Chapter 641

“A sound from the fault?!” Gu Chao was stunned and said, “This can’t be possible, right? How could a sound come out of the fault?”

“Sir, what did you hear?” Liu Xin asked strangely from the side, there was no other sound here except the sound of sand rolling down from time to time, how did the gentleman hear that?

Ji Feng, however, nodded seriously and said, “That’s right, I really heard a sound, right inside this fault

“How is this possible” Gu Chao found it a little hard to understand, he looked around and said, “Sir, the operation has already started now, if we go late, the pressure on the special operations brigade will be too great, do you think we should go around from both sides immediately?”

“There must be sound!” Ji Feng said firmly, “If we go around, there’s a good chance we’ll miss something because of it

Gu Chao immediately gave him a grenade, which was the most commonly used shamrock grenade in military operations nowadays, in fact, when this grenade exploded, there were extremely many bomb fragments, the killing range was not large but the killing power was not small.

Ji Feng took the grenade, took two quick steps to the fault and reached out and knocked on it.

Knock, knock!

The fault made a muffled sound, and the weathered stones on it rustled down.

Ji Feng, however, slightly turned his head sideways to avoid the dust, and was even more certain in his heart that there must be a sound in the fault, and it was also the sound of a fight, as well as

Reach out, make a fist.

“Drink!”

Bang!

A dull sound immediately rang out as stone dust splattered all over the fault, and fist-sized pieces of stone rustled and fell down.

Gu Chao and the others could only feel their feet shaking, and their hearts were instantly appalled.

How could a punch from Mister have such great power?!

Looking at Mister, it seemed that this punch was still so easy. Gu Chao and the others looked at each other and were not into shock, if this punch hit a person, what would be the scene?

Among Gu Chao and the others, some had seen with their own eyes that strike by Ji Feng half a year ago, at that time they knew that Mister was powerful, but they did not think that they still underestimated Mister's terror, his terror, and the shock in their hearts would be greater every time they saw it.

What a pervert

"Bring the explosives!" Ji Feng, however, had a brilliant light in his eyes and shouted lowly.

He threw a punch and immediately noticed that the fault was empty.

A possibility immediately came to Ji Feng's mind, inside this fault, was there something there? Having seen that secret military base on the outskirts of Yanjing, Ji Feng was quite impressed by this kind of space hidden underneath, and he guessed that there could be another underground space within this fault.

"Sir, explosives." A soldier immediately brought a small explosives pack, about the size of two adult fists.

"All back up and find a place to hide." Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

Gu Chao asked with some consternation, "First, sir, you don't think you want to blow up this fault, do you?"

"What, this explosive pack is not powerful enough to blow up this fault?" Ji Feng frowned and asked, "Then add two more"

"No, no, no"

Gu Chao subconsciously wiped a sweat and said awkwardly, "This one explosive pack is enough to blow a gap in this fault, but sir, if we detonate the explosives here, won't that alert the people of Western Xia? That won't be good for our operation."

Ji Feng laughed: "Don't worry, if we blow up this fault, we may not be able to get an unexpected harvest All back off, find a place to hide and don't get caught in the explosion."

"Yes!" When Gu Chao and the others saw that they could not persuade Ji Feng, they could only quickly scatter in all directions and hide behind a piece of weathered stone, quietly sticking their heads out and looking at the fault.

Ji Feng placed the explosive pack under the heel of the fault, while moving a stone and pressing the pack against the fault's stone wall. He also had a certain understanding of explosive packs. The greater the pressure on the explosive pack, the more powerful and destructive the blast will be.

The dynamite pack was pushed against the faulted stone wall by the boulder, revealing only the fuse extending to the outside.

Ji Feng then took out a black instrument from his body, slightly smaller than a mobile phone, which was the detonation remote switch for the explosive pack.

He quickly backed up and similarly hid behind a boulder and directly pressed the red button on the remote control switch.

Pop

The switch was pressed, but the explosive pack did not respond.

“What’s going on?!” Ji Feng immediately frowned tightly, turned his head to look in Gu Chao’s direction and shouted lowly, “What’s wrong, this remote control doesn’t work!”

Gu Chao immediately looked down at his watch and whirled and said, “Sir, there’s electromagnetic interference here!”

“Bastard!” Ji Feng instantly cursed, everything was prepared and there was actually no way to detonate it?..... What is this?

“The only way is to detonate it directly!” Ji Feng gritted his teeth, and in front of the others’ horrified gaze, he once again came to the heel of the fault, he was going to use the fuse to detonate the explosive package.

Ji Feng took a deep breath and looked back as he searched for an escape route.

Don’t ever think that the fuse of the explosive pack was as long as it was, let alone that it was lit with an open flame, in fact, it was the most primitive explosive pack.

The small explosive packet that was pressed underneath the boulder in front of Ji Feng’s eyes actually did not have a fuse, the one wire that was left on the outside was only used to jerk it out and ignite the real fuse by rubbing it inside, thus setting off the explosive packet.

This is the most direct and also the most dangerous method of detonation, because the current explosive packets are not comparable to the kind of explosives used in the past.

After determining the escape route, Ji Feng secretly pondered what the chances were of starting to escape while detonating the explosives

A grit of teeth, Ji Feng grabbed the fuse of the explosive package, he took a deep breath and yanked it violently.

In a flash, Ji Feng’s body shot up and shot backwards, and after just half a second, he rolled on the ground and hid behind a not-too-large stone block.

Boom...!

The terrifying blast shook the earth, and the shockwave swept through in just an instant!

The sky was filled with flying dust and splattering stone chips.

“Holy shit, what kind of explosive package is this, how come it’s so powerful!” Ji Feng bore the brunt of the shock, and by the way, his face changed drastically as he was shaken by the violent shockwave, and the dust in the sky instantly buried him.

Gu Chao and the others were even more shocked, the violent shockwave made them unable to stand, even if they wanted to save Ji Feng, it was impossible.

“Mister-!”

Gu Chao and the others shouted in horror, but in a flash, their voices were drowned out by the violent explosion.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

In the direction of the fault, a violent explosion suddenly rang out, the kind of terrifying explosion that was like a monster roaring, and like a great earthquake suddenly erupting, the earth trembling violently, dust flying in the sky, all the places were in chaos, only the sound of that explosion resounding continuously.

The scene was as if the whole world was falling apart, and as if it was the end of the world.

“Boom...!”

After another violent explosion, the whole world finally calmed down, but the dust flying in the sky left the whole world in a state of chaos, as if heaven and earth had not yet parted.

Gu Chao and the others were lying behind the boulders in the distance, each with their heads in the dust, staring blankly at the direction where the fault was located, their mouths open wide, their faces full of disbelief.

“This, this is the scene made by an explosive pack?!” Gu Chao was stunned beyond belief, “A dynamite pack, how can it come with a chain of explosions?”

Immediately, he suddenly remembered something and immediately shouted, “Sir! Sir!”

He seemed to get up as if he was going crazy, and stumbled and ran in the direction of where Ji Feng was amidst the dusty sky. Although the dust was so squinting that he couldn’t even open his eyes, Gu Chao didn’t care.

With his excellent sense of direction, Gu Chao arrived at the place where Ji Feng was with his senses, but he couldn’t find him, there were stone chips and dust under his feet, and even breathing was incredibly difficult.

“Sir! Sir!” Gu Chao roared nervously, “Sir, say something!”

“Cough cough” A painful coughing sound suddenly came from a place not far from Gu Chao, “Number one, I’m here!”

“Sir?!”

Gu Chao was instantly overjoyed and ran over in a panic, vaguely seeing a blurred figure standing upwards, he hurriedly grabbed Ji Feng’s arm and helped him up, “Sir, are you alright?”

“Can’t die” Ji Feng laughed bitterly, “Holy shit! I just pulled a dynamite pack, how could the explosion be so powerful Blah blah blah.”

Ji Feng kept spitting out the dust in his mouth and said with difficulty.

“Sir, what do we do now, we can’t see anything, we can’t go anywhere What about the special operations brigade there?” Gu Chao asked eagerly.

Ji Feng paused before saying, “There’s no rush, I think, we seem to have made a big gain.”

“Do you think an explosive pack, even if it’s powerful, can blow up like this?” Ji Feng spat dust from time to time while saying, “The fault I blew up before, there must be something inside, I suspect that’s the target we’re going to attack, the explosion behind it confirmed my suspicion, otherwise, there would never be such a chain of explosions Assemble the team, all put on gas masks and attack!”

“Yes!” Gu Chao said at once as if by reflex.

He didn’t care if Ji Feng’s judgment was correct, as a soldier, the first rule was – obey orders!

“All of you! Put on your gas masks and start attacking!”

Chapter 642

Eleven men, all wearing gas masks and clutching automatic rifles, either in column or side by side, went straight ahead!

The fault had been blown up and turned into a pile of dust, so when they stepped on it, they sank straight into it.

However, the further they went, the more uneven the height became, and with no visibility of the road ahead, Ji Feng finally called a halt.

“Don’t go any further!” Ji Feng shouted, “Don’t even move rashly, all lie down on the ground and be on guard.”

Swish!

Eleven people quickly formed a circle, and they all slumped outwards, their gun bolts drawn, and there was no more sound.

Ji Feng was helpless, he originally thought that this dust should be blown away quickly, because the least lacking thing on this Gobi beach was the gust of wind, even if the dust was big, it wouldn’t fly for long.

But he did not expect that the dust had never subsided, but had a tendency to get bigger and bigger, and apart from the dust, Ji Feng also smelled something else.

The smell of explosives is one of them, but in addition, there are several other very strange smells, as if it is some kind of chemicals seemingly

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

From the current situation, it was clear that there was indeed space inside the fault, and that the fault had now been blown open. Not only that, there must be something inside the fault, which caused a chain of explosions only after the explosive pack exploded.

Therefore, Ji Feng did not dare to venture forward. Under this sky full of dust, his vision was also blurred and he could not see clearly at all. In this situation, he decided to play it safe first, no one knew what was actually ahead, and if he insisted on moving forward, he might encounter some danger.

As time passed, gusts of wind kept blowing through, finally thinning out the dust in the sky and improving visibility considerably.

When Ji Feng and the others finally looked clearly at the scene in front of them, everyone, including Ji Feng, was subdued by the scene and stared blankly at the scene in front of them, not knowing what to say.

About a few dozen metres away from Ji Feng and the others, the entire ground had almost collapsed, covered with dust and stones, as if the entire ground had sunken. However, from the outline of that sinking, it was clearly visible that underneath, there were actually rooms, and there were even staircases sloping upwards inside, and there were several pieces of equipment of unknown kind whose tops were not covered by the dust, revealing that gleaming metal light.

It was literally an underground world!

In this underground world, there appeared to be three exits, distributed in the south, west and north directions, except for the east side, where there was no exit. And there, however, was the exact place where Ji Feng had put the explosive pack, the fault level!

"I Shit!" Ji Feng spat out with difficulty and couldn't help but burst out a foul mouth, "This underground space is not much better than that military base in Yanjing."

Gu Chao was also nodding dumbly and said, "This place When did such a place come into existence?"

Ji Feng couldn't help but secretly be thankful that if he didn't have superior ears and heard a commotion inside from outside the fault, and even more thankful that he made the decisive decision to blow up the fault, this time, whatever was inside was covered underneath.

"No" Ji Feng suddenly remembered something, "Xiang Yongzhan and the others, it seems that they have already attacked in Then aren't they similarly buried underneath?"

This time, trouble How did it cause a chain of explosions!

"There's movement!" A soldier suddenly shouted lowly.

Ji Feng's eyes immediately flashed, and when he looked, he saw that in one of the collapsed rooms, the thick layer of dust was arching high and low, as if something was about to come out.

"Alert!" Ji Feng immediately shouted lowly.

"Ka ka ka!" The bullets were loaded, and the warriors facing the underground world all aimed their guns at the arching earthbag.

“Yes!” Gu Chao waved his hand and a warrior immediately took a few steps forward, put his hand over his mouth and let out an odd cry, “Squeak – squeak –”

The man who had just burrowed out of the mound of earth immediately became alert, and when he turned his head, he spotted Ji Feng and the others.

“Come here!” Ji Feng shouted lowly.

The man seemed to have been stoned unconscious and his reaction was a little slow.

“Come here!” Ji Feng once again shouted lowly, “Hurry!”

The faces of the others also showed a wary look, because in that buried underground world, at the same time, there was movement in a dozen more places. No one could guarantee that what appeared in there was an enemy or not.

At this time, that person then reacted, he ran all the way, stumbled and ran over, falling several times along the way, before coming to hit Ji Feng’s heels, “Chief!”

“Get down!” Ji Feng shouted lowly, “What’s the situation?”

Gu Chao and the others were all alert and looking at the already high bulging earthbags, ready to fire at any time.

“Chief, the first captain led us in a fierce battle with the enemy, and suddenly there was an explosion, and we were all buried underneath” The soldier said.

“You’re all down there?!” Ji Feng was stunned.

“Yes, Chief!” The soldier immediately responded.

“Damn it!”

Ji Feng cursed and immediately manipulated his gun as soon as he could, aiming it at the one of the dirt bags that were rising high. At the same time, he quickly activated the bio-current in his body, acting on his eyes, but he couldn’t see clearly the scene below that.

“All on alert!” Ji Feng shouted lowly and crawled forward a few more metres. He had been affected by the violent explosion earlier, and as a result, the bio-current in his body was severely depleted, so he had to get closer to see clearly whether it was his own people or the enemy in that earthbag.

This was no joke, and if he hit the wrong person, it would be a game of death.

Ji Feng once again activated the bio-current and finally got a clear look at the people underneath the earthen bag.

However, those people were all grey-headed, so it was hard to see their faces clearly and distinguish exactly who they were.

Ji Feng, however, had already aimed at one of them, and his finger, resting on the trigger, pulled it violently.

“Bang!”

After a gunshot sound, the earthbag he was aiming at instantly collapsed and never moved again.

“Sir!”

“Chief!”

Gu Chao and the soldier who had come out of the mound of earth exclaimed in shock at the same time, the people in that mound of earth had not even come out yet, so Sir just shot randomly, what if it was one of his own people he was hitting?

“Chief, our big captain and other comrades are all inside!” The soldier who climbed out of the dirt bag exclaimed, but did not dare to come and stop Ji Feng, even though the two did not belong to the same brigade, Ji Feng was the temporary captain of the Red Arrow Brigade, which naturally meant that he was on the same level as Xiang Yongzhan, and was considered the leader of this soldier.

Ji Feng, however, his face remained unchanged, he just said indifferently, “Pay attention to the vigilance, if you find the enemy, hit the joints first and try to capture the ones that are captured!”

“Yes!” All of them answered at the same time, although they did not understand Ji Feng’s approach, but it was their natural duty to obey orders, no matter what problems they had, they had to wait until after the battle was over.

Ji Feng held his automatic rifle and aimed at one earthbag after another, his finger constantly pulling the trigger.

Bang! Bang! Bang

On this empty Gobi beach, a gunshot was so ear-splitting, but for the people buried underneath, it was a kind of death’s trumpet. Every time a gunshot sounded, an earthbag that was bulging would suddenly cave in and eventually never move again.

In fact, it was enough that the ones hiding under those earthbags that Ji Feng shot at were all enemies, or at least not companions.

With a gunshot, more and more of the earthbags caved in and there was no more movement, while the people in the other earthbags, seemingly realizing that there was danger outside, were too cautious to move around, and there was no more movement in this collapsed underground world.

Ji Feng immediately turned his head and said, “You, immediately send a signal to everyone in your brigade, tell them that it’s safe outside, and tell them to come out quickly!”

He had been buried in the mound of earth before, so naturally he knew how uncomfortable it really was to be there. In fact, being buried in a mound of earth was definitely more terrifying than drowning, because if you couldn't really hold on in the water anymore, you could still take a couple of sips of water and not die immediately.

But in that mound of dirt it was different, there was no way to breathe there, not even daring to open one's mouth, because if one opened one's mouth even slightly, one would swallow a huge amount of dirt, enough to choke one to death, and if the dust got into the respiratory tract, one could not expect to survive, one would surely die!

"Drip drip drip" The soldier followed Ji Feng's order and immediately sent out a specific signal to indicate that it was safe.

Ji Feng's gaze was locked on the collapsed down underground world, paying attention to the movements therein, ready to pull the trigger at any time.

Whew...!

"Damn!" Ji Feng instantly cursed, the other side also had this method of being able to contact everyone at the same time, and there were definitely people who weren't directly buried in the mounds of earth, they might have been blocked by some collapsed building, otherwise, they couldn't have risen up at the same time.

"Bang!"

The gun in Ji Feng's hand pulled the trigger again, and he didn't even wait for those people to emerge before he shot them directly in both shoulders, nullifying both of those people's hands.

Bang Bang Bang Bang!

The automatic rifle in Ji Feng's hand changed three magazines in a row, which stopped the movement below.

That scene was like playing a game of gopher, one by one, the dirt bags just rose up and were shot down by Ji Feng, clean as a whistle.

And at this time, Gu Chao and the others, as well as the soldier who had just come out, had long been horrified, Ji Feng was trying to kill everyone!

"Chief"

"Execute the order!" Ji Feng coldly shouted, immediately interrupted the words of the soldier next to him, and pulled the trigger again, "Bang!"

Chapter 643

When Ji Feng finally finished the clip in his hand, Gu Chao and the others were already in a cold sweat, looking nervously and expectantly at the dust-buried underground world.

In the eyes of the others, this approach of Ji Feng was a complete killing of a thousand enemies and a loss of eight hundred, because all these people were buried by the dust, and no one dared to confirm that underneath that dirt bag were their own people and which one was the enemy.

However, Ji Feng shot straight away.

“Does it mean that Sir is taking revenge on the Special Combat Brigade?” Gu Chao and the others couldn’t help but have such a thought pop up in their hearts.

It was undeniable that those from the Special Combat Brigade would have some hostility in their hearts when facing the fighters from the Red Arrow Brigade, but that was because the Red Arrow Brigade had overpowered the Special Combat Brigade at the National Military Competition before.

In the past, the two units were basically on the same level with little difference between them, but now they were suddenly crushed by the Red Arrow Brigade with their strong combat power, so that the soldiers of the Special Operations Brigade would naturally have an opinion of the soldiers of the Red Arrow Brigade.

This resentment and discontentment in their hearts manifested itself when these two units first started working together.

This situation had already arisen in the military base in Yanjing before, only that Ji Feng and Xiang Yongzhan had not given the word at that time, plus the time for the operation was rather tight, so the warriors underneath did not dare to act recklessly. However, from the demeanour of those warriors in the Special Combat Brigade, it was possible to see the displeasure in their hearts.

However, there was no need to directly shoot to kill, right?

Those who had the same thoughts as Gu Chao and the others were also the Special Combat Brigade’s warrior who had just come out of the dirt bag. He looked at Ji Feng angrily, but was unable to stop him due to orders.

However, in his heart, he was hostile to what Ji Feng was doing.

In his opinion, even if Ji Feng had really killed his comrades, he had enough excuses – to prevent the enemy from fighting back!

Such an excuse would have worked perfectly well even in a court martial. After all, accidentally injuring a comrade in the middle of a melee was a common occurrence in past wars, and it simply wouldn’t convict Ji Feng!

“Bring in another magazine!”

Ji Feng, however, didn’t notice the others’ expressions, he touched his magazine belt and found that the bullets were already empty, so he shouted lowly.

No one responded.

Ji Feng jerked his head back and instantly found that everyone was looking at himself with an odd expression, while the soldier from the special operations brigade was glaring at himself with an angry expression on his face.

“Get the magazines, didn’t you hear me!” Ji Feng shouted lowly.

“Chief, there are not only enemies down here, but also our comrades, what exactly is your purpose in doing this?!” The soldier said in an angry voice.

Ji Feng’s face suddenly sank: “Cut the crap, bring the magazines first, and wait until the battle is over before you say anything!”

As soon as he heard the soldier’s words, Ji Feng became furious. Now that everyone was buried underneath, whether it was the Special Combat Brigade or those from Xixia, they were all defenseless, this was the best time to attack, one more minute of delay might let an enemy escape, so how could Ji Feng waste time explaining to them?

“Chief, if you don’t make it clear, I won’t give you the magazines!” The soldier said forcefully, “I refuse to carry out such an unreasonable order.”

Click!

A pistol suddenly appeared in Ji Feng’s hand and pointed at the soldier’s head, “You can refuse to carry out my orders, but if you dare to influence me again, I will immediately shoot you! Gu Chao, get the magazines!”

“..... Yes!”

Gu Chao hesitated for a moment, but still chose to trust Ji Feng, and casually threw over two magazines.

Ji Feng coldly snorted, loaded the magazines and lay on the ground to aim at the collapsed underworld once again with a cold expression.

The special combat brigade soldier who was lying not far next to Ji Feng looked hesitant, then, with a grit of his teeth, he fiercely grabbed Ji Feng’s automatic rifle, “Chief, I can’t let you brutally kill my comrades!”

“Bullshit!”

Ji Feng was instantly furious, “I don’t have time to explain to you now, Gu Chao, restrain him!”

“Yes!” As Gu Chao answered, his gun was already pointed at the back of the soldier’s head, and he pinned him to the ground, “Be honest, for the sake of my comrades, I don’t want to lay hands on you, but if you dare to harass Sir again, don’t blame me for being merciless!”

Hula~~~!

Just as a few people were talking, dozens of earthbags suddenly rumbled up at the same time in the underground world, and a group of grey-headed people burst out of the mound, each one becoming a mud man, and their faces could not be seen clearly.

A smile finally appeared on Ji Feng’s face as he bellowed, “Special Combat Brigade men, come over here!”

Those people were instantly startled, and when they saw the figure of Ji Feng and the others in a blur, they immediately pulled their legs out and ran wildly this way.

“All of you, get your spare weapons out and give them to our comrades!”

“Also report to our rear, the battle is coming to an end, ask them to send someone to receive it!”

“Scout soldiers ready!”

Ji Feng kept giving orders while vigilantly looking at the buried underground world to prevent any enemies from suddenly rising up and attacking those on his side.

“Brat!” A big, grey-headed, sturdy man pounced on Ji Feng’s side at once and said through gritted teeth, “Didn’t I tell you to assist at the periphery, why did you run here? How come there was a big explosion all of a sudden, what’s going on?!”

Even though this big man had a head and face full of dirt, Ji Feng easily recognised him, who else could it be if not Xiang Yongzhan?

Ji Feng laughed: “We were just assisting the attack, ah, but there was a fault blocking our way, so I blew it up with a dynamite pack, who knew that it caused a chain of explosions”

“.....”

Ji Feng opened his mouth and laughed bitterly, “My technique was so accurate?”

Xiang Yongzhan said helplessly, “I really don’t know whether to call you kid bold or ignorant, in close combat in the Gobi Desert, can you casually use explosive packs? Once used improperly, it will let the smoke and dust block the sight of your side, and then you can’t even find a place to die if you want to”

Xiang Yongzhan simply did not know what to say, he originally thought this guy should have some experience, but how did not expect, he actually have no experience in Gobi combat

“So that’s how it is!”

Ji Feng suddenly realized, it turned out that he did not think of these, it seems that the training of this super agent training system, is not so comprehensive.

However, it looked like Xiang Yongzhan was right, he had almost not been buried under the dust before, and it was only ten minutes after that that the dust flying in the sky was blown away by the wind.

“What’s the situation inside?” Ji Feng asked, “Did anyone escape?”

“All of them were inside, then suddenly there was an explosion, even if someone wanted to escape, they couldn’t get away

I just don’t know how many were killed by the explosion.” Xiang Yongzhan hummed.

“Then, good, you go and count the number of people first, there is me here, surely no one will run out.” Ji Feng turned his head to look and found that there were people in that underground world ready to come out again.

This time, he didn’t shoot immediately, but waited for that person to drill out before he fired violently.

Bang!

The man fell cleanly onto the mound of dirt.

“Hey!”

Xiang Yongzhan was instantly shocked, “Did you see who it was clearly and just shot?!”

Ji Feng smiled faintly and looked clearly.

“Captain!”

The soldier who was grabbed by Gu Chao suddenly called out.

Xiang Yongzhan turned around and instantly his face changed as he glared at Gu Chao: “What are you doing? Put the gun down!”

“Sorry, I’m carrying out orders!” Gu Chao said.

Xiang Yongzhan immediately looked at Ji Feng and said angrily, “What is this?!”

“I don’t have time to explain to you now, you’ll understand after the battle is over.” Ji Feng didn’t even turn his head back and said indifferently.

“You ……” Xiang Yongzhan was furious, but as soon as he opened his mouth, he was interrupted by a gunshot.

Bang!

Ji Feng fired again and another man fell on the mound of dirt.

Bang, bang, bang, bang!

When Ji Feng finished the clip once more, the collapsed place was already sprawled with people covered in dirt.

Only then did Ji Feng put his gun away and said, “Alright, almost all those who can climb up are settled, everyone go and search again, remember, safety first.”

“Yes!” The men of the Red Arrow Brigade immediately responded, climbing up and running towards the collapsed underground world.

It was at this time that Ji Feng sat up and looked at the angry looking Xiang Yongzhan and smiled, “What’s wrong with this, I haven’t offended you, have I?”

“What do you think is going on here?” Xiang Yongzhan pointed at the soldier who was still being pointed at by Gu Chao with a gun and said angrily, “Is this how you work with me?”

Ji Feng smiled, "You can let him tell you exactly what is going on."

"No need to ask, I already understand the situation, you shot your own comrade without permission, this is a serious crime!" Xiang Yongzhan frowned, "Kid, I don't think you're that confused, what the hell are you playing at?"

Just now, while Ji Feng was continuing to shoot, Xiang Yongzhan had already asked the soldier who was being held by Gu Chao and understood all the circumstances, Ji Feng's behavior made him annoyed, but he was also secretly puzzled, was Ji Feng really using this method to vent his anger?

However, Ji Feng didn't mind, he just smiled and asked, "Have you counted the number of people? Any of the warriors under you, was anyone injured by me?"

"This" Xiang Yongzhan was stunned, and then he shouted, "Count the number of people!"

"Captain, it has been counted, all are present." A soldier said.

Xiang Yongzhan was stunned as he turned his head to look at Ji Feng, "What the hell is going on?"

Ji Feng laughed: "If you can't see clearly whether the mound of dirt is friend or foe, do you think I would dare to just shoot?"

"You can see?!" Xiang Yongzheng's expression changed.

Ji Feng just shrugged his shoulders, not admitting or denying, "Isn't this good now? There's no need to fight at all, just lie down and shoot the enemy, if you want to catch them alive, catch them alive, if you don't want to catch them alive, just shoot them in the head, it couldn't be simpler"

Xiang Yongzhan but was stunned

The other special battle brigade warriors, too, were shocked!

Chapter 644

"You can see who exactly is under that dirt bag?" Only after a long time did Xiang Yongzhan ask in astonishment, and then added an exclamation of his own, "That's not very likely, is it?"

"Hehe" Ji Feng gave a non-committal smile and didn't argue further on the issue, but said, "Since the headcount sentence has been counted, then, everyone, take the spare weapons of our brigade and go and arrest the people."

He had a big smile on his face, "We need to drag all those people out of the dirt as soon as possible, they might get suffocated in there if it takes too long."

Only then did the crowd wake up like a dream, and Xiang Yongzhan immediately bellowed, "Hurry up and clean up the battlefield, drag everyone out, tie up all those who aren't dead, and line up the dead ones in order!"

"Yes!" All the men of the Special Combat Brigade boomed in response, and then quickly went to carry out the orders.

Xiang Yongzhan looked at Gu Chao and smiled, "Older brother, is it okay to let him go?"

"No!" Gu Chao was also shocked just now, Ji Feng was able to see clearly who exactly was under the mound of earth, this was too incredible.

However, there were no less than one person from the Special Combat Brigade, all of them were alive and well, this was enough to show that Ji Feng definitely wasn't shooting indiscriminately, let alone trying to vent his personal anger, but he could really see clearly whether the person underneath was a comrade or an enemy.

Apart from this reason, he really couldn't find any other explanation and had to believe it.

Of course, it could have been luck.

But thinking back, if it was really luck, Ji Feng had fired so many shots and hit so many people, but why was the Special Operations Brigade the only ones who hadn't been shot? If this is also considered luck, then the people of the special operations brigade are too lucky, so good that they are a bit unbelievable!

After thinking about it, there was only one explanation – Ji Feng could really see!

"It's incredible." Gu Chao was filled with shock.

However, when he heard Xiang Yongzhan's request, Gu Chao immediately reacted and firmly shook his head to reject his request, how could he release him now?

"Oh? Why?" Xiang Yongzhan asked with a smile. Now that he knew that Ji Feng was not targeting himself and his men, the hatred in his heart immediately disappeared without a trace, plus now because of Ji Feng's unintentional action, thus detonating the Western Xia's arsenal and making this operation achieve the rare record of zero casualties, Xiang Yongzhan's mood was instantly much better and he spoke to Gu Chao in a pleasant manner now.

But Gu Chao said loudly, "Chief, this man is the chief's soldier and was the first to rush out from underground. Before the chief and the other comrades had rushed out, this man not only refused to carry out sir's orders, but also prevented sir from firing, although it was justifiable, but his actions were disobeying orders, which was a crime!"

"There is such a thing?!"

Xiang Yongzhan's face suddenly turned gloomy, and the faces of the other Special Combat Brigade warriors also looked a little embarrassed.

Now everyone understood that the reason why Ji Feng dared to shoot was that he was sure of himself, he did not have the intention of venting his personal anger in it, and more importantly, it was because of Ji Feng's actions that they could complete their mission so easily and, without letting any of the enemies escape, all of them were buried underneath.

However, their own comrades were stopping Everyone didn't know what to say. When a comrade did that, he misunderstood Ji Feng, but his ultimate goal was to save himself and the others.

But the result of doing so is to disobey orders, and if they are really pursued, they will have to be court-martialed.

The soldiers of the special operations brigade wanted to plead for this soldier, but they didn't know what to say.

That soldier was also a bit ashamed, and under Xiang Yongzhan's forced stare, he couldn't help but lower his head, "First Captain, I'm sorry, I've discredited the brigade"

"Humph!" Xiang Yongzhan snorted coldly.

Everyone else was silent, not daring to say a word more, and, also, not knowing what to say.

"Is Ji Feng's order not an order anymore? Is this how you carry them out?" Xiang Yongzhan asked coldly, "What a big nerve!"

"First Captain, I'm willing to accept the punishment, whether it's a court martial or any other punishment, I'm willing to accept it all!" The soldier was full of shame and said loudly, "But don't let the whole brigade lose face because of me alone!"

"Bullshit!"

Xiang Yongzhan suddenly shouted, "It's my responsibility for not teaching you well, do you need to be court-martialed?!"

He snapped his head around to look at Ji Feng and said, "Older brother, this guy is my soldier, can you give is a face, this matter today, I will give you an account!"

Ji Feng shook his head slightly and laughed: "It's not necessary to give an account, but next time, pay attention to use more brains, even if I hate more in my heart, there is no way I would shoot my own comrades in public, right? Hmm?"

That soldier was instantly ashamed.

Xiang Yongzhan, however, couldn't help but have a smile on his face and nodded at Ji Feng, accepting this kindness from Ji Feng.

"Let him go!"

Ji Feng waved his hand, "Earlier, I inadvertently detonated the other side's arsenal and buried all of you down there, so please bear with me too."

The others burst into laughter.

Only then did Gu Chao move the gun against the back of that soldier's head away and said, "Sorry about that, I was following orders."

"No, no!" The soldier shook his head in panic and said in shame, "When you say that, I am even more ashamed, it was me who did not strictly carry out the order, I will ask for my own punishment!"

"Come on, don't play nice here, if you have time to gossip, you can finish cleaning up the battlefield Work immediately!" Xiang Yongzhan waved his hand and said.

"Yes!"

All the soldiers of the Special Combat Brigade simultaneously boomed in response, and immediately took the spare weapons left behind by the soldiers of the Red Arrow Brigade, followed behind them and began to search for the enemies buried under the mounds of earth, as well as those guys who had lost their combat power after being hit in the joints, and put them in order according to Ji Feng and Xiang Yongzhan's previous orders.

Only the two of them, Ji Feng and Xiang Yongzhan, were left above, watching the other warriors clean up the battlefield.

"Older brother, you've really done it all in one go!" Xiang Yongzhan said with emotion, "Since joining the army, I haven't fought such a weird battle, but I actually used only one explosive pack to solve all of them, and almost buried us all alive"

Ji Feng laughed: "It was a mistake on my part, who knew that in that fault was their arsenal? I was just following the navigation route on my watch, but the fault blocked my way and I heard what sounded like a fight inside, so I had to do it like this"

He gave a brief account of his actions and those of the Red Arrow Brigade, and finally couldn't help but laugh, "It can only be attributed to luck."

"Luck?"

Xiang Yongzhan looked at him with a smirk, "Luck can make you see clearly who is inside from a distance of a couple of hundred meters and also from a mound of dirt? This kind of luck is too good, right? You let me have such luck once to try?"

Ji Feng instantly laughed, "I said it was luck, it also depends on the person who comes, everyone's luck should not be the same, besides I am not the one who controls luck, how can I give it to you?"

"Older brother, you're not being honest"

Xiang Yongzhan did not believe that Ji Feng was doing everything by luck, although luck was also important on the battlefield, but Ji Feng's actions obviously could not be explained by just the word luck.

It was obvious that Ji Feng had some special ability that allowed him to see the people in the mound from a few hundred meters away, with the help of some instrument? Or did he himself have such extraordinary abilities? Also, his marksmanship, it was too terrifying

The more one comes into contact with Ji Feng, the more one can feel his peculiar and terrifying.

For example, this time, if another person came, even if all the previous steps and luck were the same as Ji Feng's accidentally detonated the enemy's arsenal.

But even so, who could accurately identify what was buried in the mound of earth, whether it was an enemy or a friend, and how could they hit almost 100 times from several hundred meters away? Anyone who said it was all luck would have scoffed at Xiang Yongzhan.

"Everyone should be safe, I'm sure there are still fish that have slipped through the net, be careful"

Xiang Yongzhan suddenly snapped back from his contemplation, only to find that Ji Feng had reached the edge of that underground world at some point, constantly commanding loudly. In his hand, he was clutching an automatic rifle, the safety of which was already on, ready to pull the trigger at any time.

“It seems that there are definitely quite a few secrets hidden in this guy’s body” Looking at Ji Feng’s back, Xiang Yongzhan couldn’t help but say darkly.

The incident of resistance to life, the detonation incident, etc., was also just a little hiccup in the course of this operation, and soon, everyone forgot about it and began to devote themselves to the search for the remaining enemies.

“Report to the two captains, all the enemies found so far have been captured, a total of seven hundred and fifty-three, of which thirty-two were wounded, the rest all dead.” Gu Chao quickly ran to Ji Feng and Xiang Yongzhan, stood at attention, saluted, and said loudly, “We have contacted the nearby garrison, they will send a helicopter over, it will take three hours at most!”

Looking at the corpses that had been picked up from the mud, Ji Feng couldn’t help but feel a little numb in his scalp. Just because he detonated an explosive package, he caused such a serious consequence, more than seven hundred people ah, just like that The corpses of these seven hundred people could have been piled up into a small mountain!

At this moment, Ji Feng finally saw with his own eyes the so-called mountain of corpses and sea of bones This is it!

The thirty-two people who survived were also all physically wounded, with important joints such as knees and shoulders, all pierced by bullets, and it was impossible to sit up if they wanted to, they could only lie on the ground like a dead dog.

Apart from these, there were more bodies that had been blown apart. Looking at them, Ji Feng couldn’t help but feel his scalp tingling.

“Split up half of the men and check them carefully again.” Taking a deep breath, Ji Feng tried to calm down and said, “Take me to see the injured people!”

If there was really a Transformer among the injured people, Ji Feng had to make sure that Transformer was also injured, otherwise, he couldn’t even feel at ease.

Once the reformer faked an injury or faked death, and then escaped or stormed up to injure someone when the warriors were relaxed, it would cause no small amount of trouble then.

Now was not the time for a long sigh

Chapter 645

“Unbelievable, this is too similar to a scene from a science fiction movie!”

Looking at these devices in front of him, Ji Feng couldn’t help but be stunned, he vaguely felt his scalp tingling a little.

“Yeah, it’s really hard to imagine, what level of technology the dynasty has reached, at least, they’re very impressive!” Xiang Yongzhan couldn’t help but nod and sigh as well.

Both of them could not help but sigh lightly, if we compare the technology of China with the technology level of the dynasty, the two sides are not at all on the same level, this is only a branch of the dynasty, and already has such a level of technology, so, what if it is the headquarters? This is really something that one cannot help but wonder about.

It was already four or five o’clock in the afternoon, more than three hours had passed since the previous battle, and the sun was already a bit to the west, in about four or five hours the sun would set.

Because this place is so far away from Yanjing, if we use Yanjing time to calculate, because of the time difference, it may take more than nine o’clock in the evening before the sun will set here and evening will come.

At this time, one of the engineering battalions of the Chinese army, which is conducting live exercises just a few hundred kilometres from here, has arrived and with them, the battlefield is much faster to clean up. For the engineers, this is the most common thing they do, and they are naturally very skilled at it.

The engineer battalion was responsible for clearing the crumbling dust, while the Special Operations Brigade and the Red Arrows Brigade were responsible for guarding against any enemies hidden in the dust.

With the cooperation of both sides, after about two hours or so, the collapsed area was cleared out to a rough outline, and when they saw this outline, Ji Feng and the others were immediately stunned.

This was indeed an underground world.

In Ji Feng’s opinion, if we were to talk about the scale alone, this place was definitely not even close to being smaller than that secret military base in Yanjing.

What was even more astonishing was that there were obviously several laboratories here, and most of the equipment inside had been cleaned out. The precision equipment and instruments were really astonishing to see, and Ji Feng secretly said that even the equipment he had purchased from Rice at great expense was far from being comparable to such equipment.

What attracted the most attention of Ji Feng and others was a boiler-like equipment, which was made of two cylindrical instruments stacked together, directly about four or five meters, the top one was a little lower in diameter, surrounded by various metal tubes, dense, which made people feel hairy.

At the very top, was a large jar made of transparent glass.

The eyes of Ji Feng and the others were focused on the large transparent glass jar, in which there was no idea what kind of liquid was still boiling. But there was no fire to be found underneath. It was obvious that this boiler-shaped device was not as backward and bulky as it indicated.

Ji Feng’s gaze was then drawn to the boiling liquid in the large glass jar, it was a very odd coloured liquid, it was impossible to say what colour it was, and when it was boiling, it looked very sticky, like boiling porridge, but of course, the colour of the liquid definitely didn’t look like porridge!

“These liquids” Ji Feng’s eyebrows were furrowed tightly, “The colour of this liquid, why is it so familiar”

“Yeah, I feel familiar too, as if I’ve seen it somewhere” Next to him came Xiang Yongzhan’s voice, “What the hell is this.”

“You’ve dealt with Dynasty so many times before, haven’t you ever seen this kind of equipment and this kind of liquid?” Ji Feng couldn’t help but ask.

Xiang Yongzhan faintly shook his head and said, “Never come across it! In past operations, we only fought directly with the Dynasty’s minions, we have never attacked the other side’s base, this is the first time”

“So that’s how it is”

Ji Feng nodded slightly, and suddenly, his nose twitched, “Hiss-!”

“What’s wrong?” Xiang Yongzhan asked warily.

“Do you smell anything?” Ji Feng asked with a frown, “A very familiar smell”

Xiang Yongzhan looked around but found nothing, he shook his head and said, “What smell did you say?”

“Lubricant, or rather, lubricating fluid!” Ji Feng suddenly lit up and said, “That’s right, I’ve smelled this smell before, it’s the lubricating fluid used by the transformers, there’s absolutely no mistake”

Ji Feng had dealt with reformers twice, once in Jiangzhou, when he drove straight over the car of a dynasty assassin and saved He Hongwei, but thus caused both of the dynasty’s assassins to die in a car accident. At that time, he met a reformer for the first time and went down for the soul, but also smelled a smell because of it.

Later, at the Royal Club in Yanjing, it was through the smell of this lubricating fluid that Ji Feng was sure that the Royal Club had something to do with Dynasty.

Now, he smelled this smell again.

“That’s right, this smell is also familiar to me, it’s unique, it’s indeed the smell of lubricating fluid” Xiang Yongzhan nodded his head and said.

The duo’s eyes, once again, looked up at the large glass jar, and looking at the odd liquid that was still bubbling and boiling inside, they both blurted out at the same time, “It’s that metal!”

“No wonder I find the colour of this liquid so odd, yet familiar, think about it, that transformer’s metal bones, is it this colour!” Ji Feng said with a face full of excitement, “So the prototype of that metal is actually this bubbling liquid, this is really”

“Older brother, this time we’ve found something important!”

Xiang Yongzhan’s excitement, however, was on another level, “Once we get this equipment for making this weird metal and give it to the top for research, we should be able to find a way to deal with this kind of modified human, and then, when our warriors fight them again, the casualties will definitely be greatly reduced.”

“It’s good that it’s working, this proves that we didn’t do this mission for nothing!”

Xiang Yongzhan nodded his head and said, “This time, it was indeed luck!”

The two couldn’t help but glance at each other and laughed at the same time.

“The dynasty’s technology, how come it’s so powerful ……”

Ji Feng remembered again what the cyber extortion group that Wang Xin was a part of was looking for when he was in Jiangzhou …… If that thing was really a piece of intelligent program, then all of this would be well explained.

In this world, there was probably no one who understood better than Ji Feng that if someone possessed an intelligent program, how powerful that person would become, especially if the one who mastered the intelligent program was also an organization, then the result would be even more shocking, and even more so, it would be terrifying.

“Even now, that intelligent program has not been found, it seems that it should indeed have been found by someone from the dynasty first!” Once he thought of his late start, Ji Feng couldn’t help but secretly sigh, the intelligent program was in the hands of the dynasty, the horror of the consequences was definitely not hard to imagine.

In fact, just by looking at the large and ultra-precise devices in front of us, one could see it!

Just like this cylindrical device in front of us, in this underground world, there are a dozen of them, in addition to that, there seems to be many more, but they were all destroyed in the explosion, intact, only this one is left.

But from this, it was clear what kind of power the dynasty possessed!

“Buzz~!”

In the distant sky, the sound of a helicopter was faintly heard, Ji Feng and the others immediately looked up and immediately saw the military logo on the fuselage, he said, “It’s our people!”

“It should be the follow-up troops arriving.”

Xiang Yongzhan nodded, and then he was a little stunned, “You, you can see the markings on the helicopter? Or can you see the people sitting on the plane?”

Ji Feng laughed: “I guessed!”

When Xiang Yongzhan heard this, he suddenly stumbled on his feet and almost didn’t fall headlong to the ground: “…… The hell I believe you.”

Ji Feng smiled and spread his hands, saying, “I can’t help it if you don’t believe me, let’s go, let’s go over to meet them.”

Since the attack mission had been completed and there were follow-up troops to take over, Ji Feng and Xiang Yongzhan returned to Yanjing by transport plane once again after having handed over with the follow-up troops.

It wasn’t until they sat inside the helicopter that many of the warriors came back from their shock at that underground world.

That massive underground world was really too shocking for them, and only when they got on the plane did they suddenly realize that the mission had already been completed.

This time, the operation was really surprisingly smooth, thanks to Ji Feng’s blessing, just an explosive package, which inadvertently detonated the other side’s arsenal, solved all the problems, and the mission was completed so smoothly.

Of course, to say that there is a flaw in this operation, that is, after Ji Feng detonated the Western Xia’s arsenal, there was too violent an explosion, making a large number of equipment inside damaged, a large number of personnel were killed, some even can not even find the bones

But this is nothing compared to what they have done.

It’s always a tragic and cruel war, and to achieve such a result with zero casualties is already quite good!

I believe that even if someone blamed Ji Feng, whether it was the Red Arrow Brigade or the Special Operations Brigade soldiers, they would all speak up for him.

With Ji Feng’s extraordinary skill of shooting the enemy directly through the mound of earth without missing a single shot, let alone accidentally injuring his comrades, he had long won the admiration of all the warriors. Plus, because of the misunderstanding of that soldier in the Special Combat Brigade, it made the entire Special Combat Brigade owe Ji Feng a favour, and no one would have crossed Ji Feng.

If it wasn’t for Ji Feng, there was no telling how many of them would have died in this battle.

After this operation, Ji Feng had already established an extremely high prestige, and at the same time, he had also won the respect and admiration of the Special Operations Brigade’s warriors, and it was not easy for the Red Arrow Brigade’s warriors to worship him.

Chapter 646

After returning to Yanjing, Ji Feng immediately made a report to his father and the old man.

Ji Feng could easily see the look of excitement that flashed through his father's eyes when he appeared at the doorstep of his home. Obviously, he had been worried about his son all these days. On the battlefield, bullets don't stop going to your body just because you are the son of someone, so Ji Zhenhua was naturally concerned in his heart.

In fact, for this son, who had been separated from him before he was born and who had been separated for more than ten years, Ji Zhenhua definitely loved his child more than any other father, because he knew very well what his son had suffered in the previous ten years.

It was worth being happy that his son had returned safely, and looking at the smile on his face he knew that this time the mission should have been successfully completed, and that was enough!

In fact, before Ji Feng had even returned, Ji Zhenhua had already gotten the news that the mission was completed, and that it was completed with a perfect score of zero casualties. It was just that before he had seen his son with his own eyes, he, like all fathers, was still worried, and it was only until this moment that he could truly put his mind at ease.

It's good to be back!

"Dad, I'm back!" Ji Feng peeked at his mother who was sitting on the sofa, and then at his father. The latter shook his head faintly at him.

Ji Feng instantly understood that his father was telling himself that his mother didn't know about his participation in the military operation yet, so that he must not say anything.

"Little Feng, when did you enter the capital?" Xiao Su Mei was a little surprised, "Why didn't you say anything in advance?"

Ji Feng heatedly laughed, "It's because I wanted to give mum a surprise. Mum, aren't you very happy to see your son, this is a surprise, right?"

"Happy, happy." Xiao Su Mei was full of smiles and nodded her head slightly.

Ji Feng chuckled and waved his hand again with a smile at Xiao Ying next to him, for this girl who had always insisted on guarding her mother, Ji Feng still had a very good feeling. Of course, this kind of good feeling was not the kind of good feeling between men and women, but a kind of sensual closeness, looking smoothly, even like family.

In fact, Xiao Sumei and Ji Zhenhua didn't treat Xiao Ying as an outsider either, especially Xiao Sumei, who even treated her as if she were her own daughter.

"Little Chief." Xiao Ying was about to stand up and salute.

Ji Feng hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Alright, alright, I'm uncomfortable when you call me Little Chief, don't ever get up to curtsy again."

Ji Zhenhua and Xiao Sumei and their spouses instantly smiled, and Xiao Ying also pursed her lips and did not get up.

"Little Feng, come with me to the study." Ji Zhenhua said.

Xiao Sumei was immediately dissatisfied, "Little Feng has just returned, he hasn't even sat down, and you're calling him away."

Ji Feng was dumbfounded as he went up and patted his mother's hand and laughed, "Mom, maybe Dad is looking for me for something, I'll come out to keep you company when we're done talking about it, okay?"

"Go on go on. None of you father and son are nice" Xiao Su Mei hummed.

Ji Feng and his father exchanged a glance, smiled secretly and walked into the study quickly.

Xiao Ying also immediately followed closely, made a cup of tea for father and son respectively, then closed the door of the room and walked out.

"Little Feng, I already know the result of this operation, you have done a good job." Ji Zhenhua said proudly, this military operation, it was because his son played a key role that made the operation a complete success, how could he not be proud?

He was a senior leader, yet he was also a father.

"Actually, it was also a mistake, I couldn't even find the target to attack at first, I just judged it by feeling" Ji Feng was a little embarrassed by the compliment.

In fact, at first he really did not find the target he was going to attack. This was because according to the markings on the navigation watch screen, the one he had to be responsible for assisting in the attack was actually the north gate of the Xixia base, the west and south gates were the responsibility of the special operations brigade led by Xiang Yongzhan.

So technically speaking, at that time he had to bypass that fault line with his comrades from the Red Arrow Brigade in order to reach the north gate.

Only then could he adopt various strategies to capture the enemy.

Hearing this, Ji Zhenhua could not help but smile faintly and said, "In that case, you are sort of a blind cat that ran into a dead rat?"

"That's right, at least I think so myself. But strictly speaking, after blowing up the fault caused a chain of explosions, the rest of the credit should be counted as mine." Ji Feng didn't exaggerate, but he didn't narrow down his credit either, "Apart from the few enemies that were taken out by Xiang Yongzhan and the others at the beginning, the rest were all killed or wounded by me, shot by shot."

Hearing that Ji Feng was so calm and normal when talking about shooting and killing people, without the slightest fluctuation in his expression, Ji Zhenhua frowned and said, "Little Feng, you must remember that war is cruel, but waging war is to end this cruelty, do you understand?"

Ji Feng was stunned, then he understood his father's meaning, he was afraid of his addiction to killing.

"Dad, don't worry, I know what to do." Ji Feng nodded seriously, "I will adjust my mentality very well and won't be reckless."

"Mm."

Ji Zhenhua nodded and said, "Then I'll be relieved"

"Those equipment from Western Xia and the POW personnel, what was done with them?" Ji Feng suddenly asked.

"The equipment is naturally handed over to the relevant scientific research institutions for research, as for the POWs, if they are modified humans, they will likewise be handed over to the relevant institutions, they will study the various characteristics of these modified humans" Ji Zhenhua said.

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Dad, then I'm going out."

In his heart, however, he understood that he thought that these POW personnel would not end up any better, maybe

"Remember to visit your grandfather's place." Ji Zhenhua said from behind.

"Got it, I'll go." Ji Feng said.

It was already afternoon when Ji Feng returned home, and after spending some time at home with his mother, Xiao Su Mei, and chatting casually, he got up and went to the old man's quadrangle amidst the current grumbling.

Only after meeting the old man did Ji Feng understand the deep meaning of his father's asking him to come to the courtyard.

At the height of summer, the entire Yanjing City was in an extremely hot and hot environment, and even the densely wooded and lush courtyard did not escape the scorching heat.

Such a temperature also had a certain effect on Ji Feng, but it was not serious and could instead help him to exercise the bio-currents in his body. It was because this temperature, which could already make him feel hot, but he only had to slightly activate the bio-current and his body immediately cooled off.

It was also a great burden to have to push the bio-current all the time, and in this case, it would be tantamount to exercising.

It was only slightly cooler after entering the quadrangle, but it still made people feel scorching hot.

A question suddenly occurred to Ji Feng: How come the old man was still living in the courtyard in such a scorching heat?

As far as he knew, people like the old man would normally go to the western mountains or to the north to escape the heat, so how come the old man hadn't gone?

"Grandpa!"

Ji Feng saw his grandfather sitting under a big tree to cool off, he hurriedly walked over, and Tie Jun, the guard beside the old man, nodded slightly to Ji Feng with an expressionless face, as a greeting.

"Little monkey, you're here" The old master's face was rosy, and when he saw his grandson return, the wrinkles on his face swirled slightly, revealing a smile.

“Grandpa, why didn’t you go for a summer vacation?” Ji Feng came to the front and asked with a smile, “The weather here is too hot, it’s not good for your health.”

“The old chief is waiting for you to come back, several other chiefs have called several times, hoping that the old chief will move quickly to escape the summer heat.” Aunt Hong came over from the side with a plate of fruit and placed it on the stone table, “Little Chief, please eat the fruit.”

Ji Feng was instantly warmed in his heart and said, “Grandpa, it’s time to go for a summer vacation, or to go.”

“I’m old, and I don’t want to go back and forth again, besides, there is cold air in this courtyard, it’s cool.” The old man said with a smile.

However, Ji Feng understood that the old man was also worried about himself just like his father, without seeing himself come back with his own eyes, how could he feel at ease to go for a summer vacation?

Even his grandson was still fighting in the battlefield, so what kind of summer vacation was he going to take?

The first thing he did was to grab the old man’s wrist and pretend to take his pulse, but in fact he slowly activated the bio-current to probe into the old man’s body to check his physical condition. The old man also knew what his grandson was doing, while he remained still and covered for him.

There were many things that even the people closest to him could not say. This was to protect Ji Feng.

“Fortunately, there is no major change, only the bio-current is slightly weaker compared to before, it should be due to the weather being too hot.” Only then did Ji Feng put his heart down and smiled, “Grandpa, the weather is too hot is not good for your health, you should still go for a summer vacation.”

“Well. Listen to you, we’ll move tomorrow.” The old man nodded with a smile, his grandson had returned safely, he naturally had no more worries, and it was easy on his heart to go for a summer vacation.

“Little monkey, you have something on your mind?” The old man said his gaze was like a torch, and with a glance he could see through that behind Ji Feng’s smile, there seemed to be some worries.

Ji Feng hesitated for a moment before he nodded slightly and said, “Grandpa, what do you think the relevant agencies will do to those reformers we captured? Autopsy, or”

Even though those people had been transformed by the dynasty and could technically only be considered half-human monsters, if they were studied like mice, Ji Feng still felt a little

The old man instantly smiled, “A heart that has no tolerance?”

“Sort of.” Ji Feng nodded his head.

“Hehe Little monkey, do you have any feelings about completing the mission so smoothly this time?” The old man did not directly answer Ji Feng’s question, but asked with a smile.

“To say feelings, I just feel that it was too much of a fluke.” Ji Feng laughed, “I hadn’t thought that one explosive pack and a few magazines would actually solve the problem.”

“Well!”

The old man nodded and asked again, “Then do you think that without this fluke, if you had fought a hard battle directly with those people, would there have been casualties?”

“I guess so.” Ji Feng said as he remembered the equipment he saw in Xixia, and the arsenal where the chain of explosions occurred.

“Yes, there will definitely be casualties.” The old man nodded slightly, “Only by finding the weaknesses of those transformers can we minimize the casualties Besides, exactly how to study it, that’s not something that we need to ask about.”

Ji Feng was silent for a long time before he nodded slightly and said, “Grandpa, I understand.”

This should be the deep meaning of father asking himself to come to see grandfather, Ji Feng vaguely understood a lot.

The old man then smiled gratefully...

Chapter 647

The next day, Master Ji moved off to the Western Mountains to escape the summer heat, and this time, he left with a sense of relief.

Ji Feng’s life had once again calmed down, and his mind had grown a lot.

Although this operation simply went surprisingly well, but for Ji Feng, he still learned a lot of things, such as how to deal with war, how to deal with the enemy, his wrist, but also a lot tougher than before.

Ji Feng also realized that, in fact, it is not only the light of swords and beacons that is called war, the fight between people, the fight in the mall, the fight in the political arena As long as you are dealing with the enemy, it is all called war. And war, never benevolent, sentimental people, will eventually be eliminated.

Ji Feng did not realize that, unknowingly, his superior mentality had gradually taken shape.

In the morning, his mother Xiao Sumei was going to a party of some kind, and had Xiao Ying and two other guards accompanying her there. In addition, Little Aunt Liang Hongdan had also received an invitation and intended to go with her mother Xiao Sumei.

He chose to visit his younger uncle.

This time, he met his younger uncle at his home, which was really a first for Ji Feng. Every time he went to see Little Uncle in the past, he would have to go to the Red Arrow Brigade’s premises to meet him.

“Third brother, you’re here!” When Ji Xiaoyu saw Ji Feng, she immediately revealed a smile and hurriedly ran over to pour water for Ji Feng, while she couldn’t help but complain, “Third brother, you’ve been in Yanjing for such a long time, and you haven’t come to see me, every time I go to look for you, you’re not at home either”

Ji Feng laughed, "I can't help it, I've been too busy lately, now it's good that I can be free for a while."

"So many days are busy, I don't know what exactly you are busy with, really" Xiao Yu beamed, then whirled and asked, "Third brother, you have time today, right?"

"That would be something to ask your dad." Ji Feng smiled, "If he doesn't have anything scheduled for me, then I definitely have time."

"Dad"

Ji Xiaoyu cautiously looked at Ji Zhenping who was sitting next to him, "Can you not assign things for third brother to do today, I want to take third brother to my shop to play."

Ji Zhenping's face sank, "Nonsense, are you going to work, or are you going to play? If you want third brother to play with you, just wait until after work."

"Wow." Ji Xiaoyu then replied aggressively, not even pouring tea for Ji Zhenping, and sat directly on the sofa opposite the coffee table, huffing and puffing and ignoring people.

Ji Feng looked dumbfounded as he smiled and asked, "Xiao Yu, you're working now? Is it a summer job?"

"Yes." Ji Xiaoyu nodded her little head and said happily, "Third brother, I'm working at a cafe from 4pm to 8pm every day, two thousand dollars a month."

Ji Feng instantly smiled, "Not bad."

It was indeed not bad.

At least in Ji Feng's opinion, it was not bad for a child from a background like Xiao Yu to be able to work a summer job during the holidays and still be proud of it. At least, Ji Feng hadn't seen a few.

"What's not bad, one is too scared to come back at night." Ji Zhenping hummed next to him, "Her mother couldn't bear it and bought her another electric car, so she dared to go to and from work without fear."

"Dad~~!"

Ji Xiaoyu pouted, her pretty face slightly red, "What are you babbling about!"

"Humph. You don't even pour me tea, so I can't say a few words?" Ji Zhenping laughed.

"If you say it again, I won't even pour it for you from now on." Ji Xiaoyu was shy and anxious, pouting and not complying.

Ji Feng watched the father-daughter fight with a smile on his face and didn't interrupt, he thought this was interesting, at least it was much better than those families that were dull and stuffy all day.

Besides, Xiao Yu's character was already quiet and shy, so anyone who saw her would want to tease her.

"Third brother, will you go to our shop today?" Ji Xiaoyu couldn't say anything to her father, so she had to turn her attention back to Ji Feng.

Ji Feng turned his head and looked at his little uncle, he had nothing to do, he just didn't know if his little uncle would arrange things for him to do.

"Little Feng, if you're fine this afternoon, take her with you." Ji Zhenping smiled, "I've been too busy with my work over the years and rarely have the chance to take her out, so you can consider this my wish fulfilled."

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, "That's good, I'd like to go and see how Xiao Yu really works."

"Really? Third Brother, you can't lie to me." Ji Xiaoyu hurriedly said, afraid that Ji Feng would backtrack.

"Have I ever lied to you?" Ji Feng asked with a smile.

Ji Xiaoyu hurriedly shook her head and said, "No, no. Third brother, I knew you were the best."

"Humph." Ji Zhenping gave a somewhat tasteless hum.

Ji Xiaoyu instantly smiled cheekily and said, "Dad is also the best."

Ji Feng lost his smile and Ji Zhenping was also exasperated.

"Alright, Xiao Yu, go into your room first and rest, you have to work this afternoon." Ji Zhenping said.

Ji Xiaoyu was immediately a little reluctant, but did not dare to disobey her father's order, so she could only enter the room with some resignation, and before closing the door, she said to Ji Feng, "Third brother, don't go back on your word."

"Don't worry, it definitely won't happen." Ji Feng waved his hand with a smile.

Only then did Ji Xiaoyu nod in satisfaction and closed the door of the room with a cheeky smile.

"This girl" Ji Zhenping couldn't help but shake his head slightly, and then he said with a straight face, "Little Feng, this time you went to the west, you did a good job."

This was the third time Ji Feng had heard praise, but this time he accepted it openly, as his mindset had gradually changed.

He nodded with a heated smile, and by the way, he gave his little uncle a horse's ass and laughed, "It's all because of little uncle's wisdom, and also because of the good bloodline inherited from our family."

"Brat!"

Ji Zhenping was instantly happy when he heard these words.

Ji Feng also heatedly laughed, "Right, little uncle, this second set of aerobics, I prepared a little, first give you the first movement, counting the time, it is estimated that at least until the end of the year, the soldiers can master all the first set of movements, because the second set of aerobics is different from the first set, the difficulty has increased a lot, first practice one movement at a time"

He explained in detail, "Of course, this is also to prevent leaks, after all, these two sets of bodybuilding exercises if all completed, the power is not small."

Ji Zhenping shook his head slightly and said, "Xiao Feng, according to my idea, the pointer troops should definitely be there, but not too many, it is enough to be able to carry out high difficulty missions. My idea is, do you have a slightly more common training method that you can promote to the whole army, to improve the troops' individual combat ability as a whole, and thus improve their combat effectiveness."

"Yes!"

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, "What I gave to Xiang Yongzhan before was a simplified training method, characterized by short training time, not too difficult and easy to master, only that the final achievement wouldn't be too high."

"Such is sufficient." Ji Zhenping nodded and said, "Modern warfare, although the ability to fight alone is also very important, but more crucial, or technology, modern weaponry is the most important Our technology, too backward ah."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, twenty years ago the Gulf War, the first time the concept of information-based warfare appeared, the rice military's super attack power, super advanced weapons, shocked the entire world, from that time onwards, modern warfare, has been deeply rooted in people's hearts.

With the development of technology, the role played by modern weaponry in warfare has become more and more important, and the ability of a single soldier no longer plays too important a role in large-scale warfare, unless it is a local war or some special operations.

But as Little Uncle said, it is enough to have a part of special warriors to carry out such special missions, and the rest, still depends on the development of the level of technology.

For example, China's navy, no matter how powerful a single soldier can be, it cannot cross the ocean as if it were flat, much less fly across the strait If there really were such people, then they couldn't be called warriors, they should be called gods!

"Little Uncle, don't worry, China is on its way to becoming a strong nation, it will always be better, and we will definitely be able to catch up in the not too long time to come." Ji Feng said with a smile.

"It's hard!"

Ji Zhenping couldn't help but shake his head and sigh softly, "Under the current system, it's too hard to catch up as soon as possible"

"It will get better!" Ji Feng, however, said firmly.

"Forget it, let's not talk about that." Ji Zhenping waved his hand and said, "I'm angry at the mention of it, other countries are increasing their military spending every year, but we"

Ji Feng smiled and said, "Little Uncle, don't worry, as long as you still have the heart, in the near future, say less than you can command an ultra-modern not right, far away from ten thousand miles, a touch of the launch button, there will be countless super missiles flying out, that scene, how spectacular?"

"Then I really have to borrow your good advice." Ji Zhenping laughed harshly.

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and smile, his younger uncle had obviously listened to his words as a joke, but the problem was that it wasn't funny that everything he said could possibly come true.

Next, the uncle and nephew pair very consciously avoided the topic, only to talk about some interesting issues, or the younger uncle said some interesting stories back in the day, there are many things Ji Feng heard for the first time, while feeling curious, but also very cheerful.

Time passed unknowingly, and when Ji Feng and the two of them finished their conversation, the hour hand was already pointing to twelve o'clock.

"Let's go, call Xiao Yu and go eat!" Ji Zhenping laughed.

The three of them ate casually at a restaurant below the district, Xiao Yu had a small meal and just a few bites and that was it, while Ji Feng did not drink because he had to go to Xiao Yu's shop in the afternoon, and this lunch was soon over.

Afterwards, Ji Feng went home and rested for a little while, then under Xiao Yu's supervision, he could only quickly say goodbye to his little uncle, then rode Xiao Yu's electric bike and drove her towards the cafe she was at.

Chapter 648

It seems that because she was accompanied by Ji Feng, Ji Xiaoyu was obviously very happy, and she, who was originally quiet and shy, talked more along the way, chattering constantly, and Ji Feng listened with a smile, while carefully dodging the electric cars and bicycles that passed quickly from behind. He even had to dodge the occasional locomotive.

In fact, as early as five or six years ago, Yanjing had already introduced restrictions on bicycles and motorbikes, explicitly banning some sizes and models of bicycles and motorbikes from the road.

However, it is only that there are policies at the top and countermeasures at the bottom, and many booster bikes and motorbikes that violate the regulations on the road are still commonplace.

On the way to the café, Ji Feng saw three or four of them, and each of them was very fast, and there were even motorbikes that were simply louder than tractors, and the ear-piercing sound could be heard from a long distance away, so Ji Feng had no choice but to try to give way to these furious motorbikes.

People who dared to ride like this were either flying domineering dudes or people who took ignorance as fun, the kind of people that Ji Feng didn't dare to mess with, couldn't afford to mess with ah.

"These people are really annoying." Ji Xiaoyu sat on the back seat of the electric car slightly wrinkling her nose and said with some dissatisfaction, "Driving so fast and so loud, not even considering other people's feelings at all, nor do they care about the safety of other people's lives."

Ji Feng couldn't help but laugh, "That's because they haven't suffered a loss on this, and once they have, it will be too late, and by then what will be left for them may be a lifetime of regret."

Ji Xiaoyu nodded his head greatly and said, "That's right, that's right. That's the way it is."

“So that’s why ah, no matter what you do, you have to be a little more secure, as the saying goes ……”

“Be careful, you’ll never be too careful!”

The first thing you need to do is to be careful.

Ji Xiaoyu smiled cheekily and chattered again about some interesting stories from her part-time job and how she was doing in school.

However, what caught Ji Feng’s attention the most was a name that Ji Xiaoyu often mentioned – Kuang Wei.

The surname Kuang was not very common, but from the tone of voice when Xiao Yu spoke, Ji Feng could hear that she had a good feeling for this Kuang Wei.

“This Kuang Wei goes to your shop from time to time?” Ji Feng asked with a smile.

According to Ji Xiaoyu, Kuang Wei was her senior, used to be in the same high school as her, a year above her, and was said to be a very nice boy.

“Yeah, he also works in our cafe, so of course he often visits our shop.” Ji Xiaoyu said with a nod, “And yeah, he’s also our boss’s son.”

“So it’s the second generation of rich people.” Ji Feng said deliberately.

Ji Xiaoyu immediately dismissed Ji Feng’s comment as she said, “When he first came to our shop, no one knew that he was the boss’s son because he worked with us all and never did his job, he was very nice, and he never mentioned his family. And he was the one who spoke up for me when a customer bullied me unreasonably once. If that customer hadn’t later insisted on calling our manager over, I wouldn’t have known that Kuang Wei was our boss’s son.”

“So that’s how it is.” Ji Feng asked with a smile, “So in that case, you like him?”

“No, not at all.” Ji Xiaoyu said somewhat shyly, “Third brother, don’t talk nonsense.”

Ji Feng laughed and asked again, “Not like? Then it means you have a good feeling?”

“He’s very nice.” Ji Xiaoyu said.

Ji Feng smiled and said, “Well, since Xiao Yu said it was good, then I guess it must be good, I’d like to meet him sometime ……”

“Third brother, you don’t want to scare people.” Ji Xiaoyu hurriedly said.

Ji Feng was dumbfounded, now there is still nothing, Xiao Yu this girl began to protect, in the future if the two really have any relationship, who still dare to say a word and a half?

However, he had some thoughts in his heart.

This Kuang Wei, is he really as good as Xiao Yu says he is?

Xiao Yu is quiet, and although she is intelligent, she is too inexperienced in dealing with people, and her ability to distinguish between right and wrong is not good enough, so she might be deceived.

The truth is that it is still too early to draw conclusions as to whether or not it is really like what Xiao Yu said.

..... You always have to meet to find out.

The name of the cafe where she works for the summer is, according to Xiaoyu, Dark Fragrance Coffee, which sounds like a rather poetic name.

The café is located on Menting Road, and it takes about forty minutes to get there from home on an electric bike at a normal speed, which is not a short distance.

But this distance was negligible compared to the huge Yanjing, so on the whole, it was appropriate for Xiao Yu to stay at home. In Ji Feng's opinion, this should also be the reason why Little Uncle and Little Aunt were working at Dark Fragrance with their daughter.

If it was too far from home, they would definitely not agree.

Under Xiao Yu's direction, it took the two of them about half an hour to get here, which was a bit faster than the usual time when Xiao Yu rode her bike alone.

As they parked, Ji Feng smiled and asked, "Xiao Yu, no one in this shop knows what your family does, right?"

"Don't worry, no one knows yet." Xiao Yu said, "My dad instructed me in advance that I was not allowed to report my family's sign outside, or I would not be allowed to come out again. So now when I get people asking me what my family does, I just say that my family is the most ordinary family, my parents are both workers and live from paycheck to paycheck."

"Well, that's good." Ji Feng smiled and nodded his head.

Ji Xiaoyu was an employee of Dark Fragrance and had to go in first to change into her work clothes, so she couldn't go through the front door, so Ji Feng followed her and went in through the side door.

"Xiao Yu is here." As soon as he entered, a girl greeted Xiao Yu.

It could be seen that Xiao Yu seemed to be quite popular here, all along the way, there were quite a few girls talking to Xiao Yu very enthusiastically, and some were even teasing her.

"Xiao Yu, you're here so early."

"Yo, you even brought a handsome guy with you, Xiao Yu, this can't be your boyfriend, right? Our young boss is jealous."

"Don't talk nonsense, this is my brother, it's not what you think." Ji Xiaoyu smiled and said back.

Ji Feng followed Xiao Yu with a smile, watching her laughing and joking with others, frankly being watched curiously by those girls.

At this time, a girl who was about the same age as Xiao Yu saw her and hurried over, glancing at Ji Feng next to her in surprise and asking Xiao Yu in a low voice, "Xiao Yu, this is your boyfriend, right? That's good."

"No, this is my brother, not a boyfriend." Ji Xiaoyu said helplessly, she didn't know how many people she had explained to along the way, did Third Brother look so much like her boyfriend?

The girl's face changed and she said in a low voice, "No? That's bad, Xiao Yu, is it okay if you let this handsome guy pretend to be your boyfriend?"

"Why?" Ji Xiaoyu asked a little strangely.

"You come over here" The girl smiled apologetically at Ji Feng, then pulled Ji Xiaoyu to the side and whispered something.

With Ji Feng's ears, the conversation between the two could not be hidden from his ears at all.

What the girl said was, "Xiao Yu, the boss's wife is here today, I heard that she is specifically looking for you, I think you should take the day off and hide for a while."

Ji Xiaoyu was a bit puzzled, "The boss's wife is here, what am I hiding for? What is she looking for me for?"

"I said are you really confused, or are you pretending to be?" The girl said, "You are in a relationship with our boss's son, of course his mother is coming to look for you"

"What are you talking nonsense about, who is in love with Kuang Wei, I am not." Ji Xiaoyu said a little shyly. She thought that Kuang Wei's mother had come to see what her son had found in his girlfriend, but she really wasn't in a relationship with Kuang Wei, so naturally she didn't have to hide from her.

However, Ji Feng heard something from the girl's words. It looked like the boss's mother was not just here to keep an eye on her son, but more importantly, she might be here to raise questions.

As expected, the girl said, "Come on, don't you think we can't see that Kuang Wei is usually so nice to you? Why doesn't he treat me better than you? And he's pretending with me!"

"Then, that doesn't mean we're in a relationship." Ji Xiaoyu said a little breathlessly.

"Alright, alright, it's useless to be sophomoric now." The girl didn't believe Ji Xiaoyu's words at all, she said, "I can tell you, from those old employees, our boss's wife is particularly sarcastic and very snobbish, she must not have anything good to say when she comes to you this time, maybe ah, she is here to ask for punishment this time, I think you'd better hide."

"This"

Ji Xiaoyu was at a loss for words, "Even if she is as sarcastic as she is, there is no need to come looking for trouble with me, ah, I am really not in a relationship with Kuangwei. Besides, even if we really coveted ah up, if she didn't want to, she could just tell us directly, she doesn't have to find trouble with me, right?"

“You think everyone is as kind as you are!” The girl bristled and said, “Xiao Yu, don’t be naive. What kind of person is our boss’s wife? How can she talk to you so nicely? If your family was rich or a high cadre, maybe she would really lick her face to talk to you. But then, your parents are ordinary workers, the boss’s wife will definitely not look at you in the eye.”

“My family” Ji Xiaoyu wanted to say something but stopped.

Seeing this, the girl couldn’t help but take Ji Xiaoyu’s hand and softly comforted her, “Xiaoyu, don’t be sad, we are just children of ordinary families, thinking of flying up to become a phoenix, it’s not realistic. You are so pretty, if you find a boy with a comparable family background, the other party will definitely spoil you especially, so that life is also comfortable, don’t you think so?”

Chapter 649

“Xiao Yu, our boss’s son is indeed good, and I can see that he should really like you, but if you can’t get past the boss’s wife, everything will be for nothing.”

Seeing that Ji Xiaoyu was hesitant, the girl could not help but whisper in a low voice to console her, “If she comes and says something about you directly, where can you put your face? I’m afraid you won’t even get your salary for this month by then, how worthless would that be?”

“Xiao Hong, thank you for reminding me, but I really don’t have a relationship with Kuang Wei, if the boss’s wife really comes looking for trouble with me, I’ll make it clear to her, since her family can run a cafe, I’m sure it won’t be unreasonable.” Ji Xiaoyu said softly, “I can’t even stop doing my job just because I’m worried about her coming to look for trouble.”

Not far away, when Ji Feng heard Ji Xiaoyu say this, he couldn’t help but secretly nod his head, Xiao Yu had finally made progress, her originally soft character was finally considered slightly tougher, but this was still far from enough ah.

The first time I thought about it, Ji Feng couldn’t help but feel a slight twitch in his heart, was it really like that girl called Xiao Hong said? Could it be that she was in the middle?

If the girl called Xiao Hong liked Kuang Wei, but saw that Kuang Wei was usually very good to Xiao Yu, she should have some feelings in her heart. And at this time, the boss’s wife came over and Xiao Yu left on leave in fear. At this time, if Xiao Hong said something slightly in front of the boss’s wife, I believe that boss’s wife must have a bad impression of Xiao Yu.

Under such circumstances, if Ji Xiaoyu wants to talk to Kuangwei as a friend again, and if she is still in the capacity of an ordinary worker’s daughter, I believe that the boss’s wife should not be looking at Xiaoyu anymore.

—would that be the case?

Ji Feng’s gaze couldn’t help but turn to Xiao Hong’s face and carefully surveyed it.

After a few moments, he couldn’t help but shake his head slightly, from Xiao Hong’s face, all he saw was sincerity and worry, not a trace of cunning and resentment” The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you’re getting into, and you can’t help but think that if you’re so young and your acting skills are so good, then she'll be okay when she grows up. She must still play everyone else in a daze?

Ji Feng instantly chose to believe this Little Red, believing that all the things she said were true.

Then, this meant that that boss lady should really be of a sarcastic character, of course, this was only after Little Red had mixed in a lot of personal perceptions, however, this obviously also showed that the boss lady of this Dark Fragrance Cafe was definitely not someone with a good character.

"Xiao Yu, if you really don't want to leave, how about this, let your brother pretend to be your boyfriend and deal with the boss lady first, at least to get this month's salary, do you think so?" Xiao Hong was giving Ji Xiaoyu an idea, "Once the boss's wife sees that you have a boyfriend, at most she will criticize you twice and not allow you to bring your boyfriend to the shop, but at least she won't give you a hard time, right?"

"Little Red, right?"

Ji Feng suddenly spoke up, immediately startling Xiao Hong, "How did your boss's wife know that her son was in a relationship with Xiao Yu Whether this thing is true or not How did she know?"

"You, you Did you hear everything we just said?" Xiao Hong was startled, her voice was very low just now, she could hear it even from so far away?

Seeing Ji Feng nodding slightly, Xiao Hong was a little dumbfounded.

Ji Feng couldn't help but smile, more or less kind to this little girl, he laughed: "You haven't told me yet, say how did your boss's wife know about it?"

Little Red bristled, "It wasn't that woman Zhou Jin who snitched."

"It was her?" Ji Xiaoyu was stunned, "She's usually not bad to me, she's just a bit arrogant, but she's not that bad!"

"Only you, a silly girl, are still in the dark." Xiao Hong gave Ji Xiaoyu a blank look.

"Who is Zhou Jin?" Ji Feng frowned and asked. He found out that there seemed to be an inside story to the matter, and it was really complicated too.

"Zhou Jin is our front office foreman and the daughter of the manager of this cafe." Little Red said, "She likes Kuang Wei herself and can't see him treating Xiao Yu well, so it's strange that she doesn't snitch on him. Usually she doesn't show it and seems to be nice to Xiao Yu, but several times when I was changing clothes I heard her secretly scolding Xiao Yu"

"How can she be like that!" Ji Xiaoyu said with some anger, "I, I didn't offend her, why did she scold me?"

"Why else?" Xiao Hong bristled and whirled, "Xiao Yu, forget about that now, hurry up and think about what to do. Should we go and ask for leave now, or should we ask your brother to pretend to be your boyfriend and get this thing over with first?"

“This” Ji Xiaoyu was also a bit at a loss for words, where had she ever encountered such a thing, at this time she naturally had no half idea, and could only look at Ji Feng as if for help, “Third brother, what should I do?”

Seeing Xiao Yu’s aggrieved look, Ji Feng was slightly angered, but remembering that Xiao Yu’s character was too soft and still needed to be honed, he could only say with a hard heart, “Don’t be afraid, do what you have to do, if your boss’s wife is looking for trouble with you, then just tell her clearly.”

“Mm!” Ji Xiaoyu naturally had great trust in her third brother, she nodded seriously, “I will explain it clearly to her.”

Ji Feng smiled faintly.

Next to her, Xiao Hong looked dumbfounded, and she couldn’t help but mutter, “Really, Xiao Yu is still young, so it’s understandable that she doesn’t know what’s important, but you’re her brother, why are you also so ignorant of what’s important? What if the boss’s wife doesn’t pay Xiaoyu’s salary? That’s two thousand dollars, is it a small amount?”

“Aiya, I really don’t know what to say about you” Forget it, do what you want, Xiao Yu, I’ve warned you, you’d better reconsider, don’t be stupid.” Little Red stomped her foot and said somewhat anxiously.

Ji Xiaoyu was just about to speak when she suddenly heard a voice coming from the corridor in front of her, “What are you few doing? Ji Xiaoyu, why didn’t you change into your work clothes when you arrived? Who is this person?”

“Oh no, the vixen is here.” Xiao Hong muttered in a low voice, “Xiao Yu, hurry up and change your clothes.”

Saying that, she hurriedly called out, “Foreman Zhou!”

Ji Xiaoyu hurriedly called out after her as well.

Foreman Zhou?

Ji Feng was slightly moved in his heart, could this woman who spoke be the front office foreman that Xiao Hong just said, Zhou Jin?

He couldn’t help but look at the woman who spoke.

In the corridor, a woman was walking over quickly. This woman was wearing dark cafe work clothes and had a badge pinned to her left chest with her position and name written on it. When Ji Feng looked at her, it was obvious that this woman was the one Xiao Hong had spoken of – the front office foreman, Zhou Jin.

Ji Feng looked at the other party carefully, this woman was about twenty-two or twenty-three years old, not too tall, about one meter six, but her body was plump and looked very fleshy.

What caught Ji Feng’s attention the most was her looks.

This woman's cheekbones were slightly high, her mouth was small, she was wearing bright red lip gloss, her chin was slightly pointed, and her eyes were long and narrow with the corners tilted slightly upwards, looking really like a pair of fox eyes.

Moreover, this woman walked, her body swayed, her face also had some charm, looking charming, but also some dusty breath

This kind of woman is the foreman of the front room, but also just right, it seems that she is not all relying on her father who is the manager, ah, she is very resourceful in her own right, and also has a lot of potential in this area.

"This gentleman, this is our backstage, guests please use the front door" Zhou Jin came to Ji Feng and smiled politely.

Ji Feng raised an eyebrow and smiled, "Sorry, I'm Ji Xiaoyu's brother, not a guest here to spend money."

"Oh?"

Zhou Jin was slightly stunned and then smiled, "I'm really sorry, this is the backstage of our staff's operation, is the gentleman going to find a seat in the front hall and wait for a while? Xiao Yu may not have time to accompany you now."

Ji Feng laughed: "Sorry, I'll go out now."

"Third Brother" Ji Xiaoyu hurriedly shouted, with a somewhat pitiful look.

Ji Feng shook his head slightly and smiled, "Xiao Yu, do a good job, I'll find a seat at the front, come and talk to me when you're free, forget it if you're not."

"Oh!"

Ji Feng smiled, turned around and headed out.

Zhou Jin looked at Ji Feng's back and turned around and laughed again, "Xiao Yu, hurry up and change your clothes, today the boss's wife is coming to inspect, you have to behave well, maybe she will take a fancy to you and make you her daughter-in-law, giggle"

Ji Feng's footsteps beat as he listened, then he walked out as if nothing had happened.

"I don't want to." Ji Xiaoyu said in a brittle voice. She was originally quiet in nature, even when she met someone she didn't like, she didn't know what to say.

The corners of Zhou Jin's eyes jumped a few times, a cold aura flashed in her eyes, and then she returned to normal and laughed, "You really don't want it? Giggle giggle"

She laughed delicately and swayed away.

"Hmph!"

Little Red peeked out her tongue, "Vixen."

Zhou Jin walked down the corridor and looked back at Ji Xiaoyu and Xiao Hong standing in the backyard and couldn't help but curse, "Shameless little hoof, you really think you're a princess? The young grandmother of Dark Fragrance must be me, who dares to snatch it from me, I'll make her lose face."

Ji Feng, who walked out of the side door, looked back and sneered darkly, "Today I want to be dark, who dares to bully my sister! If that Converse is really good Hey, this is something that little uncle and little aunt should worry about, they can't manage it themselves."

"However, definitely can't let Xiao Yu suffer is all"

Chapter 650

Walking out of the side door of the cafe, Ji Feng went straight around the front and entered through the main door of the cafe again.

"Welcome." A reception lady at the door immediately smiled politely.

"Thanks." Ji Feng said with a smile. He had already recognised that this reception lady who spoke was one of those girls who had greeted Xiao Yu in the back hall earlier.

"Eh? So it's Xiao Yu's brother." This reception lady also recognized Ji Feng and couldn't help but purse her lips as she said, "Brother Xiao Yu, why isn't he in the back with Xiao Yu?"

Ji Feng laughed: "I just came to see Xiao Yu's working environment, I don't want to drag Xiao Yu into scolding."

"So it's in this way, come on in." That reception lady pursed her lips and smiled.

Ji Feng smiled as he walked in, found a seat and sat down.

At this time, a waiter immediately came over and said with a smile, "Handsome man, what would you like to drink?"

Ji Feng looked up and found that this girl who had come to entertain him was likewise one of the ones who had greeted Xiao Yu at the back earlier, and it was obvious that this girl had come to poke fun at him because he was Xiao Yu's brother.

The first time I sat down here, I was attracting butterflies and making those girls cry and pounce on me, but these girls were probably interested in me because of my relationship with Xiao Yu.

"A cup of hot coffee Don't add sugar." Ji Feng looked at the list item, which stated the prices of various kinds of coffee and snacks, he ordered one at random and said with a smile.

"Okay, handsome brother will have to wait for a while oh~~~!" The girl said with a delicate smile.

Ji Feng smiled and nodded, "Please."

The girl pursed her lips and smiled, turned her head and left.

Because it wasn't the peak traffic period, there weren't many customers in the cafe, and many of the waitresses in the front room were snuggled together, whispering and looking at Ji Feng who was sitting steadily like a mountain from time to time.

"Xiao Yu's brother is quite handsome, oh."

"Yeah, at first it looks a bit ordinary, but when you look closely, you realize that he's really durable oh."

"Che, that's called temperament, okay?"

"He's also quite handsome, just my type, if I didn't have a boyfriend, I'd go after him."

"Don't be a nymphomaniac, such a handsome guy must have a girlfriend, how can you be the one to make a fuss?"

"Yuck! I just like handsome guys, I'm a nymphomaniac, what's wrong?"

"Giggle giggle"

The group of girls were laughing delicately, laughing and trembling, but they were also secretly moved.

In fact, Ji Feng has a steadiness that does not match his age, and more importantly, he has a unique aura about him, sitting there with a feeling of non-anger and self-awareness, which looks to make people appear both cordial and awe-inspiring.

Such an aura is simply too manly compared to those young boys who dress more womanly than women nowadays. Especially since Ji Feng was not dressed in an old-fashioned way, but not too trendy either, it was this kind of ordinary dress that was more striking than other people of his age.

But these girls didn't know that their whispers would be overheard by Ji Feng from time to time, making him cry and laugh.

He hadn't really noticed before that he would be so popular among the little girls.

Of course, when Ji Feng heard it, he just laughed it off, most of these little girls were around eighteen or nineteen years old and it was the time when they liked to play around, so Ji Feng just listened to it as a joke.

"Don't you guys have to work? All joking around here and the boss is paying your wages?" A voice with a slight hint of coldness suddenly came out.

Those girls were immediately startled, glanced at each other, secretly spat out their tongues and hurriedly walked away to work.

Ji Feng, however, raised his eyebrows slightly and looked sideways at the person who spoke. In fact, I didn't need to turn around to know that the person who spoke was no other than Zhou Jin, who was called 'fox spirit' by Xiao Hong.

"And a really domineering woman" Ji Feng secretly said, and then looked into the back hall, but there was no sign of Xiao Yu, I guess she was still changing her clothes, or busy with other work.

Zhou Jin came to the front hall, scanned around and instantly saw Ji Feng sitting at a table, she hesitated slightly, her eyes rolled, then she walked over in a modest manner with a faint smile on her face.

“This gentleman, you are Xiao Yu’s brother, right?” Zhou Jin came across to Ji Feng and asked lightly.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but laugh dumbly, wasn’t this a knowing question? Just now in the back hall he and Zhou Jin had already met, and Zhou Jin already knew that he was Xiao Yu’s brother, and now she was asking this, what did it mean?

“Doesn’t it look like it?” Ji Feng asked indifferently.

“Of course not.” Zhou Jin said nonchalantly, “But I’m sorry, Xiao Yu has already started working and doesn’t have time to accompany you. And we are a business place here, sir it’s always bad for you to take up a position here How about this, you go back first, or go find a resting place nearby, and when Xiao Yu gets off work, you can come back to her, okay?”

The same time, Zhou Jin’s eyes flashed with an imperceptible look of contempt: really a country bumpkin, or a poor man, as ignorant as Xiaoyu, but still trying to pretend to be a rich boy, what is this big appearance sitting here? Does he really think he is a rich man?

In Zhou Jin’s opinion, Ji Feng’s so-called grand demeanour and calm demeanour that he displayed by sitting here in such a manner were all pretence.

Zhou Jin hates this kind of people, since you are poor, then you should honestly go and eat your hardships, go and do your labour, even if it is brushing dishes and washing dishes, doing hard labour and picking up rags, that is the life you should lead, what do you have to do to get into the pile of rich people?

Can you afford to live like a rich person?

Since you are a poor person, you should have the appearance of being a poor person, don’t think about pretending to be fat all day long, that will only make people despise you.

This ‘pretend’ atmosphere and composure of Ji Feng made Zhou Jin unusually despise.

Besides, Ji Feng was also in the way here, Zhou Jin had made up her mind that when she went to work, the boss’s wife would come down to inspect the place, so she would have to put on a good show in front of the boss’s wife, so that Xiao Yu, the poor man who insisted on posing as a princess, would get out of the cafe in disgrace and wouldn’t even get paid!

Don’t you want to be poor and pretend to be rich?

I’ll give you a taste of what it’s like to pretend to be a rich person, and you won’t even get paid.

But Ji Feng is here, in case this poor guy sees his sister being bullied and starts to go crazy, then there will be some trouble, and if she, the manager’s daughter, is pestered by such a person, what face will she have?

Therefore, Zhou Jin wanted to drive Ji Feng away.

She firmly believed that since Ji Feng was a poor man, he must not have ordered anything to drink if he was sitting here, and he must be embarrassed to sit here. If he ordered something to save face
Hmph, just with the price of this cafe, I'm sure it would make his meat hurt for a while, right?

While Ji Feng heard Zhou Jin's words, he faintly frowned.

What kind of tone was this? Why did it sound so awkward?

Ji Feng asked indifferently, "What, you can't sit here without ordering something?"

"Sir, I'm really sorry, if you were a customer, we would naturally welcome you strongly, but you're Would you go and find a place to rest nearby?" Zhou Jin said nonchalantly.

Ji Feng couldn't help but be amused, he was exasperated, "I'm sorry too, because I've already ordered something, you can go now."

"You" Zhou Jin was stunned, seeing Ji Feng's playful smile, she instantly turned ashamed and angry, her face flushed red with anger, she turned around and left with a huff, only dropping a sentence, "Then you take your time."

"Bang!"

Ji Feng slapped the table violently and said in a cold voice: "What are you! Call your manager over, I'd like to ask, what kind of service attitude is that?"

Zhou Jin was instantly startled and turned around violently, looking at Ji Feng in annoyance, and then turned her head to look again and said in a low voice: "You'd better not make trouble here, I'm not bothering with you because you're Xiao Yu's brother, don't be insensitive!"

"What?!"

Ji Feng looked at her in amazement, he was insensitive?

He was really amused and angry, he couldn't help but shake his head slightly and waved his hand, "Let's go, let's go."

Ji Feng really wasn't half interested in talking to this woman any further, he was really afraid that he would also be infected with idiocy.

"Humph!" Zhou Jin, however, gave a proud hum and proudly turned around and left, as if she was a cockerel in a fight, looking at Ji Feng who simply didn't know what to say.

"Sir, your coffee!"

Those waitresses saw that Ji Feng and Zhou Jin had an argument and hurriedly brought the coffee over, speaking in a slightly high voice, obviously not wanting to make Ji Feng look bad, and indirectly sweeping Zhou Jin's face.

Sure enough, only to see Zhou Jin, who was leaving, couldn't help but pause in his steps.

"Brother Xiaoyu, don't be ordinary with this vixen, she is like this, looking down on the poor" The waitress lady said.

Ji Feng smiled and nodded, laughing, "I know, thank you"

"You're welcome!" That girl instantly smiled slightly and then her face changed slightly, "Oops, the boss lady is coming down from upstairs, I have to go over there"

Ji Feng smiled and nodded at the girl as an expression of his gratitude, at least since he came to this Dark Fragrance Café, all the people Ji Feng had seen were people who had good intentions towards him, except for Zhou Jin, the foreman in the front room.

He then looked up at the stairway on the first floor, where several people were walking down the stairs, led by a woman in her forties, technically speaking, she should be considered a noblewoman, because the clothes she was wearing, were too luxurious!
