Chapter 891

What Rong Baogang had done had left the Rong Peng father and daughter duo of the Rong family in a rage, and Rong Suyan decided to fly to Jiangzhou to personally go and solve the trouble caused by her brother's reckless behaviour.

Meanwhile, far in the north, in Yanjing, someone was equally furious.

Inside a villa somewhere in Yanjing, Wu Zhihe was vainly answering the phone, not knowing what the person on the phone had said, causing cold sweat to break out on his forehead and he couldn't stop wiping the sweat. A woman next to him tried to come up and wipe his sweat, but he gave her a fierce glare and then pushed her away!

"Wu Zhihe, you're simply an asshole!"

The voice on the phone was loud, and it was obvious that the person speaking was very angry, "Those internal guards are here specifically for you to kidnap people? It's fine for you to play this game, but you were caught red-handed, what do you call this!"

"Big, big brother, I know I'm wrong!" Wu Zhihe really had a bitterness that he couldn't say, and could only feebly argue, "Big brother, I really didn't know that Rong Suyan's brother would be so untalented and would actually do such a stupid thing"

"You don't have to say anything, this matter will probably alert the old man, go to the old man yourself and admit your mistake!" The voice on the phone interrupted him directly.

"No, don't, big brother, I can't go, the old master will definitely send me to the frontier!" Wu Zhihe's face instantly collapsed.

"You'll see to it yourself!" The voice on the phone didn't want to say anything more and simply hung up the phone.

Listening to the busy tone coming from the phone, Wu Zhihe's face turned blue for a while, that expression was really wonderful.

"Zhihe, how is it going?" At this time, a woman next to him came up and asked cautiously, "What did he say about big brother? Is the situation very serious?"

This woman was no other than Wu Zhihe's fiancée, Zheng Yuxiu!

"You're simply an asshole!"

As soon as Wu Zhihe heard Zheng Yuxiu speak, his anger flared up and he scolded her, "Where did you get the nerve to mobilise the internal guards to do that kind of kidnapping? Where did your brain go?"

Zheng Yuxiu's heart shuddered at the scolding, but he still said with a stiff upper lip, "Zhihe, don't be angry yet, it's just a matter of mobilizing the internal guards without permission, if there's any problem, I'll take the responsibility alone, and I certainly won't involve the Wu family" What we need to think about now is how to eliminate the impact, don't you think so?"

It has to be said that Zheng Yuxiu, a woman who may not be able to do anything else, but can definitely be said to be as clever as a tongue. In the past, if she had made a mistake, she had only needed a few simple words to coax Wu Zhihe into a good mood and divert his attention, so this time she used the same method, lightly passing over the mistake and changing the subject.

However, this time this method of hers failed to work.

As soon as Wu Zhihe heard this, he instantly burst into flames and shouted angrily, "You'll take the blame? What the hell are you doing? Zheng Yuxiu, I just realised today that you are actually so stupid! Whose men are those internal guards, they are the Wu family's men! If I hadn't given the go-ahead, how could you have mobilised them? Who will believe you when you go out and tell people that it was all your idea and you'll take the blame? Ah!"

"This" Zheng Yuxiu was a bit baffled, she hurriedly said, "Zhihe, this is at most a matter of up and down, could there be anyone else who would specifically target the Wu family? The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than just a few of the most popular and popular ones.

"Zheng Yuxiu, I was right when I said you were stupid. There are so many forces in Yanjing, so many families, how can the Wu family possibly cover the sky with one hand?" Wu Zhihe couldn't help but shake his head slightly, with a disappointed look on his face, "That's right! This matter just seems to be a small matter, at most a few people can be dealt with. But have you ever thought about what is hidden behind this matter?"

"Sh, what?" Zheng Yuxiu couldn't speak very well.

"If this matter is used as an article, the impact will be very bad, and when the time comes, what the consequences will be, I don't even dare to think about it!"

Wu Zhihe said angrily, "Especially this matter still happened in Jiangzhou, the Ji family can still not do something? Moreover, it is said that the people who made the arrests this time are from the Jiangzhou Military Region, which means that even the military is involved, what do you think is hidden behind this? This time, it might even affect my father's transfer!"

"Ah?!" Zheng Yuxiu was truly appalled, "There, is it that serious?"

"I'm afraid it's more than that!" Wu Zhihe waved his hand and said, "I've really been killed by you" Forget it, it's useless to tell you this, I'd better go back and admit my mistake to the old man, what will happen then, I don't know!"

"Zhihe!" Zheng Yuxiu exclaimed.

"It's useless to say anything now, we can only hurry and tell the old master to run it, maybe there will be some turnaround" Wu Zhihe couldn't help but shake his head slightly, "It's all your doing! And that Rong Baogang, you guys are really talented!"

Looking at Wu Zhihe's helplessly departing back, Zheng Yuxiu couldn't help but stare in a daze, did he really do something wrong? It's just arresting a little old man, what's the big deal?

“Good! Good! Haha” Ji Feng was sitting on the living room sofa of his house and was answering the phone, looking at his face full of smiles, he knew that it was definitely not something bad.

In fact, it was indeed not something bad, Ji Feng was talking to his father Ji Zhenhua on the phone, and in the phone, his father praised him once again, which made him very happy, this time, but he was receiving more and more praise, this proves, he is growing up!

“Little Feng, you did a great job this time, especially at this crucial moment, it can be considered a divine move!” For this action of Ji Feng’s, Ji Zhenhua gave extremely high praise.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but heave a smile, “It’s all because you taught me well!”

“You brat” Ji Zhenhua was obviously in a good mood as well, “Talking without a plastic, if your mother knew that she would definitely talk about you again.”

Ji Feng then laughed heatedly and asked, “Dad, if we operate well this time, can’t we gain some benefits?”

“You, the pattern is still too small.” Ji Zhenhua said with a smile, “Little Feng, pay attention to safety over there, don’t be impulsive when things go wrong, think more and learn more, got it?”

“Dad, I know!” Ji Feng said with a nod.

“That’s good!” Ji Zhenhua nodded in satisfaction, and then hung up the phone.

“Dad, Dad?” Ji Feng shouted twice into the phone and found that his father had already hung up the phone, he couldn’t help but shake his head and laugh bitterly, “What does this mean? Saying that my pattern is too small, then you have to tell me where my pattern is small, right? Every time you make such a mysterious I’m not that enlightened, okay?”

However, complaining is complaining, Ji Feng could still feel his father’s intention for his cultivation, and he couldn’t help but heave a smile, everything was going in a good direction.

“According to reason, I should visit the pharmaceutical factory now, but now is not the right time, for the time being, it is better not to let people find out the relationship between myself and Xiao’s pharmaceutical factory, otherwise the impact is somewhat bad.” Ji Feng deliberated secretly, and finally decided to call Xu Yuan and the others to contact them separately.

During the phone call, Xu Yuan reported the situation in the past few days, of course, at the end, she did not forget to tell about her love for each other, which made Ji Feng feel touched and guilty at the same time.

Ji Yinhong, on the other hand, was a different story. As soon as she received Ji Feng’s call, she was thrilled and thanked her a thousand times. She knew very well that it was all because of Ji Feng that her husband was able to get out of danger this time, which he had already told her.

Afterwards, Ji Feng contacted his good friends one by one before he called Xiao Yuxuan and told her that he had arrived in Jiangzhou.

Xiao Yuxuan just said that she knew about it, and other than that, she didn’t say anything, leaving Ji Feng puzzled.

How come everyone was so mysterious?

In the following days, Ji Feng kept in close contact with Xiang Yongzhan, and at the same time, did not forget to estimate the time and contact his father's secretary in order to find out the latest news.

After another two days, accurate news finally came to him, told by his father's secretary.

As soon as Ji Feng heard it, he was dumbstruck.

He subconsciously said, "I Shit! I actually managed to get something so big done?"

The news from Ji Zhenhua's secretary had only two main points, the first being that after a series of operations, the top had made major adjustments to certain personnel arrangements.

The second point was that the top had decided that because of the laxity of the imperial government, the Wu family boss would continue to serve as a deputy in Southern Guangdong so that he could continue to hone his skills in order to better serve the country and society!

After hearing these two pieces of news, Ji Feng's scalp was numb with shock.

Just because of this incident that happened in Jiangzhou, the Wu family boss was actually pressed into service for one term? This was too cruel!

The reason is simple, the age has reached the line, and even if he wants to move up, he is no longer able to do so.

..... It's too ruthless!

The fact is that you can't help but be secretly staggered, but he didn't know that this kind of imperial laxity, to put it mildly, can be big or small!

In fact, when the Jiangzhou military district and the Jiangzhou police handed the dossier to Yanjing at the same time, it immediately caused a shock to the top brass, especially the bigwigs in the Ninth Division, the military's general involvement office to which the Guard Bureau belongs, were even more enraged!

"Is this inner guard a soldier, or a privately-raised hitman?!" This was the voice of a certain military bigwig, and the rhetoric was fierce!

"It's just nonsense!" These were the words of a certain heavyweight in the Office.

In fact, although the private use of internal guards was common, but it was the first time that internal guards were used to help people engage in business competition, and to kidnap ordinary civilians, something that had touched the bottom line of certain bigwigs.

The consequences of their shock and anger would be too terrible!

Subsequently, Ji Zhenguo began to power up, he did not say anything else, just to ask for a statement from above, casually using internal guards to engage in this way under my rule, do I still want to be a senior city official?

The identity of Ji Zhenguo, even a general provincial party committee hand can not be compared, his words, and can not be lightly accepted?

Subsequently, after a series of operations, collision, just Ji Zhenguo alone, raw blocked the Wu family boss this year wanted to enter Jiangzhou's intention, let his hopes dashed. Along with this, there was a series of personnel adjustments from above!

At this time, the Ji Department, on the other hand, hadn't even made a push yet.

In fact, this is not because the Ji Department is too powerful, but because certain people in the Wu Department themselves are inherently incorrectly established and will naturally draw fire on themselves, and no one can blame them!

They are not yet in any position to snipe at Ji Zhenhua in the general election in two years' time. What, are you going to stop capable people from progressing when you yourselves are not properly established? Even if the Ji system agrees, other factions still don't agree

All in all, this time, the Ji Department won a big victory, is considered a big harvest, but all this, but all because of Ji Feng's one action caused.

Ji Department small tz, truly entered the eyes of a group of big brothers of the Ji Department, after all, this time's battle record, is really too dazzling.

One man, did something that the whole faction had to be afraid of!

Chapter 892

If we say that the previous actions of Ji Feng in Hangzhou, Jiangsu and Zhejiang not only made the power of the Ji Department officially enter this extremely important province of Jiangsu and Zhejiang, but also made the name of Ji Feng enter the ears of some big brothers of the Ji Department, so that they had some concern about this name.

Then, this time, a series of operational actions in Jiangzhou instantly made Ji Feng, a small tz of the Ji Department, enter the sight of these big brothers of the Ji Department precisely.

All the way up to this point, Ji Feng was considered to be truly in the hall!

The previous time in Jiangsu and Zhejiang although there is also a not small harvest, so that the power of the Ji Department into Jiangsu and Zhejiang, the whole process seems to be beautiful, but in fact, the technical content of this operation is not too high, because the problems of Jiangsu and Zhejiang, sooner or later will erupt, Ji Feng is only acting as such a fuse.

But this time it was different.

This time, Ji Feng's operation was really brilliant, first pulling the military and arresting the Wu family's internal guards. Subsequently, he held on to the issue and had both the Jiangzhou police and the military react upwards at the same time, a two-pronged approach that made it impossible for the Wu family to cover up the story if they wanted to!

They were caught off guard.

The fact that Ji Zhenguo was able to have such a series of operations later on was entirely due to the foundation laid by Ji Feng in the early stages. Without this good foundation, I'm afraid that Ji Zhenguo would not have made a single move until he was transferred away!

The first time I saw the company, I was able to get to the top of the list.

The fact that he had sniped a top pillar of the martial system forward, and even indirectly ended the future of the martial family's boss in a deputy position in southern Guangdong, was an extremely huge blow to the entire martial system.

In order to move into Jiangzhou, in order to let the Wu family boss further, they do not know how long they have been operating, not to mention how many resources they have used and how much they have paid

However, all of this has been torn apart and dispersed by a beautiful heavy punch from Ji Feng!

In this way, the Wu family will have to choose a successor again, but where is it so easy to choose a suitable successor?

It will take five years, ten years, or even longer, I'm afraid.

In other words, within the next five to ten years, the Wu family will only be reduced to a participant in many aspects, and will not be able to become a dominant player

This is such a brilliant and dazzling record!

It is also because of this reason that Ji Feng officially made those bigwigs pay attention to it. This little tz of the Ji family is not simple!

Of course, it was only these bigwigs who knew that the matter of the first grandson of the Ji family's family living in the countryside for more than ten years was not very glamorous, and with some other factors to consider, it also made the name Ji Feng, in fact, not known by many people.

The top-level bigwigs of the Ji family will not spread Xiaoz's name around, and there are even many bigwigs who don't seem to have any connection with the Ji family at all, but in reality, only their own people know how it is.

This is the case with Li Baoyuan, for example. Of course, Li Baoyuan is still far from being a big brother of the Ji family, at most he is just a general!

Only, more than the compliments he received from the bigwigs of the Ji Department, Ji Feng liked to hear another piece of news – second uncle Ji Zhenguo returned to Jiangzhou a few days later, but he was not leaving!

In the family courtyard of the municipal party committee, the home of a senior municipal official, the three brothers, Ji Feng, and Ji Zhenguo and his wife, were sitting at the dining table eating. Because the weather was so cold, there was a hot pot on the table, which was boiling with a gurgling sound, constantly emitting steaming hot air, adding a touch of warmth to this winter.

"Second Uncle, this time, you should be able to stay until after the change of term, right?" Ji Feng chucked a fish ball into his bowl and asked with a smile.

Ji Zhenguo, however, shook his head slightly and said, "Let's listen to the organization's arrangements, but if there are no special circumstances, I should stay on."

Ji Feng then gave a heated smile, second uncle was worthy of being a handful, and was usually able to subconsciously exude a gesture of grasping party building work in his speech. This meant that now that Second Uncle had confirmed that he would continue to sit down in Jiangzhou, this was a good thing!

"Tsk!"

Next to him, Ji Shaolei couldn't help but shake his head slightly, his face full of awe, "I say, San'er, I really didn't expect this before, now that you've casually drummed up a few things, you've actually beaten down a deputy secretary of the provincial party committee, and a deputy secretary of the provincial party committee of Southern Guangdong Province, it's really too powerful."

Next to him, Ji Shaodong also couldn't help but nod and laugh, "It's indeed very impressive, I believe that this time all the previous arrangements of the martial system have been abandoned in the past."

"Hey!"

Ji Shaolei grinned, "I guess the old man of the Wu family will be so angry that he will vomit blood, right?"

Ji Feng, however, thought of something else: "Second Uncle, this time, the Wu family must hate you a lot, right? There's also the change of government two years later, won't the Wu family on my father's side definitely snipe?"

"Third child, all your worries are superfluous!" Ji Shaolei waved his hand and said, "It was their people from the Wu family who first stirred up trouble in Jiangzhou, and they were caught in the act, that's how they first disrespected your second uncle, then your second uncle naturally had to fight back, this has nothing to do with the Ji family."

"That's right!"

Ji Shaodong also slightly nodded his head and said, "Their own Wu family is not properly established, they can't blame anyone, this time, I think the handling of the matter is all light!"

What Ji Feng heard made sense, but he still wanted to hear a word of accuracy from his second uncle.

"Little Feng, you don't need to worry about these, two years later the replacement, they Wu family will certainly snipe, but only secretly snipe, openly, they are not qualified for this, after all, this matter is the organization's decision, and the Wu family boss was also knocked out well!"

Ji Zhenguo said, "In addition, this matter so far is considered to be over, the following is the matter of your own, remember, this time the example of the Wu family is a lesson, one does not stand properly, it is easy to give people the blame, once it comes to the critical moment, it is fatal!"

"Yes!"

"Got it."

The three Ji Feng brothers then nodded at the same time, taking Ji Zhenguo's teachings to heart.

All three of them knew very well that this incident had really given them a great shock, even the originator, Ji Feng, had not thought that just a small kidnapping case could actually knock out a great general of the martial arts department!

Only then did he realise that sometimes a small matter could have a great impact. Therefore, it was the best way to prevent the smallest things from happening.

Of course, from Second Uncle's words Ji Feng also realised that this time, the decision was made personally by the bigwigs above, and that it would definitely not affect the change of government two years later, that is to say, it would not affect his father.

In that case, Ji Feng was relieved, but he was still very proud to be able to use a small matter to alarm the bigwigs at the top.

In fact, he did not know that this was not a trivial matter.

The use of internal guards to arrest people was not a big deal, and if the top knew about it, they would at most criticize and reprimand them, or at most give them a disciplinary action or adjust their positions.

But what was the purpose of the internal guards' arrest?

It was to help a private enterprise to deal with another private enterprise. In other words, the internal guards have intervened in the competition for private assets, and are actively helping one of them to engage in vicious competition!

Of course, this is somewhat unpleasant to say out loud, but it is not that serious.

But the most crucial thing was that these internal guards belonged to the Wu family! Moreover, it was Zheng Yuxiu who gave the order! At the same time, Zheng Yuxiu and the boss of the Rong Peng Group were still related to each other!

Once these things were presented in front of those senior bigwigs, you can imagine how angry they would be, and it would not be an exaggeration to say that they were furious.

What is the relationship between your Wu family and the Rong Peng Group?

Such a question alone, if not explained clearly, would be enough to put the Wu Family in a huge crisis, and this time it was obvious that the senior bigwigs no longer believed the Wu Family's explanation, only that, considering the balance and all aspects, they still gave the Wu Family face, but the Wu Family boss was literally knocked off his feet.

In exchange for the stability of the Wu family with his future alone, this is an example of the top brass, but also a helpless compromise of the Wu family

"Dad, how about some wine today?" Ji Shaolei suddenly said with a smile, "Anyway, you stay in Jiangzhou, this is a good thing, drink some wine and celebrate?"

"Drink what wine!" Ji Zhenguo glared, "You're not doing your job all day, and you're still thinking about drinking?"

Ji Shaolei couldn't help but shrink his head and muttered, "If you don't want to drink, then don't drink, don't reprimand people on this New Year's Day, okay?"

"Brat!"

Ji Zhenguo was also amused by his second son, he looked at Ji Shaodong and Ji Feng, "Can you two drink?"

"Dad, I won't drink, I have to go back to Jinling this afternoon, there are too many things going on in the district." Ji Shaodong said with a smile and waved his hand.

"Second uncle, I drove here, I won't drink either." Ji Feng laughed and said.

"No more drinks then!" Ji Zhenguo nodded, "Shaodong, you are working in the district, different from the authorities, pay attention to the way and method, sink down, just floating on top, you will not hear the real voice!"

"Dad, I remember." Ji Shaodong finished eating and stood up, "Mom, there are still things to do in the district, I have to go."

The second aunt then complained, "What kind of work is so busy, only coming home a few times a year, not even talking about a girlfriend by now, old Ji, you know a lot of people, why don't you introduce one to the boss?"

The always-steady Ji Shaodong's forehead was suddenly black with lines: "Ahem That what, mum, you don't have to worry about it, it's almost there, it's almost there."

Watching his elder brother almost fall away, Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei looked at each other and were happy at the same time.

Ji Feng stayed at his second uncle's house for a while longer, listening to his teachings and his analysis of this incident, and studied carefully for a while before leaving his house.

"Ding" Ji Feng had just driven the car out of the family compound of the municipal party committee when his mobile phone suddenly rang, it was Xu Yuan calling.

"Xu Yuan, what's wrong?" Ji Feng picked up the phone.

"Young master, today the ceo of Rongpeng Group suddenly called our factory's reception and said he wanted to see me." Xu Yuan said, "Do you think this could be"

Chapter 893

"The ceo of Rong Peng Group wants to see you?" Ji Feng received the call and couldn't help but be stunned, "It's Rong Suyan? What did she say?"

"She didn't say much, she just said that she was Rong Suyan, the ceo of Rong Peng Group, and wanted to come over to talk to us because her brother Rong Bao just made a mistake." Xu Yuan said, "I think, could she be here to plead for her brother's mercy?"

"I guess there's that possibility!" Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, "In fact, even if she came to plead for mercy it wouldn't change anything"

The fact is that this is the case, the Wu family boss was pressed because of this matter, that is to say, the top has already qualified this matter, this is kidnapping, and it is still a very serious nature of kidnapping.

In this case, no one to plead for mercy is useful, Rong Baogang, is must be disposed of according to the law. Of course, if one has connections in the prison, one might let Rong Baogang suffer a little less, and then after a while, get a medical parole or some other reason to get him out.

Other than that, there was nothing much anyone could do. You know, this was decided by the top himself!

Just imagine, if it is said that Rong Baogang's side does not impose a sentence, is this not the same as disagreeing with the characterisation from above and having a different opinion?

Anyone who is not stupid in the head would not do such a stupid thing.

According to Ji Feng's guess, the Wu family or the Rong Peng Group must still have connections in Jiangzhou, for example, the fact that they were able to move people from the Drug Administration last time means that their connections must be higher than the position of the director of the Drug Administration, otherwise, that deputy director might not have dared to hide from the director of the Drug Administration, Sun Shouren, and come to the pharmaceutical factory to cause trouble.

However, even if they were more connected, I believe that this time the other party would not dare to interfere recklessly.

In high level matters, especially the game of big factions, the slightest carelessness may lead to an incomparably miserable end, and this is something that there have been many historical lessons ahead.

"Perhaps it is also because of this reason that the Rongpeng Group could not find any more connections in Jiangzhou, and this is why they had to bow down to Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory?"

Ji Feng secretly guessed, and then he said, "How about this, you agree to Rong Suyan's invitation to meet her!"

"Meet her?!"

Xu Yuan couldn't help but be slightly stunned and asked, "Didn't you just say that it was useless for anyone to beg for mercy? Then, if I meet her now, won't I be unable to give her any answer?"

The things that Rong Baogang had done now had touched on the scope of a criminal case, not a civil one, and even if Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory no longer pursued the case, the police would not stop there, people had already started the judicial process, how could they stop halfway?

What's more, just as Ji Feng said, the top has been dealt with strictly, how can the people below not respond?

Ji Feng laughed: "Let you see her, not to say anything about pleading or not, but to test her attitude, to see how much she really hates our pharmaceutical factory!"

"Hatred?"

Xu Yuan burst into tears and laughter, "Eldest young man, thanks for thinking of that, you might as well let me ask her directly how much you really hate us? Wouldn't that be better?"

Ji Feng chuckled, "The nature is different, but it's always good to ask so that we can also prepare early."

As soon as the matter of Rong Baogang came up, Ji Feng knew that in the future, there would definitely be a collision between Xiao Pharmaceutical Factory and Rong Peng Group, which was foreseeable.

But the question was, when would this collision come, or how intense the collision would be, all these, Ji Feng did not know yet. Therefore, he asked Xu Yuan to meet Rong Suyan because he was able to see some clues from her hatred towards Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory.

"Since you said so, then I can go!" Xu Yuan said, "Young Master, those people won't kidnap me too, will they?"

"She dares!"

Ji Feng immediately snorted coldly, "If she Rong Suyan really dares to do that, it's strange that Laozi won't tear down her Rong Peng Group!"

"Hee hee" Xu Yuan couldn't help but give a delicate laugh, "Big young man, you're very powerful!"

Ji Feng laughed twice and deliberated for a moment before saying, "How about this, I'll accompany you there."

To be honest, Ji Feng was really afraid that something might happen when he met Rong Suyan!

In case this Rong Suyan was again like her brother Rong Baogang, an arrogant person who didn't know the sky was the limit, and when she saw that the talks didn't work out, and then humiliated Xu Yuan or had someone beat her up, at that time it would be too late even if Ji Feng really dismantled the Rong Peng Group, after all, Xu Yuan was really hurt!

"What, you're not sure about me?" Xu Yuan charmed and laughed.

"Yes, you're all alone, of course I'm not at ease" Ji Feng laughed, "Let's do this, I'll rush over now, then we'll go see Rong Suyan together, you can call and contact her now."

After hanging up the phone, Ji Feng drove to the pharmaceutical factory, and after picking up Xu Yuan, they went to the appointment together.

"..... General manager, this matter is all my fault, if I had persuaded young Rong to stop him from acting recklessly, things wouldn't have come to this point today." Inside an office in an office building in Jiangzhou, Old Wang, who had been sent to Jiangzhou by the Rong Peng Group, said in shame.

In the office, a stunningly beautiful woman was standing in front of the window, looking at the vehicles passing back and forth below, silent.

Old Wang looked at her back and couldn't help but feel a little drummed in his heart.

Young Rong was messing around in Jiangzhou, and something had finally happened. At that time, Old Wang had a hunch that it would be extremely inappropriate to directly capture the engineer of Xiao's pharmaceutical factory, and for this reason he had also given a special report to Rong Suyan in front of him. But Rong Shao simply did not listen to the advice, the result is now is arrested to the police station.

Moreover, even the general manager had personally rushed here, so this matter was obviously not that easy to solve.

When he arrived, the general manager had instructed him to keep an eye on Rong Shao and not to let him run amok in Jiangzhou, but he hadn't thought that this would happen.

I don't know if the general manager will take it out on himself!

As far as Old Wang knew, don't look at the general manager young, but since she graduated from university and took over the Rongpeng Group, she had carried out a drastic reorganization within the group, but anyone who violated the rules or did not work seriously or was not motivated, regardless of the other party's relationship, all swept out of the house.

The General Manager's hand has made everyone apprehensive, not daring to be the least bit lazy or slippery.

No one dared to make a mistake!

As it turned out, the general manager's approach was right.

After clearing out those assholes, the general manager led the entire group in a grand strategic layout, and in just a few years' time, the Rong Peng Group's assets had increased by almost a third!

Because of this, the general manager had built up an unparalleled prestige within the group, and no one dared to slip up in front of the general manager.

That was why Old Wang was even more apprehensive, in front of such a demanding general manager, he had made such a mistake and even trapped the general manager's brother, what kind of downfall could he have?

"Ugh" Rong Suyan, who had not spoken, sighed lightly and turned to look at the apprehensive Old Wang, saying softly, "Old Wang, you don't need to worry, this matter has nothing to do with you, it's all Bao Gang's own sins, no one else can be blamed."

Whether this matter had anything to do with Old Wang or not, he was after all an old man of the Rong Peng Group, someone who had followed his father Rong Peng to fight together in the past, and was also very reliable and capable, otherwise he would not have been sent to Jiangzhou to set up the office, so Rong Suyan had to give him face.

What's more, this matter really has nothing to do with Old Wang, Rong Suyan has a good idea.

Old Wang nodded with a bitter smile and said, "No matter how I put it, I didn't keep an eye on young Rong, this is my dereliction of duty."

"There's no need to argue." Rong Suyan waved her hand directly and said, "The most important thing now is to get to the bottom of Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory before we can negotiate terms with them."

“General Manager”

A hesitant look flashed across Old Wang’s face, “Young Rong he, he is now in violation of the criminal law, even if we negotiate terms with Xiao’s Pharmaceutical Factory, there is no way to save Young Rong ah. General manager, I think how about this, you use your background relations, say hello to the Jiangzhou Municipal Bureau side, see if you can move a little?”

Old Wang was a senior member of the Rong Peng Group and had a good relationship with Chairman Rong Peng, so he was able to learn more or less about Rong Suyan’s situation.

According to Old Wang’s knowledge, behind Rong Suyan, it seemed that there was also a very powerful person standing behind her, that is, the very powerful brother-in-law that Rong Shao had mentioned, who was also said to be a big shot in Yanjing. If he could get him to say something, then this matter would be much easier to handle.

“It’s not that easy!” Rong Suyan shook her head with a bitter smile, “Old Wang, I know what you want to say, but this won’t work. To be frank, this matter has already dragged the person behind me into it, and now he himself is in a difficult position to protect himself, so to expect him to save Baogang is simply impossible.”

Thinking about what she had said to Wu Zhihe on the phone this morning, Rong Suyan could not help but let out a soft sigh in her heart. She found that since the addition of Zheng Yuxiu, things had started to go badly and, moreover, there seemed to be some estrangement between her and Wu Zhihe.

This made Rong Suyan very sad, but helpless.

Who let herself be a businessman?

“Let’s not talk about that.” A touch of silence flashed across Rong Suyan’s stunning face, “Old Wang, I’ve made an appointment with the general manager of Xiao Pharmaceutical Factory, if the other party agrees to meet with us, you’ll accompany me.”

“Okay!” Old Wang nodded, but in his heart, he was somewhat disapproving of Rong Suyan going to meet the general manager of Xiao’s pharmaceutical factory. After all, Rong Baogang had broken the law, and since even the people behind Rong Suyan had been implicated, what use would it be to go beg the people of Xiao’s Pharmaceutical Factory now?

However, Rong Suyan had her own intentions, she was just in a bad mood right now and didn’t want to explain much.

“Ding” The phone suddenly rang, Old Wang hurriedly turned around and picked up the phone from his desk and picked it up: “Rong Peng Group Jiangzhou office, which one is it please?” Xiao’s Pharmaceutical Factory?”

Chapter 894

“Eldest young man, the place where Rong Suyan made the appointment is at a star hotel on Jinling Road.” Xu Yuan said, “It looks like she doesn’t seem to have any intention of raising a fuss.”

“That’s natural!”

Ji Feng chuckled, "Now that Rong Bao just made a mistake, it should be Rong Suyan who is begging us, so naturally she won't come in a raging fury to raise an accusation right from the start, it's not too late for her to get angry when the talks don't work out!"

"Then she will definitely be angry!" Xu Yuan pursed her lips and laughed lightly.

The police have Rong Bao Gang in their hands, and it's not up to them to decide whether to let him go or not, or whether to hold him accountable, so it goes without saying that the outcome of this meeting will definitely not be negotiable.

"Know more about the opponent, still afraid that she will be angry?" Ji Feng said smilingly, "I'm afraid that she's too deep and doesn't show anything, which would be troublesome."

If Rong Suyan was really deep and incomparable, so that people couldn't see her likes and dislikes, then there would be no way to tell exactly how she would deal with Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory, and even have to be on guard all day, which would be rather annoying.

"Eldest young man, I think ah, why don't you just chase her down, in that case, you don't have to worry about her retaliation either." Xu Yuan suddenly said, "Maybe, ah, her Rong Peng Group will be yours, this is a good thing to kill two birds with one stone, you might want to consider it, Eldest Younger?"

Sweat!

Several black lines appeared on Ji Feng's forehead, glaring at Xu Yuan, crying and laughing, "What are you talking about, still pursuing Rong Suyan"

He couldn't help but shake his head slightly, Xu Yuan was really treating himself as a flamboyant young man?

The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these.

Not to mention that she herself was Wu Zhihe's lover, just because of the matter of Xiao's pharmaceutical factory, which made both Rong Baogang and the Wu family fall on their faces, it was good that she didn't hate herself to death, and still pursued

"Hee hee" Looking at Ji Feng's speechless demeanor, Xu Yuan suddenly laughed delicately, "Big young man, so there are still things you can't handle."

The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than you can handle.

Not to mention that Ji Feng didn't have such a mind, even if he was really a playboy, he couldn't possibly go after Rong Suyan. This woman was not that easy to pursue, if he couldn't catch up, he might be ridiculed, if he did, he would have to be on edge all day long, God knows if she wanted to take revenge for his brother?

In a word, it's ridiculous!

"To be serious, have you investigated the Rongpeng Group?" Ji Feng asked.

"This group is very powerful!" Xu Yuan nodded slightly and stopped joking, saying seriously, "I've generally looked up information about the Rongpeng Group, this group is one of the top 100 enterprises in the country, ranked eighty something last year, and is involved in a number of industries such as real estate, medicine and chemicals, and is strong. It belongs to the leading local private enterprise in Southern Guangdong.”

“More than ten billion is a leading enterprise in Southern Guangdong?” Ji Feng couldn’t help but be stunned, what was Southern Guangdong? It was the number one economic province, and as far as Ji Feng knew, there were quite a few large groups in Southern Guangdong, so could Rongpeng Group be considered a leading enterprise?

“Young master, the more than ten billion you said, that is only the tangible assets of Rongpeng Group, in fact, there are many intangible assets, as well as extensive channels and so on, I have roughly estimated that it is at least thirty billion or more.” Xu Yuan said, “If we’re talking about market value, then I’m afraid it’s all going to be in the hundreds of billions”

“So much?!”

Ji Feng was stunned, not so much by Rongpeng Group’s market value of hundreds of billions, but by the fact that the actual assets of Rongpeng Group were actually more than thirty billion

In fact, the market value or whatever, that is all floating clouds, as long as the stock market turbulence, those market value will immediately shrink significantly, so generally only in the publicity will say how much the market value, but the real insiders, look at the other aspects of the company.

What Ji Feng was surprised by, however, was the actual assets of the Rongpeng Group, which meant that the Wu family had more than 30 billion dollars available behind them!

When he thought about what Second Uncle had said, if the Wu family wanted to snipe at his father, they could only do so in secret, Ji Feng vaguely understood why the Wu family occupied a place in Yanjing, the strength of the Wu family, indeed, could not be ignored.

Imagine if the behemoth that is the Rongpeng Group shifted its spearhead and aimed directly at one of father’s old minions, it would simply be hard to resist.

If the Rongpeng Group enters a city where one of his old men is in charge, it will be able to turn the city’s economy into chaos.

At that time, the Rongpeng Group will certainly be punished, but what about father’s old ministry?

What did you do as a leader to bring a city’s economy to this state? He is not capable!

The company’s top executives will definitely say that they don’t know the right people and that they don’t use them properly. The first thing is, look at the performance of the cadres promoted by you, Ji Zhenhua.

Even the most incompetent person wouldn’t have screwed up the economy so badly, right? This is not even a case of poor knowledge of people and inappropriate use of personnel?

This reason alone is enough to make my father fall in the general election in two years’ time. If he is really sniped like this, it would be like banging his head against a wall!

The fact that a leading figure of a faction was actually sniped by his opponent in retaliation is definitely more pathetic than the Wu family boss being dragged to the end of his political life by a second generation ancestor!

“Rong Peng Group, very powerful!” A cautious look appeared on Ji Feng’s face, he absolutely could not tolerate such a thing happening in two years’ time, absolutely not!

“Yes!” Xu Yuan nodded slightly, “Actually, when you say leading company, you’re not just talking about assets, but also potential, development speed and so on, in these aspects, Rongpeng Group is really powerful, especially in recent years, they’ve developed a lot faster again.”

“No matter how fast the Rongpeng Group is, we don’t care!” Ji Feng’s face was grave and he said forcefully, “In a word, develop our pharmaceutical factory as much as possible, it’s just after the New Year, within this year, we must make the pharmaceutical factory double several times, Xu Yuan, the burden on your shoulders is very heavy!”

Seemingly sensing the heavy tone of Ji Feng’s voice, Xu Yuan nodded her head and said, “Young master, don’t worry, I will do my best!”

Ji Feng put his hands on the steering wheel and deliberated for a moment before saying, “Xu Yuan, you should be a bit overwhelmed to manage such a big mess by yourself, if you agree, I plan to let Yu Xuan come over and let her learn for a while first, then you can manage Xiao’s Pharmaceutical Factory together, what do you think?”

“What, let the main house manage me, the side house?” Xu Yuan asked teasingly.

“.....” Ji Feng laughed bitterly.

“I’m just kidding!” Xu Yuan pursed her lips and laughed lightly, “Being a bitter face and getting a face full of folds at a young age In fact, I have long wanted to propose to you, didn’t Yu Xuan resign from the school? It just so happens that she doesn’t have anything to do, so just let her come over.”

“Is that okay?” Ji Feng was still a bit unsure, he hadn’t heard anyone say that wives and lovers could get along well with each other ah, even in ancient times there weren’t many such examples, right?

“Don’t worry, I will take care of this matter, you just have to be your big young man at ease!” Xu Yuan’s beautiful eyes gave him a blank look.

Ji Feng more or less scratched his head, he thought to himself, if second brother was here, he would definitely say that I was an emotional idiot again, right?

He could be sure that if it was Ji Shaolei instead, he definitely wouldn’t have handled it like this!

“Eldest, I actually think that we don’t need to worry about Rong Peng Group’s retaliation, after all, we’re not listed, we’re just doing industry, there’s nothing they can do if they want to retaliate.” Xu Yuan said comfortingly again.

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, “It’s not that simple! However, no matter how they retaliate, I’m going to take a chance with them, and all of this, there has to be a premise, that is, our pharmaceutical factory has to grow fast, so it’s going to be hard on you!”

“And the First Young Grandmother!” Xu Yuan added.

Ji Feng instantly smiled bitterly

The place to meet was suggested by Rong Suyan, and coincidentally, when Ji Feng listened to Xu Yuan’s address, he found out that the hotel was right across the street from the Taste and Fragrance Residence!

What a coincidence!

Ji Feng met the boss of the Tian Yao Group and the youngest of the He family, He Hongwei, across the street from the Taste and Fragrance Residence, and met the CEO of the Rong Peng Group, Rong Suyan, across the street.

This coincidence was also very interesting.

Just as the two walked into the hotel, a middle-aged man came over with a smile on his face and said politely, “Mr Xu, this gentleman, please follow me.”

Xu Yuan then whispered in Ji Feng’s ear, “The first time Rongpeng Group wanted to acquire our factory, this is the man who went to talk about it, his name is Wang Shuosheng.”

Ji Feng nodded slightly, no wonder this man knew Xu Yuan.

When Ji Feng and the two of them met Rong Suyan, he was slightly shocked.

It was not because Rong Suyan’s beauty shocked Ji Feng, but because, on this woman’s body, there was a total intellectual beauty, the kind with a strong bookish flavor, which made the already incomparably beautiful Rong Suyan, become beautiful, but also gave people a sense of tranquility.

This is a very different aura from Xu Yuan’s!

It’s not that Rong Suyan is prettier than Xu Yuan, it’s just that the two people have different auras.

Two women who were equally beautiful but with completely different temperaments stood together, and it was truly astonishing.

“This is Xu Yuan, General Manager of Xiao’s Pharmaceutical Factory, right?” Rong Suyan spoke first, she extended her hand with a unique smile on her pretty face, “Introduce myself, my name is Rong Suyan, I’m the general manager of Rong Peng Group, nice to meet you both Xu!”

Xu Yuan naturally handled the situation with ease and extended her hand to shake her gently, spreading her face, “I’m also honoured to meet the leader of a top 100 company.”

Chapter 895

Rong Suyan smiled coquettishly, her beautiful eyes turned to Ji Feng again: “This gentleman is

Ji Feng faintly smiled: “A small employee of Xiao’s pharmaceutical factory, you guys chat, don’t mind me!”

Rong Suyan then nodded thoughtfully, pursed her lips and smiled lightly, "I am very grateful that the two of you can take time out of your busy schedules to accept this presumptuous invitation from me Please sit down."

Ji Feng and Xu Yuan smiled faintly at the same time and took a seat on the sofa. Rong Suyan and the middle-aged man, Wang Shuosheng, sat opposite the two of them.

Although it was a star hotel, the private room Rong Suyan had chosen was not very big, probably only five or six square meters, but it was very warmly decorated. There were two coat racks at the entrance of the box, a not too big table, sofas and chairs on both sides, and two small cabinets next to it.

The arrangement of the compartment was delicate and cosy without being crowded, and this kind of compartment was very suitable for conversation and chatting.

It was clear that Rong Suyan had put a lot of thought into the choice of this box, or at least the creation of the atmosphere, which was very well done.

From this, we can see that Rong Suyan is not only shrewd, but also very measured in what she does.

This is indeed a formidable person!

Xu Yuan and Ji Feng's eyes crossed and they both understood each other's thoughts, and it looked like they had to fight for today's conversation with twelve points.

In fact, Ji Feng attached more importance to Rong Suyan in his heart. It could be said that this woman, Rong Suyan, was the most powerful woman he had ever seen, and when talking to other people, Ji Feng had never attached so much importance to it.

"What would you two like to drink?" Rong Suyan didn't rush into the main topic, but asked with a smile.

"Coffee!" Xu Yuan said.

"Same for me then, following the lead of our old boss is definitely the right thing to do!" Ji Feng said with a smile.

Rong Suyan and Wang Shuosheng both couldn't help but lose their smiles, but in their hearts they were also awe-struck, it looked like this young man was not easy to deal with.

But they did not know that Ji Feng's heart was also very cautious, from the moment they came in, Rong Suyan had been trying to create an extremely relaxed atmosphere, this was to control the initiative of the conversation.

"This gentleman is right, we must keep up with the old boss, ah, what the old boss does, that must be all right!" Wang Shuosheng also said with a smile.

Several people couldn't help but laugh lightly, the atmosphere was instantly much gentler, the kind of rawness of the first meeting disappeared without a trace in the blink of an eye.

"Wait a moment, I'll call the waiter." Wang Shuosheng stood up and pressed the service bell next to him, quoting the drinks that several people all wanted.

Soon, the waiter brought up coffee and other drinks, and then the waiter went out and brought the door with him, and the compartment was quiet.

Everyone knew that it was time to get down to business.

“Miss Rong, I don’t know what you called us here for ……” Without waiting for Rong Suyan to open her mouth, Xu Yuan took the initiative to ask, “Or do you want to discuss the acquisition of our Xiao Pharmaceutical Factory?”

“General Xu, just call me Suyan directly!”

Rong Suyan shook her head and said, “In fact, this time, we have invited Mr. Xu and this gentleman over not to discuss the acquisition of Xiao’s Pharmaceutical Factory, admittedly, our group did send someone to discuss with your party before, that was also a preliminary contact, and a process of getting to know each other. After understanding your side’s mind, we gave up on that intention!”

“Oh?” Xu Yuan laughed lightly and asked, “Not about the acquisition?”

“That’s right, since we have given up our intention to acquire, then naturally we won’t revisit old matters, unless there is a change in circumstances.”

Rong Suyan said, “There are two purposes for inviting you two here this time. Firstly, on behalf of the Rong Peng Group, I would like to apologise to you and your party as a whole, because my brother’s reckless behaviour has caused unnecessary trouble to your party, so please understand.”

“Your brother?” Xu Yuan laughed lightly, “Mr. Rong, I’m sorry, I don’t understand what you mean.”

“Gentlemen, actually it’s like this, whether it’s the previous acquisition intention, or the subsequent inspection of your party by the Jiangzhou Drug Administration, or the arrest of your engineer, in all these matters, our brother, General Manager Rong, played a bad role in it, for this reason, we, General Manager Rong, are very guilty, that’s why we want to apologise to you two and all members of your party, I hope you can understand! ”

Wang Shuosheng said with a smile beside him, which was also considered to be an additional explanation for Rong Suyan’s words, or also considered to be a rounding off.

“So that’s how it is!” Xu Yuan couldn’t help but drift off and nodded her head slightly. In fact, she was not really pretending, originally she and Ji Feng thought that the first time Rong Peng Group contacted Xiao Pharmaceutical Factory and wanted to talk about the acquisition, that should have been the intention of the top management of Rong Peng Group, but now she realized that all along it was actually Rong Baogang who had been playing tricks in it.

“I know that the few things my brother did were not very decent, and must have brought a lot of negative effects to your party, and also caused some harm to your employees, here, I apologise to you both on his behalf, and hope you can forgive his ignorance!” Rong Suyan said seriously.

“An apology is not necessary, it’s not like it’s any of your business, Mr. Rong.” Xu Yuan said, “Besides, now that the police are in charge, there is no way for us to interfere.”

Rong Suyan shook her head lightly and said, “I already know this, but it is the police’s business to intervene, but for me, it is necessary to apologise to you, because no matter what, Rong Baogang is my brother after all, and he came to Jiangzhou to represent the Rong Peng Group, so I should come to apologise for reasons of reason.”

“That’s good, we accept Mr. Rong’s apology.” Ji Feng smiled, “Since things have been said, there is no problem, as long as both of us don’t have any knots because of this matter, then everything will be fine.”

“That’s natural!” Rong Suyan and Wang Shuosheng both couldn’t help but nod, “Rong Baogang has made a mistake, there will naturally be the law to punish him.”

“It’s still Mr. Rong who is sensible.” Ji Feng laughed and praised.

The two of them could not help but smile bitterly, letting go of the police and letting them deal with it was sensible.

Both of them couldn’t help but look at Ji Feng and pay more attention to him. Although this young man didn’t talk a lot, however, when he opened his mouth, it was extremely harsh words that were simply a little hard to resist, how could this kind of talent be a small employee of Xiao’s Pharmaceutical Factory?

What’s more, until now this young man had never said his name, either he was an unworthy nobody or he didn’t want others to know his name.

And now it seemed obvious that the latter should be more likely.

“This gentleman is over-complimented.” Rong Suyan shook her head and sighed softly, “Anyone understands this truth, but it is still very difficult to achieve. To be frank, the second purpose of inviting you two here this time is for my brother Bao Gang.”

“What does Mr. Rong mean …..?” Xu Yuan asked without moving her voice.

“I do have an unrequited request, and I hope that Mr. Xu can oblige.” Rong Suyan said, “Because of my brother Rong Baogang’s actions, all the losses caused to your party, we are willing to double the compensation, and will definitely not discount half of it. Only, I hope that we can obtain your side’s true understanding.”

“What does that mean?” Xu Yuan asked with a smile, “Mr. Rong, just say what you have to say plainly.”

In her heart, she had already vaguely guessed what Rong Suyan meant, but guessing was one thing, not saying was another, the skill of conversation, that was very important.

“Then, since Mr. Xu is so forthcoming, then also I will be straightforward.” Rong Suyan said, “I only hope that your side can forgive Bao Gang’s actions and not interfere in this kidnapping case again, I wonder what you two think?”

Xu Yuan couldn’t help but glance at Ji Feng and secretly said in her heart that she had really let the youngest guess right, Rong Suyan really just didn’t want Xiao’s Pharmaceutical Factory to interfere with Rong Baogang’s case so that they could use their network of connections and try to operate as much as possible to get a better result for Rong Baogang.

In fact, this was indeed what Rong Suyan meant.

Although Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory is a new enterprise, it is a fact that they are the local snake in Jiangzhou. The fact is that, according to Wang Shuosheng, Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory has some connections in Jiangzhou, so if they really want to retaliate, Rong Baogang's crime can be light or heavy.

You know, the kidnapping case is a crime, that's for sure. But in addition, what Rong Baogang is seeking is Xiao's pharmaceutical company's Kang Yuan slimming powder formula, the value of this formula, that can not be measured in money, said it is extremely serious nature of the malignant case, can also be absolutely justified.

If that's the case, I'm afraid Rong Baogang will really have to sit through the bottom of the jail!

Looking at the silent Xu Yuan and Ji Feng, Rong Suyan could not help but have some bad feeling in her heart, she added: "Of course, I have already said before, in order to show my apology, but we are willing to compensate for any damage caused by Baogang to your side, if your side has any demands, you can also put them together, we will try our best to meet them."

"I understand what you mean!" Ji Feng laughed: "Simply put, it's one sentence, spend money to buy peace, of course, buy the peace of Rongbao Gang, am I right?"

"You could say that." Being directly told off by Ji Feng, Rong Suyan didn't feel the slightest bit embarrassed and directly admitted it frankly.

"Well! In order to save your younger brother, a boss of a multi-billion dollar conglomerate like you went out of your way to come to us in a low voice, frankly speaking, what you did as a sister is still quite meaningful!" Ji Feng smiled a little, "However, I do have an immature opinion, I wonder if Mr. Rong is willing to listen?"

"Of course, please speak." Being said so bluntly by Ji Feng, Rong Suyan didn't feel the slightest bit unhappy, and her stunningly beautiful face still wore a soft smile.

Chapter 896

Seeing this performance of Rong Suyan, Ji Feng couldn't help but give a secret praise in his heart, other than that, just this effort of Rong Suyan in nurturing her qi is not something that ordinary people can compare with.

This kind of person is either deep and hypocritical, or really has enough heart!

Although he hadn't seen which kind Rong Suyan belonged to for the time being, Ji Feng was aware that this woman was really not simple.

But the more this was the case, the more wary Ji Feng was, once this kind of person started to go crazy, then she would dare to do anything.

After pondering slightly for a moment, Ji Feng said: "Mr. Rong, personally, what your brother did is indeed unforgivable, to put it more seriously, it's simply an asshole! Relying on a little family background and some overwhelming background, he dares to act recklessly, even by unscrupulous means, such a person is a scourge!"

When these words were spoken, Wang Shuosheng's face, who was sitting next to Rong Suyan, instantly changed, these words were really too unkind, it could be said that they were simply a resounding slap in the face to the Rong Peng Group.

However, Rong Suyan did not react much, only her eyebrows knitted slightly, and then quickly stretched out.

"What you said makes sense, and frankly speaking, I'm also having a headache with this brother of mine."

Not only did Rong Suyan not get angry, but she frankly admitted it, "But no matter what, Bao Gang he is also my younger brother, the only male member of our Rong family, my parents and the old man and old woman in the family are very fond of him, and of course it may be exactly this that has spoiled him, but yet, I cannot leave him alone."

"That's true!"

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, "Mr. Rong this is also for the good of your brother, and we can understand that."

"Thank you, sir, for your understanding." Rong Suyan spread her face and smiled.

"Then, since Mr. Rong is really doing this for the good of your brother, you might as well listen to my advice, the more you want to treat him well, the stricter you have to be with him, the more filial children come out from under the whip, and this saying is equally appropriate for your brother. This time, take it as a profound lesson for him, let him know that family history and background, in fact, may not be as useful as he thinks!"

Ji Feng laughed: "If you help him this time, then I can be sure that something like this will happen again in the future, and maybe even, things will be even worse in nature than they are now!"

Rong Suyan smiled blandly and didn't reply or deny.

Wang Shuosheng, who was next to her, could not bear to hear this, and he could not help but say, "This gentleman, you can't say that either, can you? It is undeniable that our young Rong is a bit stubborn, but after this lesson, he will always learn better, and I believe that our young Rong has also realised his mistake."

"I think it's a bit dangerous!" Ji Feng shook his head and laughed: "To be honest, after catching Rong Baogang, I once saw him from afar, that arrogant look of his at that time was really an eye-opener, if this time he returned in one piece, how can such a small lesson make him remember?"

"Isn't that a bit too arbitrary, sir?" Rong Suyan was also a little uncomfortable, my brother is that bad?

In fact, she also knew that her brother was a kind of person, but this was like a mother hen who protects her son, she could scold or beat him any way she wanted, but, when others said it, she would feel uncomfortable in her heart.

"Maybe so!" Ji Feng chuckled, "This is just some of my personal immature views, if there's anything wrong, you two don't take offense."

“Of course not.” Rong Suyan smiled and said, “However, I wonder how the two of you have considered my request just now?”

Through the words Ji Feng had just said, Xu Yuan understood what he meant.

Ji Feng had been trying to persuade Rong Suyan, which meant that I could let go, but I only hoped that after I let go, you would not spoil Rong Baogang too much, and as for what the final result would be, it had nothing to do with me.

Therefore, Xu Yuan smiled lightly and said, “Mr. Rong has come a long way to come here, and he is so sincere, so I naturally have no problem with it.”

“Then, thank you very much!”

Rong Suyan was stunned, and then she said, “Mr. Xu, this gentleman, thank you very much for your generosity, and I have nothing to thank you for, but to compensate you as much as possible for the losses you have suffered There are two cards here, one is to compensate for the loss caused to your pharmaceutical factory because of the matter of the Drug Administration, and the other, is to compensate for the harm caused to that engineer gentleman because of this kidnapping incident, please be sure to accept it!”

As Rong Suyan said, Wang Shuosheng next to her took out two bank cards from his pocket and pushed them in front of Xu Yuan.

Xu Yuan was a little hesitant and glanced at Ji Feng with the remaining light of her eyes, seeing him nod slightly, Xu Yuan also smiled and said, “In that case, then I won’t push back.”

“Don’t ever push back, this is the only thing I can do, and once again, I apologise to you for what my brother has done.” Rong Suyan stood up and gave the two of them a bow.

Xu Yuan hurriedly said, “That’s not necessary, Mr. Rong is too polite.”

Ji Feng laughed beside him, “Mr. Rong, we have forgiven Rong Baogang and will definitely not put pressure on the police in the future, but what will happen in the future is beyond our control, for specific reasons that Mr. Rong should also know.”

“This I know, in any case, I have to thank you two for this time!” Rong Suyan said in all sincerity.

Ji Feng then smiled slightly, the reason why he accepted Rong Suyan’s bank card and gave a few words of explanation was to dispel Rong Suyan’s doubts.

He wanted to tell Rong Suyan very clearly that we accept your apology, what will happen to Rong Baogang in the future and how the police will handle it, it has nothing to do with us! If your Rong family is capable, then go ahead and operate, anyway, from now on, our Xiao Pharmaceutical Factory and this matter will have nothing more to do with each other!

The reason for taking the bank card was also to reassure Rong Suyan.

The reason why Ji Feng would do this was that he just didn’t want to cross paths with the Rong Peng Group for the time being.

Facing such a large group with tens of billions of assets, it would be an absolute lie to say that Ji Feng was not scrupulous.

Once Xiao's pharmaceutical factory collapses, when the Wu family uses the Rongpeng Group to gather their father, Ji Zhenhua, Ji Feng will have no more available soldiers in his hands, and he will never allow this to happen.

By taking a step back temporarily, he could give the pharmaceutical factory more time and space to develop. Such a concession is not a disgrace, but a strategy.

It was only until this time that Ji Feng understood why there would always be mutual compromise and balance in the game between those big factions. Now just the conflict between Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory and Rongpeng Group, at every turn, will cause Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory's sales channels to be cut off, so that Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory can never develop again.

Imagine then, once there is a collision between those big factions that hold terrifying energy, it would be an absolutely shocking collision.

Such a thing might be too much for anyone to bear.

Moreover, coupled with the operation and taoist scheming, it is only then that there is compromise after compromise.

For example, the previous compromise between the Ji Department and the Wu Department was the reason for this.

Ji Feng suddenly remembered a saying that the most difficult thing for people is not to learn how to advance bravely, but to learn how to retreat smoothly

Since a temporary reconciliation has been reached, the conversation between the two sides is much more pleasant. Xu Yuan and Rong Suyan are both people who have been in the shopping mall and talk about common topics, while Ji Feng is listening with a smile, slowly getting to know Rong Suyan as a person so that he can judge whether what she says is hypocritical or sincere.

Fortunately, Ji Feng did not see any signs of hypocrisy in Rong Suyan for the time being, and from her words, he could find that this woman's business vision and insights were extraordinary, and she was indeed a talent in business, no wonder she could become the helmsman of a large group with tens of billions of assets.

In fact, when Ji Feng was observing Rong Suyan, the other party was also observing her.

In Rong Suyan's opinion, Ji Feng is not an ordinary small employee of Xiao's pharmaceutical factory, this is already certain, moreover, the other party's talk is very atmospheric, although he put himself in a very low posture, but his tone of voice that is all overlooking, this person is obviously very uncomplicated, not ordinary people ah.

Therefore, before parting, Rong Suyan asked, "This gentleman, we can also be considered a non-fighting deal, but, I still don't know your name until now oh!"

"Just call me Ji Feng." Ji Feng laughed.

“Ji Feng” Rong Suyan couldn’t help but mull over the name.

Ji Feng and Xu Yuan left, watching their backs disappear at the hotel’s entrance, Rong Suyan couldn’t help but whisper to herself, “This place in Jiangzhou, it really is a place where crouching tigers hide dragons.”

Next to her, Wang Shuosheng also nodded approvingly, “Yes, that General Manager Xu, is very talented and has a good eye, with her at the helm, Xiao Pharmaceutical Factory will become a big group sooner or later.”

“What I am concerned about, on the other hand, is that young man called Ji Feng.” Rong Suyan said, “He talks in an extraordinary manner, although he seems to have a big grin, but in reality, he has a majesty in his bones that is frightening, did you see, Old Wang, when he talks, Xu Yuan never interrupts, it is obvious that he is the one in charge today.”

“So, he’s very powerful? Could he be the owner of Xiao’s pharmaceutical factory?” Wang Shuosheng was stunned, and then shook his head to overturn his conclusion, “That’s not right, I’ve investigated before, the owner of Xiao’s Pharmaceutical Factory is named Xiao Yuxuan, a very young girl” Then who is this young man?”

“No matter who he is, in any case, it’s better for us not to start a conflict with the Xiao Pharmaceutical Factory now! Although they are not large, they are the local snake in Jiangzhou, even if we are a dragon that has crossed the river, we may not be able to curry favour with them.” Rong Suyan said, “Besides, the most important thing now is to get Baogang sentenced as lightly as possible” Old Wang, let’s go to the police station!”

Chapter 897

“Uncle Zheng, it’s Little Feng.” Ji Feng said into the phone, smiling, “..... It’s like this, I just met with the general manager of Rong Peng Group, and she talked to me about the matter concerning Rong Baogang”

Ji Feng generally told the main conversation of their meeting, which, of course, ignored many things, such as his own evaluation of Rong Baogang, and then the acceptance of Rong Peng Group’s compensation, etc., all these things were not said, only Rong Suyan’s intention to come, and her request.

Ji Feng immediately laughed and said, “My meaning is very simple, still according to my agreement with Rong Suyan, I no longer care about this matter, and our Xiao Pharmaceutical Factory will not file any more lawsuits against Rong Peng Group, the rest that is a matter for the police, we can’t care about it even if we want to.”

In fact, Ji Feng knew very well what Zheng Yuanshan meant when he asked this question, if he made this call to intercede for Rongbang, it would be somewhat bad.

In any case, Zheng Yuanshan is the deputy director of Jiangzhou Municipal Bureau, a deputy department level leader, and also has such a good relationship with Ji Zhenguang, a high official of Jiangzhou City, such a person, not just anyone can be instructed.

Although Ji Feng is a small tz of the Ji Department, it would be somewhat bad if he called to directly order Zheng Yuanshan. A leader at the deputy department level always needs to have a stance that matches his rank, not to mention that Ji Feng himself is not in the system, not to mention whether Zheng Yuanshan will listen to Ji Feng's orders, this move alone is a bit over the line!

Therefore, Ji Feng immediately explained what he meant.

As expected, after hearing this, Zheng Yuanshan immediately laughed and said, "Little Feng, you've picked a clean slate, but this is good, anything can be done through legal channels."

In fact, according to Zheng Yuanshan's speculation, Ji Feng should have reached some agreement with Rong Suyan, so he no longer pursued Rong Baogang, instead, after the meeting, he left the matter completely to the police and he no longer asked about it.

The fact that there was something going on here could not be hidden from Zheng Yuanshan's eyes.

And in fact, this situation is also what Zheng Yuanshan would like to see the most, after all, for him, how to deal with it, how strong it should be, he must have full control and have the greatest freedom. But if Ji Feng were to get involved, he would have to consider Ji Feng's opinion.

Although this doesn't really affect Zheng Yuanshan, anyway, whether Rong Baogang is dead or alive, or sentenced to a few years, is none of his business, but as a leader, one doesn't want to be led by the nose, even though the person is a small tz.

The so-called small tz, that is small!

Before tz had grown up, Zheng Yuanshan still only treated him as a child, and there is always no one who wants to be led by the nose by a child, whether that person is a leader or not.

And now, Ji Feng took the initiative to let go and also to make it clear to Zheng Yuanshan, which made him feel that he was respected.

The feeling of being respected is always very good, especially when it is still being respected by little tz, then it naturally feels even better.

Therefore, Zheng Yuanshan was still very satisfied.

Ji Feng smiled, "Uncle Zheng, actually I'm not picking myself clean, I'm just doing it for a number of reasons."

"Mm! I know." Zheng Yuanshan said with a smile, "I believe that after looking for you, that Rongpeng Group's people should come to me, let's do that first!"

"Sure, see you later Uncle Zheng!" Ji Feng said with a smile.

After hanging up the phone, Ji Feng couldn't help but be silent.

It seemed that no matter whether it was father and second uncle and the others, or Zheng Yuanshan and the others, they hadn't treated themselves as people they could talk to as equals, but only as a child, and that was a bad feeling.

But Ji Feng also knew that this was already very good now, if there was no matter of the Jiangzhe Dragon Tiger Gang and the matter of the Rongpeng Group, I'm afraid they all still treated themselves as a spearheaded little child who didn't know anything.

"It's time to work hard, if not to get recognition, at least to think about my father" Ji Feng said darkly.

Although he had met with Rong Suyan, but what is this woman's character, Ji Feng is still not quite clear. And there was one thing he hadn't forgotten, the Rong Peng Group, a civil behemoth, was under the control of the Wu family. If the Wu family wanted to use this behemoth to snipe at father, it would really be very troublesome!

If the Wu family wanted to use this huge asset to snipe at father, it would be very troublesome.

However, they are not very big, and their status also predestines them not to make the business too big, otherwise, it would be very influential for the whole Ji family.

Let's say that Ji Shaojun brings up a huge group, then what will others think of the Ji family?

See, someone in the family is in power, and as a result, soon people's relatives become rich" So how exactly did they get rich?

You can think with your heels, surely no one will think that Ji Shaojun and the others made their fortunes on their real abilities, even if they did, no one will believe it, that's the reality.

Therefore, as of now, once the Wu family moved to use the Rong Peng Group, there was really no one who could stop it.

"Fortunately, there is still a break in the buffer" Ji Feng couldn't help but secretly clench his fist, his high fighting spirit gradually rising, "Before the general election in two years' time, I will definitely bring out a big group and block anyone who tries to snipe my father to the top at all costs."

"Whoever dares to plot against me, I will cut him down!"

"Eldest young man, isn't it a little bit not good for us to accept Rong Suyan's compensation just like that?" When Xu Yuan saw that Ji Feng had been silent after the phone call, she kept quiet until Ji Feng's frown was stretched out, then she asked softly.

Ji Feng was stunned, then shook his head and laughed, "Not really, we took her compensation, actually to appease her."

Accepting the bank card at least showed that Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory wanted to write things off on this, Rong Suyan would always have some stability in her heart, if not, Rong Suyan would not be the one to say this.

"Eldest young man, there's something I don't know if I should ask." Xu Yuan said.

Ji Feng smiled, "What else can't you say to me, if you have anything to say, just say it!"

"I was going to ask you, why are you so scornful of the Rongpeng Group?"

Xu Yuan weighed her words and said, "Indeed, Rongpeng Group is a behemoth, but we are doing industry, and we are not listed, so we don't have to worry about Rongpeng Group's retaliation at all, at most, they will just choke off our sales channels, big deal, we will just re-establish our sales channels again, I believe that in less than a year or two, we will definitely be able to establish stable sales I believe that within a year or two, we will be able to establish stable sales channels again."

"What you say is very reasonable."

Ji Feng was silent for a moment before saying, "But I don't want to collide with the Rongpeng Group so early, now is not the time to collide, Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory within these two years, absolutely nothing can happen!"

Xu Yuan's eyebrows twitched a few times, then vaguely some understanding, before Ji Feng had analyzed the pressure faced by Xiao's pharmaceutical plant, but why exactly she was not very clear, but now it seems that it must be a matter of great importance.

Therefore, the intelligent Xu Yuan stopped asking questions and changed the subject, talking about 'main house' and 'concubines' and other things, making Ji Feng cry and laugh.

It seems that flirting with Ji Feng has become a hobby of Xu Yuan's

After sending Xu Yuan back to the pharmaceutical factory, Ji Feng went straight home, quite a lot had happened in the past few days, he had to run through it and summarize his gains and losses in these matters so that he could grow.

"Hm?!"

Just after returning to the door of his home, Ji Feng was keenly aware that there seemed to be traces of other ruts in front of the main door, which were definitely not the traces pressed out by his own car tires Yu Xuan is back?

Ji Feng was immediately overjoyed, opened the door remotely and drove the car directly into the garage, after which he quickly returned to the yard.

At this time, a delicate figure was standing at the door of the living room, charming and full of all kinds of charm, those beautiful eyes were even more watery as they looked at Ji Feng.

"Yu Xuan?!"

Ji Feng was overjoyed, this delicate and charming figure, if not Xiao Yuxuan, who else could it be?

He immediately took a few quick steps and ran over, wrapping Xiao Yuxuan up and spinning her around in place, causing Xiao Yuxuan to giggle, but the smile on her pretty face was incomparably sweet, and her beautiful eyes were filled with intense affection.

"Yu Xuan, how come you're back all of a sudden?!" Ji Feng asked in surprise, "Hi! No, I mean, how come you didn't give me a call before you came back, so suddenly?"

“You’re happy that I’m back?” Xiao Yuxuan’s beautiful eyes blinked, flirtatious and mischievous, “Did you hook up with a girl outside again, so you don’t dare to see me?”

“Ahem

The first time I saw you, I was choking on my own saliva and coughed. Xiao Yuxuan giggled, and her tender white hand patted Ji Feng on the back, “Why are you in such a hurry? Well, I’m just kidding with you.”

Ji Feng’s heart was weak, so he didn’t dare to say anything more, just smoothed out his breath and asked, “When I called you the other day, why were you so secretive and didn’t let me go to your house to pay my respects?”

“That’s because

“Really?” Ji Feng was a little skeptical.

“Of course it’s true, why, you still think I’m lying to you?” Xiao Yuxuan pouted and took his arm into the living room.

Ji Feng shook his head slightly, “No, it’s definitely not true, Yuxuan, don’t forget that I’m your boyfriend, you can’t hide from me when you lie. Say it, what’s really going on?”

“I’ve said it’s nothing!” Xiao Yuxuan laughed delicately.

“Not saying it, right?” Ji Feng asked with a wicked smile, “Then don’t blame me for being impolite!”

“How are you not polite? I’d like to see it!” Xiao Yuxuan threw a winks to Ji Feng.

“Don’t know how to live or die!” Ji Feng clenched his teeth and directly picked up Xiao Yuxuan horizontally with one hand and walked towards the bedroom with big steps, “Let you see how I’m not polite to you!”

“Giggle

Chapter 898

The bedroom was filled with a thick sense of spring as the waves rolled over and the cries were delicate.

Xiao Yuxuan’s perfect, jade-like body was covered in red flush, and her pretty face and forehead were covered in sweat.

She was lying limp on the bed, because she had tossed and turned too much, she didn’t even have the strength to move her fingers, she just let Ji Feng slightly wipe her delicate body like fat and jade, her small mouth was slightly open, her breath was like an orchid, her eyes were lost, a charming scene

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on a lot of things.

The actual plugs are plugged in, and the hot water heater instantly comes out with steaming hot air, filling up the bath, Ji Feng carried Xiao Yuxuan and stepped directly into the bath.

After soaking for nearly twenty minutes, the hot water was changed twice before Xiao Yuxuan regained some strength.

“You little rascal, how come your stamina is so much stronger again, you almost didn’t kill me!” Xiao Yuxuan couldn’t help but complain, “In the past, the two of us, Lilai and I, couldn’t bear it, now you’ve gotten stronger again, how can you let us live?”

Ji Feng laughed heatedly, “It’s only impossible to live without this kind of sex life, right?”

“Fuck you!”

Xiao Yuxuan’s pretty face hadn’t faded, she lightly slapped Ji Feng’s shoulder and said, “Really, you don’t know how to pity the jade, why are you so cruel!”

Ji Feng was injusticed, he laughed bitterly, “I was wronged, I was taking it easy all the time, I didn’t dare to exert myself from the beginning to the end, but you kept asking me to push harder and faster Well”

“Don’t say that!”

Xiao Yuxuan’s pretty face turned red and covered Ji Feng’s mouth, “Little rascal, the things in bed still come out to talk, how shameful!”

Ji Feng was so wronged, but he couldn’t say anything, but it was really

In fact, Ji Feng can also obviously feel his body is getting stronger and stronger, so when he was having a strenuous exercise with Xiao Yuxuan, he was always careful and did not dare to make a strong effort, afraid of hurting Xiao Yuxuan. But Xiao Yuxuan to the head of pleasurable excitement, high cry and low cry, let Ji Feng also gradually let go.

But now, the one who fell to complain was also him!

Ji Feng helplessly shook his head, but did not dare to argue, with women should never reason, especially in this kind of thing, then do not say more than half a word.

“Little rascal” Xiao Yuxuan soaked in the hot water, snuggled in Ji Feng’s arms, that upturned fat buttocks sitting directly on Ji Feng’s belly, while her hands were hooked around his neck, her red lips exhaled like an orchid, “In Yanjing for so long, did you miss me?”

“Ah!”

Xiao Yuxuan exclaimed, reached down and grabbed it, then her pretty face changed slightly, “Why are you up again, what a horny hungry ghost”

Ji Feng lost his smile: “With such a stunning beauty lying in his arms, is it still a man who doesn’t react?”

“That, that can’t be so quick to react, just now you have been tossing and turning for almost an hour, what kind of physique are you” Xiao Yuxuan could be really happy and scared, that soul-crushing wonderful feeling really made her stay, but when she thought of Ji Feng’s strong physique, she was a bit scared.

“Ji Feng, what should we do, both Lei Lei and I are no match for you!” Xiao Yuxuan flashed her beautiful eyes and said, “Should we find another one?”

“Cough cough

Ji Feng immediately coughed dryly a few times and immediately changed the topic: “Less nonsense, say, what are you doing in the end, so mysterious?”

“No changing the subject!” Xiao Yuxuan’s hands pinched Ji Feng’s face, “I’m asking you, you’re getting tougher and tougher now, are you ready to toss us all to death!”

“Of course not, I will be lighter in the future!” Ji Feng sweatdropped. In fact, he had also discovered this problem, the previous strong physique was not to mention, it was all because of the first two sets of movements of bodybuilding gymnastics boiled out.

However, since entering the third stage, he could clearly feel that his physical strength had definitely risen by more than one step again, not to mention anything else, just in terms of physical strength, he now felt a constant source of strength that he simply could not use up.

He even felt that he could break a huge rock with one punch and sweep a tree with one kick!

And today’s lingering with Xiao Yuxuan also released him to discover that his body strength had actually increased on all fronts, and even his ability in this area had improved tremendously, which was really

However this matter and can not say to others, that will be scolded, it is easy to give the impression that people have gotten a bargain but still sell a good thing.

“No, Xuan Xuan, you and Lei Lei are also contacting bodybuilding gymnastics, how come the growth rate of body strength is not very fast?” Ji Feng suddenly reacted, “You’re not slacking off, are you?”

Xiao Yuxuan said with some embarrassment, “It’s not laziness either, it’s just that without you around, I feel bored practicing alone, so my daily practice time has been reduced by an hour.”

Sweat!

Ji Feng couldn’t help but shake his head and lose his smile: “Xuan Xuan, your daily practice time is only two hours in total, now you’ve actually reduced it by half straight away, no wonder the progress isn’t too obvious anymore.”

“Don’t worry, now that you’re back, I’ll definitely practice seriously!” Xiao Yuxuan laughed delicately, “But it’s useless even if I practice more seriously, you’re progressing too fast, Lei Lei and I simply can’t stand you!”

The corners of Ji Feng’s eyes suddenly jumped wildly a few times, why did they turn around and turn to this issue again?

“Alright, alright, hurry up and get up once you’ve showered, I have something to discuss with you.” Afraid that Xiao Yuxuan would talk about the issue of letting him find one again, so Ji Feng didn’t ask her why she was so secretive these days, but was ready to talk about the business.

“It’s not washed!” Xiao Yuxuan snuggled into Ji Feng’s arms, “So many days without hugging me, not even willing to take a bath with me for a while, huh?”

“Willing, of course I am willing” Ji Feng laughed harshly.

However, the result of taking another bath for a while was that Xiao Yuxuan squirmed in Ji Feng’s arms like a mermaid, once again stirring up Ji Feng’s evil fire, and then a close physical battle once again unfolded in the bathroom.

It must be said that Xiao Yuxuan’s physique was also definitely much tougher than the average girl. After tossing and turning for an hour before, the battle actually started once again now, and all this was due to the body-building exercises.

By the time everything was calm, Xiao Yuxuan’s physique, no matter how strong, could only become limp, even the last trace of strength was drained away, the whole person leaned softly in Ji Feng’s arms and was carried by him onto the bed, not even wanting to move a finger.

This time, the close physical ‘combat’ once again ended in a total victory for Ji Feng.

Looking at Xiao Yuxuan who was already asleep, Ji Feng couldn’t help but shake his head and smile bitterly, it seemed that he was indeed a bit too strong, so he really had to take it easy in the future, otherwise, there was really a possibility that he would toss Yuxuan and Lei Lei.

“To supervise their gymnastic practice, I have to progress quickly, otherwise, I can only watch but not touch these two big beauties when I am guarding them!” Ji Feng secretly thought.

.....

The next few days, Ji Feng and Xiao Yuxuan no longer so crazy, although Xiao Yuxuan physique is very good, recovery is also very strong, but Ji Feng is still very heartbroken her, at least in her physique has not improved to a certain extent before, the two although also often entwined, but each time is shallow, will not be so violent.

This made Xiao Yuxuan, who had eaten the marrow, very dissatisfied, but there was nothing she could do about it, she certainly knew that Ji Feng was heartbroken for her. Therefore, she started to practice aerobics hard.

And at this time, Ji Feng also discovered that the bio-current in his body, after entering the third stage, actually had another wonderful use, that is, it could be used to channel the bio-current in other people’s bodies, and it could actually have the effect of getting twice the result with half the effort!

In other words, when Xiao Yuxuan was practicing gymnastics, Ji Feng used his own bio-current to guide her, and as a result, he found that Xiao Yuxuan had made rapid progress.

“If she keeps going like this, won’t she be able to completely learn the second set of body-building exercises in a month or two?” Ji Feng couldn’t help but be secretly delighted with the effect, it was indeed too surprising.

And then, both of them contacted Tong Lei, who was far away in Yanjing, and told her to keep in touch with gymnastics until she came to Jiangzhou.

Ji Feng did not want Tong Lei to fall too far behind Xiao Yuxuan, and the two women progressed together so that they could be more united.

However, Xiao Yuxuan was telling Tong Lei, “Lei Lei, you must insist on practicing ah, our husband’s progress is too fast, I just slacked off for about a month and ended up coming back almost tossed to death by him, if you also slacked off, you must also come back happy and sore

These words made Tong Lei shy and worried, so she had to practice aerobics more diligently.

When Xiao Yuxuan told these words to Ji Feng, he really cried and laughed, but did not speak out against it. In fact, practising the first two movements of gymnastics was indeed a bit hard, but the results were also obvious.

Not only was the physique stronger, but more importantly, as the bio-current in the body increased, one’s spirit would also get better and better, and once one got through this stage, the later would not be as hard.

This kind of day lasted for about a week out, and Xiao Yuxuan finally reached the late stage of the second stage, and the exercise almost no longer needed Ji Feng to guide her. It was only a matter of time before she entered the third stage, just around the corner!

And at this time, the United University was also about to start, so Xiao Yuxuan couldn’t help but laugh and say, “Aiya, I can finally breathe a sigh of relief, Lei Lei is here, and I can get out of the clutches!”

As a result, her upturned fat buttocks were directly slapped by Ji Feng a few times, which made her eyes watery and moved with emotion!

The brother and sister duo, Tong Lei and Zhang Lei, arrived in Jiangzhou by plane at eleven in the morning.

It is not necessary to say much about the affectionate meeting. Because there were too many people at the airport, plus the presence of Zhang Lei, the beautiful Tong Lei was a bit uncomfortable, but her beautiful eyes looked at Ji Feng from time to time, expressing her strong affection.

The four people in Ji Feng’s party, drove to the villa first, ready to settle down, and then send Zhang Lei will school, anyway, there are still two days before the official start of school.

“#%$&*.....” A song in some unknown language suddenly rang out, Zhang Lei took out his phone and smiled heatedly, “Mine!”

He picked up the phone, but before he could say two words, his face sank and he grunted angrily, “Bastard! You are simply bullying people too much!”

Ji Feng and the others were stunned, something had happened?

Chapter 899

This call seemed to have put Zhang Lei in a very bad mood, and he didn't know what the person on the other end of the phone said, only to see Zhang Lei's face sinking like water and his teeth clacking together.

He took a deep breath and said into the phone, "Big sister, there's no need to go to Old Zheng's house to discuss the matter, I'm already in Jiangzhou now, don't worry, I'll rush over there."

Pop!

Hanging up the phone, Zhang Lei took a few deep breaths before saying, "Crazy, you take them back first, give me the car to use."

Ji Feng, however, did not agree to him immediately, but asked, "What happened?"

Just now he heard Zhang Lei talk about the Old Zheng family, which immediately made him pay attention, although he didn't know much about the Old Zheng family, but so far, the only person he had contacted from the Old Zheng family was Wu Zhihe's girlfriend, called something like Zheng Yuxiu. And that woman, really didn't leave any good impression with him.

"It's nothing, there are a few unenlightened things looking for trouble, I'll go over and take a look." Zhang Lei said in a deep voice, "Don't ask so many questions, I'll tell you more about it when I come back."

"Then it's better to go together!" Ji Feng laughed.

Having been Zhang Lei's brother for such a long time, how could he not know Zhang Lei's temper?

Although this guy seemed to have a big grin, in reality, he was more shrewd than anyone else, and it really required a certain level of sophistication to make him angry like this.

Obviously, what the caller told Zhang Lei was not simple, or at least, it should have touched Zhang Lei's bottom line, otherwise he definitely would not have become angry like this.

Seeing the cold light flashing in his eyes, now if he had a knife, he would dare to kill someone!

"Where's the address?" Ji Feng asked.

"You guys just don't follow the hustle and bustle, okay!" Zhang Lei said with some impatience.

However, Ji Feng didn't mind at all, but said with a smile, "It's rare to see you kid throw such a temper, how can I not go along to see the fun? Say it, address!"

Zhang Lei helplessly shook his head: "You kid is just thick-skinned Okay, you guys can follow along, but if I do something at that time, you guys are stopped, otherwise, you don't have to go now."

Next to Tong Lei just about to speak, Ji Feng immediately laughed: "Don't worry, I definitely won't stop you, maybe I'll even get together!"

"You brat" Zhang Lei was exasperated, he shook his head and said, "Renai Hospital."

"Hospital?"

Ji Feng and Tong Lei two women could not help but be stunned, how did it get involved with the hospital?

“Brother, what’s going on?” As soon as Tong Lei heard that it was going to the hospital, and then connected it to Zhang Lei’s angry look, she was immediately uneasy.

“Xiao Bin was beaten up by someone and is now in the hospital Those bastards!” Zhang Lei snorted coldly, his face terribly cold.

“What?!”

Tong Lei was also taken aback, “He’s still a kid, who beat him up for what?”

“The details aren’t too clear, let’s talk about it as we go!” Zhang Lei faintly shook his head.

At this time, Ji Feng had already tapped out the map of Renai Hospital from the navigator, so he quickly rushed over there according to the directions on the map.

Although he had been in Jiangzhou for a year and a half, he had never been to a hospital, at most he had been to the school infirmary, so he really didn’t know where the Renai Hospital was and had to rely on the navigation.

Because the road is not too familiar, plus this time is the traffic rush hour, so the road is driving very slowly, several people also have time to listen to Zhang Lei say what happened.

The little Bin that Zhang Lei said was beaten up and put in the hospital was originally called Zheng Bin, but later changed his name to Zhang Bin, and there is a reason for both of these last names.

In fact, the reason why Zhang Bin had two surnames was that, his father also had two surnames. Once Ji Feng knew the identity of Zhang Bin’s father, he was taken aback.

Zhang Bin’s father was no one else, officially Zhang Lei’s second uncle, the deputy director of the Jiangzhou Municipal Bureau, Zheng Yuanshan!

“..... In fact, these are all old and rotten matters, but some people are still grasping this small matter and not letting go, their hearts should be put to death!” Zhang Lei said in a cold voice, “In fact, how to say it, my mother has a total of four siblings, but, among them, my great uncle and second uncle, and my mother, my third uncle, are half-siblings”

Through Zhang Lei’s narrative, Ji Feng came to know exactly what this was all about.

It turned out that Zhang Lei’s grandfather, who was also an old soldier, just lost an eye and half of his face was also ruined during the war back then, so later on, although the war ended, his old man could not find a date at that time because of these problems.

And Zhang Lei’s grandmother, whose husband also happened to have gone at that time, was alone with her two sons, living a very hard life and seeing that she could not eat.

“At that time, they happened to be working on the same farm, because my second uncle was just over a year old and my eldest uncle was only four or five years old, so how could my grandmother, a woman, support her two sons? It was thanks to my grandfather's help that my eldest and second uncles were able to grow up healthy!"

Zhang Lei said, "Later, my grandmother found that grandpa was a generous person, so the two gradually developed feelings for each other, and they later got married."

Only then did it dawn on Ji Feng, why Zhang Lei followed his mother's surname Zhang, while his second uncle Zheng Yuanshan was surnamed Zheng, according to reason, Zhang Lei should have the same surname as his uncle, but this was not the case, so, the root was here!

In the past, although Ji Feng also vaguely knew some of it, but that was only some rumors he heard occasionally in Yanjing, but not as detailed as what Zhang Lei said, and there was also a big discrepancy between the rumors and the facts, which was not credible at all.

"In fact, when they got married, no one objected to it, they were all in labour reform anyway, no one asked about their lives and deaths, and no one cared whether they got married or divorced." Zhang Lei said, "But when my grandfather's old head rehabilitated him later, he went to the capital again, and as a result, his marriage to my grandmother was actually taken up!"

Ji Feng nodded slightly and gave a mocking smile. People were all like that, if a person was doing poorly, I believed that many people would not even be willing to give him a second glance, unless they wanted to find a sense of superiority before they would think of him.

However, if a person who was originally poorer suddenly got better one day, then there would definitely be a lot of people who had an imbalance in their hearts and eyes.

"The sad thing is that the person who is gossiping is also someone from my grandmother's former in-laws." Zhang Lei sneered and suddenly asked, "Crazy person, you know about the Zheng family in Yanjing, right?"

Ji Feng was stunned, "It's the Zheng family that's closer to the Wu family?"

"It's that gang!" Zhang Lei said in an unkind tone, "They are the people from my grandmother's original in-laws!"

"What are you talking about?!"

Ji Feng snapped back and looked at them, surprised, "The old Zheng family?"

"That's right!" Zhang Lei sneered.

Ji Feng couldn't help but be silent, this was really unexpected, Zheng Yuanshan was actually a member of the Zheng family, or rather, his father was actually a member of the Zheng family!

This was really out of Ji Feng's expectation, I never thought that Zheng Yuanshan actually had such a deep connection with the Zheng family.

"Don't look at my second uncle as a member of the Zheng family, but he actually grew up with my grandfather and regarded him as his real father, and because people from the Zheng family gossiped about my grandmother, he didn't have a good relationship with the Zheng family."

Zhang Lei said, "All these years, my second uncle never went back for New Year, and as long as there wasn't anything special, he basically wouldn't go to Yanjing either, just because he didn't want to see the Zheng family's people!"

"So that would actually be the case" Ji Feng couldn't help but sigh.

"Brother, then what's going on with the matter of Xiao Bin being beaten up today?" Tong Lei asked from the side, "Xiao Bin was beaten up, how come it's related to the Zheng family again?"

"Who knows!" Zhang Lei coldly snorted, "Cousin just said on the phone that Xiao Bin was beaten up by someone from the Zheng family and is now being examined at the hospital, so it's probably because someone from the Zheng family is looking for a fight again!"

"The Zheng family's people are just too much!" Tong Lei said angrily, "If they want to find trouble, they can go to their second uncle directly, why do they have to beat up Xiao Bin!"

"Hmph! The old Zheng family's people have always been so unreasonable, besides would they dare to go and look for trouble with second uncle?" Zhang Lei sneered.

Ji Feng said, "Don't say so much, let's go to the hospital first and see what's going on, then it's not too late to discuss!"

.....

When the four of them arrived at Jiangzhou Renai Hospital, they found Zheng Yuanshan's son Zhang Bin in the surgical ward, with his sister, a girl of about twenty-three or twenty-four years old, looking after him.

Zhang Bin's head was bandaged with a few circles of gauze and his eyes were a little bruised, and he was lying on the bed in a drip, other than that, there wasn't much of an injury, which made both Zhang Lei and Tong Lei breathe a sigh of relief, it was good that there wasn't much of an injury.

"Big sister, Xiao Bin!" Zhang Lei and Tong Lei walked over quickly.

"You guys are here." Zhang Bin's sister greeted Zhang Lei's siblings, and nodded to Ji Feng and Xiao Yuxuan.

"Let me introduce to you, these two are both my friends, Ji Feng and Xiao Yuxuan." Zhang Lei introduced both parties first, "These two are my cousin Zhang Yun and cousin Zhang Bin!"

"Big sister, how is Xiao Bin's situation?" After both parties had greeted each other, Zhang Lei asked.

"The doctor said there's nothing serious, just a broken head, some slight concussion, need to stay in hospital for a few days for observation, the rest are all superficial injuries." Zhang Yun shook his head slightly and said angrily, "They're really too bullying!"

Zhang Lei sulked and did not speak.

"Brother Lei, I didn't lose face, they beat me up and I beat them up, one of the boys got a bottle smashed by me, but there were so many of them that I couldn't beat them." Zhang Bin, who was lying on the hospital bed, suddenly said, "When I get better, I'll smash all those bastards one by one!"

“What are you talking about!” Zhang Yun glared at him, “You’re the only one who can!”

“Xiao Bin, how did you come across with the Zheng family’s people? What the hell is going on here?” Zhang Lei asked in a deep voice.

Chapter 900

“Xiao Bin, how did you come across with the Zheng family’s people? What the hell is going on here?” Zhang Lei asked in a deep voice.

“It’s just that last night, the Zheng family’s people came to see my father, and I don’t know what it was about, but when they left, they talked to me and exchanged contact information as well” Zhang Bin had just said this when he was interrupted by Zhang Lei.

“You’re a little kid, have a fart of contact information, isn’t your dad not allowing you to use your phone?” Zhang Lei glared at him.

“I’m not little anymore!” Zhang Bin was about to argue, but when he saw Zhang Lei’s glare, he shrank back in fear.

“Keep talking!” Zhang Lei snorted coldly.

“Then today he called me and wanted to invite me to dinner.” Zhang Bin said, “Only when I arrived did I realise that several people from the Zheng family were there, and then they told me that I should go home and talk to my father and ask him to consider yesterday’s offer, saying that it was still a family after all.”

“What proposal?” Zhang Lei asked, frowning.

Zhang Bin said, “I don’t know, I asked them and they said that once they went back and talked to my dad, he would know.”

“Hmm!”

Zhang Lei nodded and asked, “Then what happened? How did you guys get into a fight?”

“Then I told him that I couldn’t talk at home, and usually my dad might even pay attention to what my sister says, but he only treats me like a child and won’t even talk to me about business.” Zhang Bin said, “Who knew that just as I finished speaking, they were suddenly unenthusiastic and laughed at me for being a little kid who knew nothing, one guy even said that today’s money was really spent in vain, I should have known that I would have invited my sister and invited such a little kid over”

Before saying this, Zhang Lei’s face was all still calm, but as soon as Zhang Bin finished saying this, Zhang Lei’s face instantly turned gloomy.

“Bastard!” Zhang Lei shouted coldly, “Simply deceiving people too much!”

Next to him, Ji Feng also frowned slightly, wanting to do something, it was reasonable to invite people to dinner, we in China are originally such a humane society.

But the problem is, once you find out that people can’t do it for you, you immediately change your face and sneer at them, what is this?

“Xiao Bin, is this why you fought with them?” Tong Lei asked.

“Not really, they said that about me, then I had to argue with them, one guy said that my father was ungrateful and had forgotten that he was from the old Zheng family, so I scolded him, and then we got into a fight!” Zhang Bin said.

“Damn it! Good fight!” Zhang Lei shouted angrily, “If I were you, I’d just fuck a few of them to death!”

“What are you talking about!” Zhang Yun glared at him.

Zhang Bin, however, said in a small voice, “There are many of them, I can’t beat them.”

“You’re not allowed to fight even if you can!” Zhang Yun reprimanded him, “If I ever find out that you are fighting with someone again in the future, see how I will fix you!”

“.....” Zhang Bin instantly shrank in fear, not daring to say anything more.

“Brat, hang a good IV, I’ll go ask the doctor how you’re doing.” Zhang Lei said with a smile.

Zhang Yun just wanted to say that she had already asked the doctor, but when she saw Zhang Lei wink, she understood what it meant and said, “I’ll take you there, don’t have to go back and forth again if you can’t find it then, it’s too much trouble.”

Tong Lei also comforted Zhang Bin, “Xiao Bin, we’ll be back soon, don’t move around when you’re alone with the IV, do you hear me?”

“Don’t worry Sister Leilei, I know.” Zhang Bin said immediately.

After a few people walked out of the ward, Zhang Lei’s face, which was still somewhat smiling, suddenly turned gloomy, a cold light flashed in his eyes, and he coldly snorted, “I think the old Zheng family is tired of living, damn it! What a bully!”

If those people had only beaten Zhang Bin, perhaps it would have been fine, after all, they were all young people, so they would have fought and not caused much damage, no one could say that because of this trivial matter, they would fight with others to the death, or engage in a feud, it was impossible.

However, the Zheng family’s people actually insulted Zheng Yuanshan, which is too much of an asshole.

No matter what, Zheng Yuanshan was a second generation member of the Zheng family according to his generation, and those who were having dinner with Zhang Bin should all be youngsters, and such a person was Zheng Yuanshan’s junior in any case!

You’re a fucking junior and you dare to call Zheng Yuanshan ungrateful, not to mention that this is right, just the act of cursing should be caught and slapped with a broken shoe tara, not to mention that when the old lady got remarried, Zheng Yuanshan was only about one year old, and Master Zhang treated him like his own son and loved him!

But when the old lady remarried, no one in the old Zheng family said a word, and the two children were screaming with hunger. But at that time, no one in Zheng’s family gave a hand to help.

Of course, at that time, everyone was in a difficult situation, so no one blamed you for not helping, people live for themselves!

But since you didn't even ask for help in the first place, and then you saw that people were doing well, you wanted to get involved with them! But don't forget, no one is stupid, they haven't forgotten what you did in the first place.

Sorry, we don't dare to have anything to do with you anymore!

And because they couldn't climb up the ladder, as a result the old Zheng family were mocked in every way, often cursing and swearing at the mouth, and often making the old lady wipe her eyes when she mentioned these things.

Just ask, with this kind of practice of yours in front of you, why should Zheng Yuanshan not be close to the Zhang family's people?

Why should he be close to your Zheng family's people?

"They say that even small cats and puppies need to eat warm food, if you treat him well, then he will be close to you, isn't that the truth?" Zhang Lei laughed coldly, "But now, it seems like my second uncle and old lady owe them a huge favor from the Zheng family, and whenever they meet, they will always be a bit snide and sarcastic.

Xiao Yuxuan, who came from an ordinary family, could hardly understand the complicated relationship between people in the family.

Of course, no matter how complicated the relationship is, but there is one thing that everyone understands, in big families, kinship is very light, and this is an example before us.

The old Zheng family is really unwise to do this, not to mention other things, just the age of Zheng Yuanshan and his level alone, determine his potential is definitely not comparable to ordinary people.

The fact that they are related to each other, if it was Ji Feng, he would have used his affection and sentiment, and at that time, no matter what, Zheng Yuanshan would have to give some face.

But now, the Zheng family not only sneered and cursed, but now they even beat up Zheng Yuanshan's son!

Even if Zheng Yuanshan had a good temperament, how could he not be annoyed in his heart?

"Do you know what the Zheng family's people came to see Uncle Zheng about?" Ji Feng suddenly asked. He felt that the key to the matter now was to find out the root of the matter, rather than talking about the beating first.

Zhang Yun shook his head slightly and said, "I don't know, that person, my father, is like that, he never talks to the family about things outside. I went to school yesterday and wasn't at home either. However, I heard Xiao Bin say that it seems to be someone from Yanjing."

"Does the Zheng family have quite a few people in Jiangzhou?" Ji Feng asked.

"Yes, there are a few, all of whom are studying at university in Jiangzhou." Zhang Lei nodded his head.

Zhang Yun followed suit and said, "The ones who beat up Xiao Bin were a few of them."

“It seems that it should be because they asked Uncle Zheng to do something, but as a result, Uncle Zheng didn’t agree, so that’s why they took it out on Xiao Bin!” Ji Feng said.

Zhang Bin was only sixteen or seventeen years old, so how could he have any say in the family?

Those people from the Zheng family must have understood, but they went and invited Zhang Bin to dinner, which was clearly to take it out on Zhang Bin!

“Since things are now clear, there is no need to say anything more, go and fuck those bastards from the Zheng family first before talking about anything else!” Zhang Lei said coldly.

“Brother!” Tong Lei then glared at him.

Zhang Yun also said next to him, “Lei Zi, don’t mess around, it won’t end well if you play around, when the time comes, both families in Yanjing will be in trouble.”

The two families she was talking about naturally did not include the Old Zheng Family, but the Tong Family and the Zhang Family. In fact, she didn’t care if the old Zheng family was embarrassed or not, people had beaten up her brother, and she was expected to smile at them?

Ji Feng, however, laughed: “If you want to clean up a few people from the old Zheng family, it’s just a matter of waving your hand, and there’s no rush. Lei Zi, what we need to figure out now is what exactly the old Zheng family is looking for Uncle Zheng to do.”

To be able to involve Zheng Yuanshan, and for the Zheng family to be so angry that they directly beat up Zhang Bin, it was obvious that the matter should not be in Yanjing, but in Jiangzhou.

Of course, if it was a private matter, it wouldn’t have involved Zhang Bin.

And so far, the only thing Ji Feng could think of that was related to the Zheng family was the previous kidnapping case involving Rong Peng Group’s Rong Baogang, which involved the internal guard, that is, Zheng Yuxiu of the Zheng family, who gave the order and had nothing to do with her.

Therefore, it is likely that this time it is because of this matter.

Therefore, Ji Feng first had to find out what Zheng Yuanshan was thinking, and until then, it was no good to act rashly.

Zhang Lei was also faint with anger, and now when he was reminded by Ji Feng, he also snapped to attention and immediately asked, “Big sister, what is Second Uncle’s statement?”

“What argument can he have?”

Zhang Yun laughed bitterly, “Xiao Bin’s injury is not serious, at most, it’s just a bandage and two bottles of drip You also know my father that person, usually when it comes to matters related to the Zheng family, he doesn’t say much, this time is the same, Xiao Bin didn’t dare to call him, it was me who told him, as a result, he only said he knew, then asked me to give you a call, and hung up the phone without saying anything else.”

“What, wasn’t my dad planning to ask you to go to Old Zheng’s house to get a statement?” Zhang Yun asked. She thought that her father was not good at speaking up, so he simply asked the youngest character to go to the Zheng family to reason, but seeing Zhang Lei’s expression, she realised that this did not seem to be the case.

Zhang Lei did not answer, but asked, “Big sister, those boys from the Zheng family, where are they?”
