

Chapter 1011: Square of Devotion

"What about you, Disciple Wu? You don't look like someone that should be an outcast." Su Yang looked at the handsome young man.

"Hahaha... I get that a lot..." Wu Bing laughed out loud.

And he continued, "Well, long story short, I cannot get my sword up, so here I am."

Su Yang raised his eyebrows after hearing such words.

Wu Bing cannot get his sword up? His situation reminds Su Yang of his own in the Profound Blossom Sect.

No matter how handsome a man may look, if they cannot get their sword up, meaning they are impotent, they will be regarded as useless in a dual cultivation sect.

Su Yang's experience in the Profound Blossom Sect is proof of such saying.

Even though he's exceedingly handsome with no equals, he was still unable to find a partner in the Profound Blossom Sect that is mostly filled with mortals because of his condition.

And if someone like Su Yang cannot find a partner in the Profound Blossom Sect, one can forget about ever finding one in a place like the Boundless Yin Yang Sect.

"Anyways, where are you going right now, Disciple Xiao?" Li Sang asked him a moment later.

"I'm going to find myself a partner," he calmly responded.

The Outcast Triplets' eyes widened with surprise.

"You're already looking for a partner on your first day at the sect? You're a hardworking one..."

"I don't want to discourage you, but once you become a resident at this place... It's almost impossible to find a partner."

"Right? The moment your partner realizes you live here, they will immediately break up with you."

"Though, he can try to hide the fact he lives here by cultivating only at her place..."

"But that will also have its own complications..."

The Outcast Triplets mumbled to each other.

"Don't worry, I have my own tricks." Su Yang said to them.

"Do you know where to go? It's your first day here, right?" Wu Bing asked him.

"It may be my first day here, but it's not my first time here," he said with a profound smile.

The Outcast Triplets exchanged glances with each other....

Su Yang's words implied that he has been to the sect before, but entering the sect as a guest requires a powerful background, and Su Yang didn't appear to be someone who has such a thing.

"Anyways, I am leaving now. See you guys later." Su Yang waved at them before leaving the place.

The Outcast Triplets mumbled to each other as they watched Su Yang's back slowly disappear into the distance.

"Do you think he will be able to find a partner?" Li Sang asked.

"He might have a chance if he wasn't a resident in this place... If you pair this fact and the fact that he has an ordinary appearance, it would be a miracle if he can find a partner..." Li Sang sighed.

"Well, I wish him the best of luck. He has three years to find a partner before getting kicked out of the sect." Wu Bing said.

"Speaking of getting kicked out... We've already been here for a year without any partners. If we don't find one within the next two years, do you think they will kick us out?"

"I doubt it. They made us join the sect because of our valuable Yang Qi. If we don't find a partner, they will just make us into the sect's Yang Qi slaves..."

The Outcast Triplets trembled in fear upon imaging themselves as Yang Qi slaves, as they will be treated like animals for the rest of their lives, just like how humans raise chickens for their eggs, the Boundless Yin Yang Sect will raise them purely for their Yang Qi.

Meanwhile, after Su Yang left the Outcast Triplets, he walked in a straight line until he arrived at this massive square, where hundreds of disciples could be seen lingering there.

Most of them were casually standing there while looking around, almost like they were searching for someone. The rest of them were walking around and speaking to those standing there, almost like they were asking for directions or something.

"Boundless Yin Yang Sect's Square of Devotion... Never thought I'd come to this place to look for a partner..." A weird smile appeared on Su Yang's face as he gazed upon the square and the people there.

The Square of Devotion is where most disciples that do not have a partner go to look for one, and it is a hotspot for both new and old disciples that have just joined the sect.

Furthermore, since most people join the sect as virgins, there will also be experienced disciples who come here for their pure Yin or Yang Essence.

The last disciple examination was a year ago, so most of the new disciples have already found their partner by now, but there will always be those new disciples that are very picky when it comes to their partner, so they are still alone.

Su Yang scanned the Square of Devotion for potential partners. Although it's important to find a maiden who still has her Pure Yin Essence intact, it wasn't a requirement for him, and he only wanted someone around his cultivation so that he could efficiently cultivate.

Fortunately for him, there were many candidates there, as most of these disciples are around the Sovereign Spirit Realm and the Divine Spirit Realm.

Unfortunately, he was no longer the handsome Su Yang that could get any woman with a single glance.

"Hmm? What's that group doing over there? Are they all trying to court the same person? You don't see this kind of scene often in this place." Su Yang was intrigued by the group of men trying to court a single person.

Although he could not see this person because of the group of men, he could imagine what kind of woman could gather such a crowd.

And being Su Yang, who likes a good challenge, he began approaching the crowd.

Chapter 1012: Breathtaking Beauty

"Fairy Fei, I am Yu Chinghai, an Inner Court disciple, and I have over a thousand pleasure points. Would you like to share the bedroom with me tonight? I promise you that it'll be the best experience of your life."

"Only a thousand? I have three thousand pleasure points. Come with me and you will be satisfied for life!"

"My father is an elder in the Inner Court. I can guarantee you plenty of resources for your cultivation if you become my partner."

As Su Yang approached the crowd, he overheard these disciples mentioning their 'pleasure points'.

Pleasure points are, in essence, a disciples' popularity and achievements within the Boundless Yin Yang Sect.

These points are mostly earned through events where disciples must compete against each other, and the events are mainly related to dual cultivation.

Furthermore, a disciple can receive pleasure points from elders by doing them favors. Of course, these favors are also related to dual cultivation.

And to make it less exploitable, each elders are only allowed to give out a certain amount of points to a single disciple.

For example, an elder that can give at most 100 points is allowed to give 100 points to a thousand disciples every year.

If a disciple received points from that elder, they can only acquire up to 100 points in their lifetime even if the elder can give out more points after the annual reset.

The more pleasure points a disciple accumulates, the more likely they are to be favored by the sect, and thus, more likely to find partners.

Although one's pleasure point doesn't really indicate one's ability, it does showcase their popularity and influence, something that remains very relevant even in the dual cultivation world.

Once Su Yang was close enough, he took a peek at the female disciple using his spiritual sense.

The female disciple was a remarkably beautiful young woman, even breathtakingly so, but it didn't surprise Su Yang at all.

For there to be so many disciples trying to court her at once, Su Yang expected her to be a peak-quality woman— at least in terms of appearance.

'At least the standards in this place haven't fallen since I left...' Su Yang thought to himself.

"Hey! Can't you losers realize that she's way out of your league? Get out of my way!"

A loud and arrogant voice suddenly resounded, causing everybody there to shift their gazes to the person that just spoke.

"Who the hell are you? How dare you speak to us—"

The disciples around the beautiful female disciple were prepared to curse this newcomer, but when they saw his handsome face and exquisite clothes, they subconsciously closed their mouths....

'A core disciple? In the Square of Devotion? How interesting.' While he didn't recognize the person, Su Yang recognized the robes this person wore, as he also wore such clothes before.

When the other female disciples in the square noticed this core disciple, they swallowed nervously, and a few of them even approached him to offer their bodies to him.

However, this core disciple immediately refused their offers without any hesitation, and he walked in a straight line until he was standing right before the beautiful disciple, who was clearly the most striking and attractive out of everyone in the square.

"I only have you in my eyes, Junior apprentice-sister Fei." The core disciple stood before her with a handsome smile on his face while being surrounded by a confident aura.

This female disciple surnamed Fei glanced at the core disciple in a nonchalant manner and spoke calmly, "Senior apprentice-brother Ran, you have been courting me almost every day for the past year since I joined the sect, and I have rejected you every single time. What makes you think my response will be any different today?"

And without hesitation, almost as though he'd anticipated her question and prepared in advance, he spoke in a clear voice, "It's because I truly believe that we belong together. I am only asking for one chance. If you're not satisfied with me, I will give up."

Meanwhile, the other disciples there mumbled to each other, "I heard that core disciple had left his previous partner to show his dedication for this new disciple."

"What's so special about her, anyway? While I agree that a beauty like her is hard to come by even in a place like this, I don't understand why he's so infatuated with her."

"Rumor is that she has a rare Heavenly Constitution, hence why everyone in the sect is trying to acquire her Pure Yin Essence."

"She's also blessed with a Heavenly Constitution on top of her appearance? How lucky is that slut?" Some of the female disciples there expressed jealousy towards Disciple Fei and justifiably so.

After a moment of silence, Disciple Fei responded to the core disciple, "If you really think that, then you can try again tomorrow. Maybe my response will change then, but my answer for today remains the same— no."

The core disciple closed his eyes and took a deep breath before nodding his head.

"If you say so, I will visit you again tomorrow in hopes for a different response." The core disciple didn't say anything else and disappeared from the square shortly after.

After seeing Disciple Fei reject a core disciple, many men there lost their will to approach her, much less court her. After all, if someone like the core disciple cannot court her, what chances do they have when they're inferior to him in almost every way?

Of course, not everyone gave up, and there were even a couple more core disciples that showed up in the square to court her, but they were all turned away without exception.

As for Su Yang, he decided to not approach her just yet and simply watched her from a distance, and the more he looked at her, the more this beautiful woman reminded him of another woman he had connections to in the past.

After waiting there for another hour, Disciple Fei, who had enough for the day, suddenly stood up and began walking away from the square.

It was also at this moment that Su Yang finally started moving again, walking in the same direction as Disciple Fei.

Chapter 1013: Ouyang Family

Disciple Fei suddenly stopped walking when she noticed someone following behind her.

However, when she turned around and saw the person following her, she was stunned for a moment.

She had expected this person to be another admirer trying to court her, but she couldn't have expected that he would look so... ordinary.

He was so plain that it caught her off guard, as she was used to being approached by handsome men.

"No."

Disciple Fei muttered in a cold voice before Su Yang could even open his mouth.

"At least hear me out." Su Yang smiled.

"No means no." Disciple Fei turned around and continued walking again.

"If you say so... Then goodnight, Disciple Fei... Or should I address you as Disciple Ouyang?"

Disciple Fei immediately froze her movements when Su Yang addressed her by a different surname.

She slowly turned back around in a stiff manner and stared at him with narrowed eyes, clearly unhappy about it.

"What did you just call me?" She muttered.

"Hm? Are you not from the Ouyang Family? I was almost certain you were because you look so similar to someone I know from that family." Su Yang said, still with a smile on his face.

Disciple Fei suddenly began approaching him in wide strides.

"Who are you? What is your connection with the Ouyang Family? Your life will depend on your answer!"

"Calm down. I don't really have any connections with the Ouyang Family." Su Yang raised his hands in a surrendering manner.

"..."

Disciple Fei silently stared into his eyes for the next few moments.

When she couldn't see any dishonesty within his eyes, she calmed down a little.

"Then why did you call out to me?"

"I was just curious. I may not have any connections to the Ouyang Family, but I know them very well, and if I recall correctly, they hate dual cultivators with a passion, so I was a little surprised to find someone from their family here."

"I am not from the Ouyang Family, so stop your assumptions," she corrected him.

"Really? But your reaction says otherwise."

"I will not repeat myself for another time! I. Am. Not. From. The. Ouyang Family!"

Su Yang nodded with a defeated smile, "Alright, I get it. You're not from the Ouyang Family."

"Hmph!"

Disciple Fei then turned around and walked away with haste, almost as though she was running away.

Su Yang lowered his arms after she left and laughed inwardly, 'She's definitely from the Ouyang Family. What a surprise. I wonder what someone like her is doing here, especially after what happened in her family that year...'

Su Yang returned to his living quarters shortly after to cultivate with Xing Aiyang.

"I'm surprised you returned empty-handed. I guess it was much harder to find partners in that appearance that you anticipated?" Xing Aiyang joked about his lack of results, something she doesn't get to do often.

Su Yang smiled and said, "That's not entirely correct. While it's true I didn't manage to find a partner today, it's not because of my appearance. I simply didn't approach anyone— except that girl from the Ouyang Family."

"Huh? Did you just say the Ouyang Family? Are you talking about 'that' Ouyang Family? The one who hunted you for almost a decade after you ruined their family's marriage by sleeping with the bride right before the wedding?"

Su Yang laughed after Xing Aiyong recalled the events for him.

"That's right. It's that exact Ouyang Family. Surprising, right?"

"Surprising? Try shocking. I cannot believe that they would let someone from their family come to this place to become a dual cultivator even if she's not from the main family."...

"I don't think her family knows that she's here, which makes it even more interesting."

"What? How is that even possible?"

"She joined the sect under a different surname. I only recognized her because she looks like a certain someone from that family. With that being said, I don't think she's here to become a dual cultivator."

"Huh? What makes you say that?"

"Just a feeling. I don't know why she joined this sect, but I'm intrigued."

Xing Aiyong sighed, "While it's okay to have fun once in a while, don't forget why you're here."

"I know."

"Do you intend on making her your partner in this sect?"

"I'm not sure yet. I wanted to, but that was before I realized her identity. I don't know why she's in the sect, but it's risky."

"Hoh? So even you know when to back off from chasing a woman? When did you learn to do that?"

"Things are different now." Su Yang said with a bittersweet smile.

"I'm just joking with you."

"I am aware."

When Xing Aiyong fell asleep after their cultivation session, Su Yang returned to the Square of Devotion to see if there were any disciples that could be his partner.

His eyes quickly caught a figure sitting by the water fountain in the center of the square.

This figure was a beautiful young lady with an elegant aura around her and a somewhat timid face, suggesting that she came from an aristocratic family, something that is quite rare in a sect such as the Boundless Yin Yang Sect.

Su Yang didn't immediately approach her and watched from a distance.

After just five minutes of spectating, Su Yang counted 11 men that approached her, more than any of the other female disciples there.

It was clear that if Disciple Fei wasn't there, she was the most popular.

'The way she interacted with them... She's not good with men, huh... Furthermore, judging by how she hasn't looked directly into any of their eyes, she's a really bashful one.'

Although it might look like idling to most people, Su Yang was actually examining his target's character and behavior so that he could approach them appropriately.

Once he had enough information about the bashful disciple, Su Yang began walking towards her in a slow and calm manner.

However, he didn't stop in front of her like the others. Instead, he took a seat right beside her at the fountain.

And without even looking at her, Su Yang tilted his head to look at the sunrise far off in the distance.

"A beautiful sunrise, don't you think?" He suddenly spoke out in a gentle voice.

"Eh?" The female disciple turned to look at him.

And for the next few moments, she would continue to stare at his peaceful face without looking away, almost as though she was in a trance.

Perhaps it was because of Su Yang's expression that seemed like he was overly satisfied by the sunrise, but she found it hard to look away after seeing it.

While the disciple was still in a daze, Su Yang suddenly shifted his gaze from the sunrise to her face, staring directly into her eyes while she subconsciously stared back.

He smiled and said, "You have pretty eyes, and I'm honored that you're looking at me with them, but is there something on my face?"

"Eh? Um... N-No..." She shook her head in a somewhat panicked manner.

"That's good. I'm Xiao Yang. What's your name?" He suddenly asked her, continuing the conversation before she could withdraw.

"Lin... Lin Xinyi," she responded.

Since Su Yang had already introduced himself, she felt that it would be rude if she didn't do the same, and that would go against her family's teachings.

Chapter 1014: Su Yang's Pleasure Points

"Senior apprentice-sister Lin, huh..." Su Yang suddenly put on a pondering face after hearing her name, which made her curious.

"Why are you making that face?" She decided to ask him.

"Oh, it's nothing. I am just thinking about your surname, since it sounds very familiar," he said.

Then he came to a realization and continued, "Oh! Do you, by any chance, belong to the Lin Family within Mount Elegance?"

Lin Xinyi showed a surprised face before nodding her head, "Yes. Do you know my family?"

"No wonder why you emit such a strong aura of elegance. It turns out you are from Mount Elegance. And while I do not know your Lin Family, I have heard many good things about them from one of my friends, who happens to know a lot about the Lin Family. In fact, I have heard so much about your Lin Family that it feels like I know them personally now."

"However, this begs the question... Why is someone from the Lin Family in this kind of sect?" Su Yang looked at her with a curious face.

"Well... It's a long story..." She sighed.

Su Yang looked at the sunrise and smiled, "I think we have plenty of time— if you don't mind, that is."

Lin Xinyi subconsciously opened her mouth, but she closed it back a moment later with a hesitant expression on her face.

"If you don't want to tell me, it's fine. I have no business in your affairs, so you don't have to feel bad." Su Yang said to her after seeing her expression.

She nodded, "Thank you. Maybe I will tell you another time."

"Then I shall wait for that day."

After spending thousands of years conquering all types of women in the Four Divine Heavens, Su Yang instinctively knew if he should be aggressive or patient with his target, and in this case, the latter was his choice. Even if his decision ends up losing his target, he has enough experience to not be bothered by such things.

After all, there was no such thing as always winning in life, and this is true even for the most powerful and experienced cultivators in the universe. Everyone will eventually lose.

Su Yang then stood up and said, "I'm going to take a look at the rankings. Do you want to come with me?"

Perhaps it was because she felt bad about what happened earlier, but Lin Xinyi agreed to go with him.

Sometime later, they arrived at another square, but this one had three massive and tall jade tablets in the middle as well as a statue that was located a few hundred meters away.

There were many people gathered around the tablets, all of them looking at the tablets with interest and admiration.

However, there were even more people gathered around the statue that was not too far away, all of them staring at it with respect and love.

Of course, they were all female disciples as well.

Su Yang rubbed his temples when he saw this statue that was clearly him.

'Since when did they put that there? Are they trying to embarrass me even after my death?' He cried inwardly.

"Are you okay?" Lin Xinyi asked him when she noticed his stressful movements....

"Perfectly. Some dust got into my eyes, that's all." He said with a stiff smile.

"Anyways, let's go check out the rankings."

They approached the three jade tablets.

On each of these tablets are the names of the top-ranking disciples alongside their pleasure point.

"Lai Xiu, 1,313,102 pleasure points..."

"Qiao Wei, 1,291,264 pleasure points..."

"Qin Gang, 1,237,818 pleasure points..."

Su Yang read some of the names at the top.

In order to acquire over a million pleasure points, these disciples must have participated in every single event with a good score for over 100 years, as well as acquiring as many pleasure points as they can from every single elder.

However, compared to when he was still a disciple of this sect, they are still nowhere near his highest pleasure points.

Lin Xinyi suddenly mumbled in a low voice, "Su Yang, 696,969,696 pleasure points..."

At the very top of the middle jade tablet, Su Yang's name was engraved into the tablet alongside his pleasure points, unlike the other names that are only temporary.

Su Yang shifted his gaze to her, and he saw a look of fascination and admiration in her eyes.

"Almost a billion pleasure points... How long do you think it took him to acquire so many pleasure points?" Su Yang suddenly asked her.

"I cannot even begin to imagine," she shook her head.

"If you ask me, I think it was given to him by the sect. After all, he didn't have that many pleasure points when he left the sect many thousand years ago," he said.

"Eh? How many points did he have when he left?" Lin Xinyi then asked.

"If I recall correctly, it should be around one hundred million points. If the sect didn't give him the other 500 million, he must have somehow continued to acquire pleasure points even after leaving the sect."

"Let's say the sect gave him the points. Why would they do that?" She continued to ask.

"They probably don't want anyone to surpass him on the tablet in the foreseeable future if ever. I guess it's their way to honor him."

Lin Xinyi smiled for the first time and said, "I don't think anybody will surpass him even if they left his 100 million pleasure points untouched. He's the only widely accepted God of Pleasure to have ever existed in the Four Divine Heavens, after all. When it comes to dual cultivation, he has no equal, whether it be a thousand years from now or a million years."

Seeing the brilliant glint in her eyes, Su Yang smiled, "You sound like you admire him."

She turned to look at him with a solemn face, "Of course! He's the pinnacle of dual cultivators, after all! If you don't respect him at the very least, people would mock you for being a fake dual cultivator!"

Chapter 1015: Ouyang Lufei

"I see... So you admire him... I'm sure he'll be happy if he knew that a pretty lady like you admire someone like him." Su Yang said with a profound smile on his face.

However, Lin Xinyi frowned and said, "What do you mean by 'someone like him'?"

"Ah, please don't misunderstand. I'm not saying that in a negative manner. You know, he's surrounded by controversies, and he is pretty much disdained by half of the world. However, despite his situation, there are still people like you who admire him, and I think he'd appreciate it."

"He's only hated by half of the world because most men are jealous of him. They wish to be in his position, surrounded by beauties who love him equally, but they are not, and the only way for them to vent is through envy and hatred." Lin Xinyi sighed.

"I like how you think." Su Yang suddenly began laughing, which attracted the attention of nearby disciples.

Of course, when they saw his appearance, they immediately frowned, and some of them even gagged in disgust. They were probably wondering how someone so ordinary managed to get inside the sect.

When Lin Xinyi noticed the disciples' reaction and realized why they were doing it, she quickly said, "Is there anything else you wish to see? If not..."

Not wanting to torture this kind young lady with embarrassment, Su Yang nodded, "Yes, I am done here. You can leave. Thank you for accompanying me."

Lin Xinyi didn't say anything else and left the square.

However, right as Su Yang prepared to leave, he noticed a certain individual standing in front of his statue.

"That's..." A mysterious smile appeared on Su Yang's face as he approached this individual.

"Are you curious, or are you admiring the statue just like everyone else?" He asked this individual once he was behind her.

"It's you again..." Disciple Feng frowned when she saw his face.

"Are you stalking me?"

"Me? Stalking you? Of course not. I was just here with someone else, but she left. And just as I was about to leave, I noticed you."

"So you just had to stick your nose into my business, huh? This is the second time already."

"Alright, I will get my nose out of your business. See you around." Su Yang turned around and began walking away.

"Wait. I never told you to leave."

Hearing her words, Su Yang suddenly stopped walking and turned to ask her, "Really? Because you just implied that you don't want me around you."

"You're right. I don't. However, before you leave, I want you to answer my question," she said.

"Sure. Whatever you want to know."

"Yesterday, you said that I look like someone you knew from the Ouyang Family. Who do I resemble?" She asked him while staring at him with a serious face.

Su Yang remained silent for a few moments before speaking, "You remind me of Ouyang Lufei."

"What...?" Disciple Fei expressed great surprise after hearing Su Yang's words.

"T-That's not possible... How old are you again?"...

Su Yang chuckled and said, "I think you're misunderstanding something. I never said I met Ouyang Lufei. I only said you resemble her."

She quickly frowned and said, "If you didn't meet her, how can you tell that I look like her?"

"I saw a painting of her before. It belonged to one of my good friends." Su Yang made up an excuse.

It's been tens of thousands of years since he first met Ouyang Lufei, after all.

"Why would someone have a painting of her?" Disciple Fei didn't seem to believe him.

"I don't know. Perhaps he admired her beauty so much that he made a painting of her." Su Yang casually shrugged.

"Anyways, now that I answered your question, can I leave?" He then asked.

"The faster the better."

"As you wish."

Su Yang didn't say anything else and left the square shortly after.

"Ouyang Lufei... Grandmother..." Disciple Fei sighed in a low voice after he left, and she returned to focusing on Su Yang's statue.

"Curious? Sure, I am a little curious about him. That's why I came here. However, I most certainly do not admire him. In fact, you can even say that I despise him. He ruined my family. He's the reason my mother had been mistreated. Because of what my grandmother did, my mother had to endure so much suffering, which isn't fair. Too bad he's already dead. If I could, I wanted to find out why my grandmother did what she did and whether it was really worth so much pain and suffering."

After staring at the statue for a few more minutes, Disciple Fei left the place and returned to her residence.

"You're back early today." Xing Aiying said when Su Yang returned.

"Lemme guess. You're having trouble finding a partner?" She smiled.

"No, I have other priorities in mind."

"Oh? Let me hear it."

Su Yang smiled and said, "You only have two months with me, right? I don't want you to feel like you've wasted your time, and taking care of my own family is my number one priority. Therefore, I am going put a halt to looking for a partner to stay with you until you leave."

"Su Yang..." Xing Aiyong was left speechless by his words.

"Are you sure? You're in a hurry, right? I don't mind having my time wasted since this isn't going to be our last meeting," she said.

Su Yang shook his head and said, "It's just a couple more weeks. I can find a partner whenever I want even if everyone is already taken. Although I might make a few enemies by doing that, it's not new—"

"Say no more, Su Yang." Xing Aiyong suddenly beckoned him with her hand.

Su Yang's body suddenly began flying towards Xing Aiyong, almost as though there was an invisible hand dragging him to her.

Once he was in her grasp, Xing Aiyong quickly removed their clothes, and they began passionately cultivating with each other.

Chapter 1016: Event

Three days have passed since Su Yang decided to spend all of his time with Xing Aiyong until her time with him is up.

During this time, Mei Xing would spend most of her time cultivating while Mei Ying would spend her time cleaning the house even if there was nothing to clean.

After cleaning, Mei Ying would try to cultivate Su Yang's Yang Qi. Unfortunately, she had pretty much no talent in cultivation even though she has vast experience as an escort.

However, she did not give up and continued trying.

"Knock Knock*

Mei Ying heard the door being knocked on during her morning cleaning routine.

"Hello. How can we help you?" Mei Ying greeted the three figures standing outside their residence.

"Wow, what a pretty lady. Are you Disciple Xiao's dual cultivation partner?" Li Sang's eyes flickered with excitement after seeing Mei Ying.

Although she was a mortal and there are plenty of beautiful women in the Boundless Yin Yang Sect, Mei Ying would not lose to even some of the high quality disciples within the sect.

"Look at her cultivation, you idiot. She's a mortal, so she's probably his servant or something like that." Wu Bing said.

"You're right. I am currently working for him." Mei Ying confirmed.

"Oh? What kind of work do you do?" Ji Ning asked. "I used to work for his massage parlor in the City of Pleasure, but he had to close it down in order to join this sect, and I decided to follow him. That's all. I'm more of a maid now than anything."

"A massage parlor? Him?"

The Outcast Triplets turned to look at each other with amazed looks on their faces.

"Anyways, we're here to Disciple Xiao. Is he home?"

Wu Bing asked a moment later.

"He's a little busy right now, but I can pass him your message."

"Alright. Tell him that there's going to be an event for single disciples like us in two days and that we'd like to go there with him."

"If he somehow already got a partner, then you can ignore it and act like we never visited. That's all."

"I understand. I will pass your message to him." Once Mei Ying went back inside the house, the Outcast Triplets mumbled to each other.

"Disciple Xiao owned a massage parlor? He doesn't look like someone who would own such a place."

"Does this mean that pretty lady just now is an escort?"

"Do you think she's still accepting clients? I wouldn't mind losing my Pure Yang Essence to someone like her."

"Fuck, you want to give your Pure Yang Essence to an escort? Your master will kill you if she finds out!"

"Relax, I was only joking... Somewhat."

"Forget it. Let's go back and prepare for the event. We have a real chance to find a partner this time, so we cannot fuck this up..." Wu Bing said.

Meanwhile, Mei Ying returned to cleaning the house. Since it wasn't anything urgent, she decided to not bother Su Yang until he was free.

Towards the end of the day, Su Yang left Xing Aiying's room for a break from their cultivation to check up on Mei Ying and Mei Xing.

"Manager, three disciples visited you this morning." Mei Ying said to him.

"Three disciples? I can only think of those three weirdos. What did they want?" Su Yang asked.

"They said there was an event for single disciples in two days, and they want you to go with them."

"An event for single disciples? What kind of event..."

"Oh."

It took Su Yang a moment before he recalled a certain event for single disciples that are having trouble finding partners, and this event would only start one year after the disciple examination.

"Will you be participating in this event?" Mei Ying asked him out of curiosity.

"Why not." He nodded.

'I never got the chance to experience this event before since I never had trouble finding partners.

Now that I am back as a nobody, I should take this chance to experience all of the things that I never had the opportunity to experience before.' Su Yang thought to himself.

"By the way, how's your progress?" Su Yang suddenly asked Mei Ying about her cultivation.

She shook her head with a bitter smile, "I'm sorry. there hasn't been any progress. Perhaps I am really but not fit for this kind of stuff and am fated to remain as a mortal forever."

"Hmmm..."

Su Yang began pondering.

"Alright, I will do something about it." He said a moment later.

"Huh? What are you going to do?"

Su Yang smiled and said, "If you do not have enough talent to cultivate, I can simply improve your innate talent."

"Y-You can do something like that?" Mei Ying's eyes were as wide as saucers right now.

"Of course. As long as I have the appropriate treasures, anything is possible."

"You really don't have to go this far for me, Manager... If I am not making any progress, I can simply work harder until I am," she said.

Even a mortal like her knows that treasures that can increase one's innate talent are very valuable and expensive, and she felt that using such a valuable treasure on someone like her would be a waste.

Su Yang smiled and said, "If you work any harder than you already are, I'm afraid that you'll become sick again."

"Don't think too much about it. Just think of it as medicine."

"I-If you say so..." Mei Ying nodded.

"Wait for me. I will be back with your medicine son"

Su Yang went to let Xing Aiyong know that he will be extending their break before leaving the house and walking to the Treasure Exchange Gallery, where disciples can go to exchange things for treasures.

Sometime later, he arrived at this tall building that was luxuriously decorated with jade and gold, and at the very top of the building was a Yin Yang symbol made of two people- a man and a female in the 69 position.

Chapter 1017: Treasure Exchange Gallery

After arriving at the Treasure Exchange Gallery, Su Yang didn't immediately enter the building. Instead, he walked around the area, where disciples could be seen selling their own things.

It was like a bazaar, but a private one that's exclusive to disciples within the sect and.

As for what the disciples were selling, they had a variety of items, such as spiritual treasures, talismans, medicine with aphrodisiacs effects that boosts one's vitality without making them go crazy, funny-looking objects for pleasuring in the bedroom, and even other disciples' Yin and Yang Qi.

"Euphoric Oil! Come get your Euphoric Oil here! Only 100 low-grade spirit stones each!" A beautiful young lady shouted behind her stall that was stocked with Euphoric Oil.

"I'm selling this priceless treasure that had been used by Fairy Mia of the Southern Gates! 5 medium grade spirit stones!" A handsome man said with a piece of undergarment carefully positioned inside a display case, allowing everyone to take a good look at all of its details.

Meanwhile, right beside him, there was a beautiful woman that appeared to be selling objects that had the shape of a man's dragon, and they were mostly made out of jade.

"Come take a look at these pleasure toys! They were crafted by a famous craftswoman that had memorized the legendary God of Pleasure's penis after cultivating with him! If you wish to experience what it feels like to have the God of Pleasure inside your body, you will need one of these! I only have very little supply, first come first serve!"

Su Yang couldn't help but stop and take a look at these pleasure toys after hearing what the disciple had said.

He wasn't surprised that someone had crafted replicas of his dragon since there are many of those floating around in all four Divine Heavens. However, he was interested in the replicas' quality and accuracy.

Of course, the stall was already crowded with female disciples.

"Huh?" Su Yang noticed a certain young lady within the crowd and couldn't help but smile.

It was Lin Xinyi, and she was completely focused on the jade toys, so she didn't notice him even though he was right behind her.

Once he was close enough, Su Yang inspected the pleasure toys with his spiritual sense so that he could see every part of it without needing to hold it in his hands.

'The craftsmanship isn't bad, but it's not accurate...' Su Yang thought to himself.

The creator of these replicas had managed to get about 60 percent of its shape and size right, suggesting that she might have actually cultivated with Su Yang before.

However, there is also the chance that this creator has studied someone else's replica of Su Yang's dragon.

"W-What are you doing here?"

Lin Xinyi eventually noticed Su Yang standing behind her.

"Huh? I was looking at these jade toys." He said with a smile.

"Y-You?" Lin Xinyi frowned at his words.

After all, these jade toys were created to please women. If a man wanted one these, one can only imagine what they would do with it.

Seeing Lin Xinyi's perplexed expression, Su Yang chuckled and said, "Please don't misunderstand. I like women, and I never said that I wanted one. I was only interested because I have never seen someone selling these kinds of things before."

"s-Sorry... I didn't mean to..." Lin Xinyi immediately began blushing.

"Are you also interested? In these... uh... toys? I noticed you staring at them with great focus."

"O-Only slightly!" Lin Xinyi quickly responded.

"I have also never seen these toys before, so I became interested..."

Su Yang smiled, "There's no need to be ashamed. Many cultivators use these toys, even immortals, believe it or not. There are also specially made toys used for extracting a woman's Yin Qi."

"Look over there at that stall. They're selling some." Su Yang pointed to the stall a few steps down.

Lin Xinyi silently stared at the toys with a pondering face. Clearly, she was deciding whether to buy one or not.

"If you're thinking about getting one because they are a replica of the God of Pleasure's manhood, then don't."

"Why not?" She asked him.

"Because they do not accurately recreate the God of Pleasure's manhood. They're off- about 40 percent off."

"And how do you know that?" Lin Xinyi looked at him with raised eyebrows.

"Believe it or not, I have seen the real thing with my own eyes."

"Y-You have seen the God of Pleasure's manhood?"

There's no way that I'd believe that!" She frowned.

"Oh, I don't mean his actual manhood. I am talking about a perfect replica of his manhood. One of my friends has a hobby in collecting these kinds of toys. But if you still don't believe me, you can find perfect replicas inside the Treasure Exchange Gallery."

"Really? I didn't know that. If that's the case, then I will take a look at these perfect replicas first."

"Then do you want to go together? I also have some business there." Su Yang said.

"I don't mind." She nodded.

Su Yang and Lin Xinyi made their way to the Treasure Exchange Gallery shortly after.

"Let's go look at your toys first. My stuff can wait." Su Yang said to her.

"Can you not call them toys? I want one not because I intend on playing with it. I just want one for collection purposes, and even if I want to use it, I have to wait until I lose my Pure Yin Essence." Lin Xinyi said.

"Of course. And if you need help losing your Pure Yin Essence, I will always be available to help." Su Yang said with a smile.

Lin Xinyi became speechless after hearing his words.

"Follow me. These... objects are on the 3rd floor." Su Yang said before guiding her to the 3rd floor, where all sorts of pleasure toys can be found.

"As expected of the Boundless Yin Yang Sect... They have a vast collection of these sorts of things..." Lin Xinyi mumbled to herself.

Chapter 1018: Perfect Replica of Su Yang's Dragon

"Follow me." Su Yang said to Lin Xinyi after they entered the third floor of the Treasure Exchange Gallery.

He walked to a specific counter, where a beautiful object was displayed.

"Is this...?" Lin Xinyi's eyes widened with surprise when she saw the toy in the display case.

Even though she has never seen Su Yang's little brother before, Lin Xinyi knew at glance that the toy was definitely a replica of his little brother.

Compared to the toy from before, this one was much more refined and perfectly shaped, almost as though it was crafted by the heavens itself.

"Indeed, this is the God of Pleasure's dragon- a perfect replica of it."

Lin Xinyi swallowed nervously, and she could feel a strong sensation to stick the toy inside her body growing within her.

"Hello, I can tell that you're interested in this treasure." The person working behind the desk noticed Lin Xinyi's coveting gaze on the toy and approached them.

Furthermore, with one thousand pleasure points, one could purchase an abundant of treasures that could assist their cultivation, making it really hard to justify such a ridiculous purchase.

"I don't even have one hundred pleasure points, much less one thousand... It's too expensive." Lin Xinyi sighed.

"Believe it or not, despite its price, this treasure is actually our best selling treasure on this floor with almost every Inner Court disciple owning one." The woman said.

How do they justify spending so much pleasure points for this sex toy? Or do they simply treat it as their guilty pleasure?

"I'm sorry, but I don't have enough pleasure points. Are you accepting any other forms of payments? Like spirit stones." Lin Xinyi then asked.

"Unfortunately, this is the only treasure on this floor that accepts only pleasure points. Although this treasure may be nothing more than a sex toy outside of the sect, it is actually very important with many significances to it within the sect, especially for the female Inner Court disciples."

"For example, female Inner Court disciples that do not own this treasure are ostracized by the other disciples, as most female disciples in the sect are his admirers."

"I-Is that so..." Lin Xinyi mumbled in a dazed voice.

Sometime later, Lin Xinyi left the desk and sighed, "Looks like it will be mandatory to buy one if I want to survive in the Inner Court."

Su Yang chuckled and said, "If you really want one, I can get one for you."

"Huh? Really?" Lin Xinyi looked at him with flickering eyes.

Then she snapped out of it and frowned, "If you're going to ask me to cultivate with you in exchange..."

Su Yang's eyes widened with surprise as she spoke, "How could you say such a thing? I had no intention of doing that, nor am I the type of person! I was going to give it to you for free!"

"I-I'm sorry... I had misunderstood you. Please forgive me." Lin Xinyi lowered her head and apologized to him.

"Alright." Su Yang casually nodded.

"Then I am going to buy the materials now. Want to come?" He asked her.

"Materials?" Lin Xinyi raised her eyebrows in a questioning manner.

"The materials to make the replica, of course. How else am I going to get you one? I also don't have the pleasure points to buy it."

"You can make those things...?" Lin Xinyi was stumped by this information.

Su Yang showed her a profound smile.

Not many people know this fact, but the first replica of his penis was actually self-made. In other words, he was the one who started this replica craze.

As for his reasoning for doing so, it was quite simple.

He wanted to be able to please women even when he could not be there physically.

Sometime later, Su Yang brought Lin Xinyi back to the second floor, where medicines are sold.

"Let me buy some medicine first. After this, we can go buy the materials." Su Yang said to her before approaching one of the clerks.

"How may I help you?" The woman working behind the desk asked Su Yang.

"I would like to buy the ingredients on this list using spirit stones." He handed her a piece of paper.

"I understand" The woman said as she accented the list.

However, her eyes widened with shock the moment she saw the actual ingredients.

She turned to look at him and asked in a stuttering voice, "Y-You really want these ingredients? T-They are..."

"Don't worry, I have enough money. Just give me the price."

"Please give me a moment to calculate the amount..."

The woman did a quick calculation after looking at their individual price and said, "The total will be 250 high-grade spirit stones."

"That much?!" Even Lin Xinyi was surprised by the amount, and she became interested in the purpose for these ingredients.

Chapter 1019: Crafting His Own Dragon

"Here's 250 high-grade spirit stones." Su Yang placed the money on the desk without hesitation, leaving Lin Xinyi and the clerk speechless.

Although the money isn't anything ground breaking, it was definitely a lot of money for an outer court disciple.

Seeing Lin Xinyi's funny expression, Su Yang smiled and said, "I owned a massage parlor before, and it became somewhat popular."

"Why are you buying so much medicine? Are you also an Alchemist?" Lin Xinyi asked out of curiosity.

"I indeed do alchemy once in a while for fun, but it's not anything amazing."

Even though Su Yang said that, Lin Xinyi couldn't help but be impressed by his unusual and profound background.

Sometime later, the clerk returned with all of the medicine, and she asked him, "Do you need any storage rings to carry these medicines?"

"I have my own, thank you." Su Yang sucked all of the medicine on the desk into his storage ring.

He turned to Lin Xinyi and said afterward, "Let's go and get your treasure now."

"Okay." She nodded and followed him to an underground floor, where they sold all sorts of materials.

"Go look around and see what type of materials you want your treasure to be made out of." Su Yang said to her.

"Are you sure? Aren't you the expert here?" She asked him.

"The material doesn't really matter since they are mostly for appearances. However, if you prefer something smoother and easier to 'use', I'd recommend using jade, since they are the silkiest in terms of texture."

"Then I will pick jade," she said.

"The jade section is over there. Let me know when you're done. I am also going to look around." Su Yang said, as he suddenly had an idea.

'If the replicas are too expensive for outer court disciples, I can simply make them and sell them to outer court disciples at a much cheaper price. This way, I can acquire not only pleasure points but also reputation...'

A smile appeared on Su Yang's face as he thought of this brilliant plan.

Thus, he began looking around the store, buying many types of materials.

Once Lin Xinyi decided on what kind of material she wanted her toy to be made of, she bought it and gave it to Su Yang.

"Crystal jade, huh? They're extremely fragile, so you cannot be too rough with them. Are you sure?" Su Yang asked her.

"I-I am not going to use it, so it's fine!" She quickly said.

"Right." Su Yang chuckled.

Crystal jade has a jade-like texture, but they're translucent and much more fragile, so they're mostly used for decorations, not toys for pleasure.

Now that they had everything they came for, Su Yang and Lin Xinyi quickly left the store.

"Do you want to watch me craft your treasure? It won't take long, only a few minutes." Su Yang asked her as they walked outside.

"I would like to watch if you don't mind."

Su Yang nodded, and he said, "This is something I must do while sitting, and I prefer doing it privately. Do you want to do it at my residence, or should I go to yours?"

After her initial surprise, she said, "W-We can do it at your place..."

"Alright. Follow me."

Su Yang then brought her to his residence in the outcast area.

"You live here...?" Lin Xinyi was surprised to learn that he was living in this place.

"Yes. Although there are bad rumors surrounding this place, I actually like it here. It's nice and quiet, and I don't have many neighbors." Su Yang said.

Once they reached Su Yang's doorstep, Lin Xinyi's nervousness started showing on her face.

Seeing this, Su Yang showed her a calming smile and said, "Don't worry, I won't do anything weird to you, and we won't be alone. My servants are also inside."

"Sorry, I don't mean to..." Lin Xinyi realized that she has been apologizing to him a lot recently for some reason.

"I don't mind. It's only natural for a beautiful lady such as yourself to be wary in this sort of environment. Please, come inside."

Lin Xinyi swallowed her nervousness and entered his residence.

"Welcome back, Manager-" Mei Ying greeted them at the door, but she was surprised to see that he wasn't alone and had even brought back a beautiful young lady.

Lin Xinyi was also surprised to see such a beautiful woman in his house. "Hey, I am about to make some fun toys. Wanna watch?" Su Yang asked Mei Ying.

"Toys?" Mei Ying raised her eyebrows in a questioning manner.

However, she was curious about what he was making, so she nodded her head in the end.

Su Yang sat down in front of a table in the living room and placed the crystal jade purchased by Lin Xinyi onto the table.

"Can you get me a kitchen knife?" Su Yang asked Mei Ying.

"Okay."

Mei Ying returned a moment later with the knife and handed it to him.

"Thank you."

"You're going to use a kitchen knife to craft the treasure...?" Lin Xinyi held a look of disbelief on her face, and she began wondering if she'd wasted her money buying the crystal jade.

"Just watch." Su Yang said with a smile.

A moment later, Lin Xinyi could feel a sharp aura suddenly enveloping the kitchen knife.

"T-That's... Sword Qi? You're also a Swordmaster?" Lin Xinyi couldn't believe it.

'How old is he? He doesn't look any older than me, yet he's already learned alchemy and sword qi. This Xiao Yang... he's more than meets the eyes.' She thought to herself.

Su Yang began carving the crystal jade once he was ready, and the ladies in the room watched as he slowly turned the crystal jade that looked not much different than a chunk of rock into something with elegance and grace.

'Eh? He's crafting... a penis?' Mei Ying was dumbfounded when she realized what Su Yang was making, but what surprised her the most was how much the sex toy resembled his own dragon.

Chapter 1020: Do You Prefer the Real One?

Do You Prefer the Real One?

After spending about ten minutes carving the crystal jade, Su Yang finally finished the work of art, and he showed it to Lin Xinyi, who held a dazed look on her face.

"It... It looks exactly like the one in the store..." She mumbled in a low voice.

"Of course it does. I wouldn't lie to you. If I say I will do something, I will always do it." Su Yang smiled.

"T-Thank you!" Lin Xinyi bowed to him after accepting the crystal jade that is now a sex toy the shaped of Su Yang's dragon.

"If you ever need help in the future, I will definitely return this favor!" Lin Xinyi said to him. Lin Xinyi left his place shortly after.

Once they were alone, Su Yang turned to look at Mei Ying and asked her, "Do you also want one?"

Su Yang continued to speak before Mei Ying could even respond, "Or do you prefer the real one?"

Seeing the smile on Su Yang's face, Mei Ying immediately blushed, but she still nodded her head.

"I prefer the real one," she said a moment later.

"Let's first improve your innate talents first. I have the treasures with me."

Su Yang retrieved the treasures he bought at the Treasure Exchange Gallery and placed them on the table. Once everything was prepared, Su Yang summoned his alchemy flames and cooked the treasures until they turned into a single orange-colored pill.

"Here you go." Su Yang handed it to Mei Ying afterward.

"Once you swallow it, your body will feel a little hot, but you don't need to be alarmed. That's the effect of the treasure, which will reconstruct your meridians and make them better." Mei Ying nodded.

She swallowed the pill without hesitation the next moment, her trust for Su Yang on full display.

Immediately after swallowing the pill, Mei Ying could feel her body flaring up, almost as though a fire had lit inside her stomach.

This fire continued to burn her body until it felt like her entire body was engulfed in flames.

However, despite the terrifying feeling, it wasn't painful at all, and it was more of an uncomfortable feeling. The burning sensation stopped ten minutes later "How do you feel?" Su Yang asked her.

"I don't feel any different," she responded after feeling around her body.

"That's good." Su Yang said. And he continued, "Now to see how effective it was, let's go test it out ourselves."

Mei Ying nodded, and they entered her room shortly after.

"Please lie down, Manager. Allow me to please you for a bit first."

Su Yang nodded and laid on the bed. Mei Ying crawled in front of him and began loosening his robes, revealing the hidden dragon inside, and she couldn't help but stare at it for a moment while thinking to herself that it looked exactly like the pleasure toy Su Yang made for Lin Xinyi.

"Are you wondering why I gave that disciple a replica of my thing?" Su Yang suddenly asked her.

"A little..." She nodded.

"You can say that she is an admirer of mine, so I did her a favor and gave her a replica of my little brother."

"An admirer?" Mei Ying raised her eyebrows.

"Oh, maybe she was a customer before?" She suddenly realized this.

"Perhaps." Su Yang smiled. Mei Ying didn't continue questioning him and focused on the dragon between his legs. She opened her mouth and began slurping it with passion.

"Mmni..."

Many minutes later, Mei Ying removed her clothes and sat on his rod, riding him like a horse. Su Yang released his Yang Qi inside her body an hour later, filling it to the brim.

"Try cultivating now." He said to her afterward.

Mei Ying nodded and began cultivating, ignoring the sensitive sensation around her body. A couple more hours later, Mei Ying suddenly opened her eyes and exclaimed, "It worked! I can finally absorb the spiritual energy from your Yang Qi!"

"Congratulations." Su Yang smiled.

"This is all because of your effort, Manager. Thank you." Mei Ying stood up and bowed to him "You can thank me by cultivating diligently. You don't want to lag behind your daughter, now do you?"

"If you say it like that..." Mei Ying chuckled.

"Then I will leave you alone to cultivate. I am going to return to my room." Su Yang left her room shortly after.

"I'm surprised. I never knew you had such talents " Xing Aiying said to him when he returned to the room.

"I am a man of many talents, after all." Su Yang chuckled.

"When did you start doing such things? I would love to know."

"If you really want to know, I will tell you."

Su Yang sat on the bed and spoke, "It all started when I met this woman who was reluctant to let me leave after we spent the night. She told me that she wouldn't be able to live without my thing and that she would take her own life if I left, but there was no way that I could stay there with her forever, and since she only wanted my little brother, I decided to craft her a replica of it so that she would still be able to enjoy my thing while I am away."

"This trend continued many more times in the future, and before I was aware, replicas of my thing had become widespread."

"Wait... So you were responsible for starting this trend? I thought it was started by some fanatic..."

"It was never my intention to make it into a trend, but it ended up that way." Su Yang shrugged.

After learning Su Yang's story, Xing Aiying asked him, "Hey, can you also make me one?" Su Yang raised his eyebrows and said, "Why would you want a replica when the real thing is right next to you?"

"Who said anything about using it? I want it for collection purposes. If you don't want to give me one, that's fine."

"How can I refuse my own wife's request? Just give me the material you want the replica in and I will craft it for you." Su Yang quickly said.
