

Chapter 1079

However,

With these words, Arron said nothing about the Shu family.

The female tramp nodded solemnly when she heard about Suzi's unjust imprisonment, and when she heard about Suzi and Shen's unique identity.

Nodded, she looked at Elder Shu and Darius again: "But, I and them... really have nothing to do with them, please stop disturbing my daughter's life, otherwise, even if I bite, I'll kill myself. Shu family."

"Sister-in-law..." Darius cried suddenly.

A man in his thirties with a gentle and elegant suit and leather shoes. At this moment, crying is extremely pitiful.

"Auntie, I recognize you. You have appeared just now, and I recognize you. Although your face is covered by hair, your eyes are so much like Suzi?"

"Auntie, when I first met Suzi six years ago, I said, Suzi is like my little aunt."

Darius looked at Mother Shen with a pleading expression.

At this moment, Elder Shu also gaped: "..."

However, Mother Shen's expression did not show any waves: "I'm sorry, please stop pestering me and my daughter's life, okay? Your family lost a loved one, I deeply regret."

"But, isn't someone already confessing to you?"

"Don't the Lin family of three have known you for six or seven years? Since someone has already recognized their relatives, why are they still dissatisfied?"

"How can it be the same! That's wrong, aunt!" Darius looked at aunt with heartbreak.

You know, the Shu family has exhausted its human and financial resources over the years, just to find the sister-in-law.

After searching for decades, I finally found it, but my sister-in-law didn't want to recognize each other.

Who can stand this again?

The voice of the tramp became more and more hoarse: "What's the difference? You lost a relative, didn't you?"

Darius nodded: "My dearest family!"

"Since you are so close, why does your little aunt run away from home?"

Darius: "..."

He looked at Grandpa.

Elder Shu bowed his head and sighed.

At this moment, he had no face to see the female tramp.

"An eighteen-year-old girl is willing to drift away, she prefers to live in the sewer, and she does not want to go home again. That means that her family has no affection for her."

"And after she was lost, the reason why you looked for her again and again was just to give your own guilty soul and find a little comfort."

"Since the Lin Family, Lanita has given you enough comfort, what else do you need?"

Darius + Father Shu: "..."

Although the female tramp is wearing extremely rags and her face is extremely dirty, she speaks logically and is very calm.

At this moment, Arron discovered that Suzi and her mother were really alike.

Not only looks, but also personality.

Suzi is also a very calm woman with clear logic.

Seeing Elder Shu and Darius who looked helplessly pleading, Arron shook his head gently to them.

That means, don't irritate her.

Then he said to the tramp: "Okay mom, we won't let them follow."

The female tramp nodded. She followed Suzi and Arron in the Christopher car and went straight to the nearest hotel.

As the car walked away, the old man Shu behind him suddenly raised the sky and shouted, "My daughter..."

Chapter 1080

Darius stepped forward and held his father Shu: "Grandpa, are you okay with Grandpa?"

Elder Shu's eyes were dim, and his tears burst into tears: "She... is she really your little aunt?"

Darius: "Grandpa, it should be true!"

"She's still alive?" Elder Shu asked again.

Darius nodded firmly again: "The Lin family lied to you!"

Elder Shu: "..."

Darius continued: "The news that my parents inquired about is true. My aunt married Jarod soon after she ran away from home. However, my aunt didn't bleed heavily after giving birth to Lanita as Jarod said. Dead, my sister-in-law divorced Jarod."

Elder Shu: "Then...then you don't have to chase after..."

"Do you chase my sister-in-law?" Darius asked knowingly.

"Chasing!"

Both grandpa and grandson got in the car immediately.

As soon as the car door was managed, Darius came down again.

He came to the car that escorted Jarod and said to the escorts: "Excuse me, please take him away later. The matter between him and my sister-in-law has not been completely resolved. After you say it, you take him away."

The escort also meant the same.

Things always have to be resolved.

They followed Darius's car and chased Arron's car.

Arron and Suzi took Shen Mu to the nearest hotel.

Mother Shen's clothes were really blinking. The receptionist at the hotel saw Mother Shen as he was about to drive her out, but saw Suzi and Arron holding such a ragged middle-aged and old person on his left and right. No longer said anything.

"Thank you to open the best room and find two more waiters." Suzi said.

"Good Mrs. Fu!" the waiter answered.

After the room was opened, Suzi comforted mother Shen gently: "Mom, there are many things that need to be resolved. Now you have a girl to support you. Mom, you don't plan to recognize Shu's family in this life. I have never recognized it, even if I die I will recognize the Shu family."

"But Mom, when it's time to raise my eyes, I don't have to raise my eyes!"

"Someone owes us, we must return it!"

"Since you entered, you have had relatives, daughters, son-in-laws, and granddaughters in this South City!"

"And your mother, my grandma, we also have to pile up her old man's grave, and go to the grave every New Year's Day. Some people look down on my grandma, but we can't help but give her old man's grave. You're right. Is it mother?"

Mother Shen nodded immediately: "My daughter is right, I want to live upright in the sun!"

Suzi nodded: "Go, mother, come out in Shen's beautiful clothes."

"Okay." The mother entered.

Two waitresses help and serve this.

Suzi and Arron were waiting in the hall.

Looking up at her man, she gratefully asked, "Arron, Dad... how is it?"

Arron's tone was slightly cold: "He's all right!"

Suzi: "Dad he...pretends...?"

Arron nodded.

Suzi: "..."

"From the moment he entered the house, I knew the purpose of his coming to our house. He fainted and he vomited blood. All of them were expected, but I had to follow the acting. When I was sent to the hospital for rescue, I called to arrange Everything is done."

Suzi: "Arron, when did you...when did you find the evidence nine years ago? How difficult is that after so many years?"

Arron held Suzi in his arms: "I know Elder Shu far more than you do. Since he is determined to save Lanita's life, he must have a plan."

Suzi smiled sadly: "He is really deep in the city. If you didn't show up in time today, or my mother showed up in time, I'm afraid..."

"When his first plan came out, I expected that he was definitely screaming. His ultimate goal is to be able to get your things practically."
