

HC Chapter 1061

Only then did the four children react.

Fu Ziling said with some disbelief, "Mummy, are we having a younger brother or sister?"

Ye Yunla recalled for a moment.

It should be a girl.

She said in a slow voice, "It's a sister."

"I'm going to be a sister!" Fu Yin Yin smiled happily, "Great, I'm finally not the youngest."

She and her three brothers were obviously about the same age, yet she was always considered the youngest.

The youngest had the advantage of being the smallest, but it also had the disadvantage of being shielded from whatever happened.

Ye Yunla, however, could not be happy.

Having spent these past few years with the Rong family, she had the feeling that they were very protective.

To cover up this sin, maybe they would give the baby to

Ye Yunla closed her eyes, not wanting to worry the few children along.

"Knock knock!"

There was a sudden knock on the door of the room.

Zhuang Mingfeng pushed the door open and entered, he looked at the person lying on the hospital bed and spoke tentatively, "Miss Rong"

"It's Mummy!" Fu Ziling said with a smile, "Uncle, Mummy remembers the past, she remembers everything!"

Zhuang Mingfeng was full of surprise: "So, remember me?"

"You're much more mature than you were four years ago." Ye Yunla looked at him and said, "Is the president of Zhuang's group now you?"

Zhuang Mingfeng's eyes were red with excitement, "Sister, I have indeed grown up, I can manage Zhuang's Group well and protect you in the future."

Never again would he let his sister go missing.

Never again will I let anyone hurt my sister.

Ye Yunla's heart warmed.

Her family had never given up on finding her.

That was the greatest treasure a person could have, right?

Ye Yunla's health was fine, she could be discharged after half a day's rest.

When she left, she went to Little Grape's ward to take another look.

The little girl's eyes were closed and she was sleeping heavily.

Zhou Xiaoling and Fan Ton stood by the door, unwilling to leave for a moment.

Having such a pair of adoptive parents was also Little Grapes' greatest fortune in this life, right?

Ye Yunla did not return to Hai Cheng.

Instead, she went straight to Yuncheng.

The four children and Fu Beijue all wanted to follow, but she refused.

The problem between her and the Rong family, she wanted to solve it herself

The Rong Chang family was not at the Rong family villa, but went to the old Rong family residence.

After the nightmare of last night, the Rong family was on edge.

Old Lady Rong summoned everyone to a meeting in the living room.

Although the crisis had passed, the family felt that the matter would not end so easily.

Under the pressure of Old Madam Rong's authority, Rong Chang finally said everything.

"What did you say!"

Old Madam Rong did not hold back and directly threw the tealight in her hand out.

"Heartless thing, even the children can lay hands on them!"

Old Madam Rong's voice was trembling.

She vaguely knew that in order to save her granddaughter, the two oldest members of the family had drained the blood of that girl, Rong Yunyang.

Yet, she had never thought that a human life was involved in the middle of it.

The Fu family didn't even know that the Rong family had done the bastard thing that had nearly bankrupted the Rong family.

If they knew that the Rong family had killed that child, the entire Rong family of a dozen people would have to pay for that child's life

"The child has nothing to do with us!" Bai Xiaoyu said with a pale face, "The child that was born prematurely, gave birth and cried before it ran out of air, so we gave the dead baby to the hospital nurse"

Old Lady Rong said angrily, "If you hadn't forced a caesarean section, could something have happened to the child?"

“She was in a coma for seven months, her body was undernourished, even without us, the child wouldn’t have survived!” Rong Chang said in a deep voice, “Besides, Rong Yunye has lost her memory, as long as we, the Rong family, don’t say anything, she will never know about the baby!”

HC Chapter 1062

“This matter, none of you are allowed to reveal it!”

Old Lady Rong said coldly as she sat atop the main seat.

“This is the biggest secret of our Rong Family, whoever dares to reveal a word of it will be expelled from the Rong Family!”

Everyone in the room had serious faces and nodded their heads.

Just then, a clear and cold voice came slowly from the doorway –

“Oh, the secrets of the Rong family, am I not also a member of the Rong family, why, can’t I know?”

Along with this voice, a slim figure slowly walked in.

She was wearing a white casual outfit, her hair was casually draped over her shoulders, her eyes were cold, her mouth was smiling, she was obviously the most ordinary looking, but it made all the Rong family members’ hearts rise in fear.

When Old Lady Rong glanced behind her and saw that she was alone, she let out a sigh of relief and said, “Dyeing, I heard from your father that your family has found you?”

Ye Yunla dragged her chair away and sat down directly.

In all her years in the Rong family, she had never been this capricious and presumptuous.

Everyone in the room knew that today would not pass so easily, I was afraid.

Rong Chang was even in a cold sweat.

He had lied to Fu Beijue.

“Fu Beijue is my husband.” Ye Yunla said with a smile on her hooked lips.

The moment these words fell, the faces of the Rong family all went white.

It was one thing to hear about it, it was another thing to have it confirmed concretely.

No one had expected that an adopted daughter’s status would be so noble and unattainable

“My adoptive father told my husband that because I was bleeding heavily in childbirth, he gave me a full body blood change?”

“The adoptive father also said that my child was born prematurely and died at birth, and that it had nothing to do with your Rong family?”

The corners of her mouth pulled back in an arc, her smile inexplicably sharp and fierce like the light of a knife.

The cold sweat on Rong Chang's head increased, and he stammered, "Yes, that's the case"

"Clang!"

Ye Yunla violently slammed the water cup on the coffee table onto the table.

"Bullying me for losing my memory and making up stories like that?" Her voice was cold to the bone, "Rong Chang, do you really think that your Rong family can hide everything, do you really think that the Fu family can't find out anything?"

"Yanyang, what we said is true!" Bai Xiaoyu blocked in front of Rong Chang, her voice trembling, "It was your adoptive father and I who saved you at the beach, took you to the hospital, and took good care of you for a whole year, Think about it, our Rong family's family is still rich, it cost a lot of money to raise you as a patient, if you were picked up by ordinary people, you would have been destined to die in the hospital, No matter what, it was our Rong family that saved you, you can't bite back"

Ye Yunla was about to laugh in anger.

These three years, Bai Xiaoyu had indeed treated her quite well, but really, it was all about atonement.

Her daughter's one life was not something that could be redeemed by atoning for her sins!

"Don't make up stories! I've already remembered what happened before!" Ye Yunla said coldly, "My child was less than seven months old in my belly when you all joined forces with the doctors to remove it by forceful dissection, say, where did you get my child!!!"

She fiercely stepped forward and directly pushed Rong Chang against the wall.

Rong Chang, a big man, was unable to resist a bit.

"Whether alive or dead, there should be a place to go!"

Ye Yunla coldly forced the question.

Thinking of what happened three years ago, she could not wait to choke Rong Chang to death.

In order to save Rong Xiyu, he had disregarded her life and the life of the child in her belly, and if she hadn't been lucky, she would probably have died too.

"Sister, it's all my fault!" Rong Xiyu lunged over and grabbed Ye Yunla's wrist, "If my health wasn't so bad, mum and dad wouldn't have thought of this! Please don't blame my mum and dad, whatever anger you have, just come at me, okay? I can take anything"

"You are the jewel in the palm of your parents' hand, and I am not!" Ye Yunla sobbed, "My biological father and I have been separated for more than twenty years, and it was so hard to reunite"

Her voice, carried out from the living room.

In the courtyard of the Rong family's house, there stood two sturdy men.

Zhuang Mingfeng was a little anxious: "I'd better go in, I'm afraid my sister won't be able to cope."

HC Chapter 1063

“Let her vent.” Fu Beijiu said in a light voice, “After three years of muddling through, she needs to vent.”

Four years ago, just to be alone, she went to the beach and went on a cruise.

She accidentally lost her footing and fell into the water

Then it was four years of hard separation from her family.

How many four years can one person have.

The Yung family saved her, and in the same way, killed their daughter and made her lose all memories of her past

There are some grudges that cannot be tied up.

But there is some anger that must be vented.

After waiting for about thirty minutes, Ye Yunla walked out coldly from the Rong family mansion.

Seeing the two men in the courtyard, she was slightly startled: “Why are you guys here?”

“Brother-in-law was worried about you, so he dragged me over here with him.” Zhuang Mingfeng scratched the back of his head, “Sister, are you alright?”

Ye Yunla’s eyes were a little red, “The last person to handle the child was a nurse surnamed Yu, I’ll go to the hospital and ask about it.”

The Rong family had bitten off more than they could chew that the child was dead.

The Rong family had been pushed to this point, they shouldn’t be able to lie to her again.

Even so, she wanted to find the child’s body and bury it properly.

But I heard that children who died young would be disposed of as medical waste

Ye Yunla’s heart clenched for a moment, aching to the point of suffocation.

Fu Beijue gave Zhuang Mingfeng a look, “You go over and find Nurse Yu first, your sister and I will be there soon.”

Zhuang Mingfeng didn’t want to stay and be a light bulb, so he immediately went.

Fu Beijue smoothly wrapped his arm around Ye Yunla’s waist: “Just think of these years as a nightmare, now that the dream is awake, everything will pass.”

Ye Yunla’s eyes were moist.

Yes, just think of it as a dream.

In the dream she had gotten pregnant and then lost a child.

In reality, she had four children, children and daughters, a happy family of six.

All the way there, Ye Yunla was silent.

But she had slowly figured it out.

Even if she hadn't fallen into the sea four years ago, in her state, it would have been impossible for her to give birth to a child successfully.

At that time, she had almost hurt little Ling Ling, so what horrible thing could she not do?

The hospital was soon reached.

Zhuang Mingfeng was very efficient and a nurse who was about fifty years old was pressed into sitting in his office.

"What are you doing, what the hell are you doing, this is a society governed by the rule of law, it is against the law for you to do this!"

Nurse Yu struggled fiercely.

Fu Beijue swept his cold eyes towards her, "Yuncheng Rong family, you know that, right?"

Nurse Yu suddenly trembled.

It was what had happened in these last few years, how could she not know about it?

"Three years ago, the Rong family let you handle a child, where is that child!"

Ye Yunla grabbed Nurse Yu by the collar of her coat and asked word by word.

She didn't want to waste any more time, she couldn't wait to know everything!

Nurse Yu's face snapped white.

She had been involved in that surgery three years ago, and the Rong family had given her three hundred thousand dollars in hush money.

HC Chapter 1064

"I don't know anything"

Nurse Yu shivered and said.

Fu Beijiu did not care whether the other party was male or female, he directly reached out and twisted Nurse Yu's wrist.

When that child, in the beginning, went through this nurse's hands, then, it must be retributed.

Nurse Yu let out a shriek of pain: "Is there any more king's law, I want to call the police"

Ye Yunla coldly released her: "Fine, then call the police and let them find out about your illegal operation three years ago"

That operation, which was an underground operation, everyone who was involved was given hush money.

Just go and investigate, there's no way you can't find evidence.

The nurse held her pinched wrist, not even daring to breathe.

She was sure that if she really died and didn't let go, the man in front of her might even knock her legs off

"That child was already dead when it was handed over to me." Nurse Yu closed her eyes, "When I was about to dispose of it, the child suddenly cried out and came back to life"

A million lights bloomed in Ye Yunla's eyes.

Her hand trembled with excitement and she didn't dare to disturb Nurse Yu's narration.

"The child came alive, I wanted to return it to the Rong family, but the Rong family was too busy, I waited for a day in front of the hospital and didn't wait, but I ended up meeting a couple who needed a baby girl, and they bought the child from me for five thousand"

"What did you say!"

Ye Yunla said angrily.

Her mood went through tremendous ups and downs, a face cold and stern to the core.

Fu Beijue patted her on the shoulder and said in a cold voice: "Then do you remember what that couple looked like?"

Nurse Yu tried to remember: "I just remember that the man looked tall and big, there was a big mole on his face there on his chin, they gave me five thousand yuan in cash and left with the baby in their arms"

Ye Yunla had a splitting headache.

Five thousand!

Five thousand to buy away her daughter!

Her heart exploded with pain!

"Ming Feng, take your sister out for some air." Fu Beijue ordered coldly.

Zhuang Mingfeng saw that she looked very pale and hurriedly held her shoulders, "Brother-in-law will sort everything out, let's go out for a walk first."

Ye Yunla really couldn't stay any longer.

She propped up her temples and followed Zhuang Mingfeng to the garden at the back of the hospital.

"Sis, the baby is still alive, that's the best news, there's nothing better than that." Zhuang Mingfeng said comfortingly, "I heard from my brother-in-law that my sister's blood type is rare, it shouldn't be hard to find a child with a rare blood type"

Something flashed through Ye Yunla's mind, but she didn't catch it.

"I will contact the DNA bank centre, sister stop worrying." Zhuang Mingfeng changed the subject, "Right sis, do you know what dad has been doing for the past few years, he has been travelling around the world under the name of looking for you, he is in Australia at the moment, he can't even come back to see you if he wants to, because he can't book a ticket, he can't come back until the day after tomorrow I guess."

Ye Yunla's mind recalled Zhuang Shen's appearance.

She hadn't even gotten along well since they met four years ago, and it had been four years since they had parted.

I wanted to see my old friend again.

The two siblings chatted about their recent history over the past four years, and not long after, Fu Beijue came downstairs.

He pursed his lips and said, "I simulated the portrait of the couple described by Nurse Yu, and after inputting it into the big data, I found that the man was a human trafficker who was caught three years ago, and all the abducted children were sent to the Cloud City Orphanage"

Boom!

Ye Yunla's mind instantly exploded.

She finally knew what that line that flashed through her mind was.

She grabbed Fu Beijue's hand, "Hurry up and find Little Grapes and do the paternity test!"

A few words, spoken with difficulty, with hope, and a hint of unease and trepidation

The whole of Fu Beijue was also stunned.

Little Grapes, the little girl we only met on one side, those eyes, very similar to Yinyin's as a child, and very similar to Lara's as well.

Could it really be their daughter!

"Ming Feng, take your sister for a cup of coffee, I'm on my way!"

HC Chapter 1065

Fu Beijiu hurriedly went to the hospital again.

Ye Yunla's hands and feet were cold.

Zhuang Mingfeng helped her into a nearby cafe and only after she took a sip of coffee did she finally feel more comfortable.

She didn't dare to think about anything more and just waited quietly in the cafe.

Zhuang Mingfeng quietly accompanied her.

Time passed lovingly, like a white horse passing by.

A month later, Little Grapes was discharged from the hospital.

The hospital entrance was buzzing with activity.

“Big brother, second brother, third brother, sister!”

Little Grapes cocked her head, smiled sweetly and shouted one by one.

She was only three years old, the most adorable and innocent age for a girl, and her eyes were as watery and moving as grapes.

The four brothers and sisters surrounded her, “Sister, we have prepared a huge room for you and bought super Barbie dolls and play house toys, from now on brothers and sisters will play with you every day!”

Little Grapes couldn't help but applaud, “Really? I'm so happy then!”

At the side, Zhou Xiaoling wiped her tears silently, “That's wonderful! Little Grapes has real parents, it's really great, I'm so happy, so happy!”

Ye Yunla gently patted her shoulder, “The medical treatment in Haicheng is advanced, if Sister Zhou wants to be treated again, she can come to Haicheng to find me, we have added WeChat, just contact me directly.”

She took away Zhou Xiaoling's beloved little grapes, she also hoped that Zhou Xiaoling would be able to conceive a child of her own.

Zhou Xiaoling leaned into Fan Ton's arms and looked reluctantly at the little girl.

The little girl looked back and gave Zhou Xiaoling a big, bright smile, “Mummy, I'll come back to see you and Daddy!”

She didn't change her words, she still called out to her daddy and mummy.

She looked at Ye Yunla again, “Mummy, I can come back to see my mummy and daddy, can't I?”

Ye Yunla rubbed her hair, “Of course you can, when you're not at school, Mummy will drive you over.”

No matter how hard it was to let go, they had to part eventually.

Fu Beijue held the little grape that had just been discharged from the hospital, the four children gathered around the side, Ye Yunla held the children's hands, and in front of them, Qiao Butler respectfully pulled open the car door, and the family of six got into the car.

The car slowly disappeared into the street.

The cool breeze blew in outside the car window, messing up Ye Yunla's hair.

She felt the wind, felt the traffic on the street.

She saw the white clouds in the sky, the geese flying past, the pedestrians on the roadside.

She had been living in a muddle for the past few years.

For the past few years, she could not find a purpose for living, and every day was like a day.

At this moment, she finally knew what the meaning of living was.

It was the man beside her.

It was the five children she had around her.

How could she have had such a perfect lover?

How could she have had five perfect children?

True happiness is not sudden ecstasy, not the occasional surprise, not pain and sorrow, it is like air, like sunshine, like rain, wrapped silently around.

Fine water, blue water, blue sky, in the midst of all the people, she just wants to be an ordinary person.

“Mummy, what are you thinking about?”

“I’m thinking about what to cook for you guys when I get back!”

She replied softly, smiling with the man at her side.

Love had a response, people had a place to return to.

The years are still.

A life complete.

-The End –
