Xiang Yongzhan hummed.

The smile on Ji Shaolei’s face instantly disappeared as he glanced at Xiang Yurou who was pursing her lips and smiling lightly, and said, “Soon, very soon!”

“Virtue!” Xiang Yurou couldn’t help but give Ji Shaolei a white glance and said something that was full of Yanjing accent.

“Alright, don’t dawdle here, let’s go to the guest house in front!” Xiang Yongzhan seemed to be annoyed that Ji Shaolei was flirting with his sister, and said with a big wave of his hand.

Jiangzhou southeast military district guest house, located not far from the military district gate, said the guest house, in fact, the internal decoration and service, compared to the star hotel is not bad at all, and the environment is more elegant, also not the social hotel so fickle and vain, but is a rare quiet.

The majority of people who enter and leave the guest house are wearing military uniforms, and their official positions are not low, so when Ji Feng came in, he looked a bit conspicuous.

The first thing you need to do is to get a private room and sit down.

As it was only morning, it was not yet time to eat, and several people had no intention of eating, so they each asked for a cup of tea and slowly sipped it, chatting casually for a few minutes.

Ji Shaolei put all his attention on Xiang Yurou, and from time to time, he teased her a little, making her blush slightly, before he laughed, looking so happy, not putting Xiang Yongzhan's displeased look in his eyes, as if he did not see it at all.

—Even if he had seen it, he would have pretended not to see it!

Ji Feng also just quietly sipped his tea and listened to a few people joking around, but did not interrupt. In his heart, he was secretly thinking about what Xiang Yongzhan was looking for in order to find himself.

But if Xiang Yongzhan didn't say anything, Ji Feng wouldn't take the initiative to ask.

He only watched discontentedly as Ji Shaolei and his sister flirted, but did not have the slightest intention of stopping them.

Ji Feng looked at it with a faint smile, Xiang Yongzhan was comparing his qi raising skills with him?

After the tea was changed twice, Xiang Yongzhan finally spoke up, "You're not bad, not worse than your boss, and even better than this Ji Shaolei kid!"

Ji Shaolei looked at him angrily, but Xiang Yongzhan pretended not to see it and said to himself, "He learned his kung fu from you, right?"

"Not really, I just taught him a set of gymnastics to strengthen his body, I didn't hand over kung fu!" Ji Feng laughed, "Actually, I don't know much kung fu either!"

What Ji Feng said was the truth, what he knew were just some small moves within kung fu, such as a move to control an enemy, or a move to hold someone in place, or a fatal blow, basically it was all one of such moves. He didn't know any kung fu routines, or how many moves in a row.

Xiang Yongzhan, however, laughed, "It's the same set of body-building exercises you taught Red Arrow?!"

"Eh?!" Ji Feng was stunned.

"At the last military district competition, the Red Arrow Brigade led by your little uncle was so amazing in battle that it almost didn't pick the entire military district I only found out later that it turned out to be a set of bodybuilding exercises that they had all learned, you taught them, right?" Xiang Yongzhan asked.

Ji Feng could not help but understand, no wonder Xiang Yongzhan would know, although at that time he did not strictly instruct his little uncle to keep the aerobics he taught secret, but his little uncle should have known that this was his secret weapon, and would certainly guard it closely, Xiang Yongzhan would not know it that easily.

But with the Red Arrow Brigade shining at the military competition, it was no wonder that others were paying attention.

“I’m here this time to ask you if that body-building exercise of yours can be promoted throughout the army?” Xiang Yongzhan asked bluntly.

“This Xiang Yongzhan, actually came here for the gymnastics!” Ji Feng couldn’t help but be a little surprised, he had guessed countless possibilities, but he hadn’t thought it would be because of this reason.

“It’s not impossible to promote bodybuilding gymnastics to the whole army!” Ji Feng laughed: “This is something that you can discuss with my little uncle!”

“Ji Feng, don’t play sloppy with me, I’m not talking about the set of bodybuilding exercises you taught to the Red Arrow Brigade, seeing as that set of movements is indeed useful, but it’s not what I want!” Xiang Yongzhan waved his hand and said, “What I want, is kung fu that can make people stronger quickly Don’t rush to reject it first, I know you must have it!”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but be a little surprised: “Those body building exercises still can’t meet your requirements?”

Xiang Yongzhan looked around, then lowered his voice and said, “I’m going away recently and need some helpers with strong combat power, I know you have a way to make people stronger quickly, Ji Shaolei is an example, I hope you can help me!”

Ji Feng was stunned, Xiang Yongzheng was going to go to war again?

Chapter 614

“A way to make people stronger quickly, I really don’t have one!” Ji Feng faintly shook his head, “All I know is that body building exercise, as long as I keep practicing, I will definitely get stronger, but it takes time!”

To make people strong quickly, Ji Feng really didn’t have any method, unless he used the bio-current in his body to stimulate the potential in other people’s bodies one by one, although this method was quick, but for Ji Feng, the load was quite big, and the number of people he could stimulate in a short period of time, would definitely not be many.

What’s more, if he really did this, then there would certainly be trouble in the future, and Ji Feng could not afford not to leave himself a way out.

Xiang Yongzhan’s face immediately sank as he shook his head slightly and said, “Ji Feng, this time it’s a cooperation between our brigade and Red Arrow, your little uncle’s men will also participate, I hope you won't hide your selfishness, because it's about whether my men and your little uncle's men will be able to come back alive!"

"It's not that I'm hiding something, it's that there really isn't such a method, unless it's using high technology for human transformation, but unfortunately, that kind of transformation only exists in science fiction movies" Ji Feng faintly shook his head.

"Exist in science fiction movies?" Xiang Yongzhan couldn't help but hum, "Just by that statement, I can be sure that you're not telling me the truth!"

"Cut it out!"

Xiang Yongzhan couldn't help but hum and directly interrupted Ji Feng's words, "You dare to guarantee that you are telling the truth?"

Ji Feng shrugged his shoulders, but did not speak.

"A few months ago, in front of the Taste and Fragrance House on Jiangzhou's Jinling Road, what did you see?!" Xiang Yongzhan asked, "Now you still dare to say that what you told me was the truth?!"

Ji Feng was stunned, then he shook his head slightly and said, "I know what you're talking about, but that's not something I can grasp, if you really want that kind of method, you should go to Dynasty, not come to me!"

Of course he knew what matter Xiang Yongzhan was talking about, a few months ago, he and He Hongwei had met up at the Flavor and Fragrance Residence on Jinling Road, only to suddenly see someone trying to assassinate He Hongwei just as he and Han Zhong had arrived at the entrance of the Flavor and Fragrance Residence. In that accident, Ji Feng came into contact with Dynasty's assassins for the first time, and it was also the first time he met a perverted reformer whose vertebrae were all metal!

Xiang Yongzhan had obviously done an extremely in-depth understanding of Ji Feng, which was why he was able to speak so accurately about Ji Feng's whereabouts and what he was going through.

"Ji Feng, it is because I know that this method is not in our hands that I have to come to you for help!" Xiang Yongzhan said seriously and earnestly, "Because only you, who has actually fought and taken out that kind of person, you know what their weaknesses are and even more so how they should be dealt with" An opinion and an insignificant move on your part could determine the lives of many people , do you still want to escape?"

Ji Feng couldn't help but laugh bitterly, "Xiang Gongzi, who did you hear say that I understand the other side's weaknesses? In the beginning, I was hit with a car, okay? Frankly speaking, I really don't know how to deal with those people"

Speaking here he suddenly reacted and asked in surprise, "I say, what you guys are dealing with this time, wouldn't that be"

He couldn't help but be astonished in his heart, from Xiang Yongzhan's words, Ji Feng seemed to have heard the other party's ultimate purpose, what they were going to deal with, should be the dynasty's reformers!

"Sorry, I have no comment on the target of this operation, unless you can promise to help me!" Xiang Yongzhan shook his head slightly and said in a meaningful manner.

As soon as Xiang Yongzhan said this, Ji Feng could be sure that his guess was correct.

However, he did not dare to agree to it easily.

There was a moment of silence before Ji Feng said, "It seems that I am too curious, but for your request, I am unable to do it, I am sorry!"

Xiang Yongzhan was instantly a little displeased as he said in a deep voice, "Ji Feng, do you know how many good soldiers will die just because you are hiding something?"

Ji Feng could only spread his hands helplessly, but he didn't know how to reply.

In the end, this first meeting with Xiang Yongzhan could only end in an unhappy ending, and before parting, Xiang Yongzhan said somewhat angrily, "I will stay in Jiangzhou for three more days, and I hope to see you backtrack before I leave!"

Ji Feng nodded noncommittally and shook hands with Xiang Yongzhan to say goodbye!

In the car on the way back, Ji Shaolei finally couldn't help but ask: "San'er, why did Xiang Yongzhan refuse so simply about looking for you?!"

Ji Feng was driving and could not help but glance at him when he heard that and laughed, "Does it mean that I didn't give face to your future big uncle?"

"You kid" Ji Shaolei lost his smile, he shook his head and said, "San'er, in fact, the relationship between us and the Xiang family, not too good, but not bad either, even if you refuse, at least be polite, of course, if it were me, I could simply refuse, because I don't see that boy Xiang Yongzhan well, but you are different"

As a matter of fact, Ji Feng did not completely refuse, but because Xiang Yongzhan came too suddenly, and this matter also seems to involve the little uncle, Ji Feng had to be cautious some.

He decided it would be better to ask his little uncle for advice before giving Xiang Yongzhan an answer.

Back at the villa, Ji Feng found that both Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei had also returned, and Xiao Yu was also in her room fiddling with her new gift, which was given to her by both Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei. Ji Feng gave her a laptop, which was taken from the computer chosen by Wang Xin and Yang Yu.

Both of these gifts were very much enjoyed by Ji Xiaoyu, and her little face was covered in smiles as she kept touching this and fiddling with that, so happy!

Seeing Ji Feng return, Ji Xiaoyu immediately said happily, "Third brother, I like the gifts you and second brother gave me very much, thank you!"

With that, he was about to go upstairs, but he was suddenly called by Ji Xiaoyu.

“Third brother, I still have one more thing to trouble you with!” Ji Xiaoyu said, “I have a cousin who works in Jiangzhou, I want to go and see him tomorrow, will you and sister-in-law accompany me?”

“You have a cousin in Jiangzhou? How come I haven’t heard you mention it before?” Ji Feng was surprised and asked, Xiao Yu had come to Jiangzhou before, but she had never mentioned that she had a cousin either.

“He’s a graduate this year, and only came to Jiangzhou for his internship after the Spring Festival!” Ji Xiaoyu said.

Only then did it dawn on Ji Feng and he couldn’t help but ask with a smile, “So that’s it, where is he working?!”

“At the Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory, working as a salesman ……” Ji Xiaoyu said.

“Where?!” Ji Feng was stunned.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but be amazed, Xiao Yu’s cousin was working in his own pharmaceutical factory?

“That can’t be right?” Ji Feng frowned and asked, “Although I don’t know every employee in the pharmaceutical factory, but there aren’t any new recruits in the factory recently, it’s all those old employees from before …… What’s his name?!”

“Liang Chunhui.” Ji Xiaoyu said, “He is my uncle’s child.”

“There shouldn’t be this person in the pharmaceutical factory,……,” Ji Feng frowned slightly, although he didn’t ask too much about the specific details of the pharmaceutical factory, he still once took the time to browse through the employee list, and there was no such person as Liang Chunhui. Moreover, apart from the security and research staff, there had been no new recruits to the pharmaceutical factory recently, and it was impossible to add new people.

“Where is the address where he works?” Ji Feng asked.

“It seems to be on Donghai Road!” Ji Xiaoyu was a little less sure, she took out her phone and said, “He sent me a message, I’ll look for it!”

“Donghai Road Industrial Park, right?” Ji Feng suddenly said.

“Yes, yes, it seems to be there, Third Brother, I’m not wrong, right?!” Ji Xiaoyu asked.

Ji Feng smiled and nodded, saying, “That’s right, it’s there.”

He finally understood why he didn’t know this person, Liang Chunhui, the new factory building of the pharmaceutical factory, was located in the Donghai Road Industrial Park, and the new staff dormitory building was also there, now that the construction of the pharmaceutical factory had gradually reached its end, there were indeed quite a few employees there as well.

The only thing is that the sales staff there are only responsible for conducting business with He Hongwei's Tianyao Group. Although the pharmaceutical plant has not yet started precisely to put the new drugs into production, but the preliminary preparatory work still has to be done, those sales staff are responsible for negotiating and coordinating between the transit station and the Tianyao Group, I think, Liang Chunhui is doing this job.

"Third Brother, can you accompany me tomorrow?" Ji Xiaoyu asked expectantly.

Ji Feng gave her a thoughtful look, nodded with a smile and said, "No problem, I'll accompany you tomorrow!"

"Thank you, Third Brother!" Ji Xiaoyu immediately smiled cheerfully and said happily.

But Ji Feng had another thought in mind, Xiao Yu was so looking forward to having him accompany her, was it just as simple as visiting her cousin?

He shook his head slightly, Ji Feng no longer thought about it, no matter what was going on, when he saw Liang Chunhui tomorrow, he would naturally understand, what he had to think about now was Xiang Yongzhan's request.

Saying hello to Ji Xiaoyu, Ji Feng quickly went upstairs and dialed his little uncle's phone number.

"Little Feng, Xiang Yongzhan went to look for you today, right?" Just after picking up the phone, Ji Zhenping asked with a smile.

Ji Feng couldn't help but be stunned: "Little Uncle, since you knew, why didn't you inform me in advance, so that I could also be psychologically prepared ah, how embarrassing now"

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

"Then what if I do something wrong?" Ji Feng had not forgotten that last time in Hangzhou, he had misunderstood his father's meaning, and as a result, he had missed a great opportunity.

"How can a person not make mistakes? It's good to be able to learn things in the process of making mistakes and grow up!" Ji Zhenping laughed.

Chapter 615

Ji Feng couldn't help but smile bitterly, his father and younger uncle actually left such a big matter up to himself and didn't ask anything, wasn't this a bit too childish?

However, Ji Feng could also tell that his father had no small expectations for himself, and should be extremely eager for him to grow up quickly.

"Alright!" Ji Feng nodded with a bitter smile and said, "But little uncle, if you see that I'm about to make any serious mistakes, you have to remind me in time, otherwise, in case it causes any serious consequences, it will be more than worth it."

"Your father has said that he won't give you half the help you need, nor will he remind you, otherwise it would be hard for you to grow up!" Ji Zhenping said smilingly, but to Ji Feng's ears, it sounded more like gloating, did little uncle want to see himself down on his luck that much?

“That can be” Ji Feng was just about to speak when he heard a busy tone coming from the phone, he couldn't help but look at the phone in dismay, he hung up the phone already?

“Is there any sense of responsibility?!” Ji Feng gritted his teeth and said, ruthlessly going downstairs.

That night, Ji Feng went back to his bedroom and slept alone.

He didn't know how much he wanted to sleep with Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei, but after thinking about it left and right, he gave up on this plan. After all, with Xiao Yu in the house, he, as an older brother, could not be shameless in doing such a thing, as it would not be good to bring the children down.

In fact, it was Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei who couldn't pull it off and warned Ji Feng with their eyes during dinner, so that even if he wanted to go to the two girls' bedroom, he could only grit his teeth and hold back.

Lying alone on the bed, Ji Feng pondered how he should reply to Xiang Yongzhan, and then his consciousness entered his mind and began training once again.

The next morning, Ji Feng habitually woke up early, but did not rush out of his bedroom.

He opened the bedroom window and looked out at the lush trees, he couldn't help but take a deep breath.

The morning air should be the freshest of the day, even if Ji Feng, who is extremely tolerant of the environment, couldn't help but feel his spirit shake after breathing in this fresh air, as if his body was full of strength.

Although Ji Feng's physical quality far exceeded that of ordinary people, he was still a body of flesh and blood after all, and was not one of those gods or demons and monsters who did not eat fire and smoke, so fresh air was equally important to him.

“The development of technology has made the metropolis prosperous, but it has also deprived people of the right and opportunity to enjoy nature whenever and wherever they want!” Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head slightly, seemingly with feeling, “In the future, if I have the chance, I must find a secluded place to live for a while”

“Whew-!” Ji Feng let out a long breath, tidied up his clothes a few times, turned around and left the bedroom.

Xiao Yuxuan three people had not yet got up, so Ji Feng simply went out and bought breakfast, and woke up the three women, and finished eating breakfast together.

Afterwards, Ji Feng drove Xiao Yu to the industrial park on Donghai Road, while Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei stayed at home, they had their own fun and didn't feel bored just because Ji Feng wasn't there.

Especially Tong Lei, with her personality, she could even hold a book with a cup of hot tea next to her and stay quietly on the sofa for the whole morning.

Xiao Yuxuan, on the other hand, used this free time to prepare her lessons for the new term. In terms of teaching, although she was not an extremely good teacher, she was very responsible and never fooled her students haphazardly.

Ji Feng drove his car, speeding along the sparse road in the early morning.

There was still a long drive from the villa to the industrial park, and Ji Feng used this time to chat idly with Xiao Yu.

“Xiao Yu, you want me to go along to the Donghai Road Industrial Park, you’re not just going to see your cousin, are you? Is there anything else going on?” Ji Feng asked with a smile that pretended to be unintentional.

Ji Xiaoyu spat out her tongue a little embarrassed and said, “Third brother, it’s actually because cousin is being bullied in your factory, so I want you to go and take a look, to cheer cousin up and not let those bad guys bully cousin!”

“Oh?!” Ji Feng couldn’t help but be amused, “What are the people in the factory bullying him for?!”

“I don’t know, it’s just that when I was talking to my cousin, I felt that he seemed a bit unhappy doing his job in your factory!” Ji Xiaoyu couldn’t help but wrinkle her nose, seemingly holding out for her cousin, “Third brother, the people in your factory are too bad, you have to protect my cousin oh!”

Ji Feng instantly laughed, “Xiao Yu, that’s not true.”

“Ah?!” Ji Xiaoyu immediately panicked a little, “Third brother, did I say something wrong?”

“Yes!”

Ji Feng nodded and replied with a smile, “You shouldn’t say that you want me to protect your cousin, instead you should say that if your cousin is being bullied, then we will clean up the other party, if it’s your cousin who is bullying people, then we have to see who the other party really is and if they are qualified enough to be bullied by your cousin, Xiao Yu’s cousin, how can you not have some pie in the face?!”

“Third brother, this” Ji Xiaoyu was all a bit stunned, this is too arrogant of a statement from third brother, right?

Ji Feng, however, laughed: “What did I tell you before, have you forgotten again?”

“Haven’t forgotten, Third Brother said that he wanted me to be strong!” Ji Xiaoyu immediately nodded and said, she smiled cheekily, “Third brother, but I can’t learn oh!”

Ji Feng hummed, “If you can’t learn, in the future, if your cousin is bullied again, there will be no one to help him, do you want the people around you to be bullied?”

Ji Xiaoyu’s character was too soft, much like her sister Li Yantong, Ji Feng could only think of ways to make them strong, and using people around them to stimulate them was undoubtedly the best way to do so.

“I will protect them!” Ji Xiaoyu immediately said, “Third brother, I understand what you mean!”

Ji Feng smiled faintly, he naturally knew that Xiao Yu was only shouting a couple of slogans when she said this, she really wanted to be strong and needed a process, which could not be forced, so Ji Feng did not say more and just concentrated on driving.

When the two arrived at the industrial park, it was almost nine o'clock and the construction workers had already started work.

Ji Feng and the two of them did not go in, but asked Xiao Yu to call her cousin Liang Chunhui to ask him out, and the place was set at a hotel near the construction site.

Ten minutes later, Ji Feng met Xiao Yu's cousin, a young man named Liang Chunhui.

Liang Chunhui looked svelte and seemed a bit shy when he smiled. When he shook hands with Ji Feng, he was more or less restrained, after all, people who knew Ji Feng's identity had to be well deliberate.

Only, the only thing that made Ji Feng and Ji Xiaoyu feel stunned was that on Liang Chunhui's cheekbones, there were actually some bruises, and the circles under his eyes were also a bit dark.

"Cousin, what's wrong with you?" Ji Xiaoyu asked with concern.

Liang Chunhui smiled and said, "Nothing, I just ran into a few hooligans and I got rid of them!"

Ji Feng was stunned, a few hooligans were dispatched by him?

This Liang Chunhui didn't look very strong, wearing a shirt and trousers, dressed in a svelte manner, how could he fight a few hooligans?

Not to mention the hooligans who often fought, even just a few ordinary people did not look like something Liang Chunhui could handle.

"You're good at fighting?" Ji Feng asked with a smile.

"Not really, when I was in high school, I didn't want to be a good student, I also fought a few times!" Liang Chunhui smiled and said.

"I really didn't see that you were still quite ruthless in fights!" Ji Feng laughed, gestured for Liang Chunhui to sit down and asked, "Tell me, what happened? As far as I know, there shouldn't be any hooligans around this construction site, were you beaten up when you were out running business?"

In the past few months, Ji Feng would come to the construction site almost every few days, and he had gone all around the area, but he did not find any hooligans, as some of the factories nearby were under strict military management, and normally employees had to apply for permission to go out, while this place was remote and had little oil and water, so it was unlikely that hooligans would come here.

Liang Chunhui, however, shook his head slightly and said, "It was in this neighborhood that I was beaten up. That day, by coincidence, just after work, I met some hooligans who asked me for money, and I didn't give it!"

"Is it really the little hooligans beaten?!" Ji Feng frowned and asked, if that was the case, then the law and order here was something worth noting, if even the safety of the employees could not be guaranteed, who would dare to work here?

“The ones who beat me up were indeed a few hooligans, but who the main messenger was, I’m not sure.” Liang Chunhui said with a big smile.

Ji Feng frowned at him and said, “Chunhui, since you’re Xiao Yu’s cousin, then we’re family, so if you have anything to say, you can just say it, there’s no need to beat around the bush!”

Liang Chunhui laughed, “Then, I’ll say it straight

The first thing that happened was that before he could finish his sentence, he suddenly heard a voice from not far away that was so coy that it made people feel greasy: “Yo~~~! Chun Hui, how dare you come to the hotel to chat with your friends during working hours, aren’t you afraid that Manager Wang will give you small shoes to wear again? The lesson from the beating you took the other day wasn’t enough, huh?!”

Ji Feng and Ji Xiaoyu immediately turned their heads to look, and saw a wonderful woman at the door, twisting her waist and walking in. This woman was wearing the professional clothes of the Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory, but the collar was deliberately under-buttoned by one button, and the white piece of her chest was exposed, looking very sexy.

But in Ji Feng’s eyes, this woman was a bit of a show-off. The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Liang Chunhui smiled, but just smiled blandly: “I walk upright and sit upright, I’m not afraid of who comes!”

“Handsome man

That wonderful girl walked in style and came to Ji Feng’s table, her small hand patted on Liang Chunhui’s shoulder and smiled delicately, “You are walking uprightly, but someone else is different oh! Working under someone, you are all scrambled, but the biggest obstacle to your rise!”

Liang Chunhui laughed, but stopped talking.

However, Ji Feng frowned, looked at the beautiful girl and asked, “This beauty, listening to you, this Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory, seems to be a place where dirt is hidden! The someone you just said, are you talking about that so-called Manager Wang?!”

Chapter 616

Ji Feng, however, frowned and looked at that wonderful girl and asked, “This beauty, from what you’re saying, this Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory, seems to be a place where dirt is hidden! The someone you just said, do you mean that so-called Manager Wang?!”

The girl gave Ji Feng a somewhat wary glance, then looked at Liang Chunhui and asked with a smile, “Chunhui, are they all your friends?”

Liang Chunhui nodded and said, “This is my cousin

“Then they are your own people” The wonderful girl giggled and said, “You two don’t mind, I am actually Chunhui’s colleague, Xu Yuan. Just now, I was just joking with you two, I didn’t have any other intentions, I hope you don’t mind!”

“That I can indeed see!” Ji Feng smiled and nodded, others might not notice, but Ji Feng was sharp-eyed, the observation training he received in the super agent training system all year round allowed Ji Feng to see at a glance that although this woman looked a bit flirtatious on the surface, yet she would not make people feel disgusted, at most he would just think that this woman was more open.

But in fact, Ji Feng can see that this woman’s display of debauchery is more of a disguise to hide her true character, or rather, to hide her inner weakness and conservatism

–The actual character of the woman is not known.

After all, this is only the first meeting between the two, Ji Feng even if he can observe the environment and people, how sharp his vision is, but it can’t be like an x-ray, directly see through people!

“Since we ran into each other, let’s sit down and have a drink together!” Liang Chunhui laughed, seeing that he was very familiar with this female colleague Xu Yuan.

Xu Yuan was a bit hesitant: “We won’t disturb you, right?”

Just now, she was a bit far away, so she didn’t pay attention to it, but when she got closer, Xu Yuan’s heart thudded.

Other things were fine, but the two young men and women sitting opposite Liang Chunhui, especially the young man, gave people a feeling of admiration at first glance!

This young man’s body was not wearing any too expensive clothes, it seemed to be a few hundred dollars a set of big road goods in ordinary shops, of course, only a slightly higher grade than the ground stall goods, which in Jiangzhou, almost any white-collar workers can afford to wear, there is nothing special.

But the watch that this young man wore on his wrist still made Xu Yuan stagger, Vacheron Constantin, although it was a lower-middle grade product in Vacheron Constantin, but even so, it would cost 20,000 to 30,000 to buy one.

Of course, these were not the most important things, a few tens of thousands of dollars for a watch, some random people who could be slightly called successful people could buy it, and they all liked to wear it to put on a facade.

But this young man in front of him was obviously not like that!

And most importantly, this young man had an aura that others did not have! Xu Yuan was used to working in sales and had seen many people, but she had never seen a person like this young man in front of her.

She had never seen anyone like this young man in front of her before. He just sat there and had an aura that made people feel restrained.

The other party is some kind of big shot?

If Liang Chunhui's relative was really a big shot, how come he was still working as a small salesman at the Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory? And he had to be bullied every day? Being picked on for no reason?

Xu Yuan couldn't help but look at Ji Feng and Ji Xiaoyu a few more times, her heart secretly wondering, a little confused as to who these two people really were!

Ji Feng, however, waited for her to sit down and asked with a smile, "Miss Xu, right, I'm interested in what you said just now. And the working environment of this pharmaceutical factory is also bad? There are some leaders inside who are bad?"

"You said this ah" Xu Yuan pointed to the bruises on Liang Chunhui's face, bristled and said, "You guys just look at his face and you'll know!"

Ji Feng didn't move and asked, "How does that sound?"

"Chunhui, then I can say it!" Xu Yuan turned her head to seek Liang Chunhui's opinion.

"Is there anything else you can't say?" Ji Feng asked with a smile, "We just came to see how Chunhui is working here, so if you have anything to say, just say it!"

Xu Yuan then nodded and said, "Our Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory is in cooperation with the Tianyao Group, you know that, right? Chun Hui and I, along with a few other colleagues from the sales department, are responsible for communicating with the people from the Tianyao Group, making sales plans in advance, doing sales planning and such, and above us, there is a minister and a manager, the minister is mainly responsible for discussing things with the top management of the factory, while the manager is leading us to work."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, he was aware of this, and it was also the result of discussions with Han Zhong.

"But then, our manager is a bit unethical, he promotes himself to please his mistress not to mention, and he seems to have some foul play in his work, which Chunhui noticed, and this is the result!" Xu Yuan pointed at Liang Chunhui's face.

"Cousin, it wasn't the little rascal who hit you? It was your manager?!" Ji Xiaoyu exclaimed in shock and anger, "How abominable!"

"It's true that it was the little rascals who beat him up, but we all know who found these people!" Xu Yuan said.

"How can your manager do this!" Ji Xiaoyu said angrily as she turned her head to look at Ji Feng, "Third brother, don't you even care about it?"

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said in a deep voice, "It's time to take care of it!"

"Don't you guys mess around!" Xu Yuan reminded at once, "If Chunhui still wants to continue doing business here, then you guys better not cause any trouble, Manager Wang has been doing sales in Jiangzhou for many years, he knows people in both black and white, when he makes some tactics against Chunhui again, you guys can only be dry and angry!"

"Really powerful" Ji Feng sneered twice, "A manager of the sales department, to be able to do this, that is really no one before!"

“Actually, the planning book made by Manager Wang is very good, but there is something wrong with the sales plan he made!” Liang Chunhui suddenly spoke up, “He set the reporting rate too high, I have investigated the reporting rate of general pharmaceutical factories, it is far lower than the rate set by Manager Wang!”

“How high is it?!” Ji Feng asked in a deep voice.

“The report loss rate set by Manager Wang is twice as high compared to other manufacturers!” Liang Chunhui said.

“Oh” Ji Feng couldn’t help but snicker, “It’s really a cub defeated master field without heartache!”

The so-called report loss, refers to the product from the factory to the terminal between this transport, storage, and the process of packaging again, the product damage, or has a defect, then as a residual product, centralized destruction or re-recycling.

As the name suggests, the damage rate is the proportion of damaged products to the total number of products.

In this way, Liang Chunhui meant that the so-called manager Wang had set the damage rate too high, for example, if other pharmaceutical companies allowed five damaged pills out of a hundred, the damage rate would be one twentieth. But the damage rate set by the so-called manager Wang could be one tenth or even higher!

That means that the pharmaceutical factory would have lost twice as much product!

“Besides, the director of the pharmaceutical factory’s salvage recycling department seems to be a brother-in-law with Manager Wang!” Liang Chunhui added.

“Is this the reason he beat you up?!” Ji Feng asked with a frown.

“I guess it’s because I sent the right plan to him, so he did that!” Liang Chunhui gave a self-deprecating smile.

“Even if he made a plan, what can he do? Is he so sure that he can get his plan passed at the top of the pharmaceutical factory?!” Ji Feng asked with a frown.

“It should be possible, after all, he is also an old salesman, he surely knows how to skim off the trouble, he can more or less make up for some of the losses in other areas, such as on the commission of the sales staff, or a slight reduction in the rebate rate, what’s more, what he has quoted is only the upper limit of the damage rate, there are also quite a few companies that have a higher reported damage rate than what he has set, if he wants to pass it It should not be a big problem!” Liang Chunhui analysed it clearly to Ji Feng.

Ji Feng nodded, now he finally understood the purpose of Xiao Yu asking himself to come.

Of course, Xiao Yu might not know the exact details of this matter, but she knew that her cousin Liang Chunhui had been aggrieved, and even Ji Feng was guessing that it was likely that Liang Chunhui had deliberately asked Xiao Yu to bring himself here, otherwise, there were very few cousins who would complain to their cousin when they were aggrieved!

Regarding Liang Chunhui's approach, Ji Feng could also understand it very well.

As relatives, even if they were distant relatives who had turned a corner, yet they were still related, it was not good for Liang Chunhui to say anything bad about the employees of the pharmaceutical factory in front of himself, that might leave an impression that he was fiddling with right and wrong. Therefore, this is why Liang Chunhui let Xiao Yu begged himself to come along, so that he could see for himself and naturally understand everything.

"It seems that this manager of yours, Wang, is not only bold, he is also not small in ability!" Ji Feng laughed.

"Third brother, why are you still laughing! Didn't you even hear what cousin said? That manager Wang is an asshole in the factory, you're just going to laugh and be done with it like that, huh?!" Ji Xiaoyu said with a beak, she was also upset that her cousin had been aggrieved.

Ji Feng shook his head slightly and was just about to speak when he suddenly heard Xu Yuan say, "Shh – the fox spirit is here!"

A fox spirit?

Ji Feng couldn't help but be slightly stunned, and he immediately turned his head to look over as if nothing had happened, but he saw a young woman dressed in a sultry outfit, swaying her body and entering through the hotel's front door.

This woman was about twenty years old and her face was heavily made up, so it was impossible to tell her exact age.

"This woman, named Xie Pingping, she is Manager Wang's concubine and is now the leader of this sales team of ours!" Xu Yuan pretended to drink tea as if nothing was wrong, and said in a low voice: "By the way, she has only been in the factory for three months! Don't know anything about sales"

Chapter 617

Hearing Xu Yuan's half-reminder, half-hate words, Ji Feng immediately frowned even more.

A person who had never done sales before, came in just a few months, and actually became the leader of the sales team?

In the past, when some whore became a judge, Ji Feng already felt speechless enough, but he didn't think that in his own factory, this kind of situation had actually appeared!

Personal connections, going through the back door, such things are endless and rare in the land of China. Ji Feng also never thought that he would have to make his own pharmaceutical factory incomparably clear, because that was absolutely impossible. In China, where there are people, there is a network of connections, and there will be things like giving the green light to go through the back door.

If everyone is forcibly made to have no autonomy, then the staff will become dead and dull, without a bit of enterprise and vitality, which is not the result Ji Feng wants to see. He definitely does not want his pharmaceutical factory to become a deadly factory!

However, no matter how you go through the back door and find connections, you always have to rely on something, right?

A sultry woman who had never been in contact with sales, just by having an ambiguous relationship with the sales manager, actually became the leader of the sales team?

Who can she lead?

From the leader of this sales team, to the sales manager, to the director of the salvage recycling department, this was like forming an industrial chain!

In fact, as soon as Liang Chunhui had explained the relationship between these people earlier, Ji Feng immediately understood that firstly, the sales department manager Wang promoted the woman who had an ambiguous relationship with him but knew nothing about sales to be the head of the sales team, and then he raised the rate of reporting losses so that the pharmaceutical factory would lose twice as much product.

And how many of these so-called defective products are qualified products but are said to be defective, or are good products that have been deliberately damaged during the sales, transport and storage process, and then become defective.

The next destination for these defective products is naturally the recycling department managed by Manager Wang's brother-in-law!

As to whether they really recycled them, destroyed them, or sold them by some means, that would need to be puzzled over.

Ji Feng could even imagine how hot the sales would be at that time with the magical functions of the special effects current!

Once the product starts to be produced, the outside market will definitely try to get the special effects current by all means, and if they don't take the exclusive and agency rights of this drug, then they will at least get the retail rights, in which case, the price will definitely go all the way up by then.

How much would a twice as high rate of reporting losses cost the pharmaceutical company?

This is a question that even if you think on your heels, you can figure it out!

Together with his brother-in-law, the director of the salvage recycling department, the two of them would probably gobble up the extra loss rate in one gulp!

They weren't afraid that their appetites would be too big and they would die!

Ji Feng couldn't help but sneer in his heart, he really had a big appetite!

Without a trace, Ji Feng took a deep breath and calmed down again, without moving a muscle, he glanced at the sultry woman coming from the doorway, and a dusty aura came over him. How he looked at it, he felt that this woman should not appear in the pharmaceutical factory, but in a hair salon on the street, or a massage parlour, a foot washing city or a big bath or something like that.

Judging from this woman's dress and temperament, it would be a great loss to the world of sex and the moon if she didn't go to those places!

Of course, Ji Feng also knew very well that many salespeople, especially female salespeople, would dress up slightly hotter in order to close deals and to be able to make business, their bodies and beauty were also a kind of capital.

In this helpless society, one can only use such helpless methods and strive to make achievements so that one is no longer so helpless!

For example, Xu Yuan across the street looks like this, dressed up in a hot way, but not much of a windbag herself, such a woman, on the contrary, is more admirable.

A woman who wants to succeed always has to sacrifice more than a man.

Either she has to work harder than most men or even dozens of times harder than men, or she has to expose her skin several times or even dozens of times more than men!

But the woman at the door was a bit overdressed, the short skirt was comparable to a super short skirt, Ji Feng doubted she could bend over!

And regardless of whether Liang Chunhui and Xu Yuan's words were true or not, just seeing this woman's dress alone made Ji Feng draw a cross in his heart! The temple of the pharmaceutical factory was too small to accommodate such a big Buddha!

"Slutty fox!"

Xu Yuan couldn't help but secretly cursed in a low voice, obviously displeased with this woman and couldn't stand the sight of her.

Ji Feng instantly laughed, this was really an appropriate remark.

At this time, that Xie Pingping also saw Ji Feng's table, she instantly raised her eyebrows, twisted her waist and walked over quickly, those high heels walked on the floor, emitting a snapping and harsh sound.

"Liang Chunhui, Xu Yuan!" Xie Pingping's sharp voice came before she came to the front, "Do you two still have me as your team leader in your eyes? The company has a clear rule that if you don't have normal business dealings during work, you are not allowed to go out to hotels and other service places, you are blatantly violating the company's rules!"

Liang Chunhui smiled lightly and said, "Sorry, it is indeed my fault, I will pay the fine according to the company's rules! I will also write a pledge"

"Just pay the fine and write an undertaking and that's it? Xie Pingping sneered, "People like you who don't take the company rules seriously, I'm going to fire you!"

"They signed a labour contract with the company, who are you to fire them?!" Ji Feng asked with a frown.

The labour contract signed between the pharmaceutical factory and these newly recruited employees was slightly different from the contracts of those old employees that he had taken over from Yang De Zhaoge before, but Ji Feng had learned his lesson and after consulting his lawyer, he discussed with Han Zhong and worked out a labour contract for the employees that was very liberal.

In this contract, the most important clause is the concept of 'reward is proportional to effort'.

As long as this can be guaranteed, the company will do everything possible to protect the interests of the employees and will not easily terminate the labour contract with them.

After a trial period of this contract, Ji Feng found that the effect was quite good, so it has continued until now.

Of course, the company can also forcibly terminate the contract with the employee, but in the month when the employee leaves the job, he can get three times the salary!

But this right to cancel the contract is in the personnel department, and there are not many employees yet, only a few dozen, so every time an employee is recruited or fired, the signature of the general manager, Han Zhong, is required!

This is what made Ji Feng feel the most ridiculous, this demonic woman Xie Pingping, came here without saying a word, actually threatened to fire Liang Chunhui and Xu Yuan, this is simply a big joke! Ji Feng couldn't help but secretly sneer, was this woman going to fire herself too?!

"Who are you again!?" Xie Pingping unhappily glared at Ji Feng, "I'm talking to my men, you have no part here, you'd better not interfere!"

Liang Chunhui gave Xie Pingping an incomparably stunned look, his heart filled with sympathy. This woman who didn't know the sky was high, did she know who she was talking to?

But on second thought, Liang Chunhui was relieved.

Anyway, no matter if this Xie Pingping came here to scream or not, Ji Feng would definitely rectify the pharmaceutical factory. Maybe this time she came and screamed a few words without knowing whether to live or die, but it only made Ji Feng more determined.

Ji Feng was exasperated, her men?

He took a deep breath and asked in a deep voice: "They are your men? Then do you know who I am?"

"What do I care who you are? Don't be a wolf in front of me, I've seen a lot of people like you, don't make yourself uncomfortable!" Xie Pingping disdainfully brushed her mouth, looking at Ji Feng's stunned expression, she hummed, not taking Ji Feng seriously at all.

Ji Feng's elbow was propped up on the tabletop, his right hand couldn't help but rub his forehead, how could there be such an extreme in his own factory!

"You two, go back to the factory immediately, if you still want to keep some face, write your own resignation and get out, otherwise, I will publicly dismiss you from the factory, by then, not to mention face, you won't even have any face!" Xie Pingping looked at Liang Chunhui and Xu Yuan with a high and mighty look, a high and mighty look, and said in a commanding manner.

“Bang!”

Before either Liang Chunhui or Ji Feng could say anything, Xu Yuan slapped the table violently, her face was gloomy as she asked in a cold voice, “Xie Pingping, we treat you as the team leader, you’d better not stick your nose in the air. Let me tell you, our contract is with Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory, not to mention you, even your concubine, Manager Wang, has no right to fire us! You don’t need to bite the old mother left and right here, a *, you are qualified to be anyone’s mother?!”

“You, you” Xie Pingping’s face turned blue with anger, pointing at Xu Yuan, her lips trembling with anger, unable to utter a word.

“You what you!”

Xu Yuan looked at Xie Pingping and asked with a sneer, “You still have the face to say that employees can’t come and go from the hotel at will without business, what have you come here for?! You’re not acting right and sitting straight yourself, and you still have the face to talk about us?!”

“You, you, you are reckless!”

Xie Pingping’s body was shaking with anger and she screamed, “Fine, you guys are against it, aren’t you? Fine! Fine! If I don’t expel you all, I’ll write the word Xie Pingping upside down!”

Chapter 618

Hearing Xie Pingping’s shouting and screaming, Liang Chunhui and Xu Yuan simply turned their heads away and stopped paying attention to this woman, she was simply unbelievable!

This Xie Pingping was just a small sales team leader, how dare she call for the dismissal of others?

Not to mention her, even the sales manager Wang, who had an ambiguous relationship with her, didn’t have the right to casually fire an employee, right? And who was she to do so?

However, for Xu Yuan’s toughness, both Liang Chunhui and Ji Feng couldn’t help but be secretly staggered.

This woman, she really wasn’t something to be messed with, her personality and her dress were simply as hot as each other!

It was probably only her that dared to say straight out that the other party was a * in front of Xie Pingping, such hot and spicy language that Ji Feng, as a man, admitted he couldn’t say, Xu Yuan’s toughness was thus evident ah!

If that’s the case, that’s a big joke!

A *, can also come in as a team leader?

Ji Feng didn’t discriminate against anyone, nor did he doubt people’s abilities, but he would never take such people into his factory!

Although there were many so-called female PhDs and even women with quite a high level of education who had gone into that kind of service industry, such people might not lack talent, but they lacked the minimum self-respect, and Ji Feng would never want such people.

But how did this Xie Pingping get in?

Ji Xiaoyu, who was finally sitting next to Ji Feng, had been dumbfounded by now.

This kind of quarrel between women was something she had never seen before, not to mention such pungent verbal sarcasm, which she had never even heard of.

“This sister is so powerful!” Ji Xiaoyu looked at Xu Yuan with admiration, she felt that compared to Xu Yuan, she was simply one in the sky and one in the ground, if she argued with others, she would only reason with them, she wouldn’t even know how to curse them!

“You guys wait!”

Xie Pingping found that Ji Feng and the others were ignoring her at all, simply treating herself as a transparent person, and she was instantly infuriated. Especially Xu Yuan’s ‘*’ just now, it stung her deeply, her previous experience, she didn’t want anyone to mention it, but to think that Xu Yuan was bluntly sarcastic, this simply made her go crazy with anger!

“Whether we wait or not, it’s not for you to worry about, now please leave and don’t disturb us to drink tea!” Ji Feng waved his hand and said with some impatience.

“You” Xie Pingping pointed at Ji Feng, her face red with anger, even if Xu Yuan insulted her, it was not as unbearable as this humiliation of Ji Feng as if she was chasing away flies, but she could not say anything, and some of the guests in the hall were also looking over at this moment, making her have no face to make any more noise.

“Fine! You wait, Liang Chunhui, Xu Yuan, Manager Wang is upstairs, I’ll ask him to come down, then we’ll see how you can still jump around, you can just wait to be fired!” Xie Pingping snorted coldly and turned around with hatred to go upstairs.

Ji Feng frowned, looked at her back, took out his mobile phone and dialed Han Zhong’s number.

“Ji Feng, what is it?” There seemed to be someone talking at Han Zhong’s place, and the sound was more or less noisy.

“Are you in the factory now?” Ji Feng asked.

“That’s right, the workers over here got into an argument, I came to take a look!” Han Zhong complained, “You, the big boss, have become a hands-off boss, and I, a junior soldier, have to ask about everything, even such a small conflict has to run down to settle, you are squeezing the labour!”

Ji Feng laughed: “I’ll treat you to a nice meal later” Let’s not talk about that first, I’m at the hotel next to the factory, come over here first, there’s something for you to handle over here!”

“Hotel?!”

Han Zhong was stunned, then he nodded and said, “That’s fine, I’ll come over right away.”

Ji Feng had just hung up the phone when he heard an angry roar from the upper floor of the hotel, "Fuck! Who is so bold? Don't you want to live?"

This was followed by Xie Pingping's sobbing voice, occasionally whining in a way that gave people goosebumps.

A sound of footsteps came quickly, and when Ji Feng looked up, he saw a middle-aged man with a slightly obese figure and a big belly, who was walking quickly. Xie Pingping followed behind him, his eyes looking over with resentment and looking smug.

"This man is Manager Wang, Wang Zhiqian." Liang Chunhui said in a low voice.

Ji Feng couldn't help but look at him a few more times, this Wang Zhiqian was about forty or fifty years old, not quite fat-headed, but also considered a fat man, especially that big belly, the most conspicuous, Ji Feng was even wondering if this man could see his toes if he lowered his head!

However, what caught Ji Feng's attention the most was the colour of this Wang Zhiqian's face.

His face was red and his eyes even looked a little sour, so he had obviously drunk a lot of wine.

"Liang Chunhui, Xu Yuan, what are you two doing here when you have nothing to do? Don't you tell me that it was the two of you talking business between yourselves!" That fat middle-aged man, Wang Zhiqian, had just come over and immediately preempted him, looking as if he was raising an eyebrow.

"Then what are you Manager Wang doing here again?!" Liang Chunhui asked indifferently, "It's not even the beginning of the meal and you're already drunk, this doesn't look like a business talk, does it?"

There was no business at all in the pharmaceutical factory now, and they, the sales staff, were only responsible for communicating with the Tianyao Group, even if they were to eat together, they would all consciously put it into the evening, and would usually just have a simple meal at noon and forget about it.

Wang Zhiqian suddenly snorted coldly, "What am I doing, it's not your turn to take charge!"

"That's right, you're the manager, of course it's not my turn to take charge!" Liang Chunhui smiled faintly, "It was Xu Yuan and I who broke the rules today, we will follow the company's by-laws, does Manager Wang have anything else? If not, then please leave!"

"Bullshit!"

Wang Zhiqian cursed angrily, "Who are you to dare talk to me like that?"

"Manager Wang, these two people don't take you into consideration at all, I think ah, the lesson given to him last time wasn't enough!" Xie Pingping added fuel to the fire beside him.

Ji Feng's face instantly sank, the injury on Liang Chunhui's face, really Wang Zhiqian found someone to beat him up!

"You guys are really rampant!" Ji Feng couldn't help but coldly snort, "Not to mention your own misbehavior in the company, you still don't allow your staff to raise objections, who gave you such a big guts? Do you really think this company is your own?!"

“Kid, you’re looking for death!” Wang Zhiqian was infuriated by the remark and said through gritted teeth.

“Seeking death or not, you will know later, but what you have to do now is to apologize to Liang Chunhui, otherwise, you will be responsible for all the consequences!” Ji Feng said coldly, before he saw Wang Zhiqian with his own eyes, Ji Feng still had reservations, but now, he already knew that Liang Chunhui and Xu Yuan weren’t lying, this Wang Zhiqian, was really that bad!

“I apologise to them? Kid, your brain has been kicked by a donkey, right?!” As soon as Wang Zhiqian heard this, he laughed loudly, “No one in this world who can make old me apologise has been born yet! You two, get your asses back to the company right now, or else, you can just wait for your bunks to roll up and get out!”

“Slap!”

A loud slap was slapped on Wang Zhiqian’s face.

Xu Yuan withdrew her right hand, picking up a napkin in disgust and wiping it again and again as if there was some kind of dirt on it, she sneered, “If you want to call me an old man, go to your mother’s belly, don’t spew shit all over your mouth here!”

“You, you bitch, how dare you hit me?!” Wang Zhiqian looked at Xu Yuan with disbelief.

Ji Feng and the others couldn’t help but be stunned, this woman was indeed a bit too tough, hitting me whenever she said she would, she wasn’t willing to take any losses at all!

“What’s wrong with beating you? If you dare to speak uncleanly again, I’ll poke your dog’s eyes out!” Xu Yuan grabbed the spoon on the table and said in a cold voice.

Wang Zhiqian instantly let out a fierce laugh, “Good, very good! You brought this on yourself!”

He said with a fierce look on his face, “Originally, I was thinking of mentioning you, but now, just wait until you get fucked! Bastard!”

“Shut up!” Ji Feng’s face instantly sank.

“You few, I’ll remember you!” Wang Zhiqian said grimly.

“What can you do if you remember us? Are you trying to find punks to deal with us again? What else are you capable of besides this unseemly tactic?” Liang Chunhui sneered and asked, “Wang Zhiqian, you are not only greedy, but also stupid, pathetically stupid!”

Wang Zhiqian was also completely torn at this point as he laughed fiercely, “Liang Chunhui, last time was just a small lesson for you, this time, I will make you know what it feels like to have all your limbs broken! Not only you, but also several of you, watch out for me!”

“You’re going to break all our limbs?!” Ji Feng frowned and then sneered, “Then I advise you to call someone now, because after today, I might have to leave, and then it won’t be that easy for you to find me again!”

“Good! You have guts!”

Wang Zhiqian immediately sneered, "Since you're so eager to find death, then I'll make it happen for you!"

He immediately took out his phone, quickly pressed a few numbers and said loudly, "Xiao Jiu, immediately bring people over here the same industrial park that made you beat people up last time, yes yes, bring a few more people good, I'll wait for you here! "

Zap!

Wang Zhiqian hung up the phone, looked at Ji Feng and others, and sneered, "You guys just wait!"

"I really don't understand how someone like you became the sales department manager, to be stupid and rampant to this extent!" Ji Feng grunted angrily.

What he was angry about wasn't Wang Zhiqian's rampant madness, but the lack of grasp in the company regarding staff recruitment.

Chapter 619

"I really don't understand how someone like you became a sales manager, to be so stupid and rampant as this!" Ji Feng grunted angrily.

What he was angry about was not Wang Zhiqian's rampant madness, but the company's poor grasp of staff recruitment.

Wang Zhiqian actually dared to call someone right in front of everyone, and looked like he was going to go after Ji Feng and Liang Chunhui and the others, which, in Ji Feng's opinion, was a move that was beyond stupid! Either that or this Wang Zhiqian really had a big background and a big reputation, and simply did not put the law in his eyes.

You know, if he called someone in such a public place, then even if Liang Chunhui and the others had slipped on a watermelon rind, they would still suspect Wang Zhiqian and there would be witnesses who could testify for them.

Wouldn't such a move be the most foolish?

Look at those who committed crimes, how many of them did so openly and honestly? They were all sneaky and did their dirty work behind the scenes!

This was the first time Ji Feng had seen someone as stupid as Wang Zhiqian.

As for saying that Wang Zhiqian had a big background and a big source, Ji Feng didn't believe it.

Wang Zhiqian's actions only showed that he was so used to being wild and arrogant that he didn't know what his surname was!

However, the fact that such an extremely stupid person could be the manager of the pharmaceutical factory's sales department really made Ji Feng's face hot, as if he had been slapped in the face!

"It looks like this pharmaceutical factory is even more chaotic than one imagined, it's time to fix it up properly!" Ji Feng grimaced and snorted coldly. At the same time, he was secretly glad that this was fortunately discovered in advance, if the problem had been discovered only after the pharmaceutical factory had already started putting into normal operation, there was no telling how much damage it would have suffered by then!

“Just wait for your death!” Wang Zhiqian grunted in annoyance and pulled Xie Pingping down at a nearby table, grimacing as if he was waiting for his people to arrive.

Xie Pingping was even more resentful and smug as she looked at Ji Feng and the others with disgust and malice in her eyes.

“Chun Hui, you take these two relatives of yours and leave first!” Xu Yuan said in a low voice, “I’ll stay here to hold them back, otherwise, these two might do anything! Don’t implicate your relatives!”

Liang Chunhui smiled and shook his head, saying, “Don’t worry, he Wang Zhiqian can’t turn over the tables yet, what does he want to do in broad daylight? What would he dare to do? Do you really think that the police station in this industrial park is a fake?”

“You’re such a person!”

Xu Yuan couldn’t help but huff and puff, “Why are you still fighting with me here? A few days ago, you thought the same thing, saying that work-related matters had nothing to do with personal relationships and that public and private affairs should be separated, but what happened? You were still beaten up by a few punks? Wang Zhiqian is a person who cannot be treated as a normal person, he has been in Jiangzhou for so many years, his connections are extensive, black and white, we can’t afford to mess with him, but we can still avoid him!”

Liang Chunhui smiled and shook his head, but stopped talking.

Just kidding, with Ji Feng here, he still needed to hide from Wang Zhiqian? If he really rushed to escape, that would be slapping Ji Feng in the face!

But Xu Yuan didn’t know what Liang Chunhui was thinking, she was naturally anxious in her heart, but she didn’t want to leave the three of them behind and leave alone, so she had to stay, only she took out her mobile phone and said, “It’s better to call the police first, with the police here, even if they are powerful, they wouldn’t dare to do anything!”

“Hmm, that’s a good idea!” Ji Feng smiled and nodded, saying, “It’s better to leave anything to the police than for us to settle it privately!”

“I’m just afraid that the police won’t be of any use even if they come!” Xu Yuan couldn’t help but shake her head and let out a soft sigh, still dialing the police number: “Hey, I want to call the police

“Yo~~~!”

Xie Pingping’s voice, which was so whiny that it was unbearably disgusting, rang out next to her again, “What, now you know to look for the police to protect you? When you were so arrogant just now, I’m afraid you didn’t think that you would be so humiliated as to seek police protection, right?”

“No matter how humiliating we are, we’re not as humiliating as you are! !” Xu Yuan was not a weak person herself, and when she heard Xie Pingping’s sarcastic words, she immediately sneered back.

“You bullshit!”

That pungent sarcasm immediately made Xie Pingping's face turn red and she was so angry that she could barely speak.

When Xu Yuan looked at her, she couldn't help but sneer, "You're not clean yourself, how dare you talk about others? What is this if not asking for an ugly look?"

Wang Zhiqian's face turned gloomy as he gave Xu Yuan a cold glance and said, "Xu Yuan, I know you are sharp-tongued, you are the most talkative in the sales department, and usually I don't think of you as a woman, but now you have become even more aggressive! Now you want the police to protect you, don't you? Fine, this time I'll see how many cops you can call!"

He immediately picked up the phone and quickly dialed a number: "Zhang She? I am Wang Zhiqian na, huh is like this, in the industrial park this side someone called the police, one of the party is me right, she is to buddy you out to arrest me ah, huh good good , thanks a lot!"

"Bad!"

Xu Yuan immediately changed her face and lowered her voice, "This Wang Zhiqian is not a small energy, he has always called the shots around this industrial park, he and the police station chief should also be good friends, this is in trouble"

Ji Feng raised his hand, looked at his watch, then turned his head and asked, "Wang Zhiqian, let me ask you, it's only ten o'clock in the morning, what are you doing here in the hotel?!"

"Old" He was just about to curse when he suddenly saw Ji Feng's ice-cold eyes looking over, that overwhelming look that made his heart flinch and he actually couldn't say a word.

"What I came for has nothing to do with you, why should I tell you?!" Wang Zhiqian felt very humiliated by this fear of his own, and immediately roared out in anger.

"Fine then, if you don't tell me, I'll find someone to ask you!" Ji Feng snorted coldly.

"Even if the King of Heaven comes, it has nothing to do with me, it's useless for you to find anyone!" Wang Zhiqian said disdainfully.

"Who is this who speaks so wildly?!"

A voice suddenly came from outside the door with a thick sarcasm in its words, followed by Han Zhong walking in from outside with big steps, his gaze swept around the hall and immediately spotted Ji Feng and Ji Xiaoyu sitting inside.

"Which one are you singing about?" Han Zhong smiled as he walked over, "Why don't you just go to the factory and come over here for what?!"

"Han, General Manager Han!" Wang Zhiqian immediately recognized Han Zhong, his heart jolted, and his drunkenness woke up for the most part. He hurriedly stood up and ran to Han Zhong, saying somewhat apprehensively, "General Manager Han!"

Han Zhong turned his head, frowned at him and asked, "You're Wang Zhiqian, right? Why are you here so early in the morning? And drunk!"

“Mr. Han, I’m, I’m talking business with another company!” Wang Zhiqian said somewhat sheepishly.

“Is that so?”

Han Zhong instantly frowned, “Did someone from the Tianyao Group come again?”

“No, it’s not someone from the Tianyao Group, it’s another pharmaceutical company that wants to come and negotiate business cooperation with us!” Cold sweat broke out on Wang Zhiqian’s forehead.

“Nonsense!”

Han Zhong suddenly snorted coldly and said with a grim face, “This is a load of nonsense! The company has long given notice that it will not negotiate cooperation business with the outside world for the time being, and will only make contact with people from the Tianyao Group, who told you to take matters into your own hands?!”

“I ……” Wang Zhiqian was just about to explain, when his family Han Zhong waved his hand and said, “Don’t say this first, I’ll settle the score with you when we get back to the company!”

After saying that, Han Zhong came directly to Ji Feng’s table, sat down at the table, and said in a hateful voice: “These people are simply not like that, you asked me to come over, just for this matter, right?”

Ji Feng shook his head slightly and said, “It wasn’t originally because of this matter, but now it looks like there’s something really fishy about it!”

“How so?!” Han Zhong was stunned.

And at this moment, Wang Zhiqian, who was next to him, was so frightened that his face turned white, how could he have not expected that the general manager was actually so familiar with this kid, and from the tone of his voice, it seemed that this kid’s status was even higher than Han Zhong’s!

Thinking about what he had just said, Wang Zhiqian’s forehead was in a cold sweat and his legs were weak.

Equally shocked was Xu Yuan, who was sitting at the same table as Ji Feng. She couldn’t imagine that the young man sitting in front of her had actually called Han Zhong over with a single phone call, and they were still so familiar with each other!

Ji Feng, however, ignored their shock as he pointed to Xie Pingping who was not far away next to him and said, “I heard something, this woman seems to be * and knows nothing about business, yet she’s actually the leader of a team in the sales department! By the way, it’s said that she’s been in for less than three months!”

“Bastard!” Han Zhong gritted his teeth at once, his face a little ugly.

“Also, there’s something else that’s interesting, our report loss rate, it’s said, is twice as high as other pharmaceutical factories. ……” Ji Feng briefly told what Liang Chunhui had told himself, and added, “It’s said that the director of our factory’s salvage recycling department is a brother-in-law with Wang Zhiqian!”

As Ji Feng recounted, Han Zhong's face became increasingly ugly, and when he saw the bruises on Liang Chunhui's face, he couldn't help but grunt heavily.

"Wang Zhiqian!"

Han Zhong instantly roared, "Get your ass over here!"

Wang Zhiqian shuddered violently and hurried over in a panic, his face as ugly as if he had lost his mother, "Han, General Manager Han!"

"Tell me, what the hell is going on here?" Han Zhong asked in a cold voice, "Are you going to give me an explanation?"

"General Han, things are not as you think" Wang Zhiqian was just about to explain when Han Zhong interrupted him directly, "Alright, I see that you don't have the sincerity to explain either, so there's no need to defend yourself, I'll find out what's going on! What I want to ask you now is, how did this Xie Pingping get in! And, who exactly are you talking business with?!"

Swish!

Upon hearing these words, Wang Zhiqian's face instantly changed!

Chapter 620

Wang Zhiqian was not afraid that Han Zhong would ask him about his drinking during work, the big deal would be a fine or a warning according to the company's rules, that's all.

He was also not afraid of Han Zhong's investigation into Xie Pingping's affairs, it was just a case of falsification of academic qualifications, what was there to it? In which company is there no one going in through the back door?

However, what Wang Zhiqian fears most is that Han Zhong will ask him who he is drinking with and why! More importantly, what he had done in the process of drinking!

These were the questions that Wang Zhiqian was most worried about.

Because only he knew what he had done in the process of drinking, and he also knew what the consequences of his actions would be!

"What, can't you answer?" Han Zhong asked, frowning.

"He wouldn't be using his position to deceive those who came to talk about cooperation, would he?" Ji Feng asked somewhat hesitantly, this kind of thing, he had personally experienced it before, when Xiao Changhe went to Hangzhou, wasn't he cheated by a so-called sales manager of Yuantai Group!

So once Ji Feng saw this Wang Zhiqian's difficult look, plus he already knew Wang Zhiqian's position in the factory, Ji Feng thought of this possibility at first.

Wang Zhiqian's face suddenly changed and he said in a panic, "No, how could I possibly do such a thing? Absolutely not!"

Han Zhong's face stayed gloomy as he coldly snorted, "It's not up to you to say exactly whether or not! The person you had dinner with is still upstairs, right?"

Ji Feng said indifferently, "Han Zhong, I'll wait here, you go upstairs and invite someone, have the waiter take you to make your identity clear to the other party, if they are really deceived, they will definitely cooperate with you!"

Wang Zhiqian's face instantly changed dramatically, he simply wanted to turn around and leave, but under Ji Feng's gaze, he was unable to take a step.

"Manager Wang, this, what's wrong?" Xie Pingping, who was next to her, was terrified, as Wang Zhiqian, who was omnipotent in her eyes, had become frightened like this, how could she, a woman who knew nothing, not be afraid? Besides, the general manager had come in person, this time it might really be a big trouble.

"I'll settle the score with you when I ask for clarification!" Han Zhong grimaced and pointed at Wang Zhiqian, today's incident had really made Han Zhong lose face, and he was really annoyed beyond measure.

Although Han Zhong had complained that Ji Feng liked to be a hands-off person and didn't care about the company's affairs, in reality, he didn't know that this was Ji Feng's immense trust in him?

But what about today?

Ji Feng came once in a while, and all this happened, which made Han Zhong feel that he simply didn't know where to put his face!

Because it was not because of his own ability, but because he felt that he had failed Ji Feng's trust!

As he watched Han Zhong stride upstairs, Wang Zhiqian swallowed hard, but didn't know what to say. He just hoped that the person who came to talk about business today would be sensible, otherwise, he would really be unlucky this time!

However, just a few minutes later, Wang Zhiqian's hopes were dashed.

When Wang Zhiqian saw Han Zhong and two men walking down the stairs together, with Han Zhong's ironic face, Wang Zhiqian knew that he was in real trouble.

By this time Wang Zhiqian had long since lost any semblance of drunkenness, his mind was racing, hoping he could find some kind of solution, if he didn't try, I'm afraid going in this time wouldn't even be too much!

"How's that?!" Ji Feng asked.

Han Zhong grunted coldly through clenched teeth, "This bastard, under the pretext of being able to help the other party reach a cooperation agreement with Tengfei, actually took 50,000 yuan from someone, saying it was some kind of public relations fee!"

"There's no need to say anything, call the police immediately. This kind of behavior already constitutes a crime, and it definitely won't be just this once, he must have done this before!" Ji Feng waved his hand directly and said indifferently, "In addition, immediately issue a statement to the public in the name of the Tengfei Pharmaceutical General Factory, and make it clear to others that our General Factory will not have any external business for the time being, and if they really want to talk about cooperation, they should go to the branch factory first

"I'm on it!" Han Zhong glared fiercely at Wang Zhiqian and said through clenched teeth again.

"By the way, call the security guards at the factory!" Ji Feng added.

"Call the security guards for what?!" Han Zhong couldn't help but be stunned.

"To protect our safety, of course!"

Ji Feng snorted and glanced at Wang Zhiqian, whose face was ugly as hell, and said with a wry smile, "This big manager of ours, Wang, is very powerful, a single phone call can call in quite a few punks, and, he can also stop the police station from sending out police with a single call!"

Ji Feng lifted his hand, looked at his watch and sneered, "Almost half an hour has passed and I still haven't seen a single police officer come over, look at the speed of the police dispatch, tsk, this is all a display of our big manager Wang's energy!"

Han Zhong was immediately annoyed, he looked at Wang Zhiqian coldly: "You even called the punks? You've really grown up, you really have guts!"

"Mr. Han"

Wang Zhiqian was just about to explain when he was directly interrupted by Han Zhong: "Wang Zhiqian, this time I'll really sit here and wait, I want to see just how rampant you Wang Zhiqian are!"

He was already in his middle age, while Han Zhong was still a young man in his early twenties, just a little older than his son. Now that he had been reprimanded by Han Zhong so unmercifully in front of a large audience, Wang Zhiqian's face was suddenly embarrassed.

He grunted and said with a stiff neck, "Mr. Han, even if you are the boss, you have to give others a chance to explain, right? If it really doesn't work, I won't serve you anymore, and you will receive my resignation letter this afternoon!"

After saying that, Wang Zhiqian wanted to walk out, Xie Pingping hurriedly called out, "Manager Wang, wait for me, take me with you!"

"Having done such a thing, wouldn't it be too cheap for you to just leave like that?!" Han Zhong sneered, "Wang Zhiqian, stand here honestly for me, or else, don't blame me for calling the police directly to say that you absconded in fear of crime!"

"Call the police?!"

Wang Zhiqian finally pulled down his face and sneered proudly, "Han Zhong, I give you face and call you general manager, but if I don't, you are nothing. Let me tell you, want to call the police to arrest me? You don't have that power yet!"

"I see, you really want to die!" Han Zhong said with a gloomy face, he looked at Wang Zhiqian coldly, a cold aura flashed in his eyes, he was really angry at this old rascal-like character.

Ji Feng, however, sneered, "You only know a police station chief, saying such big words, you're not afraid that the wind will blow your tongue out!"

"Big words?!"

Wang Zhiqian laughed and said proudly, "I'm not afraid to tell you that the chief of the industrial park police station and I are brothers, and the big brothers on the road around here and I are also brothers! If you want to keep the pharmaceutical factory running smoothly and safely, you'd better think twice about whether it's worth it to move me! Think about it, if a few punks come to harass the factory workers every now and then in the future, but the police are called but no one comes out, oops, that kind of scene is really troublesome oh~~!"

Ji Feng and Han Zhong looked at each other, stunned at the same time.

"This guy is out of his mind, right?" Ji Feng frowned and asked, "Where did you recruit such an extreme bastard from?"

Han Zhong laughed bitterly, "When it was time to recruit, it was a direct search for a headhunter, this bastard still has the ability and experience to work, but it didn't occur to me that the character was actually so bad!"

The duo's mockery as if no one else was around made Wang Zhiqian's face turn blue as he sneered, "Han Zhong, I advise you to consider the outcome before you speak, otherwise, there are some consequences you may not be able to afford ah!"

Ji Feng didn't have much anger in his heart now, but more pity instead. This Wang Zhiqian, up to now, hadn't even figured out the situation.

Admittedly, there were many companies and enterprises that were indeed afraid of punks coming to cause trouble, and in the vast majority of cases, if they offended some hooligans or desperadoes or the like, these enterprises would choose to spend some money to settle the matter.

Wang Zhiqian obviously took Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory as such a business, thinking that by using such threats, he could make Han Zhong succumb, or even turn a blind eye to the situation and let him continue to work in the factory.

But he hadn't thought about the fact that the Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory, not to mention its background, and the mere cooperation between it and the Tianyao Group was enough to show the strength of the Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory, and how could this be shaken by a small hooligan like him?

Between him, a rogue, and a big enterprise, even if one thought with one's heels, one could understand which side the government would actually choose!

"Perhaps, this is what is called a dog jumping to the wall in a hurry!" Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head slightly and turned his head, "Han Zhong, call the police, this time if the other side dares not to come out again, replace their chief, having such a guy who calls himself a brother to the hooligans as the chief of this industrial park police station is also a scourge, might as well kick him out earlier!"

"Okay!" Han Zhong nodded his head.

Wang Zhiqian immediately panicked, he didn't expect that Han Zhong wouldn't eat him at all, and chose to call the police directly without even paying attention to his threats, this was really troublesome.

He hurriedly changed his face and said, "Han, Mr. Han, can't we discuss it again, if you do this, it won't do us both any good!"

"Bah!"

One of the men who had followed Han Zhong down from upstairs spat and said disdainfully, "To have someone like you stay in the pharmaceutical factory is only a scourge to us pharmaceutical companies!"

"Do you hear me, that's my attitude too, do I have to repeat it?!" Han Zhong asked coldly.

"Yes! Good!"

Wang Zhiqian laughed coldly, "Since you are so desperate, then don't blame me!"

At this time, there was a sudden sound of footsteps outside the door, followed by someone shouting, "Brother Wang, Brother Wang, we're here!"
