

Chapter 117 Something More Interesting

"You're willing to let me go?"

"You don't want to go? Okay, Alyssa, call the police."

Hearing his words, Alyssa smiled quietly and immediately nodded, "I'll call the police right away."

Seeing that Alyssa was really going to call the police, Mr. Nell hurriedly said, "I'll go, thank you, Mr. Hunter! Thank you very much, Mr. Hunter! Then I'll go now."

Mr. Nell ran away with his men.

Watching them run so fast, Alyssa couldn't help but laugh.

"What are you laughing at?"

"I didn't know that fat guy could be so quick. I haven't even seen him so agile before. Look, how fast he's running now!"

Watching Mr. Nell's figure disappear, Alyssa muttered to herself, "But his running posture is really ugly."

Leon looked at Alyssa and said with a smile, "Let's go home too."

"We're just going home?"

"Yeah."

"You're just going to let him go?"

"Or what?"

"The cost of bullying is so low. What if he bullies us again?"

Leon loved to hear her say "we". He took her hand, led her to the car, and said patiently, "Do you think he'll ask Audrey about my attitude toward him when he gets back?"

Alyssa froze for a moment. She hadn't thought of that.

However, that fat guy looked so stupid, and he would probably go to Audrey.

"He'll definitely see Audrey."

"And after that?"

"After that, with Audrey's encouragement, he'll tell everyone about our beating him."

"He's such a wuss!" Alyssa taunted.

"Do you think anyone will believe him?"

Hearing this, Alyssa finally understood something. She nodded and said softly, "I understand what you mean. After Audrey makes a big deal out of this, someone will naturally take care of it. We do not need to worry about this at all. If she doesn't spread the word about it, we might be worried. It's better if she makes it known to everyone."

When this matter got out of hand, someone would naturally look into it!

Grandpa wasn't a fool!

Even if grandpa didn't care.

Someone would also care!

Her grandpa would not let Leon be aggrieved either.

Thinking about it, Alyssa felt as if Leon was loved by so many people. She didn't even get that much love. She was so aggravated that she simply leaned on Leon's body.

"I love you." Leon took Alyssa's hand, "Come on, let's go home."

"Okay."

The next day.

Word of Leon's bullying of Mr. Nell spread through the circle.

Alyssa watched the news and frowned. The news said that Leon was jealous of Mr. Nell's logistics company for making money and some media even said that they used to like the same woman. They fought over a woman. As a result, Mr. Nell was beaten up, and Leon forced Mr. Nell to kneel and beg for mercy?

Reporters were really good at their jobs. They knew how to make up stories.

The most ridiculous thing was that this news still had readers and comments.

Alyssa laughed at the comments, which were often better than the news.

Leon came back just in time to hear Alyssa's laughter.

"You're back. Come here." Seeing Leon, she waved at him.

Leon walked over with a helpless face, "What are you looking at? Don't you care about your image?"

"I'm at home. This is my house. I don't need to worry about my image. Look at this comment. He says he prefers Mr. Nell, and he adds that he's a guy. Hahaha, Leon, you're disliked by a man."

Leon frowned and glanced at the comment.

How could it make her laugh like this?

"What's so funny about that?"

"Eh, there's something even funnier!"

"Do you want to go?"

"Yes!"

Leon kissed Alyssa's face and looked at Alyssa, "Get yourself dressed. I'll take you to the old house."

"Okay!"

An hour later.

Leon took Alyssa to the Hunters' old house.

They heard Kevin's serious voice before they even entered the door.

"What the hell is going on? You have to give me an explanation."

"Dad, this has nothing to do with me. Would it be too much for you to push me like this?"

Hearing this, Alyssa didn't go in. She looked up at Leon, "Do you believe that after a while Audrey is going to cry?"

"Don't worry. She doesn't have time to cry right now. She has to figure out how to cope with this."

"It's serious."

"You'll see in a few minutes."

Leon patted Alyssa's little head and led Alyssa inside as if she was a child.

Alyssa followed Leon inside, but Kevin's voice didn't stop.

"And you still deny that this has nothing to do with you. I asked Leon to get the witness. In a few moments, he'll bring the witness here. I didn't do anything to you before for George's sake, but that doesn't mean you can just touch my bottom line."

"What witness?" Hearing Kevin's words, Audrey froze.

No way! There couldn't be any evidence of that.

She had done a perfect job. How could there be evidence?

But Kevin had said it with such certainty. What should she do if they did have a witness?

Audrey had a bad feeling. She wanted to talk to Emily about it.

But Emily was not with her now. Kevin had sent George out early in the morning. It looked like he just wanted to confront her about it alone.

She was out of ideas and kept her head down as she tried to figure out what to do.

There was a sudden sound of the door opening. She thought that it was George who had returned and looked at the door with hope, but it was Leon and Alyssa who were standing in the doorway.

She thought of the witness Kevin had just said and her face turned paler.

"Grandpa."

Leon and Alyssa said together.

Kevin looked at Leon with a serious expression, but when he looked at Alyssa, his expression was obviously much gentler.

"There you are. Leon, did you bring the witness?"

"Yes."

"You hurry up and get him here."

Leon made a phone call. A few minutes later, Mr. Nell was brought in by Leon's men.

When Audrey saw Mr. Nell, her face immediately went pale.

Yesterday she had talked to him on the phone and asked him to go out and hide.

At that time, he agreed. But today, why did he suddenly appear here?

She didn't feel good, but she didn't know what to say. She clenched her hands tightly.

"Mr. Nell, what happened?"

"A few days ago, I attended a charity auction and met Audrey, who stopped me and told me about the company stuff. Audrey told me that Mr. Hunter, or Leon, is a hypocrite who has a long memory. Because Derick embezzled money from the company, he not only made Derick lose all his money but also made a mess of Bell. He took back the money belonging to Hunter Group and was going to buy Bell. My Universal Logistics and Bell did business together. She said Mr. Hunter would never let me go. She told me to teach Mr. Hunter a lesson, to show him that I'm not a pushover."

"And then what?"
