

DUAL CULTIVATION

Chapter 106 An Unexpected Visitor

After leaving the Disciplinary Office, Su Yang went back to his living quarters.

When he arrived inside his room, Qiuyue was sitting on his bed in the lotus position with her eyes closed, seemingly immersed in her cultivation.

Not wanting to disturb her, Su Yang decided to go to the other room where Tang Hu used to stay and cultivate the Root of Vitality he'd retrieved at the Chamber of Embrace.

When Lu Lifen had fallen asleep after two days of rough cultivation, that was when Su Yang retrieved the Root of Vitality.

This was also the reason why Liu Lanzhi felt that something was amiss about the Chamber of Embrace when she entered to check on Lu Lifen; it was because the Root of Vitality had been taken by Su Yang.

Although it may take some time to notice the aftereffects, the Chamber of Embrace will slowly lose its profound effects, eventually turning into a normal cave without the Root of Vitality's magical effects.

Su Yang retrieved the Root of Vitality from his storage ring, and a single fist-size root appeared in his grasp.

The Root of Vitality was a single long root, and it looked just like any normal root but dark red in color, looking like it had been covered in blood. Additionally, normal sizes for Root of Vitality are usually as long as a middle finger, but the one in Su Yang's grasp was as long as two middle fingers, doubling in size!

"Although it is indeed larger than normal, it is still vastly inferior to the Pure Yang Flower in terms of its Profound Qi. However, it makes up for that in Elemental Qi, far surpassing the Pure Yang Flower in terms of Yang Qi."

This meant that while the Root of Vitality may not boost his Cultivation base as crazy as the Pure Yang Flower, it has more advantages for his Yang Qi. In other words, his Yang Qi will see a significant boost in quality but his Cultivation base will barely increase.

However, this also meant that Su Yang's partners would benefit from his Yang Qi more than the individual himself, as his partners are the ones directly cultivating it.

Su Yang retrieved a herb grinder from somewhere and started smashing the Root of Vitality into tiny pieces until it turned into a bunch of crimson powder.

A few moments later, he poured the red powder into a small cup of cold water, before downing the entire cup in one gulp.

Immediately after the water entered his stomach, Su Yang could feel his body burning like a water boiler.

His face flushed in redness, and his skin also showed similar reactions.

However, despite the painful-looking appearance, there wasn't even an ounce of pain in his body. Instead, it felt like basking in the afternoon sun, pleasant and relaxing.

Su Yang closed his eyes and sat down in the lotus position to meditate, his expression calm.

Time peacefully passed, and when Su Yang reopened his eyes again, an entire day had already gone by since he started cultivating.

He looked at the progress he made from consuming the Root of Vitality.

"My Yang Qi is now at least four times more vigorous than before... Not bad," he nodded in satisfaction.

If one were to compare Su Yang's Yang Qi with someone at the Heaven Spirit Realm, then Su Yang would definitely win without any competition. This meant that if someone were to cultivate with him, then she'd be essentially cultivating with someone at the Heaven Spirit Realm.

Unlike normal Cultivators that depend on Profound Qi to cultivate, dual Cultivators mostly cultivate Elemental Qi such as Yin and Yang Qi that is purer than Profound Qi, which is why they tend to grow faster.

However, there was one downside to cultivating with Elemental Qi— the foundation of dual Cultivators would not be as stable as normal Cultivators because Profound Qi are generally stronger than Elemental Qi in terms of prowess, hence why they are usually weaker than normal Cultivators despite their higher Cultivation base.

As for Su Yang, who Cultivated both Profound Qi and Elemental Qi at the same time as a Body Refiner and Qi Refiner, his foundation was extremely solid, not to mention his vast experience as an Immortal that once soared the Heavens with no fear towards anything. In addition to his superior techniques, this is why he has the ability to fight even Cultivators that are an entire realm higher than him.

After organizing himself, Su Yang went to check on Qiuyue to see whether or not she was done with her cultivation.

When he entered the room, a pair of silver eyes glared at him intensively, looking like two graceful moons bearing down on him.

"You smell," Qiuyue said to him with a frown the moment he walked inside the room.

With shrugged shoulders, Su Yang spoke: "I just finished cultivating."

He then walked into the bathroom that was in the corner of the room to clean himself. A few minutes later, he returned with a refreshed expression and a new set of green robes.

"I see that you've also made progress to your Cultivation," Su Yang said to Qiuyue the moment he came outside. "Did you finish absorbing the Extreme Yin Flower?"

She nodded, but her expression was not a proud one. "I barely made it to the fourth level of the Divine Lord Realm after absorbing the whole thing. At this rate, I won't reach the fifth level for another hundred years..." she sighed.

"Don't forget to balance out the Elemental Qi within the Extreme Yin Flower with Profound Qi; it will hurt you in the long run because you are not a dual Cultivator," he reminded her.

Normal Cultivators like Qiuyue would cultivate both Elemental Qi and Profound Qi to maximize their potential, but if they absorb too much Elemental Qi and lack Profound Qi, then the results may be harmful to them, even hindering their future cultivation.

In reality, there isn't much difference between dual Cultivators and normal Cultivators, as they both cultivate both Profound Qi and Elemental Qi. It's just that dual Cultivators would have to put much more efforts into balancing their Profound Qi and Elemental Qi ratio because they absorb far more Elemental Qi than normal Cultivators, and many people find that too bothersome and would rather just focus on increasing their Cultivation bases and ignoring their combat prowess.

"As for your Cultivation base, just increase it as much as you can before we return to the Four Divine Heavens," said Su Yang.

"Speaking of the Four Divine Heavens, I may have found a lead for our return," he added.

"What did you say?" Qiuyue looked at him with a surprised expression.

How did he manage to find such information in such a short time when she couldn't find even the smallest trail after searching for hundreds of years?

"It was an unexpected find, but have you heard of a place called 'Divine Doors'?"

"No," she shook her head.

The Divine Doors was found only the beginning of this year, so it wasn't unnatural for Qiuyue, who stayed in the Holy Central Continent for the majority of the time, to be unaware of the place, especially when it is nearly impossible for the Eastern Continent to spread words across the Jade Sea without expending a large number of resources.

"From what I've heard, this Divine Door seems to be a Legacy Tomb."

"There's actually a Legacy Tomb in this world?" Qiuyue looked dazed.

In this newly born world, someone actually had the resource and knowledge to create a Legacy Tomb, something that even the people in the Four Divine Heavens would be excited about?

"Have you heard of someone named Han Xin?" Su Yang then asked her about this supposed legend.

"The Immortal Han Xin? I have read about him in a few ancient books," she said. "Was this Legacy Tomb created by him?"

Su Yang nodded. "Most likely."

"What do you want to do now? Should we go there to take a look?" she asked him.

"Naturally. This is our only lead right now, and who knows when we will find another one?"

"When do we set out?"

"In a few days. I have to prepare a few things before we can leave," said Su Yang.

"I understand." Qiuyue nodded. "By the way... are you going to do something about that person that has been fidgeting around in front of our house for some time now?" she asked him.

Su Yang raised an eyebrow at her question. He then used his Spiritual Sense to look at the front of the house, and standing in front of his house was a young lady with an anxious expression on her face, looking as though she was having trouble deciding whether she should knock on the door or not.

"That's..."

Although it took some time, Su Yang recognized that pretty-looking face.

After another moment, the pretty young lady finally became resolute, and her fists gently knocked on the door.

"Ummm... Is senior apprentice-brother Su inside?" she called for him, her voice shaky.

A few seconds later, the door opened, and Su Yang appeared before her.

"How may I help you?"

"S-Su Yang! Do you remember me?"

"Hmm... I recently bumped my head really hard, so my memories are a bit foggy at this moment. I'm sorry," he said to her in a genuine-sounding voice.

"T-That's horrible! Are you okay?" The pretty young lady showed a worried expression, and she continued: "It's me, Outer Court disciple Xing Xing! You came to me last month asking to be my partner, right?"

Su Yang smiled at her words, and he nodded. "Oh, right! I remember now!"

DUAL CULTIVATION

Chapter 107 He Said Get Lost!

Before Su Yang had recovered the memories of his past life as an Immortal, he fancied an Outer Court disciple named Xing Xing, who at that time already had a partner named Yan Ming, yet he still decided to approach her with the intent to court her.

However, when Su Yang confessed his love to Xing Xing, she only stared at him with a disgusted face, looking as though she was seeing something filthy.

And then there was her partner, Yan Ming, who upon learning that his girl had been approached by the mentally challenged Su Yang, flew into a rage and sought him to mend his anger.

However, knowing that Su Yang was a huge coward and would not dare to fight him, Yan Ming decided to lure Su Yang into fighting by telling him that if he won a fight against him that he would let him have Xing Xing, and the naive Su Yang happily agreed to fight him.

After toying with Su Yang like he was an ant for a few minutes during their unofficial deathmatch, Yan Ming finally decided that he had enough with him and gave him the killing blow.

However, whether it was by luck or fate, Yan Ming had narrowly missed Su Yang's heart by a hair's width.

During that moment, Su Yang learned how it felt to be at death's door and experienced true despair, causing his mind to snap and lose consciousness.

A few moments later, his eyes reopened. However, his gaze was no longer the same as just a few seconds ago, and the aura he emitted changed entirely, almost as though he became a different person.

"I remember very clearly..." Su Yang showed Xing Xing a mysterious smile. "The expression of disgust that hung on your face as I mustered all the courage I had in my body to confess to you..."

Su Yang could still feel the strong determination the previous Su Yang had felt when he confessed to her, which was the only thing he could smile about.

Hearing his words, Xing Xing's eyes widened, and her complexion instantly paled.

"W-Wait! I-it has to be a misunderstanding! I was indeed flustered by your sudden confession, but I really didn't—"

"Enough." Su Yang calmly interrupted her. "It was also you who told Yan Ming about it, even telling him to take care of me for ruining your face in public by confessing to you, right?"

"..."

Xing Xing looked at Su Yang like she was looking at a ghost. This is the Su Yang that had confessed to her? Why does he feel like a different person? Compared to the Su Yang on that day, the current Su Yang was more sharp and domineering, like a heavenly sword. Even his tone when speaking to her was calm and clear, unlike the shaky and bashful voice she heard during the confession!

"There are only two things I hate more than seeing someone trample on another's genuine feeling towards them," said Su Yang in a cold voice. "Get out of my sight and never approach me again."

Feeling the ruthless aura emitted by Su Yang, all the blood in Xing Xing's body drained, causing her complexion to look as white as a sheet.

However, she still didn't turn to leave even after all that, only standing there with a pitiful face.

"P-Please, Su Yang... I am telling you that it is not what you think..." she begged him with tears in her eyes.

"..."

Su Yang remained silent and did not say another word to her despite her pleading. He has seen this pity-begging face from 'innocent' people too many times in his life.

"Su Yang! I am telling you—"

Xing Xing still wasn't willing to give up, clearly adamant on becoming his partner.

But alas, before she could even say another word, a voice filled with anger thundered inside her head, causing her mind to nearly black out from shock.

"He said get lost, you ignorant slut!" Qiuyue's annoyed voice caused Xing Xing to stagger backward, looking as though she was drunk.

"Who?!" Xing Xing looked around in confusion. Who was that voice just now?

Seeing her weird actions, Su Yang glanced at his room with the corner of his eyes, wondering if Qiuyue was the cause of this.

"What a waste of time..." Su Yang shook his head and returned inside the house.

"Wait—"

Unwilling to listen to her fart any longer, Su Yang closed the door on her and went back into his room, looking as if nothing just happened.

"..."

Xing Xing stared at the closed door with a dazed expression. She still couldn't believe what had just happened. Since when was Su Yang such a ruthless and cold-hearted man? He basically treated her as though she was nothing but empty air!

And a little later, she left the place while stomping her feet in anger.

"Who was that?" Qiuyue asked him, acting as though she wasn't paying attention to them just now.

"I don't know her," he shook his head.

"Do you really think I will believe that?"

"The Su Yang without my current memories knew her but I personally do not," he said.

Qiuyue quickly turned silent, feeling convinced.

"Anyways, I will be leaving now to prepare and will be gone for a few days," said Su Yang as he threw an Appearance Reforming Pill into his mouth, transforming into the Heavenly Emperor's appearance.

Qiuyue instantly frowned the moment she saw the Heavenly Emperor's face, still feeling uncomfortable with his face around.

Su Yang then changed into the Profound Blossom Sect Patriarch's robes, before leaving for the Yin Yang Pavilion.

Once he'd arrived at the Yin Yang Pavilion, Su Yang entered his room on the second floor through the windows.

He then proceeded to head to the third floor, where Liu Lanzhi was quietly reading scrolls by herself.

"I'm coming in."

"Huh?" Liu Lanzhi could barely react before the door to her room opened, and Su Yang casually walked inside, treating her room as though it was his own.

When Liu Lanzhi noticed the sharp face standing before her, her eyes widened with surprise. "S-Senior!"

Although she didn't know his reason for appearing before her, Liu Lanzhi couldn't help but feel nervous. It was as though just his mere presence would send her into a panicking mode.

"Can't you at least give me some time to answer before you barge into my room next time? What if I was in the middle of something?" she said to him in a voice that sounded more like she was asking him politely than telling him.

"Hmm? What kind of things?" Su Yang feigned his ignorance and asked her.

"T-That... What else would a lady in this kind of Sect do in her room beside Cultivate?" Liu Lanzhi decided to tell him straight without being bashful about it, as she was mature enough to not blush about such things.

Su Yang smiled at her words, and he said: "I came in because I knew you were alone. Anyway, I am here to let you know that I will be gone for a while, so you do not waste time looking for me."

"How long will you be gone?" she asked him, purposefully avoiding to ask him where he will be going.

"Who knows. I might be back in a few days, or I might be back in a few weeks."

Su Yang couldn't tell her because even he can't tell how long he'll be gone for this time.

"I see..."

Liu Lanzhi was curious but she managed to control her curiosity, and she continued: "Stay safe."

"Hoh? You are concerned about me?" Su Yang smiled.

"Naturally!" she quickly replied. "Even if you are only temporary, you are still the Patriarch! It will be troublesome if you were to disappear before I can find your replacement."

"Hmmm..." Su Yang looked as though he was pondering something. "Then how about this? Just in case I might never come back, I will enlighten the Sect with a few Cultivation techniques."

"You will what?" Liu Lanzhi looked at him with a dumbfounded expression, wondering if she'd heard him properly.

"Have you forgotten already? Even if I am only temporary, while I am the Patriarch, I will take care of this Sect as though it is my own," he said. "Therefore, I will give you a few Cultivation techniques that will help this place grow."

"..."

Still dazed, Liu Lanzhi mumbled: "Are you serious about this?"

"Of course." He nodded.

Although Su Yang didn't tell her this, the biggest reason as to why he was giving her Cultivation techniques was because he'd taken the Root of Vitality from the Chamber of Embrace without telling her, and because of that, the Chamber of Embrace will soon lose its profound effects.

And not wanting to be a complete asshole, Su Yang decided to compensate the Sect's lost with a few Cultivation techniques that will definitely benefit the Sect more than the Chamber of Embrace.

"Now here's the thing," he continued. "I can teach you the Cultivation techniques through writings, or I can teach it to your body directly."

"Eh?" Liu Lanzhi stared at him with wide eyes, not daring to believe her ears.

"W-What do you mean by that?" she asked him with a trembling voice.

"If I have to give a Cultivation technique, I will naturally give something that will be suitable for the Sect," he said. "I have two Heaven-grade techniques, one for the male disciples and one for the female disciples. I can write down the techniques in a piece of paper, or I can teach it to you directly. I suggest the latter since it gives you a better understanding through your experience with it."

"..."

Liu Lanzhi continued to stare at him with disbelief on her beautiful face, clearly confounded by his words.

DUAL CULTIVATION

Chapter 108 Lecture

Liu Lanzhi didn't know how to react to his proposal. Normally, she'd happily cultivate with someone as strong and handsome as him, but she couldn't help but feel fearful of him, as he was just too profound and mysterious, causing her to have an inferiority complex when in his presence.

"Do you have any idea what you are talking about? I do not mean any offense, but how can a normal Cultivator like you teach me how to Cultivate?" she said to him in a doubtful tone.

"Hmm? Are you implying that I do not know how to dual Cultivate?" Su Yang said with a frown. "I will have you know that I have my fair share of experience!"

"Eh? You do?" Liu Lanzhi looked at him with a look of surprise, since he doesn't give the image of someone who would have experience in dual Cultivation. But that was to be expected of the Heavenly Emperor's appearance.

"Just say so if you do not want to cultivate. Give me a few minutes to prepare, I will go write down the techniques for you now," said Su Yang as he turned to leave.

"Wait! Who said I don't want to cultivate?" Liu Lanzhi said out loud. "I just wanted to make sure that you know what you are doing, or it'll only cause harm to both of us!"

"Understandable," he nodded.

"But I will still have to write the techniques down before we start since you will need to have an idea of the techniques before I show them to you."

Su Yang then left the room to prepare a few things, returning a few minutes later with two scrolls in his hand.

"I will give you some time to go through them before we start," he said, throwing the techniques into her hand.

"!!!"

Liu Lanzhi caught the scrolls with a terrified expression. How could he treat Heaven-grade Cultivation techniques as though they are nothing worthy, even carelessly throwing them in the air like that?

"This is a Heaven-grade Cultivation technique... And there's even two of them..." she stared at the two scrolls in her hands with a dazed look, feeling as though she was in a dream.

Her hands were even trembling slightly from the near non-existent weight.

Although the Heaven-grade Cultivation techniques are as worthless as toilet paper in Su Yang's eyes, Liu Lanzhi saw them as two priceless treasures because the highest grade within the Sect currently was a mere Earth-grade Cultivation technique, one tier below the Heaven-grade.

The Profound Blossom Sect was at most a low-tier Sect because of its small numbers of disciples and small heritage in Cultivation techniques, but now that they have these two Heaven-grade Cultivation techniques, they are qualified to be called a middle-tier Sect.

"You look like you have never seen a Heaven-grade Cultivation technique before..." Su Yang chuckled at her reaction.

"There is nothing wrong about that," she refuted. "Heaven-grade techniques are extremely rare and only below the legendary Immortal-grade techniques, so it is only natural that I have never seen one before, much less hold one in my hands!"

"If you behave well, then you might get to see one of these 'legendary' Immortal-grade techniques one day, perhaps even holding one in your grasp," said Su Yang with a slight smile.

"What?" Liu Lanzhi's eyes widened with shock from his words.

From his words alone, she was able to guess that there was an Immortal-grade technique in his possession. However, for him to have something so valuable, he must be some big figure for a massive Sect.

This sudden find had caused Liu Lanzhi to be speechless. Just how powerful and profound was the background of this temporary Patriarch for her Sect?

"Anyway, I do not have much time. Hurry up and read it so I can start my lecture," said Su Yang.

Liu Lanzhi nodded, and she opened one of the scrolls to begin reading.

A couple of minutes later, she placed the scroll down, and on her face was a bewildered expression.

She then looked at Su Yang with an odd light in her gaze.

Just one quick glance at the Heaven-grade technique had reduced her to be speechless and awestruck by its contents that gave an impression that it was truly a technique made by the mighty Heavens.

Not only is this Heaven-grade technique a direct upgrade to the Sect's current best Cultivation technique, but it even surpasses the old technique by many folds in terms of strength and efficiency!

"With this Heaven-grade technique, our Profound Blossom Sect will no longer have to face ridicule at the Regional Tournament!" she mumbled in pure excitement.

"The Regional Tournament..."

Although Su Yang had already planned on attending this tournament, he decided to prioritize the Divine Doors first. Though, the tournament would not start until another half a year, so he has plenty of time to explore the Divine Doors without missing out on the tournament.

After taking a few moments to calm herself, Liu Lanzhi moved onto the next Heaven-grade technique.

"This is..." Liu Lanzhi stopped reading the scroll to look at Su Yang with wide eyes. "A-Are you sure that this is only a Heaven-grade technique...? Although I have never seen one until today, I have heard about them, and this one... it is clearly more profound than the first Heaven-grade technique..."

"It is a Heaven-grade technique," he confirmed and continued with a smile. "But only because it slightly missed the mark to qualify as an Immortal-grade technique."

"I... I... How am I— this Sect suppose to repay you for these two Heaven-grade techniques?" Liu Lanzhi looked at him with a worried expression. Even if she were to give him the entire Sect as a payment, the amount still wouldn't amount to even half of one of the two Heaven-grade technique's real value.

"Although you are not aware, the payment has already been paid," said Su Yang with a mysterious smile, his body still feeling the powerful energy from consuming the Root of Vitality.

"Now that you have somewhat of an understanding for the techniques, why don't we start the lecture?" Su Yang began approaching Liu Lanzhi with small steps, and Liu Lanzhi started loosening her robes without any instructions, her body heating up with a type of anticipation that she has never felt before.

DUAL CULTIVATION

Chapter 109 Overflowing Yang Qi

After undressing herself, Liu Lanzhi sat on the bed with her gaze on Su Yang, who was slowly approaching her.

"Your body seems frustrated, why is that?" Su Yang suddenly asked her, dumbfounding her.

"I..." Liu Lanzhi didn't know how to respond. She didn't want to say that it was because of a disciple, and how he'd made the requirements to satisfy her body much stricter, causing her to not being able to relieve herself for the past few days.

"You don't have to tell me, I was just talking to myself," Su Yang said as he feasted upon her body with his eyes.

The last time he saw her captivating body, it was in a dimly lit room, and the atmosphere was entirely different.

He then removed his clothing, revealing to her his flawlessly refined muscles and handsome body.

Although he has the Heavenly Emperor's face, he didn't have his body structure, as there was no way he'd know what the Heavenly Emperor's body looked like, hence why he decided to use his own body—his mature body when he was still an Immortal to be precise.

When Liu Lanzhi saw the body for the first time, her eyes widened with shock. She has cultivated with many powerful Cultivators before, but this is her first time seeing such a perfect body.

"Are you even human?" she couldn't help but ask with a dazed voice.

"What else do I look like?"

"..."

Liu Lanzhi became speechless, and her hands suddenly start feeling itchy, wishing to caress the divine body before her very eyes.

"Start reciting the technique meant for females," Su Yang said.

"Huh?" Liu Lanzhi looked at him with a puzzled look.

Su Yang frowned and said: "Have you forgotten the purpose of all of this already? This is a lecture!"

He then spread her legs apart, unveiling a pink vagina that was slightly wet.

"I haven't even done anything and you're already this lustful?"

"I can't help it!" she said with a reddened face. "I haven't been able to relieve myself properly for the past few days!"

"The Matriarch can't relieve herself? You disciples will cry if they find out," said Su Yang with a smile.

"This is all that damned Su Yang fault!" Liu Lanzhi shouted inwardly, silently cursing him.

If she knew the person before her was exactly the person she was cursing at, who knows how she will react.

"If you're already this wet, then there is no need for foreplay," he said. "Start reciting the technique."

Liu Lanzhi nodded and closed her eyes, and she began reciting the Heaven-grade technique began in her head.

A few seconds later, Liu Lanzhi felt something big and stiff enter her sweet spot, and her body trembled with a tingling sensation she has been longing for ever since her quick session at the Examination Hall with Su Yang.

Liu Lanzhi's mind instantly went blank, and her eyes snapped open.

"Aaaahh!" She released a blissful moan, her gaze at Su Yang filled with passion.

"T-This is!"

Liu Lanzhi was worried at first that her body wouldn't be satisfied by this new Patriarch's techniques just like the previous Patriarch, but just a single thrust from him had changed her mind entirely.

"W-Why did you stop?" she suddenly asked him, who randomly stopped moving, her voice with a hint of desperation.

"Because you stopped reciting," he said calmly. "If you stop, then I will also stop, as there's no point if the lecture stops."

"..."

Hearing his words, Liu Lanzhi showed a bitter smile, and she obediently closed her eyes, feeling somewhat disappointed that this was only a lecture.

"Ahhh... Aaahhh..."

However, to cultivate while feeling this pleasurable was a challenge in itself even for someone as experienced as her. This is why Su Yang purposefully lowered the intensity of his techniques, so not only will she be able to focus on cultivating but his identity will also remain hidden, since if he cultivated with her the same way he did during the Inner Court assessment, then his identity would be exposed immediately.

But alas, even when Su Yang lowered the pleasure she felt, Liu Lanzhi was still having trouble cultivating under such conditions, especially when her body has been craving for satisfaction for so long.

In her mind, this was actually more of a torture than anything else because she was not allowed to fully experience the pleasure. It was akin to eating a great meal but not being able to eat anything else besides what is put into her own bowl, or else the entire meal would be gone entirely.

However, despite these limitations, Liu Lanzhi was still feeling blissful that her body would finally have some alleviation after so many days of frustration.

Time quickly passed, and before Liu Lanzhi was aware, many hours had passed since the beginning of the lecture.

During this time, Liu Lanzhi had recited the Heaven-grade technique four times, and her proficiency with the technique greatly improved with each attempt.

However, during these four reciting, there was one part of the technique that she wasn't able to utilize, and that was the final parts of the technique where she has to absorb the Yang Qi in her body. But without Su Yang releasing his Yang Qi into her, there was nothing for her to absorb.

"This should be enough..." Su Yang thought to himself after noticing how she was more relaxed and calm than when they started.

"Recite it one more time, and it will be the last," he said to her.

Liu Lanzhi instantly became expectant, and she began reciting the technique for the fifth time.

An hour later, when Liu Lanzhi was near the end of the technique, Su Yang said: "This will take you a while to absorb, but make sure you absorb all of it."

Suddenly, a large amount of Yang Qi surged into her body like a broken dam.

"T-This is so much!" Liu Lanzhi exclaimed in a shocked voice when she felt her womb expanding from the overflowing Yang Qi.

"What is this Yang Qi?! It's so vigorous!" she was also baffled by the quality of Su Yang's Yang Qi that has surpassed even her imaginations.

"Is this the Yang Qi of a Heavenly Spirit Realm expert?" she couldn't help but be shocked when there was a good chance that he was a Heavenly Spirit Realm Cultivator, as they are top experts in this world!

And for her, a mere Earth Spirit Realm expert, to cultivate with a Heavenly Spirit Realm expert was like a dream come true!

"Take your time absorbing it," said Su Yang as he retrieved his dragon from her world that was now a vast white sea. "I will be taking my leave now."

"..."

Liu Lanzhi didn't even notice when Su Yang left the room because she was too occupied with absorbing the extraordinarily powerful Yang Qi in her body.

Once he left Liu Lanzhi's room, Su Yang went to clean himself in the Patriarch's room, before returning to his own living quarter.

However, he did not stay inside for long, as he left almost immediately after reverting back to his normal appearance.

When he left, he started walking towards the direction of the Medicine Hall.

DUAL CULTIVATION

Chapter 110 Towards the Northern Region End of Vol. 2

When Su Yang arrived at the Medicine Hall, everybody there looked at him with wide eyes and a baffled expression, clearly in great shock after seeing his appearance.

"What's wrong? Why do you all look as though you have seen a ghost?" Su Yang said with a smile on his face.

"Ju-Junior apprentice-brother Su! Your clothes! You became an Inner Court disciple?!"

The disciples were shocked to see him walk in wearing green robes, something only the prestigious Inner Court disciples could enjoy.

"What junior apprentice-brother? He's our senior now!"

"Senior apprentice-brother Su is only 16 years old, right? He will surely reach the True Spirit Realm before the limited age and become the next Core disciple!" said another excited disciple.

"Congratulations, senior apprentice-brother Su!"

The disciples began celebrating Su Yang's new disciple status as though they were the ones promoted.

"What is this commotion about?" Lan Liqing's voice resounded from the stairs, and her beautiful figure appeared a moment later.

"Master, we have an Inner Court disciple visiting us!"

"An Inner Court disciple?" Lan Liqing turned to look at the door, where Su Yang casually stood with a slight smile on his handsome face.

"Su Yang? You..." Although she didn't experience as great as of a shock as her disciples, she was still pleasantly surprised by his visit and promotion.

"What a coincidence, I was just about to go look for you," she continued with a perplexed look on her face.

"I am here for a few things," he said. "Why don't we talk upstairs?"

Lan Liqing nodded. "I will not be seeing any visitors until I say so," she then said to her disciples before heading upstairs with Su Yang.

"Yes, Master!"

Inside her room, Lan Liqing stared at Su Yang with a serious expression.

"Su Yang... are you aware of the Patriarch's sudden death?" she asked him the moment the door closed.

After the meeting with Liu Lanzhi, she'd learned almost everything about what happened to Li Qiang. From what Liu Lanzhi told everybody, Li Qiang was killed by some unknown expert due to some grudges between them, but Lan Liqing knew better than that.

Although she didn't believe for a second that a Profound Spirit Realm Cultivator like Su Yang could possibly kill an Earth Spirit Realm expert like Li Qiang, there was no doubt in her mind that he at least had something to do with Li Qiang's death.

"I am aware— after all, I am the reason for his death," he said calmly without hiding anything from her.

"Aiya! Su Yang, what have you done?!" Lan Liqing heaved a distressed sigh. "If the Sect finds out that you had something to do with the Patriarch's death... They will not just cripple you— they will outright kill you!"

Lan Liqing didn't care about the fact that Su Yang, a mere disciple, was responsible for his Patriarch's death because he did it for her. What she was fearful of were the consequences that he may have to face for killing the Patriarch, as that is one of if not the biggest offense a disciple of any Sect could possibly commit.

"..."

With a calm expression, Su Yang spoke: "It will be fine because nothing will happen to me," he guaranteed her with a smile.

"What do you mean that you will be fine? You killed the Patriarch for heaven's sake!" Lan Liqing was not convinced that he would be fine, as the situation was too grave in her eyes.

"Indeed, I am responsible for his death, but what proof do they have to execute me? Even if they managed to pull some magical evidence from their butt, I will still be fine," he said calmly.

"You really are..." Lan Liqing sighed. "Well, if you are still fine after so many days, then I guess you will be fine... But to actually kill the Patriarch... what are your guts made of? Steel?"

"But I guess I am also your accomplice now..." Lan Liqing didn't know whether to laugh or cry at this moment.

Who would've thought that she would one day betray the Sect by assisting the culprit?

"Well, don't think too much about it. It does not matter if he is the Patriarch or whatever— he was weak, and he died to someone strong— that's all."

"Mm..." she nodded.

"Anyway, what are you here for?" she then asked.

"How is your butt? Does it still hurt?" he suddenly asked her.

"Eh? Now that you mention it... I haven't felt any pain ever since then."

Lan Liqing had long forgotten about the pain in her butt ever since he first helped her.

Su Yang nodded and said: "I came here today for two things. First, I will be away from the Sect for a while to explore the Divine Doors."

"The Divine Doors? Why do you want to go to such a dangerous place? There have been thousands of deaths there since its discovery!" Lan Liqing said in a worried tone.

It is publicly known that the Divine Doors is a mysterious place filled with unknown dangers, but because of the possible wealth that could be found within that place, many people still risked their lives to enter.

"If you are worried about resources, I have plenty—"

"It's not about the resources or the wealth," said Su Yang. "This is something more important."

"But the Divine Doors is all the way at the Northern Region, and it will take you weeks to get there even if you take the horses," said Lan Liqing.

"Relax, Liqing. I did not come here to fill you with worry," he said with a smile as he caressed her smooth face. "Instead, I am here to give you something..."

Su Yang suddenly touched Lan Liqing's lips with his own, catching her off guard.

"Mmm?!"

However, despite the sudden kiss, Lan Liqing did not reject it. Instead, she closed her eyes to enjoy it.

"Haaa... Haaa..."

Lan Liqing breathed heavily afterward, her face slightly red.

"Su Yang...?"

"You are only three steps away from the Earth Spirit Realm, and I came here to help you achieve that before I leave," said Su Yang, dumbfounding her.

"You mean..." It didn't take more than a second for Lan Liqing to understand his intent. Her eyes sparkled with passion, yet there was a puzzled expression on her face.

"But I am still three stages before the Earth Spirit Realm... Even if we cultivate for weeks without stop, I cannot reach the Earth Spirit Realm that fast..." she said to him.

"You will understand once we start," Su Yang said with a smile, his hands reaching to loosen her robes.

"Un..." she nodded with anticipation.

A few moments later, Lan Liqing laid bare on the bed with her beautiful legs spread wide, revealing to Su Yang her paradise.

Seeing her welcoming position, Su Yang began caressing her bottom lips, causing her body to shiver with delight.

"Mmm... Aaaah..." Lan Liqing softly moaned with her eyes closed, her body growing increasingly warmer.

Suddenly, her creek was spread open, and something started wiggling inside.

"Aaaahhhh~"

Lan Liqing's body trembled with delight, her sweet voice filled with pleasure and delight.

After feasting her wet, Su Yang retrieved his heavenly rod, and with that godly weapon, he pierced her small heaven wide open.

The instant Lan Liqing felt Su Yang's penis enter her cave, her body spasmed, and a large quantity of pleasure water gushed out from her pussy.

"S-Su Yang... did it grow bigger since the last time we cultivated?" Lan Liqing was baffled by how far her stomach expanded compared to the last time. Although she has cultivated with him only a few times, her body was already familiar with his body, so she was able to discern the changes to his body with ease.

Su Yang smiled, and he suddenly rammed his hips into her soft buttocks, causing it to shake vigorously.

"Aaaaahhh!" Lan Liqing moaned sharply from the unexpected thrust, her body overflowing with pleasure.

"What do you think about it? Do you like it?" Su Yang asked her with a smile.

"I love it..." she mumbled back with a bashful smile.

Su Yang chuckled, and with a charming expression, he spoke: "Then you'd better savor it!"

After saying that, Su Yang grabbed her round buttocks with firmness and started thrusting even harder.

"Aaaang! Aaaahhh! More! More!" Lan Liqing's blissful filled the room, and her body was once again mesmerized by the intense feeling that tingled every inch of her body.

Su Yang and Lan Liqing quickly became engrossed in their cultivation, and many days passed without distractions.

On the fourth day, Su Yang casually walked down the stairs to the Medicine Hall, and everybody there turned to stare at him with doubtful gazes the instant he appeared before them.

While they were not suspicious of his relationship with Lan Liqing at first because it was a ridiculous idea for an Outer Court disciple to cultivate with a Sect Elder, the disciples began to doubt their relationship after his second visit.

And now that Su Yang became an Inner Court disciple, the chances of such theory suddenly turned more acceptable.

"Ummm... Senior apprentice-brother Su..."

Although they all wanted to ask Su Yang if he has an intimate relationship with their Master, none of them knew how to ask him properly without offending him or their Master.

Seeing their perplexed faces, Su Yang smiled slightly.

"I know what you're thinking," he said calmly. "But the truth is it isn't what you are all imagining. Elder Lan has been experiencing great pain in her body after a little incident, so I came here to help her relieve that pain with my techniques."

After a slight pause, he continued: "My techniques are not only for pleasure, you know?"

"Is that so?"

Knowing how profound his techniques are first-hand, and hearing his plausible explanation, their doubts towards their relationship quickly vanished.

"The next time I come back, why don't you all come with me for another session? I won't be needing any payments for it, too."

"Really!?"

The disciples instantly became excited upon hearing his words.

"Then we will not be humble!"

"That's right! You better not take your words back, senior apprentice-brother Su!"

Su Yang nodded with a smile. He then left the Medicine Hall, leaving behind a group of expectant young ladies.

Meanwhile, Lan Liqing silently cultivated in her room with a full stomach of extremely rich Yang Qi. When Su Yang released his Yang Qi for the first time after consuming the Root of Vitality into her body, Lan Liqing was greatly shocked by the almost tyrannical and potent energy that rushed into her womb like a bucket of hot water.

Lan Liqing thought at first that Su Yang might have some rare medicine that may help boost her Cultivation base, but after absorbing his Yang Qi, there was without a doubt in her mind that his Yang Qi was more precious and potent than any rare medicine out there.

And when she compared his Yang Qi to all the herbs and medicine that she had taken before, it was akin to comparing holy water and mud— the disparity was too vast— like Heaven and Earth.

After leaving the Medicine Hall, Su Yang went to the Mission Hall to accept a random mission that required him to leave the Sect for a long period of time just to have an excuse for his absence.

Once he found the perfect mission and recorded himself in the logbook, he returned to his living quarters.

"Are you ready to leave?" Su Yang asked Qiuyue after using the bathroom.

"I don't know, what about you?" she replied in a sarcastic voice.

Su Yang smiled bitterly and nodded.

"Let's leave for the Northern Region now," he said.

Qiuyue nodded.

She then retrieved from her storage ring an Appearance Reforming Pill and swallowed it.

Her appearance slowly changed.

Her silver hair became black, and her moon-like eyes darkened, almost like an eclipse. Her unparalleled face also changed, becoming a decent-looking young lady with a naturally unfriendly face.

In mere seconds, the cold goddess Qiuyue had turned into an average-looking mortal with a hostile nature.

Su Yang lifted an eyebrow at her choice of appearance. "Do you always walk around like that here?"

Thinking that Su Yang was talking about her overall beauty, Qiuyue frowned, and she changed face again, becoming more beautiful and elegant. However, the hostile atmosphere around her still remained.

Su Yang only shook his head with a slight smile at her reaction.

A few moments later, the two stepped out of the house.

"Do you have a flying treasure with you?" Su Yang asked her.

"I do."

Qiuyue then retrieved a palm-sized wooden boat from her storage ring and threw in the ground.

Seconds later, the palm-sized wooden boat expanded, becoming a full-size boat.

"This is the best flying treasure you have on you?" Su Yang was slightly surprised. Did she leave behind all her treasures when she left the Sacred Moon Palace?

"Of course, I have better ones. But this is all we need to reach the Northern Region," said Qiuyue, purposefully avoiding her better flying treasures for personal reasons.

Su Yang looked at the wooden boat that only has one seat with a bitter smile. "How fast is this thing?" he then asked.

"We should reach the Northern Region in five days," she replied.

"Five days... is acceptable, I guess." Su Yang nodded, and he entered the wooden boat.

Qiuyue entered the boat after Su Yang, sitting right beside him with her shoulders touching his.

"Ascend," she mumbled.

The wooden boat suddenly trembled and started ascending towards the clouds, quickly catching the attention of every disciple that was outside of their rooms by the spectacular scenery.

"Look at that thing in the air! It's flying!" some disciple exclaimed with a shocked voice.

"What is that thing?!"

"It looks like a wooden boat... how is it flying?"

The Disciples and even the Sect Elders were greatly shocked by Qiuyue's flying treasure because this was their first time seeing one in their life. Flying treasures are extremely rare in this world, and unlike flying swords that require profound concentration and a strong Cultivation base to control, only very little Profound Qi are required to operate a flying treasure.

Whoosh! The wooden boat in the air suddenly shot forward like an arrow leaving the bow, disappearing from everybody's sights nearly instantly, causing their jaws to drop in shock just from its insane speed alone.
