

Chapter 1261: Good-looking Siblings

Wen Yunfang thought that maybe she had not rested well the previous night, so her eyes were playing tricks on her.

When she saw the cleaning lady walking toward her, Wen Yunfang called her and asked, "Is there any makeup on my face?"

Without thinking, the woman shook her head and said, "Young Miss, you have always been so beautiful." After flattering her, the woman quickly took the broom and left.

Everyone in the house knew she had a bad temper and was more difficult to please than Brother Ding and Sister Wen.

The servants would speak less with her if they could choose to do so.

Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao were extremely satisfied with their room. Well, it was not like they had a choice. The room had its own bathroom, and the bathroom also had hot water 24 hours a day... The benefits were so good that it was as if they were staying in a five-star hotel. However, in reality, that was merely Brother Ding's residence for his subordinates.

"Changshu, Brother Ding and Sister Wen are here," Ah Zhu called out to the two of them at the door. Then, he told Lu Xingzhi to bring Jiang Yao to meet them.

Brother Ding and Sister Wen were in the living room downstairs. When Jiang Yao followed Lu Xingzhi there, she happened to hear Brother Ding instructing the servants in the house to take good care of her and Lu Xingzhi.

Brother Ding knew how to win one's heart. If someone else came downstairs and heard Brother Ding have a specific command to the servants about treating them well, they would be moved to tears too.

"Sister Wen, this is Gu Changshu, the man I told you about." After Brother Ding introduced Gu Changshu, he did not continue the introduction. It was as if he could not see Gu Junhui.

Jiang Yao and Ah Zhu's hearts skipped a beat. Was Brother Ding prepared to break up the couple and snatch the man to be his son-in-law?

"He is handsome." Sister Wen stared at Gu Changshu, but at the same time, she also looked at the woman beside Gu Changshu.

Sister Wen sneered when she saw Gu Changshu's weak wife. There was no lack of women in their social circle. Vulnerable women would never get a happy ending.

If one wanted to survive in that circle, regardless of whether it was a man or a woman, they had to be capable.

When Brother Ding did not introduce the woman, Sister Wen knew that he wanted her to test Gu Changshu. Perhaps he also wanted to test the man himself.

"I heard from Ah Zhu that the person next to you is called Gu Junhui, right? You siblings are very good-looking. In the future, you two will work for Brother Ding. Don't worry. I will ensure that you will live a good life, one that you did not even dare to imagine before." She had even dragged Ah Zhu into it. She had an excuse to say that it was all Ah Zhu's fault; the man did not make things clear to her.

"Oh, right! Gu Changshu, I have a daughter who is a little younger than you. She saw you yesterday and spent the whole night bugging me about you. She kept saying that you're outstanding. You haven't seen my daughter, right? Brother Ding dotes on her, and everyone here calls her Young Miss. However, you don't have to call her that. You can call her Yunfang."

As Sister Wen spoke, she observed Gu Changshu's reaction.

She did not expect Gu Changshu not to feel anything when he heard what she said. His face was as expressionless as ever, without any hint of fawning just because she was Brother Ding's woman.

Chapter 1262: Beautiful As A Fairy

"Sister Wen, it's more appropriate for me to follow the rules and address you as Madam," Lu Xingzhi replied indifferently.

"The rules are set for those who should follow the rules. You're different." Sister Wen waved her hand. The more indifferent Gu Changshu was, the more she liked him. The Gu Changshu that Wen Yunfang had taken a fancy to at that time was completely different from the men she had toyed with before.

"Yunfang would be very happy to know that you're here. Perhaps she'll come over in a while. Yunfang is my only daughter. Don't judge me by my looks, but my daughter's appearance is outstanding in Shu City. Most importantly, my daughter is competent and has many ways to earn money. Whoever marries her is equivalent to marrying a capable assistant and a beautiful woman."

Sister Wen covered her mouth and laughed; she looked proud. "I'm not bragging, but countless people in Shu City dream of marrying my daughter. Those who pursue my daughter are queuing Shu City to Jindo City. However, she has high standards, so she has not set her eyes on anyone. Don't laugh, but a young man stared straight into my daughter's eyes. He said that he saw a fairy descending to the mortal realm. Then, he chased after my daughter, calling her Fairy..."

Just as Sister Wen was praising her, Wen Yunfang walked through the door. As soon as she heard her mother praising her in front of the man she thought she was attracted to, she immediately revealed a bashful expression and ran to Sister Wen's side coquettishly. "Mother, how can you praise your daughter like that? Furthermore, don't bring up that matter anymore. If you mention it, I'll get angry. That kid keeps saying that I'm a fairy who has descended to the mortal realm. After chasing me for more than half a year, I still can't get rid of him!"

Jiang Yao stood behind Lu Xingzhi. She had not seen Wen Yunfang's face yet, but the woman's voice gave her goosebumps. Out of curiosity, she glanced at Wen Yunfang.

She had no idea why the man had chased after Fairy Wen Yunfang for more than half a year.

Jiang Yao glanced at them. The first thing she saw was not Wen Yunfang but Sister Wen and Brother Ding's shocked expressions. They were also looking at Ah Zhu, who had the same terrified expression and tried hard to hold back his laughter.

"Godfather, Mother, why are you looking at me like that?"

Wen Yunfang did not know it, but she felt that the atmosphere was too quiet.

Her parents should continue to praise her, right? Why were they staring at her like they had seen a ghost?

"Yunfang, you—" Even the well-informed Brother Ding stuttered when he saw his goddaughter's terrifying appearance. "What's wrong with your face?"

"I used some skincare products before I went to bed last night. I asked a friend from abroad to get it for me. My skin felt relaxed when I woke up this morning." Wen Yunfang thought Brother Ding was surprised that her skin had become much better, so she explained shyly.

"Men! Prepare the car and send Young Miss to the hospital!" Sister Wen was angry and nervous. She was mad that Wen Yunfang was so careless; she could ruin her reputation.

Just a second ago, she had praised her daughter for her beauty and how many people had chased after her. She had wanted to make the best preparation for her daughter, who would appear in a moment. Needless to say, there was a tacit understanding between the mother and daughter duo.

Wen Yunfang had emerged as she was speaking.

She was praising her daughter's beauty when Wen Yunfang, who was as beautiful as a fairy, walked into the room confidently with a face that looked like the ugliest grimace in a ghost movie.

Chapter 1263: Miss Fairy

Even though Sister Wen did not mind her daughter's ugliness, at that moment, she took two steps back from Wen Yunfang. She did not dare to let her daughter continue to hold her hand and act coquettishly. She was afraid that she would be infectious.

Wen Yunfang had been fine before they parted last night, and she had a face full of blisters and rashes in the morning. She could hardly see her daughter's original facial features, but strangely, her daughter seemed to have no feelings for her disfigurement. She did not even feel pain.

What surprised Sister Wen, even more, was that her daughter had walked out of the room without throwing a tantrum.

Brother Ding and Sister Wen did not even have the time to say a few more words before dragging the confused Wen Yunfang away. However, due to Brother Ding's presence, Wen Yunfang did not dare to make a scene, so she left with them.

Once the three of them left, Ah Zhu burst into laughter. "She's as beautiful as a fairy. That fairy has a different way of appearing today. Perhaps this way would leave a longer impression."

That was simply ironic. The woman had been praised for looking like a fairy had appeared like that. “Oh, my God, she’s so ugly. To put it bluntly, she’s so ugly that it’s sorrowful. Who would be blind enough to chase after her and marry her?”

A beautiful woman? She was clearly a hag.

A fairy? That man had to be blind and had a broken hand. His eyes might not be able to see, but he could at least feel the skin on her face with his hands, right?

Lu Xingzhi felt a lump in his throat. Did the people in Shu City have a different taste in beauty?

Perhaps Brother Ding’s love for Wen Yunfang was enough to make so many men willing to marry that ugly woman and worship her at home?

After thinking for a while, Lu Xingzhi turned around and asked Ah Zhu, “Do all fairies in Shu City look like that?” If that was the case, then he could probably put his heart at ease with his wife.

Wen Yunfang was a fairy in Shu City. In the eyes of the majority of the people in Shu City, his wife was probably the ugliest—demons would grimace when they saw her.

“All of you, back to work.” Ah Zhu dismissed the servants. Only then did he follow Gu Changshu and his wife upstairs and return to their room.

After closing the door, Ah Zhu immediately covered his stomach and laughed loudly.

“The fairies in Shu City don’t look like that. It was only the young miss this morning.” Ah Zhu laughed until he was almost out of breath. “When I saw her yesterday, she was still fine. Didn’t you hear her say that she took special care of her skin for today? Those things probably disfigured her. She would dare to do anything for that face of hers.”

Ah Zhu looked at Jiang Yao. He said, “Sister, a clean face is always the best. At most, she could have just put on some lipstick and drew her eyebrows. Don’t fiddle with your face. That is the result.”

Jiang Yao really did not know what Wen Yunfang looked like because there was very little information about Wen Yunfang in the information, not even a photo.

However, she was delighted when she saw Wen Yunfang appear in Lu Xingzhi’s world in that way.

Moe’s contribution was indispensable. Once again, she had completed the task that he had given her perfectly. Her time was not wasted at all—she had to spend the night refining some medicinal powder.

The medicinal powder that Jiang Yao gave to Moe could be spread through the air. Once it touched someone’s skin, it would rapidly take effect. The most peculiar thing about it was that the victim would not feel any discomfort. There was no pain, not even some swelling.

Chapter 1264: History

Jiang Yao had only guessed that Wen Yunfang would probably be there that day, so she had ordered Moe to punish Wen Yunfang in advance. She had not expected that Wen Yunfang and Sister Wen would cooperate so well and put on a big show for everyone.

The name of that big show was called the Fairies' Descendent.

She laughed inwardly.

When Jiang Yao saw Ah Zhu laughing so happily, she also curved her lips into a smile. She whispered, "Then is the young miss good-looking or not?"

Ah Zhu snorted. "That face is made of money. To be honest, she is not ugly. She looks like a local girl from Shu City. Her skin is slightly dark, but her facial features are quite good-looking, especially her eyes. The corners of her eyes are slightly raised... The older generation would say that she has fox eyes and was born to seduce people. Other than that man chasing after her and calling her a fairy, there is something else that you should know."

"What is it?"

Jiang Yao immediately became interested when she heard the gossip about her love rival.

Lu Xingzhi finally knew that Jiang Yao was waiting to see Wen Yunfang make a fool of herself. Even Wen Yunfang's face might have something to do with Jiang Yao. He knew her well. His wife always had some strange medicine that could catch people off guard.

Furthermore, he did not see Moe, who should have been hiding in Jiang Yao's pocket. He must have gone out to do something for Jiang Yao.

"The person who chased after her and called her a fairy is the son of a government official in Shu City. When he was young, he had a high fever and meningitis, which damaged his brain and made him a fool. When he saw a girl in a white dress, he chased her and called her a fairy. No matter if the person were a three-year-old girl or an 80-year-old woman, as long as they had long hair and wore white clothes, he would call them a fairy. He chased after her and made a wish to eat a basket of candies."

Jiang Yao burst out in laughter. Was that something one should be proud of?

So, no matter a woman's competence, she would have some madness in her.

In Sister Wen's case, her daughter would be more elegant than the average person even if she farted. So, Sister Wen's weakness must be her daughter, Wen Yunfang.

When Ah Zhu saw Jiang Yao laughing and smiling happily, he said, "I don't know what she did to protect her skin, and I don't know how long it will take for her face to recover. However, that is also good. God is on your side. Before her face recovers, she definitely won't come out and trouble you."

Hence, Ah Zhu felt Gu Changshu and Gu Junhui were fortunate.

Then, Ah Zhu said, "Young Miss could make money, but she could also spend them. If she's afraid, she can fly abroad to save her face. I even heard that she let some bugs roll on her face and suck on it. Just thinking about it makes me sick."

That was the most disgusting thing Ah Zhu had ever heard. When he first moved into the house, he heard Sister Wen ordered the servants to look for raw cow's blood and then mix it with raw eggs to apply it to her face. Ah Zhu could not find any words to describe it. The servants said that the young miss had a traditional prescription that could make her skin more tender.

A young woman's face should already be youthful and tender. Why bother with that?

While Lu Xingzhi was tidying up the room, Jiang Yao sat on a chair and listened to Ah Zhu's stories about the fairy for half the afternoon.

Even though it sounded disgusting at times, it was hilarious.

Chapter 1265: Spread Out

Ah Zhu left after he finished talking. After all, he was Brother Ding's right-hand man. He also had many things to do. The young miss had not returned after so long, and Brother Ding and Sister Wen had not returned either. He also had to go to the hospital to show some concern about the situation. He also wanted to watch the show.

After Ah Zhu went out, Jiang Yao checked if there were any surveillance items in the room and then scanned the outside of the room. Perhaps it was because they were already in Brother Ding's territory, so no one would eavesdrop outside the door.

"That Ah Zhu is quite interesting." Jiang Yao sat on the bed and smiled. Her smile was very natural, unlike the shy and embarrassed look she had when she was in front of Ah Zhu.

"Usually, it's impossible to get any information from him, but as long as he gets in the mood to chat, it's not completely impossible." Jiang Yao clicked her tongue. "I didn't expect to get a lot of useful information from him just now."

Lu Xingzhi touched Jiang Yao as if he was praising her. Her face looked deceiving. One could say that Ah Zhu was not wary of Jiang Yao. He was relaxed when he was chatting with Jiang Yao.

Therefore, it was much easier for Jiang Yao to get information from him. Lu Xingzhi chose to remain silent the entire time because he was afraid that interrupting Ah Zhu's state would affect Jiang Yao's actions.

Therefore, sometimes, it was beneficial to have someone who looked like Jiang Yao.

At least Lu Xingzhi did not need to get the same information when he was with Ah Zhu. He might not be able to get it anyway.

Lu Xingzhi was smart, but Ah Zhu was not a fool.

Therefore, Lu Xingzhi absolutely could not get that information from the man. If he did, it would only attract Ah Zhu's attention. However, Jiang Yao was different. She could simply follow the topic and ask in a curious and straightforward tone.

"It seems like there have been a lot of changes since the beginning of our operation," Lu Xingzhi lowered his voice. "Sha Ying's mission is to get close to that mysterious young miss and be undercover by her side. I didn't expect that we would meet that young miss first."

That was also something that Lu Xingzhi had not thought of when he first set out. The informant had said that the young miss was not in Shu City and was usually out of town; that young miss was not part of Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi's mission.

Jiang Yao said, "We have to spread the news. Sha Ying will probably be depressed if she finds out. She hasn't even touched the mission yet, but we had already face that person first."

She even tricked that young miss.

Even if Brother Ding and Sister Wen had a way to immediately send Wen Yunfang to the Jindo City hospital, those doctors would be helpless to do anything for her face. It was a small hospital, so it was not very advanced. The doctors would not be able to find out the reason.

After hearing that Wen Yunfang had done some skincare the previous night, they would blame it on allergies and ask Wen Yunfang to stop touching those skincare products and rest for a few days.

Those medicines would allow Wen Yunfang to maintain that state for seven days.

The first four days would be as scary as the beginning. After the fifth day, it would ooze pus. On the sixth day, there would be signs of healing. On the seventh day, it would start to recover.

If Wen Yunfang were enough of a beauty lover, it would probably take half a month before she would appear in front of her and Lu Xingzhi.

That would be good, too. Lu Xingzhi would not have to face the problem of choosing his future or his wife before he passed Brother Ding's test.

Chapter 1266: Why Does He Have To Go?

However, when she thought about the sudden increase in the difficulty of Sha Ying's mission, Jiang Yao prayed for their colleague.

However, when she thought about that woman, Jiang Yao decided not to sympathize with her.

As long as the entire mission was successful, it would be fine. As for whether that woman's mission was successful or not, it did not have much to do with Jiang Yao.

Even though they were a group, they were responsible for their own mission content.

The informant provided the city's name, where the young miss frequented, and then offered a list of a few people who had contacted the young miss. Sha Ying had to learn the young miss' identity from that information. Then she had to gain the woman's trust and be her spy.

However, Wen Yunfang would not be leaving Shu City for some time due to the problem with her face, so Sha Ying would have to wait.

The first dinner that Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi had at the mansion was delightful. The entire building was occupied by Ah Zhu and his wife and by Brother Ding's other subordinates. They were all highly-valued subordinates, but no one could surpass Ah Zhu.

Since Ah Zhu was protecting them, no one dared to bully Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi. The men drank and chatted the entire night happily. Naturally, it was Ah Zhu who talked the night away.

After dinner, Lu Xingzhi told the others that he was taking Jiang Yao for a walk. However, he did not cross the boundary toward the main building.

It was not the time. Even though the building might contain much information that he wanted, he still chose to ignore it.

“Gu Changshu.”

The two of them were walking around when Brother Ding drove in. He saw the two of them and called Gu Zhangshu. He looked at Jiang Yao and said, “Yunfang is in the hospital and is not in a good mood. Go to the hospital and accompany her for a while.”

“Why would Young Miss want Changshu to accompany her when she is in a bad mood?”

Jiang Yao held Lu Xingzhi’s hand tightly with an aggrieved look on her face. She cursed Brother Ding’s ancestors in her heart.

Brother Ding acted as if he could not hear Jiang Yao’s words and only cast his gaze at Lu Xingzhi.

Lu Xingzhi also acted as if he was unwilling. “I’m taking my wife for a walk. She’s full from eating. Furthermore, she’ll be afraid if I’m not around. No matter where I go, she has to be there. Otherwise, I won’t be at ease.”

“Don’t tell me that a woman has to follow her husband 24 hours a day when a man is doing great things? Then how are you going to work for me in the future?” Although he was satisfied that Gu Changshu cared about his wife, Brother Ding was a little disappointed that he cared so much.

Did Gu Changshu want Gu Junhui to follow him into the toilet as well?

“That’s the future.”

Lu Xingzhi paused for a few seconds before he answered, “We’ve just arrived in Shu City. My wife is very unfamiliar with this place, so I’m worried. When we get more familiar with it in the future, I’ll go out and do some work. She’ll just have to wait for me at home.”

Brother Ding glanced at Gu Changshu’s wife. His head hurt when he thought about the moody Wen Yunfang in the hospital.

“Then take your wife to the hospital.”

After saying that, Brother Ding drove into the compound. Anyway, he just needed to get him there. If Wen Yunfang could not defeat a woman like Gu Junhui and only knew how to throw tantrums, then there was nothing he could do for her as her godfather.

He had initially agreed that he would not interfere, but Wen Yunfang was in a bad mood, so he had to help her. However, he thought of Ah Zhu’s words. Before deciding whether he could use Gu Changshu, Brother Ding was not prepared to push Gu Changshu away .

Chapter 1267: Annoyed Her To Death

Wen Yunfang, who was in the hospital, knew that even the doctors were helpless and would only continue to say that it was because of the expensive skincare products she had obtained from abroad.

She was so angry that she beat up the two doctors. If Sister Wen had not intervened, she would have shot and killed the two doctors.

Wen Yunfang was in the hospital, but her mood was like a ball of fire that kept on burning. She had smashed everything she had at her disposal. When Brother Ding came in, she pretended to be pitiful and begged her godfather to let Gu Changshu come to the hospital to see her.

Knowing that Brother Ding was soft-hearted, Wen Yunfang waited for Gu Changshu to come to the hospital to accompany her after Brother Ding left. She did not expect Gu Changshu to arrive half an hour later, with his wife in tow.

Wen Yunfang felt as if a bullet had been shot into her heart when she saw the couple holding hands affectionately.

Yes, she was angry. It had nothing to do with pain.

She felt that they had trampled on her face that day; she had lost all her dignity.

She had lost all that in front of the man she had fallen in love with, but that man seemed to have no feelings at all. He even brought his wife to the hospital. Was he trying to anger her because she was not angry enough?

“Why did you bring your sister?” Sister Wen was also angry when she saw that, so her tone became heavier.

Lu Xingzhi explained rigidly, “This is my wife, not my sister. Wherever I go, she goes. I told Brother Ding I’d only let her stay at home alone when she gets familiar with Shu City.”

When she heard Gu Changshu’s profound explanation, Sister Wen knew that Gu Changshu did not fall in love with her daughter.

However, Sister Wen was not surprised. After all, her daughter was hideous that day.

A man would not like Wen Yunfang when he saw her like that. Furthermore, Sister Wen had to admit that Wen Yunfang’s face was really pitiful, but she was the type that men liked.

It seemed that she could only wait for Wen Yunfang to recover before saying anything else.

“Then you guys stay here and talk to her.” Sister Wen ignored Gu Changshu’s explanation. She did not give any reaction or response to that sentence.

“I don’t talk to others,” Lu Xingzhi responded very smoothly.

Wen Yunfang was instantly enraged.

“Take your woman and get out of my sight!” Wen Yunfang shouted. She was already annoyed, yet she still had to watch the man she fancied protect her love rival. How could she not be heartbroken?

After Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao left the hospital, the first thing they said to each other was, “Crazy!”

Jiang Yao snorted. “Does she really think that all the men in the world revolve around her? My man will let her know exactly how attractive she is! She can only attract fools.”

Was she jealous?

Of course, it was jealousy.

Jiang Yao was so sour about it that she could end up with a pot of vinegar. There was no other way. It was heart-wrenching. She had to face a woman who was eyeing her man covetously in the mission.

There were love rivals everywhere she went. Why was Lu Xingzhi so popular?

The sky finally showed signs of only light snow; it would stop soon. After Mrs. Sun left the prison empty-handed, she could only make a trip to Nanjiang City Medical University through the information she received from the small county town. She was prepared to look for the girl named Jiang Yao personally to have a good chat as a relative.

Chapter 1268: Who Are You Looking For?

Mrs. Sun had already made up her mind. When she found Jiang Yao, she would tell her that she was her mother, the woman who had given birth to her.

As for Sun Xiaoshan, she was her eldest sister's daughter. She had lost her beloved daughter, and when she saw her eldest sister in prison, her heart ached for her niece. So, she raised that weak and sickly girl as her own daughter.

It was not difficult to find Jiang Yao's identity, a university student. She could go to the county town and ask the locals; they would know if there was such a person. Therefore, when Mrs. Sun arrived at Nanjiang Medical University, her heart was filled with excitement and anticipation.

"Who are you looking for? Jiang Yao?" The guard stopped her from entering the compound. "Who are you to Jiang Yao?"

Mrs. Sun replied matter-of-factly, "I'm her mother! Please let me go in to look for her, or you can speak to her for me. I can wait for her at the entrance."

Even though Mrs. Sun knew that Jiang Yao was at Nanjiang Medical University, she did not know which was her dormitory, so she had to keep asking when she was there. If the guard could help her look, then she would not bother to go in. Instead, she was willing to wait at the entrance.

There were many people coming and going at the university entrance. It was also a good place for her to meet her daughter.

Mrs. Sun thought that if she said that she was Jiang Yao's mother, the guard would be happy to help her. She did not expect the guard to stand up and spit at her. "Liar! There are more and more liars these days, and their tricks are endless! If you were Jiang Yao's mother, wouldn't you know that she took a long leave and went out to study with her teacher?"

The guard knew Jiang Yao. She was an honor student and was eager to learn, and she was also the school's gem. He felt honored to have known her.

"Recently, there have been many scammers like you, pretending to know Jiang Yao—relatives, such as their grandfather, father, brother, sister, and sister. Countless scammers come here to find a daughter.

Don't you scammers know to change your tricks? If you need help, you can't lie like that when you want to look for Jiang Yao!"

Mrs. Sun was scolded while she was on her way out. When she saw the guard about to call the police, she quickly ran away, but her heart was filled with hatred. She only wanted to find Jiang Yao; why was it so difficult?

It had not been easy for her to find Jiang Yao's school, but she was not even there. She took an extended leave and went out to study with the teacher?

How long is the leave of absence to study with the teacher? That b*tch must be with the teacher! Too many young female students were not focusing on the right path!

No one in the Jiang and Lu families knew that Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi had gone on a mission together. Jiang Yao took an extended leave of absence from school, so she said she would study with her teacher as an excuse. The school approved her very quickly.

However, Jiang Yao did not expect that the Jiang family, who were far away in the small village, would have uninvited guests.

Jiang Lei had already settled down in Yuan City. Jiang Jie and Wang Xian had already gone to work in the town. The couple was not sure if they would stay in town or return to the village.

Therefore, there were only Mr. and Mrs. Jiang in the house. They felt a little uneasy when they saw the family of three.

"Why are you here?"

Mr. Jiang pretended to be calm as he looked at the mother and daughter duo he had met once in the Jindo City hotel. The girl was still sitting in a wheelchair. She seemed worse than the last time he saw her in Jindo City.

Chapter 1269: Mother And Daughter Reunited

Mrs. Sun glanced at the two people and then at the courtyard. She felt a bit of disdain in her heart.

When she saw the way Jiang Yao's adoptive parents entered and left the highest-class hotel in Jindo City, she had thought that they were wealthy people. She had not expected them to be just farmers.

On the other hand, Jiang Yao's husband's family was wealthy and tight-knit. However, compared to the Sun family, a true scholarly family, the Lu family was only a small tycoon in the county.

"I'm here to retrieve my daughter." Mrs. Sun did not even start with pleasantries. She said straightforwardly, "You know very well how you obtained Jiang Yao when she was a child. You took my daughter. I am her biological mother; why shouldn't I take my daughter with me.

"Qiuran!" When Mr. Sun heard his wife's words, he scolded her in a low voice. Then, he said to Mr. and Mrs. Jiang, "That is about the child. Can we go to the courtyard and talk to you? It's not good to do this in front of kids."

Mr. Jiang, who had been angry because of Mrs. Sun's words, calmed down a little. He looked at the man for a few seconds. He seemed like a cultured person. Since it was related to Jiang Yao, he invited the man to the courtyard.

After the five of them went to the courtyard, their neighbor saw them and thought it was a bad situation. Had Jiang Yao's biological parents found them?

It had been 20 years. How did they find them?

Many children in the village were not biologically related to their families. Decades ago, it was not an exaggeration to say that they could pick up a child every three to five days. If the child were not sick, then they were daughters.

However, after so many years, no biological parents had ever come to look for a daughter, who must have been fostered by any family. Everyone knew that many families did not want daughters because sons had more value.

They knew that if the daughter were wanted, she would not have been thrown away in the first place. If they threw her away, it meant that she was not wanted.

Therefore, no one in the village would tell the child that they were adopted. The daughter might run away if they were to find out about it.

After the neighbors waited for the Jiang family to bring their guests to the yard, they immediately put down what they were doing and ran to the village's snack bar to make a call. They called Jiang Jie's unit. Fortunately, Jiang Jie was still there as he was doing some overtime. The neighbors told Jiang Jie about what had happened and told him to come back as soon as possible so that his parents would not be at a disadvantage.

There were almost no secrets in the countryside—all news spread. Even Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu had heard the news.

Meanwhile, in the Jiang family's living room. Mr. Jiang asked Mrs. Jiang to boil some water for tea. Even though he was unhappy because of the woman's words, the visitor was a guest, so they must treat them as such. A cup of tea was always necessary.

"Where did you hear that we had picked up Jiang Yao?" Mr. Jiang gritted his teeth. If he knew who was talking behind his back and ruining his family's peace, he would take the hammer to that person's house later!

"No one told us, but mothers and daughters are always connected. I could feel it when I first saw her. She is my daughter, and I am her mother. Of course, I would know when I saw my daughter. Besides, we look so much alike." Mrs. Sun lowered her head and looked at the tea that Mrs. Jiang poured. Then she reached out to touch the edge of the bowl.

Chapter 1270: Not Their Biological Child

Mrs. Jiang had a temper too. She immediately said, "Do you want to borrow a magnifying glass? Or do you want my daughter to bring a microscope for you to see if there are any bacteria in that bowl? When we drink tea in the countryside, we use a bowl. If you think it's dirty, then don't drink it!"

Mr. and Mrs. Jiang had always been good-natured people. Mrs. Jiang was so angry because the person who claimed to be her daughter's biological mother was rude; she acted as if she was the empress. When she entered the Jiang family house, she looked at it with disdain. She even stared at the bowl while drinking tea.

Who would not be angry about that?

Furthermore, she was there to take her daughter. Who would be nice to her?

Sun Xiaoshan also knew that her mother was rude, so she gently pulled her mother toward her. She looked troubled. "Mom, don't be like that."

Mrs. Jiang glanced at Sun Xiaoshan. She already had a bad feeling when she saw the mother-daughter duo at the hotel. She did not expect that premonition to come true. The two people who looked like Jiang Yao really did have a connection to her daughter.

However, who cared if that woman was really her daughter's biological mother?

She and her husband had raised Jiang Yao. They had worked hard to raise the child.

Mr. Jiang also stopped his wife from throwing a tantrum. Instead, he said, "There are many people who look like her in this world. Just because you look like her, you're saying that my daughter is your daughter?"

Mr. Sun said, "Mr. Jiang, my wife took your daughter's hair to the hospital for a DNA test. The medical evidence shows that Jiang Yao is indeed my wife's daughter. If you need to see the results, we can provide them."

When Mrs. Sun heard her husband mention the DNA test, she avoided eye contact with him.

There was a DNA test result in her bag, but it was a fake one that she spent money to get. She had torn Jiang Yao's and that idiot's test result and thrown them away. The result showed that they were not related. However, Mrs. Sun believed that the two of them were definitely father and daughter. The hospital's test might have been a scam.

However, her husband, a university professor, had trusted the test.

After all, Mr. Sun was a university professor, so everyone trusted his words. "It's not difficult to find out if Jiang Yao is really your biological daughter. All you need to do is get the Public Security Bureau people to step in and investigate this matter. No one can change the results."

The villagers might have helped the Jiang family lie to outsiders, but what if the Public Security Bureau also stepped in?

The villagers must be afraid of the people from the Public Security Bureau, right?

However, when Mr. and Mrs. Jiang heard that, they immediately laughed in anger. "This is the first time I've seen what it means to be shameless!"

Mrs. Jiang slammed her palm on the table and cursed. She pointed at Mrs. Sun's nose and shouted, "How dare you come here and say that you are Yaoyao's biological mother? You even have the cheek to say that you would look for the Public Security Bureau! Fine, go ahead then. After you find her, I want to see if you'll go to jail first! The crime of abandoning a baby is punishable by law. Where did you get the courage to come here and speak to us like this?"

"You admitted that Jiang Yao is not your biological child, right?" Mr. Sun insisted on that question. When he saw Mr. and Mrs. Jiang were in a bad mood, he quickly comforted them. "Please don't be angry. We're not here to punish you or anything. My wife only wants to take her daughter with her. You're also parents. I'm sure you know how parents worry about their children."
