

CEO is Chasing Ex-Wife Back Chapter 4

Chapter 4 Get Only Disgrace

Creek Club was on the northern edge of the city, and it was known for being luxurious. When Aurora came out of the taxi, she saw the golden words that reached into the clouds.

She had only taken a few steps when she was stopped by someone. "Hello, Miss. Do you have an appointment?"

The security guard looked at her expensive outfit and found her face familiar.

But her expression was dark and dull, without the slightest bit of the feeling of a rich family's daughter.

Aurora clenched her dinner bag. This was probably her most expensive belonging now.

Her mother had it left for her.

"I am looking for the Buchanna Group's CEO, Zac." She took a deep breath as if she was narrating an ordinary thing.

This name was well-known in Berchun City. The waiter thought that she was someone to Zac, so he did not dare to neglect her.

"Alright, Miss, please wait a moment."

Ten minutes later.

"I'm sorry, Miss. Mr. Buchanna told me earlier that he would not see anyone."

The waiter looked at Aurora with pity. It was such a cold day and she was dressed so thin to see Mr. Buchanna. It could cause misunderstandings.

In the cold wind, Aurora was stopped at the entrance of Creek Club. Her thin clavicle was protruding, and her slender legs were trembling.

All of this was within her expectations.

She knew that it would be hard to meet Zac.

Zac was trying to force her to put down her pride and agree to his conditions.

But Aurora was the daughter of the Bennet Group. Aurora, who had been loved and envied by thousands of people, would not be beaten so easily.

"Sorry, may I use your bathroom? I'm a little uncomfortable." She quickly took two steps forward. Under her messy hair, her beautiful eyes were watery.

"There's an employee's bathroom at the back door. Go back quickly!" The security guard sympathized with her, but he dared not be careless.

"Okay, okay, thank you."

There was a secluded path that led directly to the back door of Creek Club. Aurora ignored those people who were staring at her and went into the bathroom. She closed the door. Two women outside talked while putting on makeup in front of the mirror, "I heard that there was a big shot in Peony Hall. Lena would be here if she hadn't had lobsters yesterday. She is allergic to seafood and has rashes all over her body. Such a pity!"

"I know the big shot you are talking about. He is the CEO of the Buchanna Group! The one who just divorced! He's handsome. How much money you can earn tonight depends on this rich man!"

It was only a wall away, and by the time they twisted their waist and left, Aurora had also come out of the bathroom, her long hair already tied up high.

She turned on the tap and stared at the face in the mirror, which had lost a lot of weight. Her eyes darkened and she had an idea.

In the Peony Hall, people were not as fancy as what people might imagine.

Men were sitting on the sofa, holding a beautiful woman in their arms, toasting each other, feeding each other wine, and a chess table was in front of them.

Beside each of them sat a young and beautiful girl. Zac sat in the middle of the table, casually touching the cards and eating the fruits that his girl fed.

"Mr. Buchanna, I heard that there was a beautiful woman who came to find you just now and you refused to see her."

The middle-aged man sitting opposite Zac asked curiously, "Who is it?"

Zac paused as he touched the card. He glanced at the person. "Who does Mr. Wanda think it is?"

"I'm just curious! Is she your ex-wife?"

As soon as the man finished speaking, Martin and Daniel, who were sitting on the sofa and playing games, were stunned at the same time. They couldn't help but sweat for the boss of Phoenix Real Estate.

As expected, Zac's eyes had already darkened.

Those who were familiar with Zac knew that he was angry now.