

Chapter 1071: This Is The Best

Jiang Yao held the milk and drank half a cup. She warmed herself up and placed the milk on the table. She took the photos that their second uncle handed to her and looked at them.

In fact, from the looks of the men that their second uncle had found for Lu Yuqing, one could tell that he really loved his niece. Every man in the photo looked upright and proper. Even if they were not particularly handsome, they were still gentle and elegant boys.

“I think he is the best choice.” Second Uncle Lu pointed at the photo of a man in Lu Xingzhi’s hands and introduced him. “That man works for the city government. Even though his position is not high and he does not have any real power, his job is stable. I believe he has a good temper and is very polite when interacting with others. After graduating from university, although it was not a particularly good university, he was still a rare university student.”

No matter how Second Uncle Lu looked at the man, he was satisfied. However, his words about how the man had a good temper and polite words turned him into a coward.

“He has a good temper and is polite when talking to anyone. That kind of person isn’t really good-tempered. It’s because he doesn’t have the guts and is respectful of everyone. He is afraid of offending people and losing his position. At that age, he is still in that position. That shows that the person isn’t that popular in the unit. He is also a person who isn’t smart enough.” Lu Xingzhi rejected that option. Then, he looked at the stack of photos in Jiang Yao’s hands, one by one. In the end, none of them were pleasing to his eyes.

When Lu Yuqing saw that Lu Xingzhi had returned, she heaved a sigh of relief. Her brother would definitely belittle those men.

Lu Yuqing felt that her younger brother, Lu Xingzhi, was usually not very useful to her, but he was still very useful at that time because Lu Xingzhi probably felt that any man in that world would be wrong for her.

After all, Lu Xingzhi did not even like Huang Chengjing, so how could he like those ordinary people in the photos?

“Second Uncle, I believe Xingzhi is correct. In fact, there is no one in the world who can really do without the slightest bit of temper. No one does not have trouble in life. When there’s trouble, there’s bound to be a rage. However, some people are good at pretending in front of outsiders. Who knows, maybe people who pretend to be good-tempered in the workplace will go home and vent all their tempers on their family members? A person like that who doesn’t dare to show even the slightest bit of temper reveals that he doesn’t have the slightest sincerity. He doesn’t dare to be his true self, and his social skills are very weak. He probably treats everyone respectfully. It’s very tiring to live with such a person.”

Jiang Yao felt that those men were not as good as Huang Chengjing. Jiang Yao had personally experienced Huang Chengjing’s temper. When he blew up, he would do it hard. However, he was a gentleman for most of the time. That kind of gentleness seeped out of his bones. It was related to the upbringing he had received since he was a young child. It was not only an act.

“Sister has only been divorced for a year and a half. She doesn’t need to get married in a hurry.” Lu Xingzhi took the photographs and stuffed them back into the hands of his second uncle. He said, “Let my sister have a good New Year at home.”

After their second uncle heard what Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao had said, he also felt that it made sense. Lu Yuqing had already suffered because of Zhao Zhuangzong, so they did not dare to be so careless about finding a partner for Lu Yuqing. They were afraid that something else might happen. If Lu Yuqing were unhappy in the future, the elders would also feel heartache when they saw it.

Chapter 1072: Leave It For Your Sister-in-law

“That’s true. Our Lu family’s daughter doesn’t have to worry about being unwanted.” Mr. Lu was the first to see the light. He nodded and turned to Lu Yuqing. “Alright, I won’t force you.”

Lu Yuqing secretly gave Lu Xingzhi a thumbs up and praised him. However, Lu Xingzhi did not notice her actions. Instead, he took advantage of when everyone was talking to his second uncle to quietly pour the untouched milk from his cup into Jiang Yao’s cup. Then, he picked up his cup and went to the kitchen.

Lu Yuqing wanted to say something, but she hesitated. Initially, she wanted to complain to Jiang Yao, but she felt that Lu Xingzhi had just helped her out of her predicament after she thought about it. Therefore, it was not right for her to burn that bridge. She suppressed the urge to complain.

After Lu Xingzhi came back from the kitchen, he sat back down beside Jiang Yao. He hugged Jiang Yao’s waist with one hand, and with the other hand, he picked up the milk on the table and placed it in front of Jiang Yao to urge her to drink it. “Drink it while it’s hot.”

Jiang Yao acknowledged his request and did not suspect anything. She lowered her head and gulped a few mouthfuls. Then, she suddenly stopped. She looked at the milk in her hand and exclaimed, “Eh? I drank almost all of it just now. Why is there still so much?”

When Lu Yuqing heard that, she almost choked on an apple.

“I saw it! My brother poured his milk into your cup, Sister-in-law! He did not even drink the milk that Auntie poured for him!” Lu Xiaoxiao raised her hand high and shouted excitedly, “Brother doesn’t like to drink milk, goat’s milk, and all kinds of milk. He also doesn’t like things that are milk-flavored.”

“I want your sister-in-law to drink more; she’s far too thin.”

Lu Xingzhi patted Jiang Yao’s head lovingly. “Her studies are taxing on her brain, and she’s been working hard recently.”

“Thank you so much for that!”

Jiang Yao gritted her teeth.

She always felt that Lu Xingzhi’s last sentence meant something else, but it seemed like she was overthinking it when she looked at his serious expression.

Well, she hoped that she was only overthinking it. That guy should still be a decent person.

Jiang Yao knew that Lu Xingzhi did not like to drink milk, but when she saw Lu Xingzhi take the milk from Mrs. Lu, she thought that he would drink it on account of Mrs. Lu's offer. She did not expect him to have a backup plan.

"Brother's excuse is very nice," Lu Xiaoxiao muttered and pouted before she turned to Jiang Yao and asked, "Sister-in-law, did your second brother recently have a stroke?"

"When he saw me in town today, he actually greeted me with a smile and even praised me for dressing well. Did he take the wrong medicine today?"

Lu Xiaoxiao tugged at the clothes on her body and said, "In the afternoon, Auntie and I were cleaning my house. When we met him, we happened to be shopping at a small store in town. We were dirty, but he actually praised me for looking good! Do you think his brain is damaged?"

"He's in a good mood."

Jiang Yao nodded. "Don't worry. He's going to the north after the New Year, so you won't have many opportunities to meet him again."

Lu Xiaoxiao laughed. "Because he was betrayed by Yang Gaoshu and cuckolded? He's so sad that he's going to leave his hometown and wander outside?"

Jiang Yao was stunned for a second and then burst into laughter. Lu Xiaoxiao's expression was too funny. Even Jiang Yao had to admit that she was inferior to her vicious tongue. She was so serious about insulting people, and only Lu Xiaoxiao could do it without any pretense.

While the whole family chatted and laughed, a few uninvited guests suddenly arrived from the Lu and Chen families. Chen Lanying was also there.

Chapter 1073: Kneel On The Road

Chen Lanying's mother immediately knelt at the entrance when she saw Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu. She hugged Mrs. Lu's legs and said, "Teacher Li, I beg you; please let my daughter go! My daughter can't go to jail. If she goes to jail, her life will be over!"

Mrs. Lu and Mr. Lu also stood up. Then, they called out to Lu Weihua, who stood outside and refused to come in, and said, "Why aren't you coming in? Why are you standing outside?"

Only then did the Lu family know that both the Lu and Chen families were there. Even Lu Weihua's mistress was; she stood there with a big belly. At first glance, Jiang Yao was a little surprised. How could those two families, which should have been torn apart, stand together so harmoniously?

"What are you doing?"

Mrs. Lu moved aside and looked around the compound. She went forward and pulled Chen Lanying's mother.

One of them was a farmer, and the other was a teacher who had never done hard work. Mrs. Lu was not as strong as Chen Lanying's mother, so she could not move the woman even after he pulled her a few times.

Lu Xingzhi saw that Mrs. Lu struggled to pull the other woman; Chen Lanying's mother even pushed him. He almost lost his balance and fell. He immediately put down the glass of milk that Jiang Yao had drunk and placed it on the coffee table. He got up and walked toward the group of people at the door.

"What a bad temper!"

Lu Yuqing Glanced at Lu Xingzhi, then pressed Jiang Yao and Lu Xiaoxiao to continue watching TV; she did not let them join the fun.

"My brother has always been patient with others, but for only a few seconds." Lu Xiaoxiao was used to it. Even she was often scolded by Lu Xingzhi, let alone those irrelevant outsiders.

After she said that, Lu Xiaoxiao pointed at the milk cup on the coffee table and said, "In this world, only my sister-in-law has the fortune to let my brother feed her the milk."

"He is afraid that it will go to waste if I don't finish it, right?"

Jiang Yao rubbed the tip of her nose and continued to look at the door.

Jiang Yao had guessed the reason for Chen Lanying's appearance at that time. They must have wanted to jail her for abandoning her baby, so she rushed back to beg Lu Xingzhi. Chen Lanying was not stupid; she knew Lu Xingzhi's words had a lot of weight. One could say that it was right to ask him for help, but one could also say it was wrong.

If Lu Xingzhi did not want her to go to jail, then it was right for her to ask for his help. However, Lu Xingzhi wanted her imprisoned, and based on his personality, he would never take back what was already done. Her effort that night was in vain.

Lu Xingzhi walked toward the door. The first thing he did was to pick up Mrs. Chen and carry her out of the door. His voice was cold and stiff when he said, "If you want to kneel, then kneel on the main road. We are not your ancestors. You don't have the right to kneel in our home."

Perhaps Lu Xingzhi's action was too rough, so the people there were scared. When they saw Lu Xingzhi, they retreated into the courtyard subconsciously.

Lu Xingzhi stood at the main entrance like a fierce god. He looked coldly at the group of people in the courtyard and said, "I know why you are here, but I advise you not to waste your energy. I was the one who did that. My parents don't know anything about it, and I would never take it back."

Lu Xingzhi had not only allowed Chen Lanying to make a choice and serve her sentence within three days, but he had also wanted Lu Weihua's job.

Chapter 1074: Who Would Teach You A Lesson?

There was no other reason to deal with Lu Weihua; it was purely because he hated that person. He hated that Lu Weihua kept bringing Chen Lanying into his life. He did not like it, and he also hated it. That was why he gave Lu Weihua a warning.

Chen Lanying came to him to beg him not to let her go to jail. Lu Weihua's family must have come to him because of Lu Weihua's job.

However, Lu Xingzhi did not want to let anyone go, so he could not be bothered with them.

“Lu Xingzhi! I have never offended you. Why did you do that to me?” Lu Weihua stood behind him and shouted, “My wife is about to have a child. You have ruined my work. How am I going to support my family in the future?”

“Your wife?”

Lu Xingzhi sneered, “Did your wife not give birth to a son for you a few months ago? Was that not the son you left in Jin City’s orphanage?”

“Chen Lanying and I already went through the divorce procedures in the afternoon!”

Lu Weihua quickly clarified. “My wife now is Xiao Hong!”

“Lu Weihua, you are probably the only person in the entire country who received a divorce certificate and marriage certificate in a single day,” Mrs. Lu scolded him shamelessly when she heard that.

Lu Weihua’s face darkened because he did get divorced and married in the afternoon. Chen Lanying also scolded him at the Civil Affairs Bureau for all the things he had done. The entire civil affairs bureau looked at him as if he was scum.

The county was so small; how could he hide that? Even people who did not know Lu Weihua knew that he had another woman.

It was indeed shameful to say that, but one could not help it. Lu Weihua could only blame that hatred on Chen Lanying.

However, he did not expect to be fired when he returned to the unit after he got the marriage certificate and divorce certificate that afternoon. Then he found out that it was because of the Lu family. The higher-ups had to do that to honor the Lu family.

One should not underestimate the Lu brothers. One of them was a principal in one of the schools in town, while the other was a businessman. However, Lu Xingzhi’s family enjoyed a high status in the county and city, one that was higher than Lu Weihua’s family. Even though Lu Weihua’s parents worked in a governmental unit, and even if his father was the director of a small unit, Lu Weihua would still lose his job if Lu Xingzhi wanted that to happen.

“Lu Xingzhi, are you avenging Chen Lanying? And you’re saying that you have nothing to do with her? If you have nothing to do with her, why are you helping her? That son might be yours and Chen Lanying’s!” Lu Weihua was so angry that he did not know what to say, or perhaps he only cursed that he had long wanted to say but had not found the courage to do so.

“Did you not go to the hospital in Jindo City for a test? Did the results not tell you that the child is yours?” Mr. Lu was furious when he heard that. “Don’t you know if the baby is your son? Don’t push the blame onto Xingzhi. He is not a bad character, unlike you!”

It was common for Lu Xingzhi’s family to protect their own. No one was allowed to speak ill of their family in front of them, not even a single word.

Mr. Lu was usually a kind and gentle man, but his stern face was enough to scare people when he was angry.

“You still don’t know why I want to teach you a lesson?”

Lu Xingzhi sneered, “Lu Weihua, do you have a pig’s brain? You slandered me, and if I don’t teach you a lesson, who would do that then? Just say it. Keep talking until you’re happy. In any case, if I’m unhappy, I’ll take your parents’ jobs.”

Chapter 1075: No One Could Stop Him

When Mr. and Mrs. Lu heard that, they were frightened and hurriedly pushed their son, Lu Weihua, out of the Lu family’s courtyard. Then they rushed back to apologize. “His brain is confused, and he’s talking nonsense. Young Master Lu, just pretend that we did not come today.”

After they said that, Mr. and Mrs. Lu pulled the pregnant woman along with them and left. They left the Chen family to their tears.

The Lu family came and left quickly. After they had left, Jiang Yao sat on the sofa and averted her gaze from the door.

The Lu family did not go far, so Jiang Yao could easily hear what they said outside the house.

Lu Weihua was very unhappy after his parents dragged him away. He cursed all the way out of the Lu family’s courtyard.

“Enough! They have neighbors everywhere. Shut your mouth!” Mr. Lu was afraid of Lu Xingzhi’s threats. He was not only fearful that Lu Xingzhi would make him lose his job. He was scared of the way Lu Xingzhi would make him lose his job.

Even though his unit was not practical, he was still a director with the bureau. In the past few years, he had taken a lot of bribes. He was afraid that Lu Xingzhi would report him.

“Alright, if the job is gone, so be it. Didn’t you hear why Lu Xingzhi wanted to teach you a lesson? Do you really think it’s because of Chen Lanying?” Mrs. Lu shouted at the father and son duo, who were about to quarrel. She said, “He was angry because of what you said, so he took your job. That is a warning for you. Just keep your mouth shut in the future.”

When Mrs. Lu heard Lu Xingzhi’s words, she was relieved. All she needed to do was confirm that Lu Xingzhi and Chen Lanying had nothing to do with each other. She said, “Since you lost your job, we will use our connection and send you to another unit. We have nothing to do with the Lu family. Don’t provoke them anymore. They will no longer chase after you to deal with you, so work matters are not important.”

After she said that, Mrs. Lu looked at the pregnant woman beside Lu Weihua. Compared to her previous daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lu still preferred Chen Lanying because she had a good education and a good job. She was more capable. The only good thing about her new daughter-in-law was that she was better at grasping a man’s heart than Chen Lanying.

However, that woman had only studied for a few years in a primary school and did not have a job. She was only married to her son because she was a vixen who got pregnant with his child. If word got out, it would bring shame to the Lu family. However, there was nothing she could do. She could not stop who her son dated.

Therefore, Mrs. Lu could only curse Chen Lanying for wasting her education. She could not keep her man; she caused her son to be an idiot to marry such a woman.

“Don’t go anywhere. Just stay at home and take care of the baby. I’m looking forward to you giving birth to a healthy grandson!” Mrs. Lu raised her hand and touched her new daughter-in-law’s belly with a face full of anticipation. “Don’t be like that woman, Chen Lanying, who is useless and gave birth to a sick child.”

The woman chuckled.

After Jiang Yao heard that, she did not continue to listen to them. She only heard the laughter of the four Lu family members who had turned their anger into joy.

Which hospital did that woman go for a check-up to confirm that the baby in her stomach was a boy?

She knew that they would be disappointed. Jiang Yao was certain that the baby in that woman’s stomach was a girl.

Chapter 1076: You Are Not Me

Jiang Yao had used her x-ray vision to see the condition of the woman’s stomach—it was a healthy baby girl.

The Lu family would love to have a son, but they would most likely be disappointed in a few months.

Jiang Yao stood up and walked toward the door. She glanced at the Chen family members in the courtyard; they shivered as they pleaded for mercy. Then, she stood beside Lu Xingzhi and said, “Chen Lanying, that child is your flesh and blood, a baby you carried for nine months. Even though the child is sick, medical science is getting more advanced. If discovered early, the cure rate for many diseases is very high. The child is a gift from heaven. You shouldn’t abandon him.”

Jiang Yao looked at Chen Lanying, who had looked more haggard than before, and continued to persuade her. “I’ll give you a chance to bring the child home and raise him. If you don’t want to go to jail, I can persuade my husband that you’d raise the child properly. Perhaps the child will bring you unexpected luck in the future.”

Jiang Yao did not go too far. If Chen Lanying still had some affection for the baby, then she might not have a hard time in the future.

First of all, Chen Lanying had a job, so she did not have to worry about raising a child.

The mistress was pregnant with a girl. Since Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu wanted a grandson, they would definitely want Chen Lanying's son when that woman's daughter was born. They would cherish him more after he had recovered from his illness.

That woman had entered the Lu family under the pretext of carrying a baby boy. That woman's identity might not even be clean. Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu would never like that woman. As for whether Lu Weihua would divorce her because of that woman's deceit, that was another matter.

If it were Jiang Yao, she would not abandon her child. No matter how difficult it was, she would raise the child well. When the child grew up and had a future, it would be too late for the Lu family to regret their decision.

However, Jiang Yao's persuasion did not seem to be able to convince Chen Lanying. Even Mr. Chen and Mrs. Chen did not listen to her at all.

"You are not me; how would you know my difficulties? Putting aside the fact that I don't have the money to treat the child's illness, I am a woman with a son. How am I going to get married in the future? I am still so young. I can't stay by my son for the rest of my life, right?" Chen Lanying sobbed softly. "There's really nothing I can do except to keep the child in the orphanage. The child's father doesn't even want him anymore. What can I do? I'm just a woman. How can I raise a child by myself?"

Jiang Yao stood there and sneered at the other woman. How could she not? She was unwilling. To put it bluntly, Chen Lanying was selfish. She was afraid that the child's existence would become a burden to her.

Jiang Yao felt that she had given Chen Lanying a chance. She had already tried to persuade her, but the other party did not listen. There was nothing she could do.

Therefore, Jiang Yao turned to Lu Xingzhi and said, "Come back after you've sent them away. It is too cold out here."

Not only did she feel sorry for Lu Xingzhi, who was at the door to endure the cold wind, but she was also too lazy to bother with that selfish family. Chen Lanying had done those things behind the Chen family's back. Chen Lanying should be ashamed to meet Lu Xingzhi's family. She did not expect her to go there so shamelessly.

Chapter 1077: Find An Adopter

Therefore, it was likely that the relationship between people depended on fate.

It was the first time they met someone they did not like, so they could not come to the same conclusion no matter how much they tried.

After Jiang Yao finished speaking, she turned around and returned to the living room to sit down. Lu Yuqing looked at Jiang Yao. "Aren't you wasting your breath? If I were you, I would call the police and drag them out so that they wouldn't affect others."

Lu Xiaoxiao finally understood. She clicked her tongue and said, "She abandoned her child? Is she still a mother?"

After she said that, Lu Xiaoxiao immediately held her father's hand and acted coquettishly. "Dad, you've been really good to me. I'm only a daughter. Back then, when our family was so poor, you endured it and raised me by yourself. You quit your job and worked hard to make more money so that I would have a better life! Dad, I've never loved you more!"

Second Uncle Lu laughed heartily. "I've raised you for so long, and I finally heard you say something that moved me. You're my only daughter. Don't I have to raise you well?"

Lu Xingzhi could no longer be bothered with the Chen family anymore, so he slammed the door shut. He decided to give them the cold shoulder. If they wanted to kneel, then let them kneel. They could leave whenever they wanted.

The door was closed, and all the troubles that had nothing to do with the Lu family were left outside the door.

Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu stood there and sighed. Then, they returned to the living room and sat on the sofa. They shook their heads with emotion. "The two Lu family elders are too muddle-headed. Chen Lanying, as a mother, is muddle-headed too."

Mrs. Lu was a mother, so she was soft-hearted. When she thought about the sick child, she could not bear to meet such parents. She said, "Xingzhi, that child is in an orphanage in Jin City. Get someone to take a look at him and find a better family to adopt the child. However, you must not let the Lu and Chen families know who adopted the child. Otherwise, they will cause trouble for the child in the future."

"Perhaps get a foreign couple to adopt the child."

Jiang Yao was delighted. "If a foreign family adopted the child, it will be difficult to find him no matter how many connections he has!"

Lu Xingzhi looked at Jiang Yao's overly excited face with a mischievous smile, so he stared at her in confusion. However, since his wife thought that, he would not let her down.

"I'll do as you wish."

Lu Xingzhi nodded. "I'll ask Second Brother to keep an eye out for foreign adopters."

"If someone wants to adopt a child and is afraid that the child's illness can't be cured easily, I—" Jiang Yao had wanted to say that she would treat the child. Still, after Lu Xingzhi's reminder, she immediately changed her words and said, "I'll help look for teachers and seniors to see if they can help."

Lu Yuqing glanced at Jiang Yao and did not say anything.

If the child had nothing to do with the Chen and Lu families, Jiang Yao would not mind helping the child. After all, she was a doctor and had a medical system. Most of the illnesses were not difficult for her. It was just a piece of cake for her.

It was tough for the child to have parents like Chen Lanying and Lu Weihua, so Jiang Yao wanted to give the child a bright future.

Of course, Jiang Yao would not say it. She wanted to wait until the Lu family finally found out that that woman had given birth to a daughter. If they wanted to go back to look for their son, they would not find him. They would only have vexation and regret.

That was right; she was such a bad person.

Chapter 1078: Just Like How You Treated Me

Lu Xingzhi could tell what Jiang Yao was thinking, but he did not expose her. He only threw her a glance with a half-smile and did not say much. Then, he talked to Mr. and Mrs. Lu about going to Jindo City for a vacation after the New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lu had never left that province in their entire lives. The furthest they went was to a few counties and other urban areas. Perhaps everyone had a passion for Jindo City in their hearts. Therefore, when they heard Lu Xingzhi say that he wanted to invite the Jiang family to travel to Jindo City together, Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu were actually moved.

“We’ll make arrangements!”

Mr. Lu looked at Mrs. Lu and asked, “There should be time. Didn’t you say that you’ve never gone to Xingzhi’s school or the army? Why don’t we take a look?”

Then, Mr. Lu looked at his brother. “You and Xiaoxiao should go too; the more, the merrier!”

“Go! Let’s go!” Lu Xiaoxiao raised her hands and nodded non-stop. If it were not for the cold weather and shoes on her feet, Lu Xiaoxiao would probably have jumped onto the sofa.

Then, everyone started to talk about their visit to Jindo City. The three men talked about places of interest in Jindo City, and the four women were talking about what to wear.

Mrs. Lu might be old, but she also liked to dress up. When Mrs. Lu, Jiang Yao, Lu Xiaoxiao, and Lu Yuqing talked about that topic, they had more experience and opinions than anyone else. When they learned that they could see snow, even Mrs. Lu was excited.

After Lu Xingzhi brought up the topic, everyone chatted the entire night enthusiastically. By the time Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi went back upstairs, it was already eleven o’clock.

Jiang Yao yawned all the way up the stairs. Since everyone else had gone to their rooms, she leaned onto Lu Xingzhi’s body like a lazy bone and allowed him to carry her up the stairs.

After they returned to her room, Jiang Yao went to the bathroom to take a shower. When she came out, Lu Xingzhi was on the phone with Gu Haoyu. They were talking about the child’s adoption.

After Lu Xingzhi and Gu Haoyu ended the call, Jiang Yao casually asked, “Is Second Brother coming back for the New Year?”

“Yes.”

Lu Xingzhi nodded. "He just found out Eldest Brother and Eldest Sister-in-law are divorced. He was worried about her, so he wanted to come back to visit her."

Gu Haoyu had not planned to return for the New Year. However, he just found out that Luo Ruoran and Liang Yueze were divorced. He was worried about Luo Ruoran after the divorce, so he wanted to see if she was okay.

When they talked about Luo Ruoran and Liang Yueze, Jiang Yao sighed. "I thought that Eldest Brother and Eldest Sister-in-law were doing very well. He even paid attention to her throughout the meal. She only needed to look at the dish, and he would get it for her. She did not need to do anything at all; he was like a competent waiter."

After a pause, Jiang Yao continued to say, "Just like how you treated me."

Jiang Yao had not wanted to praise Lu Xingzhi, but it was the truth. Even though Lu Xingzhi was a man and a soldier who had spent all his time with men, he was as meticulous as dust. Liang Yueze was the same.

Jiang Yao thought Liang Yueze and Luo Ruoran would spend their lives together like her and Lu Xingzhi. She did not expect they would get divorced only after half a year.

Chapter 1079: It's A Daughter

Jiang Yao felt a little emotional and a little regretful. It was a pity that she did not pay attention to the situation with Lu Xingzhi's brothers before her rebirth. She did not know if Liang Yueze and Luo Ruoran, before her rebirth, were also divorced or what kind of life they led after their divorce.

She did not know if Zhou Weiqi managed to woo Zhan Qiuhe in the end or if Chen Xuyao was with Chu Sheng.

She did not know if her rebirth had changed the trajectory of those people's lives or if their fates had stayed the same.

Regardless, Jiang Yao hoped that Lu Xingzhi's brothers could lead a happy life.

Even though Lu Xingzhi did not laugh out loud, he still smiled. It was probably because he felt that those were things that he should do, but those small things moved Jiang Yao. Those small things even touched her deeply.

It was his responsibility to take care of Jiang Yao.

He married Jiang Yao, a delicate woman from the Jiang family. If he could not take care of his wife on behalf of the Jiang family, then it meant he could not keep the oath he made in front of her family.

A man should keep his word. When he said it, he would keep it.

"Second Brother said that he knows an old couple who wants to adopt a son and a daughter. He went to talk to them about the child's situation. If they were willing, he would bring them along when he returned to China,” Lu Xingzhi said. “The couple has stable and good jobs. They have a good income, and they are good people. Since Second Brother said so, he’s usually not wrong. We’ll just have to wait.”

Jiang Yao grunted and said, “The Lu family thought that the mistress is pregnant with a son, but I saw the woman. It’s a daughter!”

Jiang Yao smiled smugly. “When the time comes, we’ll see how they would regret their decision!”

Lu Xingzhi raised his eyebrows. Then, he touched Jiang Yao’s eyes. “Any problem?”

Jiang Yao knew that Lu Xingzhi was not asking if she had seen it wrongly, but he was worried that her eyes were hurt. So, she smiled at Lu Xingzhi. “Don’t worry. It’s fine. There aren’t any side effects.”

As Jiang Yao spoke, she pushed Lu Xingzhi into the bathroom. “It’s getting late. Take a shower and rest early. We agreed we’d go to the county town tomorrow morning to buy something to make a cake. I want to learn how to make a cake!”

After Lu Xingzhi entered the bathroom, Jiang Yao’s backpack in the bedroom rustled as Moe jumped out quietly. First, his body shook as if he had been electrocuted. He shook his disheveled fur until it was even before he jumped onto the bed and stepped on Jiang Yao’s knees. “I just heard your conversation with your man!”

“And?”

Jiang Yao grunted and flipped through the book in her hand. Moe had been in her backpack; unless he were deaf, he would have heard their conversation.

When Moe saw Jiang Yao’s indifferent attitude, he immediately felt bored. Just as he was about to jump off the bed, Jiang Yao reached out and grabbed his tail. He immediately bristled and quickly retracted his tail.

“Don’t touch me!”

Moe took a few steps backward.

Jiang Yao snorted. “Didn’t you used to like it when I touched your butt?”

Moe continued to take a few steps backward until he reached the end of the bed. “Your man doesn’t allow me to get too close to you!”

Jiang Yao was embarrassed; what did Lu Xingzhi say to Moe behind her back?

Chapter 1080: Only Daughters

“By the way, I was just curious to ask, does your future galaxy also favor sons over daughters?” Jiang Yao asked.

Moe nodded silently. “A long time ago, our future galaxy also favored sons over daughters. Later on, the ratio of males to females was very unbalanced. In a city of 1,000 people, only less than 300 of them were females. Many of us lived for more than 100 years but still could not get a wife.”

“You deserve it!”

Jiang Yao thought of people like the Lu family. Fortunately, she was born into the Jiang family and was her parents' and brothers' treasure.

"Later, the medical scientists in our galaxy invented a medicine that made females only give birth to daughters and not sons," Moe said. "After that, the ratio of boys to girls slowly returned to normal."

Jiang Yao was amused. "Is that medicine for men or women?"

"To think that you're a medical student. Do you believe that the medicine is useful for men or women?" Moe rolled his eyes at Jiang Yao.

"Then it's for the men! Whether it's a boy or a girl depends on the man!" Jiang Yao was delighted. "Is there a formula for that medicine in the medical system? How about I make one and give it to Lu Weihua? People like him should have only daughters for the rest of their lives. No matter how many wives they marry, they will always have daughters!"

Moe nodded silently. "That's what I thought too!" Moe also felt that the method was excellent. That was the reason why he wanted to jump out of Jiang Yao's backpack. He knew about the medicine, so he wanted to remind Jiang Yao.

The formula for that medicine was not complicated. Moe did not know why Jiang Yao had not learned it yet. Then, he remembered that as long as Jiang Yao was with her man, she would be with him with all her heart. How would she have time to learn such things?

After he talked to Jiang Yao for a while, Moe pricked his ears and noticed that the person in the bathroom was about to come out. It quickly ran out of the bedroom and went to Lu Yuqing's room.

The second Moe ran out, Lu Xingzhi walked out of the bathroom. He was in a bathrobe, and his hair was still dripped with water.

He had good eyesight. He noticed that Moe was, so he snorted and walked toward Jiang Yao, who was leaning on the bed. He snorted. "Moe ran so fast. It's obvious that he had a guilty conscience. Did you carry him just now?"

Jiang Yao shook her head.

Lu Xingzhi did not believe her. He sat next to Jiang Yao, lowered his head, and kissed her lightly on the lips. Then, he threw the dry towel in his hand to Jiang Yao and ordered, "Help me dry my hair."

Lu Xingzhi rarely ordered Jiang Yao to do anything, but he enjoyed it when Jiang Yao helped him dry his hair. It was not a physical job, nor was it something that required cold water. He felt Jiang Yao's hand gently rubbing his head. He felt her leaned against him obediently. That was happiness that could not be compared to anything else.

Jiang Yao took the towel and glanced at Lu Xingzhi's buzz cut. "Your hair is so short; it'll only take a few rubs."

It was at that moment that Jiang Yao envied a man like Lu Xingzhi. Every time he washed his hair and wiped it, it would dry after a while, unlike her, who had to wait for a long time.

Perhaps he had enjoyed his meal the previous night, Lu Xingzhi did not continue to torment Jiang Yao that night. Instead, he hugged her, kissed her, and did not do anything else.

The two of them hugged each other tightly, and she pressed herself against his chest. The breath that she exhaled on his body brought a tingling sensation.
