

CEO is Chasing Ex-Wife Back Chapter 2

Chapter 2 Divorce

In the room, Aurora tidied her clothes,

Aurora raised her head and looked at her father's photo in black and white. She remembered the cruel words that Zac had just left behind.

"I married you just to take revenge on your disgusting father. Now he is finally dead, you are the only one left to pay for his debts."

"Dad, I'm sorry..." Aurora knelt on the ground, tears streaming down her face.

The news of the Bennet family's family being destroyed overnight had just swept through the headlines of all the major news reports. The next day, another entertainment news quickly made it to the first trending topic!

Before Aurora could get out of the pain of losing her father, a group of uninvited guests rushed into the villa outside the city, moving all the furniture out.

The noise downstairs was too loud. When Aurora came downstairs with eyes red, the nanny, Lisa, rushed to her. "Mrs. Buchanna! I don't know where these people come from. They move things without saying anything. I can't stop them!"

Aurora woke up a little and stopped one of them. The man was struggling to move the antique vase at the entrance. "What are you doing? I will sue you for trespassing."

"Trespassing? Isn't Mr. Buchanna the owner of this house? We were all entrusted by Mr. Buchanna to move everything away. I'm sorry if we have caused you trouble."

Aurora was stunned. She almost forgot that when her father bought her this house for a wedding, she insisted on putting it under Zac's name to show her trust.

What did Zac want?

Aurora took out her phone and was about to call Zac to question him when she saw the news.

"Morning review: The CEO of the Buchanna Group, Zac Buchanna, announced that he will marry Miss Wenny Swon, the rising star of the showbiz. It is said that Mr. Buchanna and his ex-wife, Aurora Bennet, have completed the divorce procedures."

Aurora gripped her phone even harder. Divorce?

Why didn't she know that she was divorced?

"Mrs. Buchanna, what should we do?" Lisa saw the seriousness of the situation and became more anxious.

Zac was taking everything away from Aurora mercilessly.

"Call the police now!" After two seconds of silence, Aurora said. This was the only way for her to see Zac!
