

Chapter 1074

The man took another look at Biden Lu.

Nangong Jin had no choice but to have Biden Lu and Gu Si Qian and the three of them released.

Jenny and Mo Caiwei, however, remained firmly in his hands.

He knew how deeply Biden Lu felt for Jenny Jing, and there was no way he would stand by and watch something happen to Jenny Jing.

Therefore, as long as he had a firm grip on Jenny, he wasn't afraid of Biden Lu's deception.

Biden Lu nodded imperceptibly as his men cast a questioning glance at Biden Lu again.

Only then did the other side coldly hand over the box containing the Heavenly Book of Jade.

When he saw that box, Nangong Jin's eyes had lit up.

His entire face revealed a greedy glow as he lifted a hand and brought the box over, opening it, only to see that inside were the three pieces of heavenly jade tablets that Biden Lu had snatched from his hands earlier.

Found it!

Finally!

His Shallow was finally saved, and he had waited all these years for the day when he would be reunited with his Shallow.

Nangong Jin was almost weeping with joy.

He took one look at Biden Lu's group, turned around and ran out when no one was looking.

Gu Siqian was the first to react and took a subconscious step to chase after him.

But he was called by Biden Lu.

"No need to chase!"

Kusken looked back at him puzzled.

Biden Lu looked to his men.

"Is everything loaded?"

The other nodded, "Loaded."

"Follow him and see where he goes."

"Yes."

The hands all left.

Only then did Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao and the others reacted, curiously asking, "What did you arrange?"

Biden Lu smiled slightly, "It's nothing, a little trick, you'll know later."

He didn't elaborate, but Gu Siqian could see that he had already made arrangements, which put his mind at ease.

At that moment, a woman's muffled grunt suddenly came from beside her.

Biden Lu turned back, and his face changed dramatically.

I saw Jenny bent over with her stomach crouched on the ground, while next to her, Mo Caiwei was panicking and helplessly helping her.

"Jenny!"

He shouted and hugged Jenny Jing, who looked at him and hissed, "Biden, my stomach....My stomach hurts."

There was red blood sliding down his thighs.

Biden Lu's eyes straightened as he picked her up and rushed out.

"Arrange a car and go to the hospital!"

The conditions are not good here in the desert, and the nearest hospital to them is just a small health center in this town.

Biden Lu looked at Jenny Jing who was lying on the bed, his eyes fishy red.

"Jenny, hang in there, I'll call Quexu over right away, it'll be fine."

Jenny's death grip on his hand had been so painful that he couldn't speak.

Biden Lu didn't dare to walk away and asked Mo Caiwei to call Quexiu.

It was good that Quexu had learned that Mo Caiwei and Jenny were here and were already on their way over.

It took less than about half an hour to get to the hospital.

"Where are the people?Where are the people?"

On the way over, Quexu knew from the phone that Jenny's condition was serious, so there was some urgency in coming over.

The crowd surrounding the corridor automatically made way, and Biden Lu rushed over and grabbed him.

"People are in the operating room, I don't trust the doctors here, Uncle Que, it's all up to you, you must..."

Quexu waved his hand, "Don't worry, I know."

Afterwards, you just changed and went into the operating room.

Biden Lu looked at the empty hand and was in a trance for a while, before this even followed.

Jenny is now five months pregnant.

Because they are twins, their bellies will be a little bigger than a normal pregnant woman.

Despite the last few days, she had tried to calm herself down and try not to be influenced in a way that would cause anything to happen to the baby.

But some things were still out of her control after all.

So when I saw that the deal was successful and I finally got out of it, it didn't fall apart instead.

The body collapsed, and at the same time, the stomach couldn't support it.

That's the only sign of a slippery tire.

The queue was busy inside for a long time.

He was highly skilled in medicine, which Biden Lu trusted him.

Just thinking that it was Jenny lying there, his heart couldn't help but tug at it.

Jenny, his Jenny.

Something must not happen to it.

There was still so much he hadn't said to her, so much he hadn't explained to her.

He owed her an apology for everything, including this one.

Biden Lu had been holding Jenny Jing's hand tightly beside him.

Mo Caiwei was also worried.

But because she was psychologically fragile and could not withstand a scene that was too exciting, she was left in the

It went outside and didn't go in.

About half an hour later.

Quexu was finally relieved.

"Well, it's okay for now."

At this point, Jenny had already passed out due to being too tired, as well as too weak.

Quexu wiped the sweat from his forehead, looked at Biden Lu who was full of doubts, and raised his hand to signal him to go out and say.

Only then did Biden Lu reluctantly let go of Jenny Jing's hand and followed him out three steps at a time.

"Uncle Que, how is she?"

Once out of the operating room, Biden Lu couldn't wait to ask.

Quexu sighed, "It's nothing serious for now, mother and child are safe, but because of the movement of the fetus, it's best that you all stay in bed for the time being... you can't return home for now."

Biden Lu was relieved at the news.

There's nothing wrong with not being able to return, and there's nothing wrong with needing to continue living in this town.

As long as Jenny was fine, nothing was a problem.

Biden Lu almost cried with joy, and Mo Caiwei was relieved to hear the result.

And Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao, who followed him, saw him and patted him on the shoulder.

"It's good that Jenny is fine, Biden Lu, about Nangong Jin..."

Only then did Biden Lu remember that there was still the unresolved matter over there.

His face sank.

It didn't matter how openly or secretly Nangong Jin fought with him, but once Jenny's safety was at stake, it wouldn't be so easy.

His eyes flashed deep in the depths of his eyes as he said in a deep voice, "I'll take care of this, you don't have to worry."

At the same time, take a look at Georgie.

"Rather, there is one thing I would like to ask you."

They were both stunned.

Their intuition told them that what Biden Lu was asking might not be a good thing.

But at this point, there's no turning back.

So they both nodded.

"You ask."

Biden Lu asked, "If Nangong Jin dies and the money strain isn't found, will you blame me?"

The two men were startled.

That question never crossed their minds.

The money strains are not just about Bella Qiao's life, but also the lives of everyone in the Nan Clan, and Biden Lu is actually going to put everyone's lives at risk?

The silence of the two men gave Biden Lu the answer.

"To tell you the truth, I put a locator and a miniature bomb that can be remotely controlled on his heavenly jade book."

Chapter 1075

The two of them shook hard!

Mini-bombs?

This....

But when you think about it, it's not impossible.

They didn't know Nangong Jin well enough before, so they didn't know his weaknesses.

But after such a long period of confrontation, it was becoming clear.

Because he was a man who came over a thousand years ago, he had great pride and conceit in his bones.

I always felt like I knew more and was more powerful than others.

He also did possess a great deal of talent and was very proficient in the area of ancient studies and martial arts.

But in terms of modern technology, it's the short end of the stick.

Wasn't the previous example of Gu Si Qian using the box containing the Book of Heaven jade to give him a locator on top of the box containing the Book of Heaven jade?

Now, with Biden Lu's tactics, it was only possible to do it more harshly than he did, not less.

Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao's hearts settled down slightly.

But thinking of the question that Biden Lu had just asked, they were silent again.

In the end, it was Bella Qiao who took the lead.

"We won't begrudge you, life and death have a destiny, Nangong Jin may not truly help us even if he lives, in the end we still need to find a way to solve this problem ourselves.

Besides, if he really let him gather twelve pieces of heavenly jades and successfully open the ship, thus triggering a nuclear explosion, then it won't just be us who will die, there could be thousands, hundreds of millions of people affected by this disaster, we can't see him do that."

Kuskan nodded as well.

"Joe's right, we'll figure this out on our own, Nangongjin must die."

Biden Lu looked at them, and it would be a lie to say that his heart wasn't vibrating.

He raised a hand and patted both of them on the shoulder.

"Don't you worry, I've already asked Uncle Que to work on an antidote for this disease before, we have the money strain in hand, Bella Qiao's life is at least safe for the time being, as long as the antidote is developed, it won't be difficult to unravel this disease."

They both nodded.

Now that we've made a deal, we don't dwell on the subject.

Biden Lu had instructed people to go down and keep a deadly eye on Nangong Jin, wait until the right time and place, and immediately detonate the bomb.

He did a very clever job with the bomb this time.

No one could have imagined that the heavenly book of jade, which had been fought over by the outside world and was worth a fortune, would be cut open by him using high-tech cutting technology and an explosive chip placed inside each piece.

As soon as it gets to that point in time, this side will press the switch and that side will explode immediately.

The micronucleus element contained in it would not affect the surrounding area too much, but it would certainly cause instant death to the person holding it.

That's why Biden Lu didn't press the switch right away, but had someone track it and find the right moment.

After all, nuclear is still too powerful of a thing.

He didn't want to hurt the innocents, so he would only set off the jades unless he was alone with Nangong Jin.

And he firmly believed that Nangong Jin had managed to get his hands on the heavenly book of jade, and would definitely not feel comfortable handing them over to someone else, and must be carrying them with him, so he would just have to catch him on his own next.

After Biden Lu gave the order, Gu Si Qian and Bella Qiao saw that it was fine for them to be here, so they took the initiative to help.

Biden Lu returned to the hospital room.

At this time, Jenny had yet to wake up.

Quexu went down to rest, and Mo Caiwei guarded her bedside.

Seeing Biden Lu come in, Mo Cai Wei rubbed her reddened eyes and barely smiled, "You're here, you stay with her, I'm going out first."

Biden Lu nodded and said sincerely, "Thank you, Mom."

Mo Caiwei waved her hand, didn't say anything, and turned around to go out.

Biden Lu sat down in front of the hospital bed.

The only thing I saw was the woman lying on the bed, pale as a sheet, with a slight bulge in her stomach under the blanket, and that was their child.

Biden Lu raised his hand, his palm gently covering her small stomach.

Just then, the woman on the bed suddenly hummed softly.

He shuddered and got up in a hurry, and he saw Jenny open his eyes slightly, looking at him weakly.

"Jenny, are you awake?"

Almost overjoyed, he gripped her hand tightly and asked with concern, "Is there anything wrong? I'll go and call Uncle Que over right away."

About to leave, Jenny's hand pulled him in with a slight force.

"No, Biden..."

Biden Lu even stopped and looked back at her nervously.

"What's wrong?"

Jenny asked, "Where is Nangong Jin? How's he doing?"

Biden Lu stiffened.

He indeed didn't expect that the first thing Jenny would ask when he woke up would be Nangong Jin.

Biden Lu didn't want to hide her anymore, so he told Jenny Jing all about his plans and arrangements.

Jenny sighed in silence for a moment after listening.

Once when true love stood in front of you, you didn’t know how to cherish it, but when it passed away, you kept holding on to that little bit of attachment and hope and refused to let go.

From then on, following her footsteps, stepping through time and a thousand hills, striving for a thousand years, only to wait for the day of her resurrection.

However, he may never know that the so-called Book of Heaven and Jade is just a hoax.

It simply cannot be resurrected, and not only that, it will plunge many more people into disaster.

Rather than being a bad person, Nangong Jin is more of a crazy person who is caught up in a relationship that is nearly insane.

Biden Lu didn’t say anything, Jenny Jing suddenly frowned and raised her hand to cover her stomach.

Biden Lu immediately became nervous and concerned again, “Jenny, what’s wrong? Is it an upset stomach?”

Jenny shook his head.

She suddenly revealed an easy smile and turned to look at Biden Lu.

“I think I just felt a fetal movement.”

Biden Lu was stunned.

He wasn’t a first time dad, so of course he knew what a fetal movement was.

That means, the baby is healthy, the baby is fine!

Biden Lu was also very happy, he held Jenny Jing's hand tightly and sincerely said, "Jenny, when you get better, I'll tell you all the things that have happened over the years as they are, no more hiding anything, okay?"

Jenny looked at him deeply.

At the very beginning when she first learned the truth, she actually had a grudge against Biden Lu.

But think of his dedication, his seriousness, his heartache and difficulty.

Those grievances don't seem to matter as much.

Jenny smiled palely.

"Good."

"I'm waiting for the day when you tell me all the truth."

The news that Jenny had woken up quickly made everyone aware of it.

Quexu still came over to give her a checkup and made sure she was okay for now, but she would have to stay in bed for the time being until the fetus became stable.

That's fine, but in any case, Jenny and the child are most important.

So, Biden Lu stayed here with her, almost to the inch.

And as for Nangong Jin's side of things, he had already handed the matter over to Gu Si Qian and Bella Qiao.

Chapter 1076

Having been through so much together, Biden Lu no longer needed to doubt their character and loyalty though.

With the lives of so many people at stake, I'm sure they know the seriousness of the situation and won't mess around.

Besides, there's still Mo Nan there to help, so there shouldn't be any problems.

Biden Lu would be relieved to be here with Jenny Jing.

The news of Nangong Jin's death came on the third night.

They use a locator tracker to determine that Nangongjin is back on an island and that he's the only one around.

So the switch was pressed and the bomb was detonated.

The explosion didn't cause much of a stir, it was an island after all and the land was very careful about the amount of bombs in the first place.

As a result, it didn't even cause much damage to the island other than my own death.

Gu Si Qian and Bella Qiao boarded the island with Organization X and found Nangong Jin's blown up body.

No one could have imagined that an old monster that had lived for thousands of years would end up dying in silence on this deserted island that no one knew about in such a way.

The next day, Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao returned.

When asked about Biden Lu, what he plans to do with Nangong Jin's body.

Biden Lu was silent and said in a deep voice, "Let's bury him and Shallow's corpse together."

Nangong Jin has harmed many people and done many bad things in his life.

But in the end, it's all just about an obsessive dream.

Since he can't live to fulfill his dream, let him die to fulfill it.

Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao were both a little silent, but in the end, they let someone go down to do it.

After half a month, Jenny's body had finally recovered a lot.

The conditions in this small town in the desert were so bad that no one wanted to stay here any longer, so after some deliberation, it was decided to go back to the castle in Quexu first, and when Jenny's health was better again, he would take a plane back to China.

The day after returning to the castle, Jenny Jing and Biden Lu and the others went to Nangong Jin's tomb.

Since it was in this desert that Nangong Jin and Shallow met, their tomb ended up being located in the desert as well.

There are no tombstones, just a small dune, which Quexu says is the more commonplace burial method on this side of the world.

The desert and hot weather will evaporate all the moisture from a person and they will most likely end up as a dry corpse that will be preserved for a long time.

Jenny had a bad chill at the thought of that scene.

Biden Lu was afraid of scaring her, and even told Quexiu to stop talking about it.

Quexu also found that he had scared Jenny and smiled apologetically.

"Jenny, don't be afraid, a dry corpse is just as scary as it sounds, it's actually just like the mummies you see on TV, there's nothing to be afraid of."

Jenny: "....."

Mo Caiwei twisted his waist and glared at him.

"I told you to stop talking and you did."

Quexu scratched his head in wonder.

He's just doing his normal science thing. What's up?

The group returned to the castle in the evening.

Quexu's medical skills were astonishing, and Jenny's body was now fine under his conditioning.

Biden Lu decided to bring Jenny Jing back to China tomorrow.

Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao were also leaving, and there were still many things waiting for him in Lin City.

Before, it was because Bella Qiao's body was the most important thing, so I put all those things aside, but now that Nangong Jin was dead, there was no hope for this matter, so it was better to go back early.

After all, life goes on.

Biden Lu said in a deep voice, "My people found some fruits of the money strain on the island where Nangong Jin lives, I'll have them sent to Lin City for you then, it should last quite a bit of time, as for the rest of the story."

He turned his head to look at Quexu with a sincere gaze, "Uncle Quexu, it's up to you."

Quexu waved his hand without a care in the world.

"Don't worry! Even if this didn't happen to Miss Qiao, as long as the lives of so many people are involved, I won't let it go, I'll do my best to research a cure for this disease, and although I don't dare to guarantee 100% that I'll be able to research it, I won't give up as long as I live."

His words shook Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao very much.

Gu Si Qian solemnly said, "Mr. Que's high righteousness, great kindness, I won't say anything unnecessary, but in the future, whenever there is anything you need, feel free to speak frankly, I will die."

Quexu smiled and said, "Good, Mr. Gu, I'll take note of that."

That's when Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao left.

After sending off Gu Si Qian and Bella Qiao, since Biden Lu and Jenny Jing would also be leaving tomorrow, Mo Caiwei decided to prepare a family dinner for them tonight to celebrate.

Jenny Jing was also happy to know that, so he helped Mo Caiwei with the arrangements.

Mo Caiwei worries that she is overworked and moving the baby, and doesn't allow her to help too much.

Instead, she had a chair brought around so she could sit and talk with herself.

Mo Caiwei is a very good cook, and since it's a family dinner, it's natural to cook your own food and eat at home.

Jenny had grown up eating Mo Caiwei's cooking, and had always liked and missed her cooking.

During this time, she was actually very happy to enjoy Mo Caiwei's care over here.

Mo Caiwei was also happy to spoil her.

After all, Mo Caiwei had no children of her own, and although Jenny was not her biological child, she had raised him.

In her heart, Jenny was her true and genuine child.

The evening party was very lively.

Quexu took out his own collection of good old wine, Jenny was pregnant and couldn't drink, and Mo Caiwei was not a good drinker, so it was just Quexu and Biden Lu who drank.

The dining table is set up on the large terrace on the top floor, where the family enjoys a drink and a chat while enjoying the night breeze.

Jenny's phone suddenly rang.

She pulled it out and saw that it was Ann on the phone.

With all the recent events on this side, Jenny and Biden Lu didn't trust him and Little Jingze to stay here, so they had already sent someone ahead of time to send them both back to China.

The old lady and the old man had about sensed that something had happened here, but it was a matter of Organization X, so they couldn't ask too many questions.

I had only asked a few questions about Jenny's health before, and was relieved to know that it was nothing serious.

Jenny answered the video call, and immediately the opposite side revealed An's delicate little face, excitedly shouting at her, "Mummy."

Jenny smiled, "What are you doing?"

Ann showed her pointy little tiger teeth.

"I'm reading comics with my brother, Mommy, when are you and Daddy coming home?"

At this time, Biden Lu also heard the movement here and put his face over.

His gaze softened a bit when he saw the two little buns across the room.

"What time is it? Why aren't you sleeping?"

Jenny angered him.

"What time is it, jet lag, it's still daytime in the country."

Biden Lu drank a lot of wine, and his consciousness was a little confused, which is why he remembered the time difference between the two sides.
