

Chapter 1241

Pure Yin

The Japanese man panicked when Christen snapped at him. It was obvious that with physical abilities like theirs, they couldn't be prostitutes. He had misjudged them!

He was no longer bothered to fight back, reminded of the number of mercenaries present on the island.

"Go! Quick!!"

While placing his hand over his chest, the man quickly ordered his bodyguards to escort him out of the crowd.

The travellers snickered at him, but he couldn't care less about their reactions. Nothing else mattered more than his own life.

Even though Rose and Christine were kind of annoyed by him, it didn't ruin their mood to shop.

However, after being harassed by him, Rose didn't dare to buy anything extravagant. Instead, she was thinking of the right time to try the outfit...

Back in the VIP suite in the Cassano Hotel, a melodious violin was playing. It was 'A Time For Us', from the movie Romeo and Juliet.

The melody of the violin soothed the mind of those listening to it.

A bottle of '82 Lafite Rothschild was placed on the top of the bar top.

Cai Ning held a wine glass with both of her hands, taking a sip out of it while sneaking glances at Yang Chen who was smiling at her. Her gaze was amorous, yet her face was flushed.

Yang Chen was startled at first when Cai Ning told him she wanted to drink wine. He stifled a smile and opened a bottle of red wine for her.

He never could have thought that Cai Ning would act so anxiously when he tried to pull her skirt down!

"Two more sips, I'll be fine after two sips." Cai Ning muttered sheepishly.

"It's fine, it's your first time after all. It's normal to feel nervous. I can wait for you if you want to drink the whole bottle." Yang Chen said earnestly.

Tears almost formed in her eyes. Cai Ning didn't think she would be so stiff from embarrassment just when they were getting into the mood.

Fortunately, her nerves had settled down under the influence of alcohol. She tried to let her mind go loose, allowing the alcohol to numb her senses.

The music ended and silence came upon them once again.

Cai Ning let out a breath and put down the half-drunk wine.

Slowly, she hugged Yang Chen.

“Carry me to the bed.”

Yang Chen cheered internally. They could finally get to it now. Even though he had been acting nonchalant, his mind was bugged by it.

Yang Chen turned off the lights to dim the room. Through the windows, the light from outside casted shadows into the room.

Yang Chen carried Cai Ning up and put her down gently onto the comfy and large bed.

At this moment, there was no need to heat things up anymore as alcohol was the best aphrodisiac they could ever have. Even so, Yang Chen still hoped to give her the best first experience, leaving kisses on her cheeks, forehead and lips.

Moans escaped her lips as she was caught up in the passionate kiss. It ignited the inner beast in Yang Chen and he fondled her breast hard before pulling her clothes off.

The only thing between them was Cai Ning’s white stockings. Yang Chen enjoyed the silky feeling as he ran his hands down her slender legs.

Cai Ning couldn’t think straight but the heat coming from Yang Chen was seducing her. His body pressing down on hers and him touching all her sweet spots was driving her crazy.

It felt as if the air around them had turned pink as his shaft came into contact with her ‘flower’.

Cai Ning tensed up at first, but she relaxed in the next second as if she was prepared to welcome the sensation.

Yang Chen could feel the tip of his shaft being moistened by her. To him, it was a signal which indicated the foreplay was sufficient.

“Ning’er, I’m coming in...”

“Uh...”

Yang Chen didn’t understand what she meant but he couldn’t be bothered to think about it.

The moment he pushed himself into her, Cai Ning wrapped her arms around his back.

Her body was tight, but the elasticity was unimaginable. It was probably because she had been cultivating since young and that she was in the Soul Forming stage. Yang Chen could feel a surge of pure Yin fusing with his Heaven and Earth energy through his shaft.

He knew that this was the reason why Tang Luyi didn’t let him do anything to Cai Ning.

Cai Ning relied on the Xiantian pure Yin to enter the Soul Forming stage at a faster rate.

The absorption of the pure Yin by Yang Chen’s dantian would barely affect Cai Ning since she was already in the Soul Forming stage. As a matter of fact, the Heaven and Earth energy coming from Yang Chen would actually benefit Cai Ning.

Well, naturally this would only work on their first time. Yang Chen wasn’t gullible enough to think that lovemaking would help much with their cultivation.

There must be a technique and theory to double cultivation, but Yang Chen hasn't figured them out yet.

As of now, this wasn't important. As an "experienced" man, he knew that he should focus on devouring the woman beneath him!

Cai Ning's gaze became seductive which was a rare sight to see on her. Her legs were spread open and they were trembling from Yang Chen's movement.

"Ning'er, does it hurt?"

Cai Ning didn't reply to him, instead, she wrapped her legs around his waist and pushed herself forward. A painful moan rang across the room the moment Yang Chen penetrated her fully!

The pleasure almost drowned her!

Yang Chen thrust forward subconsciously, pushing the remaining length of his shaft into her!

"Uh!"

Cai Ning groaned. She never dared to look at his junk, so she thought she took him in full, but she had actually underestimated him!

Tears pooled in her eyes, perhaps from the pain or pleasure, or maybe both.

Yang Chen kissed her tears away with an apologetic expression, "I'm sorry, it's just so comfortable inside you..."

Cai Ning beamed at him. Her face was pale from the pain and the sight of her lying on the white sheets with her hair spread around her could have made all men go crazy for her.

"It's fine, I'll recover quickly. After all, I'm not an ordinary woman..."

Yang Chen chuckled. She was right about it. A little injury like this meant nothing to her as she would recover from it quickly. He shouldn't be too cautious and end up wasting their precious night together.

"Then I'll start moving?"

"Mmh, don't let me regret it." Cai Ning bit her lips and stared at him with an amorous gaze.

Yang Chen smirked. He roared deeply as if it was his battle cry and in the next second, he started thrusting into her. Heavy panting and the creaking of the bed merged filled the room.

Cai Ning's moans could be heard and Yang Chen had no idea how long it took for him to release his seeds into her...

Cai Ning was drenched in sweat and she laid down on the bed. She thought she was going to die. Having experienced it personally, she finally understood why her sister's face was red every time she told her that Yang Chen was most annoying in bed.

A mundane would have passed out at his final thrusts!

The bedsheet could no longer be used as it was drenched in their body fluids.

Yang Chen carried her to the bathroom and cleaned her body before changing the bedsheets so that Cai Ning could have a good rest. It was mainly to rest her mind since her body was able to recover quickly.

“My true Yuan feels stronger.”

After a short rest, Cai Ning got up and said with a surprised voice.

Yang Chen was still thinking about the ecstatic experience. He fondled with her chest, causing Cai Ning to gasp at his action.

“Of course it would since I’m in the Tribulation Passing stage. I didn’t really get much from it.” Yang Chen smiled. He needed an excessive amount of True Yuan to experience Shang Qing Heavenly Lightning, which was the second stage of the Nine Heavens Thunder Tribulation. Cai Ning’s pure Yin True Yuan was nothing to him.

Chapter 1242

Crab Leg

The Clouds Resort was located east of Zhonghai, being the only resort that spanned across the sea.

All sorts of hotels, shops, supermarkets and recreation facilities were found in the resort. The resort was open to people with medium to high socioeconomic statuses. It was a place for them to relax.

A year ago, the resort still belonged to the second top clan in Zhonghai, the Liu clan. However, the ownership of this resort had changed to the An clan.

Other than cute cartoon dolls in the children theme park, there were also rides for children, such as the bumper cars and merry go rounds.

Most of the families who came with their kids could leave the kids in the amusement park as they rest in the cafe nearby, playing cards while chatting.

The sun shines bright in the morning, the golden rays of sunlight gleamed on the wooden balcony of a cafe.

Even though it wasn’t that cold during winter months in the South, the guests still dressed warmly.

Lin Ruoxi was wearing a pair of sunglasses with white frames that covered half of her face as she sat by a white table near the fences. Her hair was tied up and she was wearing a light brown windbreaker paired with a blouse. A pair of blue jeans wrapped around her slender legs and the colourful sport shoes she was wearing added a splash of colour to her outfit.

While holding onto a hot cup of cinnamon latte, Lin Ruoxi waved at someone downstairs.

Lanlan was playing with Tangtang at the area where the bumper cars were located. Since adults and children could ride the bumper cars together, Tangtang seized the opportunity and joined Lanlan in the ride.

Seeing how excited Lanlan was, Lin Ruoxi smiled while shaking her head.

She was finally able to spend time with her daughter and family now that she had quit her job.

An Xin was planning to invite Lin Ruoxi, Lanlan and Wang Ma to the resort as a way to thank her since Lin Ruoxi helped with her earlier crisis.

However, Yuan Hwei and Yang Jieyu also planned to hang out with Lin Ruoxi and Lanlan, now that Lanlan was on school break.

In the end, after being persuaded by An Xin, they all gathered at the resort together. After all, they were in one family, so there was no need to reject her invitation.

Yuan Hwei and Yang Jieyu knew that things would be different for Lanlan since Yang Chen and Yang Gongming had acknowledged her as a member of the Yang clan.

Regardless of what had happened, they had to get close to Lanlan as her great-aunt and great-uncle.

"This kid, it's rare of her to play till the extent that she forgets about eating." Lin Ruoxi said.

"Maybe it's because she never played with bumper cars before. That's how kids are, it's normal for them to enjoy playing." Yang Jieyu smiled.

Yuan Hwei patted his son's shoulder teasingly, "Yuan Ye, you need to control Tangtang. Look at her, she's already an adult and she's still playing in a bumper car with a kid."

Yuan Ye and Tangtang joined them for fun, and when he heard his father's teasing, he responded in a joking manner, "I can't control her, not even her mom can do it."

"Don't you have a backbone? I should have given birth to another child." Yang Jieyu shook her head with a bitter smile. As if reminded of something, she turned to Lin Ruoxi and asked, "Ruoxi, have you talked to Yang Chen? When are you guys going back to Beijing for Chinese New Year?"

Lin Ruoxi nodded, "He said he'll be back in a week, so there are five more days. We'll go there when he's back."

"Oh, that's great. We'll be in Beijing by then too, things will be merrier with everyone around." Yang Jieyu beamed.

Lin Ruoxi felt more relieved knowing that they were also returning to the Yang clan for Chinese New Year. She would feel more at ease with familiar faces around her.

"You have to be prepared, celebrating a festival is different from working, especially when we have to visit relatives. Not just the Yang clan, you guys have to visit the Guo clan from your mother-in-law's side. It'll be tiring." Yang Jieyu reminded her.

Lin Ruoxi felt slightly nervous, "Are there a lot of people in the Guo clan?"

"Our clan is pretty small but most of the older clans in Beijing have big families. Guo clan's fine, but some of them are hard to deal with. Anyways, just be mentally prepared, even if you're annoyed, just ignore it!" Yang Jieyu spoke from experience.

Lin Ruoxi couldn't really understand it so she just nodded.

While they were chatting, Tangtang came back with Lanlan hand in hand.

From the looks of it, they were arguing about something. Lanlan was even pouting.

"What are you two bickering about?" Yang Jieyu asked curiously.

"I told Lanlan to call me sister but she insisted on calling me aunt." Tangtang wasn't too happy about it.

Lanlan responded earnestly, "Mom said to call you aunt."

"But I'm still young and pretty, how can you call me aunt?" Tangtang didn't want to accept it.

Others laughed at her reaction. She called Tang Wan as sister and now she wanted Lanlan to call her sister, the seniority between them was a mess.

"Tangtang, stop fooling around. You can't tell her to do that, don't teach her to be the same as you." Yang Jieyu wasn't pleased about it.

Tangtang gave up talking about it as she was afraid of her future mother-in-law.

At this time, An Xin who was dressed in a white blazer, walked out of the cafe. She was busy preparing today's activities as she organised this trip.

Now that everyone had gathered together, An Xin led them to a nearby Chinese restaurant.

The restaurant was facing the ocean and the ocean view outside the French windows made it feel as if they were having lunch in the sea.

Once the dishes were served, Lanlan got ready to devour them. After all, she had been playing the whole morning and if it wasn't for Tangtang, she wouldn't have remembered about lunch.

Lunch hadn't started officially and Lanlan had already finished three bowls of shark fin soup. She took a crab leg but she was too lazy to crack. Instead, she put it into Lin Ruoxi's plate and looked at her expectantly, "Mommy, I want to eat crab. Help me crack it."

Lin Ruoxi was peeling a pair of prawns and she frowned when she heard her daughter's word.

An Xin smiled gently and offered to help, "Come, Lanlan, I'll crack it for you."

However, before An Xin could take the crab leg over to her side, Lin Ruoxi cut her off, "No need."

An Xin was taken aback. Lin Ruoxi didn't sound pleased.

"She isn't weak, she's even stronger than me. Don't slack off at a young age. Crack it yourself." Lin Ruoxi said so and put the crab leg back to her plate.

Lanlan showed a pitiful expression but she didn't throw a tantrum since she was used to being lectured by her mom. Having no choice, Lanlan opted for the abalones so she didn't need to crack anything.

Yuan Hewei and Yang Jieyu exchanged gazes with each other before nodding with a smile. They thought Lin Ruoxi would spoil Lanlan since she quitted her job to take care of her daughter, but now they knew that Lin Ruoxi wasn't going to do that.

Tangtang saw their interaction and she looked at the side cheekily before grabbing a crab leg. She cracked it and removed the flesh to show it to Lanlan.

Lanlan was immediately attracted by it and she looked at Tangtang with an expectant gaze.

“Lanlan, do you want this?”

Lanlan nodded hard. She even stopped chewing the abalone in her mouth.

“Aunt Tangtang, can you give it to Lanlan?”

“Call me sister and I’ll give it to you. I’m good at keeping promises.” Tangtang grinned.

Everyone else at the table froze at her cheekiness. They also looked at Lanlan, awaiting for her reply. It wasn’t anything serious so they just let Tangtang tease Lanlan.

Lanlan checked out Lin Ruoxi who was expressionless, as if she was waiting for an instruction from her mom.

Lanlan turned back to look at the crab meat when Lin Ruoxi didn’t show any reaction. She smacked her lips together as though she was having a fight in her mind. Should she go for the food or defend her father’s dignity?

Lanlan thought about it and felt that her father wasn’t reliable so she muttered, “Sister Tangtang.”

“Yay!”

Tantang cheered and looked at Yuan Ye softly as if to proclaim her victory. Even so, she didn’t forget to give the crab meat to Lanlan.

Yuan Ye rested his face on his hands and chuckled while looking at Lanlan who was eating happily, “Brother Chen is so pitiful, his seniority dropped to a crab leg...”

Chapter 1243

Never Met Us

The second day of the Caesar Tournament started in Palermo, Sicily. As the preliminary round ended, for the next few days things were going to be more heated as the matches were between capable mercenaries.

Others were thrilled to hear that Yang Chen had returned and that Jane returned back to Wales safely.

For Sauron, it looked as if he had aged for the past two days but when he picked up Yang Chen early in the morning, a smile had finally reappeared on his face.

Yang Chen didn’t let them stop the investigation as he wanted to know more about the incident. He had to know which organisation kidnapped Jane and started the whole FURY incident.

The investigation was now easier ever since the North Bureo clan joined in. Yang Chen ordered Makedon and others to look for more forces involved in this so that he could take them down all together.

To Yang Chen, there was no need to let them live, since they dared to threaten his woman.

When the tournament started in the morning, Yang Chen was already seated in the VIP room with Cai Ning and Rose.

Yang Chen was impressed to know that Rose had spent the whole night out with Christine. When she returned to the hotel this morning, the trunk was filled with bags of stuff.

Since the Sea Eagle wasn't out yet, Yang Chen struck up a conversation with Rose who was still excited from yesterday's late night shopping, "Rose darling, what did you buy last night?"

Rose sounded embarrassed and she avoided his gaze, "Nothing much...just some souvenirs."

"Souvenirs?" Yang Chen raised one of his eyebrows, "You're interested in these things?"

"Rose bought a lot of sexy lingerie and some were especially provocative..."

Before Rose could respond, Christine had blurted out everything.

"Christine!!!"

Her face was flushed and she tried to cover her mouth!

Fortunately, only Stern and Alice were around to hear it. Rose would have lost her mind if Ron or Sauron was here.

Christine stuck out her tongue apologetically and shut her mouth when she realized she had broken her promise.

Cai Ning looked at Rose with an amused gaze. A faint smile formed on her lips but she didn't assume that Rose was challenging her, it was just amusing to her.

Yang Chen smirked and caressed Rose's waist, "Is that so? You should get them, the more the merrier."

"I...I didn't buy a lot..."

"I know, I'm just saying." Yang Chen smiled even brighter and whispered into her ear, "Can you wear it for me when we're back in the hotel?"

Rose could feel her neck flushing with heat. Yang Chen lowered his voice on purpose even though everyone else could still hear his voice in a small room like this.

Chills went down her spine and Rose nodded her head subconsciously.

"Good girl, I'll take good photos of you." Yang Chen was satisfied.

Alice laid her head on Stern's shoulder, giggling at Yang Chen's shameless action, "Hades, I don't get it. Why would anyone like you when you're so dirty minded?"

Yang Chen didn't mind her words. With an unfazed expression, he shook his finger at her, "You two wouldn't understand the pure relationship we have when you're flirting with each other as siblings."

As they were talking, it was finally time for the Sea Eagle's match.

Their opponent this time was Odin Mercenary Corp from Northern Europe. They were mainly active around the North Pole and their members were mostly retired elites from the Seal Troop or power users from Northern Europe.

Due to time constraints, only a single win was needed to advance into the next stage.

Odin's Mercenary Corp sent in a strong and agile white man with a spear-like metal weapon on his back. He jumped onto the stage so quickly and gracefully.

Sea Eagle sent in the tan and soft looking woman from Southeast Asia. Her looks were ordinary and she was wearing a tight fitting leather outfit with two silver daggers in her hands.

Firearms weren't banned in the Caesar Tournament but people didn't really use it since it might affect the audience. Special protective measures would be needed to ensure their safety.

Also, as most of the contestants were power users, bullets wouldn't be effective against them. On the other hand, Mercenary Corps were used to combat, hence cold weapons would be more reflective of their true abilities.

"This match is between Whis from Odin Mercenary Corp and Lin from Sea Eagles Mercenary Corp!"

The announcer announced the contestants which riled up the crowd.

The woman was actually a hitman from ZERO but ZERO was not allowed to participate in this tournament thus Lin had to join the tournament as a member of the Sea Eagles.

The match started with the sound of a buzzer!

Lin moved first, stealthily without making a sound. She slithered around like a snake, getting closer to Whis. Her daggers cut through air like a pair of wings.

Whis had somehow taken down the spear on his back. People from mercenary corps were used to seeing weird weapons so his weapon didn't gain any attention from others.

When the spear was twirled around, Lin froze for a second and moved away from the spear's trajectory. She lowered her body and sped up to stand right in front of Whis!

Just when her figure reappeared in everyone's sight, Whis pulled the bottom of his spear and a silver chain appeared!

"Clang!!!"

Lin was stabbing her daggers down but her attack was blocked by the silver chain!

Lin didn't see this coming and she dodged immediately!

At the same moment, Whis pulled the spear and almost hit her!

They had only exchanged one move with one another and it already riled up the crowd. They clamoured but they couldn't see what was happening unless they watched it in slow motion. It was a blurry shadow to them.

Whis roared and dragged the chain, tossing around the spear like a long whip but it was even harder to predict the trajectory. It felt as if countless silver lines were dancing on the stage!

Lin couldn't get close to him. Her eyes flickered and with a dash, her silhouette disappeared from the stage!

The crowd turned silent suddenly, thinking that their eyes had cheated them. However, those who were experienced saw through it immediately!

Numerous shadows showed up on the stage, surrounding Whis who was standing at the center!

"The shadow technique?" Yang Chen was startled.

The others saw it too. Cai Ning who was known for her speed, replied to Yang Chen, "She must have done this with a special movement and speed."

"That's right, I've seen a master hitman who's able to do the same thing at ZERO. It was like the whole space was filled with shadow. That must have been her master, but it's pretty impressive that she's able to do this at such a young age."

While they were talking, Lin was in the midst of ambushing Whis from behind him. Her daggers shone with bloodlust as she aimed for his vital point.

It was too late for him to turn around but to Lin's surprise, with a tug of his chain, the spear went straight for her from above!

If Lin insisted on continuing the attack, it would still be a tie because she wouldn't be able to dodge the attack.

She tossed one of her dagger with an expressionless face and with a loud clatter, the dagger hit the spear which sent the spear flying!

At the same time, her other dagger was right on Whis' neck!

Whis didn't see this coming but he had misjudged the power of the daggers. Seeing how he had lost, he admitted his defeat like a gentleman.

Thunderous claps were heard from the audience and Lin kept a low profile. She stored her dagger away before walking down the stage.

Since Sea Eagle made it to the next stage, Yang Chen was getting ready to leave as he wasn't really interested in seeing matches like this. They weren't exhilarating to his liking. Besides, it was already break time.

Stern, Alice and Christen were planning to leave together since they were just here to check on the Giants.

However, just when they walked out of the VIP room for lunch, Rose and Christen saw someone in the corridor which made them freeze.

They saw a short and chubby Asian man talking to a few Caucasian men who were obviously politicians judging from the amount of bodyguards behind them.

This man was the one they met at the lingerie store yesterday – the Japanese whom Christine kicked. Even the bodyguards behind him were the same.

As they walked past them, the Japanese man even stopped next to Rose for a while but he eventually left within a few seconds.

“What’s wrong? Do you guys know him?”

Yang Chen was confused and so were Cai Ning, Stern and Alice.

Christine and Rose furrowed their brows out of confusion. They couldn’t be very sure either.

“Not really...” Rose hesitated, “But...that person, why is he acting like he has never met us...”

Chapter 1244 - Who Is Better

Who Is Better

Rose explained it to them when she realised they couldn’t understand her.

“Is he doing it on purpose because he’s embarrassed?” Cai Ning asked.

Others shook their heads. It wasn’t a plausible explanation.

“I’ve met all kinds of people in this world, it’s impossible for me to miss it if he’s putting up an act.” Christine furrowed her brows, “Besides, it didn’t look like he could put up an act when we met him yesterday. He can pretend to forget that I kicked him but his bodyguards seemed to have forgotten about it too. Something must have happened which made them forget about us.”

The mystery made them stand by the door, unable to get things straight.

Yang Chen looked at the CCTV by the corridor and proceeded to take out his phone to call Ron.

“Hubby, what are you doing?” Rose asked.

Yang Chen pointed at the CCTV, “I’m asking Ron to check on them. We might get something useful.”

Even though it might just be a minor issue, Yang Chen still found it odd.

After assigning the task to Ron, Yang Chen led them towards an Italian restaurant by the sea. They had a simple lunch and went sunbathing on the beach.

However, when they reached the beach and saw the hot babes with bikinis, Yang Chen couldn’t get his mind off Rose’s newest purchases.

At the same time, Rose turned around and their gaze met which made her blush.

“Darling, you look tired. Shall we go back to rest? Take a shower and change your clothes...wear something pretty to sleep. You stayed up all night after all...”

Yang Chen looked genuinely worried about her as if she really needed to sleep now.

Cai Ning blushed at his words. After being with Yang Chen for a long time, she realised that he was truly a pervert but it was too late to get away from him.

Rose was annoyed when she noticed everyone else was smirking at her. In the end, she made up her mind to wear it since she did buy it for him.

"I'm going back first then. Come accompany me when you're done." Rose let herself go completely, giving him a kiss before walking back to the hotel.

Yang Chen beamed. He went to Cai Ning and asked her, "Ning'er why don't you go and accompany Rose? I'll come over later."

Cai Ning couldn't take it and she shook her head, feeling panicked, "You can go back first. I'm going to sunbathe, I won't bother with your...nap."

Yang Chen thought it was a loss and he was about to persuade her when Ron called.

Ron was able to complete the assigned task rather quickly since the mafias practically dominated the area.

Yang Chen pondered about Ron's report and even though he looked kind of nonchalant, everyone else looked over curiously.

A weird smile showed up on Yang Chen's face, "That Japanese man's name is Kagawa Chusho. He's the vice minister of the Ministry of Special Defense in Japan, he's the representative for Japan for this year's Caesar Tournament. The two men next to him are Peni, vice minister of the Intelligence Agency in Portugal and Rohm, the section chief of the Minister of Secret Defense in Italy."

"No wonder his bodyguards called him sir." Christen nodded in realisation.

"Why is someone from the Special Defense here? Shouldn't Japan send over someone from the Self-Defense?" Cai Ning wondered.

Yang Chen explained it to her, "The Caesar Tournament is organised by China for the developing and developed countries. Naturally, most of the countries are from Europe. In these countries, the secret ministries are in charge of planning and executing. The militaries are here as onlookers, they're not in charge. So, those people are the representatives of the organisers."

"If that's the case, why did he give up on revenge so easily when Miss Christen kicked him last night?" Cai Ning couldn't understand it.

"Ning'er, you don't get it. He does secretive work and he has to hold it in. Well, at least he can't hold a grudge against anyone in public," Yang Chen smiled, "I'm curious what made him forget about yesterday."

Stern answered him, "This would be complicated if the Giants are involved. It might have something to do with them luring us here."

"But can they wipe out someone's memory?" Christen asked in disbelief.

"We should look into this and check if the special ministries had been in touch with the Giants. Hades, we'll leave it to you since you have the most people." Alice smiled at Yang Chen.

Yang Chen shrugged. He didn't mind it anyways.

After making calls to Ron and Makedon, Yang Chen went back to the hotel excitedly. He's looking forward to seeing Rose in sexy lingerie.

Rose showered, listening well to his words. However, Yang Chen seemed to have returned too early. Rose hadn't changed into the lingerie that were scattered everywhere.

Rose pouted, "I haven't decided on what to wear."

"It's fine, you look good in a towel." Yang Chen didn't want to wait any longer. Her scent and the floral scent from the essence she used was stimulating the secretion of adrenaline in him.

Yang Chen sat on an empty bed and motioned her over.

"You're such a pervert," Rose muttered but she still sat on his lap.

Now that they were alone together, Rose felt more at ease. Her amorous aura was being continuously emitted.

She had tied the towel into a knot on her chest which gave her chest a lift. As she was shaking on Yang Chen's lap, it looked as if she was sending her breasts into Yang Chen's mouth.

"Rose darling, you're becoming more like a vixen." Yang Chen described her perfectly while hugging her waist.

"If I'm vixen, what about Ning'er?" Rose giggled.

"Ning'er...a young vixen."

"Hey, are we all vixens to you?"

"Yeah, I raised a group of vixens." Yang Chen said proudly.

Rose feigned anger and grabbed his shaft in between her thighs.

Yang Chen sucked in a breath. Her hands felt good on him.

Rose's flower had opened slightly and she lifted her butt slightly while pointing his shaft towards the opening...

When she moved her perky butt back down, both of them sighed with pleasure. It had been a long time since they last made love and he still filled her up.

"Don't move!"

Rose arched her back and looked up at him. He kissed her fingers, his tongue sending chills down her spine.

Yang Chen laid back on the bed frame and let go of her fingers. After letting out a heavy breath, he opened his arms and let her take the initiative.

"Now that's a good boy."

Rose smiled and lifted her butt. It was a simple move which revealed everything to Yang Chen but before he could enjoy the view, Rose dropped down heavily. The pleasure almost sent him flying.

Rose made grabbing motion mid-air and the remote control on the table opposite them flew into her hand. She turned on the music and chose a fast-paced EDM.

Her hips moved up and down like a slithering snake.

Soon, her tempo matched the music, going slow and fast at times. She hummed the melody during the warm-up before turning around to ask Yang Chen, "Hubby, who feels better? Ning'er or me?"

Yang Chen's face was flushed as if he drank wine. It was impossible to describe the pleasure he was feeling.

"Yours..." Yang Chen wasn't silly. He knew he had to please her. She wasn't asking for a serious answer, she was just in the mood.

Rose beamed. With an amorous gaze, she pinched his waist, stopping him from thrusting into her. As her hips kept moving, she untied the knot on her chest and pulled the towel away from her body.

Her perky chest bounced up and down but because her back was facing him, Yang Chen could only see some curves when she lifted her arms. Her teasing was driving him crazy and he tightened his fist to refrain himself from fondling her breasts.

She told him not to move so he should let her have fun.

After half an hour, Rose started to moan loudly. The atmosphere around them became sticky and the room was filled with lust.

Yang Chen noticed the change in her voice and he thrust hard into her, making her fall onto him.

"You...I said I'll do it." Rose looked at him.

"I don't want you to tire yourself. Let me do it, men should put in effort." Yang Chen French kissed her while thrusting into her.

The curtains were tightly closed and they had no idea what was going on outside as they shared an intense lovemaking session.

Someone opened the door and at that moment the overwhelming smell took Cai Ning by surprise.

Cai Ning felt like running away when her eyes followed the pile of clothes and lingerie before looking at the bed inside.

She should have checked with her divine sense before coming in!

Rose had changed into purple lace lingerie but she didn't take it off fully while riding on Yang Chen.

Yang Chen buried his face into her chest, the silky material of the lingerie was enchanting him.

Cai Ning could tell how long they had been doing it judging from Rose's weak voice.

They were still immersed in it even after a long time since they were already in the Soul Forming stage.

Rose motioned Cai Ning over when she saw her as if she had found a saviour.

"Ning'er, save me...I...I can't do it anymore..." Rose begged her.

Cai Ning bit her lips, feeling conflicted, "You guys...why aren't you guys done yet, it's already night time..."

Yang Chen chuckled, "Rose darling wouldn't give in so I had to give her what she wants."

"That's not it! You're shameless..." Rose mumbled.

Cai Ning was humoured by them, "Alright, go shower and change. Christine asked me to call you guys over, there's movement from the Giants."

Chapter 1245 - Titans Blood

Titan's Blood

Yang Chen was surprised to hear this. Since this was a serious matter, he gave up on making Cai Ning join them. After a quick shower, Yang Chen went straight to the meeting room.

Everyone else was already seated at the table, talking amongst themselves.

Yang Chen noticed a letter on the table. Some weird characters were written on it with black ink but he couldn't decipher it.

"What are you guys talking about? What's this?" Yang Chen picked up the letter and asked while frowning.

Christine casted a weird gaze at his lower body before smiling at him, "Do you want to learn it? The language of Gods."

Yang Chen paused for a second, no wonder he couldn't read it. He shook his head and replied to her, "No need, I've learned enough foreign language, just tell me what it says on the letter."

"It's simple, the leader of the Cyclops, Brontes sent an invitation to us. He's inviting us for lunch at the restaurant in the hall after the morning session of Caesar Tournament. He said it's a reunion after 20,000 years." Poseidon said with a straight face.

"Why are they asking to meet us? They've never contacted us before this?" Yang Chen wondered.

Stern propped up his arms and rubbed his chin, "This is confusing us too. They're not seeking revenge on us and yet they're showing up just like that. What are they trying to do?"

"Why should we care? They probably invited us over to end things. If they want to fight, we'll gladly oblige. We can let them live if they choose to admit their defeat." Ares said in disdain.

The other gods couldn't say anything about him, they were helpless about Ares' violent personality.

Yang Chen contemplated, "Are you guys worried that we wouldn't be their match?"

Hermes snickered, "If we're on Mars, they can't even lay their fingers on us. I can take them down by myself. But things are different now, without Athena or Zeus, we might not be able to defeat them, although we'll be able to defend ourselves."

"There's still me. Rose and Ning'er are both in the Soul Forming stage too, isn't that enough? Why should we be afraid of them?" Yang Chen shrugged.

“Hades, you’re belittling the Giants,” Alice felt helpless at his attitude, “The Cyclops and the Hecatoncheires, they are superior to cultivators of China because they hold the bloodline of our ancestor, Titan’s Blood.”

“Titan’s Blood.”

“That’s right,” Alice paused and looked at everyone else, confirming that no one was trying to stop her before she continued her sentence, “Titan’s Blood is the most ancient bloodline of the Gods. It’s also the strongest energy source. The reason why we have only less than 20 to 30 percent of our power is that our Titan’s Blood has been sealed. The Giants are part of the bloodline but they don’t have divinity so they aren’t counted as Gods. Their blood isn’t as pure so they aren’t as powerful, but this is also the reason why their Titan’s Blood hasn’t been sealed.”

“Wait,” Yang Chen cut in, “I’ve been meaning to ask, how did the Gods lose so much power? If the Titan’s Blood is so powerful, why was it sealed? Does it have something to do with the Heart of Gaia?”

“This...” Alice hesitated. A hint of sadness was evident in her eyes.

“Don’t ask, it’s not important anymore. It’ll always be a pain in our heart.” Christine interrupted, “I’ll continue on behalf of Alice. Titan’s Blood gave them immense Xiantian power and it also strengthened their body. This is why they’re not afraid of the True Yuan of Chinese cultivators. Because True Yuan belongs to an element of the universe, you guys call it spiritual energy but it’s essentially the same. You have to know that other than Zeus who could use the lightning to oppress them and send them to the alternate space, no one else can defeat that. Not even Athena who has the Titan’s Blood sealed.”

“So we have to die in their hands if they plan to go all out.” Yang Chen smiled bitterly.

“Not to that extent, we don’t know their intentions. Even if they’re seeking revenge, we outnumber them. Besides, you have the space of laws and you’re skilled in Chinese martial arts, you would be impactful. Sadly you’re not in the same realm as cultivators who were in the Shang Qing Heavenly Tribulation 20,000 years ago. Or else you would’ve been a significant threat to them.” Poseidon said.

Yang Chen thought to himself, even if he wasn’t as good as cultivators from 20,000 years ago, he still had the Chaos Cauldron to protect himself. The ending wasn’t set yet.

These guys were being secretive about the Titan’s Blood as if they were afraid that he would catch on. It was really suspicious but he couldn’t get anything out of these foxes.

Cai Ning and Rose were intrigued by it but they didn’t really feel anything else. After all, they were only cultivators and to them, nothing else mattered more than Yang Chen’s safety.

After the discussion, Poseidon urged Hermes to check if anyone tampered with the Colosseum, just to be on the safe side.

This wasn’t something difficult for Hermes who was speedy and devious. He gladly obliged since they were facing a mutual foe.

The night ended and the third day of the Caesar Tournament began.

It was the match among the top 32 and those remaining were renowned mercenary corps from all over the world. All the representatives from each country had shown up at the audience seat.

Other mercenaries filled the audience seat, heating the atmosphere even more.

Poseidon, Hermes and Ares were watching from a VIP room whereas Yang Chen, Cai Ning, Rose and Christine were in another room.

Before the tournament started, Yang Chen received a report from Makedon that Kagawa Chusho had never been in touch with the Cyclops nor the other Giants. The other officials were never in touch with them either.

They did participate in a meeting last night, however, as it was too rushed, they couldn't get any information from the meeting.

Yang Chen immediately realised that yesterday's meeting was the key to this incident but it was too late to investigate further.

Just when Yang Chen was deep in thought, Sauron's call interrupted his train of thought.

"Your Majesty Pluto, something's wrong!" Sauron was frantic.

"What are you saying?"

"Have a look at the participants for the next match!"

Yang Chen looked up at the huge digital screen at afar.

"Next match, Sea Eagles vs God Slayers!"

"What happened? I thought it'll only happen during the semifinals?" Yang Chen was startled. He looked at the list before, as a seeded player, Sea Eagle would only have a match with God Slayers at the later stages. As for the Cyclops, they would only meet them in the finals.

"Someone changed it and the organizer stated that they made a mistake on the list. They've got to be kidding us! They're making us face the God Slayers first on purpose!" Sauron was mad.

Yang Chen furrowed his brows. It looked like the show was starting but they still hadn't got a clue of their motive.

However, it was too late to change anything. It would be an insult for the Sea Eagles to withdraw from the tournament. They'd rather die during the match than to give up. Their dignity could not be stepped on.

Christine and the others turned grim when they noticed this.

The five members of Sea Eagle walked up to the stage fearlessly. They were excited to know that they could take the rude guys down. It was just like the saying, 'ignorance is bliss'.

They didn't really care about it even when Sauron told them to give up if they felt that something was wrong.

With the thunderous clap from the audience, five golden faced Giants from God Slayers walked up to the stage quietly.

Chapter 1246 - Humiliate

Humiliate

The five members of Sea Eagle who were under Nasri's lead didn't dare to slack off. The moment they got on stage, they delegated their tasks – to fight them together.

"Hades, are you sure you want them to do this?" Christine was worried.

Yang Chen remained expressionless as he looked down at the stage. His gaze was determined as he said, "Stopping them from fighting is far crueller than asking them to die."

Christine opened her mouth in shock but didn't dare say further.

Back on the stage, Nasri rubbed his palms together, his knuckle cracking loudly under the pressure. With a smirk, he taunted them, "Heh, I wasn't expecting this to happen so soon, but I'm excited now."

The five golden faced Giants had no intention to talk.

Their leader moved his hand forward and bent his fingers, taunting them to attack.

The five members of Sea Eagles glowered at his attitude. It was impossible not to salvage their reputation when their most respected person was watching them from above!

"Lin, Mira, Brett, Dimont, go!"

With Nasri's order, murderous intent erupted from the rest of the warriors as they charged towards their opponents!

Lin who won yesterday's match didn't hide her abilities. With a twist, her body turned into countless shadows, blinking in and out of everyone's sight!

Black mist was emitted out of Dimont and after mumbling a mantra, his eyes turned red like a ferocious beast. His muscles were bulging and he growled while charging towards the God Slayers!

Nasri finally revealed his characteristics as a power user. His clothes had torn apart from his bulging muscles. With a crystal-like glowing skin, he jumped up like a human missile!

"Shadow Technique, Demonisation of Satan's Believer, Crystallization..." Stern clicked his tongue, "Hades, your people are pretty bizarre."

Having lived for a long time, the Gods had witnessed these powers and skills ages ago so they could see through it easily.

"It's unfortunate that their opponents aren't humans or else they could've been successful." Christine sighed.

Just as expected, the leader of the God Slayers walked forward and blocked the way. It felt as if he alone would take down all five of them.

Before the three warriors of Sea Eagle could reach his side, he lightly stomped the ground ...

"Boom!"

From a distance, his stomp actually cracked the granite floor, sending debris all over the place!

With another sweep of his leg, the rain of stones charged towards the Sea Eagles!

Their attacks had been blocked by the stones, forcing them to stop in their tracks to evade the stones.

Right at this moment, the three of them lunged to both sides and left an opening in the middle.

Brett opened his mouth and a music note was sent out of his chest!

The rain of granites exploded immediately!

Sonic Attack!

Some of the mercenaries noticed his move. This kind of special power was extremely difficult to control. Brett must have practised hard to control the sound waves around the granites and send the explosion towards the God Slayers!

However, the golden faced man was unaffected. With a snort, he disappeared abruptly!

His immense physical strength let him reach in front of Brett within seconds as if he had teleported!

He landed a finger on Brett's throat lightly!

"Ugh!!!"

With a painful shriek, Brett held onto his throat while staggering backwards.

Mira, who had been standing next to Brett, hadn't had a chance to make a move. Seeing this, her eyes glowed blue and she shouted, "Region Freeze!"

A jagged giant ice block appeared in front of Mira, trapping the golden faced man in it!

The four-meter tall pillar of ice took everyone by surprise. They couldn't understand how this happened!

Only then people noticed that Mira was a sorcerer?!

Even though Sword in The Stones was skilled at magic, it didn't mean that it was exclusive to their organisation.

Mira was one of the young prodigies in magic!

"Here's our chance! Attack!!!"

Nasri told Lin and Dimont to attack the ice pillar from three sides, attempting to penetrate the pillar to injure their opponent!

They failed to see that the other golden faced men didn't bother to help out.

As for the frozen one, he didn't even budge, waiting for them to attack him instead.

Just when the ice cracked, their fist and dagger went straight to the man!

Chills went down their spines when he was completely unharmed. It was like they had hit a perfectly impenetrable wall!

"Are you guys done?"

The golden faced chuckled mockingly, in a nonchalant manner he grabbed Lin's dagger away from her. Even the sharp dagger was unable to harm his hands.

After picking up the dagger, he turned around swiftly towards Lin!

"Lin!!!"

Someone gasped and blood burst out from her in the next second. Lin couldn't even react when her arms were sliced off!

Her eyes widened in disbelief!

Dimont who had demonised, his eyes reddened at the sight of his comrade being injured. Driven with fury, he attempted to snap off the golden faced man's neck with his mouth!

But the golden faced man had somehow grabbed his jaw. With a light squeeze, a cracking sound was heard.

Dimont's jawbone was cracked to pieces and with a groan, he was tossed away like a dead dog.

The crowd fell silent at his cruel act.

The golden faced man couldn't care less about it. He looked at Mira with a teasing yet malicious gaze.

Mira was frozen from watching her comrades get injured one by one.

"I really like your glowing eyes, how about giving them to me?"

Mira shuddered at his cold voice.

"Mira, be careful!!"

Nasri who had gotten away from him yelled at Mira. The golden faced man was aiming at Mira's eyes. He was trying to dig her eyes out!

Just when no one could bear to watch, a white silhouette appeared. He landed in front of Mira like an illusion and grabbed the golden faced man's fingers!

"That's enough..."

Yang Chen grabbed onto his finger tightly. Even though he was using almost all of his force, the golden man's fingers remained unharmed.

The crowd clamoured at the man who had appeared on the stage out of nowhere. Even though he was a stranger to them, they could tell he was a terrifying person judging by his inhuman speed!

"Your Majesty Pluto!!"

Nasri and Mira almost shed tears at the sight of him. Yang Chen had appeared in front of them right when they were at the brink of death.

Yang Chen looked at them apologetically, "I know it's something to be proud of but I can't bear to let him humiliate you guys."

“Heh...” The golden faced man sneered, “Hades, do you think I’m interested in dealing with these low lives? I don’t think it’s appropriate of you to break the rules of the tournament publicly.”

“If humiliating someone who had lost to you is part of the rules, then according to the ‘rules’, I’m allowed to kill all of you.”

Chapter 1247

Obliterated

The golden faced man looked down at his fingers, “Are you sure you wanna hold on to it? You should be able to tell that even though your physical strength is superior to humans, it’s nothing compared to us.”

“You don’t know that for sure.”

Yang Chen landed his left fist on the golden faced man’s stomach while finishing his sentence!

The deep booming sound showed everyone how terrifying his powers were but everyone was shocked to see the golden faced man unstagged. Only his cape moved from the breeze brought up by Yang Chen’s punch!

Yang Chen’s eyes widened in disbelief. He had used all his power in this punch, so theoretically even a ten layered tank would shatter under this force! Not to mention that his body was refined and strengthened by the Endless Resolve Restoration Scripture and Shang Qing Heavenly Lightning!

Cai Ning and Rose were dumbfounded at the change of events. They never could have imagined that this man could remain fearless against Yang Chen’s punch.

Before Yang Chen could react, the golden faced man looked at him mockingly before throwing his right fist at Yang Chen’s stomach!

Yang Chen flew backwards like a missile. He couldn’t even groan before crashing onto the walls of the colosseum!

Stones were sent flying and a large hole made through his crash, Yang Chen braced himself in time with the Heaven and Earth Restoration Energy.

Even so, heavy pants escaped his mouth and he subconsciously touched his stomach. His white shirt was completely destroyed.

It felt as if his intestine were tied into a knot and if it wasn’t for the Heaven and Earth Restoration Energy healing his wounds, he would have coughed up blood from internally bleeding.

“Hubby!”

Cai Ning and Rose jumped down from above. They landed in front of Yang Chen, trying to pull him out of the hole.

“How are you doing? Are you injured?” Cai Ning was worried.

Yang Chen shook his hands, “I’m fine, I just wanted to test out my physical strength but I guess I’m not a match for him...”

“Why didn’t you protect your body with True Yuan? They have the Titan’s Blood, their bodies are stronger than the Gods.” Rose grumbled.

Yang Chen grinned, “It’s really wicked. With their physique, it’s no surprise that their descendants who are mixed blood completely outcompete the mercenaries.”

The crowd turned restless at Yang Chen’s participation. It all happened so suddenly that it confused them.

The rest of the Gods nodded at each other before getting down to the stage.

The five golden faced men didn’t take the opportunity to attack Yang Chen. Instead, they stood together nonchalantly as if they were waiting for something.

“We haven’t met in 20,000 years and you guys have changed beyond recognition.” Their leader said.

“Stop hiding, Arius, your voice never changed.” Poseidon said with a solemn face.

Arius chuckled and he motioned his comrades to take off their masks.

Once the masks and capes were off, their faces were finally revealed to the audience.

Unexpectedly, they looked rather bleak. Other than the sharp features, they looked rough and ugly to some extent.

They had tan skin and were semi-bald. Their hair was so patchy that it made them look like middle-aged men.

Even so, no one dared to look down on them because of their abilities!

Yang Chen rubbed his stomach and walked to the Gods. He motioned Nasri and Mira to bring the casualties out of the stage.

Christine introduced the God Slayers to Yang Chen, “Look, the three men standing in the middle are Briareus, Cottus and Gyges. The rest are Cyclops, Steropes and Arges.”

“Hecatoncheires and Cyclops?” Yang Chen raised one of his brows, “I don’t see a hundred arms and don’t they have two eyes?”

Briareus snickered, “Ignorant Hades, you’re so ignorant that it’s pitiful. It’s unfortunate that you have to die so quickly after inheriting Pluto’s divinity.”

“Heh, Briareus, you’re arrogant. Do you think returning from the other dimension will change the rotten root of yours?”

The Giants glowered at his words, anger creeping up their mind quickly.

“Rotten roots...” Briareus smiled from the anger, “You don’t have the rights to call us rotten when you’re all a bunch of cowards and hypocrites who had given up on the Titan’s Blood. Titan’s Blood still flows within us and we’re the true Gods!”

“Cut the crap. Even if we have sealed our Titan’s Blood, you guys can’t do anything to us. Come at me and let me see if you guys have gotten better!”

Ares was pulsing with adrenaline and he bent his finger at them. He had unleashed his spiritual energy, preparing to break the seal!

“Ares, have you lost your mind?! There are thousands of humans here!!” Christine tried to stop him.

“Aphrodite, from 20,000 years ago we had nothing to talk about, do you think it’s possible for us to settle things peacefully now? They’re the one who approached us, we have no other choice but to fight!”

Ares’ eyes gleamed as he growled. The colosseum was trembling from his aura!

However, just when Ares was close to breaking the seal, the energy in him depleted abruptly!

“What?!”

Ares widened his eyes, staying still at the same spot in disbelief.

The Giants smirked.

“Psycho, why did you stop?” Hermes asked.

Ares looked at his hands and balled them into fists. He forced the words out of his throat, “I...I can’t...I can’t break the seal.”

“What?!”

The rest of the Gods were astonished.

“It’s true, the space laws...it isn’t working. I don’t know why but it won’t link to my divinity. I can’t summon the laws with my spiritual power either.” Ares’ knitted his brows together.

“How is this possible?!”

Hermes didn’t believe him and he tried to summon his divinity too. His spiritual power surged at a greater extent than Ares!

However, no matter how hard he tried, the seal could not be broken!

Poseidon, Apollo and Artemis tried it too but to no avail. The shock on their faces was evident and they froze in place.

Yang Chen tried to break the seal too but just like the other Gods, the space was locked. Nothing could be done!

The space laws aren’t working?!

The Gods were well aware of the consequences!

Gods were superior and invincible with the space laws and without it, they were just humans with powerful artifacts!

Chapter 1248 - Actual Body

Actual Body

“Stop wasting time, the thing you guys are ever so proud to own is gone,” Briareus said nonchalantly while touching his sparse beard.

“Damn it, how did this happen?!” Ares was furious.

Cottus mocked them, “Haven’t you guys realized that Brontes isn’t among us?”

The Gods exchanged gazes with each other. Things had progressed in a different direction.

“Who’s Brontes?” Yang Chen was confused.

Christine replied to him in a worrisome tone, “He’s the big brother of the three Cyclops, he’s also the strongest one. We always thought that he was in the Cyclops clan but it seems like that’s not the case.”

“What did you guys do?!” Hermes growled.

“Don’t get too agitated, the show has just begun.”

With a click of his fingers, the rowdy crowd in the colosseum started to quiet down!

“Mind control?!” Alice gasped.

Only then the others realised that the staff and audiences looked odd. Their expressions weren’t normal, their eyes were dull as if they were being controlled.

Even the officials’ faces were blank.

If it wasn’t for the Gods, Cai Ning and Rose having strong spiritual energy and soul, they would’ve been under their control too.

Mira, as a sorcerer managed to escape their control. Some of the stronger powerusers also caught on.

Yang Chen was reminded of the incident of Rose and Christen, “The Japanese man lost his memories suddenly because you guys controlled his mind!”

“You guys should feel fortunate that the dumb Japanese official gave himself away,” Briareus said, “We didn’t want you cowards to flee when you realise something was wrong, this was supposed to happen after the tournament. But we don’t have time to wait for Athena and the rest, so we’ll kill you guys now and find the others later.”

From what Briareus had said, the Giants didn’t make a move because they were trying to attract the other God’s over so that they could kill everyone once and for all?!

The Gods were furious at his words but they were secretly anxious because of the sealed space.

At that moment, a bulky figure flew in from outside of the colosseum and landed on the stage with a thud.

He was half-naked, dressed only in beach shorts. His facial features were similar to the other Giants.

“Brontes?! What did you do?!” Hermes reprimanded him.

Brontes side-eyed him, “Nothing, I just sealed the spaces within this area.”

“How is that possible, you guys don’t have this kind of ability!”

“Haha,” Brontes guffawed, “It’s all thanks to you guys, thanks to Zeus! Aren’t you guys curious how we returned from the space crack?!”

The Gods were at a loss, this was beyond their knowledge.

“I’ll let you guys have a clear death,” Brontes snickered, “I bet you guys don’t know that the alternate space has its laws...”

Alternate space law?

Colour left the Gods faces when they were reminded of something.

“For the past 20,000 years, we have been looking for a way to return to this world and finally, after a long search, we found out that the alternate space also has the space laws! Even though the way the space laws exists in the cracks of the parallel space is different, it still exists! However, we have to admit that our spiritual energy wasn’t as good as you guys, so we’re less sensitive with the space laws which is why it took a long time to comprehend and master the alternate space laws.”

The Gods basically understood everything to this point.

If they interfere with the space laws in this space by using other space laws, it could render their space laws to be non-functional!

Poseidon’s gaze was cold, “If that’s the case, your spiritual mind shouldn’t be sufficient to do this for a long time. Space has its integrity, you can’t disrupt it forever!”

“You’re right, Poseidon.” Brontes grinned, “But don’t forget that you guys are no match against us. Even humans can harm you guys, so before our alternate space laws fails, we can do whatever we want with you guys...oh yeah, most importantly, if you guys die when your space laws aren’t working, you can’t reincarnate, which means...you will die for real!”

The rest of the Giants guffawed. They had waited too long for their sweet revenge.

“I doubt so.”

Yang Chen walked forward. His Endless Resolve Restoration Scripture was revolving inside his body as he unleashed the oppression from his cultivation of the Tribulation Passing stage!

Heaven and Earth Restoration Energy wasn’t dependent on the space laws, thus regardless of the condition of the space laws, he could still summon Heaven and Earth Restoration Energy freely!

Heaven and Earth Restoration Energy quickly pooled around, forming a huge pool of blue Ming water. It was surrounded by black mists as it circled in the air!

“Even if we don’t have the space laws, it doesn’t mean that you guys will definitely win!” Yang Chen waved his hand down!

Ming water transformed into countless arrows which aimed at the six Giants!

The other Gods were slightly surprised to see how much his cultivation had grown. Even though it wasn't as great as the cultivators who were in the Shang Qing Heavenly Lightning stage 20,000 years ago, it was really close!

From this, they could tell that the initial results from Yang Chen's cultivation technique were astonishingly great!

The six Giants were able to dodge most of the arrows since they were wary of Yang Chen. Even so, some of the arrows still landed on them!

The Giants' shirt became corroded by Ming water but their bodies were unharmed. Yang Chen was astonished by the elemental defensive power of Titan's Blood!

Once the arrow landed on them, it turned into a cloud of smoke, leaving nothing but a black smear. It did no harm to them!

Ming water was able to corrode the body of a vampire with royal blood!

"Hehe, we know that the new Hades cultivated using cultivation techniques from China. Don't worry, we'll play with you!"

Briareus cackled and pulled off his tattered clothes. His eyes were wide open as his body started to bulge!

As he roared, his body started to bulge from the new tissue growing in him! Very quickly, they lengthened and formed into thick arms!

It all happened within seconds. Yang Chen was taken aback by his change whereas Cai Ning and Rose were close to vomiting!

When they looked at Briareus again, his head and his body had become disproportionate. He was three to four floors tall, looking more like a giant. Even worse, countless arms grew all over his body!

Hecatoncheires had been hiding his actual body?!

Chapter 1249 Trapped Beasts

"Hades, stop staring. They are making a move." Christine jolted Yang Chen.

"How dare you ignore us," Ares was trembling from anger. The bronze spear tattoo on his face disappeared and with sparkling light, a three-meter long artifact had appeared in Ares' hand!

Even if the space was sealed and their artifacts wouldn't be as powerful, they wouldn't stop using it.

Ares almost killed Yang Chen with the spear but now they were facing an old enemy for 20,000 years – the Giants!

"Heh, Ares, did you forget that we forged the spear for you? Now you're using it against us? How cute..."

The big brother of the Cyclops, Brontes, snickered as his body started to bulge too.

Soon, his clothes were torn apart and he was now more than ten-meters tall!

Different from the Hecatoncheires, his head was enlarged and his eyes were fused together in a weird angle!

A lightning stroke down and a giant hammer appeared in Brontes' hand!

The metal hammer looked really heavy with the head bigger than a hot air balloon. There were scratches on the hammer and with the white cloths covering the handle, it was hard to tell what material it was made of.

“Roar!!!”

Brontes roared, almost tearing their eardrums. It was like a battle cry ringing the start of a battle to avenge themselves!

The hammer was dropped to the floor!

A visible force was seen emitting from the hammer!

The colosseum started to tremble and giant holes were made in the floor!

Stones were falling off and debris was flying everywhere as the colosseum was unable to handle the impact!

The rest of the Giants unleashed their true bodies, feeling the ferocious battle spirit from their brothers!

Ares couldn't hold it in any longer and he charged forward!

Since he couldn't use the space laws, Ares was forced to throw his spear at Brontes' throat with his brute force!

Brontes snorted at his attempt and waved his hammer!

The giant hammer was flung easily like it was some kind of rubber toy!

Ares couldn't stand the reaction force, his arms were numb from the force and whilst his spear flew into another direction, his body was pinned to the ground!

“Ares!!”

Christine gasped. Her hands glowed with golden light and the true Magical Girdle showed up in her hands.

It caught onto Ares body and she pulled him out of the ground!

Just when Ares body left the ground, a hammer went down at that spot!

If it wasn't for Christine's Magical Girdle and her fast reflexes, Ares would've been pounded into ground beef!

After all, they could only move with their own physical strength. Compared to using the space laws, their speed was too slow!

“Thanks...”

Ares got up with a crestfallen expression. He summoned his spear back while thanking Christine softly. Christine frowned and shook her head, "Don't be so hasty. Other than Hades, none of us can use all of our abilities to fight them."

Even though she hated this belligerent psycho, they still shared the same roots.

The other Gods didn't dare to act hastily now that the situation has become unfavourable for them.

A blue light shone through and Poseidon's trident appeared in his hands. Hermes also took out his Caduceus and the wings on his Talaria were fluttering, ready for battle.

Apollo and Artemis were solemn. A blue cold current and red blazing flames showed up in their hands to summon their bows – Helios and Selene.

Even though they were at a disadvantage due to the sealed space laws, their beliefs remained strong for surviving past countless battles!

The Giants had limited spiritual energy and they couldn't seal the space laws forever. All they needed to do was hold on!

"Come, show us how long you guys can last!!"

A blazing arrow materialised on Helios and with a golden glow, Apollo shot it at the six Giants!

The arrow split midair, aiming for their vulnerable spots!

The Giants didn't care about it, blocking the arrows with their hands or hammer nonchalantly. The blazing arrows sparkled but they were easily wiped out.

Hermes flew with his Talaria and appeared behind the Giants. The eyes of the golden snakes on his Caduceus were glowing red!

Just when he wanted to use illusion to fool them, the Hecatoncheires nearest to him, Gyges, waved the arms on his back as if he saw Hermes!

Hermes spell was interrupted and a pair of devil flame wings appeared on his back, allowing him to dodge in time!

"I'm sorry, but you guys are nowhere near a threat to us. I don't have time to deal with trash, so let the mercenaries play with you guys."

Briareus cackled and with a swift motion, all the mercenaries charged towards the Gods as if they had lost their mind!

Their faces were dull but most of them were warriors and powerusers. The Gods fumbled around as they attacked all at once!

Some of the mercenaries could resist mind control but they couldn't do anything to help as they were buried by the sea of people.

The Gods had no choice but to fight these humans.

Poseidon and Ares waved their trident and spear at them. Although it was easy to shake these humans off, they wouldn't stop attacking them!

"This is endless! Have they lost their minds?!" Ares shouted.

Artemis used Selene to shoot out dozens of frozen arrows which froze a large group of mercenaries, buying them some time.

"They planned this. We're forced to kill them which will anger the mercenary corps to unleash their wrath at the countries who organized the tournament."

"They are scheming. Are they planning to protect those countries and have humans think of them as their saviours?!" Christine was enraged.

"Even if they aren't trying to be saviours, I bet they are trying to replace us from human civilization by making us kill these people." Hermes snickered as he licked the blood of his lips. He had no intention of giving mercy, killing all the humans who charged at him!

"They are controlled by the Giants' spell, so someone must be casting the spell behind our backs," Poseidon said and he turned to Yang Chen, "Hades, you guys are the only one who's unaffected by the space laws. We're moving too slow, you guys have to look for the spell caster!"

"Don't make it sound so easy, we haven't started with the real deal yet!"

Steropes rushed forward and lifted his foot to stomp on them!

Chapter 1250: Chaos Lightning Fire

Amidst the shaking ground, Steropes lifted his giant metal hammer and waved it towards Yang Chen!

"How is this possible?!"

Yang Chen dodged hurriedly. A sharp gust of wind brushed past his face.

Yang Chen's heart fell when he realised that they could still move swiftly even in their actual form! They had to spend much more energy than before to achieve the same speed!

Yang Chen didn't dare to take them lightly anymore now that he was aware of their capabilities. He continued to dodge the punches of the two Hecatoncheires while yelling at the ladies, "Rose! Ning'er!! Go and find the spell caster! He must be near the colosseum!!"

Rose and Cai Ning who were fighting off the mercenaries were unaffected by the space laws, hence they were the best candidates to do so!

Rose and Cai Ning responded swiftly before jumping off to search the whole colosseum.

However, the Giants reacted quickly too. Arges and Cottus blocked their way immediately when they realised Rose and Cai Ning were cultivators. They moved so quickly as if they had teleported!

Due to their giant bodies and agility, they could easily trap everyone within the colosseum!

"Two female cultivators, hmph, what a pleasant surprise," Arges smirked and smashed his hammer down at Rose!

It felt as if a giant mountain was crashing down on Rose!

Rose summoned a giant water shield but it failed to withstand the hammer's attack. Rose's body fell off the sky like a shooting star!

"Rose!!"

Golden rays were shot out of Cai Ning as she summoned her True Yuan. With a quick motion, she appeared next to Rose and held her.

"You still have time to care about someone else?!"

Cottus ignored her True Yuan, packing punches at them continuously!

Cai Ning was able to dodge his punches in time. She mustered a few illusions which confused Cottus, buying herself time.

At the same time, Yang Chen was surrounded by three Giants, Brontes, Briareus and Steropes.

They kept attacking Yang Chen and Yang Chen had to summon the Samadhi True Fire and Ming water to defend himself. The fire dragons roared as they tried to bite the Giants.

However, Yang Chen soon realised that these Giants were able to fend off the Samadhi True Fire. Simultaneously, their metal hammers could absorb the Samadhi True Fire which burned and returned the damage to himself!

As expected of the Giants who had fought with numerous cultivators in the Tribulation Passing stage 20,000 years ago. They could withstand the heavenly fire and heavenly water made by Heaven and Earth Restoration Energy, let alone a normal True Yuan attack!

Yang Chen's heart felt heavy, the battle was tougher than he thought.

Even though he still had the Chaos Cauldron as his trump card, Yang Chen didn't feel confident about it. He wasn't sure if the Chaos Beast Spirit could take the Giants down!

Fortunately, Yang Chen's body was strong enough to recover each time he got hurt so he wasn't badly injured.

The remaining Hecatoncheires, Gyges led the mercenaries to the Gods. No matter how hard they attacked him with their artefacts, it was useless without the space laws!

Punches and hammer strikes from the Giants destroyed the colosseum, it's past glory could no longer be seen!

Stones were flying around and holes were all over the place. At the same time, blazing flames, freezing ice and arrows were flying in the air continuously. It was disastrous!

The colosseum had turned into Hell, no one cared who they were killing nor could they remember how many people had they killed!

The soil turned red and the air was filled with the smell of blood!

Amongst the large troop of mercenaries, thousands of people died within seconds.

Shrieking, crying, growling and cackling sounds could be heard...

“Hades! Find a way to attack Brontes! He made the plans so he must be the core to sealing the space!”

Poseidon was covered in blood, even his beard was coloured in red.

Right after he finished his sentence, one of Gyges’ arms struck his body!

Poseidon flew a hundred meters away as he pushed his trident into the floor to steady himself.

He couldn’t even rest when a group of mercenaries nearby charged at him. There was no other choice but to fight!

Once a God’s body was destroyed, they could only choose to reincarnate. Obviously, that wasn’t an option for them, so they either live or die in this battle!

No one had time to care or look out for one another, not even Christine. She was busy using the Magical Girdle to draw mercenaries in and use them to defend against other mercenaries who were attacking her!

Christine who was normally graceful and proud looked nothing like before. Her clothes were torn and her hair was a mess from the bloodstains!

The mercenaries participating in the Caesar Tournament had become the Giants’ sacrificial pawn!

“It’s time to end the battle,” Brontes cackled and raised his hammer. With a loud growl, the hammer sparkled in red flames!

“Hades, be careful! That’s the Heavenly Divine Lightning Fire!!” Christine yelled at Yang Chen frantically.

Heavenly Divine Lightning Fire?!

The moment he heard this, Yang Chen summoned a large amount of Kui Water instinctively and tossed it towards the hammer like a tornado!

Unfortunately, it didn’t put off the Lightning Fire. This time, water had failed to extinguish fire!

The Lightning Fire giant hammer struck the area around Yang Chen. Flames and electric sparks jumped around him which evaporated and burnt the humans nearby!

Yang Chen was ghastly pale when he suddenly remembered the origin of the hammer! Wasn’t this the fire used by the Giants to forge artifacts for the Gods?!

Even though it wasn’t as strong as the Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning, it still made his limbs feel numb. Worse yet, the flames were extremely corrosive. Yang Chen couldn’t comprehend how the hammer hadn’t melted from the fire!

Yang Chen could only flee from the hammer’s attack. He was furious that Briareus and Steropes intentionally forced him to stay within a small area, limiting his chances of escape!

Why hadn’t Athena showed up yet? Wasn’t she proud and powerful?

Did she predict that she would lose even if she appeared so she decided to hide?!

Yang Chen couldn't express the annoyance he was feeling. Even though he didn't have much confidence, the situation he was in left him no choice. They didn't know how long the space would remain sealed. It would be too late if they waited any longer till one of the Gods' bodies was destroyed!

"Chaos Cauldron!"

Yang Chen chanted in his heart. The Chaos Cauldron within his dantian sensed his summon and appeared in the air!

The cauldron grew rapidly in size, from being an arms-length to the size of a house!

Grey smoke covered the spinning cauldron and the patterns on the cauldron were glowing in red. It looked livelier than before, as though it was regaining vitality after Yang Chen claimed ownership on it.

The Giants were surprised to see the giant cauldron but they soon realised it was an artifact from the Chinese cultivators.

They didn't dare to underestimate it, having fought many battles themselves.

"Let's see what else you've got!"

Brontes didn't act hastily, waving his Lightning Fire giant hammer at Yang Chen. A thicker and stronger pillar of Lightning Fire was shot towards Yang Chen!

Yang Chen's eyes had turned red from fury and he growled while lifting the giant cauldron. Roars of the Chaos Beast Spirit could be heard and a turbid giant silhouette leapt out of the cauldron, snarling at the Lightning Fire!
