

Chapter 1181

The official name of tea vegetable hospital is mixed now. The tea vegetable people continue to call the tea vegetable city hospital, the traditional Chinese medicine hospital and other people who have not been annexed and the government directly call the tea vegetable provincial hospital. As for the people of the tea vegetable city hospital, the internal medicine department says it is the golden mean teaching hospital, and the surgery Department says it is the United hospital.

However, in a word, the mental outlook of the staff in the tea vegetable hospital has changed. Because the hospital is not only upgraded, but also the salary is upgraded. For ordinary staff, this is the most affordable. Others are floating clouds.

No matter whether you are upgraded or not, what you do every day is still what you did before.

As the weather gets colder and colder, the end of the year is getting closer and closer. In addition to some old patients, other patients are also much less than in the past.

Therefore, the staff of the hospital are also welcoming the end of the year with the ordinary citizens. With the development of tea vegetable hospital in the past two years, it is like a medicine introduction, which makes the development around the hospital quite good.

For example, two five-star hotels and major pharmaceutical equipment companies in the high tech Zone, especially pharmaceutical equipment companies, have created many employment companies. Of course, new enterprises of this scale do not bubble in the mainland or big cities. But it's different in small cities.

The tea vegetable hospital is ready to slowly start issuing new year goods. This is the tradition of Frontier enterprises. In the early years, because of the underdevelopment of various transportation and trade, some enterprises often had to rely on local purchase to survive.

The government is also busy helping and assigning tasks to major enterprises and institutions. Slowly formed a habit.

This year is the first year when Zhang Fan ZHENG'ER's eight classics became the president. Although he was also the president in the past, Ouyang is still the boss in name. Now it's different. Zhang Fan is the master of the family.

On Monday morning, a large group of people stood at the door of Zhang Fan's office. However, Zhang Fan didn't go to the administrative building at work and went directly to the operating room for surgery. A patellar fracture was operated on. In winter, this kind of fracture is the most, and it is often cold. One accidentally slipped to his knees, and the cover of the knee joint, the patella, can't stand the impact, broke.

This is the majority of the elderly, while young people often have broken heads. Especially at the end of the year, I don't know if this breakup is also a KPI. Many people choose to break up at this time. Be peaceful. Break up is still a friend. There are all kinds of things that are not peaceful.

Moreover, they often break up at night, and women often do it. The most wonderful thing is that this saying is popular in the tea vegetable hospital these days: I want to be the sweetest girl, use the best looking bottle, and beat the ex boyfriend's head into the best looking shape.

Whether the shape looks good or not, I don't know. But doctors in the emergency center or outside the brain are most bothered by this kind of head breaking surgery. It doesn't take a few stitches or threads to sew this broken head, but it's quite troublesome to pick glass debris from the meat.

Sometimes, the broken glass pricks one end like a hedgehog. If the doctor can't pick clean and sew his head, well, after half a year, the young man will definitely have an unknown bag on his head.

Therefore, the emergency center is busy these days. Zhang Fan entered the operation in the morning and had the operation until noon. The hospital industry, especially the leading hospital in a region, can't finish the operation at all.

There are no major operations these days. They are all minor operations, and they are more urgent than one another. Zhang Fan took the new rotation doctor from orthopedics to help make one.

"Zhang Yuan, our third Department of orthopedics is really understaffed now." Zhou Chengfu finished his operation and ran to Zhang Fan's operating room to say hello to Zhang Fan.

"Didn't I come to help you? It's the end of the year. There's a shortage of people everywhere. You let me change for you, and I can't change people!"

In the past, when Zhang Fan was a doctor, he always felt that his leadership was stingy and not atmospheric at all. Wouldn't it be over if he lacked people to recruit? Wouldn't it be solved if the region was not good and the salary was increased?

After Zhang Fan sat in the chair of the president, he realized that the hospital is a big waste, and all kinds of materials wasted in a day are a considerable number. Moreover, although building a building seems very expensive, in fact, the most expensive thing is labor.

Zhou Chengfu is now the assistant director of the third Department of orthopedics. Wang Yanan and Xu Xian are not very convinced. Therefore, Zhou Chengfu not only has to show in front of the leaders, but also has to appease the doctors in the Department, but also knows the difficulties of leadership.

In this case, Zhang Fan will pretend to be confused. He will never participate in the internal contradictions between subordinate departments. He is an arbiter. If there is a problem, he can play the board. Once he intervenes, he will be said that a bowl of water is uneven.

Therefore, Zhang Fan's requirements for various departments and even the middle-level of the hospital are to settle down on his own if he has the ability and step down if he has no ability.

Zhou Chengfu was sent away. Soon, Prince Peng, the pillar of anorectal department, also came. After the young man was admitted as a licensed doctor, he was sent by Zhang Fan to Shanhua for a study of anorectal. When he came back, although he was a resident, he was almost doing the anorectal surgery.

China has an anorectal department, a gynecology department and a hand surgery department. The development of public hospitals is really a great deal of trouble. The director of anorectal surgery in the tea vegetable hospital, after marrying his little wife, ran to the south to get gold. The anorectal Department couldn't even do a hemorrhoid.

Therefore, now that Wang Zipeng has returned from his studies, he has won the title of tea vegetable chrysanthemum protection team. The young man also suffers. He hasn't had a rest for half a year. He stays in the hospital almost every day, whether at work or on holidays and weekends.

"Zhang Yuan, hey hey!" Wang Zipeng stood behind Zhang Fan and helped Zhang Fan tighten his surgical suit.

"What? Director Wang!" Zhang Fan joked.

Zhang Fan now has some experience. For such young people, it sounds like he is joking. In fact, this is a kind of encouragement.

"It's okay, it's okay. I haven't seen you for a long time. I'll come in and say hello." Wang Zipeng smiled slightly shyly.

"OK, I'll see you too. Just go if you have nothing to do. I'm afraid you're looking for me now."

When Wang Zipeng left, Zhang Fan thought while having an operation, "this boy has been in love since the first day of junior high school, and finally became a fruit with his little girlfriend. But such a shy guy, even from the first day of junior high school to now, is also a wonderful flower!"

The door of the operating room is closed and opened. One person will be there for a while.

After the operation, Wang Yanan came in. She had a hip replacement with several vice high school students from the third Department of orthopedics all morning.

After seeing Zhang Fan, her nose was not her face.

Zhang Fan glanced at her and ignored her.

After waiting for a long time, seeing that Zhang Fan didn't respond, Wang Yanan said unhappily, "I'm not a league member now!"

"Hi! Are you a league member or a party member? What's the use of telling me? Go to the European Academy for this. She is now the secretary. "

"Why are you leaders, like my mother, constantly urging me to go on a blind date? Is my non marriage hindering your promotion?"

Wang Yanan's lawsuit.

As soon as Zhang Fan listened, he hurriedly pulled her into the lounge.

"How old are you? You haven't spoken yet. What's the situation?"

"The Youth League a committee of the hospital organized a blind date and gave me a team leader! I'm ashamed of myself. It's like I can't get married and lead the team to find a man! "

"Well, this old Chen!" Zhang Fan sighed " All right, your head has been removed. If you don't go, you won't go. "

How can Zhang Fan say about this custom in the frontier? Anyway, it doesn't count as resistance, but he doesn't agree with it.

In previous years, at the end of each year, Lao Chen organized young doctors and nurses in the hospital to have a party with major units.

There are many counterpart units, from the government to the school public security bureau. Anyway, there are units with young people. They are all friends of tea vegetable hospital, and they are all public institutions. In Lao Chen's words, these are all subject to political trial!

In fact, this kind of friendship does not mean that the leaders of the hospital are idle, but to retain talents. In the early years, in order to retain talents, the frontier sent wives. But now the cost of sending a wife is too high. If you send it again, you will be bankrupt.

So it became a blind date meeting.

Moreover, Lao Chen has made experience in flower arrangement, self introduction, ballroom dance and games. Anyway, if Lao Chen retires and goes to a marriage agency to find a job, he will have no problem at all.

Li Hui's biology teacher met at the blind date. After having children, Li Hui couldn't run away if he wanted to.

Now Zhang Fan thinks it's unnecessary. The tea vegetable hospital is now confident and is not afraid of others running away.

But for this tradition, Zhang Fan is hard to say. Moreover, with the upgrading of the tea vegetable hospital, the doctors who have the establishment in the hospital are fragrant pastry. If the nurses have the establishment, it is a hundred families for a woman.

The operation in the morning was finished. Zhang Fan didn't eat the food sent to the operating room from the canteen, so he went directly to the staff canteen.

Now the staff canteen is like a food street with many stalls. Whose food is bad and whose food is bad. He doesn't have to rush to the hospital. He left because he didn't have business.

Zhang Fan directly pays for the hospital's meal allowance and does not issue cards.

"Zhang Yuan!"

"Zhang Yuanhao!"

"Zhang Yuan is coming to dinner!"

Almost nodded all the way. In the past, Zhang Fan would stand and talk to the people who greeted him. Now he doesn't talk.

There are too many people saying hello, and if you all talk a few words, don't eat. The most important thing is that you can't give others an illusion. Wow, Zhang Yuan attaches importance to me. Will the next batch let me study!

After cooking meat noodles, Zhang Fangang sat down with a bowl, and Lao Chen came after him.

"Have you eaten yet? I didn't eat. Let's eat together. If you eat, just wait for me. "

"Just in time, I didn't eat either. I'll eat with Zhang Yuan!"

I don't know whether I didn't eat it or not. Lao Chen also came with half a bowl of rice.

Eat and talk.

"What about new year goods?" Lao Chen looked around and asked quietly.

Chapter 1183

"Zhang Yuan, you don't care. In the Department, three big bellied women and two with severe colds lie in the Department, both as patients and doctors. In this way, I watch the doctors all lie down. "

The deputy director of the respiratory department called Zhang Fan.

After a while, Lao Ju also came.

"Hey, the doctor's structure is not good. Now the respiratory department can't turn around." Lao Ju sits in Zhang Fan's office.

There are many female doctors in internal medicine. Although there are male doctors, most of them are female doctors. I don't know whether it's nature, culture or any other reason. Female doctors in the internal medicine department of tea vegetarians like to compare.

I especially like to compare with the female colleagues in a department in the same year. You're married, and I'm getting married, too. You've published two papers, and I'll publish two the next day. Anyway, before marriage, than looks, than academic, when in love, than boyfriend, after marriage, than husband, than family.

Then, a pregnant woman wanted to negotiate. Several female doctors who came in the same year were pregnant.

Hospitals can force doctors not to get married in winter, but hospitals can't force people not to have children in winter.

"Can the rotating doctors enter the Department now? How are you on duty now? " Zhang Fan also has a headache.

"Three big bellied women are about to give birth. It's unreasonable not to give them a holiday. Two doctors are lying in the Department with a bad cold. In addition to those who have been out-patient, they are stationed in the special needs department and the respiratory intensive care department. Now there are four doctors on duty in the Department.

Dr. Ye and Li Hui work 24-hour shifts. There are two deputy directors, one deputy director is mobile, and the other deputy director is ready for the shift. Here, the two patients in the Department have to lie down and wear patient clothes to the shift from time to time.

That is, there are more doctors in rotation this year, seven or eight, otherwise we really can't open the bolt. I'm not sure if they can be on duty alone. Although there is no flu now, all the people hospitalized this season are seriously ill. If they are a little careless, they will hold their breath and have heart failure. This morning, a sputum aspirator became heart failure and had to cut and insert the trachea. "

"Let's have a meeting!" Zhang Fan thought about it, said to Lao Ju, and added, "all of the Dean level come."

"Good!" Lao Ju nodded.

At noon, Zhang Fan had to let several leaders meet together. At this time, Zhang Fan also felt that the bench depth of the tea vegetable hospital was not enough. Moreover, during the period when he got up, Ouyang and his development goals were all in surgery and did not pay attention to internal medicine. At this time, it broke out intensively.

Zhang Fan is really happy.

It broke out at the end of the year. If it broke out in the flu season, what should we do and what should we do to deal with it?

This is the importance of division of doctors' departments.

Under normal circumstances, surgeons can also be physicians. Of course, this kind of time is used to make up for it. If you look at the simplest diseases, sometimes you can't even look at the test report, because surgery and internal medicine are really two disciplines.

The attending doctor in the respiratory department can be hospitalized in the digestive department, but he can't do the work of attending in the digestive department. The patient's stomach is sour and painful. The main treatment in breathing is prescribed in minutes, but the other party's esophageal varices can spray slowly like a fountain, and the breathing can't be determined.

Specialized in technology.

After all, not everyone is the same as the three generations of Qiu school.

In Zhang Fan's office, all the team members of the hospital came except Ouyang. And several vice presidents who didn't join the team also came.

Zhao Jingjin, Luo Zhengguo and Yan Xiaoyu are familiar with the hospital these days. Take the medical department to the Department every day. Zhao Jingjin and Luo Zhengguo were originally experts in surgery. Relatively speaking, they are familiar with the director and Deputy High School of general surgery and extracerebral surgery of catechin.

But other people are not familiar with it, so these days after they finished the Department, they stayed in the operating room. This is the characteristic of technical units. If you don't have a little effort, you can't communicate with the following doctors. After meeting in private, I can't say shamelessly that you are my man!

Yan Xiaoyu has been doing ward rounds, checking medical records and communicating with doctors in the Department of Gastroenterology and endocrinology these days.

Yan Xiaoyu feels proud and harmonious in this hospital.

The equipment in the hospital is definitely more advanced than that in several affiliated hospitals in niaoshi. To be a teaching hospital is definitely more than enough. In particular, several endoscopes in the Department of Gastroenterology are not only gastroscopes, but also enteroscopes. They are the top mirrors of Olympus, the ball country.

In this regard, they have set up an endoscope center.

Harmony, she found that in addition to the salary and bonus, there was also some money from the small Treasury. Therefore, there is special harmony between doctors.

In fact, in the world of ordinary people, why is it not harmonious? There is only one word to escape, money. But the income of tea vegetable hospital is different.

With regard to medical treatment, the government has contracted 70% of the funding, and the tea vegetable hospital can earn a little a year.

But the cost of external treatment is hard to say. Those who can go abroad to see a doctor are some wealthy households. Therefore, the income of the International Department of catechin is no less than that of the local winery. It can be imagined how well the income of catechin doctors is, so the relationship between doctors is quite harmonious.

However, Yan Xiaoyu also found a problem restricting the tea vegetable hospital, that is, the talent reserve of the hospital is too thin. It's OK to say that the level of inpatient is not vice high. At the level of main treatment, tea vegetable hospital can't match high-end equipment.

Almost a radish is a pit. A radish is sick, affecting a group of more than a dozen people.

Therefore, the tea vegetable hospital gave her the feeling that she was a fat man with hormones. It seems that the five big and three thick are powerful, but in fact, the hormone is hanging. Once the hormone is gone, you can take it out and pee into your pants.

"It's not very interesting to call all the leaders together after work. However, some things must be dealt with as soon as possible, otherwise it will be even harder to deal with in a few days. The first is the residence of the three presidents.

Here I want to criticize our manager. Lao Chen, you said you haven't found a suitable house up to now. Is that right. Three experts come to tea. What's the situation if you arrange an expert building. You celebrate the new year, don't they celebrate the new year? "

Zhang Fan criticized Lao Chen.

Some time ago, he was too busy. On the one hand, there were various inspection, negotiation and investigation teams, and on the other hand, the people under his hand were busy occupying positions in each branch, so Lao Chen couldn't care about it.

He told Zhang Fan about this. Let Zhang Fan talk about him at the meeting. Otherwise, the new leader will be uncomfortable if he doesn't say it.

"I reviewed. I reviewed the three leaders. It was my job. I didn't do a good job. I didn't have subjective initiative. I didn't..." Lao Chen didn't explain at all and directly admitted his mistake.

"Nothing, nothing. The expert building is good. It's close to the hospital and not far from the canteen. It's very convenient." Zhao Jingjin interrupted Lao Chen with a smile.

"During this time, various inspection teams have encountered influenza again. They are a little busy. President Chen, I mean you promote a director of the medical department. Don't do everything yourself. You should be responsible for the logistics section and the general affairs office."

Zhang Fan explained to several people, and then explained to Lao Chen that this is to put a burden on Lao Chen.

After that, I don't wait for others to say anything.

Zhang Fan added, "the internal medicine department, especially the respiratory department, is about to lose its tether these days. If it hadn't been for Dean Ju's support, there would have been an accident. "

Lao Ju whispered, "Dean Ju! Dean Ju? I don't have a family name in particular. "

"Internal medicine!" Zhao Jingjin and Luo Zhengguo looked at each other and were not ready to speak.

Zhao Jingjin and Luo Zhengguo have been on duty these days and often chat together in the expert building. Through chatting, the two people more clearly defined their purpose of tea " We're not here to compete for power and profit. We didn't contribute to the construction of tea vegetable hospital. Now we're here to add icing on the cake and add some scientific research honor to ourselves. "

Yan Xiaoyu and Ren Li looked at each other.

The two of them are alumni. In those years, they can be said that the Second Affiliated Hospital, which was one of the first and the last, was not a department, but Yan Xiaoyu mixed better than Ren Li. There are various factors. When Ren Li left the bird market and came to tea, everyone felt that Ren Li had finished her life and had no master's degree.

Unexpectedly, Ren Li's current position is not only endless, but also a little higher than Yan Xiaoyu. Because Ren Li is the second deputy secretary, and she is only the third vice president. Academically, Ren Li has not fallen behind. The projects brought by others in the Marubeni country, not to mention the frontier, can be found even in China.

It can be said that they are equal. Therefore, although the two have known each other for a long time, it is estimated that they knew each other when they were college and graduate students, but after Yan Xiaoyu came to tea, the two haven't met in private. Therefore, women's friendship is very difficult.

But now, the monitor asked the internal medicine. They are both experts and heads of internal medicine. Now it's their turn to come up with their own plan.

Looking at each other contains a lot of information.

Zhang Fan looked and said to Yan Xiaoyu, "let's talk to the business Dean first!"

Right means responsibility. Don't think that there are only rights and don't want responsibility. There is no door. Although he has come for a short time, he is now the business Dean of internal medicine.

"There is a shortage of people. I don't recommend going to the Department immediately. After all, what we lack now is experienced doctors, not doctors doing chores."

Zhang Fan nodded and motioned Dean Yan to continue.

"I think we can ask our superiors for help."

As soon as he said this, Zhang Fan frowned slightly.

I didn't say no, I didn't say yes.

But said to Ren Li and jumabek, "what do you mean, Dean Ju?"

Lao Ju thought for a moment and said, "Dr. ye and Li Hui, who are on duty now, can still hold on for a while. I can sink to the Department. "

What Lao Ju said is absolutely right.

Now Dr. ye and Li Hui are very happy.

Both of them are desperate for money now.

One is that it was originally a big money greedy family in the hospital. At the beginning, Dr. Ye dared to accept the patients of tuberculosis. On weekdays, she had the most patients in the Department.

Later, there was another Li Hui.

Like Li Hui, he always wanted money. In the past, he went to the bar KTV when he had money. Anyway, there were people who spent two yuan for one yuan. It's changed since I had children.

Now the two of them are biting their teeth and fighting in the Department for 24 hours each. Although they are tired, it is estimated that the salary and bonus of this month are other, definitely more than 30000. Therefore, the deputy director of the respiratory department shouted No.

Li Hui and Dr. Ye didn't take it seriously at all.

"Secretary Ren, what do you mean?" Zhang Fan nodded to Juma Buick, and then asked Ren Liyou.

"It is only a temporary way for president Ju to sink into the Department. Now there are many foreign patients in branch I and Branch II, and some patients must be received by President Ju. So, I mean, we should send back the doctors released from various communities, and let the respiratory department give priority to some doctors who perform well during the rotation, bring the old with the new, and quickly enter the role. Whether it is to sink the dean or ask the superior for support, it is a temporary way. It is better to take this opportunity to let our doctors grow up as soon as possible.

There is pressure, there is power. Yes, it's Chinese New Year. But when we become doctors, in fact, holidays have long been far away from us. "

Ren Li finished.

Zhang Fan turned to look at the others.

After several vice presidents of surgery, including Lao Gao, had a look, Lao Gao first said, "I agree with Secretary Ren."

"I also agree with Secretary Ren."

Lao Chen also nodded.

Zhang Fan continues, looking at Luo Zhengguo and Zhao Jingjin "The methods are all good, but the secretary is still more comprehensive and thorough. "

Zhao Jingjin said, and Luo Zhengguo nodded.

Lao Ju is quite satisfied with Ren Li's saying that he can't do without him in several branches. Before he was promoted, in fact, he was not with Ren Li Ouyang. He ran the respiratory department himself. Later, because of Zhang Fan's relationship, he went to the next level, and then he let go of the respiratory department.

His problems were complicated. In the past, Ouyang didn't want to move him, because he was a hero during SARS, and he was the only expert of tea vegetarians studying abroad at that time. Sometimes, he gnashed his teeth at Ouyang's anger, but there was no way.

Many times, some people say that the doctors' achievements are useless. Is to add a score for the college entrance examination to the child. A score of five tenths is of little significance.

In fact, this is superficial, but internal is quite powerful.

To tell you a joke, in those years, the border coal city settled all the soldiers who had gone to the old mountain as long as they clearly went to the old mountain to fight. Whether you are a primary school culture or don't know any big characters, anyway, although you can't be an official, you can definitely support you for a lifetime.

Because people in coal city have money, they are well placed.

This time, the tea vegetarians who went up the old mountain didn't want to " They robbed. Are we going to travel? No! "

But tea vegetable has no money. The salaries of tea vegetable civil servants are all loans.

As a result, people organized, all dressed in green, and then gathered at the gate of the government for running exercises. It was an earthquake.

If it's someone else, if it's someone without credit, dare you?

Still running here.

However, they were all right. The government didn't say good words and had to take care of the food. Finally, the Security Department of tea vegetable city hospital placed several people who went to Laoshan that year.

Therefore, Lao Ju doesn't look at anyone who is arrogant in the tea vegetable hospital, but he has capital. If he is a cow, he has also worked hard for China.

Although Lao Ju didn't become a team member this time, the team members have the greatest rights. The three branches are presided over by others.

Fortunately, because of Zhang Fan later, Lao Ju is now quite convinced of Zhang Fan. In Ouyang's words, this fan son is a thief.

"Well, since everyone agrees, let's implement it. However, for doctors and nurses who work overtime and work these days, we can't be stingy. We can't give less subsidies. In addition, the canteen must ensure that there are hot meals for 24 hours. When they go to the canteen, they should be able to eat a hot meal.

Secretary Ren, President Yan and President Ju, you three have worked harder these days, and the internal medicine will be handed over to you. I hope our team can fight with the wind and hard. President Chen, you should be responsible for the logistics of respiratory doctors these days.

For example, if people can't take the new year's goods home, you can take them from the logistics and general affairs office door to door. We must not let people worry about their family. It is unreasonable to let people worry about their family when the new year comes. "

"Good!"

After the meeting, Zhao Jingjin, Luo Zhengguo and Yan Xiaoyu walked together in the direction of the expert building.

"Little Dean, it's very powerful. The deans at hand are quite cooperative!" She was a little uncomfortable that Zhang Fan didn't take her advice, but it was purely because of Ren Li.

So speak a little

"Hehe, don't tell me. He really has a set and doesn't know how to learn it. Don't mention his age. Even now, I don't know as much as others think. I do well in surgery and my administrative ability is not poor. Hey! People are more angry than people. "

Luo Zhengguo said with self mockery.

Zhao Jingjin didn't care. He just looked at Yan Xiaoyu. He wouldn't persuade, because he knew that she wouldn't understand without the iron fist of dictatorship.

Who is Zhang Fan? It can almost be said to be Qiu school "which is, which is! Hard work, hard work. " The old car signed happily.

"Boys and girls, get on the bus. First say yes, you can eat, but you can't waste. You can eat and support, but you can't take it without permission!"

"Chenyuan cow force!"

"Hey, smelly boy, Zhang Yuan is awesome. I can't speak! " Old Chen Le's mouth is crooked.

It's not that the doctors and nurses of the tea vegetable hospital have never seen the world. In recent years, there are too many tea vegetable enterprises that are half dead, and everyone is suffocated by the annual delivery of goods every year. Moreover, tea element is the farthest place from China to the sea, so Southern fruits and seafood are really scarce.

Lao Chen has great skills. When Zhang Fan gave the order, he called major medical device and pharmaceutical enterprises directly in order to do well.

Most of these enterprises are in the seaside and the south. According to Lao Chen, direct air transportation.

Then, the tea vegetable hospital began to send new year goods.

"Ten things altogether. Ma Yichen, you bastard, eat less and choke carefully. "

The tea vegetable hospital happily began to distribute new year's products.

After work, doctors and nurses pulled New Year's goods for rent box by box. Even the older nurses, who were most reluctant to take a taxi in the past, stood on the side of the road to greet taxis.

"Oh, my God, did your unit send the annual goods?" The taxi driver said with envy.

"Yes, from the hospital."

The nurses and doctors are as proud as Lao Chen.

Chapter 1185

Zhang Fan personally led the team to deliver things to retired doctors and nurses. In the early years, the establishment of nurses and doctors was not as large as it is now. At that time, almost all doctors and nurses had the establishment. Later, almost all the establishment was inclined to doctors, and the establishment of nurses became more and more rare.

Because in the early years, doctors came out of primary and secondary schools, almost the same as nurses. With the improvement of doctors' education, the education of nurses develops slowly.

"Thank you, thank you. Zhang Yuan still remembers us old guys!" In the home of old Cui tou, a respiratory doctor, Zhang Fan immediately went to the door with a large number of people.

"Director Cui, are the new year's goods ready? I have brought many people, young and old." Zhang Fan smiled and entered the door.

"Enough to eat, enough to eat, a lot of new year goods." Old Cui's face was red and festive.

To tell the truth, once a person retires, he often yearns for the units he was not satisfied with when he was young. Perhaps what he yearns for is not the unit, but his youth.

Lao cuitou's children quickly brought tea and water to Zhang Fan. Lao cuitou's wife had already started cooking.

In the past, it was the chairman comrades of trade unions. These old comrades went to the hospital to get things, just some noodles. They didn't even go to the hospital clinic. Although Ouyang is very kind to Zhang Fan, in fact, the old lady is very cold-blooded. For these retired people, as long as they don't promise to be rehired, the old lady will never recognize anyone when she goes out.

But Zhang Fan is different.

So this time, the old comrades' condolences did not take the form. Zhang Fan personally led the team and the leading group of the hospital came to the door. Tea is too special and lacks details. Now Zhang Fan begins to pay attention to these old guys.

Old Cui holds Zhang Fan's hand in his head and sits on the sofa. He still doesn't put Zhang Fan's hand "The hospital is getting bigger and bigger now, and there are more and more patients. I didn't expect you to come and see me myself. "

"In the past, it was difficult for hospitals. As you know, if they did not develop, they would be beaten. The hospitals in the bird market were eyeing us and wanted to annex us. The European Academy is also a strong person. Even if our teeth are knocked out, we have to swallow them in our stomach. Therefore, we don't care enough about the old comrades. This is a mistake in our work. Even if we are hard and busy, can't we spare any time?

This is still not enough attention. The hospital has been upgraded now. Are you happy? Happy, but this is not the efforts of our generation, but the achievements of your older generation. Without you laying such a good foundation for us, we can't be promoted to a provincial hospital if we have the ability.

I didn't dare to come before. I'm afraid you'll ask me how the hospital is now. What can I say? Can I only say it's still the same? No, now I dare to come, because I dare say to you that we have maintained and expanded the rivers and mountains you have laid.

Chief executive Choi, when you published the association between tuberculosis and diabetes, the hospital did not have the ability to give it to someone else.

This is the unwillingness of old Cui tou all his life. People are wonderful. Some pursue eating, drinking and having fun all their life, while others pursue fame and shadow. Old Cui Tou is like this. Some doctors went to private hospitals in the South after retirement, but he didn't go, and even lost his temper with the private boss who invited him.

The family didn't understand him and didn't understand him. They could only say that he was a stubborn old man.

But Zhang fan understands.

"Hey, they are old. Why do you mention these!" Old Cui's head and eyes are red. He didn't expect that the leaders of such a large hospital were still thinking about his most proud and sad achievements.

"We can't forget our roots. The people you brought out in the respiratory department are now the backbone. Even ye Jingjing, who loves money, is now a big winner in the Department. They are all your disciples and grandchildren. "

"Yes! Good! " Old Cui's head is ten years younger than what Zhang Fan said.

Zhang Fan didn't say hello in advance when they came, but it's almost the new year, and there are many cooked foods at home. After a while, the children at home and the boss of old Cui set a table with seven dishes and eight bowls.

"I must eat at home today, or my old Cui will be angry."

"Eat, I didn't want to go out on an empty stomach. Director Cui will serve the wine. Lao Chen will make a toast to director Cui. "

"OK." With that, Lao Chen took out Feitian Maotai.

"Drinking from home can't make you drink." As he spoke, old Cui took out two bottles of Maotai. The labels were yellow and looked like smoke.

"This was sent to me by the regional secretary at that time. He was suffering from lung disease at that time, so I'll take good care of it. I didn't take it out when I married a girl and a daughter-in-law. I'm happy today. The leader came. Let's drink these two bottles of wine. "

Old Cui looked excited. How many years have you retired and been paid so much attention by hospital leaders? Can you not be excited.

My wife looked at her old man like a child and secretly wiped her tears. For many years, the stubborn old man was not so happy today.

"Drink, don't go until you finish!"

Zhang Fan ordered that after a group of people sat down on the table, Lao Cui said to the children, "there's no place for you today. You serve tea and pour water today."

"Aunts have to be seated. Without aunts, director Cui probably didn't make so much achievements." Zhang Fan couldn't help but pull the old lady onto the stool.

The children at home are also happy. Although they have no son from their father's career, they know too much about the tea vegetable hospital and Zhang Fan of tea vegetable. This man is too powerful.

While eating, Zhang Fan asked, "director Cui, how are you these years?"

"OK, exercise every day and read journals every day."

"Angry with me every day!" His wife added.

"Ha ha, that's good, that's good! Health is the most important thing. Director Cui, I can't drink. Let President Chen give you a toast. I heard that when he entered the hospital, you were already the director? "

"Oh, time flies. When I introduced him to someone, he couldn't live or die."

"Ha ha!"

Everyone looked at Lao Chen happily and embarrassed.

Zhao Jingjin looked at Zhang Fan and felt very special.

It's like Zhang Fan in this city is like a star.

After three glasses of wine, Zhang Fan said to Lao Cui's wife, "aunt, I want to borrow someone from you!"

Lao Cui sat up straight and looked at his wife. To tell the truth, he didn't care much about his family in the past few years at work. Now, although he has retired, he is still in Cao Ying and his heart is in Han.

However, looking at his wife's gray hair, he couldn't say.

"Borrow, borrow, borrow, take him away quickly, or quarrel with me every day. If there is more salt and less vinegar, you can make a fire three times after eating. How many times a private boss comes, he won't even let others in. Ah, I was born to be your man! "

"Ha ha, aunt is really a hero. A toast to my aunt! "

Old Cui was so excited that he wanted to clink a glass with the boss.

He doesn't even ask about his reemployment salary.

However, Zhang Fan has to say.

"The private boss doesn't know how much money he paid director Cui. Although our hospital is not rich, we can't treat director Cui unfairly. The monthly salary is 20000. Other subsidies are the same as other comrades. Director Cui, what do you think?"

"Much more. I never took so much money at work. " Old Cui is not calm.

"Director Cui, you don't know. Now the hospital is rich!" Juma Buick said with a smile.

Lao Ju was a prick when he was young, that is, after SARS, he gradually became calm.

"Director Cui, will you be able to start in ten years?"

Zhang Fan asked.

"Hey, old doctor, I know you are difficult and short of people now. The colder the weather is, the busier the respiratory department is. I can start work tomorrow and arrange shifts!"

"Good! These are the old comrades, and these are our predecessors. " Zhang fanlike asked Lao Chen to take out the contract.

Old Cui tou's wife looked, oh, this is the important person coming to the door. The dean is not simple!

When they had enough to eat and drink, Zhang Fan put down their new year goods and went out. At old Cui tou's house, old Cui tou took out the stethoscope he had used for many years and wiped it with alcohol. While wiping, he said to the stethoscope: "old man, I'm going to be busy again!"

"Next!"

"Oh, Dean Zhang!" Dr. Wang's house, open the door and have a look. Darling, the hospital leader is coming. Lao Wang is wearing a tiger hat to play with his grandson.

One by one.

Zhang Fan ran all the pillars of that year as long as he was healthy. He was the same as Ouyang!

"Seize the time and bring the old with the new. We must not miss this opportunity. They are all elderly people. Time is running out, and our time is running out."

This is the wealth of tea vegetable hospital, the wealth of decades.

"This son of a bitch learns crooked ways faster than anyone else." When he heard that Zhang Fan led the team to invite people, Ouyang thought a little bad.

Because she was also a dean, and she didn't go there during her term of office. So for Zhang Fan's growth, she is happy and angry. She looks like she has learned her skills.

"I won't work this year. Let someone bring my cactus home tomorrow! " Ouyang said to his wife.

My wife didn't seem to hear it. He knows Ouyang and can't sit still.

Why did private hospitals spring up in those days? Money is one aspect, and more importantly, after a large number of grass-roots hospitals were unsustainable, all the mature doctors went to private hospitals.

It can be said that they developed from the blood of public hospitals. In particular, a good private hospital, non Tian Department, was set up by a group of doctors in public hospitals in those years. Depending on the newly graduated students, there are no doors. Don't kill two in a year, and you'll close the door.

Zhang Fan is not a person to wait and rely on. When he heard that there are only two doctors in the respiratory department on duty, he began to think of a way.

How to solve this problem quickly. The methods of the three deputies are not good. We can only dig into the details of the tea vegetable hospital.

In one day, Zhang Fan had seven or eight meals, but he couldn't do without them. The old doctors were not happy without them.

But the effect is good. There are many mature doctors in internal medicine. Although these old men are not on the night shift, as long as they are there, they are the sea god needle.

Chapter 1186

I'm happy. Everyone in the hospital is happy. I won't wind up this year.

There are also unhappy.

"The tea vegetable hospital has sent a lot of things this year."

"What else can they make with rice flour oil and vermicelli?"

"Cut! What do you know? My sister-in-law worked as a nurse in the hospital. They sent four boxes of fruits, all of which were ripe Southern fruits. Mangoes were so sweet. My son didn't go home after eating rambutan. It's nothing. There's also seafood. You've eaten too much octopus and octopus with a child's head. It's all yellow. Ouch, I can't say it. I drool when I say it.

You know what? These seafood were all sent by air. Their Zhang Yuan also said that they would pay three times their salary and red envelopes for the new year shift. Tut, tut, tut, look at our leaders! "

In the government women's Federation, the old lady said to her neighbor's table at the beginning, and then began to say to the whole office.

"Look what we send. What's this? Can it be called vermicelli? There's no hot water in the basin. The tap water will collapse when it bubbles. This is worse than instant noodles! "

Everyone talked, and then one office after another blew through the whole building like the wind.

"Leaders, they don't talk about unity." The leader in charge of health complained angrily in the boss's office.

"Hey, what do you say? Now people don't belong to us, but it's not right for them to send new year goods like this. What do you want us to do? Ask the God of wealth how much money he has now. Hey, send more, or it's hard to bring the team. "

The tea vegetable boss is also sad.

To tell the truth, sometimes it's not so easy to be the boss of a poor area. If there is an unmanaged unit in the area, it's even more oppressive.

For example, the tobacco company is also managed by the provincial government every year. Although you open a tobacco factory in the local area, your family doesn't pay much attention to the local government. You can't say the welfare of others. The hair meat is half a fan of pork, which is a luxury. Enterprises near tobacco companies are jealous.

Fortunately, there is no tobacco factory in the tea plant, which is also a wonderful work. Selling cigarettes or monopolizing businesses can be closed down and let others merge. There is no one.

"Let's buy a freezer?" Xue Fei's wife looked sadly at these fruits and seafood. Her brothers went home for the new year. In tea, they didn't even have a relative and couldn't send them out if they wanted to. Give it to others and don't want to give it up. It's such an expensive thing.

The fridge is already full.

"OK, you decide." Like Uncle Xue Fei, he lay on the sofa and didn't know what to think.

"It must be expensive now. It's cheaper after the new year. Do you think we should pay a new year's call to Zhang Yuan this year? "

"Go, definitely." Xue Fei is used to his wife's jumping thinking. And he doesn't do any work at home. As long as he doesn't play mahjong, his wife is a kind-hearted conch girl. He can lie down and lie down if he wants to, whatever he wants.

"Send something. Zhang Yuan doesn't drink or smoke. Why doesn't he have a hobby!" Xue Fei's wife is worried.

It's also troublesome for leaders to have no hobbies.

Not only is Xue Fei's wife worried, but so are others.

"You Zhang Yuan is so young that you have no hobbies at all?" Lao Chen's wife also packed up the new year goods sent by the hospital and chatted with Lao Chen.

"Yes, I love food, cars and jade! You're willing to give it, but he doesn't dare to take it. Well, what do you think about all day?" Lao Chen said unwillingly.

He knows Zhang Fan too well, and he is reluctant to tell his wife about Zhang Fan. Some things are his secrets.

Ma Yichen's family, "go and send two bottles of wine to your master. I brought it out from Sanchuan distillery. It doesn't have a trademark. "

"It won't be a fake bar." Ma Yichen said to his father while gnawing at meat and bones.

He knows his father too well. If he doesn't buy branded Maotai and Wuliangye, can he buy several houses in tea.

To tell the truth, it's happy for the Chinese New Year. We can drink and eat, but there's no need to pursue some so-called luxury goods.

For example, Maotai, is this something to drink? Even if you drink it, you can't drink it. Really, many tobacco and wine stores are crowded all year round, waiting for you for the new year. He sharpens his knife.

"It's not Chinese new year yet. My master doesn't drink anything." He is reluctant to give gifts.

After all, I'm still young.

"What do you know? This is a special offering. Be obedient. Don't take more. Just take two bottles of wine and go ahead of time. People are still busy for the new year."

Ma Yichen took the wine to Zhang Fan's house.

"Master, my father asked me to give you gifts!" Ma Yichen doesn't look silly and thick. In fact, he has a treacherous merchant father. Can he be stupid.

When he entered the door, he said that his father asked him to give gifts. Zhang Fan, who had wide eyes, was angry and smiled at Ma Yichen's words.

"What did you send?"

"I don't know whether the real wine is fake wine. He boasted that it was made from the factory of Wuliangye."

"You boy..." Zhang Fan didn't want it, but Shaohua came and caught the wine. He said to Ma Yichen, "OK, sit down, say hello to your father when you go back, and take two cigarettes back. Have you eaten, meatball soup? "

"After eating, I was driven out when I wasn't full." Ma Yichen smiled and sat at the table.

"Are you here for dinner or for gifts?" Zhang Fan said to Ma Yichen reluctantly. He knows the boy.

Among the disciples he brought out, Wang Yanan is a young lady who doesn't know current affairs. That's definitely something to say. Ma Yichen, though simple and honest, is definitely cunning. Someone who can get up the wall with a ladder.

Eating the ball soup, Ma Yichen said to Zhang Fan, "master, I've been under great pressure recently."

"What's the matter, young man." Zhang Fan's parents and mother-in-law also came to the table. Zhang Fan's father thought his son was too mean, so he asked one more question.

"Old man, there are more and more doctors in hospitals now. I can't lift my head with a master's degree."

Zhang Fan didn't take over. What did the rabbit want to pull? As soon as he raised his ass, Zhang Fan understood.

"Really, masters are so difficult now?" Shao Hua was surprised because there were not many undergraduates in her former unit, let alone doctors.

"Well, not only doctors, but also foreign experts. Hey, I've lost my hair and baldness now. You see, you see, the scalp is almost on top of your head. " Ma Yichen's dark hair is almost felt, but the rabbit still shamelessly says he's going bald.

"Without such exaggeration, I think you spin a little more on your head, three!"

"Ha ha!" Zhang Fan was angry and happy by the boy " Don't think about studying. First you learn the skills of the old doctors in the Department. Then you've gone once. Don't worry before you go. Have you used a toothpick for dinner recently? "

"Use, master, three times a day. Use toothpicks as chopsticks." Ma Yichen doesn't worry about whether Zhang Fan agrees or not. Anyway, he just needs to make his words clear, and he doesn't worry. As long as the time is ripe, his study can't run away.

After dinner, Ma Yichen went home with the Chinese cigarette given by Zhang Fan. You can't give it less. He originally gave two. He said his father smoked badly, and Zhang Fan gave another one, "you don't lose money!"

"That cigar is not easy to smoke, and you don't smoke."

"Get out!"

After driving away Ma Yichen, Shaohua said to Zhang Fan, "this is your student. Let's break the example, but it gives me a wake-up call. I'm going to take my parents back to the farm for the new year. Are you going or not? "

Zhang Fan thought, "on New Year's Eve and the first day of the new year, I'll lead a team to express my condolences. I can't go back. I'll go back to the farm on the afternoon of the first day of the new year."

"OK, everyone is staring at your current position. If others come home, it will be difficult for you and others for the new year. We can't make it. Let's go away early and everyone will be relaxed."

"Well, my wife is smart. A good wife and husband don't cause trouble! "

"Go shave, it hurts me."

"Copy that!"

The medical industry pays attention to paying New Year's greetings a year ago, especially those that are important. Send some new year goods and some new year money in advance. For example, the director of the Department paid a new year's call to the president. He went there quietly before the new year. He went with the Department collectively during the new year. Unless the director who is going to retire soon, no one pees. What kind of God is he.

A visit years ago was a so-called informal visit to get down to business. The new year's call is a formal call, saying right and wrong.

It is a custom in China that Zhang Fan should pay New Year's greetings to others as well as to others.

First I called Shiniang. He knew that the old man would still be in the laboratory or office.

So ask the old lady if she has eaten yet.

Zhang Fan's teacher's wife had general feelings for old man Lu's students when she was young. After all, I'm still young, but when I get older, I like these young people more and more. Especially Zhang Fan and Lu Ning, the two youngest students.

Old lady, don't hurt the old man.

"Are you ready for the new year? It's time for you and Shao Hua to have children. It's easy for you and children to have children early while you are young. Wait for 30, and then have a child. The child hasn't grown up yet. You're old.

You can't play with me. If you want to help, you can't help. " The old lady nagged and told Zhang fan that the parents of the children would be short.

"Shiniang, let Shaohua take you to pick wild vegetables in the mountains in the spring. There are as many wild vegetables on the mountains here, such as dandelions and wild leeks. You can also help us with our children. "

Zhang Fan kept fooling the old lady.

"OK, OK, OK, after the new year, I'll go and have a look." The old lady changed her smile from the beginning to the real heart in the later stage.

Zhang Fan spent a lot of spitting here.

Heroes are outside. Internally, heroes may not be better than the old man who rubs his feet in the sun in the corner of the wall all day.

Old man Lu is like this. He is a leading academician in the Department of general foreign studies in the north, but he has nothing to do with his children.

Old man Lu has a son and a daughter. His son is a painter. He got married early, but he inherited DINK's thought. His daughter inherited his mantle and engaged in medical treatment, but it was only internal medicine. He was very excellent, but his marriage was difficult. According to the old lady, he was a bit of a celibate.

The old man has no choice.

After paying New Year's greetings to the old lady, Zhang Fan will pay New Year's greetings to the old man.

Chapter 1187

Some people are quite enthusiastic when they meet and beautiful when they talk, giving people a feeling of spring breeze. For example, some relatives are clearly guests, but they can turn away from the guest and show a host attitude to other guests.

"Go after dinner. The meal will be ready soon. " When he saw that others were leaving, he said beautiful words. Anyway, the other party could not really stay. But it is this kind of cheap words that make many people think this person is very good.

Zhang Fan is not. In the past, he seemed to feel that he was smart and beautiful when he saw people in college. In fact, it is forced by life.

So when Zhang Fan calls Shiniang, in addition to seducing the old lady, there is a rhythm of awkward conversation most of the time.

The old lady especially knows people like them. What virtue does her old man have? In fact, Zhang Fan is also what virtue. Most of the time, the old lady asked again: when do you and Shaohua want children? Ask early while you are young. How are your parents at home.

Zhang Fan as like as two peas in common, is not only systematic but also speaking and talking in private, and when he is about to speak, he is only talking with a white face.

After calling the old lady, Zhang Fan has to call his master and uncle.

Call master first.

The old man estimated that he was in the hospital, because he listened to someone report his work again. After connecting the phone, he said he would come back later.

"The hospital has been upgraded?"

Without greeting, the old man directly asked about his work.

"Yes. It was originally under the name of Frontier medicine, but now it's under the name of the golden mean University. It's a lot more famous, but I feel like I'm adopted, and people don't say anything. "

"Hehe, what are you talking about? How big is your tea vegetable hospital. What do you want people to say? "

Zhang Fan twisted his mouth reluctantly: "our hospital has a name for tea in the frontier!"

"Hehe, speaking of this, I want to say something." The old man pondered for a moment.

Zhang Fan wondered if he was not willing to seduce the old lady and the old tea vegetable? No, he can't even go to surgery now. To tell the truth, he is very mature in the experiment of others' Bluebird. If there are results but no results, he doesn't care how big the relationship can be!

Of course, this must not be said, otherwise the old man can be angry. In Qingniao, to be honest, people are very mature in every way. So Zhang Fan was really greedy, and his master drooled.

The old man's role in the green bird is more signboard than use, but the tea element is different. Say a bad word, the old man comes to tea, and Zhang Fan wants to use the old man as a young man.

"Well, now the hospital has been upgraded. Are you happy to save it? " Zhang Fan thought about what the old man wanted to say. As a result, the old man didn't ask him about harassing the old lady when he was fine.

"Happy!" Must be happy. Zhang Fan doesn't have to think about it.

"Well, indeed, at your age, I was still studying for a doctor under master. At that time, life was so difficult. When my first child was born, I even planned to buy milk powder and fooled the child with some malt milk essence every three days.

But you are different. You are a big member in the medical system. When it comes to income, look at you. You drive millions of cars since you go to work. In addition to being a little difficult in your studies, you can be said to be successful in other aspects! ~ "

Zhang Fan's face is red. He knows clearly how his original graduate student came from. Although the quality of the paper is strong, the data is collected by the teachers and the scientific research topic is found by the master. To tell the truth, it's no different from chewing and feeding.

"But these successes are only personal successes. In the past, I didn't object to your throwing knife. I just wanted your income to be higher. Don't think of evil ways because of life factors. Now it's different. When your hospital is bigger and bigger, the temptation will be more and more, bigger and bigger.

People often say, do not forget the original heart, what is the original heart? Do those corrupt officials naturally love greed because they are tempted to see, and their ideals are rubbed away a little. You are gifted. The more gifted people are, the more conceited they are.

I'm no exception. I didn't understand what I wanted and what I could want until I was 40. Many people walk crooked. Does he want to walk crooked? Not necessarily, so today I'm going to ring the alarm for you. You're the head of the hospital now.

What you can do and what you can't do, you must have a line. If you want money, you can simply fly a knife. Don't feel that you are a leader now. You can get a lot by stretching your hand and twisting your mouth. There is nothing so good in the world. "

"I know, master!"

"Well, I wish I knew. Don't think I'm wordy. Your teacher's wife said you found her a house? "

"Hey, hey, I found it. It's near the virgin forest, accompanied by birds in the morning..."

"OK, I'll go and have a look when I have a chance!" With that, the old man hung up.

Zhang Fan's heart is warm, just like a hot spring.

After a little cleaning up his mood, Zhang Fan called the martial uncle of magic capital.

"Where's my uncle?" The phone is connected. It's Shibo's secretary. Zhang Fan is quite casual about his uncle's secretary.

"The boss went to the general meeting. Every year, the sea will stop. This time, the hospital will send some people to assist in the drill. Zhang Yuan, is there anything important? Shall I go to the meeting? "

"Oh, it's all right. Just give the old man a new year. All right, you're busy. Wait until the old man is free." Zhang Fan hung up.

The Secretary of the martial uncle opposite couldn't help sticking out his tongue "old man! Hehe, hey, even if the close disciples dare not call it that, the tea vegetarian is really different. "

Academic circles or medical circles do not know when to hang up a share. Anyway, leaders are called bosses instead of leaders. The Chinese are quite good at destroying words. For example, after destroying comrades and young ladies, they destroy teachers.

Anyway, anyone with a sweet mouth can be called a teacher. Mr. Tony, Mr. nito and the serious teacher are embarrassed to be called a teacher.

Then the leader becomes the boss. It is estimated that the boss will be destroyed slowly. Anyway, the boss who sells fried dough sticks and receives glass bottles is also the boss. It is estimated that in the future, he will be called general manager, general manager, and general manager. Zhang Fan sometimes wants to do it when he is bored. If general manager is also called rotten, what is his name?

Do you call a committee seat?

After Zhang Fan cleaned up, he left the office and went home. Because Zhang Fan is always on duty on the 30th of the lunar new year, and then he wants condolences from all departments on the morning of the first day of the lunar new year, so going home for a meal today is equivalent to the Chinese New Year. And not only did the teacher ring the alarm, but he thought about it himself, and Shaohua also mentioned that he thought about it.

When this meal is finished today, it is estimated that Shaohua will take the old man and Jingshu to the farm. The farm is about 100 kilometers away from the urban area. There is no way to pay a new year's call. Sometimes, really, the more you get to a certain position, the more attention you should pay.

Of course, Zhang Fanneng realized this so early, not how noble he is, but that he doesn't lack money. He can get it in a better way, so he doesn't have to take risks. Most importantly, Zhang Fan has long passed the era of the first pot of gold, and he is not a person who attaches great importance to money, and Shaohua is Zhang Fan's brake.

Some girls, after working in banks, value money more and more. After some girls engaged in banking work, they found that this thing brought people not only wealth, but also greed, and Shaohua was the latter. Therefore, the girl took precautions early.

She doesn't need Zhang Fan to sell her a donkey bag watch. It's plain and light.

"Zhang Yuan is gone, Zhang Yuan is gone!" The new girls from the medical office are chattering.

Not that they want to do something with Zhang Yuan, but that they want to get off work early. A walkable post is not like a clinical post.

In the clinical position, when the doctor arrives, if there is no ward round or patient problem, no matter whether your leader is in or not, I will leave my shift and no one will speak.

But when you get to an administrative position, it's different. This place is full of chores, sometimes busy and sometimes not busy.

If the leader is not busy, he should think of ways to make himself look busy.

Moreover, there is another saying that if the leaders don't get off work, the officers of the medical office can't get off work. The new year is coming again these days, so the little girls are eager to look at Zhang Fan's office. But Zhang Fan, like his ass on the bench, just won't go.

When Zhang Fan tidied up after work, the little girls jumped with joy.

Listening to the happy voice behind him, Zhang Fan's mouth is not only crooked. This is not unhappy, but happy. Sometimes, Zhang Fan deals with old people, and often Zhang fan can't relax himself. Listening to the young and cheerful laughter, he was also relaxed.

.....

"Premier Zhang is off duty!" As soon as he entered the door, Lao Tzu Zhang Fan was unwilling to watch his son pout and ridicule.

It's new year's day. One is busy at home. Shao Hua, Jing Shu and two mothers clean up together. Although the home is usually very clean, there are still a lot of oil fumes and oil stains in the kitchen. Jing Shu and Shaohua are the main forces, and the ceiling has been removed and cleaned by them.

Zhang Fan's father-in-law and father-in-law are busy frying Mahua, fried oil cakes and fried balls, preparing the ingredients for the new year.

Only Zhang Fan came home to eat and sleep when it was dark. Then he got up and went to work before dawn. He couldn't help with his family's work at all.

Therefore, this makes Lao Tzu Zhang Fan very dissatisfied.

"Even the chairman will celebrate the new year, won't he. You see, Hua Zi is tired! "

"Ha ha!" Zhang Fan smiled foolishly and didn't talk much. Home is not a reasonable place, especially in front of an aging father. What can you say?

Zhang Fan got off work early today, washed his hands and went into the kitchen.

He also helped blow things up.

"Brother, just you thief, run towards the pot when you enter the door." Jingshu deliberately told her father.

"All right, don't fan the flames. The old man is already very dissatisfied!"

Chapter 1188

"It's good for you!" Zhang Fan glanced at Jingshu. The older my sister is, the more strange she feels. If Zhang Fan's character is a little old-fashioned. Well, Jing Shu definitely didn't bring it at all.

After all, Jing Shu's fate is much better than Zhang Fan's. When Zhang Fan was born, her family was poor, while Jing Shu was no longer worried about food and clothing.

When Zhang Fan was just an adult, he was laid off. Although Zhang Fan's father's enterprise was half dead in the early years, it was also a shelter from the wind and rain.

When this place is lost, the parents' expression of falling sky and the family are full of dense emotions. To tell the truth, Zhang Fan doesn't want to do it again in his life.

It is estimated that Zhang Fan's feeling, after meeting the 80's of that era, definitely has an unforgettable worry that he will never talk about and face.

Therefore, in college, Zhang Fan would rather sell instant noodles than make money. After work, how to save and how to come. And Jing Shu's life is much better.

When the tide of laid-off came, her brother Zhang Fan had helped the family. When he went to college, his brother had already gone to work. Although she is not a rich daughter, she has not suffered any crime.

Therefore, her character is more pleasing than Zhang Fan. It can be said that the environment can destroy a person and create a person. In Zhang Fan's character, it is more an inexplicable responsibility. Perhaps older people can understand it better.

"Hum!" Jingshu twisted her nose.

"Come on, let me help you." Zhang Fan pulled his sleeve and put his hand into the basin of detergent to take a rag.

"Don't move. Don't move. Last time I heard Xue Fei's wife say that your surgeons demand high sensitivity in the hand department.

She never let Xue Fei's hands touch anything exciting. I didn't know before, but now I know. Don't move, you go and meet! "

Shaohua stopped Zhang Fan. In the past, the family members of the hospital didn't know much about Shaohua. After all, Zhang Fan didn't enter the hospital for long.

But after Zhang Fan became the leader of the hospital, in just half a year, every family knew Shaohua through various relationships.

Especially those who have a better relationship with Zhang Fan. For example, Xue Fei's wife and Li Hui's biology teacher will make an appointment with Shaohua if they have nothing to do.

To tell the truth, the family members who can make an appointment with Shaohua are all of high EQ, and they are all interested in Shaohua. Man is really a complex thing.

"Well! Unprepared, I was fed a mouthful of dog food!" Jing Shu looked at her sister-in-law and her brother and said with exaggeration on her face.

"Speak well!" Zhang Fan and his mother said to Jing Shu at the same time.

"Eccentric!" Jingshu stretched out her tongue, "sister-in-law, you're used to your husband."

"He is busy at work. The most important thing is that I don't trust him when he wipes it. After he wipes it, I have to wipe it again. I just wipe it myself!"

Zhang Fan is engaged in hygiene, Shaohua dislikes it, and when he enters the kitchen, his father dislikes it again. Simply make logistics for everyone, serve tea and pour water.

Zhang Fan's parents are not too eccentric, but it is obvious that Zhang Fan is the heart of her mother. She never says that her eldest son is not. Even if she speaks, she is quite gentle or in a consultative tone.

It's like what my son said is all right.

For Jingshu, it's different. When talking to her daughter, the old lady speaks with a steel tone. Even if Jing Shu was more powerful than Zhang Fan in the college entrance examination, she could not change her mother's view that her son studied better.

Zhang Fan's father is different. In the past, three words with Zhang Fan could start to top the cow. When Zhang Fan didn't go to work, he often quarreled with his father.

Later, when he went to work, Zhang Fan flinched. I won't quarrel with me.

But the old man for his daughter, then directly changed a person, Zhang Fan shouted dad, his father was in a good mood, took care of it, raised his eyelids, and was in a bad mood, just like the back of his ear.

Jingshu shouted and said a bad word. The old man was like an old dog with flowers. He didn't say it. He had to wag his tail. He was afraid to wait.

So ah, people's hearts are biased, and there is really nothing wrong.

The family is in full swing preparing for the new year's food. The heavy snow slowly drifted down, and there was an atmosphere of the new year. The heavy snow all over the world makes the whole world quiet a lot, but the lights at home are particularly warm at home.

The Spring Festival in the south is often full of red flowers and green willows. Many southerners go to the flower market. But Zhang Fan, a native of the northwest, always feels that there is no snow during the new year, just like tofu is sweet. It's not that you can't eat it, but it's just uncomfortable.

The Spring Festival of tea element can make people feel that this is the new year, which is the feeling of all things quiet.

Because of the weather, many ingredients are often prepared during the Northwest Chinese New Year. Although supermarkets are open every day, there are old people at home who always prepare a pile of ingredients as if they were preventing something.

Zhang Fan's family is particularly lively this year.

Zhang Fan's mother and father fried pasta. After all, northwest people are better at pasta.

Oil fruit is a special pasta snack in Northwest China. Zhang Fan loved to eat when he smiled, but the conditions were not good in those years. Even in the new year, he couldn't open up to eat. Now, when you can eat it freely, you always seem to feel that you can't eat the taste of that year.

In the northwest, especially in the surrounding rural areas near Lan City, if a housewife can't cook pasta well, she can't have a high status at home anyway.

Oily fruit, which looks golden and tastes crisp and dry. After Zhang Fan poured tea for everyone, he stood behind his mother and quietly watched the old lady cook pasta.

Beat a few eggs into the flour, and then the most important thing is to put a certain amount of long refined oil into the flour. Zhang Fan doesn't know how to cook fried pasta.

But at home, Zhang Fan's mother secretly told Zhang fan that whether it is crisp depends on the big oil mixed in the flour.

When the flour turned into dough, it was slowly rolled into a pancake five centimeters wide and twenty centimeters long in the hands of Zhang Fan's mother.

Then, mix the sandwich with honey and brown sugar flour. Brown sugar is used for coloring, while flour is used to increase viscosity.

A layer of bread, a layer of vermilion sandwich, and then another layer of bread.

The dough cake has been kneaded with a greasy feeling. The three-layer structure is gently stacked together, and then cut with a sharp knife. Everything is a pair of chopsticks wide small noodles.

Then, gently twist one direction, just like a screw with three lines twisted together.

Finally, blow up. When people in Northwest China make fried pasta, they often put a little animal oil in the vegetable oil, which will reduce the oil temperature and prevent the pasta from being fried and blackened on the skin and not cooked inside.

When the white noodles enter the golden oil like fish, one by one into the oil pan, and then the smoke in the oil suddenly emits slowly with a smell of wheat.

Then, the white fruits began to color, from light yellow to golden yellow.

Zhang Fan's mother placed the nuts, and Zhang Fan's father was responsible for frying them. The two worked together.

"Taste it!" Zhang Fan's father's first batch of oil nuts has come out of the pot. Zhang Fan's mother wiped her hands on her apron, quickly picked up one and sent it to Zhang Fan's mouth.

"Try it. See if it's sweet or not. This year I put not only eggs but also milk in it. Open your mouth, you child. "

Looking at Zhang Fan not opening his mouth, my mother was a little angry.

I don't know why, maybe I saw the white hair between my temples, or the crow's feet at the corners of my eyes.

Zhang Fan felt inexplicable in his heart that he wanted to cry.

"Crisp, sweet!" Zhang Fan nodded his head gently and was afraid to let his mother feel his emotions. Zhang Fan chewed quickly.

"Hehe, then eat more."

.....

Zhang Fan's parents are responsible for pasta, while Zhang Fan's father-in-law and mother-in-law are responsible for meat.

In particular, the father-in-law's first-hand sweet and sour fish. To tell the truth, ordinary restaurants really can't do his craft.

Every family in the heavy snow is preparing for the new year. Only the snow is floating, but it is particularly peaceful and peaceful.

Because Zhang Fan had to lead the chief on duty on the 30th and first day of the new year, his family celebrated the new year ahead of schedule.

The two old men want to drink a little. Although Zhang Fan doesn't drink, he still has a lot of good wine at home.

Especially after he became friends with the boss of bird market winery, this guy gave Zhang Fan good wine from all ages.

Red and white.

Two old man drinks baijiu. Shao Hua specially sought a bottle of tea cellar. This wine was specially told by others to drink. At the beginning, the winery owner of bird market said that this kind of wine could not be seen on the market.

Anyway, Zhang Fan doesn't drink and doesn't pay much attention to it.

"Well, I've drunk a lot of good wine with Zhang Fan in the past two years. I've been in tea vegetable all my life. I really don't know that Laojiao is so delicious."

Zhang Fan's father-in-law looked at his son-in-law with a smile.

"Isn't that right? He doesn't honor you. Who does he honor. Let me say, it was his good fortune to meet you and huazi.

Look at him. Now, just like the rich man, he doesn't do anything at home! "

"Well, for the holidays, so much food and drink can't stop your mouth. Huazi, come and have a taste. " Zhang Fan's mother is not happy.

"Ha ha, all good, all good!" The father-in-law is happy.

Mother-in-law is also happy.

Jing Shu and her daughters drink red wine, while Zhang Fan drinks Tieguanyin.

"I don't ask for anything this year, but you should have children."

.....

After dinner, Jing Shu and Shao Hua sat together and played mahjong.

Zhang Fan didn't participate much, but sat aside and helped watch the cards.

To tell the truth, in Zhang Fan's eyes, even if they haven't played cards for many years, it's worth mentioning their technology.

"What's wrong with me? It's all your fault, disorderly command! " Shao Hua pouted.

Zhang Fan smiled and said nothing.

The next day, Shao Hua drove Jingshu in a pickup truck. The two old men drove their own Santana directly back to the farm.

Chapter 1189

Many special industries are often busier when it comes to festivals. The frontier is a little better. There can be people who can be replaced, such as some ethnic groups who are not in the Spring Festival. At this time, they will replace some ethnic groups such as Han and Mongolia to work, and take turns when others celebrate the festival.

However, when we arrived at the tea vegetable hospital, we couldn't come like this, because the rotation of staff was not enough, so during the new year, those people still work shifts with each other. Of course, the state has policies for people who work in frontier areas.

Five hundred kilometers away from home, unmarried, can enjoy three to five days of home leave every year. Once married, the treatment becomes three years. So in the past, Ouyang paid close attention to getting doctors and nurses in the hospital to get married. He not only wanted to keep people, but also thought of ending this treatment ahead of schedule.

Zhang Fan was able to enjoy this policy when he was in the county hospital, but he didn't go home that year. When I arrived at the tea vegetable hospital, I got married before I noticed. Moreover, now he has become a person in the hospital. Even if he is unmarried, he can't leave on this special day.

The festival is actually a family reunion. All the family went to the farm. It doesn't matter that Zhang fanlai said that it's only new year's Eve. Moreover, for the party, his generation has no such expectations as his parents' area, just like chicken ribs.

From 2:00 p.m. on New Year's Eve, Zhang Fan's phone is like a hotline. Looking at the end of the power of his private phone, he finally breathed a sigh of relief, and then sent the last text message to Shao Hua: "the mobile phone has no power, it doesn't turn on. If something happens, call the medical department of the hospital and someone is on duty."

After sending a text message, Zhang Fan began to patrol.

The first is to inspect the canteen.

"Zhang Yuan!"

"Zhang Yuan!"

The logistics director and several owners of the canteen are waiting for Zhang Fan at the gate of the canteen.

"Hard work, happy new year. You can't rest well during the festival." Zhang Fan said politely.

"Not hard, not hard, the leaders are hard." The logistics director looked at Zhang Fan with a red face.

Many posts in many units are not on the pleats. For example, the procurement department, equipment department, pharmacy department and Logistics Department of the hospital seem to have no clinical scenery. In fact, the directors of these departments may not be happy to give them to the vice president at the end of the hospital.

For example, the hospital's one-year logistics cost is about 3 million yuan. This kind of money is spent sporadically. He gets a little oil hand casually, which is quite good in a year. Therefore, for Zhang Fan, he is more respectful than other middle-level managers.

"What delicious food have you prepared today?" Zhang Fan smiled and didn't talk much. In the traditional sense, this kind of position is to use the old instead of the new. Just like people who are full and people who are not full, people who are full will always converge a little.

"As you said, it's 200 yuan per person. Dumplings are certain. There are shrimp stuffing, mutton, beef, pork and vegetarian three delicacies. There are also roast whole sheep, 20 people a sheep, specially invited Mongolian old cooks to bake in person, as well as all kinds of buckle dishes, seafood, chickens, ducks, fish and geese. Our logistics personnel are almost on duty this time, and the 24-hour heat preservation will ensure that every doctor and nurse can eat hot meals and hot dishes anytime and anywhere. "

"It's not easy. It's so comprehensive and attentive to think." Zhang Fan nodded.

The logistics director didn't know whether it was fake or real. Anyway, he was excited, "no hard work, no hard work. As long as the leaders are satisfied, we won't work hard!"

"Hey, let the comrades be satisfied!"

"Yes, comrades are satisfied." It's like apologizing, but what I think in my heart is: if you are not satisfied, my hat will be unstable, and if comrades are not satisfied, they will scold their mother.

The logistics director knows Zhang Fan quite well. Although Zhang Fan didn't enter the hospital for long, the speed of running up is really unprecedented. Moreover, although he laughs at everyone at ordinary times, it's like selling insurance, but the logistics director is quite clear that his hand may not be whiter than Ouyang's.

The former canteen owner has changed the president for several times. No one can help him if he still doesn't cook well with the hospital subsidy. But after he took office, he didn't even sit on the bench. Before he could be a pen, he raised his big knife. It's hard for anyone to cut. He cut and chop. He's a smiling tiger.

For the management of clinical departments, Zhang Fan is more inclined to preach and give opportunities if he can. For auxiliary departments such as logistics, Zhang Fan is hard to say.

Therefore, the clinical doctors and nurses were not afraid of Zhang Fan, and the little nurses joked in front of Zhang Fan, but when they arrived at the logistics department, let alone the staff, the department director had to tremble.

Zhang Fan walked around the canteen with a smile. He not only asked, but also tasted it himself“ Dumplings taste a little weak. More fresh vegetables, more lesbians in hospitals, not just meat. "

"OK, I'll buy it now." The logistics director's sweat came down.

Laugh and turn your face.

"This is the president of the hospital?"

"Yes, young."

"Yes. Young, married or not. My daughter is also a college student. "

Several kitchen assistants in the window quietly watched Zhang Fan gossip. I usually don't notice when I eat. They are all wearing white coats. I don't know it's a leader. I can see it clearly this time. A black boy.

But when a man reaches a certain position, his skin is no longer important.

Dinner begins at eight.

In the past, it was relatively early to eat at 8 p.m. in the frontier, and most people didn't eat until 9 p.m. But today is new year's Eve, so people in the Department eat earlier.

Zhang Fan, Ouyang, Ren Li and Zhao Jingjin, who claimed not to go to work before the year, originally meant that their family was not in tea, so they would not participate in the dean's duty this year. But after all, it was their first year in the hospital, and they were embarrassed to go. They simply received tea from their families directly.

Therefore, the hospital leaders this year are mighty.

In the past, Ouyang would give a speech to everyone through the small horn of the hospital. Ouyang generally thought of bitterness and recalled sweetness, talked about the current high-rise buildings from the previous soil embryo room, and then looked forward to the future.

Zhang Fan is different. Lao Chen has prepared a manuscript for Zhang Fan, but Zhang Fan is useless. He is not only useless, but also doesn't use a trumpet to make a speech.

But directly take people to the Department to pay New Year's greetings in person.

"Hard work! What about the children at home? "

"I went to grandma's house."

"Hard work! Have you talked to someone? "

It is a common practice to hand deliver new year's red envelopes to the staff on duty while talking about family affairs. In the past, on the day of new year's Eve, the hospital leaders gave 200 red envelopes to the staff on duty.

And Zhang Fan gave 500 directly.

With Zhang Fan's condolences to their next department, the hospital dinner also began.

Even if the dinner is held, it is also in batches. A department will have dinner twice, and some departments can only make do in the Department.

Zhang Fan has been sitting at the table since the beginning of the dinner, accompanying the staff who came to dinner.

"Isn't he unprepared? All the roast sheep have been served. Such a big shrimp!" Ouyang's heart hurts when he looks at it.

Just as her mother-in-law saw her extravagant daughter-in-law spend money, she wanted to say that the money was earned by her daughter-in-law. Really, the old lady was in pain with chopsticks.

"Hehe, this year's income is good, and the unit has been upgraded. The tea vegetable government has returned the money owed to us over the years. Our foreign income is also significantly higher than in previous years." Lao Chen smiled and said to Ouyang.

Waves of doctors and nurses rushed to the canteen for dinner.

There are almost all kinds of drinks in the world. You can almost see them as long as they are non-alcoholic. All kinds of candy, melon seeds.

In fact, it looks very rich, but some people are still uneasy about eating.

"Dr. ye, come on, nine beds have heart failure." Ye Jingjing put down her chopsticks and turned to run. The mutton in the plate took a bite.

"Breath failure!" The respiratory doctor had to put down the prawns and return to work.

"Wang Yanan, come on, a child was injured by a gun."

There is no resentment, but who let them eat this bowl of rice.

The happier you are, the easier it is to have an accident.

For example, there are few injuries in a year at ordinary times, but almost all broke out during the new year.

Some injured their hands and some injured their eyes. Even husband and wife fight more than ever at this time.

There are also those who are drunk and lead to alcoholism. Almost all the annual doses of naloxone are used in these days.

After dinner, all the other leaders went back.

Zhang Fan is on duty today. It sounds like a war outside the hospital. He patrols all departments.

"Did you eat?"

"Zhang Yuan has eaten."

"Here, these two boxes of cigarettes smoke at night. We must not be careless these days. " Even the security room at each gate of the hospital, Zhang Fan went in.

To tell the truth, when the dean's heart is broken, you should know everything, whether you deal with it or not, you must know.

At one o'clock in the morning, Zhang Fan looked at the fireworks outside the window. After a day in the hospital, he was still a little tired.

Thinking of lying down for a while, the officer of the medical office knocked at the door“ Zhang Yuan, manager Shaohua will call you. "

"Good!" Zhang Fan thought that something had happened, otherwise Shaohua would not call the hospital.

When he connected the phone, Shaohua was crying“ Zhang Fan, aunt can't breathe. To the county hospital, people say transfer. "

"I'll call the county hospital!" Just about to hang up, Zhang Fan thought again and said to Shaohua, "wait for me, I'll pick you up. Don't drive. It's too snowy."

Hung up. Zhang Fan said to the officer, "call the European Academy and ask the European Academy to be on duty. I'll go out. "

After delivering the party at home, Ouyang sat on the sofa looking for the series, "why doesn't the Bangzi play be broadcast today?"

People are old and sleepy. After receiving a call from the hospital, Ouyang tilted his mouth and said, "Hey, county hospital!"

Chapter 1190

In the new year, there are few diseases that are particularly easy to break out. But it's not good. 1、 Allergies. The country is now rich, but it is not so rich that every family has big fish and meat every day.

Therefore, many families will use this solar term to buy some food they are reluctant to eat or rarely eat on weekdays.

For example, southerners buy beef and mutton from the north and northerners buy deep-sea fish from the south. Moreover, with the development of various high-speed transportation in the country, there are more and more foods that have never been heard of or eaten before. Then, there are more and more food allergies.

Just like some people drink milk, herdsmen in pastoral areas can even drink raw milk directly. If the warm raw milk is hygienic or not, people will not be allergic or upset. This is the establishment of an immune system.

Many foods have never been eaten, and the defense cells in the body don't know them. If one is slightly inappropriate, people will pull the alarm, carry the gun, and then people suffer.

And pancreatitis. In the past, most of the pancreatitis in China was caused by gallbladder diseases, but now, because the average amount of alcohol consumption has exceeded that in Jinmao country, especially on holidays, there are more and more pancreatitis caused by overeating and heavy drinking.

In particular, some people with high triglycerides are greedy for meat and oil. Fat meat is actually as addictive as pepper and sweets. The more you eat, the more you eat, the more delicious you eat. After eating, the two brothers will have a good drink.

As a result, it was so painful in the middle of the night that it was too late to call mom.

There are also injuries, children and adults. This is the so-called joy begets sorrow. Artillery, machinery, such things will never move according to people's will, so a slight neglect is an accident.

Shaohua in the county called Zhang Fan with a cry.

Zhang Fan drove his car and ran towards the county.

It turned out that Shaohua's little aunt was allergic.

In the past, Shaohua's family celebrated the new year. In fact, they celebrated the new year family by family. With Zhang Fan's current status, slowly, the relatives who didn't move began to move. Those who were closer by blood became closer.

Especially when Zhang fan arranged for Shao Hua's cousin and sister-in-law to sell steamed stuffed buns and newspapers at the gate of the tea vegetable hospital, the couple's life of moving bricks on the basis of their skills changed. As the saying goes, small businesses compete with landlords.

Although people just sell steamed stuffed buns and newspapers, at the end of a day, the net profit is hundreds. In more than a year, they not only paid off their foreign debt, but also bought a car.

Although it has been 11 years, some families with excellent conditions still buy cars in tea vegetables. As for rural areas and farms, they can be leaders and use buses for private use. Therefore, envy is not without envy.

As a result of envy, everyone gathered at Shaohua's house and vaguely regarded Shaohua's family as the leader of the family.

In particular, Zhang Fan's parents and sister all came to the farm. This time, relatives and friends came more completely.

Although Zhang Fan's mother and mother-in-law are not generous in borrowing money, Shaohua's mother and Zhang Fan's mother never treat relatives badly in terms of food and drink. Therefore, the seafood and southern fruits issued by Zhang Fan's hospital are good and scarce at home anyway.

A large family, Shaohua's aunts, cousins, cousins and sisters, all who can come are here. It was very lively.

Eating seafood, eating fruit and drinking the red wine given to Zhang Fan by the winery owner, the new year's Eve was quite good. In the atmosphere of people's special maintenance, it can be regarded as a bit of reunion.

Shao Hua's sister-in-law, who normally worked in the local tax office when she didn't retire, should be a well-informed person who has eaten and drunk. A few years ago, when the local tax and the national tax were separated, to tell the truth, people in the local tax almost didn't eat food in a city.

But after retirement, I don't know whether it's the mentality or age. Eating, Shaohua's sister-in-law thinks something's wrong.

Because there were many people, she was not the focus. She called her sister into Shaohua's bedroom and asked her sister to scratch her back.

Shao Hua's aunt is a strange woman stepping on the pulse of the times. Although they are teachers, they believe in immortals rather than science.

From the earliest Xianggong to the later square dance, what fire she plays. From health care products to soaking jujube in plastic bottles, from Amway in golden hair to the infrared and ultraviolet health bed in Bangzi country, she is the so-called little leader every time. But she just doesn't believe in science or the government that has educated her for decades.

Anyway, when she is, Dangdang can't be wrong. Finally, the life at home was more anxious than that of the lonely and widowed elderly. Others did new year's goods, and she bought health care products for the new year. The vegetable green on the hungry face is still the same as Xiuxian. It's helpless to eat the so-called imported health care products one by one.

To tell the truth, every holiday or special day, the police will come to comfort her. She is good. She doesn't bite or sound. Anyway, she should do what she should do. I guess I don't answer back because I don't have a pension.

Therefore, when they entered Shaohua's room, one was itchy and wanted to rub against the rough cement wall. The other was a lot of ideas and methods.

"Oh, you have a rubella."

"What?"

"It's all red rashes. The moisture in your body is too heavy. You wait for me to pull out the moisture for you!" It was as if she had reached the highlight time.

One hand had a strong drink and the other a towel.

"Sister, are you sure you will?"

For her sister, Shaohua is also a little skeptical, because she is too talkative.

"I'm good at it!"

Then, like a roast suckling pig, the liquor given by the winery owner to Zhang Fan was rubbed on the back of Shaohua's little aunt by Shaohua's big aunt.

"Feel more comfortable. Is your back much cooler?"

"Well! It's more comfortable. I don't feel so burned. "

"Look, I said there was a way. You wait for me to pull out the moisture for you now. You will be more comfortable."

Then the lighter ignited, to tell the truth, and then the blue light burned on Aunt Shaohua's back.

When it started burning, her big aunt covered Shaohua's little aunt's back with a towel and put it out!

The technique is quite skilled. It's estimated that they haven't practiced less at home or in their friends. To tell the truth, it's lucky that they didn't burn carbon.

They talked and did the so-called moisture extraction. As a result, Shaohua's little aunt felt more and more wrong.

"Sister, I can't. I'm suffocating!"

"It's all right. I'll just open the window for you. It's stuffy at home. Just breathe. I'm also suffocating."

One is caused by allergy and the other is tired from work.

If you don't know they are sisters, people really think they are enemies.

Shaohua waited for a long time, but she didn't see her two aunts. She went into her bedroom.

Follow the butcher to wash pig intestines, follow the doctor, and at least know some medical knowledge. Entering the bedroom, Shaohua saw her sister-in-law's back.

First, I saw a large area of bright red, just like a faded Turkey, a red monster. On a closer look, her aunt's back was covered with flesh pimples the size of sweat beads. The color on the tip of the flesh pimples was red as if it wanted to secrete something, while the base was green and white.

Anyway, I saw the goose bumps that can make Shaohua look good.

If it weren't for her own aunt, she might have turned around.

Then look at her sister-in-law's arm, swinging on the bed like a bastard swimming.

"Auntie! Aunt, what's the matter with you?" Shao Hua's voice was trembling, not afraid, but diaphragmatic.

Originally, the color of allergic skin was strange, and then let her big aunt have a meal like braised pork, which was even more gorgeous.

Think about it. A retired old lady's back is like a newborn baby. Her skin is squeezed red and blue, and she swings her limbs in her bed with pimples. Think about it, her scalp is numb.

"Hua, Hua, hold your breath, hold your breath!"

I don't speak very quickly.

Shaohua hurried closer to see that her little aunt's lips were purple, just like the purple potion. Your eyes are almost bulging out.

As soon as she saw it, she knew that something had happened.

"Dad! Mom! " Scream.

The whole family poured in.

"Come on, don't be stunned. Send it to the hospital."

Hula group of people, cousins and cousins carried aunt Shaohua into the car, and then directly into the county hospital.

Sometimes, when a person has a backer, he is particularly naive or will bite. It's not that this person can't, but that he doesn't care. If he doesn't struggle, he won't die of hunger anyway.

And the hospital is actually the same.

For example, in a small city around a big city, hospitals just can't. If generally speaking, there are not many hospitals in the county.

Why, because he can transfer to another hospital, because he has a superior hospital.

Why did the tea vegetable hospital break out in the early years? Because the frontier is too big, it often has some critical diseases. When it comes to the tea vegetable hospital, it is even upside down. Whether you have money or power, when the mountains and roads are closed by heavy snow, you have to rely on the doctors of tea vegetable hospital.

Therefore, tea vegetable hospitals can be more powerful than other hospitals in the early stage, and they are also forced out alive.

County hospitals are different.

It was the new year's Eve. All the young doctors who stayed in various departments were young doctors.

When Aunt Shaohua was sent to the emergency department, the doctor in the emergency department looked and said to go to the internal medicine quickly.

When I arrived at the internal medicine department, the little internal medicine doctor's hands were shaking.

He has never seen such a serious allergy. His allergic back is as hot as boiling water, and people's breathing is a little suffocated.

He was not sure at first. Now he is even more uncertain when he sees this situation.

"Come on, transfer quickly. Go to the tea vegetable hospital. I'll open a transfer certificate for you! Don't delay, go. "

During the Chinese new year, pancreatitis, allergy and explosion are the three major hazards. But there are three minor hazards, sugar, soup and scalding. If you drink soup to supplement calcium or not, you don't have to say, but this thing can really fatten up. It's no exaggeration at all. If you drink too much, you can hold your big feet and thumb and want to be wordy. As for scalding and sugar, it is a long-term injury.

You can't see its harm for the time being. When you see its harm, it has killed you half. China's esophageal cancer ranks among the top three in the world. For example, Bangzi country, people eat pickles, Germany eat smoked ham, and only China drinks hot rice, hard food and hot water.

According to the latest CDC (Jinmao Center for Disease Control and prevention) and IARC (International Agency for research on cancer), hot drinks above 65 °C have been classified as class 2A carcinogens, and class 1, 2a, 2b, 3 and 4 carcinogens are listed in order of cancer degree.

Carcinogens, many people do not understand. All carcinogens here are ranked according to the conclusive information of cancer, but there is no strong correlation.

In fact, for example, smoked ham can indeed cause esophageal cancer, but it has no inevitable relationship with how much you eat.

Just as the gun goes off, the young hairy first brother may not be able to find the bull's-eye in half an hour, while the greasy man can see the same size through the mosaic. This thing is a truth. You may have nothing to eat all your life, just like your first brother.

Sometimes, when you take a bite, you will be ignited, just like a greasy man.

So, in the future, please eat hot pot and drink boiled water. Please warm it before eating and drinking. Maybe you'll meet a greasy man.

Zhang fan runs towards the county in his car. To tell you the truth, cooluze is definitely not as comfortable as a car on the highway in the city. It's even worse than the driving feeling of an SUV. But it shows its function only when it goes up the mountain and snow. This thing is a tool car.

It was snowy and new year's Eve. Zhang Fan was driving on the highway as if he were driving in a no man's land. Let alone a human shadow, he didn't even have a dog“ You drive slowly and be careful. ”

Shao Hua worried about his aunt and her husband driving“ You shouldn't call Zhang Fan. It's snowy... ”Shaohua's mother complained about Shaohua quietly. People are far and near. Sometimes, I really can't say.

In fact, what Zhang Fan wanted at that time was to call the president of the county hospital, but he also thought that Shaohua had hardly been so helpless since his marriage, and Zhang Fan felt that it was not very good to call the president of the county hospital directly, so he went directly in person.

When driving in heavy snow, the most taboo is that the fast train slams on the brake and goes down with one foot, just like an ice monkey on the ice. Zhang Fan's driving skills in the snow are sophisticated. After all, the old master who learned to drive was a 120 driver!

The door of the hospital cannot be closed easily. If it is closed, either the hospital is closed or it is sealed. Zhang Fan's car drove directly to the door of the emergency department.

"What's going on?" At the gate, Zhang Fan's father is waiting for his son at the gate.

The old man didn't expect his son so hard in his life. To tell the truth, since Zhang Fan went to junior high school, Lao Tzu's son is like a competing friend.

"She said she was allergic. Aunt huazi was also mischievous. She almost cremated her little aunt!"

Zhang Fan glanced at his father and said nothing. The old man almost laughed at Zhang Fan. When she entered the emergency department, she saw Shaohua anxiously holding her sister-in-law, and several cousins were at a loss. Shaohua's little cousins were getting angry and holding the hand of the emergency department doctor.

"If the internal medicine department asks you to transfer, you can transfer. Don't delay. We're not sure about her. The dermatologists didn't go to work, and the hospital didn't have symptomatic drugs... "To tell the truth, when he heard this, Zhang Fan was angry, but he held back.

"Let go! What are you doing holding someone's hand? " Zhang Fan gave a shout to Shaohua's cousin.

Before people arrive, the sound comes first. As soon as Shaohua saw Zhang Fan, he immediately ran over with red eyes.

"I'm coming. Don't worry." Patted Shao Hua on the shoulder.

"Aunt..."

Shao Hua choked.

Because her aunt is suffocating, everyone still knows that this situation is not quite right.

"OK, let me see first!"

With that, Zhang Fan came to Aunt Shaohua.

"You are... I suggest you transfer to another hospital." The little doctor in the emergency department didn't recognize Zhang Fan.

Zhang Fan didn't say anything. Quick physical examination. After Zhang Fan made the physical examination, the little doctor knew that he was an expert. Because the physical examination action is too professional, more professional than the director of their department.

As soon as Zhang Fan checked, he knew it.

"Is there any glucose? Is there any salt water? " He asked the little doctor.

Although he is a little doctor, he certainly looks half as old as Zhang Fan.

Just like many industries, ordinary people may not know when you take the registration number, let alone let others recognize it. After all, the doctor industry is not a star. Besides, say a bad word. In China, doctors in the emergency department are always unable to look up in front of other doctors. This also makes the emergency department doctors seem to be a little out of this circle.

So when Zhang Fan asked, the little doctor nodded his head subconsciously, and then suddenly seemed to understand something.

"Are you?"

"Comrade, this man's throat is swollen now and he has suffocated. Need rescue! " Zhang Fan endured and continued.

"No, no, who are you! I can tell you that I don't care who you are. You don't have the right to practice in this place. I'm not sure about this disease. My opinion now is to transfer to another hospital. If you don't listen to my professional opinion and anything happens, I'm sorry, I'm not responsible. "

The little doctor is impatient. Because under normal circumstances, if the other party is a strong character, even if he doesn't yell, he will at least sign up. And this one, probably the one who worked as a general doctor in other cities, came home to visit his relatives. Now, the little doctor was impatient.

Originally, the hospital got some meat for the Chinese New Year. It was estimated that others had eaten it and asked for children. So the tone became less friendly.

In medicine, there is a saying. There is no way to diagnose. This is because you can't reach the level of knowledge, and misdiagnosis is a mistake. At the beginning, the government was also to protect vulnerable patients. Then, slowly, I don't know whether the general environment has changed or there are more bad people.

Anyway, if doctors meet special people, they often prefer to pretend that they can't make a diagnosis rather than boldly treat them. Then, some hospitals, especially the small hospitals with siphon effect, are even more confident about the more serious diseases. As long as they are the more serious diseases, they are all the same, so they should transfer to another hospital quickly.

Moreover, this is the default. Often patients and their families do not count on them, and large hospitals do not count on grass-roots hospitals. To be honest, this is a big setback for the medical system. In those years, at the command of old Mao, Dr. mudlegzi stubbornly reduced the infant mortality rate in China by unknown points under the very simple circumstances of that year. There were only a few people in big cities, and the most people were in the countryside in thousands of mountains.

Now, in the era of better and better equipment, township hospitals for patients over 60 and under the age of six, no matter what disease you are, your ability is not enough in one sentence. Please transfer to another hospital. County hospitals often make money and do what they do.

Heart bypass vascular stents, whether or not there is cardiac surgical support, he can train more than a dozen doctors engaged in intervention. For a while, he even developed into an old man with slight symptoms. The doctors strongly recommend doing stents and bypass. Enthusiastic, eager to overwhelm the old man and the old lady and put them on a shelf. Therefore, when tens of thousands drop to hundreds, everyone cheers, but think about it carefully, cold sweat can scare you out.

In addition, in some county hospitals, a child's radial head subluxation, the whole orthopedic department, no one can manually reset, and the knee joint can be replaced, and the hip can be replaced. Sometimes it's funny to think about it. Mao's generation, after decades of efforts in basic medical care, was collapsed by the army of money in a few days. If you go to the township health center, you will only sell a medicine.

Now many people are willing to live in the countryside and want to live in the countryside, but they have to go to the city. Why, first, education and second, medical treatment.

Zhang Fan looked at each other.

Shao Hua stopped talking.

It's not Zhang Fan who wants to pretend, but in his mind. Do you need greetings at this time? Need an introduction? Shouldn't we save people first? The patients are suffocating. If you are in the tea vegetable hospital, who cares what your identity is at this time, first clear the site, and then rescue.

But it's the first place to cover each other's bottom!

Shaohua's cousin can't stand it. Pushed the doctor in the emergency department, "he's my brother-in-law!"

The doctor grabbed his hand. "You push me, you try again?"

"All right! Let go. My name is Zhang Fan, the president of the municipal hospital. This is my work permit!"

No, I can't.

The doctor in the emergency department looked at Zhang Fan and his work permit.

"What are you doing? Does your hospital have dexamethasone, adrenaline, chlorphenamine maleate?"

Zhang Fan's voice is low, but he is absolutely powerful. But it is not the tone of leaders to subordinates, but the momentum of superior doctors getting angry with subordinate doctors.

"Yes, yes, yes!" The emergency doctor turned and ran. While running, he shouted to the nurse in the emergency department lounge, "dexamethasone 10mg intravenous injection, 0.1% adrenal gland 0.5ml intramuscular injection, buckle the mask quickly, give oxygen at low flow, fast."

"Didn't you send it away? I haven't eaten any rice for the new year." A middle-aged nurse muttered to the emergency department doctor reluctantly.

"Send your sister away, Zhang Yuan's relatives. Go and have a look!"

"Which hospital? Does the hospital have a president surnamed Zhang. You stole a drink? It doesn't mean everyone together..."

"Drink your sister, hurry up, Dean Zhang Fan of tea vegetable hospital, hurry up."

The emergency department doctors are crying.

"Do you need to transfer?" Shaohua looked at Zhang Fan and asked in a low voice.

"It's not necessary. It looks serious. It's all right as long as the suffocation is improved, allergy is prevented and shock is prevented."

"Brother in law, you must clean him up. He said he couldn't treat. You see, now he's six more than anyone!"

Zhang Fan glanced at the watch, brother-in-law.

Chapter 1192

With Zhang Fan's voice, the emergency department of the county hospital was busy. To tell the truth, the county hospital has the best technology, and the 120 driver has the best technology " Zhang, Zhang Yuan, I'm a surgeon. " The doctor who took over saw that Shaohua's aunt's suffocation had obviously improved, so he went to Zhang Fan and began to apologize.

Zhang Fan looked at him and nodded, "in the future, use more snacks and compare heart to heart. After all, he eats this bowl of rice." With that, Zhang Fan didn't say a word more.

Zhang Fansheng is not angry. In fact, he is not very angry. Really, it's no use getting angry about such things. If aunt Shaohua had an accident today, Zhang Fan might be angry, but there was no accident. He really couldn't face the grass-roots doctors to be angry. Is that their reason? That is, neither.

"Ouch, ouch!" After a while, aunt Shaohua seemed to relax and began to moan loudly with a long cry. Then at this time, she also saw Zhang Fan: "Zhang Fan, you're here too, please!"

"How are you feeling?" Zhang Fan smiled and went to Aunt Shaohua.

"Much better. Much better. It's like holding a hot egg in front of my throat. I can't spit it out and swallow it. The whole body is itchy and painful, and the back is burning and itchy. Now it's OK. If it doesn't itch, there's only pain left. "

"It's all right. It'll be fine in a few days." After a few words of comfort, Zhang Fan said to Shaohua, "your little aunt is a little scalded behind her back. Other things should be no problem. But the allergy almost went into shock. I mean, I was hospitalized for two days. Look at what your uncle and your cousin say. "

"Good!" Shaohua nodded.

"Let's do what Zhang Fan says. People are experts. What can we understand?" As soon as Shaohua's little uncle heard this, he immediately gave up his rights. He knew it very well. Don't look at the trend that a deputy cadre despises workers on weekdays, but it's very clear to Shaohua, Zhang Fan and Shaohua's aunt.

I don't know whether the dean of the county hospital inserted an eyeliner in the emergency department. Soon, the president of the county hospital and the chief of surgery all came.

"Oh, courtyard Zhang came to inspect the work. Look, I didn't come and report the work. I heard there was a misunderstanding ahead. Courtyard Zhang, you want to criticize me. Our work is not in place, ah, for prevaricating patients, prevaricating responsibility... "

In the medical system, lower level hospitals have no congeneric relationship with higher-level hospitals. Lower level hospitals can be said to be subordinates, but not Mao. Therefore, no matter how powerful the president of a class III hospital is, he has no say in lower level hospitals. Unless the government asks him to be a consultant.

But if you care about the consultant, you will ask. If you don't care about it, you won't ask.

Moreover, the general county-level hospitals play the circle of the local government, and the third class hospitals usually play the circle of the provincial government. They are people on two roads, and Chinese people have a special view and practice. Foreign crooked mouth monks can recite scriptures. County level hospitals don't look at ordinary technology, but people usually don't choose the local top three hospitals for further study. Most of them are also provincial capital hospitals. They usually go to the capital magic capital and so on.

But the tea element is different. The tea element Zhang Fan is too familiar and overbearing in the tea element medical system. First of all, with the acquiescence of Ouyang, Zhang Fan overturned the flying knife road of experts from the tea vegetable hospital. At that time, he had a car, was young, and would share profits. Therefore, almost all the flying knife operations in the county hospitals around tea vegetable were monopolized by Zhang Fan.

His relationship with the chief surgeons of various county hospitals is quite reliable. In addition, Zhang Fan has forcibly turned the tea vegetable hospital from a hospital competing for the head of the region into one of the best hospitals in the frontier. This is not a simple technical problem.

Most importantly, Zhang Fan is not only young, but also knows how to repay his kindness. The leader of Chasu County Hospital didn't envy Batu in those days and Shi Lei now. What's Shi Lei doing in front of county-level hospitals.

Don't you have a little fireworks with Zhang Fan before? People say, Zhang Fan, my brother!

Moreover, who can be the president of the county hospital doesn't want to go to the provincial hospital for an official career.

Therefore, although Zhang Fan is not the direct leader of each county hospital, the direct leader of the county hospital is definitely not as big as Zhang Fan in front of these county hospital princes.

"It's serious, it's serious. The New Year's Festival made you go again. Director Li is here." Zhang Fan held their hands, smiled and said polite words.

After exchanging greetings with Zhang Fan, the president and director of surgery of the county hospital personally came forward to comfort Shaohua's aunt, and began to clean up the emergency department doctors in front of Zhang Fan.

"That's how you work? That's how you see a doctor? This is a county hospital, not a private clinic in the countryside. How did I ask you. At the General Assembly meeting, this time, we stressed that we should not prevaricate the sick and the responsibility, but how did you do it?"

Today is president Zhang. If other leaders come, can you still eat this bowl of rice? I'll inform you now that you've been suspended. Go home and reflect. When you're qualified, you'll consider taking up your post."

The president of the county hospital was furious, like a Tibetan mastiff, and the emergency department doctors shed tears. People still have to have ability. If we say transposition thinking, if the doctor really has ability, he won't be like this. It will not prevaricate the patient or let the leaders clean up like this.

Zhang Fan had to give the steps to the president of the county hospital, "passed, passed. The hospital management is still very good. To tell the truth, my aunt's condition is quite special this time. The treatment at home has already affected the doctor's judgment. Even if you give me face, let him commit crimes and meritorious deeds!"

"Look, look, take note of this courtyard. Well, if it weren't for the courtyard, you'd be finished. I'll tell you. Go and write an examination. There are no 20,000 words. Don't think about passing the customs. After that, go to the municipal hospital and apologize to Zhang hospital."

The fury of the dean of the county hospital seemed to subside at this time.

In fact, what's the situation in the hospital? He doesn't know? But in front of Zhang Fan, he wants to act.

He wants Zhang Fan to feel that even if it's acting, it's for you. It's also worth it and make you happy.

To tell the truth, it's hard to tell whether grass-roots cadres are doing well in other things. It's hard to say what the general trend ah, the future ah, can't be seen thoroughly, but for the human heart, human nature is definitely a master of three flavors.

Today, no matter what mistakes have been made, the patient's family members are comfortable and feel superior. Don't you see that cousin Shaohua's head is half raised at this time? It seems that he has become so thin that he has to quarrel with the emergency department doctor.

In fact, this is the routine for subordinates to fool their superiors. In front of you, it seems that you fired the doctor in the emergency department. In fact, when you leave, at most, that is, go to work. In the future, keep your eyes open and don't stare at the small money in the hands of drug dealers.

After sending off the doctor of the emergency department, Zhang Fan said to the president and director of surgery of the county hospital, "it's really troublesome for you. For the Chinese new year, look at what happened. Now the patient is better. I mean, let's bring back tea for observation for two days. "

"No, we must observe here. Zhang Yuan, just watch it. I'll let the internal surgery experts take charge of the treatment themselves."

"No need, no need. We are all in the business. We all know the hard work here. We are allergic. We are not outsiders. There is no need to make a big fuss. We are all our own people. There's no need to toss. It's not easy for medical staff to spend a new year. "

The president of the county hospital waited for Zhang Fan to say, "Hey, listen to the leaders. Zhang Yuan, what day are you at home? We have to pay a new year's visit. Otherwise, I'm sorry! "

As soon as he said this, Zhang Fan couldn't refuse " Fifth day, fifth day, I'm at home! "

After sending off the president and director of the hospital, Zhang Fan settled down for a while, and then set out with Shaohua and Shaohua's cousin and uncle to tea.

Allergy, to tell you the truth, this disease is a lively disease. Usually, it doesn't come when you're at home. But on holidays, you want to eat good food, or go to see flowers in spring, go swimming in summer, eat melons and fruits in autumn, and spend a holiday together in winter.

It's coming!

What is allergy.

Under normal circumstances, when foreign substances enter the human body, they mostly face two fates. If they are identified as useful or harmless substances by the body, these substances will live in harmony with the human body and will eventually be absorbed, utilized or discharged naturally. If these substances are identified as harmful substances, the body's immune system will respond immediately to drive them away or eliminate them, which is the protective role of immune response.

Immune response is one of the important functions of human defense system, but if this response exceeds the normal range, that is, when the immune system attacks harmless substances, this situation is called allergy. Allergy is a disease, because unprovoked attacks will also damage normal body tissues, and even the immune system sometimes attacks and destroys the body's own tissues, which is very harmful to human health.

Speaking of people, in fact, allergy is the system bombing. After external factors enter the body, the body feels that this thing is a dangerous thing and must be removed. We have to cut grass and remove roots. We'd rather kill mistakes than let them go. Therefore, the attacking cells in the body begin to attack the normal system.

At this time, there are many meritorious systems. The most common is skin flushing and pruritus, extensive wind mass, and then vascular edema.

Those who die of allergies often have problems with the respiratory system, because of airway edema, increased secretion and organ spasm, and then lead to asphyxia. There are irritability, dizziness, circulatory system failure and so on.

This disease is too common. It is common that everyone knows this disease. But many people don't know how to deal with it.

The treatment of this thing is similar to that of infectious diseases.

First, isolate allergens. Whether it is alcohol allergy or flower picking allergy, please stop this behavior immediately in case of this situation. Don't feel all right. If you want to use desensitization therapy, it's troublesome.

There will be two situations in this case. Allergy is good! The second is that people with severe allergies hang up!

So, don't think you're lucky. In this case, get rid of the allergen immediately.

Because this disease is very troublesome. It looks like a skin problem. In fact, it is a systemic problem.

For example, blood vessels, what is blood vessels? To be more popular, this thing is a woman's black silk stockings, compact.

When I touch my hand, I feel a kind of uneasy hand, and there is a whirling feeling. This is a normal blood vessel.

What is the blood vessel after allergy? It's a fishing net sock. When you touch it in your hand, your hand falls into the hole of the silk stockings. Clearly, I know you are studying silk stockings. I don't know. I thought you were playing a rogue and touching other people's thighs.

When the blood vessels are normal, the substances in the blood vessels cannot escape. Even if it can come out, the body needs it to come out.

When allergies, the vascular grid becomes larger and everything begins to see the world.

Albumin came out to see the world, and the red blood cell came out to see the world with its sister-in-law white blood cell. As a result, the body is covered with red air mass and edema, and the blood pressure drops. Platelets sit on the edge of the grid and cry. The hole is too big to block.

Therefore, the symptoms of allergy seem to be in the epidermis, but they are actually in the major systems.

When allergies occur, I used to eat some drugs such as chlorpheniramine. How can I say this drug is a generation of anti allergic drugs. It is economical, but its side effects are not small, and it is easy to doze off after eating.

The new generation, such as loratadine, will not enter the blood-brain barrier and make you feel sleepy.

So when the weather gets warmer and it's about to enter the spring season, people who are prone to allergies should not go out to pick flowers. At this time, it's best not to hug cats and dogs when they are free. You'll be allergic.

In the days of warm spring flowers, do what you can, such as what Comrade Zhao said in the animal world before Yang Ma.

When Zhang Fan drove, Shao Hua looked at her aunt worried. With the effect of the medicine, her aunt slowly became lively and talked more.

"Hey, you don't know. I almost cremated your aunt. Oh, why was my brain so bad at that time? How could I listen to your aunt. "

Zhang Fan smiled and said nothing. Even if aunt Shaohua is no longer good, it's not what Zhang fan can say. It doesn't pay to make Shaohua unhappy.

In this regard, Zhang Fan is a thief and doesn't live together. He says what people do.

"What did I eat? Zhang Fan, did your hospital test allergens? Let me test them. "

"Well! We don't have a hospital! "

"No? People have private clinics. You are also known as the best hospital in the frontier. You don't even have one? "

Despised.

Zhang Fan smiled helplessly.

After many people are allergic, they go to the hospital for testing. In fact, to say a bad word, it is the hospital that plays hooligans when doing this thing, because the measurement of this thing must be an experimental laboratory.

General hospital, measured down, patients see, I go, can't live. Almost everything is allergic. In fact, it costs one or two thousand to buy peace of mind. It's useless at all. Say a bad word. Don't you know what allergy is. Don't you know what you did.

The three-day year is over. In the past, materials were not rich. It was happy to wear new clothes and eat delicious food for the new year. It is not unreasonable that the big white rabbit can become the memory of a generation.

Moreover, in that year's environment, everyone's living standards were almost the same, so there was no idea of who was better than who and who wanted to show off a good life. We could still communicate sincerely with people. And now it's different.

Young people show off their mobile phones, show off their cars when they are a little mature, and those who are more mature can't go out without wearing leather clothes.

At the end of Zhang Fan's duty, Shaohua took Zhang Fan to get together with his friends. Because Zhang Fan has no classmates in tea, he can only follow Shaohua. All year round, Shaohua follows Zhang Fan. When the festival is over, Zhang Fan follows Shaohua.

For new year's greetings, Zhang Fan remembered that he was happiest when he didn't go to primary school. On the morning of the new year's day, his third grandfather took a stack of new wool tickets and knocked a head for a dime. Zhang Fan and several cousins have been knocking all morning.

And when you grow up, especially when you don't make money, you will be embarrassed. After work, people in other places always lack a little flavor of youth.

Shaohua also felt that Zhang Fan's new year was too boring. All the people he dealt with were middle-aged and elderly people, so he took Zhang Fan to a party with young people.

Zhang Fan is not without young friends. But his young friends don't seem to have much entertainment. Zhu Bing is a father at home, and Li Hui has changed from a little prince in a nightclub to a good man at home. Xue Fei and others can't play together. Anyway, Zhang Fan is already a superior.

Therefore, Shaohua feels that Zhang Fan is lonely and can stay in a daze for an hour or two when facing the TV at home for the new year. In fact, Zhang Fan has surgery in the system. This thing is like playing video games. It can be addictive one by one.

Shaohua thinks Zhang Fan is boring and lonely. In fact, Zhang Fan has a lot of fun. Shaohua said to sing. What he thought was actually to distract Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan thought Shaohua was around him all year round and lonely, so he accompanied Shaohua to the singing party.

Shao Hua doesn't have many friends. Jia SuYue and Wang Yanan are more closely related, and after marriage, they don't have much contact with their classmates and friends who were not close before.

Wang Ya's boyfriend is the same. The girl is a workaholic. Don't mention others. Even Jia SuYue and Shaohua have to make an appointment in advance if they want to ask her out, so the doctor has no friends. That's right.

If you can't get out once, if you can't get out twice, then people won't invite you in the future, and the relationship will be weak slowly. Only when we get old and there are old and small in the family can we slowly connect with doctors.

As for Jia SuYue, there are a lot of friends, most of whom want to chase him, but there are not many female friends. They are almost plastic friendship with Shaohua and Wang Yanan. They can almost hear the comparison between inside and outside when they meet.

"Singing? OK, OK, I haven't sung for a long time. I didn't have fun last week. I called you, and you didn't come. I called Wang Yanan. Wang Yanan didn't even answer the phone. It's a pity that one of you was crushed by your black stone head and the other by the black Dean! "

Jia SuYue was very happy to hear Shaohua's invitation on the phone.

"Well, come out early in the afternoon. Let's eat hot pot first, and then sing. I'll take my family."

"Well, I'll take one too!" Jia SuYue said ostentatiously.

"Are you in love?" Shao Hua was quite surprised.

"No, I'm still hesitant. The other party is in business and is older than me. My parents are willing, but I don't want to. I want to invite me to dinner today. You bring your family. I don't want to eat dog food alone. But pity our little asian man, ha ha! "

.....

In the evening, Zhang Fan was ordered by Shao Huaxuan " You men are strange. You don't even put on sunscreen at ordinary times, but your face feels very smooth. " Shao Hua rubbed Zhang Fan with moisturizing lotion and touched Zhang Fan's face cheaply.

"Well, it's related to diet. I eat a lot of collagen and maintain my skin. In fact, in addition to sunscreen..."

"All right, all right, I'm not your patient. Hurry up." Shao Hua would rather believe Jia SuYue than Zhang Fan in skin maintenance.

Zhang Fan has a crooked mouth. In terms of skin care, as long as she is a woman, she believes in expensive and doesn't believe in truth.

The party, especially the new year's party, is very strange. For example, one called the other, the other called the other three, and then suddenly there were many strangers who couldn't remember but knew each other.

For example, primary school students who haven't been in touch for many years, or Tony, a former dog left behind. In addition to the seemingly enthusiastic at the beginning, if you don't drink later, you are speechless. Of course, in this case, there must be a more lively person.

He or she may not have deep financial resources or contacts, but he or she must be the most enthusiastic and willing to contact others. When the school bully and the class cadres had disappeared, when a group of people gathered around the boss and classmates, it would be impossible without him or her.

Therefore, Shaohua contacted Wang Yanan and Jia SuYue. After learning that Jia SuYue also brought a partner, Wang Yanan didn't know how to jump in his mind. After a while, he also called a male classmate. Then, the male classmate turned out to be a warm-hearted person.

"Singing at night, the three classes in the class gathered together." It's also a mass message, and then one or two have to show their participation, and others shout that the cost is guaranteed.

"Let's pick up Wang Yanan first, and then pick up Jia SuYue. Which car shall we drive?" Shao Hua is also ready, short board down jacket, jeans, work boots, simple but youthful. In the Spring Festival in the frontier, it is estimated that this is the most capable dress. If you are more capable, you will catch a cold!

"Drive your pickup. My car is a little flashy!" Zhang Fan pondered a little and said.

Zhang Fan's Scarlet Letter kuluze and quanchasu are estimated to be such a car. Because there are no armed police in the urban area of chasu and all the armed police are at the port, his car is particularly eye-catching, and Zhang Fan usually pays attention to it.

"All right!" Driving a big pickup truck, they went out. Zhang Fan thinks this car is more stable than his cool Luze.

Wang Yanan was connected. Wang Yanan had a quarrel with Shaohua for a while and said to Shaohua that she also made an appointment with her partner today!

Zhang Fan looked through the rearview mirror and sighed, "it's spring!"

The two people in the back row muttered and didn't know what to say. After talking for a while, Shaohua took a look at Zhang Fan. After talking for a while, Shaohua took a look at Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan knows as soon as he thinks about it. Wang Yanan estimates to sue again.

Wang Ya's family is not far from Shaohua's. after all, they are both people in the hospital circle, but Jia SuYue's family is a little far away. They live in the high tech Zone. In my early years, I didn't know who said that tea was in the earthquake zone and didn't allow high-rise buildings to be built.

Later, it was estimated that the developers took the earthquake away. The 20 storey high-rise buildings in the high-tech zone looked relatively modern, but they always lacked the charm of the old urban area. However, the houses in the high-tech zone are equipped with elevators, and there are many Han people, so this area can be regarded as another gathering circle of tea.

Driving a pickup truck, we set off slowly towards the high tech Zone. When it was dark in winter, I saw a tall and beautiful girl standing there under the street lamp and a young Juncai standing next to her.

Because of tea, few people wear suits in winter, and this one is wearing a suit. Jia SuYue was wearing a white fur like down jacket, and the white fox tail hair on the collar didn't know whether it was true or false, but he didn't have the eyes of a black leather pants on the girl's legs.

Good figure and long legs. After wearing leather pants, people feel a little amazing, as if the two legs are long separately.

In a word, this is a clothes shelf, or a beautiful clothes shelf. Jia SuYue gets on the bus and wants to put his cold hands into the arms of Wang Yanan and Shao Hua. Zhang Fan slightly raised his chin. It was a greeting to Shaohua's face.

I don't know. I thought she let Zhang Fan see her awl chin.

The handsome man in the suit also consciously went to the front row, "Hey, the more, you don't introduce!"

Shao Hua and Wang Yanan smiled knowingly, and then looked at Jia SuYue smiling narrowly, especially like two little foxes catching an old hen.

"Mr. Wang, Mr. Wang Qifa, from northern Jiangsu, is the boss of mahogany. Shao Hua, your villa should have some mahogany furniture! Otherwise, your family will lower the living standard of that area all day. "

Jia SuYue glanced at Zhang Fan from the rearview mirror, and Zhang Fan's white eyes also turned over.

What Zhang Fan thought was that the woman's face was smeared with oil!

The more Jia Su thought, it was still so dark!

People are so strange. In other people's eyes, Jia SuYue has a delicate face. Originally, he has a good foundation and uses high-grade cosmetics. How do you look at it and show your noble spirit. And Zhang Fan, in the eyes of others, this is also a healthy wheat color.

However, when they look at each other, it's not like this. But with Shao Hua, they can communicate normally. It is estimated that one has seen another most embarrassed time, always with a first impression of that year's embarrassment.

After getting on the bus, Mr. Wang was very polite and shook hands with Zhang Fan. "Dr. Zhang, right? The more I heard about you." I don't know what psychology, Jia SuYue just said that her two best friends and Zhang Fan's career, as for others, she didn't say much.

Wang Qifa's business is not big or small, and he is very smart. No arrogance, a feeling that the rich despise the working class. But they are also enthusiastic.

But I'm curious that an ordinary doctor can drive such an imported pickup truck, "are doctors so rich now? Still living in a villa? "

With doubt, Mr. Wang smiled politely.

Chapter 1194

The world is unfair.

In the current environment, if someone opens his mouth and says, I have a quadrangle in the capital, or I have a villa in magic, darling, it can impress people on any occasion. If you shout in tea vegetable, I have a villa in tea vegetable. Everyone will definitely look at him with the eyes of two fools.

Because it's not worth money, even if it's sold, it doesn't have much money, so if people show off in front of them, it's a little silly. There is a little difference between uncle and uncle.

Mr. Wang, who is engaged in business, did not express his contempt, and Zhang Fan did not rush to explain that his villa was issued by the government and was still on the road of corruption. If he really said so, it would be a bit of a fool, but many people in the world are afraid of being looked down upon by others.

For example, carrying a watch that others don't know is very expensive, isn't it? He gave a slight disdain. It's not too expensive! The other side looked relieved, and then he added, just an Audi A4. There's no way to talk.

The person who asked also couldn't understand, and the person who answered also had a posture of being confused. I don't know why, in the past, China was rich in Tibet, but now it is rich. It is estimated that this is related to television. The serious local tyrant is deeply afraid that others say he is extravagant. He tries to make others think he is concise.

Some stars who have suddenly made a fortune want to hang all their wealth in the open. It is estimated that this is the difference in the details. It is hard to say who is good and who is bad, but Zhang Fan doesn't like to show off. He knows what he eats. Why care about other people's feelings?

Several people ate hot pot. When eating hot pot, Zhang Fan said he didn't drink. Several women didn't say anything. Mr. Wang was a little unhappy. He thought Zhang Fan was pretending, but he didn't have any expression on his face. After all, I haven't caught up with Jia SuYue yet.

After dinner, Mr. Wang paid the money first. Everyone didn't say anything. Only Shaohua said that she had invited everyone to dinner.

Zhang Fan didn't say anything from the beginning to the end, which made Mr. Wang feel that Zhang Fan didn't have much family wealth. He bought a car with a little money and was stung by a bee. He bought a villa in tea vegetable.

But Wang Yanan and Jia SuYue despised Zhang Fan, "born to pick!"

After a few people had dinner, they set out towards the KTV, the pirated cash cabinet of tea. Thunder rings all over the world. In the early years, when heaven and earth were very famous, there were pirated heaven and earth everywhere. There were many people in heaven and earth, large and small, with feet washing and massage and beauty salons. In someone's words, I can't find a comb in the barber shop.

Of course, Zhang Fan didn't go in. He heard people say

The biggest difference between the life of Frontier people and that of mainlanders is that ordinary pressure is small. When there were tens of thousands of houses in the mainland, tea was only eight or nine hundred, but it was thousands more expensive, and the environment was good. This leads to people here like to eat and play. Because there was no pressure, I entered the Communist society ahead of time.

Nothing special can be seen during the day. At night, the streets are full of lights and wine, and the streets are full of rickety men and women. A neat hotel guest house. Even if the shop is small, the number plate is big. I want to hang it in the middle of the road. And young people have places for young people to play.

Young people usually go to the disco. Anyway, they can feel the ground shaking when walking near the disco. Older people, such as those who have just retired and have sharp legs and feet, often go to old-fashioned dance halls. The lights are dark, they can't see the folds on each other's face, and others can't find their bald head.

Ten dollars to jump casually. Although this place is an activity center for the elderly, there are often old men or old women fighting here, and there are a lot of shit. Anyway, Zhang Fan met many people in the emergency department, and he can't elaborate. Anyway, there was an old man called the prince of the dance hall, and seven or eight old women ran after him.

As for small and medium-sized people, there are old and young people. They usually go to the mass selling KTV.

Moreover, entertainment places are clearly distinguished among the frontier people. This street is played by public officials, the other street is generally owned by students, and the other street is the chassis of some street brothers and sisters.

At the beginning, Zhu bin almost died in KTV. For these entertainment places, tea vegetable was cruel.

People in the hospital sometimes come out for dinner. Of course, everyone chooses the cash cabinet next to the police station. In the season of heavy snow, it is the happiest time for frontier people.

The largest box in the cash box was booked. "Aren't we alone? Do you want such a big box to turn over?"

Shaohua said dissatisfied with Jia SuYue.

"I didn't order it! Ya Nan... "How could Jia SuYue be wronged for not falling ash on his nose.

"Well! It was ordered by Yang Jinxin! You all have company. I have no choice, so I contacted Yang Jinxin and asked him. He said he would organize, and the result was... "

Wang Yanan was a little wronged. In the past, they were all three of them, and then there was another Zhang Fan. Fortunately, Jia SuYue was also unilateral. As a result, she is now single.

"Love my Asian man!" Shao Hua visited Wang Yanan and said to Zhang Fan, "don't you have a young man in your hospital?"

"Bang!" Before Zhang Fan spoke, Jia SuYue had expressed disdain. His big eyes turned white eyes, as if to say, the dean is like this. What talent can there be below!

Zhang Fan doesn't care and smiles. Shao Hua patted Jia SuYue, meaning not to bully my man.

Just past the front desk, I saw a very enthusiastic young man coming out. A rare permed wool curl hairstyle is slightly yellow, which looks like a strange fashion!

When the man saw Shao Hua, Jia SuYue and Wang Yanan, he brushed his eyes and stared round. Then he exaggerated his limbs and shouted in an exaggerated voice: "I'll go, I'll go, I'll go, who's this, who's this, who's this! Aren't these the three goddesses in my heart? Oh, hey, it's a sin not to go out to meet you. "

There is a sense of enthusiasm in humor. No wonder it can become the needlework of the students. It really means a little warm-hearted.

"Who believes your nonsense? I don't see you inviting us to dinner all year round. It will become a goddess! This hairstyle is very fashionable. "

"Ha ha, I want to invite you to dinner every day, but I'm ashamed to ask you. Look at you. You're beautiful. One is still successful in career, one is a doctor who helps the wounded, one is a reserve that China Mobile attaches importance to, and the other has become a boss. How nice of me! Today, I apologize. I apologize. Later, I will sing a love song to the goddesses. Let the goddesses experience my little broken heart.

This is my brother-in-law. He is a talented person with a dignified appearance. It's a pleasure to meet you. My name is Yang Jinxin. I lack gold in my life. My name is a series of gold, but I still lack it. If you have a chance to give me a hand, you can also let me not be too ashamed in front of the goddess! "

"Fuck you, his name is Zhang Fan, my husband!" Shaohua smiled and hit Yang Jinxin. The boy's mouth was cheap.

"Hello, Hello!" Zhang Fan smiled " Brother, do you know that one of the male students in our class is one. They hate you and gnash their teeth. Even I am. The most temperament and thoughtful goddess in our class let you marry away.

But today, I don't hate you after I see you. I think you and the goddess are a perfect match. They are a perfect couple! "

In a few words, whether you are sincere or not, you will lose the sense of distance. Also a talent.

He greeted everyone into the box, and then went out to pick up people. It seems that he didn't pick up Shaohua alone.

Not many people came, just five or six people. We introduced each other. From these young people, we can see a problem: there are no people in the frontier.

Because many people go to college outside and don't come back when they go out. One of them, introduced by Shao Hua, is a master of pharmacy of Shen Yao. He would rather live in the basement than come back in the capital. Zhang Fan originally wanted to attract. Although Shen Yao seems not famous, a university specializing in medicine is still powerful in the industry.

But as soon as they heard that they were in Tongrentang and were already a research and development team leader, they put out their solicitation heart. At present, we can have a look at the clinical application of tea. But I don't even have the qualification to take a look. So I didn't say much.

Soon, a group of men and women came.

Shaohua's high school is a key high school in chasu. It can be said that the students in the class are also a junior college, so there are many outsiders and few stay here.

There was a doggerel in the frontier. He didn't stay in New Zealand after graduation. At that time, Zhang Fan didn't understand and thought that the frontier people had put their goals abroad. It's really powerful.

Later, I realized that what others said was not the country that herded sheep.

To tell the truth, because there is no sandstorm, sunny and sunny all year round, and the diet contains a lot of dairy and meat products, tea vegetable areas are tall and strong, especially married women. How do you think and how round they are.

Of course, most of Shaohua's classmates haven't rounded up yet. This thing is the same as the handle. Without perennial rubbing, it can't be pasted for a while and a half.

Although it is a key class, after all, it is still young and not particularly prominent. It is not like Zhang Fan's junior middle school classmate.

Zhang Fan's junior high school classmates, no more than ten in senior high school, and then entered the society early. Among them, the fault is particularly serious, and they wander around the society all day. Some also go to the iron prison and eat official meals.

But there are also Hotels with an annual income of more than one million. Anyway, there are local tyrants and those who are poor to the bone.

But Shaohua and his class felt that everyone was of the same level, and they were not particularly heroic. They entered the door with big gold distillates and big cigars, and they didn't say that the poor stole and robbed the crime. It is estimated that this is the result of reading.

People say that Chinese education may not teach you how to survive, but it will teach you to know awe.

Chapter 1195

"I'll go. The aesthetic level of tea vegetable people needs to be improved. What's wrong with having money? Buy a big pickup truck. If we don't allow it into the urban area in Jingnan, we'll have tea vegetarians. Ah! " Speaking, a guy who looked good and dressed well came in with a girl in his arms.

As soon as Shaohua heard this, although he didn't show much, the corners of his mouth had left. Wang Yanan was not happy, especially Jia SuYue's face was obviously unhappy when he heard this. This girl doesn't think much all day, but she is still a good person.

In her opinion, Zhang Fan scolded Shaohua. She despised that others were not qualified? No, so when this was said, Jia SuYue had to stand up.

Zhang Fan hurriedly asked Shaohua to pull Jia SuYue down again.

"Why are you pulling me!" Jia SuYue glanced at Shaohua reluctantly " It's your classmate's party again during the Chinese New Year. Just think he's drunk. What are you doing so seriously! Besides, he probably didn't know it was our car. " Zhang Fan said with a smile.

"Hum!" Although Jia SuYue was not satisfied, he never asked for anything again.

"His name is Lao Tzu. He is the chief of the supply and marketing department of the tea vegetable tobacco factory. After the tobacco factory was merged, his Lao Tzu took their family to the tobacco factory in southern Beijing. At that time, I came back during the college entrance examination. Barely admitted to a Nanyun Agricultural University and entered the tobacco factory in Jingnan after graduation. It's a barely rich second generation!

Hum, I chased Yue Yue back then! "

Wang Yanan finished his last sentence, smiled and hurried away.

"This is an old enemy!" Zhang Fan mended a knife.

"Fuck you, he just chased me. I didn't agree, Wang Yanan. I'll tell you, if you talk nonsense, I'll... "The two got together.

Shaohua shook his head and said to Zhang Fan, "I knew we wouldn't come. I didn't expect so many people. If you find it boring, we can go first. "

"It's all right. It's very interesting. They are all young people. It takes a lot of brains to deal with old people and old women every day. There's nothing wrong with being straightforward."

Zhang Fan smiled and shook Shaohua's hand.

As soon as he finished speaking, he saw the good-looking man start to smoke in circles. When it's Zhang Fan's turn, "brother, you're green."

"He is my husband. How come young master Yang will come to our tea vegetable place for the new year?" Shao Hua also thinks about her classmate's car. Therefore, some things, do not expect women to be magnanimous, but to expect women to care.

Women are very generous about things they don't care about, but they expect generosity and dream about things they care about.

"Hehe, look at what you said. Smoke, smoke! " For Shao Hua, don't look at his usual smile, but child Yang knows that this woman is much colder than Jia SuYue and much more powerful than Wang Yanan's tomboy.

Zhang Fan took a look. In the ninth five year plan, the temperate people gave Zhang Fan two boxes of this cigarette, and then let Ouyang scold the dog blood nozzle, which almost scolded Zhang Fan for depression. Since then, Zhang Fan stopped smoking a cigarette. The old lady is still very good at seeing a doctor.

"Thank you. I don't smoke!"

"It's good not to smoke. It's good not to smoke. Boss Shao is still strong. If you don't smoke, you don't cough! But the cigarette is OK. "

Shao Hua's eyes stared, and young master Yang didn't dare to say more. After all, he was still a classmate.

Before long, more and more people came.

Singing, drinking. As a wheat bully, Jia SuYue didn't sing and became a star. From the 18th bend of mountain road to yesterdayoncemore, she won't.

Shao Hua and Wang Yanan can also sing, but compared with Princess Jia, it's like the difference between amateur and professional.

Drinking, there was a joke that it was a classmate meeting, and fools drank and sang again. Anyway, it wasn't long before several men drank too much.

Already bragging.

"I know the hotel opposite the tea vegetable hospital. No, I did the decoration work. After singing the song, it's my treat and everyone goes to take a bath. "

"Hey, hey, what about your hospital!" Wang Yanan and Shaohua go to sing love songs. Jia SuYue speaks to Zhang Fan.

"Didn't say the hospital, said the hotel opposite the hospital."

"Have you made a fortune this year?"

"Why?"

"You should be generous. Don't be stingy. You don't pay for dinner, which makes people despise you."

Jia SuYue is taking revenge again. Zhang Fan just mended his knife.

Mr. Wang Qifa, Jia SuYue's suitor, hurriedly gathered together. At this time, young master Yang also came together. His girlfriend is also a classmate of their age. At this time, he chats with others.

"Yueyue, let's have a drink. You are becoming more and more beautiful now. I really have a way to hold the hand of my classmates today and regret that I didn't start at that time. "

"Don't talk nonsense. It's OK to drink with me. I'll have a drink and you'll have a bottle. Don't be as good as before. You'll steal things and give them to me. And give away your mother's necklace. Ha ha! "

Jia SuYue has sharp teeth and a sharp mouth. The other party's face is black.

After a while, Jia SuYue and Wang Yanan quarreled that Zhang Fan would also sing a song. Who hasn't got a good reserved track.

Zhang Fan, encouraged by Shao Hua, holds the microphone. Zhang fan can still sing a desolate feeling in the northwest of the legendary West Sea Love Song of Phoenix.

"Who is this man?"

"Shao Hua's husband."

"Really? His body is very strong, but how can his skin be like a migrant worker? Shaohua won't be greedy for his body. He is really a migrant worker! "

"I don't know. You don't have a watch on your hand. You laugh when you see people. It's estimated that you sell in the wind and rain. I don't know what's going on. A flower is stuck on cow dung! "

Although some of them have stayed in big cities, others have come back gloomy in big cities.

Big cities are no better than small cities. There are many opportunities, but there are also many pressures. Three people grab a position, and many people drive high and walk low.

So these people who talked together were wandering outside for several years and later came to tea vegetable with a broken heart. However, these people had some background at home, but now they are mixed with qualifications. Most of them are deputy directors and directors in villages and towns.

Although it seems very low in the town. In fact, as long as there are people in villages and towns, they should have staffing, positions and positions, and can use the fastest speed to improve their professional titles. This is a popular route to save the country in recent years.

Of course, when they returned to tea, Zhang Fan and Shao Hua had already married, and their position was not enough to know Zhang Fan and understand Zhang Fan. So when talking in private, with a smell of distiller's grains, it has turned sour into vinegar.

Zhang Fan's singing can barely step on the right tone. It's not good, but it won't be classified as pentatonic insufficiency. "My husband sings really well!"

After Zhang Fan put down the microphone, Shaohua, like a little fan sister, had stars in her eyes.

Jia SuYue looked at Zhang Fan disdainfully and didn't speak, but the meaning of that look was also quite obvious. It seemed that Zhang Fan would be the appreciation level of the farmer's uncle.

Drinking, everyone was a little elegant in the first half. The second half is like a chaotic magic dance. The male students have to chase the female students for a drink, and the female students who are half drunk have to sing infatuation.

After Yang's drink was a little high, he went to Shaohua and Jia SuYue and insisted on drinking with Zhang Fan and Jia SuYue's male partner, Mr. Wang.

Mr. Wang is not afraid. In front of Jia SuYue, he has a bit of a powerful posture in the business field, cup after cup, cup after cup.

Young master Yang looked at Mr. Wang as if he could drink better than him. He changed his target. I have to drink with Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan doesn't drink. He goes on drinking and wants Zhang Fan to drink. Shaohua was a little anxious. Zhang Fan patted Shaohua on the shoulder.

Zhang Fan has seen many such drunks. Some drink in the emergency center can treat the nurse as the goddess of KTV, and let them pinch their back first.

"Dry drinking is boring. Let's bring something technical. They are all knowledgeable people. Play with skills." Zhang Fan said with a smile.

"OK, fifteen or twenty, it's better to be brothers, or stone scissors and cloth, I can."

Zhang Fan looked, this is still a tested guy.

"Play poker, ten thirty?"

"OK, what a big thing, I'm good at it!"

Several fat boys who were civil servants in villages and towns also came together at this time. After all, the most beautiful female students in the box are all around Zhang Fan.

When Zhang Fan said to play at 10:30, the others were noisy to play. Zhang Fan shuffles the cards with a smile. Whoever comes doesn't refuse. If you're not afraid of death, I dare to bury it.

Zhang fan can't drink.

In terms of craft, none of you here is an opponent. Think of coaxing bullies. Hey, hey, Zhang Fan dares to run to the frontier when he can graduate. Can he be brave to come a few meters away from the border? Moreover, in the past few years after graduation, I have experienced in medical treatment. I am not an ordinary young man for a long time.

"The dealer lost and drank twice!" A deputy director of the township is still a thief.

"OK!" Zhang Fan nodded.

"Oh, can he drink and kill the backcourt?" The others looked at each other, but they were not worried.

If many people have courage, they can do it.

To tell the truth, Zhang fan can have his current position in surgery. The system accounts for a large part. Another part is that Zhang fan can endure hardship and endure loneliness. The finishing touch is his kung fu.

When I saw my cousin's playing cards several times, he could practice it. His hands are not flexible. Can he practice it?

So, ah, some things, especially those who eat technical food, are not that you can succeed with diligence. It's not pleasant to say. If you work hard without talent, you'll end up in good health.

Zhang Fan smiled and began to deal cards. Many people estimate that they have played at 10:30. To tell the truth, it is more interesting than fried golden flowers. Fried Jinhua is someone else's bet, and 10:30 is yourself.

After a while, Zhang Fan smiled and let several people drink.

"I'll go, brother. What are you doing? You can't be in Macao. "

"I'm a doctor!" Zhang Fan said with a smile.

"I'll go. You can say you're a gambler. I can say a doctor. Why don't I believe it?" Young master Yang looked at Zhang Fan in surprise.

"Ha ha! I'll make it convenient. Let's continue later. "

Zhang Fan has rarely played with young people like this in recent years. Stand up and it's convenient for Zhang Fan to go. Not long after Zhang Fan went out, a group of villagers came in with their friends.

Chapter 1196

"Ah, Zhang Yuan!" A fat man came out of the bathroom and saw Zhang Fan. There was really no room left or right to avoid. He could only go forward with a smile and say hello.

There are some things that can be done, such as singing in KTV. Zhang Fan is very calm because he came with his wife. The fat man who is sweating when walking is the leader of the township. He is not so calm, because he brought the director of the women's Federation to KTV to discuss the depth of his future work.

No matter how much gossip is, as long as you catch the thief and don't catch the dirty, you really can't take others.

In the system of China, perhaps the dignity of officials can only be reflected at the county level or above, but the higher they go, the more constraints they actually have. What really moistens is often the most grass-roots. In the early years, the overlords in various villages and towns were really moistened. Anyway, they have a taste of fat translators. I don't give money to eat in restaurants in the city. Now I give you a white note. Don't you want to?

Moreover, in the early years, when the state developed highways, it was not others who made a fortune. The first to make a fortune were the people with rights at the grass-roots level in the towns and townships that occupied the land. For example, some common property such as rural common canals and trees.

These countries are subsidized to the greatest extent, but the money is not so calculated when it comes to towns and townships. Anyway, I rowed around. Finally, I had a little brain to casually build a small second floor, and then said that the money was spent.

No brain, just take the money home. When checking in the future, if you have a brain, you really can't help others at all. Where's the money? The Township Office has been built. Look at the second floor, the second floor with ceramic tiles, which is more than 5 million. Now it still owes hundreds of thousands!

Therefore, the time of China's national development is also the most nourishing time for grass-roots cadres.

In those days, there was a doggerel, eating and drinking for nothing, sleeping for nothing, opening your eyes and writing white notes.

In the past, Zhang Fan shamelessly monopolized the operation of the surrounding county and township health centers and county hospitals. The staff in the township knew Zhang Fan. Now Zhang Fan goes less to the township. However, with the change of Zhang Fan's status, these people pay more and more attention to Zhang Fan. If they can get in touch, they may be able to transfer from the township to the provincial management unit one day.

Therefore, some people are concerned about Zhang Fan's technology, while others are concerned about Zhang Fan's position. Anyway, there are all kinds of people who can pay attention to one aspect of Zhang Fan, and these people who pay attention to Zhang fan are more or less successful in their respective industries.

All the way, Zhang Fan found that there were many acquaintances today. He didn't take it to heart.

"Zhang Yuan has come to sing!"

"Zhang Yuan came to sing!"

"Zhang Yuan is in the big box!"

"Ask if you want to sing with your family or practice singing in business. I haven't heard that he likes singing. If you sing with your family later, we'll give you a fruit tray or something. It used to be like his family drinking a glass of wine. If it's not appropriate to send the princess to practice songs, just send some bottles of Royal salutes! "

"OK!"

For a time, many of the self brewed Remy Martin, XO, Raffi and royal salute in the pirated cash cabinet were booked. This makes KTV's mother sang curious“ I'll go. Is boss tea vegetable here. The uniform woodlouse doesn't order these days. How can they send them to the big box today?

"I don't know. A dozen young people are singing and drinking in the box. They drink the cheapest kodona. They don't even have a foreign wine. They don't think there is a master or young master in it."

"I'll take some beautiful girls in and have a look. Let the beautiful girls help the hot field. I'll have a look and see who's coming. It's not like this for the New Year!"

It's lively now. After a while, in the big box of KTV, beautiful girls poured in, and there were many young guys watching behind. Because this kind of toast is not on the dinner table. When we meet in the hotel, we may make more friends with a smile and a glass of wine. In this kind of entertainment place, we can't meet without meeting.

To tell the truth, many of these things are often only meaningful and unspeakable. For example, if Zhang Fan practiced songs today, it is estimated that not so many people will pay attention. Sometimes, I hide. Don't think that peeping into other people's privacy can have each other's handle. Most of the time, this peeping out privacy will become a suicide knife.

So everyone looked.

"I went in. The head of Yang Township and Sultan went in with their Township accountant and a deputy general manager of the yogurt factory."

"What wine are you carrying?"

"Looks like XO!"

"Shit, fake wine has become a gunman's product today. Go and change our one and that XO. This wine is too fake. It's a headache after drinking!"

.....

In Zhang Fan's box, someone can't afford to play and is anxious.

Because after the girls also came together, you have put the amount of alcohol you drink into the IQ competition. All young people, don't understand. It's like I can be poorer than you, but you can't say I'm dumber than you.

I am poorer than you because of various factors, such as opportunities and Godfather. But IQ can't be worse than you.

Because IQ is like a tire belt. Once compared by others, it seems to be insulted.

Zhang Fan really didn't want to drink. He was entangled by several people who said he was drunk or not. He simply played cards and took a few down. These boys couldn't play any more. Because it is not a segment, she was coaxed by female students.

Several of them used to be people who felt like they had some cards in the school. Anyway, they had a little money at home and didn't receive any education after entering the society. Now these young men quit. When they are still in high spirits, they think they will turn into dragons and tigers in the future. In fact, most of them are urged by the years when they enter the Jianghu.

his IQ.

They're not stupid.

"Drink, drink, stop playing, boring, drink, we drink." There was a commotion. Zhang Fan also provoked public anger.

I married the most talented and thoughtful female students in the class. Now I have to force all the boys to make a joke. They want to get Zhang Fan drunk anyway.

Shaohua is not happy. If you can't play, you have to be tough, "willing to gamble and admit defeat. What's this. If you have the ability to continue playing, I'll drink twice as much as my husband loses. Dare you? "

"Count me in!" Jia SuYue stood on Shaohua's side. Shaohua blindly believes in Zhang Fan, while Jia SuYue is just watching the excitement, not afraid of big things, and people are crazy.

Wang Yanan also came over, "count me."

"Hi!" Young master Yang, Mr. Wang Qifa and a group of boys are not happy.

"Long not I am good, can let three Goddess All so maintain, Lao Tzu's white face is white apply mask?"

"I don't have much money. I can have such a woman. This guy must be a soft eater." Mr. Wang Qifa thought.

A male classmate who was a deputy section chief in Sultan was even more reluctant, "no, it's necessary. You are an outsider. Our frontier rules are big. Although I am a deputy section chief, I never feel separated from ordinary people. I drink it. Why can't you drink? "

This one is really drunk. With a big tongue, I mean I'm a leader now.

Zhang Fan shook his head and thought, he has been very low-key. How can he still make others jealous? Is it really a mediocrity not to be envied?

With this smile on his face, Zhang Fan looked at a group of drunkards and thought about how to get away.

Just then, mother sang came in. He came in with a group of tall young girls.

The atmosphere was even more lively in the words of a group of girls. Several small township cadres who had the courage to drink a lot had already hugged the girl and started shouting. Miss Lou's familiar posture is definitely the owner of not drinking less flower wine.

This makes some single female students even more vigilant.

Drinking Flower Restaurant girl, the posture of lovers in peace day restaurant is absolutely different. Drinking Flower Restaurant girl must show momentum. The original assets of five yuan must have the posture of tens of billions of assets at this time. When drinking beer, you must also drink the posture of Lafite in 1982. The snow lotus in your hand must look like a Cuban cigar at this time.

Mother sang looked at a group of boys who had lost their appearance after drinking some wine. She was also surprised "It doesn't look like a big man. At least the big man won't be so presumptuous in front of people, but it doesn't look like a second generation. Young master Yang is a little better. The others are either rural white slip cadres or student dolls. Did you send the wrong wine? "

She looked at Zhang Fan again "This is very steady. There is a posture of controlling the situation between his behaviors, but why do his classmates coax him? Are you pretending? "

Just when mom Sang was thinking of pulling the girls away.

The box door opened.

"Zhang Yuan! Ha ha, happy new year. Today, the comrades of our township are here to relax and sing a song for the new year. I didn't expect to meet you. "

"BA Xiang, happy new year, happy New Year! You don't know. I don't drink. "

"It's okay, it's okay. You don't drink. Who doesn't know about tea vegetarians? I'll do it first." With that, the Mongolian man drank a cup, and then turned around to see a classmate of Shaohua who was a deputy section chief in surtan township.

"Hi, are you a classmate of Zhang Yuan? Why didn't you say it earlier? OK, I won't bother you today. You'll entertain Zhang Yuan for me later and help Zhang Yuan have more drinks. "

With that, mayor Ba, who lit the bottom of the wine glass, took people out.

Then, everyone looked at Zhang Fan, especially several male students in the township. At this time, they couldn't help shrinking back a few steps.

However, one cannot be weak.

"It's estimated that this is his brother-in-law. Being the head of the poorest township of tea vegetable has no future!" Say it quietly to your male or female partner.

I haven't finished yet.

Then, the leaders of the tea vegetable high tech Zone came in. This high-tech zone is said to be a district.

In fact, it has almost become the leader of all districts and counties.

"Zhang Yuan, don't say hello when you come. You were in the operating room when you paid respects to the leaders in the new year. Hey, it's really not easy to see you. "

Many high-tech medical groups have set up many enterprises in catechin because of the relationship between catechin hospital and catechin hospital. Although these enterprises have little investment at present, they almost ignore the leaders of the high-tech zone.

These enterprise bosses who are not polite in front of the tea vegetable boss lack piety in front of Zhang Fan, just like cats who eat fast and chant Buddha. Therefore, the leaders of the high tech Zone attach importance to Zhang Fan. They understand. If you want to improve your performance in the future, you must have a good relationship with Zhang Fan.

A wave

Two waves

Wave after wave.

Several in the town woke up.

Not to mention other female students, even Jia SuYue is a little jealous.

The students began to gossip.

"What did Shaohua husband do? They call him Zhang Yuan. What position? "

"The president of the tea vegetable hospital, the president! Similar to our grade! "

"I'll go!"

"Why can Shaohua marry the dean?" Some girls think so.

"Why should Zhang Fan be the dean?" Some boys think so.

Mr. Wang Qifa regretted it.

Chapter 1197

Chinese Spring Festival is more interesting.

In the past, it was only 15 years. Then it gradually became the seventh day of the seventh day, and the Spring Festival was over. After 2008, many businessmen passed the third day of the third day of the third day, even if the new year was over. With the increase of tea element population, the slow Festival is actually a new year's Eve, a meal, as if a year is over.

There was no new year's greetings in groups from the whole Chuang Tzu, and there were no large and small packages of transferred relatives all over the world. The traffic is more and more developed, and people's communication is more and more simple. Now even SMS New Year greetings have been eliminated.

It can be said that the world has changed too fast.

Doctors' holidays, as soon as the third day is over, actually enter the routine work. Many doctors, such as second-line doctors, are the so-called group leaders. After the third day of junior high school, whether you are on duty or not, you can't drink or leave the city.

Although the person is not in the unit, there is always a chain leading him. Once there is an operation, they must rush to the hospital when they are short of manpower or difficult. Therefore, although sometimes the older the doctor is, the more he loses his temper in front of his wife.

I make more money, but often

Many occupations and industries end in three days. In fact, the Spring Festival ends. For example, young people working in a foreign land, to tell you the truth, isn't their hometown good? OK. But it is true that there is no room for flesh in my hometown and no room for soul in another hometown.

But there are also people who are still celebrating the new year.

The hospital on duty is much busier than before.

"Zhang Yuan, there is a patient stuck by a fishbone. I'm dying. Come to the emergency center." The head nurse of the emergency center called Zhang Fan directly. Zhang Fan's special phone number is known by the leaders, the directors and head nurses of various departments, and Shaohua at home.

Others don't know.

After Zhang Fan answered the phone, he was full of anger. It's not a special call. Zhang Fan is angry.

It's the patient's symptoms that make him angry.

I'm still not the president of the third class hospital. The fishbone is stuck. Don't you know what to do?

Is this still a class III hospital? It's a joke to tell that such a big top-3 emergency center and emergency center equipped with aircraft can't even solve a fishbone. Now the emergency center of tea vegetable hospital, say a bad word.

It's more fully equipped than some municipal hospitals. There's no way to find a fish bone.

"Xue Fei, you son of a bitch, can you do it! If you can't, replace me. Not even a laryngoscope?" Zhang Fan is really angry. Lao Chen follows behind Zhang Fan and doesn't dare to go out. Zhang Fan estimated what the situation was while running.

Medical matters are too difficult to say. If an event goes beyond the norm. Well, it's often quite tricky. But how dangerous can fish bones be? Does the patient eat whales?

The two men ran quickly.

Before I got to the emergency center, I heard crying, shouting and even praying in the emergency center.

As soon as he entered the door, Zhang Fan saw a large group of family members.

Almost all the men are southerners, and they are still typical of Fujian people. How can we say that the exodus of people from the north and the south of China can't see the difference if you don't look carefully, but there are still differences when you look carefully.

Northerners, if they live near the northwest, often have a strong body because red meat accounts for a large proportion in their diet. If they live near the plateau, they will have a little red blood.

Southerners, especially southerners who have eaten seafood for generations at the seaside, are obviously rare with tender and fat skin. Of course, there is no exception.

Doctor, seeing, hearing, asking and cutting is the basic dish. Of course, Zhang fan can confirm that they are from Fujian, mainly their language!

"What happened?" After passing through a large group of family members, Zhang Fan asked Xue Fei.

Some people plan and then move, while others move and then move. For example, in the hospital, it is particularly obvious. When the treatment goes well, the tone of the doctor and the nurse is very, and the action is quite rough. Cleaning up the family members and clearing the site, the family members also cooperate, and they also think this hospital is professional.

But once the treatment is not smooth, often at this time, the attitude of doctors and nurses is quite polite. Therefore, sometimes, to judge whether the patient is OK or not, you can probably know the patient's situation by looking at the attitude of doctors and nurses.

This is the experience of doctors and nurses being beaten and planning and then moving.

"The fishbone is stuck in my throat!"

"Have you located it yet?" When seeing Xue Fei's face, Zhang Fan knew that things were not simple. Because Xue Fei's face was white with fear. Although Xue Fei is usually out of tune, to tell the truth, people who can sleep under big stones in the earthquake and debris flow have much experience, but now his face is not good. It is estimated that things are very difficult.

"Location." Then Xue Fei took the CT and handed it to Zhang Fan.

Zhang Fan's heart trembled when he saw it.

There are many cases of fish bones stuck in the esophagus. There are many ways for Chinese people to drink vinegar, eat steamed bread and rice. In fact, these methods are wrong.

First of all, you can't drink vinegar. The pH value of vinegar can't even reach the concentration of gastric acid. Moreover, you just throw the fishbone into the vinegar bottle. See how long it can be soft. This thing will never reach the state of sage when it meets vinegar.

And eating, eating steamed bread, not to mention.

Sometimes, it seems that there are many bad things.

It was all right. As a result, it was thought to be a perfect operation. As a result, something big happened.

Originally, the fishbone was hung on the edge of the esophagus. When you go to the hospital, the doctor will break your mouth. It's easier to use a pair of pliers than pulling out white hair. You don't even need anesthetic.

But you can do all kinds of stimulation, all kinds of water and fire. Well, the fishbone hanging on the esophagus is inserted deeper and completely submerged into the muscle layer because of the violent peristalsis of the esophagus.

Esophageal irritation can cause hiccups. What is the essence of hiccup. Is the reverse movement of the esophagus. How to describe this movement.

When you eat, whether you eat porridge upside down or drink water at attention, food can go into your stomach instead of hanging in your throat.

This is the normal peristalsis of the esophagus, but it can also peristalsis in the opposite direction. For example, if you want to swallow a thicker cucumber in one bite, you can't swallow it. After testing the esophagus, you think the cucumber eater is also a brain cripple. It desperately moves out in the opposite direction, and then yells to the brain: your sister, don't you have teeth? Won't you chew it a little? I sent it back to you.

Then the esophagus wriggles, wriggles, rubs and rubs, pushing the cucumber out. This is the friction principle that some people like.

When hiccup occurs, is the human expression terrible? In fact, this is beyond the control of human will. It is estimated that many people choke on cucumbers and the like since the emergence of human beings. Therefore, when this happens, in fact, the brain wants to force people to cut things in their mouth with their teeth.

In fact, human beings can be roughly regarded as a folded and copied object. The labial muscle is similar to the orbicularis ani muscle. These two places are rich in blood vessels and nerves, which can be like sipping your mouth, but the teeth below have evolved into linear gear muscles.

The esophagus, in general, is similar to the cecum.

When a fish bone or sharp tool is inserted, it is particularly easy to do as long as it is not all inserted into the muscle. These muscles, like locked chrysanthemums, can fix the position of these foreign bodies through muscle contracture.

Even if you don't take it out, with the change of time, let alone a fish bone, even if it is stainless steel, the muscle can be wrapped by intensification, and then slowly eat these foreign bodies like grinding a needle with an iron pestle. Of course, sometimes you get an infection, and then you have an extra fistula in your esophagus.

When the whole sharp weapon or fish bone enters the muscle layer, this is difficult. At this time, the muscle can't be locked, and the combat cells such as leukocytes and macrophages can't catch up. Therefore, these foreign bodies, especially sharp foreign bodies, will peristalsis and start to move with the contraction of the muscle.

The friction between muscles is not just meat and meat.

This thing has lubricant. Otherwise, if meat rubs against meat, it will break the skin. The muscles also rub against each other, forming torque like a lever. The lubricating fluid between muscles is all kinds of fat, grease and all kinds of liquids.

So once these sharp tools enter the muscles. Well, the doctor's head is big. If you can't take it out, you can't locate it first.

Clearly, the position set before the operation is near the rectum. It is possible for it to run near your bladder when the operation begins.

Moreover, tree skin and human face are all right. Although human skin is tender, it can pinch out water, but this layer of defense layer is absolutely super powerful.

But there is no such defense layer in human body.

When a fish bone, which is a younger brother in front of the skin, enters the body, it is like a shark entering a swimming pool. Big blood vessels, big organs, see this thing, urine can be scared out.

Therefore, when you accidentally eat a fish bone, don't stimulate it if you can. Don't make the patient have severe hiccups. Don't eat steamed bread or rice. You can flush fish bones into your stomach. Maybe this thing will go out of your stomach and penetrate your intestines.

You can't rush down. Once you squeeze the fishbone completely into the muscle layer, you can't take it out.

It can be said that when you can handle it for ten yuan, you will be unable to handle tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of things.

Zhang Fan's heart trembled with the CT film.

Because on the CT film, the fishbone has felt to be in the position of the aortic arch.

How terrible this thing is.

A simple analogy is that the tip of a sewing needle has been aligned with a condom filled with water.

How close is the distance? Shake your hand. Maybe the tip of the needle will come and go.

The condom is broken. It's great to eat something, but the aortic arch is broken and it's too late to cry.

Zhang Fan's movement suddenly slowed down.

"Don't move! Yes, don't move. Breathe slowly. Go away. Don't touch him. Yes, that's it. Keep it. I know you're uncomfortable. Don't exercise violently now. "

The cold sweat came down.

The fat man lying on the flat car is like a man's meat bomb.

Because the fishbone he ate had been aimed at the aortic arch.

"What should I do?" Xue Fei's voice trembled.

Chapter 1198

Hospital staff believe in the saying that diseases can bully people.

For example, a young doctor is on the night shift. I don't know why. This night, he has a variety of complex diseases. Maybe God wants to exercise him.

Then there are older and qualified nurses who don't like to partner with young novice doctors on duty. Because the younger the doctor, the more serious the patient. Maybe it's idealism, but it really seems so.

"Quick neck support, fix his neck first!" Zhang Fan shouted to the young doctor on duty in the emergency center today.

"Contact the anesthesiology department and ask the director of the anesthesiology department to come for urgent consultation!" Zhang Fan whispered to Xue Fei.

"Good!" Xue Fei took a deep look at the young fat man lying on the flat car.

Perhaps this is the last time to take a look at the living fat man. This disease may explode at any moment, and it can't be rescued.

If a common blood vessel ruptures, it may be like a river in a place that has collapsed a dam. It may be dead, but for China, it's nothing.

And if the aortic arch breaks.

Just as the long river had a flood that was not seen in a thousand years, it directly flooded all the big cities in Nanhua from Hankou. To this extent, it is not a matter of flood or no flood, but a problem that does not exist in this country.

This is as like as two peas.

Xue Fei went backwards to make a phone call, just like a police and bandit film. Looking at the fat man, he was deeply afraid of the fat man pulling the string.

Zhang Fan raised his hands, just like the conductor of the song and dance troupe. With the fat man's breath, he said slowly, "yes, look at my hands, breathe slowly, breathe slowly, don't breathe deeply."

At this time, the family members do not know what the situation is. They think the doctors in this hospital seem to be ill. Just a fish bone.

"You..."

"Shut up!" Zhang Fan didn't look at his family. He directly asked his family to shut up. His voice was not loud, but he was absolutely serious. Just like the Tibetan mastiff with meat and bones in his mouth and saw other dogs go away. Although he didn't roar, he roared low.

He really didn't dare to give any orders now. He was afraid that the fat man lying on the flat car would be excited. At this time, let alone the emotional explosion, even a little chicken movement might be fatal.

I can't save it. The neck support came over, and Zhang Fan hung on the fat man's fat neck with light hands and feet. Then he stared at the fat man and said: what I say now is very important and related to your life. You can't move now, not even talk.

If you know what I mean, just blink.

The fat man blinked in horror.

This is the hospital, this is the authority of doctors.

If someone on the street said this to the fat man, the fat man can definitely jump up and beat people.

"Even if I want you to let go, you have to pull it in my crotch. Breathing must be steady. "

The fat man blinked again.

.....

Just then, the door of the emergency center banged, and a group of doctors and nurses dressed in green came in with two flat cars.

"Come on, I can't measure my blood pressure. I'll kill myself. A man and a woman committed suicide by cutting their wrists! "

The fat man in front of Zhang Fan turned his eyes to have a look. People, curiosity will really kill people. Zhang Fan almost went crazy.

He didn't dare to start, so he could only shout, "look at your sister!" This is the first time Zhang Fan has uttered rude words to the patient.

"Don't you want to live. Don't want to live, you go out and die! "

The fat man dared not look, and his eyes became big. At this time, he also knew that something was wrong.

Zhang Fan pulled over the young doctor, "you stand here, tell him his current situation and explain to him what he needs to pay attention to now."

With that, Zhang Fan walked to the new patient.

Originally, after the end of Zhang Fan's duty on New Year's Eve and the first day of the new year, he should rest, and then go to work on the seventh day of the new year.

However, on Valentine's day, Zhang Fan had to come to the hospital. To tell you the truth, I don't know what happened these years. In this western festival, anything strange can happen.

Zhang Fan is not the kind of person who believes in the hegemony of a big nation. He is the kind of person who is good as long as it is a holiday. But in recent years, this western festival has annoyed Zhang Fan. If he doesn't have a holiday and doesn't say anything, he's so old. Isn't this a festival for playing hooligans.

Because in this festival, things happen, especially wonderful.

People who burn charcoal, take medicine collectively, and commit suicide. Moreover, they are very young. For example, one year, a girl was broken up on this day, and then the girl stood on the roof and stayed all night.

She was cold or not, but several little nurses who went to the hospital got a cold.

There are also fights. Most of the fights are men on weekdays. They beat their heads with blood, just like a group of big cocks talking about their heads with blood. In foreign festivals, girls fight a lot.

Men fight, a head of blood, even a body of blood, quite heroic.

And girls fight, hair and face. Really, the doctor who doesn't see much hair has a trembling heart.

In particular, the girl who spent smoking makeup and wore black silk or short skirts and boots, after the fight, her nose and face were blue and blue, her hair was fried, and she was like a ghost film.

In general, it's not serious to cut your wrists and commit suicide on this day. To tell you the truth, eighty or ninety percent of them scare others. But today's is different. There is shock in wrist cutting suicide. Zhang Fan has to go and have a look.

A man and a woman are of flower age. However, at this time, it was incomplete. The boy's arms and wrists looked like a blunt knife, pulled seven or eight times, deep and shallow, flesh and blood blurred. It seems that the white tendons are exposed.

Zhang Fan glanced at it and didn't take it to heart. It looked serious as if his wrist was going to fall off. In fact, there was nothing wrong. He sewed a few stitches, and he would have more bragging capital in the future. I fought in the streets.

"What's going on?" Zhang Fan asked the emergency doctor who led the team.

Zhang Fan didn't ask the patient what was going on, but that he was in shock.

"Zhang Yuan, the girl behind is more serious."

When Zhang Fan turned back, the boy in front cried: "I just scared her. I didn't think she stabbed herself. Doctor, I really didn't mean to. I'm allergic to anesthetics..."

Zhang Fan was almost angry and happy. He was still afraid of death. "Put this in the disposal room, write the medical record, and then sew up the wound!"

Zhang Fan didn't say much. When he saw the little girl, he couldn't help sighing, "this is a cruel man."

The emergency doctor didn't dare to deal with the wound. He just tied up the radial artery of the upper limb with a tourniquet.

At the wound, the glass residue of the beer bottle was deeply inserted into the wrist joint, and the muscles turned out, just like a child's mouth.

"Come on, pull into the operating room for rescue!"

With that, Zhang Fan felt like he was almost something. "Head nurse, call by the way and let the orthopedics department participate in the rescue."

Blood vessels, simple vascular diseases belong to vascular department, but injuries belong to orthopedics. Moreover, orthopedics is relatively more experienced in this field.

Once Zhang Fan talked with the headmaster of tea vegetable No. 1 middle school during dinner. The headmaster said so at that time " Now it's girls who fight, and boys don't fight anymore. "

At that time, Zhang Fan was curious. Why? What are the boys doing.

"Go and dress up and fall in love."

At first, Zhang Fan didn't take it to heart. He thought the headmaster was exaggerating. But more and more cruel girls came to the emergency center. Zhang fancai slowly found that what the headmaster said was right. The conversion between men and women is quite serious.

Just after Zhang Fan explained, he saw his parents coming around " Why let my children deal with it casually, and his children have to go into the operating room and hire experts. Why, what do you do? What's your name? We don't need money. "

Lao Chen hurried forward to separate his family from Zhang Fan " If you have something to say, don't push and shove. "

The more anxious the moment, the more things.

Lao Chen still has to explain. As a result, the family members were treated unfairly, and their emotions could not be calmed.

If there is no serious illness today, Zhang Fan really wants Lao Chen to explain, but now the situation does not allow it.

"Come on, arrange for both people to have surgery and invite orthopaedic experts down."

Not long after talking, the family member who ate the fish bone also came with people.

"What day is it today?" Lao Chen muttered.

"Hello, are you the person in charge here? How about our family? This is a relative of our family. He is also a doctor. Can you tell him the situation? You are going to enter the operating room directly, and we have to press so much money. It's a little... "

A non-standard Mandarin is particularly easy to remind you of what kind of little sister said on the phone that your bank card is suspected of washing tickets.

"Yes, your family now..." Zhang Fan couldn't say any more, because he saw a man and stretched out his hand to touch the fat man lying on the flat car.

"Don't move!" Zhang Fan ignored the family members in front of him and shouted loudly.

Then he walked quickly, "why don't you stop him? What are you doing here?" Zhang Fan said dissatisfied with the doctor in his emergency center, and then asked the person who wanted to reach out.

"Are you the doctor on duty? I am the former president of Futian facial features Medical Association! I don't think we should go into the operating room. There are many patients with this kind of fishbone in our hometown, and there are no less than a dozen every year. It's no surprise that you eat less fish in the northwest, and there are few such cases. " Very reserved.

A field hospital of tea vegetable was forced by tea vegetable hospital. We can only prepare the facial plastic surgery department for the last project this year. And it cost a lot. Before the end of the year, he invited the director from his hometown.

Medicine is particularly interesting when it is classified, such as fish bones. If they enter the throat, they are the things of ear, nose and throat. If they do not enter the throat, they are the things of Stomatology. If they enter the esophagus, they are the things of general surgery.

The retired director felt that the tea vegetable hospital might be preparing for transitional treatment like their boss.

Zhang Fan looked at each other and said nothing. Chen Sheng came over quietly, "I read their information. They are the boss of the largest private hospital of catechin!"

Zhang Fan nodded " Give him the CT. Let him see. "

The slightly reserved director picked up CT confidently, and then

Chapter 1199

"Well!" Just like eating broad beans stuck in my throat, I took a deep breath, and then the hand that didn't take the film immediately seemed to be shocked, and put it into my pocket " This, this, this is cardiothoracic surgery. I'm from the Department of facial features... "

Then he said to his family: "pay the money quickly. Don't delay. Don't hesitate. He's lucky to lie here. After all, this hospital isn't run by our villagers. "

To tell you the truth, when it comes to money. Several provinces in the south are not flesh people, but in terms of courage, other provinces are brothers in front of a certain Tian people.

Do Jiangsu and Zhejiang have money? Yes, but the medical level of Jiangsu and Zhejiang can be second to none in the south. Is Yangcheng rich? Yes, Yangcheng's medical treatment, to be honest, the essence of Chinese medicine, the mainland, including the capital, is not as powerful as Yangcheng.

However, the medical treatment of a certain field is short of swords and takes a wrong edge. Just like when they rowed a small sampan out of a sea color TV, their courage was really great.

From medical treatment to medical beauty, from medical beauty to medical examination, they are all the leaders in the private field. Among these hospitals, there are powerful. But there are also people who watch card consumption.

How did they get rich in their early years? Most people really don't know. In fact, they rely on a prescription for the treatment of skin diseases, walk through the streets and slowly snowball. With a little money, they contract the departments of public hospitals, from skin diseases to willow diseases, and then from willow diseases to eugenics and good education.

If you have more money, you will contract public hospitals. Finally, it is exaggerated to contract a top hospital in the capital.

There was such a joke that was not a joke. They didn't know that it opened a brain hole and invented a new biochemical therapy. It's that you can treat any disease, and then the price is quite high, and you don't treat ordinary people.

They will give special treatment to retired personnel. If a doctor introduces a patient to their hospital for treatment, they will pay 5% of the treatment cost. Anyway, they are experts in obtaining social security and the money of national medical expense free personnel.

However, when they get sick, they often won't be treated in their own hospital.

In fact, after the success of the project, their basic plan will be established. At this time, many bosses who saw doctors bow down in those years have trembled. It has become a group, even a listed company.

All over the country, there is a city, andrology, infertility, gynecology, painless abortion. Sometimes making money too fast is not a good thing. It is said that from scratch, private medical groups, no one has competed for so many decades.

It should be possible to develop a hospital similar to Mayo in the golden Maoist country, but in the end, whether you are listed or not, you have become a hospital without American problems to cure all kinds of diseases. In fact, they all have the same technique regardless of size. Just like not giving gifts for the new year this year, the IQ tax is cut.

Therefore, ah, the medical level of each province in China can actually be divided into about one region. But the level of a field, even the whole province, can only be said to be average.

I don't know whether the richer the people are, the more they cherish their money, or whether the director of the facial features department wants to step on the name of the tea vegetable hospital. Anyway, the director is big enough. When signing up for the number, it seemed that others didn't know his fame. They said it with pride.

But now, he can only watch the CT film and spit.

"Please go out and don't affect the treatment of doctors and nurses! You're a doctor, too. You should understand this. Irrelevant personnel go out. "

Zhang Fan looked at him and said softly.

The maintenance is very good. His face suddenly changes from red to white and from white to black. It really pierces his heart. Don't look at this. It sounds OK, but for a professional, it's like saying, go out, layman, you know a chicken!

It's not very hurtful and insulting.

The hospital has begun to move after eating fish bones. China has done a relatively good job in medical treatment. Whether you are a competitor or not, and whether you have made a lot of money. The rescue is treated equally.

Nearly 40 experts and doctors from cardiothoracic surgery, general surgery, facial features department and cardiology department were dispatched.

Don't underestimate this fishbone. It's like a nuclear weapon. If you don't press the button, nothing happens. Once you press the button, 800 people are useless. Now these people are going all out to ensure that the button can't be pressed.

.....

"Why is it so expensive! It was said that it was more than 1000 yuan. How can it now become more than 3000 yuan. Is your operating room made of gold? "

The boy's mother quit when she saw the bill.

Now in China, there is a trend that people with money can't see money, and those without money can't see no money. Especially for some parents, it is particularly obvious for their children. I would rather wear socks with exposed toes than buy famous brands for children.

We must make children feel happy! In fact, this is not happiness. It has created some giant babies who do not know the sweetness and bitterness, that is, the so-called pseudo second generation.

Zhang Fan asks Xue Fei to deal with it. This kind of thing is too common.

"The operating room is ready." Chen Sheng ran over and whispered to Zhang Fan.

"You let Xue Fei pay attention. The situation of this girl is not particularly optimistic."

"Well, OK."

In medical treatment, especially this kind of emergency treatment, it is difficult to deal with, because there is often insufficient information.

For example, if a person goes to hospital, let alone surgery, even if he doesn't have surgery, his information collection is particularly detailed.

From whether you have a family genetic history to whether you are married and whether you have a young lady. Although this information seems useless, in fact, it can build a safe medication and treatment. Some people feel shy or something when they see a doctor and won't tell the doctor the truth.

In fact, doctors don't want to listen to your privacy. It's for treatment.

Doctors who have a family history of allergy will weigh when using drugs that are easy to be allergic.

The patients in the emergency center are different. They are often deaf and dumb, especially prone to accidents.

After explaining a few words, Zhang Fan hurried towards the operation.

The transfer of fat people is a very troublesome thing.

Three or four nurses and a group of people from the security department opened the way in front, and behind them a group of young male doctors, all holding hands on the flat car.

"Don't bump, brothers, lift it up. Lift it up, there are steps in front..." Dai Yuhang of cardiothoracic surgery commanded a group of young doctors to lift fat people like bombs.

The fat man was also afraid at this time, and his two hands clung to the guardrail by the bed.

In the operating room.

"Zhang Yuan, it's too dangerous. Anesthesia is risky. This kind of patient's breathing will be changed during anesthesia, which will make the patient enter the state of deep breathing, once..."

"Think again, think again, we must think of a complete method, hurry up!" The front words are still encouraging, and the back words are unreasonable.

The director of the anesthesiology department took a big look at Zhang Fan, and then called the doctors of the whole anesthesiology department for a meeting.

Zhang Fan also began to call doctors for a meeting.

"From which direction?"

General surgery, cardiothoracic surgery and endoscope center are all gathered in the operating room.

Chapter 1200

There are many strange things in the hospital. Someone came for paternity testing with three or four men. Youxi became a father, and then suddenly found that the DNA was inconsistent. More junior high school students holding hands and carrying schoolbags to have an abortion are just like traveling. They come hand in hand and walk hand in hand. It looks particularly sweet.

The most wonderful thing is that one year, a group of people came to the hospital carrying the bed board. The dog's head was exposed. As a result, it was said that Dingding couldn't pull it out. Girls' parents have no face to talk.

Anyway, the more before and after the festival, the more wonderful things.

Zhang Fan and Xue Feigang had just entered the operating room. Xue Feigang arranged for someone to deal with two suicidal couples. They listened to the screams and painful cries of women in the emergency hall like killing pigs.

He hurried to see it again.

"What are you doing? What are you doing?" Xue Fei's tone was bad because he saw several women fighting.

One side is relatively strong, but he is older. It is estimated that he is more than 40 years old and less than 50 years old. I can't see the wisdom of this age on my face, but I can definitely see domineering.

On the other hand, although he is not old, he is almost in his early thirties. Two groups of women tore together.

"I asked you to seduce my man. Now I let the police catch you."

"Who seduced your man? He came to massage himself. He was ill. Don't worry about me."

Although old age has no advantage, it has great momentum. Young people, on the one hand, have been avoiding war. Do you want to shout because they are scratched.

"Stop it. Call again. I'll call the police." Xue Fei frowned. He thought there was something about junior three and junior four, but this time it didn't seem like much, because there were too many junior three, as many as five or six.

"Doctor, you call the police. Call the police." The old man grabbed the young clothes and didn't let go. His upper body was almost gone.

A lot of young people who don't know whether they are family members come up to them as if to persuade them to fight again. In fact, they are addicted to it.

"What happened?" Xue Fei asked.

At this question, the old woman began to cry, "God, doctor, look at my man. What's wrong with him."

Xue Fei went to the front and took a look.

Acquaintances! His former card friend, Lao Zhou. This person is within the system and has a little power. But like Xue Fei, he is also afraid of his wife.

But at this time, Xue Fei didn't have time to say hello, because Lao Zhou clenched his teeth, looked gray, couldn't open his eyes, and covered his left chest with his right hand.

"Come on, ECG!" It was too late to ask the situation. Xue Fei judged at the first time that he had a myocardial infarction.

It turned out that Lao Zhou was the leader of a unit. His position was not high, but his power was not small. In the past, like Xue Fei, he loved playing mahjong, and like Xue Fei, he lost every time. Several old women in the mahjong room liked Xue Fei and Lao Zhou.

Later, it was said that Lao Zhou had an affair with an old woman in the mahjong room. His wife went to the mahjong room and had a fight with the mahjong woman.

Lao Zhou has no face to go. Xue Fei's wife beat Xue Fei, while Lao Zhou's wife beat outsiders. That's the difference.

But then Xue Fei changed his mind and stopped playing, and Lao Zhou didn't know how to love a horse to kill a chicken.

I don't know whether to eat too much meat or drink too much during the festival. Lao Zhou was going to work, but he always felt a dull pain in his left shoulder. After thinking about it, I didn't go to work, and then I went to a small shop with an iron fence for a massage.

I don't know how to massage at ordinary times. Anyway, Lao Zhou wants young women to step on their backs today. Although the young woman is small, she still has some weight. The young woman happily grasps the single pole thing falling from the roof and steps on it in silk stockings.

As a result, the old man at his feet had no news.

Looking down again, Lao Zhou, who was foaming at the mouth, was dead and miserable.

The young woman thought she had broken Lao Zhou's ribs. Scared, he jumped down and just shouted twice. Old Zhou's wife came to catch the traitor with a group of aunts.

Then he went to the hospital while playing. It's also because the hospital is not far away.

"Myocardial infarction!" Xue Fei took a look at the ECG "Come on, thrombolytic rescue."

So ah, many people say that there is nothing in the world that cannot be solved by a big sword. If there is, there will be two. But don't go when your left shoulder hurts. It's hard to say whether things can be

If the number of hospital patients decreased significantly before the festival, it would be like closing down. But once the festival is over, it is like a chicken feather after the carnival. After the festival, the hospital is as busy as fighting again. Doctors are not used to working after the festival.

Moreover, from the respiratory department in winter, it has become a situation in which the respiratory department and the digestive department work together. Every year, after the Spring Festival, a lot of digestive system problems.

Some drank too much, causing discomfort in the liver, and some ate too much, causing discomfort in the intestines, stomach and gallbladder. The hospital entered a normal working state in this noise.

In the operating room.

The director of thoracic surgery, otolaryngology, general surgery, Gastroenterology, anesthesiology and radiology, directly formed the MDT mode (multi department diagnosis and treatment).

"Positioning complete." The radiologist reports first.

Director of anesthesiology department: "the patient enters the anesthesia state and his life state is stable!"

"I'm the master knife. You take over and change positions in turn."

"Yes!"

Zhang Fan looked at several directors and nodded gently.

The difficulty of anatomy alone is not high. Just like autopsy, open the fat and muscle layer by layer.

Because the patients have no basic diseases and are young, it is not difficult. It can be said that the requirements for practitioners are high.

First, there should be no severe pulling. During the operation, anesthetics are given to the patient. In fact, it is the brain that anesthetizes.

In fact, the body will still transmit the pain to the brain, but the brain will drink too much and can't give instructions like the faint king at this time. The muscle can't wait for the command of the brain, it will act by itself.

Just like when killing chickens and fish, the fish's head is smashed, but the fish's body can jump up, swing its tail and slap the fish butcher in the face.

The tighter the brain controls the muscles, the smaller the response. But no matter how small, there will be a response. Once there is a reaction, the fish bone can plunge into the aortic arch. So this kind of surgery, to be honest, is troublesome.

"Have you given muscle relaxants?"

"Yes, Zhang hospital should be faster. The patient is too fat and gives a large amount of drugs. If it takes a long time, I'm worried about respiratory depression."

The anesthesiologist said with concern.

"Good!" Zhang Fan nodded. In fact, he had no bottom.

This kind of operation can't be fast. When you are fast, you have to move big, and when you move big, you have to pull the muscles. Anesthesiologists should be fast and fish bones should be slow. It's really difficult.

The patient had been detoxified. His yellowing skin was like fried fish floss bread stained with butter. Zhang Fan was stunned for a while with a knife.

Not hungry, but Zhang Fan is thinking about how to cut down this thing so that muscles and fat don't tremble.

In his mind, there was already a layered structure in front of the fat man's chest. And it's quite accurate. The fat of the fat man in my mind trembles, just like the cream yellow cake that I'm about to turn over. Zhang Fan's scalpel has become a fork.

"No, if he goes on like this, his collective organization will definitely shake."

The crowd gathered around the operating table and held their hands in front of their chest. They looked at the fat man with bare upper body disinfected with iodophor, just like a group of blue-green monsters, staring at the Tang Monk's meat.

Zhang Fan shook his head with a knife. In the system, he simulated it several times, but he didn't think it would work. Just when Zhang Fan was tangled, Ma Yichen, a little apprentice of general foreign studies, said, "master, hang a line. We'll pull it outside. The antagonistic effect should be able to offset the contraction force of his body."

"Yes!" Zhang Fan understood "Yes, that's a good idea. Finished, you can write a paper on this operation. Zhang Fan is now gradually familiar with the paper and consciously participates in the paper."

"When cutting skin, you can tighten your hands. When cutting fat and muscle, hang the line! Director Li, Dai Yuhang, open your chest. You go to the stage first. " Just like a film, once broken, everything is transparent.

Ma Yichen's words let Zhang Fan find a way.

Medical treatment, to be honest, is a very special subject. The knowledge in textbooks is the most classic surgery in medical treatment, such as appendix. It always educates medical students from generation to generation according to the surgical operation on Michaelis point.

Therefore, a doctor who graduated from medical school is lying on the threshold. After you really enter the hospital, you can never stop learning to become a quack. The medical guidelines updated every year must be thoroughly understood, and the latest journals must take time to study.

If a doctor doesn't study for five years and has been relying on his old capital, he will become a quack. How fast is the current medical renewal. For example, how many of the antipyretic drugs in early years, analgin, and those after 80 have not taken? But now, it has been eliminated and has become a taboo drug for infants and pregnant women.

Therefore, if a doctor wants to keep up with the times, he must subscribe to the journals of relevant departments. Although many papers are like water king, they will always be useful.

"Tight!" Zhang Fan said gently.

The two doctors outside the chest immediately put their hands on the surface of the patient's skin, one to the left and the other to the right, just like pulling the skin, they pulled the fat man's chest tightly, and even the pea dots in front of the chest seemed much smoother.

At this moment, Zhang Fan took the knife and cut into the skin. Under the external pulling force, the skin was like a zipper leather garment, which was zipped open, revealing the Yellow underwear inside.

"Hang up! Double line lengthening!" Zhang Fan said to the instrument nurse.

"Good!"

What is thread hanging, because the operation is relatively deep excavation, but at a certain depth, the force on the epidermis has no effect. And fat is a very good buffer layer, so when the operation enters the deep layer, use a needle to hang the operation line in the deep muscle layer.

Just like fishing, hang up the muscle and control its contraction.
