

Chapter 1341: Awake

“Inconvenient? Why—” Ah Zhu subconsciously wanted to ask what was inconvenient about it. He even walked over there and was about to knock on the door.

When he reached the door, he suddenly stopped. He raised his hand to the back of his head and scratched it. He quickly retreated and said to the servant, “It’s fine. You should rest early.”

Ah Zhu was not a hotheaded young man. He did not react at the beginning, but later, he naturally reacted.

It was not convenient for the young couple to open the door. What else could it be? None of them were free to open the door.

Ah Zhu took the cup of water and returned to the room. He laughed inwardly. He did say that Gu Changshu and Gu Junhui must have wanted to stick together every day since they had just gotten married. Since they were about to be separated, the man was even more reluctant to part with his wife.

Ah Zhu felt that it was more appropriate to describe Wen Yunfang as the evil queen who broke up the cowherd and weaver girl.

Early the following day in Shu City, when the first ray of sunlight shone on the window, Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi woke up. A certain someone who had eaten and drunk enough the previous night had woken up like a lazy and luxurious leopard. Her long arms and legs almost occupied the entire bed, and in his arms was a delicate and lovely woman. Her face was buried in his chest, and her long hair was strewn in his arms in a haphazard manner.

When she woke up, she leaned against his body and rubbed her nose against his chest as if she was acting coquettishly, stretching her waist gently.

“You’re awake?” Lu Xingzhi’s voice came from above her head. Jiang Yao raised her head to look at the person next to her. She made a sound of agreement, then slowly climbed up and sat up on the bed.

The blanket covering Lu Xingzhi slid from his chest to his waist. The picture of a beautiful man in the morning let Jiang Yao feast her eyes on him.

However, Jiang Yao did not have any intention of teasing him anymore.

The man was untouchable in the morning. Looking at his pitch-black eyes that seemed to be bottomless, one could tell that the person must be thinking about what he did the previous night before he went to bed.

Jiang Yao quickly jumped out of bed and ran straight into the bathroom. She slammed the door and blocked Lu Xingzhi’s threatening gaze.

After washing up, the two of them went downstairs. Ah Zhu was already at the dining table eating breakfast. When he saw them, Ah Zhu’s eyes kept blinking at Lu Xingzhi. Then, he looked at Jiang Yao. “There were mosquitoes in your room last night? Girl, look at your neck. It’s all red with mosquito bites.”

Jiang Yao touched her neck. Then, she realized that she was wearing an old sweater. Unless Ah Zhu had x-ray vision, it was impossible for him to see the hickeys.

Obviously, Ah Zhu was deliberately teasing her and Lu Xingzhi.

So, Ah Zhu knew that she and Lu Xingzhi had done something the previous night.

Jiang Yao glanced at Lu Xingzhi, who was as calm as usual, and cursed discreetly. A thick-skinned person was not afraid of being teased.

They were eating breakfast when Wen Yunfang sent someone there to explain again. However, it was an excuse to tell Gu Junhui that she could buy whatever she required and not need to bring anything. Wen Yunfang continued to urge her. It was as if she was afraid that Gu Junhui would act up and refuse to go.

“Sister, are you leaving Shu City with Young Miss tomorrow?” Ah Zhu only found out after hearing that news. He did not even eat. He put down his bowl and chopsticks and looked at the two people in front of him. “Isn’t that too fast?”

Chapter 1342: Won’t Be Disappointed

“Young Miss is probably in a hurry to go back to work.” Jiang Yao had a look of understanding on her face.

“If she’s in a hurry to go back, you don’t need to follow her immediately. Brother Jing won’t arrive in Shu City so soon. You still have a few days to stay in Shu City. If Young Miss is busy, then let her go back first. When that time comes, you can take the train there yourself. It’s such a simple thing.” Ah Zhu said indifferently, “It’s not like you can’t read or buy a ticket. Even if you can’t, you can still get Changshu to send you to the train station.”

“Anyway, I have to go there anyway. It’s the same if I go with her. Brother Changshu will be more at ease if I’m with her.” Jiang Yao wanted to go there as soon as possible to understand Wen Yunfang’s situation.

Sha Ying was still wandering outside, unable to get into the fold. One could see that Wen Yunfang was very vigilant in accepting strangers. No matter what, it was Brother Ding who had taught her. Brother Ding was a suspicious person, and Wen Yunfang was no better.

Ah Zhu glanced at the servant who was standing nearby. In the end, he did not say anything. He had already said what he should have said yesterday. As for the rest, he could not say anything else.

After dinner, Lu Xingzhi went out with Ah Zhu. Jiang Yao stayed in the house and did not leave. Then, she tidied her things and secretly drew the floor plan of the entire house. She was ready to find an opportunity to hand it to Ah Lu.

After Lu Xingzhi went out in the morning, he did not come back with Ah Lu until dinner. When he returned, he had two brand new mobile phones. He even bought a phone card.

Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi’s own mobile phones were in Ah Lu and Big Ke’s hands. They did not have them. Brother Ding and Ah Zhu thought the two had never owned mobile phones. The two phones were Brother Ding’s gift to the couple.

Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi spent a few hours in the evening using their phones. Then, they finished their work and went back to their rooms upstairs.

Perhaps no one knew that they were checking whether their phones were bugged. Finally, the two of them came to a conclusion. Maybe Brother Ding and Ah Zhu felt that Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi were poor country folks, and it was unlikely that they could do anything else. Therefore, the phones were as new as they had just been manufactured. They were brand new and did not have anything extra; that gave Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi a tool to communicate.

The next morning, Jiang Yao left Shu City in Wen Yunfang's car instead of going to the train station to take the train.

Wen Yunfang's two other subordinates were also on the train. Wen Yunfang deliberately ignored Jiang Yao, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, so Jiang Yao could not interrupt the conversation between the three of them.

Jiang Yao did not show any signs of anger or disappointment. She simply leaned back and pretended to be asleep. She was too lazy to bother with Wen Yunfang.

Xiang City was a city more than three hours away from Shu City. As soon as one entered Xiang City, one would feel the noticeable difference between the two cities.

Shu City's economy was relatively backward, but Xiang City was a bustling city. As soon as one entered the city, one could see many new-style high-rise buildings located in the bustling area. There were also more cars there. During the peak period, there were even traffic jams.

"How is it? This place is better than Shu City, right?" It was not until they entered the city that Wen Yunfang spoke to Jiang Yao boastfully... "Follow me, and you won't be disappointed."

Chapter 1343: No Difficulty

Jiang Yao smiled and did not say anything. Her eyes were sparkling as she looked out of the car window as if she was attracted by the beautiful scenery outside.

However, no matter how flourishing Xiang City was, could it be as prosperous as Nanjiang City? Or as successful in Jindo City?

For a person who had lived in Nanjiang City for many years and often traveled to and from Jindo City, Xiang City was only a place where life was more convenient than in Shu City.

Jiang Yao could not help but laugh to herself. Wen Yunfang wanted to see her in awe of the city, but she must have felt disappointed.

"Good at pretending!" a person in the back seat muttered. Naturally, he was going for the person who was smiling but not saying a word.

Wen Yunfang's people were on Wen Yunfang's side. Jiang Yao pretended not to hear anything.

Wen Yunfang's place was not as big as Brother Ding's, but it was still a two-story villa. After the car stopped, Wen Yunfang asked the housekeeper to take Jiang Yao to the guest room on the first floor. Then she went up to the second floor. Her two subordinates did not live there.

Wen Yunfang probably wanted to keep her at arm's length. When she got home, she changed her clothes and left. She did not say a word to the housekeeper.

Moe followed Wen Yunfang silently. Jiang Yao chatted with the servant and found out that they were also newly hired. The servant knew nothing about Wen Yunfang's business; she only knew that she was a single but wealthy woman who often brought different men home to spend the night.

After Jiang Yao finished the conversation, she excused herself and went back to her room. She glanced at the servant outside the door and checked her room again. Only then did she take out her new phone and call Lu Xingzhi.

Lu Xingzhi received the call as soon as Jiang Yao entered Wen Yunfang's house. Therefore, Lu Xingzhi started to wait for Jiang Yao's call. He could not wait to pick up the phone.

"Wen Yunfang didn't make things difficult for you, did she?" Lu Xingzhi was afraid that Jiang Yao would compromise for the sake of the mission.

"How could she make things difficult for me? She only arranged for me to live in a smaller guest room next to the servant's room on the first floor." Jiang Yao snorted. She did not take Wen Yunfang's little tricks seriously at all. If she were going to make a fuss over a room, then Wen Yunfang would be so happy that she would probably wake up laughing in her dreams at night.

"If she goes overboard, you don't have to endure it. After all, your man is working for her godfather," Lu Xingzhi said. "I still don't know when Ah Zhu and Brother Jing are going to make a move on Brother Ding. But now that you're with Wen Yunfang, Ah Zhu will definitely inform me to find an excuse to bring you home before making a move."

"Don't worry about me. I have Moe and Big Ke by my side. I'll be fine." Jiang Yao knew that Lu Xingzhi's heart was most likely on her. She felt really warm about that.

There was no oppression and distrust. She knew that only those who truly cared about her would miss her if they were not together.

After they talked for a while, Jiang Yao heard Ah Zhu calling for Lu Xingzhi over the phone. Then, the two of them hung up.

Jiang Yao spent the rest of her time inspecting Wen Yunfang's house. She had a thorough understanding of the layout of that house. It was not surprising that that house did not have an underground passage like Brother Ding's residence, so it was very likely that Wen Yunfang did not know about it.

Chapter 1344: Glittering

Jiang Yao had thought that Wen Yunfang would want to ignore her for a long time, but she had brought her out on the night she arrived in Xiang City.

First, she took her to the mall to buy clothes. Then, she changed Jiang Yao's rustic cotton-padded jacket, which Wen Yunfang looked down on, and put fashionable clothes on her.

After buying the clothes, Wen Yunfang took Jiang Yao to a big restaurant for dinner. After that, she dragged Jiang Yao to a nightclub to drink and have fun. Wen Yunfang and her so-called girlfriends also went with her, each wearing bright and beautiful clothes. During dinner, they talked about gold, silver, jewelry, high-end cosmetics, bags, clothes, and other topics that made Jiang Yao, a girl from the countryside, completely speechless.

Wen Yunfang could scheme when she really wanted to plot against someone. That night, she had neglected Gu Junhui, who had gone to the strange city alone. At night, she changed Gu Junhui's clothes. She brought Gu Junhui to a big restaurant that she did not fit into and then continued to neglect her. No one at the dining table had a single conversation with Gu Junhui.

A girl who had not seen much of the world had gone to a strange city. If she changed into clothes that she was unfamiliar with, she would panic. Furthermore, at that time, Wen Yunfang even deliberately made her feel lonely. Everyone at the table was talking and laughing, but she was the only one who could not fit in, like a crane in a flock of chickens.

Even if Gu Junhui wanted to complain about the situation, she could not say anything. After all, Wen Yunfang brought Gu Junhui out to play, but she could not blame anyone else if she did not fit in with the crowd.

When they were at the nightclub, Wen Yunfang brought a few more friends to their table. Unlike the women at dinner, they were a few handsome young men.

Jiang Yao sat in her seat, her hands on her knees like a good girl. She looked at the people singing and dancing in the private room with a tense expression.

Then, a young man in a gray coat sat next to her. He poured her a cup of warm water, then handed her a piece of watermelon, and then smiled at her gently. He started to talk to her naturally.

Jiang Yao pretended to be nervous. She answered whatever the other party asked. She wondered if the man had wanted to seduce her on her first night there.

Jiang Yao did not know the identity of that man, but she could tell from his clothes that he was a wealthy gentleman.

"Do you like my ring?"

Perhaps Jiang Yao's dazed eyes were focused on the ring on the man's hand, so the man assumed that Jiang Yao liked the ring he was wearing.

"No, I just think it's strange that someone would wear a stone as an ornament." Jiang Yao grinned. "All the rich people in our town wear thick gold rings. Gold is so pretty that it glows in the sun."

Perhaps it was because of Jiang Yao's vulgar eyes that even her attractive face could not keep someone interested in chatting with her. The man moved his eyes away from Jiang Yao, who was a country bumpkin.

Chapter 1345: She Ran Away?

Wen Yunfang had been watching from the corner. When she saw the man walk away, she went to him and lowered her voice. She asked with a smile, "What's wrong? You don't look happy."

"That bumpkin is the beautiful friend you told me about?"

The man snorted. "She does have a pretty face, but her brain is like a retard. Once I heard her speak, I lost interest in her."

"What did she say?"

Wen Yunfang was happy to hear the man scold Gu Junhui like that. However, she had a purpose for bringing Gu Junhui and her friends together. She wanted to see if any of the decent men around her liked Gu Junhui enough for her to seduce him.

"She asked me why I wore a stone on my hand instead of a gold ring!"

The man was so angry that he stared straight at her. "Which country did you dig out your friend from? I thought all your friends had the same taste as you!"

In the corner, Jiang Yao heard the conversation between Wen Yunfang and the man. She curled her lips and lowered her head as if thinking to herself. "I asked why he wears a stone? No matter how good the jade is, it's still jade. Is that wrong? It's still a stone after all."

There was nothing wrong with it. No matter how good the jade was, it was still a stone. Jiang Yao felt that she was not wrong. After all, she was the owner of the two mines. How could she be wrong?

"That's right."

Moe nodded in agreement. After a pause, he expressed his own opinion, "Even though gold looks nice, it's not as nice as diamonds!"

Then, Moe shook the diamond ring on his neck and narrowed his eyes at Jiang Yao. "When you go back, buy me a new toy. That is what you promised!"

Jiang Yao touched the tip of her nose. Moe would never forget about his new toy.

Both of them were in a daze when the private room door opened, and a flustered man walked into the room. Jiang Yao ended the conversation with Moe and turned her attention to the man.

After the man entered, he looked around the private room and finally found Wen Yunfang, who was talking to another person in the corner. Then, he hurried over and called for Wen Yunfang. "Young Miss, something terrible has happened!"

Wen Yunfang glared at the man and then followed him out of the room.

The door did not prevent Jiang Yao from listening to the conversation between the two people outside.

"If it were not an emergency, I would definitely teach you a lesson today!"

As Wen Yunfang spoke, she raised her hand and slapped the hunched man in front of her. "Speak!"

The man did not even dare to raise his hand to touch his face. He said, "Mr. Qiang came to our place today. When he heard that we have new goods, he insisted that we let him see them. After that, he took a fancy to one and told the rest of us to leave his private room. Unexpectedly, the girl smashed a glass bottle on Mr. Qiang's head and then jumped down from the window of the private room on the fourth floor."

“She ran away?”

Wen Yunfang roared, “How many times have I told you? Those who haven’t been properly trained are not allowed to work. Did you take my words seriously?”

“We don’t know how Mr. Qiang found out about that. He wanted to try the stronger ones, but he did not expect that the stronger ones would be like that. She did not run away, but she was seriously injured from jumping from the fourth floor. Should we send her to the hospital? If we don’t, she won’t be able to hold on for long.”

Chapter 1346: Bad Luck

“Hospital? She hasn’t earned money for us yet, and she still wants to spend our money? Just drag her to the outskirts and bury her! Don’t let her die in our place. It’s bad luck!” Wen Yunfang scolded that person without thinking.

“Young Miss, she hasn’t died yet. Shouldn’t we send her to the hospital to try and save her? We might be able to sell her for a good price.” The man asked. Jiang Yao saw a flash of pity in his eyes.

“Save her? Do you know how much money it’ll cost to save her? If you have the money, then send her to the hospital! Send her to the hospital and have the doctor call the police for her! What an idiot! You’re a man, and you want to achieve something great with me?!” Wen Yunfang was furious. After scolding him, she punched and kicked the man for a long time before she stopped. “What are you waiting for? Hurry up and get someone to drag her away! Are you waiting for us to collect her body?”

The man nodded repeatedly and ran away in a hurry. After Jiang Yao heard what he said, she asked Moe to follow the man.

If not for what the man said, perhaps someone would have thought that the new goods that Wen Yunfang mentioned were something else. For example, new goods from the clothing store and new goods from the cosmetics counter. However, in Wen Yunfang’s words, the new goods were clearly a person; it was a girl.

A girl who had injured someone and then jumped off a building was definitely not there voluntarily. Therefore, she must have been forced to do so.

After all, that was a human life. If it was possible, Jiang Yao wanted to save her. She would temporarily put her in the medical system for treatment. Perhaps she could use her as a witness.

Jiang Yao respected that girl; she had managed to make a move against someone in that environment. She also appreciated the girl for having the courage to jump from the building. She must have been prepared to die.

She would rather die than submit. She would rather die than be humiliated.

After that man left, Wen Yunfang did not leave immediately. Instead, she stood at the door to calm her anger for a few minutes. Then, she left the door and went upstairs. Once there, she pushed open a dark room.

There were four or five girls around 16 or 17 years old tied up in the room. After Wen Yunfang entered, she immediately turned on the light. Those girls had been living in a dark environment for a long time, so they could not open their eyes. They subconsciously closed their eyes.

However, before they could open their eyes, they heard a gunshot, followed by a girl's howl with her mouth covered.

"Wait for me to serve an important guest. All of you, behave yourselves. If anyone disobeys, the next shot will be in their chest. My marksmanship is not good, so one shot won't kill you. You will just have to watch yourselves bleed to death."

Wen Yunfang's voice sounded extremely eerie in that spacious room. The girls were so scared that they immediately suppressed their voices and cried softly.

After a long time, Jiang Yao finally withdrew her attention from Wen Yunfang. She watched as Wen Yunfang selected the most beautiful girl from the small room and then led her to a private room on the sixth floor with a VIP sign hanging on the door. Then, she exchanged flirtatious greetings with a fat man who looked like he was 50 years old... After that, she left the girl in the private room.

Chapter 1347: Experienced Movements

That man had a bandage wrapped around his head. He must be Mr. Qiang, who had been injured by the girl who had jumped off the fourth floor.

Jiang Yao could vaguely guess the man's identity from Wen Yunfang's small talk with that Mr. Qiang. It was also Mr. Qiang's identity that made Jiang Yao feel anxious. She wanted to leave that place as soon as possible and was eager to save that girl.

It looked like Mr. Qiang was very familiar with Wen Yunfang and that place. He was even fond of the so-called new goods. He must have harmed countless people.

If the girl who jumped off the building survived, she would be an essential witness to testify against that person who had a high position in the city.

Jiang Yao had to save her.

She waited in the private room for more than half an hour before finally waiting for Wen Yunfang to return to the private room. After Wen Yunfang returned, Jiang Yao said that she wanted to go home and sleep.

Perhaps it was because of the unpleasant incident; Wen Yunfang did not even have the mood to deal with Jiang Yao. She told Jiang Yao to take a taxi home by herself while she and her friends continued to drink in the private room to vent her anger.

Jiang Yao wished that no one would send her back, so when Wen Yunfang said that, she only pretended to be afraid and agreed in a few seconds. Then, she took her coat and left the nightclub alone.

Jiang Yao went to a place more than a thousand meters away from the nightclub to take a taxi. After she got in the car, she called Big Ke. Then, Jiang Yao sent Big Ke a text message to tell him to follow her. Big Ke was a mercenary and always knew some first aid measures. Therefore, she would let Big Ke give first aid to that girl before she rushed to them.

Wen Yunfang could get someone to bury bodies in the suburbs. Those people would really do it.

Jiang Yao got out of the car and searched for the place on foot. When she found Big Ke, the man was giving first aid to that girl. That girl's body was covered in soil. Obviously, Big Ke rescued her from the pit.

"How's the situation?" Jiang Yao walked to them and quickly took over Big Ke's position. Then, she asked Big Ke to help her and promptly gave the girl first aid. Fortunately, she reached them in time and managed to save the girl's life. Then, she would bring the girl into the medical system for treatment; the girl could still recover.

Big Ke, "There might be more bodies buried in the yellow soil under your feet. When they were digging the hole, I heard them talking. They said that they didn't even know if that was the first person to be buried here. If there were another body, I don't know if there would be a place for them to dig a perfect hole to bury them."

After a pause, Big Ke pointed at the pit on the side and said, "When they dug that pit, they also dug a white bone and then filled it with some soil before burying it again."

"Your movements are experienced. You're good at this sort of thing. If you don't believe me, you can try using your eyes to pierce through the soil to see how many bones are in it," Moe said.

Jiang Yao felt a chill from the bottom of her feet to the top of her head. She looked at the pit and saw a complete skeleton in it. She immediately felt a chill run down her spine. Would she want to look through the entire slope?

She was afraid of seeing the mountain of bones; she was worried that she would not be able to sleep after looking at it.

Chapter 1348: Account Ledgers

"Big Ke, there's nothing for you to do here. You can go back first." Jiang Yao sent Big Ke away.

Big Ke looked at Jiang Yao and thought for a moment. Then, he nodded and left. Young Master Lu had told him that he did not need to guard Jiang Yao at all times, but he had to listen to Jiang Yao's orders.

Big Ke was someone who had climbed up from a pile of dead bodies. Before he met Jiang Yao, he thought that life was where the strong preyed on the weak.

When he was with Jiang Yao, he realized that Jiang Yao was an experienced woman. Then, he looked at the earth under Jiang Yao's feet. He knew that the darkness of the world still made people's hair stand on end.

After Big Ke left, Jiang Yao put the unconscious girl into the medical system. Then, she found a place to wash her hands and shoes before taking a taxi back to the house.

That night, Wen Yunfang went home drunk. After entering the house, she asked the servant if Gu Junhui was back. When she knew that the woman was home, she went upstairs.

Jiang Yao waited in the room downstairs until Wen Yunfang and the servant were fast asleep. Then, she asked Moe to go out and give each of them an injection of sleeping pills.

After waiting for five minutes for the medicine to take effect, Jiang Yao went upstairs and asked Moe to open the door for her to enter Wen Yunfang's room.

Unlike the guest room downstairs, which was only a few square meters, Wen Yunfang's room was more than 30 square meters. There was a study room, but it was unused. There were not many books in it.

Jiang Yao had inspected the room during the day and knew that Wen Yunfang's important things were placed in the cabinet, which seemed to have a bookcase hidden in it.

She knew that there was something in the cabinet, but she did not know what it was. However, from the design, she guessed that the thing must be significant.

The sleeping medicine could allow a person to sleep for a full six hours. During those six hours, no matter how noisy the world was, they would not wake up. Therefore, even though Wen Yunfang was sleeping on the bed, Jiang Yao felt relaxed as she went through the things in the cabinet.

The bookcase in the wardrobe was hidden. Those who did not know about it would not see the hidden cabinet. When they saw the densely packed shoe boxes, they would think that it was a shoe box.

In fact, most of those shoe boxes had shoes, all except the top row.

Jiang Yao took a box and opened it; she saw a yellowed notebook. When she opened it carefully, Jiang Yao realized that those notebooks were all handwritten ledgers.

The handwriting was not good. It was crooked, like the handwriting of a primary school student. Wen Yunfang must have written it.

After Jiang Yao finished reading the ledgers, she took the smallest one from the two most inconspicuous boxes. Those ledgers were old, and the earliest ones were from seven years ago.

Wen Yunfang must have only been about 13 or 14 years old.

The top row was full of account ledgers, and there was a layer of dust on them. Jiang Yao bet that Wen Yunfang would not find out that she took the old account books from a long time ago.

It was impossible for Wen Yunfang to go through the old account books.

After Jiang Yao took it, she restored the books to their original state. After making sure that there were no changes, she left Wen Yunfang's room.

Jiang Yao wanted to send it out tomorrow. However, she did not know the informant and contact person in Xiang city, so she had to inform Lu Xingzhi first.

Wen Yunfang's ledger must have been meant for Brother Ding. After all, she was working for Brother Ding, but she had more power and was in charge of the entire Xiang City. It was clear how much Brother Ding valued her.

Chapter 1349: Miss Me?

As she thought about the person still sleeping soundly, she climbed over the wall and out of the courtyard. She had no choice; she did not have a key.

At that time, the real estate community had not matured yet. The houses had independent courtyards, so no one would notice Jiang Yao climbing over the wall in the middle of the night.

Then, Jiang Yao found a safe place and called Big Ke, asking him to get her. Then, she waited for Big Ke while she called Lu Xingzhi.

Even though it was midnight, Lu Xingzhi picked up the call very quickly. Obviously, he was on a mission; any slight movement could wake him up.

“Wife, what’s wrong?” Lu Xingzhi picked up very quickly. He asked, “Did you miss me?”

“I did not,” Jiang Yao answered naturally. She did not have time to think about him. “I got a very important item and saved a person. I also found some information tonight! But I don’t know our contact. Although I know that Sha Ying is in the city, I don’t want to give it to her, so I asked Big Ke to come here and take it. I gave it to Big Ke and asked him to keep it for the time being.”

“What is it? The people in the city seem to be preparing to move, so the contact will also change. I haven’t received any news yet,” Lu Xingzhi said.

Jiang Yao was explaining it to Lu Xingzhi. The organization did not hide important information from her, but the people in the city were already moving. Therefore, the contact would not appear at that time. It was also to protect the safety of the informants, the contact, and the undercover agents.

Jiang Yao nodded to herself. “It’s two old accounting books. Wen Yunfang is very cautious. She made a hidden cabinet in the closet in her room. The innermost cabinet actually hides those accounting ledgers. I took out two old accounting books from the most inconspicuous pile. That should be crucial evidence. Also, I saved a girl who could be a witness in the future. After you confirm it, I will contact the people here to take the girl away and protect her.”

“It is as I expected of my wife.”

His tone was full of pride. When Lu Xingzhi heard Jiang Yao’s words, he was even more proud than he was of his meritorious deeds.

Jiang Yao had done so many things in just one night. She had done something that many people could not do for a long time.

“Combined with what I saw and heard in the nightclub tonight, and looking at the contents of the account book, I have a rough guess about the things that Wen Yunfang is responsible for in Xiang City,” Jiang Yao said. “Her subordinates will send the women in their 20s and 30s to Wen Yunfang in Xiang City. Wen Yunfang will first choose the good-looking ones and keep them. Then, she will distribute the rest to sell in various places. As for those she keeps, she will make them work for her.”

Jiang Yao paused for a moment before she gritted her teeth and cursed.

"I'm still not sure if Wen Yunfang is merely cooperating with the big establishments here or if she's one of the owners. Her subordinates are also there to receive customers. Furthermore, Wen Yunfang is extremely cruel. If anyone resists her, she will shoot them directly. She must have killed quite a number of people over the years. Her marksmanship is excellent and precise. She knows where to shoot to kill someone immediately or to let them slowly bleed to their death. We found many bones in the suburbs... She must have killed many people over the years."

Chapter 1350: Don't Be So Serious

Perhaps for Wen Yunfang, a human life was not as precious as the goldfish she kept in the living room at home.

A girl had jumped off a building and was seriously injured, but Wen Yunfang only thought of money. The girl was still alive, and Wen Yunfang wanted to leave her to die. She felt that it was bad luck for the girl to die in her place of establishment.

She had no conscience and humanity.

Even the man who informed Wen Yunfang still had a trace of pity for the girl. He wanted to persuade Wen Yunfang to send the girl to the hospital for treatment, but Wen Yunfang rejected him.

Perhaps Wen Yunfang only wanted to vent the anger in her heart. She did not think that it was a human life.

"Will Wen Yunfang find out that you took the account book? Right now, only you and the servant are staying at Wen Yunfang's place. If she finds out that the account book is gone, the first person she will suspect is you. Why don't you put the ledger back? You can take it later when the time is right. Even though those things are important, they are not as important as your safety," Lu Xingzhi said.

"I've already taken them. Why would I put them back?" Jiang Yao shook her head. "I don't think so. There are many ledger books. I took them from a box with a layer of dust on it. I don't think there's a need for Wen Yunfang to open the old ledger books."

Lu Xingzhi was silent for a long time before he nodded and said, "Ask Moe to keep an eye on Wen Yunfang for you. Once she finds out that the books are missing, you can immediately leave the city or contact me. I'll help you think of a way to cover it."

"Okay." Jiang Yao's answer was very straightforward. She did not have any intention of making Lu Xingzhi worry.

Big Ke arrived very quickly. Jiang Yao had not even ended the call with Lu Xingzhi when he arrived. After he received the books, he casually flipped through them. The more he looked at them, the more shocked he became. Then, he carefully put the books away. "Don't worry, Director Jiang. As long as I am alive, I will have this with me."

"Don't be so serious." Jiang Yao patted Big Ke's shoulder. "You and Ah Lu work in the dark. Even if something happens to Xingzhi and me, no one will find you. I am very relieved to leave that ledger with you for now. Furthermore, if there is a need for contingency, I hope you will keep your life and throw the ledger.”

It was not just that. If Jiang Yao encountered such a situation, nothing was more important than her life. If she lost the ledger, it would be easy to find other evidence. There was no need to sacrifice herself like that.

The two of them did not exchange pleasantries. After Big Ke left, Jiang Yao also returned to her room.

The walls in the courtyard were not high, so Jiang Yao did not feel any pressure when she flipped in and out of it.

After Moe went back with Jiang Yao, he snuck into Wen Yunfang’s room. He was prepared to monitor Wen Yunfang 24 hours a day. That was an order given by Lu Xingzhi, and the lazy Moe was surprisingly diligent.

Wen Yunfang was determined to get Gu Junhui to Xiang City so that the country bumpkin’s heart would not return to Gu Changshu. The next day, Wen Yunfang brought a dressed-up Jiang Yao to a high-class cocktail party.

Wen Yunfang could not use any underhanded methods because of Brother Ding’s orders, such as asking a rich man to seduce Jiang Yao... So she could only bring her out to meet different wealthy men.
