

Chapter 1075

"Jarod! You D*mn thing! My daughter is already pregnant with Arron's child, but you still want your daughter to pretend to be my daughter to recognize Arron! Jarod, do you have any support? "

"You should have died ten thousand times!"

"Not only do you not tell my daughter, the father of the child in her belly is still alive, right next to her, you still do everything possible to chase her down over and over again! A father like you, if dead, will be taken away by a wolf, you are going to die No corpse!"

Jarod was scolded like this, annoyed and anxious in his heart.

He wanted to take advantage of the chaos to escape.

However, at this time, more and more people were watching, and he could not escape at all.

He could only let the tramp in front of him cry and scold him.

Seeing her mother hoarse accusing Jarod, Suzi wanted to comfort her mother.

She and her mother have not seen each other for nine years.

The mother is in rags, she wants to take her to take a bath first, and let her take a rest.

Suzi yelled distressedly: "Mom, let's go home first, you need to rest, your voice needs to be seen..."

"I want to say!" The mother did not move.

She looked at everyone present, and glanced at the tearful old man Shu by the way.

"Do you know how mum's voice is?"

Suzi: "..."

"I was dumb by myself!" Mother said bitterly: "Otherwise, I can't escape from the Lin family!"

Suzi was startled: "Mom, you...Lin Family, Jarod really imprisoned you?"

Mother gritted her teeth and said, "Of course!"

"Back then, when the mine collapsed, Jarod went to the mine to find my corpse the first time. He must see the corpse to finally feel relieved. As a result, he searched for days and nights and didn't find my corpse. He always suspected. I'm not dead."

"I'm really not dead."

"Because on the day of the collapse, I happened to have diarrhea and diarrhea all day. I didn't go to work that day, I went to see a doctor."

"When I come back from the hospital, it is in ruins."

"I don't have a salary, I'm homeless, I can only beg for food along the street."

"Then one day, when I was begging for food, I discovered that Jarod's people were spending money to look for me everywhere. I hid at first, but later, when I couldn't hide, I was secretly arrested by Jarod's people. "

"At that time, I didn't know that Suzi you were used by him. Not only did you become pregnant, but he also wanted Lanita to replace you. It was after they captured me and imprisoned me that they took care of you. Ten, I told my mother in great detail."

"Mom almost fainted from crying."

"Why does my daughter have such a hard life? She has such a real father?"

"At that time, you lived well in front of the Fourth Young Master Fu. They were jealous. They wanted their daughter Lanita to marry Young Master Fu Fourth, so it was like when it was critical that you used me to threaten you and make you annoyed. , Forcing you to give way to Lanita."

"Mom..." Suzi cried sobbing: "Mom, you... It turns out that you are really in Nancheng, at Lin's house, but I didn't even know, mother... My daughter is too D*mn. I have been to the Lin family two or three times at that time, and I didn't even know that you were suffering?"

Seeing her daughter crying like this, the tramp woman laughed. She raised her dirty hand and wiped Suzi's face: "It's okay, my dear daughter. Being discriminated against, my mother can eat all the hardships."

"Mom knows they are going to threaten you, so Mom definitely can't stay at Lin's house."

"In order to escape, my mother..."

"Mom...Is that you?" A mellow male voice suddenly came after the female tramp was halfway talking.

Chapter 1076

Hearing this 'Mom', the female tramp was suddenly startled.

Then, she looked back.

Suzi also turned around.

Only then did I see that on the other end of the crowd stood his own man, Arron.

Arron was in suit and leather shoes with a solemn expression. At this moment, he was bowing slightly.

"Arron..." Suzi shouted.

Behind Arron, there were several people who didn't know him.

Those people are young and old, and some seem to work as little ones. Some seem to want to beat the workers again.

No one knows why Arron suddenly brought so many strangers.

Arron walked through the crowd and came to the front of Suzi and the tramp, and bowed deeply: "Mom..."

The female tramp was sobbing sobbing, she hoarsely shouted: "You...are you willing to recognize me?"

"You are my wife's mother. If I don't recognize you, my wife will let me kneel on the washboard." Arron said seriously.

The tramp suddenly laughed: "..."

Then, she said: "You are the young president of the Fu Group. You are the man who fears everybody, I..."

Arron said warmly: "I still have an identity."

Female tramp: "?"

"I am Suzi's husband. Although I manage a huge group company, at home, Suzi is my leader, a lifelong leader. Therefore, everyone is afraid of me, but I am afraid of Suzi."

After a few words, all the women present were extremely envious.

Suzi looked at Arron gratefully.

Arron scanned for a week.

At this time, the old man Shu was crying.

At this time, Jarod was shocked and shrank into a lump.

He curled up there like a mouse.

However, Arron did not intend to let Jarod go.

He turned his head and spoke to Suzi's mother gently and said, "Mom, we all have a general understanding of the matter between you and the Lin family and your identity. Now we must first solve the problem of Suzi's innocence."

Suzi's mother nodded immediately: "Fu...Master Fu..."

"Mom, my name is Arron, and you call me Arron." Arron said again.

"Arron..." Mother Shen cried and laughed: "Mom listens to you."

Arron looked at Christopher again, and ordered in an ordinary indifferent voice: "Christopher, help Mr. Jarod up, I have something to tell him face-to-face!"

"It's the Fourth Master!" Christopher immediately came to Jarod, and gathered Jarod who was curled up together.

Jarod looked pale.

Sweaty.

Even if Arron didn't say anything yet, Jarod was already scared of half his life.

"Jarod!" Arron shouted: "Look up and see who this is."

Jarod did not dare to look up.

"Look up!" Doctor Arron sternly scolded.

Jarod immediately raised his head.

A row of people in front.

Some of them are familiar with each other, and some of them don't even know each other.
