

Chapter 128

Alyssa didn't know that Leon was such a petty person. He was even jealous when he noticed that she had more food in her lunch box.

She pushed her lunch box to him, "You can eat whatever you want. I won't stop you."

Leon looked at Alyssa who sounded generous, "If I really grabbed food from a pregnant woman, you will definitely criticize me again."

Alyssa would not be as petty as Leon. Even if he ate, she wouldn't say anything. She would patiently write down what vegetables he liked to eat. Although he wasn't a picky eater, he still had his favorite foods.

Alyssa knew he wouldn't really eat it. She took the lunch box and started to eat slowly.

Seeing that Alyssa had a good appetite, Leon also ate at ease.

After lunch, Leon looked at Alyssa.

"Do you have something to say? Just say it."

"Well, I do have something to talk to you about. The company is short of a vice president after a big change in the top management. Are you interested?" Leon was worried that Alyssa would refuse and continued, "Now the company no longer has the power of the Coles. You can rest assured that no one will say anything. Besides, grandpa also gave you a share of Hunter Group. If you come to work for Hunter Group, the board of directors won't say anything."

Alyssa hesitated for a moment. She looked at Leon, still shaking her head.

"Why?"

"You forgot that I wanted to pursue postgraduate studies."

"As for that, I've thought about it. You just have to come to the meetings on time. I don't force you to be at the office at all times. I know you really don't have a lot of classes this semester."

Since Leon wanted to invite Alyssa to work, he had naturally made all the preparations in advance.

But he didn't expect Alyssa to turn him down, "I'm pregnant. Besides, I can't spin and reel at the same time. Forget it."

When Alyssa was so determined, Leon's eyes darkened slightly.

Seeing his unhappiness, Alyssa said softly, "I have many classmates who are now looking for jobs. If you are willing to train me from the grassroots, I will be even less able to come to Hunter Group as a vice president. I have no experience and your team will not trust me. Besides, I can't work full time. In that case, I will only bring a negative impact to your company. You might be affected by me as well. It's better to forget it."

Leon certainly had a lot of resources. He had been working at Hunter Group for so long, so he naturally had his connections. It wasn't hard for him to find a vice president.

If Leon had told her this before, she might have thought that he was testing her.

But Alyssa knew Leon wouldn't do that now. Probably he really wanted to bring her to him.

"You want a vice president to help you do your job, so you definitely don't want a troublemaker to hold you back! Therefore, you'd better find someone else! I don't have enough experience, and I can't start that high. Right now, finishing my studies is the most important thing for me."

"If you say so, I'll listen to you."

Knowing that Alyssa didn't want to work, he didn't force Alyssa.

Looking at Leon, Alyssa suddenly thought of what Leon had just said, "Leon, what did you say? You've got the Coles' forces all to C City?"

"What's wrong with that?" Leon looked at Alyssa.

"What's the Hunter Group's registered capital in C City?"

"Fifty million?"

"And the book capital?"

"Twenty million."

"Will you check the books on time?"

Alyssa started to get a little worried.

Looking at Alyssa's worried look, Leon already knew what she was worried about. He said, "You are worried that Hunter Group will have financial problems in C City."

"That depends on whether the finance staff is your people or not. But even if the finance staff is your man, he may not always be loyal to you. After all, who would say no to money?"

Money was a good thing. Most people couldn't resist the temptation of money.

Especially men!

"I can't wait for them to make some mistakes now."

Leon offered to get a cup of hot water for Alyssa. Watching her immediately drink the water, he hurriedly grabbed her duck water cup, "It's hot."

"Oh." She said as she relaxed, "You want to get rid of them when they make mistakes."

For the first time, Leon felt that Alyssa was so smart. She actually understood it all.

No wonder Hassan valued Alyssa's abilities. She had a keen eye and was unique in analyzing things. She was indeed very smart.

Originally, because she was pregnant, he wanted to let her rest. But at this moment, he suddenly had some reluctance to give up.

He really wanted to let Alyssa help him with his work.

But he could see that Alyssa didn't put her mind on the company. He said softly, "Since you don't want to come to the company to help me, then you should rest and prepare for your exams and pregnancy."

Alyssa nodded and came up to Leon's side, "I knew you were the best."

Watching Alyssa get closer and closer to him, Leon couldn't help but smile.

Now one word from Alyssa could make him excited.

He cleared his throat and leaned back. When he saw that Alyssa didn't step back, he looked up and saw Alyssa looking down at him.

Seeing her big, watery eyes, Leon hurriedly lowered his head.

With such beautiful eyes staring at him, he just wanted to do something to her right now.

Alyssa was unaware of Leon's intentions. As she watched Leon step back, she thought something might have gone wrong with her. So she hurriedly looked down to check herself, but she didn't see anything.

She was about to ask when a knock sounded at the door.

Leon panicked and stood up immediately, but bumped into Alyssa's head.

Seeing that Alyssa was about to fall, Leon wrapped his arms around her, and Alyssa's head was pressed against Leon's lips.

Leon noticed a fragrant smell that belonged to Alyssa. He subconsciously moved closer to Alyssa and kissed her gently. Alyssa didn't move. After being kissed by Leon a few times, she suddenly couldn't resist the urge to move towards him.

She kissed Leon actively. The knocking outside did not stop, but they hugged tighter.

Knock knock knock ...

The knocking on the door continued.

Alyssa suddenly felt so excited. Hearing the knocking, she felt that the door could be opened at any moment.

As soon as that door opened, the way they hugged and kissed each other would be seen.

Leon just felt that the person outside the door was really annoying. The people in the room didn't respond, so the one outside the door should stop knocking!

Nothing was as important as him and Alyssa being together right now.

He kissed Alyssa harder at the thought that he would have to deal with the people outside later.

"There's a knock on the door."

Alyssa had to catch her breath and talk while being kissed. The knock on the door sounded like a knock on her heart. She felt her face burn. She tried to steady her voice, but her voice still sounded shaky.
