

Chapter 1261 Cynical

Seeing Guo Yue trying to please and compensate them, be it genuine or not, he still shouldn't be too rigid.

They were about to finish lunch when Yang Chen nodded in agreement.

After some time, Yang Gongming brought Lanlan to the inner courtyard for a nap. Lanlan had a satisfying meal and felt drowsy, so she followed.

Lin Ruoxi didn't expect her own daughter to be favored by Yang Gongming so much. On the other hand, Lanlan used to be someone who needs to be supervised for her to sleep, but now she loves sleeping a lot. Has she changed into her polar opposite?

The husband and wife followed Yang Lie and the rest went to the outdoor parking lot to take a look at Guo Yue's gift.

When they reached the spot, Yuan Ye who followed behind let out a 'Wow!'.

It was a fiery red Ferrari sports car, single-row two-seater, convertible duo doors with extremely smooth linings.

"Which model of Ferrari is this? I haven't seen it before, it's beautiful." Yuan Ye was also a person who loved cars and couldn't help but ask with bright eyes.

"Special commemorative limited edition of Ferrari 599, SAAPERTA."

Before Guo Yue's introduction, Yang Chen blurted it out.

Guo Yue was slightly surprised. He got stunned for a moment and said, "As expected, cousin Yang Chen who has returned from abroad, knowledgeable! I've only picked the car up last month and showed it to several of my friends, but only you managed to recognize it from a glance! Expert indeed!"

Yang Chen said in his heart, there's no need to remember when I'll never forget what I see.

But seeing Lin Ruoxi being amazed by this car, he knew that the woman liked the appearance and started to gain interest in the gift.

"If I remember correctly, this car is a limited edition, where there are only 80 vehicles worldwide and you wouldn't be able to get it without great effort and money. You have the means huh, how much did you spend?" Yang Chen asked casually.

Guo Yue said triumphantly, "Not much, around 4 million."

"4 million?" Yang Chen frowned, "How is that possible? This car is way more expensive than that even in Europe."

That being said, Yang Lie, Yuan Ye and Guo Yue all showed strange expressions, obviously they all knew something.

A wicked smile appeared in the eyes of Guo Yue, "Cousin, you came back from abroad, there are some methods that you don't know."

“Meaning?” Yang Chen then realized that he still had many things that he didn’t understand.

Guo Yue said, “Nowadays, we don’t buy cars directly from the retailers here. Every year, for these big domestic models, we will buy those good cars from abroad. We can get almost anything such as Ferrari, Koenigsegg, Aston Martin etc. Those cars are basically coming from unofficial channels. We only need to ask a friend at the customs to help us take a look. If you want a car, they will just detain it at the custom itself! Those fools will not dare to ask the customs blatantly, unless they have some sort of relationship with them or else they can’t be going against the entire country for the sake of a few millions right? We somehow have a layer of relationship with these people at customs so that we can spend less to buy these goods, this is much more cost-effective than spending tens of millions on buying a car!”

Listening to Guo Yue talking about the channel for buying the car, Yang Chen was then surprised and realized that he had really entered the ‘rich family’, so money can be saved!

Logically speaking, although the Guo family was also a political family, if Guo Xuehua hadn’t married into the Yang family, they would have been the tail of the second-rate family in Beijing. Now, they were still only in the middle among the rest.

However, with a kid from the Guo family who could rely on this family relationship to obtain such privilege, it really did mean something.

Yang Chen didn’t think that Yang Gongming and the elders knew nothing about what these kids were doing underneath. It was just the gloom of human nature which could not be eliminated by eradication.

Many people become cynical because they don’t have the opportunity to sit in such positions. They can’t be so ‘tacky’, otherwise, it might feel worse.

Yang Chen suddenly thought that it might sound better to say that this car was ‘robbed over’.

“Brother Chen, just accept the gift. Guo Yue doesn’t lack good cars and I think my sister-in-law likes it,” Yuan Ye seemed to be quite used to these things and said with a smile.

Yang Chen turned over to the woman, “Honey, do you like it?”

Lin Ruoxi was honest, “I like it, but it’s still quite expensive even if it’s just four million. It’s not that good to receive such an expensive gift the first time we meet.”

“Hey, it’s not a big deal, a luxury car should go with a beauty! Such a beautiful car can only be used by a beauty like my sister-in-law...”

Guo Yue was speaking excitedly only to realize that it sounded inappropriate and stopped with a smile.

Yang Chen frowned, thought for awhile and said, “Let’s do it this way, Ruoxi you can take the car but you will give him another car of the same price.”

Lin Ruoxi nodded and smiled, “Yeah, good idea. I have many new cars that I haven’t driven yet.”

“But...this,” Guo Yue smiled stiffly, aren’t they trying to offset the relationship between us?

“What is it? Are you worried that our family won’t be able to give you a car of equal value?”

Guo Yue immediately shook his head, "Oh cousin, of course not. Our sister-in-law is one of the richest women in China, she is obviously better than a small civil servant like me."

Yang Chen laughed strangely, "So you also know that you're a small civil servant."

Guo Yue's face turned red and pale simultaneously, it felt as if being insulted right to the core, but he could only smile humbly.

It seemed that his endurance had reached the tip, his expression was very stiff. After passing Lin Ruoxi the car keys, he planned to leave.

As for what Lin Ruoxi said about sending the car to his house, he didn't care to listen carefully.

But before leaving, he still pretended to be looking forward to it and promised to meet Yang Chen and Lin Ruoxi again tomorrow in the Li family's banquet.

Yuan Hwei who had been quiet for the entire time came up and patted Yang Chen's shoulder after Guo Yue left, "I know you are against these kinds of bureaucratic children, but you have to adapt to it in the future. After all, there are still many good ones, you can just avoid these kinds."

Yang Chen shrugged, "I don't really mind, I just feel a bit ironic. I used to wonder why there were so many gangsters collecting protection fees without any restrictions when I was selling lamb skewers in Zhonghai. It seems that the protection fees paid by the poor are relatively small. The protection fees that the rich people have to pay are really extraordinary."

"Now I know, we are in business. , How important is it to have a good relationship with the government? To put it bluntly, don't our Yuan family also rely on the Yang family to be stable up until now," Yuan Hwei laughed embarrassingly.

Yang Jieyu pretended to be angry after hearing that, "Oh wow, so you married me just for the sake of your business!"

Yuan Hwei looked embarrassed and quickly confessed his mistake. Yuan Ye who was beside him blushed and felt sad for his father being controlled by his wife in such a way. However, he was also the same....

As for Yang Lie, he had been silent since the start.

Yang Chen noticed that he had a sincere look which was extremely rare.

It was a complicated expression that seemed to have condensed memories, hatred, sadness and anger, with mixed flavours.

"What are you thinking about?" Yang Chen couldn't help asking.

Yang Lie turned over and met his eyes without evasiveness.

"I was wondering, if there is really a god in this world?"

"..." A smile appeared at the corner of Yang Chen's mouth, "What do you think?"

“Aren’t you being referred to as god, my brother?” Yang Lie asked with a strange smile, “Do you think of yourself as god?”

Yang Chen did not answer directly, instead he said, “The way you speak and your expression is not like the Yang Lie I knew before.”

“People become mature and change. Women are fickle but men are more fickle, and they change even more thoroughly.”

“Can I take this as you have changed too much?” Yang Chen stared right into Yang Lie’s eyes, looking forward to seeing any special reactions from the front line.

But the result disappointed Yang Chen. Yang Lie sighed deeply and raised his mouth slightly, “Perhaps I am overthinking. I am just an ordinary human being, even someone like big brother has to conform to this destiny and adapt to this reality. What other thoughts can I have, how can this world be so easy to change, ridiculous... how ridiculous...”

That being said, Yang Lie turned over and went back into the house quietly. A touch of unpleasantness was revealed on his back...

Chapter 1262 Father And Son Affection

At the backyard of the Yang Residence, in Yang Gongming’s bedroom.

The grandfather and his grandchild planned to take an afternoon nap after a stroll in the courtyard.

With the elixirs given by Yang Chen, although Yang Gongming did not cultivate, he was still strong despite his age. He managed to carry the chubby girl for half an hour straight without being tired.

Lanlan was already in a drowsy state before she fell asleep. Her little head leaned against her grandfather’s while her lips pouted.

“Hey Lanlan, why do you look so sleepy? Didn’t you sleep well yesterday?” Yang Gongming touched his granddaughter’s face with loving eyes.

Lanlan shook her head, “Nope, daddy has been teaching Lanlan to cultivate and said that I shouldn’t slack off. Lanlan cannot cultivate while eating, so I’ve been thinking about it after eating and now I need to sleep after so much thinking.”

“Oh...” Yang Gongming could briefly guess what kind of practice Yang Chen passed down to his daughter. At such a young age, even if she was born with extraordinary physique, understanding such complicated practices was still very brain-intensive, no wonder she looked more lethargic.

Yang Gongming didn’t ask much about her practice and walked to the spacious and soft bed and laid down. He let Lanlan lean against him and fell asleep together.

While patting Lanlan’s back, he asked gently, “Lanlan, why didn’t you...let your uncle Yang Lie carry you?”

Lanlan arched her body and muttered, “Lanlan is afraid...uncle looks like a bad guy...”

The child’s voice was barely hearable, indicating that she would be falling asleep soon.

Yang Gongming closed his eyes silently and a secret smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

“I see...bad guy... haha, good girl, really good girl... sleep away...”

As if talking to himself, he began to rest quietly while patting the little girl.

After a moment, only the even breathing of the grandfather and his grandchild remained in the bedroom...

Beijing, the Ning Residence.

Two maids of the Ning family were gossiping softly while cleaning the fallen leaves in and out of the flower bed in the backyard. After all, Ning Guangyao’s study was right behind them and the Premier was working inside, so they dare not speak loudly.

“Hey, the young master has been back for so many days already. How is he not working?” A maid asked curiously in a low voice.

The other senior maid sighed and said, “What nonsense, the young master has not been reinstated, how can he go to work?”

“Not reinstated? Why? Isn’t our Ning family’s eldest young master allowed to go to work?”

“Who knows? I heard that the Premier deliberately refused to let him. It seems that someone heard the young master being scolded by the Premier at night. Either way, the Premier isn’t really happy about the young master’s return.”

“This is weird, isn’t it? Young master Guodong is the only seedling of the Ning family, even if the Premier blames him for his disappearance, he shouldn’t neglect him to this extent,” the little maid wondered.

The senior maid said with a gossiping face, “Let me tell you, but what stays here stays here. I heard from bodyguard Old Zhou that the last time the Premier didn’t go to Zhonghai for a meeting, was because he visited his illegitimate daughter... He seemed to be more fond of that daughter of his.”

The little maid’s eyes widened to the max after hearing this and stood there stunned.

The senior maid said disdainfully, “Look at you, what’s wrong with a big family having an illegitimate daughter? The young master of the Li family who was marrying the daughter of the Tang family, even the child in her belly is said to not be biologically related to him! How would ordinary people know how many children our Premier has, and who is born to the main wife of the house? Even the ones who knew, who would dare to say anything knowing the family’s influence? When the time comes, we will really give up young master Guodong and help the illegitimate daughter. As long as the young lady has the ability, who would dare to disobey the Premier will?”

“No...No...” The little maid pointed forward in fear.

The senior maid turned over and her face turned pale immediately.

“Young master...I...I am just...”

Without waiting for the maid’s explanation, he turned away and walked toward Ning Guangyao’s study.

Ning Guangyao straightened his back and was sitting on his office chair, skimming through the documents in his hand, reviewing them with high efficiency.

A man’s magnetic voice came from outside the study.

“Father, I have something to talk to you about.”

After the door was pushed open, Ning Guodong walked in heroically in a suit, steadily and arrogantly.

But such a young man who seemed to be reborn and more confident than before could not let Ning Guangyao stretch his brows.

“What’s the matter, I am very busy,” Ning Guangyao said impatiently.

Ning Guodong said indifferently, “Father, I went to meet a few former colleagues and friends today, only to know that tomorrow is the full moon banquet for the children of the Li family. Since you are busy with official duties, I shall attend on behalf of the Ning family.”

“Slam!!”

Ning Guangyao slammed the table angrily and reprimanded, “Who allowed you to meet your bastard friends!? How many times have I told you!? You are not allowed to go out without my permission!!”

“Father, what’s the big deal about me meeting a few friends?” Ning Guodong said innocently.

“Hmmp! If those friends of yours ask you where you have been, will you tell them the same excuse you gave me, that you’ve lost your memory!? You are not willing to tell me truthfully what actually happened to you and what you have been doing! How did you recover? Do you think that I am so stupid to be deceived by you!?”

Ning Guodong said sternly, “Father, I didn’t lie to you. Believe it or not, I really lost my memory, that’s what it is. I am just wondering why, as a son that has miraculously recovered from his cripple body, you as my father are unhappy to see it.”

“Don’t break the subject! If you really think of me as your own father, tell me the real purpose of your return this time, who are you fooling around with!? I obviously sent a bodyguard to look at you, how did you have the ability to get out of their sight!? You let all the people in Beijing notice your return, for the sake of wanting me to restore your position right? Do you think I will do as you wish? Listen, you shall stay at home until you clarify things with me! I will let the two uncles Ning Xin and Ning De look at you and we shall see how you are supposed to go out again!

Ning Guodong frowned, “Since my father is so unwilling to trust me, then I have nothing to say... As for tomorrow, the Li family’s banquet...”

“You don’t have to worry about it, I will send the gift to the Li family in person. You are not in the place to lead the family yet. You couldn’t do it before so don’t think about it now, as for in the future, it might not be you either! Get out!!”

Ning Guodong couldn’t help clenching his fists but let go quickly. He silently lowered his head and walked out of the study.

It was at that moment, Ning Xin and Ning De happened to enter from the outside. The two looked at Ning Guodong carefully while passing by.

But he seemed to not feel anything and left after nodding politely.

When Ning Guangyao saw Ning Xin and Ning De, his face turned bright again, and his smile appeared authentic, “The two elders, you’ve probably heard what happened just now. Could I ask a favor from you both to take care of the evildoer.”

“Rest assured, we will pay attention to that,” Ning Xin said casually “You are doing a good job. Ning Guodong is already very weird now. Before we figure out what happened, he cannot be trained as a successor for the time being. Letting him out will only affect our established plan.”

Ning Guangyao nodded in agreement, and then said, “I received news that Yang Chen and Ruoxi have returned to Yang’s Residence from Zhonghai. It is estimated that they will be in Beijing around the New Year’s Eve, but I think that I should visit earlier to make a grander appearance. So I am thinking of going over to visit Ruoxi and I wonder if the two elders can accompany Guangyao? After all, Yang Chen is moody.”

“Yes of course, this is also why we are here. Lin Ruoxi is our first target right now, you must change her surname to ‘Ning’ as quickly as possible. You have worked hard previously, don’t let it go at such a critical moment,” Ning De reminded.

Ning Guangyao showed a confident smile, “Rest assured, Guangyao is confident. Yang Chen will not see the Ning family as an enemy anymore within this year.”

The cheerful laugh of the three men came from the study.

Outside the study, Ning Guodong who was walking along the corridor alone could still hear their conversation in the study despite being meters away.

After a while, his eyes were fierce and full of hatred.

“Ning Guangyao, you gave up your chance of survival. Since you are ruthless, then don’t blame your son for being cruel,” Ning Guodong showed an eerie smile.

Chapter 1263 Pink Lady

Late at night in Beijing’s most prosperous commercial entertainment and leisure area, the large intertwined bright lights were lit, and although it’s near midnight, the morning dew of the day here has just begun.

The colourful light flashing like countless heartbeats in the crowd, teasing the nerves of the passersby.

However, the people who could afford to spend in these luxurious clubs and lounges were obviously not the ones who watched the lights with the cold breeze outside.

Among them, a high-end entertainment club called 'Pink Lady' was located in a prime location at the corner of a pedestrian street. The facade didn't seem to be big, but the four strong bodyguards at the door supported the image of the club despite the chilly weather.

And those who entered and exited from the underground parking garage of the side club were mostly veteran European sports cars. This grade had already made some people who think that they were gold-collars feel daunted.

At this moment, a dancing melody played and seemed to make the entire cabin in Pink Lady tremble.

In the dim cabin, under the lights and fluorescence, on the rose-coloured leather sofa, several figures had been entangled.

Shirtless upper body, a young man wearing only a pair of loose-fitting boxer trousers, beside him was a young girl with long wavy hair. She had moist eyes, red lips and white teeth, and a fragrant wine scent. Her body was stuck to the man tightly like a snake.

Looking down carefully, you would realize that the girl had nothing on her lower body, except an open white blouse on the upper body alongside her snowballs.

A pair of unrestrained peaks squeezed against the man's arm, rubbing gently, as if they could swallow the arm anytime.

"Master Guo, are you not in a good mood today? Don't you like Shi Shi anymore?" The girl asked meticulously.

She worked hard to please him for a long time and her lower body was already wet for a long time, but this man didn't look like he wanted to start anything.

The man held the red wine in one hand and took a sip, glanced at the little beauty that had been teasing him for some time.

With her appearance and figure, she would go viral on the internet and could even become the dream of many poor boys.

But in the eyes of a veteran like him, such a woman didn't have much attraction anymore.

They were all the same, taking advantage of their young age and selling their bodies for money.

"Hehe, Shi Shi, seems like you won't be able to get the money to buy another BIRKIN bag. This man saw a super beauty today and has lost interest in a small beauty like you."

A flathead young man with a cigar in his mouth laughed evilly on the other side.

He himself was having fun, his legs were wide open, letting a woman with reddish purple hair scream on him.

The woman was sweating as her plump buttocks were constantly moving up and down, trying to squeeze out the man's storage.

However the massive amount of blue pills on the table in front had given her quite some trouble as there was no way to make the man soft in such a short time.

However, thinking of the “tips” from these young masters each time which could go up to more than ten thousand, she couldn’t help but twist her waist harder, hoping to get chosen again next time.

A trace of disdain flashed through Shi Shi’s eyes, “Hmmp, what even? Who took away the soul of Young Master Guo? Why don’t you tell me young master, Shi Shi doesn’t buy it.”

Guo Yue glanced at her contemptuously, “Ms. Zhang Wanshi, did you really graduate as a MBA holder from the Department of Finance and Economics of Beijing University?”

Shi Shi raised her head proudly, “Of course, I have my graduation certificate with me. I even got a full scholarship during university, otherwise how would I be qualified to serve you all masters?”

“How come your knowledge seems to be at the same level as a village woman,” Guo Yue said mockingly.

A strand of sorrow flashed through her eyes but she immediately resisted it and turned into an annoyed voice, “How annoying, how is Shishi a village girl? Is there a village girl as beautiful as me?”

“Except for your big eyes and breasts, your brain is just like the size of a walnut,” Guo Yue sighed.

Shi Shi was so mad that her face turned red and pale back and forth, but she knew that she couldn’t provoke these masters here and could only clench her teeth and swallow it back down. She pretended to be angry and whimpered gently.

“Young master Guo is bullying me, Shi Shi won’t talk to you again!”

That being said, the woman ran out of the room without forgetting to close the door despite being naked down there.

Another curly-haired young man who was french kissing the beauty in his arms, said curiously, “Hey Guo Yue, is your sister-in-law Lin Ruoxi really that good looking as she is rumoured to be? I heard from a buddy of mine who worked as an official in Zhonghai that she seldom appears in front of the public. He only managed to meet her once and she’s a cold beauty. Sadly, I never get the chance to meet her.”

“So what if you saw her? She’s the woman of the eldest young master of the yang family. I heard that she has a character that even the overlord from the Li family is obedient to. Wouldn’t you get your head crushed if you touch her?” The flathead guy chuckled.

Guo Yue glared at his two friends in disgust, “Touch your own women, is my sister-in-law someone to be thought of by you two male dogs who are in heat all year round? Did you all really think I would do nothing but women? Do you all know what you are relying on to use the best cabin and the best women here with me?”

The two then smiled in embarrassment, the flat head said, “Of course we are relying on you, Young Master Guo Yue.”

“Bullshit! It’s because my father has a sister who married into the Yang family! It’s because of the tributes that our Guo family gives every year, and the old man of the Yang family who is willing to accept them,” Guo Yue cursed.

“Yes yes yes, Young Master Guo is right. We are relying on the Yang family,”

Guo Yue took a sip of red wine and grinned, “You all should know, the old man of the Yang family won’t have many years left to live. We can still be under his cover when he is awake, but if he is completely finished, the Yang family will be in Yang Chen’s hands. But now, my cousin’s impression of me is not very good. Think about it, if the Yang family ignores us in the future, be it me or you group of idiots who are following me, let alone those people who are willing to respect us, those enemies of ours out there won’t let us go.”

“Huh? Why is that so?” The flat head wondered, “Did you guys get into a conflict?”

“Shut up!” Guo Yue cursed, “I went over to send a gift today! I’ve stared at that woman for a few more seconds and Yang Chen looked so annoyed at me! What am I supposed to do about it? Fortunately, I thought fast and managed to suppress things.”

The curly-haired man asked, “Did they accept it? If they did it means everything’s fine.”

Guo Yue smiled eerily, “They did accept it. That red limited edition 599 did please my sister-in-law.”

The two let out a sigh of relief and smiled, “That’s good, that means they didn’t bother much about it.”

“What do you know, I am not done yet,” Guo Yue said with a gloomy expression, “Although they accepted it, my sister-in-law followed what my cousin brother said and gave me another car in return. Guess what car did she send me earlier this evening?”

“What is it?”

“ONE-77”

“Huh!?!?”

Both of them exclaimed.

“ONE-77 of Aston Martin? That car is 40 million! This...the Ferrari costs only 4 million right?” The curly haired man exclaimed.

“Hmm, but not surprised though. The amount of assets she has as the owner of Yulei can reach hundreds of billions, she is much richer than us combined.”

Guo Yue sneered and said, “Now you understand? They are setting a boundary between our relationship, we neither have the rights nor the money, they might not even want us as their servants.”

The atmosphere dropped down to a cold state, even the two girls who were trying their best to please the men noticed the change.

The girl with reddish purple hair even realized the flat head man under her had withered and weakened.

“Not really, how can you all talk about being servants when you are a family?”

It was at that moment, a chuckling voice came into the cabin. A tough man wearing a shirt, revealing his chest muscles, walked in lazily.

He was holding a plump mature beauty in his arms. The woman was wearing a black, deep-neck dress, her round snow peaks that were gushing out, were as if it could burst anytime. Her seductive face was gleaming, bringing out infinite crimson reverie.

“Brother Lie, Sister Luo?”

Chapter 1264

Informal Woman

Guo Yue immediately showed a pleasing face after seeing the pair. He stood up with a smile, put down his glass and poured them some wine.

Two of his friends also pushed away the women on them and stood up with a welcoming smile.

“Just sit, relax since we are here to have fun,” Yang Lie waved his hand to ask them to sit.

The milf who was being called Sister Luo asked with a smile, “How are you young masters getting along? Do tell your sister if there are any problems.”

“Hehe, these girls are good looking, but Sister Luo is next level in terms of aura,” Guo Yue didn’t pay much respect to this beautiful woman and kept on glancing at her from top to toe, his greedy expression was revealed completely.

Sister Luo smiled delicately and walked up. She took over Guo Yue’s wine glass with one hand and hugged his head with another then sat down gradually.

Bending her head slightly, she gently opened her lips and transferred the liquid in her mouth into his mouth.

The coquettishness of this scene made the curly hair and flat head hardened again, gulping, obviously all fantasizing that they were Guo Yue at this moment.

“Oh... Young Master Guo does know how to please your sister, take that as a reward,” Sister Luo smiled. She then wiped off the wine residue from his lips with her finger and sucked it with her mouth.

Although Guo Yue felt like he was on cloud nine, he still didn’t forget about Yang Lie and stood up to ask, “Brother Lie, what did you mean just now?”

Yang Lie was already sitting on the sofa, hooking his finger at Sister Luo. She then leaned on his body obediently and gently kissed his cheek.

“Aren’t you worried that you won’t be able to survive in Beijing if my brother takes the lead?”

Guo Yue smiled, “Brother Lie, since you are mentioning this, can it be...”

“How should I say this...you are also my cousin, and our friendship in terms of entertainment purposes are also strong, how can I see you being disliked by my brother?” Yang Lie gently pulled open Sister Luo’s deep collar with one hand, and squeezed out a pink and fair ball inside, like pinching a toy, squeezing out various shapes.

Guo Yue looked at it with greedy eyes, but he tried his best to think about what Yang Lie meant in his head. After a while, he laughed and said, “Brother Lie, to be honest, I think you are the solid roots of the family. Although the eldest cousin is a few years older, he is really unfamiliar with our Beijing circle and has not formally entered the army. I still feel that the old Marshal lacks a little consideration.”

Yang Lie smiled and said with unpredictable eyes, “A family is not made up of only one person. If the most important family members don’t support the family, then it will definitely not be possible. You always do things well, and you know, my dad has always been on my side, now my mom is still being neutral. Your family is very important in influencing my mother’s decision, this... you should understand.”

“Understood! Understood!!!” Guo Yue seemed to be delighted with the surprise, “Brother Lie, don’t worry about that, my parents are supporting you. As for my aunt, my dad will definitely speak for you!”

Yang Lie waved his hand. “Don’t be so anxious, I just want you to feel at ease and let you know that you don’t have to wrong yourself, after all...I am still here, right?”

“Haha, that’s true,” Guo Yue seemed to have taken a reassurance pill, “Brother Lie is right. I will definitely follow in the footsteps of Brother Lie more closely. And I was saying that you’ve become more masculine ever since your return. You even manage to get someone as perfect as Sister Luo, how amazing!”

Yang Lie raised his head and laughed. Although he was laughing, it made Guo Yue and the rest felt strange.

Suddenly, Yang Lie stretched out his hand and pushed, and the beautiful woman in her arms Luo Jie, like a toy, was pushed on Guo Yue, knocking Guo Yue over to the opposite sofa.

“Since you think this bitch is the best, I have always been generous and will not treat my brothers badly. You, just go, I will watch,” Yang Lie smiled gloomily.

Sister Luo didn’t have even the slightest dissatisfaction despite being described this way. Instead, she snorted gently, “Hmmp, you don’t have to throw me away for me to play with these few young masters. I am more than willing to...”

That being said, she pressed her fiery lips onto Guo Yue’s chest, and her silky tongue traversed along his chest line.

In just a moment, she tore off his boxer briefs, took out the shaft inside, started spinning with the tip of her tongue and slowly enjoyed it.

Since it wasn’t his first time getting into contact with such a stunner, he didn’t hold himself back and immediately entered the state. Comfortably grabbing her head with both hands, he continued shaking his waist hard.

The flat-head and curly haired man were not interested in the women around them and went up separately, ripping off the black dress on Sister Luo.

She had nothing on down there, after lifting up her slit dress, her beautifully rounded and plump buttocks were revealed. The moist gap seemed to be full of infinite temptation.

The three of them were young men in their twenties and were even more irresistible against such a woman like her. Soon, they started attacking her city from front and back.

Sister Luo didn't refuse anyone as well. She suppressed Guo Yue under her and let his clone enter her body. At the same time, she welcomed the curly-haired guy into her body from the back...

"Owh..."

The woman groaned comfortably and made the nerves of the three men excited to the max.

The flat-headed man had nowhere to enter, so he simply straddled Guo Yue's head, faced Sister Luo's cherry lips and attacked her violently. He even knocked a few pills to avoid being the weakest.

In Yang Lie's eyes, the glamorous scenes of three men and one woman were ordinary, watching silently, but there was no evil in his eyes, as if he was just looking at the scene of the animal world.

Half an hour later, the three men had already been drained. The extravagance of the nightclubs all year long made them vain, if it were not for the drugs, they wouldn't be able to support themselves anymore.

Sister Luo was also a master in this. After finishing the three young men, she tossed her messy long hair, licked off the stickiness by her lips and swallowed it, then went back to Yang Lie with a charming smile.

"How useless, how are they even tired already, sleeping like dead pigs."

"You've been playing a lot for the past few days huh, seeing that you are more proficient with three people," Yang Lie asked with a wicked smile while holding Sister Luo's chin.

"Who asked you to not visit me more often? Those little guys here are so nasty that they even drool looking at me, I really doubt if they have an Oedipus complex. If I don't accompany them, how can my business be good?"

One of her hands was still walking between his legs, "They are too weak. These rich kids are all a group of soft-footed shrimps, yesterday I was with seven people but them combined are not even better than you alone."

Yang Lie sneered, "You bitch, are getting more and more shameless. You are already in your fifties, don't think that you are really rejuvenating after I helped you get a better face. It's okay to play, the more you act like the boss, the lower the chances that you get exposed. However, don't forget about the things that I've asked you to do."

Luo Cuishan winked and said, "Don't worry, nothing will go wrong, I've made most of the arrangements... Also, Guodong has sent in some news, Ning Guangyao is not planning to give him another chance. He has planned to let that bitch Lin Ruoxi return to the Ning family."

"Really..." Yang Lie squinted his eyes, "If that's the case then, Ning Guangyao is pretty much useless."

“Shall we kill him? Or take over his place? Although there’s Ning Xin and Ning De by his side, with your current skill and capabilities, killing them should be easy?” Luo Cuishan said in excitement.

Yang Lie snorted lightly, “I have my plans, just do as I say.”

“Jeez, I’ve always been obedient, can’t you just let me know things earlier for once?” Luo Cuishan ranted in a gloomy voice.

Yang Lie glanced at her once and suddenly stood up then carried her on his shoulder!

“Oh,” she smiled, “What are you doing? Changing rooms? Isn’t it the same to do it anywhere...”

“Go clean up yourself, or I’ll think that you are dirty.”

Ning Guangyao, who was dressed in a thick black coat and a gray scarf, got out of the car, followed by Ning Xin and Ning De.

When the guard on duty realized that it was the Premier, he was taken aback and then only saluted, “Premier, the Marshal has taken a rest.”

Ning Guangyao politely smiled, “I am not here to see Old Marshal Yang. Can you inform your young lady that Ning Guangyao wishes to see her?”

Chapter 1265 Compensation

The few guards present were all confused as they couldn’t understand why Premier Ning wanted to see Lin Ruoxi.

Either way, he was still considered a VIP. He was being polite but it didn’t necessarily mean he was asking for their permission, so they immediately went in and notified them and welcomed Ning Guangyao and the rest inside.

Ning Xin and Ning De were Soul Forming Stage cultivators, before they entered the house, Yang Chen who was about to hop in the bed could already sense their presence.

Lin Ruoxi was reading through the information sent by her subordinates on her tablet. It wasn’t about work, instead, it was the information about the main characters in the rich families of Beijing.

In fact, she would be required to socialize with many Beijing families in the Li family’s full moon banquet tomorrow so she had to do some last minute homework and memorize some of these important figures to prevent embarrassing herself.

Seeing the woman wearing her cotton pajamas in bed and trying hard to memorize those information, Yang Chen couldn’t help but chuckle.

“Honey, how much have you remembered?” He approached her ears and asked.

Lin Ruoxi pushed his head away with one hand and said without moving her head, “Leave me alone, I ain’t have time for you today, I am not even done yet.”

“Mhmm...” Lin Ruoxi didn’t respond much.

“I said, Ning Guangyao is here,” Yang Chen then repeated himself word by word.

The tablet in Lin Ruoxi’s hand slipped off, she turned over in a daze and looked at him with her watery eyes.

After a moment of silence, the sound of the servant came from outside the room.

Yang Chen asked the servant to leave first then started wearing his clothes. As he was wearing, he realized Lin Ruoxi was still in a daze.

“I... Should I go out?”

“Why are you asking me, shouldn’t you decide yourself?” He said.

She seemed perturbed, “If you don’t want me to meet him then I won’t go out.”

Yang Chen paused, chuckled and said with a serious face, “Lin Ruoxi, he is your biological father, no matter what I think of him, his position will never change. You used to tell me that blood relationships are impossible to sever when you asked me to meet my mother. I know how important this is to you. No matter what he did, I’ll not stop you from meeting him, I’ll only try my best to not let you get hurt, that’s all.”

Lin Ruoxi looked embarrassed and quickly got up to change.

When they walked out to the living room, Ning Guangyao was already standing in the middle of the area walking back and forth. He seemed a bit nervous, fearing that Lin Ruoxi wouldn’t be willing to meet him.

It was already midnight, some of the servants also felt sad seeing his tired face.

It was obvious that this Premier purposely rushed over to Yang’s residence after the entire night of work.

“Oh Ruoxi, haha, you’re finally willing to meet father, I was afraid that you wouldn’t want to see me.”

The servant who was pouring them tea nearly dropped the kettle on the floor after Ning Guangyao spoke.

Many of the servants and guards in the living room heard the statement.

Father?

Did Premier Ning call himself 'father'?

All of the servants looked at Lin Ruoxi in shock, they had always thought their young lady was just an elite in the business world. However, a business woman couldn't really represent a rich and well known family like the Yang family.

But now, the servants then only realized, there was still such a shocking hidden relationship!

However, although this layer of relationship was shocking, it wasn't enough to let the servants lose control. After all, there are plenty of illegitimate children within these rich families these days unlike the early days.

Yang Chen squinted, Ning Guangyao was obviously not covering up his father and daughter relationship with Lin Ruoxi, but no one knew what thoughts he had in the back of his mind.

Lin Ruoxi was also uneasy, but at that moment her heart softened when she saw the caring and joy on Ning Guangyao's face, in addition to him rushing over here late at night tirelessly.

As if being embraced with warmth, she was touched and fulfilled at the same time.

Ning Guang Yao walked upfront wanting to golf Lin Ruoxi's hand, but took it back and smiled embarrassingly, "My apologies Ruoxi, father has been busy these two days and couldn't make it to visit you earlier. Did we disturb your resting time?"

Lin Ruoxi started blushing after being stared at by the people around her, "Yeah...you didn't."

"Oh, that's good," Ning Guangyao kept on glancing up and down at his daughter, as if he couldn't look enough. He then turned to Yang Chen with a smile, "Yang Chen, thank you for not stopping my daughter to meet me."

Yang Chen smiled evilly, "Why will I stop her? Unless you are planning to do something bad?"

Ning Guangyao laughed, "Don't joke around with me, it's just that I am getting older and I miss my daughter more. I didn't have the opportunity to see her more in the past, now I hope to see her everyday."

"No can do, she's married to me and is mine now," Yang Chen said straightforwardly.

Ning Guangyao seemed to look satisfied, "I am very happy to see you both being so close and loving. Right, I heard that you two adopted a little girl named Lanlan and she had been included in the Yang family book, which means she's also my official granddaughter. Where is Lanlan, can her grandfather see her?"

"You've done a good investigation huh," Yang Chen pursed his lips.

"This isn't an investigation, I've been paying attention to her growth since young, of course I will know about such a huge event. I am just trying to show her some care, I hope you won't misunderstand me," Ning Guangyao said gently.

Lin Ruoxi pulled Yang Chen's hand indicating that it was fine then said to Ning Guangyao, "Lanlan is sleeping with her great grandfather tonight, the elderly sleep early so let's forget about meeting her tonight."

Ning Guangyao then realized, "Since she is with Old Mr Yang then I shall not disturb further. I'll leave my gifts here and you can pass it to my granddaughter tomorrow on behalf of me."

That being said, he let his assistants bring up two boxes, one big and the other small one.

"This red box is some new clothes I bought for Lanlan to wear during Chinese New Year, I know you all don't need it but it's a small idea from me since I couldn't think of anything else to give. The small yellow box here are two layers of glutinous rice balls made by the pastry chefs from the State Banquet Hotel as per request, it's for you Ruoxi."

Lin Ruoxi never expected this father who she hadn't met many times and the one who hurt her for so many years would send her her favorite glutinous rice balls.

Not just the woman, even Yang Chen was impressed. The gift sent by Ning Guangyao was so precise and 'on point'!

Lin Ruoxi's eyes started to tear up slightly, looking at the glutinous rice ball in her hands, she felt shy at the same time filled with sweetness.

He was really paying attention to her growth, or else he wouldn't know what she liked to eat.

Such a thought made the woman unable to control her tear ducts.

Ning Guangyao was quite emotional, "Although I'll still get to see you both tomorrow in the Li's family banquet, but I still wanted to come over tonight. I wanted to invite you both to come over to the Ning family with Lanlan after Chinese New Year's eve. I don't want to wait anymore, I want to let everyone in Beijing know that I, Ning Guangyao, have a daughter as soon as possible...is it okay?"

"Even if we don't go to the Ning family, you will still disperse the news," Yang Chen laughed.

Ning Guangyao didn't deny and said casually, "I've made a lot of mistakes in the past, but I hope to compensate as much as I can now. I believe Ruoxi will understand me."

Yang Chen looked at his lover beside him, she was already stunned with teary eyes. He couldn't help but frown slightly, this family affection strategy had completely caused the woman to be in shock!

Chapter 1266

Arranged Marriage

Ning Guangyao seemed to have recognized this issue and delayed no further. He showed a smile and glanced at Lin Ruoxi a few times, then left with Ning Xin and Ning De.

Yang Chen knew that it's useless to say anything, judging by Lin Ruoxi's expression. Perhaps family affection would forever be her weakness.

Just like the case with Xue Minghe, no matter what he did and how he hurt her, the woman would still forgive him as time passes.

Lin Ruoxi would definitely not be able to sleep tonight, but fortunately she wouldn't be affected by lack of sleep anymore, so it would be fine to attend the banquet the next day.

Early morning during breakfast, Yang Gongming got to know from the servants about Ning Guangyao's visit yesterday night. He wasn't too surprised, instead, it was Yang Pojun and Guo Xuehua who went into deep thoughts.

"Father, Premier Ning is literally showing that he wants Ruoxi to return to the Ning family," Yang Pojun frowned.

Yang Gongming looked at Lanlan chomping down her meat buns happily and said, "It's fine, not like it's something meant to be hidden from the public."

"Well true but didn't Ning Guodong return to the Ning family recently? It's suspicious for him to do this now," Yang Pojun said worriedly.

Guo Xuehua said, "Isn't it better, this proves that there isn't any problem."

Yang Gongming turned over and looked at Lin Ruoxi with a smile, "Child, are you willing to go back to the Ning family?"

Lin Ruoxi had been anxious the entire time. Listening to the old man asking her, she kept quiet for a moment and shook her head slightly, "I don't know, I am still not used to it."

"Haha, no matter what decision you make, just remember that Premier Ning is your biological father. But, you are also a wife and a mother now, as the daughter-in-law of the Yang family, you have more than one family, do you understand?" Yang Gongming said.

Lin Ruoxi took a glance at her daughter who was focused on her breakfast and nodded, "Yeah, I understand."

After breakfast, Yang Chen dismissed the driver and drove the three of them himself to Li's Residence.

He had quite a good relationship with Li Dun so he didn't want to arrive late.

Lanlan was wearing her new pink outfit and was in a good mood. Halfway through their journey, the little one said, "Daddy, are we going to the zoo to see elephants today?"

Yang Chen slapped his forehead, oh my, I nearly forgot about my promise to bring her see elephants when we are in Beijing.

Lin Ruoxi touched her daughter's head, "My dear Lanlan, we are going to Uncle Li's house today, we shall go see elephants next time."

Lanlan pouted her lips, "Didn't you say we will go see elephants in Beijing, daddy and mummy is lying to me again."

"How are we lying!? We will definitely bring you there, just behave for now," Lin Ruoxi showed a solemn expression and turned into a strict mother again.

Lanlan's mouth flattened, as if being wronged heavily.

Yang Chen looked into the rear mirror, seeing the chubby girl who was tearing up and said, "Alright, daddy will bring you to the zoo after lunch, daddy will not lie to Lanlan."

"Really!?" Lanlan's mood immediately brightened.

"No," Lin Ruoxi objected, "We aren't simply going there for nothing today. It's the full moon banquet for the first child of the Li family and they've announced a full day event. We are also family friends with them, how can we just leave after lunch?"

"Li Dun is also not a stubborn donkey, I can just tell him," Yang Chen shrugged, "Just give a more generous angpau to show our sincerity."

Lin Ruoxi still felt a bit unsure, "We can go to the zoo anytime, why must we go today, we can't pamper the child like this."

Yang Chen shook his head and said, "This time is because we've lost the bet to Lanlan. Since we said that we would bring her to the zoo when we come to Beijing, we mustn't break our promise. Parents shall not lie to the kids, at least my daughter should be someone who keeps her promise. Lanlan is not stupid, she knows it all."

Lin Ruoxi was left speechless, she didn't expect him to say such a thing. Looking at the pitiful little child, even though she knew that it was just an act, she still felt empathetic towards her.

"I am so done with you two father and daughter, both of you love challenging my limits. If this goes on, I shall turn into an old auntie before I even reach 30 years old," Lin Ruoxi pretended to be angry and sighed.

Yang Chen turned over and blinked with an ambiguous smile, "How so? I will moisturize you every night if you need it, my dear."

"Shoo! Shameless... What are you saying in front of the child!?" Lin Ruoxi was blushing and was afraid that Lanlan would understand what he meant so she quickly looked at her daughter.

Lanlan obviously wouldn't know what he meant by moisturizing, she only knew she won victory and hopped to the front seat, hugging Yang Chen's neck and laughed sweetly.

Yang Chen smiled bitterly in his heart seeing the chubby little girl fooling around in front of him. If it wasn't for him being able to sense the road conditions while driving, normal fathers would go into a car crash in this kind of conditions!

After reaching Li's residence, there were guards regulating the traffic and security outside in an orderly manner.

Most of the guests were well known figures that came from Beijing and the other states, the waiters and servants were also trained at the national level, and were really confident towards their work.

Li Yunpeng and his son Li Dun were already welcoming the guests at the entrance. Although most of their conversations were some formal greetings and regards, it's an inevitable etiquette.

Yang Chen's appearance with his wife and daughter immediately caught the crowd's attention.

Most of the people were surprised that the Yang family only sent Yang Chen and his family over. This was a message indicating Yang Gongming had already decided the future of the Yang family.

The Li family's father and son weren't surprised and walked towards Yang Chen with a smile after excusing themselves from the other guests.

"Brother Yang, how disappointing. You weren't there when I called you and now you're here for my son's full moon banquet, why didn't you send me a few cars of milk powder money?" Li Dun said in excitement.

"Why don't you rob it from me then, sheesh."

Yang Chen took the angpau from Lin Ruoxi and gave it to Li Dun, "That's all I have, as a person who only treats people for Ramen but nothing else, be grateful that I am giving you something now."

Li Dun grinned and stuffed the angpau into his pocket, "The old man confiscated all my gift money, I shall take this as my personal gift and I'll keep it to myself."

Li Yun Peng was used to his son's shameless attitude, he shook his head with a smile and asked while looking at the chubby girl in Lin Ruoxi's arms, "Yang Chen, is this your daughter?"

Without Yang Chen answering, Lanlan greeted him sweetly, "Grandfather Li!"

Li Yunpeng was stunned for a moment and immediately laughed, "Such a good child, do come over more often to our house when you are in Beijing next time."

"Brother Yang, your daughter is quite good looking, why don't we plan her marriage with my son in the future," Li Dun's eyes brightened.

Lin Ruoxi who was carrying her daughter subconsciously tightened her arms and showed the feeling of panic through her eyes. If it was someone else saying it, she wouldn't bother much, but Li Dun might actually have these kinds of crazy thoughts.

A kindergarten girl to have a planned marriage with a baby boy? How horrible it is to even think about it!

Yang Chen was so tempted to open up Li Dun's brain shell and see what his brain was made out of and said without hesitating, "Go away! My daughter ain't marrying anyone!"

Li Dun chuckled, "No rush, no rush, girls won't stay when they grow up"

Seeing the guy's triumphant expression, Yang Chen suddenly had a thought of going back home and getting a son.

It was at that moment, Tang Wan who was carrying a fat kid in her arms walked over to them. The woman who was wearing a Burgundy Crew Neck Velvet Skirt came with a smile.

It's been awhile since Yang Chen last met Tang Wan, but it was normal for her to come back to Beijing as her sister Tang Xin was giving birth.

Tang Wan secretly winked at Yang Chen, then touched Lanlan's cheeks, "Lanlan, do you miss auntie?"

Lanlan immediately nodded with a sweet smile, she spent quite a lot of time with Tang Wan in Zhonghai, obviously she got plenty of benefits.

Lin Ruoxi frowned slightly but was helpless either way. Who told this girl to be so easily compromised, food itself could bribe her.

"Why are you all standing at the door? Old Li is asking you all to enter, it's time for the banquet to start," Tang Wan said with a smile while patting her nephew's little buttocks.

Perhaps the little guy was hungry, he twisted his little body and pushed his head against Tang Wan's soft yet firm chest and compressed it continuously, wanting to drink milk.

Tang Wan immediately blushed and carried the child further away but the pool of drool on her chest was unable to be covered up, given that her slim fit outfit was already eye-catching enough.

Chapter 1267

Perfect Match

"Naughty boy, trying to take advantage of your aunt huh," Tang Wan pretended to be angry.

"Haha, sister, your body shape is too amazing. My son probably thinks that you have milk there as well," Li Dun also had a loose mouth which made her tempted to seal his mouth with duct tape.

But his words weren't wrong, Tang Wan's appearance got prettier due to cultivation and her body was still hot and curvy, so it could cause the baby to misunderstand.

The group talked and joked as they entered the inner hall of the Li's Residence. Although there were many guests, because it was a full moon banquet, according to family traditions, it was still held in the Li's Residence. However, the ones who could enter the inner hall were figures with well-known status in the circle.

Tang Xin looked more mature compared to her previous young look. Her face was more round and her body shape was slightly off as she had just given birth, but her complexion was quite good, indicating that she was having a nice life in the Li family.

Taking over her hungry son from her sister Tang Wan, she got up and went to the backyard to breastfeed regardless of having her meal or not.

Li Dun wanted to follow and take a look but got pulled back by Li Moshen immediately.

The atmosphere was extremely joyful, although most of the guests here came with their purpose, they still looked as if they were here to celebrate the little boy's birthday.

Right before the banquet started, the guest that everyone had been waiting for was finally here.

Ning Guangyao personally attended the event followed by a few bodyguards. He greeted Li Moshen from afar and spoke to a few other families which made him seem approachable.

When everyone was expecting that Ning Guangyao was going to speak a few more words with Li Moshen, he didn't say much and went to Lin Ruoxi instead.

Lin Ruoxi was carrying Lanlan all the way and slightly lowered her sight. Seeing him coming over, she was more nervous and bit her lips.

"This is Lanlan right," Ning Guangyao's sight was locked on the chubby little girl. He showed a loving face, reached out both his hands and pleaded, "Ruoxi, can father hold her for a moment?"

Ning Guangyao's action became the spotlight of the event and his words went into the ears of most of the guests as well.

At that point, many of them gasped in shock! Even Father Li and his son showed a suspicious face.

Although the Li family managed the Security Bureau and knew who's the biological father of Lin Ruoxi, they didn't expect him to reveal their relationship in such a way.

Lanlan looked at Ning Guangyao with her big, round eyes in a daze, as if she didn't understand how this uncle knew her.

Lin Ruoxi kept quiet for quite some time and still passed Lanlan into Ning Guangyao's arms.

"Oh," Ning Guangyao carried Lanlan and shook twice, "She's kinda heavy but very obedient and is not afraid of strangers."

Lanlan tilted her head and asked curiously, "Uncle, what is your name?"

"I am not uncle, I am your mother's father, which is your grandfather," Ning Guangyao said lovingly.

The atmosphere seemed to solidify at this moment, no one expected to hear such shocking insights while attending a full moon banquet!

Seeing none of the guests speaking up, Li Moshen squinted his eyes and chuckled, "Premier Ning, congratulations on your reunion with your daughter and granddaughter. But today is my great grandson's full moon banquet, try not to snatch our spotlight haha."

That being said by the patriarch of the Li Family, in a way gave the people present a hint.

Right, what's wrong with being an illegitimate daughter? She's the daughter-in-law of the Yang family, abiding to Premier Ning's wishes and took care of the Yang family's image, it did no harm.

Out of nowhere, many guests came up to congratulate them and started complimenting the beauty of the mother and daughter, the flattering words channeled around them non-stop.

Lin Ruoxi didn't bother to listen to those cheesy flattery words, she couldn't adapt to the situation after her identity was publicized by Ning Guangyao.

Whatever it was, the important guests had already arrived and the Full Moon Banquet of the Li family had officially started.

Tang Xin came back and sat down after feeding her son. She didn't dare to forget about Yang Chen's saviour in her past and solemnly toasted him a glass of wine.

Ning Guangyao on the other hand kept on giving Lanlan food, he seemed to be liking this granddaughter a lot although it's their first time meeting each other.

This scene made Lin Ruoxi look even more complicated as she glanced at her biological father.

After three rounds of wine toasting, it was the climax of the event but suddenly, a slamming sound came from a few tables away!

"What a jerk! I dare you to say that again!!"

A manly voice growled angrily.

This uproar immediately caught everyone's attention. A touch of sorrow was shown in Li Moshen's eyes, this was his Li Family's Full Moon Banquet, someone causing a scene was as if bringing shit to his face.

"I shall take a look," The elderly got up and said to the guests, "Excuse me everyone."

Yang Chen and the group also stood up and he kept on thinking that the voice sounded familiar.

As they reached the table, he noticed the cousin brother that he only recognized yesterday, Guo Yue, who was grabbing the collar of a man dressed in a printed casual suit. The man had curly hair and a moustache which made him look slightly foreign.

Both of them were having red faces at that moment, either caused by drinking or anger.

"Cousin brother, you are here? This dude was bad mouthing about you and my sister-in-law!" Guo Yue shouted angrily.

Yang Chen and Lin Ruoxi looked at each other, they had no idea who this curly hair guy was, not to mention how did all these happen.

Li Yunpeng took a few glances at Guo Yue and said, "You are Guo Yue from the Guo family right, let go of him first."

"Did you hear that you idiot, hands off!" The curly hair man pushed Guo Yue to the ground.

Guo Yue immediately stood up angrily and wanted to jump on him but got blocked by the guards.

"You are Liang Zhen from the Liang Family right, why did you and Guo Yue get into a conflict?" Li Yunpeng recognized him immediately.

Liang Zhen said in disdain, "I only mentioned a few facts and he developed the thought of being a slave and wanted to flatter them, simple as that."

The guests on the same table showed weird expressions, as if they didn't hear what Liang Zhen said.

"Where is the Liang Family from?" Yang Chen had to ask Lin Ruoxi beside him.

"I... How am I supposed to know?" Lin Ruoxi thought distressedly, "I've read all the information yesterday. There isn't such a person in the few Liang families of Beijing."

Instead, Tang Wan came over in silence and whispered, "He's the second son of Commander Liang of the military district in Guangzhou province. The Liang family has hundreds of years of history. They used to be warlords in the past but later on in the early stages of the founding of the People's Republic of China, they reinvested and had friendships with the British Royal family, so they are like a half emperor over there and no one dared to challenge them."

"Oh, I see. Xiao Wan, you do know a lot," Yang Chen suddenly understood everything. He then looked at Lin Ruoxi who was slightly annoyed and felt like teasing her, he smiled, "Honey, seems like the information you got isn't enough. You should go through the list of the entire country later when we go home."

Lin Ruoxi glared at him and felt like she had lost to Tang Wan once again, how frustrating.

"There's nothing to hide if it's the truth. Our Li family is the host for today and we won't allow any of our guests to be humiliated or wronged. Why don't you bring it up and the rest shall judge," Li Yunpeng said.

Liang Zhen chuckled, glanced at Guo Yue then looked at Yang Chen and the rest, "Let alone the rest, I purposely came all the way from the Guangzhou province representing the Liang Family and show you Li Family some respect, but you let me sit with these second-rate families of Beijing! Do you all really think our Liang Family's forty thousand military troops are just decorations? Or is it that the local Beijing families are more higher up?"

That being said, some of the people at the same table were pale, but the Liang Family really wasn't someone these second-rate families could provoke, so they could only swallow it down.

"If this is the case, Nephew Liang doesn't have to take it personally. We will never treat our guests differently, it's just that this is still a family banquet and we can't put all tables into the inner hall. That's why we put most of the youngsters in one table, it's not about family status whatnot," Li Yunpeng said.

"Uncle Li, don't listen to his nonsense! He was bad mouthing my cousin brother and sister-in-law! His words were filthy! If you don't believe it, ask him to say it again!" Guo Yue said angrily.

Yang Chen was amazed seeing Guo Yue arguing in such a manner. If this was all an act, it would be too real and it seemed embarrassing if he didn't help him.

Liang Zhen snorted coldly, "I will never hide my head like a tortoise, why won't I repeat what I just said? I said that the son of the Yang Family was born in the wild and the daughter-in-law they married was also the same. They are such a perfect match, everyone knows it right?"

Chapter 1268 Bloody Full Moon

Many of the guests gasped and the entire banquet hall fell into dead silence.

This Liang Zhen had such a bold character, both Yang Chen and Lin Ruoxi had a relatively complex background about their identities and many people knew it. But there didn't seem to be any advantages to saying it in such a straightforward way and risking the chance in pissing off the Yang and Ning family!

Words Said were like waters being splashed, as soon as you notice the solemn and cold face of Ning Guangyao, you would know his current mental state.

"What is it, no one dares to speak up? You are indeed a group of fake and weak worms. You all are looking down on them in your hearts, but you are here flattering them now? Don't you all feel tired living like this?" Liang Zhen said in disdain.

Lin Ruoxi's face darkened, although she was mad, his statements weren't exactly wrong, many people present were definitely laughing at her identity in their hearts.

Yang Chen stretched out his hand distressed and hugged her shoulders, although his heart was already blazing, but he somehow felt something was wrong.

"Hey kiddo, this is the Li Residence, what makes you think that you can slander around here!?"

Immediately, someone started to clamor, thinking of pleasing and flattering the Li family.

Li Yunpeng indicated the crowd to be quiet and said genuinely, "Nephew Liang, I think you are a bit tipsy now, why don't you leave the venue and take some rest for now? We shall talk later when you are more sober."

"What is it, are you trying to kill me? I was just speaking about facts! With hundreds of people present here today, is it possible to not leak anything out? Let me tell you something, I am truly unhappy about you rich families of Beijing! Your Li Family is so pretentious and even having such a grand Full Moon Banquet, everyone knows your daughter-in-law Tang Xin was being played by Yan Buwen in the past! The child might even be the seedling of the Yan family! How shameless of you to be treating so many guests, yet you still deserve to be referred as one of the '4 major families'? If it isn't my dad who sent me here, I would be ashamed to be here!!"

The plausible remarks made the surrounding guests shocked as if they didn't know who he was!

It was more than being bold at this point, it's simply daring!!

Tang Xin was so mad that her face went straight pale but she couldn't say anything as well. Ever since she got married into the Li family, the family members didn't discriminate against her or the baby in her stomach. In fact, she had been trying very hard to play the role of the Li family's daughter-in-law for the sake of not being gossiped.

But no one expected anyone to mention this, and on such a supposedly joyful day!

Tang Xin's leg felt weak and she nearly fell to the ground, but fortunately she was supported by the servant behind her.

Tang Wan quickly went and helped her younger sister. She frowned and stared fiercely at the arrogant Liang Zhen. What a waste that they weren't in the Tang's Residence right now, or else she would've gone up and gave him a tight slap.

"Xin'Er!"

Li Dun got even angrier when he saw his beloved wife pale and tearing up in grief!

"Damn you piece of shit... how dare you insult my wife? You are here to bring trouble to the Li family aren't you!? Brother Yang won't be bothered in crushing you but do you think I have a good temper as well!?"

That being said, Li Dun rolled up his sleeves, as if he was going to fight the guy.

In fact, he already had the Xiantian Full Cycle level of cultivation, but he only wanted to use his body to crush this Liang Zhen with no cultivation at all!

A strand of panic flashed through Liang Zhen's eyes and he raised his voice desperately, "Touch me if you dare!! My father is Liang Shengchuan!! I... My dad has an army!!!"

Li Dun was pissed off and didn't bother about anything else, as he was about to continue walking forward, he got yelled at by Li Moshen!

"Stand right there! Come back!!!"

Li Moshen yelled in anger, his eyes filled with fierce and sharp lights.

Li Dun shivered but after all he was still not a match with the old man's accumulated power and he lowered his head, then returned to his position.

"Have you lost your mind! How can you actually make a move here, do you think this is the battlefield on the borders of Tibet or the boundary line of the northeast river?!" Li Moshen scolded.

Li Dun tilted his head and kept quiet.

Liang Zhen laughed triumphantly instead, "What is it, you're timid now? Didn't you want to punch me just now? I am just stating the facts and I didn't lie! If I die tomorrow after having a meal in the Li family today, you guys won't be able to run away from it! My father will surely avenge me! Mind yourselves and protect my safety!"

That being said, Liang Zhen walked up to Yang Chen and Lin Ruoxi, snorted in disdain and turned around planning to leave.

"The four major families huh, what a joke, you'll only be able to fool people in Beijing," he continued to challenge the people's nerves before leaving.

Li Moshen waved his hand lightly and several special forces army rushed in and blocked Liang Zhen.

"What is this, trying to kill me?" Liang Zhen turned back.

"The adults should apologize on behalf of the children when they make mistakes. You little kid from the Liang family shall stay with the Li family today," Li Moshen said.

Liang Zhen sneered, "What gives you the right to detain me? You are even thinking of letting my dad to apologize? In your dreams! A group of people raising illegitimate children, why are you afraid of being discussed?"

A glimmer of light flashed through Yang Chen's eyes, when everyone was not paying attention, his figure flashed and appeared behind Liang Zhen with one hand holding his neck.

"Are you really Liang Zhen?"

Yang Chen lifted his hand slightly and Liang Zhen got lifted up.

Liang Zhen kept on trying to escape from Yang Chen's palm but it was useless. His face was flushed and he clenched his teeth, "Yes... That's me... You bastard... Let me go!!!"

“You really seem to not be afraid of death, but you are still quite stupid,” Yang Chen showed his murderous intent. If he let this guy continue gossip and bad mouth, he would be a coward.

Li Yunpeng quickly came forward and patted Yang Chen’s shoulder then whispered, “Yang Chen, don’t be reckless. Liang Shengchuan is not an easy person, if you provoke him, the Yang Family will be pressured.”

“Really?” Yang Chen murmured irresponsibly. Then, his left hand which was free slapped Liang Zhen’s head as if he was slapping his face!

“Ah!!!”

Quite a number of women exclaimed!!

Without any mental preparation, Yang Chen smashed Liang Zhen’s head with one palm!!

Blood gushed from his neck artery like a fountain and the neck Yang Chen was grabbing onto was twisted and deformed.

On the ground, a pool of red and white substance exuded heat and some even fell into the bowls and plates on the dining table.

Li Yunpeng who was standing beside Yang Chen was most shocked. He stared at Yang Chen stunned, he threw the body on the floor and swung his hands as if he just did something small and normal.

“People always think that we should consider the consequences of killing someone, in fact, killing is just killing. Whatever happens after the person dies, it’s something else.”

Yang Chen’s tone was calm but the words hit the hearts of the people around him like drum beats.

The young man in front of the people turned from a gentle sheep to a ferocious lion in an instant.

Li Moshen and Ning Guangyao both squinted their eyes and had their own thoughts. Li Dun was grinning in excitement and gave Yang Chen a thumbs up.

Yang Chen turned over, “Honey, bring our daughter along, we are going to the zoo to see elephants right?”

“Huh?” Lin Ruoxi didn’t react in time, but immediately answered, “Oh.”

The woman frowned, although it felt disgusting, she was more used to it now and went to carry Lanlan.

The chubby girl looked at her father in excitement, her eyes brightened without any traces of fear.

Yang Chen smiled at Li Yunpeng, “Uncle, do clean up the place. If the Liang Family has any opinions, tell them to look for me.”

That being said, he walked out the door and the guests which he passed by all subconsciously stepped back.

Li Yunpeng and Li Moshen looked at each other and showed a slight bitter smile, but remained calm right after.

Since Yang Chen did this, he definitely had his plans so the Li family didn't have to overthink and worry too much.

The corpse got carried away rapidly by the special agents and the banquet ended early. However, none of the family was dissatisfied as this banquet was extremely exciting and fulfilling!

Just as everyone was discussing the possible consequences after the Liang Family got to know their second son was killed, an eerie scene appeared in the military hospital morgue where the headless body was placed...

When the morgue was empty, some undetectable grey threads secreted from the capillaries of Liang Zhen's headless body on the bed in the centre.

These threads couldn't be captured by the surveillance cameras at all, they penetrate through the gaps of the floor tiles into the ground, as fast as lightning..

Chapter 1269 Bear Language

Located in a small green forest a few miles away from the military hospital, the grey silk threads emerged up from the ground.

These threads gradually gathered together and rapidly merged, bulged and shaped into a human figure!

After a moment, Yang Lie who was dressed in a military suit appeared out of nowhere in the forest with an evil face on his face.

He walked out of the forest after adjusting his body.

"Hehe..." A charming laugh came from the back of the forest. Luo Cuishan, wearing striped Gucci sunglasses, sitting in a fiery red Porsche 911 said gently, "Was it fun to eat humans? How are you back to yourself already?"

Yang Lie slowly opened the door and sat in the passenger seat, "The Liang Family should keep Liang Zhen's body so I left him for them."

"What a waste, was it destroyed?" Luo Cuishan said regretfully, "That body was quite nice to me, fair and clean."

Yang Lie hooked the woman's chin with his finger and said, "What is it? You like that handsome guy? Should I eat him so that he can be with you everyday?"

She stuck her tongue out and licked Yang Lie's finger, she squinted her eyes, "No way, the handsome guy will be a dead person after you eat him, I want one alive."

"Hmmp, bitch," Yang Lie snorted, "I don't care if you want to look for men, but you better not slack off in your tasks."

"Rest assured, everything is ready, now we just need the fish to click the bait," Luo Cuishan's lips drew a warped arc.

The wildlife zoo in the southern suburbs of Beijing required a two-hour drive from the city.

Although it was winter, the sun was still nice and bright. When they arrived in the afternoon, the sun was warm and just right.

Although his body and hands were stained with blood after killing someone at the Li's Residence, it didn't affect Yang Chen. He used the Heaven and Earth energy to freshen up and his clothes were clean as new.

After purchasing their tickets, he held Lanlan's hand together with Lin Ruoxi and entered the park.

In order to avoid the unnecessary attention, Lin Ruoxi purposely wore a pair of sunglasses. But, on the contrary, Yang Chen's appearance and temperament seemed extremely inconsistent with the mother and daughter.

It gave a feeling as if a kid from a small country town had married a fashionable wife from the city.

Because it happened to be winter holidays, there were quite a number of parents bringing their children to visit the zoo.

"Daddy, Lanlan wants to see elephants!" The chubby little girl was anxious and started hopping up and down as they walked.

"I know that, aren't we walking already."

Yang Chen saw the crowd in front, he directly carried Lanlan and let her sit on his shoulders.

Lanlan hugged her daddy's head in excitement, the feeling of 'riding a horse' made her proud and her chubby face was bright and joyful.

Lin Ruoxi said helplessly, "It'll be hard to teach her in future if you pamper her so much now."

"It is said that girls should be raised with love, besides, it's not a big deal letting her sit on my shoulders since we are out," Yang Chen grabbed Lanlan's little leg and bit it gently as he spoke which made her laugh.

When they walked toward the elephant zone according to the map, they noticed there were only a few people around the railings. Inside the activity area, they weren't even any elephants to be seen.

Yang Chen used his divine senses and realized there weren't any elephants around the area at all.

Lanlan showed a grumpy face and her eyes were full of displeasure, "Where are the elephants, there aren't any!"

Yang Chen looked around and noticed one of the workers so he went up and asked. He then learned that the elephants were all transported to the warm areas due to Beijing's cold weather in winter.

With much regret, he could only smile at his daughter, "Lanlan, there are no elephants in winter, but they have polar bears and big tigers, do you want to see them?"

Lanlan pouted her lips unhappily, "Why are there no elephants during winter?"

“The uncle mentioned just now, elephants are afraid of the cold so they went to the southern area,” Lin Ruoxi pinched her daughter’s little lips.

Lanlan was confused, “Why didn’t the uncles in the zoo give the elephants clothes to wear?”

Yang Chen and Lin Ruoxi were speechless, this kid could come up with all kinds of questions.

“Elephants don’t like to wear clothes,” Yang Chen simply made up something, and asked back curiously, “Lanlan, can you tell daddy why you want to see elephants?”

Lanlan said in a serious tone, “Elephants treat Lanlan well! There was once a big bad doggy that wanted to eat Lanlan and the elephant chased it away, it even let me ride on its body!”

Yang Chen started to wonder, “Fatty little girl, don’t lie to daddy. When was this, how did you ride an elephant? Where did you meet the big bad doggy?”

Lanlan tilted her little head and thought for a while, “Lanlan doesn’t know the place, the place had tall grass, big sun and many horses, goats... Grandfather used to know the place but he forgot about it. He was the one who saw me there. Lanlan won’t lie to daddy, that big doggy is very evil, I threw a stone at it, it still ran forward.”

Listening to the child speaking about her weird memories, he realized that this might be a key to Lanlan’s true identity.

But Lanlan was so young, how would she have these experiences with wild elephants? Besides, assuming based on her description, it might be the grass fields or forests in Africa or South Asia. As for the ‘big bad doggy’, it was probably some carnivorous animals such as jackals.

“Lanlan, were you alone that time? Is there anybody around you?” Lin Ruoxi also noticed the importance of these clues and continued asking.

The little one looked at her weirdly and said, “Did mommy forget about it? You said that you need to go away for awhile and will come back to me. But Lanlan was very hungry, so I went off to find food... Mommy, please don’t be mad at Lanlan, I’ll never run away again.”

“Me?”

Lin Ruoxi pointed at herself in shock, but she immediately realized that Lanlan still thought she was her biological mother.

Lanlan didn’t suspect anything and nodded her head firmly.

“Silly child,” Lin Ruoxi held back her tears and smiled sourly. She carried Lanlan up and turned to Yang Chen, “ I really have no idea who can be so cruel to leave the child in such a place.”

Yang Chen looked at Lanlan thoughtfully and smiled, “We will know the truth someday, let’s go visit the polar bears first.”

Lanlan didn’t get affected by this small drama and immediately cheered happily to see big bears.

There were more audiences in the polar bear centre. In the area blocked by the glass fence, the man made ice and mountains had created a good living environment for the polar bears.

Seeing the huge polar bear walking around casually, Lanlan leaned against the fence and asked, "Daddy, what are the bears thinking, why don't they look over here?"

Lin Ruoxi smiled, "Silly child, how will your daddy know what the polar bear is thinking?"

Yang Chen twitched his brows, "Who said so? I can even talk to polar bears!"

"Really?" Lanlan looked at Yang Chen surprisingly.

Lin Ruoxi was shocked as she couldn't understand, does Yang Chen know bear language?!

"Ah!! Ah!! Ah ~"

His pitch was very high, but it sounded like a broken gong and it was extremely unpleasant to hear. Soon, dozens of tourists around them were looking over!

Lin Ruoxi then understood, what kind of 'bear language' was this, he was simply shouting out of nowhere!

But this nonsense shouting somehow attracted the polar bear's attention. That big one actually turned over and looked at Yang Chen in confusion, as if it didn't understand what this human was doing.

"Wow! Daddy can really talk to polar bears!" Lanlan clapped happily and pleaded, "Daddy, daddy! Teach Lanlan how to talk to big bears!"

Yang Chen smiled proudly, "That's easy, daddy will shout a few times and Lanlan will follow, the louder the better or else the polar bear can't hear us, okay?"

"Okay!" Lanlan immediately nodded.

Then, Yang Chen continued to shout loudly and Lanlan followed using her immature voice.

The father and daughter's voice attracted the attention of all visitors around them. They laughed and judged them silently.

Lin Ruoxi immediately blushed, it felt as if the three of them were being watched like monkeys, how embarrassing!

But Yang Chen and Lanlan didn't feel ashamed at all and continued shouting joyfully. That polar bear was cooperating with the two as it stared at them and tried to figure out what was happening.

Lin Ruoxi finally had enough of the attention and pulled Yang Chen's hand, "Alright! Stop shouting!!"

He turned over and asked, "Why? Don't you see that Lanlan is very happy?"

"Everyone is looking! Don't be embarrassing!" Lin ruoxi said in a low voice.

Yang Chen looked around at those mocking eyes and faces then waved his hand casually, "What's there to be afraid of? This is not the hospital, shouting is not illegal! We should think ourselves as kids as well when we bring them out, or else how are we supposed to play with them? As long as my daughter is happy, it's none of my business if other people laugh at me!"

That being said, he continued shouting here and there with Lanlan.

Lin Ruoxi was left speechless. However, seeing Yang Chen's exciting expression and the chubby little girl's bright smile, she finally compromised.

As if she got defeated by this pair of father and daughter, she could never win them.

But, seeing the child's sweet and joyful smile and Yang Chen's exaggerated and unruly appearance, she suddenly felt warm, as an unusual feeling of happiness was wrapping around her.

After some time, the two got the other visitors stunned from their shouting and finally changed their battlefield to the tiger mountain.

On their way, Yang Chen carried Lanlan with one hand and held a few sticks of tang hu lu on the other. He took one bite and gave Lanlan another. But of course, Lin Ruoxi was the one who paid for these as he didn't have the habit of bringing cash out.

When he gave the sugar-coated haws to her, she felt embarrassed at first but he kept on giving it to her so she had no choice but to take a bite.

The sweet and sour taste got her into a love-hate relationship with the man and she glared at him angrily, "I am so done with you, we brought the child to the zoo but you seem to be the one playing now!"

"Hehe," Yang Chen winked, "Ruoxi dear, I know that you think it's embarrassing to be my wife but at the same time you feel happy."

"So what? I really wanted to get rid of you, but you bad guy can always make me reluctant to leave," Lin Ruoxi was also annoyed.

"This is my strength!"

"Carrot on a stick huh?" Lin Ruoxi rolled her eyes.

"Wrong," Yang Chen stuffed the red sticks to the woman's lips once again with a broad smile, "It's a stick of sugar-coated haws."

Chapter 1270 My Mother

Late at night, the backyard of the Yang's Residence was cold and quiet.

Yang Lie who was having a military suit on, walking a little frivolously towards his own house while humming a vague melody.

The security guards and servants who were on duty weren't surprised seeing their second young master in this condition as it wasn't the first time anyway.

He walked to his room and was surprised seeing the lights were on, which meant someone was waiting for him inside.

He opened the door and the person sitting inside was Guo Xuehua.

It was almost 2am in the morning and Guo Xuehua seemed to be ready to sleep as she had a thick coat on top of her pajamas.

Seeing Yang Lie coming in, she showed a warm smile and stood up, "You're back. Mother was just thinking that you'll be back at this time usually. Tsk tsk, such a huge smell of alcohol. Even if you are a cultivator, you shouldn't drink that much or else your father is going to nag you again."

Guo Xuehua turned around and took out a porcelain bottle from an insulated box on the table as she was nagging.

A tangy aroma came out immediately after the lid was opened.

"Lie'Er, don't just stand there, come over and drink some chicken soup, didn't you like mother's soup the most. I've put more ginger in it, it's good for you to sober up and you'll feel better."

Seeing Guo Xuehua bringing out the soup while talking to herself, Yang Lie still stood at his original spot, slightly frowning.

"Mother, do you need anything?" He asked.

She was stunned, "What do you mean do I need anything? I am waiting for you to drink the soup, silly child."

He found it unconvincing, "Solely...waiting for me to drink soup?"

She shook her head helplessly, "You are probably annoyed at your father's lecture huh? Hey, I am not like him who likes to scold people everyday. In fact, he did it for your own good so try not to bother too much. I was just thinking it's been awhile since I last made you some soup so I made you some tonight before you sleep."

That being said, she pulled him to his seat and sat down, "Stop overthinking, it's almost 2am, take a shower after drinking."

He quietly looked at the brightly colored bowl of chicken soup, the fragrance of various Chinese medicinal ingredients and the hot steam that touched his face made him feel warm.

He looked up and saw her waiting for him to drink, but he then noticed his hand was slightly shaking.

Taking a deep breath, he took the spoon and started drinking.

"How is it, does it taste good, is it too bland?" Guo Xuehua asked with a smile.

He didn't realize his voice was a bit hoarse.

"That's great, sigh, mother really felt sorry for you. It was such a chaotic year last year, so many things happened and you, your father and your brother were all in a mess. After you came back from Kunlun Mountain, I didn't get to spend much time with you as well. Lie'Er, don't be mad at mother alright," Guo Xuehua said emotionally.

Yang Lie nodded slightly and continued drinking his soup.

Guo Xuehua naturally reached out her hand and gently patted his back, "Boys are usually rebellious before they get married, but mother knows that you are not a bad person. In the future, just be careful and don't go against your father and grandfather that often. If you're obedient and respect them more, they will never make you wrong."

Yang Lie felt as if his heart was pinched by something and it was very painful. He felt a lump in his throat and tears welled in his eyes but he had to endure it.

This woman beside him would never expect although he had the body of her son, he was not her son at all!

He was also the murderer of her son! Her bloody enemy!

But, she poured her maternal love to her son into himself!

He was stupid and dumb, but Yang Lie couldn't bring himself to laugh at her.

"Why are you dazing, hurry up and drink the soup, there's more in the kitchen if you want. Your father and grandfather are asleep, so you don't have to worry about them coming over to lecture you," Guo Xuehua smiled.

Yang Lie nodded and forcefully moved his lips a bit. He then asked as if it was unintentional, "Mother, is my elder brother and sister-in-law back?"

Guo Xuehua got a headache after Yang Chen was being mentioned, "Nope. I called him in the afternoon but still didn't get in touch with him."

"They are not home yet? Did anything happen?" Yang Lie asked with bright eyes.

Guo Xuehua sighed, "Your brother went to the Li family's Full Moon Banquet and suddenly killed the kid from the Liang family of Guangdong province! Commander Liang Shengchuan is already extremely mad and told the Yang and Li Family to hand over your brother."

Yang Lie showed a shocking face, "How did this happen? The Liang Family is not a good target to provoke, what should we do now?"

"How would I know what actually happened, your father and grandfather won't tell me the details either. They sent people to contact them but nothing came back. Your brother is not an ordinary human, he will definitely be fine so I am not too worried. He often does shocking things and he's too carefree, just like earlier today, he brought you sister-in-law and niece out for the entire day and hasn't returned until now. They are probably staying overnight outside after playing for the entire day, such a headache as we are unable to contact him," Guo Xuehua sighed.

An ironic smile flashed through his mouth and disappeared in an instance.

Guo Xuehua sighed a few times because of Yang Chen's issue and asked with a smile, "Lie'Er, your elder brother is already married and even has a kid, are you seeing anyone now, should mother help you a bit?"

He was stunned but immediately shook his head, "Nope."

"Oh right!" Guo Xuehua slapped her forehead, "Didn't you like the daughter of the Lin Family, Lin Hui? She's not bad actually and I am familiar with her, but that girl seemed to have gone back to Mount Emei to cultivate, not sure when she's coming back. Why don't I contact her grandmother?"

"Mother, it's fine, really. That's the past," Yang Lie responded.

Guo Xuehua nodded regretfully, "Alright then, mother doesn't want to force you to get married as well. I am happy enough that you are able to come home. I know that you are still blaming mother for staying in Zhonghai with your brother without taking your emotions into consideration. But Lie'Er, your brother had a really rough childhood and the god did me a great favor for bringing him back to me alive. Seeing him pretending to be strong despite his wounds, I couldn't help myself to leave him alone again, you are both my children and I am biased against any of you and I only hope the best for you two. If your brother wants to hurt you, I will not stay out of it even if it takes my life."

Her tone seemed gentle, but was stern and determined.

Yang Lie felt that there was a mess in his head, an irritable mood that made him extremely uncomfortable and it was difficult to vent, as if he was about to suffocate.

The woman in front of him had no relationship with himself at all, but she made him confused.

"I understand mother, rest early," Yang Lie forced a smile.

Guo Xuehua then realized, "Right, I've been nagging too much. Lie'Er, take a shower and sleep early alright, mother will go back first."

She then went out of the room after patting Yang Lie's shoulder gently and closed the door.

He put down the spoon in his hand and stood up after hearing that Guo Xuehua had walked away.

Walking to the window, he looked at the hazy moonlight with his reddish and bloody eyes, as blue veins appeared on his forehead.

The fingers on both his hands were embedded into his flesh due to the excessive force.

But, the silver gray antimatter energy continuously repaired the body tissues in an instant and even absorbed the blood.

There were tears in the corners of his eyes, a bitter yet sarcastic smile rose by his lips, as if he was laughing in a self-deprecating tone.

"Mother... Haha... My mother... Is dead..."

The bloody incident on the Li Family's full moon banquet casted a shadow on many rich families of Beijing.

When the Liang Family sent a few representatives and rushed to Beijing, the incident went even more viral.

Early in the morning, in the front hall of the Yang's Residence, the representatives from the Liang Family and their family friends from the Beijing families were present.

Yang Gongming sat in the master's seat calmly and showed indignance even when facing a group of military uniforms and suits.

A general with moustache said loudly with a leading character, "Old Marshal Yang, the general is here to represent Commander Liang to ask for justice. Commander Liang is busy with military duties so he can't come to the north, but he already stated that the Yang Family must hand over the murderer, Yang Chen! Or else, the four hundred Chinese soldiers under the Liang Family will not compromise with this brutality in broad daylight!"
