

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 113

The moment Anna Yun turned his head to see Liam Lu, his expression changed, and he opened his hands and hugged her.

“Knowing the first time Zoey Gu had an accident, I rushed over. No one would want something like this happened, so don’t be sad. Liam...”

Liam Lu didn’t move, he just lowered his eyes to look at her and let her hold him.

Aware that the man hadn’t pushed her away, Anna Yun was secretly happy, and when she raised her head to look at Liam Lu, his eyes were suddenly red.

She raised her hand tremblingly and touched Liam Lu’s face, her eyes filled with distress.

“Liam, I know that this period is difficult. But I will definitely walk with you. Even without Zoey Gu, you are still the pride of the Lu family. You are Alina Yin’s father, my favorite man.”

“Liam, I still love you. I could walk with you for five years before, but now I still...”

Liam Lu narrowed his eyes, looked at Anna Yun’s exaggerated face, and suddenly opened his mouth coldly.

“You didn’t come because you cared about me. It’s because you think that Zoey Gu is dead, and Mrs. Lu’s position is still yours. Right?”

Anna Yun was taken aback, his face turned pale.

She didn’t expect that Liam Lu would tear her through so ruthlessly.

“No! Liam, I am...”

Before she could finish speaking, Liam Lu suddenly laughed, raised his hand and slowly took off her hand, watching her slowly and said.

“Anna Yun, you should have given up your heart long ago!”

Anna Yun left in tears.

No one knows what Liam Lu's feelings are for Zoey Gu, but almost everyone believes that Liam Lu is a proper heartbreaker for Anna Yun, who is so sad.

Even the nanny in the return garden sympathized with Anna Yun, and calmly comforted her out of the return garden.

Liam Lu held himself on the carved railing on the second floor, squinting his eyes as he watched Anna Yun's car leave and return to the garden, his eyes became more cold.

Shiyue stared at Liam Lu's face for a long while before asking cautiously.

"Liam, you... come out?"

Upon hearing this, Liam Lu frowned and glanced at him coldly.

Finally, he handed Shiyue a piece of paper with the phone number handwritten on it, and Shen Shen ordered.

"Check where this number belongs and all recent call records. You can do it yourself."

"Also, check the latest developments of the Qingcheng Yun family."

Hearing what Liam Lu said, Shiyue's eyes widened suddenly, and he asked in shock.

"Liam, do you suspect Anna Yun's family? Suspect that they treat Miss Gu..."

Hearing this, Liam Lu's eyes suddenly flashed with a hint of bloodthirsty, Shen Shen said.

"I found an unfamiliar call log in Zoey's mobile phone. It was not at Berven City. At first, I didn't suspect anything. But Anna Yun suddenly appeared in Guiyuan and reminded me."

The head hurts.

The limbs hurt more.

I couldn't see my fingers in front of me, and it was pitch black. The air was filled with a damp and rotten smell, and the sound of water "ticking, ticking" hit the ground.

Zoey Gu struggled to wake up. For a while, she couldn't tell whether she was hell or the world.

Is she dead or alive?
