

Chapter 1068

She tilted her head up and saw Biden Lu's rigid jaw.

The eyes were suddenly that hot, and it was impossible to tell if they were from ten years ago or from ten years from now.

She stretched out her hand, her voice hoarse as she shouted, "Mr. Lu..."

Biden Lu's body stiffened.

Jenny cried out when she heard herself freaking out.

Then I heard the man's steady voice, "Don't be afraid."

In the distance was the sound of people fighting, accompanied by the roar of men.

"Biden Lu, your heart of dying our master will not die, even if we die, the incarnated stern ghost will not let you go!"

It was followed by one explosion after another.

Jenny was shaking with fear, Biden Lu ignored those people and already had his men, going to deal with the thugs.

He picked Jenny up across the room, got into the car, and drove straight to a flat.

For the rest of the time, Jenny stayed in this flat.

The school hadn't started yet, and she had no place to go, so it was good that Biden Lu didn't embarrass her and let her stay here at ease, while he, himself, came over every now and then.

Jenny felt that this man was strange, she didn't know Biden Lu's history or why he was so good to her.

She lived there until school was about to start, and one midnight she suddenly saw the man again.

The man called Nangong Jin, who she had saved once.

But this time, she and Nangong Jin, didn't meet head-on.

Instead, she was hiding in her room, and Nangongjin had snuck in quietly from outside and was searching around the house for something.

She was terrified, perhaps because of the time she had spent with Biden Lu, even if she didn't really fully understand what was going on, she had roughly guessed that Nangong Jin wasn't a good person, and that he and Biden Lu were enemies.

That's why he was so angry when he had saved Nangong Jin at their first meeting.

Here, she held a crowbar in her secret grip and walked out quietly.

But who is Nangong Jin?

Not to mention the Jenny of back then, it would be impossible for the Jenny of today to outsmart him in terms of physical prowess.

Thus, Jenny was already aware of him before he even approached him.

Hearing only a snort of laughter, Nangong Jin just casually turned around and took hold of the iron rod she was about to swing down, then his eyes narrowed and he smiled, "He brought you back?"

Without waiting for Jenny to speak, he gave another "tsk".

"What a young man, if I had been half as enlightened as he was back then, I wouldn't have fallen to this level."

Saying that, he suddenly stretched out his hand and rolled up her body, and with a light toe tap, the person actually flew out as lightly as a falling leaf.

"Since you took the initiative to run into my hands, don't blame me for being rude, don't worry, I won't hurt you, as long as he is willing to hand over his things, I will send you back safely."

After saying that, Jenny only felt a pain in the back of his neck, and the man had fainted.

Waking up again, she found herself on the ship.

Nangong Jin seemed to be really partial to the cruise ship thing, or perhaps it was because it was unsupported on all sides, but instead made him feel more secure.

Therefore, he chose to bring Jenny to the ship and then notify Biden Lu to come over and trade.

Jenny didn't know what the terms of their deal were, but only heard a few words vaguely through the door.

Like saying something, heavenly book of jade or something.

The Book of Heaven!

Yes, that's it!

Jenny suddenly came to her senses, after all, she was now ten years later and already knew the origin of the Heavenly Book of Jade and Palms.

So, even if the memory of Jenny was unclear, she, as the next person ten years later, heard it clearly.

Then the door burst open and she was carried out by two men.

She saw with her own eyes that Biden Lu was standing on the opposite side while Nangong Jin was standing behind her, reaching out to hold her neck.

She didn't doubt for a second that if Nangong Jin wanted to, with a slight push, her neck could be snapped immediately.

I only heard Nangong Jin ask, "How about handing over the Heavenly Book of Jade and I'll let her go?"

There was no expression on Biden Lu's face.

"You think I care about her life?"

"Don't care, why did you come today?"

"Heh!" Biden Lu sneered and actually sat down next to him in a dignified manner.

"Come and see how Mr. Nan, who once swore not to kill, has done so in front of me."

Nangong Jin's face changed.

"How did you know..."

"If I'm going to arrest you, naturally I'm going to investigate you as well, so if you know your enemy, you'll win a hundred battles, won't you?"

Biden Lu faintly narrowed his eyes, "Nangong Jin, I advise you to restrain yourself and give up that plan of yours that is like a daydream, you haven't made any mistakes yet, it's not too late to turn back, I can vouch for you and keep you alive."

Nangong Jin suddenly burst out laughing.

"Keep me alive? Do you think I'm still afraid of death after all these years of life? I can't wait to die one day, then I'll be completely free!"

At this point, he suddenly looked at Jenny in his arms.

"It doesn't matter if I'm dead, but she's different. Gee, in her prime. I heard she donated something very important to you? Hahaha, Biden Lu, you actually want to rely on such a means to have a child, I say you can't? I feel sorry for you when a man is a man to this extent."

Before the words were finished, I saw the man across the room's eyes narrow and blossom into a dangerous light.

"I just don't want to get involved in the seven emotions and six desires, after all, a man as capable as Mr. Nan ended up falling in love, I, Biden Lu, am a mortal, I will never ask about the love of children until the mission is completed."

Nangong Jin choked.

Just then, a gunshot rang out.

They were both shocked, and then they heard someone coming in a boat laughing maniacally.

"Nangongjin, you're surrounded by us, drop the hostages, you still have a chance, or we'll have to put you on the spot."

Biden Lu's brows furrowed.

Not his people.

Damn!The top still doesn't trust him, and it's clear that he's just one last step away from being ruined by these people.

If they don't show up, they still have a chance to play around with Nangong Jin, but if they show up, they'll ruin the good thing.

As expected, Nangong Jin laughed immediately upon hearing the voice.

"Biden Lu, I said I would only see you alone, I didn't expect you to be so gutless, but you actually brought helpers, let's just leave it, you can have your man back, we'll settle our score next time."

After saying that, he threw Jenny into his arms, but leapt away himself.

Jenny was shocked and quickly grabbed his clothes, but at that moment, he only heard a soft "poof" sound.

A bullet flew from a distance, passing through her body and then through the landing depths.

Chapter 1069

She stared incredulously, but at the same time saw a hint of consternation in the man's eyes.

Immediately afterwards, they both fell into the sea.

Jenny never knew that she had lived and died together with Biden Lu long ago.

Though not voluntarily, the bullet did pass through their bodies at the same time.

She didn't know who the shooter was, or, perhaps, the land depths did.

All she knew was that at that moment, she suddenly remembered everything.

Thinking back to the time she lived in the flat, she was under Biden Lu's care, and had already fallen in love with this man.

She remembered that the man, though quiet most of the time, had always been gentle with her.

He would sit on the balcony with her in the middle of the night and talk a lot about his ideals and passions.

He told her a lot of things about the world that she had never understood before.

Like about nuclear, like an immortal monster that has lived for thousands of years, and then outer space....And so on.

At that time, she felt like she was listening to a story, or a book of God.

He was full of admiration and great respect for him.

Jenny thought to herself that maybe at that time, she was actually willing to sacrifice for those ideals he was talking about.

After all, in his mouth, if there is no sacrifice there is no peace, no happiness for the people of the world.

But some things, in the end, are not her turn to do.

She was rescued, along with Biden Lu.

However, after that time, they never saw each other again.

She'd been shot and her wounds were so bad that she was barely alive.

In a daze, I heard someone say, "She knows too much to be allowed to live in this world anymore, she must die."

However, there was someone else who stopped him.

"No, if she dies, when Lu wakes up he'll definitely pursue the matter, and then we won't have any luck if he finds out that we killed his people."

"So what do you say?"

"Erase her memory, throw her into the sea, live or die, to each his own."

"Okay, let's do that."

Jenny Jing never expected that the result of his pursuit for so long would be like this.

She saw her tears slipping from the corners of her eyes, and in her hazy vision the man was still lying there quietly, unaware of what was going on around him.

So it is.

So that's the truth she wanted.

Everything was not what he wanted, but it did happen because of him.

Is that why, when he sees her again, years later, he is so eager to marry her, not because it was love at first sight, but just because he wants to make amends?

So, even after they've been together for so long, even after so many opportunities where he could have come clean with himself, he hasn't said anything, choosing instead to bury it all in his heart?

So it was.

She suddenly understood why the more Ann grew, the more her eyebrows and looks resembled her.

For that, from start to finish, was no stepdaughter at all, but her own daughter.

The memory she lost was forcibly erased and forcibly severed from her and Biden Lu

The connection.

Later, she was rescued by the Dragon Corps and joined them, then changed schools for convenience, and he was even more unable to contact her.

Is all of this the real truth?

Jenny saw herself having tears trickling down.

She closed her eyes and thought to herself, That's it!

Given the truth, there is no other way but to accept it.

Jenny woke up.

Opening her eyes again, she was still in the luxurious, incense-filled room.

She sat on the futon, as she had before she entered her own memories, the difference being that Nangongjin was no longer standing beside her, but had returned to sit across from her.

Outside the far window, there was sunlight coming in, but she couldn't feel any warmth, and she was full of biting cold.

Nangong Jin lifted his eyelids to look at her and asked, "All of it comes to mind?"

Jenny's face was a little pale.

She looked at Nangong Jin and asked, "The ones I just saw....Is it all true?"

"Sure."

"Why?" Jenny was confused, "I couldn't remember anything before, why did I just remember everything?"

"Because I injected a stream of real energy into your brain, they were capable of erasing your memories, but actually just used some means to dust off your previous memories, and you yourself had already remembered bits and pieces, so I gave you a hand again, and naturally you remembered."

Nangong Jin said, putting down the tea cup and looking at her with a smile on his face.

"So, now you understand why Biden Lu is with you?"

Jenny's eyes were blank.

Nangong Jin said in a deep voice, "He's not even the president of any Lu Clan, his real identity is the head of X organ, this organ, is specifically targeting me, you also know that I don't want to hurt anyone, I just want to gather twelve pieces of heavenly jade scrolls to bring my Shallow back to life, but they are biased to stop it, do you think I should resist?"

Jenny pursed her lips and did not speak.

Nangong Jin was in no hurry and continued, "At first, they could have erased your memories for this secret and thrown you, who was seriously injured, into the sea and left you unattended, now, they will be able to lurk beside you again for the sake of this secret not being revealed, fortunately, you really have lost your memory, if you hadn't, believe it or not, you would have died without a body and would have no chance to sit in front of me again!"

That, however, caused Jenny's face to sink.

"You're lying! There's no way Biden Lu would hurt me!"

"Yeah? If he didn't want to hurt you, and coming to your side didn't mean observing whether you remembered what happened back then, then why wouldn't he tell you all of this?"

Nangong Jin paused and continued to entice, "I was excusable for not saying anything before, but now, don't you all already know about me? You guys are all over the world looking for the Heavenly Book of Jade, but you wouldn't have guessed it, the few remaining pieces of Heavenly Book of Jade are actually in Biden Lu's hands, so no matter how hard you guys look outside, you won't be able to find them, because that was already in his hands."

Jenny blanched.

"What did you say? He has in his hand..."

"Right!"

Speaking of which, a gloom flashed across Nangong Jin's face.

"It was ten years ago, I fell into his hands for the Heavenly Book of Jade and those pieces have been kept by him until now, but you see it's been so long, Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao are flying all over the world for the Heavenly Book of Jade and you're doing your best to help them find it, but what about Biden Lu? Sheesh."

Chapter 1070

He shook his head and sighed, "He's been hiding from you and using you from start to finish, he doesn't even consider you as the person he really loves, everything is just a conspiracy, not only you, but also Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao are actually being used by him."

Nangong Jin's voice carried a compelling power that shook Jenny Jing's heart.

She paled a little and denied, "No, you don't have to compel me anymore, because no matter what you say, I won't believe it."

She said, standing up.

"I'm going to look for Biden Lu! I'm going to ask him about it."

Seeing her swaying and about to leave, the corner of Nangong Jin's mouth suddenly curled up in a playful smile.

"Jenny, how about we make a bet?"

Jenny's footsteps paced.

Looking back at him, "What's the bet?"

"Ten years ago, Biden Lu was unwilling to trade the Book of Heaven for you, causing you to suffer a gunshot wound, at that time you didn't know each other well after all, it was understandable, but now that you are his wife, I'm sure he would be willing to give his all for you, how about we take a gamble, ten years later, when the same choice is in front of him, how would he choose?"

Jenny's steps were completely frozen there.

It had to be said that Nangong Jin had made a very attractive offer.

In this world, it is said that the more you care, the more your heart wants to prove it.

With the knowledge of that kind of truth, I believe that no one can refuse his temptation.

Jenny was not an immortal, but just a mortal with seven passions and six desires.

So, the first thought that subconsciously flashes through the mind is, yes.

After all, it was a fact known to everyone that Nangong Jin was determined to win the Heavenly Book of Jade.

In fact, whether she agreed or not, dragging Bella Qiao's life in her hands, those pieces of heavenly jade, he could get them sooner or later.

So it's actually okay to even say yes, right?

At that moment, Nangong Jin placed a mobile phone on the table.

"If you'll agree, I'll call him right away and tell him where we are, and then you'll see for yourself where you are in his mind."

Jenny pursed her lips.

The fingers placed under the table, gripped and relaxed, relaxed and gripped again.

The decision was delayed.

Nangong Jin wasn't in a hurry and kept staring at her silently, as if he was waiting for her to give an answer.

It took a long time before Jenny was heard to say, "Good."

Nangong Jin laughed.

"Then I'll call him now."

Biden Lu soon received a call from Nangong Jin.

On the phone, Nangong Jin told him where he was, and Biden Lu didn't dare to delay, immediately ordering the ship to turn around and sail to their location.

In the meantime, Gu Si Qian looked at the vast ocean.

"Why do I get the feeling there's something wrong with this?"

Georgie asked, "What's wrong?"

"Nangong Jin had a hard time capturing Jenny, at the very beginning he didn't say anything, let alone make any conditions, but now he suddenly jumps out and points out that he wants us to personally go and exchange hostages, yet he keeps his mouth shut about what he wants to exchange, isn't that strange?"

Biden Lu's face was expressionless as he looked into the depths of the sea and said in a deep voice, "No matter how strange it is, and no matter what he wants, we must go."

Bella Qiao also nodded in agreement.

"Yeah, Jenny is in his hands, no matter what, we have to go on this trip, since we can't guess what he's up to, we might as well not guess, let's take one step at a time."

Kuskan nodded.

Soon, a small bright spot was spotted in the waters ahead.

Bella Qiao was surprised, "We're almost there, there's their cruise ship up ahead."

Biden Lu pulled out his phone and dialed Nangong Jin's number.

"We're almost there, go ahead, what do you want?"

Across the street, Nangong Jin's voice was slow and slow.

"There's no rush, we'll talk when you get there, by the way, don't blame me for not reminding you, if you want to bring Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao up here you can, but no one else, if I find out..."

Biden Lu said in a deep voice, "Against you, I haven't needed anyone else."

"Heh! Hopefully, you'll be able to say that later."

After Nangong Jin finished speaking, he directly cut off the phone.

Next to him, Jenny Jing looked complex.

"You've known each other for a long time, haven't you?"

Nangong Jin started making tea again.

"More than ten years, I don't know why he joined the X-organ, but he's been after me ever since he showed up, and it's been so many years before and after, and it's only been a few years that it's gone down a little bit, but that's just shifting the X-organ from the light to the dark, and I've suffered a lot over the years to avoid him."

He said, looking at Jenny with some obscure and inexplicable emotion.

Jenny fell silent.

So, it's been that long?

How silly of myself not to have noticed it at all.

She turned to look out the window and saw that the sun had risen to its fullest, it was midday.

The sun shone on the water, reflecting off the silvery light, so much so that you could hardly open your eyes.

She walked away from God for a moment, and then she heard Nangong Jin say, "They're here, let's go out."

Jenny nodded and followed him out of the cabin.

It's windy outside even though the sun is shining.

After all, it's already winter, although this side of the world is colder all year round even if it is colder because of the weather.

But the cold wind from the north was still whistling and blowing so hard that the wind almost carried you away.

Jenny stepped slowly onto the deck, and from a distance, he could see another cruise ship stopping a short distance away.

Next, someone lowered the dinghy and three men sat in it, coming this way.

Jenny's heart couldn't help but tighten.

She didn't know if she was doing the right thing today or not.

All she knew was that following her true heart was something she was willing to endure, no matter the outcome.

The boat soon sailed over, and when it docked, someone naturally pulled them up.

Jenny Jing's heart screwed up as she watched Biden Lu and Gu Si Qian as they approached step by step.

Nangong Jin ordered them to be brought on deck.

At this time, all three of them were standing at one end of the deck, while Nangong Jin was standing on this side of the deck with Jenny, and the two sides were standing in separate groups, but there was a strange smell of confrontation.

Biden Lu said in a deep voice, "We're already here, tell me, what do you need to do to be willing to let Jenny go?"

Nangong Jin smiled faintly, "Don't worry, I don't know if you've brought what I want yet."

Biden Lu first secretly took a glance at Jenny Jing, noticing that she didn't have any obvious injuries other than a somewhat unsightly complexion, and his heart settled down a little.

He asked Nangong Jin, "What is it you want?"

Nangong Jin laughed: "Biden Lu, it has come to this time, you don't need to beat around the bush with me anymore, what's the point of us pulling and pulling and pretending to understand, pretending to be confused? You know what I want, don't you?"
