

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 127

“Chengnan.” Yun Zhihan compromised.

Liam Lu glanced at him calmly, and slowly retracted his feet.

The next second, Yun Zhihan rushed over, tremblingly picked up the last pill left on the ground, and put it into his mouth without a word.

“Well...”

The moment the pain was relieved, Yun Zhihan slumped on the ground almost as weakly, sighing comfortably.

“Comfortable?” Liam Lu raised his eyebrows and suddenly asked.

Before Yun Zhihan could answer, he watched him suddenly chuckle.

“I forgot to tell you that the pill you took just now is the antidote. But in the antidote, I added a special ingredient to it. You will suffer from it in the future.”

Yun Zhihan was stunned, feeling a cold back inexplicably.

“Liam Lu, what did you do?”

“It’s nothing, but when it makes you happy with a woman, you will suddenly burst your blood vessels without knowing it.”

After Liam Lu finished speaking, without stopping for a moment, he turned around and strode out of the villa.

Not far away, I suddenly heard Yun Zhihan’s desperate roar from the villa.

“Liam Lu, I want to kill you!”

Shiyue couldn’t hold back the one by his side, “Puff” laughed out, and turned his head to look at Liam Lu.

“Liam, I thought you would give him a tooth for a tooth and make him hurt for three days and three nights. I didn’t expect you to play psychology? Yun Zhihan is a natural man, but in Qingcheng, he is called the bridegroom every night. You lie to him like that, He will be frustrated!”

Being weak and suffering too long in the dark room, Zoey Gu has been asleep for two days.

When she woke up in a daze, it was already the next night.

Liam Lu hugged her and sat in the back seat of the car, and outside the window was the night scene speeding backwards.

The bodies of the two closely attached to each other were constantly scorching hot, causing Zoey Gu to move her body uncomfortably.

Realizing that she was awake, Liam Lu subconsciously tightened his arms, turned his head to stare at her face tightly, and asked in a low voice.

“Wake up? Does the wound still hurt?”

The distance was too close. When he spoke, the hot breath between his lips brushed her face gently, hot and numb.

She earned it subconsciously.

“You let me go and let me sit by myself.”

Liam Lu looked at her with an awkward and true expression, and the corners of her mouth curled, but he didn't insist anymore. He let her down carefully, but didn't let her get too far away from him.

“Hold on a little longer and it will be here soon.”

Hearing this, Zoey Gu subconsciously looked out the window, “Are we...returning to the southern capital?”

Liam Lu laughed lowly.

“No.”

There is a bit of entanglement with Yun Zhihan, and the hatred is quite deep, plus he is already negative Anna Yun. It is impossible to leave Qingcheng in a short time.

Besides, he still has more important things to do than leaving Qingcheng.

“Go to the south, you'll know when you get there.”

Zoey Gu pursed her lips and answered softly, knowing that with his character, it is not easy to explain so actively, so she obediently stopped asking.

The car walked for a while, got off the elevated bridge, and walked slowly for a while, and then stopped in front of a courtyard.

“Master Lu, here it is.”

Shiyue jumped out of the car in front, and walked to the courtyard door first.

I don't know what I said to the person at the door, but after a while, Shiyue walked over with an ugly expression.

“Lu Shao...” Shiyue Chong Liam Lu shook his head hesitantly.
