

Chapter 1131: Something Terrible Has Happened

They were extremely fast. When Jiang Yao snapped back to her senses, she had already been dragged into the car. She did not even have time to shout. When she saw her family in the waiting hall, she was also worried for their safety.

It was not a problem for her to escape alone. However, Lu Xiaoxiao was also dragged into the car with her. Jiang Yao detected a whiff of ether on the towel. With such a high concentration, it should not take more than a few seconds for her to fall into unconsciousness. However, Jiang Yao did not seem to feel any discomfort, but Lu Xiaoxiao was already unconscious.

Jiang Yao thought about it for a few seconds and decided to pretend to be unconscious. Then, she allowed them to drag her into the car and throw her into the back seat. Then, they covered her eyes and mouth with a cloth.

It only took about five to six seconds from the time Jiang Yao and Lu Xiaoxiao were dragged into the car until it drove away. It happened so quickly that even the people around them could not react in time.

Jiang Yao sat in the back seat of the car. The piece of cloth in front of her did not bother her. Those people threw her and Lu Xiaoxiao into the back row and knocked her down. As the car sped away, Moe jumped out of Jiang Yao's pocket and poked her with his claws as if to see if Jiang Yao had fainted.

When he noticed Jiang Yao's finger moving in response, he stretched his claws and cut the rope around Jiang Yao's wrists. Then he quietly took the phone from Jiang Yao's pocket and stuffed it into Jiang Yao's hand.

Despite the fact that a cloth covered Jiang Yao's eyes, she could still see the entire situation in the car. Six strong men were in the car with them. It was a seven-seater van, and she and Lu Xiaoxiao were in the last row, so it was very crowded, especially with the six men in the first two rows.

Jiang Yao looked out the window at the scenery. She could see the license plate of a car in the rearview mirror. Then she sent a text message to Lu Xingzhi.

Fortunately, she frequently texted Lu Xingzhi while she was at school. So, even if she did not look down at her phone, she could type out the words she wanted to type and send the text message to Lu Xingzhi's phone.

Moe returned Jiang Yao's phone to her pocket after he noticed that she had sent the text message. Then he went into Jiang Yao's hat because he was afraid that the men would search her body and take her phone away when they arrived at their destination. If he were still hiding in her pocket, then they would discover him too.

Besides, the two families were still waiting for Jiang Yao and Lu Xiaoxiao to come back even though they were about to leave the station. Jiang Lei muttered to himself, "Lu Xiaoxiao must have seen something interesting and dragged Yaoyao along to join in the fun. Otherwise, Yaoyao wouldn't be someone who doesn't understand the concept of time."

Since Lu Xiaoxiao's father was also there, Jiang Lei mumbled to Jiang Jie and Wang Xian. Then, he said to the older members, "I'll go look for the two of them." Then, he ran out.

It would have been better if he did not ask around, but Jiang Lei was scared out of his wits once he did. He was so scared that he ran back to the waiting hall and shouted, "Dad! Mom! Something terrible has happened! The people said they saw a few men dragging Yaoyao and Lu Xiaoxiao into a van and left! They've been gone for a few minutes already!"

"What?" Mrs. Lu and Mrs. Jiang almost fainted when they heard that. "What do you mean dragging them into a van and leaving?"

Chapter 1132: What Was It For?

"Does that mean someone kidnapped Yaoyao and Lu Xiaoxiao?" Mr. Lu quickly held his wife and asked to confirm.

"Yes! That's what the people outside said. They saw it with their own eyes. They've been gone for a few minutes! Someone has already called the police." Jiang Lei was anxious. "How can they be kidnapped in broad daylight? Why is the north so chaotic?"

The two families were in a panic, and Lu Xingzhi was so anxious that he could not sit still after receiving the text.

He immediately asked for leave to go to Jin City, but because he had taken a leave of absence the previous year and was on duty then, he had to ask for leave at the last minute. The military leaders always had to ask about it. When they heard that his wife and cousin had been kidnapped at the Jin City bus station, the military immediately paid attention to it. They sent people with Lu Xingzhi to contact the police station in Jin City.

Jiang Yao's text message would come every few minutes; they told him which intersection the car had passed and which direction to go. Lu Xingzhi was afraid that Jiang Yao would be discovered, so he did not dare reply to her text messages. However, when he arrived at the police station in Jin City, Jiang Yao had not sent him a message for more than half an hour.

When Lu Xingzhi arrived at the police station, the Lu and Jiang families were already there. They were frantic. Mrs. Lu and Mrs. Jiang were sitting on the chairs and wiping their tears. The men were frowning in worry.

When he saw Lu Xingzhi, Mr. Lu asked, "Is that kidnapping for you or money?"

If it were for money, then everything would be fine. However, if it were for Lu Xingzhi, then it would be difficult.

Mr. Lu knew that as a soldier, Lu Xingzhi's identity had many unstable factors. The more meritorious deeds Lu Xingzhi did, the more enemies he would make.

"I don't know yet, but Yaoyao texted me a few minutes ago." Lu Xingzhi laid the map on the table. "According to Yaoyao's texts, the locations she mentioned were at the city center. The car circled the city center several times and went to different roads. Apparently, those people were very vigilant to see if anyone was following them. After circling for more than half an hour, they finally left Bright Peace Road, passed the Bright Peace Bridge, and headed north on Autumn Stone Road. Yaoyao had not sent a text in half an hour, so her phone must have been taken away. Therefore, according to the time of the last text, the kidnapper's last stop was probably at Autumn Stone Road, the Autumn Dew Villa area in the north of the city!"

Lu Xingzhi tapped on the map with his finger. "Walk from Autumn Stone Avenue to the north of the city. Other than Autumn Dew Villa, a few factory districts and a few villages are within half an hour away. However, according to the information we got, the van is 90% new. The people who got out of the van also look like well-trained people. Therefore, we can eliminate the villages. We need to place most of our manpower and police force in Autumn Dew Villa and a few factories."

Lu Xingzhi had set off from the army and had been searching for that information along the way. Fortunately, that information was not difficult to find, and Jiang Yao had already sent him the license plate number. When he reached the vicinity of Autumn Stone Avenue, he only needed to ask the people nearby to confirm whether the car had gone to the factory or Autumn Stone Villa.

Lu Xingzhi was extremely vexed. If he had known that would happen, he would have asked for leave and personally accompanied Jiang Yao and the others to Jindo City even if he had to strike his superiors' table.

Chapter 1133: You're Already Awake

Perhaps he should have asked his fourth and fifth brothers, and Ah Lu and Big Ke to bring them from Jin City to Jindo City.

He relaxed his guard for a moment, and he did not expect someone would do that.

Lu Xingzhi's stare was unnervingly cold. If they dared to kidnap his wife and cousin, they had to be prepared for his lightning-fast retaliation.

He had arranged for his family to be sent back to the army to await news. It was dangerous outside, and only the army was safe for them.

Lu Xingzhi was not sure if the people who kidnapped Jiang Yao and Lu Xiaoxiao were after him or Jiang Yao, the Divine Doctor's student.

Jiang Yao was a little uneasy lying in the car for nearly an hour as she pretended to be unconscious. Fortunately, she and Lu Xiaoxiao were carried out of the car after the vehicle came to a complete stop.

Jiang Yao did not know much about Jin City, but she was aware of the city's development on the north side.

The city's north side used to be an impoverished rural area. It gradually developed as a result of the opening of a few factories. In the last two or three years, a super-rich person had developed a piece of land north of the city that was relatively far from the factories. Many villas were built, and it appeared that there was even a manor. Then, some factories were ordered to be reorganized and relocated.

Jiang Yao peered through the cloth to look at the surrounding scenery. Every blade of grass and tree in that area had been meticulously trimmed to a specific shape by professionals. As a result, it could not be a factory, so it had to be that legendary luxurious manor.

Jiang Yao and Lu Xiaoxiao were separated as they got to the building. Jiang Yao was carried upstairs while Lu Xiaoxiao was taken to an unknown location. As the man carried her up the stairs, Jiang Yao shook Moe from her hat and asked him to protect Lu Xiaoxiao.

When they put Jiang Yao in a room, they also took her phone. Fortunately, Jiang Yao had deleted all of the messages on her phone, so she was not concerned if they would examine her messages.

After they removed Jiang Yao's phone, the man opened the door and carried her inside. Jiang Yao detected a strong scent of books and ink as soon as she stepped into the room. When she could see the furnishings in the room, she realized it was a study.

"Master Cheng, I've returned with her." The man did not throw her onto the ground. Instead, he placed her gently on the sofa.

Then he said, "I am sure you're awake when you get out of the car. Stop faking it."

The man nudged Jiang Yao's shoulder as he spoke. "An unconscious person has a different breathing rate than when they are awake."

Jiang Yao had no idea she would be exposed or that the person would even notice her breathing rate. Even a minor detail like that was enough to reveal that she had pretended to be asleep.

As a result, she was relieved that the person thought she only woke up when she got out of the car and not that she had not been rendered unconscious at all.

It made sense when she thought about it. No one could have been as vigilant as she had been after they were exposed to ether.

Jiang Yao decided to stop pretending. She stood up and untied the rope she was using behind her back. She shook her aching hands and slowly removed the cloth from her eyes. "I don't know how I've offended you to make you go through so much trouble to bring me here," she said coldly as she raised her eyes and looked at the man who sat in front of the desk.

Chapter 1134: Master Cheng

Jiang Yao guessed Cheng's identity as soon as she saw him; he must be Cheng Jinyan's father. He was around 56 or 57 years old and had a strong body. He looked very dignified.

He exuded a commanding presence. He just sat there staring at people without saying anything, radiating a strong sense of oppression.

"Young Lady, you have quite the guts." Master Cheng looked at the young lady in front of him, who was only 20 years old. She could still stand up calmly after his subordinates exposed her. Without any fear, she untied the cloth over her eyes and the rope on her hand. He noticed that the cut on the rope was clean and neat. It must have been cut by a sharp weapon. Why did that girl have a sharp weapon with her?

Master Cheng looked at his subordinate, whose expression froze when he noticed the rope Jiang Yao threw to the ground. He quickly stopped Jiang Yao and said, "Master Cheng, we did not find any sharp weapon on her that could have cut the rope."

“Of course, you couldn’t find it.” Jiang Yao smiled. “Because I threw it away. Why would I keep it as a weapon for you to kill me? I can’t beat you. I kept that weapon to kill myself.”

Even though that excuse was not convincing, Jiang Yao said it very seriously.

“Interesting.”

“Cheng Jinyan asked someone to investigate me, and he is Huang Cheng’s friend. He should have been able to guess my husband’s identity. Or perhaps Cheng Jinyan did know my identity but decided not to tell you, his father? If that’s the case, it’ll be very interesting. Master Cheng, believe it or not, in less than half an hour, my husband and his men will be able to find this place. This is my husband’s territory. Kidnapping me in my husband’s territory, Master Cheng, how dare you!”

“You don’t need to probe anymore. Yes, Cheng Jinyan is my son. You’ve guessed correctly.” How could Master Cheng not know that when she tried to threaten him with her husband’s identity? In fact, it confirmed the relationship between him and Cheng Jinyan.

“Little Girl, if I were afraid of your husband, I wouldn’t have done it.”

Cheng sneered at her. “Although my ability is no longer as good as decades ago, at least I still have some say.”

Cheng Jinyan knew Jiang Yao, so Master Cheng did not intend to deny that they were father and son. He could not deny it either because his eldest son looked very similar to him.

Jiang Yao looked at Master Cheng’s expression, unable to determine whether his calmness was real or fake.

From Master Cheng’s tone, it seemed like he also knew about Lu Xingzhi. Therefore, Jiang Yao did not know whether Master Cheng brought her there because of Lu Xingzhi or because she was the Divine Doctor’s student.

Cheng Jinyan had been to the hospital, so when Jiang Yao first saw Master Cheng, she thought that someone in the Cheng family was seriously ill and wanted to find the Divine Doctor. However, they could not find any information about the Divine Doctor, so they tried to move on to her.

“Little Girl, let’s make a deal.” Master Cheng walked toward Jiang Yao and said, “I know the Divine Doctor’s student. Help me ask your teacher to cure my wife. I will agree to three conditions. I’m not boasting. There are not many people in the underground community who won’t do me a favor, including those from abroad.”

Chapter 1135: She Would Definitely Wake Up

It seemed that he had a favor to ask of her.

When she heard that, Jiang Yao was no longer worried.

It was good that he had a favor to ask of her; she was afraid he did not have any intentions toward her. He was the kind of person who would capture her just because she was Lu Xingzhi's wife.

Just as Jiang Yao thought about how to stall for time, the door suddenly opened. Cheng Jinyan walked in anxiously with a little boy behind him.

"Father!" When Cheng Jinyan saw Jiang Yao in the study, he heaved a sigh of relief. "Why didn't you tell me that you were going to get someone to do it?"

Compared to Cheng Jinyan's anxiety, the little boy seemed to be happier. He took a few steps toward Master Cheng. "Father, now that she's here, will Mommy wake up now?"

Jiang Yao was a little surprised when she heard the little boy address Master Cheng as his father. She did not expect that the little boy who could be Cheng Jinyan's son was actually his younger brother.

However, when she heard how the two brothers addressed Master Cheng, she could tell that Cheng Jinyan had a lot of respect for his father. He was not like the little boy who spoke to their father more intimately.

"Yes." When Master Cheng finished speaking to the little boy, Jiang Yao saw a smile on his face for the first time. "Your mom will definitely wake up. She will also wake up very soon."

"That's good." The little boy was delighted, but he still maintained his cool. Then, he looked at Cheng Jinyan. He said, "Brother, Father said that Mommy would wake up soon. Aren't you happy? This Auntie can cure her illness and get her to wake up."

Cheng Jinyan frowned. "Father, Jiang Yao is different from other people." It was not that Cheng Jinyan did not have the same idea of kidnapping Jiang Yao, but Huang Cheng learned of his idea and scolded him.

It made sense. How could the Divine Doctor not hold a grudge against the Cheng family? The Divine Doctor's medical skills were superb. It was too easy for him to tamper with the treatment process.

Huang Chengjing wanted him to find Jiang Yao and use the favor as an excuse. Huang Chengjing said that Jiang Yao was a soft-hearted person. As long as his mother's story could move her, Jiang Yao would definitely help him.

Cheng Jinyan thought to look for Jiang Yao in two days. He did not expect to hear a servant at home say that his father had sent people to kidnap her.

"She's different from others. She's the Divine Doctor's student. I know." Master Cheng nodded and continued to ask, "Little Girl, how is it? Have you thought it through? I'm asking for your help. My wife has been in a coma for several months because of an accident. I have no choice but to do this."

"Many patients die every day. If anyone is not happy and kidnaps me to blackmail my teacher, she would not be able to handle it as there could be a thousand of them," Jiang Yao said. "To tell you the truth, my teacher is very protective of me. You've kidnapped and threatened me. Even if she cures your wife to protect me, there is no guarantee how long it will last."

“Young Madam Lu.” Cheng Jinyan had been afraid of that. Since Jiang Yao had brought it up, it meant that Huang Chengjing’s explanation was not wrong. He stood up and said, “Father, I will personally send Young Madam Lu home. I will apologize to Young Master Lu.”

Chapter 1136: Boastful Child

“Brother, if she leaves, Mommy won’t be able to wake up. She can’t leave!” The little boy held Cheng Jinyan’s hand and said, “Brother, Mommy has to wake up. Father and I aren’t afraid of others. We have people and guns. If her husband comes, we’ll just fight him.”

“I believe the Divine Doctor won’t do that. If she does, isn’t she afraid that you and your family will fall into our hands?” Jiang Yao’s threat was intolerable to Master Cheng, so he spoke again with a much harsher tone. “Little Girl, since you are standing here, you have no choice.”

“Auntie, we still have your family in our hands. If you don’t listen to us obediently, we will kill her!” The little boy’s eyes were filled with killing intent. That child’s words and gaze were shocking.

However, in the blink of an eye, that killing intent disappeared. He was once again that delicate and beautiful child. “Auntie, I heard that your medical skills are also excellent. Perhaps you don’t need your teacher to cure my mother. My father said that he would agree to three conditions as long as you are willing to help. When the time comes, no matter what you want, as long as my father can do it, he will definitely do it.”

Then, the little boy looked up at Master Cheng. He said, “Father, let her go. She is the Divine Doctor’s student. I heard from the doctors in Jin City that she is also very good at medicine. She can perform surgery on a baby boy alone for several hours. Maybe Mommy is not so serious that she needs the Divine Doctor to do it? Father, don’t you think so?”

The little boy hoped that his mother was not so seriously ill that she needed the Divine Doctor to cure her. He just hoped that his mother would only sleep for a while longer. A good doctor would wake her up.

Master Cheng doted on his second son and ordered his men to escort Jiang Yao to the room upstairs.

When Jiang Yao saw the men, she scolded them coldly. “I can walk on my own. Just lead the way!”

Lu Xiaoxiao was in their hands, so she could not run away alone. Even if she saw the patient, she would not help. She just needed to stall for time and wait for Lu Xingzhi to come with his men.

When the men realized that Jiang Yao seemed very angry, they stopped and looked at Master Cheng. The older man glanced at Jiang Yao, nodded at his men, and they left again.

The little boy followed behind Jiang Yao quietly. He threatened her in a childish voice. “This place is full of my father’s men, so don’t even think about running away. Even if you can run away, don’t forget that we have another person in our hands. If you run away, we will kill you.”

“You are too young to say the word kill like a devil.” Jiang Yao rolled her eyes as she rebuked the little boy.

“If your mother were lying on the bed and couldn’t answer you, you would do the same as I did.”

The little boy ignored Jiang Yao. He followed behind Jiang Yao and stared at her. He was probably afraid that she would run away.

Jiang Yao was pushed into a room on the fourth floor. The moment she entered, she could smell disinfectant. The room had been converted into a professional ward. There were two private nurses there.

Chapter 1137: Not Far From Death

“How is Madam’s health today?” Master Cheng asked after they entered through the door. Then he walked toward the bed and called out in a low voice. “Xinyou, wake up, please. Xiao Nian is still waiting for you to wake up and teach him how to play the piano.”

“Young Madam Lu, I’m very sorry.” Cheng Jinyan waited for Xiao Nian to enter the room before he took a step back and stood beside Jiang Yao to apologize to her. “I didn’t know that would happen today. If I had known, I would have stopped them. Even though I wanted to ask for your help, I wouldn’t use such a method.”

“What’s the point of apologizing to the police? You care about your family. Don’t I have a family? You brought me here like this. Have you ever thought about how scared my family would be?” Jiang Yao snorted and ignored him; she did not walk until she was pushed into the room.

When she entered the room, she sized up the room that had been converted into a ward. She thought that Master Cheng must have put in a lot of effort for his wife.

Then, she casually threw a glance at the motionless person on the bed, but the scene shocked her. She subconsciously reached out to touch her face and then looked at the person on the bed.

It turned out that there were people in the world who could look so similar without any familial relationship at all.

It was no wonder Cheng Jinyan’s brother looked so similar to her; the little devil’s mother, Xinyou, looked almost the same as her. Even though the woman on the bed was more than 40 years old, her facial features and the outline of her face were the same as hers.

It was so similar that even Jiang Yao was speechless.

It was very natural for Xiao Nian to look a little like her. The other part of the resemblance must have been from Master Cheng. One could also say that Xiao Nian resembled Cheng Jinyan.

However, when she considered Cheng Jinyan’s age, Jiang Yao had some doubts about the Cheng family. The woman on the bed would not have given birth to a son who was Cheng Jinyan’s age. Furthermore, he looked nothing like her; he would not have been her biological son.

However, Cheng Jinyan did not fake his worry and nervousness about that woman. He also did not fake his affection for his younger brother.

Cheng Jinyan and Xiao Nian must be half-brothers. However, the family seemed to be getting along very well. The woman was in a vegetative state, and the other three people in the family were worried about her.

Since Master Cheng had kidnapped her and brought her there, she had no room to be lenient with the Cheng family. Jiang Yao did not plan to treat the woman, but out of curiosity, Jiang Yao still scanned the woman's physical condition.

The results of the scan were out, and it was a little unexpected. The woman was in a coma because of a serious gunshot wound. The doctor was helpless, so she ended up in a vegetative state. The bullet was still in the woman's brain; it was in a dangerous position. No doctor would dare to remove that bullet for the woman.

The surgery had a 99% mortality rate. If the surgery failed, the woman would die.

The position of the bullet in the woman's brain was very tricky. It was not easy to get it, but it would not kill the woman immediately. It would only make the woman remain in a coma.

Chapter 1138: Prepare For The Funeral

Master Cheng was not short of money, so many doctors took care of the woman so she would not die immediately.

However, Jiang Yao looked at the situation and guessed that if she did nothing for the woman, then the woman would die soon.

The two nurses were obviously afraid of Master Cheng, so they did not dare to tell him the truth. They only told him that the woman was still the same.

Jiang Yao did not say a word. Suddenly, she felt someone pull her sleeve. She lowered her head, and a stack of paper hit her face and fell into her arms.

"D*mn Kid!"

Jiang Yao rubbed her nose and glared at the little boy in front of her.

"This is my mother's latest physical examination report. Can you take a look?" The little boy sniffed. "I'm sorry, I didn't mean to throw it so hard."

The aggrieved expression on the little devil's face instantly turned into a pitiful one.

Jiang Yao took those papers and pretended to look through them. Then, she returned them to Cheng Jinyan and said, "That's it. Just prepare for the funeral."

The corners of Jiang Yao's lips curled upward. "I'm leaving." She saw Lu Xingzhi's car was almost at the villa entrance.

Her husband had finally arrived. It was not bad; he was swift.

Jiang Yao's instructions to prepare for the funeral were not random. It was a risky surgery. Even if she were to perform it, she would also have to take a lot of risks.

A single mishap would cause the patient to die on the operating table. If the woman were to die, it would trigger the system's perverted destruction program. She would become a lunatic without any thoughts.

Even if that person looked like her, that was not why she should take such a huge risk to perform the surgery.

There might be many people in the world who looked like her. There was still a Sun Xiaoshan, right?

When she saw Master Cheng's angry expression, Jiang Yao was not afraid at all. "Master Cheng, don't blame me for my words. Even if my teacher were standing here, she would tell you the same thing. Master Cheng, you know very well how serious your wife's condition is. I believe that you have also found many doctors to see her. Did they also tell you that the surgery is very risky? There's a 97% chance that your wife will die on the operating table. The remaining three percent, or two percent, is that after the bullet is removed from her brain, she will still be in a vegetative state. If she's lucky, she will sleep for ten years. If she's unlucky, she will sleep for two to three years before she dies. There's less than one percent chance that she will wake up after the surgery."

Jiang Yao raised her eyebrows. "However, due to your temper, they might not be as straightforward as I am right now. They only told you that there was no need for the surgery, but they didn't tell you that you should prepare for her funeral. However, I am a straightforward person. If there is no hope, I won't give it to others. This is my teacher's advice."

Of course, that was what she casually said, but who would know?

No one knew that she was the Divine Doctor, so no one would know if she had made that up.

"What do you mean by preparing for the funeral?"

The little boy asked, "Father, does this mean that Mommy will die? Is she going to be buried in a coffin?"

Master Cheng's men rushed forward and whispered into his ear. "Master Cheng, Young Master Lu has led the police and troops into the manor."

Jiang Yao pursed her lips. She really wanted to say that she could hear him no matter how quiet he tried to be, so he might as well say it out loud.

Chapter 1139: It's A Great Honor

Master Cheng glanced at Jiang Yao. He was a little surprised that Lu Xingzhi would find out about that so quickly.

"Transfer her."

Master Cheng pointed at Jiang Yao. "Tell Lu Xingzhi we will return his wife when the Divine Doctor gets here. Get the other woman who was kidnapped with her to distract Lu Xingzhi's men. Jiang Yao is enough for us."

Jiang Yao stood there and sneered. She had already seen Lu Xingzhi's men snuck into the villa and reached Lu Xiaoxiao. At that time, Lu Xiaoxiao had already been rescued by Lu Xingzhi's men. The person guarding Lu Xiaoxiao had been knocked unconscious, so the news had not reached them yet.

Cheng Jinyan saw that Jiang Yao stood there without the slightest hint of fear that they were taking her away. For some reason, he felt uneasy.

After less than ten seconds, he immediately understood the reason. Suddenly, there was a loud noise outside the window. Amidst the noise, the house shook.

Everyone looked out of the window and was stunned. Lu Xingzhi's men had used a small cannonball to blast the villa gate open and drove all the way into the villa. Then, green military figures jumped out of the military car with a weapon each.

It was obviously too late to retreat then. Master Cheng would never leave without his wife, so he could only stand there and wait for Lu Xingzhi to arrive with his men.

Lu Xingzhi was very swift. Before the smoke outside the window dispersed, he had already appeared at the window. He saw Cheng Jinyan in front of the window, and so he made his way there. When he saw Jiang Yao safe and sound, he jumped into the room.

"Master Cheng, I did not expect to see a legendary figure here. I'm deeply honored." After Lu Xingzhi entered the room, he quickly walked in front of Jiang Yao and glanced at the Cheng family's subordinates, who promptly surrounded Master Cheng and his sons to protect them. He curled the corners of his lips in disdain and handed the gun in his hand to Jiang Yao. "Take it. Whoever comes close to you, shoot them!"

Lu Xingzhi had heard of Master Cheng's deeds, indeed. Master Cheng's name was well-known about 30 years ago. The Cheng family had once been glorious, and then they were in dire straits. Master Cheng's generation had to start from scratch. At first, they were hired as thugs and bodyguards. Then, they slowly climbed up the ranks to establish their own gang.

Master Cheng was a famous figure in the underground world. However, his legend ended when he was captured and imprisoned. It had ceased for many years.

Lu Xingzhi heard that Master Cheng had been released from prison a long time ago. It seemed that he had left the country. He did not expect Master Cheng to have returned home. Furthermore, that manor was Master Cheng's property. He did not expect Cheng Jinyan to be Master Cheng's eldest son.

"Lu Xingzhi, does Old Master Liang know that you have barged into my manor in such a grand manner?"

Master Cheng looked out of the window at the mess. He was furious. It was his wife's favorite manor. Every blade of grass and tree in that manor had been her efforts.

"I'm cooperating with Jin City's police to carry out anti-crime activities. Master Cheng, you've kidnapped military families. You don't think we should check your manor?" He did not mention Old Master Liang, who Master Cheng had said, and pretended not to hear it. He was in charge of that operation for a very legitimate reason.

Master Cheng was the first to kidnap military families, so he went on a mission to fight anti-crime and rescue them.

The man had dared to kidnap his wife. He would not be called Lu Xingzhi if he did not remove Master Cheng's forces in Jin City until not even an ant was left.

Chapter 1140: What Is Your Relationship With The Sun Family

"Are Dad and Mom okay?" Jiang Yao stood beside Lu Xingzhi and asked in a low voice.

"Don't worry. They're back at the army to wait for me to bring you back," Lu Xingzhi replied. Then, he turned to look at Jiang Yao. "Are you hurt?"

Lu Xingzhi casually glanced at the woman on the bed and then looked at Jiang Yao. "What?"

"Why does she look so much like you?"

Jiang Yao shook her head. "I was also shocked at first."

As the two of them talked, Zhou Junmin came up with heavy weaponry and men and quickly surrounded the entire room.

"Lu Xingzhi, are you prepared to fight head-on with the Cheng Family?"

Master Cheng did not show any fear even though they had been defeated. He was angry that so many people had disturbed his wife's rest. He growled, "All of you, get out!"

Master Cheng did not give the order because he was not prepared to fight with Lu Xingzhi. However, he did not expect Lu Xingzhi to come so quickly and even blast their new high-tech gate open with heavy weapons.

"If anyone dares to wake my mother, I will send you to hell!"

The boy raised a pistol, and surprisingly, he did not find it difficult at all. The muzzle of his gun was pointed at Zhou Junmin, who came in from behind. "My father said, get out!"

Zhou Junmin was also shocked. Anyone who saw a child, the least threatening person in the room, suddenly raised a gun so skillfully at them would be terrified.

That child was only four years old.

Lu Xingzhi finally withdrew his gaze from the woman. He ignored the situation on Zhou Junmin's side and turned to Jiang Yao. "Who is that on the bed?"

Zhou Junmin listened to the young couple as they discussed other topics. He wanted to cry in his heart. Did they have to talk like there was no one else around? A four-year-old child was still pointing a gun at him. Could he still carry out the mission successfully?

They had agreed to bring him there to make a name for himself, clean up the underground world, and give the people a peaceful life. They had clearly brought a single, unmarried young man to watch his sergeant and the sergeant's wife show off their love for each other.

Which couple could secretly chat in that situation?

"What's your relationship with the Sun family in Province A?" Lu Xingzhi suddenly asked.

"What?"

Jiang Yao looked at Lu Xingzhi curiously; she did not understand why he would ask that.

"I've never been to Province A. I don't know the Sun family that you're talking about," Master Cheng replied coldly. "Lu Xingzhi, let me ask you again. Does Old Master Liang know you're doing this?"

As one would say, it was better late than never. The second time Master Cheng mentioned Old Master Liang, Lu Xingzhi's cell phone suddenly rang. It was Old Master Liang.

When Lu Xingzhi picked up the phone, Old Master Liang, who was on the helicopter, heaved a sigh of relief. "Xingzhi, I just found out about Jin City. I'll be arriving in twenty minutes. Calm down for now. Wait for me for a few more minutes, and I'll tell you in person."

Lu Xingzhi looked at the woman on the bed and then at Jiang Yao. Then he looked at Master Cheng; he wondered about the relationship between Master Cheng and Old Master Liang. The latter was in Jin City personally to see Master Cheng.
