

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 111

Zoey Gu instantly heard the other's voice, and her face sank.

"Anna Yun?"

Anna Yun over there immediately responded with a few sneers, and said without concealment.

"You know, Zoey Gu? Even if you don't escape the marriage today, it is impossible for Liam Lu to complete the wedding properly. Because I prepared a great gift for your wedding, and you suddenly wanted to understand it."

Zoey Gu's face was pale, and people were running under the rain curtain, all wet.

She gritted her teeth and replied coldly.

"Even if it was not me who became Mrs. Lu in the end, it could not be you. Marry a feminine woman like you, unless he is blinded by Liam Lu!"

"Zoey!"

There hasn't been a word for a long time, only the gasp of Anna Yun gritted her teeth, which is amplified inch by inch.

For a moment, she suddenly sneered.

"Anyway, everything is over. What if I let you go again? Zoey Gu, the best way to leave Liam Lu's side is to die forever!"

beep...

The phone was quickly hung up!

Zoey Gu hadn't realized what Anna Yun meant in her words, and suddenly there was a harsh car horn on his side.

Didi!

The next second, a car that had been dormant in the dark for a long time, suddenly drove at full power, and rushed towards her like crazy...

Everything came hurriedly and quickly, and there was no time to react.

Zoey Gu's eyes widened suddenly, and she stood in a daze, the phone "slapped" into the rain.

Liam Lu sat in the living room all night, and the ashtray in front of him was full of ash.

Just after dawn, there was the sound of a car engine in the courtyard.

Shiyue strode from outside with a calm face, and hurriedly reached Liam Lu, but slowed down abruptly.

"Liam..."

Liam Lu raised his head when he heard the sound, and his red eyes looked straight at Shiyue, and asked coldly.

"What about people?"

Shiyue pursed his lips, lowered his head suddenly, and said nothing.

Having known each other for many years, Liam Lu knew better than anyone what Shiyue's silence meant.

The next second, he abruptly stood up from the sofa, staring at Shiyue, and asked tensely.

"I asked you what's wrong?!"

Shiyue raised his hand and passed a photo in his hand, speaking in a very low voice.

"Miss Gu has an accident."

"She ran out of the church and wanted to leave Berven City, but she had an accident on the way. The road was slippery on rainy days and the car was in bad condition. A large truck and several private cars crashed into a ball, and Miss Gu was crushed underneath."

She was covered in blood and blood.

Shiyue didn't dare to say that, and said with some difficulty after a sigh of relief.

"When she was carried out, she was already..."

Shiyue didn't finish speaking, and suddenly felt a cold wind hit him, and he received a hard punch on the nose.

Bang!

Liam Lu shook his fist as if he was mad, the veins on that iron-green face throbbed, and the bloodthirsty eyes flashed with uncontrollable crazy emotions.

He grabbed Shiyue's collar and gritted his teeth, his face almost distorted by the news he brought.

“Shiyue, take back this sentence, get out of me and check again! What I want is a living Zoey Gu, not such fake news that makes me appetite!”
