

Campus Master 771

Chapter 771

A few people in the dormitory from time to time laughing, so lively, but it is better than going to see that so-called boundary tent people exchange group.

Ji Feng couldn't help but be a little puzzled and asked, "You said that a few of us are very strange, there are quite a few boundary tent foreign teachers in our school, right? I don't know how many I've seen alone, how come I didn't feel how strange before, but now once the exchange group from the boundary tent comes, I'm a bit disgusted instead!"

Zhao Kai pushed up his glasses and said seriously, "That's because before you thought that there was no threat to the foreign teachers of the realm, they were here to make a living and could only teach in a proper manner, but the exchange group of the realm tent was not like that, they were here to exchange in a beautiful name, but in reality they just wanted to spar with us, this was clearly a kind of intention to compete with each other, that's why you so repulsive."

"Is that so?" Ji Feng was a bit stunned, "Zhao Kai, when did you change your major to psychology?"

"Although I didn't practice psychology, I know what's in your hearts now ....." He laughed heatedly and said, "Actually, I was thinking the same thing! Then I analyzed it carefully and finally came to such a conclusion."

"Not to mention, there's really some truth to Kai Zi's words." Han Zhong nodded slightly and said, "Not many people in this sector tent are good, but if you're just here to make a living, or to do things properly and do business, then we still have that generous heart, but if you're here to pick a fight ....."

"Now they're the equivalent of coming to pick a fight." Du Shaofeng said sullenly, "If it was just an academic exchange of advanced scientific experience with each other, that would naturally be fine, but they even want to exchange martial arts ....." Martial arts itself is not a suitable thing for exchange!"

"Old Du, I remember that you are also from the Martial Arts Association, right?" Han Zhong patted Du Shaofeng's shoulder, "If those boundary tent bastards go too far, then you can beat them up in the ring and let them know that coming to our China to show off their martial arts is not a wise choice!"

Du Shaofeng immediately shook his head, "I won't do it, anyone who goes up there is going to get beaten up, I'm not going to be that big head."

"What do you mean?" Zhao Kai asked.

"The student council has approached our president before and instructed us not to hit hard, so if we lose a move or two, it won't be a big deal." Du Shaofeng said, "Our Martial Arts Association isn't even going to be on it, so whoever likes to be on it."

"Fuck!"

Han Zhong slapped his palm on the table and sneered, "Then what's the point of communicating, just have all of us from the martial arts association crouch on the ground with our heads in our hands and just let people beat us up!"

“That way, the school won’t be able to carry it, where will the leaders’ faces be held?” Zhao Kai once again habitually pushed his glasses, sneering: “So, the school has great expectations of our martial arts clubs, to resist, to fight as if they were brave, but not to win, and to lose beautifully ..... This kind of requirement, I reckon I’m afraid that in the whole of the martial arts society of the United University, no one can do it, the school is also too look up to us people.”

“That’s why I’m hiding in the dormitory and not going out.” Du Shaofeng scratched his head, “Now several martial arts clubs in the auditorium have been arranged to join other students to welcome the exchange group from the boundary tent, I’m too lazy to go, so I might as well smoke and chat here!”

“You think you can hide here and live in peace?” Zhao Kai laughed, “Just now, the student council’s life department came to inform us that there will be occasional inspections today, and anyone who dares not maintain good hygiene in the dormitory, dare to smoke and play cards secretly, will be punished if caught.”

“Holy shit!”

Du Shaofeng hurriedly got up and locked the dormitory door, “This is safe now, right?”

Ji Feng and the others were suddenly dumbfounded, this guy was really stupid and cute.

“OK, OK, don’t say so much, hurry up and sit on the field, fighting landlord .....” A few unscrupulous students with cigarettes in their mouths, put the table towards the middle of the dormitory, and sat down on all four sides and started playing cards.

From time to time, someone would ask, “By the way, besides not being able to play cards and smoke, what else does the school say you can’t do these days?”

“You can’t make the dormitory too dirty or messy.”

“Oh, this is to be observed ..... But it’s not our responsibility to make the corridors dirty and messy, is it?”

“..... Good idea!”

Just when Ji Feng, the four delinquent students, were thinking of ways to cause havoc, inside the auditorium of the United University, it was a different scene.

Because the Boundary Tent was sending a delegation over, so in order to show how much importance was attached to this matter, United University had also drawn some students with good academic performance or special skills to form a team, specifically responsible for conducting various exchange activities with the Boundary Tent exchange delegation.

As a result, a warm welcome ceremony was being held in the auditorium of the United University.

The majority of the students were drowsy as they watched those Canopy people and listened to one of the school’s leaders gushing on stage highly praising the exchange event.

“Nima, it’s just an exchange group from the Boundary Tent, is it necessary to be like this?” Zhang Lei yawned and couldn’t help but shake his head slightly, “Those who don’t know think it’s a national leader coming to inspect.”

Because he was only in the mindset of watching, Zhang Lei didn’t even sit in the audience seats below, but just stood in the corridor on the side. Next to him was the captain of the school’s escort team, Zhou Li, who was responsible for maintaining order.

After entering his junior year, Zhou Li, the deputy captain of the student escort team, had become the captain as well. The original captain of the escort team could no longer take up the position of captain because he had reached his senior year and was very heavy in his studies, plus he was busy looking for a job.

“If it was a state leader coming to inspect, the specifications would definitely be even higher than that!” Zhou Li laughed, “How about going out for some fresh air if staying here is rather tiresome?”

“That’s a good idea.” Zhang Lei laughed heatedly and was about to turn around and go out.

“The following is a speech from the representative of the boundary tent exchange group!” On the rostrum, a certain leader’s impassioned voice suddenly came out.

Zhang Lei immediately stopped in his tracks, “What are the Boundary Tent bastards going to speak about?”

“Keep your voice down.” Zhou Li reminded in a low voice, “There are people in the boundary tent who know Chinese, it’s not good for them to hear.”

Zhang Lei shook his head slightly and cursed, “Damn it! Talking in your own home and having to be careful, what a world!”

Zhou Li lost his smile at once and said, “No way.”

As the applause fell, a clean looking male walked onto the stage and said into the microphone in his slightly rusty Chinese, “Friends of the United University, my name is Sasaki, I am very happy to be here in China, as a martial artist, it is my honour to be able to fight against the masters of China, only, I wonder if there are still any martial arts in China, which has been declining day by day high fighters .....

At these words, the whole audience was in an uproar!

All the students could not help but be stunned, what did this mean?

Zhang Lei even frowned: “This boundary tent bastard is trying to provoke the Chinese martial arts?”

Zhou Li’s face also looked a bit unsightly as he said in a deep voice, “I guess he’s used to being arrogant in the Boundary Tent, and now he has no control over his mouth.”

“Oh, it seems that this Sasaki student from the Boundary Tent seems to be enthusiastic, and as hosts, we naturally welcome you all!” A leader snorted, trying to divert the attention of the audience underneath.

“For me, the best welcome would be to have an expert fight against me.” The boundary-topped student named Sasaki said proudly, “Only, I also hope that your school will consider my request carefully and let me meet the masters of your country. I hope I can be allowed to give my full strength and not be unbeatable!”

“You bullshit!”

The audience at the bottom didn’t know who suddenly shouted out, and the whole room was even more indignant, this bastard clearly looked down on Chinese martial arts and was openly provoking.

Motherfucker, is there no one in China who can make you give your all?

Zhou Li, however, instantly turned pale: “Bad, something might be wrong.”

He immediately greeted the other members of the school’s escort team, “Brothers, take care to control the situation, don’t let our students get too excited, it won’t be good if something goes wrong.”

Zhang Lei, however, laughed fiercely, “It’s only good to make a scene, it’s better to make a big scene, let’s just go ahead and exterminate the Boundary Tent Boundary Tent bastards right here!”

Zhou Li laughed bitterly, “That would be cool, but the consequences would be too serious.”

At this moment, a group of leaders from the United University also had their brows furrowed, they had put up a sincere attitude of welcoming the Boundary Canopy exchange group, but they had not thought that what they would get in return would be such an arrogant provocation from the other side.

But now they could not stop the other side from speaking, they could only hope that the other side would not be too arrogant, otherwise, the students underneath were all at the age of blood and vigour, if things went on like this, there was no telling what would happen.

“I am a representative of the Boundary Tent Student Exchange Group, but at the same time, I am also a martial artist.” The Sasaki on the stage was unmoved, simply ignoring the angry curses that rang out from time to time below, “I don’t care about other aspects of academic exchange, I only hope that I can meet an opponent here who can fight, if not ..... I will be very disappointed, I hope that the Chinese martial arts, will not let me feel disappointed!”

“Disappointed, you bastard, your kung fu still evolved from the Chinese martial arts!”

“Get off my back, you bastard, this is China, not a place for you to go wild!”

“Let’s get our martial arts community on board and fuck them up!”

.....

As soon as that KAI Tent representative Sasaki finished his words, the students on the stage couldn’t sit still and broke into curses. Especially those boys, who were at the age of hot blooded impulsiveness, how could they tolerate such provocation from the Kaitou people?

Many of the girls also couldn’t help but frown, no matter how strong the KAI Tent really was, it was inappropriate to say such things on such an occasion, and this Sasaki, too, was indeed a little too wild.

“I know, you guys must be scolding me, even though there are many words I can’t understand .....” That Sasaki stood on the stage and smiled mockingly, “If you can only express your anger with invective, I pity you, unable to find even one decent expert.”

Tick-!

Sasaki’s microphone was cut off straight away, the school’s leaders, even if they were more cultured, absolutely could not allow him to go on any longer, or else it would definitely cause a riot.

Sasaki laughed mockingly and walked straight off the stage.

Chapter 772

“Students, please don’t get excited, Sasaki may not be familiar with our Chinese language, so he said some inappropriate words, we will definitely communicate with the exchange group of the boundary tent .....

The students at the bottom were in an uproar, what with their unfamiliarity with the Chinese language and what with communicating with the exchange group from the KAI Tent, this was all bullshit.

What communication?

It’s just to make people say a few less provocative words in the future ..... What is the use of this?

When someone hits you in the face, you have to tell them nicely, “Sorry, we don’t have a custom of hitting you in the face, so don’t do it again .....

The actual fact is that you can’t get a lot of money from the company.

Although the welcoming ceremony continued, the school leaders did not dare to let the Boundary Tent Exchange Group speak again, so they only tried to avoid speaking, and then brought the ceremony to a successful conclusion as far as possible.

In fact, the leaders of the university were also very upset, as they had originally welcomed the delegation from the Canopy in good faith to come to the university for academic exchanges and to raise the international profile of the university.

This was a happy event for all, but this Sasaki from KAI Tent was so arrogant that he did not take the sincerity of the University into consideration and directly provoked them.

In this way, the school leaders could only decide that no other students must be allowed to participate in the exchange activities with the KAI Tent exchange group, and that only those students who had been originally selected would be allowed to take part.

Moreover, if it was possible not to have an exchange on martial arts, then it would be avoided as much as possible.

What was originally a welcome meeting that was still considered integration had now turned into a declaration of war by the Boundary Tent people against the United University of China, and a declaration of war against the martial arts of China.

Even though the United University administration wanted to bring the welcome party to as successful an end as possible, the atmosphere that followed was so cold that people couldn't bear to sit down.

No matter who spoke, no matter what was said, there was no longer a single student audience applauding.

The only remaining sparse applause came from some of the school teachers and leaders, or some students from the student union. Those ordinary students could express their preferences at will, but they couldn't, otherwise, this exchange event would probably have ended just after it had started.

"Let's go!"

Zhang Lei cursed angrily, "Motherfucker, if I stay any longer I won't be able to resist picking up a chair to fight with the boundary tent bastards! Zhou Li, have someone open the door, I'm leaving."

Zhou Li nodded with a grim look on his face and said, "Think outside the box and just pretend you don't know."

"It's weird if I can do that!" Zhang Lei sneered, "Look at what that bastard just said, this is simply a naked provocation, I can't stand to watch, open the door, I want to leave!"

"Actually, I want to go with you too!" Zhou Li opened the door and whispered before Zhang Lei was about to go out.

Zhang Lei patted his shoulder and shook his head, "Buddy, I pity you!"

"Let's go out too!"

Zhang Lei's three roommates all said in turn.

After a few people had gone out, a large number of students started to leave again, and when Zhou Li took a look, he hurriedly locked the doors of the auditorium tightly, if all the students here had left, he would not be able to eat.

Damn, it's those bastards who don't know what they're doing, they really don't know what they're doing!

Zhou Li angrily glared hard at the seats of the boundary tent exchange group, and a cold snort came out of his nostrils, looking disdainful.

.....

"I say, can't you kid grow up a bit? It's been most of the morning since we played, and you still have such lousy skills, huh?" Ji Feng tossed the poker in his hand onto the table, "No more playing."

Zhao Kai and Du Shaofeng also laughed heatedly and stared at Han Zhong.

This kid was really too miserable, almost all morning, he hadn't won a single hand, usually so sharp in dealing with people, but once he played poker, he was actually hard to get the hang of it.

"Really don't play?" Han Zhong's eyes lit up, "That's great."

“Good for what? Let’s settle the bill!” Zhao Kai hummed, “You’re the one who lost a lot, lunch is on you!”

“No problem, no problem.” Han Zhong laughed and said, “It’s just to treat a few brothers to lunch, no problem for sure.”

“What kind of meeting is going on in this school, it’s been more than an hour, why isn’t it over yet?” Du Shaofeng looked at the time and asked in a muffled voice, “Could it be a fight already?”

“Ding .....

Just then, Ji Feng’s mobile phone suddenly rang, and he took out the phone to see that it was Zhang Lei calling.

“Lei Zi, what’s up?” Ji Feng picked up the phone and asked with a smile.

“Where are you?” Zhang Lei asked directly.

Ji Feng was instantly stunned, this kid’s voice seemed a bit off, “I’m in the dormitory .....

“I’m coming over to find you, let’s talk when we arrive.” Zhang Lei immediately said.

“Wait a minute!”

Ji Fengtian beast looked at his watch and smiled, “It’s almost time for dinner, we’ll go down here and eat together later.”

“All of you from the dormitory are here?” Zhang Lei hummed, “You guys are really good at hiding from the quiet .....

After hanging up the phone, Ji Feng couldn’t help but feel a little strange, “What’s wrong with this guy? It couldn’t be that something went wrong with the welcome party, could it?”

“I reckon it’s very likely, those boundary tent people can’t be honest characters.” Han Zhong laughed.

“Alright, let’s go out to eat, we’ll know after we meet Zhang Lei and ask about the situation.” Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, “Whatever the situation is, it doesn’t have much to do with us. It’s not as if the Boundary Canopy people are sending a delegation of students to take over our China, right?”

“That’s not so much, but if the boundary tent sends hundreds or thousands of action movie actresses, they might really take over our school!” Han Zhong hemmed and hawed.

“Haha .....

Ji Feng laughed uncomfortably, “Okay, okay, stop being a tart and hurry up and get out.”

.....

In the office of the president of United University, an old man with white hair was sitting behind his desk, his face as deep as water.

This old man was no other than the president of United University, a cadre at the vice-ministerial level, Chang Yongqing.

At this moment, in front of this old man's desk, there was another middle-aged man, who was standing respectfully, with a face full of bitter smiles.

"Headmaster, this is the situation on the spot, so I ordered the welcoming party to be over as soon as possible, and the delegation from the boundary tent was arranged to stay." The middle-aged man reported.

Chang Yongqing, however, frowned slightly and said, "Xiao Liu, pay attention to pacifying the students, and at the same time, control the boundary tent people's speech, you tell them immediately that if they dare to say any more words that are detrimental to the relationship between the two sides, then we will report it and apply for the cancellation of the exchange activities with them."

"Headmaster, isn't that a bit ..... This is a task arranged from above! Moreover, our school has done so much preparation work, if this is rashly cancelled ....." The middle-aged man could not help but say.

Chang Yongqing said indifferently, "That's right, at the beginning, in order to arrange this delegation to have an exchange with our school, it is true that a lot of people have contributed their efforts and the top also took care of us. But, at that time, our aim was to expand the popularity of United University, not to grovel!"

"But now it's different!" Chang Yongqing stood up, despite having grey hair, he was still in high spirits, not the least bit tired first, "Our responsibility is education, anyone can tolerate it, anyone can grovel to the people of the boundary tent, but only those of us who are in education cannot, because once we do, what we affect, could be a generation!"

He looked at the middle-aged man in front of him with a gleaming gaze, "Little Liu, you must remember that as educators, our every word and deed will have an extremely far-reaching impact, and once we mislead our children, then we are committing a crime! We can't be sinners!"

"Yes, Headmaster, I remember!" The middle-aged man immediately nodded and said, and in his heart, he was extremely impressed with the old headmaster's backbone. As far as he knew, the old headmaster was the first senior official in the education sector who dared to be so tough with the boundary tent people over the years!

Although there were hawks in the military or in politics, and these people carried a strong sense of attack to the outside world, there was really no one in the education sector who dared to say such strong words.

"Go ahead, do as I say, and also the students, there is no need to suppress them too much, children, by nature, are lively and active, otherwise, is that still young people?" Chang Yongqing said indifferently.

The middle-aged man's heart immediately flinched, the old headmaster's words seemed to imply something.

"Principal, but Vice Principal Gao and Secretary Gong there ....." The middle-aged man said with some hesitation, "Should we discuss it with them?"

“Xiao Liu, our country’s university, the implementation of, is the headmaster is responsible for the system, do you think so?” Chang Yongqing asked calmly.

The middle-aged man called Xiao Liu was instantly astonished, although the old headmaster’s words seemed plain and simple, the meaning in these words was a declaration of his control over the entire United University!

The president was the head of the university! No one else was qualified to control the entire university!

“Old Headmaster, I remember your words, I’ll go and do it now!” The middle-aged man immediately said.

In his heart, he said, “It seems that the arrogant and provocative attitude of the boundary tent people has enraged the old headmaster, those boundary tent people are really bastards too, coming to the land of China and saying such asshole words, this is clearly to provoke trouble!

“Also, if Secretary Gong and Vice Principal Gao ask about it, just say that it was my intention!” Chang Yongqing said indifferently.

“Yes!” The middle-aged man immediately nodded his head.

“Go!” Chang Yongqing waved his hand and once again sat back in his chair, closing his eyes and resting his mind, looking not a bit different from an old man next door.

Chapter 773

“Lei Zi, why have you been silent, your face is very ugly!” Ji Feng frowned at Zhang Lei, “What exactly has made you angry like this? Did Shen Jingyi not dump you again?”

Inside a small restaurant not far from the United University, after Ji Feng and the others had met up with Zhang Lei, they had Han Zhong as the host and came to a small box in this small restaurant to have some simple lunch.

But from the moment he saw Zhang Lei, this guy’s face was as ugly as if everyone owed him money, his face was full of displeasure, and he was also gnashing his teeth from time to time, as if he had a grudge against someone, which made Ji Feng quite strange.

The previous Zhang Lei was a big-hearted character and had never been like this before.

“I pooh, don’t even look at how charming my buddy is, she’s about to be tamed into submission by me, how dare she not dump me?” Zhang Lei hummed, “Besides, as a man, if a woman ignores you, do you have to cry and howl and die? Am I such a loser?”

“Then why are you crying and losing your money?” Zhao Kai asked with a smile.

“It’s not because of that doggone boundary tent bastard!” Zhang Lei couldn’t help but grunt coldly, he seemed to be full of anger at the mention of the incident, gritting his teeth, “These Boundary Tent bastards, it’s just not like that, a guy called something like Sasaki went on stage as a representative of the Boundary Tent exchange group and actually called out to challenge the Chinese martial arts .....

Soon, Zhang Lei told the story clearly from beginning to end, especially that Sasaki's speech, which he had learnt without a trace, even that tone of voice was a bit similar.

Obviously, that Sasaki's speech had obviously stimulated Zhang Lei, which was why he remembered it so clearly.

Ji Feng and other people's faces are likewise not very good, being bullied by others to the doorstep, pointing their noses and asking if there is an expert who can make him give his full strength ..... Not only do they have to fight, they have to fight well!

"What a fucking asshole!" Han Zhong laughed coldly, "I wonder how many heads he's grown, daring to say that in China."

"He still thinks this is the late Qing Dynasty, huh?" Zhao Kai bristled and sneered.

Du Shaofeng couldn't help but touch his fist, his eyes shining with a strong wariness and occasional cold light flashes.

"I say madman, or you go up and fuck them all to death, damn it, let's see how arrogant they still are!" Zhang Lei said indignantly.

Ji Feng shook his head slightly and said, "We can't be unforgiving and want to do something just because people said a few arrogant words, right? Let's see what the school's reaction is before we say anything."

"Forget it, let's eat, I'm too angry to eat if I think about the boundary tent bastard again." Zhang Lei impatiently waved his hand.

Ji Feng faintly smiled, but in his heart he secretly sneered, the boundary tent people were also a bit too arrogant, usually being arrogant was just fine, but at this welcome party, they actually dared to shout so openly, this was not only equal to slapping the school with a loud mouth, but also a provocation to all the students of the United University.

How could they have the guts to say such things?

In that auditorium, if a riot was caused, just one mouthful of spittle could drown those people from the boundary tent exchange group!

However, Ji Feng also knew very well that such matters were not something that people like himself could interfere with, at most, they could only express their discontent in private, and it would still be up to the school's leaders to make a decision on what to do.

He couldn't help but shake his head and smile: "A small exchange group is just a small group, there is no need to take it so seriously. A simple exchange event, no need to make such a fuss."

"That's true." Zhang Lei nodded and smiled, "Let's see how the school handles it, if those leaders are too cowardly, I'm afraid they won't be able to explain it to us."

"Dinner's ready!"

Meanwhile, about a kilometre or so away from the United University, there was a three-star hotel called the Jinli Hotel, where the people from the boundary tent exchange group were staying.

According to the university's original plan, the group was to be accommodated in a newly built staff dormitory.

There were not many staff members living in this building, and for the safety of the group, the school arranged for them to stay in this building.

Although the environment here is not as good as that of a star hotel, the conditions are not too bad.

However, the Canopy people refused to stay here, saying that they were worried about security and had to pay for their own rooms in outside hotels.

The school had no choice but to book a room for them at the Jinli Hotel. After all, this was part of the hospitality category, so they couldn't really pay for it themselves.

After returning to the hotel from the United University, the Boundary Tent's exchange group immediately held a short meeting.

The person in charge of the KAI Tent exchange group was a vice president of Kyoto University named Ichiro Watanabe, a middle-aged man in his early forties, a little short, with a pair of glasses and a somewhat bulky figure.

The other members of the exchange group all sat in a circle and listened to the lecture given by Ichiro Watanabe, the vice-president who was leading the group.

In the KAI Tent, no matter what the profession is, the hierarchy is rather strict, especially the relationship between teacher and student, which is more like that between master and subordinate, very strict and cannot be overstepped in the slightest.

It was not uncommon for teachers to scold students, and students did not dare to resist, otherwise they would be ostracised by the whole school.

Therefore, all these students sat upright and listened attentively as Ichiro Watanabe lectured them.

"Let's start today with the purpose of our exchange, which is to absorb some of the essence in Chinese education, and at the same time to probe their level of education and how far it really is from ours ....." While the meeting was in progress, Ichiro Watanabe used the KAI tent language directly, not knowing if it was to prevent others in the hotel from eavesdropping.

"..... Remember, if it's a technical exchange, no technical talk, only manual operations, and absolutely no hint of our core secrets! If it's an exchange in other areas, you can do what you see fit." Ichiro Watanabe concluded with an exhortation, "Alternatively, for exchanges in martial arts, we can use our actual actions to show the Chinese what it means to be a truly powerful nation!"

"Ha Yi!" All the students responded at the same time.

"Sasaki and Kawaki Yenko stay, the others go back to rest!" Ichiro Watanabe said.

"Haji!"

The Sasaki and Kawaki Yenko that Watanabe Ichiro spoke of were the two representatives of this exchange group, as well as the deputy head of the exchange group.

Sasaki was in his early twenties, very clean-cut, with hair that covered his eyes on one side, and dressed in a simple, casual exchange group tracksuit that, from a distance, would have been hard to believe could be a man.

Kawaki Yanzi was also a girl in her early twenties, with long hair and a tall figure, and without the rough skin of a woman in a kaiju tent, her whole body looked very hydrated. In particular, her fox eyes, which were slightly tilted upwards, gave her entire being a different kind of charm.

A woman like this was the kind of woman that any man with an evil heart would treat as the best prey, and a pair of soul-stirring eyes would be enough to drive many men crazy.

However, Ichiro Watanabe did not dare to even look at her, and even if he did, he did not dare to meet her eyes.

Not for any other reason, but simply because this somewhat flamboyant-looking Kawaki Yanzi was in fact the second young lady of the Kawaki family of the Kaitou.

If the Chuanmu family was mentioned in the Boundary Tent, I am afraid that everyone would immediately change their faces dramatically, all because of the Chuanmu family's origins, which were really scary.

When you think of the KAI Tent's gangs, one name instantly comes to mind – the Yamaguchi Group.

From the financial sector to politics to the underworld, wherever there is interest, the Yamaguchi-gumi is involved.

There are even many MPs in the Kaito Tent who are secretly members of the Yakuza, which shows how powerful the Yakuza really are!

And the family that controls the Yamaguchi-gumi is the Kawaki family!

It is easy to understand why Ichiro Watanabe, who is the Vice-President and head of the exchange group at the highly hierarchical and perverted KAI Tent, is so afraid of the seemingly soft and fragile Kawaki Yanzi.

If this Second Lady wanted to, he could have made Ichiro Watanabe, the Vice Chancellor of Kyoto University, step down at any time, and his corpse would have been found in the gutter the next day at most!

Under such circumstances, how could Ichiro Watanabe not be afraid?

What's more, this exchange activity to China is nominally directly under the sole responsibility of Ichiro Watanabe, but in reality, he knows very well that he is only nominally in charge, or rather, he can be responsible for the other students, but he wants to make this Kawaki Yanzi and Sasaki obey his orders ..... unless he thought he had lived too long.

Looking at Kawaki Yanzi, who was sitting on her knees, and then looking at Sasaki beside her, Watanabe Ichiro felt a little chill at the back of his head.

Don't look at this Sasaki, who looked very clean-cut, as if he was a testosterone-deprived man, but in reality anyone who dared to say that was not far from death.

Because this clean-cut man is just as big and scary!

It is said that ..... Sasaki is the only son of the number one assassin of the Yakuza, and his own kung fu, too, is terrifyingly powerful.

What's more, this man is extremely murderous, and once someone at Kyoto University mocked him with the phrase 'soft little beauty', only to have him beaten to death alive.

Faced with these two gods, Ichiro Watanabe did not dare to reprimand him recklessly, even if he was the headmaster!

Therefore, he could only say cautiously, "Sasaki, that speech you made today, how come you did not consult with me beforehand ..... I'm not sure if that's right. Isn't that a bit, a bit inappropriate?"

Chapter 774

Therefore, he could only say cautiously, "Sasaki, how come you didn't consult with me beforehand about that speech you made today ..... our exchange group for discussion? Isn't that a little, a little inappropriate?"

"Inappropriate?"

Sasaki's clean face showed a grim sneer, "Speaking to the Chinese, there is also a proper or improper?"

"This ....." Watanabe Ichiro couldn't help but choke and could only say carefully, "Sasaki, after all, we are here for an exchange this time, so if we act too recklessly, it will be more or less ....."

"Other aspects of the exchange are of no concern to me, what I am interested in is only the martial arts exchange with China!" Sasaki spoke in a harmonious but rather feminine voice, making people sound a little uncomfortable all over, "I also wonder, how many people in China can possess the ability to fight with me."

"Giggle ....." Next to her, Kawaki Yanzi pursed her lips, "Sasaki, when you say that, you are insulting the martial arts of China, so don't get beaten up and left in the dust then."

Sasaki laughed lightly, "Second lady is joking, I would love to have someone like that, otherwise, this trip to China would be really boring ..... That would be too regrettable."

Kawaki Yanzi nodded meaningfully and said, "Let's hope it will be as you wish."

"Principal Watanabe, you don't have to worry about the exchange, I won't ask too much." Sasaki said in a soft voice, "However, I also hope that Principal Watanabe will not ask too many questions about the martial arts exchange, I have my own ideas!"

"Well then, since you have your own ideas Sasaki, I won't ask too much." Ichiro Watanabe said, "However, I hope that Sasaki will not hit too hard when he engages in exchange sparring with the martial arts club of the United University, otherwise, if things go too far, it might involve a diplomatic incident, which is very troublesome."

“If Principal Watanabe has nothing else to do, then Second Miss and I will have to go back first.” Sasaki said.

Ichiro Watanabe hurriedly nodded and said, “Take care, you two.”

Watching the figures of Sasaki and Kawaki Yanzi disappearing into the corridor, Ichiro Watanabe could not help but cry out in his heart, “How could the school send such two students for an exchange, if anything goes wrong, I cannot afford to be responsible for either side!”

If something went wrong with Sasaki and Kawaki Yanzi, Ichiro Watanabe believed that the Yamaguchi group would kill him and feed him to the dogs, not only himself but also his family, his wife and his twelve-year-old daughter .....

The thought of what he might face sent a shiver down Watanabe Ichiro’s spine, and a cold sweat ran down his back.

However, if it was Sasaki and Kawaki Yanzi who had wounded or killed the Chinese, the Chinese side might not necessarily take it lying down, and when they returned to their country, they would be equally blamed.

“Damned Chinese people ..... Bugger!” Watanabe Ichiro couldn’t help but curse out.

.....

Meanwhile, Sasaki and Kawaki Yanzi, who had already arrived in the room, were untouched in the slightest.

The two sat calmly on the sofa, and Sasaki whispered, “Second Miss, you shouldn’t have come to China personally this time.”

“If you can come, why can’t I?!” Kawaki Yanzi asked.

“Second Miss, you are aware that this time we are coming to the United University for an academic exchange, this is just a front, in the course of the next action, there will definitely be certain dangers, as the Second Miss of the Kawaki family, you should not put yourself at risk.” Sasaki spoke, still in a soft voice.

“But you will protect me, won’t you?” Kawaki Yenke stretched out her white fingers, the long nails tracing over Sasaki’s face, “As a ninja, only in your early twenties, you have already become a midshipman, don’t you have the ability to protect me yet?”

“Second Lady, I have a mission to carry out and may not have as much energy to protect you at all times!” Sasaki said.

“This time we have so many people coming from the shadows, are you still worried about not having someone to carry out the mission?” Kawaki Yanzi couldn’t help but purse her lips, “Besides, a mere China may seem like a vast place, but in reality, aren’t they all just a bunch of cowards? They are not worthy of attention!”

Sasaki frowned slightly and said, “Second Miss, if that’s what you think, you’re wrong. My grandfather had participated in the war back then, and he told me that there were really masters in China, and they were very powerful. Back then, in the battlefield, he specialized in assassination operations against the Chinese military commanders, and in the course of one operation, he met a real expert and nearly lost his life.”

“That was before, what about now?” The corner of Kawaki Yanzi’s mouth showed a hint of disdain, “I’m afraid that no one in China now can be called an expert, right?”

Sasaki shook his head slightly and said, “No one can make a judgement until they have fought. Second Miss, I suggest you return to the boundary tent early so that we can act with a free hand.”

“Don’t worry, I will definitely not be a burden to you guys.” Kawaki Yanzi smiled confidently, and then lowered her voice and asked, “Sasaki, there is one thing I am confused about, since our target is .....”

Before she could finish her question, Sasaki made a gesture of silence and said in a faintly detectable voice, “Keep your voice down, Second Lady.”

Kawaki Yanzi made an ok gesture and lowered her voice: “Sasaki, why did we come to Jiangzhou when our target is Hang City? Besides, we’ve always been good friends with the Bamboo Gang, so why would we go after their people?”

“It’s the chairman’s order!” Sasaki said succinctly.

“But why would Father give such an order?” Kawaki Yenke asked.

Sasaki glanced at her, and the innocent and somewhat confused look on her face, which fell in Sasaki’s eyes, was something that made him feel a little odd.

Was it really so naive, Second Lady?

There was a moment of silence before Sasaki said two words, “Graft!”

.....

That afternoon, United University sent out a notice to the entire university’s students, having made a statement to the boundary tent people that if there were any more provocative comments like the one in the morning, United University would unilaterally cancel the academic exchange event.

This notice immediately won a roar of approval from the whole university, and the students’ impression of the school was greatly improved as a result. At least, the fact that they could make such a strong voice was worth their liking.

The Canopy seemed to accept the statement and although they did not apologise, they did not make any more inappropriate comments and the academic exchange went very smoothly, with one exchange item gradually being completed.

Seeing that the Canopy people were not as arrogant as they had been at the beginning, the anger of the students of the United University also subsided, and although they still did not have a good face when they saw these Canopy exchange group members in school, at least no one was pointing at them and making things difficult for them.

Xiao Yuxuan's usual job was also just to be responsible for normal translation during the meetings between the leaders of both sides of the United University and the boundary tent exchange group.

When Ji Feng saw that there was no problem in this, that Gao Dasong was also busy with the reception and had little time to take care of Xiao Yuxuan, he was relieved and began to deliberate with Xu Yuan about going to Hangzhou.

According to Xu Yuan's communication with Fei Fei Zhou, the vice president of Taiwan's Pioneer Pharmaceutical Group will arrive in Hangzhou in two days, and Fei Fei Zhou invited them to rush over to meet and communicate with the people from Pioneer Pharmaceutical Group.

When Xu Yuan mentioned this matter earlier, Ji Feng then immediately drew attention to it and briefly investigated the situation of Taiwan Pioneer Pharmaceutical Group on the internet. He found that the Taiwan Pioneer Pharmaceutical Group was indeed a powerful group, and if he could cooperate with it, it would indeed have a very important role in opening up the Taiwanese market.

Despite his doubts about Zhou Fei Fei's behaviour, being able to cooperate with the Pioneer Pharmaceutical Group would certainly be a very good opportunity for Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory, so Ji Feng attached great importance to this trip to Hangzhou.

Now that the exams were over, and just waiting for the boundary tent exchange group to leave Jiangzhou, the school could officially go on holiday, and Ji Feng had plenty of free time.

Plus, Ji Feng didn't have any good feelings towards those boundary tent people, so he stayed at home, thinking about the upcoming trip to Hangzhou, what matters he would pay attention to, and how to talk to the vice president of Taiwan Pioneer Pharmaceutical Group.

"Ji Feng, should I give Sister Yu Xuan a call?"

Ji Feng was writing a plan in his study when Tong Lei came from the door and said softly, "It's almost seven o'clock now and Sister Yu Xuan hasn't come back yet, I wonder if she's eating with those exchange group people at school."

Ji Feng's eyebrows instantly furrowed, "She hasn't come back yet?"

"Mm!" Tong Lei faintly nodded her head.

"I'll call her here!" Ji Feng immediately picked up the mobile phone that was placed on the table and dialed Xiao Yuxuan's number.

"Hello, Ji Feng." Xiao Yuxuan's gentle voice came over the phone, "Are you waiting anxiously? I'll be back soon."

As she spoke, Ji Feng could clearly hear the garbled sounds coming from the phone, which appeared to be very confusing, which made him frown at once.

"Yu Xuan, where are you?" Ji Feng immediately asked.

"In the Four Seas Hotel next to the school, all the academic exchange programs have been completed today, only the last martial arts exchange remains, so the school's leaders are hosting a banquet for the boundary tent exchange group, and as one of the interpreters, I can only follow over.” Xiao Yuxuan said somewhat helplessly.

Ji Feng frowned and said, “There are so many teachers in the school who know the Boundary Tent language, why do you always have to follow?”

Just as he said this he suddenly reacted and immediately asked, “Yu Xuan, it couldn’t be that Gao Dasong who asked you to follow, could it?”

“It can’t be helped, he has already spoken out and several other leaders have also asked me to come over, so I can’t really shirk.” Xiao Yuxuan said, “They arranged it in too much of a hurry, so I didn’t have time to tell you about it.”

“Simply bastard!”

Ji Feng instantly sank his face and said, “They’re treating you like an escort girl! What a damn ..... You find an excuse to come back immediately!”

Chapter 775

“Simply bastard!”

Ji Feng instantly sank his face and said, “They’re treating you like an escort girl! What a fucking ..... You find an excuse to come back immediately!”

It was impossible for Ji Feng not to be angry, this kind of behavior was too much!

Other than that, although Xiao Yuxuan was a foreign language teacher, her major was not the Boundary Tent language, it was fine to let her be a temporary translator when the Boundary Tent exchange group came, but now they actually wanted her to be at the drinking table, what did they treat her as?

“This .....” Xiao Yuxuan was a bit hesitant, “It’s a bit bad to leave now, right? After all, many people are there, if I leave now .....”

“If your leader dares to criticize you, I’ll make him unable to work at United University!” Ji Feng immediately interrupted her, “Yu Xuan, don’t take into account anyone’s feelings, just leave!”

“Little fellow, this is what you said oh.” Xiao Yuxuan smiled flirtatiously, “When the time comes, if the leader is looking for trouble with me, you have to back me up!”

“Nonsense, I am your husband, if I don’t back you up who else will back you up!” Ji Feng couldn’t help but be exasperated, “You can actually still laugh, how come I didn’t find you so heartless before!”

Xiao Yuxuan giggled, “I can laugh because I also wanted to leave a long time ago, but without someone to make a decision for me, I wouldn’t dare to leave so early, otherwise in case I was disciplined, I wouldn’t even dare to slam the door and resign, otherwise who would support me? But now it’s good, since I have you to back me up, let me even resign now!”

Ji Feng said without good humor, “Then you should resign!”

“Giggle .....” Xiao Yuxuan smiled flirtatiously, “But I don’t want to quit right now, I really like this job .....”

“OK OK, you find an excuse to leave right now, I’ll drive to pick you up and wait for me at the entrance of the hotel!” Ji Feng said without good humor, “Remember, until I arrive, you wait for me in front of the hotel, other than that you can’t go anywhere, remember?”

“Remember, my lord!” Xiao Yuxuan pouted.

Only then did Ji Feng hang up the phone and shook his head, laughing, “This guy, the more he scolds her, the happier he gets!”

Tong Lei couldn’t help but give him a blank look and snapped, “You, don’t know anything, you scolded Sister Yu Xuan, that’s caring for her, besides, you were so forceful in asking her to leave immediately, it’s not for her own good, right? Sister Yu Xuan is not a fool, of course she understands this ..... What woman wouldn’t be happy to have such a caring husband!”

Ji Feng was stunned, and after thinking carefully, it really was so true, he couldn’t help but smile and pinch Tong Lei’s cute little nose: “I will also care for you so much and love you!”

“I don’t want you to hurt me!” Tong Lei knocked his hand away, “Hurry up and go pick up Sister Yu Xuan, those people at the wine table are very annoying, Sister Yu Xuan looks like she has a soft personality, but in fact she has a very tough personality, don’t fall out and suffer when the time comes.”

Ji Feng kissed her forehead and smiled, “I’m going then, you and Xiao Ying prepare dinner at home and wait for us to come back.”

.....

On the corridor outside the public restaurant on the third floor of the Four Seas Hotel, Xiao Yuxuan hung up the phone and couldn’t help but smile sweetly, “Stinky guy, he didn’t call me until now, but, for the sake of him being so nervous, let’s forget it.”

She turned her head again to look at the door of the restaurant opposite, a look of disgust flashed in her eyes, but she still pushed the door and walked in.

Since she was leaving, it was only fair to say hello.

Inside the box, several leaders and teachers from the boundary tent exchange group, as well as several key leaders from the United University, and students from both sides participating in the exchange, were holding a banquet here.

Although the banquet was held in the form of a buffet, the restaurant was a place where cups and chips were exchanged from time to time, and you and I exchanged words, which disgusted Xiao Yuxuan immensely in her heart.

“The two sides are just exchanging superficially, even if they are sitting together for dinner and drinks, there is no need to be so enthusiastic, right? It’s as if they’ve seen relatives they haven’t seen in years, it’s disgusting!” Xiao Yuxuan couldn’t help but secretly shake her head, if the old headmaster was present, how could this happen!

Forcing down the displeasure in her heart, Xiao Yuxuan put on a polite smile and came to follow Gao Dasong, only to find that the latter was staring in one direction, not even knowing that the wine glass in his hand was crooked and the red wine was dripping down from the quilt. His throat, on the other hand, was moving up and down, subconsciously making a swallowing motion.

Xiao Yuxuan immediately followed Gao Dasong's gaze and saw that not far away, a woman in an evening gown with a long and wonderful figure was holding a wine glass and talking to another young man with a clean-cut look.

She immediately recognised that this man and woman were both from the KAI Tent delegation. The man's name was Sasaki, the student who had spoken at the welcome meeting that day, and the woman seemed to be called Kawaki Yanzi, who seemed to have demonstrated a superb skill on the piano at today's art exchange, causing the whole audience to shout in approval.

Xiao Yuxuan could not help but secretly disdain, as a vice-principal, eyes are already middle-aged with grey hair, but actually still stare hard at a girl, do not look at their own age, to be a girl's father has more than enough.

Despite her heart's displeasure, Xiao Yuxuan still maintained her due courtesy on the surface. She coughed lightly to divert Gao Dasong's attention before saying with a smile, "Principal Gao, I'm really sorry, I have some family matters, I have to go back first."

Gao Dazong was first stunned, and when he realised that it was Xiao Yuxuan who was leaving, that originally red face from the drink immediately sank, "Teacher Xiao, isn't it very inconsiderate of the overall situation for you to do so? If you leave, who will be the interpreter?"

"Principal Gao, there are still quite a few translators here, and the specialty that went is not the Boundary Tent language, so many of the Boundary Tent languages I may not be able to translate accurately, and staying here is not very useful." Xiao Yuxuan said indifferently, "Besides, I really have something at home, I hope Principal Gao can understand!"

"Humph!"

Gao Dazong's face was however very ugly, he took a cadence and said, "Miss Xiao, it's not that I'm going to say you, as a teacher and also a staff member in the school, naturally you must first consider the general situation of the school, you are a female comrade, staying here is naturally better for communication, don't you think so?"

"But ....."

Xiao Yuxuan was just about to speak when she was interrupted by Gao Dasong: "Teacher Xiao, if you must go back, it's not impossible, however, you are so inconsiderate of the overall situation and have no sense of responsibility at all, I don't have much trust in your teaching attitude anymore, I will suggest to the Academic Affairs Office, for your teaching job to be reassigned!"

"You ....." Xiao Yuxuan looked at him in astonishment, and for a moment she actually did not know what to say.

"How about it, you just need to stay here and have a few good drinks, then, your job doesn't need to be reassigned, otherwise, I can only do what I just said ....." You think about it!" Gao Dazong's greedy gaze stared fiercely at Xiao Yuxuan's body for a few moments.

It had to be said that even if Xiao Yuxuan was wearing a normal professional suit, it was enough to blossom into a charm that would dazzle others, especially her perfect figure and that flirtatious temperament, which was simply a fatal attraction for men.

Gao Dazong had already had his heart set on Xiao Yuxuan, and now that he had drunk a lot of wine, he naturally could not help himself, his pair of eyes constantly looked up and down Xiao Yuxuan's body, and from time to time, a dash of greed flashed in his gaze.

Xiao Yuxuan couldn't help but shake her head slightly and stared at him in disgust, "Principal Gao, if you must do this, then it's up to you, to ask for leave, I may not be able to ask only from you alone!"

"Teacher Xiao, you have to think about the consequences!" Gao Dazong threatened conspiratorially.

"Idiot!"

Xiao Yuxuan shook her head slightly and said compassionately, then was about to turn around and leave when she suddenly noticed that Ichiro Watanabe, the head of the Boundary Canopy Exchange Group, was walking from behind with a glass of wine.

"Unbridled!"

Gao Dazong did not see Watanabe Ichiro, he was furious at Xiao Yuxuan's unbridled sarcasm, "Teacher Xiao, say it again and I'll listen!"

Xiao Yuxuan, however, ignored him, turned around and left.

"Principal Gao!" Ichiro Watanabe greeted Gao Dasong politely in a slightly rusty Chinese language.

As soon as Gao Dazong, who was still blue in the face, saw Ichiro Watanabe walking over, his face instantly returned to normal, and immediately, a bright smile bloomed from his face, "Mr. Watanabe!"

Seeing this scene, Xiao Yuxuan could not help but look at Gao Dasong with a complicated expression, shaking her head and sighing lightly.

How could a person's face change so quickly?

Why do they have to grovel so much when facing foreigners? Even if they are rich and they are capable, but they are foreigners after all, how can they be of any help to you?

What's more, Gao Dasong is also a teacher and a leader, with the important task of teaching and educating people, so why can't he show some backbone and arrogance?

Xiao Yuxuan, however, did not know that her seemingly pitying shake of the head and light sigh instantly enraged Gao Dasong.

"Miss Xiao, since Mr. Watanabe has come over, as the host, shall we have a drink with Mr. Watanabe respectively?" Gao Dazong said deliberately as he forced himself to hold back his anger.

In his heart, he was sneering, since you are pretending to be noble in front of me, I would like to see if you can still pretend to be noble or not when the boundary tent people let you drink. If you offend the boundary tent people, all they have to do on their way out is to express their protest to the school and your future will be over!

And Ichiro Watanabe, who heard this, had a steep glow in those little eyes and said in a rush, "It's an honour to drink with such a beautiful Chinese woman."

In fact, in the past few days, Watanabe Ichiro had long noticed Xiao Yuxuan, and at this time, he also came over because of Xiao Yuxuan, but unexpectedly, this vice president of the United Chinese University was actually so cooperative, as if he knew what he was thinking in his heart, he actually directly let Xiao Yuxuan take the initiative to approach him .....

Chapter 776

Xiao Yuxuan smiled, her eyebrows knitted slightly, and then she smiled politely, "Mr. Watanabe, I'm very sorry, I'm not feeling well and I can't drink."

"Teacher Xiao, that's not a good excuse!" Gao Dasong laughed flirtatiously from the side, "If Miss Xiao's body is really unwell, shall I send you to the hospital to have a look?"

"Miss Interpreter has a rosy complexion, it doesn't look like she's not feeling well." Watanabe also laughed, "However, no matter what country in the world, a lady has the right to refuse a man."

"Thank you for your understanding!" Xiao Yuxuan directly ignored Gao Dasong, smiled politely at Watanabe Ichiro, and turned around to leave.

"Teacher Xiao!"

Gao Dasong's face was unbearably ugly, "If you leave now, don't come to work tomorrow."

"Whether I come to work or not, it's not up to you!" Xiao Yuxuan's face was also slightly sunken, she had put up with it again and again, but this old shameless thing had gained an inch, it was really not like that!

"Humph!"

Gao Dasong coldly snorted, "To dismiss a teacher on contract, I still have the right to do so."

"You're investigating me?" Xiao Yuxuan's face suddenly turned gloomy as she angrily stared at Gao Dasong, "As a leader, you actually did such a despicable thing, how shameless!"

Xiao Yuxuan knew very well that Gao Dasong was only a vice-principal, and an honorary vice-principal at that, if he hadn't been deliberately investigating himself, he wouldn't have known that he was actually a teacher on contract, and not officially on the staff.

Investigating himself in private, is this what a leader should do?

What's more, between himself and Gao Dasong, there were actually very few interactions, but he went to investigate himself, what did this mean?

"Teacher Xiao, watch your words!" Seeing that Xiao Yuxuan's voice had attracted quite a lot of people's attention, Gao Dasong immediately shouted lowly, "If you continue to be so reckless, I think that you really don't need to come to work tomorrow!"

"Humph!"

Xiao Yuxuan coldly snorted in anger, turned around and walked towards the side, in that direction, several leaders of the United University were talking with their glasses of wine.

Gao Dasong's face was ironic as he stared fiercely at Xiao Yuxuan's back, and only after a long time did he turn his head to Watanabe Ichiro and said, "Mr. Watanabe, I am very sorry, my subordinate is not obedient to discipline, so I have made you laugh."

"Takasago, in our sector tent, the relationship between superiors and subordinates is very strict, there is no way this could happen!" Ichiro Watanabe said, "A subordinate who disobeys discipline must be given strict punishment so that she remembers the lesson."

"Unbecoming!" Gao Dasong snorted coldly, but changed his smile instantly when facing Watanabe Ichiro and nodded, "It is because of the gap between our two sides in education that this exchange is so necessary, both sides can learn from each other's strengths and merits to make up for their shortcomings."

"Yes, although there is a big gap between you and us in education in China, there are also good things that we can learn from, and that is the purpose of this exchange." Ichiro Watanabe said.

His tone seemed pleasant, but it carried a hint of arrogance.

Gao Dasong, however, seemed as if he could not hear it and was full of smiles as he made small talk with Gao Dasong from time to time.

In fact, their attention was not on this conversation, their eyes, from time to time, would glance at Xiao Yuxuan, especially when they saw Xiao Yuxuan's graceful figure when walking, as well as that flirtatious style, always made their eyes shine.

Xiao Yuxuan, however, ignored these two, she could hardly stay here for a minute, especially the wolf-like gaze of Gao Dasong, which made Xiao Yuxuan feel sick in her heart.

She came to a leader of the United University and said, "Director, I have something at home and would like to go back first."

This person was the director of the foreign language department, and was also considered Xiao Yuxuan's direct leader, and he was also very kind, so Xiao Yuxuan came to him to ask for leave.

This director nodded and said, "No problem, remember to be safe on the way!"

"No, Director Wang, Miss Xiao is the interpreter here, if she leaves, won't it be a struggle for us to communicate with the boundary tent exchange group?" Gao Dasong did not know when he came to the front, he said with a sullen face, "Teacher Xiao, this little comrade of yours is very problematic in her thinking, she doesn't know how to take into account the overall situation, by doing so, can she afford the importance the school places on you?"

Xiao Yuxuan's pretty face sank, "I'm sorry, my boundary tent language is not up to par, it's hard to translate accurately, if anything goes wrong, I can't afford it, Principal Gao, you'd better ask someone else!"

"Xiao Xiao, watch your attitude!" Director Wang immediately sensed that something was wrong and he hurriedly came out to round up the situation, "Principal Gao, don't mind, Miss Xiao is just like this, in fact she is right, after all, her specialty is not the Boundary Canopy language, if she really translates wrongly, this is something that will damage the school's face."

"I see that Ms. Xiao has been translating very well these days, so she is perfectly capable of taking on this heavy responsibility. Gao Dazong put on a leadership posture, those who didn't know really thought he was a good leader.

Xiao Yuxuan looked at him in disgust and said in a cold voice, "Principal Gao, I don't want to see you now, one more look at you makes me sick, and because of this, I am taking a leave of absence, are you satisfied?"

All the leaders of the United University present were stunned at the same time!

In fact, among these people, there were quite a few who were familiar with Gao Dasong's personality, and knew that this person usually liked to have an ambiguous attitude with female teachers and students, and also liked to pat the shoulders of female teachers or students, and was privately known as the 'shoulder patting headmaster', meaning that it was a secret sarcasm that Gao Dasong liked to take advantage of women and was more lustful.

However, because Gao Dasong was the Vice President of the Foreign Language College and also the Honorary Vice President, those female teachers or female students could only try to avoid him, and even if they were occasionally taken advantage of a little, they could only put up with it.

However, Xiao Yuxuan was so unrelentingly in Gao Dasong's face that it surprised them beyond measure. This teacher Xiao looked gentle and feminine, but she never thought that she would speak with such an imperious manner, which was really out of everyone's expectation.

"You ....." Gao Dazong also couldn't help but be stunned, he didn't expect that Xiao Yuxuan actually didn't give him any face at all and said such words in public, for a moment, he actually didn't know what to say, he was just furious, his face was blue for a while, that expression was wonderful.

"As a vice-principal, actually going to investigate your own female subordinates specifically and having an ambiguous attitude towards your own female subordinates all day long, you still have the face to put on a moral appearance here?!"

Xiao Yuxuan sneered and asked, "Since we are now having an academic exchange with the Boundary Tent, then I can ask if the Boundary Tent would have such practices! Would their Vice Chancellor, would he do something so shameless!"

That Director Wang's heart immediately tightened and he said in a panic, "Xiao Xiao, don't do anything rash! Since you have something going on at home, hurry up and go back."

"Yes, I think this little comrade should be a bit unwell, hurry up and let her go back!" Other leaders also hurriedly said, jokingly, disgrace in your own home is fine, if these people from the boundary tent Kyoto University see the joke, this matter spreads out, it will really be too humiliating.

Xiao Yuxuan glanced at the red-faced Gao Dasong in disgust, her gaze full of contempt and disgust, coldly snorted, turned around and left.

"Xiao Yuxuan, from now on, you are sacked!"

Gao Dasong gritted his teeth and shouted lowly, "What evidence do you have to say that I am investigating you? As a leader, isn't it proper to know your subordinates? You only asked you to entertain Mr. Watanabe, and you reacted like this. We definitely don't want people like you at Union University!"

"Hypocritical thing!" Xiao Yuxuan sneered, but her footsteps did not stop in the slightest as she walked straight towards the main entrance of the restaurant and arrived at the lockers.

Generally speaking, in this kind of buffet-style restaurant, there would basically be a special storage area where some things that the guests carried with them, or clothes and the like, would be stored. Each locker in this storage area is controlled by an electronic lock, and there is not even a keyhole for it, so others cannot open it at all, so it is generally still relatively safe.

Bang!

Xiao Yuxuan swept her barcode in front of the electronic lock, and the door of that storage box of hers opened automatically, she took out her coat and the kun bag she had with her with a sullen pretty face, and without looking back, she walked straight towards the main door.

"Miss Xiao!"

A voice suddenly came from behind, followed by a strong smell of alcohol.

Xiao Yuxuan's eyebrows knitted together at the sound of the voice, and she turned around to see Ichiro Watanabe walking over with a glass of wine in his hand, slightly swaying, the man's eyes carrying a gaze that was no different from Gao Dazong's.

"Boundary tent bastard!"

Xiao Yuxuan was secretly disdainful and couldn't help but remember Ji Feng's assertion – that boundary tent bastards men were perverts and women were sluts, and to think that he had actually gotten it right.

"Is Mr Xiao leaving so soon?" Watanabe Ichiro's Chinese language was very stiff, but the meaning could still be expressed clearly, "Before I leave, I wonder if I could have a drink with Miss Xiao?"

Xiao Yuxuan glanced at him, her red lips lightly opened and she spat out two words, "Sorry!"

After saying that, she no longer paid any attention to Ichiro Watanabe, put on her coat and went straight to the door, counting the time, Ji Feng was also almost there, so she had to go down and wait for him at the door.

She didn't know how flattering her gesture in the coat was, especially the charm that her gentle body revealed, and how attractive it was in the eyes of Ichiro Watanabe, who was already drunk.

Boom .....

The whole man froze in place as if he had been cast in a fixation spell, staring dumbly at Xiao Yuxuan's figure, an evil thought instantly rising in his heart.

Seeing that Xiao Yuxuan was about to walk out of the restaurant, Watanabe Ichiro could no longer hold back and took a step forward, deliberately throwing the glass of wine in his hand at Xiao Yuxuan's body.

And at that moment, Ichiro Watanabe failed to notice that the door of the restaurant opened, but it was not pulled open by Xiao Yuxuan, but was pushed open from outside.

A stout figure walked in from the outside.

“Pop!” The sound.

The wine glass in Watanabe Ichiro’s hand was violently slapped away, smashing into his face with unerring accuracy, and the next moment, he felt a boom in his head and his entire body flew up, falling heavily to the ground with a miserable scream.

Chapter 777

The next moment, they could see that Ichiro Watanabe flew backwards and hit the floor like a rolling gourd, falling with a loud thud.

The next moment, they saw Ichiro Watanabe flying backwards and hitting the floor like a rolling gourd.

For a while, no one reacted in time, all they could see was a sturdy young man at the entrance of the restaurant, staring at Ichiro Watanabe on the ground with a gloomy face, with a strong killing intent surging in his eyes, as if he might pounce on the fallen Ichiro Watanabe and kill him at any moment.

Xiao Yuxuan was also stunned, however, when she saw the person clearly, her heart was suddenly relieved, “Ji Feng, you’re here.”

This sudden appearance of a sturdy figure was no other than Ji Feng who had come to pick up Xiao Yuxuan.

After knowing that Xiao Yuxuan had attended this banquet, Ji Feng was instantly furious, on the way he raised his car speed to the limit, his superb car skills were also brought into play, originally a journey of more than twenty minutes, it took him just about ten minutes to arrive here.

However, he did not find Xiao Yuxuan’s figure at the entrance of the hotel. After asking the waiter urgently, Ji Feng immediately came towards the third floor. However, as soon as he pushed open the door of the restaurant, he found a scene that made him violently angry.

A thick murderous intent instantly rose up from Ji Feng’s heart, and he then fiercely slapped and flashed over.

“Well .....”

Watanabe Ichiro, who was thrown to the ground, curled up and groaned in a low voice, his body trembling with pain.

“Baka!”

A grim and violent shout suddenly rang out, and in the next moment, a figure fiercely flashed past and arrived in front of Ji Feng in the blink of an eye, followed by a strong wind rushing in.

“Be careful!”

Xiao Yuxuan shouted in alarm.

Ji Feng, however, had a cold light in his eyes, and without thinking, he subconsciously threw a fierce punch.

Bang!

Another figure was just blown away by Ji Feng's fist, and then hit the ground heavily, and the whole person became unconscious and directly passed out.

Coincidentally, this person who suddenly struck out happened to faint next to Ichiro Watanabe, which was a neat row!

The whole audience is in an uproar!

This ..... was a bit too terrifying, how could a man be knocked out with one punch? And it looked like this guy was just a simple punch, too!

In a flash, the faces of all the members of the Boundary Tent Exchange Group turned gloomy, because this person who had been sent flying was also a member of their exchange group.

And the people on the side of the United University also reacted, while secretly saying, "Oh no!

"Bugger!" A middle-aged man from the Boundary Tent Exchange Group coldly shouted, striding over, pointing at Ji Feng's nose and angrily asking in Boundary Tent language, "@$......%$##$#"

Ji Feng's face was gloomy, he didn't say a word, he just stared coldly at Ichiro Watanabe on the ground.

And this bad attitude of his, but angered this boundary tent middle-aged man, he kept on roaring loudly in the boundary tent language, looking extremely angry.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

Hula .....

The people of the boundary tent exchange group gathered around at the same time, and the few people walking in the front hurriedly picked up Ichiro Watanabe and the boy who had been knocked unconscious, and hurriedly helped the people to the rest area to the side.

A few other people, with unpleasant faces, came in front of Ji Feng.

The people from the United University also hurriedly came over, and the one who walked in the front was the gloomy-faced Gao Dazong.

He said angrily, "It's unbelievable, who are you and why did you barge into our banquet? And injuring our guests!"

Ji Feng, however, ignored him and turned his head to Xiao Yuxuan, "Yuxuan, you go to the hotel manager now and say that there is some problem here and ask them to provide the CCTV footage from the restaurant this evening."

"Okay!"

Even though she didn't know what Ji Feng's intention was in arranging this, Xiao Yuxuan hurriedly turned around and went to get it.

“Stand still!” A voice with a hard Chinese language suddenly rang out, followed by a young man and a young woman who separated the crowd and came in front of Ji Feng.

This duo, the female was dressed in expensive and luxurious clothes, looking very noble, but her eyes carried a strong anger.

The other boy, on the other hand, had an unpleasant face, and a strong murderous look flashed in his eyes from time to time.

Ji Feng instantly and keenly caught the other boy’s killing intent, but he didn’t look over, he just turned his head to Xiao Yuxuan and said, “Go on, it’s alright!”

Only then did Xiao Yuxuan open the door and walk out.

“You want to leave after beating someone? Stop!” That boy suddenly struck out, suddenly flying away with a kick, violently kicking at Xiao Yuxuan.

Swish!

The cold light in Ji Feng’s eyes was straight up, he didn’t even turn his head back, and his lightning fast leg was like a giant of the sky directly holding a tree trunk and sweeping across.

Bang!

His leg hit the boy’s foot right on the spot, and the tremendous force that he used instantly caused the boy to fly backwards directly. However, the boy seemed to be quite good at it, as he actually turned around and flipped in the air, landing firmly on the ground.

Ji Feng gave him a surprised look and sneered, “No wonder he dares to be so arrogant, so he still has some skills!”

“Boundary tent representative, Sasaki!” The boy looked at Ji Feng with a grave look in his eyes, “What are you!”

As the saying goes, once a connoisseur makes a move, you can tell if there is one.

Ji Feng’s lightning fast leg just now instantly made Sasaki realize that this was definitely an expert, even in the entire Boundary Tent, there weren’t many martial artists who could stop themselves so easily, even though he didn’t use his full strength with that kick just now, it was definitely not something that an ordinary martial artist could resist!

But this sturdy young man was able to take it with ease, which could not fail to make Sasaki pay attention to it.

However, Ji Feng did not pay any attention to him and pointed directly at Ichiro Watanabe who was sitting on the chair and said in a cold voice, “I don’t care who you are, now, kneel down and apologize to me, and this matter will be over, otherwise, I will make you regret coming to this world!”

In fact, the anger in Ji Feng’s heart had long been about to be unbearable. It was fine for Xiao Yuxuan, a foreign language teacher who was a non-boundary tent major, to be called in as a cheap translator, and although Ji Feng felt that there was something odd about it, he couldn't say much since Xiao Yuxuan was willing to do so.

However, these bastards actually wanted Xiao Yuxuan to attend this bullshit banquet, what did they think she was? A socialite? Or an escort girl?

Ji Feng was worried about Xiao Yuxuan, so he drove over to pick her up, but unexpectedly, he actually saw a scene that made him furious, this short winter melon actually wanted to take advantage of Xiao Yuxuan!

Damn it!

"Your Excellency, your tone is too big!" Sasaki smiled grimly, but there was a chill in his eyes.

"Get over here and kneel down and apologise!" Ji Feng said coldly, his gaze locked on Ichiro Watanabe with a deadly gaze. However, his feet didn't move, Xiao Yuxuan had gone to get the CCTV footage from the hotel manager, if he left the gate at this time, there was a high chance that he would be taken advantage of.

"Baka!" A bright red handprint swelled high on Watanabe Ichiro's cheek, and as soon as he opened his mouth, he couldn't help but spit out a mouthful, immediately spitting out several teeth.

Ji Feng's slap had actually knocked out a few of his teeth in a raw manner.

Ichiro Watanabe looked at Ji Feng with resentment in his eyes, but he couldn't help but feel some fear in his heart, the eyes of this young man were so severe that he almost felt afraid to face them.

The scene froze for a while, only Gao Dazong was still roaring, "Call, call the police, arrest this madman, it's so unbecoming, how dare you make a move against our boundary tent guest, what do you want?!"

"Get lost!" Ji Feng said indifferently.

"What?!" Gao Dazong was stunned and surprisingly did not react for a moment.

"Don't force me to throw you out!" Ji Feng said in a cold voice.

"You ....." Gao Dasong just wanted to speak, but he suddenly saw Ji Feng's icy gaze that didn't carry the slightest bit of emotion, and his body suddenly went cold, and he couldn't say the following words.

"You!"

Ji Feng pointed at Ichiro Watanabe, who was not far away, "Don't make me repeat myself, get over here immediately!"

"Your Excellency, that is our leader, Ichiro Watanabe, for you to treat him like that is an insult to the entire Boundary Tent!" Kawaki Yanzi, who had not spoken, finally couldn't help but speak up, "Are you going to cause strife between the two nations?!"

"I won't repeat it!" Ji Feng said coldly, "Before Teacher Xiao returns, if you haven't rolled over and kneeled down to apologise, you definitely won't walk out of here intact today."

His tone was calm, yet everyone present could hear that beneath this calm tone, what was hidden was an eerily cold murderous intent.

“With me here, our chief will not apologise to you!” Sasaki stood in front of Ji Feng, his feminine face with a faint smile, “Please believe me, it won’t do you the slightest good if you do this!”

“Get lost!”

Ji Feng said in a cold voice.

“You’ll regret it!” Kawaki Yanzi’s face suddenly turned iron blue as she said icily.

How could Ji Feng pay any attention to her, he just stared coldly at Ichiro Watanabe, if it was something else, Ji Feng might put up with it, but this kind of thing, he definitely wouldn’t!

“This gentleman, if there’s any problem, it’s better to solve it through official channels, violence won’t solve the problem.” A leader of the United University saw that this was not the way to go on and could not help but say, “No matter whose fault it is, it’s better to let the police investigate, what do you think?”

“Yes, we are now holding a banquet here, your action, the nature is very bad, this not only affects our United University, but also damage the face of the country, take the overall situation as the most important ah!” Another leader also said.

Stomp stomp stomp .....

A sound of footsteps came and Xiao Yuxuan walked in with quick steps.

Ji Feng asked, “Did you get the video?”

“Got it!” Xiao Yuxuan nodded slightly, in fact, the hotel monitoring room had long found out that there was a situation in this restaurant, only that they knew there were foreigners here, so they didn’t come forward, and now that she went to ask for the video, the other party naturally readily agreed to do so.

Ji Feng smiled faintly, “Well, the deadline I gave is over, since you don’t apologize, then I’ll have to personally seek justice.”

Chapter 778

Ji Feng smiled faintly, “Well, the deadline I gave is over, since you don’t apologize, then I’ll have to personally seek justice.”

Everyone’s face changed, of course they understood the meaning of these words, Ji Feng was going to make a move!

Swish!

Sasaki likewise snapped to alert and took a step forward, blocking Ji Feng’s path, “Your Excellency, this is not a place where you can be wild, I advise you to stay out of trouble.”

“Get lost!”

Ji Feng didn't even have half a word of nonsense with him, he shouted violently and slammed a fierce fist directly over, so fast that the person next to him barely had any reaction.

Whew!

Sasaki and Kawaki Yanzi's faces changed drastically and they both retreated at the same time, only that Kawaki Yanzi dodged to the side while Sasaki managed to avoid the punch, but the strong wind brought out by Ji Feng's fist still scraped Sasaki's cheek with a vague pain.

Although he had already overestimated Ji Feng's kung fu, he realized that he was even more powerful than he had imagined when Ji Feng struck him, and even if he had to face him, he would never be sure of winning.

Just this punch alone was enough to show how strong Ji Feng was!

Ji Feng, however, was slightly surprised that Sasaki could dodge this punch of his, there was nothing strange about it, that flying kick of Sasaki just now had shown that he was very strong, and it could be seen that he was still very calm, so Ji Feng could be sure that his opponent must not have exerted his full strength either.

However, the fact that this girl also had such agile hands made Ji Feng very surprised.

This girl looked soft and fragile, but in that instant just now, her explosive power was frighteningly large, not at all like what a girl should have.

Ji Feng couldn't help but look at her twice more, his eyebrows slightly furrowed.

"Your Excellency, if you make another move, I will strike back!" Sasaki said with a gloomy face and a feminine tone.

Ji Feng sneered, "Do you really think you can stop me?"

"You can try it instead, there is no one I want to stop that I haven't been able to stop!" Sasaki's tone was as feminine as ever, and listening to Ji Feng's eyes, he heard full confidence in Sasaki's words.

"If your Excellency thinks that Sasaki alone is not enough to stop you, if you add me to the mix, I wonder how much chance you have of winning?!" Kawaki Yenko also stepped forward and asked in a condescending manner, "Chinese, please don't ever overestimate yourself, you are not that powerful!"

The scene turned into a confrontation between the two sides, while the leaders of the United University turned into spectators.

"Calm down all!" The leader of the United University hurriedly rounded up the situation, "This young comrade, who are you to Miss Xiao? If you have anything to say, we can sit down and talk slowly, otherwise, we may have to call the police to come."

Ji Feng was deaf to this, he just stared straight at Ichiro Watanabe, who was not far away, and asked in a cold voice, "Are you really not going to apologise?"

“In this matter today, we will protest to China!” Watanabe Ichiro stood up with a resentful look on his face, “You, kneel down and try to apologise to me immediately! Otherwise, this is the end of our exchange activities, and you will wait for our protest letter!”

Ji Feng immediately lost his voice and laughed, “You want me to kneel down and apologize? Then I’ll just have to .....

His face sank furiously and he shouted violently, “I dao your mother!”

Whew!

Ji Feng fiercely grabbed his jacket cuff, ripped off two buttons from it and struck it with lightning speed.

Bang Bang!

“Ah...!”

Watanabe Ichiro shouted miserably and fell to his knees in a flash, blood seeping out from his knees of both legs, which looked blinding in the light. Immediately afterwards, Ichiro Watanabe curled up and rolled on the ground with his hands clutching both legs, screaming miserably.

Everyone’s face changed dramatically, especially Sasaki and Kawaki Yanzi, who were furious to the extreme.

However, this move by Ji Feng made them not dare to act rashly, just two buckles were able to break both legs of a person, and they asked themselves that they might not be able to do so.

However, the duo’s faces were incomparably ugly; by doing so, Ji Feng simply did not put them in his eyes and directly ignored them.

This was simply a `naked slap in the face!

Moreover, it was also an incomparably loud slap, hitting their faces hot and spicy.

Staring at Ji Feng, murderous intent surged in the duo’s eyes.

“Your Excellency, you will definitely regret this, and you will pay the price for your actions!” Sasaki’s eyes flashed with thick anger and murderous intent, but with a weird smile on his face, “Please remember, this is what Sasaki said to you.”

“I, Kawaki Yenko, also give you a word of advice, you start today and you will be prepared to pay the price.” Kawaki Yanzi also said in a cold voice.

Ji Feng glanced at them and smiled disdainfully, but didn’t say anything.

After doing all this, Ji Feng’s face was not the slightest bit changed, he couldn’t help but shake his head slightly and said in a cold voice, “His own teacher was molested here by a boundary tent, and I’m sure it’s definitely not just this one time that I saw, but those of you who are leaders, you actually didn’t show the slightest bit, what kind of leaders are you!”

“Call the police immediately!”

Gao Dazong shouted, “Call the emergency number and get Mr. Watanabe to the hospital quickly!”

He glared angrily at Ji Feng and said angrily, "Let me tell you, Xiao Yuxuan has already been expelled from our United University, and you, who not only openly disrupted the reception, but also injured Ichiro Watanabe and wounded a foreign friend, you will likewise be expelled and also be legally responsible!"

"I guess it was you who forced Xiao Yuxuan to stay for the banquet?" Ji Feng asked indifferently.

"Humph! Xiao Yuxuan didn't care about the overall situation and has already been fired!" Gao Dazong said, "Now you guys aren't going anywhere, wait to go to the police station ....."

Slap!

A slap passed, Gao Dasong's whole person was instantly slapped away, and the words behind him came to a screeching halt, falling heavily to the ground screaming miserably.

Ji Feng turned back and asked Xiao Yuxuan, saying, "The person who forced you to stay, who else is there?"

"Just him!" Xiao Yuxuan replied calmly, with Ji Feng here, Xiao Yuxuan wasn't half afraid, Ji Feng was her heaven, her wife was almost molested, if a husband didn't even dare to say a word, then he wasn't a man, he didn't even know that women followed him!

"Very good!"

Ji Feng smiled coldly and directly took out his mobile phone and dialed second uncle Ji Zhenguo's number.

"Little Feng? Calling at this time, is there something wrong?" When he received Ji Feng's call, Ji Zhenguo couldn't help but ask with a smile.

"Leader, I want to report the situation to you!" Ji Feng said in a serious manner.

Ji Zhenguo, who was originally sitting in his study reading a report, smiled and frowned slightly as he sat up straight, "What's going on?"

"It's like this, recently a boundary tent exchange group came to United University for an academic exchange, one of our teachers acted as an interpreter, but a vice-principal forced her to come to the banquet and was molested ....." Ji Feng quickly told what happened before finally saying, "I beat up the head of the boundary tent exchange group, and that vice headmaster who didn't know whether to die or not! However, I have evidence to prove that they were going to molest Teacher Xiao."

"I know, it's good that you have evidence, protect Xiao Yuxuan, and at the same time be safe yourself." After listening, Ji Zhenguo's tone did not change in the slightest, and he directly hung up the phone.

He couldn't help but shake his head with a smile, "This brat, he actually knows how to punch his crown for his red face too ....." Humph! A small exchange group leader, how dare he spill his guts on the land of China, he is simply an asshole!"

After that, he immediately took out his phone and dialed a number: "This is Ji Zhenguo ....."

.....

After making the call, Ji Feng smiled and said to Xiao Yuxuan, "Wait here for a little while, I've already called the police, someone will come over soon!"

"Mm!" Xiao Yuxuan nodded her head tenderly and smiled sweetly.

Ji Feng was able to get so furious because of her, she was happier than anyone else, not to mention waiting here for a while, even if the two of them fled to the end of the world at the same time, she didn't have any complaints.

Seemingly sensing Xiao Yuxuan's feelings, Ji Feng couldn't help but smile slightly and didn't say anything else.

The scene was bizarre for a while, as the people from the boundary tent exchange group glared at Ji Feng and Xiao Yuxuan, wanting to tear them apart, while some leaders of the United University were busy calling the police and others were busy liaising with higher leaders, while those students of the United University were looking at Ji Feng with strange expressions.

These students were admiring Ji Feng, this man was too fierce, in this kind of occasion, he actually dared to act recklessly, and also fierce as a mess, slapping one away, no one could stop him at all, this was really .....

And some students who still had grievances against the boundary tent people could not help but secretly pity them.

Just now Ji Feng and Sasaki passed a few moves, they all could see that Ji Feng did not even move his two feet, but Sasaki was unable to stop Ji Feng in any way, it was obvious that Sasaki should not be Ji Feng's opponent.

These students couldn't help but remember the wild words of Sasaki at the welcome meeting, claiming that he was looking for the most powerful martial artist in China to compete with, and saying something about hoping that the martial artists in China wouldn't let him down, now well, finally a martial artist had appeared who wouldn't let him down, and finally he could kill this boundary tent bastard's prestige.

—Now he can finally kill the Kaitou bastard. See if he still dares to be so arrogant, as if I am the best, what the hell!

However, they could not help but feel very sorry for him, for there was an expert who could fight with Sasaki, but was so impulsive that he not only beat up the head of the Boundary Tent Exchange Group, but also the high headmaster, and this time, he might be expelled from school and might go to jail.

Who else can go through with the Boundary Tent Exchange Group?

It seems that one can only hope that those masters in the martial arts club of the United University, if they can't, with today's clash, then the United University will really suffer, Sasaki will definitely humiliate the United University hard!

Chapter 779

Just as everyone was waiting for the ambulance and the police to arrive, the head of the foreign language department of the United University, Wang Wang, came over with an embarrassed look on his face, here, he was the only one who could talk to Xiao Yuxuan, but seeing this young man beside Xiao

Yuxuan so fiercely, he was not sure if Xiao Yuxuan would pay attention to him, so he was in quite an apprehensive mood.

“He .....

Xiao Yuxuan looked at those leaders of the United University and then at Ji Feng and said in a loud voice, “This is my boyfriend, Ji Feng!”

In a flash, the whole room was in an uproar.

Although Ji Feng’s name could not be said to be known by everyone at United University, with the previous beating of Yun Bing and Wei Qiang and Wei Chuanling, the vice president of the student union, being forced to drop out of school, there were already many people who had heard of Ji Feng’s name.

What’s more, all the students of United University present knew that Xiao Yuxuan was the beautiful teacher of the school’s foreign language department, and that light almost overshadowed all the extremely school flower level beauties of the school, so it wasn’t easy to make others not pay attention.

And now, she actually said that Ji Feng was her boyfriend!

This was a blatant admission by Xiao Yuxuan, which was really an exciting and big news!

Those leaders of the United University, likewise, couldn’t help but be stunned: “What?!”

“I said, Ji Feng is my boyfriend, he loves me and loves me, and I love him too.” Xiao Yuxuan’s flirtatious pretty face was overflowing with a happy smile as she said firmly.

“So that’s how it is!” Director Wang didn’t know what to say, he could only give a sarcastic laugh and snorted haphazardly, “But in that case, isn’t the impact a bit bad?”

“I will resign!”

Xiao Yuxuan blurted out, “In fact, from the time I asked for leave today, I already wanted to resign.”

“What?!”

Director Wang was stunned, “Xiao Xiao, how is this .....

“It’s alright director, I’ve already thought about it, and after what happened today, I probably can’t stay at the school anymore, so it’s better to resign.” Xiao Yuxuan said.

“Ugh! I don’t know how to solve this matter today yet, Xiao Xiao, Ji Feng student, don’t worry, I will do my best.” Director Wang lowered his voice and said.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but smile slightly and nodded, “Thanks a lot.”

However, Director Wang said in a loud voice, “Ji Feng, I know that you may be concerned about your girlfriend, but isn’t it a bit too impulsive for you to just hit someone without even an explanation like this?”

Director Wang weighed his words, thinking of how he could help exculpate Xiao Yuxuan and Ji Feng, but for a while there was nothing good to do, after all, Ji Feng’s performance just now was really too impulsive.

“Want to explain? This is easy to do!” Ji Feng smiled faintly, “Yu Xuan, give me the surveillance video you just got, everything that happened in this restaurant before was captured on the surveillance video, everyone’s every move is recorded in here, I’ll play it now for everyone to see what kind of goods this so-called head of the Boundary Tent Exchange Mission is! ”

Xiao Yuxuan immediately nodded and took her phone out from her bag, “I copied the video into my phone.”

“Use my handle, my phone has a bigger screen!” Ji Feng said, taking his phone and about to transfer the surveillance video from Xiao Yuxuan’s phone over.

At this time, Ichiro Watanabe, who was also slapped by Ji Feng, as well as Gao Dasong, but at the same time their faces changed, what they did, naturally they know best. But before, they did not expect that Ji Feng had actually gotten hold of the surveillance video of this restaurant.

Both of them subconsciously looked up at the ceiling at the same time and found that there were really four cameras in the four corners of the restaurant ceiling, while at the entrance of the restaurant, there was also a camera.

The angle of these five cameras just happened to include all the corners of the restaurant in the monitoring range.

And wouldn’t his previous actions be in the surveillance footage as well?

Gao Dazong hurriedly winked at one of his subordinates and his mouth moved.

“Ji Feng, I think it’s better to use the projector.”

Ji Feng was about to copy the surveillance footage into his own mobile phone when a school leader next to him suddenly said, “Give me your mobile phone, I’ll go and show it to you.”

Ji Feng looked at him and quickly tapped both hands on his and Xiao Yuxuan’s phones a few times, sending a copy of that surveillance footage to his own phone as well.

“Thank you!” Ji Feng handed Xiao Yuxuan’s phone to that school leader.

That person was instantly a little embarrassed and hurriedly left with his phone.

Ji Feng sneered, even though he seemed to have no intention, he had a good view of who was making any small movements in the entire restaurant. Especially for a few people who needed to be focused on, they couldn’t escape his eyes.

“Rubbish!” Gao Dazong cursed, but could only watch as that subordinate took Xiao Yuxuan’s mobile phone and headed for the projector in front.

On the other hand, the eyes of that Sasaki and Kawaki Yanzi duo kept staring deadly at Ji Feng, with a strong killing intent in their eyes.

The two of them are very powerful, but Ji Feng is not afraid of them.

After the obstacle ball training in the training space, Ji Feng's control of bioelectricity was now many times more powerful than before, if the Ji Feng of the past was compared to the Ji Feng of now, not even two or three out of ten.

"Snap!"

The data cable was connected and the projector was turned on.

Immediately afterwards, the backdrop slowly fell and the images from the banquet appeared on the backdrop, which was played from the very beginning of the banquet.

Gao Dasong became even more nervous, and he gave the subordinate a fierce glare, and the latter instantly understood and hurriedly started projecting at four times the speed.

The screen was projected very quickly, but in just a few minutes, the screen came to the key part.

"Project it at normal speed!" Ji Feng said aloud.

"Humph! No one else has time for your nonsense!" Gao Dasong snorted coldly, "Play it quickly!"

Pop, pop, pop!

As the picture flickered, the most crucial part arrived, Gao Dasong took the initiative to approach Xiao Yuxuan with a flirtatious demeanour and a lustful look between his eyebrows, even though it was played at four times the speed, Gao Dasong's flirtatious demeanour could still be seen clearly on that wide background cloth.

In particular, he was looking at Xiao Yuxuan with a wolf-like gaze, which happened to be captured by a camera in the corner with unparalleled clarity.

The whole room was in an uproar!

Everyone's gaze turned strange when they looked at Gao Dasong.

"Play it at normal speed!" One of the leaders of United University immediately shouted lowly, his face incomparably gloomy.

The one in charge of the broadcast, the school leader, dared not mess around and hurriedly changed to normal speed.

Watanabe Ichiro appeared beside Xiao Yuxuan, his demeanor, the expression on his face, it was almost as if the camera was specifically directed at him, incomparably clear.

"Humph!"

Ji Feng looked with a cold light in his eyes, he originally didn't know what had happened before, he only noticed Watanabe Ichiro trying to jump on Xiao Yuxuan's body when he pushed the door into the restaurant, but now, he saw what had happened clearly, and his hatred was even stronger in his heart.

"Damn it!"

Ji Feng said coldly.

Sasaki and Kawaki Yanzi instantly stared at him with the same icy expression, the threat in their eyes obvious.

“All of you have seen it, right? This is the boundary tent exchange group you warmly welcomed, using the opportunity of drinking to try to take advantage of my girlfriend, I’m already considered cheap for not killing him today!” Ji Feng said coldly.

“Mr. Watanabe, you have to give us an explanation for today’s incident, otherwise, we will protest against your country through official channels!” A school leader could not hold his face any longer and said in a deep voice.

Watanabe Ichiro’s face turned blue for a moment, and in the end he could only grit his teeth and said, “I apologise, I’m sorry .....

“Watanabe, you are a disgrace to the KAI Tent!” Sasaki said angrily.

Kawaki Yanzi’s face was also very ugly, now the matter was very clear, it was Gao Dasong and Watanabe who tried to molest Xiao Yuxuan, just when Ji Feng who entered the door saw it, which led to the scene just now.

“Bang!”

The door of the restaurant was pushed open and everyone immediately turned their heads to look, only to see a group of police officers striding in.

“Second Uncle actually let him come personally!” Ji Feng was also not in a hurry to be stunned, the policeman in the lead was no other than Zhang Lei’s second uncle, who was also the deputy director of the Jiangzhou Municipal Bureau, Zheng Yuanshan!

No wonder no police had come for so long, it turned out that he was waiting for this great god to come in person.

“A report has been received that there is a fight and brawl here, and it involves foreign friends, our bureau attaches great importance to it, and we hope you can cooperate!” Zheng Yuanshan said in a loud voice.

“Misunderstanding, it’s all a misunderstanding!” Gao Dazong hurriedly said, “This police officer sir, it’s just a misunderstanding. If you don’t believe me, Mr. Ichiro Watanabe, a friend of the boundary tent, can testify that this is really just a misunderstanding.”

He didn’t dare to let the police take the man away; if things got too big, he wouldn’t be able to keep his post for sure.

What’s more, his previous actions had all been caught on CCTV, and if the matter really went to the police, he wouldn’t be able to continue to hang around in the school in the future.

So he had no choice but to say that it was a misunderstanding.

“That’s right, it was indeed a misunderstanding.” Watanabe Ichiro also hurriedly said.

“Humph!” Sasaki, however, snorted coldly with extreme dissatisfaction, but did not say anything else.

Kawaki Yanzi, however, turned to Ji Feng and made a neck-wiping motion without a trace, with a threatening meaning in her eyes.

“Whether it’s a misunderstanding or not, since someone has already called the police, you all should come back to the police station with me first.” Zheng Yuanshan waved his hand and took the party away.

Apart from those students from the United University and the students from the Boundary Tent who were treated as witnesses and took statements on the spot, the rest of them, all followed to the police station, which included a few leaders from the United University, as well as Sasaki and Kawaki Yanzi from the Boundary Tent side.

After arriving at the police station, Gao Dasong and Watanabe Ichiro insisted that it was a misunderstanding and asked the police to mediate between them.

Ji Feng sneered: “Reconciliation? Fine, tell the two bastards, Watanabe Ichiro and Gao Dasong, to come over and kneel down and apologise!”

Chapter 780

“Kneel down and apologise?!”

Inside the interrogation room, Gao Dazong and Watanabe Ichiro instantly stood up at the same time upon hearing the words, their chests heaving violently, their eyes red, as if they had suffered a great deal of aggression.

Ichiro Watanabe, in particular, was still in pain from the knees of his legs that had been hit by the buckle, and the sight of him kneeling down in public was constantly echoing in his mind, causing him to suffer humiliation. At this moment, when he heard that the other party had actually asked him to kneel down and apologise, how could he swallow this anger?

“That’s right, the other party’s request is for you to go and kneel down and apologise, or else they will insist on taking the legal route.”

Zheng Yuanshan acted as the mediator this time, “Of course, in this way, since you have not caused substantial harm to the other party, you are not legally responsible and can leave after going through the formalities. However, for President Gao, we, the police, will inform the Union University of the details of this matter. And for Mr Watanabe, we will likewise inform your country’s embassy about this matter.”

Swish!

Gao Dazong and Watanabe Ichiro’s expressions instantly changed, and the two of them were just about to speak when they were interrupted by Zheng Wonsan.

“Of course, for the other party involved, we will also follow the law and give Mr. Watanabe an injury examination first, if the other party constitutes the crime of injury, it will enter the legal process, if it cannot constitute the crime of injury, then the other party will bear the medical expenses for Mr. Watanabe’s treatment!” Zheng Wonsan said seriously.

Although Zheng Yuanshan looked like he was doing business, however, in his heart, he was secretly giving a thumbs up to Ji Feng.

There were many princelings in the country, but not many of them dared to be really tough when facing foreigners. What was originally a lofty stance towards the countrymen would become humble and respectful in front of the foreigners.

Of course, there are quite a few impulsive people who dare to make a move with the boundary tent people.

In particular, some foreign businessmen who come to invest in the country often do wrong in the places where they invest, or even do whatever they want, but the local officials, for the sake of investment and performance, strike hard at those who dare to resist, so that those people are arrested and taken in without even having the chance to resist.

Such things simply abounded.

But Ji Feng was different, he beat these boundary tent people just like beating a dog, without the slightest scruple.

The only thing is that a surveillance video made the tent people not only get beaten up, but also not dare to speak up, and even only claim that it was a misunderstanding.

However, Ji Feng was still able to remain unforgiving.

This intelligence alone, as well as this courage, is not something that ordinary people can possess.

Of course, one had to admit that Ji Feng had a good origin, otherwise, in such matters, even if he was justified, he would definitely be the one to suffer in the end.

But the fact now was that Ji Feng had the right to be reasonable, and that he himself would 'enforce the law impartially', and that was enough.

Just as Zheng Yuanshan was secretly calling the shots for Ji Feng, Gao Dasong and Watanabe Ichiro were sitting on the edge of their seats, their faces a wonderfully blue and white.

They both wanted to punish the thug severely, but as soon as they thought of the consequences of this matter being notified to the unit, they were so frightened that they hurriedly dismissed the idea, they absolutely could not go through the legal route, or they would be finished!

However, if you do not take the legal route, you will have to face the other side to be excessive demands, to go on their knees to apologize ..... The two are caught in a dilemma!

"Two, please reply as soon as possible because Mr. Watanabe has been injured and has to be sent to the hospital for treatment as soon as possible." Zheng Wonsan saw the gloomy faces of the duo and said at once.

"This officer sir, can you let us see each other?" Watanabe Ichiro gritted his teeth and said in a low voice.

Swish!

Just as Watanabe Ichiro finished his words, Sasaki, who had been sitting in the interrogation room without speaking, suddenly opened his eyes, and a cold light flashed from his eyes, "Watanabe, are you really going to kneel down and apologise to that Chinese man?"

"If you dare to do so, you won't have to return to the boundary tent in the future!" Kawaki Yanzi also said coldly.

"No, it's not!" Watanabe Ichiro's heart trembled with fear at once and he hurriedly said, "I just want to talk to that Chinese man again!"

"I need to ask the other side's opinion!" Zheng Wonsan said immediately.

A police officer next to him immediately pushed the door and walked out, coming to the interrogation room where Ji Feng and Xiao Yuxuan were.

"Mr. Ji Feng, the other party wants to see you."

Ji Feng was stunned: "What, they agreed to kneel down and apologise? It seems that the so-called backbone of the boundary tent people is just that much."

The police officer couldn't help but laugh too, but as a police officer, he couldn't make too much of a statement, he just said, "Mr. Ji, looking at the other party's intention, they want to talk with you again."

"Oh?"

Ji Feng sneered, "So you don't intend to kneel down and apologize ..... Fine, let them come over, I'd like to see what else they have to say!"

The police officer then nodded and said, "Please wait a moment."

In a short time, the four men, Ichiro Watanabe and Gao Dazong, as well as Sasaki and Kawaki Yanzi, came over, and when they saw Ji Feng and Xiao Yuxuan, who were in good order, Sasaki's feminine expression suddenly became cold and his eyes were much more stern.

Ji Feng didn't even look at them, he just lit a cigarette in a relaxed manner and slowly smoked it.

Gao Dazong and Watanabe Ichiro's faces shifted, their hearts were irritated and they wanted to brush their sleeves and leave, but they could not do so, so they could only grit their teeth and endure.

"This gentleman, first of all, I apologise to you and your friend for what happened earlier!" Ichiro Watanabe said stiffly, "I wonder if we could settle this and not have to dwell on it any further?"

"Do you think I would agree?" Ji Feng snorted, "If your wife was molested by someone else, would you stop there? Oh, by the way, you sector tent people don't care about that, so I guess you can hardly understand my thoughts. There's only one way to settle this, you two bastards, all of you get down on your knees and apologise!"

The veins on Watanabe Ichiro's forehead were straight and the corners of his eyes could not help but jump a few times, he hurriedly took a few deep breaths and said through clenched teeth, "Your Excellency, if you really want to be so aggressive, then there is no half-way room for manoeuvre between us."

Ji Feng frowned and said, "So what?!"

"In a day's time, it will be the day when the martial arts exchange between Kyoto University and your country's United University begins, and I think you already know how powerful our deputy head, Mr. Sasaki, is." Watanabe Ichiro said through clenched teeth, "If I kneel down and apologise today, they will definitely be angry, and then if I accidentally injure your country's representative in the middle of the martial arts exchange, it will only be an accident!"

Swish!

A cold light immediately flashed in Ji Feng's eyes, "You're trying to threaten me?"

"I'm just stating the facts!" Under Ji Feng's stern gaze, Ichiro Watanabe only felt his heart beating rapidly, his legs were weak, and his body was almost devoid of strength, but he still said stiffly, "Therefore, the best way is for us to remove the misunderstanding between each other on this, in this way, it won't damage the friendship between the two countries, don't you think so?"

Ji Feng stared at him coldly, his heart growing murderous.

"It's been a long time since I've seen bloodshed, I really miss it a bit!" Sasaki on the side said calmly.

Ji Feng's expression was even colder, but did not rush to speak, for a while, the atmosphere in the interrogation room almost froze, even Zheng Yuanshan beside him could not help but frown, this boundary tent boundary tent bastard was clearly threatening people with impunity!

"Huh ....."

Suddenly, Ji Feng actually laughed as he shook his head and said, "I've seen the tactics of the Boundary Canopy people. Good, very good!"

He stood up sharply and stared coldly at Watanabe Ichiro and Sasaki: "Let's forget about today's matter, but I don't want to hear any bad news about the martial arts exchange the day after tomorrow, or else ....." Hmph!"

"Even if it's against a cripple, I'll still give my all, and if your country's representative is not as skilled as the others, then you have nothing to say!" Sasaki said grimly.

Ji Feng smiled fiercely, "Then you can try it! When the time comes, I will make you regret coming to China!"

"In that case, I'll take my leave!" Watanabe Ichiro hurriedly said. He didn't want another conflict between Do Go and Ji Feng, otherwise, things would still go back to the old way.

"Stand still!"

Ji Feng shouted coldly.

Watanabe Ichiro and the others immediately stood still: "You can leave, but, Gao Dasong, did I tell you to leave?"

"You ....." Gao Dazong immediately changed his face, Ji Feng was actually going to target himself?

He stared at Ji Feng angrily, his chest heaving violently and his face red, his heart gnashing his teeth with hatred but he could do nothing about it.

He could not do anything to Ji Feng now, but once the police informed United University of what had happened today in official form, he would definitely no longer be able to continue to serve as the vice-president, and it was unknown whether he would be able to continue to mix with United University then!

Although many people in the university may know about it now, Gao Dasong has a backer, so as long as the official notification is not made, there is still room for manoeuvre.

“I am the leader of the school after all, you can’t go too far .....” Gao Dazong gritted his teeth and said.

“Scum, kneel down!” Ji Feng bellowed violently.

“Ah!”

Gao Dasong’s heart trembled in fear, his legs fiercely weakened, and his whole body actually flung itself down on its knees just like that in front of Ji Feng.

“You, you .....” Gao Dasong’s mind was blank, just dumbfounded looking at Ji Feng, himself was scared by his cold drink just like that and kneeled down?

Himself actually kneeled down for him?!

After giving Ji Feng a resentful glance, Gao Dasong didn’t know where he got the strength from, he stood up violently, turned around and walked out.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of this scum, even if you want to be scolded, you must kick him down!
