

Chapter 1361 - Reinforcements

“Lord of Fire, listen to the prayers of your humble servants, and lower your mighty power ...”

As soon as the spell was finished, a reddish light sent the landing sun forward for a distance of 2500 meters.

“噫”

The fire burst, and Lu Yang stepped out of the fire. Players within 1 meter were killed by the high amount of spell damage caused by the residual flames. Players 1 meter away were frightened, but when they saw that it was Lu Yang, With a surprised and excited look on his face.

“Kill, kill him. He is Lu Yang.”

“Chong, kill him quickly, burst his demon heart.”

“Level 9 Demon Heart 200 Million Cash.”

...

Players around the area rushed towards Chaoyangyang in a frantic manner. For a moment, thousands of people around knew that Luyang had jumped in and rushed towards Chaoyangyang in madness.

Lu Yang sneered, just as the first player’s weapon was about to touch him, the last scale in his mouth was completed.

“Forbidden Curse-Ninth Hell”

With Lu Yang as the center, an extremely fiery light suddenly appeared, as if the whole world had become red.

The ground is cracked, red and golden magma emerges from the ground, there is no scorching sun and no clouds in the sky, and there is only a reddish color. Between heaven and earth, reddish-gold flames seem to burn the space, stiflingly from the fissures of time and space. Extruded.

Within 5000 meters, every inch of space erupts once every second in this red gold flame. From the outside, there is only one kind of feeling-hell!

The flames came quickly, and they went quickly. In just 5 seconds, Lu Yang's magic was exhausted. When the fire disappeared, all the players in the hostile guild died on the ground within 5,000 meters. Lu Yang stood proudly alone. Above the battlefield, he suddenly raised his staff in his right hand and shouted.

“Iron Brotherhood, kill ~!”

“Kill ~!” The 2 million Jagged Brothers League players were crazy and completely crazy. This move of Lu Yang completely aroused their fierceness. Everyone was like a madman who launched a reaction against 6 million enemies. charge.

Seeing this scene, Dubin, who was broadcasting live, slammed on the table and shouted, “Okay, Lu Yang did a good job.”

Who would have thought that Lu Yang dared to solo and jump to thousands of horses alone at this time to launch a forbidden spell and killed tens of thousands of people. This trick is enough to cause the madness of all players, all players of the Iron Brotherhood No one is not excited about this.

Players watching the live broadcast applauded Lu Yang.

“It's worthy of the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood. It's worthy of Lu Yang. It's tough.”

“It's cool to see the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood charging again.”

“It’s a pity, this time I’m charging myself, eh ~!”

“They are not their own. This group of people are sincere in trouble, and deserve to be cleaned up by Lu Yang.”

“It’s not necessarily who you clean up. Look at it. Lu Yang is not easy to fight. There are seven strongest guilds in the south to attack, and Liu Jie and the German Cavalry Regiment to attack in the west. The small guilds are rebellious, and it is not always possible to win. “

...

The players around were silent, but some players showed a determined look on their faces. One player looked at the players around him and said, “Without the Brotherhood of Iron, there will be no stability in the China region. I don’t think what these guilds are doing right now of.”

This player is called Sun twilight Cangshan, is the chairman of the cloud guild, standing next to him is a vulgar vice president.

A vulgar person agreed: “Let the foreign guilds come in will only harm our Chinese players. These idiots made it clear that they were used by Alice, as a stepping stone for foreign guilds.”

“We should help Lu Yang get through this difficult situation, no matter what, Lu Yang is here. Our players in the Huaxia region can upgrade their equipment normally. If foreign players come in, we are afraid we will encounter that kind of thing again. Chartered leveling and strong buying and strong selling. “

An ordinary man expressed his anger and said, “Listen to your brothers.”

Nissho Cangshan said: “Okay, I will issue a convening order, and you will be responsible for the convener. I will find a president who has a good relationship with us and see if they are willing.”

A layman said, "It makes sense."

Nishiya Cangshan quickly issued an order for players to gather, and then he opened a special space and sent messages to several small guilds such as Qinjian Villa's president Moqin and Yiwu Qingcheng of the Allure Guild.

Here is the message from Cangshan at sunset, but what he doesn't know is that there are many guilds that send messages like him.

Perhaps Lu Yang himself didn't expect that through his management of the Huaxia region for so long, his fairness and justice, not only the friendship between the Jagged Brother League and ordinary players, but also those of the guilds and studios.

On the battlefield.

Two million people in Lu Yang fought against the other six million people for more than an hour. Gradually, the Brotherhood of Iron Blood blocked the offensive of the enemy, and a large number of guild players joined the team. On the front battlefield of the Chiyang Fortress, The total number of Brotherhood of the Iron Blood has gradually leveled with the hostile guild.

Far in the northern part of the new continent, in the real-world African region, in a beautiful villa, dead grass and Liu Jie are watching live video of Dubin.

Liu Jie sighed and said, "Unfortunately, the timing of these people's launch is not right. If the seven guilds in the south have arrived, they may still defeat Lu Yang together."

The dead grass chuckled and said, "Jie Shao, do you think they can defeat the Jagged Brothers?"

Liu Jie nodded and said sadly, "It should be difficult to defend."

The dead grass shook his head and said: "This is actually an inevitable result. More than 100 guilds, no one betrayed it is thankful Someone was discovered in advance, but it is normal, Alice Not ready to work with these people from the beginning. "

Liu Jie thought for a while and said, "It makes sense that so many guilds, with Lu Yang's eyes and eyes, once these presidents gather players, they will be found by him. With the current defense of the two forts, only a few people insist One or two days is not a problem. Having one or two days is enough to break up these people, and then work together to solve them.

The dead grass said: "Exactly. Although it looks like the Jagged Brothers are in danger, they are actually very stable."

Liu Jie was a little weird and said, "Shall we just stand by and watch? Nothing."

The dead grass said with a smile: "I have a plan in my heart that cannot defeat Lu Yang, but it can greatly weaken him and make him uncomfortable for at least a year."

Liu Jie became interested and asked, "If you have a good plan, don't say it, just talk about it."

The dead grass smiled and said, "You listen to me, do you remember Park In-Yi and Amikab? It might be a lot of trouble to let them sneak into Korea and India."

Chapter 1362 - Smoke everywhere

After helping Ren Jie to kill the five northern guilds in the northern region, Park In-yeon was gradually eroded by Liu Jie. He has now become an affiliated guild of Liu Jie. However, his prestige in South Korea is still very high, and many people still Are willing to follow him.

After all, there were so many small guilds in that year, no one knew which one had received the favor of Park Renyi!

Salman was also the same. At that time, Denon defeated, because various problems were caught, Salman became the representative of Denon in the Indian region. So far, it is not known how many hidden piles there are in the game.

“If they are willing to help, Lu Yang’s Indian area and South Korean area are in chaos, then he must redeploy his manpower to support it. The defense of the Tianjian Fortress must be weakened. If Lu Yang still wants to defend the fortress, he must draw troops from his side. Especially the 200,000 and 160 players are afraid to move. “Said dead grass.

“What do you mean by asking me to fight Sky Sword Fortress?” Liu Jie asked.

The dead grass shook his head and said: “It was Steige to fight, we are still the same old way, and not only we fight, but also the tiger’s mouth must fight, the smoke from all parts of the fire together, forcing Lu Yang to use only a small amount of Players will face the guild in the civil strife area. In this way, more and more affiliated guilds will join the civil strife. Although Lu Yang cannot be eliminated, he and the entire Huaxia area that can hurt him cannot catch up with our level within a year. . “

Liu Jie understood it and said, “I’ll do it and leave it to me.”

He immediately contacted Steiger and Sanyouweimen, and soon both sides understood that this was an excellent opportunity.

“Let me be the first one. My ninja legion and the samurai have been forced under the fortress, and it will be dark in the game.” Sanyou Weimen said.

“Okay, you launch an attack, and I immediately attacked the fort with an elite attack,” Steiger said.

Liu Jie was still thinking if he was going to play a show. The first one said soldiers, but did not expect that Steige would call out directly.

“Okay, I sent 3,000 stone throwers.” Liu Jie said.

Steige originally thought that Liu Jie’s African legion was weak, and he was moved when he heard that Liu Jie gave him 3,000 trebuchets. Even Rennes and Gadafi suspected that Liu Jie had not sent the main force to the battle It’s gone.

“Great, maybe we have a chance to break Lu Yang’s fortress at one time.” Steger Haha said with a laugh, where he has the best chance, if he can lay the fort, he will get the most benefits.

“Okay, everyone, we are attacking with all our strength and trying to defeat Lu Yang once.” Orma raised his hand and shouted.

The crowd nodded and went to work.

Battlefield under the Chiyang Fortress.

Lu Yang retreated back to the east wall of the fortress. The direction of the war was already in the direction of the victory of the Iron Brotherhood. He no longer needed to do it himself.

Excited expressions appeared on the faces of Tu Feng, Qing Qian Zimen, and others around him, but at this time, far below the tiger mouth fortress, a loud explosion made Lu Yang no longer calm.

The Old Man’s Meeting reported: “An unknown number of ninja corps and samurai legion attacked the fortress.”

Lu Yang frowned, saying, “To find out the number quickly, I need to know the true intentions of the enemy.”

As soon as the words fell, Tu Feng said with wide eyes, “There is news that Steige suddenly ordered the players to gather outside the city, and the goal is the Sky Sword Fortress.”

Lu Yang frowned, and said, “What do the enemies mean to cooperate with these chaotic troops? Do so few people want to break through my fortress?”

Tu Feng, Qing Qian Zimeng, and others did not understand. At this time, Li Wenxing called and panicked: “Chairman, something serious happened. There were more than 20 middle-level guild collective rebellions in South Korea. I ask Two million people withdrew the defense of Tianjian Fortress and went back to counterinsurgency. “

Without waiting for Lu Yang to speak, Paddu called and panicked: "Salman finally showed up. He gathered more than 50 middle guild rebellions. His Excellency the President, I requested to bring the main force to carry out a rebellion."

Lu Yang stunned, then laughed, and opened the map. At this time, the whole northeast area of the new continent, except the Nine Star Alliance, there was no rebellion, and the other three places were in flames of war.

"I really want to put me to death." Lu Yang murmured, a middle guild has at least 100,000 people, 20 in South Korea is 2 million, and 50 in India is 5 million.

The cute queen panicked and said, "Boss, what should we do? We must do our best to rebel, or we will lose it."

After thinking for a long time, Lu Yang said, "After ordering, Li Wenxing withdrew 1.5 million people to return to the defense, leaving 500,000 people to participate in the defense of the Tianjian Fortress. Padu and Karp and others fully defended the Indian region. End civil strife in the shortest possible time. "

"What about the sword fortress that day?" The cute queen asked.

Lu Yang said: "Order Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei to immediately withdraw from the battle and lead their main army to adhere to the Tianjian Fortress."

"But Zhuzhuo and Yu Wei each took more than one million people to fight below, and they withdrew. We are 2 million fewer than the opposite. They are still the main players and it is difficult to fight." Said the lovely queen.

Lu Yang said, "That's the only thing we can do. We don't have any extra staff."

"Would you like to tune in to players in the Spanish area?" The cute queen asked.

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile and said, "Alfonso has not yet given up, but now the players in the Spanish area can be transferred to the enemy to take advantage of it. Moreover, the main force is defended by Fernando and Ayala. The immortal bird and the red wolf fortress cannot be separated. "

Lu Yang was a little worried when she saw the cute queen and said with a smile: "Sister, let me see today, why the Iron Brothers League has been playing for three years and the game is getting stronger and stronger. This is because of this tenacity, no matter how many opponents, more Strong, I just know that I want to destroy each other. "

His body turned into a phoenix, and he flew towards the battlefield. At the same time, he gave the order to Zhuo Jiu and Xia Yuwei.

"Boss, but here?" Both Xia Yuwei and Zhuojiu were a little worried.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "If you have me, you won't lose. Go, anyway, the Sky Sword Fortress cannot be lost."

"Yes." Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei with anger on their faces, loudly ordered their men to withdraw from the battle to the Sky Sword Fortress. For a time, a white light lit up on the battlefield. There are 2 million people missing, and only 3 million are left, while the enemy still has 6 million.

Not only that, when the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood was smoky everywhere, several affiliated guilds and other guilds announced that they would join the ranks of betrayers.

Chapter 1363 - Hope in the smoke

Tu Feng rushed to share the link and called Lu Yang. "Boss, just received the news. Our affiliated guild red hall, dusk gods, five leaves god, hall of fame and black hawk corps five guilds at the same time Rebellion, they are convening players to participate in the battle. "

Lu Yang clicked the consent link, Tianyu Shencheng, Huaxia Regional Plaza.

The Red Dance Hall Guiyang, the head of the Red Dance Hall, stood on the top of the five-meter-high stone statue and shouted, "Brothers in the Red Hall, it is time for us to attack the Jagged Brotherhood. In the future, we will no longer be affiliated with the Jagged Brotherhood. We only belong to ourselves, and we will also have our own fortress. Fly to the Seven Star Fortress with me and lay him down. There will be our home in the future. "

A provocative utterance instantly gave interested players who had been idle for three months a look of interest,

Following the orders of their respective legion commanders, they quickly returned to the New World, just outside the Seven Star Fortress.

Fortunately, the Brotherhood of Jagged Brothers has stipulated that whenever there is a war, all fortresses will close the external teleportation team. Only the players of the Brotherhood of Jagged Brothers will be able to shuttle between the major fortresses by virtue of the Guild Scroll.

Even so, there are only 10,000 Iron Brother Brothers players and 20,000 affiliated guild players guarding the Seven Star Fortress, and the enemy has a total of 200,000.

Lu Yang asked: "To what extent have the other four guilds gathered?"

Tu Feng said: "They have just assembled, and they are expected to complete the assembly as soon as two hours later. The target cannot be determined."

Lu Yang snorted coldly and said, "Then I will kill the Red Man Museum first."

"But we don't have a legion that can be adjusted." Tu Feng said dimly, who could have imagined that the situation of the war had plummeted, and the original form of the Iron Brotherhood had suddenly become a state of imminent death.

Lu Yang gritted his teeth and thought for a long time. Now he asked him to call back the Blood Wolf Guard. He was unwilling. The five-hour long supply line from Tongtian Fortress to Tiger Mouth Fortress should be the best space for Lu Yang to consume the enemy. Without the Blood Wolf Legion, the enemy can replenish at will, which has affected him too much.

But do n't call back now, just all the players in the hands, whether it is the Vulcan M16 near Xingxing Village, or the white tiger in Demon Village near the tiger mouth fortress, there are fewer people hitting more people, ca n't tell a person. Come.

He is even more so here, with more than 3 million players against the enemy's more than 6 million, the number of people that are almost doubled, the equipment, level, and blood are almost the same as each other. It is not easy to be tied, and then adjusted. Manpower, Chiyang Fortress must be captured by opponents.

At the Sky Sword Fortress, Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei have brought together people and attacking cavalry regiments. The strength of the cavalry regiment is as strong as the main force of the Brotherhood of Iron Blood, and there are more people than the Brotherhood of Iron Blood. It's not easy to be able to stay, and Lu Yang didn't dare to find muddy wine. They wanted to be alone.

The tiger mouth fortress is even more so. The 1 million coalition forces of the seven strongest guilds plus the sneak attack of the 200,000 three-turn ninja and the samurai legion make the tiger mouth fortress with only 200,000 defenders stretched. If there are not enough fortifications, The Tiger Mouth Fortress has been lost.

"Boss, you can only call the Blood Wolf Guard back."

"Can't wait any longer."

"Boss, our blood wolf legion is on call, let's join the battle."

...

In the simulation group, people such as Zhuojiu and White Lion dissuaded.

World.

“It is a pity to say to all supporters of the Jagged Brotherhood that Lu Yang is doomed this time.”

“The fire inside Lu Yang is so serious. It is really God who wants Lu Yang to die. The Brotherhood of Iron and Blood is really over.”

Yamazaki, the first game host of the Japan Game Channel, said aloud, “Tonight, the president of Japan’s First Guild, Sanyouemon, will surely break through the tiger mouth fortress and lay down the iron brother brother Huaxia area in one game.

...

More than 100 countries and more than 200 TV stations around the world and thousands of live broadcast rooms are simultaneously broadcasting live or webcasting the battle of life and death around the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood.

Dubin, the first game host in the Huaxia area, gritted his teeth in the live broadcast room and said, “Now it’s up to Lu Yang to decide, he should immediately call the Blood Wolf Legion to return.”

The invited guests shook their heads and said, “Trouble is more than this one. Only one Blood Wolf Legion can calm one enemy at a time. Now there are five other affiliated guilds joining the betrayer ranks, all of which are 200,000. The above players, although there are dozens of affiliated guilds who are standing with him on the Iron Brotherhood, they are all small guilds with less than 50,000 people. They are evenly distributed in the fortresses for defense. ratio.”

Dubin stared at Lu Yang on the screen and said, “I believe Lu Yang will be able to find a way to defeat defeat, and he will be able to find it.”

Hitomi suddenly exclaimed, shouting: “A large number of enemies appeared outside the Seven Star Fortress, and the blood dancing sun of the Red Mansions arrived with 200,000 people.”

in the game.

The vice president in charge of defending the fortress reported the news to Lu Yang for the first time, and Lu Yang was still thinking.

“Boss, can’t wait any longer, tell us to go back.” The eager and anxious people almost cried, and their voices changed.

“As long as we lose a fortress, all affiliated guilds will betray, and other guilds in China will also betray. Everyone wants to take this opportunity to bite us.” Xia Yuwei said.

“Can’t wait any longer Once the fortress is lost, the undefeated golden body of the Jagged Brotherhood will be broken, and the breath of the brothers will be vented.” Zhou Tianming said.

...

Almost all vice presidents are persuading Lu Yang, but Lu Yang is still unmoved. He always feels that there is something wrong with this battle, as if a certain detail has been ignored by him. As long as he finds this detail, the current situation can be ease.

The old man on the channel hesitantly said on the channel: “Strange, the enemies outside the Tiger Mouth Fortress are fiercely attacking, but how can I feel that they are weak?”

There was a sudden flash of lightning in Lu Yang’s head, and he asked with his eyes wide open: “Show me the battle scene outside the Tiger Mouth Fortress.”

The old man in the twilight clicked to share his sights. In front of Lu Yang, a battle scene outside the tiger mouth fortress appeared. Millions of players were listed 500 meters away from the two wings of the fortress, guarding 5,000 catapults.

At this time, more than half of the 200,000 ninjas and divine warriors who had attacked the city had been wounded and wounded. The two sides relied mainly on catapults for bombing, but the one million did not initiate a death charge.

Chapter 1364 - Deception tactics

Lu Yang understood it instantly, haha said with a smile: “The seven * are afraid of our blood wolf legion. They are afraid of the blood wolf legion sneak attack.”

After all, it is a 160-level blood wolf, but the main force of the seven guilds are all over 150. According to the equipment attributes that are more than 40% less than the blood wolves, they did not dare to rely on this when there were no large legions assembled here. One million people launched a large-scale attack on Tiger Mouth Fortress.

Zhou Tianming asked: “Boss, I don’t understand what you mean by this sentence.”

Lu Yang laughed and said, “I mean, the Seven Great Guilds didn’t dare to let these 1 million people attack. Once they showed a flaw, these 100,000 blood wolves could kill them in a wave, so they only dare to use them. Catapults attack the fortress, throwing skills at each other with our catapult and lightning tower. “

“So what, the Blood Wolf Legion can’t attack.” The bitter-looking half-blank face was blank.

Lu Yang smiled again, and then said in a silent voice: “Listen to my order, the Blood Wolf Legion immediately attacked the enemies outside the Tiger Mouth. Remember, don’t fight, just turn around them and force them to dare not attack.”

“Yes.” Pride Wan said with a scowling expression.

Lu Yang then ordered: “The Old Man of the Twilight immediately dispatched 3,000 people each from the Starbreaker Archer, Divine Blood Warrior, Divine Knight, Ice Archmage, and Blood Oath Shaman from the Tiger Mouth Fortress. They flew to the Seven Star Fortress.”

“Why?” The old man in the twilight first responded, then said, “I see. I’ll send someone over here, do you want a team leader to lead the team?”

Lu Yang said: “The town of Hades, Wan Zhonghui, Liu Ruohuai, and the fiery hell, I don’t need any of them, all stay on the fortress to attack, and the lovely queen will continue to follow me.”

Everyone was confused.

Lu Yang continued to order, saying: “Padu, immediately order the mirror mage in your hand to report to the tiger mouth fortress, and I will grant you temporary transmission permissions.”

Partu said in the simulation group: “This legion is useful when pretending to scare people, specific fighting ...”

Partu understood and quickly said, “I’ll send someone here.”

They have understood bitterly for half a life and Zhou Tianming. They said, “Boss, you want to lie.”

Lu Yang said with a smile: “I haven’t used this trick for a long time, I miss it.”

Everyone laughed. Generally, Lu Yang used tactics. When the Jagged Brothers League did not win, it was only for more than a year that the Jagged Brothers League was invincible on the front battlefield. It is rarely necessary to use this kind of cheating scheme of Lu Yang.

“My mirror mage has 10,000 people, and can now teleport.” Padu said in the simulation group.

Lu Yang immediately opened the authority and said, “After entering the fortress, order everyone to put on a black cloak, and never expose them as mirror mage.”

He went on to say, “Plunge King Zhen, Wan Zhonghui, Liu Ruohuai, all of your army chiefs have pretended to be pretending to me, and who is exposed, I will not draw him.”

“Boss rest assured that we will never be exposed.” Liu Ruohuai said with a smile.

“We will send the most elite players in the team to the city main house of the Seven Star Fortress.” Wan Zhonghui said.

Hell King Zhenzhen asked: “Boss, who leads the team.”

“I lead the team myself,” Lu Yang said.

The bitter love blinked for a long time and said, “The battlefield over there is nothing to do.”

Lu Yang looked at the battlefield below. The Brotherhood of Brotherhood was extremely hard. But now the symbolic brotherhood of Brotherhood of Brotherhood is greater than the actual meaning. There are Xu Cailiang in the battle line, Zhou Tianming and the half-hearted commander. , Jiang Ze, Sun Yu, Tian Yao and others, although he was quite lost before, but now, his brothers, each of them can lead the overall situation for him.

“Having a long life, I give you the command here. Xu Cailiang is in charge of the specific battle formation command. Remember, before I return, no matter what the price is, I will block the enemy’s attack.” Lu Yang said.

“Yes.” Suai Ai and Xu Cailiang responded in unison.

Lu Yang’s phoenix flew towards the sky. After leaving the battlefield, he used the teleportation scroll to instantly reach the city main house of the Seven Star Fortress.

The light flashed, and at first glance he saw the neatly-matched Jagged Brothers players. One of them said, “Report boss, my name is Tang Feiqi, deputy head of the blood oath shaman group, 3000 blood oath shaman set Done. “

Another person came out and said, “Reporting boss, my name is Tan Zhe, deputy head of the God Blood Warrior Army, and 3000 God Blood Warriors have assembled.”

The third person came out and said, "Reporting boss, my name is Fang Xin, the deputy head of the Archbishop Pastor Group, and the 3,000 Archbishop Pastor have assembled."

The fourth person came out, "I'm a three-faced devil, and the 3,000 Starbreaker shooters have assembled."

The fifth person came out, "I called the end of the world lonely, and the 3,000 divine knights assembled."

The sixth person came out, "The assassin group of God's grace is assembled, brother, I am Tianhui."

The seventh person is the cute queen, and his Ice Master group has also assembled. A total of 21,000 people, all of whom are 160-level three-turn top-line occupations.

Lu Yang said with a high voice of satisfaction: "Very good, brothers, you already know the current situation. What I want to tell you is that from now on, we will start with our temporary army. Will go in the direction of our victory, that is, we, those of us, and I will take everyone to kill all the affiliated guilds who have betrayed us, until they dare not fight back, do not dare to show up again, fight their guild collapse, Players quit, hit their chairman and dare not go online, and let them dissolve. "

With Lu Yang's soaring voice, more than 20,000 temporary brotherly alliances of the Jagged Brothers were elite, and their high war intentions were revealed in the eyes. Originally, they were very angry. Now with the high war intentions, they completely released the original Killing intention.

"Boss, tell me how to fight." Tang Feiqi shouted.

Lu Yang was about to speak, and Xingye suddenly ran into the city's main house, and said to Lu Yang in a panic, "The gate of the city has been lost, and the Red Dance Hall's blood-dunking sun is rushing towards the city's house with 200,000 people."

Lu Yang said: "You immediately bring all the resurrected men to the defense points around the resurrection points."

“What? This and here are all lost. What shall we do there?” Star Avenue was anxious.

Lu Yang looked behind him with a smile and said, “The last ace in my hand has been transferred, and the problem here is solved.”

“The last ace? Blood wolves?” Xing Ye’s face smiled with excitement.

Lu Yang shook his head and said, “No is another 160-level full-equipped 160-level dark gold player that I have not activated, with a total number of 20,000.”

“What?” Starry Night froze and asked, “Do you have any other 160 players?”

Lu Yang said with a smile: “Of course, you don’t think that I only have 300,000 and 160 players, I don’t have a hand.”

Xingye watched the player behind him cold 160-level dark gold weapons and equipment, and breathed a long sigh of relief, saying, “I’ll just say, Dignity Brotherhood, how can there be no backhand, rest assured, I will take People ambush at the resurrection point to ensure that the grandchildren of Blood Dance Can Yang are not allowed to run away. “

...

The shouting of hostile guild reds hall players has been heard at the door. Lu Yang smiled and let Xingye leave first. He turned to the players behind him and said, “Tonight, you are gods. There is no God to beat. I order, Brotherhood of the Iron Blood! “

Chapter 1365 - Sack reds hall

“Kill!” Lu Yang raised his staff forward.

“Kill!” The 21,000 players roared as if they were crazy, as if they were the keys to start the robot, and rushed towards the door.

Lu Yang rushed to the front. As soon as he arrived at the door, he saw countless hostile players rushing towards this side.

“The enemies in the city’s main government rushed out. Everyone will come up and destroy them in one fell swoop.”

“Three-turn fighters and three-turn knights rushed, and there was a mage who ran out first and hacked him.”

...

In the shout, a group of players holding two-handed swords rushed towards the Brotherhood of Iron Blood quickly after being accelerated.

Lu Yang laughed. Looking at the person who rushed over, he didn’t need to chant a spell, and ran while pointing his left hand forward, at the moment when he stopped.

“Blazing Bird”

A crimson flame formed from Lu Yang’s shoulders, landing on Yang’s arm, like a launch pad, blasting forward.

“Don’t evade, the next treatment will give you blood. This person looks good in equipment, maybe he is the leader, and burst his equipment.”

“Kill.”

The three-turn soldiers and knights of the Red People's Museum heard the captain's orders behind them, and no longer thought about evasion, relying on their own blood and high resistance, they ran into their skills.

"call"

The Blazing Birds swept over their bodies and continued to fly towards the players behind, while the players who were hit by the Blazing Birds stood in situ, their faces still kept the expression of excitement during the charge, but the next One second.

At a position 10 yards wide in front of Lu Yang, three-turn soldiers and knights and even the priest behind him within 30 meters of a straight line were all killed by this flame.

The captain standing behind did not see the skills released by Lu Yang. He thought that the player in front had been attacked by the enemy's intensive firepower and immediately died. "The priest is going to resurrect."

The players behind continued to rush towards the front. At the same time, the resurrection spell on the ground lit up. After a white light, the players who had just died were resurrected.

But before waiting for the next second, another magical shock came.

"Blazing Bird"

Lu Yang didn't have too good attack skills on players of this small group, he simply swept away with the basic magic flame bird.

"call"

The resurrected player and the rushed player fell to the ground again, and at this time, the main brother of the Iron Brotherhood behind him also followed.

“Kill ~!”

Tang Feiqi first rushed to the enemy in front of him, ignoring the sword that the soldier turned to his body with three turns, and struck a vertical split according to the opponent’s head.

“Blood Oath Strike”

The blood oath, which had been ready for attack, struck 7 enemies in a row after the sword was hit by the enemy.

“2459684”

“4859684” (Critical)

...

Before the third blood shadow attacked, the opponent fell to the ground, level 160 played more than 140 levels, and increased the crit chance by nearly 10%, and the level 160 dark gold set hit the level 140 dark gold set, on both sides Offensive and defensive attributes are nearly doubled.

The player of the Red Man Pavilion hit Tang Feiqi with less than 500 points of damage. He didn’t even look at the players on the ground, and then cut it with a sword.

In the same way, Tan Zhe and Tianhui who rushed to the side attacked the same way. Basically, they were two swords, and one kill was one when they were killed.

In the case of high-level black light gems, they are guaranteed to output a knife every 1.2 seconds. The most powerful is the blood warrior. I do n’t know how Tan Zhe did it. He changed his health to below 40%, and his attack speed changed. It became a knife of 0.2 seconds.

He is just like a meat grinder, lined up with dozens of God Blood Warrior players like him, and does not need any skills or fancy attack methods, that is, vertical splits, no Stop with a vertical split.

The entire formation is advancing in a continuous cleave. As long as the battle is received, the opponent's attack speed is 0.2 seconds and the enemy is chopped to the ground as long as the opponent does not attack.

For a while, all the enemies who rushed on the street were killed and killed, but there were too many enemies, and 100,000 rushed in. There was no formation on the Iron Brotherhood, and there were not many people killed.

The Red Dance Can Yang, the president of the Red Man's House, just rushed into the city gate at this moment, and his face was extremely excited when he looked at the rigorous and magnificent fortress.

"This requires 10 million credit points to build the city wall, 5 million credit points to buy all the buildings in the city, and 5 million credit points to build the city's main house and inner city wall. A total of 20 million can A fortress built.

Lao Tzu finally has a fortress of his own. In the future, this seven-star fortress will be my blood and sun. I should send a message on the World Channel to encourage the morale of other brothers. "Blood Dance Can Yang said with a laugh.

When he was about to shout on the World Channel, the vice chairman around him said quickly: "Do n't be the boss, it hasn't been formally beaten yet. If it is sent now, Lu Yang will die and will assemble players to bring us back. Go out, isn't this a stepping stone for other players? "

Blood Dance and the Sun quickly responded and said, "It makes sense that this kind of thing will be done before it's done. Haha, it is indeed my vice chairman, just smart."

"Haha, still the boss is wise, otherwise how can we have a fortress of our own?" The vice chairman touted.

Blood Dance Zanyang looked excited on his face and said, "Let's rush into the fortress together and change the fortress token."

"Okay." The vice chairman was also excited.

But at this time, a discordant voice appeared, and a resurrected leader-level player reacted, and there was a problem with his own death.

“Boss, a large number of elite players rushed out of the city’s mansion. The fire system headed by the Fire Department has very high injuries. I suspect he is Lu Yang.”

“Nonsense, why did Lu Yang have time to come here?” Blood Dance Can Yang’s heart burst suddenly, but he immediately cheered himself up loudly.

The head of the first regiment said: “It’s not just a matter of the fire mage. The enemy equipment rushed out behind this fire mage should all be level 160. The theocratic knights used when Lu Yang attacked the eastern mountains in the video before , God Blood Warrior and Ice Arch Mage are very similar. “

“What?” The cold sweat on the face of Blood Dance Zunyang came down suddenly. He quickly found a high place and looked forward, but found that the Jagged Brothers Alliance on the street had just started a formation, although the number was only 20,000 or 30,000. , But after occupying the street, he was starting a crazy strangling to the players under his hands, and most of his people were killed even if they couldn’t hold it for 2 seconds.

Especially the ice master in the rear, after having a priest priest draw a circle to reduce the damage, he rushed to the third row of the battlefield. At this distance, he released the high-level ice spells madly, and standing in the first row, the one The fire spell is Lu Yang himself.

“Forbidden Curse-Meteor Fall”

Fortunately, Lu Yang felt that before the civil strife, he had obtained the materials for making the fire-forbidden scrolls. Grant made 500 scrolls, and 50 of these scrolls were in his hands, which was used at this time.

“boom”

All the enemies within 500 meters in diameter were killed. It happened that the blood dancing sun was lucky and stood at 501 meters. At this time, there was no one between him and Lu Yang.

Lu Yang saw the blood dance residual sun at a glance, his face looked stern, and cursed: "Blood dance residual sun, you are so brave."

The most afraid of the blood dance and the sun is Lu Yang. Where did he think that Lu Yang would actually take someone to stop him? In fright, he didn't even dare talk, and turned around and ran, shouting: "Lu Yang, Don't you want the fortress of Chiyang? What's the use of coming here to hit me?"

How can Lu Yang let him run away, and lead someone to chase after the blood dance and the sun, shouting loudly while running: "Any vice chairman of the Iron Brotherhood has the power to lead a large war for me. You I think my brother-in-law brotherhood is a small guild like you, can't do anything without a president?"

The blood dance and the sun recalled people such as Zhuojiu, White Lion, Half-Life, Zhou Tianming, and Tian Yao. There was a panic in my heart, and I thought that he was afraid of each of these people, because these people have the capital that cherishes one side. But they are willing to live under Lu Yang.

But another thought, the Blood Dance Can Yang felt wrong, and looked back at the players around Lu Yang, and sure enough, each one was a 160-level elite, and a smile suddenly appeared on his face. Haha laughed and shouted: "Lu Yang Lu Yang, you are such a fool that you even transferred the 160 level of elite defense of the tiger mouth fortress. Are you afraid of losing the tiger mouth?"

Lu Yang knew that the critical moment had come, and he also laughed and said, "Do you think that when you see that I have only 300,000 and 160 elites, are there really only 300,000 people? Although there are not many of these 20,000 people is the trump card that has been hidden in my hand, and it is at this moment that it is activated."

Blood Dance is the dumbfounded sun. His heart suddenly sank. How could a guild with such a huge iron brotherhood have only 300,000 160 players?

Since he can create 300,000, isn't it easy to add another 20,000? His heart was "suddenly realized" that they were all deceived by Lu Yang.

“Run away, this battle can’t be fought, everyone retreats, retreats.” Blood Dance Chan Yang shouted in fear.

The players who were rushing to the city had long heard Lu Yang’s shouting of using a large horn. Where did they dare to fight Lu Yang, they turned and ran away.

Seeing this scene, the cute queen said to the chasing Lu Yang: “Boss, just got the news, the King Kong fortress was attacked by the magic heart guild. King Kong fortress? “

Lu Yang shook his head and said, “No, as long as the main city of the King Kong fortress is not lost, we will chase the blood dancing residual sun. I want to tell everyone to sneak attack on the end of my Jagged Brothers Fortress and kill!”

Chapter 1366 - Shock 4

“Kill ~!”

More than 20,000 players swarmed up and chased the Red Hall Pavilion players all the way out of the city. At this point, 200,000 people had been killed by two-thirds, and the remaining people fled, but they couldn’t escape the Iron Brotherhood. Orderly hunting, the rampant madness when breaking through the city gate, can’t be seen at this time.

Lu Yang never rushed up to drop the blood dance residual sun, but was only killing the player of the Red Man Pavilion, but his eyes never left the blood dance residual sun. No matter where he fled, Lu Yang followed him closely. 50 meters location.

It was as if the cheetah was playing with the enemy before killing the enemy. The blood dance residual sun also discovered this situation. After running all the way for 10 minutes, Lu Yang followed behind the blood dance residual sun until the blood dance residual sun was killed. Clean, a sneer finally appeared on his face.

“Remnant Flame-Activated”

With a reddish light, Lu Yang flew to the position 1m in front of the Blood Dance Canyon.

“boom”

Blood Dancing Sun Yang wanted to run sideways when he saw this light, but did not expect that Lu Yang appeared in front of him in a burst of fire.

“Resistant Fire Ring”

Lu Yang’s body glowed with a reddish light in the middle of the frightened blood dancing Canyon’s body, flying his side across a distance of 15 meters.

Without waiting for him to stand still, Lu Yang’s right-hand staff pointed at the dancing blood of the sun, and the mantra read out.

“Fire Snake Bondage”

Nine fire snakes emerged from the feet of the blood dancing sun, holding them firmly in place.

“badge”

Blood Dance Can Yang quickly used the badge to unlock the control. He didn’t dare to fight Lu Yang, but just wanted to continue to escape.

In the world, most of the anchors cut their shots on the battle between Lu Yang and Blood Dance Cannon. Neither the anchor nor the players who watched it understood why Blood Dance Canyon just wanted to run.

“Fight him.”

“That’s a big deal.”

“Just do it, kill Lu Yang and get the 9th level demon heart.”

...

Lu Yang didn’t watch the live broadcast, but he knew why the Blood Dance Canyon ran, and he sneered and said, “Is it reluctant to wear the Level 9 Escape Dagger and the Subaru God Blood Badge? I heard that this thing can be unblocked within 5 seconds. Once, you can also improve Level 5 Paladin skills, good stuff. “

“You, you, how do you know I have this thing.” Blood Dance Canyon stared in horror, these things are his treasures, top secret treasures.

Lu Yang laughed at himself and said, “In less than 1 minute after you hit this equipment, your subordinates will report the news to Tu Feng. The other party clearly indicated that they can provide your detailed address and let us send People kill you to grab the equipment, they don’t want anything else, they just want to take your place, you know? I didn’t agree. “

The blood dance and the sun stunned and said, “You’re talking about my vice president? Impossible, absolutely impossible, you’re framing him, I won’t believe it.”

Lu Yang laughed and said, “I have served Lu Lu from this game to today, but I once said a lie. I really regret it. I thought you were a good friend and a good ally. We work hard together, You can make the Huaxia area better, so that players in the Huaxia area can play the game more happily. I really did not expect that you betrayed me openly when I was the hardest. “

The blood dance remnant was silent, he looked at Lu Yang, thought for a long time, and finally put down his face, sneered and said, "Lu Yang, you don't need to tell me this nonsense anymore, if you have time to kill me here, you are not afraid of you Are other fortresses broken by other guilds? "

Lu Yang said: "I have more than 20,000 elites, and there are people everywhere to fight with me, what am I afraid of? What am I worried about? What can you * who betray me do?"

The blood dance sun is silent.

Lu Yang went on to say: "Tell you the blood dance and the residual sun, today I will set an example for players in the Huaxia region. Anyone who dares to betray me Lu Yang, I will kill him back to level 0."

"Ha ~!" Blood Dance Can Yang sneered and said, "Just because you want to kill me back to level 0, you think too much."

"Really?" Lu Yang said with a confident smile on his face. "Let's try it."

"Pyroblast"

Lu Yang didn't release special skills either. He hit two Pyroblasts in succession, all hitting the Blood Dance and the Sun, and instantly killed him on the ground. A Level 6 Wind Elf, an Artifact Badge, and a Level 9 escape dagger.

"It's all good things, but unfortunately they all burst out at one time." Lu Yang picked up the items and sent a message asking: "The players stationed in the major cemeteries pay attention and see the blood dance and the sun quickly report the coordinates."

Xingye just ran to the necropolis, and at a glance, she saw the resurrected blood dance sun in the blood.

"Boss Lu Yang, I saw it, coordinates 1933847.2484933." Xing Ye immediately sent a message.

Lu Yang flew back to the main fortress of the Red Fortress at exactly the same time, where there were 10,000 space-time elf mages and 50,000 forbidden mages standing there waiting to be summoned.

He said to Lu Yuming running over the coordinates, "Take me there immediately."

"Yes." Lu Yuming used the space-time link to Lu Yang, then the body flashed with glaucoma, and flew to the coordinate point with the landing sun.

“嘭”

The blue light burst, and Lu Yang found himself in a large cemetery, and in front of him, it was the stunned blood dancing the sun sitting on the ground with big eyes stunned.

"You, why are you here?" Blood Dance Can Yang asked in horror.

Lu Yang pointed to the space-time link on his body and Lu Yuming next to him: "I have 10,000 space-time elf mage, killing you is the same as killing a bug, let me die ~!"

“Flame Storm”

“Flaming bird”

Two skills were played one after the other, and under two high-volume crit, the blood dancing sun was killed!

The light flashed.

Blood Dance Remnant appeared in another graveyard half an hour away from the Seven Star Fortress. Just after he was resurrected, he quickly looked to the left and right, and found that no one around him noticed him, and quickly used the scroll to fly to the heavenly city. He knew that as long as he arrived Tian Yu Shen Cheng, he is alive.

If not, he will always be caught in Lu Yang's pursuit, which is why he did not dare to resurrect in any village. If he appeared in the village's safe area, Lu Yang would destroy that village together.

...

Over time, when he was able to teleport with 2 seconds left, a blue light burst behind him and Lu Yang appeared.

"Want to leave, think too much." Lu Yang raised his hand with a flame shock, right in the head of the blood dance and the sun.

More than 5 million crit damage, the blood dance and the sun will die again!

the third time

the fourth time

Lu Yang killed Blood Dance Can Yang more than 50 times in succession, killing him by 5 levels, and Blood Dance Can Yang has been killed and collapsed. He has changed from the initial arrogance to begging. He begged Lu Yang to let him go. Don't let him lose his face to this extent.

“I was wrong, President Lu Yang. I really know that it is wrong. Please don’t kill me anymore. My level can no longer be dropped.” Blood Dance Can Yang cried and begged.

“Pyroblast”

The blood dance is dead.

In the next cemetery, the Blood Dance remnant Yang Gang just resurrected and saw Lu Yang following him. He continued crying and begging, “I ordered my men to quit. We quit this war. We confess defeat. We dare not attack again. Brotherhood of the Iron Blood. “

“Pyroblast”

Blood Dance and the Sun Are Dead! At the same time this scene was captured on the spot by numerous live broadcasts.

In the next cemetery, the blood dance remnant sun was resurrected. After reading back to the city scroll for 5 seconds, Lu Yang reappeared.

“Pyroblast”

Lu Yang did not give the blood dance the sun, and then killed him!

...

The rules of the game, the player’s resurrection interval is only 10 seconds. The resurrection point that can be selected is one of the closest resurrection points. There is no way to directly select the resurrection point at a longer distance. Therefore, with the help of sometimes the space mage, Lu Yang can do unlimited hunting and killing of the blood dancing sun.

Iron Blood Brothers players who are participating in the offense and defense of the Red Fortress. Many people are playing a live video of Lu Yang when they are fighting. This does not take up space, but there is a small square in the lower left corner of the field of vision. There is a live landing. The picture of the yang abuse killing the blood dance and the sun.

“Well, the boss is so cruel, kill him almost 60 times.”

“Well, 58 times, the grandson of Blood Dance Canyang has lost 5 levels, and it will be 6 levels soon.”

“Haha, let the grandson betray us, the boss did a good job.”

“Hey, I don’t think we have more than 20,000 160-level brothers. I don’t know when the boss recruited them. Why didn’t I hear it?”

“The boss is so rich, who knows how many people he secretly recruits, often.”

...

Players chat while chatting. The original difficult war has become less laborious. On the other hand, the pace of the attack on the magic heart guild against King Kong fortress and the three guilds against three fortresses such as the nine-color fortress can not help. All slowed down.

“We can no longer attack the fortress of the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood separately. In the face of Lu Yang’s 2160 160 elites, none of us have the ability to protect ourselves,” said the president of the Magic Heart Guild.

Longquan President Longquan said: “I agree, don’t say us, the players are afraid to fight, and they all know that even if they rush into the city, they will be smashed by Lu Yang’s elite, and they will follow the unlucky Red Hall. Like the players, they were chased by Lu Yang. “

“I agree,” said the three princes of the mythological association.

“I agree,” said the president of the Demon League in the final battle.

Seeing each other agrees, everyone agrees, saying, "Let's discuss it and see which fortress to play, how to defend after it is hit, and how to divide it in the future."

...

Four people talked to each other On the other side, outside the tiger mouth fortress, the seven strongest guild presidents Olma and Sanyouweimen who were on the attack also got the news, which made them a few They were restless.

"Why would Lu Yang come up with more than 20,000 160-level elites?" Olma said angrily.

Jerz cursed: "This * still has such a hand. I am afraid that today's offense will return without success."

"It's better if we do it. Let the gang of Chinese idiots go to war for themselves." Stephen said.

Olma looked at Mitomon, who had been silent, and asked, "What do you mean?"

Sanyouweimen was lowering his head in thought. Suddenly he looked up at the people present and said, "Would you say that Lu Yang would transfer the players from the Tiger Fortress to form a temporary legion to deceive us all?"

The eyes of Olma and Jerz and others were all on.

“If he dare to withdraw more than 20,000 players from the fortress at this time, we are fighting for the one million people to fall below level 150, and we will also attack the tiger fortress.” Olma said.

“But what if Lu Yang really has more than 20,000 of them?” Stephen asked.

Olma was speechless.

Sanyouweimen looked up at the sky and slowly said, “If he does, he can only say that he is hiding too deeply. Let’s explore the situation first and order the Vulture Legion and the Mixed Air Combat Corps to gather. Be sure to fly into the fort , Find out the number of Jagged Brothers players. “

In the tiger mouth fortress, not only is there a lightning tower that can be air-defense, but also the 12,000 flying druids led by the German corpse are investigating at a height of 500 meters above the fortress.

Germany has received instructions from Lu Yang. There are fewer people in the fortress here, and the enemy will definitely investigate. His current task is to defend the enemy’s attack with all his strength, but also to accidentally omit a small number of enemies. , They flew to the fort to detect their own players.

He was thinking how to complete the task to the best. Unfortunately, in front of his eyes, countless vultures and angels flew from the enemy’s position.

“Damn, the enemy is here, and everyone is ready for battle.” De Bucha shouted.

Getting upset and in charge of managing the Phoenix Legion, he roared, “Phoenix rushes, aiming at the Angel Legion directly ahead, and launches in a cluster.”

2000 phoenixes form a circle, covering a range of 500 yards in diameter, regardless of whether there is an enemy in front of them or not, when the opposite enemy is less than 100 meters away, immediately launch the Phoenix impact skills.

The angel's blood is thick and the double resistance is high, but the disadvantages are poor turning ability and slow flight speed, and the characteristic of the Phoenix shock is to fight blood according to the percentage, which is just to restrain the angel.

De Bu tasted the corpse and shouted, "Black Iron Battle Eagle, as I charge, kill the enemy vulture."

"Let them see who is the king of air combat."

"Stupid birds, your grandpa is here."

10,000 black iron war eagles rushed to the vulture corps quickly, and the two sides were fighting again. Unlike the last time, the last time the black iron eagle corps was attacked by the vultures and it was the first time to fight the vultures. I do n't know The opponent's skills, this time, each black iron war hawk is holding a scroll to lift blindness.

The most proud skills of the vultures are invalid for the Black Iron Warhawk, and the number of angel legions is small, and the number of angel shooters is less. The main thing is that because the Black Iron Warhawk 's attack power is too strong, this time Stephen 's artifact angel shooter team Did not dare to participate in the war.

In this way, although the number of Vulture and Angel mixed air combat troops is more than double that of the Black Iron War Eagle, behind the Black Iron War Eagle is the fortress resurrection point. With a deadly style, the opponents who have been fighting for a while cannot be approached. .

Stephen himself was directing the battle in the sky. Seeing this scene, his face showed anger, and he called in the simulation group and scolded: "The enemy's air combat force is too powerful, we can't storm it."

Sanyouemon also saw the battle in the sky. The air battles on both sides were extremely fierce and looked very ornamental. He said with a smile: "I suggest that you divide your team into small units, all rushing to the fortress. This time, The mission is not to compete with the enemy's air combat team, but to investigate. "

As soon as Stephen's eyes lighted, he said, "It's me that's fascinated, and I'll order it."

A sharp hissing sounded in the air. After hearing the command, the mixed army of 40,000 angels and vultures immediately stopped fighting with the black iron eagle and rushed towards the fortress.

"Damn it, stop them." De Bu tasted the corpse and thought about how to sell a flaw and let a small number of enemies rush in. I did not expect that the enemy would not fight with him, and he would rush in to explore the situation of the fortress.

"Late Boss, I'll take care of it." De Bu tasted the corpse and quickly sent a message to the old man who commanded the fortress.

The old man in the twilight is thinking about how to cheat the enemy. The players participating in the defense in the fortress are on standby on the sixth wall, a total of about 80,000 people, and the mirror mage is all hidden in the mezzanine in the middle of the wall.

The duration of each mirroring is half an hour. It was released just 10 minutes ago, and it can still last for about 20 minutes.

The old man in the twilight said, "You are attacking normally, don't pose like desperately blocking it. Once it is revealed, the enemy will surely guess that there are not enough people on our wall."

"Under that?" De Bu tasted the corpse a little uneasy.

The old man in the twilight said, "Remember, the first thing you killed was the Angel Army. They are highly resistant, and they can't be killed by three thunderbolts. They approached, it was easy to observe the situation below. Put the Vulture Legion down, that thing thunder and lightning. Dozens of them will never find the problem below. "

De Bu tasted the corpse and smiled, and said, "You are so terribly late, this trick will surely kill the grandsons across from you."

He turned off the intercom, and shouted in the group: "Primarily hunt down the angel army, give me, let's step down to Stephen, and give it to the Lightning Tower below."

The Black Iron Warhawk Legion was divided into two, one part was led by De Wu taste the corpse, and rushed towards Stephen, regardless of the following, and the other part was handed over to become upset, he was responsible for bringing Phoenix and Black The Raven Legion uses flames to attack the Vulture Legion.

Stephen was leading the Legion quickly flying towards the fortress under the cover of the vulture, but he watched the black iron eagle rushing towards him.

"This bastard, protect me," Stephen shouted.

Although he doesn't have the heart of a shooter, he also brings a good set of equipment, wind elves, escape daggers, enhanced skills and special treasures.

A large part of it is to support the blood and defense, which he brought out to prevent his being killed and affect the army, but he never thought of giving these things to his opponent.

Germany doesn't taste a dead body. They are all equipped with level 160, but they don't have any special treasures. They fight to send the equipment to death and rush to Stephen in general.

Is the 160-level Black Iron Warhawk an angel that the 150-level can resist? It was quickly killed by most of them, and Stephen was also exposed to the eyes of Germany.

"Brothers, get rid of Stephen and get rich!" Shouted De Bu tasted dead.

"Iron Brotherhood, kill ~!"

Nearly 5,000 dark iron war eagles bite wildly around Stephen's Angel Legion, and Stephen himself was entangled by Germany.

“Fuck me, you guys.” Stephen’s level didn’t reach level 160. Where did he dare to face the black iron eagle with a dark gold sleeve of level 160, he lost one-third of his health after being bitten twice?

Frightened, Stephen quickly took the Angel Legion back, while on the other side, the Vulture Legion successfully broke through the remaining 5,000 Black Iron Warhawks, the Phoenix and Black Ravens, and landed within 500 meters of the ground.

“Damn, I still can’t see the situation on the ground.” Ma Jingming frowned and looked at the fortress below. From here, the players on the fortress were a bunch of black dots, and he couldn’t even count.

“Continue down.” Ma Jingming ordered to all vultures.

The remaining seven thousand vultures descended quickly, but did not wait to fly down 50 meters, and suddenly the lightning tower below the fortress emitted a fierce blue light, the next moment.

“Zi ~~~~!”

20,000 lightning strikes the falling vultures. On average, every two lightning towers attack one vulture. In a moment, the vulture legion is reduced by one third. The other vultures are still alive because they respond quickly to lightning. At the moment of launching, the body moved horizontally, avoiding skills.

“Boss, the enemy’s lightning tower’s attack power is too high, we can’t bear it.” The deputy shouted to Ma Jingming in a panic.

Ma Jingming looked at the lightning tower that flashed electric light below again and shouted:

“Everyone be careful, no matter what, we must find out the situation below and continue to go down, even if there is only one person left, we must go down. “

The remaining thousands of vultures heard the order and flew down quickly. The lightning tower attacked every 5 seconds. After gathering again, Ma Jingming’s vulture army had dropped to a height of more than 300 meters.

On the other side, in order to protect the vultures in the sky, Sanyouweimon ordered the trebuchet to strengthen the offensive, resulting in a large part of the lightning tower being damaged by the trebuchet.

“Zi ~~~!”

Countless lightning shots from the ground to the sky. At this moment, it was like lightning and hell. When the lightning passed, Ma Jingming’s Vulture Legion had less than 1,000 people.

He glanced around him and shouted excitedly: “Keep going down and take a picture immediately at a height of 50 meters.”

The Vulture Legion continued to descend, and when they descended to a height of 50 meters, the third lightning gathering was completed.

“Zi ~~~!”

Thousands of lightning flashed together, and the Vulture Legion was annihilated. At the same time, thousands of photos were simultaneously transmitted to the mailboxes of Sanyoumen and Olma.

“Check the number quickly.” Sanyouweimen quickly said to Olma and others around him.

For a while, dozens of presidents and hundreds of vice presidents collectively inquired about the number of people. After they checked, Olma said discouraged: “One hundred and twenty thousand people, Lu Yang did not remove the fortress. people.”

Stephen slammed the table in a frustrated scold: “Bai has sacrificed so many people.”

Sanyou Weimen also looked helpless. He carefully read most of the photos and confirmed that the equipment above was worn by a 160-level dark gold suit, not fooled by 150-level equipment, although he also knew that there was a mirror mage. One said, however, he could n’t confirm that the Vulture Legion could be lowered to a height of 50 meters, and it was impossible for them to attack Then he could only sigh.

“The trebuchet continued to attack, and the rest guarded against the Blood Wolf Guard.” Sanyouweimen said with his eyes closed.

The old man in the twilight looked nervously at the fortress. He was really worried that the enemy could see through Lu Yang’s strategy. If so, he would face an unprecedented hard battle, but he waited for a long time, but the enemy was still It moved him a little.

“Pride and passion, report the situation there.” The old man asked, calling him with pride.

Pride Wanzhuang is carrying around 100,000 blood wolf guards around the opponent’s millions of legions, and said, “These people are still defending me and will not give me a chance to attack.”

The old man in the twilight breathed a sigh of relief. He picked up the phone and called Lu Yang. “The deception plan succeeded, and the enemy did not attack on a large scale.”

Lu Yang shook his fist vigorously and said, “Good job.”

The old man in the twilight covered his heart and said, “You can scare me. Fortunately, my old bones are still useful, haha.”

Chapter 1368 - King Kong Fortress

Lu Yang laughed for a while. He knew that he could finally take a sigh of relief. Although it was a dangerous move, he succeeded!

He successfully deceived the presidents and think tanks of the seven strongest guilds, and also successfully deceived dead grass, Liu Jie, and Steige. No one knows how he came out of more than 20,000 people. The tiger mouth fortress was not attacked by the enemy, and he can now continue to use these 21,000 people to sweep the affiliated guilds around him.

“Pyroblast”

For the 112th time, Lu Yang killed the president of the Red People’s Association Guiyang Blood Dance Canyon. He looked at the blood dancer Canyon with a begging expression on his face and sneered. He called Tu Feng and asked: “The other four betrayed Where did the guild hit? “

Tu Feng immediately reported: “All four guilds are concentrated in a village outside the Vajra fortress, using it as a supply station, ready to attack the Vajra fortress again.”

Lu Yang Yile said, “This group of grandchildren thinks very well. Seeing that I only have more than 20,000 people, I want to overwhelm us with the number of people.”

Tu Feng said, “Boss, there are too many enemies. There are more than 800,000 people. You have only 20,000 people, and it is difficult to win.”

Each of the four affiliated guilds has more than 200,000 players, all of them are concentrated together, there are more than 800,000 people, which is equal to the four guilds such as the magic heart gathered together to open a fifth large battlefield in the Huaxia region.

There are only more than 20,000 people left in Lu Yang’s hands, and one more is missing, which makes him frown.

“To what extent have they gathered?” Lu Yang asked.

Tu Feng said: “At present, the enemy has gathered more than 400,000 players, and another 400,000 people have arrived, but there is no formation.”

Lu Yang nodded. He knew that it was time to fight against the water. If all the 800,000 people had assembled, King Kong Fortress would be lost. It would be useless for him to go to more than 20,000 people. Only when the enemy was not fully prepared At that time, he took these 20,000 people to disturb the enemy formation, and it was possible to win this battle.

He looked at more than 20,000 players behind him and asked aloud: “Brothers, ask you a question, 20,000 people hit 800,000 people, you dare.”

More than 20,000 players such as the cute queen and Tan Zhe are stunned. Everyone has an idea in their heads. This is crazy. How could 20,000 or 800,000 hit it, but they looked at Lu Yang’s determined expression. This lets them know that this battle can be fought.

“Boss, tell me, where do you mean, where do we fight with you?” Tang Feiqi shouted.

Lu Yang said: “Very well, that’s what I want. Brothers, we don’t have any helpers. There are only more than 20,000 of us, but 800,000 enemies are gathering outside the Vajra Fortress. We will not go. For rescue, King Kong Fortress was lost.

You know, in the case of Huaxia, as long as we lose a fortress, all the guilds in the entire Huaxia region who are jealous of us will be dispatched to rob all of our fortresses. At that time, we lost the Huaxia region. During these three years of efforts It is impossible to regain it in vain. Even the studios that we have managed to set up have to be dissolved because of this. I absolutely do not allow such things to happen. “

There was anger on the faces of everyone, no one could destroy the Jagged Brotherhood, no one could destroy the war studio, no one would destroy their hard-earned “home”, the war studio in Donghai Development Zone, It is the home of all their Jagged Brothers players. It is their home that they take care of and strive to maintain.

Lu Yang then said loudly: “Recalling that year, my 3000 soldiers without equipment dared to attack the bloodthirsty 100,000 main force, and I also won that battle. Today, I will bring With your 20,000 equipment better than the opposite and a higher level of elite than the opposite, go to the 800,000 skirmishes opposite you, do you dare? “

“Dare ~!” An inexplicable pride appeared in the chest of every player, 20,000 people shouted at the same time.

Lu Yang growled, "I can't hear you, tell me, dare you."

"Dare ~!" 20,000 people were mad and roared at the same time.

Lu Yang said: "Very well, not only will I go with you this time, but the other 47 players carrying artifacts will also go with you. The Jagged Brothers win, let's win together, lose, and lose together."

More than 20,000 people were stunned, and the artifact was not formed. Except for the heart of Vulcan of the small fireball, the heart of Han Yu's death, the heart of Han Ying's destruction, and the heart of Shen Yiyi's Holy Spirit, all the other artifacts were The highest level stays at level 8 and the worst is level 7.

At this time, Lu Yang also brought out more than 40 unshaped artifacts, proving that the Brotherhood of Iron Blood really reached the critical juncture of life and death, and they could not tolerate the slightest care.

"Boss rest assured, we must guard the safety of these artifacts." Tang Feiqi said with gritted teeth.

Lu Yang said: "I don't want you to protect their safety, but follow me to defeat the enemy, the artifact is gone, you can fight and buy again, but the guild is gone, we have nothing, you know?"

Tang Feiqi, Tan Zhe and others nodded.

"All flew with me to the main city of King Kong Fortress." Lu Yang ordered.

More than 20,000 rays of light came on one after another. Ten seconds later, 20,000 people appeared in the city's main house. When Lu Yang ran with them toward the East City Wall, he called Han Ying over.

When Lu Yang came to the East Wall, Han Ying ran to Lu Yang with 47 artifact players, and at the same time there was a golden cloak in a cloak and holding a poisonous heart.

“Hey, I don’t think I have a day to fight, I’m so excited.” Jin Buchang made a cold voice under the shadow of his cloak.

Lu Yang motioned to commanders such as Tang Feiqi and the cute queen to surround him, saying: “The exact message is that the enemy will launch a general attack at Dongchengmen. After a while, the battle begins. Tang Feiqi is responsible for protecting the cloak from the front. Yu arrived at the front, and the rest of the artifact players listened to my orders at any time. “

“Yes,” the crowd said.

“The whole team outside the city.” Lu Yang said.

The cute queen, Tang Feiqi, and others quickly took more than 20,000 people out of the city team. Under great pressure, 20,000 people completed the team within 5 minutes. A large number of players jumped off the city wall. He was recovered to full blood by the priest player below the city.

Lu Anyang looked away, so that he did not expect that the enemy’s main force arrived at this time, the president of the demon guild met with each other, the president of the demon guild last battle, the dragon fist of the dragon tiger gate and the mythical guild. The president, the three princes, and four people rode in front of each other, and behind them were 400,000 and 140-level elites.

“This is a coincidence. We just arrived and Lu Yang arrived.” The three princes said with a laugh.

“Does he think he can win our 800,000 people with his 20,000 people? It’s ridiculous, but among our first batch of men, there are 100,000 times to punish the knights.” The final battle sneered.

Xiang Shou Xiang Xi said with emotion: “It’s time to make a break. As long as we lay down the Vajra fortress, the Brotherhood of Iron Blood will completely become history.”

“Haha, I can’t wait to see that scene.” Long Quan said with a laugh.

The four glanced at each other, and the speeding horse rushed the team to a place 2 kilometers away from the east gate of the fortress, facing each other at the same time.

Longquan said, "Let's stop talking nonsense to Lu Yang. The fool in Blood Dance Canyon talked to Lu Yang and was scolded by Lu Yang. Let's do it directly."

"Hey, it makes sense." He laughed at the final battle and said, "Let's surround the 20,000 people first. No matter how many 20,000 people they are, their priests, mages, and shooters will not have the same defense power as our 140-level secret. The gold set can't be moved too. First kill their priest group, cut off their supplies, then kill the mage, make them unable to attack, and then use the punishment knight to slay the remaining 10,000 people and win. deal."

Keeping together and nodding, this is a strategy that the four of them have developed before, specifically targeting the more than 20,000 elites of the Iron Brotherhood. Even if the priest wears a level 180 dark gold suit, his defense will still not exceed 140. The attack power of the first-level violent battle will still be killed by melee, not to mention they only wear a 160-level dark gold suit, once they are close-ranged, they can't be prevented.

Lu Yang also knew this, so the formation he used was a round formation, the priest was all hidden in the team, and he didn't think about defending. This time, he was going to take the initiative.

A crimson light came through the front of the Jagged Brothers Alliance, and with a snoring sound, Lu Yang appeared in shape. He pointed forward with his hand and yelled: "Brothers, the success of my Judge Brothers In today's battle, listen to my order, the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, attack ~! "

"kill!"

More than 20,000 people roared like crazy, and then, instead of rushing forward madly, they shouted a 1 word in their mouths, took a step forward, a 2 words, a step forward, and a 3 words And take another step forward.

The entire team of the Jagged Brothers Alliance is advancing step by step in the whole slogan, and the round array of 20,000 people has taken more than one hundred steps without any confusion.

Xiangshou Xiangxi and Longquan and others are a little embarrassed.

“Unintelligible, Lu Yang actually wanted to personally take these 20,000 people to attack our 400,000 people. Where did he have the courage?”

“Isn’t this death? In this case, I fulfill him.”

“I thought of enclosing on three sides. It’s easy now. Just encircle on all sides.”

“Haha, brothers, Lu Yang has passed out, and our opportunity is here.”

...

The four people and the vice chairman around them all thought that the Jagged Brothers League was crazy, and Lu Yang was crazy, so he took the initiative to attack.

Xiang Shou Xiang Xi shouted: “Brothers, today is the day of the death of the Jagged Brotherhood. Listen to my orders, attack all, defeat Lu Yang, and steal his 9th-level demon heart.”

Chapter 1369 - Artifact in battle

“Chong.” 400,000 excited red eyes surrounded the 20,000 people of the Iron Brotherhood.

Lu Yang stood in the middle of the team and watched a sneer on the face of the enemies who rushed over. He had to say that the enemy chose the right time. Who would have thought that such a wave of betrayers could emerge? All the spells have been used, and they are all in the cooldown.

Not only him, the Iron Man Brotherhood’s Forbidden Mage, the Indian Area Forbidden Mage, the Korean Area forbidden Mage, or the Nine Star Alliance forbidden Mage, but also the Spanish Forbidden Mage. All cast the curse on the battlefield, and the curse of everyone is in the cooldown time.

Even the forbidden scrolls in Lu Yang 's backpack were thrown out. From the first second of the battle, the Iron Blood Brotherhood was at an absolute disadvantage. Fortunately, the enemy did not know that Lu Yang sent all the artifact players.

Lu Yang watched as the enemy had reached a distance of 5 meters from the first row, and the words in his mouth were frequently spoken.

“Meteorite Impact”

“Meteorite Impact”

The two meteorites fell from the front of Tan Zhe and Tang Feiqi, respectively, and rushed to the enemy guild player in the middle.

Up to more than 2 million spell injuries quickly damaged the enemies that rushed up, and the enemies were not stupid. The first row was all three-turned paladins.

“Open the Holy Shield and punish the angels, kill the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood, and * Lu Yang’s 9th-level demon heart.” A captain in the third row shouted.

“Chong.” The enemy paladins in the first row rushed up, and their eyes were full of money.

“Death to Lao Tzu, lethal throw.” Tan Zhe’s blood soldier immediately threw a spear.

“噤”

The paladin’s shield in front of it shattered, and then the ice mage standing in the fourth row in front of the array chanted a spell.

“Ice Burst”

One by one, they are related to magic, and a piece of Paladin's Holy Shield is broken. However, the two attacks combined add up to less than 10,000 enemy shields. Only this 6000 can break the shield, and the rest have no way.

Without being broken by the shield immediately, the disciplinary angels attacked the players who attacked the Brotherhood of Iron Blood from a short distance, and the Brotherhood of Iron Blood could only passively defend, and it was extremely difficult to fight for a while.

Lu Yang shouted, "Priest priest, quickly reduce the damage."

"Yes." The priest group did not dare to delay for a moment, and quickly drew an aperture to reduce the damage before the battle. The front-line players who were attacked were finally relieved. The 50% damage reduction gave them room for error, even if they could not block. When it comes to the enemy's attack, it won't be chopped down with just a few swords. Besides, there are blood-added ones so that they can take more damage.

"Kill ~!" Tan Zhe slashed an enemy who rushed in front of him and looked around. He found that the players who had been destroyed by the Holy Shield in front were being killed by a large number of Iron Brother Brothers players, but the same, Iron Brother The player in front of the league has already highlighted the formation, he shouted: "Keep the circle, do not chase forward."

If the round array is slightly inadvertent, it will become chaotic because of the unstable formation. If it is chaotic, the enemy will have the opportunity to rush into the middle of the team, and the priests and mages hidden inside will be finished. Ruined.

Tan Zhe is standing next to Tang Feiqi, who is also controlling the formation stability. He grabbed a player who was about to rush out of the formation and shouted, "Keep me in formation, absolutely no chaos."

The round array has an advantage. No matter how the enemy charges, as long as it is not chaotic, the enemy must face at least three iron brother brothers' attacks, which can form a situation of playing more and less in a short time.

The Brotherhood of the Iron Blood Brothers is very powerful in combat and can not compete with the elite battles of the strongest guilds, but it is very easy to hit the players in these third-level guilds. All the front-line enemies without the shield are killed.

For a while, the Brotherhood of Iron Blood was like a boulder in the water of the Pentium River, facing the current without moving, allowing the flood to wash over its body.

The president of the Demon Heart Guild and the other presidents of the Guild were sitting on a high platform made by a soil mage to observe the battlefield.

“It’s worth the Iron Brotherhood, it’s tough enough,” Longquan said sarcastically.

“Hey, we are not in a hurry. They are not iron men. They will always be tired. When that time comes, we will have a full attack. Let them talk for a while.” The final battle said.

Longquan and others nodded in agreement.

On the wall, there are 10,000 players from the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood and 50,000 players from affiliated guilds. Several people are sending messages to Lu Yang frequently.

“Let’s fight.”

“We will not betray the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, trust us and let us assist the flanks.”

“Boss, we can consume it for you. The brothers can’t bear the headaches.”

...

Lu Yang gritted his teeth and did not reply to them. He also knew that blocking the opponent’s attack for 10 minutes would be no problem. Generally, masters can do it for half an hour or one hour. The load caused by the high-speed operation of the mind is enough to make a person automatically pop out of the pain.

“Brothers, hold on and give me another 10 seconds.” Lu Yang shouted.

A small part of these 400,000 people have already rushed to the wings of the circular array. Within 10 seconds, the enemy’s formation could not be separated and could not be withdrawn.

“Boss rest assured, I can hold it up in a day.” A front-line player, Lu Yang, who could not be named, wielded his weapon and tried to block the attack of the opponent’s paladin.

“Haha, the battle is fast, I like this scene, I grew up from this scene, and I’m not afraid to come again several times.” A veteran who followed Lu Yang’s 3,000 dozen bloodthirsty leagues shouted with a laugh

Lu Yang just gritted his teeth and looked at the brothers in front of them desperately insisting, as well as the ridiculous smiles of four people in the distance, the dragon fist, the three princes, and the final battle.

He is counting down.

10

...

When the last number 1 shouted in his heart, most of the enemy’s team was squeezed directly in front of them, but not many people came out of the wings.

“Han Yu and Jin don’t change, the target is directly in front of the enemy, attacking.” Lu Yang growled.

“Good.” Jin Buhuan and Han Yu responded at the same time.

“Death Withering”

“Scarlet Poison Mist”

Han Yu pointed forward with his right hand. In front of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, a giant black space with a diameter of 5000 yards suddenly appeared. Countless twisted souls protruded from the space. With the mourning of the soul, each player’s Health starts to drop madly at a rate of 1% of maximum health per second.

At present, the distance of the long-range occupation and the thief is about 2 million, and the blood of the melee is about 3 million, and the blood of the anti-war and anti-riding is about 6 million.

“20000”

“30000”

“60000”

...

The blockbuster burst from the heads of players within 5,000 yards directly in front of the Jagged Brothers League. This skill covered more than 250,000 people.

At the same time, Jin Buhuan ate three highly toxic orbs and blasted three poisonous mists at the enemy in front of him.

The scarlet poison mist rises in the wind, and instantly overlaps in the black twisted space, covering a range of 5000 yards. The amount of blood lost by the poison mist is a fixed value, 80,000 per second.

The skills of the two are superimposed, and the enemies in the range lose at least 100,000 blood and up to 140,000 blood per second. At a time, the players of the four major affiliated guilds immediately scrambled and barked wildly.

“No, the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood has expanded. Add blood. I’m bleeding too quickly.”

...

It happened that the Holy Shield of the Paladins in the first three rows all disappeared, and the shield battle standing in the fourth row was hiding the Paladins under their shields.

Originally, they thought of the first three platoons to die, and then sent the fourth platoon to open the Holy Shield to continue oppressing the players of the Iron Brotherhood, but the sudden poisonous mist and death withered, leaving them four stunned.

“What kind of skill is this? Why haven’t I seen it?” Long Quan asked in surprise.

The final battle said: “I know that poisonous mist is a highly poisonous heart, but how can poisonous mist hurt so high, 80,000 blood per second, and the latter, what is it?”

The three princes shook their heads, but the expressions of horror and excitement appeared on the faces of Xiangshou and Xiangxi, saying, “That skill is called Death Wither, which is a skill that can be triggered only by the level 9 of the heart of death.”

“What?” The three princes and their three hairs almost blew up.

“You said that Lu Yang drained the heart of death?” Asked the final battle in shock.

Xiangshou Xiangxi nodded, raising his arms excitedly and said, "Where have our 400,000 people gone? Today is the lucky day for our brothers. Not only can we win the fortress and Lu Yang's 9th-level demon heart, but we can also grab it. By the 9th level of death and poisonous heart, our brothers are getting rich. "

"Haha They are half an hour behind us. As long as we persist for half an hour and 800,000 people attack together, these 20,000 people don't want to escape." Shouted the three princes. .

The final battle shouted: "Command the archers and mages, don't put the single skills, give me full range magic to cover the attack, and definitely not let these people with artifacts run away."

On the field, the magic and bows that were originally a single output instantly turned into cover spells and hit the rear position. The first line of the Iron Brothers Alliance player was still a bit tired of dealing with bows and arrows, and the three-turn shooter had a high fragmentation. Armor arrows, Dark Shepherd have armour shattering, and Painful Warlock have melting armor. Adding these three together can still cause considerable damage to the Brotherhood of Iron Blood.

But now they are not hitting them, which has reduced their blood loss speed a lot, and the priests and mages in the middle of the formation wear a 160-level dark gold suit. The range of magic and bows will not hurt them at all. However, this enigmatic move of the enemy actually reduced the threat to the Brotherhood as a whole.

Lu Yang stood in the middle of the line, and when he saw the enemy dare to attack like this, he laughed and said, "Okay, these grandchildren are afraid that the three of us holding the artifact will run away. Since this is the case, then we all put the artifact Light it up and let them see our strength. "

Chapter 1370 - Final Battle

Han Ying was standing next to Lu Yang. After a while of dark magic, he became a purple magic witch, with a pair of demon wings behind it, which was particularly noticeable. At the same time, a 20-meter-high gray archangel in the sky shook. A black giant sword stood on its wings, and a 5-meter-tall tiger and a 5-meter-tall eight-armed full-body armored demon appeared at the same time.

"Fallen angel"

“Bite Tiger”

“Hell War God”

The players of the Jagged Brothers League all know that these three babies are Han Ying’s proud summoning beasts, which are never available to other players. Only the heart of destruction can be summoned.

Before waiting for them to be excited for a second, a holy gold light lit up, and a 20-meter-high holy angel in white, armored gold, and a gold stick was appeared beside the fallen angel.

Lu Yang made a move with his right hand, and the flame chariot appeared. Lu Yang jumped on the chariot. Xiao Liang jumped up next, holding the level 8 anti-war heart. He was in charge of driving.

Han Ying, Shen Yiyi, and several other players holding Level 8 and Level 9 artifacts jumped onto the chariot, and were tightly protected around Lu Yang. At the same time, each one turned on the skill transformation.

From a distance, this flame chariot is glittering with a total of eight gold lights, and next to Lu Yang’s chariot, five more chariots appear, which are controlled by other players holding artifacts.

Lu Yang’s heart was full of vigor, and he raised his staff and shouted, “Taking advantage of this opportunity, we attacked forward and defeated the 400,000 people. At my command, the whole army moved forward neatly.”

With a simple digital slogan, more than 20,000 people in the Jagged Brothers Alliance moved forward collectively, and those who were blocked on the road were killed by the players of the Jagged Brothers Alliance, while the 400,000 people who opposed the guild could not organize an attack. The area controlled by fog and death is too large, a circle with a diameter of 5,000 meters. There is not a priest in each area. There is no blood added by the priest, and there is no potion to continue to recover. It soon died.

There are priests, and there is no way to focus on adding blood to some people, but to brush the whole group. This leads to the dispersion of priest skills. When the Iron Brotherhood attacks, no enemy has enough priests to add blood. .

In this way, in less than 2 minutes, the 400,000 people were poisoned by one third, killed one third, and the remaining one third collapsed and retreated backward, and the two wings did not dare. After another roundabout, the queen ran away.

“Never run, don’t run, regroup.” Xiangshou Xiangxi and Longquan and others shouted angrily on the high platform, and at the same time quickly contacted the commander of the army and the commander to reorganize the team.

“Damn, it’s not easy. This group of people is too laborious to reorganize. It takes too much time to run from the surrounding resurrection points.”

“Me too.”

“Why is it so wasteful? Now time is money. Lu Yang attacked and blocked it. When our 400,000 people came, we won.” Shou Shou Xiang Xi cursed.

The three princes scolded: “Easy to say, we are not Jagged Brothers. It is difficult for these boys to gather together for the first time in such a large-scale battle.”

“You still have reason, and quickly find a way.” Xiang Shou Xiang Xi was angry.

Longquan eyes saw the two quarreling and quickly persuaded and said: “The people behind have arrived. Let ’s ask the vice president to go to the graveyards to gather the dead players. We will lead the 400,000 people who followed us to surround us. The Jagged Brotherhood can still win. “

Xiangshou Xiangxi looked behind him, and another 400,000 people had appeared on the horizon under the leadership of their respective vice presidents.

“Okay, let’s get together first. This time we must fight against the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood. We can’t give them a chance, otherwise we will be all four.” Shouted each other.

“I don’t need you to say that I know the results.” The three princes jumped off the high platform to receive their own team.

Xiangshou Xiangxi glared at him with Dragon Fist and the final battle, jumping off the high platform to receive their own team.

Lu Yang had just defeated the enemy player and saw another 400,000 people rushing in. He sank inwardly. Originally, he thought that the enemy’s support team would take at least an hour, but he did not expect to gather together so soon.

“Boss, how do we fight?”

“The artifact’s stunts are used up.”

“The supply is also consumed by a third.”

...

Bad news came to Lu Yang’s ears one after another, and even worse, on the battlefield at the Chiyang Fortress, the players of the Iron Brotherhood were constantly using their lives to fill the disadvantages of the number of people, and died again and again. While killing the fighting spirit of the Iron Brother Brothers players, they are also consuming their levels and equipment.

In addition, the war between Xingxing Village and Demon Village has not improved significantly. The Tiger Mouth Fortress is still being bombed by a violent slinger. The same is true of the Tianjian Fortress. The muddy wine and Xia Yuwei are difficult to defend, but the enemy is sturdy enough. The number of people coming up is limited, or it is even worse now.

The most difficult are the Indian and South Korean regions. The affiliated guilds in the two regions are facing unprecedented difficulties. Salman and Park In-yee have urged all their men to launch rebellions. Paddu, Kapu and Li Wenxing have been fighting extremely hard. .

Lu Yang is the worst this time, but if he wants to win the entire war, he needs to take these 20,000 people to defeat the new 400,000 people on the opposite side. Looking at his tired hands, Lu Yang jumped off the chariot and arrived first row.

He looked back at more than 20,000 brothers and shouted, "Brothers, from now on, I will be the vanguard. I will stand in the first row to fight with you side by side. Follow me. I will not fall. You must not fall. Remember If you stay with me, we have no retreat. Follow me and move forward bravely. We defeat the enemy. "

"Kill!" Lu Yang replaced the mount, and the staff pointed at the enemy array and shouted.

"Kill ~!"

More than 20,000 people changed their mounts and launched an attack with the enemy 1 km away from Landing Sun.

This time, there are no formations. Lu Yang does not need to re-form the team or set up a round of confrontation. He has just discovered the enemy's weakness, that is, the enemy ranks the Paladins in front, and there are no Paladins in the back. And the enemy's 4 guilds have problems cooperating, and they can't distribute all occupations evenly to the place they should be like the Jagged Brothers Alliance.

For example, the shooters and mages should stand in the fourth to sixth rows of the team, and the mage and the shooter are separated by four rows. However, the formation they just set up is that the shooters of their respective guilds are gathered in their respective squares. Inside, they all stood together.

Lu Yang believes that the enemy's already formed formation is like this, and it will not change in any way when it comes over.

"Everyone obeys my orders, don't fight head on, we go behind them." Lu Yang shouted.

20,000 people responded in unison, as Lu Yang moved forward quickly.

Xiangshou Xiangxi and Longquan and others just returned to their team, and before they ordered their vice presidents to go to the graveyard to gather the dead, they saw Lu Yang rushing over with more than 20,000 people.

“No, the Brotherhood of Iron Blood rushed over.”

“Quick defense.”

“Don’t let them rush in.”

...

Taken in the prestige of the Iron Brotherhood, and the experience and lessons of the recent battle, the fear of being beaten and the dragon fist and others were beaten, and in the fear of failure and the guild completely destroyed by Lu Yang, they made An extremely wrong decision.

400,000 players running forward on horses immediately dismounted to pose in a stance on the spot, because it was a rush of defense and also caused local chaos. The three-turn paladin in the front row watched the Iron Brotherhood rush to them in front of 100. When it’s gone.

Xiang Shou Xiang Xi shouted, “Ready, listen to my order to punish the angel.”

In the first three rows of battlefields, a spontaneous light of punishment angels was lit, and some players panicked, and did not understand the slogan, and directly opened the skills.

“Waste.” Xiang Shou Xiang Xi turned back and yelled, but he had no time to take care of them, his eyes only stared at Lu Yang who was rushing in the first row, it was less than 60 meters away from him recently.

Lu Yang also saw Xiangshou Xiangxi, looking at the chairman of his affiliated guild, Lu Yang's face sneered, his reins drew to the right, and the war horse took the landing sun and turned to the right.

“All Acceleration Scrolls”

Lu Yang tore up an acceleration scroll worth 10,000 yuan, and took more than 20,000 people around the square matrix of 400,000 to their right.

These 400,000 people are like a group of fools, watching Lu Yang run to their flanks, and then to their fins. On the fins, Lu Yang saw the appearance of the enemy team, and even taunted his face.

The enemy's rear wing is like a tofu block, or a chopped tofu block, which is torn apart. Players are like skirmishes and brave soldiers, and they almost cannot keep up with the team. There are all kinds of professions in it, such as warriors, warlocks, priests, thieves, and so on.

If they say they have a defensive formation, Lu Yang is really hard to break through, but they are so mixed regardless of their profession.

Lu Yang grinned on his face and said, “Look for death, there isn't even a formation. Do you really think the people in front can block my attack?”

He held up the wand in his hand and laughed and said, “Man, the enemy has given us such a great gift. We can't help but listen to the orders, Brother Brothers, kill ~ ! “

“Kill ~!”

More than 20,000 players were shocked all over their bodies. In the command, they attacked the enemy's tail madly. They were all elites who had fought numerous countless battles. Everyone could see that the enemy's tail was undefended. They rushed into the enemy's weapons and hacked , Even they do not need a single machine high output skills, that is, range skills, a swipe and teammates next to it can kill a group of four affiliated guild players.

For a while, the tails of the four major guilds were completely chaotic, and the talents such as Xiangshouxiangxi and Longquan who stood in front of them reacted.

“Damn, we were deceived by Lu Yang. He ran behind us.” Longquan said.

“What to do, the rear wing has no defensive ability at all, and let them fight like this, and we will be scrapped.” The three princes shouted.

Xiang Shou Xiang Xi meditated for a long time, and gritted his teeth and shouted, “Fighting, we went back and attacked, either the Brotherhood of Iron Blood penetrated our position, or we surrounded the Brotherhood of Iron Blood and went up.”

Chapter 1371 - Hit the key

“Yes, we chased the tail of the Jagged Brothers League, killed their assistants, killed them, the front-row brothers, rushed to me.” Long Quan shouted excitedly.

The first six rows of Paladins and anti-wars turned around and followed Xiangshou Xiangxi and Longquan and others rushed towards the tail of the Brotherhood of Iron Blood.

The 400,000 people from the four affiliated guilds this time used a horizontal row of 4,000 people in a row of 100. There was no gap between the team members and they were almost human. Therefore, the first six rows came from the side. When detouring, the speed was not fast and it seemed very confusing.

At this time, Lu Yang was leading the team to a small dirt slope, and looking sideways, his face showed an excited look.

“God help me too. It turned out that the enemy was so vulnerable. I looked at them too high.” Lu Yang said with a fist.

The queen leader such as the cute queen and the three-sided devil stood beside Lu Yang. After hearing the words, they both looked at Lu Yang, especially the cute queen. In her opinion, the Iron Brotherhood was doomed to defeat this time. Under the circumstances, Lu Yang was able to figure out a way, which made the cute queen curious about Lu Yang's ideas.

She asked, "Boss, is there a new way?"

Lu Yang smiled and looked at the situation in front of the team. The blood oaths taken by Tang Feiqi, Tan Zhe, and others played very well on the shaman side. The enemy was not an opponent at all, and his side had almost no battle damage. Push forward, it won't take long to penetrate enemy positions.

He turned back with satisfaction, pointing at the paladin who rushed over from the enemy and asked: "Guess, if I now let the mage and the Starbreaker shooter attack their paladin, are they invincible? Or are they invincible? What about? "

Both the cute queen and the three-faced devil raised their fur at the same time, and their eyes widened with excitement.

"Just opposite this group of grandsons, my archer group can speed up the reel to kill them. Boss, I'll fight." The devil on three sides said excitedly.

Lu Yang said, "Go, take the 3000 Starbreaker shooter and let them see your strength."

"Yes." The three-sided devil turned excitedly and issued a loud command, and the 3,000 Starbreaker shooter immediately followed him away from the team.

"Wind Elf, turn on." The devil has Wind Elf on three sides. After turning on, the whole group accelerated to 150%. He crushed a team acceleration scroll, and the speed of 3,000 people was instantly increased to 250%.

"Follow me. No arrows are allowed without my orders." The three-sided devil didn't need a mount, so he ran up so fast, and took a 3000 Starbreaker shooter to make a quick turn and came to the two armies. Far left.

At this point, they were out of the 100-meter distance of the battle circle, and when all the Starbreakers thought he had betrayed Lu Yang, the demon on three sides ordered: "The army stopped in place and prepared to fire."

The bows and arrows of 3,000 people aimed straight ahead, and at this time, countless Paladins were running towards the area they were attacking.

"Broken armor arrow, kill with one blow, let it go," roared the devil on three sides.

"Oh ~!"

"Oh ~!"

...

Three thousand armor-piercing arrows with black light flew towards the hostile Paladin army who had just rushed into the area.

"5960000" (Critical Strike)

"5960000" (Critical Strike)

...

The Starbreaker shooter adds an additional 200,000 agility, and the broken armor arrows reduce the target's physical defense by an additional 30,000. The agility itself has a physical crit bonus. These people wear a 160-level dark gold suit, which is more than 10 levels higher than the opposite, and even 20 levels, the chance of crit is extremely high, almost hit is a must.

Although there are only 3,000 Starbreaker shooters, at this time, these 3,000 people are like cannibal demons. Anyone who wants to pass through their shooting area will be swallowed and chewed by these demons.

“Stop the charge, stop now, stop.” The first wave of Xiang Shou Xiang Xi was attacked by the intensive broken armor arrow rain. He had good luck, opened invincible in time, and was not shot dead on the spot. However, the dragon fist and the three princes who launched the charge with him were not so lucky, and they were shot on the spot.

Fortunately, both of them had resurrection stones. They resurrected in situ, opened the invincible and looked at the situation on the opposite side. When they just stormed, they noticed the departure of the shooter army, but they were unable to stop it. The players are better to say that they can make up the numbers, the role they can play is too low, and the Jagged Brothers’ offensive is too strong to stop.

These star-breakers are also wind-elves and shooters. They have a natural movement speed bonus, which makes it more difficult to catch up. They have no control. They want to kill Lu Yang and rob the heart of the artifact.

What is unexpected is that these Starbreaker shooters actually appeared on their flank, and stood so brightly 80 meters away from them. Anyone who dared to step forward would be attacked by the arrow rain.

“Damn, didn’t you stop? Did you stop?” The three princes yelled frantically, but there were still unintentional players in front of him charging like crazy.

This shows the difference between the Jagged Brothers players and other guild players, which prohibits them from participating. The Jagged Brothers players who have participated in countless battles know clearly that Lu Yang must stop, and only a small number of these guild players are too many. In World War II, more ordinary players, especially the three-turn paladin.

The total number of Paladins with large battlefield experience is not more than one-third, so this has caused confusion in action. Not in sports warfare, these people’s shortcomings have not been seen. However, once they have exercised, these have not played large-scale battles. It has exposed various shortcomings such as disobedience to command, blind attack, and enthusiasm.

Xiangshou Xiangxi and the three princes shouted for a while before letting all the paladins stop. But at this time thousands of people have been shot dead.

“Damn, what should we do? We must drive invincible if we want to rush past, but when we are invincible, we can’t even beat the main force of the Brotherhood of Iron Blood,” Longquan asked.

Xiang Shou Xiang Xi and others were stunned. They never thought that Lu Yang played such a trick on the spot and put them to death.

“Ha ha, grandchildren, it’s okay, Lao Tzu tells you that today you either drive invincibly past or shot me into a sieve.” The devil on three sides laughed.

The three thousand starbreaker shooters also made a big laugh. The harsh laughter made Xiang Shou Xiang Xi and others annoyed to the extreme, but they couldn’t help it.

“Boss, it’s not good. The players behind have run away and they don’t fight.” A legion leader ran to the front of Xiangshou Xiangxi and reported to him.

Looking at each other in the middle of each other, Lu Yang’s Blood Oath Shaman and the Blood Warrior have rushed to the middle area on the far right of the team, and the players over there have mutinized.

Chapter 1372 - Weak Bull

Most of these people originally heard that the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood was no longer available, and they wanted to follow suit to take advantage of them, or they were foolish to listen to the president’s roar and red eyes were fighting, but the red eyes have now been beaten I rolled my eyes and found that not only did not gain the advantage, but also lost their own equipment. What are they still doing here? Lose more gear?

I do n’t know who shouted “Ca n’t beat it, run away”. The tens of thousands of players in the team behind the four were smashed together. In addition, they were killed by Tang Feiqi and Tan Zhe with their brothers. The remaining four affiliated guild players on the field were less than 200,000.

Looking at this scene, Xiang Shou Xiang Xi, with a sloppy look on his face, he looked at Dragon Boxing, the three princes, and the three in the final battle. He said, “Today either we defeat the Iron Brotherhood, or the guild is removed from the Iron Brotherhood. , There is no third way, we fight. “

The final battle also knew that at the most critical moment, he jumped on a big rock and shouted, "Brothers, it's the last moment, and for the survival of our guild, we have fought with the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood."

"Spelled it!"

"Kill! Follow me around the other way." The three princes also continued to run towards the tail of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, leading the team towards the brothers led by Tan Zhe and Tang Feiqi.

At this time, Tang Feiqi and Tan Zhe's blood-sworn shamans and blood warriors have rushed to the position of the enemy's most wing formation 30th row. The three princes are not stupid and made a most sensible choice.

Xiangshou Xiangxi The three guild leaders also rushed over.

Lu Yang watched the enemy rushing over and shouted: "Don't care, the last 200,000 people in the enemy are the four capitals who dare to fight with each other. These 200,000 people were with us before. Fight together side by side and have fought hard battles. "

At the beginning, Lu Yang allowed each affiliated guild to expand to 100,000 people, and asked them to take those 100,000 people to join him in the war.

After several battles, the first 100,000 players of each affiliated guild became the elite of hundreds of wars. The 200,000 people in front of them were divided evenly. Each guild had 50,000 people, and the other 50,000 were in various cemeteries. Resurrection points regroup.

Originally this was a strategy of keeping together and loving each other. Using the old players to bring new players, they encountered a wave of Iron Brotherhood. The old players took the lead and played out to eliminate the new players' fear of Iron Brotherhood, but they were high. Assessing his own strength, I did not expect that Lu Yang, like the God of War in this game, would personally bring people to play against him.

Tang Feiqi, Tan Zhe, and others heard Lu Yang's words, and they all showed an interesting look. They knew exactly how the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood had been fought in the past, and they could fight with the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood to prove that they were enough. They respect the qualifications.

The head of a paladin who sided with each other rushed to the front of the two armies. He rushed to Tang Feiqi. When he found that Tang Feiqi had a respectful look on his face, the weapons in his hands were somewhat unstable. , Crooked across the head.

Tang Feiqi hesitated and raised his sword to block the opponent's attack. He couldn't help asking: "What do you mean?"

The head of the Paladin is called sadness and wind. He is a demon in the Huaxia region. He does not like to beat his own people. He knows more about brotherhood and morale. The time to follow the Brotherhood of Iron Blood is his happiest time. He never thought that his old convention ordered him to hit his family.

Sadness and the wind ignore Tang Feiqi and continue to attack, but the vertical split is soft, as if there is no force. If the opponent really hits him, Tang Feiqi will attack with all his strength, but the opponent does not really fight, which makes Tang Feiqi's heart different. feel.

He asked, "Don't you want to fight with us? If you don't want to fight, you can't come. We have fought side by side before, why should we attack us at this time?"

Sadness followed the wind like a thunderstorm, gritted his teeth and said, "I don't want it either, but it's my boss who loves each other and he orders me to do it, and I must do it."

Tang Feiqi punched in the sad and windy face and scolded: "Are you stupid, don't you know how wrong your boss ordered it? Did you win the Jagged Brotherhood? Let's talk, even if you want to Replace us, can we get rid of foreign enemies outside Tiger Mouth Fortress and Sky Sword Fortress? "

Sadness does not speak with the wind.

Tang Feiqi continued to curse: "The seven strongest guilds attacked together, and the two guilds Liu Jie and Steige also followed the onslaught. I don't understand. The Brotherhood of the Iron Blood has collapsed. Let them come in and they can watch. Are you occupying the fort? They made it clear that they are going to kill you. They are taking the fort. “

Sadness and loneliness said, “I have advised the boss, but he said that Alice had made an appointment with those people. They were not interested in the Huaxia region, and they wanted the India region, the South Korea region, the Spain region, and the Nine Star Alliance region. “

“Fart, who would be too rich?” Tang Feiqi cursed.

Sadness woke up suddenly with the wind, but his face was still lonely, and he grinned and said, “It’s too late to say anything now, and President Lu Yang will not let go of our guild.”

Tang Feiqi hesitated and said, “Then you watch your brothers continue to be led to despair by your president’s stupid dreams? Are you only faithful to your boss and don’t care about other brothers?”

Sadness suddenly widened his eyes with the wind, staring at Tang Feiqi and asked, “You want me to betray my boss.”

Tang Feiqi snorted and said, “The choice is yours.”

“Let me think.” Sadness followed the wind.

“Thinking at the necropolis, you are too conspicuous here.” Tang Feiqi hacked to death with sadness and wind and continued to attack.

On the battlefield, there are not many people who can really think of sadness and wind, and more are red-eyed players who are thinking about getting rich and taking advantage.

In their eyes, the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood is a bull that has been torn by the pack of wolves. Even if he is stronger and the horns are sharper, he is all bitten by the sharp teeth of the wild wolf. With the last hint of strength.

What they have to do is to rush up and crush this last trace of power, and let Lu Yang and his iron-blood brotherhood fall down completely.

“Chong, kill Lu Yang and grab the demon heart.”

“There is also the heart of death and the heart of destruction, each of which is worth 200 million yuan.”

...

Countless enemy players yelled madly and rushed to the front of Tan Zhe and Tang Feiqi, and the Iron Brother Brothers players who had been fighting for more than an hour in a row also suffered a large number of deaths and injuries under the punishment angel status of each other.

Chapter 1373 - Jagged Brotherhood Spirit

Once there is a casualty, you must step on that person, so that he cannot be resurrected by the next player, Jagged Brothers killed one, go forward, and the other player killed a Judge Brothers. Take a step.

In order to rescue the player, the Jagged Brothers Alliance must kill the opponent, and then take one more step forward to give the rear a chance to revive the player.

On both sides, as if a weak bull was exhausting his last strength and hitting four mad dogs with horns, and the four dogs seemed to die as if facing the horns to bite the head of the cow.

The formation of the two sides has disappeared. In this way, the players on both sides are scattered on the plain 5 kilometers outside the King Kong Fortress.

Lu Yang also joined the battle at this time. He was rushing to the forefront. He was followed by artifact players. With the high value of the artifact’s built-in attributes, they became an assault team, which could easily eliminate a large number The enemy, therefore, became the main point of attack for the enemy's firepower.

Lu Yang released the Blazing Bird to kill a dozen dead players, and roared loudly: "Who told me, where are the four * of Xiangshouxiangxi and Longquan?"

"In the direction of 11 o'clock, 50 meters away." I did not know who shouted.

Lu Yang looked over his head, just to see Long Quan and Xiangshou Xiangxi, both of them were bowing, with a dozen people lurking towards him, just right, Xiangshou Xiangxi and Lu Yang looked at each other, scared Xiang Shou Xiang Xi's body stopped.

"You want to sneak in me, you're looking for death." The rise of Lu Yang's killing, he didn't know how long he hadn't been on the battlefield in person.

"Flame Shock"

Lu Yang held each other with his fingers in his left hand, a burst of flames burst open on his head.

"5692838" (Critical)

Xiang Shou Xiang Xi Lie to death!

"Damn, he's injured too much, so he hurried away." Longquan saw this situation, and wherever he dared to attack Lu Yang, he turned and ran.

A dozen players who followed him also ran away.

"Blazing Bird"

Lu Yang pointed again with his left hand, and a 15-yard-diameter flaming bird slammed into the direction of Longquan and others.

“boom”

The firebird hit the ground and exploded. Except for the dragon fist jumping and dodging, all the other dozen people were killed!

Longquan knew the speed of Lu Yang’s reaction. He jumped away halfway and cancelled his skills. After landing, a lazy donkey rolled and hid behind a stone.

Lu Yang stared at the position of Longquan and said angrily, “Do you think you ran?”

Longquan snorted and gasped, nervously, “Lu Yang, your doomsday is here, today is the day when you are ended by us, Huaxia area, not your family.”

Lu Yang said angrily: “I want to see, where do you get the courage.”

At this time on the battlefield, the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood had eliminated most of the 200,000 opponents at the cost of 10,000 people killed, and the remaining less than a few thousand people.

Longquan also knew the situation on the battlefield, and he laughed and pointed at the distant sky, roaring: “Look there, look there, you look carefully at Lao Tzu, my reinforcements are here.”

Lu Yang looked sideways. On the edge of the grassland, a black line was slowly expanding. It was people, countless people.

“Ha ha, Lu Yang, you lose, you lose.” Finally, the battle hid in another corner and laughed.

Lu Yang looked back at the more than 10,000 remnants, gritted his teeth and said, “Resurrect the player and prepare for battle.”

“Yes.”

More than 10,000 people clenched their teeth and quickly used the scroll and resurrection to resurrect the player on the spot. The nearby enemies did not want to make fearless sacrifice at this time, and they ran quickly to the distance.

A flash of light flashed, and more than 20,000 players in the Jagged Brothers Alliance were resurrected. However, at this time, their equipment was not complete. Many people lost their equipment just after the death of the battle. There were not many potions in the backpack. It was all lost when the war died.

Moreover, these people have fought for more than an hour. This high-intensity war has put a heavy load on their brains, and everyone’s face shows fatigue.

Lu Yang really wanted them to go back to rest, but he knew that once he gave this order, the Brotherhood of Iron Blood collapsed, and he gritted his teeth and asked, “Can we still fight?”

The eyes of more than 20,000 people turned red instantly.

Tang Feiqi came out first, squeezing his head in pain, gritted his teeth and said, “Boss said war, we fight, blood oath shaman, since the day he restored honor, he has not escaped these two words. “

“Can fight!” The 3000 Blood Oath Shaman almost cried in unison, crying.

Lu Yang’s eyes were already wet, and he was holding on to prevent tears from falling down. He looked at the blood soldier corps next to him and asked, “Can you fight?”

Tan Zhe laughed and shouted with a stern expression: “Brothers of the cannon fodder, tell the boss, can you fight?”

“Can fight!” 3000 God Blood Orc warriors shouted in unison.

Lu Yang's eyes glanced over the Ice Department of the Grand Master, Theocracy Knights, Archbishop Priest, Starbreaker Archer.

"Can fight ~!"

"Can fight ~!"

"Can fight ~!"

"Can fight ~!"

The players of each of the seven regiments shouted that they could fight. At a certain moment, their voices were neat and uniform. At this moment, the enemy's 200,000 elite roared to their 50 meters.

Lu Yang stood in the first row of the team, holding up his staff with his right hand, as if to make his last roar.

"Iron Brotherhood, kill ~!"

"Kill!" More than 20,000 people madly launched a backlash towards 200,000 people.

At this moment, countless players watching this live broadcast were crazy. In the live broadcast room, Dubin broke the table with a punch.

"Lu Yang did a good job. Take out those bastards. The Jagged Brothers League is the strongest is the strongest, you are the strongest."

German TV's game channel.

The official host roared excitedly: "Lu Yang, at this moment I admit that your Jagged Brotherhood is the strongest legion in this game, you are the strongest fighter, and you are my idol."

Japanese TV game channel.

The official host yelled with a solemn look on his face: "This is the real warrior, they are the real warriors, and only when there is such a person in the war, they deserve to be called warriors."

...

At this moment, everyone was convinced by the courage of Lu Yang and the more than 20,000 Iron Brother Brothers players. The 20,000 people who worked hard to fight the 200,000 elites who had fought several times against 200,000, now their equipment has fallen. Several of them are extremely limited compared to the opponent. Some people's weapons were not found. They randomly found a 140-level dark gold weapon on the ground to take part in the war.

It is conceivable how unfavorable the situation of the Jagged Brothers Alliance is. However, these two people believed in Lu Yang. They believed that Lu Yang would take them to win each other.

Chapter 1374 - Plain battle

The so-called two armies meet the brave and win large-scale battles, not only when the willpower and strength of the players are displayed, but also when the personal charm of the presidents of the two parties is displayed.

Looks like a brainless charge, in fact, Lu Yang issued orders constantly, at this time also saw that the quality of the Jagged Brothers players, compared to the affiliated guild players more than a little stronger.

"During the charge, remember to keep the cloud in a vertical position. Don't mess, we orderly attack."
Lu Yang's order hit the team channel directly.

Seven regiments, with seven regiments, 21 large captains, and countless squads, once issued, seemingly chaotic charge formations gradually formed among the teams.

A squad of 20 people, this squad cannot form a cloud formation. To form such a formation, there must be a team of 500 or more. Therefore, the entire Brotherhood of the Iron Blood now has 500 people as a unit.

The characteristic of Yunchao array is to increase the player's double defense ability by 30%. Under the condition that the equipment does not occupy an absolute advantage, Lu Yang decided to increase the double defense ability to resist the impact of the enemy.

"Kill ~!"

When Lu Yang and his team were about to collide directly with the enemy, he found at a glance that the runners in the fifth row of the enemy were three-turn warlocks and dark herdsmen, and all the magic in his hands was dark magic with negative effects.

"All the mages are aiming at the enemy's fifth row." Lu Yang shouted, then read the spell in his mouth.

"Meteorite Impact"

...

Several meteorites continued to fall in the sky. At the same time, a small fireball on the side of Lu Yang also launched a meteorite impact, and the speed of spelling was not much slower than that of Lu Yang.

The ice mage does not have such skills as meteorite impact, but they have the ability to freeze the ball. After throwing it out, they make indiscriminate shots around them.

For a while, the ice-based magic and the fire-based magic were frequently read out of the Iron Brotherhood. When the two sides engaged in battle, 12 meteorites and 3,000 ice * appeared in the fifth row and the back of the enemy. Smashed in the past.

There is a concentration of occupations such as the enemy's priest, mage, warlock, and shooter. There are no waiting skills here, and countless skills across the same smashed over.

"Terror Howling"

"Time Locked"

"Change Sheep"

...

A piece of control magic came over, and Xiang Shou Xiang Xi didn't know when he was pulled by a teleportation magic from behind. He shouted in the array: "Control and control the front row of Lu Yang and the enemy. Don't give The opportunity they output. "

Including Lu Yang, he experienced countless control magics such as sheep changing and horror howling, but did not wait for 1 second to control. The archbishops and priests behind him immediately released control.

Lu Yang just woke up and six long swords were chopped towards his head at the same time. At this time, he didn't have a little reaction time, almost instinctively.

"flicker"

A white light flashed, Lu Yang jumped a distance of 100 meters forward, and instantly appeared in the enemy's lineup. Just after landing, Lu Yang did not want to squat down with his body fierce, and punched his left hand on the ground.

"Flame Storm"

A black magic circle appeared at the feet of surrounding players. Under the blessing of equipment that increased skill levels such as the 9th level of Demon Hearts, the Phoenix Seal and the Purple Flame Set that increased level 5 skills, Lu Yang's flame storm hit a diameter of 50 The range of the code.

“boom”

A fierce flame of fire exploded in the enemy's array. The sky-high flames allowed the players of the Iron Brotherhood to see this scene. At the same time, their hearts also knew clearly who released it.

It was Lu Yang. Only Lu Yang could release such a strong and violent flame magic. The sky-high flames instantly enhanced the fighting spirit in their hearts.

“Remnant Flame-Activated”

Lu Yang just finished putting his skills, and a flare flew forward with his body. At the moment he just released his skills, the occupations 30 meters away at the same time hit the control skills to the center of the skills.

Any veteran player can grasp Lu Yang's position in skills with a momentary memory.

“嘭”

Lu Yang avoided all the magic that flew towards him within a minute, appeared beside a group of dark herds 30 meters away, and he and the nearest dark herd, only less than 10 cm away, could see each other. The light in the eyes.

Lu Yang radiated cold, but the other side was frightened.

“Horror ...”

Dark Mu's panic releases control skills, but the skills in his mouth are not read, but they are controlled by a flame.

“Yan Yang Suo”

The players around him for two laps were all trapped by the red-gold chain. Lu Yang took the spell in his mouth while the surrounding players did not respond.

“Yanyang mask”

A blaze of flames appeared on his body, and all the people in the surrounding two laps were hit by the flames. Under the spell damage of more than 4 million crit, all fell to the ground and died.

“Blazing Flames”

Lu Yang pointed his right hand forward, and a humanoid flame flew out of him and shot forward. All the people hit and the players on both sides died instantly.

This skill has been hit for more than 100 meters, and when the skill is over, a unmanned zone with a width of 1 meter and a length of more than 100 meters has been hit, as if a ground had been dug out by an excavator.

The players around were dumbfounded, they quickly looked at Lu Yang, but found that Lu Yang no longer knew where to go.

“Hurry up, where is Lu Yang, kill him.” Xiangshou Xiangxi roared.

Everyone looked around, but no one found that Lu Yang actually appeared in the air, and was on top of each other.

“Kill me, are you worth it?” Lu Yang held Ziyang Staff with both hands, and a huge fireball popped out of the top of the staff.

Lu Yang lifted his staff and smashed it according to the head of the guardian and the lover, and at the same time carried the skills of the Blazing Bird.

“嘭”

Xiangshou Xiangxi didn't hide away Being hit by Lu Yang's staff in the head, at the same time, the Blazing Bird burst out, killing all players around and 15 yards behind Xiangshou Xiangxi.

The firebird flew for more than 50 meters before stopping. This attack killed dozens of people. Unfortunately, these enemies will play, and the formation is not dense, otherwise he will kill more, but there is no way, who Let these people have fought several wars with the Jagged Brotherhood.

“Kill him and take revenge on the boss.” No one around shouted.

“Change Sheep”

“Freezing”

...

Various control magics came in, and Lu Yang uttered a spell in the mouth as soon as they raised their hands.

“Remnant Flame-Activated”

Lu Yang appeared with a ray of flame at 6 o'clock 50 meters away. As soon as he appeared, the sunshade on his body killed the three enemies around him. Then he spelled out the words, according to a group in the distance. Man launches a flaming bird.

“Neighing”

The Flaming Bird flew towards this group of people with a broken sound. Their composition is very classic. The shield carrying the front is anti-war and anti-riding, and the hiding behind the shield is healing. Under the flame.

“boom”

The Flaming Bird exploded on the ground, and all the treatments hit by the flame died instantly, and the anti-war and anti-riding all lost a quarter of their health.

The commander of the anti-riding commander Red was also among the attacked crowd. He looked back and found it was Lu Yang. He was terrified and shouted: “Where is everyone? Ruined our position. “

“Change Sheep”

“Flame Shock”

...

When a piece of magic struck, Lu Yanggang was about to launch a residual flame, and his head was hit by a flame. At this moment, the jewelry on his body automatically triggered the release of directional magic damage and control. Lu Yang did not lose a trace of blood.

He did not dare to stay in place, and quickly launched his skills to leave. At the same time, he looked at the man who had released magic to him, and turned out to be a mage player wearing a level 160 dark gold suit, and the mage could not hit his face. A look of surprise was also revealed.

“Flame Storm”

While Lu Yang landed to release the magic to kill dozens of people around him, he suddenly realized that his enemies might contain some high-level studio players. He took this opportunity to mix in the four affiliated guilds and wanted to attack him.

He guessed right, there are indeed a lot of high-level studio players mixed in using camouflage coats, which will not let Lu Yang find out who they are. If the sneak attack is successful, they rely on the advantages of equipment and level, the group attacked Kill the players around you and * the treasures from Lu Yang.

Unfortunately, they did not expect that so many people chased Lu Yang for so long, and none of them hit Lu Yang. It was only after he launched an attack that he triggered the effect of the jewelry on Lu Yang, letting him lose this wonderful kill in vain. Lu Yang's opportunity.

Lu Yang realized this, but it had no effect. The enemy was hidden in the crowd. He could n't find this person, and he did n't have time to find this person now, because he understood how his Starbreaker shooter came over. It has not been supported for so long, it turned out to be blocked by the anti-war and anti-riding groups of the four affiliated guilds.

Even if the Starbreaker shooter has a high attack power, they can be under the full defense of anti-riding and anti-war, and their damage is very limited, and anti-riding and anti-war have the ability to reduce the damage by 50%.

Lu Yang must now bring someone to break the wall, even if those people sneak attack on other artifact occupations in his hands, he must do so.

“Remnant Flame-Activated”

Lu Yang stepped forward sideways, avoiding all the skills to attack him, at the same time, a burst of violent energy emerged from the body, and then he turned into a light that instantly appeared in the formation of the anti-war and anti-riding team.

“噤”

Lu Yang appeared, and the surrounding anti-riding and anti-war battles were guarding against this hand. When Lu Yang appeared, the reaction came and took a picture of the landing shield.

“Shield strike”

Lu Yang fell into a coma for 2 seconds, and the surrounding anti-riding and anti-war battles quickly showed an excited look, smashing the shield and smashing over, but they haven't waited for them for another second, and their smiles remained on their faces. when.

“Polynuclear explosion”

The skills that were launched when Lu Yang released the plane were released automatically after a 2 second delay.

“boom”

There was a loud noise, with Lu Yang as the center, and a burst of violent energy blasted everyone within 30 yards around.

Lu Yang took this opportunity to read the spell one after another.

“Meteorite Impact”

...

Three meteorites fell almost simultaneously in the sky, smashing past the defensive battles facing the Starbreaker shooter and behind the priest under their shield.

There are 3 rows in this group of defense battles. Lu Yang is a skill released laterally, and three crimson meteorite falls in the same area. All 3 rows of defense battles and the priests under their protection are wrapped.

Level 9 Demon Heart ignores 70% of the magic resistance. This group of enemies is the same as having no magic defense in front of Lu Yang. Up to 2.6 million magic wound meteorites have been dropped one after another. The three rows of enemies have no chance to react and are all crushed. death.

The meteorite has been rolling forward 15 meters, and a 15-meter-long uninhabited zone has flowed directly. The three demon commanding 50 meters away from the opposite side saw a crazy look on the face and shouted: "Boss Come and support us. "

The Starbreaker shooter was very uncomfortable to be intercepted by the anti-war group. No matter how they detoured, the anti-war was blocked in front of them. Because they were in a large circle, they could not run through the anti-war, causing them to be trapped in the war. Outside the circle.

However, the enemy's anti-war and anti-riding are also limited. Among the 200,000 people, there are only 20,000 anti-war and anti-riding, and 50,000 treatments, including the melee in the battlefield. There are less than 5,000 treatments in this group. add blood.

Originally they could live on, but now Luyang's three meteorite impacts hit a 15-meter gap, killing them more than 100 anti-war and anti-riding. It is conceivable that it won't take long for Lu Yang to give They made a gap wide enough for them to pass.

But at this moment, the devil's eyes were widened on three sides, he raised his hand and shot an arrow at Lu Yang, and Lu Yang was shocked, but he did not escape, and let the bow and arrow shoot into his ear, in the middle of a violent battle , And took three steps back.

Unfortunately, only a half step back, someone behind him blocked his body, at the same time, a cold voice came.

"Chairman Lu Yang, please leave the heart of the 9th level demon god." A Paladin suddenly opened invincible, cut his sword with a large sword in his hands.

Lu Yang looked at the man, but couldn't see his face, because he was wearing a clown mask, he sneered and said, "It's a pity, you're slow."

Lu Yang turned back abruptly and pointed forward with his left hand.

“Destroy Heavy Artillery”

A blast of violent energy drowned everyone in the front with a dazzling light. The holy sword of the clown paladin did not wait for Lu Yang to fall back, and was pushed back by more than ten steps in a row by the violent energy, and His men died without waiting.

After the light, the clown paladin stood stunned and looked at Lu Yang 10 meters away and asked, “How can you predict the release of the heavy artillery?”

With a smile on Lu Yang’s face, he said, “From the moment I took my bow and arrow and aimed at me, I knew there was someone behind me.”

The destruction of the heavy artillery was only 50 meters away. This was not used to hit the three-faced devil at all, and it also made the three-faced devil’s face look excited.

“Boss.” The devil on three sides shouted excitedly.

Lu Yang turned back to give him an encouraging look, and then looked at the clown and said, “My brothers will never hit me. They have only one possibility of aiming at me, that is, there are enemies behind me. Come sneak attack me, don’t you dare show up? “

Chapter 1376 - Highlight moments of Lu Yang

The clown sneered and said, “You are right, I really dare not show my face. Since the sneak attack failed, I am gone. You continue this battle, and I will not play.”

At the moment when the clowns died in the light of the destruction of the heavy artillery, all of them ordered the resurrection of the main city without waiting for the light to disappear, and Lu Yang was not even seen by the body.

The clown took out a rare scroll of instant teleportation, relying on the invincible effect on his body, and a flash of light flashed when he opened it, and it disappeared without a trace.

Lu Yang snorted. He couldn't care who the clown was. He only knew that the battle had become more and more flavorful, and he must quickly resolve the battle.

“Remnant Flame-Activated”

Lu Yang entered the middle of the shooter team with a light, and said, “The shooter protects me for 10 seconds.”

He took out the potion and ate it quickly, then he sat on the ground and took out a quick response to cooking to restore the magic.

The devil on three sides immediately led people to release countless bows and arrows, and gained Lu Yang a precious 10 seconds.

At the end of 10 seconds, Lu Yang's mana recovered by one third. Taking into account the remaining one third, his total mana returned to two thirds.

Lu Yang looked at the battlefield. At this time, the main force of the Jagged Brotherhood was still fighting, and Han Ying and Han Yu, like him, jumped out of the original team and entered the enemy, using the advantages of the equipment and the enemy. The scuffle is together.

The total number of enemies is still more than 100,000, while the number of Jagged Brothers Alliance is less than 15,000, and the two sides fight very hard.

“The enemy’s defensive front must be broken. As long as your large troops can break in, this battle will have a chance to win.” Lu Yang said.

The devil on three sides said: “Their defense is too high, I can’t break it.”

“Look at me.” Lu Yang’s body turned into a light and flew into the enemy’s position instantly. Suddenly, a light flashed around Lu Yang, and several space-time thieves suddenly jumped in front of Lu Yang.

“Unscrupulous Strike”

...

Lu Yang had already been guarded, but with such an intensive attack, he could no longer escape, nor could he escape all. At the moment when the enemy sent out his sword, his body shifted to the right by three inches to avoid the enemy’s three dagger attacks. , And three other daggers stabbed him.

“3149546” (Critical Strike)

“3000496” (Critical Strike)

“2948498” (Critical Strike)

All three of them hit with crit damage. Even if Lu Yang’s defense strength is even higher, in the face of the ten-fold attack of the three-blooded blood, only one blood skin remains.

“Bold enough.” Lu Yang roared, and flame petals suddenly appeared around his body. The six thieves in the skill did not avoid it, all of them activated the magic immunity ability, but in the next second, all of them were turned into petals by the flame. Hit it straight.

“red lotus”

The anger skill ignores magic avoidance and magic resistance. The full amount of high damage skills is based on Lu Yang's intelligence as the damage base. With continuous rotation, all 6 people are killed.

Lu Yang looked down at these six people, and it turned out to be the gentleman and gentleman of one of his affiliated studios and five other people he didn't know.

[World Channel] Lu Yang: Gentle sword, you are brave enough, I ruined your studio.

Yi Jian was revived in an instant and wanted to avoid being discovered by Lu Yang. Unfortunately, he was still seen by Lu Yang, and suddenly he stomped his chest.

"It's over, Lu Yang isn't dead, I'm out of luck."

Unfortunately, at this time, it was too late for him to wake up. How could Lu Yang's area be allowed to exist again? On the battlefield, Lu Yang had just killed six thieves in an instant, just like a hero of war killing human beings.

No matter how strong you are and how confident you are, there is a bunch of * in front of Lu Yang, and he can crush them to death.

Although Lu Yang had only one blood skin left at this time, none of the players rushing around dared to attack, so he watched for 2 seconds.

Lu Yang has been mad. He has never been so angry for a moment. Now his affiliated studios dare to attack him. He has become extremely angry.

"Come, come and kill me, let me see what you can do." Lu Yang roared and roared at the enemy in front of him, launched the Remnant Flame ability, and rushed towards this group of people.

"Remnant Flame-Activated"

...

Whenever Lu Yang's skill is triggered once, when he appears in the active position, he will also have the same fire damage as magic damage. Similarly, Lu Yang also has the sun damage ability, which is also an equivalent magic damage. Fire damage.

The superposition of the two is more than 5 million damage, and there is a 70% critical strike chance of the 9th level of the demon heart and a high critical strike in a purple inflammation artifact set. Lu Yang's critical strike chance is almost 100%. Therefore, Lu Yang does not need to use skills, so it does not appear in the middle of a group of people for a moment, so that the activated damage and the damage of the sun mask are immediately triggered to fly away.

There were hundreds of enemies rushing in front of him. In this way, Lu Yang constantly used the Residual Flame Activation skill to tell shuttles among them like a phantom.

From the outside, Lu Yang is a flame of lightning, shuttled frantically among hundreds of people, as if to connect the flame to everyone. When he did all this, Lu Yang stopped in place.

“噦”

“噦”

“噦”

...

Hundreds of enemies in front of him were all killed, and the three-sided devil and star-breaker shooter who had just rushed behind him saw this scene, and everyone's face was stunned and excited.

“The boss is crazy.”

“God.”

“You can fight like this.”

“I’ve used the afterimage skills. If I use them like this, my head will explode.”

...

The players on the battlefield are frantically discussing. Among the major live TV stations and platforms outside the battlefield, the host, anchor, and players have also exploded, and are all frantically discussing.

The Japanese TV host looked at the Japanese elite players around him and asked, “Can fire mage still use skills like this?”

The elite Japanese players have an extremely ugly face shaking his head and saying: “It is impossible according to common sense. Unless after years of rigorous training, the willpower is strong enough to release the residual flame skills, otherwise, For 3 seconds, pain in the brain can force the player out of the game. “

The host of the Japanese TV station looked at the elite in surprise and looked at Lu Yang, who was breathing on the screen, and asked, “So how did he ...?”

The Japanese elite shook their heads and said, “I can’t understand it, I can’t understand it at all. Please trust our professional data. This is not something we made up, but something recognized by studios around the world.”

The Japanese players were stunned. Similarly, such words were also spoken from the elites of major television stations in Germany, France, China, South Korea and other major countries, because the fire skills are too powerful, they all want to use the land Yang’s play, but no one can persist for 3 seconds, once it reaches 3 seconds, it must be kicked out of the game.

“So far, we know that Lu Yang is the only person who can do this, and his brain may be different from others.” The Japanese elite said.

Chapter 1377 - Counterattack begins

in the game.

Lu Yang under thousands of praises, at this time, was lowering his head desperately and struggling with a painful head. His brain wave signal was only 93% connected to the game helmet, which was reduced by 2%, and the game helmet was automatically powered off. .

“Warning, it is recommended to exit the game immediately and your brain is over fatigued.”

“Warning, suggestion ...”

The sound of the game helmet continued to be heard in his ears, but where Lu Yang dared to take off the helmet and not to rest, he suddenly took a long breath, forcing himself to ignore the pain in his head and looked up.

At this point, no one dared to rush forward in front of him, all standing in a daze 100 meters away, and the enemies on both sides of him were watching him in horror, as if they were seeing an invincible existence.

There was a sneer on Lu Yang’s face, not a joke, but a joke. Those who were hiding in the surrounding space at the moment and wanted to sneak in. These people did not dare to rush in the first place. It is probably because he was afraid that he would have the power to fight back But they didn’t know that the 2 second pause was just his most critical time.

Now that he had suppressed the pain, now it was too late to attack him!

He deliberately sold a flaw and turned to look at the demon on three sides, shouting, "Ready to attack."

The three-faced devil was leading people towards the landing sun, and at this time, the three-faced devil's eyes showed a terrified look again.

The word "Old ..." had not yet been said, and four black shadows were suddenly stuck on Lu Yang's body, and the dagger in his hand stabbed Lu Yang's body fiercely.

"Unscrupulous Strike"

...

The moment when the four black lights touched Lu Yang's body, Lu Yang seemed to be in sync with them.

"flicker"

A white light flashed, four daggers pierced into the white light at the same time, and four big miss words rose.

"What?" The four assassins, like one person, made frightening sounds at the same time. They looked up, but did not see Lu Yang.

"Not good." An assassin reacted for the first time, and as soon as he was about to activate his skills, a ripple appeared under their feet.

"Flame Storm"

"Blazing Bird"

“Resistant Fire Ring”

...

After four simple moves, the four assassins did not even have a chance to react. After being stunned by the flame storm, they have already been judged.

Lu Yang looked at the bodies of four people on the ground and asked loudly, “Who else? Who else would like to try?”

There was silence all around, obviously there were thousands of anti-war and anti-riding on his sides, and there were also hundreds of priests, but no one spoke, as if the sound of falling leaves could be heard.

“Run, stay here to die, I’ll quit.”

“Escape, this is a monster!”

...

During the two-wing defense battle, more than a dozen people suddenly jumped out and turned and ran towards the back. In just 2 seconds, as if the battalion had exploded, the original rugged wall of the defender collapsed instantly, hundreds of people The player stood up and ran, and even the players around him fled, and a defensive wall appeared with a gap of more than 80 meters.

Lu Yang stood in place and laughed, watching the three-sided devil and star-breaker shooter group running behind him shouting, “The whole army is attacking.”

The three-faced devil was already blushing at this time, and he was extremely excited. He heard about a player being scared away by another player in the game. He heard about a player being scared away by a dozen players. Said one person scared away hundreds of people?

Today, he saw it with his own eyes, either for others, or for his boss, Lu Yang, the chairman and chairman of the Iron Brotherhood.

“Iron Brotherhood, kill ~!” The demon on three sides ran roaring and ran forward, and the 3,000 Starbreaker shooters behind him snarled into the gap, just 300 meters away in front of them. Is the central battle circle.

Lu Yang shouted at a 10,000 knights siege in front of the Iron Blood Brothers League: “Kill them.”

“Hash arrows, shoot!”

The 3000 archer didn't need to aim, and he quickly fired while unfolding the formation. In an instant, nearly 100,000 arrows shot into the formation of the Knights.

This group of people is besieging the assassin group of gods, their bodies are facing away from the 3,000 Starbreaker shooters. When the arrow fell, they found the problem, but it was too late at this time, and more than 10,000 did not open. The invincible Paladin was instantly killed and killed more than 7,000 people.

“Damn, what the * is going on, why didn't they stop the shooter team?” The head of the Paladin roared.

Unfortunately, the anti-war wall has collapsed, and the anti-war and anti-riding have no attack power. They can block the shooter group, relying on the defense force and fast movement in the near circle. The shooter group standing in the outer circle cannot run until they enter. Not coming.

Now that people are coming in, the situation on the battlefield has been completely changed in some areas!

“Continue firing and hit with hash arrows to save our brother,” the three-sided devil shouted.

Another arrow rain fell, and the paladins in front of them turned on invincible, then turned and ran, and did not dare to rush to the shooter group 100 meters away, so the surrounded * assassin group was rescued.

Tianhui was having a hard time defending. Suddenly he was rescued and made his eyes shine. When he saw Lu Yang standing in the middle, he rushed to the front of Lu Yang and said, “Boss, the enemy uses the space and time mage’s barrier to We blocked it. My side was fine, but the big troops were scattered by the enemy, and they couldn’t find the small fireball. “

The small fireball was holding the heart of the 9th level demon god. Lu Yang hurriedly looked for it. In an area 200 meters away, bursts of fire lit up, which let Lu Yang know that the small fireball was not dead.

“Follow me,” Lu Yang said loudly.

He rushed in the direction of the small fireball with a person, but the distance of 200 meters seemed close, but there were tens of thousands of people in the middle.

The only luck is that the Starbreaker shooter’s attack power is too high The enemy cannot fight at all, and the gods and assassins are guarding on both wings, and the enemy cannot rush in. In this way, Lu Yang spent 20 minutes Time rushed to 50 meters in front of the small fireball.

“Hold on, I’m here.” Lu Yang shouted.

Around the small fireball, at this time more than 30 elite masters are gathering. Although they do not have artifacts, everyone’s equipment is 150 or 160, and by the time the small fireball has clearly reached the end of the crossbow, the body is already a bit sloppy.

Hearing Lu Yang’s voice, the little fireball glanced over his side, and finally a look of relaxation appeared on his face.

“Unscrupulous Strike”

Suddenly a thief broke through the space and appeared behind the small fireball, and the dagger stabbed towards his neck.

“Flame Shock”

Lu Yang raised his finger, and a spark burst from the thief’s head and was killed. The thief instantly chose to resurrect and disappeared before landing.

“Fortunately,” Lu Yang secretly said.

Chapter 1378 - Collapsed 4 affiliated guilds

The moment the thief broke the space, it took a stagnant action to turn on the magic avoidance. Although the time was only 0.5 seconds, in front of the master, this was enough to let them easily escape, so most of the thieves opened the space and attacked directly.

The thieves were also blinded. When they saw Lu Yang approaching, they became timid. One of the team leaders seemed to be afraid of Lu Yang’s sight and deliberately covered his face.

Lu Yang snorted and said, “You also know that you are afraid of being seen by me, I’ll give you a chance and give me a chance to go back to Tianyu Shencheng. I don’t care about you today.”

“You ~!” The leader of the thief was furious, but after thinking about it, he took out the telescopic scroll and flew away as Landing Yang’s face.

So did the rest of the thieves, and all chose to leave.

Not that they are not strong enough, but they dare not fight Lu Yang, they do not have the courage to fight.

Seeing that there were no enemies around, the small fireball ran to Lu Yang's side and said weakly, "Boss, I didn't embarrass you."

As soon as the voice fell, the small fireball fell to the ground.

System prompt: Little Fireball leaves the game!

Suddenly frightened, Lu Yang sent a message to Black and White and said, "Get someone to see the little fireball, he's out of the game."

Black-and-white dialed the phone quickly, and then he replied to Lu Yang: "He passed out and just woke up. There is no major event, but his head hurts."

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief, and said, "Sent to the hospital for examination, and send someone to look at him."

"Yes," said Black and White.

Lu Yang hung up the phone, and he found a divine assassin and asked him to take the teleporting scepter and fly back to Tianyu Shencheng with a small fireball.

"Follow me to continue the attack and regroup the team together." Lu Yang shouted.

At this time on the grassland, the players of the Iron Brotherhood were cut by the enemy's control skills such as the space-time barriers and Earthquake, but unfortunately, relying on these barriers, the players of the Iron Brotherhood found escape. Place is harder to kill than the original.

In this way, Lu Yang took the 3,000-strong legion of assassins and starbreakers, sweeping more than half of the battlefield, and rescued most of the players in the Iron Brotherhood. Fortunately, among the players holding artifacts, No one has lost an artifact.

When the enemy cut their own positions, Han Ying and Han Yu brought all the artifact players together all the time, relying on a corner position formed by a ground dragon earthquake to defend, and insisted on the arrival of Lu Yang.

“Good job,” Lu Yang praised.

Han Yu and Han Ying are very excited.

“Brother, how do we fight next?” Han Yu asked.

Lu Yang said: “Continuing the attack, the enemy must not be able to hold on before us.”

A morale is fought on the battlefield. The morale on his side is getting stronger and stronger, and the morale of the enemy is getting lower and lower.

The time is now 1 am. The three axes of these four affiliated guilds are finished. They did not defeat Lu Yang, but also caused their players to lose a lot of equipment. The four of them were also willing to fight with the Iron Brothers Alliance. There are not so many, and anti-war sentiment will become higher and higher.

Looking at the surrounding battlefield, Lu Yang did not know where the enemies had found so many earth-based mages. In front of him, there were 30-meter-high walls and earth slopes formed by the earth-quake, and in the distance there were the colors of splendid space-time barriers.

Their enemies are right next to this area. Just like him, they are reorganizing, but the number of people gathered is very small. This also includes the parts that come to the reinforcements to run fast.

“I checked it just now, the enemy is still about 130,000 people, of which 30,000 people are from the rear reinforcements.” Tianhui said.

Lu Yang looked behind him, and 20,000 people were all resurrected. Those who died on the battlefield also returned to the fortress safe zone, and brought many 160-level dark gold sleeves and potions.

He looked at his men and replenished them, and said loudly, "Brothers, the enemy is about to collapse, and there are fewer and fewer people who are willing to continue to hit us with the four stupidities. Follow me and attack again, we Beat the other side. "

"Kill ~!" More than 20,000 people are fighting.

Lu Yang pointed forward and shouted, "Listen to my order, Brother Brothers, kill!"

"Kill!" The voice of 20,000 people was short and powerful. As Lu Yang stepped forward, the enemies 1,000 meters away from Lu Yang saw Lu Yang actively attack again, and they all stunned.

"Crazies, this group of lunatics."

"Dare to take the initiative to attack, aren't they tired?"

"My head hurts. I've been online for almost 16 hours today."

"Damn, don't believe they were hit by iron."

"To go up to you, Lao Tzu didn't want to die. He drove the punishment angel and rushed up to cut two or three swords, and then died. This battle was boring."

...

Many players on the side of the four affiliated guilds don't want to fight. If Lu Yang didn't take the initiative to attack, but he was tired. They must be very willing to chase after the situation. The war will remain high and cannot be destroyed.

"Where did they have the courage to dare hit us head on?" The final battle asked in disbelief.

Long Quan and the three princes already regretted it at this time. If they knew that the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood was so hard, they would never have betrayed it.

“A group of lunatics,” the three princes scolded.

Xiang Shou Xiang Xi said: “Tell the brothers, the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood will not be able to carry it, as long as we persist this time, the fortress is us.”

“Still playing?” Longquan looked at his watch and said, “It’s 12 o’clock in the evening now. If we can’t end the fight within half an hour, our people don’t need to say, they will be gone.”

Xiangshou Xiangxi looked at Longquan coldly and asked, “What if you don’t fight? Wait for death?”

“Isn’t that going to kill you?” The three princes asked sharply.

Xiang Shou Xiang Xi was angry. Before the alliance, he spoke like a brother, but now he has a problem, his face is bitterer than a bitter, he cursed, “What do you tell me?”

“I, I know I still ask you?” The third prince scolded.

At the end of the battle, the two of them would quarrel again, and said quickly: “Lu Yang is approaching. Can we stop arguing and think about what to do?”

Longquan said: “If you don’t withdraw first, I bet we will definitely not win the 20,000 people in Luyang. We might as well discuss it with other guilds or find a chance to sneak attack tomorrow.”

“I agree.” The three princes made the first statement.

“I agree,” said the final battle.

“You ...” Xiang Shou Xiang Xi looked at the three, and looked at the floating players below, and slammed the sword on the ground. “Okay, all three of you agree, I don’t have any opinion. . “

“Woo ~~~~~!”

A low horn sounded on the battlefield Lu Yang stunned, he smiled.

“Boss, what are you laughing at?” The cute queen asked.

Lu Yang motioned to everyone to stop, and he pointed at the enemy team in front of him with a smile and said, “You didn’t know later, this voice is a clarion call to show retreat, they gave up.”

“Win !?” the cute queen asked.

Lu Yang nodded and said, “It ’s a win to win, but it ’s boring to win so much. Listen to my orders, attack all the people, and chase this group of people to mammoth. They can’t let them run so easily.”

“Yes.”

“Rush, destroy this bunch of garbage.”

...

20,000 rushed towards the enemy’s tail.

The cruelty of the battlefield in the game is just like the real battlefield. On the two sides that are wrestling, one side chooses to withdraw from the battle. How can the other side allow the opponent to retreat so easily, especially these people still fight around the more than 20,000 iron brothers players? Traitor for hours.

Lu Yang also hated this group of people and chased and killed the team himself. If there was no betrayal of the guild behind the four members of the four princes, the dragon fist, the final battle, and the three princes, Lu Yang would not be so embarrassed.

In the case of using more than 20,000 level 160 dark gold sets with deceit tactics, he can bring the affiliated guild to win the enemy guild on the front battlefield of the Chiyang Fortress. Unfortunately, the hearts of the people are not enough. Unfortunately, the four of them even betrayed him because of their interests.

Today, although Lu Yang has won, but his more than 20,000 elite levels have also fallen badly, he is about to fall below 160, and tomorrow afternoon he will face the seven strongest players who are under the tiger fortress. There are tens of millions of players in the guild, which is too much pressure on the defense of Tiger Mouth.

“The pursuit of a cemetery and a cemetery absolutely does not allow them to return to the Celestial City so easily.” Lu Yang, while chasing people, called the affiliated guild of the defending King Kong fortress and said, “Fly quickly to each In the cemetery, players who found their four guilds killing each other immediately were killed. “

“Yes.”

50,000 people rushed out of the Vajra fortress and rushed towards the surrounding cemetery.

Lu Yang’s anger was chasing here. On the other hand, the host who was broadcasting live around the world sighed for Lu Yang.

American host: "God, it's so amazing, Lu Yang has defended himself in such a situation."

British host: "A miracle happened in front of our eyes. Lu Yang really led the 20,000 Brotherhood Brothers players to win the 800,000 enemies on the opposite side. Not only that, but the opposite side also collapsed."

French Moderator: "The next war has moved in a direction that is very beneficial to the Brotherhood of Iron Blood. With this victory, the morale of the players in the Brotherhood of Iron Blood must rise."

Japanese host: "Alice and more than 100 affiliated guilds fighting in the battle of Chiyang Fortress, Xingxing Village, and Demon Cow Village need to think of a way forward. The war is no longer under their control."

...

All the presenters, anchors and commentators unanimously believed that the war tonight will end with the victory of the Iron Brotherhood.

In-game.

With more than 20,000 main forces, Lu Yang overtook the main forces of the four guarding each other, and chasing and killing more than 100,000 people who only wanted to run away was chaotic. He was also killed by 50,000 or 60,000 people. Unfortunately, Lu Yang did not dare to release the 50,000 people of the affiliated guild to defend the cemetery, which caused the enemy to die first and was resurrected. He flew to the Celestial City with the scroll of the city back, allowing Lu Yang to consume more enemies. The plan for strength failed.

After receiving this news, Lu Yang called Tu Feng and asked, "What is the situation inside the enemy now?"

Tu Feng said: "A large number of players are asking each other in the guild to share their views with each other and Longquan. At the same time, a large number of players are offline."

“Yeah,” Lu Yang said with a sneer, “I have played with me for so long, lost so much equipment and experience, and haven’t got anything. These people must give a speech.”

Tu Feng said, “What are some of them able to give a speech, I guess I’ll call it tomorrow, so I can say that in one sentence.”

Lu Yang shook his head and said, “On the one hand, you have to find a way to monitor Alice, and on the other hand, you have to try to send people to contact the four of them, and I want to know if they have any logistics supplies. ,where!”

Tu Feng said, “I see. Boss, you can now bring people to support other areas. The ordinary players within them have been offline. Several legionnaires who have followed them for a long time have become representatives. Negotiations. “

Lu Yang nodded, hung up the phone, and said to the team leader around him, the lovely queen, the three-faced devil, and Tang Feiqi, “There is something wrong with them after returning to Tianyu God City. Fly to other areas. “

“Count them running fast.” Tang Feiqi scolded indignantly.

The cute queen asked, “Boss, where are we going now?”

Lu Yang opened the map and cast the screen to the ground. He was also hesitant. The front battlefield was too chaotic. There are still five wars in the Huaxia region. The Indian region and the South Korean region are also in the war. Except for him, other regions need it. support.

Tang Feiqi thought for a while and said, “How about we go to Xingxing Village, Vulcan M16 has the fewest enemies around, winning them can quickly let Vulcan bring 800,000 players to support other areas.”

Lu Yang felt right and said, “Let’s go to Xingxing Village.”

Tang Feiqi and the cute queen immediately issued an order. More than 20,000 Jagged Brother Alliance players immediately flew to the picking fortress and ran towards Xingxing Village.

While Lu Yang was marching here, on the other side, Star Village, Demon Village, and the Iron Blood Brothers players in various fighting areas received Lu Yang personally leading 20,000 players to win the defensive battle of the Vajra Fortress, and they will betray them. The four major guilds completely broke down and all chased and went to the Celestial City.

“Brothers work harder, the boss has already won, we can’t lose too much to the boss, but he has won 800,000 with 20,000.”

“Victory is in sight, brothers and I will start another charge.”

“Haha, for our guild, we worked hard, and would rather die than let us go further and stop them.”

...

On all battlefields, the morale of the Iron Blood Brothers players suddenly jumped which worried Alice and the president of more than 100 rebel guilds who were fighting against the Iron Blood Brothers Alliance.

On the battlefield of the Chiyang Fortress.

The president of the Elven Kingdom Guild frowned and said, “Unfortunately, Lu Yang seems to be a small number of more than 20,000 people, but all of them are level 160 or above. Once they are replenished to reinforce Star Village, there will definitely be a collapse . “

President Ziyuelou Tianwu said nervously, “What should we do? It must not happen.”

Ye Wuhen said, “It’s easy to say. We don’t have the ability to manage other people now. We can’t win here.”

Banyu Yanyu said: "Can't wait any longer. Lu Yang may appear outside Xingxing Village at any time. This matter must be resolved immediately. Let's go to Alice."

Tianyi, Tianwu and others looked at each other and thought that it made sense, and chose to enter the special space opened by Banyu Yanyu.

A flash of light flashed over, and the presidents of the three largest guilds, the leisurely wind of the Xingxing Village battlefield, the freedom of the world, and the drunk party.

Chapter 1380 - Yin loss tricks

There was another flash of light, and the presidents of the largest guilds fighting in Demon Village also arrived. They were the president of Chongtian Palace, Meteor, the blood demon of the storm union, the dragon king of the dragon mark guild, and Qingxin Elegant Yaran girl.

"It's all there!" Muttered the Blood Demon and cursed, "Everyone who cares for their waste, 800,000 people can't beat Lu Yang's 20,000 people, waste, stupid waste."

Xiangshou Xiangxi The four were among the crowd, all of them suddenly came over.

"Who are you scolding?" The three princes cursed at the blood demon demon: "You try to fight Lu Yang in person. The more than 20,000 people are the same as the chicken blood."

Xiang Shou Xiang Xi said: "Standing does not cause backache. We are waste. You are the same. There are more people than the other person. Have you ever beaten?"

"Anyway, I didn't defeat it." The blood demon demon was furious.

The two sides immediately quarreled, but fortunately, the girl Yaran frowned and said, "Do n't quarrel, Alice? Why did n't that woman come, we gathered together, and now there is something wrong, why don't you A solution? "

Everyone looked around, and it turned out that there was no Alice.

Teana said: "Wait a minute, she is in the special space of the Seven Great Guilds."

The special spaces set up by the seven guilds are being explored by Alice with Olmar, Mitomon and Steig.

"Damn, Lu Yang's people are just like lunatics. I can't break their defense for so long after attacking the Skysword Fortress." Steiger cursed angrily.

Olma took a sneer look at Steiger and said, "It doesn't look like German players."

Steiger stared at Olma suddenly and said, "Someone you repeat again."

Olma was unconvinced and stared at Steiger. The younger Olma had black skin, colorful heads, and two big eyes staring like stupid donkeys.

Sanyouweimon shook his head and said, "Are we going to quarrel before we cooperate? Would you like to fight?"

Olma and Steig then stopped, each looking to one side and no longer talking.

Gelgar stepped forward and said, "Let me first say that with our existing players, it is impossible to lay the tiger fortress, and Lu Yang has achieved a decisive battle victory in the battle tonight. There is no need to fight. "

Stephen nodded and said, "I agree that if you want to attack a fortress like Tiger, you can't tell the winner without millions of players taking turns to attack for more than ten days."

Alice frowned and asked, "What about the more than 100 guilds? Isn't it a pity to just give up?"

Sanyouweimen nodded and said, "It's a pity that without their restraint, our battle with Lu Yang is only five or five. If they join, our winning percentage will increase by at least 20%."

Olma anxiously asked: "What do you have to say directly, why do you have to talk to Yunshan every time."

Mitomonemon smiled and said, "I mean it is simple. The presidents of more than 100 guilds are nothing more than trying to find us to equip and supply equipment to support subsequent wars. I think all of you here still have it's better for each of us to give them a part of the supply, so that they have enough ability to continue the war, what do you think? "

Orma turned his eyes and looked at the others, and found that Jerz and Stephen were also looking at each other.

"Hey, it's okay to give them some supplies." Liu Jie spoke suddenly, and he coughed, watching everyone look at him, and then said, "Tonight, we must send the supplies to their hands. So that they will do their best tomorrow. "

Sanyouweimen glanced at Liu Jie, a conspiracy smile appeared on his face, and said, "I agree."

Olma understood it and said, "I'm casual, but it's just throwing out hundreds of thousands."

Stephen and others all understood, and nodded and agreed.

Mitomonemon looked respectfully at Alice and said, "Then please ask Alice to tell us, and we will prepare the supplies for them."

Alice knows what everyone means. It's nothing more than a loss. His method is to renew his life in time when the cannon fodder teammates most need resupply, but this renewal only lasts once or twice. Once the teammates Seeing hope, they must give their full assistance, but when the third replenishment was needed, they delayed to say that there was a problem, and let them pay for it first and replenish it later.

Next, it was the cannon fodder teammates who heard the hopes again and again, but made advances again and again until these people went bankrupt, the guild closed, and even the family broke down before they stopped. This is a damaging trick.

“I’ll go and tell them now.” Alice smiled elegantly, her body turned into a light into the special space of Teana.

Teana and others were waiting anxiously, and suddenly seeing the light flashing around them, they knew that Alice was here, and they all rushed up.

“Alice, we hit Lu Yang as you requested, but why the Seven Great Guilds couldn’t get in.”

“Are they kidding us? If I continue to do this, I will surrender Lu Yang and beat them.”

...

Alice watched the people around her growling at her constantly, making all kinds of angry expressions, her heart filled with contempt and contempt, she coughed gracefully, and said, “I brought supplies.”

“Supply?” Everyone whispered at the same time, all looking at Alice with surprise eyes.

“Do you say we have supplies? How much?” Teana asked.

Alice looked around and said: “It is enough for each of you to support for 2 days, and subsequent supplies will continue to be delivered until Lu Yang’s defeat.”

“Really?” Yifeng asked leisurely.

Alice chuckled and said, “What do I lie to you? Is it good for me?”

Tianyi and Yifeng will take a long breath, showing their relaxed expressions. What they are most afraid of is the Seven Guilds unloading and killing donkeys. Now it seems that they have hope.

“So what do we do now? If we continue to fight like this, Lu Yang will surely break us all.” The girl Yaran asked.

“Yeah, what do we do now? If it is broken, it will be a problem to reassemble in Lu Yang’s area.” Yi Zui Fang Xiu said.

You want to teleport from Tianyu Shencheng to the area where Luyang is located. It can only be in the area where Luyang was originally, or when he flew to Tianyu Shencheng, at the point where he left. Yang only needs to send a small number of people to squat nearby, and then they return from the Celestial City, and they can knock down those who fly back.
